وَالْإِلَىٰ مَدِينَةٍ أَخَاهُمْ شُعَيْبًا فَقَالَ يَنْقُومُوا عِبَادُوا اللَّهَ وَارْجُوا الْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ وَلَا تَقْعُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ مُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ الرَّجْفَةُ فَأَصْبَحُوا فِي دَارِهِمْ جِثِيمِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَعَادًا وَثَمُودًا وَقَدْ تَبَيَّنَ لَكُمْ مِنْ مَسْكَانِهِمْ وَرَزَقَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَلَهُمْ فَصَدَّهُمْ عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَكَانُوا مُسْتَبْصِرِينَ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَقُرُوبَ وَفِرْعَوْنَ وَهَمَانَ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مُوسَىٰ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَأَسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كَانُوا سَافِقِينَ ﴿٣٩﴾ فَاذْنًا بِذُنُوبِهِمْ فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِ حَاصِبًا وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَخَذَتْهُ الصَّيْحَةُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ خَسَفْنَا بِهِ

الْأَرْضَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَغْرَقْنَا وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُظْلِمَهُمْ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ
يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾

(36) We sent to Madyan their brother Shu'ayb. He said, "O my people! Worship Allāh, anticipate the Last Day and do not spread corruption on earth." (37) They denied him, so an earthquake seized them and they lay kneeling down in their homes. (38) And We destroyed the Ād and the Thamūd, whose condition became apparent to you by their dwellings. Devil (Shaytan) beautified their deeds for them and prevented them from the straight path even though they were people of deep insight. (39) And We destroyed Qārūn, pharaoh (Fir'aun) and Hāmān. Without doubt, Mūsa came to them with clear signs, but they were arrogant on earth. They could still not escape. (40) We seized each of them on account of his sin. Against one of them We sent a violent wind. One of them was seized by a shout. One of them was swallowed by the ground and we drowned another. Allāh was never One to oppress them, but they used to oppress themselves.

THE DESTRUCTION OF MADYAN, PHARAOH (FIR'AUN), HĀMĀN AND QĀRŪN

These verses make mention of some of the previously destroyed nations. Allāh begins by saying, "We sent to Madyan their brother Shu'ayb. He said, 'O my people! Worship Allāh, anticipate the Last Day and do not spread corruption on earth.'" He reminded them that they will have to answer to Allāh on the Day of Judgement, when they will not be able to conceal anything. As mentioned in many previous Surahs like Surah Hūd and Surah Shu'arā, Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام enjoined his people to desist from their practice of cheating in weight and measure.

However, despite his efforts, "They denied him, so an earthquake seized them and they lay kneeling down in their homes." The earthquake followed a scream, which has already been mentioned in previous Surahs.

Allāh continues to say, "And We destroyed the Ād and the Thamud, whose condition became apparent to you by their dwellings." The ruins of their once powerful civilizations still lie in full view of people who wish to see them.

"Devil (Shaytān) beautified their deeds for them and prevented them from the straight path even though they were people of deep insight." Despite their deep insight and intelligence, Devil (Shaytān) still managed to beguile them by enticing them with the pleasures of this world.

"And We destroyed Qārūn, pharaoh (Fir'aun) and Hāmān. Without doubt, Mūsa came to them with clear signs, but they were arrogant on earth." They considered it below their dignity to believe in Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, as Allāh says in Surah Mu'minūn, "They said, 'Should we believe in two humans like ourselves whereas their people are our slaves?'" [Surah 23, verse 47]

In Surah Zukhruf Allāh quotes pharaoh (Fir'aun) as saying, "Am I not better than this person who is ignoble and can hardly express himself?" Eventually pharaoh (Fir'aun) was drowned with his entire army, because, despite their resources, "They could still not escape (Allāh's punishment).

Referring to all the destroyed nation, Allāh says, "We seized each of them on account of his sin. Against one of them We sent a violent wind." This occurred to the Ād, who suffered a tempest lasting seven nights and eight days [Surah Hāqa (69), verses 5-7].

"One of them was seized by a shout." This refers to the Thamūd, as mentioned in Surah Hūd. "One of them (Qārūn) was swallowed by the ground" (as mentioned in Surah Qasas). "and we drowned another" {referring to pharaoh (Fir'aun)}."

"Allāh was never One to oppress them (by punishing them without perpetrating a sin), but they used to oppress themselves." They were all destroyed on account of their sins, for refusing to accept the truth and for adhering to disbelief.

مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ كَمَثَلِ الْعَنْكَبُوتِ اتَّخَذَتْ بَيْتًا
وَأِنَّ أَوْهَنَ الْبُيُوتِ لَبَيْتُ الْعَنْكَبُوتِ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ
مَا يُدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَذَلِكَ الْأَمَثَلُ
نَضْرِبُهَا لِلنَّاسِ وَمَا يَعْقِلُهَا إِلَّا الْعَالِمُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ خَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ
بِالْحَقِّ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٤٤﴾

(41) The similitude of those who adopt defenders besides Allāh is like the similitude of a spider who spun a web. Without doubt, the frailest of homes is the home of the spider, if only they would understand. (42) Verily Allāh has knowledge of whatever they call to besides Himself. He is the Mighty, the Wise. (43) These are the similitude's that We coin for people. Only those with knowledge will understand them. (44) Allāh has created the heavens and the earth with the truth. There is certainly a sign in them for the believers.

THE HOPES THAT THE POLYTHEISTS ENTERTAIN IN THEIR GODS IS LIKE THE WEB OF A SPIDER

Allāh cites the example of those people who pin their hopes in the gods that they worship, thinking that these gods will be of assistance to them. Allāh says, "The similitude of those who adopt defenders besides Allāh is like the similitude of a spider who spun a web. Without doubt, the frailest of homes is the home of the spider, if only they would understand." In comparison to the homes and lairs of all other animals, the spider's web is the weakest and most vulnerable. Just as fragile is the belief of those who worship others besides Allāh. Their hope in the assistance of these gods will be of no avail to them.

"Verily Allāh has knowledge of whatever they call to besides Himself He is the Mighty, the Wise. These are the similitude's that We coin for people. Only those with knowledge will understand them." Those who do not wish to understand will not be able to.

"Allāh has created the heavens and the earth with the truth (i.e. with certain wisdom). There is certainly a sign in them for the believers." Only the believers can benefit from these signs because they are inclined to them. The disbelievers refuse to believe even though they may perceive the truth.

PART TWENTY-ONE

أَتْلُ مَا أُوحِيَ إِلَيْكَ مِنَ الْكِتَابِ وَأَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ إِنَّ الصَّلَاةَ تَنْهَى عَنِ
الْفَحْشَاءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ وَلَذِكْرُ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَصْنَعُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾

(45) Recite the Book which has been revealed to you and establish Salāh. Verily Salāh prevents obscenity and evil. Without doubt, the remembrance of Allāh is greatest. Allāh knows what you do.

THE COMMAND TO RECITE THE QUR'ĀN AND TO ESTABLISH SALĀH

The first of the two commands issued in the above verse is to "Recite the Book which has been revealed to you..." The Qur'ān should be recited during Salāh, when alone, in public, and at all other times.

The second of the two commands is "and establish Salāh." Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'il, "Establish Salāh from the setting of the sun until darkness of the night..." [Surah 17, verse 78]

Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 114] states, "And establish Salāh at the two ends of the day and during portions of the night." Although all these commands are addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم they apply equally to his Ummah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

Allāh says in Surah Baqarah [Surah 2, verse 43], "Establish Salāh and pay Zakāh." Ulema (Scholars) state that the "establishment" of Salāh refers to performing Salāh, taking heed of all the Sunan and Mustahabbāt (Preferable), and with proper concentration and humility. This will also entail performing the Fardh Salāh in congregation.

"SALĀH PREVENTS OBSCENITY AND EVIL"

After commanding the performance of Salāh, Allāh adds, "Verily Salāh prevents obscenity and evil." If Salāh is performed as it should be performed, it will surely prevent a person from committing sins. All aspects of Salāh like the recitation of Qur'ān, Ruku (genuflexion), Sajdah (prostration), concentration, etc, must be carried out to the finest degree possible. The more a person corrects these aspects, the more effective will his Salāh be in preventing him from sin. The less attention he pays to these aspects, the longer will his Salāh take to achieve this aim.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that a person once complained to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about another man who performed Salāh during the night, yet stole during the day. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commented that the person's Salāh will soon stop him from the evil. [Ruhul Ma'āni]

Another factor to be remembered is that although Salāh prevents people from sin, the onus also rests on the person to refrain from sin. Just as a lecturer urges people to act, the onus rests with them to act or remain passive. Only those people who wish to refrain will be able to do so. Some Ulema (Scholars) say that, at the minimum, Salāh will prevent a person from sin during the course of his Salāh, e.g. a person cannot commit sins on the street when engaged in Salāh.

THE VIRTUE OF ALLĀH'S REMEMBRANCE

"Without doubt, the remembrance of Allāh is greatest." Allāh's remembrance is the lifeblood of the universe. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will not take place if there is even one person saying "Allāh! Allāh!" [Muslim v. 1 p. 84]

Salāh is full of Allāh's remembrance. Allāh says in Surah TāHā, "Establish Salāh for My remembrance." From the beginning of the Salāh until the end, a person is constantly engaged in remembrance of Allāh. Even his tongue is involved in active during Salāh.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was engaged in remembrance of Allāh at all times [Muslim]. Although every virtuous deed may be included in the wide interpretation of Allāh's remembrance, verbal remembrance of Allāh is an act that is not confined to any time or place. It may be engaged in even in the state of impurity. [However, recitation of the Qur'ān is forbidden when a person is impure].

Recitation of the Qur'ān, of "Subhān Allāh", "Al Hamdu Lillāh", "Allāhu Akbar", etc are all forms of remembrance of Allāh. Sending salutations upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (Durūd or Salawāt) is also regarded as remembrance of Allāh.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that a person will receive the reward of a good deed for reciting even a single letter of the Qur'ān, each reward being multiplied ten fold. [Tirmidhi]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the recitation of "Subhā Nallāh Wal Hamdu Lillāh Wa Lā illāha Illallāhu Wallāhu Akbar" is more beloved to him than everything upon which the sun rises. [Mishkāt p. 200]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the words "Subhā Nallāhi Wabi Hamdihi Subhān Nallāhil Azīm" is light on the tongue, heavy on the scales and beloved to Allāh. [Bukhari]

A hadith in Tirmidhi reports the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying that the person who recites "Subhā Nallāhil Azīm Wabi Hamdini" has planted a tree for himself in Heaven.

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he met Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام on the night in which he was taken to the heavens. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام told him to convey his greetings to the Ummah and to tell them that Heaven is a fertile land with good water, but bare. The plants of Heaven is the recitation of "Subhā Nallāh Wal Hamdu Lillāh W Lā ilāha Illalāhu Walāhu Akbar" [Tirmidhi]. Therefore, the person who enters the Hereafter without any deeds to his credit will receive a bare piece of ground.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once struck a branch of dry leaves, causing them to fall to the ground. Thereupon, he said, "Subhā Nallāh', 'Alhamdu Lillāh', 'Lā ilāha Illalāh' and 'Allāhu Akbar' all eradicate sins just as these leaves are shed." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the best of all remembrance is the recitation of 'Lā ilāha Illallāh,' and the best of du'ās is 'Alhamdu Lillāh.'" [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once asked him if he should show him the treasures of Heaven. When Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه requested to be informed, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that it is the recitation of "Lā Hawla Wa Lā Quwwata Illā Billāh hil Aliyyil Azīm." [Bukhari p. 449]

In view of all these virtues, a person should not waste a second without investing it in remembrance. Many people while away their lives after retirement in reading newspapers and talking about other people and events. They should rather invest their valuable time in remembrance so that they would not have to regret in the Hereafter.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that every gathering in which Allāh is not remembered will be a source of harm for people. If Allāh wills, He may punish them for it, or forgive them. [Tirmidhi]

A person once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "The acts of Islām are numerous. Advise me about something upon which I may be constant." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Your tongue should be ever moist with Allāh's remembrance." ["Mishkāt" p. 198]

Another person asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the most virtuous deed. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that the most virtuous deed is for one to leave this world while his/her tongue is moist with Allāh's remembrance. ["Mishkāt" p. 198]

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Besides Allāh's remembrance, do not talk excessively because excessive talk causes the heart to harden. Without doubt, the person farthest from Allāh is the one with a hard heart." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that everything has a polish, and the polish of the heart is Allāh's remembrance. He also added that nothing is more effective than remembrance in saving one from Allāh's punishment. Thereupon the Sahabah رضى الله عنه asked,

"Not even Jihād in Allāh's way?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Not even Jihād in Allāh's way. Even if a person fights until his sword breaks, it will not be more effective than remembrance in saving him from punishment." ["Mishkāt" p. 199]

"Allāh knows what you do." According to His wisdom, He will either punish or reward people.

❖ وَلَا تُجَادِلُوا أَهْلَ الْكِتَابِ إِلَّا بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْهُمْ وَقُولُوا ءَامَنَّا بِالَّذِي أُنزِلَ إِلَيْنَا وَأُنزِلَ إِلَيْكُمْ وَإِلَهُنَا وَإِلَهُكُمْ وَاحِدٌ وَنَحْنُ لَهُ مُسْلِمُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ فَالَّذِينَ ءَاتَيْنَهُمُ الْكِتَابَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ وَمِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِهِ وَمَا يَجْحَدُ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَّا الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَمَا كُنْتَ تَتْلُو مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مِنْ كِتَابٍ وَلَا تَخُطُّ بِيَمِينِكَ إِذَا لَا تَرَابَ الْمُبِطُوتِ ﴿٤٨﴾ بَلْ هُوَ آيَاتٌ يَنْتَ فِي صُدُورِ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ وَمَا يَجْحَدُ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَّا الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا أَنْزَلَ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتٌ مِنْ رَبِّهِ قُلْ إِنَّمَا الْآيَاتُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَإِنَّمَا أَنَا نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَكْفِهِمْ أَنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ يُتْلَى عَلَيْهِمْ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَرَحْمَةً وَذِكْرَى لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥١﴾

(46) Debate with the People of the Book only with that which is best; except those of them who are unjust. And say, "We believe in what was revealed to us and what was revealed to you. Our Deity and your Deity is One and we surrender to Him." (47) Thus have We revealed the Book to you. So those, to whom We have given the Book believe in it, and there are some of them as well who believe in it. Only the disbelievers reject Our verses. (48) Before this, you were unable to recite any book, neither could you write with your right hand. Otherwise, the people of falsehood would be cast into doubt. (49) But this Qur'ān is in itself a compilation of clear proofs in the hearts of those given knowledge. Only the oppressors reject Our verses. (50) They say, "Why are signs not revealed to him from his Lord?" Say, "Signs are all in Allāh's control. I am but a clear warner." (51) Is it not sufficient for them that we have revealed a Book to you, which is recited to them? There is certainly mercy and a reminder in it for the believing folk.

THE MANNER OF DEBATING WITH THE AHLUL KITĀB (PEOPLE OF THE BOOK)

Allāh says, "Debate with the People of the Book (the Jews and Christians) only with that which is best..." The Jews and Christians also believe in Allāh and know that Allāh has sent many Prophets عليهم السلام for the guidance of mankind. A Muslim therefore does not have to debate with them regarding these issues, but only with regard to the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, which they reject.

They must also be corrected about alterations they have made in their scriptures and the divinity they have attributed to Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and Sayyidina Uzayr عليه السلام.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم migrated to Madinah, he was confronted by the Jews and also the Christians of Najrān. Many discussions and debates ensued. The first 80 verses of Surah Āl Imrān were revealed with regard to the Christian delegation from Najrān. In this discussion, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was instructed to challenge them to Mubāhala (mutual imprecation to prove truth of one's points). The challenge is issued in verse 61, where Allāh says, "Whoever disputes with you concerning this after the knowledge has come to you, then say to them, 'Come! We shall summon your sons and our sons, your wives and our wives, yourselves and ourselves. Then we shall collectively supplicate sincerely (to Allāh) to invoke His curse upon the liars."

Allāh says in verse 125 of Surah Nahl (Surah 16), "Call to the path of your Lord with wisdom and 'Mow 'idhatul Hasanah' and debate with them in manner that is best." In this verse, the command is given to call people in general, whereas the above verse of Surah Ankabūt refers to the Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book) especially. They should be addressed in soft tones and without anger. Preaching in this manner is more effective. Even those who are arrogant should be addressed cordially, with the best of manners.

Of course, the verse makes the exception, "except those of them who are unjust." People who are totally uncompromising and harsh should be addressed in a manner most suitable to curb their irrationality.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes from Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله that "those of them who are unjust" refers to those Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book):

- ❏ Who say that Allāh has a son.
- ❏ Who commit polytheism (shirk).
- ❏ Who say that Allāh is a pauper (refer to Surah 3, verse 181).
- ❏ Who say that Allāh's hand is tied in miserliness (refer to Surah 5, verse 64).

Since such statements are prone to infuriate a Muslim, he will be excused for not being cordial in these cases.

"And say, 'We believe in what was revealed to us (Qur'ān) and what was revealed to you (the original Torah and original Injil). Our deity and your deity is One and we surrender to Him.'" Since there is no apparent reason for confrontation in the light of the above common grounds, the Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book) have no reason to reject the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Jews used to read the Torah in Hebrew and translate it for the Arabs. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised the Muslims saying, "Neither believe them, nor falsify them. Rather say,"

And say, 'We believe in what was revealed to us and what was revealed to you. Our Deity and your Deity is One and we surrender to Him.'

This was instructed because one can never be certain about the authenticity of their narrations. Therefore, the narrations quoted from the Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book) (called Isrā'iliyāt) cannot be authenticated, even though they have been reported by the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم. Therefore, no laws of Halāl and Harām can be deduced from them.

"Thus have We revealed the Book to you." i.e. The Qur'ān was revealed just as the previous scriptures were revealed. "So those to whom We have given the Book {i.e. the Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book)} believe in it (i.e. in the Qur'ān), and there are some of them (i.e. the Polytheists of Makkah) as well who believe in it. Only the disbelievers reject Our verses." Those who reject the Qur'ān are the people who choose to hide the truth and remain adamant on falsehood.

A CLEAR PROOF TO THE PROPHETHOOD OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was born in Makkah, where he spent his entire life. The people of Makkah knew very well that he was unlettered. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was unable to read and write. Even the Jews and Christians knew from their scriptures that the final Prophet to man will be such. However, when he called them to Islām, they rejected his message.

Instead of responding to his call, they said, "A human teaches him." They said this even though they acknowledged that they were unable to produce a single Surah to match any of those in the Qur'ān. It is therefore evident that a man could not have composed the like of the Qur'ān, which could not be challenged by even the greatest poets and the most eloquent speakers. If no man could match it, how could an unlettered person write it?

Besides, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم even informed the Jews about incidents that were known exclusively by them and made them aware of the serious alterations that they made in the Torah. He taught true beliefs and a vibrant, acceptable Shari'ah. This could not have been the achievement of any ordinary person, thus proving that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was certainly Allāh's messenger.

In the light of the above it would be easy to understand the verse where Allāh says, "Before this, you were unable to recite any book, neither could you write with your right hand. Otherwise, the people of falsehood would be cast into doubt." If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was lettered, the disbelievers could have easily said that he had written the Qur'ān himself. However, it is now impossible for them to make this claim.

"But this Qur'ān is in itself a compilation of clear proofs in the hearts of those given knowledge. Only the oppressors reject Our verses." Despite the fact that the Qur'ān is miraculous in nature, there will always be those obstinate few who will stop at nothing to falsify the Qur'ān.

Note: Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "...those who follow the unlettered Nabi (Prophet)," while the above verse says, "Before this, you were unable to recite any book, neither could you write with your right hand." These two verses prove a miracle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم; the miracle is that he was an ocean of knowledge despite the fact that he was unlettered.

Some Ulema (scholars) are of the opinion that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم learnt to read and write towards the end of his life. In substantiation, they quote the episode of Hudaibiyyah where the scribe of the peace treaty, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, wrote, "This is what Muhammad, the messenger of Allāh, has decided." Thereupon, the polytheist representative, Sahl bin Amr, objected that he substitute "Muhammad, the messenger of Allāh" with "Muhammad, the son of Abdullāh." He said that if they (the polytheists) accepted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as Allāh's messenger, there would not have been any dispute.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه to write "Muhammad, the son of Abdullāh," but Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه could not bring himself to do it because of his excessive respect for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then took the parchment from him and himself wrote, "This is what Muhammad, the son of Abdullāh, has decided." [Muslim v. 2 p. 105]

Other Ulema (Scholars) have mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave the parchment over to another scribe to add these words, but the narrator of the hadith interpreted this as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself writing.

However, this interpretation is not necessary because the episode could also have been a miracle. It must also be borne on mind that for a person to be able to write a few words does not necessarily make him a lettered person.

Allāh continues to say, "They say, 'Why are signs not revealed to him from his Lord?'" Here they referred to the miracles that they demanded to see. Allāh replies by saying, "Say, 'Signs (miracles) are all in Allāh's control. I am but a clear warner.'" All the Prophets عليهم السلام were unable to produce miracles of their own accord.

"Is it not sufficient for them that we have revealed a Book to you, which is recited to them?" The Qur'ān is a miracle in itself, which does not need to be corroborated by another miracle. Describing the Qur'ān, Allāh then says, "There is certainly mercy and a reminder in it for the believing folk."

قُلْ كَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ شَهِيدًا يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِالْبَاطِلِ وَكَفَرُوا بِاللَّهِ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾
وَيَسْتَعْجِلُونَكَ بِالْعَذَابِ وَلَوْلَا أَجَلٌ مُّسَمًّى لَّجَاءَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ وَلَيَأْتِيَنَّهُمْ بَغْتَةً وَهُمْ لَا
يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ يَسْتَعْجِلُونَكَ بِالْعَذَابِ وَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ لَمُحِيطَةٌ بِالْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٥٤﴾ يَوْمَ يَغْشَاهُمْ
الْعَذَابُ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَمِنْ تَحْتِ أَرْجُلِهِمْ وَيَقُولُ ذُو قُوَّةٍ أَمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾

(52) Say, "Allāh suffices as a Witness between myself and yourselves. He knows what is in the heavens and the earth. Those who believe in falsehood and disbelieve in Allāh are the true losers." (53) They seek to rush you with punishment. If it were not for a prescribed term, the punishment would have certainly come to them. It will definitely come to them suddenly when they do not perceive. (54) They seek to rush you with the punishment whereas Hell will certainly envelope the disbelievers... (55) ....on the day when the punishment will envelope them from above and from beneath their feet. It will then be said to them, "Taste what you used to do."

THE PUNISHMENT FOR DISBELIEF

When the disbelievers refused to believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم despite witnessing the miracle of the Qur'an, Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to announce to them, "Allāh suffices as a Witness between myself and yourselves. He knows what is in the heavens and the earth." Allāh is Aware of the message that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preached to the people, as well as the replies they gave him. Allāh will correspondingly punish them.

"Those who believe in falsehood and disbelieve in Allāh are the true losers." In another verse Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "Verily the losers are those who put themselves and their families at a loss on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Behold! That is the evident loss." This is so because their deeds will admit them all into Hell.

The disbelievers never believed in the warnings of punishment and used to foolishly request the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to bring it upon them. Punishment was never in the power of any Prophet of Allāh; therefore, when no punishment came to them immediately, they doubted the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم prophethood.

It was in reply to this that Allāh says, "They seek to rush you with punishment. If it were not for a prescribed term, the punishment would have certainly come to them. It will definitely come to them suddenly when they do not perceive." Even if no punishment afflicts the disbeliever in this world, his punishment begins with his death. He will begin to suffer in the grave, after which he will be further tormented on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Eventually, they will suffer the worst punishment in Hell. Describing the same Allāh says, "They seek to rush you with the punishment whereas Hell will certainly envelope the disbelievers on the day when the punishment will envelope them from above and from beneath their feet. It will then be said to them, 'Taste (the consequences of the deeds) what you used to do.

يَعْبَادِيَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ اَرْضِي وَسِعَةٌ فَايْتَنِي فَاَعْبُدُونِ ﴿٥٦﴾ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ ذَٰئِقَةُ
 الْمَوْتِ ثُمَّ اِلَيْنَا تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّٰلِحٰتِ لَنُبَوِّئَنَّهُمْ مِّنَ
 الْجَنَّةِ غُرَفًا تَجْرٰى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا اَلْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا نِعَمَ اَجْرِ الْعَمِلِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾ الَّذِينَ
 صَبَرُوا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ وَكَأَيِّن مِّن دَآئِبَةٍ لَا تَحْمِلُ رِزْقَهَا اللّٰهُ يَرْزُقُهَا

(56) O My believing bondsmen! Indeed my earth is vast, so worship Me only. (57) Every soul shall taste death, after which you will all be returned to Us. (58) As for those who believe and do good deeds, We will certainly settle them in balconies of paradise (Jannah), beneath which rivers flow. There they shall abide forever. What a grand reward for those who act... (59) "..... those who exercise patience and who trust only in their Lord. (60) How many are the animals who do not carry their own provision? Allāh sustains them and you (people) as well. He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing.

THE IMPORTANCE AND NECESSITY OF IMMIGRATION

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 472) reports that there were many Muslims living in Makkah who could not express their Islām fearing persecution from the polytheists. Encouraging them to immigrate, Allāh revealed the verse saying, "O My believing bondsmen! Indeed my earth is vast, so worship Me only."

By then many Sahābah رضى الله عنهم had already immigrated to Madinah and Abyssinia because they could not live as free Muslims in Makkah. Allāh had promised the Muslims assistance if they immigrated. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "He who migrates in Allāh's way shall find in the land an abundance of pastures and vastness. Whoever will leave his home migrating towards Allāh and His messenger, and is then overtaken by death, most assuredly his reward is assured by Allāh. Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." [Surah 4, verse 100]

Many people do not immigrate because of the difficulty entailed in relocating. They fear one of two things, either facing death at the hands of an enemy, or starvation and poverty. Although unable to practise Islām in the places where they reside, Muslims may be reluctant to migrate because they do not have these fears where they are.

"EVERY SOUL SHALL TASTE DEATH"

In reply to both of the above fears, Allāh declares, "Every soul shall taste death, after which you will all be returned to Us." Every person has to die, whether it be in his hometown or in the place to which he migrates. However, the immense rewards of migration will be realised after he has left this world and stands before Allāh. On the contrary, he will have to suffer untold punishment if he fails to migrate.

"As for those who believe and do good deeds, We will certainly settle them in balconies of Heaven, beneath which rivers flow. There they shall abide forever. What a grand reward for those who act, (i.e.) those who exercise patience and trust only in their Lord." Therefore, people should not sacrifice the tremendous rewards of the Hereafter merely for one's home and wealth in this perishable world.

THE PRESCRIBED SUSTENANCE WILL BE RECEIVED BY ALL

"How many are the animals who do not carry their own provision? Allāh sustains them and you (people) as well." There are two interpretations of this verse. The first is that Allāh grants each animal its sustenance wherever it may be without it having to take its provisions along with it. The second interpretation is that the animals do not store food for future use, but eat as and when the need arises. Animals never exert themselves to find means of earning a living, but are sustained by Allāh. Therefore, when migrating, a Muslim should not be concerned about his sustenance. Allāh will take care of it.

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If you rely on Allāh as He deserves to be relied on, He will sustain you like he sustains the birds. They emerge hungry in the morning and return with a full belly in the evening." ["Mishkāt" p. 452]

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a person's sustenance follows him just as his death follows him. ["Mishkāt" p. 454]

"He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing." Allāh knows well who immigrates sincerely and with reliance in Him. He is aware of those who truly cannot migrate and those who simply make excuses.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم migrated to Madinah, it was incumbent on all Muslims to do so as well. If anyone did not do so, his Imān was doubted. Of course, there were those who were truly unable to do so. However, the compulsion was lifted when the Muslims conquered Makkah.

There will always be a time when Muslims may be forced to migrate from their countries in order to preserve their belief (Imān) and Islām. If they fail to migrate in such conditions where they are unable to practice Islām, they will be guilty of a grave sin. The details of this are to be found in the commentary of verse 100 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4).

وَلِإِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ فَأَنَّى يُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ اللَّهُ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَقْدِرُ لَهُ إِنْ أَرَادَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمٌ ﴿٦٢﴾ وَلِإِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ نَزَّلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَحْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَوْتِهَا لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾

(61) If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth and subjugated the sun and the moon, they will definitely reply, "Allāh!" So whence are they wandering astray? (62) Allāh increases sustenance for whoever He wills of His bondsmen and straitens. Verily Allāh has knowledge of all things. (63) If you ask them who sends rain from the sky, thereby reviving the earth after its death, they will certainly reply, "Allāh!" Say, "All praise belongs to Allāh ' but most of them have no understanding.

THE PROOF OF ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD)

With regard to the disbelievers, Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth and subjugated the sun and the moon (appointing set functions for them), they will definitely reply, 'Allāh!' So whence are they wandering astray?" Since they admit that Allāh created these phenomena, why do they still refuse to submit to Him? What are they heading towards?

Just as Allāh has no partner in the creation of the universe, none is a partner to Him in the distribution of sustenance either. Allāh says, "Allāh increases sustenance for whoever He wills of His bondsmen and straitens. Verily Allāh has knowledge of all things." Therefore, none can question Him about His choice in granting abundance to some people, while not giving anything to others. He knows best why He does as He does.

"If you ask them who sends rain from the sky, thereby reviving the earth after its death, they will certainly reply, 'Allāh!' Say, 'All praise belongs to Allāh,' but most of them have no understanding." The disbelievers even admit that Allāh controls the way things happen, yet they do not utilise their intelligence to submit to Him.

وَمَا هَذِهِ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا إِلَّا لَهُوٌّ وَلَعِبٌ وَإِنَّ الدَّارَ الْآخِرَةَ لَهِيَ الْحَيَوَانُ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ

(64) The life of this world is mere futility and play. Without doubt, the life of the Hereafter is true life. If only they knew.

THE LIFE OF THIS WORLD IS MERE FUTILITY AND PLAY, WHEREAS REAL LIFE IS THAT OF THE HEREAFTER

The above verse makes it clear that, irrespective of the duration of a person's life in this world, it cannot be compared to the eternity of the Hereafter. The pleasures of this world will be of no use to man's existence in the Hereafter.

When children play games, imagining that they own restaurants and shops, they still approach their mothers when they get hungry. If the mother has to say that the children have their own restaurants to eat from, the children laugh and say that these are only imaginary and of no use. Similar is the case of this world. People revel in the pleasures and wealth they accumulate. Although the profits of the world may be useful to them while in the world, these will be useless to them in the Hereafter. The only help they will receive then will be from belief (Imān) and good deeds.

When the profits of this world cannot help them to attain their two real needs (safety from Hell and entry into Heaven), then these may well be classified as futility and play. These will be transformed only into sources of remorse and lamentation in the Hereafter.

After declaring that the world is mere futility and play, Allāh says, "Without doubt, the life of the Hereafter is true life." Those who will be admitted into Heaven will live a life of true joy and happiness, where Allāh will be eternally pleased with them. Allāh does not even make mention of the plight of the disbelievers, whose misery in the Hereafter will be far beyond the combined adversities of this world. With regard to these people, Allāh says in Surah A'la, "They will neither live nor die there." This is true because the life of misery in Hell cannot be termed "life".

"If only they knew." If people only realised that their objective should be the Hereafter, they would pay little heed to this world.

فَإِذَا رَكِبُوا فِي الْفُلِكِ دَعَوْا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ فَلَمَّا نَجَّيْنَاهُمْ إِلَى الْبَرِّ إِذَا هُمْ يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾ يَكْفُرُوا بِمَا ءَاتَيْنَاهُمْ وَلِيَتَمَنَّوْا فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا جَعَلْنَا حَرَمًا ءَامِنًا وَيُنْخَفُفُ النَّاسُ مِنْ حَوْلِهِمْ أَفِيَ الْبَطِلِ يُؤْمِنُونَ وَبِنِعْمَةِ اللَّهِ يَكْفُرُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا أَوْ كَذَّبَ بِالْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُ أَلَيْسَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوًى لِّلْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَالَّذِينَ جَاهَدُوا فِينَا لَنَهْدِيَنَّهُمْ سُبُلَنَا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمَعَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٦٩﴾

(65) When they board a ship, they supplicate to Allāh with sincere belief in Him.

But when He rescues them to land, they again begin to ascribe partners to Him...

(66) "... to show ingratitude for the things We gave them and to enjoy. Soon they will come to know. (67) Do they not see that We have made the Haram peaceful, whereas people are being ravaged around them? Do they believe in falsehood and show ingratitude for Allāh's bounties? (68) Who can be more unjust than he who invents lies against Allāh or falsifies the truth when it comes to him? Is there not an abode for the disbelievers in Hell? (69) We shall definitely show Our avenues to those who endure suffering in Our cause. Verily Allāh is certainly with those who do good.

THE INGRATITUDE OF THE POLYTHEISTS

It is common among the polytheists to ignore all their gods when faced with any adversity, and turn to Allāh devotedly. Allāh cites the example of adversities faced at sea, when people fear being shipwrecked. Allāh says, "When they board a ship, they supplicate to Allāh with sincere belief in Him."

Verse 22 of Surah Yunus (Surah 10) says that when they are overcome with this fear, they cry to Allāh saying, "If You rescue us from this, we will certainly be from among the grateful ones." However, when Allāh "rescues them to land, they again begin to ascribe partners to Him to show ingratitude for the things We gave them and to enjoy." When they find themselves in peaceful times, they forget all the promises they made and succumb to the same practices of polytheism (shirk). Allāh warns, "Soon they will come to know." They will realise the error of their ways only when they are overtaken by Allāh's punishment. Then it will be too late.

THE SPECIAL FAVOUR TO THE PEOPLE OF MAKKAH

"Do they (the people of Makkah) not see that We have made the Haram peaceful, whereas people (the other Arabs) are being ravaged around them?" Although the Arabs were constantly fighting, they all revered the sanctity of the Haram of Makkah and never touched its inhabitants.

In gratitude for this favour of Allāh, the Makkans were supposed to be the first to believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They also ought to have been grateful 'to Allāh for raising a Prophet from among them. However, they did not do this, because of which Allāh says, "Do they believe in falsehood and show ingratitude for Allāh's bounties?" It is strange that all polytheists enjoy Allāh's bounties, yet worship others.

Of the worst lies that people could attribute to Allāh is to say that He has partners. Referring to them, Allāh says, "Who can be more unjust than he who invents lies against Allāh or falsifies the truth when it comes to him? Is there not an abode for the disbelievers in Hell?" They will definitely be doomed to eternal damnation in Hell.

"We shall definitely show Our avenues to those who endure suffering in Our cause." This verse refers to all those who exert themselves for the sake of Islām, be it fighting in Jihād, opposing the disbelievers verbally or by the pen, seeking the knowledge of religion, etc. Allāh promises to open up avenues for such people, on condition that the effort is undertaken only to please Allāh.

When such an effort is undertaken, Allāh will open up the avenues of further guidance for these people. Allāh says in Surah Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, "As for those who are rightly guided, Allāh shall increase their guidance and grant them their Taqwa (piety)." [Surah 47, verse 17]

Another interpretation of the verse is that Allāh will increase their knowledge, because He increases the knowledge of those who practise their knowledge. Allāh will open the hearts of those who exert themselves in propagating the religion, He will reveal the secrets of the Qur'ān to those who exert themselves in studying and compiling commentaries of the Qur'ān. Allāh will disclose the evils of society to those who make an attempt to rid society of these, so that he may address these issues. Allāh will also inspire them to speak the words that will influence others to reform themselves. When a believer (Mu'min) is sincere in his/her efforts, Allāh's assistance is sure to be in attendance.

In a hadith Qudsi, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reports that Allāh' says, "The person who draws a hand span closer to Me, I will draw an arm's length closer to him. Whoever comes an arm's length closer to Me, I will draw four arm's lengths closer to him."

"Verily Allāh is certainly with those who do good." The 'muhsinīn' (translated above as "those who do good") are those people who:

- 📖 Believe in One Allāh without any partners.
- 📖 Believe in the finality of the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.
- 📖 Accept Islām.
- 📖 Worship Allāh with sincerity.

📖 Perform all the acts of Islām properly and with sincerity i.e. without ostentation.

📖 Carry out the acts of religion as they are commanded.

Allāh is always with such people and safeguards them from evils and calamities. In other verses of the Qur'ān, Allāh says that He loves such people and that they be given the glad tidings of Heaven.

At the beginning of Surah Ankabūt Allāh says, "Do people think that they will be left to say, 'We believe!' without being tested?" Whereas this verse informed the believers (Mu'minīn) that they will certainly face difficulties, the concluding verse of the Surah promises Allāh's assistance to and camaraderie with them.

سورة الروم

Makkan

Surah Ar-Rum

Verses 60

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْعَلَّامِ ۝ غَلِبَتِ الرُّومُ ۝ فِي آدْنَى الْأَرْضِ وَهُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِ غَلِبِهِمْ سَيَغْلِبُونَ ۝
 فِي بِضْعِ سَنٍ ۝ لِلَّهِ الْأَمْرُ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَمِنْ بَعْدُ وَيَوْمَئِذٍ يَفْرَحُ ۝
 الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ۝ يَنْصُرُ اللَّهُ يَنْصُرُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ۝
 وَعَدَ اللَّهُ لَا يُخْلِفُ اللَّهُ وَعْدَهُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝
 يَعْلَمُونَ ظَاهِرًا ۝
 مِنَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَهُمْ عَنِ الْآخِرَةِ هُمْ غَافِلُونَ ۝

In the name of Allāh, The Beneficent, The Most Merciful.

(1) Alif Lām Mīm. (2) Rome will be defeated... (3) ... in the nearer land and, after their defeat, will again be victorious... (4) ... within a few years. All affairs are in Allāh 's control from before and afterwards. And on that day the believers will rejoice... (5) ...about Allāh's assistance. Allāh assists whoever He wills, and He is the Mighty, the Most Merciful. (6) Allāh has made a promise. Allāh never breaks His promise, but most people have no knowledge. (7) They have superficial knowledge of the life of this world and are negligent of the Hereafter.

THE PROPHECY OF A ROMAN VICTORY OVER THE PERSIANS AND THE BET BETWEEN SAYYIDINA ABU BAKR رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ AND UBAYY BIN KHALAF

Commentators write that the Romans and the Persians once entered into combat. The Persians, ruled then by the Khosrau II, were polytheists, while the Romans belonged to the Ahlul Kitāb (people of the Book) because they were Christians. Therefore, the Sahābah رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ desired that the Romans win the war, while the polytheists desired that the Persians win because they were polytheists like themselves.

The two superpowers clashed in Shām (close to Arabia) at Azra'āt and Busra. The result of the battle was that the Persians defeated the Romans. When the news reached Makkah, the Muslims were extremely grieved. The polytheists began taunting them saying that their fellow polytheists had conquered the People of the Book (Christians), who were brothers to the Muslims, who were also People of the Book (Qur'an). They drew the conclusion that they would also defeat the Muslims if they ever engaged in battle.

It was then that Allāh revealed the above verses, informing the Muslims that the Romans would soon regain their strength and conquer the Persian army. In the verse, Allāh says that the Romans "after their defeat, will again be victorious within a few years." In the above verses, Allāh says that this would occur in a 'few years' without specifying the period. The Arabic word 'bidh' is used, which refers to any number between three and nine.

After these verses were revealed, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه addressed the Polytheists saying, "You people are rejoicing because those of your creed have been victorious. Do not be so glad, for, by Allāh, we will soon defeat the Persians, as our Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has informed us." Hearing this, the polytheist, Ubayy bin Khalaf, told Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه that he is lying.

Thereafter, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه took a wager with the polytheist, telling him that if the Persians are victorious within three years, he would give Ubayy ten camels. However, if the Romans defeated the Persians in this time, Ubayy will have to pay the ten camels to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. When the bet was accepted, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about it.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to increase the time period as well as the number of camels because it was certain that the Romans will defeat the Persians in three years. The period could well be longer because the word 'bidh' entailed any amount from three to nine.

Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه met with Ubayy, who, upon seeing Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, told him that it seems as if he regretted the wager. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه assured him that he was not remorseful, but proposed to increase the period and number of camels. They then mutually agreed that the period be nine years and the number of camels be a hundred. Other commentators say that the period was fixed at seven years.

Ubayy later feared that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه would leave Makkah when the time came to pay, so he asked Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to appoint a guarantor from whom the camels could be collected in his absence. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه appointed his son, Abdullāh ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"]. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that he appointed his other son, Abdur Rahmān رضى الله عنه, as a guarantor.

It later transpired that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه migrated to Madinah, after which, the battle of Uhud was about to take place. As Ubayy was leaving Makkah for the battle, Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضى الله عنه son asked him to appoint a guarantor in his absence. He complied and was later killed in the battle.

A year after the treaty of Hudaibiyyah, the Romans defeated the Persians in a decisive battle. This happened to be after the sixth year of the wager, just as the seventh year began (approximately A.D. 627). When Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه received the hundred camels from Ubayy's heirs, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed him to give them all in charity. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 3 p. 4751]

Allama Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله reports certain other narrations with regard to this incident. "Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes from Tirmidhi that the Romans defeated the Persians at the time when the battle of Badr was fought (2nd year after Hijrah). Therefore, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه collected the camels from Ubayy himself because Ubayy was killed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم during the battle of Uhud (in the 3rd year after Hijrah).

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه to give the camels in charity because the wager was a form of gambling, which is Harām (forbidden) in Islām. It was not yet declared Harām (forbidden) at the time when the wager was made.

"All affairs (including the victory and defeat of armies) are in Allāh's control from before and afterwards. And on that day the believers will rejoice about Allāh's assistance." The Muslim rejoiced because the truth of Allāh's word would be apparent to the disbelievers and because the Muslims were victorious at the battle of Badr, which was also fought at that time. Allāh's assistance was apparent during all these occasions.

"Allāh assists whoever He wills, and He is the Mighty, the Most Merciful." This verse also alludes to the assistance Allāh rendered to the Muslims after Badr.

"Allāh has made a promise. Allāh never breaks His promise, but most people have no knowledge." Most people do not have conviction in Allāh's power and His ability to fulfil His promises. They merely view matters superficially without insight into His immense power.

THOSE WHO HAVE NOT RECOGNISED ALLĀH ARE IGNORANT DESPITE THEIR WORLDLY KNOWLEDGE

"They have superficial knowledge of the life of this world, and are negligent of the Hereafter." The verse prior to this states that these people "have no knowledge" even though they possess "superficial knowledge of the life of this world." This means that they are ignorant despite possessing some knowledge. Therefore, true knowledge is only that knowledge which teaches one about Allāh and leads to His recognition. Worldly knowledge that takes a person away from Allāh is really no knowledge at all.

People who are knowledgeable in the field of technology and are materially progressive will be considered to be ignorant if they have not recognised Allāh. This is because they are unaware of the most important objectives in this world, viz, entering Heaven and being saved from Hell.

Allāh describes intelligent people in Surah Āl Imrān, where He says, "Verily in the creation of the heavens and the earth and in the alternation of the night and day are signs for those who have intelligence; those who remember Allāh standing, sitting and reclining, and ponder over the creation of the heavens and earth. (Saying) Our Lord You have not created all this in vain! We glorify Your purity so save us from the punishment of the fire." [Surah 3, verses 190 and 191]

Therefore, those who do not ponder over Allāh's greatness will be regarded as ignorant even though they have a string of degrees and inventions behind their name. Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "Can those with knowledge be equal to those who do not have knowledge?" There can be no comparison. Knowledge that does not teach one about oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and belief in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cannot be termed knowledge at all.

أَوَلَمْ يَتَفَكَّرُوا فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ مَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى وَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ بِلِقَائِ رَبِّهِمْ لَكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً وَأَثَارُوا الْأَرْضَ وَعَمَرُوهَا أَكْثَرَ مِمَّا عَمَرُوهَا وَجَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَمَا كَانُوا لِيُظْلَمَهُمْ وَلَكِن كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿٩﴾ ثُمَّ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ اسْتَوُوا السُّوْءَ أَنْ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَكَانُوا بِهَا يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ﴿١٠﴾

(8) Have they not pondered about themselves? Allāh has created the heavens and the earth with the truth and for an appointed term. Verily many people reject their meeting with their Lord. (9) Have they not travelled in the lands and seen what was the plight of those before them? Those people were mightier than them, ploughed the earth and developed the earth more than they have developed it. Their messengers also came to them. Allāh could not have oppressed them, but they used to oppress themselves. (10) Then the outcome of those who perpetrated evil was evil indeed because they falsified Allāh's signs and mocked them.

ENCOURAGEMENT TO PONDER OVER THE CREATION OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH

Although the Arabs were the first addressees of the Qur'ān, it addresses all of mankind, urging them to ponder awhile. Allāh says, "Have they not pondered about themselves? Allāh has created the heavens and the earth with the truth (i.e. to fulfil certain objectives) and for an appointed term." All of Allāh's creation serve the purpose of drawing man's attention to Allāh's existence and immense power.

The universe will exist until the dawn of Qiyāmah (doomsday), when everything will be destroyed. Then Allāh will resurrect man and Jinn in His presence to answer for all their deeds. However, "Verily many people reject their meeting with their Lord." There are many who are of the opinion that Qiyāmah (doomsday) is imaginary, while others believe in reincarnation. Allāh makes them all aware of the fact that they will be summoned to His presence on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

THE ADVICE TO TRAVEL IN THE LANDS AND TO LEARN LESSONS FROM THE RUINS OF PREVIOUS CIVILIZATIONS

"Have they not travelled in the lands and seen what was the plight of those before them? Those people were mightier than them, ploughed the earth and developed the earth more than they have developed it." The earlier civilisations built magnificent monumental masterpieces, entailing unparalleled architecture and design. They even engineered canals and other methods of irrigation. However, they had to forsake all of this when they left the world.

Allāh says, "Their messengers also came to them. Allāh could not have oppressed them, but they used to oppress themselves." When they denied the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام, they were destroyed by Allāh's punishment, causing all their buildings to be left in ruins. This was because they oppressed themselves by failing to heed the warnings of the Prophets عليهم السلام.

"Then the outcome of those who perpetrated evil was evil indeed because they falsified Allāh's signs and mocked them." They faced punishment in this world and will be facing a far worse punishment in the Hereafter.

اللَّهُ يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ ثُمَّ إِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿١١﴾ وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُبْلِسُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ مِّنْ شُرَكَائِهِمْ شُفَعَاتٌ وَكَانُوا بِشُرَكَائِهِمْ كَافِرِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُنْفِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَهُمْ فِي رَوْضَةٍ يُحْبَرُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَلِقَاءِ الْآخِرَةِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ فِي الْعَذَابِ مُحْضَرُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ فَسُبْحَنَ اللَّهِ حِينَ تُمْسُونَ وَحِينَ تُصْبِحُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَعَشِيًّا وَحِينَ تُظْهِرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ يُخْرِجُ الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْمَيِّتِ وَيُخْرِجُ الْمَيِّتَ مِنَ الْحَيِّ وَيُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا وَكَذَٰلِكَ تُخْرَجُونَ ﴿١٩﴾

(11) Allāh initiated creation and will recreate it, after which you will all be returned to Him. (12) The day when judgment day (Qiyāmah) will dawn, the criminals will lose all hope. (13) None of their partners will be intercessors for them and they will reject their partners. (14) The day when judgment day (Qiyāmah) will dawn, that day will they be in different conditions. (15) As for those who believe and do good deeds, they will be rejoicing in a garden. (16) As for those who disbelieve and falsify Our signs and the meeting of the Hereafter, these people will be exposed to punishment. (17) So glorify Allāh's purity in the evenings and in the mornings. (18) All praise is for Him in the heavens and the earth, and glorify His purity during the latter part of the day and during the afternoons. (19) He extracts the living from the dead, the dead from the living and revives the earth after its death. Thus will you be resurrected.

THERE WILL BE VARIOUS GROUPS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

"Allāh initiated creation and will recreate it (after its demise), after which you will all be returned to Him {on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)}." Describing the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), Allāh says, "The day when judgment day (Qiyāmah) will dawn, the criminals will lose all hope."

The polytheists, who think that the partners they associate with Allāh will intercede on their behalf will be dismally disappointed on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says, "None of their partners (which they ascribed to Allāh) will be intercessors for them and they will reject their partners (by claiming that they never ascribed these partners to Allāh)."

Describing the different conditions people will face on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh says, "The day when judgment day (Qiyāmah) will dawn, that day will they be in different conditions. As for those who believe and do good deeds, they will be rejoicing in a garden. As for those who disbelieve and falsify our signs and the meeting of the Hereafter, these people will be exposed to punishment."

GLORIFYING ALLĀH'S PURITY THROUGHOUT THE DAY

"So glorify Allāh's purity in the evenings and in the mornings... and during the latter part of the day and during the afternoons." These verses urge the believers (Mu'minīn) to engage in Tasbīh (glorifying) during these hours of the day.

Allāh says further, "All praise is for Him in the heavens and the earth..." The angels in the heavens and all the believers (Mu'minīn) on earth praise Allāh. In fact, even the existence of the disbelievers is ample praise for Allāh, Who created them all. This has been discussed in the commentary of verse 41 of Surah Nūr, where Allāh says, "Do you not see that everyone in the heavens and the earth glorifies Allāh, including the birds with their wings spread out? Each one knows its Salāh and method of glorification." [Surah 24, verse 41]

Although people should always glorify Allāh, the above occasions are specified because it is during these times that Allāh's bounties are most manifest. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that, when Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه was asked where the five daily Salāh are mentioned in the Qur'ān, he recited the above verses saying that the "evenings" refers to the Maghrib Salāh, "mornings" refers to the Fajr Salāh, "the latter part of the day" refers to the Asr Salāh, and "the afternoons" refers to the Zuhr Salāh. Thus, four Salāh are mentioned in these verses; and the Isha Salāh is referred to in a verse of Surah Nūr where Allāh says, "...and after the Isha Salāh." According to another narration, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentioned that the Maghrib and Isha Salāh are referred to in the word "evenings."

Because of the fact that Salāh is an embodiment of Tasbīh (glorifying), the Fardh (obligatory) Salāh have been made compulsory during the above times. Sayyidina Ubādah bin Sāmīt رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh has made the five daily Salāh obligatory so whoever will perform these properly, taking care of the correct times and the proper performance of the Ruku (genuflexion) and Sajdah (prostration), then Allāh has undertaken to forgive such a person. On the other hand, there is no such undertaking for the one who does not do so. Allāh may forgive him if He wills, otherwise He may punish him. ["Mishkāt" p. 58]

The Arabic word 'ishiy' (translated above as "the latter part of the day") actually refers to the period from after midday to sunset. It therefore refers to the Asr Salāh. However, the afternoon Salāh is only referred to thereafter, whereas it precedes the Asr Salāh. Explaining this apparent incongruity, Ulema (scholars) have mentioned that the Asr Salāh has received precedence to emphasize its importance because people are generally engrossed in trade during the time Asr, causing them to miss this Salāh. Even people particular about their Salāh tend to miss the Asr Salāh.

Elucidating His power, Allāh says, "He extracts the living from the dead, the dead from the living..." Certain commentators have interpreted this to be the lifeless testicles, from which sperm issues to form a living being. Others cite the example of the dead egg, from which a live animal or bird is born. On the other hand a dead egg is issued from a live hen.

Allāh also "revives the earth after its death." When Allāh sends the rain, plants flourish from dry earth. Allāh then draws the similitude by saying, "Thus will you be resurrected." People will also spring forth from their graves on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

Note: Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who recites the three verses above (viz, verses 17, 18 and 19) every morning will receive the reward of all his usual recitations {wirds/wazīfas (daily performance or task)} that he may have omitted. Similarly, the one who recites these verses in the evening will receive the full reward of the recitations he may have omitted.

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ إِذَا أَنْتُمْ بَشَرٌ تَنْتَشِرُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا لِتَسْكُنُوا إِلَيْهَا وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ مَوَدَّةً وَرَحْمَةً إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَأَخْلَفَ السِّنِينَ وَالْوَنُكْمُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ مَنَامُكُمْ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَابْتِغَاؤُكُمْ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ يُرِيكُمُ الْبَرْقَ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَيُنْزِلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَيُخْرِجُ بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ تَقُومَ السَّمَاءُ وَالْأَرْضُ بِأَمْرِهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ دَعْوَةً مِنَ الْأَرْضِ إِذَا أَنْتُمْ

تَخْرُجُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ شَيْءٌ لَّمْ يَكُنْ قَسِينُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي
يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ وَهُوَ أَهْوَنُ عَلَيْهِ وَلَهُ الْمَثَلُ الْأَعْلَىٰ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢٧﴾

(20) From His signs is that he has created you from sand, after which you became humans spread out on earth. (21) And from His signs is that He has created spouses for you from your own species so that you may find solace with her and He has placed love and mercy between you. There are certainly signs in this for people who contemplate. (22) And from His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth and the variation of your languages, and colours. There are certainly signs in this for those who have knowledge. (23) And from His signs is your sleep by night and by day, and your seeking from His bounty. There are certainly signs in this for those who listen. (24) And from His signs is that He shows you lightning which kindles fear and hopes. And He sends rain from the sky, thereby reviving the earth after its death. There are certainly signs in this for people who understand. (25) And from His signs is that the sky and the earth exist by His command. Then, when He will call for you from the earth, you will all immediately emerge. (26) To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. Everything is subservient to Him. (27) It is He Who initiated creation and will recreate it, which will be easier for Him. His is the Highest glory in the heavens and the earth, and He is the Mighty, the Wise.

A MANIFESTATION OF ALLĀH'S POWER AND THE PROOFS OF ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD)

The above eight verses all describe Allāh's immense power and control of the affairs of the universe. Allāh repeatedly mentions that these are signs of His magnificence. On four occasions, He states:

- 📖 "There are certainly signs in this for people who contemplate."
- 📖 "There are certainly signs in this for those who have knowledge."
- 📖 "There are certainly signs in this for those who listen."
- 📖 "There are certainly signs in this for people who understand."

By pondering over these verses, a person will realise Allāh's great powers and grandeur. The verses that follow depict the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)

Allāh begins by saying, "From His signs is that he has created you [i.e. your father, Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام] from sand, after which you became humans spread out on earth."

Allāh begins Surah Nisā by stating, "O Mankind, fear your Lord who created you from a single soul [Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام], created from it its spouse, and spread from the two multitudes of men and women." [Surah, 3 verse 1]

After creating Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام from a lifeless thing like sand, Allāh created his spouse, Sayyidah Hawwa عليها السلام. From these two, the rest of mankind flourished and prospered. Just as He created man from soil, He can resurrect him from the same soil on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), as He says, "Thus will you be resurrected."

The second sign is mentioned in the following words, "And from His signs is that He has created spouses for you from) 'your own species so that you may find solace with her..." If Allāh had not created spouses for man, life would be exceptionally difficult for him. So too would it be if the spouses were not from his own species. The verse makes it clear that the purpose of the spouse will be fulfilled when the couple are a source of comfort for each other. Women who are temperamental and disobedient become a scourge to their husbands.

Regarding the wives, Allāh says further, "..... and He has placed love and mercy between you." Even if husband and wife are from two totally different backgrounds, yet they share an unbreakable bond of love and compassion between them. This is only because of Allāh's special favour and grace.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that one would not see anything more conducive to fostering love between two people than marriage. ["Mishkāt" p. 268]

Since the married couple intend to spend their lives together in a legitimate union, they will be prepared to accommodate each other in an effort to remain peacefully together. Certain commentators have mentioned that the word "love" refers specifically to the early ages of the couple, when the satiation of their instincts force them to love each other. Thereafter, when they reach old age, they require mercy between themselves because of the stifling of their carnal passions. It is then when they usually suffer illnesses and require the merciful tenderness of each other.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised men to marry women who are loving and who are able to bear children so that he can be proud of the large numbers of his Ummah on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah). ["Mishkāt" p. 267]

The illicit union of couples outside the bond of marriage is merely to satiate carnal passions and cannot foster love. People involved in such affairs change partners whenever they feel dissatisfied with one. Since the association is not condoned by the Shari'ah, true love can never exist. These affairs, which are common in the west, produce false notions of love, which can be dissolved at the slightest provocation.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "After fear for Allāh, the believer (Mu'min) cannot receive a boon greater than a good wife. If he instructs her to do something, she obeys, and she pleases him when he looks at her. If he takes an oath, she aids him to fulfil the oath and, if he has to be out, she takes care of her chastity and his property." ["Mishkāt" p. 268]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No believing man should detest his believing wife. If he dislikes some trait in her, he should then take a liking to another trait." [Muslim]

"There are certainly signs in this for people who contemplate." If one has to ponder deeply about the relationship between man and wife, one would perceive Allāh's great power behind it.

Allāh presents the third and fourth signs in the following manner: "And from His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth and the variation of your languages and colours." Each day man has the opportunity to look at Allāh's immense power in the sky above him and in the earth beneath him.

Another great sign of Allāh's power lies in that fact that he has accorded man the ability to converse with each other. Men speak in different languages and dialects. This difference exists despite the fact that Allāh has fixed the places in the mouth and throat from which different sounds emerge, e.g. the "b" and "m" sounds are created when the two lips meet in different ways. A "b" sound cannot be made in the same manner in which a "m" sound is made. In a like manner, all other sounds emerge from different places.

These sounds are then used differently in thousands of languages around the world. These languages have different words and grammatical constructions, while many have letters and ways of pronunciation which others do not have. These differences are so vast that people speaking different languages cannot even pronounce the words of another language. All this displays Allāh's great powers.

In addition to this, it is found that a language may have different dialects, each different from another, by which a person's origin may be ascertained. Allāh has also given each person a unique voice by which s/he may be recognised. Male and female voices are also vastly different.

Allāh has also made people of different colours who have different appearances and characteristics. It is only Allāh who can create one species of creation with so many different qualities. Allāh then says, "There are certainly signs in this for those who have knowledge."

The fifth and sixth signs are contained in the verse where Allāh says, "And from His signs is your sleep by night and by day, and your seeking from His bounty." The first of these is sleep, which Allāh has created. It often occurs that people do not want to sleep, but cannot help themselves. On the other hand, some people try to sleep, but spend the entire night tossing and turning restlessly. Only Allāh grants sleep to people and He can also deprive them of the same. It is for this reason that Muslims are required to recite the relevant du'ās (supplications) for sleeping and awakening. In doing so, they are reminded of Allāh's favour. The du'ā (supplication) for awakening is:

[TRANSLATION: "All praise be to Allāh who has granted us life after granting us death (sleep), and to Him shall we be gathered (after death on the Day of judgement).]

Allāh speaks about sleep during the day because many people sleep during the afternoons (called qaylūla in Arabic). There are also many who work during the nights and have to sleep during the day.

The other bounty of Allāh mentioned is "seeking from His bounty" i.e. earning a living. Only Allāh can grant a person the ability and health to earn a living. It is up to man to reflect upon all these bounties. Allāh then says, "There are certainly signs in this for those who listen."

"And from His signs is that He shows you lightning, which kindles fear and hopes." This is the seventh sign Allāh discusses. The lightning builds people's hopes that rain is imminent, which brings great benefit. Thereafter, the eighth sign is expressed as "And He sends rain from the sky, thereby reviving the earth after its death." The rains cause dry and parched land to flourish with foliage in a very short while. "There are certainly signs in this for people who understand."

"And from His signs is that the sky and the earth exist by His command." Three verses previously, Allāh made mention of the heavens and the earth being part of His creation. In this verse, Allāh refers to the fact that these great phenomena are being maintained solely by Him. They will remain in existence for as long as Allāh desires and on the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah) they will be destroyed. It is only by Allāh's will that the skies and the earth exist as Allāh has created them initially.

Allāh says in Surah Fātir, "Verily Allāh withholds the heavens and the earth from moving. If they were ever to move, there will be none to withhold them after Him. Indeed He is Tolerant, Most Forgiving." [Surah 35, verse 41]

When Allāh will ordain that trumpet be blown for the Day of judgment (Qiyāmah), everything will cease to exist and, upon the second blowing, everyone will be summoned to appear before Him. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "Then, when He will call for you from the earth (i.e. call you from your graves), you will all immediately emerge.

Allāh then declares His Omnipotence when He says, "To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. Everything is subservient to Him."

"It is He who initiated the creation and will recreate it, which will be easier for Him." Although every action is simple for Allāh, He says that recreation will be easier so that man may not consider it impossible. The statement is merely to facilitate easier understanding for man, because this is how man behaves.

Allāh says in a hadith Qudsi, "The son of Ādam falsifies Me when he says, 'Allāh created me the first time and will never resurrect me.' However, recreating him will be easier than the initial creation" [Bukhari]. Allāh possesses the same power and might now as He possessed then.

"His is the Highest glory in the heavens and the earth, and He is the Mighty, the Wise." This verse means that all the creation in the heavens and the earth realise that Allāh's glory is supreme. He is perfectly Capable of resurrecting people because He is Mighty. According to His wisdom, He has appointed the time for Resurrection day (Qiyāmah).

ضَرَبَ لَكُمْ مَثَلًا مِّنْ أَنفُسِكُمْ هَلْ لَّكُمْ مِّنْ مَّا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُكُمْ مِّنْ شُرَكَاءَ فِي مَا
رَزَقَكُمُ فَأَنتُمْ فِيهِ سَوَاءٌ تَخَافُونَهُمْ كَخِيفَتِكُمْ أَنفُسَكُمْ كَذَلِكَ نُفَصِّلُ
الْآيَاتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ بَلِ اتَّبَعَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ فَمَنْ

يَهْدِي مَنْ أَضَلَّ اللَّهُ وَمَا لَهُمْ مِنْ نَاصِرِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾

(28) Allāh coins a similitude for you from your own selves. Are any of those (slaves) whom you own shareholders in the wealth which we have given you, making you all equal? And do you then fear them as you have fear for yourselves? Thus do We expound signs for people of understanding. (29) However, the oppressors follow their whims without any knowledge. Who can guide the one whom Allāh has sent astray? They will have no helpers.

ONENESS OF ALLĀH (TAUHĪD) IS PROVEN BY A SIMPLE EXAMPLE

Allāh asks the Polytheists whether they would like their slaves to be shareholders in their wealth, allowing them to spend it freely. Whereas slaves transport and care for the property of their masters, they have no authority to utilise the wealth. Allāh asks the polytheists if they would be pleased with the idea that they would have to seek permission from their slaves to spend their own wealth, as they would have to do if their slaves were to be their partners.

When man dislikes having partners in his property, who are human like himself, how can he expect Allāh to tolerate the behaviour of polytheists, who ascribe such partners to Him, who are incomparably inferior to Him? When others cannot be shareholders in their wealth, how can they assign shareholders in Allāh's right of worship? "Thus do We expound signs for people of understanding."

"However, the oppressors follow their whims without any knowledge." These people opt to go astray and ignorantly take any stone or brick as their god. Therefore, Allāh asks, "Who can guide the one whom Allāh has sent astray?" They will be subjected to grievous punishment against which "They will have no helpers."

فَاقْمْ وِجْهَكَ لِلدِّينِ حَنِيفًا فِطْرَتَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي فَطَرَ النَّاسَ عَلَيْهَا لَا بَدِيلَ لِخَلْقِ اللَّهِ
ذَٰلِكَ الدِّينُ الْقَيِّمُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ مُنِيبِينَ إِلَيْهِ
وَاتَّقُوهُ وَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَلَا تَكُونُوا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ مِنَ الَّذِينَ فَرَّقُوا
دِينَهُمْ وَكَانُوا شِيعًا كُلٌّ حِزْبٌ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ فَرِحُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾

(30) So, turning away from everything else, focus your attention only on this religion. Follow Allāh's natural endowment, upon which He created mankind. There can be no change to Allāh's creation. This is the upright religion, but most people do not know. (31) Follow the natural endowment turning solely to Allāh, fear Him, establish Salāh and do not be from the polytheists... (32) from those who divided their religion and have been split into many denominations, each denomination being pleased with what it has.

“FOCUS YOUR ATTENTION ONLY ON THIS RELIGION”

Although the verse addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it is intended for all of mankind. After it has been proven that polytheism (shirk) is a grave error and people have realised that they must accept the belief of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd), Allāh commands them to divert their attention from all religions and to adhere strictly to Islām.

“Follow Allāh’s natural endowment, upon which He created mankind.” Certain commentators have mentioned that “Allāh’s natural endowment” (‘fitrah’) refers to the natural ability to accept the religion of Islām.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Every child is born with ‘fitrah,’ but the parents of the child make the child a Jew, a Christian or a fire-worshipper. Just as a newborn animal is born perfectly healthy, do you see any limbs severed from it?” Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse, “Follow Allāh’s natural endowment, upon which He created mankind. There can be no change to Allāh’s creation. This is the upright religion, but most people do not know.” [Bukhari and Muslim]

Therefore, every person has been created with the natural ability to accept the truth from birth until death. Even if a person is a non-Muslim, he will be able to revert to Islām if he utilised the clear thinking ability that Allāh has instilled in him. This is referred to in the phrase “There can be no change to Allāh’s creation.” None can alter this built-in capacity within every individual. Of course, if the person opts not to utilise this ability and rather to flee from the truth, he cannot be guided by “fitrah (nature)”.

Hakīmul Ummah Thanwi رحمه الله عليه has translated “There can be no change to Allāh’s creation” as “Do not change Allāh’s creation (fitrah).” According to this translation, the verse forbids everything that hinders a person’s inclination to accept the truth e.g. irreligious literature and propagation. People are then also prohibited from attending gatherings in which things may be said, which will weaken his/her inclination to accept the truth (fitrah).

“This is the upright religion, but most people do not know. Follow the natural endowment turning solely to Allāh, fear Him, establish Salāh and do not be from the polytheists (viz.) from those who divided their religion and have been split into many denominations, each denomination being pleased with what it has.” The true religion always remains one and cannot be divided. One can follow only a single road and no other.

The various denominations found in Islām today are not really part of Islām. Only those people who follow the Qur’ān and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may be included as part of Islām, like the followers of the four schools of Islāmic jurisprudence. Those who do not conform to the Qur’ān and Ahādith cannot be regarded as Muslims even though they claim to be Muslims.

وَإِذَا مَسَّ النَّاسَ ضُرٌّ دَعَوْا رَبَّهُمْ مُنِيبِينَ إِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا أَذَاقَهُمْ مِنْهُ رَحْمَةً إِذَا فَرِيقٌ
مِّنْهُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ لِيَكْفُرُوا بِمَا ءَانَيْنَهُمْ فَتَمْتَعُوا فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾ أَمْ

أَنزَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانًا فَهُوَ يَتَكَلَّمُ بِمَا كَانُوا بِهِ يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَإِذَا أَذَقْنَا النَّاسَ رَحْمَةً فَرِحُوا بِهَا وَإِن تُصِيبَهُمْ سَيِّئَةٌ بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ أَيْدِيهِمْ إِذَا هُمْ يَقْنَطُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾

(33) When people are afflicted by an adversity, they call to their Lord, turning only to Him. Then, when He allows them to taste of His mercy, suddenly a group of them ascribe partners to their Lord... (34) ...so as to be ungrateful for what We give them. Enjoy yourselves! Soon you will come to know. (35) Or have We revealed a warrant to them, whereby they speak about what they ascribe as partners to Allāh? (36) When We allow people to taste of Our mercy, they revel in it. However, when any adversity afflicts them on account of the sins they commit, they suddenly lose hope.

MAN'S ATTITUDE TO GOOD FORTUNE AND ADVERSITY

Describing man's nature, Allāh says, "When people are afflicted by an adversity, they call to their Lord, turning only to Him (to alleviate their difficulty). Then, when He allows them to taste of His mercy (by removing the difficulty), suddenly a group of them ascribe partners to their Lord." In doing so, they are being "ungrateful for what We give them."

Allāh addresses such people saying, "Enjoy yourselves! Soon you will come to know." A similar address was discussed towards the end of Surah Ankabūt [Surah 29, verses 65, 66].

Since the polytheists know that their gods cannot help them at times of adversity, they supplicate to Allāh during such trying periods. However, they still foolishly adhere to their practices and beliefs without any warrant. Allāh says, "Or have We revealed a warrant (scripture) to them, whereby (i.e. on the authority of which) they speak about what they ascribe as partners to Allāh." The polytheists have absolutely no justification for their beliefs.

"When We allow people to taste of Our mercy, they revel in it." This revelling causes them to transgress all limits and to forget Allāh's favour on them. They then disobey Allāh's commands and fall into sin. It is with regard to such revelling that Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "Verily Allāh does not like those who revel (also translated as 'Allāh does not like the boastful')." [Surah 28, verse 76]

Allāh then describes the opposite side of man when He says, "However, when any adversity afflicts them on account of the sins they commit, they suddenly lose hope." They then behave as if they have never been blessed with any favours.

أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ فَآتَاكَ الْقُرْآنُ حَقَّهُ وَالْمَسْكِينُ وَآيَنَ السَّبِيلِ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ لِلَّذِينَ يُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَ اللَّهِ وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَمَا آتَيْتُم مِّن رَّبًّا لَّيْرَبُوا فِي أَمْوَالِ النَّاسِ فَلَا يَرَبُّوهُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَمَا آتَيْتُم مِّن زَكَاةٍ تُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَ اللَّهِ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُضْعِفُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾

اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ رَزَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ يُمِيتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يُحْيِيكُمْ هَلْ مِنْ شُرَكَائِكُمْ مَنْ
يَفْعَلُ مِنْ ذَٰلِكُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ سُبْحَنَهُ وَتَعَالَىٰ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾

(37) Do they not see that Allāh increases sustenance for whoever He wills and straitens? There are certainly signs in this for the believing folk. (38) So give the relative his right, as well as the poor and the traveller. That is best for those who seek Allāh's pleasure. These are the successful people. (39) Whatever usury you give to increase people's wealth does not increase in Allāh's sight. Whatever you give in Zakāh, seeking Allāh's pleasure, such people truly multiply (their rewards). (40) It is Allāh Who has created you, then sustains you, will then give you death and again give you life. Are there any of your partners who can do any of this? Allāh is Pure and Exalted above the partners they ascribe to Him.

THE COMMAND TO SPEND ON RELATIVES, THE POOR AND TRAVELLERS, AND THE VIRTUE OF SPENDING FOR ALLĀH'S PLEASURE

"Do they not see that Allāh increases sustenance for whoever He wills and straitens?" This fact is apparent to one and all. While some people enjoy an abundance of sustenance, others live from hand to mouth. While some earn very little after great exertion, others receive much more without any effort. There are many who have even lost their huge capital investments after much effort and planning. On the other hand, many people have only to invest a small amount which multiplies itself many fold and accumulates into millions. This is all Allāh's will and His divine plan.

Allāh tests people with wealth and also with poverty, as He deems fit according to His wisdom. While some people will fall into sin on account of their wealth, others will fall into sin because of their poverty. "There are certainly signs in this for the believing folk."

"So give the relative his right, as well as the poor and the traveller." Commentators say that Zakāh is not implied in this verse because Surah Rûm was revealed in Makkah, while Zakāh was only made obligatory in Madinah. The verse refers to optional charity and spending on relatives in an effort to maintain good relations.

"That is best for those who seek Allāh's pleasure. These are the successful people." The condition for the acceptance of this charity is that it must be done to attain Allāh's pleasure and the giver should never remind the recipient of his favour.

The details of spending on relatives, the poor, orphans and travellers have been discussed in the commentary of verse 177 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2) and verse 26 of Surah Bani Isrā'īl (Surah 17). Further details of the virtues and etiquette of spending for Allāh's pleasure have also been discussed in the commentary of verses 261 to 273 of Surah Baqarah.

"Whatever usury you give to increase people's wealth does not increase in Allāh's sight." The literal meaning of the Arabic word 'riba' (usury) is 'to increase.' Therefore 'riba' will refer to anything which increases and grows, although the word is generally used for interest. Much mention of interest has been made in verses 275 to 281 of Surah Baqarah.

The verse tells man that, although it appears that he will be earning more money when he loans money on interest, the additional earnings will be void of blessings because it is Harām. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah "Allāh blighted usury and increases charity." [Surah 2, verse 276]

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ud رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Although the money earned by interest multiplies, it will result in eventual loss." ["Mishkāt" p. 246]

Earning money from interest deprives one of inner peace and contentment, while it is eventually destroyed when banks report insolvency, or when wealth is destroyed by natural disasters. Of course, this wealth will be completely destroyed in the Hereafter, where it will earn people the punishment of Hell.

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ud رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when a person gives charity from Harām (unlawful) wealth, it will not be accepted from him, and there will be no blessings in whatever he spends from it. Whatever he leaves behind him of it will be a source of admitting him into Hell ["Mishkāt" p. 242]. Further details pertaining to usury have been discussed in the commentary of verses 275 to 281 of Surah Baqarah.

Some commentators have mentioned that the verse refers to those gifts which people give to others in the hope that the recipient will give then something better in return. This gift will not earn any rewards from Allāh. While the giver should not aspire to receive anything in return, the recipient should make an attempt to return the favour when the opportunity arises. However, he should not mention that the gift is in appreciation of the one received.

Upon receipt of a gift, the recipient should say, "Jazāk Allāh" ("May Allāh reward you"). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that a person who receives a gift should give something in return if he can. If he cannot give something in return, he should tell others about the generosity of the giver. The person who does so will have expressed his gratitude and the one who fails to do so will be ungrateful. ["Mishkāt" p. 261]

The giver of the gift should not aspire for any return, not even a word of thanks. They should say what Allāh teaches in Surah Dahar, i.e. "We feed you only for Allāh's pleasure and desire neither a return, nor thanks from you." [Surah 9, verse 76]

It was the practice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to give in return more than a person gave him. A villager once presented to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a young camel as a gift, in return of which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave him six such camels. ["Mishkāt" p. 261]

Allāh continues to say, "Whatever you give in Zakāh, seeking Allāh's pleasure, such people truly multiply (their rewards from Allāh)." Commentators have also interpreted the word "Zakāh" to mean optional charity for the same reason cited above. The literal meaning of Zakāh is 'to purify.' Therefore, since any type of charity purifies the soul from miserliness, it may be referred to as 'Zakāh' as well.

When Allāh accepts a deed, He multiplies the reward a minimum of ten times, as He says, "Whosoever does a good deed will receive tenfold the like thereof" Of course, Allāh multiplies rewards even more than ten times if He wills.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever donates in charity the equivalent of a single date from Halāl sources, Allāh will accept it and increase the reward, just as one of you will raise a young foal. Eventually, the date will reach the equivalent of a mountain" [Bukhari].

People will be shocked at the mountainous size of their rewards on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

"It is Allāh Who has created you, then sustains you, will then give you death and again give you life. Are there any of your partners who can do any of this? Allāh is Pure and Exalted above the partners they ascribe to Him." This verse portrays Allāh's great power, thereby proving that only He should be worshipped because none other can compare to Him.

ظَهَرَ الْفَسَادُ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِي النَّاسِ لِيُذِيقَهُمْ بَعْضَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا
لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلُ
كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٤٢﴾ فَاقْرَأْ وَجْهَكَ لِلدِّينِ الْقَيِّمِ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَا مَرَدَّ
لَهُ مِنَ اللَّهِ يُومِذُ يَصْدَعُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ مَنْ كَفَرَ فَعَلَيْهِ كُفْرُهُ وَمَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلَا نَفْسَ لَهُ
يَمْهَدُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ إِنَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ الْكَافِرِينَ
﴿٤٥﴾

(41) Corruption has appeared on land and at sea because of the deeds of man and so that Allāh may let them taste (the consequences) of some of their deeds, so that they may refrain. (42) Say, "Travel in the lands and see what was the plight of those before. Most of them were polytheists." (43) So focus your attention on the upright religion before a day comes when there will be no defence against Allāh. On that day people will be separated. (44) Whoever disbelieves, his disbelief will be to his detriment. Whoever carries out a good deed, such people will be preparing the ground for themselves... (45) .. so that Allāh may reward those who believe and do good deeds from His grace. Without doubt, Allāh does not like the disbelievers.

CORRUPTION ON EARTH OCCURS BECAUSE OF PEOPLE'S SINS

Allāh has granted man the option to do good and evil deeds so that He may test them. Man is exposed to elements both within himself and from outside which tempt him to be disobedient to Allāh's commands. However, Allāh has sent the Prophets عليهم السلام to guide man in the right direction and warn him about the consequences of his deeds. One of these consequences is that anarchy and strife begin to reign on earth. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "Corruption has appeared on land and at sea because of the deeds of man..."

The "corruption" mentioned in this verse refers to all types of adversities like widespread murder, epidemics, drought, cyclones, earthquakes, etc. Allāh afflicts man with all these adversities so that he may take heed and mend his ways when he realises that these calamities are a result of his sins. Allāh refers to this, when He says, so that Allāh may let them taste (the consequences) of some of their deeds, so that they may refrain."

Allāh does not punish man for all his sins, but for some of them, as the verse denotes. Allāh says in Surah Fātir, "If Allāh were to take man to task for everything he does, Allāh would not have left a single creature on the face of the earth. But Allāh defers them until an appointed term." [Surah 35, verse 45]

A verse of Surah Shura reads: "The adversities that afflict you are a result of the deeds you earn, and Allāh pardons a great deal." [Surah 42, verse 30]

The corruption that sins may cause on land are evident. With regard to one of the ill effects of sin on the sea, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentions that oysters open their mouths when rain falls at sea. A raindrop in the oyster's mouth causes a precious pearl to form. When man sins, Allāh stops the rains falling, because of which man is deprived of pearls. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه that the negative effect of sins causes tyrannical rulers to snatch away the marine vessels of the poor. There are many other examples of pirating and shipwrecks, which are all a result of sins.

When Allāh's punishment descends on account of man's sins, not even the pious and the animals are spared. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه once overheard a person saying that an oppressor harms only himself by his sins. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه said, "This is not so. All the other creation also suffer because of him, to the extent that a bustard bird can die of starvation because of the oppression of a tyrant." ["Mishkāt" p. 432]

When droughts are caused by sins, man and animal suffer from the scarcity of water and food. It should be noted that the verse does not refer to the sufferings that pious people suffer. Allāh afflicts them with difficulties so that He may elevate their positions and forgive them. Adversities are a blessing for such people because their patience will earn them immense rewards from Allāh.

"Say, 'Travel in the lands and see what was the plight of those before. Most of them were polytheists.'" These people were annihilated by Allāh's punishment because they refused to believe in oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd). People are urged to visit the ruins of their cities and take lesson from it. The phrase 'Most of them were polytheists' denotes that there were others among them who perpetrated other types of disbelief as well, but the most destructive sin is that of shirk (polytheism).

"So focus your attention on the upright religion {i.e. belief in oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd)} before a day judgment (Qiyāmah) comes to you in which there will be no defence against (the punishment of) Allāh. On that day people will be separated." Those who were good will be separated from the evildoers.

Describing the difference of people, Allāh says, "Whoever disbelieves, his disbelief will be to his detriment. Whoever carries out a good deed, such people will be preparing the ground for themselves so that Allāh may reward those who believe and do good deeds from His grace. Without doubt, Allāh does not like the disbelievers." Allāh loves only those people who have belief (Imān), and will reward them in both worlds for their good deeds.

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ يُرْسِلَ الرِّيحَ مُبَشِّرَاتٍ وَلِيُذِيقَكُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ وَلِتَجْرِيَ الْفُلُكُ بِأَمْرِهِ وَلِتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ رُسُلًا إِلَى قَوْمِهِمْ فَجَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَأَنْتَقَمْنَا مِنَ الَّذِينَ أَجْرَمُوا وَكَانَ حَقًّا عَلَيْنَا نَصْرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي يُرْسِلُ الرِّيحَ فَتُثِيرُ سَحَابًا فَيَبْسُطُهُ فِي السَّمَاءِ كَيْفَ يَشَاءُ وَيَجْعَلُهُ كِسْفًا فَرَى الْوَدْقَ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ خِلَالِهِ فَإِذَا أَصَابَ بِهِ مِنْ يَسَاءٍ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبِشِرُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَإِنْ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يُنْزَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ لَمُبْسِيتٍ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَانْظُرْ إِلَى آثَرِ رَحْمَتِ اللَّهِ كَيْفَ يُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا إِنَّ ذَلِكَ لَمُحْيِي الْمَوْتِ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَلَئِنْ أَرْسَلْنَا رِيحًا فَرَأَوْهُ مُصْفَرًّا لَظَلُّوا مِنْ بَعْدِهِ يَكْفُرُونَ ﴿٥١﴾

(46) From His signs is that He sends the winds as bearers of glad tidings to let people taste of His mercy and to allow ships to sail by His command so that you seek from His bounty, and so that you may show gratitude. (47) Undoubtedly, We have sent many messengers before you to their nations, who brought clear signs to them. We then exacted revenge from those who sinned. Rendering assistance to the believers has always been Our bounden responsibility. (48) It is Allāh Who sends the winds, which carry the clouds, spreading them across the sky as He wills. He divides the clouds into fragments, after which you will see rain falling from its midst. When Allāh sends it to those bondsmen whom He wills, they will become exuberant... (49) .... even though, before it was sent to them, they were despondent. (50) So look at the signs of Allāh's mercy and how He revives the earth after its death. Undoubtedly, He gives life to the dead and He has power over all things. (51) Verily, if we have to send a destructive wind and they have to see their fields yellow, they will begin to show ingratitude.

ALLĀH SENDS THE WINDS AND THE RAINS, AND ALLĀH WILL REVIVE THE DEAD

Allāh describes the multiple virtues of the winds when He says, "From His signs is that He sends the winds as bearers of glad tidings (to foretell rain) to let people taste of His mercy (rain) and to allow ships to sail by His command..." People sail in ships to earn a living and to transport goods, to which Allāh refers when He says, "so that you seek from His bounty..." By reflecting upon all these bounties, mankind should recognise Allāh and be grateful to Him by worshipping only

Him.

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Undoubtedly, We have sent many messengers before you to their nations, who brought clear signs to them." However, many people refused to accept the message of these Prophets عليهم السلام, because of which Allāh "exacted revenge from those who sinned" and destroyed them. Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him that those opposing him will also be destroyed in a like manner.

Allāh declares, "Rendering assistance to the believers has always been Our bounden responsibility." Allāh will always assist the believers (Mu'minīn), the greatest assistance being safeguarding them from the torment of Hell. They will be admitted to Heaven when they exercise patience in this world.

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh will certainly keep the fire of Hell far from the person who defends the honour of his fellow Muslim brother in his absence. After saying this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse "Rendering assistance to the believers has always been Our bounden responsibility." ["Mishkāt" p. 424]

Thereafter, Allāh resumes the discussion on the winds. Allāh says, "it is Allāh Who sends the winds, which carry the clouds, spreading them across the sky as He wills. He divides the clouds into fragments, after which you will see rain falling from its midst. When Allāh sends it to those bondsmen whom He wills, they will become exuberant even though, before it was sent to them, they were despondent." It is only because of Allāh's bounty that people are given hope after being despondent. It is then that they owe the greatest gratitude to Allāh.

"So look at the signs of Allāh's mercy and how He revives the earth after its death. Undoubtedly, He gives life to the dead and He has power over all things." Therefore, people should never doubt resurrection.

"Verily, if we have to send a destructive wind and they have to see their fields yellow (after being destroyed), they will begin to show ingratitude." On this occasion, they forget all the bounties that Allāh has bestowed on them and they remember only the hard times.

فَإِنَّكَ لَا تَسْمَعُ الْمَوْتَى وَلَا تَسْمَعُ الضُّمَمَ الدُّعَاءَ إِذَا وَلَّوْا مُدْبِرِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾ وَمَا أَنْتَ بِهَادٍ
الْعَمَىٰ عَنْ ضَلَالَتِهِمْ إِنْ تَسْمَعُ إِلَّا مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِآيَاتِنَا فَهُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾

(52) You cannot make the dead hear, nor can you make the deaf hear a call when they turn their backs. (53) You cannot guide the blind from their deviation. You can make only those people hear who believe in Our verses and are subservient.

YOU CANNOT MAKE THE DEAD AND THE DEAF HEAR, NOR CAN YOU GUIDE THE BLIND

Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him that he is not responsible for those who turn a blind eye and a deaf ear to his preaching, just as he cannot make dead people hear anything. In their negative attitude, the disbelievers behaved like the dead by failing to utilise their faculties of understanding.

Allāh reminds the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that his duty is merely to convey the message, to which the believers will respond. It is therefore not necessary to grieve over them. A discussion on making the dead hear was given in the commentary of verses 80 and 81 of Surah Naml (Surah 27), where Allāh says, "Verily, you cannot make the dead hear, neither can you make the deaf hear the call when they turn away in aversion. You cannot guide the blind from their deviation. You can guide only those who believe in our verses and who have submitted."

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ ضَعْفٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْ بَعْدِ ضَعْفٍ قُوَّةً ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْ بَعْدِ قُوَّةٍ ضَعْفًا وَشَيْبَةً يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْقَدِيرُ﴾ (54)

(54) It is Allāh Who created you in a state of weakness, then substituted strength after the weakness and, after the strength, will again give weakness and old-age. Allāh creates whatever He wills, and He is the All Knowing, Omnipotent.

THE VARIOUS STAGES OF MAN'S WEAKNESS

In the above verse, Allāh describes how He created man as a weak and frail child. The newborn baby cannot move by itself, nor can it do anything for itself. It is only after a while that the child begins to sense things and look about. He gradually learns to sit, walk and then run and talk. It is after many years that he develops into a strong young man, who can fend for himself. He then reaches the peak of his physical and mental capabilities.

Eventually, he begins to recede into another phase of weakness. His faculties begin to deteriorate and his health dwindles. Many people even reach the age of senility, when their minds become useless. At this stage, man again becomes a child. Allāh says in Surah Yā Sīn, "He whom We advance in age, We diminish in (physical) structure. Do they not understand?" [Surah 36, verse 68]

"Allāh creates whatever He wills, and He is the All Knowing, Omnipotent." Allāh has all the power and ability to create and fashion as He pleases.

﴿وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُقْسِمُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ مَا لِيَشُوْا عَيْرَ سَاعَةٍ كَذَلِكَ كَانُوا يُؤْفَكُونَ﴾ (55)
 ﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ وَالْإِيمَانَ لَقَدْ لَبِثْنَا فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْبَعْثِ فَهَذَا يَوْمُ الْبَعْثِ وَلَكِنَّكُمْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (56)
 ﴿فَيَوْمَئِذٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَعَذِرَتُهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُونَ﴾ (57)

(55) The day when Judgment (Qiyāmah) will dawn, the criminals will swear on oath saying, "We never tarried more than a moment." In this manner were they ever retrogressing. (56) Those given knowledge and belief (Imān) will say, "By Allāh's Book, you lived until the Day of Resurrection. This is now that Day of Resurrection, but you never understood." (57) On this day, the excuses of the oppressors will not profit them, neither will they be afforded the opportunity.

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL TAKE FALSE OATHS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH), WHILE THE BELIEVERS WILL DECLARE THE TRUTH

"The day when Judgment (Qiyāmah) will dawn, the criminals will swear on oath saying, 'We never tarried more than a moment.'" They will say this with reference to the time they spend in the grave or, according to other commentators, the time they passed in the world.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has mentioned that they will mean by this statement that their lives in the world passed unprofitably because they never believed in Allāh and His Prophets عليهم السلام. Therefore, even if their lives were long, it will be considered extremely short because it did not profit them in the least. This statement is similar to someone referring to a short while as being very long because of the great benefits accrued from it.

Declaring the life of the grave or of this world to be a brief moment is not the first lie that these people will have spoken. They began lying in this very world when they falsified the teachings of the Prophets عليهم السلام and were "ever retrogressing."

When these people will take their oaths, "Those given knowledge and belief (Imān) (from the angels and mankind) will say, 'By Allāh's Book (the Lowhul Mahfūdh), you lived until the Day of Resurrection.'" Allāh has decreed in the Lowhul Mahfūdh (protected tablet) (as mentioned in Surah Mu'minūn), "Behind them (the deceased) is "Barzakh" until the day that they are resurrected (i.e. they shall remain in their graves until the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah))." [Surah 23, verse 100]

Further admonishing the disbelievers, the believers (Mu'minīn) will say, "This is now that Day of Resurrection, but you never understood." They refuted the advent of this day, because of which they would have to suffer.

Allāh then says, "On this day, the excuses of the oppressors will not profit them, neither will they be afforded the opportunity (to make excuses to satisfy Allāh)." Taubah (repentance) cannot profit a person after his death.

وَلَقَدْ ضَرَبْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ وَلَئِنْ جِئْتَهُمْ بِآيَةٍ لَيَقُولَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا مُبْطِلُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ كَذَلِكَ يَطْبَعُ اللَّهُ عَلَى قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَلَا يَسْتَخِفَّفَكَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُوقِنُونَ

people in this Qur'ān. If you bring to them a sign, the disbelievers will definitely say, "You are merely people of falsehood." (59) Thus has Allāh set a seal upon the hearts of those without knowledge. (60) So exercise patience. Allāh's promise is certainly true. Let not those without conviction make you impatient.

THE QUR'ĀN CONTAINS THE MOST EXCELLENT SUBJECTS AND THE COMMAND TO BE PATIENT

"We have undoubtedly expounded every type of excellent subject for people in this Qur'ān." Any sensible person will realise that the Qur'ān is truly Allāh's scripture if he gives thought to the matters discussed in it. They will then also realise that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is Allāh's true messenger. However, there will always be those who are bent on obstinacy and will not admit the miraculous nature of the Qur'ān. In a like manner, they will not also accept any other miracle. Allāh says, "If you bring to them a sign (miracle), the disbelievers will definitely say, 'You are merely people of falsehood.'"

It has always been the practice of the disbelievers to reject the truth and label the people of truth as "people of falsehood." With regard to them Allāh says further, "Thus has Allāh set a seal upon the hearts of those without knowledge."

The disbelievers and polytheists harassed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on every possible occasion. With regard to this, Allāh addresses him saying, "So exercise patience. Allāh's promise is certainly true." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is urged to take courage from Allāh's promise of assistance and the supremacy of Islām. The concluding piece of advice is: "Let not those without conviction make you impatient." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is urged not to be derailed by the disbelievers, but to remain a solid pillar of courage.

سورة لقمان

Makkan	Surah Luqmān	Verses 34
--------	--------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

اَلَمْ يَكُنْ اُولَٰئِكَ اَلْكِتَابِ الْحَكِيمِ (2) هُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لِّلْمُحْسِنِينَ (3) الَّذِيْنَ
يَقِيْمُوْنَ الصَّلٰوةَ وَيُوْنُوْنَ الزَّكٰوةَ وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ يُوقِنُوْنَ (4) اُوْلٰٓئِكَ عَلٰى هُدًى مِّنْ
رَّبِّهِمْ ۚ وَاُوْلٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُوْنَ (5)

In the name of Allāh, The Beneficent, The Most Merciful.

(1) Alif Lām Mīm. (2) These are verses of the Wise Book. (3) A guidance and mercy for those who do good... (4) .... those who establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and are convinced about the Hereafter. (5) These people are upon guidance from their Lord and they are the truly successful ones.

THE QUR'ĀN IS A GUIDANCE AND MERCY FOR THOSE WHO DO GOOD

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that Surah Luqmān was revealed in Makkah, while another narration of his states that verses 26 to 29 were revealed in Madinah.

Allāh begins the Surah by saying, "These are verses of the Wise Book (which is) A guidance and mercy for those who do good." Although the Qur'ān is a guidance for all of mankind, it is those with good hearts and sincerity who will accept the guidance and practice accordingly.

Describing "those who do good" Allāh says that they are "Those who establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and are convinced about the Hereafter." Salāh and Zakāh follow belief (Imān) as the fundamental pillars of Islām. They are followed by fasting and Hajj, but only the two have been mentioned because they are more important. When a person is particular about Salāh and Zakāh, while also being convinced about the advent of the Hereafter, all the other aspects of Islām will be easy for him.

Allāh describes "those who do good" further when He says, "These people are upon guidance from their Lord and they are the truly successful ones." These verses have been discussed in the commentary of verse 5 of Surah Baqarah.

Because of the fact that this Surah makes mention of Zakāh, certain commentators are of the opinion that this Surah was revealed in Madinah because Zakāh became obligatory only in Madinah. However, other commentators maintain that the Surah was revealed in Makkah, and that Zakāh was already made obligatory in Makkah. They say that only the detailed laws pertaining to Zakāh were revealed in Madinah.

However, if Zakāh is interpreted to mean normal charity (as discussed in verse 39 of the previous Surah), there would be no debate about the place of revelation.

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَشْتَرِي لَهْوَ الْحَدِيثِ لِيُضِلَّ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَيَتَّخِذَهَا
هُزُوًا أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ ﴿٦﴾ وَإِذَا نُتِلَىٰ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتُنَا وَلَّىٰ مُسْتَكْبِرًا كَأَن
لَّمْ يَسْمَعْهَا كَأَن فِي أُذُنِهِ قُورًا فَبَشِّرْهُ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٧﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٨﴾ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَعَدَ اللَّهُ حَقًّا وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ
الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٩﴾

(6) There are some people who purchase futile discourse to deviate from Allāh's path without knowledge, making a mockery of it (Allāh's path). There shall be a humiliating punishment for these people. (7) When Our verses are recited to them, they arrogantly turn away as if they have not heard them, as if there is a prop in their ears. Convey the tidings of an excruciating punishment to them. (8) For those who believe and do good deeds, there are the blissful gardens of Jannah (Heaven)... (9) .... where they will abide forever. Allāh's has made a true promise, and He is the Mighty, the Wise.

A HUMILIATING PUNISHMENT FOR THOSE WHO OPPOSE THE QUR'ĀN

After asserting that the Qur'ān is a guidance and mercy for those who accept it, Allāh discusses those people who oppose the Qur'ān and ridicule it. Allāh discusses those people who purchased 'futile discourse' in an effort to turn people away from the Qur'ān. The term 'futile discourse' refers to anything that distracts a person from Allāh's remembrance and involves him in play and sport. Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that 'futile discourse' is anything that distracts one away from worshipping Allāh and thinking about Him.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه have interpreted 'futile discourse' as music, while Sayyidina Makhūl رحمه الله عليه is of the opinion that it refers to hiring female dancers.

Many narrations have been reported with regard to the circumstances surrounding the revelation of this verse. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that an arch enemy of Islām by the name of Nadhar bin Hārith purchased a singing slave girl. Whenever he heard about anyone who intended to accept Islām, he would send the person to this girl, who was instructed to feed the man well and to sing for him. He would then ask the person whether this was better or the Salāh, fasting and fighting in Jihād, which Islām required from a Muslim. By this means, he persuaded them to change their minds. The verse makes reference to this incident.

Another narration reports that Nadhar often travelled to Persia, where he bought books containing fanciful Persian tales. He would recite these to the Quraysh and tell them that he narrated these fanciful tales of Persian kings like Rustam and tales of Alexander of Macedonia, while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them only about the Ād and the Thamud. So saying, he mocked the narratives contained in the Qur'ān. It was then that Allāh revealed the above verse.

Other commentators mention that the verse was revealed with reference to a person called Ibn Khatal who bought some singing slave girls who sang songs that ridiculed Islām and the Muslims.

The above interpretation of 'futile discourse' by Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله is corroborated by a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that every futile act may be regarded as part of falsehood, except the following three seemingly playful acts:

1. Archery.
2. Training one's horse (both these are necessary for Jihād).
3. Playful behaviour with one's wife.

THE ABOMINATION AND PROHIBITION OF MUSIC

"futile discourse" would include all acts that distract one from Salāh and remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr), such as gambling, sport, etc. These will therefore be forbidden in the Shari'ah. If Allāh has granted someone a beautiful voice, it should rather be used to recite the Qur'ān, or to recite some thought provoking poetry, reminding people of the Hereafter. It should never be used to sing romantic and other songs, which are sung with musical instruments.

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Music causes hypocrisy to grow in the heart just as rain causes crops to flourish." [Mishkāt p. 411]

The person gifted with a good voice should not sing even permissible poetry in the presence of women. Bukhari reports a hadith in which a Sahabi by the name of Anjasha رضى الله عنه was singing the customary verses of poetry (called 'huddy') on journey to urge the camels to trot faster. He was singing in a beautiful voice, because of which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "O Anjasha! Stop! Do not break the glass." The narrator of the hadith, Sayyidina Qatāda رضى الله عنه, says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was referring to the women, who are usually affected by sweet singing.

It is unfortunate that music has become a way of life for people today. It seems as if people cannot digest their food without listening to music. Old and young are involved in this evil, which causes them to miss their Salāh. Even people from respectable homes consider it a virtue to teach their children to sing, dance and play musical instruments.

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that singing slave girls must not be purchased or sold, they should not be taught to sing, and the money earned by this trade is Harām (unlawful). He mentioned that the verse "There are some people who purchase futile discourse to deviate from Allāh's path..." was revealed in this regard.

Sayyidina Abu Sahyā رحمه الله reports that he once asked Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه about this verse. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه took an oath in Allāh's name that the verse condemns music. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 490]

People have dug their own graves of destruction because of their deep involvement in music. It is tragic that they then refuse to acknowledge that the calamities they suffer are a result of their sins. Even if they are forced to admit this, they fail to mend their ways. The reason for this is that they have all become slaves of their passions.

Sayyidina Abu Āmir Ash'ari رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There will certainly be such people in my Ummah who will make fornication, wearing of silk (for men), liquor and musical instruments Halāl (lawful). There will also be people living by a mountain, whose flock of animals will reach them by the evenings. When someone will approach them for a necessity, they will bid him to return the following day, but they will all be destroyed before the following day, when the mountain will crush them. Some of these people will be transfigured into pigs and monkeys until the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)." ["Mishkāt" p. 456]

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS COMMANDED TO DESTROY MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh has sent me as a mercy and a guide for both worlds and He has commanded me to destroy musical instruments, idols, the cross, and all practices of ignorance." ["Mishkāt" p. 318]

Muslims should now realise the error of their ways when, to render their poems in the praise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they utilise the same musical instruments which he wanted to destroy. Worse still is that they think that they will be rewarded for this. While the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent to destroy these instruments, these Muslims while the nights away playing and listening to the sounds of these instruments. They do this in the name of love for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, yet they forsake their Salāh in the process. Are they pleasing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or Satan (Shaytān)?

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Bells are the flutes of Shaytān." ["Mishkāt" p. 338]

The beloved Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم says in another hadith, "The angels of mercy do not accompany the party travelling with bells or dogs." ["Mishkāt" p.

379]

Once a girl entered in the presence of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها wearing jewellery on her feet which jingled. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها instructed that the girl be removed from her presence until the jewellery was removed. She then said that she heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "The angels of mercy do not enter a house within there are bells."

Music is the practice of Satan (Shaytān). It is for this reason that one will find music rife in places where Satan (Shaytān) is sovereign, like in temples and churches.

THE EVIL PRACTICE OF CERTAIN "SAINTS"

It is a practice of certain "saints" (commonly called "pirs") that they have to drums and other musical instruments played in their gatherings and at gravesides. They claim that the senior saints approved of this, whereas the same saints they quote, actually prohibited gatherings where musical instruments, beardless lads and women are present.

Even if some 'saint' did condone the deed, it will be rejected because it contradicts the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Islām does not tolerate even jewellery and garlands that make musical sounds. How can it tolerate musical gatherings?

Sayyidina Nāfi رحمه الله عليه reports that he was once travelling with Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه when they heard the sound of a flute. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه immediately covered his ears and walked away from the path. It was only after proceeding some distance away, that he asked Sayyidina Nāfi رحمه الله عليه whether the sound was still audible. When he was informed that the sound was no longer audible, he removed his fingers from his ears saying, "I was once travelling with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, when we heard the sound of a flute. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did exactly as I had done." Sayyidina Nāfi رحمه الله عليه was a youngster at the time. ["Mishkāt" p. 411]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prohibited liquor, gambling, drums and 'ghabira' (an intoxicating drink brewed in Africa). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said that all intoxicants are Harām (unlawful). ["Mishkāt" p. 318]

FUTILE PASTIMES

The circumstances surrounding the revelation of the above verse denote that music is the worst of those futilities which distract one from Allāh's remembrance. The Ahadīth condemning music have also been quoted above so that no person can ever regard any type of music as a virtue (especially "Qawālī").

It should also be borne in mind that the time spent in pastimes could have been fruitfully utilised for the recitation of the Qur'ān or some other act of devotion. Some categories of 'futile discourse' are Harām (unlawful) (like gambling and music). While others may be permissible, they are a waste of time (like listening to permissible poems).

THE LAW REGARDING GAMES LIKE CHESS

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه has reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that only sinners play chess and that it is a category of falsehood, which Allāh detests. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 387]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the person who plays backgammon has disobeyed Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 386]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that, upon seeing a person chase a pigeon (as a sport), The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commented, "This is one Satan (Shaytān) running after another Satan (Shaytān)."

 [Ibid]

The Ahadīth do not make mention of playing cards because it was not prevalent during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is Harām (unlawful) to play cards if gambling is involved. If no gambling is involved it will be permitted only if it does not distract one from Allāh's remembrance, which is extremely rare.

Although the verse uses the word "purchase" it may refer to any exchange of things, like the substitution of one act for another, as Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "These are the people who have purchased error at the price of guidance." The verse would therefore also refer to people who substitute the recitation of the Qur'ān with futile activities.

خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ بِغَيْرِ عَمَدٍ تَرَوْنَهَا وَالْأَرْضَ رَواسِيَ أَنْ تَمِيدَ بِكُمْ وَبَثَّ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ دَابَّةٍ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَنْبَتْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿١٠﴾ هَذَا خَلْقُ اللَّهِ فَأَرُونِي مَاذَا خَلَقَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ بَلِ الظَّالِمُونَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿١١﴾

(10) Allāh created the skies without any visible pillar, has placed mountains on earth so that it does not shake with you and has spread every type of animal on earth. We have sent rain from the sky, thereby growing every species of wonderful plant. (11) This is Allāh's creation, so show me what those besides Him have created. But the oppressors are in a distant deviation.

ALLĀH HAS CREATED THE SKIES, THE EARTH AND THE REST OF THE CREATION, WHILE NO OTHER HAS CREATED ANYTHING

"Allāh created the skies without any visible pillar..." The immense expanse of the sky is suspended without any pillars. It is Allāh's immense power that keeps the sky in place without collapsing.

It is Allāh Who 'has placed mountains on earth so that it does not shake with you...' If it were not for the mountains lending stability to the earth, the water of the oceans and cyclonic winds would have caused the earth to shudder and shake incessantly. This would wreak havoc on earth and make habitation impossible. Although Allāh could have held the earth stable without the mountains, he has kept them in place as a means to achieve this end.

Of course, the verse pertains to the general stability of the earth and will not mean that the earth can never convulse when Allāh wants it to. When He desires, Allāh can make the earth shudder with earthquakes, the worst of which will take place on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), as mentioned in numerous verses of the Qur'ān, like Surah Zilzāl (Surah 99).

Allāh has also "spread every type of animal on earth" throughout the earth. Man may find these animals wherever he is and use them for his living. Allāh then says, "We have sent rain from the sky, thereby growing every species of wonder ful plant." This is another of Allāh's great bounties for which man cannot express enough gratitude.

Allāh then declares, "This is Allāh's creation, so show me what those (who people take as gods) besides Him have created." The false gods of the polytheists are helpless and dependent on Allāh. The combined efforts of all these gods and their devotees cannot create a single fly, which Allāh creates in overwhelming abundance. Therefore, only Allāh can be worshipped. However, notwithstanding this, "the oppressors are in a distant deviation."

وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا لُقْمَانَ الْحِكْمَةَ أَنِ اشْكُرْ لِلَّهِ وَمَن يَشْكُرْ فَإِنَّمَا يَشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهِ وَمَن
كَفَرَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَنِيٌّ حَمِيدٌ ﴿١٢﴾ وَإِذْ قَالَ لُقْمَانُ لِابْنِهِ وَهُوَ يُعْطِيهِ يَبْنَىٰ لَا تَشْرِكْ
بِاللَّهِ إِنَّ الشِّرْكَ لَظُلْمٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٣﴾ وَوَصَّيْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ بِوَالِدَيْهِ حَمَلَتْهُ أُمُّهُ وَهَنًا
عَلَىٰ وَهْنٍ وَفَصَّلَهُ فِي عَامَيْنِ أَنِ اشْكُرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيْكَ إِلَىٰ الْمَصِيرِ ﴿١٤﴾ وَإِن
جَاهَدَاكَ عَلَىٰ أَن تُشْرِكَ بِي مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَا وَصَاحِبُهُمَا فِي الدُّنْيَا
مَعْرُوفًا وَاتَّبِعْ سَبِيلَ مَنْ أَنَابَ إِلَيَّ ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ مَرْجِعِكُمْ فَإُنَبِّئُكُم بِمَا كُنتُمْ
تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٥﴾

(12) We certainly granted wisdom to Luqmān (inspiring him) to express gratitude to Allāh. Whoever will be grateful to Allāh, expresses gratitude for his own benefit. As for him who is ungrateful, Allāh is certainly Independent, Most Worthy of praise. (13) (The time deserves mention) when Luqmān advised his son saying, "O my beloved son! Do not ascribe partners to Allāh. Without doubt, polytheism is the worst injustice. (14) We emphatically commanded man with regard to his parents. His mother carried him in weakness upon weakness and his weaning is after two years. (The command was) "Express gratitude to Me and to your parents. Your return will be to Me." (15) If they (your parents) force you to ascribe such partners to Me, about which you have no knowledge, then do not obey them but cordially associate with them in this world. Follow the path of him who turns to Me. Thereafter, your return will be to Me and I will inform you of what you used to do.

THE ADVICE OF LUQMĀN عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام THE WISE

WHO WAS SAYYIDINA LUQMĀN عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام? Whatever has been narrated about the ancestry of Sayyidina Luqmān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام has been derived from the Bani Isrā'īl (the narrations are therefore Isrā'iliyāt).

“Ruhul Ma'āni” states that he was the son of Sayyidina Ayyub's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام sister, while another narration states that he was the son of Sayyidina Ayyub's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام maternal aunt. Sayyidina Luqmān's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام mother was a lady called Bā'ūra, or (according to others) Anqā. Some scholars also say that he was one of Āzar's children [which makes him Sayyidina Ibrahim's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام brother].

It is reported that he lived for a thousand years and also learnt from Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Sayyidina Wāqidi رحمه الله says that he lived in the period between Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

A difference of opinion also exists about his status. While some scholars regard him as a Prophet, others claim that he was not one. Certain scholars also say that he originated from Africa. Many maintain that he was a freed slave, while others deny this. Allāh knows best.

The following are opinions about his occupation:

He was a carpenter.

He made bedding and pillows.

He was a tailor.

He was a shepherd.

He was a judge among the Bani Isrā'īl.

After quoting the above, the author of “Ruhul Ma'āni” writes that all these statements cannot be authenticated. What is certain is that Sayyidina Luqmān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was a pious and wise man, who was not a Prophet. Since he was not a Prophet, he was either guided by divine inspiration or by a Prophet.

Many words of wisdom have flowed from his lips, which are quoted in books. The “Mu'atta” of Imām Mālik رحمه الله reports that Sayyidina Luqmān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was once asked about the reason for his wisdom and virtue. He replied that he attained this status by practising three things, viz.

1. Truthfulness in speech,
2. Returning trusts and
3. Abstaining from deeds and speech that are futile. [“Mishkāt” p. 445]

Allāh says, “We certainly granted wisdom to Luqmān..” Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه interprets “wisdom” to mean a keen intellect and understanding, while Imām Rāghib رحمه الله says that it refers to an understanding the creation and the inspiration to do good deeds. Imām Rāzi رحمه الله says that it refers to putting his knowledge into practice. Other commentators say that it implies that he was steadfast in knowledge and deed. [“Ruhul Ma'āni”]

Allāh inspired him "to express gratitude to Allāh." i.e. for all Allāh's bounties, especially that of wisdom. Allāh continues to say, "Whoever will be grateful to Allāh, expresses gratitude for his own benefit." When a person expresses gratitude to Allāh, he will be rewarded for it, while it is no favour to Allāh. Allāh says in a verse of Surah Ibrahim, "If you show gratitude, then I will definitely give you more, and if you are ungrateful, then indeed My punishment is severe." [Surah 14, verse 7]

Allāh continues, "As for him who is ungrateful, Allāh is certainly Independent, Most Worthy of praise." Allāh will suffer no harm or loss if someone does not show gratitude to Him. Allāh needs nothing from His creation because He is worthy of all praise, whether people accept the fact or not.

POLYTHEISM (SHIRK) IS THE WORST INJUSTICE

Allāh Ta'āla then says that it is well worth recalling the time "when Luqmān advised his son saying, 'O my beloved son! Do not ascribe partners to Allāh. Without doubt, polytheism is the worst injustice.'" The Arabic word 'Zulm' (injustice/oppression) literally refers to placing something where it should not be. Shirk (polytheism) is the worst 'Zulm' because the perpetrator offers his worship to his false gods instead of offering it to Allāh, Who is Most Worthy of worship.

THE COMMAND TO TREAT PARENTS WELL

"We emphatically commanded man with regard to his parents." Man is supposed to treat his parents with the utmost honour and respect, tending to their every need. Man should bear in mind that he was once a weak and frail child who was unable to do anything for himself. It was then that his mother tended to his every need despite her own weakness and needs.

'His mother carried him (in her womb) in weakness upon weakness...' An expectant mother grows weaker with every day that she bears her child. In Surah Bani Isrā'il [Surah 17, verse 24], Allāh teaches man the supplication that he should make in favour of his parents. The du'ā is: "O my Lord! Show mercy to them as they have raised me (mercifully) when I was young."

"and his weaning is after two years." After the ordeal of delivering the child, the parents have to tend to the nourishment of the child. Again they are faced with difficulties and expenses. While the mother exerts herself to feed and care for the child, and the father exerts himself earning a living for them, the child has only to sleep. When the child falls ill, the parents sacrifice their own comforts and sleep to put the child at rest, taking him to their bosoms in an effort to calm him.

This is not even the tip of the iceberg of hardships that parents endure for - their children in their infancy. Thereafter, the baby grows into a young child, still depend it on his parents for everything. Keeping all of this in mind, a child ought to have a burning desire to offer comfort and peace to his parents when he grows up. Man's sense of honour demands that he makes an effort to repay some of their efforts as a token of gratitude.

Of course, man cannot forget the greater gratitude which he owes to Allāh, Who has created him and has placed love and affection into his parent's hearts. It is for this reason that Allāh commands man to, "Express gratitude to Me and to your parents. Your return will be to Me."

"If they (your parents) force you to ascribe such partners to Me, about which you have no knowledge, then do not obey them..." polytheism (shirk) has been passed on from generation to generation, each person claiming to be following his forefathers. Allāh cautions people against this blind following. A person should utilise his intelligence to determine the fallacy of polytheism (shirk), and should not follow the foolish trend set by others.

Although children must obey their parents, they must not obey them when they issue an instruction to contravene Allāh's command. The Holy Prophet ﷺ said that the creation (irrespective of who it is) must not be obeyed when their command entails disobedience to the Creator.

Although the parents will not be obeyed under such circumstances, nevertheless Allāh adds, .... but cordially associate with them this world." A Muslim child must always serve his/her parents even though they may be disbelievers.

"Follow the path of him who wins to Me." It is within the nature of man that he is influenced by company. Evil company has evil effects, while good company produces good effects. It is therefore necessary for a Muslim to keep good company so that s/he may be encouraged to do good.

"Thereafter, your return will be to Me and I will inform you of what you used to do." Allāh will then reward or punish people according to their deeds.

Obedience to parents has been discussed in some detail in the commentaries of verses 23 and 24 of Surah Bani Isrā'īl (Surah 17) and at the beginning of Surah Ankabūt [Surah 29, verse 8].

يَبْنِيْ اِيْتَهَا اِنْ تَكَ ثِقَالَ حَبَّةٍ مِّنْ خَرْدَلٍ فَتَكُنْ فِيْ صَخْرَةٍ اَوْ فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ اَوْ فِي الْاَرْضِ يٰۤاَيُّهَا اللّٰهُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَطِيْفٌ خَيْرٌ ﴿١٦﴾ يَبْنِيْ اَقْرَ الصَّلٰوةِ وَاَمْرًا مَّعْرُوْفٍ وَّاَنَّهُ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ وَاَصْبِرْ عَلٰى مَا اَصَابَكَ اِنَّ ذٰلِكَ مِّنْ عَزْمِ الْاُمُوْرِ ﴿١٧﴾ وَلَا تُصَعِّرْ خَدَكَ لِلنَّاسِ وَلَا تَمْشِ فِي الْاَرْضِ مَرَحًا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُحِبُّ كُلَّ مُخْتَالٍ فَخُوْرٍ ﴿١٨﴾ وَاَقْصِدْ فِي مَشْيِكَ وَاغْضُضْ مِّنْ صَوْتِكَ اِنَّ اَنْكَرَ الْاَصْوَاتِ لَصَوْتُ الْحَمِيْرِ ﴿١٩﴾

(16) O my beloved son! if there has to be a deed equivalent to the weight of a mustard seed within a boulder or in the heavens or the earth, Allāh would present it. Without doubt, Allāh has knowledge of intricacies and is The Informed. (17) O my beloved son! Establish Salāh, enjoin good, forbid evil and patiently endure whatever afflicts you. Verily, this is from the most resolute of matters. (18) Do not turn your face away from people and do not walk arrogantly on earth. Verily Allāh detests every arrogant braggart. (19) Moderate your walk and lower your voice, indeed, the most abhorrent sound is the braying of a donkey.

THE EMPHASIS ON SALĀH AND ON ENJOINING GOOD AND FORBIDDING EVIL

After stressing the importance of treating parents well, Allāh again quotes the advices of Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام. Describing Allāh's vast knowledge, he said, "O my beloved son! If there has to be a deed equivalent to the weight of a mustard seed (which is hidden) within a boulder or in the heavens or the earth, Allāh would present it [on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)]. Without doubt, Allāh has knowledge of intricacies and is The Informed." Allāh is aware of the most hidden actions and none should think that he can hide any deed from Allāh.

Advising his son further, Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام said, "O my beloved son! Establish Salāh, enjoin good, forbid evil..." A person should free his mind from all matters of this world and concentrate his attention in Salāh. At the same time, he should urge others to follow suit and to fulfil Allāh's commands. He must also forbid them from sinning. In doing so, a person is certain to encounter opposition, because of which Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام advised his son saying, "and patiently endure whatever afflicts you." The importance of patience cannot be exaggerated. Since it is also one of the most bitter deeds, Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام added, "Verily, this is from the most resolute of matters."

THE IMPORTANCE OF PATIENCE AND THE NEED TO BE HUMBLE IN ONE'S APPROACH

"and patiently endure whatever afflicts you." The general wording of this phrase includes every type of adversity, not only those associating with preaching. Exercising patience when afflicted by an adversity is the most difficult of all deeds, but produces the sweetest of fruits. In Surah Baqarah, Allāh declares, "Verily Allāh is with the patient ones."

Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام further advised his son saying, "Do not turn your face away from people..." In this piece of advice, Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام cautions his son against looking down on others because it occurs that people with some knowledge or wealth feel it below their dignity to associate with others.

Although Allāh granted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the highest dignity, he displayed the most humility. It is reported in Shamā'il Tirmidhi that, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke to someone, he turned fully to the person, thereby denoting that his full attention was on the person and that he was not ignoring him.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never withdrew his hands after greeting someone until the person did so himself. He also never turned his attention away from someone until the person did so first. ["Mishkāt" p. 520]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a believer (Mu'min) is one who lovingly associates with others. He added that the person who does not associate lovingly with others, and with whom others do not associate in this manner, is bereft of all good.

THE ABOMINATION OF PRIDE

Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام also told his son, "and do not walk arrogantly on earth. Verily Allāh detests every arrogant braggart." This subject has been discussed in Surah Bani Isrā'il, where Allāh says, "And do not walk haughtily on earth. You can certainly not cleave the earth, nor can you reach the mountains in height." [Surah 17, verse 37]

"Moderate your walk..." i.e. neither walk so fast that you present a danger to yourself and others, nor walk at a snail's pace, resembling arrogant and haughty people. Of course, if a person is ill or weak, he may walk slowly.

"..... and lower your voice, indeed, the most abhorrent sound is the braying of a donkey." Just as the braying of a donkey is jarring and unpleasant, an unnecessary loud voice produces the same effect.

أَلَمْ تَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ سَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مَّا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَأَسْبَغَ عَلَيْكُمْ نِعَمَهُ ظَاهِرَةً
وَبَاطِنَةً وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يُجَادِلُ فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَلَا هُدًى وَلَا كِتَابٍ مُّنبِئٍ ﴿٢٠﴾
وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اتَّبِعُوا مَا أَنزَلَ اللَّهُ قَالُوا بَلْ نَتَّبِعُ مَا وَجَدْنَا عَلَيْهِ آبَاءَنَا أَوَّلَوْ كَانِ
الشَّيْطَانُ يَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَىٰ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَن يُسَلِّمْ وَجْهَهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَهُوَ مُحْسِنٌ
فَقَدْ اسْتَمْسَكَ بِالْعُرْوَةِ الْوُثْقَىٰ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ عَاقِبَةُ الْأُمُورِ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَمَن كَفَرَ فَلَا يَحْزُنكَ
كُفْرُهُ إِلَيْنَا مَرْجِعُهُمْ فَنُنَبِّئُهُم بِمَا عَمِلُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ﴿٢٣﴾ نُنَبِّئُهُمْ
فَلَيَلَاثُمَّ نَضْطَرُّهُمْ إِلَىٰ عَذَابٍ غَلِيظٍ ﴿٢٤﴾

(20) Do you not see that Allāh has subjugated for you whatever is in the heavens and the earth, and has showered His apparent and concealed bounties on you? There are those people who dispute about Allāh without knowledge, guidance and without an illuminating Book. (21) When it is said to them, "Follow what Allāh has revealed," they say, "We will follow what we found our forefathers doing." Will they follow their forefathers even though Satan (Shaytān) called their forefathers to the punishment of the Blaze? (22) Whoever surrenders himself to Allāh and is sincere, has certainly clung on to a strong handhold. To Allāh will the outcome of all affairs return. (23) Let not the disbelief of the disbelievers grieve you. Their return is to Us, when We will inform them of what they did. Verily Allāh has knowledge of the secrets of the hearts. (24) We will afford them enjoyment for a while, after which We will force them into a severe punishment.

ALTHOUGH ALLĀH HAS SHOWERED MAN WITH ALL TYPES OF BOUNTIES, YET THE DISBELIEVERS BLINDLY FOLLOW THEIR FOREFATHERS

After concluding the advices of Sayyidina Luqmān عليه السلام, Allāh says, "Do you not see that Allāh has subjugated for you whatever is in the heavens and the earth..." Allāh has placed all of these creation at man's service. Even the things that are not directly in man's control are of benefit to him in some way or another.

Allāh also asks whether man does not see that He has "showered His apparent and concealed bounties on you?" The bounties that Allāh has given to man are innumerable. Many are visible, while a great many are invisible. The greatest of all bounties is belief (Imān), which is invisible, but will guarantee man's salvation in the Hereafter.

Allāh has granted man the five senses in addition to the great bounty of intellect. Allāh has also blessed him with the various organs and limbs of the body, attached to invaluable joints without which man will be stationary.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has also reported other interpretations of "apparent and concealed bounties." Some commentators say that "apparent" bounties refer to the supremacy of Islām and the Muslim conquests, while the "concealed bounties" denote the hidden assistance of the angels in battle. Others are of the opinion that "apparent" bounties are those of this world, while "concealed bounties" are the bounties of the Hereafter.

Others maintain that "apparent" bounties are the physical limbs and faculties like hearing, sight, speech, etc. They say that the "concealed bounties" are the inner organs and hidden faculties like intellect, perception, etc. A fourth interpretation of this is that "apparent" bounties are those shared by everyone, while "concealed bounties" are those that every person possesses exclusively in his/her personal capacity.

These bounties demand that people be grateful to the One Who conferred these on them, i.e. Allāh. They should then devote themselves only to His worship. However, "There are those people who dispute about Allāh without knowledge, guidance and without an illuminating Book." These people have no basis to refute belief in Allāh. The only argument they tender is that they are following their forefathers. Allāh says, "When it is said to them, 'Follow what Allāh has revealed,' they say, 'We will follow what we found our forefathers doing.'

Allāh cautions them saying, "Will they follow their forefathers even though Satan (Shaytān) called their forefathers to the punishment of the Blaze?" Their forefathers acted in response to Satan's (Shaytān's) call which led them to Hell. Will these people do the same? While they have seen that their forefathers were in manifest error, they chose to fall into the same pit.

After highlighting the foolishness of the disbelievers, Allāh praises the believers (Mu'minīn) saying, "Whoever surrenders himself to Allāh and is sincere (in beliefs and deeds), has certainly clung on to a strong handhold." This person has held tight to the unbreakable rope of Tauhīd (monotheism), which will save him from the torments of the Hereafter.

"To Allāh will the outcome of all affairs return." The good and evil deeds and beliefs of people will be presented before Allāh on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh will pass judgement accordingly.

Allāh then consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Let not the disbelief of the disbelievers grieve you. Their return is to Us, when We will inform them of what they did. Verily Allāh has knowledge of the secrets of the hearts.” The Holy Prophet’s ﷺ task was to pass the message of Tauhīd (monotheism) and Islām to the people. Thereafter, he was not responsible for making anyone believe. Everyone will stand before Allāh on the Day of Judgement, when the inner secrets of their hearts will become apparent and they will be judged accordingly.

Referring to the wealth and riches that the disbelievers enjoy in this world, Allāh says, “We will afford them enjoyment for a while, after which We will force them into a severe punishment.” Their pleasures will be short-lived and will be of no use to them in the Hereafter. When they will be punished in Hell.

وَلَيْنَ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَلَوْ أَنَّمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ شَجَرَةٍ أَقْلَمٌ وَالْبَحْرُ يَمُدُّهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ سَبْعَةُ أَبْحُرٍ مَا نَفِدَتْ كَلِمَاتُ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٢٧﴾ مَا خَلَقَكُمْ وَلَا بَعْثَكُمْ إِلَّا كَنَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةً إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يُولِجُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُولِجُ النَّهَارَ فِي اللَّيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُسَمًّى وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَأَنَّ مَا يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ الْبَطْلُ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿٣٠﴾

(25) If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will definitely reply, “Allāh.” Say, “All praise belongs to Allāh.” But most of them do not know. (26) To Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth. Undoubtedly Allāh is Independent, Worthy of all praise. (27) If all the trees on earth were pens and the ocean was supplemented by another seven oceans, Allāh’s words will never be exhausted. Verily Allāh is Mighty, the Wise. (28) Your creation and resurrection is like a single soul. Without doubt Allāh is All Hearing, All Seeing. (29) Do you not see that Allāh enters the night into the day, enters the day into the night and has subjugated the sun and the moon? Each one runs until an appointed term. Allāh is Informed of whatever you do. (30) This is because Allāh is the Truth and whatever you worship besides Him are false and Allāh is the Exalted, the Great.

ALLĀH’S CREATION AND HIS AUTHORITY OVER THE UNIVERSE

“If you ask them (the disbelievers) who created the heavens and the earth, they will definitely reply, ‘Allāh (has created it).’ Say, ‘(Once this fact is acknowledged, it follows that) All praise belongs to Allāh. But most of them do not know." Because of the effect of their environment, people are negligent of this fact and, when they are informed about it, they adamantly claim to follow in the footsteps of their ignorant forefathers.

"To Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth (including those that the polytheists ascribe as partners to Him). Undoubtedly Allāh is Independent, Worthy of all praise." All praise can be attributed only to Him whether people admit this fact or not. Allāh does not need people to praise Him before becoming deserving of the praise.

"If all the trees on earth were pens and the ocean was supplemented by another seven oceans (to be transformed into ink), Allāh's words will never be exhausted (even after all the ink and pens are expended). Verily Allāh is Mighty, the Wise." This is so because Allāh's words are infinite and no finite entity can do justice to it.

WHAT ARE "ALLĀH'S WORDS"? Some commentators say that "Allāh's words" refer to His speech, which has no beginning in time. Others say that "Allāh's words" refers to His knowledge and ability, which cannot be put to paper. Another group of commentators maintain that "Allāh's words" refers to Allāh's attributes and perfection. Millions of pens and a multitude of oceans may expire, but these will never end.

Reference has been made to this in Surah Kahf, where Allāh says, "Say, 'If the ocean was ink for the words of my Lord, the ocean would deplete before the words of my Lord can deplete, even if We supplement it with a like amount of ink.'" [Surah 18, verse 109]

Allāh continues to say, "Your creation and resurrection is like a single soul. Without doubt Allāh is All Hearing, All Seeing." For Allāh to recreate the entire mankind is as easy as creating a single being. It is therefore foolish to deny the possibility of resurrection.

"Do you not see that Allāh enters the night into the day, enters the day into the night and has subjugated the sun and the moon? Each one runs until an appointed term (without a fraction of discrepancy in its timing and orbit). Allāh is Informed of whatever you do." None but Allāh has created and maintains the solar system and the entire universe.

"This (i.e. the reason for all of this) is because Allāh is the Truth (His existence is true and it is true that only He can be worshipped) and whatever you worship besides Him are false and Allāh is the Exalted, the Great." None can be equal to Him in excellence.

أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ الْفُلَّكَ تَجْرِي فِي الْبَحْرِ بِنِعْمَتِ اللَّهِ لِيُرِيَكُمْ مِنْ آيَاتِهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ
لِكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ ﴿٣١﴾ وَإِذَا غَشِيَهُمْ مَوْجٌ كَالظَّلِيلِ دَعَوْا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ
فَلَمَّا نَجَّاهُمْ إِلَى الْبَرِّ فَمِنْهُمْ مُقْنَصِدٌ وَمَا يَجْحَدُ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَّا كُلُّ خَتَّارٍ كَفُورٍ

﴿٣٢﴾

(31) Do you not see that the ship travels on the sea by Allāh's grace so that He may show you some of His signs? In this are definite signs for every extremely patient and grateful person. (32) When a wave covers them like a canopy, they supplicate to Allāh, having sincere belief in Him. When He rescues them to land, then a few of them tread the moderate path. It is only every extremely treacherous and grossly ungrateful person who rejects Our verses.

SHIPS TRAVEL THE OCEANS BY ALLĀH'S GRACE AND THE POLYTHEISTS SUPPLICATE EARNESTLY TO ALLAH WHEN THE WAVES CONVERGE ON THEM

"Do you not see that the ship travels on the sea by Allāh's grace so that He may show you some of His signs?" While a small piece of iron will not float on the sea, Allāh makes iron ships weighing thousands of tons float and travel comfortably on the sea. The ships transport goods from continent to continent, some of them being propelled by the winds, which will not blow without Allāh's command. Allāh says about these phenomena, 'in this are definite signs for every extremely patient and grateful person.'

It often occurs that waters become turbulent at sea, with waves pounding ships like pieces of cork. Man is then overcome with fear and turns to Allāh for assistance. Describing the scene, Allāh says, "When a wave covers them like a canopy, they (even the polytheists) supplicate to Allāh, having sincere belief in Him. When He rescues them to land, then a few of them tread the moderate path." These few are the believers (Mu'minīn), who continue to tread the path of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd) after being rescued. However, the disbelievers resort to their previous ways, as Allāh mentioned in Surah Ankabūt "But when He rescues them to land, they again begin to ascribe partners to Him." [Surah 29, verse 65]

"It is only every extremely treacherous and grossly ungrateful person who rejects Our verses." Those who pledge to worship Allāh if He rescues them from the sea belie their pledge when they reach the safety of land. Like these, there are many who deny Allāh's clear signs and are ungrateful to Him for the favours He bestows on them each second.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمۡ وَاخْشَوْا يَوْمًا لَا يَجْزِي وَالِدٌ عَن وَلَدِهِ وَلَا مَوْلٰٓؤُهُۥ جَازٍ عَن
وَالِدِهِ شَيْئًا اِنَّ وَعْدَ اللّٰهِ حَقٌّ فَلَا تَغُرَّنَّكُمُ الْحَيٰوةُ الدُّنْيَا وَلَا يَغُرَّنَّكُم بِاللّٰهِ
الْغُرُوْرُ ﴿٣٣﴾

(33) O people! Fear Allāh and beware of the day when a father will be of no avail to his son, nor will a child be of any avail to his father. Verily Allāh's promise is true. So let not the life of this world beguile you, and do not allow the great deceiver to beguile you regarding Allāh.

FEAR ALLĀH, BE CONCERNED ABOUT THE HEREAFTER AND DO NOT LET SATAN (SHAYTĀN) BEGUILE YOU

Allāh urges people to prepare for the Day of Judgement by accepting belief (Imān) and performing good deeds. Only this will be of any assistance on the dreadful Day of Judgement, when "a father will be of no avail to his son, nor will a child be of any, avail to his father." On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) every person will be so worried about his own plight that he will not be bothered about the next person even though the person may be as close as his father or his son. None will be prepared to suffer on behalf of another.

The facts mentioned about the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) should not be taken lightly because "Verily Allāh's promise is true. Therefore, every person should treat the matter seriously and act accordingly.

"So let not the life of this world beguile you..." "This part of the verse may refer to those who do not accept Islām for fear of losing some wealth or worldly status. It also applies to those Muslims who have made the life of this world their primary objective and concentrate all their efforts towards the world. So doing, they neglect their religious obligations and fall into all types of vice and sin.

"and do not allow the great deceiver to beguile you regarding Allāh." Satan (Shaytān), in conjunction with man's carnal self, instigate him to sin and deceive him by telling him that he can miss Salāh and Zakāh, because he can always carry these out another time. They also entice him to sin with the notion that Allāh will forgive him. Allāh cautions man not to be deceived in this manner, but to be careful not to destroy his life in the Hereafter by falling for the deception.

إِنَّ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَيُنَزِّلُ الْغَيْثَ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا فِي الْأَرْحَامِ وَمَا تَدْرِي نَفْسٌ
مَّاذَا تَكْسِبُ غَدًا وَمَا تَدْرِي نَفْسٌ بِأَيِّ أَرْضٍ تَمُوتُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ خَبِيرٌ ﴿٣٤﴾

(34) Verily the knowledge of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is only with Allāh. He sends the rains and knows what is in the wombs. A soul does not know what it will earn tomorrow and does not know which land it will die in. Undoubtedly Allāh is All Knowing, Informed.

ONLY ALLĀH POSSESSES THE KNOWLEDGE OF FIVE MATTERS

The Qur'ān asserts on numerous occasions that Only Allāh has knowledge of the un seen. Of course, He does inform some of His chosen servants about certain aspects of this knowledge when He wills.

Muslim reports that when Jibr'il عليه السلام asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the time when Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will take place, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم submitted, "The one being asked has no more knowledge than the one asking."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said that there are five matters about which only Allāh has knowledge. He then recited the above verse of Surah Luqman. [Muslim]

These five matters contained in the above verse are as follows:

1. The "knowledge of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is only with Allāh..." i.e. only He knows when Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will take place.

2. Only "He sends the rains."
3. Only He "knows what is in the wombs."
4. "A soul does not know what it will earn tomorrow" Only Allāh knows this.
5. A soul "does not know which land it will die in." This knowledge is also exclusive to Allāh.

This is so because "Undoubtedly Allāh is All Knowing, Informed."

Nowadays people claim that, using scientific instruments, they are also able to tell when rain will fall and what baby is in the womb. They only fool themselves because their knowledge cannot be compared to Allāh's. Allāh knew these things before the existence of creation and knows the detailed contents of every womb. While scientific instruments can only tell gender after a certain period of time (then also subject to error), and need to know factors such as wind direction and moisture content in the air before predicting rainfall, Allāh always knows exactly what type of person is to be born to every mother and exactly when, where and how much rain will fall. Allāh knows every minute detail of the child, including his spiritual life and whether the rainfall will be beneficial or detrimental.

Besides the factors mentioned in the verse, there is much more that man has no knowledge about. Only Allāh possesses certain knowledge of all unseen matters.

سورة السجدة

Makkan

Surah As-Sajdah

Verses 30

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْم تَنْزِيلَ الْكِتَابِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ مِنْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٢﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَاهُ
بَلْ هُوَ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لِتُنذِرَ قَوْمًا مَّا أَتَتْهُمْ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَهْتَدُونَ
﴿٣﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَى عَلَى
الْعَرْشِ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا شَفِيعٍ أَفَلَا تَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, The Beneficent, The Most Merciful.

(1) Alif Lām Mīm. (2) There is no doubt in this revealed Book from the Lord of the universe. (3) Or do they say that he has fabricated it? Nay! It is the truth from your Lord so that you warn a nation to whom a warner has not come before you, so that they may be rightly guided. (4) It is Allāh Who created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two in six days and then rose to the Throne. Besides Him, you have no Protecting Friend, nor any intercessor. Will you not take heed?

THE QUR'ĀN IS THE TRUTH FROM ALLĀH WHO CREATED THE HEAVENS, THE EARTH AND WHATEVER IS BETWEEN IN SIX DAYS

None but Allāh knows the meaning of the opening verse because it is from the Hurūf Muqatta'āt, as explained at the very beginning of Surah Baqarah. Allāh declares that the Qur'ān is a revelation from Him, after which He quotes the polytheists who say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fabricated the Qur'ān. Allāh replies to their objection by stating, "Nay! It is the truth from your Lord..." Allāh then sheds light on the objective of the Qur'ān. Allāh says that He revealed the Qur'ān "so that you warn a nation to whom a warner has not come before you, so that they may be rightly guided."

The "nation" referred to in this verse is the people of Makkah. Although none of the previous Prophets عليهم السلام came to them, they did receive the message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) from others and were aware of the Prophets عليهم السلام.

They were the descendants of Sayyidina Ibrahim and Isma'il عليهما السلام, both of whom were Prophets عليهم السلام. They therefore received the message of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) from their origins, and knew that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام worshipped only One Allāh. Therefore, one cannot argue that they should be exempted from punishment because no Prophet was specifically sent to them.

Allāh says in Surah Fātir, "A warner passed in every nation." A warner" does not necessarily have to be a Prophet, but can be a representative of Prophet or any religious scholar who preached oneness of Allāh (Tauhid)

"It is Allāh Who created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two in six days and then rose to the Throne." The explanation of this has passed in the commentary of verse 54 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7) and verse 59 of Surah Furqān (Surah 25).

"Besides Him, you have no Protecting Friend, nor any intercessor. Will you not take heed?" None can help another against Allāh's punishment, nor can anyone intercede on behalf of another without Allāh's permission.

يُدِيرُ الْأَمْرَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ ثُمَّ يَعْرُجُ إِلَيْهِ فِي يَوْمٍ كَانَ مِقْدَارُهُ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ
مِّمَّا تَعُدُّونَ ﴿٥﴾

(5) He ordains every affair from the heavens to the earth, after which every affair will ascend to Him on a day, the duration of which is a thousand years according to your count.

ALLĀH ORDAINS ALL AFFAIRS, ALL OF WHICH WILL ASCEND TO HIM ON A DAY EQUAL TO A THOUSAND YEARS

Everything that occurs in the universe takes place only by Allāh's ordinance, according to His divine plan. All of creation and their deeds will be presented before Allāh on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), when He will pass judgement. The Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) will be equal in length to a thousand years of this world.

While the above verse mentions that the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) will span a thousand years, a verse of Surah Ma'ārij states that the duration will be fifty thousand years. When Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه was questioned about this apparent discrepancy, he replied, "Allāh has mentioned these two days in His Book and He knows best about their reality. I dislike to pass a comment pertaining to Allāh's Book without knowledge."

Some commentators have mentioned that the difference in duration will be with regard to different people. To some people, the day will seem to last a thousand years, while it would appear to others that it is fifty thousand years because of the added torment they will suffer. In fact, according to a hadith, the day will be so easy for the pious believers (Mu'minīn) that it will seem to them as short as the time taken to perform two Rakāhs of Salāh.

ذَٰلِكَ عَلِيمٌ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٦﴾ الَّذِي أَحْسَنَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقَهُ
وَبَدَأَ خَلْقَ الْإِنسَانِ مِن طِينٍ ﴿٧﴾ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ نَسْلَهُ مِن سُلَالَةٍ مِّن مَّاءٍ مَّهِينٍ ﴿٨﴾
ثُمَّ سَوَّاهُ وَنَفَخَ فِيهِ مِن رُّوحِهِ وَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ وَالْأَبْصَارَ وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ قَلِيلًا مَّا
تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٩﴾ وَقَالُوا أَإِذَا ضَلَلْنَا فِي الْأَرْضِ أَإِنَّا لَفِي خَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ بَلْ هُم بِلِقَاءِ
رَبِّهِمْ كَافِرُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ قُلْ يَنفِقَلَكُمْ مَلَكُ الْمَوْتِ الَّذِي ذُكِّرَ بِكُمْ ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ
تَرْجَعُونَ ﴿١١﴾

(6) It is He Who has knowledge of the un seen and the seen. He is Mighty, the Most Merciful. (7) He has perfected the creation of everything and originated the creation of man from sand. (8) He has then made man's progeny from a product of lowly water. (9) He then perfected him, blew His spirit in him, and granted you ears, eyes and hearts. Little is the gratitude you show. (10) They say, "When we are lost in the earth, will we really be re-created?" The fact is that they reject the meeting with their Lord. (11) Say, "The angel of death, who is appointed over you, will claim your souls, after which you will be returned to your Lord."

THE CREATION AND PERFECTION OF MAN

In these verses, Allāh continues to describe His phenomenal attributes. Allāh says that 'It is He Who has knowledge of the un seen and the seen.' Allāh is Aware of everything that man can see and whatever he cannot see. Allāh is also aware of every event to occur in the future as well. Added to this, Allāh is also "Mighty, the Most Merciful."

"He has perfected the creation of everything..." According to Allāh's perfect wisdom, He has created everything in accordance to its function. Consequently, every creature carries out its designated function according to Allāh's perfect design. Therefore, even if something does not appear to be physically beautiful, it does not mean that Allāh created it imperfectly.

Allāh also "originated the creation of man from sand." The details of this have been given in Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verse 26] and also appear in the concluding verses of Surah Sād [Surah 38, verse 71].

"He has then made man's progeny from a product of lowly water." After Allāh created Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, He made the rest of mankind reproduce via the male and female sexual act, whereby the child is born of the mother's fertilized womb, referred to above as a "product of lowly water (sperm)."

"He then reinvested him (by forming his limbs and organs within the womb), blew His spirit in him, and (fashioned you when He) granted you ears, eyes and hearts." Thereafter, the child is born with all the capabilities of a human being, gradually progressing through the various stages of development.

Whereas man is supposed to be grateful to Allāh for all of these bounties, Allāh declares, "Little is the gratitude you show." Of mankind, there are very few who truly express their gratitude to Allāh. Of these, there are even fewer who are as grateful as they ought to be.

"They say, 'When we are lost in the earth, will we really be re-created?' The fact is that they reject the meeting with their Lord." In this verse, Allāh repeats the subject matter of many other verses, highlighting the way the disbelievers rejected the belief in resurrection after death.

Allāh announces, "Say, 'the angel of death, who is appointed over you, will claim your souls, after which you will be returned to your Lord.'" This verse makes it clear that all will have to die, after which they will be resurrected and presented before Allāh on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh has appointed the angel of death to extract every person's soul. It will be then that the punishment of the disbelievers will begin.

وَلَوْ تَرَىٰ إِذِ الْمُجْرِمُونَ نَاكِسُوا رُءُوسِهِمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ رَبَّنَا أَبْصَرْنَا وَسَمِعْنَا
فَارْجِعْنَا نَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا إِنَّا مُوقِنُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَلَوْ شِئْنَا لَآتَيْنَا كُلَّ نَفْسٍ هُدًى
وَلَكِن حَقَّ الْقَوْلُ مِنِّي لَأَمْلَأَنَّ جَهَنَّمَ مِنَ الْإِنسِ وَالْجِنِّ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ فَذُوقُوا
بِمَا نَسِيتُمْ لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ هَٰذَا إِنَّا نَسِينَاكُمْ وَذُوقُوا عَذَابَ الْخُلْدِ بِمَا كُنتُمْ
تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٤﴾

(12) If only they saw the scene when the criminals will bow their heads before their Lord (saying) "O our Lord! We have seen and we have heard. Return us so that we may carry out good deeds. We are now certainly convinced." (13) If We willed, We would have granted every soul its guidance. However, the decree has issued from Me that I will surely fill Hell with a collection of man and Jinn. (14) "So taste (the punishment) because you forgot this day! We have forgotten you as well. Taste of the eternal punishment because of the deeds you perpetrated!"

THE MISERABLE PLIGHT OF THE SINNERS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH), AND THEIR REQUEST TO BE RETURNED TO THIS WORLD

The previous verses quoted the disbelievers who said, "When we are lost in the earth, will we really be re-created?" Now the above verses speak about these very same people when they will find themselves before Allāh on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh says, "If only they saw the scene when the criminals will bow their heads before their Lord (saying) 'O our Lord! We have seen and we have heard. Return us so that we may carry out good deeds. We are now certainly convinced (about the truth of what the Prophets عليهم السلام and their successors told us).'" Of course, then it will be too late to make amends.

Allāh says further, "If we willed, We would have granted every soul its guidance. However, the decree has issued from Me that I will surely fill Hell with a collection of man and Jinn (who have perpetrated disbelief)."

When Iblis (Satan) had sworn that he would mislead man, Allāh had already told him then, "I shall certainly fill Hell with you and all those who follow you."

When 'hidayah' (guidance), is interpreted as 'pointing out the right direction,' then every person will receive this type of guidance. However, if 'hidayah' is interpreted as 'taking a person to the right destination,' then everyone is not blessed with this.

Allāh has clearly defined the path of belief (Imān) and the path of disbelief. Each person has been given the freedom to choose. Allāh says in Surah Kahf, "Speak the truth that comes from your Lord. Whomsoever is willing, should believe, and whoever is unwilling should remain as a disbeliever. We have surely prepared for the oppressors a Fire, the walls of which will encompass them." [Surah 18, verse 29]

Of course, in His eternal knowledge, Allāh was always aware of the fact that certain people would be destined for Heaven, while others will be doomed to Hell.

The promise of being good upon returning to the world is a blatant lie, as Allāh says in Surah An'am, "If they were to be sent back (to the world), they would return to what they had been prohibited from and they truly are liars." [Surah 6, verse 28]

In Surah Fātir, Allāh mentions that they will receive the following reply to their request to be returned: "Did We not grant you sufficient age in which the one who takes heed may take heed? And did a warner not come to you? So taste (of the punishment)! The oppressors will not have a helper." [Surah 35, verse 37]

Allāh will then tell them, "So taste (the punishment) because you forgot this day! We have forgotten you as well. Taste of the eternal punishment because of the deeds you perpetrated!"

إِنَّمَا يُؤْمِنُ بِآيَاتِنَا الَّذِينَ إِذَا ذُكِّرُوا بِهَا خَرُّوا سُجَّدًا وَسَبَّحُوا بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَهُمْ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ تَتَجَافَى جُنُوبُهُمْ عَنِ الْمَضَاجِعِ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُم مِّن قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ أَفَمَن كَانَ مُؤْمِنًا كَمَن كَانَ فَاسِقًا لَا يَسْتَوُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ أَمَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَلَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ الْمَأْوَى نُزُلًا بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ فَسَقُوا فَمَأْوَاهُمُ النَّارُ كُلَّمَا أَرَادُوا أَن يَخْرُجُوا مِنْهَا أُعِيدُوا فِيهَا وَقِيلَ لَهُمْ ذُوقُوا عَذَابَ النَّارِ الَّتِي كُنتُمْ بِهِ تَكْذِبُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَلَنَذِيقَنَّهُمْ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ

الَّذِينَ دُونَ الْعَذَابِ الْأَكْبَرِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ ذُكِّرَ بِآيَاتِ
رَبِّهِ ثُمَّ أَعْرَضَ عَنْهَا إِنَّا مِنَ الْمُجْرِمِينَ مُنْقِمُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾

(15) Only those people believe in Our verses who, when they are reminded about them, they fall in prostration, glorify the praises of their Lord and do not behave arrogant. (16) Their sides part from their beds, they supplicate to their Lord in fear and hope, and they spend from what We have provided for them. (17) No soul knows what pleasures are hidden for him as a reward for the deeds he carries out. (18) Can he who believes be like him who is a sinner? They can never be the same. (19) As for those who believe and do good deeds, as entertainment for them, there shall be gardens in places of rest because of the deeds they carry out. (20) As for those who are sinful, their abode shall be the Fire. Each time they attempt to emerge from it, they will be returned to it and told, "Taste of the punishment of the Fire which you used to deny." (21) We shall definitely let them taste the closer punishment before the greater punishment so that they may return. (22) Who is more unjust than he who is reminded of the verses of his Lord and then turns away from them? We will certainly exact retribution from the criminals.

HEAVEN FOR THE BELIEVERS AND HELL FOR THE DISBELIEVERS

Describing the traits of the believers (Mu'minīn), Allāh says, "Only those people believe in Our verses who, when they are reminded about them, they fall in prostration, glorify the praises of their Lord do not behave arrogantly." These are the people who truly heed the advice given to them by Allāh.

Further describing them, Allāh says, "Their sides part from their beds, they supplicate to their Lord in fear and hope, and they spend from what We have provided for them." This verse praises those who perform Tahajjud Salāh. They sleep only a short while at nights, after which they separate from their beds to offer their devotions to Allāh. They pray fervently to Allāh, hoping for His favours and fearing retribution for their shortcomings.

Fear and hope form an integral part of a Muslim's life so that he always carries out good deeds (anticipating rewards from Allāh) and abstains from evil (fearing the punishment for it). The person who has no fear for Allāh will succumb to sin and will not be inclined to perform good deeds.

Only performance of Tahajjud is mentioned in this verse because it is obvious that the person who is particular about Tahajjud will be particular about the other Salāh as well.

In addition to the above, Allāh mentions that these pious believers (Mu'minīn) also spend from the wealth that Allāh has given them. The general implication of these words includes Zakāh as well as optional charity, be it little or a great deal. Spending in charity does not mean that a person has to be wealthy because a poor person can also spend according to his means, even though the sum may be small. It has been reported that certain poor Sahābah رضى الله عنهم specifically took employment to carry out menial tasks so that they could spend the accrued funds in charity.

THE VIRTUE OF TAHAJJUD SALĀH

As already mentioned, the verse "Their sides part from their beds..." refers to the performance of the Tahajjud Salāh. This is corroborated by a hadith in which Sayyidina Mu'ādh bin Jabal رضى الله عنه narrates that, on a journey, he once asked The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to inform him of a deed which would allow him to enter Heaven and to remain distant from Hell.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "You have asked a great question, which, in reality, is not really very difficult because Allāh makes anything easy for whoever he wills. (The deed is that) you worship Allāh without ascribing partners to Him, establish Salāh, pay Zakāh, fast in Ramadhān and perform the Hajj of Allāh's house. Should I not inform you of the doors of good?" Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم proceeded to enumerate the following:

Fasting is a shield (which protects one from the attacks of Satan (Shaytān) and one's carnal passions).

Charity extinguishes sins (i.e. it protects one from the Fire of Hell).

Performing Salāh during the middle of the night is the special sign of Allāh's pious bondsmen.

After mentioning this third point, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse, "Their sides part from their beds, they supplicate to their Lord in fear and hope, and they spend from what We have provided for them."

Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم continued to say, "Shall I not inform you of the root of Allāh's commands and the pillar of it?" When Sayyidina Mu'ādh رضى الله عنه asked to be enlightened, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The root of Allāh's commands is obedience, the pillar is Salāh, and the pinnacle is Jihād. Should I not inform you of the source of all this (whereby all will be practicable)?" When Sayyidina Mu'ādh رضى الله عنه asked to be informed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم held his tongue saying, "Control this and secure salvation for yourself."

Sayyidina Mu'ādh bin Jabal رضى الله عنه then asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Will we be taken to task for the things we say?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "O Mu'ādh! It is strange that you should ask such a question! People will be flung headlong into Hell solely on account of the things they say. You are safe as long as you remain silent. When you speak, your speech may be a cause for you to be rewarded or punished." ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"]

"Mishkāṭ" p. 14 also corroborates the fact that "Their sides part from their beds..." refers to those who perform Tahajjud. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" has reported from Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه that the verse refers to the Ansār. They used to attend the Maghrib Salāh and not return home until they had also performed the Isha behind the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He has also reported that the verse refers to all those Sahābah رضى الله عنهم who continued to perform Salāh between Maghrib and Isha Salāh.

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Ubādah bin Sāmīt رضى الله عنه have all mentioned that the verse praises those people who perform the Isha and Fajr Salāh with Jamā'ah (in congregation). ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 3 p. 500]

None of the above interpretations contradict each other because the verse may denote all of them simultaneously. When a person is able to part from his bed for the optional Tahajjud Salāh, he will certainly be able to do so for Fajr Salāh, which is obligatory. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه mentioned that he prefers to perform the Fajr Salāh with Jamā'ah (Congregation) rather than stand in Tahajjud Salāh the entire night through. ["Mishkāt"]

Sayyidah Asmā bint Yazīd رضى الله عنها reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that people will all be gathered together before Allāh on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). An announcement will then be made with the words, "Where are those who parted their sides from their beds?" Thereupon a small group of people will arise and enter Heaven without reckoning. Thereafter reckoning will commence for the rest of the people. ["Mishkāt" p. 487]

Allāh makes a concise mention of the bounties of Heaven when he says, "No soul knows what pleasures are hidden for him as a reward for the deeds he carries out."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh says, 'I have prepared for My bondsmen such pleasures in Heaven, which his eyes have never seen, his ears have never heard of, and which have never crossed his mind.'" Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه then added, "If you wish, you may recite the verse, 'No soul knows what pleasures are hidden for him as a reward for the deeds he carries out'." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 704]

In reality, no bounty of Heaven can be described. The description of Heaven given in the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth cannot adequately depict the pleasures of Heaven. When people reach Heaven, they will find much more than what they were promised in the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. These pleasures cannot be perceived in this world.

Sayyidina Sa'd bin Abi Waqās رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If a minute article of Heaven, small enough to be lifted by a fingernail, was brought into this world, everything between the heavens and the earth would be beautified by it. If a person from Heaven was to peek into this world, the illumination from a single bangle he wears will eliminate the radiance of the sun just as the sun eliminates the radiance of the stars." ["Mishkāt"]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that nothing of this world shall be found in Heaven. The only similarity between the things of Heaven and those in this world will be in name and appearance. This means that the gold, silver, silk, fruit, etc of Heaven will be vastly superior to their namesakes of this world.

Note: In praise of His pious bondsmen Allāh says, "and they are not arrogant." Pride and arrogance causes one to think highly of oneself, to look down on others, and to seek fame. One then begins to engage in acts of worship so that people laud and praise one. Pride and ostentation destroy the rewards of all good deeds, causing one to be subjected to punishment. Allāh's bondsmen should steer clear of pride and duly fulfil all the obligations stipulated by the Shari'ah, be these optional or obligatory.

A BELIEVER (MU'MIN) AND A SINNER CAN NEVER BE THE SAME

Further praising the believers (Mu'minīn), Allāh says, "Can he who believes be like him who is a sinner?" Allāh then replies when he says, "They can never be the same."

Describing the rewards of these believers (Mu'minīn), Allāh says, "As for those who believe and do good deeds, as entertainment for them, there shall be gardens in places of rest because of the deeds they carry out."

Allāh then projects the opposite side of the picture when He says, "As for those who are sinful, their abode shall be the Fire. Each time they attempt to emerge from it, they are returned to it and are told, 'Taste the punishment of the Fire which you used to deny. Therefore, how can people be the same when they are destined to experience such a diverse consequences?'"

The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" writes that the verse "Can he who believes be like him who is a sinner?" was revealed with reference to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه and a polytheist called Walid bin Uqba bin Abi Mu'it. When an altercation erupted between the two, Walid said to Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, "Be silent! You are a mere child. I speak better than you, can throw a spear more accurately than you, and am more courageous. 'In reply to this, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه said, "You should be silent! You are a sinner!" It was then that the above verse was revealed.

"We shall definitely let them taste of the closer (worldly) punishment before the greater punishment (in the Hereafter) so that they may return." The following two interpretations of this verse have been reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه:

❏ The worldly punishment mentioned in this verse refers to sever drought that crippled the people of Makkah..

❏ This punishment refers to defeat of the Makkan Polytheists at the battle of Badr and the death of many of their leaders on this occasion.

The above two interpretations will apply if it is assumed that "them" refers to the polytheists of Makkah. However, it will also be correct to assume that the verse applies equally to every disbeliever in every era. They will therefore be afflicted with various calamities and diseases as a punishment in this very world. This interpretation has been reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه. Allāh afflicts them with these adversities so that they may take heed and sense the need to mend their ways and to become Muslims. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 21 Pgs. 134, 135]

Allāh states further, "Who is more unjust than he who is reminded of the verses of his Lord and then turns away from them? We will certainly extract revenge from the criminals." In this verse, Allāh makes it clear that those who deny His verses are unjust and oppressive. The verse also consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because it states that Allāh will take the disbelievers to task for their misdemeanours.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that while an earlier verse of the Surah spoke about those who prostrate when they hear Allāh's verses, this verse discusses the opposite side of the coin and condemns those who turn away in aversion when they hear Allāh's verses being recited.

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ فَلَا تَكُنْ فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِّنْ لِّقَائِهِ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ هُدًى لِّبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا مِنْهُمْ أَئِمَّةً يَهْدُونَ بِأَمْرِنَا لَمَّا صَبَرُوا وَكَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يُوقِنُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُم يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾

(23) Undoubtedly, We gave the Book to Mūsa, so never be in doubt about receiving it. And We made it a means of guidance for the Bani Isrā'īl. (24) We made leaders from them, who guided under Our command when they were patient and were convinced about Our verses. (25) Indeed, only your Lord shall decide between them on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) concerning the matters in which they differed.

ALLĀH WILL DECIDE THE MATTERS ABOUT WHICH PEOPLE DIFFER

Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, We gave the Book to Mūsa, so never be in doubt about receiving it." Just as Allāh revealed the Torah to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, He revealed the Qur'ān to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh therefore urges the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never to doubt the fact that these divine scriptures are really from Allāh. The verse also alludes to the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should never be despondent when people harass him because they did the same to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, but he persevered and withstood all opposition. Just as the Torah was Allāh Book, so too is the Qur'ān.

Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه has interpreted the verse to mean that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should never doubt the difficulties which Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام endured.

"And We made it (the Torah) a means of guidance for the Bani Isrā'īl." In the same way, the Qur'ān is a means of guidance for the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

"We made leaders from them (the Bani Isrā'īl), who guided under Our command when they were patient and were convinced about Our verses." This verse denotes that patience is of paramount importance when one is a leader and a guide of others. The conviction that these leaders had in Allāh's verses made them resolute and granted them fortitude in their efforts of propagation. Certain commentators mention that these "leaders" were the Prophets عليهم السلام, while others maintain that they also included those followers of these Prophets عليهم السلام who propagated the teachings of their Prophets.

The second interpretation seems more appropriate because Allāh adds, "and were convinced about Our verses." Since the Prophets عليهم السلام were always convinced about Allāh's verses, the addition would be redundant if applied to them. The verse therefore applies to all propagators of religion.

'Indeed, only your Lord shall decide between them on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) concerning the matters in which they differed.' The result of this decision will be that the believers (Mu'minīn) will be entered into Heaven, while the disbelievers will be condemned to Hell. The verse also consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because it tells him that Allāh will deal with his opponents on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

أَوَلَمْ يَهْدِ لَهُمْ كَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ يَمْشُونَ فِي مَسْكِنِهِمْ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ أَفَلَا يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾
أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا سَوَّيْنَا الْمَاءَ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ الْجُرُزِ
فَنُخْرِجُ بِهِ زَرْعًا تَأْكُلُ مِنْهُ أَنْعَامُهُمْ وَأَنْفُسُهُمْ أَفَلَا يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾

(26) Have they not been guided by the fact that We destroyed so many generations before them? They even walk in their settlements. There are certainly many signs in this. Do they not listen? (27) Do they not see that We dispatch water to arid land, thereby extracting plants from which your animals and you eat? Do they not see?

LEARNING LESSONS FROM THE PREVIOUSLY DESTROYED NATIONS AND ALLĀH'S BOUNTY IN SENDING RAIN TO IRRIGATE WATERLESS LAND

Those people who denied the apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم even denied the warnings of pending punishment. Referring to such people, Allāh asks, "Have they not been guided by the fact that We destroyed so many generations before them?"

Not only did the polytheists of Makkah hear the historical accounts of the destroyed nations, but they even witnessed the ruins of their once thriving cities when they travelled for trade to Shām (Syria). With reference to this Allāh says, "They even walk in (the ruins of) their settlements. There are certainly many signs in this. Do they not listen?"

Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Many were the towns that We destroyed when they were oppressive. They now lie collapsed upon their roofs, and many are the disused wells and the fortresses that were once well built." [Surah 22, verse 45]

Allāh then makes reference to those who deny that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will occur. He asks, "Do they not see that We dispatch water to arid land, thereby extracting plants from which your animals and you eat? Do they not see (that Allāh can resurrect man in the same way)?"

Allāh says in Surah Rūm, "So look at the signs of Allāh 's mercy and how He revives the earth after its death. Undoubtedly, He gives life to the dead and He has power over all things." [Surah 30, verse 50]

وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْفَتْحُ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾ قُلْ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ لَا يَنْفَعُ الَّذِينَ
كَفَرُوا إِيمَانُهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنْظَرُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ فَأَعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ وَانْتَظِرْ إِلَيْهِمْ مَنَظِرُوكَ

﴿٣٠﴾

(28) They say, "When will this decision take place if you are truthful?" (29) Say, "On the day of the decision, the faith of the disbelievers will be of no avail to them, neither will they be granted respite." (30) So turn away from them and wait. They are also waiting.

THE FAITH OF THE DISBELIEVERS WILL BE USELESS TO THEM ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

When the disbelievers are informed about Allāh's judgement on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), they mockingly say, "When will this decision take place if you are truthful?" They ask to be informed about the precise date of Judgment day (Qiyāmah). Allāh tells them not to be hasty in the matter because Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will certainly dawn, when they will not be able to escape Allāh's punishment. The fact that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) has not yet dawned does not mean that it will not occur.

In fact they will be in such a forlorn state on that day that Allāh says, "Say, 'On the day of the decision, the faith of the disbelievers will be of no avail to them, neither will they be granted respite (if they were to beg for it)'".

"So turn away from them..." They will have to face the disastrous consequences of their disbelief because they refuse to yield to the truth.

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "and wait. They are also waiting." Allāh bids the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to patiently await Allāh's assistance just as the disbelievers await Allāh's punishment.

سورة الاحزاب

Madinan

Surah Al-Ahzāb

Verses 73

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ اتَّقِ اللَّهَ وَلَا تُطِعِ الْكَافِرِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقِينَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمًا
 (1) وَأَتَّبِعْ مَا يُوْحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرًا (2)
 وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ وَكِيلًا (3)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Fear Allāh and do not follow the disbelievers and the hypocrites. Undoubtedly Allāh is ever the All Knowing, the Wise. (2) Follow what has been revealed to you from your Lord. Allāh is Ever Informed about what you do. (3) Rely only on Allāh. Allāh is sufficient as a Helper.

FEAR ALLĀH AND RELY ONLY ON HIM WITHOUT FOLLOWING THE DISBELIEVERS AND HYPOCRITES

The Arabic word "Ahzāb" is the plural of "hizb," which means a 'group' or 'party.' In the 5th year after the Hijrah (migration), the Quraysh of Makkah and numerous other tribes converged on Madinah in opposition to the Muslims. The ensuing battle was consequently named the battle of Ahzāb because of the numerous groups gathered there. The battle is also referred to as the battle of the trench because the Muslims had dug a trench around Madinah to defend the town.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that Surah Ahzāb was revealed when certain polytheists like Walid bin Mughiera and Shayba bin Rabī told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they would give him half of their wealth if he were to abandon his message. The Jews and hypocrites of Madinah has also threatened to kill the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم if he did not forsake his message. It was on this occasion that the Surah was revealed.

Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Fear Allāh and do not follow the disbelievers and the hypocrites. Undoubtedly Allāh is ever the All Knowing, the Wise. Follow what has been revealed to you from your Lord. Allāh is Ever Informed of what you do. Rely only on Allāh. A'lāh is sufficient as a Helper."

Allāh is well aware of the threats and bribes of the disbelievers, and permits these to take place so that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم can grow more resolute in his mission. This would encourage him to press on with greater fervour and reliance on Allāh, regardless of their harassment.

مَا جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِرَجُلٍ مِّن قَلْبَيْنِ فِي جَوْفِهِۦ وَمَا جَعَلَ أَزْوَاجَكُمُ النِّسَى تَظَاهِرُونَ مِنْهُنَّ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ وَمَا جَعَلَ أَدْعِيَاءَكُمْ أَبْنَاءَكُمْ ذَٰلِكُمْ قَوْلُكُمْ بِأَفْوَاهِكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَقُولُ الْحَقَّ وَهُوَ يَهْدِي السَّبِيلَ ﴿٤﴾ ادْعُوهُمْ لِأَبَائِهِمْ هُوَ أَقْسَطُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ فَإِن لَّمْ تَعْلَمُوا آبَاءَهُمْ فَإِخْوَانُكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَمَوَالِيكُمْ وَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا أَخْطَأْتُمْ بِهِ وَلَٰكِن مَّا تَعَمَّدَتْ قُلُوبُكُمْ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَّحِيمًا ﴿٥﴾

(4) Allāh has not placed two hearts within any man's chest, nor has He made your wives, with whom you practice "Zihār," your mothers. Allāh has also not made your adopted sons your own sons. This is merely a statement from your lips. Allāh speaks the truth and only He guides to the straight path. (5) Call them by their fathers. This is more just in the sight of your Lord. If you do not know their fathers, then they are your brothers in religion and your friends. There shall be no blame on you with regard to the errors you make, but only for what your hearts purposely intend. Allāh is ever the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful.

AN ACCOUNT OF A PERSON, WHO CLAIMED HAVING TWO HEARTS.

"Allāh has not placed two hearts within any man's chest..." Allama Qurtubi رحمه الله has written (v. 14 p. 116) that a person by the name of Jamil bin Ma'mar Fahri was renowned for his intelligence and outstanding memory. People claimed that he possessed two hearts, and he also claimed the same, adding that his intellectual perception was superior to that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

It transpired that he also participated in the battle of Badr. When the polytheists were defeated at Badr, Abu Sufyān inquired from Jamil about the result of the battle. He replied that the Makkans were conquered. Abu Sufyān then asked him why his one sandal was in his hand while the other was on his foot. He replied that he thought the sandal was on his foot. It was then that people realised that he was not really as intelligent as they thought.

THE DEFINITION OF ZIHĀR

The practice of 'Zihār' was common among the early Arabs. Zihār meant that they used to tell their wives, "You are like my mother's back to me." By saying this, they intended to state that their wives were perpetually forbidden for them to marry, just as their mothers were. If a Muslim has to say the same today, he will have to pay an expiation, the details of which are mentioned in the commentary of the opening verses of Surah Mujādalah (Surah 58).

Refuting the belief that a statement like the above could forbid a person's wife perpetually, Allāh says that He has not "made your wives, with whom you practice 'Zihār,' your mothers." Therefore, if any person practices Zihār, his wife will not be forbidden to him as his mother is, but he may still regard her as his wife after paying the compensation due.

ADOPTED CHILDREN

Another common practice among the early Arabs was that they regarded their adopted sons as their own. They would accord the same share of inheritance to the adopted child as they would give to their own children. They also believed that it was Harām (unlawful) for the adoptive father to marry the adopted son's wife after his death or after a divorce. People considered the adopted son to be the real son of the adoptive father, referring to him as his son.

Refuting this false notion, Allāh declares, "Allāh has also not made your adopted sons your own sons. This is merely a statement from your lips. Allāh speaks the truth and only he guides to the straight path (by declaring the fact that an adopted child cannot be regarded as a real child because s/he is not really so)."

Guiding people further in the matter, Allāh says, "Call them (the adopted children) by (the names of) their (biological) fathers. This is more just in the sight of your Lord. If you do not know their (real) fathers, then they are your brothers in religion and your friends." Therefore, if a person finds a child without knowledge of his real father, and then adopts him, he should address him as "My brother" or "My friend." The word "mawla" (translated above as 'friends') has several meanings. One of these is also 'nephew.'

"There shall be no blame on you with regard to the errors you make, but only for what your hearts purposely intend." If a person erroneously referred to his adopted son as his own, he will not be sinful for this slip of the tongue. However, if he purposely intends to contravene Allāh's command, he will be punished for it. However, "Allāh is ever the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." Therefore, there is always scope for repentance.

CERTAIN PERTINENT RULINGS

Ruling: An adopted child will still be related to his/her biological parents and other relatives. His/her relation with these relatives should be maintained and should not be severed.

Ruling: Since the Qur'ān explicitly mentions that the adopted child is not a real child, the child will have no share in the estate of the deceased adoptive parents. The rightful heirs have been stipulated by the Shari'ah. Of course, the adoptive parents are allowed to make a bequest in favour of the adopted child, but this should not exceed a third of the estate.

Ruling: Since the adopted child is not a real child, the adoptive parents have to implement the laws of Hijāb if the child is not related to them in any other way. The laws of Hijāb (veil) will therefore not apply to a woman who adopts her sister's son or a man who adopts his brother's daughter. This is so because these people are already closely related (Mahram). If the adopted male child is related only to the adoptive father, the adoptive mother will be regarded as a non-Mahram, therefore necessitating that he (the child) does not see her after he matures. The same will apply if the adopted daughter is only related to the adoptive mother and not to the father.

Ruling: A person's adopted son may marry the biological daughter of his adoptive parents if they are not Mahram to each other by any other relation.

Ruling: A person can marry the widowed or divorced wife of his adopted son if there are no other factors to outlaw the marriage. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم adopted son, Sayyidah Zaid bin Hāritha رضى الله عنه, married the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم cousin, Sayyidina Zainab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنه. When the couple were divorced, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married her.

When the ignorant Arabs objected to this marriage, Allāh rebutted their objection saying, "Allāh has also not made your adopted sons your own sons..."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that they (the Sahabah) always referred to Sayyidina Zaid bin Hāritha رضى الله عنه as Zaid bin (the son of) Muhammad. However, they stopped doing so when Allāh revealed the verse, "Allāh has also not made your adopted sons your own sons....."

Ruling: Although it is permissible to call other people's children "My son" or "My daughter," it is best not to do so.

Ruling: Just as it is impermissible to call another person's child your own, it is not permissible for one to refer to another person as his/her father. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that Heaven is forbidden for the person who refers to another as his father, knowing that the person is not his father. [Bukhari]

Ruling: If an unmarried woman conceives a child because of adultery, and then married someone other than the child's biological father, it will be Harām for her to claim that the child is her legal husband's child. It is also Harām (unlawful) for a man to deny being the father of his own child.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh disassociates Himself from the woman who includes a child within a family that does not belong to it. Allāh will never admit her into His Heaven. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also added that Allāh will distance a person from His mercy who denied being the father of his child while looking at the child. On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), Allāh will disgrace such a man in the presence of all mankind. [Abu Dawūd]

الَّذِينَ أَوْلَىٰ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجُهُمْ وَأُولُو الْأَرْحَامِ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلَىٰ
بِبَعْضٍ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُهَاجِرِينَ إِلَّا أَنْ تَفْعَلُوا إِلَىٰ أَوْلِيَائِكُمْ
مَعْرُوفًا كَانَ ذَٰلِكَ فِي الْكِتَابِ مَسْطُورًا ﴿٦﴾

(6) The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has a greater relationship with the believers than even their own selves, and his wives are their mothers. In Allāh's Book, relatives are closer to each other than the believers and the immigrants, unless you wish to do a good turn to your friends. This has been documented in the Book.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم HAS A GREATER RELATIONSHIP WITH THE BELIEVERS (MU'MINĪN) THAN THEY HAVE WITH THEMSELVES, AND HIS WIVES ARE THEIR MOTHERS

The above verse contains four themes. The first is expressed by the words, "The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has a greater relationship with the believers than even their own selves...". One of the interpretations of this verse is that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has more love and affection for every Mu'min than he may have for their his/her own self. Much of this has been discussed in the commentary of verse 127 of Surah Taubah (Surah 9), where Allāh says, "Undoubtedly a messenger from yourselves has come to you. The difficulties that afflict you are very distressing to him. He is anxious for you and extremely forgiving and merciful unto the believers."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم supplicated to Allāh saying, "O Allāh! I have a request to make to You, which I believe You will surely grant. I am but a human. Therefore, if I have ever hurt any believer, swore him, cursed him or lashed him, then convert this into a mercy for him and a means of purification, through which he may attain proximity to You on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)."

THE UNIVERSAL COMPASSION OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

وسلم

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrates that whenever a person in debt passed away, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would ask whether the deceased had made any arrangements for the debt to be settled. When a positive reply was received, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم performed the Janāza Salāh (Funeral prayer). However, if it were determined that the deceased had not arranged for the debts to be settled, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would not perform the Janāza Salāh (Funeral prayer). This was to illustrate the evil of not settling debts. However, when Allāh allowed the Muslims to conquer other territories (and wealth was accessible), the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed the Muslims thus: "I have "a greater relationship with the believers than even their own selves...". Therefore, if any believer (Mu'min) dies without settling his/her debt, then I shall assume the responsibility for settling it. Whatever wealth they leave behind will become the property of their heirs." [Muslim v. 2 p. 324]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم desired that no believer (Mu'min) should never suffer any difficulty in this world or in the Hereafter. Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "My example and yours is like a person who lit a fire. When it began to light all around him, moths began to fall into the fire. He tries to prevent them from flying into the fire, but they overcome him and continue to fall in it. This is my example. I am saving you from falling into the fire of Hell by grabbing hold of your waists. However, you are overcoming me and falling in it." [Bukhari and Muslim]

However, because of their infatuation with this world and falling prey to their whims, people are flocking to the fire of Hell. In fact, the concern of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for his Ummah is so great that he will also intercede for his Ummah on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that (although the du'ā (supplication) of every Holy Prophet عليه السلام is accepted by Allāh), they were all granted one special du'ā (supplication), the acceptance of which was guaranteed to a greater extent. While all the other Prophets عليهم السلام made this du'ā (supplication) in this world, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reserved his du'ā (supplication) for the Hereafter, when he will use it to intercede on behalf of his Ummah (followers). It will therefore benefit every member of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم Ummah (followers), on condition that they never perpetrated polytheism (shirk). [Muslim]

HONOUR AND RESPECT FOR THE WIVES OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Allāh also says that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives "are their mothers." It is therefore incumbent on every believer (Mu'min) to honour and revere the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives. Verse 53 of this Surah makes it clear that no person may marry the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives after his demise.

However, it was still necessary that every member of the Ummah observed the laws of Hijāb (veil) with regard to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives. Verse 53 of this Surah makes it clear that they should be asked for something only from behind a curtain.

DISTRIBUTION OF LEGACIES ACCORDING TO THE STIPULATED LAWS OF INHERITANCE

The third theme discussed in this verse is contained in the words, 'in Allāh's Book, relatives are closer to each other than the believers and the immigrants...' When the Makkan Muslims immigrated to Madinah, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fostered ties of brother hood between every Muhājir (immigrant) and an Ansār from Madinah. These ties were so strong that a "brother" from this type of bond even shared in the inheritance of his deceased 'brother.' The above verse and the concluding verse of Surah Anfāl abrogated this practice, as a result of which people shared only in the inheritance of their just heirs.

Allāh then adds the fourth theme when He says, "unless you wish to do a good turn to your friends." This part of the verse informs Muslims that although they cannot grant a share of the inheritance to their friends and other relatives, they may financially assist them in other ways. In fact, it is highly commendable that they do so.

"This has been documented in the Book." Certain commentators have mentioned that "the Book" refers to the Lowhul Mahfūdh (protected tablet). This means that the abrogation of inheritance on the basis of migratory brothers has been ordained in the Lowhul Mahfūdh (protected tablet). The only law still standing is to grant stipulated shares of the estate to stipulated heirs.

Other commentators have stated that "the Book" refers to the laws of inheritance, while another group of commentators is of the opinion that it refers specifically to this verse. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has mentioned that it refers to Allāh's divine decree and ordinance.

وَإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ وَمِنْ نُوحٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَىٰ وَعِيسَىٰ ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ
وَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُم مِّيثَاقًا غَلِيظًا ﴿٧﴾ لِّيَسْأَلَ الصَّادِقِينَ عَنْ صِدْقِهِمْ وَأَعَدَّ لِلْكَافِرِينَ
عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿٨﴾

(7)(Call to mind the time) when We took the covenant from the Holy Prophets; from you, Nūh, Ibrāhīm, Mūsā and Isā, the son of Maryam. We took a solemn covenant from them all... (8) ... so that He may ask the truthful about their truthfulness. Allāh has prepared a painful doom for the disbelievers.

THE COVENANT TAKEN FROM THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام

Allāh Ta'Aāla calls man attention to the time "when We took the covenant from the Holy Prophets; from you, Nūh, Ibrāhīm, Mūsā and Isā, the son of Maryam." Although the covenant was taken from all the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام, the above personalities are mentioned because they were especially eminent and all had their own Shari'ahs.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has been mentioned first because he was created before all the others. In support of this, he quotes narration from "Kitābul Mukhtār" by Sayyidina Dhiyā'ud dīn Maqdasī رحمه الله. The narration quotes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying that Allāh began the creation by creating him, even though he was sent as the last of the Holy Prophet. In another narration, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that he was the first to be created and the last to be sent as a Prophet. [Khasā'isul Kubra by Allama Suyuti رحمه الله عليه]

Another reason why the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is mentioned first is that he was the first to be made a Prophet. In support of this statement, Allama Suyuti رحمه الله عليه has reported many Ahadith.

"Mishkāt" reports a hadith from Tirmidhi in which the Sahabah رضی الله عنهم asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he became Prophet. In reply, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I was a Prophet when Ādam was still between soul and body."

A hadith reported by Sayyidina Irbādh bin Sāriya رضي الله عنه quotes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying that he was made the seal of the Prophets when Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was still in the form of clay.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 21 p. 154) writes that the covenant taken from the Prophets عليهم السلام dealt with fulfilling the duty of propagating the message, the Shari'ah, and to call people to the true religion.

"Mishkāt" (p. 24) contains a hadith in which Sayyidina Ubay bin Ka'b رضى الله عنه states that Allāh took this covenant from the Prophets عليهم السلام on the same day that He took the pledge of 'Mist' from mankind. Verse 81 of Surah Al Imrān (Surah 3) contains further details about this covenant.

"We took a solemn covenant from them all..." While some commentators say that this verse reiterates the previous one, others are of the opinion that the covenant was taken on oath a second time. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

".....so that He may ask the truthful about their truthfulness." This verse means that, on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), the Prophets عليهم السلام will be asked whether they fulfilled the conditions of the covenant.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the Day of Judgement, Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام will be summoned and asked whether he had propagated the message. He will reply in the affirmative after which, his nation will be asked whether he had brought the message to them. They will deny it, saying that no warner had come to them. Then Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام will be asked as to who will recommend his word, he will reply, "Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Ummah." After saying this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed his Ummah saying, "Thereafter you will be summoned and you will confirm his word saying that most assuredly Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام had conveyed the message and propagated the religion.

From narrations in the "Musnad" of Imām Ahmad رحمه الله عليه and other books it becomes evident that besides the people of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, the nations of other Holy Prophets عليهم السلام will also reject and say that their Holy Prophet did not convey the message to them. These Prophets عليهم السلام will also be asked whether they had fulfilled their duty. Upon replying in the affirmative, they will be requested to bring forth a witness. They will summon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Ummah for this task. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Ummah will then be asked to comment on this situation. In reply they will say that they confirm the word of the Holy Prophets. They will further be questioned as to how they possessed knowledge concerning this matter. In response they will say, "Our Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed us that all the Holy Prophets propagated the message to their respective nations." ("Durrul Manthūr" v. 1 p. 144)

The Prophets عليهم السلام will be questioned in the presence of their nations so that their nations may be witness to their truthfulness. With reference to this, Allāh says in the concluding verse of Surah Mā'idah, "Allāh will say, 'This is the day when the truth of the truthful shall profit them.'" [Surah 5, verse 119]

Allāh continues to say, "Allāh has prepared a painful doom for the disbelievers." Allāh also says in Surah Zumar, "Who can be more unjust than he who lies about Allāh, and falsifies the truth when it comes to him? Is there no abode for the disbelievers in Hell?" [Surah 39, verse 32]

يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَذْكُرُوا نِعْمَةَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ إِذْ جَاءَتْكُمْ جُنُودٌ فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيحًا

وَجُنُودًا لَّمْ تَرَوْهَا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرًا ﴿٩﴾ إِذْ جَاءُوكُم مِّن فَوْقِكُمْ وَمِنْ
 أَسْفَلَ مِنكُمْ وَإِذْ زَاغَتِ الْأَبْصَارُ وَبَلَغَتِ الْقُلُوبُ الْحَنَاجِرَ وَتَظُنُّونَ بِاللَّهِ
 الظُّنُونَا ﴿١٠﴾ هُنَالِكَ ابْتُلِيَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَزُلْزِلُوا زِلْزَالًا شَدِيدًا ﴿١١﴾

(9) O you who believe! Call Allāh's favour to mind when the armies approached you, against which We dispatched a wind and troops that you could not see. Allāh is Watchful over what you do. (10) When they approached you from above you and from beneath you. And when eyes were bewildered, hearts reached the throats and you harboured various thoughts about Allāh. (11) On that occasion, the believers were put to the test and violently shaken.

ALLĀH'S ASSISTANCE TO THE BELIEVERS (MU'MINĪN) DURING THE BATTLE OF AHZĀB AND THE MISERABLE STATE OF THE DISBELIEVERS

The battle of Ahzāb, also known as the battle of the trench (Khandaq), was fought in the 5th year after the Hijrah (migration). One would recall that the Jews lived in Madinah long before the arrival of two Arab tribes by the name of the Aws and the Khazraj. The Jews informed them that the final Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will soon arrive in Madinah. Therefore, when some Madinites met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم during the Hajj, they accepted Islām and brought the message home to their tribes. Gradually, they all became Muslims.

However, the Jews still refused to accept the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as a Prophet despite being convinced of it. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived in Madinah, he signed a peace accord with the three Jewish tribes living there at the time, viz. The Banu Qurayzah, Banu Nadhīr and Banu Qaynuqa.

It once transpired that the Banu Nadhīr summoned the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to come to their settlement to resolve the murder of two persons. However, they plotted to assassinate the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by appointing someone to drop a heavy boulder on him, thereby violating the peace treaty. Allāh informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about their sinister plot, after which he hastily returned home. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then sent a message with Sayyidina Muhammad bin Muslima رضى الله عنه to the Banu Nadhīr, commanding them to leave Madinah.

When the Jews received the message, the Hypocrites bade them to resist the command and promised them their support. Consequently, the Jews informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they would not leave Madinah. Appointing Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umm Maktūm رضى الله عنه as his deputy, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left with the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم for the Jewish settlement outside Madinah. By then the Jews had locked themselves within their fortress.

The hypocrites again pledged their support for the Jews by telling them that they would assist them to resist the Muslims. They even added that they would leave Madinah with the Jews if the Jews were ever banished. The Jews waited several days for the promised aid, but received none. They were eventually forced to surrender to the Muslim army. They sent a message to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entreating him to allow them to leave Madinah without killing them. They also requested that he permit them to take their weapons with them together with whatever possessions they could load on their camels.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted them to leave within three days. They then left Madinah. Most of them settled in Khaybar while others preferred to settle in Shām (Syria). ["Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" v. 4 p. 75]

This epic has been narrated as an introduction to the battle of Ahzāb. A detailed account of this incident will be mentioned in the commentary of Surah Hashr (Surah 59), Insha Allāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم distributed the remaining possessions as booty to the Muslim army. This incident took place in the 4th year after the Hijrah.

A DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE BATTLE OF AHZĀB

After being banished from Madinah, the Jews still attempted to harass the Muslims. Their leader arrived in Makkah and incited the polytheists to fight against the Muslims, pledging their assistance. When the polytheists asked the Jews whether their religion {of polytheism (shirk)} was better than that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Jews insolently attested that the polytheism (shirk) of the polytheists was better than the oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preached.

The Quraysh were extremely pleased to hear this and pledged their assistance to the Jews. Thereafter, the Jewish leader secured the support of the Ghitfān tribe and many other neighbouring tribes as well.

DIGGING A TRENCH TO SECURE MADINAH

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم received intelligence about the plans of the disbelievers, he called the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم to a meeting. It was then that Sayyidina Salmān Fārsī رضى الله عنه proposed that they dig a trench to halt the approach of the enemy. The proposal was accepted and the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم set to work. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself participated in the digging even though it was in winter.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم designated the boundaries of the trench and appointed group of ten men to dig 40 hand lengths. (Some scholars have mentioned that the trench was 3½ miles in length). Since Sayyidina Salmān رضى الله عنه was strong and healthy, the Muhājirīn (emigrants) and the Ansār wanted him to join their ranks in digging. Eventually the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that Sayyidina Salmān رضى الله عنه was neither a Muhaajir (emigrant), nor an Ansār, but a member of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم own family.

When the 12000 strong disbelievers army altived, they were surprised to find the trench stemming their march. The Arabs never employed such a strategy before. They were forced to camp on the further side of the trench. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took three thousand Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم with him and set up camp with Mount Sila at their back. The women and children were kept secure in fortresses.

THE DISBELIEVERS FAIL TO CROSS THE TRENCH

Although the trench made combat impossible, the disbelievers camped at the trench for a month. During this entire period, they failed to cross the trench. In the meantime, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Muslims held their positions. The situation was extremely difficult for the Muslims because they had to brave the biting cold and did not have enough provisions. In fact, the Muslims even dug the trench with rocks tied to their stomachs to suppress their hunger.

Describing the severity of their plight, Allāh says, "When they approached you from above you and from beneath you. And when eyes were bewildered, hearts reached the throats and you harboured various thoughts about Allāh. On that occasion, the believers were put to the test and violently shaken."

Commentators mention that 'from above you' refers to the easterly rise of the valley, where the Banu Ghitfān, their allies, the people of Najd, the Banu Qurayzah and the Banu Nadhīr camped. They mention further that 'from beneath you' refers to the slope where the Quraysh the Bani Kinanah and the people of Tihāmah camped.

"...you harboured various thoughts about Allāh." The general implication of the words includes the hypocrites as well as the sincere Muslims. While the believers (Mu'minīn) believed that Allāh would certainly assist them and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Hypocrites thought differently. They truly believed that all traces of the Muslims would be eliminated because the disbelievers greatly outnumbered the Muslims.

SOME DISBELIEVERS ARE KILLED

Although the disbelievers were unable to cross the trench, arrows were frequently exchanged. Attempting to cross the trench, some polytheists led their horses into the trench, only to meet disaster. One of these polytheist was a person named Amr bin Abd Wad. He was injured in the battle of Badr and could not participate in Uhud. On the occasion of the battle of the trench, he jumped into the trench and shouted for someone to face him in combat.

He was armed to the teeth on that occasion and the Arabs considered him to be worth a thousand warriors. Taking permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه responded to his challenge. When Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه faced him, Amr asked him to identify himself. Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه replied that he was Ali, the son of Abu Tālib. Amr told Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that he [Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه] was still young and that he did not like to spill his young blood. He requested that one of Sayyidina Ali's رضي الله عنه uncles face him in combat.

Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه replied, "But I wish to spill your blood." Infuriated by this statement, Amr drew his sword and attacked Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه most violently. He struck such a hard blow with his sword that it shattered Sayyidina Ali's رضي الله عنه shield. However, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه managed to strike a blow at Amr's shoulder, causing him to drop to the ground.

Dust rose as the two locked in combat, but eventually Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه was heard exclaiming "Allāhu Akbar". Everyone then knew that Amr was now no more. The polytheists requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to hand over his corpse to them for a price of ten thousand dirhams as a form of blood money (another narration places the figure at twelve thousand). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم let them have the corpse for nothing saying, "Let them have it. We do not consume the price of a corpse.

According to another narration, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Let them have it. His corpse is foul, as is the blood money.

A few other disbelievers were also killed in this battle, one of which was a Jew. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم aunt, Sayyidah Safiyya bint Abdil Muttalib رضي الله عنها killed him as he was spying on the women outside a fortress.

From the Muslims, Sayyidina Sa'd bin Mu'adh رضي الله عنه was fatally wounded by an arrow, which penetrated his medial arm vein. He supplicated to Allāh to grant him enough life to witness the humiliation and annihilation of the Banu Qurayzah. Allāh accepted this du'ā (supplication), as is explained further on, Insha Allāh. Of the martyrs during this battle, historians have mentioned the following names:

❏ Sayyidina Anas bin Aws رضي الله عنه

❏ Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Sahl رضي الله عنه

❏ Sayyidina Tufail bin Nu'mān رضي الله عنه

❏ Sayyidina Tha'laba bin Ghanama رضي الله عنه

❏ Sayyidina Ka'b bin Zaid رضي الله عنه

A FEW SALĀHS WERE MISSED ON ACCOUNT THE BATTLE

Because of engagement in the battle, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once missed the Asr Salāh. He cursed the enemy saying, "May Allāh fill their homes and graves with fire as they have distracted us from the middle Salāh until after sunset." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then made wudhu (ablution) and performed the Asr Salāh, followed by the Maghrib Salāh.

Another narration reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم missed four Salāhs during the battle, viz. Zuhr, Asr, Maghrib and Isha. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم performed all these lapsed (Qadha) Salāhs in sequence after a portion of the night had passed. The Isha Salāh was performed within its time, though a bit later.

THE HOLY PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم DU'Ā (SUPPLICATION)

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always engaged in du'ā (supplication) whenever faced with any difficulty. Before the enemy dispersed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made du'ā (supplication) incessantly for three days.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abi Awfa رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم supplicated thus:

(TRANSLATION: "O Allāh, Who has revealed the Book, Who is swift in reckoning and Who defeats the armies! O Allāh! Defeat them and shake them.”)

When the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم asked to be taught a du'ā (supplication), the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them to recite:

(TRANSLATION: “O Allāh! Safeguard our honour and replace our fear with peace.”)

THE DU'Ā (SUPPLICATION) IS ACCEPTED AND THE ENEMY IS DEFEATED

In response to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم du'ā (supplication), Allāh sent a severe wind, which uprooted the tents of the disbelievers, extinguished their fires and overturned their pots as they cooked. The wind was also bitterly cold and the disbelievers made up their minds to leave. Abu Sufyān, who was then the leader of the Quraysh, addressed the Quraysh saying, “We cannot remain here any longer. Our weapons have been destroyed and our animals are being killed. The Banu Qurayzah have broken the pledge and you can see the effects of the wind. Let us leave this place. I am leaving.” He then mounted his camel and left. The Quraysh followed him, after which the Ghitfān tribe followed suit.

Allāh says in the above verse. “O you who believe! Call Allāh's favour,” to mind when the armies approached you, against which We dispatched a wind and troops that you could not see.” These troops refer to the angels who were commissioned to instill fear into the hearts of the disbelievers. As the disbelievers retreated, the angels shouted, “Allāhu Akbar! Leave here. You cannot remain here.”

After the disbelievers had left. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that they would never again leave to fight the Muslims, but that the Muslims would subsequently attack them. [“Al Bidāya wan Nihāya”, “Sīrah of Ibn Hishām”, “Ma'ālimut Tanzīl”]

It then occurred that the next time the Muslims met with them was when Makkah was conquered. They all accepted Islām then.

INCIDENTS DURING THE DIGGING OF THE TRENCH

The trench was dug during winter, when there was a shortage of food. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم dug while rocks were tied on their bellies to suppress the overwhelming hunger. They had to excavate the sand and move it out on their backs.

All they had as rations was a handful of boiled barley served with smelly oil or fat. The food would be swallowed with great difficulty. It was on this occasion that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to hymn the words:

(TRANSLATION: “O Allāh! There is no life but the life of the Hereafter. So forgive the Muhājirīn and the Ansār.”)

In response to this, the Sahābah رضى الله عنه chanted the following couplet:

(TRANSLATION: ‘We are those who have pledged allegiance to Muhammad. To strive (for the preservation of Islām) as long as we live.”)

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exerted himself so much in the digging that his belly was not visible because of the amount of sand that settled on it. On this occasion he recited the following couplets of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Rawaha رضى الله عنه:

- (TRANSLATION: (1) “O Allāh! If it was not for You, we would not have been rightly guided. We would also not have spent in charity, nor performed Salāh.”
- (2) “Shower tranquillity upon us and make our feet firm when we meet the enemy.
- (3) “These people have surely transgressed against us, and we will oppose them if they intend to spread corruption.”)

Bukhari (v. 2 p. 588/9) reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم raised his voice as he said, “We will oppose them.” A narration of “Mishkāṭ” mentions that he twice repeated the phrase, “We will oppose them.”

THE HOLY PROPHET’S صلى الله عليه وسلم PROPHECY THAT THE MUSLIMS WILL CONQUER CERTAIN LANDS

While digging the trench, the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم encountered a boulder which they could not shift. When The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم learnt about this, he personally reduced it to dust with three blow of his spade.

According to certain narrations, a bright spark emerged as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم struck the boulder. The light of the spark was so intense that it illuminated both ends of Madinah. It appeared like a lantern burning on a very dark night. Exclaiming “Allāhu Akbar”, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم foretold future conquests, upon which the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم also shouted “Allāhu Akbar”. Sayyidina Salmān Fārsi and others Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the radiant light that flashed. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed that when the light flashed the first time, he saw the palaces of the city of Hira and the city of the Khosrau of Persia. Thereupon Sayyidina Jibr’īl عليه السلام informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that his Ummah will soon conquer these territories.

The second time, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw the red palaces of the Romans, and Jibr’īl عليه السلام told him that his Ummah will conquer these places as well. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then saw the palaces of San’ā (in Yemen), whereupon Jibr’īl عليه السلام also informed him that his Ummah will soon conquer the place. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told the Muslims to rejoice upon this news. They were extremely pleased and convinced about the reality of the prophesy.

When the hypocrites heard this, they mocked the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could see these distant places and prophesise the Muslim conquests, whereas they were engaged in the tedious effort of digging the trench.

According to other narrations, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited Bismillah when he struck the boulder for the first time, thereby breaking the first third. Thereupon he exclaimed, "Allāhu Akbar! I have been granted the treasures of Shām (Syria)." When the second third of the boulder collapsed upon the second strike of the spade, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāhu Akbar! I have been given the keys to Persia." Finally, when the boulder was crushed with the third strike, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exclaimed, "Allāhu Akbar! I have been given the keys to Yemen."

On that occasion the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم swore by Allāh that he was shown the red palace of Rome, the white palace of Madā'in and the doors of San'ā.

When these territories were conquered during the khilāfah (Caliphate) of Sayyidina Umar and Uthmān رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه used to say, "By the Being in whose control my life lies! The keys of these territories, and of all those you are to conquer until Qiyāmah (doomsday) have already been given to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, (i.e. He was already given the good news beforehand). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has passed on from this world and you people are achieving it all." ["Al Bidāya wān Nihāya" v. 4 p. 99-102]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم, "There will be no Caesar after this Caesar and no Khosrau (leader of Persia) after the Khosrau. By the Being in whose control is my life! You people will spend the treasures of the Caesar and Khosrau in Allāh's path."

In another hadith, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned, "Allāh has granted me the east and the west of the earth. The kingdom of my Ummah will extend to the territories Allāh has granted to me."

THE INVITATION OF SAYYIDINA JĀBIR رضى الله عنه

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that when the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم encountered a large boulder while digging the trench, they reported the matter to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that he would see to the matter. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stood up from his place, he had a stone fastened to his belly because of extreme hunger. Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه says that the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم had not tasted any food for the past three days.

He says that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم struck the boulder, it collapsed into a heap of sand. Taking permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه went home. Upon reaching home, he asked his wife whether they had anything to eat because he could sense the starvation felt by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. All she could produce was a leather bag containing one sā (approximately three kilograms) of wheat and their little tame kid goat.

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه then slaughtered the kid, placing the meat into a pot, while his wife ground the wheat to make flour. When the two were done, he left to invite the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to a meal. Before he left, his wife told him not to embarrass her in front of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (i.e. not to invite too many people to the meagre meal).

When Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه reached the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he said, "We have prepared a little food for you and one or two others you wish to bring with you." When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked about the quantity of food, Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه informed him about the situation. Thereupon, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the food was plenty and he made a loud announcement, "O people of the trench! Jābir has prepared a meal for us!" Consequently, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left for Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه house accompanied by all the Muhājirīn (emigrants) and Ansār.

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه hurried ahead to the house and informed his wife about the situation. In anger she said, "This is what I feared, I told you not to embarrass me before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Did you inform the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the entire situation?" When he replied in the affirmative, she said, "Then Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم know best." ["Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" v. 4 p. 98]

Upon reaching the house, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mixed a bit of his blessed saliva with the dough and the meat, praying for blessings. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then instructed that the lady be summoned for baking the bread and that the pot should not be removed from the fire. He then instructed the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم not to crowd the area and they all sat down.

When the bread and food were ready, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself served it to the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم until they were all satisfied. Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه says, "A thousand people ate from the meal. By Allāh! Each one of them ate to his fill and returned fully satisfied. Our pot cooked as much food as it originally contained, and the flour remained the same quantity as it was (i.e. the food remained as if it was untouched)." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then said to Sayyidina Jābir's رضى الله عنه wife, "Eat well from the leftovers and send some to your neighbours because people have been affected by starvation." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 588/9]

Allama Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله reports from Sayyidina Nu'mān bin Bashīr's رضى الله عنه sister that her mother gave her a loaf of dates to carry in her garment for her father and maternal uncle, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Rawaha رضى الله عنه. They were all busy digging the trench and were to eat the dates the following morning. As she searched for her father and uncle, she passed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked her what she was carrying, she replied that it was dates for her father and uncle.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked her to hand the dates over to him, which she did. She says that the dates were so few that they did not even fill the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم hands. Thereafter, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked for a sheet to be spread before him, and he placed the dates on it. Thereafter, he instructed someone to announce to all the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم digging the trench that the morning meal was ready to be served. All the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم then continued to eat from the dates until they returned contented. ["Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" v. 4 p. 99]

وَإِذْ قَالَتْ طَائِفَةٌ مِّنْهُمْ يَأْهْلُ يَرْبَ لَا مَقَامَ لَكُمْ فَارْجِعُوا وَيَسْتَأْذِنُ فَرِيقٌ مِّنْهُمُ
الَّتِي يَقُولُونَ إِنَّ بُيُوتَنَا عَوْرَةٌ وَمَا هِيَ بِعَوْرَةٍ إِن يُرِيدُونَ إِلَّا فِرَارًا ﴿١٣﴾ وَلَوْ دَخَلَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ
مِّنْ أَقْطَارِهَا ثُمَّ سَأَلُوا الْفِتْنَةَ لَآتَوْنَهَا وَمَا تَلَبَّثُوا فِيهَا إِلَّا بَسِيرًا ﴿١٤﴾ وَلَقَدْ كَانُوا
عَاهِدُوا اللَّهَ مِنْ قَبْلُ لَا يُؤَلُّوهُمُ الْأَدَبُ وَكَانَ عَهْدُ اللَّهِ مَسْئُولًا ﴿١٥﴾ قُلْ لَّنْ يَنْفَعَكُمْ
الْفِرَارُ إِن فَرَرْتُمْ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ أَوِ الْقَتْلِ وَإِذَا لَا تُمْنعُونَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿١٦﴾ قُلْ مَنْ ذَا
الَّذِي يَعْصِيكُمْ مِّنْ اللَّهِ إِن أَرَادَ بِكُمْ سُوءًا أَوْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ رَحْمَةً وَلَا يَحِذُّونَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ
دُوبِ اللَّهِ وَلِيًّا وَلَا نَصِيرًا ﴿١٧﴾ قَدْ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ الْمُعَوِّقِينَ مِنْكُمْ وَالْقَائِلِينَ لِإِخْرَجِهِمْ هَلُمَّ
إِلَيْنَا وَلَا يَأْتُونَ الْآبَاسَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿١٨﴾ أَشِحَّةً عَلَيْكُمْ فَإِذَا جَاءَ الْخَوْفُ رَأَيْتَهُمْ يَقْرَعُونَ
إِلَيْكَ تَدْوِيرًا أَعْيُنُهُمْ كَالَّذِي يُغْشَى عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ فَإِذَا ذَهَبَ الْخَوْفُ سَلَفُوكُمْ
بِالسِّنَةِ جِدَادٍ أَشِحَّةً عَلَى الْخَيْرِ أُولَئِكَ لَمْ يُؤْمِنُوا فَأَحْبَطَ اللَّهُ أَعْمَالَهُمْ وَكَانَ ذَلِكَ
عَلَى اللَّهِ بَسِيرًا ﴿١٩﴾ يَحْسَبُونَ الْأَحْزَابَ لَمْ يَذْهَبُوا وَإِن يَأْتِ الْأَحْزَابُ يَوَدُّوا لَوْ
أَنَّهُمْ بَادُونَ فِي الْأَعْرَابِ يَسْأَلُونَ عَنْ أَنْبَائِكُمْ وَلَوْ كَانُوا فِيكُمْ مَا قَاتَلُوا
إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٢٠﴾

(12) When the hypocrites and those with a disease in their hearts said, "Allāh and His Prophet have only made deceptive promises to us." (13) When a group of them said, "O people of Yathrib! You cannot remain here, so leave." A party of them sought leave from the Holy Prophet saying, "Our homes are unprotected," whereas they were not left unprotected. They sought only to desert. (14) If an enemy has to attack them from the frontiers (of the city) and they were asked to cause anarchy, they would comply with only a fleeting hesitation. (15) They had certainly made a pledge with Allāh before that they will never turn their backs. A pledge made with Allāh is accountable. (16) Say, "Taking flight will not profit you if you were to flee from death or killing. You will then enjoy only a few days of life." (17) Say, "Who can protect you from Allāh if He intends evil or good for you? Besides Allāh, they will not find any protecting friend, nor any helper." (18) Allāh has perfect knowledge of those of you who present obstacles and those who say to their brothers, "Come to us." It is seldom that they participate in battle. (19) They are miserly towards you. When fear comes, you will see them look at you with their eyes rolling like a person being overtaken by death. When the fear abates, they insult you with sharp tongues, greedy for wealth. These are the ones who do not believe, so Allāh annihilates their deeds. This is an extremely simple task for Allāh. (20) They think that the troops have not retreated. If the troops were to arrive, they hope that they were rather in the outback inquiring about your condition. Even if they were with you, they would fight only a little.

THE TREACHERY AND MISCHIEF OF THE HYPOCRITES

The foregoing verses describe the verbal and physical betrayal of the hypocrites. Allāh says, "When the hypocrites and those with a disease in their hearts (i.e. those with weak faith) said, 'Allāh and His Prophet have only made deceptive promises to us.'" Commentators write that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم conveyed the glad tidings of conquering Rome, Persia and Yemen (during the digging of the trench), the hypocrites said, "Look at these people! They are busy toiling with the trench and cannot even leave Madinah without being killed; yet they talk about conquering distant lands. These promises are deceptive." It was on this occasion that Allāh revealed the above verse.

Since the Hypocrites never believed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was Allāh's Holy Prophet, how was it possible that they said, "Allāh and His Holy Prophet"? In reality, the hypocrites had no religion, but defected to the religion that suited their cause. Since they pretended to be Muslims and were addressing the Muslims, they were forced to refer to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as Allāh's Holy Prophet. However, they failed to realise that attributing deception to Allāh and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sufficient to reveal their hypocrisy, even though they attempted to conceal this fact by attesting to his apostleship.

"When a group of them (the hypocrites) said, 'O people of Yathrib (Madinah)! You cannot remain here, so leave.'" They attempted to weaken the resolve of the Muslims by scaring them into believing that they will be annihilated if they were to engage in battle. Commentators mention that the leader of the hypocrites, Abdullāh bin Ubayy, and his companions made this statement.

Other commentators have interpreted the statement "You cannot remain here, so leave" to mean that the Muslims cannot remain as Muslims in the face of such opposition, but should rather return to their former religion. They thus urged the Muslims to renege the pledge of allegiance they took with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Yathrib was the former name of Madinah. Scholars mention that it was the name of a person from the Amāliqa tribe. Because of the fact that the word Yathrib is derived from a root noun meaning 'to revile,' it is prohibited to refer to Madinah as Yathrib.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever calls Makkah Yathrib should seek forgiveness from Allāh. It is Tāba. It is Tāba. It is Tāba." [Ahmad]

Since the arrival of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Madinah, the town popularly became known as Madinah, even though it has other names.

"A party of them (the Hypocrites) sought leave from the Holy Prophet saying, 'Our homes are unprotected,' whereas they were not left unprotected (and vulnerable to enemy attack because the site of the trench was a distance from their homes)."

Commentators mention that when they hypocrites told the Muslims, "O people of Yathrib! You cannot remain here, so leave," the Banu Hāritha and Banu Salima tribes sought permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to leave the site of digging.

Allāh refuted their claims saying that their homes were not unprotected, but "They sought only to desert."

"If an enemy has to attack them from the frontiers (of the city) and they (the Hypocrites) were asked to cause anarchy (by fighting the Muslims), they would comply with only a fleeting hesitation." If such a situation arose, they would not care for their homes being unprotected because they harbour hatred for the Muslims and display allegiance to the disbelievers.

Referring to the same hypocrites, Allāh mentions further, "They had certainly made a pledge with Allāh from before that they will never turn their backs." Commentators mention that this verse refers to the Banu Hāritha or the Banu Salima tribes, who deserted the battlefield of Uhud. Before the battle of the trench, they pledged not to desert.

Other commentators say that the verse refers to those hypocrites who did not participate in the battle of Badr and, when they learnt of the tremendous Muslim victory, they resolved to display their valour in all subsequent battles. However, whenever the battle grew furious, they shelved their promises and deserted. Allāh reminds them that "A pledge made with Allāh is accountable."

Sounding a warning to the deserters, Allāh says, "Say, 'Taking flight will not profit you if you were to flee from death or killing. You will then enjoy only a few days of life.'" Every person will die when his life has expired. This will occur at a specific time, whether in battle or not. Therefore, death cannot be averted by deserting the battlefield.

In any event, if Allāh wishes to destroy a person, none can stop Him. Therefore, Allāh says, "Say, 'Who can protect you from Allāh if He intends evil or good for you (by saving you life)? Besides Allāh, they will not find any protecting friend, nor any helper.'"

As a further warning to those who attempt to dissuade others from Jihād, Allāh says, "Allāh has perfect knowledge of those of you who present obstacles and those who say to their brothers, 'Come to us.'" Ruhul Ma'āni reports that a sincere Sahabi (companion) رضى الله عنه met his Munāfiq (Hypocrite) stepbrother during the battle of Ahzāb. His brother was busy eating roasted meat and drinking 'nabīdh' (a sweet drink made from dates). The sincere Muslim asked him, "You are here while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is amidst the spears and arrows?" His brother replied, "Come and join me. You people are besieged to the extent that you cannot resist." The sincere Muslim said, "You are a liar. By Allāh! I shall definitely inform the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about what you said." When he reported the matter to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Jibrīl عليه السلام appeared with the revelation of the above verse, viz. "Allāh has perfect knowledge of those of you who present obstacles and those who say to their brothers, 'Come to us.'"

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 518) reports that the Jews sent a message to the hypocrites saying, "Why do you destroy yourselves by aligning with Abu Sufyān and his people? If they ever have the upper hand over you, they will not spare any of you. We pity you people. You had rather join ranks with us because we are your brothers (because we are Residents of the same town).” Under the influence of the Jews, Abdullāh bin Ubayy and other hypocrites attempted to dissuade the Muslims from fighting. They told them that they were fighting a losing battle with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and had better join the Jews because Abu Sufyān and the Makkans would not spare them. Upon hearing this, the Muslims were further strengthened in resolve and conviction.

Allāh says further, “It is seldom that they (the Hypocrites) participate in battle. They are miserly towards you. When fear comes, you will see them look at you with their eyes rolling like a person being overtaken by death. When the fear abates, they insult you with sharp tongues, greedy for wealth.” In their desire for the booty they will accuse the Muslims of treachery if they are not granted a share of it. They are too cowardly to fight, yet are covetous of the booty.

“These are the ones who do not believe, so Allāh annihilates their deeds. This is an extremely simple task for Allāh.” None can oppose Allāh in this regard and still demand his reward.

“They think that the troops have not retreated.” Further emphasising the cowardice of the hypocrites, Allāh says that they do not even want to emerge when they are informed that the enemy has retreated.

“If the troops were to arrive, they hope that they were rather in the outback inquiring about your condition. Even if they were with you, they would fight only a little.” They may only participate for show without any fervour, claiming to be pivotal to victory when the spoils of war have to be distributed.

لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ لِّمَن كَانَ يَرْجُوا اللَّهَ وَالْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ وَذَكَرَ اللَّهَ
كَثِيرًا ﴿٢١﴾ وَلَمَّا رَأَى الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الْأَحْزَابَ قَالُوا هَذَا مَا وَعَدَنَا اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ وَصَدَقَ اللَّهُ
وَرَسُولُهُ وَمَا زَادَهُمْ إِلَّا إِيمَانًا وَتَسْلِيمًا ﴿٢٢﴾ مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ رِجَالٌ صَدَقُوا مَا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ
عَلَيْهِ فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ قَضَىٰ نَحْبَهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَنْتَظِرُ وَمَا بَدَّلُوا تَبْدِيلًا ﴿٢٣﴾ لِيَجْزِيَ اللَّهُ
الصَّادِقِينَ بِصِدْقِهِمْ وَيُعَذِّبَ الْمُنَافِقِينَ إِن شَاءَ أَوْ يَتُوبَ عَلَيْهِمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ
غَفُورًا رَّحِيمًا ﴿٢٤﴾ وَرَدَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِعَيْثِهِمْ لَمْ يَنَالُوا خَيْرًا وَكَفَى اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ
الْقِتَالَ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ قَوِيًّا عَزِيزًا ﴿٢٥﴾

(21) There is definitely an excellent example in Allāh's messenger for the one who fears Allāh and the Last Day, and remembers Allāh abundantly. (22) When the believers see the troops they say, "This is what Allāh and His messenger have promised us. Allāh and His messenger have spoken the truth." They then increase in faith and submission. (23) Among the believers there are men who are true to the covenant they vow to Allāh. Of them is he who has fulfilled his pledge, and he who is waiting. They have not changed in the least. (24) So that Allāh may reward the truthful for their truthfulness and punish the hypocrites if He wills or forgive them. Allāh is always Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (25) Allāh returned the disbelievers with their fury without achieving any good. Allāh suffices for the believers in battle. Allāh is Omnipotent, Mighty.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS AN EXCELLENT EXAMPLE FOR PEOPLE. THERE ARE THOSE BELIEVERS (MU'MINĪN) WHO FULFILL THE PLEDGE THEY MAKE WITH ALLĀH

Allāh urges the believers (Mu'minīn) to emulate the life of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They are to do exactly as he did and never to desert the battlefield as long as he was fighting. The instruction applies to all people until Qiyāmah (dooms day), when He says, "There is definitely an excellent example in Allāh's messenger for the one who fears Allāh and the Last Day, and remembers Allāh abundantly."

The verse alludes to the behaviour of the hypocrites who claim to be believers (Mu'minīn), yet flee from the battlefield and discourage others from fighting. A claim which is not supported by deeds is worthless. The hypocrites fail to uphold their word when circumstances threaten the welfare of their material possessions.

Allāh then praises the believers (Mu'minīn) when He says, "When the believers see the troops they say, 'This is what Allāh and His messenger have promised us. Allāh and His messenger have spoken the truth.' They then increase in faith and submission." i.e. The promise of tests in the Qur'ān and Ahadīth are true, as represented by an attack from the enemy. The believers (Mu'minīn) then grow stronger in their faith and are keener to submit to Allāh's commands.

Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Most assuredly We will test you with a bit of fear, hunger, and a deficiency in wealth, life and provisions. So give glad tidings to the patient ones. (They are) those who, when any adversity befall them, say, 'Verily to Allāh do we belong, and to Him is our return.' These are the ones upon whom the collective and special mercies of Allāh descend and who are rightly guided." [Surah 2, verses 155-157]

Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Do you think that you will enter Heaven when Allah has not yet learnt of those of you who wage Jihād, and those who remain steadfast?" [Surah 3, verse 142]

The opening verses of Surah Ankabūt (Surah 29) say, "Alif Lām Mīm. Do people think that they will be left to say, 'We believe!' without being tested? We certainly tested those before them, and Allāh will definitely know of those who are true and He will definitely know the liars." Verse 11 of the same Surah Ankabūt says, "Allāh will certainly know those who believe and will definitely know the hypocrites."

All these verses make it clear that the believers (Mu'minīn) will certainly be put to test so that they are discerned from the hypocrites.

Allāh then speaks of those believers (Mu'minīn) who made further pledges with Allāh. Allāh says, "Among the believers there are men who are true to the covenant they vow to Allāh (to sacrifice their lives in Jihād). Of them is he who has fulfilled his pledge, and he who is waiting. They have not changed in the least."

In relation to this verse, the commentators have narrated an incident reported by Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه. He says that his paternal uncle, Sayyidina Anas bin Nadhar رضى الله عنه bitterly regretted his inability to participate in the battle of Badr. He addressed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "I was unable to participate in the first opportunity to fight the Polytheists. If Allāh affords us another opportunity to fight them, I shall show my mettle by throwing myself into the thick of battle."

Consequently, he participated in the battle of Uhud. When the Muslims suffered a reversal in the battle, he supplicated to Allāh saying, "O Allāh! I apologise for what the believers (Mu'minīn) have done and I absolve myself from what the disbelievers have done." Saying this, he advanced into the enemy lines. He passed by Sayyidina Sa'd bin Mu'ādh رضى الله عنه, who asked him where he was heading. He said, "By Allāh! I can smell the fragrance of Heaven coming from the direction of Uhud." He then fought until he was martyred.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that Sayyidina Anas bin Nadhar's رضى الله عنه sister was the only one who could recognise his body because the disbelievers had mutilated his body, severing the nose and ears from his face. She recognised him by his fingertips only. There were more than eighty sword, spear and arrow wounds on his body. Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه says that they all believed that it was with reference to people like his uncle that Allāh revealed the verse 'Among the believers there are men who are true to the covenant they vow to Allāh...' ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 5 30, Bukhari v. 2 p. 705]

Some of the other Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم to whom this verse applies are:

The leader of all martyrs, Sayyidina Hamza bin Abdil Muttalib رضى الله عنه.
Sayyidina Mus'ab bin Umair رضى الله عنه.

Sayyidina Talha bin Ubaidillah رضى الله عنه.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If you wish to see, walking about on earth, a person "who has fulfilled his pledge," then look at Talha bin Ubaidillah." Although Sayyidina Talha رضى الله عنه was not martyred during Uhud or Ahzāb, he displayed astounding valour during the battle of Uhud, when he acted as a human shield for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He stopped the arrows with his bare hands, because of which his hand became paralysed. He sustained more than seventy wounds in the battle, proving that he did not fail to respond to the call of martyrdom. He lived on after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and was martyred during the battle of Jamal in the 30th year after the Hijrah. Those 'Muslims' who are antagonistic towards the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم should ponder about the sacrifices that the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم made for Islām.

"Of them is he who has fulfilled his pledge, and he who is waiting. They have not changed in the least." This part of the verse refers to those who have not been martyred, but are ever prepared to meet martyrdom. They have not changed a bit in their resolve.

Allāh presented the occasion of the battle "So that Allāh may reward the truthful for their truthfulness and punish the hypocrites if He wills or forgive them (after they repent and accept Islām). Allāh is always Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

NOTE: Some commentators have interpreted "he who has fulfilled his pledge" as "he who has left this world." Therefore, it will still refer to those martyrs who fulfilled their pledge and sacrificed their lives for Allāh.

Allāh continues to say, "Allāh returned the disbelievers with their fury without achieving any good. Allāh suffices for the believers in battle. Allāh is Omnipotent, Mighty." Allāh can assist any army as he assisted the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم and defeat the enemy, causing them to return home crestfallen.

وَأَنْزَلَ الَّذِينَ ظَاهَرُوهُمْ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ مِنْ صَيَاصِيهِمْ وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ
الرَّعْبَ فَرِيقًا تَقْتُلُونَ وَتَأْسِرُونَ فَرِيقًا ﴿٢٦﴾ وَأَوْرَثَكُمْ أَرْضَهُمْ وَدِيَارَهُمْ وَأَمْوَالَهُمْ
وَأَرْضًا لَمْ تَطْعُمُوا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرًا ﴿٢٧﴾

(26) Allāh made those people of the Book who assisted them descend from their fortresses and He cast fear into their hearts. You execute a party of them and take another party as prisoners. (27) Allāh made you successors to their land, their homes, their wealth and a land that you have not set foot upon. Allāh has power over all things.

THE JEWS PAY FOR THEIR TREACHERY AS THE MUSLIMS DEFEAT THEM

As mentioned earlier, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entered into a treaty with the three Jewish tribes of Madinah. Among the clauses of the treaty was that they were all to join forces to defend Madinah against an enemy attack. The Banu Qaynuqa broke the treaty after the battle of Badr and were duly punished. The Banu Nadhīr were banished from Madinah in the 4th year after the Hijrah, after which they instigated the Quraysh and other tribes to attack the Muslims, resulting in the battle of Ahzāb (as has already been mentioned). Therefore, only the Banu Qurayzah remained true to their word and continued to reside in Madinah.

Among those to instigate the Quraysh and the other tribes against the Muslims was the leader of the Banu Nadhīr, Huyay bin Akhtab. When the enemy forces camped outside Madinah, Huyay managed to sneak into the fort of K'ab bin Asad, the leader of the Banu Qurayzah, in an attempt to persuade him also to break the treaty with the Muslims. Initially, K'ab bin Asad locked the door of his fort and refused Huyay entry saying, "I am bound to the treaty with Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم I find him exuding trustworthiness and truthfulness and cannot break the treaty."

However, Huyay bin Akhtab persistently pressed his point home. Eventually, K'ab bin Asad asked Huyay, "What will happen to us if Muhammad returns home safely and his enemies retreat?" Huyay pledged to then enter K'ab bin Asad's fort and suffer the same fate as he would have to face. K'ab bin Asad agreed to this and broke the treaty with the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

When the Holy Prophet ﷺ received intelligence of this, he dispatched Sayyidina Sa'd bin Mu'adh رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Sa'd bin Ubadah رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abdullah bin Rawaha رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Khawāt bin Jubair رضى الله عنه to investigate. They returned with confirmation of the news. Later, when the disbelievers retreated, The Holy Prophet ﷺ returned home and took a bath. Thereafter, Jibril عليه السلام came to him saying, "O the Holy Prophet ﷺ! Have you laid down your weapons?" When the Holy Prophet ﷺ replied in the affirmative, Jibril عليه السلام said, "By Allāh! We (the angels) have not yet laid down our weapons. Allāh commands you to march to the Banu Qurayzah. I am also headed in their direction and shall cause an earthquake to shake their fortresses."

The Holy Prophet ﷺ then instructed the Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم to march to the Banu Qurayzah and to perform their Asr Salāh there. Some Sahābah (companions) رضى الله عنهم interpreted the command literally and only performed their Qadha Asr Salāh after reaching (because the time for Asr had expired by then). Others interpreted the command to mean that they should reach the Banu Qurayzah as soon as possible, but that they should perform their Salāh en route if the time set in. The Holy Prophet ﷺ did not rebuke any of these two groups for their interpretation. Ulema (scholars) have deduced from this that the differences between the schools of Islāmic jurisprudence are all justified and none may condemn another.

The Banu Qurayzah lived approximately four miles away from Madinah. When the Muslims reached their fortress, the Jews were already locked in. Consequently, the Muslims besieged the fortress for about 25 days.

When the situation grew desperate, K'ab bin Asad addressed his people saying, "I have three proposals to make to you. You may choose any one you like. The first is that we all believe in Muhammad ﷺ. I swear by Allāh that we all know that he is Allāh's true messenger and the Holy Prophet. He ideally fits the description of the final Prophet, which you read in Allāh's Book (the Torah). By doing so, your lives, children, wives and wealth will be safe." The Jews responded by saying that they were not prepared to forsake their religion.

K'ab continued, "If you decline this proposal, the second is that we all kill our women and children and fight to the last. Allāh will then decide the rest. If we are destroyed, we will not have to worry about our women and children. However, if we are victorious, we can always find new wives and father new children." The Jews declined this proposal as well saying, "What enjoyment can we have in life if we were to kill these poor siblings?"

He then proposed the third alternative saying, "Tonight is the night of the Sabbath. We can stealthily attack the Muslims tonight because they will not expect us to be fighting on this night." The Jews declined this proposal as well saying, "Why spoil the day of Sabbath."

The Banu Qurayzah then sent a message to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم requesting that Sayyidina Abu Lubabah رضى الله عنه be sent to them. He was an Ansāri Sahabi whose tribe were allies to the Banu Qurayzah during earlier times. They wanted to consult with him about their course of action.

When Sayyidina Abu Lubabah رضى الله عنه came to them, their women and children wept before him. They asked him whether they should surrender and descend from the fortress as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم requested. He told them that they should surrender and he also ran his finger across his throat, indicating that they would be killed when they did so.

Sayyidina Abu Lubabah رضى الله عنه immediately realised that he was wrong to make this indication to them because it betrayed the secret of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He therefore proceeded straight to the Masjid, where he bound himself to a pillar, declaring that he will not release himself until Allāh accepts his repentance. Commentators say that a verse of Surah Anfāl was revealed in this regard. Where Allāh says, "O you who believe, do not betray Allāh and the messenger and do not knowingly betray your mutual trusts." [Surah 8, verse 27]

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heard about the incident, he said, "If he had come to me first, I would have sought forgiveness from Allāh on his behalf. However, he chose to hand the matter over to Allāh, so I cannot untie him until Allāh forgives him. He remained in this state for six days, during which his wife used to untie him for the duration of Salāh and then tie him up again afterwards. Allāh accepted his repentance and revealed verse 102 of Surah Taubah (Surah 9), where He says, "There are others who admit to their sins. They have mixed their deeds, some being good, while the others are evil. Soon Allāh will accept their repentance. Undoubtedly Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

When people rushed to untie him, he told them that he wanted to be released by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Consequently, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم released him when he arrived for the Fajr Salāh.

The Banu Qurayzah could not resist the Muslim forces and were constrained to surrender to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They were prepared to accept whatever decision he made with regard to them. The members of the Aws tribe approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, asking him to allow them to decide the matter because the Banu Qurayzah used to be their allies. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Should I not hand the matter over to a member of your tribe?" When they agreed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allowed their leader, Sayyidina Sa'd bin Mu'ādh رضى الله عنه to decide the affair.

When the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم were camped at Mount Silā during the battle of Ahzāb, an arrow struck Sayyidina Sa'd bin Mu'ādh رضى الله عنه, which penetrated his medial arm vein. Sensing that the wound would be fatal, he supplicated to Allāh to grant him enough life to witness the humiliation and annihilation of the Banu Qurayzah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allowed him to recuperate in the tent of a woman called Rufaydah رضى الله عنها. He was there that he received the message to decide the affair of the Banu Qurayzah.

When he arrived to meet the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the Masjid, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stood up and instructed the Sahābah (Companions) صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Stand for your leader." (The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم issued this command because Sayyidina Sa'd رضى الله عنه was severely injured and could not alight from the conveyance without assistance).

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that he was pleased to have him decide the matter and the Jews were also pleased. (The Jews were pleased about this because they expected leniency from a person of the Aws tribe, who were their allies in previous times).

Sayyidina Sa'd رضى الله عنه pronounced his decision saying that all able bodied men were to be executed, their wealth distributed among the Muslims, and all women and children were to be taken captive. Upon hearing this decision, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that his decision corresponded with Allāh's decision. This also corresponded with the command of the Torah.

Trenches were dug in the streets of Madinah and the men were beheaded. Among those executed were Huyay bin Akhtab and K'ab bin Asad, both of whom were mentioned earlier. Huyay was the father of Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها, one of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives. She was captured after the battle of Khaybar in the 7th year after the Hijrah.

All the men and one woman were executed. The woman was executed because she dropped a heavy grindstone on Sayyidina Khallād bin Suwaid رضى الله عنه, killing him instantly. Sayyidina Atiyya Qurazi رضى الله عنه, who later accepted Islām, was a Jew from among the Banu Qurayzah and was not killed at that time because he was not yet matured. The puberty of boys was assessed by checking whether their pubic hair had begun to grow. Consequently, all those males whose pubic hair had begun to emerge were executed, while the others were considered immature and spared. Various narrations report varying figures with regard to the number of people executed. The figures quoted are 600, 700 and 800.

On the night when the Banu Qurayzah announced that they would accept The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم decision, the following persons (who neither belonged to the Banu Qurayzah, nor the Banu Nadhīr) accepted Islām:

Sayyidina Tha'laba bin Sa'id رضى الله عنه.

Sayyidina Asad bin Sa'id رضى الله عنه.

Sayyidina Asad bin Ubaid رضى الله عنه. All three belonged to the Banu Adal tribe.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم distributed the wealth, women and children of the Banu Qurayzah among the Muslim warriors and also extracted a fifth from the sum according to the principles of distribution. Some of the captives were sent to be sold in Najd. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent them with Sayyidina Sa'd bin Zaid Ansāri رضى الله عنه, who was instructed to use the profits to purchase weapons and horses for Jihād.

The wound of Sayyidina Sa'd bin Mu'ādh رضى الله عنه eventually opened, causing him to bleed to death. Since he was a heavy person, the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم were surprised to find his corpse extremely light. When they reported the matter to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he told them,

"Besides you, there are other creation who are also lifting the body. By the Being in whose control is my life! The angels were exuberant when they received the soul of Sa'd and Allāh's throne shook as a result of his demise."

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه reports that they proceeded with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to bury Sayyidina Sa'd رضى الله عنه. After he was laid to rest, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stood for a long while continuously reciting "Subhān Allāh", after which he stood a long while reciting "Allāhu Akbar". The Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم also joined in the recitation of "Allāhu Akbar".

The Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم then asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم why he recited "Subhān Allāh" and then "Allāhu Akbar". The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "The grave of this pious servant was beginning to constrict upon him. I recited "Subhān Allāh" until Allāh alleviated the difficulty."

A narration of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه quotes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying, "This is the person for whom Allāh's throne shuddered, the doors of the heavens were flung open, and for whom seventy thousand angels presented themselves. The grave constricted upon him for a while, but was soon stopped."

One can well imagine the state of sinners in the grave when the grave of such an illustrious person constricted.

It was mentioned earlier that Abu Sufyān told the Quraysh before they departed, "The Banu Qurayzah have broken the pledge..." It was also mentioned in the commentary of 'from above you,' that it refers to the easterly rise of the valley, where the Banu Ghitfān, their allies, the people of Najd, the Banu Qurayzah and the Banu Nadhīr camped. In view of these statements, one may query the fact that the Banu Qurayzah were punished for breaking the treaty, because it appears from the above that they had already joined ranks with the other disbelievers.

The fact of the matter is that they had initially pledged support for the cause of the disbelievers, but were dissuaded by a clever plan of Sayyidina Nu'aim bin Mas'ūd. When Sayyidina Nu'aim رضى الله عنه accepted Islām, he said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that his family was unaware of his conversion, but he eagerly wanted to be of service to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him to devise a plan whereby the disbelievers are discouraged from assisting each other.

Sayyidina Nu'aim رضى الله عنه used to associate with the Banu Qurayzah during the period of ignorance. He therefore approached them saying, "You people are well aware of my friendship with you?" When they admitted to his strong ties of friendship, he then told them that the Quraysh and the Banu Ghitfān were not really their allies. He impressed upon their minds that if the Quraysh army was defeated, they could easily return to Makkah, but the Banu Qurayzah had nowhere to go because their home and hearth was in Madinah. They would then be stranded without any allies and would be unable to face the Muslim army.

He proposed to them that they request the Quraysh and the Banu Ghitfān to hand over their leaders to the Banu Qurayzah as a guarantee so that these tribes do not desert them if the Muslims defeat them. The Banu Qurayzah accepted the proposal.

Sayyidina Nu'aim رضى الله عنه then approached the Quraysh and told them that while the Banu Qurayzah promised to align with them, they secretly informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they wished to be his allies and would send the leaders of the Quraysh and Bani Ghitfān to him for execution. He therefore advised them not to surrender any of their people to the Banu Qurayzah if they requested for a guarantee. He then said the same thing to the Banu Ghitfān.

It later transpired that the Quraysh and Ghitfān sent Ikrima bin Abu Jahl with a few people from either tribe to meet with the Jews of the Banu Qurayzah. They informed the Banu Qurayzah that their camels and horses were dying and that they should all collectively attack the Muslims the following morning. The Banu Qurayzah insisted that they will not join until they received a few people from either tribe as guarantee that they will not be left alone if the Muslims are victorious.

When the Quraysh received the message, they acknowledged that Sayyidina Nu'aim رضى الله عنه was right and sent a message to the Banu Qurayzah that they will not give any of their men as guarantee. When the Banu Qurayzah received this message, they declined to fight against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In this manner, the Banu Qurayzah broke their pledges to both, the Muslims and the disbelievers. ["Sirah Ibn Hishām", "Al Bidāya wan Nihāya"]

PART TWENTY-TWO

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّأَزْوَاجِكَ إِن كُنْتُنَّ تُرِيدْنَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا وَزِينَتَهَا فَتَعَالَيْنَ
 أُمْتِعْكَنَّ وَأُفْرِجْ لَكُنَّ سَرَاحًا جَمِيلًا ﴿٢٨﴾ وَإِن كُنْتُنَّ تُرِيدْنَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَالذَّارَ
 الْآخِرَةَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ أَعَدَّ لِلْمُحْسِنَاتِ مِنكُنَّ أَجْرًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٢٩﴾ يٰٓنِسَاءَ النَّبِيِّ مَن يَأْتِ
 مِنكُنَّ بِفَحِشَةٍ مُّبِينَةٍ يُضَاعَفْ لَهَا الْعَذَابُ ضِعْفَيْنِ وَكَانَ ذَٰلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ
 يَسِيرًا ﴿٣٠﴾ وَمَن يَقْتُلْ مِّنكُنَّ لِلَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَتَعَمَّلْ صَالِحًا نُفُتْهَا أَجْرَهَا مَرَّتَيْنِ
 وَأَعْتَدْنَا لَهَا رِزْقًا كَرِيمًا ﴿٣١﴾ يٰٓنِسَاءَ النَّبِيِّ لَسْتُنَّ كَأَحَدٍ مِّنَ النِّسَاءِ إِنِ اتَّقَيْتُنَّ
 فَلَا تَخْضَعْنَ بِالْقَوْلِ فَيَطْمَعَ الَّذِي فِي قَلْبِهِ مَرَضٌ وَقُلْنَ قَوْلًا مَّعْرُوفًا ﴿٣٢﴾ وَقَرْنَ فِي
 بُيُوتِكُنَّ وَلَا تَبَرَّجْنَ تَبَرُّجَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ الْأُولَىٰ وَأَقِمْنَ الصَّلَاةَ وَآتِينَ الزَّكَاةَ
 وَأَطِعْنَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ
 تَطْهِيرًا ﴿٣٣﴾ وَأَذْكُرَنَّ مَا بُشِّرَ فِي بُيُوتِكُنَّ مِّنْ ءَايَاتِ اللَّهِ وَالْحِكْمَةِ
 إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ لَطِيفًا خَبِيرًا ﴿٣٤﴾

(28) O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Say to your wives, "If you desire the life of this world and its adornments, then come forward. I shall grant you a generous provision and separate from you in a cordial manner." (29) "And if you desire Allāh, His messenger and the home of the Hereafter, then Allāh has certainly prepared a grand reward for those of you who will do good deeds." (30) O wives of the Holy Prophet! If any of you perpetrates an act of foolishness, her punishment will be multiplied twice. This is simple for Allāh. (31) Any of you who is obedient to Allāh and His messenger, and does good deeds, then We will grant her twice the reward. And We have prepared for her a bountiful provision. (32) O wives of the Holy Prophet! You are not like any other women. If you fear Allāh then do not speak in lowered tones lest he in whose heart is a disease should be enticed. And speak in a befitting manner. (33) Remain in your homes and do not make a display of yourselves as was the practice of the former period of ignorance. Establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and obey Allāh and His messenger. Allāh only wishes to rid you of filth, O members of the household, and to purify you thoroughly. (34) And remember the verses and wisdom recited in your homes. Indeed Allāh is Compassionate, Informed.

ADVICE TO THE WIVES OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Commentators record that the nine wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once asked him for an increase in their allowance. The wives were:

1. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه Bint Abu Bakr رضى الله عنها
2. Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنه Bint Umar رضى الله عنها
3. Sayyidah Umm Habība رضى الله عنه Bint Abi Sufyān رضى الله عنها
4. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه Bint Abi Umayyah رضى الله عنها
5. Sayyidah Sauda رضى الله عنه Bint Zam'ah رضى الله عنها
6. Sayyidah Zainab رضى الله عنه Bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها
7. Sayyidah maymūnah رضى الله عنه Bint Hāritha رضى الله عنها
8. Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنه Bint Huyay Bin Akhtab رضى الله عنها
9. Sayyidah Juwairiyya رضى الله عنه Bint Hārith رضى الله عنها

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم disliked this request because, being wives of the leader of both worlds, they were expected to be patient with their lot. The difficulties they endured served to raise their ranks. Displeased with their request, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم swore an oath not to associate with them for a month.

The news spread among the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had divorced his wives. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه decided to investigate the matter and met with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He said, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! I have heard people saying in your Masjid that you have divorced your wives." When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed him that he had not divorced his wives, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه sought permission to inform the others about this. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted him, he announced that no divorce had taken place.

After 29 days, Allāh revealed the above verses instructing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Say to your wives, 'If you desire the life of this world and its adornments, then come forward. I shall grant you a generous provision and separate from you (divorce you) in a cordial manner. And if you desire Allāh, His messenger and the home of the Hereafter, then Allāh has certainly prepared a grand reward for those of you who will do good deeds.'"

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم acted according to this command and gave his wives the choice either to live patiently with him or be divorced. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم approached Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها first, telling her that he wished to propose something to her and she was not to reply until she had consulted her parents. He then recited the two verses to her, giving her the choice.

She was an extremely intelligent woman and immediately said, "How can I consult my parents in this matter? I definitely desire Allāh, His Messenger and the home of the Hereafter." She also added that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should not inform the other wives of her reply. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told her that Allāh had not sent him as a Prophet to give him difficulty nor to cause difficulty to others. He said that Allāh had sent him as a mentor and one who simplifies matters for people.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم posed the question to the other wives, they all replied in a similar manner. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم face lit up when each wife chose to remain with him and he very much appreciated it. When the 29th day passed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went to Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. She asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! You swore not live with us for a complete month." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that the month consisted of 29 days. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 3 p. 525/6, Bukhari v. 2 p. 705, Muslim p. 480 to 482]

NOTE: A husband may hand over to his wife the right to divorce, allowing her to decide whether she wishes to be divorced. If he wishes, he may also retain the right to divorce and ask her whether she wants to be divorced. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم employed the second method, which is a form of consultation. However, certain commentators say that the words used in the verse may refer to either method.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave them a choice and they chose to remain with him. No divorce therefore took place. The four Imāms (Scholars) of Islāmic Jurisprudence are unanimous that a divorce will not be considered pronounced by a mere consultation of this sort.

According to "Hidāya", the canonical book of the Hanafi Madh'hab (School of thought), a woman has the choice of divorce if the husband instructs her to choose between divorce and remaining together. However, if the wife leaves the place or engages in some other work, she will lose the choice to divorce herself. The same applies when he hands over the right of divorce to her. If the woman replies that she chooses to do so, a Bā'in (reversible) divorce will take effect.

DOUBLING OF THE PUNISHMENT OR REWARD

Allāh states further, "O wives of the Holy Prophet! If any of you perpetrates an act of foolishness, her punishment will be multiplied twice. This is simple for Allāh." The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" writes that "an act of foolishness" refers to any act that would cause inconvenience or difficulty to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This has also been reported in "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه. Others have reported that it refers to any major sin that they may commit.

The doubling of punishment is because of the fact that people of a higher standing deserve greater punishment for their misdemeanours, just as the Prophets عليهم السلام were reprimanded for even the slightest errors. A learned person will always be at greater fault than an ignorant person who perpetrates the same crime.

“Ruhul Ma’āni” reports that a person once told Sayyidina Zainul Ābidin رضي الله عنه that he was forgiven because he was from the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم family. The saint became angry and said that he anticipated the same as Allāh had promised the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم wives, i.e. that they will receive double the reward for any good deed and double the punishment for any sin. He then recited the verses, “O wives of the Holy Prophet! If any of you perpetrates an act of foolishness.. And We have prepared for her a bountiful provision.” [“Ruhul Ma’āni” v. 21 p. 184]

Allāh then addresses the wives further saying, “Any of you who is obedient to Allāh and His messenger, and does good deeds, then We will grant her twice the reward. And We have prepared for her a bountiful provision.” Just as the sins of notable persons are more severe than the common people, so too are their good deeds even more acceptable to Allāh. The obedience of the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم wives is also more acceptable to Allāh because it pleases the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The above incident occurred only once, after which the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم remained content with their lot and never again asked for an increase in allowance or a better standard of living.

THE VIRTUE OF THE HOLY PROPHET’S صلى الله عليه وسلم WIVES

Allāh declares, “O wives of the Holy Prophet! You are not like any other women.” Allāh had granted the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم wives a special status above the rest of women.

Allāh then advises them saying, “If you fear Allāh then do not speak in lowered tones (to strange men) lest he in whose heart is a disease (of hypocrisy) should be enticed.” Such men will be infatuated with their sweet voices and continue making attempts to speak to them.

When it is necessary to speak to such men, Allāh advises women to “speak in a befitting manner.” Their reply should be terse and concise so that the man is not tempted to prolong the conversation. Other commentators have interpreted “speak in a befitting manner” as engaging in Allāh’s Dhikr and not speaking to anyone without necessity.

SPEAKING TO STRANGERS

The verse makes it clear that women are permitted to speak to strangers when the need is pressing. However, when they do speak to men who are not their Mahram, their voices should not be soft and alluring because this will create a desire within a man’s heart. It is for this reason that women are not permitted to give the Adhān and are not permitted to raise their voices when saying the ‘Talbiya’ during Hajj.

THE COMMAND FOR WOMEN TO REMAIN WITHIN THEIR HOMES

Allāh addresses women further saying, “Remain in your homes and do not make a display of yourselves as was the practice of the former period of ignorance.” The first command in this verse is to remain indoors and the second is not to make a spectacle of themselves by flaunting their bare heads, faces, necks and finery.

The ‘former period of ignorance’ refers to the period before Islām, when women mixed freely with men in public. Certain commentators have mentioned that the ‘former period of ignorance’ is mentioned in contrast to the latter period of ignorance to denote that the Muslims will soon plunge into a state of moral decadence resembling that of the pre-Islāmic era. Allāh commands the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم wives to remain within their homes at all times and, when they are forced to leave their homes, they should emerge with the proper attire [observing the laws of Hijāb (veil)]. Although the verse addresses the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it applies equally to all Muslim women.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “A woman is an object of concealment. When she emerges from her home, then Devil (Shaytān) stares at her.” [“Mishkāt” p. 269]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once saw men and women walking together on the street. He addressed the women saying, “O women! Walk behind the men. It is not permissible for you walk on the centre of the road. Walk on the sides of the road.” After this address, the women walked so much on the sides that their clothing used to get caught in the walls of the houses along the Street. [Abu Dawūd]

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash’ari رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that every eye fornicates (by looking at non-Mahram members of the opposite sex). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also added that the woman who applies perfume and then passes by a gathering is just like an prostitute. [“Mishkāt” p. 96]

Allāh advises further when He says, “Establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and obey Allāh and His messenger.” Although these injunctions are incumbent on every Muslim male and female, Allāh specifically commands the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم wives with these so that they do not think that they are absolved from these obligations because of their association with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

“Allāh only wishes to rid you of filth, O members of the household, and to purify you thoroughly.” Commentators mention that ‘filth’ refers to acts of sin and disobedience. Others maintain that it refers to unbecoming character traits like miserliness, greed, pride, etc. Other commentators mention that “rid you of filth” refers to removing all evil and unseemly traits, while “purify you thoroughly” refers to instilling virtuous qualities in them.

In the above verse, Allāh Himself declares the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم wives to be innocent of immoral behaviour. It will therefore only be a fool who will attribute such behaviour to them. The insolent Rawāfidh claim that most of the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم, including all the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم wives [with the exception of Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها] left the fold of Islām after the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم demise. These people seem to have enmity for the Qur'ān itself.

The Rawāfidh claim that "members of the household" refers only to Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه, Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها, Sayyidina Hasan رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Husain رضى الله عنه. Although these illustrious souls are also members of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم family, the apparent context of the Qur'ānic verses clearly denote that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives are specifically referred to in this verse as "members of the household."

Unable to prove their fallacious belief, the Rawāfidh attempt to beguile the layman by saying that the verse addresses "members of the household" using a masculine pronoun. A drowning person will even cling to a blade of grass in his desperation. Their hatred for the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives drive them to be oblivious of so many other Qur'ānic verses where Allāh makes reference to women using a masculine pronoun.

An example of this is the verse where Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام addresses his wife using a masculine pronoun, asking her to wait while he goes to the fire to find guidance. A verse of Surah Hūd quotes the angels using a masculine pronoun when addressing Sayyidina Ibrahim's عليه السلام wife. These verses denote that it is proper to address women using a plural masculine pronoun as a token of respect.

Besides the above verse, Allāh also declares the purity and innocence of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives in Surah Nūr when says, "Pure women are for pure men and pure men are for pure women. These people are innocent of what the slanderers say. Theirs is forgiveness and a bounteous reward." This verse makes it clear that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives were chaste, just as he was chaste.

Basing their argument on a single note of pronouns, the Rawāfidh do not even see that the verse in question is linked to the previous verses, where Allāh distinctly addresses the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives and even uses plural feminine pronouns.

With regard to the above verse (i.e. "Allāh only wishes..."), Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentions that it was revealed with specific reference to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives. Sayyidina Ikrima رضى الله عنه made an announcement that he was prepared to enter into 'Mubāhala (mutual imprecation to prove truth of one's pain)' with any person to prove that the verse "Allāh only wishes..." was revealed with reference to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives. Even Sayyidina Urwa رضى الله عنه declared that the verse referred to them. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 21 p.140]

Tirmidhi has reported a hadith from Sayyidina Umar bin Abi Salamah رضى الله عنه, which mentions that the above verse was revealed while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in the company of Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه (one of his wives). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then called for Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها and her two sons Sayyidina Hasan رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Husain رضى الله عنه, while Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه was sitting behind the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

When they arrived, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم draped his shawl over all four of them saying, "O Allāh! These are the members of my household, so rid them of filth and purify them thoroughly."

Thereupon Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها asked, "O Allāh's Prophet! Am I not also from among them?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "You are as you are and upon good." It appears from this hadith that Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not regard his wives as "members of the household."

However, it is necessary that Muslims believe in every verse of the Qur'ān and also the Ahadīth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. A Muslim cannot interpret any hadith in a manner that annuls the essence of any Qur'ānic verse. While the Rawāfidh do not care to uphold the authenticity of the Qur'ān (and even say that it was distorted), they are not concerned about abiding by this principle.

It would therefore be said that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives are also "members of the household," just as Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه, Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها and their sons رضى الله عنهم were. According to another narration, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها, "You are my family." Another narration mentions that when she asked, "And me?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to her, "You too." [Ibn Kathīr v. 3 p. 38415].

There were other Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had regarded as members of his household even though they were not related to him. Of these was Sayyidina Salmān Fārsī رضى الله عنه, regarding whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Salmān is from among us, the members of the household." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said the same about Sayyidina Wāthila bin Athqa رضى الله عنه. If these people could be included in the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم household, why not his own wives?

The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" writes that the purport of "members of the household" varies. While in the hadith of Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها it refers to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم blood relatives, it also refers to all family members in a broader context (as in the verse).

"And remember the verses (of the Qur'ān) and wisdom [i.e. the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] recited in your homes."

Commentators mention that this verse may be interpreted to mean that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives were to remember and learn the Qur'ān and his teachings for themselves. It may also be interpreted to mean that they should teach these to the Ummah.

Just as it is necessary to learn the teachings of the Qur'ān, it is imperative that the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also be studied and propagated because they elucidate the teachings of the Qur'ān. Many details like the times of Salāh and the Nisāb of Zakāh cannot be determined without the Ahadīth. One of the reasons for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم marrying many wives was so that they could teach the Ummah various aspects of domestic life, as they learnt from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

"Indeed Allāh is Compassionate, Informed." Allāh was Compassionate enough to bless the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives with the honour of enjoying his companionship and having the Qur'ān and Ahadīth recited in their homes. In gratitude, they were expected to carry out the best of deeds, about which Allāh is well informed.

إِنَّ الْمُسْلِمِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمَاتِ وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَالْقَنِينَ
وَالْقَنِينَ وَالصَّادِقِينَ وَالصَّادِقَاتِ وَالصَّابِرِينَ وَالصَّابِرَاتِ
وَالْخَاشِعِينَ وَالْخَاشِعَاتِ وَالْمُتَصَدِّقِينَ وَالْمُتَصَدِّقَاتِ
وَالصَّائِمِينَ وَالصَّائِمَاتِ وَالْحَافِظِينَ فُرُوجَهُمْ
وَالْحَافِظَاتِ وَالذَّاكِرِينَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا وَالذَّاكِرَاتِ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةً
وَأَجْرًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٣٥﴾

(35) The Muslim men and Muslim women, believing men and believing women, obedient men and obedient women, truthful men and truthful women, patient men and patient women, humble men and humble women, charitable men and charitable women, fasting men and fasting women, chaste men and chaste women, and men who remember Allāh in abundance and women who remember Allāh; Allāh has prepared forgiveness and an immense reward for them.

THE QUALITIES OF BELIEVING MEN AND WOMEN

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has written (v. 3 p. 487) that many narrations prove that the above verse was revealed in response to a question posed by Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها. She once said, "O Allāh's Holy Prophet! Men are often mentioned in the Qur'ān, while women are not." She was referring to the fact that the Qur'ān often used masculine pronouns and figures of speech when addressing the believers (Mu'minīn). Women were not specifically addressed in these verses, even though they were implied. It was then that Allāh revealed the above verse. [Tirmidhi]

"The Muslim men and Muslim women, believing men and believing women..." The term 'Muslim' generally refers to a person who practises the injunctions of Islām, while 'Mu'min' (believer) refers to the person who adheres to the beliefs of Islām. Although each term may be used for the other, each is mentioned separately to denote their importance.

"obedient men and obedient women..." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that this refers to Muslims who are always obedient to Allāh without failing in their duties to Him.

"truthful men and truthful women..." i.e. they are truthful in word and deed (sincere).

"patient men and patient women..." They patiently endure the adversities that afflict them in the course of their duties to Allāh.

"humble men and humble women..." Humility generally refers to the submission of one's heart, but also extends to the limbs and all forms of worship. Such people are humble in all their dealings and do not possess any pride. They do not allow even their limbs to disobey Allāh and they refrain from sins. Details of this have been discussed in the commentary of verse 45 of Surah Baqarah and in the opening verses of Surah Mu'minūn (Surah 23).

"charitable men and charitable women..." This refers to spending in Zakāh, spending in optional charity causes, as well as spending on the poor, the orphans and relatives.

"fasting men and fasting women..." Fasting in Ramadhān is one of the foundational pillars of Islām. In verse 184 of Surah Baqarah, Allāh encourages optional fasting when He says, "Whoever will do a good act of his own will, then surely this is better for him. And it is better for you that you fast, if you but knew." When a person fasts, his carnal passions are doused and Taqwa (piety) is inculcated in his heart.

"chaste men and chaste women..." Many sins are committed as a result of man's sexual desires. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the factor that causes the greatest number of people to enter Hell. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "The mouth and the sexual organ." ["Mishkāt" p. 412]

Sayyidina Sahl bin Sa'd رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever can guarantee for me the safety of what is between his legs and what is between his lips, then I shall guarantee Heaven for him." [Bukhari]

Allāh says in Surah Ma'ārij, "those who safeguard their private organs, save when it comes to their spouses and the slave women whom they possess. They will surely not be blamed with regard to (cohabiting with) these." [Surah 70, verse 29-31]

"and men who remember Allāh in abundance and women who remember Allāh..." Dhikr (remembrance) of Allāh is a great aspect of Islām. Salāh, which is the noblest of good deeds, is an embodiment of remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) Allāh says in Surah Tā Hā, "Establish Salāh for My remembrance." [Surah 20, verse 14]

A verse of Surah Ankabūt states, "Without doubt, the remembrance of Allāh is greatest." Allāh says in Surah Jumu'ah reads, "remember Allāh abundantly so that you may be successful." [Surah 62, verse 10]

More details pertaining to remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) will (Insha Allāh) be mentioned in the commentary of a forthcoming verse where Allāh says, "O you who believe! Remember Allāh in abundance" (verse 41 of this Surah).

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه reports that someone once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Which of Allāh's servants are the best, will be closest to Him on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) and enjoy the highest ranks?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "men who remember Allāh in abundance and women who remember Allāh." Thereupon, someone asked whether these people are even better than those who fight in Jihād. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that they are even better than those who fight in Jihād until their swords break and they are spattered with blood. ["Mishkāt" p. 198]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Busr رضى الله عنه reports that someone asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "The actions of Islām are numerous. Show me one action which I may continuously perform." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "(The action is that) your tongue remains moist with Allāh's remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr)."

 [Ibid]

A believer (Mu'min) should always remain engaged in Allāh's remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) and abstain from frivolous and idle talk. A believer (Mu'min) should engage in various acts of remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) like recitation of the Qur'ān, reciting "SubhānAllāh", "Allāhu Akbar", etc.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "To say 'SubhānAllāh wal Hamdulillāh wa Lā Illāha IllAllāhu Allāhu Akbar' is more beloved to me than everything upon which the sun rises."

The virtues of remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) have been mentioned in the commentary of verse 152 of Surah Baqara and verse 45 of Surah Ankabūt (Surah 29), where Allāh says, "Verily Salāh forbids from obscenity and evil. Without doubt, the remembrance of Allāh is greatest."

The various prayer's (du'ā's) reported in the Ahadīth for various occasions also form part of Allāh's remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr). In fact, remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) is one of the easiest acts of worship, which can be practised in all conditions and postures. People may also engage in remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) while they are busy in their occupations.

Allāh concludes the verse by announcing the reward He has in store for those who possess the above qualities. Allāh says, "Allāh has prepared forgiveness and an immense reward for them."

وَمَا كَانَ لِمُؤْمِنٍ وَلَا مُؤْمِنَةٍ إِذَا قَضَى اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَمْرًا أَنْ يَكُونَ لَهُمُ الْخِيَرَةُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِمْ
وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ ضَلَالًا مُبِينًا ﴿٣٦﴾ وَإِذْ تَقُولُ لِلَّذِي أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَأَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِ أَمْسِكْ عَلَيْكَ زَوْجَكَ وَاتَّقِ اللَّهَ وَتُخْفِي فِي نَفْسِكَ مَا اللَّهُ مُبْدِيهِ
وَتَخْشَى النَّاسَ وَاللَّهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ تَخْشَاهُ فَلَمَّا قَضَى زَيْدٌ مِنْهَا وَطَرًا زَوَّجْنَاكَهَا لِكَيْ لَا
يَكُونَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ حَرَجٌ فِي أَزْوَاجِ أَدْعِيَائِهِمْ إِذَا قَضَوْا مِنْهُنَّ وَطَرًا وَكَانَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ
مَفْعُولًا ﴿٣٧﴾ مَا كَانَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ مِنْ حَرَجٍ فِيمَا فَرَضَ اللَّهُ لَهُ سُنَّةَ اللَّهِ فِي الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ
قَبْلُ وَكَانَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ قَدَرًا مَقْدُورًا ﴿٣٨﴾ الَّذِينَ يُلَاقُونَ رِسَالَاتِ اللَّهِ وَيَخْشَوْنَهُ وَلَا
يَخْشَوْنَ أَحَدًا إِلَّا اللَّهَ وَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ حَسِيبًا ﴿٣٩﴾

(36) It is not for the believing men and women to have any choice in their affairs when Allāh and His messenger have decreed a matter. The one who disobeys Allāh and His messenger has certainly deviated in a clear manner. (37) When you said to the one upon whom Allāh had bestowed His grace, and upon whom you had bestowed your grace, "Keep your wife and fear Allāh." You concealed in your heart what Allāh was to disclose. And you feared the people, whereas Allāh is more worthy of being feared. So when Zaid fulfilled his need from her, We married her to you so that there may not be any constraint on the believers with regard to the wives of their adopted sons, when they (the adopted sons) have fulfilled their need from them. Allāh's command will always come to pass. (38) There is no constraint upon the Holy Prophet with regard to what Allāh has ordained for him. Such was the practice of Allāh among those who passed before. Allāh's command is a decreed affair. (39) Those who propagate Allāh's messages, who fear Him and do not fear anyone but Allāh. Allāh suffices as One who takes reckoning.

THE STORY OF SAYYIDINA ZAID BIN HĀRITHA رضى الله عنه

Many Arabs used to kidnap children and take them to distant places, where none recognised them. They would then sell them as slaves. Sayyidina Zaid bin Hāritha رضى الله عنه was travelling with his mother to her parents home when some bandits kidnapped him and took him to Makkah, where they sold him as a slave. He was eight years old at the time. Sayyidina Hakīm bin Hizām bin Khuwaylid رضى الله عنه bought him as a gift for his paternal aunt, Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها. He paid 400 Dirhams for the boy.

When Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها married the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, she presented Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه as a gift for her husband. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم adopted him as a son and people began referring to him as Zaid bin Muhammad (Zaid, the son of Muhammad) because it was customary among the Arabs to refer to an adopted child as the real child of the adoptive father.

When Sayyidina Zaid's رضى الله عنه father learnt after much investigation that his abducted son was sold as a slave in Makkah, he arrived in Makkah to purchase his freedom. When he approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and explained that he wished to purchase his son's freedom, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that he may take the boy for free if the boy agreed to accompany him. However, the boy should be left to remain with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم if he chose to do so.

Exuberant, the father said that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had exceeded the bounds of kindness because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reserved the right to retain the boy. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه if he recognised the two persons who came to fetch him, he immediately responded by saying that they were his father and uncle.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "You know them and you know me because you have spent time in my company. You now have the choice to join them or to remain with me." Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه chose to remain with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. His father said, "It is tragic that you prefer a life of slavery to freedom and another person to your father, uncle, kith and kin." Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه replied, "I have seen such qualities in my master and I simply cannot prefer any other to him."

This episode transpired before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم announced his Prophethood. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم announced that he was a Prophet, Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه was one of the first to accept Islām. According to certain Ulema (scholars), Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه was the first male to accept Islām.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه to his slave, Sayyidah Barka رضى الله عنها, famously known as Ummu Ayman رضى الله عنها. She was of African origin and formed part of the inheritance which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم received from the estate of his father or (according to others) from the estate of his mother. It was she who brought the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم back to Makkah from Abwa after his mother passed away there when he was only six years old. Ummu Ayman رضى الله عنها gave birth to Sayyidina Usama bin Zaid رضى الله عنه, who was commonly referred to as "the beloved of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم".

People always referred to Sayyidina Zaid bin Hāritha رضى الله عنه as Zaid bin (the son of) Muhammad. However, they stopped doing so when Allāh revealed the verse, "Allāh has also not made your adopted sons your own sons... Call them by their fathers. This is more just in the sight of your Lord." [Surah Ahzāb (33), verses 4,5]

SAYYIDINA ZAID رضى الله عنه MARRIES SAYYIDAH ZAINAB BINT JAHSH رضى الله عنها AND LATER DIVORCED HER

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then married Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه to his cousin [the daughter of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم paternal aunt], Sayyidah Zainab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها. She accepted the proposal on the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم recommendation, but the couple could never adapt to each other. When Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه wanted to divorce her, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised him to maintain the marriage. However, when matters came to a head, he finally divorced her.

Allāh then commanded the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to marry her, when He revealed the verse, "So when Zaid fulfilled his need from her, We married her to you...". After completing the Iddah, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent a marriage proposal to her via Sayyidah Zainab رضى الله عنها, but she requested time to consider the matter. However, when Allāh revealed the above verse, the marriage was contracted and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was legally married to her. It is for this reason that she boasted to the other wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Your guardians married you, whereas Allāh Himself married me." ["Isti'ab" and "Isābah"]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that Sayyidah Zainab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها initially refused to marry Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم brought the proposal to her. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised her to marry him, she declared that she required time to think it over. As she considered the issue, Allāh revealed the verse saying, "It is not for the believing men and women to have any choice in their affairs when Allāh and His messenger have decreed a matter. The one who disobeys Allāh and His messenger has certainly deviated in a clear manner." When this verse was revealed, Sayyidah Zainab رضي الله عنها said, "I do not wish to disobey Allāh and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. I agree to marry Zaid."

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 22 p. 23) and Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه write (v. 3 p. 489) that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم brought Sayyidina Zaid's رضي الله عنه proposal to Sayyidah Zainab رضي الله عنها, she said that he did not suit her because of her higher social standing and lineage. Her brother, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Jahsh رضي الله عنه echoed her feelings. They felt like this because although Sayyidina Zaid رضي الله عنه was an Arab, he was a slave and did not belong to the Quraysh. However, they both accepted the marriage happily when the above verse was revealed.

Although the verse may have been revealed in relation to a specific incident, the purport is general and applies to all believers (Mu'minīn) during every age. The verse makes it clear that Muslims are obliged to accept Allāh's laws and to practise them. The behaviour of present day Muslims contravenes this principle when they act contrary to the teachings of the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth.

"The one who disobeys Allāh and His messenger has certainly deviated in a clear manner." People initially omit the Sunnah and other optional acts, after which they begin to neglect the Compulsories and Farādh (Obligations). Eventually Satan (Shaytān) persuades them to discard even their Imān. It is therefore necessary that every aspect of religion is followed properly.

SAYYIDAH ZAINAB BINT JAHSH رضي الله عنها IS MARRIED TO THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

"When you said to the one upon whom Allāh had bestowed His grace, and upon whom you had bestowed your grace, 'Keep your wife and fear Allāh.'" The verse refers to the advice the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave to Sayyidina Zaid رضي الله عنه. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had bestowed his grace upon Sayyidina Zaid رضي الله عنه by freeing him from slavery and taking him in his care and compassion.

Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further when He says, "You concealed in your heart what Allāh was to disclose." Certain commentators (including the author of "Jalālain") write that the matter which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم concealed in his heart was his desire to marry Sayyidah Zainab رضي الله عنها when Sayyidina Zaid رضي الله عنه divorced her. However, this interpretation does not behave the status of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The correct interpretation is that Allāh had already informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Sayyidina Zaid رضي الله عنه would divorce her, after which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to marry her. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not want to disclose this matter and still advised Sayyidina Zaid رضي الله عنه to keep her in his marriage. As a result of this, Allāh mildly chided the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the verse.

THE PERMISSIBILITY OF MARRYING THE FORMER WIFE OF ONE'S ADOPTED SON

Since the Arabs regarded an adopted son as one's own, they regarded it Harām (unlawful) for a person to marry his adopted son's former wife. Therefore the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم feared that some people would object to such a marriage. However, when Allāh revealed the verse "Allāh has also not made your adopted sons your own sons..." There remained no doubt that a man was allowed to marry his adopted son's former wife. When Allāh has declared something lawful, no objection to it will be considered.

To eradicate all doubts from people's minds, it was necessary that the injunction be pronounced verbally and practically by the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم marriage to Sayyidah Zainab عنها رضى الله. Allāh mildly chided the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for his apprehension by saying, "And you feared the people, whereas Allāh is more worthy of being feared."

"So when Zaid fulfilled his need from her (by divorcing her), We married her to you so that there may not be any constraint on the believers with regard to the wives of their adopted sons, when they (the adopted sons) have fulfilled their need from them." Therefore, the Ummah need not feel difficult to marry the former wives of their adopted sons once the precedent has been set.

"Allāh's command will always come to pass." Allāh had already decreed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should marry Sayyidah Zainab عنها رضى الله. It was for this reason that the divorce was inevitable and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had to practically demonstrate the permissibility of such a marriage.

Sayyidah Ayshah عنها رضى الله mentioned that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could hide any part of revelation, he would certainly have hid the verse "When you said to the one upon whom Allāh had bestowed His grace..." [Tirmidhi]. This is because Allāh chides the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this verse.

"There is no constraint upon the Holy Prophet with regard to what Allāh has ordained for him." None can hold the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم responsible for any of the injunctions that Allāh has issued because they did not stem from his personal feelings. Therefore, none has the right to accuse the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of anything.

"Such was the practice of Allāh among those who passed before." Allāh has also ordained many permissible things for the previous Prophets عليهم السلام, which they practised without guilt and fear of people's accusations. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married a woman who was Halāl (permissible) for him.

"Allāh's command is a decreed affair." Whatever Allāh wills will certainly take place. All Allāh's commands are practicable and constitute the Shari'ah. None can question them.

Describing "those who passed before," Allāh says that they were "Those who propagate Allāh's messages, who fear Him and do not fear anyone but Allāh." The Prophets عليهم السلام ceaselessly propagated Allāh's message and did not falter when they met opposition. Allāh will deal with their opponents on the Day of Qiyamah (resurrection) because "Allāh suffices as One who takes reckoning."

SOME PERTINENT NOTES

NOTE: Compatibility between a man and a woman is necessary in the Shari'ah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه that the following three things should never be delayed:

1. The performance of Salāh when the time sets in.
2. The burial of a corpse when it is ready.
3. The marriage of a solitary woman when a compatible match is found. [Tirmidhi p. 52]

A man and woman should be compatible in aspects like slavery and freedom (i.e. both should be free or both should be Slaves). Both of them should also be Muslims and of equal religious sentiments. There are other factors that also need to be considered so that the families of either party have no cause to object to the marriage. The details of this can be read up in the relevant books of Islāmic jurisprudence.

This explains the hesitancy on the part of Sayyidah Zainab رضى الله عنها and her brother when Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه sent his marriage proposal. However, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not consider their reluctance because there are times when compatibility may be overruled by other factors.

The marriage and subsequent divorce needed to take place because Allāh has already decreed that Sayyidah Zainab رضى الله عنها be married to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم after being divorced from Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه. This was necessary to demonstrate an injunction to humanity until the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not merely offer advice when he told Sayyidah Zainab رضى الله عنها to marry Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه, but it was a command. It was for this reason that Allāh revealed the verse saying, "The one who disobeys Allāh and His messenger has certainly deviated in a clear manner."

It should also be noted that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has a greater relationship with the believers (Mu'minīn) than the members of their own families and their guardians. Allāh says in Surah Ahzāb, "The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has a greater relationship with the believers than even their own selves... [Surah 33, verse 6]

The command of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cannot be disobeyed even though a person's parents, relatives, or even a king has to issue a command against that of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

NOTE: "And you feared the people whereas Allāh is more worthy of being feared."

This part of the verse emphasises that people must act only to please Allāh, irrespective of what people have to say. It has become common nowadays that people participate in certain un-Islāmic marriage and funeral functions merely because they fear that people will be offended if they do not. They claim that people also have to be satisfied. Such an attitude is hypocritical to the claim of belief (Imān). One can well imagine the gravity of the situation when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was chided for something that was not even Harām (unlawful).

If a deed is praiseworthy, but may lead to people getting an incorrect notion, it should be avoided when the Shari'ah does not demand that it be carried out. An example of this is when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that he would have reconstructed the Kābah according to the original design of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام if the Quraysh were not new to Islām. He feared that people may object to the fact that he is demolishing the Kābah. Therefore, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not do as he desired since he was not commanded to do so.

NOTE: Sayyidina Zaid رضى الله عنه enjoys the special privilege that he is the only Sahabi (Companion) whose name appears in the Qur'ān. When people stopped calling him Zaid bin Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, he lost a privilege, but Allāh compensated for his loss by including his name in the Qur'ān, which will be recited by people until Judgment day (Qiyāmah). Since every letter of the Qur'ān earns the reciter a minimum of ten rewards, the word 'Zaid' will earn a person at least thirty rewards.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also accorded him the privilege of appointing him as leader of military expeditions. He was martyred during the battle of Mauta in the 8th year after the Hijrah. He was 55 years of age at that time and the Amīr (leader) of the army. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also used to appoint him as the head of Madinah when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had to leave. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also appointed his son, Sayyidina Usama bin Zaid رضى الله عنه as the Amīr of an expedition before his demise. After the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed away, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه dispatched this expedition.

مَا كَانَ مُحَمَّدٌ أَبَا أَحَدٍ مِّن رِّجَالِكُمْ وَلَكِن رَّسُولَ اللَّهِ وَخَاتَمَ النَّبِيِّينَ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا

(40) Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is not the father of any men among you, but he is Allāh's messenger and the seal of all the Prophets. Allāh has knowledge of all things.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS THE LAST PROPHET

The above verse makes it clear that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not the biological father of any grown man. The general purport of this verse disqualifies Sayyidina Zaid bin Hāritha رضى الله عنه as well. This means that no man stands to inherit from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The word "men" has been used because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did father four daughters, all of whom married in his lifetime. In fact, all except Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها even passed away during the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم lifetime. Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها passed away six months after her father صلى الله عليه وسلم. The word "men" also precludes the sons that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fathered because they all passed away in childhood before growing up to be men.

Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not the biological father of any men, he still remains the spiritual father of the entire Ummah. It is therefore incumbent that every Muslim respects and honours the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to the highest degree possible. The fact that he is the spiritual father to so many people throughout the world until Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is a much greater privilege that merely being the biological father of a few men.

The verse also makes it clear that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the final Prophet to be sent to the world. Whereas the previous Prophets عليهم السلام were sent only as guides to a particular nation or community, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is Allāh's Prophet to every man and Jinn to be born until Qiyāmah (Resurrection day). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was both a Rasūl (messenger) and a Prophet (a Rasūl is one who brings a new Shari'ah). Therefore, while the verse announces that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the final Prophet, it also announces that fact that he was the final Rasūl.

Allāh says in Surah Saba, "We have only sent you to the whole of mankind as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. But most people do not know." [Surah 34, verse 28]

THOSE WHO DENY THAT THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS THE FINAL HOLY PROPHET ACTUALLY REFUTE THE QUR'ĀN AND NO LONGER REMAIN MUSLIMS

Whoever claims to be a Prophet after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is a liar and a disbeliever. So too are those who believe this to be true. This is so because they refute the explicit teaching of the Qur'ān and the numerous authentic Ahadīth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

THE RECITATION OF "KHĀTIMUN NABIYYĪN"

According to the authenticated recitation of Imām Āsim رحمه الله عليه, the arabic word in the above verse is "Khātamun Nabiyyīn," (translated above as "seal of all Prophets") whereas the other Imāms (leaders) of Qirāt recite the word as "Khātimun Nabiyyīn" (which denotes someone who terminates something). The two words vary only in a single vowel, but the essential meaning of both remains the same. Both words denote that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the last of all the Holy Prophets.

All the modes of Qirāt (Qur'ānic recitation) are authentic and rejecting any one of them will constitute disbelief. This discussion has been included here because some people distort the meaning of the verse by saying that "Khātamun Nabiyyīn" means 'the best of all Holy Prophets.' In this manner they wish to justify their rejection of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as the final Holy Prophet of Allāh.

Upon the bidding and bribery of the Christians in the 18th century, a person from Panjāb called Qādiāni claimed to be a Prophet. The British Christians used him to achieve their own ulterior motives because he declared Jihād to be an abrogated command of the Shari'ah. He tendered various incoherent interpretations for the verse that declares the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be the final Prophet, and even classified various categories of Prophets.

His followers still exist today and are all tutored by the disbelievers. Any person who denies a clear statement of the Qur'ān cannot be called a Muslim.

Allāh concludes the verse by saying, "Allāh has knowledge of all things." This part of the verse sounds a warning to those who oppose the teachings of the Qur'ān and believe in another Prophet after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They should note that while they may escape with their fallacious beliefs in this world, they will never escape Allāh in the Hereafter.

THE RETURN OF SAYYIDINA ISĀ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام WILL NOT NULLIFY THE FACT THAT THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS THE SEAL OF ALL PROPHETS

Many indisputable Ahadith and verses of the Qur'ān foretell the return of Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام to this world before Qiyāmah, when he will slay Dajjāl. This is the unanimous belief of the Ahlus Sunnah wal Jamā'ah (followers of Sunnah).

Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام will not be made a Prophet after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because he was already a Prophet عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام before ascending to the heavens. He will also not introduce another religion or Shari'ah, but will follow the religion of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and he will urge people to do the same. He will live, marry and pass away among the Muslims. His advent will therefore not impact upon the finality of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم Prophethood.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام will abrogate the Jizya (atonement), but the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has already informed us about it proves that the abrogation will also be in conformity to the Religion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāma Suyuti's رحمه الله عليه book about the descent of Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, and many Ahadith in the books of Bayhaqi and Tabrāni explicitly mention that Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام will follow the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم Shari'ah. He will rule by the code of Islām and pass judgement accordingly.

THE FALLACIES OF THE QĀDIANIS

Those adhering to the Qādiyani sect claim that the door of Prophethood has not been shut because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has foretold the coming of Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Therefore, they claim that the person they follow is actually Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. They fail to perceive the simple fact that the Qur'ān repeatedly declares that Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام is the son of Sayyidah Maryam عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام, whereas every person, including Qādiyani's followers, knows that Qādiyani's mother was not called Maryam.

They also say that the coming of Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام proves that the chain of the Prophets has not terminated. The reply to this has already been given. It should also be noted that since Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام will follow the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم Shari'ah, he will not abrogate Jihād, as Qādiyani did. It is clear that Qadiyani could neither have been another Prophet, nor could he have been Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ ذِكْرًا كَثِيرًا ۖ وَسَبِّحُوهُ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا ۚ هُوَ الَّذِي يُصَلِّي عَلَيْكُمْ وَمَلَائِكَتُهُ لِيُخْرِجَكُم مِّنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ وَكَانَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ رَحِيمًا ۝۴۳ تَحِيَّتُهُمْ يَوْمَ يَلْقَوْنَهُ سَلَامٌ ۖ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرًا كَرِيمًا ۝۴۴

(41) O you who believe! Remember Allāh in abundance... (42) .... And glorify Him morning and evening. (43) It is He Who showers mercy on you, and so do His Angels (pray for your forgiveness), so that He may remove you from a multitude of darkness into light. He is always Most Merciful unto the believers. (44) The day when they will meet Him, their greeting will be "Salām." And He has prepared for them a generous reward.

THE BELIEVERS ARE COMMANDED TO REMEMBER ALLĀH IN ABUNDANCE AND ARE GRANTED THE TIDINGS OF MERCY FROM ALLĀH AND HIS ANGELS

"Allāh says, "O you who believe! Remember Allāh in abundance, and glorify Him morning and evening." Commentators say that the verse denotes that people should engage in the remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) of Allāh at all times. Others say that "morning" refers to the day, while "evening" refers to the night. Allāh has commanded that remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) take place at the beginning of the day and at the beginning of the night so that the rest of the day and night may be passed in the same way.

THE VIRTUES OF REMEMBRANCE OF ALLĀH (DHIKR)

Allāh's remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) is a great act of worship and should be practised at all times. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "When you have completed your Salāh, remember Allāh standing, sitting and (reclining) on your sides (i.e. while lying down)." These are basically the only three postures of man and remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) must be practised in each of them.

Muslim (v. 1 p. 24) reports that Qiyāmah (dooms day) will take place only when there is none to take Allāh's name in this world. This proves that remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) is the lifeblood of this world, without which the universe will be destroyed. It is also the soul of other acts of worship. In fact, Salāh, the foundational act of worship, is based on remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr). Allāh says in Surah TāHā, "establish Salāh for My remembrance (for My Dhikr)." [Surah 20, verse 14]

A verse of Surah Ra'd also mentions that remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) develops tranquillity and contentment in the heart. Sayyidina Abu Mūsā Ash'ari رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The example of one who remembers Allāh is like that of a living being, while the example of one who does not remember Allāh is like that of a dead being." [Bukhari]

This hadith makes it evident that true living beings are those who engage in Allāh's remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) at all times, and not those who merely eat, drink and engage in worldly activities.

Another hadith mentions that the people of Heaven will regret the moments that they spent without engaging in remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr).

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the gathering without Allah's remembrance (Dhikr) and salutations upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be a source of regret to the participants on the Day of Qiyāmah (dooms day). Allah may punish them if He wills or He may forgive them. If any person lies down without engaging in any remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr), his act of lying down will be a source of regret for him on the Day of Qiyāmah (dooms day). In a similar manner, a person will regret his walking if it was bereft of Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr).

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the gathering bereft of Allāh's remembrance and salutations upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be a source of regret to the participants on the Day of Qiyāmah (Resurrection), even though they will enter Heaven on account of their good deeds. [Targhib wat Tarhib v. 2 p. 409/4 10]

An intelligent person is he who does not waste a single moment. He uses every second to engage in various forms of remembrance and manages his worldly activities as swiftly as possible so that he may return to remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr).

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that one must not engage in much talk, unless the talk is Allāh's remembrance. This is so because excessive talking hardens the heart, and the hard-hearted person is the most distant from Allāh. [Tirmidhi]

Ummul Mu'minin {(The Spiritual) mother of the believers} Sayyidah Ummu Habibah رضى الله عنها narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Everything a person says will be an encumbrance for him, except enjoining good, forbidding evil and Allāh's remembrance." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Busr رضى الله عنه reports that a villager once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who is the best person. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that the best person is the one whose life is long and whose deeds are good. The person then inquired about the best deed. The reply was, "That you leave this world while your tongue is moist with Allāh's Dhikr." [Ibid]

Allāh says in Surah TaHā, "establish Salāh for My remembrance (Dhikr).". The Adhān and Iqāmah before Salāh are forms of remembrance. So too is the reply to the Adhān, the du'as of wudhu (prays of ablution), and all the words recited in the Salāh. These words praise Allah, glorify Him and express His purity.

The tongue, together with the other limbs of the body, all engage in Allāh's remembrance while performing Salāh. As the limbs lower themselves before Allāh in the various postures, the tongue continues to praise and glorify Him. The submission of all the limbs and the lowering of the head to the ground indicate one's humility before Allāh.

Allāh says in Surah Jumu'ah, "When the (Jumu'ah) Salāh has been completed then disperse in the land, seek from Allāh's bounty and remember Allāh abundantly so that you may be successful." [Surah 62, verse 10]

ALLĀH REMEMBERS THOSE WHO REMEMBER HIM

Allāh says in verse 152 of Surah Baqarah, "So remember Me and I will remember you. Be grateful to Me and be not ungrateful."

It is reported in a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم quotes Allāh as saying, "I am with My servant when He remembers Me and engages His tongue with the recitation of My name." [Bukhari, from Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه]

Another hadith reports the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to have said, "Allāh says that I am with My servant when he remembers Me. When he remembers me in privacy, then I remember him likewise. When he remembers Me in a gathering, then I remember him in a nobler gathering i.e. of angels. [Bukhari, from Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه]

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has reported 'from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that Allāh has stipulated a limit for every act of worship that He has ordained. Allāh has also excused certain people from these acts of worship because of their specific conditions. However, Allāh's remembrance is such an act of worship that has no limitations in terms of quantity and time. It has no fixed pattern of standing or sitting, neither is one required to have wudhu (ablution). Allāh commands that people abundantly engage in His remembrance at all times and in all situations, be they travelling or at home, ill or healthy, on land or at sea. The only excuse a person can have for not making remembrance is when he loses his sanity or consciousness.

"It is He Who showers mercy on you, and so do His Angels..." The Arabic word 'yusallī' (translated above as "showers mercy") may be attributed to Allāh, as well as the angels. When it is attributed to Allāh, it would mean that Allāh's showers His special mercy and grace upon a person. When it is attributed to the angels, it means that they seek forgiveness on behalf of a person and invoke Allāh's mercy for him.

Allāh then says that the purpose of Allāh's mercy and the supplications of the angels is to "remove you from a multitude of darkness (and bring you) into light. He is always Most Merciful unto the believers." Allāh's mercy abounds to the believers (Mu'minīn) in both worlds. In this world, it saves them from disbelief, polytheism (shirk) and Bid'ah (innovations), while also providing for their material needs. Then, in the Hereafter, it will secure for them eternal peace and tranquillity.

"The day when they will meet Him, their greeting will be 'Salām.'" Allāh will greet them with 'Salām' (peace) when they meet Him. Allāh says in Surah YāSīn, "They will have a greeting of peace from the Most Merciful Lord." [Surah 36, verse 58]

Verses 23 and 24 of Surah Ra'd (Surah 13) read: "And the angels shall enter upon them from every door saying, 'Peace be upon you because of the patience that you exercised. How blissful is the outcome of the Hereafter!'"

Certain commentators have mentioned that the angels shall greet a believer (Mu'min) with Salām when they claim his soul. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

"And He has prepared for them a generous reward." Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه mentions that this verse refers to Heaven and all the bounties there. All of this will be presented to a person with great honour.

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ شَهِيدًا وَمُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا ﴿٤٥﴾ وَدَاعِيًا إِلَى اللَّهِ بِآذِنِهِ
وَسِرَاجًا مُنِيرًا ﴿٤٦﴾ وَبَشِّرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ بِأَنَّ لَهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ فَضْلًا كَبِيرًا ﴿٤٧﴾ وَلَا تَطْعِ
الْكَافِرِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقِينَ وَدَعْ أَذُنَهُمْ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ وَكِيلًا ﴿٤٨﴾

(45) O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! We have certainly sent you as a witness, a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. (46) And as a caller to Allāh by His command and an illuminating lantern. (47) Convey glad tidings to the believers that theirs will be a great bounty from their Lord. (48) Do not follow the disbelievers and the hypocrites, ignore their harassment and rely only on Allāh. Allāh suffices as a Helper.

THE NOBLE ATTRIBUTES OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Allāh says, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! We have certainly sent you as a witness..." Addressing the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Thus We have made you such a group that is moderate in nature so that you may be witnesses over the people and the messenger a witness over you." [Surah 2, verse 143]

Allāh states in Surah Nisā, "How will it be when We shall bring forth from every nation a witness and call you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] to witness over all of them?" [Surah 4, verse 41]

The concluding verse of Surah Hajj states, "So that the messenger be a witness over you, and that you be witnesses over mankind." [Surah 22, verse 78]

The details of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم testimony on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) have been discussed in the commentaries of the above verses of Surah Nisā and Surah Baqarah.

Allāh says further that he has sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as "a bearer of glad tidings and a warner." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed on to the believers (Mu'minīn) the glad tidings that they will be admitted into Heaven, and also warned the disbelievers and sinners that they may have to suffer in Hell.

Allāh sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as "a bearer of glad tidings and a warner" to all nations and communities, as He says in Surah Saba, "We have only sent you to the whole of mankind as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. But most people do not know." [Surah 34, verse 28]

It is incumbent that people of all religions and denominations follow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says in verse 19 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5), "O People of the Book! Indeed Our messenger has come to you, expounding to you at a time when the succession of messengers has been paused, so that you do not say, 'There has not come to us a bearer of glad tidings, nor any warner!' Undoubtedly there has come to you a bearer of glad tidings and a warner! Allāh has power over all things."

Sayyidina Atā bin Yasār رَحِمَهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ reports that he once met Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Amr bin Ās رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ and asked him about the description of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ in the Torah. He replied that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was described in the Torah just as he is described in the Qur'ān, i.e. "O the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ! We have certainly sent you as a witness, a bearer of glad tidings and a Warner." In addition to this, the Torah mentions that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ is a protector of the unlettered people (Arabs). Allāh also says to him in the Torah, "You are my bondsman and I have named you 'Mutawakkil' (i.e. one who relies on Allāh). You are not foul mouthed and harsh, and do not make a noise in the marketplaces. You do not avenge evil with evil, but forgive and overlook. I will not call you back until you have straightened a crooked nation, who will say 'Lā ilāha illa Allāh'. This will open their blind eyes, their deaf ears, and shatter the veil upon their hearts."

"And (We have sent you) as a caller to Allāh by His command..." the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ invited all of mankind and the Jinn towards believing in Allāh's oneness (Tauhid), urging them to worship only Him. The Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ endured great pains and hardships in propagating oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), the responsibility of which has been passed on to his Ummah. Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "There should be a group from you who invite towards good, enjoin right and forbid from evil. These are indeed the successful ones." [Surah 3, verse 104]

Allāh further describes the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ as "an illuminating lantern (who leads people out of the darkness of disbelief and into the light of Islām)." Just as many lanterns can be lit from one lantern, many hearts were illuminated by the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, each of them illuminating a large number of others. Allāh did not describe the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ as a sun because the radiance of the sun disappears at night and is not perpetuated by a transfer of the light to other bodies.

Allāh then commands the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ so "Convey glad tidings to the believers that theirs will be a great bounty from their Lord." They will be saved from disbelief and polytheism (shirk) in this world and admitted into Heaven in the Hereafter.

"Do not follow the disbelievers and the hypocrites, ignore their harassment and rely only on Allāh. Allāh suffices as a Helper." Because of their opposition to the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ message, the disbelievers presented all kinds of obstacles. Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ to ignore them and not to compromise Islām in any way. Allāh will soon settle the score with them and take them to task for their persecution.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِذَا نَكَحْتُمُ الْمُؤْمِنَاتِ ثُمَّ طَلَقْتُمُوهُنَّ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ تَمْسُوهُنَّ
فَمَا لَكُمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ عِدَةٍ تَعُدُّوهنَّ فَمَتَّعُوهُنَّ وَسَرَّحُوهُنَّ سَرَاحًا جَمِيلًا ﴿٤٩﴾

(49) O you who believe! When you marry believing women and then divorce them before touching them, there will be no waiting period (Iddah) incumbent on them for you, which you will have to count. Grant them a provision and part from them in a most beautiful manner.

CERTAIN LAWS OF THE IDDAH

The laws of marriage, divorce, maintenance, Iddah, etc have been discussed at length in the Qur'ān, the Ahadith and the books of Islāmic jurisprudence. Although divorce has been permitted by the Shari'ah as a last resort, it has been referred to as "the worst of all permissible things".

A woman may leave the marriage of her husband under the following circumstances:

📖 He dies.

📖 He pronounces a divorce that is 'Bā'in.'

📖 He pronounces a divorce that is 'Mughallaza.'

📖 He pronounces a divorce that is 'Raj'i' and does not take her back before the expiry of her Iddah.

The Arabic word 'Iddah' literally means 'to count.' It has been named thus because the divorced or widowed woman has to 'count' the menstruation cycles or months to complete her waiting period. It is only after this Iddah that she can remarry.

If a man divorces his wife after the marriage has been consummated, and:

📖 If she menstruates, she will have to complete an Iddah for the period of three menstruation cycles.

📖 If she is pregnant, her Iddah will terminate as soon as the child is born.

📖 If she does not menstruate and is not expecting, her Iddah will last for three months.

If a man passed away, and:

📖 If his wife was expecting, her Iddah will terminate upon the delivery of the child.

📖 If she was not expecting, her Iddah will last for four months and ten days, irrespective of whether she menstruates or not, and irrespective of whether the marriage was consummated or not.

However, if a woman was divorced before the marriage could be consummated, there will be no Iddah for her. She may remarry immediately after the divorce is pronounced. This is explained in the above verse. The verse also instructs the husband to give her "a provision."

The sum of this "provision" has been stipulated in Surah Baqarah, where Allāh says, "If you divorce them before touching them and you have stipulated the dowry, then half of it (shall be due), unless the women or those possessing the tie of marriage forgo it." [Surah 2, verse 237]

Therefore, the husband has to give her half of the stipulated dowry upon separation. However, if no dowry has been agreed upon. He will have to give her a set of clothing. This set of clothing is known as 'mutā' in the definition of the Shari'ah. The 'muTā' has to consist of at least three garments. The first should be equivalent to a sheet that drapes the entire body from head to toe. The second should be a large scarf, and the third should be something like a cloak, which covers the body properly.

If a woman was divorced after consummation, but the dowry was never specified, she will receive the dowry known as 'mithal' i.e. the amount of dowry usually received by the women of her family. Of course, if a dowry has been agreed upon in the above case, the woman will have to be paid the full amount after divorce (if she did not receive it already).

According to the Hanafi and Hambali schools of jurisprudence, a marriage will be regarded as consummated even if the couple did not physically engage in cohabitation, but were left in privacy for a period in which they could have cohabited.

Allāh then says, "part from them in a most beautiful manner. When the couple have to leave each other, the husband must not utter any offensive words, nor deprive the wife of her rights. He should also not take back anything that he had given her before.

يَتَّيِّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِنَّا أَحْلَلْنَا لَكَ أَزْوَاجَ النَّبِيِّ ءَاتَيْتَ أَجُورَهُنَّ وَمَا مَلَكَتْ يَمِينُكَ
مِمَّا أَفَاءَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكَ وَبَنَاتِ عَمِّكَ وَبَنَاتِ عَمَّتِكَ وَبَنَاتِ خَالَكَ وَبَنَاتِ خَلَّتِكَ النَّبِيُّ
هَاجِرَ مَعَكَ وَأَمْرَةً مُؤْمِنَةً إِنْ وَهَبَتْ نَفْسَهَا لِلنَّبِيِّ إِنْ أَرَادَ النَّبِيُّ أَنْ يَسْتَنْكِحَهَا
خَالِصَةً لَكَ مِنْ دُونِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ قَدْ عَلِمْنَا مَا فَرَضْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ فِي أَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَمَا
مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ لِكَيْلَا يَكُونَ عَلَيْكَ حَرَجٌ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا

(50) O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Verily we have legalised for you those wives whose dowries you have' paid, and those slave women who are in your possession from the booty that Allāh has granted to you. And (legalised for you are) the daughters of your maternal uncles and daughters of your maternal aunts, who have migrated with you. And that believing woman who has gifted herself to the Holy Prophet, if the Holy Prophet desires to marry her. This is exclusive to you and not for the believers. Indeed We are aware of what We have stipulated for them with regard to their wives and the slaves they own so that there is no difficulty for you. Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful.

SOME LAWS OF MARRIAGE AND THE SPECIAL PRIVILEGE OF THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ

After the demise of Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها, The Holy Prophet ﷺ married many wives. Their names have been mentioned in the commentary of verse 28 of Surah Ahzāb. Most of these wives migrated from Makkah the only exceptions were Sayyidah Safiyya bint Huyay رضى الله عنها who was a Jewess captured during the battle of Khaibar, and Sayyidah Juwayriyya رضى الله عنها who was a captive from the Banu Mustaliq tribe.

Allāh also refers to the Holy Prophet's ﷺ slave woman, Sayyidah Mariya Qibtiyya رضى الله عنها, from whom the Holy Prophet's ﷺ son, Ibrahim رضى الله عنه was born. He passed away in infancy.

Allāh says, "O the Holy Prophet ﷺ! Verily we have legalised for you those wives whose dowries you have paid, and those slave women who are in your possession from the booty that Allāh has granted to you." The payment of dowry has been mentioned in this verse even though marriage can be contracted without paying the dowry. Of course, it will still be due from the husband at some stage, and should be paid as soon as possible.

Allāh mentions further, "And (legalised for you are) the daughters of your maternal uncles and daughters of your maternal aunts, who have migrated with you." Although the Holy Prophet ﷺ could have married all these women, the only cousin he married was Sayyidah Zainab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها, the daughter of his paternal aunt.

When the Holy Prophet ﷺ proposed for Sayyidah Ummu Hāni رضى الله عنها [the daughter of the Holy Prophet's ﷺ paternal uncle, Abu Talib, and the sister of Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه] she declined on some account. When the above verse was revealed, she said that she was no longer lawful for the Holy Prophet ﷺ because she did not migrate to Madinah. [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidah Ummu Hāni رضى الله عنها accepted Islām only when Makkah was conquered. Ulema (Scholars) say that migration was not a condition for a woman to be married to the Holy Prophet ﷺ. Sayyidah Ummu Hāni رضى الله عنها based her statement on her own analogy, which conforms to the ruling of Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه. [Tirmidhi]

".....who have migrated with you." This clause applies to the wives of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and not to the daughters of his maternal uncles and aunts because, like the Holy Prophet's ﷺ mother, they were all from Madinah and did not require to migrate.

The books of history and of the Holy Prophet's ﷺ biography do not mention any daughters of the Holy Prophet's ﷺ maternal uncles and aunts. Although the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni", after extensive research, has cited the names of a few, it has not been established that any of them married the Holy Prophet ﷺ. Of course, this is not a cause to object to the above verse because the verse never commanded the Holy Prophet ﷺ to marry any of these women. It merely permits him to do so if he desired to.

It may also be said that the verse, though addressed to the Holy Prophet ﷺ applies to the Ummah at large, permitting them to marry these women. This is then similar to the opening verse of Surah Talāq (Surah 65), where Allāh, though addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, teaches the Ummah the correct method of divorce.

"And that believing woman who has gifted herself to the Holy Prophet (is legal for him) if the Holy Prophet desires to marry her. This is exclusive to you and not for the believers." This verse permits the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to marry a woman who is prepared to enter into marriage without any dowry. However, if any woman makes the same offer to another Muslim, he will have to pay her the dowry referred to as 'mithal.'

Commentators differ whether any woman offered herself as a gift to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. While many commentators state that no such incident took place, others are of the opinion that many women did offer themselves to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married some of these women, while he declined the offer of others.

Recording the names of these women, certain commentators make mention of Sayyidah Maymūna bint Hārith رضى الله عنها and others mention Sayyidah Zainab bint Khuzaima رضى الله عنها. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has recorded the names of certain other women as well. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه is emphatic that no such incident took place where a woman offered herself as a gift to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

When making mention of such women, Allāh attached the clause of "believing" i.e. the woman had to be a Mu'mina (Believes). Ulema (Scholars) have deduced from this that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not permitted to marry any Jewish or Christian woman. While it is permissible for a Muslim to marry such women, it is best that they do not, especially if there is a danger that the woman will corrupt the husband's religious life.

'Indeed We are aware of what We have stipulated for them with regard to their wives and the slaves they own...' Allāh is well aware of the injunctions that He has decreed with regard to the marriages of the general Muslim public and the special privileges that He has accorded for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the same regard.

"....so that there is no difficulty for you. Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful." Allāh has accorded certain privileges to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that matters are not too strenuous for him. Certain commentators say that this part of the verse applies specifically to the case of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم marrying women who offer themselves as gifts to him.

تَرْجِي مَنْ تَشَاءُ مِنْهُمْ وَتَوَيَّ إِلَيْكَ مَنْ تَشَاءُ وَمَنْ أَبْغَيْتَ مِمَّنْ عَزَلْتَ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكَ ذَلِكَ أَدْنَىٰ أَنْ تَقَرَّ أَعْيُنُهُنَّ وَلَا يَحْزَنَ وَيَرْضَيْنَ بِمَا آتَيْنَهُنَّ كُلُّهُنَّ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَلِيمًا

(51) You may distance those of them whom you please and accommodate those of them whom you please. There will be no sin on you if you seek those whom you had already distanced. This is best so that their eyes are cooled, they do not grieve, and so that they are all pleased with what you give them. Allāh knows what is within your hearts. Allāh is All Knowing, Tolerant.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS GIVEN THE CHOICE TO WITHHOLD OR SEPARATE FROM WHICHEVER WIVES HE CHOOSES

The above verse allowed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the option to appoint a turn for every wife if he pleases, or to exclude some of them from the turns. This privilege has been accorded only to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is compulsory for the Muslim public to appoint equal and just turns to spend with each wife, but this compulsion did not apply to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He was also allowed to appoint a turn for any wife who previously had been denied a turn.

When this verse was revealed, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives realised that he was not obliged to appoint a turn for them and to grant them an allowance in excess of what they required. In this way, they became pleased with whatever he granted them and with the turns he appointed for them. This is meant by the words, "This is best so that their eyes are cooled, they do not grieve, and so that they are all pleased with what you give them."

"Allāh knows what is within your hearts. Allāh is All Knowing, Tolerant." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that this part of the verse is addressed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his wives. It tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wives that Allāh is aware of the pleasure with which they accepted Allāh's injunctions. It also mentions that Allāh is well aware of the additional affection that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم inadvertently possessed for certain wives. With regard to the turns that he appointed for his wives, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once made the following supplication to Allāh, "O Allāh! This is the distribution of turns that I am capable of making. Do not reproach me for the distribution that is in Your control and I have no power to make (i.e. an equal distribution of affection)." [Tirmidhi]

Even though the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not obliged to appoint equal turns between his wives, he still did so with great justice. However, Sayyidah Sauda رضى الله عنها forfeited her turn in favour of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها. Whenever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went on a journey, he drew lots to decide which wife would accompany him.

لَا يَحِلُّ لَكَ النِّسَاءُ مِنْ بَعْدُ وَلَا أَنْ تَبَدَّلَ بِهِنَّ مِنْ أَزْوَاجٍ وَلَوْ أَعْجَبَكَ حُسْنُهُنَّ
إِلَّا مَا مَلَكَتْ يَمِينُكَ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ رَقِيبًا

52. After this, women are not permitted for you. It is also not permissible for you to take another woman in marriage in exchange of any wives, even though her beauty may appeal to you, unless she be your slave. Allāh is Watchful over everything.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم WAS NOT ALLOWED ANY MORE WIVES

The interpretation of the verse is that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not permitted to marry any other women after the revelation of the above verse. He was also not permitted to marry another woman in place of one that he may divorce. This interpretation has been reported from Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and others.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that Allāh restricted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to those wives already in his marriage in appreciation of the fact that they all chose to remain with him when he gave them the choice of separation in exchange for a sum of wealth. The details of this have been given in the commentary of verse 28 of this Surah, where Allāh says, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Say to your wives, 'If you desire the life of this world and its adornments...'" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had nine wives at that time.

Another interpretation of the above verse has been reported from other commentators, including Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه. They interpret the verse to mean that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not permitted to marry any women besides the types already mentioned in the foregoing verses. Therefore, he was not permitted to marry any family members who did not migrate and women who were not Muslims. He was therefore, permitted to marry only women who were not mentioned in these verses.

Even if the first interpretation is accepted, the law was later abrogated because Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that Allāh granted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم permission to marry other women before his demise. [Tirmidhi]

THE REASON FOR THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم MARRYING SEVERAL WOMEN

The Jews, Christians and other enemies of Islām who cannot reply to the penetrating beliefs and dynamic codes of Islām, have resorted to attack Islām from feeble stand points, which they regard as convincing. One of their objections is the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had many wives.

At the outset, one should cast a glance at the miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the greatest being the Qur'ān. The Qur'ān has challenged people from the time of its revelation that they should produce even a single small Surah similar to any of those in the Qur'ān. Up till this day, no individual or group has been able to meet the challenge. None will even be able to do so until Qiyāmah (Resurrection day). This fact is sufficient to prove that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was certainly Allāh's true Prophet because the Qur'ān simply cannot be the product of a man.

Since the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was Allāh's true messenger, it follows that he would not do anything contrary to Allāh's will. His every deed was subject to Allāh's approval and command. Allāh, being the Lord of the universe, reserves the right to accord privileges to whoever He pleases. Therefore, even those deeds of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that were unlike those of other believers (Mu'minīn), were all correct and with Allāh's blessings. One of these privileges was the permitting of several wives at a time. Other Muminīn are restricted to four if they are able to treat them all justly.

Thereafter Allāh revealed the verse saying, "After this, women are not permitted for you. It is also not permissible for you to take another woman in marriage in exchange of any wives, even though her beauty may appeal to you, unless she be your slave. Allāh is Watchful over everything."

If the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not Allāh's Prophet and simply married women because of his personal lust, why would he say that Allāh has now restricted him with this verse? It is obvious that a person hankering after his passion will never place restrictions upon himself.

Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه once told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to marry the daughter of his uncle Sayyidina Hamza رضي الله عنه because she was extremely beautiful. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم refused saying that he and Sayyidina Hamza رضي الله عنه suckled from the same woman and were brothers in this regard. It was therefore not permissible for him to marry her.

Certain wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also requested him to marry their sisters, but he refused, being restrained by the Shari'ah. These incidents make it evident that he did not act according to his personal whims, but in accordance with Allāh's command. He could have easily satisfied his lusts because the Sahābah (Companions) رضي الله عنهم relied on him so much. If he desired, he could have married many virgins, but he had only one in his marriage.

His marriage to Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها taught the Ummah that a man who is advanced in years is permitted to marry a young lady. Imām Bukhari رحمه الله has penned an entire chapter on this aspect. He reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was allowed a period of seclusion with his new bride at Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضي الله عنه house during the daytime. This single hadith proves that it is permissible for a couple to consummate their marriage at the home of the woman's parents, and it also proves that this act is permissible during the day. In a like manner, the Ahadīth pertaining to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practical life with his wives teach the Ummah millions of lessons.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها lived with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for only nine years, within which she learnt thousands of Ahadīth, which she taught the Ummah in the 48 years that she lived after his demise. She reported over 2200 Ahadīth and people used to flock in thousands to her tent at Mina during Hajj, when it resembled a university. It is impossible to enumerate the virtues attached to the teachings that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives gifted to the Ummah.

There is not a single facet of a man's life that is not elucidated by the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم words or deeds. Through his wives, the Ummah learnt how to manage their domestic affairs and how to treat their wives and families.

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها brought her children from her previous marriage with her when she married the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In this manner, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم taught the Ummah how to treat and love step children. The Ummah would not have learnt the fine aspects of such a relationship if no wife had brought her children into her marriage with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

One of her children, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم raised him and once, while eating, he (the child) was placing his hand in every part of the utensil. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised him saying, "Take Allāh's name, eat with your right hand and eat from the side of the utensil closest to you" [Bukhari and Muslim]. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها alone reported 378 Ahadīth.

Sayyidah Juwayriyya رضى الله عنها was captured during an expedition and distributed as part of the booty. She fell to the lot of Sayyidina Thābit bin Qais رضى الله عنه or one of his cousins. However, she contracted a deal with her master to be set free upon the payment of a stipulated sum. When she approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for financial assistance to pay the sum, he told her, "Should I not inform you of something better?" When she agreed, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked her if she would prefer that he pay her debt and then marry her. She happily agreed and the couple were married.

Since thousands of her clan were slaves of the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم, the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم, in honour of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, freed every slave belonging to her clan. Such was the veneration that the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم had for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They could not bear to keep any of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم relatives by marriage in captivity.

Relating the incident, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها says, "A hundred families of the Banu Mustaliq were freed on account Sayyidah Juwayriyyah's رضى الله عنها marriage to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. I do not know of any woman who was so blessed to her people as she was to her clan."

Sayyidah Ummu Habiba رضى الله عنها accepted Islām in Makkah and migrated with her husband to Abyssinnia. Her husband became a Christian and died a few days later. It was then that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent a marriage proposal to her via the king Najashi. She accepted the proposal and Najashi himself contracted the marriage in Abyssinnia.

She was the daughter of Abu Sufyān, who was then the leader of the Quraysh and who had left no stone unturned to harass and harm the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Muslims. When he received the news of the marriage he said, "He [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] is a man whose nose cannot be cut." By this he meant that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was an extremely noble person who could not be disgraced. He added, "Here we are busy trying to humiliate him, but my daughter has just married him."

One of the reasons behind this marriage was that a disbeliever leader should be embarrassed. There were numerous other political motives to the marriage, which served the cause of Islām well. Of course, Allāh knows best the details of this.

From the age of 25 until the age of 50, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم remained with one wife, Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها. It was only after her demise that he married Sayyidah Sauda رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها, with whom he could not live because of her young age. She lived with her parents until the 2nd year after the Hijrah, when she began to live with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was then 54 years of age and until then had only two wives.

The following year he married Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها, a short while after which he married Sayyidah Zainab bint Khuzaima رضى الله عنها. Sayyidah Zainab bint Khuzaima رضى الله عنها lived for only eighteen months after her marriage to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, while other narrations state that the duration was only three months.

In the 4th year after the Hijrah the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها, and then married Sayyidah Zainab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها in the 5th year after the Hijrah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was then 58 years of age. It was only after this that he married Sayyidah Juwayriyyah رضى الله عنها, Sayyidah Ummu Habiba رضى الله عنها, Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Maymūna رضى الله عنها.

In essence, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم lived with only one wife until the age of 54, i.e. with Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها for 25 years, and then with Sayyidah Sauda رضى الله عنها for another four or five years. At 58, he had four wives, after which he married the others. He then passed away in the 10th year after the Hijrah.

Of these wives, only Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها was a virgin, while the others were all widows, some of whom had been married twice before. Then too, they entered into the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم marriage during the last years of his life.

How can the enemies of Islām who are drowning in their own lust and carnal passions ever hope to perceive the noble character and motives of Islām, which are directed at reforming societies and individuals? Such people base their analogies and presumptions on their own lives and thoughts, because of which they accuse the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of marrying many women merely to satiate his passions (Allāh forbid!). A clear thinking person will never arrive at this conclusion if he studies the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم pure life.

The Quraysh of Makkah especially noted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for his impeccable behaviour as a youth. At 25, as a young man, he married a widow who had already been married twice. (If he were someone only interested in satisfying his passions, he would have never married a 40 year old woman when he was so young). During the 25 years of marriage to her, he spent many months in meditation in the cave of Hira. He married a second wife only at the age of fifty, when he had passed the vibrancy of youth.

During all these years, he lived under the scrutiny of the Quraysh. However, even at the height of the opposition towards him, when they called him a liar and a magician, none dared accuse him of immoral and licentious behaviour. If he were a person interested only in satisfying his carnal passions, they would certainly have implicated him in some scandal.

All one has to do is to ponder over the reason for a person to marry so many women towards the end of his life when his youth was a pristine example of purity, abstinence and piety. The reasons that surface are those already mentioned above.

يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتَ النَّبِيِّ إِلَّا أَنْ يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ غَيْرِ
نَظَرِينَ إِنَّهُ وَلَكِنْ إِذَا دُعِيتُمْ فَادْخُلُوا فَإِذَا طَعِمْتُمْ فَانْتَشِرُوا وَلَا مُسْتَعْسِنِينَ لِحَدِيثٍ
إِنَّ ذَٰلِكُمْ كَانَ يُؤْذَى النَّبِيَّ فَيَسْتَحْيِ مِنْكُمْ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَسْتَحْيِ مِنَ الْحَقِّ وَإِذَا
سَأَلْتُمُوهُنَّ مَتَاعًا فَسْأَلُوهُنَّ مِنْ وَرَاءِ حِجَابٍ ذَٰلِكُمْ أَطْهَرُ لِقُلُوبِكُمْ وَقُلُوبِهِنَّ
وَمَا كَانَ لَكُمْ أَنْ تُؤْذُوا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَلَا أَنْ تَنْكِحُوا أَزْوَاجَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ أَبَدًا
إِنَّ ذَٰلِكُمْ كَانَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ عَظِيمًا ﴿٥٣﴾ إِنْ تَبْدُوا شَيْئًا أَوْ تُخْفُوهُ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ
بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا ﴿٥٤﴾

(53) O you who believe! Enter the rooms of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم only when you are permitted to do so to partake of a meal. Then too, do not wait for it to be prepared, but enter when you are summoned and disperse once you have eaten without enjoying a conversation. Indeed this hurts the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but he is shy (to tell you). Allāh does not shy away from the truth. So when you ask them (his wives) for anything, then ask them from behind a curtain. This is purer for your hearts and for their hearts. It is not for you to hurt the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, nor to ever marry his wives after him. Verily this is grave in the sight of your Lord. (54) If you reveal something or conceal it, then Allāh certainly has knowledge of everything.

THE INCIDENT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LAW OF HIJĀB (VEIL) BEING REVEALED

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married Sayyidah Zainab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها, he invited the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم for a 'walima' meal. After the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم had eaten, some of them remained sitting and talking for a long time. Because of his noble and gentle temperament, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not directly tell them to leave, but he stood up to leave. However, they failed to grasp the message he was giving them. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left, some people also left, but others remained seated.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reached the door of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها, but returned thinking that the people would have left by then. However, he still found them there when he returned, and left again for Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها room. These people soon left and, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was informed about this, he returned to the room. Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that he was also about to enter the room with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prevented him from entering and drew the curtain down. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse "O you who believe! Enter the rooms of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم only when you are permitted to do so to partake of a meal. Then too, do not wait for it to be prepared, but enter when you are summoned and disperse once you have eaten without enjoying a (lengthy) conversation. Indeed this hurts the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but he is shy (to tell you). Allāh does not shy away from the truth..."

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived in Madinah, Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه was ten years old. Since the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married Sayyidah Zainab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها in the 5th year after the Hijrah, Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه was only 15 years old at that time. He was an attendant to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and always entered the house with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This is what he intended to do when the incident took place, but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prevented him from entering because the verse enforced the laws of Hijāb (veil). Since he was with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم throughout this incident, he said, "I know best about this."

The first law propounded in this verse is that people should enter the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم home only when invited in. They should then arrive only when called, and not arrive so early that the food is still being prepared. The second law is that, after eating, they should disperse and not remain talking. Such a delay places the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in a difficult situation, but he is unable to tell people because he considered their feelings. It is therefore the duty of people to think for themselves.

The third injunction stated in the verse is "So when you ask them (his wives) for anything, then ask them from behind a curtain. This is purer for your hearts and for their hearts." There should not be any face-to-face conversation between a woman and a strange (non-Mahram) male.

The fourth injunction is a general ruling after the, specific ruling mentioned above, where people are told not to cause inconvenience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says, "It is not for you to hurt the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم..."

The fifth ruling is that no Muslim can "ever marry his [the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم] wives after him." Allāh states at the beginning of this Surah that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives are like mothers to the believers (Mu'minīn). Therefore, in honour and reverence of them, no one was permitted to marry them after the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم demise.

Referring to marrying the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives, Allāh says, "Verily this is grave in the sight of your Lord." It would be a grave sin if any person were to do such a thing, or even intend it. The intention to sin is also sinful, as Allāh continues to say, "If you reveal something (some sin) or conceal it, then Allāh certainly has knowledge of everything."

Of the five laws mentioned above, only the last one applies exclusively to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The other four applies to every believer (Mu'min). Therefore, people may enter the homes of others only with their permission and should not arrive too early, nor remain sitting long afterwards.

Whenever any person requires something from a strange (non-Mahram) woman, he should address her from behind a veil. Certain ignorant people of our times claim that this law applied only to the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They say that there is no necessity for today's women to cover their faces. They should stop to think that if this law applied for the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives, who are mothers to the believers (Mu'minīn), it will apply to a greater degree to other women, especially in this age of moral decadence.

The detailed laws of Hijāb (veil) were given in the commentary of verse 31 of Surah Nūr (Surah 24), where Allāh says, "And tell the believing women that they should lower their gazes and preserve their chastity. They must not expose their beauty..." Much has also been discussed in the commentary of verse 33 of this Surah, where Allāh says, "Remain in your homes and do not make a display of yourselves as was the practice of the former period of ignorance." Insha Allāh, more shall still follow in the ensuing verses.

لَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِنَّ فِيْ عَابَائِهِنَّ وَلَا أَبْنَائِهِنَّ وَلَا إِخْوَانِهِنَّ وَلَا أَبْنَاءَ إِخْوَانِهِنَّ وَلَا أَخَوَاتِهِنَّ وَلَا نِسَائِهِنَّ وَلَا مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُنَّ وَاتَّقِينَ اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدًا

(55) There is no sin on them [the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] with regard to their fathers, their sons, their brothers, the sons of their brothers, the sons of their sisters, their fellow women and their slave women. They should fear Allāh. Indeed Allāh is Witness over everything.

THE PERMISSION FOR WOMEN TO BE SEEN ONLY BY THEIR MAHRAM (ONE OF THE RELATIVES WITH WHOM THE MARRIAGE CANNOT BE TOOK PLACED)

"Ruhul Ma'ānī" reports that when the verse of Hijāb (veil) was revealed, the relatives of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives began to ask whether the laws of Hijāb (veil) must also be exercised with their family and relatives. It was then that the above verse was revealed, permitting women to be seen by the men mentioned in the verse.

Although the verse cites only four categories of men, others are also regarded as Mahram when they have a close blood relation with a woman. The maternal and paternal uncles are not mentioned in the verse because they are just like the father to a woman.

The verse also permits women to be seen by other women. However, Muslim women should abstain from being seen by disbelievers women. The verse then continues to permit a woman being seen by her slave women. Of course, she has to exercise the laws of Hijāb (veil) with regard to slave men. Other categories of people who may see a woman have been mentioned in the commentary on verse 31 of Surah Nūr (Surah 24).

While the verse of Surah Nūr applies to all women including the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives, the above verse of Surah Ahzāb specifically refers to the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that a person may not think that they cannot be seen by their Mahram (with home whom the marriage cannot be committed) relatives.

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives saying, "They should fear Allāh. Indeed Allāh is Witness over everything." The realisation that Allāh is Witness "over everything" creates taqwa in the heart.

إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا صَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا
تَسْلِيمًا

(56) Verily Allāh and his angels shower their special mercies on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. O you who believe! Convey mercies and salutations upon him.

THE BELIEVERS ARE ENJOINED TO INVOKE MERCY FOR AND TO SEND SALUTATIONS UPON THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم JUST AS ALLĀH AND HIS ANGELS DO

Urging the believers (Mu'minīn) to invoke special mercies on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh begins by saying that He and His angels convey their mercies upon him. It is incumbent on all Muslims to pray for Allāh's mercies to be showered on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because we cannot repay the favours he has done for us. The reason for expressing the command in this manner is that the believers (Mu'minīn) should take pride in doing something that Allāh and His angels also do.

The word 'yusallūna' (translated above as "shower their special mercies") is used with the following three meanings, depending on whom it refers to: (1) Mercy, (2) prayer (du'ā), and (3) Praise. This is similar to love, which varies, depending on the person being referred to. The love a father has for his son will be different from the love which that son has for the father. Similarly, the love a son has for his mother differs from the love he has for his wife.

In the same way, the purport of the word "yusallūna" varies according to the person it is used for. When referring to Allāh, it means that Allāh showers his special mercies on a person. When used for the angels, it means that they make prayer (du'ā) for Allāh's forgiveness on behalf of someone. When used for the believers (Mu'minīn), it means that they pray for Allāh's mercy to be showered on someone. It also means that they praise someone.

The honour that Allāh has bestowed on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this world is that Allāh has elevated his status so that people take his name favourably, and his religion will perpetuate until the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). The honour that Allāh will accord him in the Hereafter is that Allāh will allow him to make the greatest intercession when he will attain the position of the “Maqām Mahmūd”, and his virtue will shine above all others.

The word ‘Salām’ (translated above as “salutations”) in this context means that the believers (Mu’minin) pray for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be safeguarded from all adversities, difficulties and defects. This is the meaning of the greeting of Salām that Muslims use. Some Ulema (Scholars) say that since ‘Salām’ is one of Allāh’s names, the greeting would mean that Allāh must protect the person at all times.

Because of the command in this verse, Ulema (Scholars) say that it is compulsory that every Muslim recites Durūd [invoke mercy and salutations upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] at least once in his lifetime. Imām Tahāwi رحمه الله says that Durūd (benediction) should be recited every time the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم name is mentioned in a gathering. However, the ruling in this regard is that the listeners and the speaker recite Durūd (Benediction) at least once during the gathering. Of course, it is best that it be recited every time.

The term “Salāh upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم” means that a person praises the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with love and devotion.

THE VIRTUES OF DURŪD (BENEDICTION)

Muslim (v. 1 p. 166) reports from Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Allāh will send ten mercies on the person who sends one to me [i.e. recites Durūd (benediction) once].” Nasa’i adds that the person’s stages in the Hereafter will be raised ten times, ten rewards will be added to his records of deeds, and ten sins will be erased from his record of sins.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who recites the most Durūd (benediction) will be closest to him on the Doomsday (Day of Qiyāmah).

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه also narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “A group of angels travel throughout the earth to convey the greetings of my Ummah to me.”

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, “Do not make your homes graveyards (by not performing Salāh) and do not make my grave an Eid (by celebrating there). Send Durūd (benediction) to me because your Durūd (benediction) is conveyed to me irrespective of where you are.” Since no acts of worship take place in the graveyard, the homes should not be left without worship. Therefore, people should perform their Nafl (optional prays) and sunnah Salāh at home. Making the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم grave an Eid means that people should not visit his grave adorned in their finery. They should visit it with utmost respect and reverence. The presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should be highly esteemed and none must even consider laughing and joking at his graveside.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that when a person recites Durūd (benediction) on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once, Allāh, and His angels invoke seventy mercies upon him. [“Mishkāt” p. 87]

Mulla Ali Qāri رحمه الله عليه writes that the above narration applies to reciting Durūd (benediction) on Fridays because the rewards of deeds tend to be multiplied during auspicious times.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Friday is the best of days. It was on this day that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was created, and passed away. The trumpet (to signal the advent of Doomsday (Qiyāmah)) will be blown on this day, causing all of creation to collapse. Since Friday is the best day, sent Durūd (benediction) to me in abundance on this day because your Durūd (benediction) is presented to me." [Abu Dawūd v. 1 p. 150]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned, "The angels invoke mercy for the person who recites Durūd (benediction) for me. So a person has the choice to either recite Durūd (benediction) on my behalf in abundance or to recite it less frequently." [Ibn Majah]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه says, "I was performing Salāh when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived with Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه. As I completed my Salāh in the sitting posture, I praised Allāh and recited Durūd (benediction). I then started making du'ā. Noticing this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told me, 'Ask, for you shall receive whatever you ask of Allāh.'" [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Fudāla bin Ubaid رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in the Masjid when a person entered the Masjid and began performing Salāh. After his Salāh, he began to make prayer (du'ā) saying, "O Allāh! Forgive me and have mercy on me." Hearing this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "O person performing Salāh! You were hasty. Remember, the next time you perform Salāh and then sit down to make du'ā, begin with praising Allāh as He deserves to be praised, recite Durūd (benediction), and then ask what you have to ask."

Sayyidina Fudāla bin Ubaid رضى الله عنه narrates further that another person then performed Salāh and, after the Salāh, praised Allāh and recited Durūd (benediction) before beginning his prayer (du'ā). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed him saying, "O person performing Salāh! Make prayer (du'ā), for your du'ā will be accepted." [Tirmidhi]

This hadith teaches us how to make du'ā. A person should commence by praising Allāh and then reciting Durūd (benediction). Recitation of Durūd (benediction) has a great effect in securing the acceptance of prayer's (*du'ā*s). In fact, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه used to say that a person's prayer (du'ā) is suspended between the heavens and the earth if he does not recite Durūd (benediction). ["Mishkāṭ" p. 87]

Saints have mentioned that, while a person may not be rewarded for other acts of Dhikr, Durūd (benediction) is always rewarded. A person should therefore recite Durūd (benediction) at the beginning and at the end of his prayer (du'ā). Allāh, in his magnanimity, will not only accept the two ends of the prayer (du'ā) but also the content in between. [Hisnul Ḥasīn]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whenever people participate in a gathering that is devoid of Allāh's remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) and Durūd (benediction), the gathering will be a source of harm for them. Allāh may punish them or forgive them if He wills." [Tirmidhi]

Listeners and speakers at any gathering should recite Durūd (benediction) whenever the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name is mentioned. While the minimum requirement is that it be recited only once throughout the course of the gathering, it is best to recite it every time the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name is mentioned because warnings have been sounded against not reciting Durūd (benediction).

Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A true miser is the one who does not recite Durūd (benediction) when my name, is mentioned." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضي الله عنه reports that he was once with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, when the latter asked, "Should I not inform you about the worst miser?" When the Sahābah (Companions) رضي الله عنهم asked to be informed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The one who does not recite Durūd (benediction) when my name is taken is the worst miser." ["Targhib wat Tarhīb"]

Sayyidina Ka'b bin Ujrah رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once instructed the Sahābah (Companions) رضي الله عنهم to draw close to the pulpit. When they did so, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم began to ascend the pulpit. As he took the first step, he said, "Āmīn!" When he mounted the second step, he again said, "Āmīn!" and then repeated "Āmīn!" upon taking the third step.

When he descended from the pulpit, the Sahābah (Companions) رضي الله عنهم said, "We have seen you mount the pulpit in a manner that we have never noticed before." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained the reason saying, "When I climbed the first step, Jibr'il السلام عليه said, 'May that person be destroyed who finds the month of Ramadhān and does not secure forgiveness for himself.' Thereupon I said 'Āmīn!' As I mounted the second step, he said, 'May that person be destroyed who does not recite Durūd (benediction) when your name is taken before him.' I said Āmīn! to this as well. When I climbed the third step he said, 'May that person be destroyed, who finds one or both of his parents in old age and still does not secure his admission into Heaven.' Thereupon I also said, 'Āmīn!'"

SOME PERTINENT RULINGS

Durūd (benediction) must be recited every time the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name is said or heard. It is also compulsory to write the Durūd (benediction) whenever writing his name. The person should at least say or write the words, "صلى الله عليه وسلم" or "عليه الصلوة والسلام." The practice of some people to simply write the abbreviated form (like S.Ā.W.) is incorrect. The full phrase must be written.

Sayyidina Abu Talha رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once extremely happy. He said, "Jibr'il السلام عليه came to me with a message from Allāh saying, 'O Muhammad! Does it not please you to know that when a member of your Ummah recites Durūd (benediction) for you, I shall grant him ten mercies? And I will send ten salutations (Salām) on the one who sends salutations to you?'" [Nasa'i]

RULING: The Salāh upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (i.e. invoking Allāh's mercy for him) should be recited along with the salutations (Salām). Certain Ulema (Scholars) have mentioned that it is undesirable (Makrūh Tanzihi) for a person to recite only one of the above.

Various methods of reciting Durūd (benediction) have been reported in the Ahadith. It will be best to use these words, although it is permissible to use other words.

Sayyidina Ka'b bin Ujrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم how they should recite Durūd (benediction) for him and his family because this has been ordained by Allāh at the end of Salāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then taught them the following words:

{TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! Send Your special mercies on Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the family of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, just as You have sent Your special mercies on Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and the family of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. Verily You are Worthy of all praise, the Most Honoured. O Allāh! Send Your blessings on Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the family of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, just as You have sent Your blessings on Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and the family of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. Verily You are Worthy of all praise, The Most Honoured."

This Durūd (benediction) is referred to as the Durūd – e – Ibrāhīm. Sayyidina Abu Humaid Sā'idi رضى الله عنه narrates that the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as to how were they to recite the Durūd (benediction). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied with the following words:

(TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! Send Your special mercies on Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, his wives and his progeny, just as You have sent Your special mercies to the family of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. And bless Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, his wives and his progeny, just as You have blessed the family of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. Verily You are Worthy of all praise. The Most Honoured.") [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever wishes fill his scale of rewards for reciting Durūd (benediction) for me and my family, then he should recite:

(TRANSLATION: 'O Allāh! Send Your special mercies on Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, the unlettered The Holy Prophet, on his wives, the mothers of the believers (Mu'minīn), on his progeny and on the members of his household; just as You have showered Your special mercies on the family of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. Verily You are Worthy of all praise, The Most Honoured.") [Abu Dawūd p. 141]

Sayyidina Ruwayfi رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that his intercession is binding for the person who, after reciting Durūd (benediction), makes the following supplication:

[TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! Take [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] to the exalted position close to You on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)."] ["Mishkāt" p. 87]

NOTE: To facilitate abundant recitation of Durūd (benediction), certain saints have formulated the following Durūd (benediction).

THE REASONS FOR RECITING DURŪD (BENEDICTION)

Sayyidina Hakīmul Ummah Muḥammad Ashraf Ali Thānwi رحمه الله عليه has written the following reasons for Durūd (benediction) in his book, "Nashrut Tib":

A. Not only did the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم convey Allāh's message to the Ummah but he also formulated plans for their reformation and went to great pains to pray for them. In addition to this, he was deeply affected by any difficulty that they experienced. He was therefore their benefactor, as well as a means of channelling Allāh's mercy to them.

Logic demands that a person expresses gratitude for the favour of another. Since the Ummah are unable to repay the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for the benevolence he showed to them, the Shari'ah has ordained that they recite Durūd (benediction) on his behalf.

B. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is Allāh's beloved. Since a request in favour of a beloved will attract the love of the lover, people will become beloved in the sight of Allāh by invoking Allāh's mercy upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when they recite Durūd (benediction). Although Allāh will shower his mercy and blessings on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, who does not require our prayer's (du'ā's), it is we who will benefit by attaining proximity to Allāh.

C. By reciting Durūd (benediction), the servitude of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to Allāh is displayed because it proves that even the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم requires Allāh's mercy and blessings. This dispels the false notion of many people who, seeing the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم miracles, think that he has control over the affairs of the universe and believe that he has the authority to alter the laws of the Shari'ah.

D. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, like his Ummah, was a human being. He also had to eat, drink and fulfil other necessities of life. In fact, the Ummah may excel the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in certain aspects, such as wealth. It is therefore possible that some people, viewing such factors, may consider the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be inferior to them and may not want to follow him.

This is one of the reasons why the Shari'ah has ordained the recitation of Durūd (benediction). In this way, people will not allow their wealth to fool them into thinking that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is inferior to them. Since the Durūd (benediction) expresses that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم enjoys the special mercies and blessings of Allāh, people are taught that their wealth is totally insignificant when compared to Allāh's special mercy and blessings.

By adding titles like 'Sayyidina' ('our leader') before the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name and speaking about his efforts for the religion, people will regard him to be their benefactor and will never consider themselves superior to him.

E. Becoming overawed by their belief in oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), some people disregard the importance and virtue of links to Allāh, such as the Prophets عليهم السلام. Although bypassing these links to Allāh does not necessarily affect one's belief (Imān), Allāh has made them a pathway to His pleasure. They have to be highly regarded and reverence for them cannot be regarded as distracting from Allāh. In fact, showing reverence to them perfects one's relationship with Allāh.

Revering the messenger of a king expresses a person's reverence for the king himself. Someone entertaining a king's messenger will be foolish to think that he is neglecting to show respect for the king. In fact, the more he reveres the messenger, the more his reverence for the king will become manifest. The Shari'ah has commanded the Ummah to "Convey mercies and salutations" upon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that it may be a means of gaining proximity to Allāh. Showing regard for any medium to reach one's goal cannot be regarded as opposition to the goal.

It is for these reasons that Allāh declares "O you who believe! Convey mercies and salutations upon him." In this manner people are guaranteed Allāh's pleasure.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ لَعَنَهُمُ اللَّهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا مُهِينًا
 (57) وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ بَغَيْرِ مَا اكْتَسَبُوا فَقَدْ احْتَمَلُوا
 بُهْتَانًا وَإِثْمًا مُّبِينًا (58)

(57) Verily those who hurt Allāh and His messenger, Allāh curses them in this world and in the Hereafter, and has prepared a humiliating punishment for them. (58) Those who harm the believing men and women for no sin on their part will bear the burden of slander and a manifest sin.

THE EVIL FATE TO BE SUFFERED BY THOSE WHO HARM AND SLANDER THE BELIEVERS (MU'MINĪN)

Allāh says, "Verily those who hurt Allāh and His messenger, Allāh curses them in this world and in the Hereafter, and has prepared a humiliating punishment for them." Allāh's curse denotes punishment and being cast away from Allāh's mercy. The worst curse will be because of disbelief. None can hope to hurt Allāh, but harming any of Allāh's creation will be interpreted as harming Allāh because Allāh dislikes such a deed.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh says, 'Man hurts me and swears time, whereas I am time (the Creator of time). Everything is in My control, and I alternate the night and the day.'" [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that none is as tolerant as Allāh because He even protects and sustains people who ascribe partners to Him.

flesh of their dead brothers (i.e. they were backbiters) and who defamed them.”
[“Mishkāt” p. 429]

The Qur’ān and Ahadith have expressed great repulsion for backbiting, slandering, carrying tales and harbouring ill feelings towards others. Muslims should restrain their tongues at all times and make an effort to defend the honour of others who may be defamed.

Sayyidina Mu’ādh bin Anas رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh will appoint an angel to save that person from the Fire of Hell, who defends the honour of a Muslim when he is being defamed by a hypocrite. He also added that on the bridge across Hell, Allāh will halt the person who defamed a Muslim until he emerges from his defamation (i.e. until he is forgiven by the person whom he defamed). [“Mishkāt” p. 424]

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّأَزْوَاجِكَ وَبَنَاتِكَ وَنِسَاءِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ يُدْنِينَ عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ جَلَابِيبِهِنَّ ذَٰلِكَ أَدْنَىٰ أَنْ يُعْرَفْنَ فَلَا يُؤْذَيْنَ ۚ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَّحِيمًا ﴿٥٩﴾
الْمُتَفَقِّهُونَ وَالَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَّرَضٌ وَالْمُرْجِفُونَ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ لَنُغْرِيَنَّكَ بِهِمْ ثُمَّ لَا يُحَاوِرُونَكَ فِيهَا إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٦٠﴾ مَلْعُونِينَ أَيْنَمَا ثُقُفُوا أُخْذُوا وَقُتِلُوا
تَقْتِيلًا ﴿٦١﴾ سُنَّةَ اللَّهِ فِي الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَنْ تَجِدَ لِسُنَّةِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا ﴿٦٢﴾

(59) O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Tell your wives, your daughters and the women of the believers that they should draw down their “jalābīb” over themselves. This is best for their recognition so that they are not harmed. Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful. (60) If the hypocrites, those with a disease in their hearts and those who spread rumours in Madinah do not desist, We will definitely grant you authority over them, after which they will hardly be able to live with you in Madinah. (61) They are accursed. Wherever they go, they will be seized and massacred. (62) This was the practice of Allāh with those who passed before. You will never find any change in Allāh’s practice.

THE COMMAND FOR ALL BELIEVING WOMEN TO OBSERVE THE LAWS OF HIJĀB (VEIL)

Commentators write that the women of Madinah used to go to the low-lying areas of their date plantations to relieve themselves at night. Some hypocrites and others used to stand beside the road and interfere with the women as they passed. Although they interfered only with slave women, they sometimes mistook other women as slaves.

It was also a practice of the Jews and other enemies of Islām that when the Muslim army was out, they used to alarm the Muslims in Madinah by shouting that an enemy is approaching, or that the Muslim army has been defeated.

Instructing the Muslim women to conceal themselves, Allāh says, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Tell your wives, your daughters and the women of the believers that they should draw down their 'jalābīb' over themselves." The "jalābīb" are large shawls that cover a woman from head to toe. The verse instructs women to drape the shawls over their heads as well, thereby covering the entire body.

In this way, free women could be recognised from slave women because slave women were not required to cover themselves so thoroughly because of their menial tasks. In this way, free women would not run the risk of being harassed by the uncouth ruffians. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "This is best for their recognition so that they are not harmed. Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه explains the verse to mean that women should cover themselves in such a manner that their entire body is covered, with only a small opening for one eye to enable the woman to see. He says that free women can be differentiated from slave women in this way so that no one interferes with them. Although it is not permissible to interfere with slave women either, when free women don proper Hijāb (veil), ruffians will not be able to make the excuse that they could not differentiate between the two. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 22 p. 89]

The verse commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to instruct his "daughters" as well. The usage of a plural in this verse makes it clear that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had several daughters, not only one [Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها] as the Rawāfidh claim.

The verse also makes it clear that the command for Hijāb (veil) applies to all believers (Mu'minīn) women and not only to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives and daughters (as some claim).

Referring to the practice of the Jews and the hypocrites to alarm the Muslims, Allāh says, "If the hypocrites, those with a disease in their hearts (i.e. the weak Muslims) and those who spread rumours in Madinah do not desist, We will definitely grant you [O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] authority over them, after which they will hardly be able to live with you in Madinah." This verse warns these people that if they do not mend their ways, Allāh will command the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to treat them as enemies and perhaps wage Jihād against them. They will then be unable to live peacefully in Madinah.

Describing them further Allāh says, "They are accursed. Wherever they go (after being expelled from Madinah), they will be seized and massacred. This was the practice of Allāh with those who passed before. You will never find any change in Allāh's practice." Allāh also ensured that the rebellious people of the previous nations were expelled from their homes because of their mischief.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the hypocrites slackened in their mischief after the revelation of this verse, whereby they were saved from being banished and killed. Other commentators state that the specific hypocrites referred to in the verse did not desist as they were told and were banished from the Masjid. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also instructed that their funeral prayer (Janazah) should not be performed. In this manner they were humiliated.

From the Jewish tribes, the Banu Quraizah were banished from Madinah, while the men of the Banu Nadhīr were all put to the sword and their families taken as prisoners. The Jews played a major part in spreading the false rumours to scare the Muslims.

يَسْأَلُكَ النَّاسُ عَنِ السَّاعَةِ قُلْ إِنَّمَا عِلْمُهَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَمَا يُدْرِيكَ لَعَلَّ السَّاعَةَ تَكُونُ
 قَرِيبًا ﴿٦٣﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَنَ الْكَافِرِينَ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ سَعِيرًا ﴿٦٤﴾ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا لَا يَجِدُونَ
 وَلِيًّا وَلَا نَصِيرًا ﴿٦٥﴾ يَوْمَ تُغْلَبُ وُجُوهُهُمْ فِي النَّارِ يَقُولُونَ يَلَيِّنَا أَطْعَنَا اللَّهُ وَأَطْعَنَا
 الرُّسُلَا ﴿٦٦﴾ وَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا إِنَّا أَطْعَمْنَا سَادَتَنَا وَكِبَرَاءَنَا فَأَضَلُّونَا السَّبِيلَا ﴿٦٧﴾ رَبَّنَا
 آتِهِمْ ضِعْفَيْنِ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ وَالْعَنَهُمْ لَعْنًا كَبِيرًا ﴿٦٨﴾

(63) People ask you about Judgment day (Qiyāmah). Say, "The knowledge about it is only with Allāh. You will be surprised to know that perhaps Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is close." (64) Verily Allāh has cursed the disbelievers and prepared the Blaze for them. (65) They will abide there forever and will not find any protecting friend, nor any helper. (66) The day when their faces will be overturned in the Fire as they say, "O! If only we had obeyed Allāh and obeyed the messenger!" (67) They will say, "O our Lord! We followed our leaders and our elders, but they misled us from the path." (68) "O our Lord! Give them double punishment and curse them ever so greatly."

ALLĀH HAS CURSED THE DISBELIEVERS, THEY WILL CURSE THEIR LEADERS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH) AND REQUEST ALLĀH TO INFLICT DOUBLE THE PUNISHMENT ON THEM

In an effort to refute the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah), the disbelievers used to ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell them exactly when Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will take place. Allāh replies to their question by saying, "The knowledge about it is only with Allāh." Knowledge of the exact date of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is not known by any angel or Prophet. Only Allāh has knowledge of this. It will occur when He decrees and the fact that it has not yet occurred does not mean that it will not take place.

"You will be surprised to know that perhaps Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is close." Since the time of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) is unknown, people should prepare themselves for it because it can occur at any moment. They should not waste their time asking about it.

"Verily Allāh has cursed the disbelievers and prepared the Blaze for them." Even if the disbelievers seem to be enjoying a good life, they are constantly under Allāh's curse, which cannot be regarded as a worthwhile life. Thereafter, they will have to suffer the eternal punishment of the Hereafter. Allāh says, "They will abide there forever and will not find any protecting friend, nor any helper. The day when their faces will be overturned in the Fire as they say, 'O! If only we had obeyed Allāh and obeyed the messenger!' Lamenting over their pitiable plight, they will also say, "O our Lord! We followed our leaders and our elders, but they misled us from the path."

Wherever Islām spreads, the leaders and chieftains also present the greatest obstacles. They refuse to accept the message and will not allow others to accept either. All relations will be severed on the Judgment day (Qiyāmah) and no person will be able to assist another in any way. Every person will then curse the next, Allāh continues to say that the people will plead to Allāh saying, "O our Lord! Give them (our leaders and elders) double punishment and curse them greatly."

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ ءَادَوْا مُوسَىٰ فَبَرَّاهُ اللَّهُ مِمَّا قَالُوا وَكَانَ عِندَ اللَّهِ
وَجِيهًا ﴿٦٩﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَقُولُوا قَوْلًا سَدِيدًا ﴿٧٠﴾ يُصْلِحْ لَكُمْ
أَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ فَازَ فَوْزًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٧١﴾

(69) O you who believe! Do not be like those who hurt Mūsa, after which Allāh absolved him of what they said. He was extremely honourable in Allāh's sight. O you who believe! Fear Allāh and speak the truth. (71) Allāh will correct your deeds for you and forgive your sins. Whoever obeys Allāh has greatly succeeded.

THE MUSLIMS ARE COMMANDED NOT TO BE LIKE THOSE WHO HURT SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام

Bukhari reports from Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه the following hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم: The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was a bashful person and ensured that none saw even the skin of his body. According to another narration, the Bani Isrā'īl publicly bathed naked and looked at each other's bodies. Out of his modesty, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام always bathed in seclusion. Some people, intending to hurt him, spread the rumour that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام bathed alone because he suffered from white liver or some skin disease. Some even said that his testicles were swollen.

To absolve him of the accusation, Allāh made it transpire that the rock upon which Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام placed his clothes, moved away with his garments. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام chased after it with his staff in his hand shouting, "O rock! Bring back my clothes! Bring back my clothes!" A group of people from the Bani Isrā'īl happened to see him chasing the rock and they managed to get a good look at his body. They then realised that the rumours were false and that Allāh had created Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام in a most perfect manner.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام caught up with the rock and hit it with his staff. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه says, "By Allāh! When he struck the rock, three, four, five, six or seven marks were left on it."

Referring to this incident, Allāh says, “O you who believe! Do not be like those who hurt Mūsa, after which Allāh absolved him of what they said. He was extremely honourable in Allāh’s sight.” But what was the hurt caused to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم which necessitated this verse?

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم distributed the booty after the battle of Hunain and happened to give certain people more than others. Someone then mentioned, “This distribution is without of justice,” or “Allāh’s pleasure is not intended in this distribution.” When Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه reported these words to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he replied, “If Allāh and His messenger are not just, then who is? May Allāh have mercy on Mūsa عليه السلام. He was given even more hardship, but exercised patience.” [Bukhari v. 1 p. 446 and 483]

The fact of the above matter is that the wealth distributed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on that occasion was not part of the booty itself, but the wealth of “fay” which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could give to whoever he pleased.

Allāh had granted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the authority to distribute this wealth at his discretion. He did not give any person what was because of another.

Commentators have written that it is an act of disbelief to object to any action of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This crime is punishable by death. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not execute the person who raised the objection because it was necessary at that particular time to foster cordial relations. Since people would say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم kills his own people, the person’s life was spared for the sake of propagating Islām.

Any person intending to propagate the truth will encounter such abuse, but will have to endure it patiently, just as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام did.

Allāh says further, “O you who believe! Fear Allāh and speak the truth.” This verse urges speaking the truth as well as speaking with justice, speaking of matter related to Religion, and all good speech. According to Sayyidina Ikrima رضى الله عنه, speaking “the truth” refers to reciting the Kalimah, “Lā ilāha illa Allāh”.

Allāh first mentions fearing Him because all good deeds become easy for the person who fears Allāh. Armed with the fear of Allāh, a person will endeavour to perform good deeds and abstain from evil deeds.

By adopting taqwa (fear of Allāh) and speaking well, “Allāh will correct (accept) your deeds for you and forgive your sins.”

SUCCESS WILL BE GAINED BY OBEYING ALLĀH AND THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

“Whoever obeys Allāh has greatly succeeded.” While some people regard wealth as a token of success and others regard position and a profitable occupation as a measure of success, it must be borne in mind that the true measure of success is that which is stipulated by Allāh i.e. obedience to Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

In the marriage sermon, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite the following three verses:

- 📖 "O Mankind, fear your Lord who created you from a single soul, created its spouse from it, and spread multitudes of men and women from the two. Fear that Allāh by Whom you ask of each other and (be wary of) family ties. Verily Allāh is Vigilant over you." [Surah Nisā (4), verse 1]
- 📖 "O you who believe, fear Allāh as He should be feared, and do not die except as Muslims..." [Surah Āl Imrān (3), verse 102]
- 📖 "O you who believe! Fear Allāh and speak the truth. Allāh will correct your deeds for you and forgive your sins. Whoever obeys Allāh has greatly succeeded." [Surah Ahzāb (33), verses 70,71]

The command to adopt taqwa (piety) is repeated four times in these three verses, which emphasises its importance.

إِنَّا عَرَضْنَا الْأَمَانَةَ عَلَى السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَالْجِبَالِ فَأَبَيْنَ أَنْ يَحْمِلْنَهَا وَأَشْفَقْنَ مِنْهَا
وَحَمَلَهَا الْإِنْسَانُ إِنَّهُ كَانَ ظَلُومًا جَهُولًا ﴿٧٢﴾ لِيُعَذِّبَ اللَّهُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ
وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ وَالْمُشْرِكَاتِ وَيَتُوبَ اللَّهُ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ
غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ﴿٧٣﴾

(72) Verily We have presented the trust to the heavens, the earth and the mountains, but they refused to bear it and cringed at the thought. So man bore it, for indeed, he is extremely unjust and ignorant. (73) So that Allāh may punish the hypocritical men, hypocritical women, polytheistic men and polytheistic women and forgive the believing men and believing women. Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful.

MAN BEARS THE 'TRUST' AFTER THE HEAVENS, THE EARTH AND THE MOUNTAINS SHRINK FROM THE TASK

Allāh says, "Verily We have presented the trust to the heavens, the earth and the mountains, but they refused to bear it and cringed at the thought." The commentators have tendered several interpretations of the "trust". Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه is of the opinion that it refers to fulfilling Allāh's commands, i.e. the Farāidh (obligations).

When Allāh presented this responsibility to the heavens, the earth and the mountains, they asked, "What will be the outcome if we choose to accept the responsibility of fulfilling these obligation?" Allāh told them that they will be handsomely rewarded if they fulfil the task, but will be punished for disobedience. Hearing this, these mighty creations shrank away from the task saying, "We cannot cope with this. We rather not have any reward and no punishment either."

Allāh has the power to grant speech and understanding to whichever creation He wills. Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Do you not see that all within the heavens and the earth prostrate to Allāh, as well as the sun, the moon, the stars, the mountains, the trees, the beasts and many people. And there are many who justly deserve punishment. There is none to honour the person whom Allāh humiliates. Indeed, Allāh does as He pleases." [Surah 22, verse 18]

Allāh says in Surah HāMīm Sajdah, "Thereafter, Allāh turned to the sky, which was smoke, and said to it, as well as to the earth, 'Come to Us willingly or unwillingly.' Both replied, 'We shall come willingly.'" [Surah 41, verse 11]

Referring to the rocks, Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "There are even those that fall out of fear for Allāh." The reality of the matter is that Allāh has granted perception and understanding to many of His creation, but we are unaware of this because of our inability to understand and communicate with them.

Bukhari (v. 2 p. 585) reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Uhud is a mountain that loves us and we love it."

Sayyidina Jābir bin Samura رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I recognise a rock in Makkah that used to greet me when I was made a Holy Prophet." [Muslim v. 2 p. 245]

AN EXPLANATION OF "TRUST"

"So man bore it. Indeed, he is extremely unjust and ignorant." Unlike the other creation, man accepted the responsibility of fulfilling Allāh's commands. Commentators mention that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was given the choice, which he accepted in anticipation of the rewards. He did not pay much attention to the consequences if not bearing the responsibility. He was bound to accept the duty because he was created for vicegerency on earth.

While certain commentators say that this incident took place on the day of the "Mist" pledge, others say that it occurred before this. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Amr bin Ās رضى الله عنه says that Allāh first created man's sexual organ, telling him that it is a trust, which he should not misappropriate by utilising it in Harām (prohibited / unlawful) avenues. Allāh told him that Allāh will protect him if he protects this organ. In a similar manner, the eyes, ears, hands, tongue and the other organs and limbs of the body are all trusts and should be used only as Allāh commands. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 22 p. 96-981]

Explaining the verse, "O you who believe, do not betray Allāh and the messenger and do not knowingly betray your mutual trusts", Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that Allāh should not be betrayed by neglecting the Farāidh (obligation commands) and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم should not be betrayed by neglecting the Sunnah. [Durrul Manthūr v. 3 p. 178]

This verse also commands people not to betray their trusts. The implication of this word is extremely broad, covering a vast spectrum of things. The most common form of trusts is that which is placed in someone's care to look after for a while. The person in whose trust the article is left should ensure that he safeguards it and returns it when the owner demands. Partners must also treat the property of their partners as trusts and debtors should duly pay their debts, which are a form of trust. Like these, there are numerous other examples of trusts.

Fear for Allāh and concern for the Hereafter will induce people to fulfil their trusts because they will not be interested only in the material gains of this world. Leaders and statesmen should take heed that their positions and offices are also trusts, which they must dutifully attend to with the utmost diligence. One who misappropriates a trust will suffer grievous consequences in the Hereafter.

Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Verily Allāh instructs you to restore trusts to their rightful owners." [Surah 4, verse 58]

Allāh says towards the end of Surah Baqara, "If any of you entrust another, then let him who is trusted deliver what is entrusted to him and let him fear Allāh." [Surah 2, verse 283]

Describing the attributes of the pious believers (Mu'minīn), Allāh says in Surah Mu'minūn and Surah Ma'ārij, "And those who give due regard to trusts and their pledges..."

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that there were very few occasions when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not say in his sermons, "There is no belief (Imān) in the person who is not trustworthy and no religion in the one who does not keep promises." More details on fulfilling trusts have been mentioned in the commentary of the verse of Surah Nisā, where Allāh says, "Verily Allāh instructs you to restore trusts to their rightful owners." [Surah 4, verse 58]

"So man bore it, for indeed, he is extremely unjust and ignorant." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that man is unjust to himself and ignorant because he did not consider the consequences of the responsibility. The verse is a generalisation because there are many men who do not fall into this category, like the Prophets عليهم السلام, the pious saints and religious scholars.

Elucidating the plight of people, Allāh then says, "So that Allāh may punish the hypocritical men, hypocritical women, polytheistic men and polytheistic women and forgive the believing men and believing women. Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful." Allāh does not make mention of the disbelievers because, since the hypocrites will be punished despite their claim to Islām, it follows that the disbelievers will also be punished because they openly deny Islām.

Allāh says that He will forgive the believers (Mu'minīn) instead of saying that He will have mercy on them. This has been mentioned to tell man that there is still hope for the sinners as well. S/he can still benefit from Allāh's mercy after repenting because "Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful." Of course, the disbeliever will not be forgiven if he dies as a disbeliever.

سورة سبا

Makkan

Surah Saba

Verses 54

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي لَمْ يَلَمْ مَّا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَهُوَ
 الْحَكِيمُ الْخَبِيرُ ﴿١﴾ يَعْلَمُ مَا يَلِجُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا وَمَا يَنْزِلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
 وَمَا يَعْرُجُ فِيهَا وَهُوَ الرَّحِيمُ الْغَفُورُ ﴿٢﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَأْتِينَا السَّاعَةُ قُلْ بَلَى
 وَرَبِّي لَتَأْتِيَنَّكُمْ عِلْمُ الْغَيْبِ لَا يَعْزُبُ عَنْهُ مِثْقَالُ ذَرَّةٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي
 الْأَرْضِ وَلَا أَصْغَرُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْبَرُ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٣﴾ لِيَجْزِيَ
 الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ أُولَئِكَ هُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٤﴾
 وَالَّذِينَ سَعَوْا فِي ءَايَاتِنَا مُعْجِرِينَ أُولَئِكَ هُمْ عَذَابٌ مِّن رَّجْزِ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٥﴾ وَيَرَى
 الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ الَّذِي أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَيَهْدِي إِلَى صِرَاطٍ
 الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ ﴿٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) All praise belongs to Allāh, to Whom belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth. All praise belongs to Him in the Hereafter as well. He is The Wise, the Informed. (2) He knows what enters the earth, what emerges from it, what descends from the sky and what ascends into it. He is the Most Merciful, the Most Forgiving. (3) The disbelievers say, "Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will never dawn upon us. " Say, "Why not? By my Lord! It will definitely dawn upon you. My Lord possesses the knowledge of the unseen. Not even the weight of an atom in the heavens and the earth can hide from Him. Even everything smaller and larger is in the Clear Book." (4) (Judgment day (Qiyāmah) shall come) so that Allāh may reward those who believe and work righteous deeds. Theirs shall be forgiveness and a bountiful sustenance. (5) Those who exert themselves to defeat Our verses, theirs shall be a punishment of painful proportions. (6) Those granted knowledge will realise that what has been revealed to you from your Lord is the truth and guides to the path of the Mighty, Most Praiseworthy.

ALLĀH IS WORTHY OF ALL PRAISE AND HAS KNOWLEDGE OF EVERYTHING

Saba was the name of a nation that occupied Yemen. Verses 15 to 21 of this Surah discusses the good fortune they enjoyed, which was reversed when they disobeyed Allāh.

Allāh begins the Surah by saying, "All praise belongs to Allāh, to Whom belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth. All praise belongs to Him in the Hereafter as well." Some of the attributes that make Him Worthy of all praise are "He is The Wise, the Informed." Every decision and law of His is replete with wisdom, and nothing can be hidden from Him.

Thereafter, details of His all-encompassing knowledge are mentioned. Allāh says, "He knows what enters the earth, what emerges from it, what descends from the sky and what ascends into it. He is the Most Merciful, the Most Forgiving."

Allāh then rebuts the notion of the disbelievers. Allāh says, "The disbelievers say, 'Judgment day (Qiyāmah) will never dawn upon us.' Say, 'Why not? By my Lord! It will definitely dawn upon you. My Lord possesses the knowledge of the un seen. Not even the weight of an atom in the heavens and the earth can hide from Him. Even everything smaller and larger is in the Clear Book.'" This verse tells the disbelievers that Allāh has perfect knowledge about the whereabouts of every atom, wherever it may be. He is therefore perfectly capable of assembling the atoms of every living being, which may have dispersed and decomposed after death.

Allāh then discusses the necessity for Judgment day (Qiyāmah) when he says, "So that Allāh may reward those who believe and work righteous deeds. Theirs shall be forgiveness and a bountiful sustenance." On the other hand, "Those who exert themselves to defeat Our verses, theirs shall be a punishment of painful proportions." This verse refers to those disbelievers who oppose the Muslims and make every attempt to refute and disprove the beliefs of Islām.

Allāh then praises men of learning when He says, "Those granted knowledge will realise that what has been revealed to you from your Lord (i.e. the Qur'ān) is the truth and guides to the path of the Mighty, Most Praiseworthy."

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هَلْ نَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَىٰ رَجُلٍ يَنْتَحِكُمْ إِذَا مِزَقْتُمْ كُلَّ مُمَرِّقٍ إِنَّكُمْ لَعِنَىٰ
خَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ ﴿٧﴾ أَفَتَرَىٰ عَلَىٰ اللَّهِ كَذِبًا أَمْ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ بَلِ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ فِي
الْعَذَابِ وَالضَّلَالِ الْبَعِيدِ ﴿٨﴾ أَفَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَىٰ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّ نَسْفًا نَحْصِفُ بِهِمُ الْأَرْضَ أَوْ نُسْقِطُ عَلَيْهِمْ كِسْفًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ إِنَّ

(7) The disbelievers say, "Should we lead you to a man who says that when you have been completely reduced to fragments, you will reappear as a new creation?" (8) "Does he invent lies about Allāh, or is he insane?" Instead, those who do not believe in the Hereafter are in punishment and a distant deviation. (9) Do they not look at the sky and the earth before them and behind them? If We will, We could sink them into the ground or cause a portion of the sky to fall on them. There are certainly signs in this for every penitent slave.

THE PUNISHMENT OF THE DISBELIEVERS FOR REJECTING THE ADVENT OF QIYĀMAH (DOOMSDAY)

Those disbelievers who rejected the advent of Qiyāmah (doomsday) used to tell people about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Should we lead you to a man who says that when you have been completely reduced to fragments, you will reappear as a new creation?" in this way, they meant to ridicule the belief in resurrection.

They further said most insolently, "Does he invent lies about Allāh (by attributing the message to Allāh), or is he insane?" Of course, both of these allegations are false. Allāh replies to them saying, "instead, those who do not believe in the Hereafter are in punishment and a distant deviation."

"Do they not look at the sky and the earth before them and behind them?" Allāh impresses upon their minds that it is not difficult task for Him to simply re-create men since He is most Capable of accomplishing feats much greater than this, like creating the vast heavens and the earth.

The same point was driven home in Surah Mu'min, where Allāh says, "The creation of the heavens and the earth is a greater feat than the creation of mankind, but most people do not know." [Surah 40, verse 57]

Allāh says in Surah Yā Si n, "Does the One Who created the heavens and the earth not have the power to create the likes of them? Why not? He is the Prolific Creator, the All Knowing." [Surah 36, verse 81]

A verse of Surah Ahqāf reads: "Do they not see that Allāh Who created the heavens and the earth and did not tire from creating them has the power to give life to the dead? Certainly! Allāh has power over all things." [Surah 46, verse 33]

Allāh continues to say, "If We will, We could sink them into the ground or cause a portion of the sky to fall on them." As punishment for the rejection of the disbelievers who refuse to witness Allāh's signs, Allāh can sink them into the ground or crush them with a flying piece of meteorite. They should never be fooled by the fact that they have not yet been punished.

Allāh concludes the verse by saying, "There are certainly signs in this for every penitent slave (who seeks the truth)."

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ مِنَّا فَضْلًا يَجِبَالٍ أَوْيٍ مَعَهُ وَالطَّيْرِ وَأَلْنَاهُ الْحَدِيدَ ۖ إِنَّ

أَعْمَلْ سَبِغَتْ وَقَدَّرَ فِي السَّرِّ وَأَعْمَلُوا صَلَاحًا إِنِّي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ﴿١٠﴾
 وَلَسَلِمَنَّ الرِّيحُ عُذُوهَا شَهْرٌ وَرَوَاحُهَا شَهْرٌ وَأَسَلْنَا لَهُ عَيْنَ الْقِطْرِ وَمِنَ الْجِنَّ مَنْ
 يَعْمَلُ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِ وَمَنْ يَزِغْ مِنْهُمْ عَنْ أَمْرِنَا نُذِقْهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ
 يَعْمَلُونَ لَهُ مَا يَشَاءُ مِنْ مَحْرِبٍ وَتَمَثِيلٍ وَجَفَائٍ كَالْجُؤَابِ وَقُدُورٍ رَاسِيَتْ
 أَعْمَلُوا ءَالَ دَاوُدَ شُكْرًا وَقَلِيلٌ مِّنْ عِبَادِيَ الشَّاكِرُ ﴿١٣﴾

(10) Verily, We granted Dawūd a great bounty from Us. "O mountains! Repeat (the Tasbīh) with Dawūd. And the birds were also given the command. We also made iron soft for him. (11) "Make coats of armour, perfect the links and you all should do good deeds. I am certainly watching whatever you do." (12) We subjugated the wind for Sulaymān. Its travel in the morning was a month's journey and its travel by the evening was a month's journey. We also caused a spring of copper to flow for him. There were those of the Jinn who used to work before him by the command of his Lord. Those of them who reneged against Our command, We would make them taste the punishment of the Blaze. (13) As he pleased, they would construct for him huge buildings, statues, dishes the size of dams and large pots which could not be moved from their place. "O family of Dawūd! Express your thanks. Few of My bondsmen are thankful."

THE BOUNTIES OF ALLĀH ON SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام

In the foregoing verses, Allāh mentions some of the bounties that He bestowed on Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and his son, Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. They have been mentioned in verses 78 to 82 of Surah Anbiya (Surah 21) and will also be mentioned in verses 17 to 40 of Surah Sād (Surah 38).

THE MOUNTAINS AND BIRDS ENGAGE IN TASBĪH

Allāh mentions that He commanded the mountains and the birds to repeat the Tasbīh with Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. A verse of Surah Sād says, "Verily, We subjugated the mountains with him, who would glorify Allāh by evening and at daybreak. We also subjugated the birds, who all gathered together. They were all penitent towards Allāh." [Surah 38, verse 18, 19]

Many verses state that all Allāh's creation engage in Tasbīh (Allāh's glorification) in their unique manners, but the mountains and birds were specifically commanded to join in the Tasbīh that Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام recited. This was a miracle because they all spoke the same words as he did.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ reports that they [the Sahābah (Companions) رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ] could hear the Tasbīh of the food they ate. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 538]

Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was gifted with an extremely beautiful voice, and the mountains and birds would join him as he hymned Allāh's glory and praise. Describing the beautiful voice of Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He has been granted a part of Sayyidina Dawūd's عليه السلام melodious voice." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 575]

THE SOFTENING OF IRON

Allāh says further that he made iron soft for Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام. Allāh then commanded him saying, 'Make coats of armour, perfect the links...' People used to merely fasten sheets of iron onto their backs and chests when fighting in battle. This served as armour for them (but was extremely uncomfortable). Allāh taught Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام how to make armour from many links (so that it becomes flexible).

Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "We taught Dawūd the skill of making armour, so that it protects you in your wars. Will you be grateful?" [Surah 21, verse 80]

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 3 p. 505) reports that after Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام became king, he used to disguise himself and patrol the streets asking people what they thought of their king Dawūd. They were all very satisfied with his rule. One day, Allāh sent an angel in the form of a human being, to whom Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام posed the same question. The angel admitted that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was a good person, but added that he had one deficiency. When Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام asked him what the deficiency was, the angel said, "He eats from the state treasury and feeds his family from it."

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام then prayed to Allāh to arrange some means by which he could earn his own income. Allāh taught him the craft of making armour and, as a special favour, made iron so soft for him that he did not require to melt it or to pound it. It was like wax in his hands, which he could mould as he pleased. He made a set of armour each day, which he sold for four thousand Dirhams (or six thousand, according to other narrations). In this way he could fulfil the needs of himself and his family. Then he was also able to give charity to the poor of the Bani Isrā'īl.

Sayyidina Miqdād bin Ma'dikarib رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A person cannot eat better than the earnings of his hand. Indeed, Allāh's Holy Prophet, Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, used to eat from the toil of his own hand." [Bukhari p. 278]

Allāh also commanded Sayyidina Dawūd's عليه السلام family saying, "and you all should do good deeds. I am certainly watching whatever you do."

THE SUBJUGATION OF THE WIND

Allāh granted Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام the bounty of commanding the wind to transport him and his army wherever they needed to go. It was so fast that in single morning or evening, it transported them a distance that would normally take a month to travel. This is implied by the verse, "We subjugated the wind for Sulaymān. Its travel in the morning was a month's journey and its travel by the evening was a month's journey."

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports from Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام used to leave Damascus by the morning and reach Istakhar by the evening. From there, he would reach Kabul by the next morning. Each of these distances would take a month to travel by horse. Some commentators say that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام used to eat breakfast at Ray and lunch at Samargand.

THE COPPER SPRING

Allāh continues to say, "We also caused a spring of copper to flow for him." Whereas copper is usually mined as a hard metal, Allāh made liquid copper flow from a spring for Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that this spring was in Yemen.

THE SERVITUDE OF THE JINN

"There were those of the Jinn who used to work before him by the command of his Lord. Those of them who reneged against Our command, We would make them taste the punishment of the Blaze." In this way, the Jinn were bound to follow the commands of Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام.

"As he pleased, they would construct for him huge buildings..." Some commentators have translated the word 'maharib' (translated above as "huge buildings") as 'palaces,' some as 'homes,' and others translate it as 'lofty balconies/towers.'

In addition to this, they also made "statues" out of copper, glass and white stone.

They also made "dishes the size of dams and large pots which could not be moved from their place." "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v. 3 p. 552) reports that these dishes were so large that a thousand people ate from each of them. The pots were permanent structures, which could be reached only with stairs. If the dishes were so large, one can well imagine the size of the pots.

THE COMMAND TO BE GRATEFUL

Allāh commands Sayyidina Dawūd's عليه السلام family saying, "O family of Dawūd! Express your thanks." Thanks is expressed verbally as well as practically, i.e. by being obedient to Allāh's commands. However, Allāh adds, "Few of My bondsmen are thankful."

Bukhari reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the best fast is that of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام who fasted every alternate day. The Holy Prophet عليه السلام also said that the Tahajjud (night) Salāh of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was most beloved to Allāh. He slept for the first half of the night, performed Salāh for a third of the night, and then slept again for the remaining quarter.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports from Sayyidina Thābit Banāni رحمه الله that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام used to distribute the hours among his family so that someone was engaged in Allāh's worship throughout the day and night.

STATUES AND PICTURES ARE HARĀM (PROHIBITED) IN THE SHARI'AH OF SAYYIDINA MUHAMMAD ﷺ

Many people who adore pictures and statues, quote the above verse in support of the permissibility of these things. They fail to understand that the Holy Prophet ﷺ was most learned about the teachings of the Qur'ān. Since he declared these things as Harām (unlawful), who can contest it in the light of the Qur'ān?

The fact of the matter is that many acts were permissible for the people of the previous Ummahs (nations), but have been declared Harām (unlawful) for the Ummah of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. This is nothing astonishing because certain things were even abrogated in The Holy Prophet's ﷺ Shari'ah it self. Almost everyone knows that liquor was Halāl (lawful) during the initial stages of Islām but it was declared Harām (unlawful) subsequently.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet ﷺ that the people who make pictures will receive the worst punishment from Allāh. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 8 80]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet ﷺ that every picture-maker will be in Hell, where his picture will be given life to punish him. ["Mishkāt" p. 385]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet ﷺ said, "The picture-makers will be punished on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). They will be asked to give life to their pictures." The Holy Prophet ﷺ also said that the angels do not enter the house where pictures are displayed. [Bukhari p. 881]

Besides the above Ahadīth of Bukhari, there are many others which forbid taking pictures. These Ahadīth are so many in number that one cannot doubt the authenticity of the prohibition. People make the preposterous claim that pictures are no longer forbidden because the original reason for prohibition has disappeared. Without a trace of proof, they foolishly claim that pictures were forbidden only to remove the love of idols from the hearts of Makkan polytheists.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ never expressed this reason, but said that on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), Allāh will severely punish those who attempt to imitate Allāh's creative powers.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ has mentioned that Allāh says, "Who can be a greater oppressor than the person who ascribes a partner to Me in My creative powers? If anyone is able to create, then let him create an atom, a grain or a single barley." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 880]

The Holy Prophet ﷺ said, "On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), a neck will appear from Hell with eyes to see with, ears to hear with and a tongue to speak with. It will say, 'I have been appointed (to punish) three persons (viz.)

Every person who is a rebellious oppressor.

📖 Every person who worships another with Allāh.

📖 Every picture-maker.” [Tirmidhi]

A clean-shaven person wearing a suit and resembling a Christian once argued with me, saying that the camera was only invented about a century-and-a-half ago. I replied, “If a person perpetrates a sin knowing it to be a sin, then he should repent and will be guided. By attempting to legalise a sinful act, the sin will be doubled and the act will still remain a sin. By regarding it as lawful, he will also not be inspired to repent. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not specify any instrument (by which a picture is made). He did not specify that pictures have to be hand drawn when he said that the angels will not enter houses displaying pictures. He did not say that the angels do not mind if the picture is created by an instrument. He also did not say that pictures taken with an instrument will not be regarded as ‘imitating Allāh’s creation.’”

فَلَمَّا فَضَيْنَا عَلَيْهِ الْمَوْتَ مَا دَفَعَهُ عَلَى مَوْتِهِ إِلَّا دَابَّةُ الْأَرْضِ تَأْكُلُ مِنْسَأَتِهِ
فَلَمَّا خَرَّ تَبَيَّنَتِ الْجِنَّ أَنْ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ الْغَيْبَ مَا لَبِثُوا فِي الْعَذَابِ الْمُهِينِ ﴿١٤﴾

(14) When We decreed death for him [Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام], it was only the termites that made them aware of his demise by eating his staff. When he fell, it became evident to the Jinn that if they had knowledge of the unseen, they would not have remained in a humiliating punishment.

THE JINN DO NOT POSSESS KNOWLEDGE OF THE UNSEEN, OTHERWISE THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN AWARE OF SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN'S DEMISE عليه السلام

The Jinn laboured hard at the command of Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام. Some of them were even bound in chains, as mentioned in Surah Sād. One day, while sitting on his throne, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام was watching the Jinn at work with his chin resting on his staff. In this condition Allāh took his life. The Jinn continued to labour hard, thinking that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام was still watching them.

“Ruhul Ma’āni” reports that the senior Jinn claimed that they possessed knowledge of the unseen, which their juniors believed. As he remained sitting on the throne, termites began to eat at his staff. Eventually, after a year, the staff collapsed and Sayyidina Sulaymān's عليه السلام body fell. It was only then that the Jinn realised that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام had passed away. When they assessed the time that the termites took to eat at the staff, they learnt that a complete year had passed since the demise. It then occurred to them “that if they had knowledge of the unseen, they would not have remained in a humiliating punishment.” i.e. they would then not have laboured so hard all this while, causing themselves humiliation. It then became evident to one and all that the Jinn were false in their claim to possess knowledge of the unseen.

Only Allāh has knowledge of the unseen, not even the Prophets عليهم السلام or the pious saints. Allāh gave them whatever knowledge they did have of certain events of the future. Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Allāh does not inform you of the unseen, but Allāh chooses whom He pleases from His messengers (to confer some of this knowledge to them)." [Surah 3, verse 179]

لَقَدْ كَانَ لِسَبَإٍ فِي مَسْكَنِهِمْ آيَةٌ جَنَّتَانِ عَنْ يَمِينٍ وَشِمَالٍ كُلُوا مِنْ رِزْقِ رَبِّكُمْ
وَأَشْكُرُوا لَهُمْ بَلَدَهُ طَيِّبَةً وَرَبُّ غَفُورٌ ﴿١٥﴾ فَأَعْرَضُوا فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ سَيْلَ الْعَرِمِ
وَبَدَّلْنَاهُمْ بِجَنَّتَيْهِمْ جَنَّتَيْنِ ذَوَاتِ أَكْمَلٍ خَمْطٍ وَأَثَلٍ وَشَيْءٍ مِّن سِدْرٍ قَلِيلٍ ﴿١٦﴾
ذَلِكَ جَزَيْنَهُمْ بِمَا كَفَرُوا وَهَلْ يُجْزَى إِلَّا الْكَفُورُ ﴿١٧﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُم وَبَيْنَ الْقُرَى
الَّتِي بَارَكْنَا فِيهَا قُرَى ظَاهِرَةً وَقَدَرْنَا فِيهَا السَّيْرَ سِيرُوا فِيهَا لَيَالِيَ وَأَيَّامًا
ءَامِنِينَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا بَعْدَ بَيْنِ أَسْفَارِنَا وَظَلَمُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَحَادِيثَ
وَمَرَفَنَاهُمْ كُلَّ مَرْجَفٍ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ ﴿١٩﴾ وَلَقَدْ صَدَقَ
عَلَيْهِمْ إِبْلِيسُ ظَنَّهُ فَاتَّبَعُوهُ إِلَّا فَرِيقًا مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّن
سُلْطَانٍ إِلَّا لِنَعْلَمَ مَنْ يُّؤْمِنُ بِالْآخِرَةِ مِمَّنْ هُوَ مِنْهَا فِي شَكٍّ وَرَبُّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ
حَفِيطٌ ﴿٢١﴾

(15) There was certainly a sign for the people of Saba in their settlements. There were two orchards, lying on the right and the left. "Eat from the provision of your Lord and be grateful to Him. A beautiful city and a Forgiving Lord." (16) They turned away in aversion, so We sent the flood of the dam and We replaced their two orchards with two orchards of foul smelling fruit, tamarisks and a sparse few lotus trees. (17) This was the punishment We gave them for their disbelief. We punish only the extremely ungrateful ones. (18) Between them and the towns that We blessed, We made several conspicuous villages and made their journey in easy stages. "Travel peacefully by then by night and by day." (19) However, they said, "O our Lord! Make our journeys longer." They oppressed themselves, so We made them mere narratives and shattered them into fragments. There are definitely signs in this for every person who is extremely patient and extremely grateful. (20) Iblīs (Chief Devil) certainly found his expectation about them to be true, so all of them followed him besides a group of believers. (21) He cannot wield any power over them, except that We discern those who believe in the Hereafter from those who are in doubt about it. Your Lord is Watchful over everything.

ALLĀH'S BOUNTIES TO THE PEOPLE OF SABA AND ALLĀH'S PUNISHMENT BECAUSE OF THEIR INGRATITUDE

Saba (also known as Sheba) was a nation in Yemen, whose name was derived from that of their forefather, Saba bin Yashjab. They were all the descendants of Ya'rab bin Qahtān. They lived in city called Ma'rib, which was located at a three-day's journey east of San'a. Describing their fortune, Allāh says, "There was certainly a sign for the people of Saba in their settlements. There were two orchards, lying on the right and the left. (Allāh commanded them saying) 'Eat from the provision of your Lord and be grateful to Him.'"

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from "Majma'ul Buldān" that the people of Saba lived in thirteen suburbs and Allāh sent a Prophet to each of these thirteen with the message, "Eat from the provision of your Lord and be grateful to Him."

"A beautiful city and a Forgiving Lord." The city had abundant water, fertile soil, and was free from pests and insect vermin. However, they became enamoured of these bounties and failed to perceive that Allāh had granted all to them. Allāh says, "They turned away in aversion, so We sent the flood of the dam..." Allāh caused their dam to burst its walls, thereby destroying everything they possessed in the ensuing flood.

Their flourishing orchards were also destroyed. Allāh describes the change of scenery saying, "We replaced their two orchards with two orchards of foul smelling (and bitter) fruit, tamarisks and a sparse few lotus trees."

Allāh says, "This was the punishment We gave them for their disbelief We punish only the extremely ungrateful ones." The "extremely ungrateful ones" refer to all disbelievers and polytheists as well as those claimants to Islām who are disobedient to Allāh. Allāh allows people grace to revel in their bounties. Eventually, when their disobedience transgresses all limits, and they fail to mend their ways, Allāh punishes them.

Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "Allāh cites the similitude of a town that was peaceful and tranquil. Their provision came to them in abundance from every avenue, but they were ungrateful for Allāh's bounty and, because of their actions, Allāh caused them to taste the attire of hunger and fear. Indeed messengers came to them from their midst, but they denied them, because of which a punishment afflicted them while they were oppressive." [Surah 16, verses 112 and 113]

Further describing their ingratitude, Allāh says, "Between them and the towns that We blessed, We made several conspicuous villages..."

These towns were all situated on the roadside and the people of Saba could easily enter them without disrupting or prolonging the journey. Each town could be seen from the previous town, because of which their journeys were never monotonous and they could stay over at a town during any stage of the journey.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that "the towns that We blessed" refers to the towns of Shām (Syria) to which the people of Saba travelled. Other commentators say that "the towns that We blessed" referred to the large cities of the people of Saba, while the "several conspicuous villages" refers to the smaller villages around these cities.

Allāh says further that He "made their journey in easy stages." Allāh divided their journeys into easy stages, e.g. if one of them left his town in the morning, he would reach the next town by midday, and if he had to leave there after lunch, he would reach the next town by the evening. In this way, they never needed to carry food with them. They also had no enemies to fear. Other commentators have mentioned that each village was merely a mile away from the next.

Allāh addressed them saying, "Travel peacefully by them (i.e. by these east stages) by night and by day." They had nothing to fear on their journeys by day and by night.

"However, they said, 'O our Lord! Make our journeys longer.' They oppressed themselves, so We made them mere narratives (i.e. to be remembered only in stories) and shattered them into fragments." When people are blessed with many bounties, they tend to become boastful and proud and lose their appreciation for these bounties. The people of Saba disobeyed Allāh and became rebellious. Eventually, they even stooped to the depth of cursing themselves and wishing ill for themselves.

They became proud and disliked that everyone should be blessed by Allāh's bounties because they could then not think highly of themselves. They figured that if distances are widened, everyone would be unable to travel distances to purchase merchandise. Only the rich would then be able to prosper, which was what they wanted. The poor would then become dependent on the rich and be subservient to them. This supplication was to their detriment, which Allāh describes as oppression upon their own souls.

Allāh then destroyed them, reducing their properties to dust. All that now remains of their once thriving civilization are "narratives" from which people should take lesson.

Allāh then says, "There are definitely signs in this for every person who is extremely patient and extremely grateful."

"Iblīs (Chief Devil) certainly found his expectation about them to be true, so all of them followed him besides a group of believers. He (Iblīs) cannot wield any power over them..." The only reason for the sway that he has over them is for Allāh to "discern those who believe in the Hereafter from those who are in doubt about it." Allāh has granted every person the choice to do good and also to do evil. Man is tested by the instigation of Shaytān (Satan). In this manner, Allāh tests the belief (Imān) of every man.

As Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was sent to this world, Allāh said to him, "We said, 'Go down from here, one and all. If there ever comes to you any guidance from Me, then whoever will follow My guidance shall have no fear on them, neither shall they grieve. Those who disbelieve and falsify shall be the dwellers of the Fire, where they will abide forever." [Surah Baqara (2), verses 38, 39]

As man came into this world, he brought this choice with him. The Prophets عليهم السلام frequented the world to remind man about Allāh and even displayed various miracles. In this manner, people had no choice but to accept the teachings of these Prophets عليهم السلام. Despite all of this, there were still many who doubted them and failed to believe in the Hereafter.

Although Satan (Shaytān) has powers to persuade man, these powers are limited and cannot force man to do anything. The final choice still rests with the person.

قُلْ أَدْعُوا الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ
وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا لَهُمْ فِيهِمَا مِنْ شِرْكٍَ وَمَا لَهُمْ مِنْهُمْ مِنْ ظَهِيرٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَلَا تَنْفَعُ الشَّفَعَةُ
عِنْدَهُ إِلَّا لِمَنْ أَذِنَ لَهُ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا فُزِعَ عَنْ قُلُوبِهِمْ قَالُوا مَاذَا قَالَ رَبُّكُمْ قَالُوا الْحَقُّ
وَهُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿٢٣﴾

(22) Say, "Call those whom you worship besides Allāh. They have no control over an atom's weight in the heavens or in the earth. They do not even share any partnership in the two, and none of them are assistants to Allāh." (23) Intercession cannot profit in His presence, save for the one whom He permits. Until the time comes when fear leaves their hearts, they say, "What has your Lord said?" The reply is, "(He speaks) the truth and He is the Exalted, the Great.

THE GODS OF THE POLYTHEISTS HAVE NO POWERS AND NO AUTHORITY

Allāh says, "Say, 'Call those whom you worship besides Allāh. (If you will do so, you will discover that) They have no control over an atom's weight in the heavens or in the earth. They do not even share any partnership in the two, and none of them are assistants to Allāh.'" These gods have no say in the creation of Allāh and the preservation of Allāh's creation.

In reply to the notion of the polytheists that their gods will intercede for them in Allāh's court, Allāh says, "Intercession cannot profit in His presence, save for the one whom He permits." Even the likes of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, Sayyidina Uzair عليه السلام, and the angels (all of whom are also regarded as gods by some) cannot intercede on behalf of those who perpetrate polytheism (shirk).

Speaking about the intercession of the angels, Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "and only the one with whom He is pleased will be able to intercede. They tremble with fear for Him." [Surah 21, verse 28]

Thereafter, Allāh describes the fear and reverence that the angels have for Him. Allāh says, "Until the time comes when fear leaves their hearts (after Allāh passes a command to them), they say (to each other), 'What has your Lord said?' The reply is, '(He speaks) the truth and He is the Exalted, the Great. - When the angels have such awe for Allāh, how can it be expected that they will force their intercession on Allāh?

Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When any decree is issued in the heavens, the angels, because of their humility and obedience to Allāh, begin beating and flapping their wings so much that the heavens resound with a noise resembling the pulling of chains across a smooth rock. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 709] Then, 'when fear leaves their hearts, they say, 'What has your Lord said?' The reply is, '(He speaks) the truth and He is the Exalted, the Great."

﴿قُلْ مَنْ يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ قُلِ اللَّهُ وَإِنَّا أَوْ إِيَّاكُمْ لَعَلَىٰ

هُدًى أَوْ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٢٤﴾ قُلْ لَا تُسْأَلُونَ عَمَّا أَجْرَمْنَا وَلَا نُسْأَلُ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ قُلْ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَنَا رَبُّنَا ثُمَّ يَفْتَحُ بَيْنَنَا بِالْحَقِّ وَهُوَ الْفَتَّاحُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٢٦﴾ قُلْ أَرُونِي الَّذِينَ ادَّعَوْتُمْ بِهٖ شُرَكَاءَ ۖ كَلَّا ۚ بَلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢٧﴾

(24) Say, "Who sustains you from the heavens and the earth? Say, "Allāh! Either we or you are certainly correctly guided or clearly misguided. (25) Say, "You will not be questioned about the sins we perpetrate and we will not be questioned about what you do." (26) Say, "Our Lord will gather us and then decide between us with the truth. He is certainly the Best Judge, the All Knowing." (27) Say, "Show me those whom you ascribe as partners (to Allāh). Never! But He is Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise."

JUDGEMENT WILL BE PASSED ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT (QIYĀMAH)

These verses establish belief in oneness of Allāh (Tauhid). Allāh begins by saying, "Say, 'Who sustains you from the heavens (by sending the rains) and the earth (when it sprouts forth all types of vegetation)? Say, 'Allāh (does this)!'" Even the polytheists are forced to admit that these things happen by Allāh's will.

Allāh instructs further that the polytheists be told, "Either we or you are certainly correctly guided or clearly misguided." Since the polytheists reject oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and the Muslims accept oneness of Allāh (Tauhid), Only one party can be correct. It is obvious that those whose belief is correct will be successful in the Hereafter. Therefore, the polytheists are urged to reconsider their stance. They must revise the proofs of oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) to realise whether they are rightly guided or misguided. When they reach the Hereafter, it will be too late to make amends because they will then be doomed to eternity in Hell.

"Say, 'You will not be questioned about the sins we perpetrate and we will not be questioned about what you do. - Every person will have to answer for himself. However, to safeguard people from Hell, the Muslims must continue to invite the disbelievers to Islām.

"Say, 'Our Lord will gather us and then decide between us with the truth. He is certainly the Best Judge, the All Knowing.'" The disbelievers will learn the error of their ways when they will be condemned to Hell, while the believers (Mu'minin) are welcomed in Heaven. Allāh's decision can never be questioned because He is aware of even the finest details of every person.

"Say, 'Show me those whom you ascribe as partners (to Allāh).'" This question is prompted to make it clear to the polytheists that their gods are all part of Allāh's creation and cannot be deserving of worship.

"Never!" i.e. Allāh can never have a partner. None can be equal to Him in any regard, "But He is Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise."

وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا كَافَّةً لِّلنَّاسِ بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾

(28) We have sent you to the whole of mankind only as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. But most people do not know.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم HAS BEEN SENT TO ALL OF MANKIND

This verse announces that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is a Prophet to all of mankind. It is therefore compulsory for every person to follow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh will never be satisfied with a person who does not follow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, even though he may engage in excessive worship. Good deeds will be accepted only when they are coupled with belief in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as Allāh's final Prophet.

Allāh also says in Surah A'rāf, "Say, 'O people! Indeed to all of you I am a messenger of that Allāh to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. There is no deity besides Him and He gives life and death. So believe in Allāh and His messenger, the unlettered Prophet who believes in Allāh and His words. And follow him so that you may be rightly guided.'" [Surah 7, verse 158]

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have been granted five things that no other has been granted before me, namely:

1. I have been assisted with an awe. The enemy is afraid of me at a month's distance.
2. The entire earth has been made a place of Salāh and purification for me. (Salāh can be performed anywhere and, in the absence of water, a person may use sand to purify himself). Wherever any person of my Ummah finds the time for Salāh, he should perform it.
3. The spoils of war have been permitted for me and it was never permitted for any other before me.
4. I have been granted the privilege of intercession (when he will intercede on behalf of the entire creation on the Day of Judgement).
5. Before me the Holy Prophets were sent especially to their nations, but I have been sent to the entire humanity." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 48]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is reported to have said, "By Allāh! The person, be he a Jew or a Christian, who does not believe in me after hearing of me shall be of the inmates of Hell." [Muslim v. 1 p. 86]

Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Definitely the only religion with Allāh is Islām." [Surah 3, verse 19]

Verse 85 also of Surah Āl Imrān reads: "Whoever seeks a religion besides Islām, it shall never be accepted from him, and he will be, in the Hereafter, among the losers."
[Surah 3, verse 85]

Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم appeared in the world, it became incumbent for adherents of all religions to follow him, whether they be Jews, Christians, Sabians, etc.

وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ قُلْ لَكُمْ مِيعَادُ يَوْمٍ لَا
تَسْتَجِرُونَ عَنْهُ سَاعَةً وَلَا تَسْتَقْدِمُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾

(29) They say, "When will this promise be fulfilled, if you are truthful?" (30) Say, "You have an appointment of a day, which you will be unable to postpone for a moment, nor bring forward."

THE TIME FOR JUDGMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH) IS FIXED AND CANNOT BE ADJUSTED

Those who reject the advent of Judgment day (Qiyāmah) ask, "When will this promise {of Judgment day (Qiyāmah)} be fulfilled, if you are truthful?" These people intend to say that, since Judgment day (Qiyāmah) has not yet occurred, a date has to be set for it, and, if no one is aware of the date, it means that it will never occur. Such reasoning is both foolish and childish.

Allāh replies to them saying, "Say, 'You have an appointment of a day, which you will be unable to postpone for a moment, nor bring forward.'" The fact that Judgment day (Qiyāmah) has not yet arrived does not mean that it will not take place.

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَنْ تُؤْمِنَ بِهِدَا الْقُرْآنَ وَلَا بِالَّذِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَلَوْ تَرَى إِذِ
الظَّالِمُونَ مَوْقُوفُونَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ يَرْجِعُ بَعْضُهُمْ إِلَى بَعْضٍ الْقَوْلَ يَقُولُ
الَّذِينَ اسْتَضَعِفُوا لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا لَوْلَا أَنْتُمْ لَكُنَّا مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ قَالَ الَّذِينَ
اسْتَكْبَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَضَعِفُوا أَنَحْنُ صَدَدْنَاكُمْ عَنِ الْهُدَىٰ بَعْدَ إِذْ جَاءَكُمْ بَلْ كُنْتُمْ
تُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْتَضَعِفُوا لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا بَلْ مَكْرٌ أَيْلٍ وَالنَّهَارِ إِذِ
تَأْمُرُونَنَا أَنْ نَكْفُرَ بِاللَّهِ وَنَجْعَلَ لَهُ أَنْدَادًا وَأَسْرُوا التَّدَامَةَ لَمَّا رَأَوُا الْعَذَابَ وَجَعَلْنَا
الْأَغْلَلَ فِي آعْنَاقِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هَلْ يُخْرُونَ إِلَّا مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا
فِي قَرْيَةٍ مِّنْ نَّذِيرٍ إِلَّا قَالَ مُتْرَفُوهَا إِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ وَقَالُوا أَنَحْنُ

أَكْثَرُ أَمْوَالًا وَأَوْلَدًا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُعَذِّبِينَ ﴿٣٥﴾ قُلْ إِنْ رَّبِّي يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ
 وَيَقْدِرُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَمَا أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ بِالَّتِي تُقَرِّبُكُمْ
 عِنْدَنَا زُلْفَىٰ إِلَّا مَنْ ءَامَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ جَزَاءُ الْوَضْعِ بِمَا عَمِلُوا وَهُمْ فِي
 الْغُرُفِ ءَامِنُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَسْعَوْنَ فِي ءَايَاتِنَا مُعْجِزِينَ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي الْعَذَابِ
 مُخَضَّرُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ قُلْ إِنْ رَّبِّي يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَقْدِرُ لَهُ وَمَا
 أَنْفَقْتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَهُوَ يُخْلِفُهُ وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الرَّزَاقِينَ ﴿٣٩﴾

(31) The disbelievers say, "We shall neither believe in this Qur'ān, nor in the scriptures before it." If only you could see the time when the oppressors will be standing before their Lord. Each one will be passing the blame to the other. Those of a lower status will say to those of a higher status, "If it were not for you, we would have been believers." (32) Those of the higher echelon will reply to those of the lower class saying, "Did we prevent you from the guidance when it came to you? Nay! You were all criminals yourselves." (33) Those of a lower status will say to those of a higher status, "Day and night did your schemes prevent us when you instructed us to disbelieve in Allāh and to ascribe partners to Him." They will suppress their remorse when they see the punishment. We will place yokes upon the necks of the disbelievers. They will be punished only for what they did. (34) Whenever We sent a warner to a town, the affluent people said, "We disbelieve in what has been sent with you. (35) They said, "We possess more wealth and more children than you. We can never be punished." (36) Say, "Verily my Lord increases sustenance for whoever He wills and straitens, but most people do not know." (37) Your wealth and children are not such that they can draw you closer to Us, except for him who believes and does good deeds. For these people there shall be a double reward on account of what they do, and they shall rest peacefully on balconies. (38) Those who exert themselves to defeat Our verses, these people will be presented for punishment. (39) Say, "Verily my Lord increases sustenance for whoever of His bondsmen He wills and straitens for him. Whatever good you spend, Allāh will follow it with a reward. He is the best of sustainers."

THE PATHETIC CONDITION OF THE DISBELIEVERS AND THEIR DISPUTE IN THE HEREAFTER

The above verses depict a scene of Qiyāmah (doomsday), when all the disbelievers will witness the punishment before them. An altercation will then ensue between those people who belonged to the lower class in this world and who were subservient to the more affluent and influential people of a higher social standing. Allāh says, "If only you could see the time when the oppressors will be standing before their Lord. Each one will be passing the blame to the other. Those of a lower status will say to those of a higher status, 'If it were not for you, we would have been believers.'"

"Those of the higher echelon will reply to those of the lower class saying, 'Did we prevent you from the guidance when it came to you? Nay! You were all criminals yourselves.'" They will claim that they never forced these people to reject Allāh's guidance and to adhere to disbelief.

"Those of a lower status will say to those of a higher status, 'Day and night did your schemes prevent us when you instructed us to disbelieve in Allāh and to ascribe partners to Him.'" The followers will still claim that it was the plots and guile of these leaders and influential people that led them into the terrible punishment of the Hereafter.

There will be no escape from Allāh's punishment. "They will suppress their remorse when they see the punishment (in an effort not to express it). We will place yokes upon the necks of the disbelievers. They will be punished only for what they did." One will not suffer any punishment for a sin that one did not perpetrate.

Allāh continues to say, "Whenever We sent a warner to a town, the affluent people said, 'We disbelieve in what has been sent with you.'"

Besotted with their possessions, they said, "We possess more wealth and more children than you. We can never be punished." They were deceived into thinking that they were the chosen servants of Allāh because Allāh had granted them abundant wealth. They thought that they would also be fortunate in the Hereafter as they seemed to be in this world.

Allāh replies to this false notion when He says, "Say, 'Verily my Lord increases sustenance for whoever He wills and straitens..." The fact that Allāh grants more wealth to some people does not necessarily mean that Allāh loves them, just as little wealth does not mean that Allāh dislikes a person. Allāh grants people more or less because of certain reasons, which He knows best and which "most people do not know."

Allāh then states a general rule when He says, "Your wealth and children are not such that they can draw you closer to Us, except for him who believes and does good deeds. For these people there shall be a double reward on account of what they do, and they shall rest peacefully on balconies." The fortunate believers (Mu'minīn), who utilise their wealth in correct ways, will receive grand rewards from Allāh because of their belief (Imān) and good deeds.

On the other hand, "Those who exert themselves to defeat Our verses {by raising objections and mocking the believers (Mu'minīn)}, these people will be presented for punishment." While they think that they cannot suffer any consequences for their behaviour, they should remember that they will never be able to escape Allāh's punishment in the Hereafter.

Allāh then encourages people to spend in His cause when He says, "Say, 'Verily my Lord increases sustenance for whoever of His bondsmen He wills and straitens for him. Whatever good you spend (in sincerity), Allāh will follow it with a reward (in both worlds). He is the best of sustainers.'"

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that whenever the sun rises, two angels descend to the earth. The first angel prays, "O Allāh! Grant a good return to the one who spends in charity." The second one prays, "O Allāh! Destroy the wealth of the miser." ["Mishkāt" p. 164]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه also narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Spending in charity never diminishes wealth. Allāh will certainly enhance the honour of the person who forgives another person, and will elevate the one who is humble for His sake." [Muslim p. 321]

وَيَوْمَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ جَمِيعًا ثُمَّ يَقُولُ لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ أَهَؤُلَاءِ إِيَّاكُمْ كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾ قَالُوا سُبْحَانَكَ أَنْتَ وَلِسْنَا مِنْ دُونِهِمْ بَلْ كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ الْجِنَّ أَكْثَرُهُمْ بِهِمْ مُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ فَالْيَوْمَ لَا يَمْلِكُ بَعْضُكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ نَفْعًا وَلَا ضَرًّا وَنَقُولُ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا ذُوقُوا عَذَابَ النَّارِ الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ بِهَا تَكْذِبُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَإِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا يَنْتَبِهَاتُ قَالُوا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا رَجُلٌ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَصُدَّكُمْ عَمَّا كَانَ يَعْبُدُ آبَاؤُكُمْ وَقَالُوا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا إِفْكٌ مُفْتَرًى وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ إِنَّ هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَمَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ مِنْ كِتَابٍ يَدْرُسُونَهَا وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِمْ قَبْلَكَ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَكَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَمَا بَلَّغُوا مَعْشَارَ مَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ فَكَذَّبُوا رُسُلِي فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ ﴿٤٥﴾

(40) The day when We shall gather them all, and Allāh will say to the angels, "Are these the ones who used to worship you?" (41) They will say, "You (Allāh) are Pure! You are our Protecting Friend, not them. The fact of is that they used to worship the Jinn, most of them having faith in them." (42) Today, none shall be able to do good or harm to anyone. We will say to the oppressors, "Taste the punishment of the Fire which you used to deny." (43) When Our clear verses are recited to them, they say, "He is but a man who wishes to prevent you from what your forefathers worshipped." And they say, "This is just a concocted lie." The disbelievers say about the truth when it comes to them, "This is only manifest magic." (44) We neither gave them any scriptures that they could study, nor did we send a warner to them before you. (45) Those before them denied. These people cannot even reach a tenth of what We gave them, yet they falsify My messengers. How (grievous) will My retribution be?

THE REBELLIOUSNESS AND OBSTINACY OF THE DISBELIEVERS, AND THEIR PUNISHMENT

Describing another scene of the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), Allāh says, "The day when We shall gather them all, and Allāh will say to the angels, 'Are these the ones who used to worship you?'" This question will be asked to expose the error of the polytheists who worshipped the angels.

The angels will say to Allāh, "You are Pure! You are our Protecting Friend, not them. (We have no ties with them). The fact is that they used to worship the Jinn, most of them having faith in them." These people made statues resembling the hideous forms in which Satan (Shaytān) appeared before them. He also instructed them to perpetrate polytheism (shirk) and, because they obeyed him, they were actually worshipping him.

The polytheists held the belief that their gods will intercede on their behalf on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh dispels this notion by saying, 'Today, none shall be able to do good or harm to anyone. We will say to the oppressors, "Taste the punishment of the Fire, which you used to deny."' All their hopes will then be dashed forever.

"When Our clear verses are recited to them, they say, 'He (i.e. the one reciting the Qur'ān) is but a man who wishes to prevent you from what your forefathers worshipped.' And they say, 'This (Qur'ān) is just a concocted lie.'" The disbelievers say about the truth when it comes to them [via the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], 'This is only manifest magic.

Allāh says in this regard, "We neither gave them any scriptures that they could study, nor did we send a warner to them before you. Therefore, the Arab polytheists need to be grateful to Allāh for sending them the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Qur'ān. A verse of Surah Fātir states that, before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advent, the polytheists of Makkah used to "take solemn oaths by Allāh that if a warner has to come to them, they would become more rightly guided than any nation." However, "when the warner came to them, it only increased them in animosity." Instead of accepting the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they rejected him and called him names.

"Those before them denied. These people cannot even reach a tenth of what We gave them (i.e. those before them), yet they falsify My messengers. How will My retribution be?" Even though the previous nations were extremely powerful, wealthy, living very long lives and residing in fortified mansions, Allāh still destroyed them because of their disobedience. Now, those after them should take heed to this and ponder about their own plight, since they do not even possess a tenth of the resources that those people had.

قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَعْطُكُمْ بِوَاحِدَةٍ أَنْ تَقُومُوا لِلَّهِ مَشْنَىٰ وَفَرْدَىٰ ثُمَّ تَنفَكُّوْا مَا
بِصَاحِبِكُمْ مِنْ جِنَّةٍ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ لَّكُمْ بَيْنَ يَدَيْ عَذَابٍ شَدِيدٍ ﴿٤٦﴾ قُلْ مَا سَأَلْتُكُمْ
مِنْ أَجْرٍ فَهُوَ لَكُمْ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ﴿٤٧﴾ قُلْ إِنْ رَبِّي يَقْذِفُ
بِالْحَقِّ عَلَٰمُ الْغُيُوبِ ﴿٤٨﴾ قُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَمَا يُبَدِّلُ الْبَاطِلَ وَمَا يُعِيدُ ﴿٤٩﴾ قُلْ إِنْ ضَلَلْتُ
فَأِنَّمَا أَضِلُّ عَلَىٰ نَفْسِي وَإِنْ اهْتَدَيْتُ فِيمَا يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ سَمِيعٌ قَرِيبٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَلَوْ
تَرَىٰ إِذْ فَرَغُوا فَلَا قُوَّةَ وَأُخِذُوا مِنْ مَكَانٍ قَرِيبٍ ﴿٥١﴾ وَقَالُوا ءَامَنَّا بِهِ وَأَنَّىٰ لَهُمُ
التَّنَٰوُسُ مِنْ مَكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ وَقَدْ كَفَرُوا بِهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَيَقْذِفُونَ بِالْغَيْبِ مِنْ
مَكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٥٣﴾ وَحِيلَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَبَيْنَ مَا يَشْتَهُونَ كَمَا فُعِلَ بِأَشْيَاعِهِمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ إِنَّهُمْ

(46) Say, "I give you only one advice. That you stand for Allāh in twos and individually, then you ponder. Your companion is not Insane. He is but a warner to you before the advent of a severe punishment." (47) Say, "You can keep whatever remuneration I may have asked of you. My recompense is Allāh's responsibility, and He is Witness over all things." (48) Say, "Verily my Lord will make the truth conquer. He has perfect knowledge of the unseen." (49) Say, "The truth has arrived and falsehood shall not show its face, nor make a return. (50) Say, "If I am astray, then I have strayed to my own detriment. But if I am rightly guided, then it is on account of what my Lord has revealed to me. Verily, He is the All Hearing, Close." (51) If only you could see when they will be terrified, will have no escape and will be seized from nearby. (52) They will say, "We believe it." How can they reach it from a distant place? (53) They have already disbelieved it before and they speculated about the un seen from a far-off place. (54) A barrier will fall between them and the desires they hoped for, just as it occurred to the groups before them, indeed, they were ever in a confused doubt.

ALLĀH INSTRUCTS THE POLYTHEISTS TO PONDER COLLECTIVELY OR INDIVIDUALLY

The polytheists claimed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was insane as an excuse for refusing to believe in him. Therefore, Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell them, "Say, 'I give you only one advice. That you stand for Allāh in twos and individually, then you ponder. Your companion is not insane. He is but a warner to you before the advent a severe punishment.'"

Allāh invites them to leave all their inhibitions and prejudices aside for a while and to seriously ponder about the pure and upright lifestyle that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم led. He grew up before them and lived among them for forty years before claiming to be a Prophet. They knew his character and personality. They must therefore sit either in groups or individually and think the matter over very earnestly. They must listen to what he has said and ponder over the status of the Qur'ān, which challenged them to produce something equal to it. Taking all matters into consideration, they will realise that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is certainly Allāh's messenger and not at all insane.

Thereafter, Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to convey the following messages to the people:

- 📖 "You can keep whatever remuneration I may have asked of you. My recompense is Allāh 's responsibility (which He will fulfil), and He is Witness over all things (and will punish you for your disbelief and opposition)."
- 📖 "Verily my Lord will make the truth (and the supporters of truth) conquer. He has perfect knowledge of the un seen."
- 📖 "The truth has arrived and falsehood shall not show its face, nor make a return." When the Muslims conquered Makkah,

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited this verse and verse 81 of Surah Bani Isrā'il (Surah 17), where Allāh says, "Say, 'The truth has arrived and falsehood has vanished. Indeed, falsehood was bound to disappear. .. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 686]

📖 "If I am astray, then I have strayed (from the true religion of Islām) to my own detriment." This verse tells the polytheists that, by straying from Islām, they are astray. However, it does not tell them directly, but rather instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to use his own name to say this. In this way, the message reaches the target without offending the addressee.

📖 "But if I am rightly guided, then it is on account of what my Lord has revealed to me." Therefore, people will also be rightly guided by following the Qur'ān. Again, the same mode of address is used as above. "Verily, He is the All Hearing, Close." Therefore, Allāh knows every deed of man.

Allāh then describes the condition of the disbelievers on the day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh says, "If only you could see when they will be terrified, will have no escape, and will be seized from nearby. They will say, 'We believe it.' How can they reach it (unto belief) from a distant place (the Hereafter)? (whereas) They have already disbelieved it before (in this world) and they speculated about the unseen from a far-off place. A barrier will fall between them and the desires they hoped for, just as it occurred to the groups before them. Indeed, they were ever in a confused doubt." All their hopes will be dashed when they witness the punishment of the Hereafter.

سورة فاطر

Makkan

Surah Fatir

Verses 45

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ فَاطِرِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ جَاعِلِ الْمَلَائِكَةِ رُسُلًا أُولَى أَجْنِحَةٍ مَثْنَى وَثُلَاثَ وَرُبْعَ
 زَيْدٍ فِي الْخَلْقِ مَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿١﴾ مَا يَفْتَحُ اللَّهُ لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ رَحْمَةٍ فَلَا
 مُمْسِكَ لَهَا وَمَا يُمْسِكُ فَلَا مُرْسِلَ لَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢﴾ يَتَأَيَّأُ النَّاسُ
 أَذْكُرُوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ هَلْ مِنْ خَلْقٍ غَيْرِ اللَّهِ يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَا إِلَهَ
 إِلَّا هُوَ فَأَنْتُمْ تُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿٣﴾ وَإِنْ يُكَذِّبُوكَ فَقَدْ كَذَّبَتْ رُسُلٌ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ
 تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ ﴿٤﴾ يَتَأَيَّأُ النَّاسُ إِنْ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ حَقًّا فَلَا تَعْرِضُكُمْ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا وَلَا يَغُرَّتْكُمْ
 بِاللَّهِ الْغُرُورُ ﴿٥﴾ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ فَاتَّخِذُوهُ عَدُوًّا إِنَّمَا يَدْعُو حِزْبَهُ لِيَكُونُوا مِنْ
 أَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ ﴿٦﴾ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ
 مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ ﴿٧﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) All praise be to Allāh, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, Who made the angels messengers, possessing two, three and four wings. Allāh increases in His creation as He pleases. Verily Allāh has power over all things. (2) There is none to withhold the mercy Allāh opens to His people, and there is none to release the mercy that He withholds. He is the Mighty, the Wise. (3) O people! Call to mind Allāh's favour upon you. Is there another creator besides Allāh who sustains you from the sky and the earth? There is no deity besides Him. So to where are you retrogressing? (4) If they falsify you, then many messengers were falsified before you. All affairs return to Allāh. (5) O people! Allāh's promise is certainly true, so never let the worldly life deceive you, nor should the great deceiver beguile you by taking Allāh's name. (6) Indeed Satan (Shaytān) is your enemy, so treat him as an enemy. He calls to his party only so that they become inmates of the Blaze. (7) There shall be severe punishment for the disbelievers, and forgiveness and tremendous reward for those who believe and do good deeds.

ONLY ALLĀH CREATED THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH

Another name for Surah Fātir (Creator) is Surah Malā'ikah (angels). Like Surah Fātiha (Surah 1), Surah Bani Isrā'il (Surah 17) and Surah Kahf (Surah 18), this Surah commences with Allāh's praise. Allāh says, "All praise be to Allāh, the Creator of the heavens and the earth..."

Besides the heavens and the earth, Allāh also created the angels for specific tasks. Allāh says that He also made "angels messengers" because they were required to convey Allāh's messages to the Prophets عليهم السلام. Allāh created them in a unique fashion, with "two, three and four wings." Some have many more wings than this. In a hadith of Bukhari, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he saw Jibr'il عليه السلام with 600 wings.

"Allāh increases in His creation as He pleases. Verily Allāh has power over all things." Allāh creates the various forms and species of creation in varying numbers and with varying traits. All this is according to His perfect wisdom.

"There is none to withhold the mercy Allāh opens to His people, and there is none to release the mercy that He withholds. He is the Mighty, the Wise." When Allāh opens His bounty on some poor people, causing them to progress to great heights of prosperity, then others burn with envy. However, their envy cannot hinder Allāh's mercy and benevolence in the least. Allāh, in His might, will allow the prosperity to continue unabated.

Allāh then announces, "O people! Call to mind Allāh's favour upon you." When people reflect on the wealth, knowledge and other good fortune which Allāh gives them, they will be inspired to express gratitude to Him. In this way, they will be able to concentrate their acts of devotion solely for Allāh.

Allāh then urges people to think, "Is there another creator besides Allāh who sustains you from the sky and the earth?" As a result of their own reflection, people will come to realise that only Allāh can send the rains, which cause the fields and plantations to flourish for man's benefit. Man will then arrive at the conclusion that "There is no deity besides Him." Therefore, Allāh asks, "So to where are you retrogressing?"

Allāh then consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "If they falsify you, then many messengers were falsified before you." Therefore, do not be grieved by their behaviour, but continue with your mission. "All affairs return to Allāh." Allāh will take them to task for their deeds on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

Allāh then addresses those who reject oneness of Allāh (Tauhid) and belief in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He says, "O people! Allāh's promise {of Judgment day (Qiyāmah)} is certainly true, so never let the worldly life deceive you..." i.e. do not be enamoured by the charms of this world, thereby causing you to become negligent of the Hereafter. Besides the deception of the world, Allāh warns people not to allow "the great deceiver {i.e. Satan (Shaytān) to} beguile you by taking Allāh's name. Indeed Satan (Shaytān) is your enemy, so treat him as an enemy. He calls to his party only so that they become inmates of the Blaze."

Satan (Shaytān) fools man into thinking that he should continue committing sins because he can always seek forgiveness from Allāh at a later stage. However, man fails to realise that he does not have any guarantee about his life and can lose it at any moment, which may well be before he can secure forgiveness. Man should therefore be cautious about Satan's (Shaytān's) ploys.

Allāh then describes the outcome of man's existence when He says, "There shall be severe punishment for the disbelievers, and forgiveness and tremendous reward for those who believe and do good deeds."

أَفَمَنْ زُيِّنَ لَهُ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ فَرَآهُ حَسَنًا فَإِنْ أَلَّا اللَّهُ يُضِلُّ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ فَلَا
تَذْهَبُ نَفْسُكَ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَتٌ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَصْنَعُونَ ﴿٨﴾ وَاللَّهُ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ الرِّيحَ
فَتُثِيرُ سَحَابًا فُسُقِنَتْهُ إِلَى بَلَدٍ مَيِّتٍ فَأَحْيَيْنَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا كَذَلِكَ النُّشُورُ ﴿٩﴾

(8) The person whose evil deeds have been beautified for him, causing him to regard them as good (Can he be like the one who does good?). Verily Allāh sends astray whoever He wills and guide whoever He wills. So let not your soul leave in remorse over them. Indeed Allāh has knowledge of what they do. (9) Allāh is the One Who sends the winds which carry a cloud. We then waft it to a dead land, and with it We revive the earth after its death. Thus shall be the resurrection.

THOSE WHO CONSIDER THEIR EVIL DEEDS TO BE GOOD CAN NEVER EQUAL THOSE WHO DO GOOD DEEDS

Allāh speaks about those people whom Satan (Shaytān) has fooled into thinking that their evil deeds are good, hence evil deeds begin to appeal to them and they abhor good deeds. Allāh says, "The person whose evil deeds have been beautified for him, causing him to regard them as good." The verse contains a hidden phrase, which reads; "Can this person be like the one who does good deeds and who regards good as good and evil as evil?"

"Verily Allāh sends astray whoever He wills and guides whoever He wills. So let not your soul leave in remorse over them. Indeed Allāh has knowledge of what they do." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was greatly grieved when people did not accept Islām because he desired that every person should be saved from Hell. Allāh consoles him in this verse by telling him not to grieve over them because guidance is only from Allāh.

This is also mentioned in Surah Shuarā, where Allāh says, "It seems like you will destroy yourself because they are not believing." [Surah 26, verse 3]

Thereafter, Allāh describes His ability to provide and the possibility of Qiyāmah (doomsday). He says, "Allāh is the One Who sends the winds which carry a cloud. We then waft it to a dead (arid and waterless) land, and with it We revive the earth after its death." After the rains, plants and vegetation flourish, providing food for man and animals.

Just as Allāh raises plants from the earth, He is also Capable of raising the dead from the ground. Therefore, He says, "Thus shall be the resurrection."

مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْعِزَّةَ فَلِلَّهِ الْعِزَّةُ جَمِيعًا إِلَيْهِ يَصْعَدُ الْكَلِمُ الطَّيِّبُ وَالْعَمَلُ الصَّالِحُ
 يَرْفَعُهُ وَالَّذِينَ يَمْكُرُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ وَمَكْرُ أُولَئِكَ هُوَ يُبْزَوْرُ ﴿١٠﴾
 وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ أُنْثَى وَلَا
 تَضَعُ إِلَّا بِعِلْمِهِ وَمَا يُعَمَّرُ مِنْ مُعَمَّرٍ وَلَا يُنْقَصُ مِنْ عُمُرِهِ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ
 عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ﴿١١﴾

(10) Whoever desires honour, then know that all honour belongs to Allāh. The Pure Word climbs unto Him, propelled by good deeds. There shall be a severe punishment for those who devise evil schemes. The plots of these people will certainly be destroyed. (11) Allāh has created you from sand, then from a seed, and then made you in pairs. He has knowledge of every female that conceives and delivers. Recorded in the Book is every aged person who ages and whose age is depleted. This is simple for Allāh.

ALL HONOUR BELONGS TO ALLĀH WHO HAS KNOWLEDGE OF EVERYTHING

To attain honour and to be protected from adversities, people turn to their various gods and perform various deeds, which actually invite Allāh's wrath. Allāh says, "Whoever desires honour, then know (i.e. he should bear in mind) that all honour belongs to Allāh." Only Allāh can give honour to a person, and He takes it away from people as well.

Certain commentators have interpreted "honour" to mean "victory," which comes only from Allāh. On one military expedition, the hypocrites said, "if we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us shall certainly exile the humiliated ones." They meant to expel the Muhājirīn (emigrants) from Madinah. In response to this statement, Allāh revealed the following verse of Surah Munafiqūn: "All honour belongs to Allāh, His messenger and the believers but the hypocrites do not know it." [Surah 63, verse 8]

Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Give to the hypocrites the glad tidings of an agonising punishment; those who take the disbelievers as friends instead of the believers. Do they seek honour from them? Indeed all honour is for Allāh only." [Surah 4, verse 138, 139]

These verses warn those people who wish to please the disbelievers by adopting their mode of dress and behaviour in an effort to gain honour from them. By doing so, they wish to be regarded as 'honourable' people. Such people should bear in mind that honour can be had only from Allāh, when they will please him. No honour can be had in Allāh's displeasure. The 'honour' that these people think they are receiving is actually a false honour, which is extremely short-lived.

"The Pure Word climbs unto Him..." i.e. Allāh accepts it. The "Pure Word" refers to the Kalimah of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd), i.e. "Lā ilāha illa Allāh". Of course, it may also refer to all other forms of remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr).

Allāh adds that the "Pure Word" is 'propelled by good deeds.' This refers to all good deeds. However, the greatest of good deeds, without which no deed is accepted, is belief (Imān).

Allāh then cautions those who harass the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and plot against him. He says, "There shall be a severe punishment for those who devise evil schemes. The plots of these people will certainly be destroyed."

The plots that the polytheists devised against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم are mentioned in Surah A'rāf, where Allāh says, "When the disbelievers schemed against you to imprison you, kill you or exile you. They plan and Allāh plans, and Allāh is the best of planners." [Surah 7, verse 30]

Consequently, those who schemed against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were killed in the battle of Badr without ever realising their objectives. In this very Surah Allāh has declared the universal rule: "The consequences of evil schemes encompass only those who devise them." [Surah Fātir (35), verse 43]

Allāh then describes His creative powers when He says, "Allāh has created you from sand, then from a seed (sperm), and then made you in pairs (male and female)." Allāh created Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام from sand, and states that mankind were also created from sand because he was their father, from whom every human was born. It was after Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام that people were produced from the sperm when it fuses with the female egg.

"He has knowledge of every female that conceives and delivers.. Recorded in the Book, is every aged person who ages and whose age is depleted. This is simple for Allāh." The "Lawhul Mahfūz" contains the ages of all people, be their ages lengthy or shorter in comparison. It is extremely simple for Allāh to keep track of everything. Allāh decreed these matters even before man was created.

وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْبَحْرَانِ هَذَا عَذَبٌ فَرَاتٌ سَائِغٌ شَرَابُهُ وَهَذَا مِلْحٌ أُجَاجٌ وَمِنْ كُلِّ
تَأْكُلُونَ لَحْمًا طَرِيًّا وَتَسْتَخْرِجُونَ حَلِيَّةً تَبْسُونَهَا وَتَرَى الْفَلَكَ فِيهِ مَوَاحِرَ
لَتَبْنَعُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ يُوَلِّجُ الْبَلَّ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُؤَلِّجُ النَّهَارَ
فِي اللَّيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي لِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ
رَبُّكُمْ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَالَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ مَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِنْ قِطْمِيرٍ
﴿١٣﴾ إِنْ تَدْعُوهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُوا دُعَاءَكُمْ وَلَوْ سَمِعُوا مَا اسْتَجَابُوا لَكُمْ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ

يَكْفُرُونَ بِشِرْكِكُمْ وَلَا يُنَبِّئُكَ مِثْلُ خَيْرٍ ﴿١٤﴾

(12) The two seas are not the same. The one is sweet, quenching and easy to drink, while the other is salty and bitter. From each of these you eat fresh meat and you extract jewels that you wear. You will see ships cleaving (through the waters) so that you seek from Allāh's bounty and show gratitude. (13) Allāh enters the day into the night and the night into the day and has subjugated the sun and the moon. Each one travels to an appointed term. This is Allāh, your Lord! To Him belongs all sovereignty. Those whom you worship besides Allāh do not have control of even the skin on the date seed. (14) If you call them, they will not hear your call. Even if they hear, they will be unable to respond. On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) they will reject your polytheism. None can inform you like the Informed.

THE BENEFITS OF THE SEA AND THE DECLARATION THAT THE GODS OF THE POLYTHEISTS DO NOT HAVE POWER OVER ANYTHING

Some water sources contain water that is palatable and slaking for one's thirst. On the other hand, the waters of the ocean are extremely salty, bitter and difficult to drink. These are all the creation of Allāh. Referring to this, Allāh says, "The two seas are not the same. The one is sweet, quenching and easy to drink, while the other is salty and bitter." Allāh then describes one of the many benefits of these water bodies, when he says, "From each of these you eat fresh meat (fish, as well as birds)..."

The second benefit is described in the words, "and you extract jewels that you wear." Pearls, shells and other gems are found in water, which people use to make jewellery.

The third benefit is mentioned as, "You will see ships cleaving (through the waters) so that you seek from Allāh's bounty and show gratitude." Ships are invaluable to transport large masses of merchandise from continent to continent. They are therefore used to acquire Allāh's bounties of produce and various commodities. Man has to be grateful to Allāh for all of this.

"Allāh enters the day into the night and the night into the day and has subjugated the sun and the moon. Each one travels to an appointed term." Allāh causes the night to extend longer than the day in winter and vice versa in Summer. He has also prescribed set tasks for the sun and the moon, which they duly fulfil until the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

"This is Allāh, your Lord! To Him belongs all sovereignty. Those whom you worship besides Allāh do not have control of even the skin on the date seed." In fact, they are so helpless that "If you call them, they will not hear your call. Even if (it be assumed that) they hear, they will be unable to respond."

If this is their state of helplessness in this world, the polytheists cannot expect any assistance from them on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). In fact, "On the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah) they will reject your polytheism." The gods of these Polytheists will absolve themselves of their worshippers on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "When the idolaters will see their partners, they will exclaim, 'O our Lord! These are our partners that we used to worship instead of You.' Then the word will be flung back to them that 'You are definitely liars!'" [Surah 16. verse 86]

"None can inform you like the Informed." When Allāh, The Informed, informs one of something, one will have no option but to accept it as the truth because He has knowledge of everything.

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ أَنْتُمُ الْفُقَرَاءُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ﴿١٥﴾ إِنْ يَشَأْ
يُدْهِبْكُمْ وَيَأْتِ بِخَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ ﴿١٦﴾ وَمَا ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ بِعَزِيزٍ ﴿١٧﴾ وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ
وِزْرَ أُخْرَىٰ وَإِنْ تَدْعُ مُثْقَلَةٌ إِلَىٰ جَمِلِهَا لَا يَحْمِلُ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ وَلَوْ كَانَ ذَا قُرْبَىٰ إِنَّمَا
نُنذِرُ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُم بِالْغَيْبِ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَمَنْ تَزَكَّىٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَتَزَكَّىٰ
لِنَفْسِهِ ۚ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿١٨﴾ وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَىٰ وَالْبَصِيرُ ﴿١٩﴾ وَلَا الظُّلُمَاتُ
وَلَا النُّورُ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَلَا الظِّلُّ وَلَا الْحَرُورُ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَحْيَاءُ وَلَا الْأَمْوَاتُ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
يُسْمِعُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ ۚ وَمَا أَنْتَ بِمُسْمِعٍ مَّن فِي الْقُبُورِ ﴿٢٢﴾ إِنْ أَنْتَ إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ إِنَّا
أَرْسَلْنَاكَ بِالْحَقِّ بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا وَإِنْ مِنْ أُمَّةٍ إِلَّا خَلَا فِيهَا نَذِيرٌ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَإِنْ يَكْذِبُوكَ فَقَدْ
كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ وَالزُّبُرِ ۖ وَالْكِتَابِ الْمُنِيرِ ﴿٢٥﴾
ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ ﴿٢٦﴾

(15) O people! You are all beggars before Allāh and Allāh is Independent, Most Worthy of praise. (16) If He wills, He could remove you and replace you with a new creation. (17) This is not at all difficult for Allāh. (18) None shall be burdened with the load of another. If any burdened person has to call for his load to be carried, none of it will be carried, even though it be his close relative (that he calls). You warn only those who fear their Lord without seeing Him, and who establish Salāh. Whoever purifies himself, purifies himself only for his own good. To Allāh will the return be. (19) The blind and the seeing cannot be the same... (20) ...Nor can a multiplicity of darkness and the light (be the same). (21) .... Nor shade and heat. (22) The living and the dead cannot be the same. Whoever Allāh wills He makes him hear, and you cannot make those in the graves hear. (23) You are only a warner. (24) Verily We have sent you with the truth as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. A warner passed in every nation. (25) If they falsify you, then those before them also falsified. Their messengers brought to them clear miracles, scriptures and an illuminating Book. (26) Thereafter I seized those who disbelieved. So how was My punishment?

EVERYONE IS DEPENDENT ON ALLĀH, NONE SHALL BEAR THE BURDEN OF ANOTHER, AND A WARNER CAME TO EVERY NATION

The above verses contain discussions on several subjects. The first of these is contained in the verse, where Allāh says, "O people! You are all beggars before Allāh and Allāh is Independent, Most Worthy of praise." A believer (Mu'min) realises that Allāh needs nothing from Him, but He requires Allāh for everything. Even his worship is for his own benefit because Allāh does not require it. Even without man's worship, Allāh remains 'independent, Most Worthy of praise.'

The second aspect discussed is that Allāh reserves the right to do as He pleases with man. Allāh says, "If He wills, He could remove you and replace you with a new creation. This is not at all difficult for Allāh."

The third factor discussed in these verses is that "None shall be burdened with the load (sins) of another {on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah)}. If any burdened person has to call (to another) for his load to be carried, none of it will be carried, even though it be his close relative (that he calls)."

Allāh says in Surah Abas, "The day when man will flee from his brother, his mother, his father, his spouse and his children. On that day every person will be engrossed in an affair that will make him oblivious of others." [Surah 80, verses 34-37]

Discussing the fourth aspect, Allāh says to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that although he is a messenger to everyone, his preaching has an impact only on "those who fear their Lord without seeing Him, and who establish Salāh." Salāh is specially mentioned in this verse because of its special nature, which is derived from fear for Allāh.

The fifth point discussed is "Whoever purifies himself (by abstaining from evil and sin), purifies himself only for his own good (because he will be amply rewarded for this). To Allāh will the return be (when each person will be duly rewarded or punished)."

"The blind (the disbelievers) and the seeing {the believers (Mu'minīn)} cannot be the same, nor can a multiplicity of darkness (false hood) and the light (the truth) (be the same), nor shade and heat." While some commentators have interpreted "shade" as rewards and "heat" as punishment, others have mentioned that "shade" refers to Heaven and "heat" refers to Hell.

In the same strain, Allāh adds, "The living {believers (Mu'minīn)}/people of Heaven} and the dead (disbelievers/people of Hell) cannot be the same. Whoever Allāh wills He makes him hear..." Allāh grants guidance to whomsoever He wills, thereby causing them to accept Islām.

Allāh then tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "and you cannot make those in the graves hear. You are only a warner." Just as the dead cannot hear what people say, those who have decided to adamantly remain as disbelievers cannot be influenced. The subject of the dead hearing has been discussed at length in the commentary of verse 80 of Surah Naml (Surah 27). The reality of the matter is that the dead cannot hear, but Allāh may allow them to hear if He wills.

"Verily We have sent you with the truth as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. A warner passed in every nation." Allāh mentions a general rule in this verse, making it the seventh subject discussed so far. Allāh sent a warner to every nation so that they may realise their responsibilities and refrain from polytheism (shirk).

Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'īl, "We shall never punish (any nation) until We send a messenger." [Surah 17, verse 15]

A verse of Surah Qasas reads: "Your Lord would never destroy towns until He sends a messenger to their capital, reciting His verses to them. We would never destroy towns unless their inhabitants were oppressive." [Surah 28, verse 59]

The apostleship of many Prophets عليهم السلام have been certified by the Qur'ān like Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. It will therefore be necessary for every believer (Mu'min) to believe in the fact that they were Allāh's true Holy Prophets. Other religions claim to follow certain other people, whom the Qur'ān and Ahadīth have not certified as the Holy Prophets. Muslims cannot attest to the Prophethood of these people, even though their followers trace historical evidence to substantiate their claim. They may be regarded as the Prophets only when Allāh and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم attest to this. It will not be appropriate to deduce. Their Prophethood from the verse "A warner passed in every nation" because the word "warner" is not necessarily a Prophet.

In fact, certain portraits and statues of these religious leaders portray them to be naked or semi-naked, which dispels the notion that they could ever have been Allāh's Prophets.

Allāh then tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "If they falsify you, then (this is not surprising because) those before them also falsified (their Prophets). Their messengers brought to them clear miracles, scriptures and an illuminating Book." The various Prophets عليهم السلام brought Allāh's scriptures like the Torah and Injil to their nations, but most of them still refused to accept.

"Thereafter I seized those who disbelieved. So how was My punishment?" This verse urges others to reflect over the outcome of the previous nations so that they do not fall into the same trap.

أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَخْرَجْنَا بِهِ ثَمَرَاتٍ مُتَخَلِّفًا أَلْوَانَهَا وَمِنَ الْجِبَالِ
جُدُدٌ بَيَضٌ وَحُمْرٌ مُتَخَلِّفٌ أَلْوَانَهَا وَغَرَابِيبٌ سُودٌ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَمِمَّنْ النَّاسِ
وَالْدَوَابِّ وَالْأَنْعَامِ مُتَخَلِّفٌ أَلْوَانُهُ كَذَلِكَ إِنَّمَا يَخْشَى اللَّهَ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ الْعُلَمَاءُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ غَفُورٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَتْلُونَ كِتَابَ اللَّهِ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ
وَأَنفَقُوا مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ سِرًّا وَعَلَانِيَةً يَرْجُونَ تِجَارَةً لَّن تَبُورَ ﴿٢٩﴾
لِيُؤْفِقَهُمْ أَجُورَهُمْ وَيَزِيدَهُمْ مِّنْ فَضْلِهِ إِنَّهُمْ غَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ ﴿٣٠﴾
وَالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ مِنَ الْكِتَابِ هُوَ الْحَقُّ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِعِبَادِهِ

لَخَيْرٌ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٣١﴾ ثُمَّ أَوْرَثْنَا الْكِتَابَ الَّذِينَ اصْطَفَيْنَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا فَمِنْهُمْ ظَالِمٌ لِنَفْسِهِ وَمِنْهُمْ مُقْتَصِدٌ وَمِنْهُمْ سَابِقٌ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ يُذِنُ اللَّهُ ذَٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿٣٢﴾ جَنَّتٌ عَدْنٍ يَدْخُلُونَهَا يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيهَا مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَلُؤْلُؤًا وَلِبَاسُهُمْ فِيهَا حَرِيرٌ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَذْهَبَ عَنَّا الْحَزْنَ إِنَّ رَبَّنَا لَغَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ ﴿٣٤﴾ الَّذِي أَهْلَنَا دَارَ الْمُقَامَةِ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ لَا يَمَسُّنَا فِيهَا نَصَبٌ وَلَا يَمَسُّنَا فِيهَا لُغُوبٌ ﴿٣٥﴾

(27) Do they not see that Allāh sends rain from the sky, thereby extracting various fruits of varying colours? From the mountains, there are different ridges, varying from white to red of different shades and some which are extremely black. (28) There is a similar variation of colours among people, creatures and animals. From Allāh 's bondsmen, only the learned ones fear Him. Verily Allāh is Mighty, Most Forgiving. (29) Indeed, those who recite Allāh 's Book, establish Salāh and spend secretly and openly from what We have given them, they are hopeful of a trade that will never be destroyed. (30) So that Allāh may grant them their reward in full and increase them from His grace. Verily He is Most Forgiving, Most Appreciative. (31) That of the Book which We have revealed to you is the truth, verifying the scriptures before it. Without doubt, Allāh is Informed and Ever Watchful over His bondsmen. (32) Thereafter, We made those of Our bondsmen whom We chose inheritors of the Book. Of them were those who oppressed their souls, while there were those who were moderate. There were also those who were leaders in good deeds by the command of their Lord. This is Allāh's extreme grace. (33) In the eternal gardens that they will enter, they will be adorned with bracelets of gold and pearls. Their garments there will be of silk. (34) They will say, "All praise be to Allāh, Who has removed grief from us. Undoubtedly our Lord is Most Forgiving, Appreciative." (35) "Our Lord has settled us in an eternal home by His grace. Here no difficulty will ever afflict us, nor shall any tiredness touch us."

THE VIRTUES OF THE RAIN AND THE QUALITIES OF ALLĀH'S PIOUS BONDSMEN

"Do they not see that Allāh sends rain from the sky, thereby extracting various fruits of varying colours?" Just as the colours of the fruits vary, their tastes and textures also vary from fruit to fruit.

"From the mountains, there are different ridges, varying from white to red of different shades and some which are extremely black." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه says that "ridges" refer to the roads and passes between mountains, which people use to travel for their needs.

"There is a similar variation of colours among people, creatures and animals." All of these display Allāh's amazing creative powers and His favour upon man by showering him with these various bounties.

"From Allāh's bondsmen, only the learned ones fear Him. Verily Allāh is Mighty, Most Forgiving." A person who possesses any knowledge which makes him recognise Allāh will be regarded as "learned," even if this knowledge is of biology, astronomy or religion. Allāh can be recognised with the appropriate knowledge, thereby leading one to fear Him and abstain from sins.

However, such knowledge will not profit one if one follows one's whims and desires. Allāh says, "Have you seen the one who has taken his whims as a deity?"

Possessing the most knowledge, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم feared Allāh the most. He mentioned in a hadith, "I am the one who fears Allāh most and the most abstinent." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 707, Muslim v. 1 p. 449]

Allāh then lauds His pious servants when He says, "Indeed, those who recite Allāh's Book, establish Salāh and spend secretly and openly from what We have given them, they are hopeful of a trade that will never be destroyed. So that Allāh may grant them their reward in full and increase them from His grace. Verily He is Most Forgiving, Most Appreciative." These people will be rewarded with a minimum of ten rewards for every deed in appreciation of the deed. In addition to this, Allāh will forgive all their shortcomings. Such a trade can never result in a loss.

Allāh then describes the Qur'ān saying, "That of the Book (Qur'ān), which We have revealed to you is the truth, verifying the scriptures before it. Without doubt, Allāh is Informed and Ever Watchful over His bondsmen."

"Thereafter, We made those of Our bondsmen whom We chose inheritors of the Book." This verse makes it clear that those who receive Allāh's scripture are chosen people. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the person who has been given Allāh's Book, and thereafter he considers another person superior to himself, such a person has certainly degraded the best bounty. ["Jāmi'us Saghīr" v. 6 p. 75]

Thereafter, Allāh describes the three categories of those given the Book. Allāh says, "Of them were those who (1) oppressed their souls (i.e. the sinners), while there were (2) those who were moderate. There were also (3) those who were leaders in good deeds by the command of their Lord. This is Allāh's extreme grace." This verse teaches us to show reverence even to the sinful ones among those given Allāh's Book.

In a hadith of Tirmidhi, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that these three groups of people are equal (in terms of the favour bestowed on them), and will all be in Heaven.

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه once recited this verse from the pulpit and then narrated the following saying of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم: "Those of us who are "leaders in good deeds" shall be leaders (in attaining rewards and high ranks), the "moderate" ones will attain salvation, while those "who oppressed their souls" will be forgiven."

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once recited the verse, after which he said, "The "leaders in good deeds" shall enter Heaven without reckoning, the "moderate" ones will have a light reckoning, while those "who oppressed their souls" will be halted at the place of reckoning until they are overcome with grief. Thereafter, they will also be admitted into Heaven." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the verse, "They will say, 'All praise be to Allāh, Who has removed grief from us. Undoubtedly our Lord is Most Forgiving, Appreciative.'" ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 3 p. 57 1]

More details regarding the three groups of people have been discussed in "Ruhul Ma'āni" and "Ma'ālimut Tanzil".

Allāh then describes the condition of those destined for Heaven saying, "In the eternal gardens that they will enter, they will be adorned with bracelets of gold and pearls. Their garments there will be of silk." The same description is given in Surah Hajj, where Allāh says, "Allāh will surely admit those who believe and do good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. There they will be adorned with bangles of gold and pearls and their clothes shall be of silk." [Surah 22, verse 23]

The temperament of the people in Heaven will be different from that of people in this world. It will not be possible to base one's perception of the things in Heaven upon one's perception of this world. Therefore, it will be incorrect to say that bangles are unbecoming of men in Heaven because they are unbecoming in this world. While men will be permitted to wear jewellery in Heaven (which is not permissible in this world), it will suit them in Heaven. It was popular with the kings and monarchs of the past to wear jewellery, which people then considered to be good-looking although no one wears it today.

Many Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم have reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The man who wears silk in this world will not wear it in the Hereafter." ["Mishkāt" p. 373]

Allāh then quotes the words of appreciation that the people of Heaven will express on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). Allāh says, "They will say, 'All praise be to Allāh Who has removed grief from us. Undoubtedly our Lord is Most Forgiving, Appreciative. Our Lord has settled us in an eternal home by His grace.'"

In saying the above, the people of Heaven allude to the fact that this world is not really a place to live in, but the true home is Heaven because it is a place which people "will not want to leave."

Describing Heaven, they will say, "Here, no difficulty will ever afflict us, nor shall any tiredness touch us." They will enjoy only peace, comfort and rest in Heaven. Allāh says in Surah Hijr, "No difficulty will afflict them there, nor shall they be removed from there." [Surah 15, verse 48]

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ نَارُ جَهَنَّمَ لَا يُقْضَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ فَيَمُوتُوا وَلَا يُخَفَّفُ عَنْهُمْ مِنْ عَذَابِهَا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي كُلَّ كَافِرٍ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَهُمْ يَصْطَرِحُونَ فِيهَا رَبَّنَا أَخْرِجْنَا نَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا غَيْرَ الَّذِي كُنَّا نَعْمَلُ أَوَلَمْ نُعَمِّرْكُم مَّا يَتَذَكَّرُ فِيهِ مَنْ تَذَكَّرَ وَجَاءَكُمُ النَّذِيرُ فَذُوقُوا فَمَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ نَصِيرٍ ﴿٣٧﴾

passed against them so that they may die. Their punishment will also not be lightened. Thus do We punish every disbeliever. (37) They will be screaming in Hell saying, "O our Lord! Remove us from here and we will do deeds unlike those we used to perpetrate." "Did We not grant you sufficient age in which the one who takes heed may take heed? And did a warner not come to you? So taste (of the punishment)! The oppressors will not have a helper."

THE PEOPLE OF HELL WILL NOT DIE, THEIR PUNISHMENT WILL NOT BE LIGHTENED AND THEY WILL NEVER EMERGE FROM HELL

After mentioning the bounties of the people of Heaven, Allāh continues to speak of the plight of those destined for Hell. Allāh says, "The Fire of Hell will be for those who disbelieve, where no decree will be passed against them so that they may die. Their punishment will also not be lightened. Thus do We punish every disbeliever."

Further describing their miserable plight, Allāh adds, "They will be screaming in Hell saying, 'O our Lord! Remove us from here and we will do deeds unlike those we used to perpetrate.'" They will promise to follow Allāh's commands in the world. Allāh will reply, "Did We not grant you sufficient age in which the one who takes heed may take heed? And did a warner not come to you? (If you had taken heed and followed the guidance of the Prophets عليهم السلام, you would not be pleading for mercy today. However, since you refused to believe) So taste (of the punishment)! The oppressors will not have a helper."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh will not accept any excuse (for sin) from the person whom Allāh had granted respite until he reached the age of sixty. The sins of such an old person will be inexcusable because he had lived long enough to know what he should do and what he should avoid.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that an announcer will ask on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah), "Where are those who reached the age of sixty?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then added, "This is the age regarding which Allāh says, "Did We not grant you sufficient age in which the one who takes heed may take heed? And did a warner not come to you?" ["Mishkāt" p. 451]

إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ غَيْبِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّهُمْ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ﴿٣٨﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَكُمْ خَلَائِفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَعَلَيْهِ كُفْرُهُ وَلَا يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرِينَ كُفْرُهُمْ إِلَّا رَحِمَهُمْ إِلَّا مَقْنًا وَلَا يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرِينَ كُفْرُهُمْ إِلَّا خَسَارًا ﴿٣٩﴾ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ شُرَكَاءَكُمُ الَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَرُونِي مَاذَا خَلَقُوا مِنَ الْأَرْضِ أَمْ لَهُمْ شِرْكٌ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ أَمْ آتَيْنَهُمْ كِتَابًا فَهُمْ عَلَى بَيِّنَةٍ مِنْهُ بَلْ إِنَّ يَعِدُ الظَّالِمُونَ بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضًا إِلَّا غُرُورًا ﴿٤٠﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُمْسِكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ أَنْ تَزُولَا وَلَئِنْ زَالَتَا إِنْ أَمْسَكَهُمَا مِنْ

﴿ ٤١ ﴾ أَحَدٌ مِّنْ بَعْدِهِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ حَلِيمًا غَفُورًا

(38) Verily Allāh has knowledge of the unseen things of the heavens and the earth. He certainly has knowledge of the secrets of the heart. (39) It is He Who made you successors on earth. Whoever disbelieves, then his disbelief is to his own detriment. The disbelief of the disbelievers will only increase the wrath of their Lord for them. The disbelief of the disbelievers will only increase them in loss. (40) Say, "Tell me about your partners whom you worship besides Allāh. Show me what they have created of the earth, or do they share a partnership in the heavens and the earth? Or have We given them a Book from which they have a clear proof? The oppressors only make deceptive promises to each other." (41) Verily Allāh withholds the heavens and the earth from moving. If they were ever to move, there will be none to withhold them after Him. Indeed He is Tolerant, Most Forgiving.

THE DETRIMENT OF DISBELIEF WILL AFFECT THE DISBELIEVERS WHO MERELY DECEIVE EACH OTHER

Allāh describes His tremendous knowledge, when He says, "Verily Allāh has knowledge of the un seen things of the heavens and the earth. He certainly has knowledge of the secrets of the heart." Nothing is hidden from Him.

"It Is He Who made you successors on earth." Allāh has made it such that every generation succeeds the next on earth. Because of all the bounties that Allāh has bestowed on man, man is obliged to express gratitude to Allāh by believing in Him and following His Prophets عليهم السلام. If they do not then "Whoever disbelieves (thereby expressing ingratitude to Allāh), then his disbelief (and ingratitude) is to his own detriment. The disbelief of the disbelievers will only increase the wrath of their Lord for them." Allāh's wrath is constantly increasing as the disbelievers continues to disbelieve. Although the disbelievers think that they are prospering, they are actually retrogressing all the time because "The disbelief of the disbelievers will only increase them in loss."

"Say (to the Polytheists), 'Tell me about your partners whom you worship besides Allāh. Show me what they have created of the earth (because of which you consider them worthy of worship), or do they share a partnership in the heavens and the earth?'" Their false gods are on Allāh's earth and beneath Allāh's sky. They have nothing to their credit for which they may be deemed worthy of worship.

"Or have We given them (the polytheists) a Book from which they have a clear proof?" The answer is an obvious "No!". The polytheists have nothing to substantiate their claims and beliefs. They "only make deceptive promises to each other." To maintain their strength, the disbelievers and polytheists merely tell each other things to deceive themselves into adhering to disbelief and shirk. They tell each other lies about the virtues of polytheism (shirk) and promise each other that their gods will intercede for them on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah).

Describing His immense power, Allāh says, "Verily Allāh withholds the heavens and the earth from moving. If they were ever to move, there will be none to withhold them after Him. Indeed He is Tolerant, Most Forgiving." Allāh has created these bodies and none can control them in any way. The gods of the polytheists can therefore not be regarded as deities.

Allāh keeps the heavens and the earth in their fixed locations, from which they cannot shift. Of course, as He has prescribed, they may still rotate on their own axis and orbit the sun which is constantly travelling through the galaxy. This is as Allāh has decreed.

وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَهْدَ أَيْمَانِهِمْ لَئِنْ جَاءَهُمْ نَذِيرٌ لَّيَكُونُنَّ أَهْدَىٰ مِنْ إِحْدَى الْأُمَمِ فَلَمَّا
جَاءَهُمْ نَذِيرٌ مَّا زَادَهُمْ إِلَّا نُفُورًا ﴿٤٢﴾ أَسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَكْرُ السَّيِّئِ وَلَا يَحِيقُ
الْمَكْرُ السَّيِّئُ إِلَّا بِأَهْلِهِ فَهَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا السُّنَّتَ الْأَوَّلِينَ فَلَن تَجِدَ لِسُنَّتِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا
وَلَن تَجِدَ لِسُنَّتِ اللَّهِ تَحْوِيلًا ﴿٤٣﴾

(42) They take solemn oaths by Allāh that if a warner has to come to them, they would become more rightly guided than any nation. But when the warner came to them, it only increased them in animosity. (43) (This animosity) was because they were proud on earth and they devised evil schemes. The consequences of evil schemes encompass only those who devise them. They only seem to await the treatment of the previous generations. You will never find any change in Allāh's practice, neither will you find any adjustment in Allāh's practice.

THE QURAYSH OF MAKKAH SWORE THAT THEY WOULD FOLLOW THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم, BUT FAILED TO KEEP THIS PROMISE BECAUSE OF THEIR PRIDE

The Quraysh of Makkah often travelled to Shām (Syria), where they encountered the Jews and Christians. When they learnt that these people had denied their Prophets عليهم السلام, they took "solemn oaths by Allāh that if a warner (a Prophet) has to come to them, they would become more rightly guided than any nation. But when the warner came to them, it only increased them in animosity. (This animosity) was because they were proud on earth and devised evil schemes." They thought it below their dignity to accept Islām and targeted various plots against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

However, all their schemes backfired on them, and many of those who plotted the atrocities against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were killed in the battle of Badr. Referring to this, Allāh says, "The consequences of evil schemes encompass only those who devise them." An Arabic adage read: "The one who digs a hole for his brother will himself fall into it."

"They only seem to await the treatment of the previous generations. You will never find any change in Allāh's practice, neither will you find any adjustment in Allāh's practice." Allāh will punish these disbelievers just as He punished those before them. It is also Allāh's practice that He will never punish anyone for something he did not do. The disbelievers do not cease in their disbelief, almost as if they are awaiting Allāh's punishment.

أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَكُنُوا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً
وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُعْجِزَهُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ عَلِيمًا
قَدِيرًا ﴿٤٤﴾ وَلَوْ يُوَازِئُ اللَّهُ النَّاسَ بِمَا كَسَبُوا مَا تَرَكَ عَلَى ظَهْرِهِمَا مِنْ
دَابَّةٍ وَلَا كُنْ يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُسَمًّى فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَجْلُهُمْ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ
بِعِبَادِهِ بَصِيرًا ﴿٤٥﴾

(44) Have they not travelled in the lands and seen what was the result of those before them, who were more powerful than them? Allāh is not such that anything in the heavens and the earth can defeat him. He is the All Knowing, Powerful. (45) If Allāh were to take man to task for everything he does, Allāh would not have left a single creature on the face of the earth. But Allāh defers them until an appointed term. When their term arrives, then Allāh is Ever Watchful over His bondsmen.

PEOPLE DO NOT HEED THE SIGNS DESPITE TRAVELLING AND IF ALLĀH HAD TO TAKE PEOPLE TO TASK FOR EVERY DEED, NO CREATURE WOULD HAVE BEEN LEFT ALIVE

The Quraysh of Makkah frequently passed by the ruins of the Thamud and the ruins of Sadūm [the town of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام] on their journeys to Shām (Syria). Although they were to take a lesson from these shattered towns, they never paid heed and still continued with their evil practices. Referring to this, Allāh says, "Have they not travelled in the lands and seen what was the result of those before them, who were more powerful than them?" The fact that these people were much more powerful than them should increase their awe and fear for Allāh.

"Allāh is not such that anything in the heavens and the earth can defeat him. He is the All Knowing, Powerful." When Allāh decides to punish any person or community, there is nothing to stop Him. None can ever think that Allāh is unaware of their sins, or that He is incapable of taking them to task.

Allāh concludes the verse by telling people that they should never seek to hurry Allāh's punishment. Allāh says, "If Allāh were to take man to task for everything he does, Allāh would not have left a single creature on the face of the earth. But Allāh defers them until an appointed term. When their term arrives, then Allāh is Ever Watchful over His bondsmen." People are foolish to think that because Allāh does not punish them for their sins, He is unaware of them. Allāh is Aware of everything, but, because of His mercy, He overlooks people's sins.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that although Allāh's punishment destroys everything and everyone in this world, Allāh will separate the believers (Mu'minīn) from the disbelievers on the Day of Judgment (Qiyāmah). [Bukhari p. 1053]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told them about an army that will march with the intent of destroying the Ka'ba. However, when they reach a certain plain, the ground will swallow the entire army, from the first to the last. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "If the entire army, from the first to the last is to be swallowed, what about those who joined only for purposes of trade and those who were not with them?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "All will be destroyed, but they will all be resurrected according to their intentions." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 284]

Although the believers (Mu'minīn) will be rewarded for their belief (Imān) and good deeds, they will receive additional rewards for the suffering they endure when Allāh's punishment strikes.

سورة يس

Makkan

Surah Ya-Sin

Verses 83

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَس ۝۱ وَالْقُرْآنِ الْحَكِيمِ ۝۲ إِنَّكَ لَمِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝۳ عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ۝۴
تَنْزِيلَ الْعَزِيزِ الرَّحِيمِ ۝۵ لِنُذِرَ قَوْمًا مَّا أُنْذِرَ آبَاؤُهُمْ فَهُمْ غَافِلُونَ ۝۶ لَقَدْ حَقَّ
الْقَوْلُ عَلَى أَكْثَرِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝۷ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَا فِي أَعْنَاقِهِمْ أَغْلَالًا فَهِيَ إِلَى
الْأَذْقَانِ فَهُمْ مُقْمَحُونَ ۝۸ وَجَعَلْنَا مِنْ بَيْنِ أَيْدِيهِمْ سَدًّا وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ سَدًّا
فَأَغْشَيْنَاهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يُبْصِرُونَ ۝۹ وَسَوَاءٌ عَلَيْهِمْ ءَأَنْذَرْتَهُمْ أَمْ لَمْ تُنْذِرْهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝۱۰
إِنَّمَا تُنْذِرُ مَنِ اتَّبَعَ الذِّكْرَ وَخَشِيَ الرَّحْمَنَ الْغَيْبَ فَبَشِّرْهُ بِمَغْفِرَةٍ وَأَجْرٍ
كَرِيمٍ ۝۱۱ إِنَّا نَحْنُ نُحْيِي الْمَوْتَى وَنَكْتُبُ مَا قَدَّمُوا وَءَاثَرَهُمْ وَكُلَّ شَيْءٍ
أَحْصَيْنَاهُ فِي إِمَامٍ مُبِينٍ ۝۱۲

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Yā Sīn. (2) By the oath of the wise Qur'ān. (3) You are verily among the messengers. (4) On the straight path. (5) A revelation of the Mighty, the Most Merciful (6) To warn a nation whose forefathers were not warned and who were negligent. (7) The decree has been passed against most of them, so they will not believe. (8) We shall place a yoke around their necks, which reaches to their chins, so their gazes are fixed upwards. (9) We have placed a barrier in front of them and a barrier behind them, and We have enveloped them so they cannot see. (10) It is the same to them whether you warn them or you do not warn them. They will never believe. (11) You can warn only him who follows the advice and fears Ar Rahmān (the Compassionate) without seeing Him. Give him the glad tidings of forgiveness and a bountiful provision. (12) Verily only We revive the dead and record what they send ahead and the trails they leave. We have meticulously recorded everything in the clear Book.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS ALLĀH'S HOLY PROPHET AND THE QUR'ĀN IS FROM ALLĀH

Only Allāh knows the meaning of "Yā Sīn" which is from the "Mutashābihāt" verses. Rebutting those who denied the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh declares, "By the oath of the wise Qur'ān! You are verily among the messengers on the straight path." The declaration of Allāh is more than sufficient against the blasphemy of the disbelievers.

Allāh then replies to their rejection of the Qur'ān. Allāh says that the Qur'ān is "A revelation of the Mighty, the Most Merciful." In this verse, Allāh refutes the notion of those who refute the divine origin of the Qur'ān.

Allāh then outlines the purpose of revealing the Qur'ān and the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh sent them "to warn a nation whose forefathers were not warned and who were negligent..." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent among the Arabs where his duty began. The Arabs were the progeny of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام but no Prophet had come to them for a very long time.

Because no Prophet had come to them for a long time, the Arabs had become negligent of the rights they owed to Allāh. It was therefore necessary for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to direct them onto the straight course.

"The decree has been passed against most of them, so they will not believe." This verse consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, telling him not to grieve about those who do not believe him because Allāh had already decreed that they will never believe.

Allāh then describes one of the punishments the disbelievers will suffer. Allāh says, "We shall place a yoke around their necks, which reaches to their chins, so their gazes are fixed upwards. We have placed a barrier in front of them and a barrier behind them, and We have enveloped them so they cannot see." Their hands will also be bound to these yokes, and they will be blind.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that the above punishment will be meted out to them in Hell. He has deduced this from Surah Mu'min, where Allāh says, "When yokes will be placed around their necks, as well as chains. They will be dragged into the boiling water, after which they will be cast as fuel for the Fire." This interpretation rules out any metaphorical interpretations.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING THE REVELATION OF THE ABOVE VERSES

Ruhul Ma'āni reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once reciting the Qur'ān loudly in the Haram which displeased the polytheists. Some of them decided to harass the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and sneaked behind him to seize him. However, Allāh punished them instead. From their necks downwards, their bodies became paralysed and they all turned blind. They pleaded with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to pray to Allāh to cure them because of their relationship with him. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed to Allāh, their conditions were restored and the above verses were revealed.

According to this narration, the punishment described in the above verse took place in this very world. The punishment in the Hereafter will certainly be much worse.

“Ruhul Ma’āni” has also reported that once, Abu Jahl decided to kill the Holy Prophet ﷺ while he was performing Salāh in the Haram. He took a rock and proceeded to carry out his evil intention. However, as he approached the Holy Prophet ﷺ and raised the rock, his hand became firmly stuck to his neck. He returned to his companions, who tried in vain to release the hand from the neck.

Another person then took the rock from him and proceeded to accomplish what Abu Jahl had failed to do. As this person approached the Holy Prophet ﷺ, Allāh took away his eyesight. As he could not find his way back, his companions had to call him back. Thereafter, a third villain proceeded with the same thought in mind. As he was walking towards the Holy Prophet ﷺ, he suddenly turned back in flight. When his accomplices asked him the reason, he replied that a large camel appeared before him as he approached the Holy Prophet ﷺ. He told them that he had never seen such a large camel in his life, and it was ready to devour him if he dared draw closer to the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

The author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” writes that if the above verses were revealed because of this incident, the specific punishment mentioned in the verse [“We shall place a yoke around their necks, which reaches to their chins, so their gazes are fixed upwards.”] is metaphorical and denotes that these people are helpless against Allāh and His Holy Prophet ﷺ.

Thereafter, Allāh says, “It is the same to them whether you warn them or you do not warn them. They will never believe.” When people make themselves blind to the truth and deaf to all advice, their hearts cannot be penetrated. It is only possible to “warn him who follows the advice and fears Rahmān without seeing Him.” This refers to the believer (Mu’min), who fulfils Allāh’s commands and fears retribution for his shortcomings. Allāh declares, “Give him the glad tidings of forgiveness and a bountiful provision.”

“Verily only We revive the dead and record what they send ahead and the trails they leave. We have meticulously recorded everything in the clear Book {the Lawhul Mahfūz (The protected tablet)}.” Every deed, good or bad, is recorded. The phrase “the trails they leave” alludes to the fact that the trails of any deed (good or evil carried out by the deceased) which another person follows, will be recorded in favour of the deceased person (if it is good), or against him (if it is evil).

If a person teaches another to recite the Qur’ān, to perform Salāh, etc, then he will receive the rewards of the second person’s Qur’ānic recitation or Salāh even after his death. Similarly, if a person built a Masjid or wrote a religious book, he will continue to receive the rewards of all those who benefit from the Masjid or the book. On the other hand, if a person starts a Bid’ah (religious innovation) or another evil deed, he will be responsible for the sins of all those who emulate him, even if he has left the world.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet ﷺ that the rewards of the following deeds will continue to accrue to the credit of a person even after his death:

- 📖 Knowledge that he has acquired and spread.
- 📖 Leaving pious children behind.
- 📖 Leaving behind a copy of the Qur'ān.
- 📖 Building an inn for travellers to use (for free).
- 📖 Digging a well (or any other water source).
- 📖 Spending in charity while healthy and sick. [Ibn Majah p. 22]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also said, "Whoever initiates something good in Islām will accrue the rewards for it, as well as the rewards of all those who emulate his act, without diminishing their rewards in the least. (On the other hand,) Whoever initiates something evil in Islām will accrue the sin for it, as well as the sins of all those who emulate his act, without diminishing their sin in the least." [Muslim]

Certain commentators have mentioned that "the trails they leave refers to the footprints people leave when they walk to the Masjid for Salāh. Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه reports that once, some land became vacant round the Masjid during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Banu Salamah tribe, who lived far from the Masjid, decided to occupy the land. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heard of this, he advised them to remain where they were because their footprints were being recorded i.e. the rewards for every step taken to the Masjid was recorded to their credit. ["Mishkāt" p. 68]

وَأَضْرِبْ لَهُمْ مَثَلًا أَصْحَابَ الْقَرْيَةِ إِذْ جَاءَهَا الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِمُ اثْنَيْنِ فَكَذَّبُوهُمَا فَعَزَّزْنَا بِثَالِثٍ فَقَالُوا إِنَّا إِلَيْكُم مُّرْسَلُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ قَالُوا مَا أَنتُمْ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُنَا وَمَا أَنزَلَ الرَّحْمَنُ مِن شَيْءٍ إِنْ أَنتُمْ إِلَّا تَكْذِبُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا يَعْلَمُ إِنَّا إِلَيْكُم لَمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَمَا عَلَيْنَا إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١٧﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّا تَطَيَّرْنَا بِكُمْ لَئِن لَّمْ تَنْتَهُوا لَنَرْجُمَنَّكُمْ وَلَيَمَسَّنَّكُم مِّنَّا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١٨﴾ قَالُوا طَائِفُكُمْ مَعَكُمْ إِن دُكِّرْتُمْ بَلْ أَنتُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّسْرِفُونَ ﴿١٩﴾

(13) Cite to them the parable of the people of the village when the messengers came to them. (14) When We sent two to them, the people falsified them. Thereafter, We strengthened them with a third and they said, "We have certainly been sent as messengers to you people." (15) The people said, "You are merely humans like ourselves. Allāh has not revealed anything. You are only lying." (16) They replied, "Our Lord knows that We have been sent as messengers to you people." (17) "Clear propagation is our only responsibility." (18) The people said, "We augur an evil omen from you. If you do not desist, we will surely stone you and a painful punishment from us will definitely afflict you. (19)

The messengers said, "Your omen is with you. Is it an evil omen that you have been given advice? You are but a transgressing nation."

THE INSOLENT OF A NATION TOWARDS ALLĀH'S MESSENGERS

The above verses cite the epic of the inhabitants of a town (probably Antioch), to whom Allāh sent two messengers. Certain commentators have mentioned that these two were not Prophets عليهم السلام but two disciples of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. Because they set out on the instruction of Allāh's messenger (acting on Allāh's orders), Allāh says, "When We sent two to them, the people falsified them."

Other commentators say that the two were Prophet عليه السلام. Nevertheless, the people of the town refused to listen to them, after which Allāh "strengthened them with a third and they (collectively) said, 'We have certainly been sent as messengers to you people.'"

However, "The people said, 'You are merely humans like ourselves. Allāh has not revealed anything. You are only lying.'"

The messengers replied, "Our Lord knows that We have been sent as messengers to you people. Clear propagation is our only responsibility (we have a duty to fulfil irrespective of your response)."

"The people said, 'We augur an evil omen from you.'" They said this because they blamed the messengers for the split in their community. Commentators also say that because of their sinful ways, Allāh punished these people by causing certain calamities and disasters to befall them. However, they blamed the messengers for this. They also added, "If you do not desist, we will surely stone you (to death) and a painful punishment from us will definitely afflict you."

The three messengers replied, "Your omen is with you." They told the people that the evil that affects them is a result of their own devices which they cannot attribute to the messengers. The only work that the messengers did was advise the people. Therefore, they asked, 'Is it an evil omen that you have been given advice? You are but a transgressing nation (your transgression in disbelief has landed you in the predicament you find yourselves in)."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that auguring omens is an act of polytheism (shirk). However, the statement of the three messengers was merely in response to the earlier statement of the people.

PART TWENTY-THREE

وَجَاءَ مِنْ أَقْصَا الْمَدِينَةِ رَجُلٌ يَسْعَى قَالَ يَنْقُومِ الْمُّرْسَلِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾ اتَّبِعُوا
 مَنْ لَا يَسْتَلْكُمْ أَجْرًا وَهُمْ مُّهْتَدُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَا لِي لَا أَعْبُدُ الَّذِي فَطَرَنِي وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ
 ﴿٢٢﴾ أَأَتَّخِذُ مِنْ دُونِهِ إِلَهًا إِنْ يُرِدْنِ الرَّحْمَنُ بِضُرٍّ لَا تُغْنِي عَنِّي شَفَعَتُهُمْ
 شَيْئًا وَلَا يُنْقِذُونِ ﴿٢٣﴾ إِنِّي إِذَا لَفَى ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٢٤﴾ إِنِّي آمَنْتُ بِرَبِّكُمْ
 فَاسْمَعُونِ ﴿٢٥﴾ قِيلَ ادْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ قَالَ بَلَيْتَ قَوْمِي يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ بِمَا غَفَرَ لِي رَبِّي
 وَجَعَلَنِي مِنَ الْمُكْرَمِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَمَا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَى قَوْمِهِ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ مِنْ جُنْدٍ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
 وَمَا كُنَّا مُنْزِلِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾ إِنْ كَانَتْ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً فَإِذَا هُمْ خَامِدُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ يَحْسَرَةُ
 عَلَى الْعِبَادِ مَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ رَسُولٍ إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ أَلَمْ يَرَوْا كَمْ
 أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ أَنَّهُمْ إِلَيْهِمْ لَا يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَإِنْ كُلٌّ لَمَّا جَمِيعٌ لَدَيْنَا
 مُحْضَرُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾

(20) A man came running from the farthest end of the town saying, "O my people! Follow the messengers." (21) "Follow those who do not ask for any payment from you, and who are rightly guided." (22) "Why should I not worship the One Who has created me, and to Whom you all shall return?" (23) "Why should I take another as deity besides Him? If Ar Rahmān (the Compassionate) intends any harm to reach me, their intercession will not help me in the least, nor can they rescue me." (24) "I would then surely be in manifest deviation." (25) "I have certainly believed in your Lord, so listen to me." (26) It was said, "Enter Jannah (Heaven)." He said, "If only my people had known..." (27) "...because of what my Lord had forgiven me and made me from among the honoured ones!" (28) We did not dispatch any army against his nation after him, nor were We going to. (29) It was only a single scream after which they were suddenly extinguished. (30) What anguish about My bondsmen! They mock every Prophet that comes to them. (31) Have they not seen how many were the nations that We destroyed before them? They will certainly never return to them. (32) They will all be present before Us collectively.

A MAN FROM THE TOWN ADVISES THE PEOPLE TO ACCEPT THE CALL OF THE MESSENGERS

When the people of the town rejected the message of the messengers,

"A man came running from the farthest end of the town saying, 'O my people! Follow the messengers.'" He told them that the messengers were sincere, "do not ask for any payment" and "are rightly guided." It is for these reasons that they should be followed.

Then, making reference to himself, the man urged them to worship Allāh. He said, "Why should I not worship the One Who has created me, and to Whom you all shall return?" He tried to impress upon their minds that Only Allāh is worthy of worship because He has created the universe, and that it would be foolish to worship any other being, especially with the knowledge that everyone has to return to Allāh.

Since the people were polytheists, he addressed them further saying, "Why should I take another as deity besides Him? If Ar Rahmān (the Compassionate) intends any harm to reach me, their (the false god's) intercession will not help me in the least, nor can they rescue me. (If I were to take others as deities,) I would then surely be in manifest deviation." Without directly saying it, he presented the message to them that they were astray by worshipping helpless beings.

He then declared his faith saying, "I have certainly believed in your Lord, so listen to me." Instead of saying "my Lord," he said "your Lord" so that they take note of the fact that they should also be worshipping Allāh;

He therefore made them aware of the following facts:

- 📖 That they should worship only Allāh Who created them.
- 📖 That they will have to return to Allāh.
- 📖 The other gods are helpless.
- 📖 They have all deviated.
- 📖 They should adhere to the correct religion.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that the people attacked him when he said this to them and killed him. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه says that they trampled him so violently that his intestines were exposed .

After he had attained the lofty rank of martyrdom, 'it was said (to him), 'Enter Heaven.' He said, 'If only my people had known because of what my Lord had forgiven me and made me from among the honoured ones!' Despite what they did to him, he wished that they could also have accepted Islām, be forgiven and honoured with entry into Heaven.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that, after the people martyred him, Allāh instructed Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام to punish them. Jibr'il عليه السلام gave a loud scream and they all perished. Referring to this, Allāh says, "We did not dispatch any army against his nation after him, nor were We going to. It was only a single scream after which they were suddenly extinguished."

This epic was to be a lesson for humanity until Judgment day. Allāh does not require troops and an elaborate arsenal to destroy people. All He did in this case was a scream. Allāh can do anything by merely intending it, but He destroyed them by means of a scream for a reason known to Him. Whereas these people were once brimming with pride and arrogance, they now lay dead like an extinguished fire, with no trace but ashes.

The fact that this person was instructed to enter Heaven shows that he was from that fortunate group of people who will enter Heaven without reckoning and will not even be required to wait for Judgment day. This is not too much to expect from Allāh's mercy. However, other commentators have mentioned that the command "Enter Heaven" is a glad tidings to him, informing him that he will be admitted to Heaven on the Day of Judgment. Therefore, he wished his people well after experiencing the bliss of being honoured in the grave.

"We did not dispatch any army against his nation after him, nor were We going to." This verse proves that Allāh does not always send the angels to destroy a nation. However, there are occasions (like the battle of Badr) when Allāh dispatched an army of angels to deal with the disbelievers.

"What anguish about My bondsmen!" An expression like this is usually used when a person regrets the loss of something worthwhile. This is merely an expression people use, but Allāh is free of anguish and remorse. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has mentioned interpretations of this expression, one of them being that the phrase actually means: "O people! Express your anguish about the condition of My bondsmen because "They mock every Prophet that comes to them." He then writes that this interpretation appears most appropriate.

"Have they (the Makkan polytheists) not seen how many were the nations that We destroyed before them? They will certainly never return to them." The Quraysh often passed by the ruins of previously destroyed nations. These people will never return to the properties that they left behind, which did not assist them when Allāh's punishment came.

"They will all be present before Us collectively." After these people were destroyed in this world, they still have to face Allāh on the Day of Judgment. They will then be proven guilty beyond any doubt and condemned to eternal punishment in Hell.

LESSONS LEARNT FROM THIS INCIDENT

Allāh sent a third messenger to strengthen the two. This teaches people that the work of propagation is more effectively accomplished in groups, rather than individually. Although a person can preach on his own (and will be rewarded for it) there are greater benefits in preaching in groups.

Another lesson learnt from the behaviour of the person from the far end of the town is that people of a locality should actively support the efforts of preachers.

"Follow those who do not ask any payment from you, and who are rightly guided." This teaches people that preachers of religion should never ask people for anything. They should carry their own provisions with them and make their own arrangements for boarding and lodging. They should also never desire anything from the people.

In numerous verses, the Qur'ān quotes the statement of the Prophets عليهم السلام, where they told the people, "I do not ask you for any remuneration for this. My remuneration is the responsibility of Allāh, the Lord of the universe."

Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Surah Saba saying, "Say, 'You can keep whatever payment I may have asked of you. My recompense is Allāh's responsibility, and He is Witness over all things.'" [Surah 34, verse 47]

Allāh instructs in Surah Sād, "Say, 'I do not ask you people for any remuneration for this, and I am not amongst those who pretend.'" [Surah 38, verse 86]

The above verse also teaches people that the person who preaches should himself be "rightly guided." If this is the case, his preaching will be more effective and people will not be able to point fingers at him.

A preacher must also address people in a manner pleasing to them. The person in the incident addressed them as "O my people!" By saying this, he won their attention because they regarded him as a part of them.

Although he was referring to the disbelief of the people, the person used his own name when he said, "Why should I not worship the One Who has created me..." He did not say, "Why should you people not worship the One Who has created you." In this manner, he drove the message home and proved to them the reasons for worshipping Allāh. Since he was addressing them after all, he added, "and to Whom you all shall return?" He did not say, "to Whom I shall return." Thereby, he urged them to reconsider their plight.

By saying that if he left the true religion, 'I would then surely be in manifest deviation,' he intended to tell them that they were astray by remaining as polytheists.

He then declared his faith saying, 'I have certainly believed in your Lord, so listen to me.' Instead of saying "my Lord," he said "your Lord" so that they take note of the fact that they should also be worshipping Allāh. In this way, they will realise that worshipping other gods will lead them to destruction.

Allāh inspires the hearts of people who preach His Dīn (religion) sincerely so that they address people in a most befitting and cordial manner. They are then able to address people in a manner that is effective and not offensive.

وَأَيُّهُمْ هُمُ الْأَرْضُ الْمَيْتَةُ أَحْيَيْتَهَا وَأَخْرَجْنَا مِنْهَا حَبًّا فَمِنْهُ يَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾
 وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا جَنَّاتٍ مِّنْ نَّجِيلٍ وَأَعْنَابٍ وَفَجَّرْنَا فِيهَا مِنَ الْعُيُونِ ﴿٣٤﴾ لِيَأْكُلُوا
 مِن ثَمَرِهِ وَمَا عَمِلَتْهُ أَيْدِيهِمْ أَفَلَا يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ سُبْحَنَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْأَزْوَاجَ
 كُلَّهَا مِمَّا تُنْبِتُ الْأَرْضُ وَمِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَمِمَّا لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾

(33) Dead earth is a sign for them. We revive it and extract grains from it, which you eat. (34) We place orchards of date palms and grapes on earth and cause springs to gush forth... (35) ....so that they may eat from its fruit, even though their hands have not made it. Will they not be grateful? (36) That Allāh is Pure Who created every couple that the earth grows, from among people, and other things about which they have no knowledge.

ALLĀH REVIVES BARREN FIELDS AND CREATED EVERYTHING THAT GROWS ON EARTH

There are various signs of Allāh's great powers everywhere. Allāh says, "Dead earth is (also) a sign for them. We revive it and extract grains from it, which you eat." When certain parts of the earth become parched and lifeless because of a lack of water, Allāh revives the land by sending a little rain. Thereafter, the crops begin to flourish, providing food for thousands of men and animals. Allāh also discusses some of the other products of the land, when He says, "We place orchards of date palms and grapes on earth, and cause springs to gush forth." These springs (and other water sources) irrigate the fields for years thereafter, from which man continuously benefits.

Allāh says that He has provided these things for people "So that they may eat from its fruit, even though their hands have not made it." Man has no share in the growing of the seeds after they have been planted. It is only Allāh Who makes them sprout, grow and flourish. This demands that man be grateful to Allāh. It is for this reason that Allāh asks, "Will they not be grateful?"

"That Allāh is Pure (from all defects) Who created every couple that the earth grows, from among people, and other things about which they have no knowledge." Allāh has created every living pair among man and plant. He created everything that man has knowledge of, as well as everything about which man has no knowledge. Every creature is part of Allāh's creation.

وَأَيُّهُ لَّهُمْ أَلِيلٌ نَسْلَخُ مِنْهُ النَّهَارَ فَإِذَا هُمْ مُظْلِمُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَالشَّمْسُ تَجْرِي لِمُسْتَقَرٍّ لَهَا ذَلِكَ تَقْدِيرُ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَالْقَمَرَ قَدَرْنَاهُ مَنَازِلَ حَتَّىٰ عَادَ كَالْعُرْجُونِ الْقَدِيرِ ﴿٣٩﴾ لَا الشَّمْسُ يَنْبَغِي لَهَا أَنْ تُدْرِكَ الْقَمَرَ وَلَا أَلِيلٌ سَابِقُ النَّهَارِ وَكُلٌّ فِي فَلَكٍ يَسْبَحُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾

(37) The night is a sign for them. We draw the day out of it and they are suddenly left in darkness. (38) The sun travels towards its destination. This is the decree of the Mighty, the All Knowing. (39) We have stipulated phases for the moon, until it returns like a branch of a old date palm. (40) It is not possible for the sun to catch the moon, nor is it possible for the night to precede the day. They all swim within their orbits.

THE DAY, NIGHT, SUN AND MOON ARE ALL MANIFESTATIONS OF ALLĀH'S POWER

After discussing earthly phenomenon, Allāh proceeds to discuss heavenly bodies. Allāh begins by saying, "The night is a sign for them." By studying the alternation of night and day, people will realise that Allāh controls their precise systematic timing.

"We draw the day out of it and they are suddenly left in darkness." When Allāh extracts the light of day, the night begins to appear, which eventually envelopes everything.

"The sun travels towards its destination." While the sun and its phenomenal radiance are sufficient to denote Allāh's great power, the orbit and motion of the sun are separate signs altogether. Allāh has created it so perfectly, that it cannot shift an inch from its designated orbit in space.

"This is the decree of the Mighty, the All Knowing." Allāh has predetermined the pattern in which the sun rotates and orbits. During the summer months, the position of the sun on the horizon is different and this position changes during the winter months. This does not vary over the years.

Certain commentators have stated that "its destination" refers to the fixed annual pattern that the sun follows in its orbit. Others say that the sun travels to a certain limit in the west, after which it returns to another limit in the east. Each limit is referred to as a "destination."

Another group of commentators are of the opinion that the "destination" refers to the position of the sun as it reaches each of the twelve zodiac stars and moves to the other. Some say that this refers to the specific time when the sun completes its prescribed course. It will then cease to exist.

THE PROSTRATION OF THE SUN

The above are all opinions. The truth of the matter is contained in a hadith that Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه has reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He reports that once when the sun set, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him if he knew where the sun went to. Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه replied, "Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم know best."

Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, the sun travels until it reaches beneath Allāh's throne, where it prostrates.

It then seeks Allāh's permission to rise from the east as normal. It is then granted leave. The day will occur when it will be denied permission, after which it will rise from whence it set (the west). This is the meaning of 'The sun travels towards its destination.' Its destination is beneath Allāh's throne." [Bukhari and Muslim]

Some people have objected to this hadith by saying that modern instruments, constantly monitoring the sun's motion, have not detected this period of the sun's prostration. It must be noted that nothing can be allowed to overrule a statement of the Ahadīth. It should also be noted that the possibility exists that this period of prostration is so brief and inconspicuous that even instruments can not detect it.

This hadith also refutes that interpretation of certain people who say that the sun reaches its "destination" only once annually.

NOTE: It will be an act of disbelief to refute the fact that the sun moves, because the Qur'an establishes this fact. However, the Qur'an does not state that the earth is in motion. Whereas Surah Naml states that the earth is "stable" - this does not mean that it is stationary in space, but stationary for the people living on earth, thereby allowing them to accomplish their various tasks with ease. This is the interpretation of the verse of Surah Luqmān where Allāh says that He placed the mountains on earth so that it does not shake with its inhabitants.

THE PHASES OF THE MOON

"We have stipulated phases for the moon, until it returns like a branch of an old date palm." The waxing and waning of the moon takes place with great precision and at the beginning and end of each lunar month, it appears withered like a dry branch of a date palm.

Emphasising the clockwork precision of the sun and moon, Allāh says, "It is not possible for the sun to catch the moon, nor is it possible for the night to precede the day." This means that the day cannot erase the night until the night ends, and vice versa. Neither the day, nor the night can work in opposition to Allāh's system. Allāh has prescribed certain periods when the night and day vary, which neither has the ability to contravene.

"They all swim within their orbits." This makes it clear that the orbits of the sun and the moon are spherical.

وَأَيُّهُمُ أَنَا حَمَلْنَا ذُرِّيَّتَهُمْ فِي الْفُلِّ الْمَشْحُونِ ﴿٤١﴾ وَخَلَقْنَا لَهُمْ مِنْ مِثْلِهِ مَا يَرْكَبُونَ
 ﴿٤٢﴾ وَإِنْ نَشَأْ نُغْرِقْهُمْ فَلَا صَرِيحَ لَهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنْقَذُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَمَتَاعًا إِلَىٰ
 حِينٍ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اتَّقُوا مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيكُمْ وَمَا خَلْفَكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَمَا
 تَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ آيَةٍ مِنْ آيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ إِلَّا كَانُوا عَنْهَا مُعْرِضِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ انْفِقُوا
 مِمَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللَّهُ قَالِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَنْطَعِمُ مِنْ لَوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ أَطْعَمَهُ
 إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٤٧﴾

(41) A sign for them is that We have carried their progeny on board the crowded ark. (42) And We have made conveyances for them like the ark, which they board. (43) If We will, We could drown them and they will have no helper nor shall they be rescued... (44) ... except by Our mercy and for their enjoyment for a little while. (45) When they are told, "Fear what is before you and what is behind you so that mercy may be shown to you," (they refuse to accept). (46) They are averse to every sign of their Lord that comes to them. (47) When they are told, "Spend from what Allāh has provided for you," the disbelievers say to the believers, "Should we feed someone whom Allāh will feed if He wills?" You are but in manifest deviation.

SHIPS ARE FROM ALLĀH'S BOUNTY, AND ONLY HE CAN RESCUE WHOEVER HE WILLS FROM DROWNING

Allāh has inspired man to build ships and other marine vessels which are invaluable. Without them it would have been impossible for man to reach other continents, let alone transport goods across the oceans. Allāh says, "And We have made conveyances for them like the ark, which they board." The discussion of the various animals Allāh has created for transport are discussed in Surah Nahl, where Allāh says, "Horses, mules and donkeys are for riding and adornment. And He creates such things about which you have no knowledge." This verse also predicts the invention (by Allāh's inspiration) of modern forms of transportation like cars, trains, trucks, planes, etc.

Allāh then adds that only He can protect people when they travel. He says, "If We will, We could drown them and they will have no helper nor shall they be rescued; except by Our mercy and for their enjoyment for a little while." Allāh may rescue them if the time for their death has not yet arrived. They will then live on until their times elapses.

THE DEPRIVATION OF THOSE WHO ARE AVERSE

"When they (the disbelievers) are told, 'Fear what is before you (the dangers and calamities of life) and what is behind you (in the Hereafter) so that mercy be shown to you' (they refuse to accept and) They are averse to every sign of their Lord that comes to them."

"When they are told, 'Spend from what Allāh has provided for you,' the disbelievers (mockingly) say to the believers, 'Should we feed someone whom Allāh will feed if He wills?' You are but in manifest deviation." These people are really extremely miserly and do not wish to part with their wealth. This verse proves that even the disbelievers accepted the fact that Allāh is the Sustainers.

وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَىٰ هَٰذَا الْوَعْدُ إِن كُنتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٤٨﴾ مَا يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً تَأْخُذُهُمْ وَهُمْ يَخِصِّمُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ تَوْصِيَةً وَلَا إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَيُنْفِخُ فِي الصُّورِ فَإِذَا هُمْ مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَنْسِلُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ قَالُوا يٰوَيْلَنَا مَنْ بَعَثَنَا مِن مَّرْقَدِنَا ۚ هَٰذَا مَا وَعَدَ الرَّحْمَنُ وَصَدَقَ الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ إِن كَانَتْ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً فَإِذَا هُمْ جَمِيعٌ لَّدَيْنَا مُحْضَرُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ فَالْيَوْمَ لَا تُظْلَمُ نَفْسٌ شَيْئًا وَلَا يُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا مَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾

(48) They say, "When will this promise come to pass, if you are truthful." (49) They await only a single scream to seize them while they are arguing. (50) They will then be unable to make any bequest, nor shall they return to their families. (51) The trumpet will be blown, when they will scurry to their Lord from their graves. (52) They will say, "Alas to our destruction! Who has raised us from our graves? This is what Ar Rahmān (the Compassionate) has promised, and the messengers spoke the truth." (53) It will be only single scream, after which they will all suddenly appear before Us. (54) On this day, no soul shall be oppressed in the least, and they will receive retribution only for what they did.

REFUTING THOSE WHO REJECT RESURRECTION

"They say, 'When will this promise (the Judgment day) come to pass, if you are truthful.'" In an effort to justify their rejection of the Judgment day, the disbelievers requested a date to be specified for the Judgment day to prove the truth of its advent. Of course, this request could prove nothing.

Allāh says, "They await only a single scream to seize them while they are arguing." Their rejection of the Judgment day will not affect the advent of Judgment day itself. The Judgment day will certainly take place even though they may argue about it. The Judgment day will then seize them so suddenly that "They will then be unable to make any bequest, nor shall they return to their families."

THE STATE OF CONFUSION WHEN THE TRUMPET WILL BE SOUNDED

"The trumpet will be blown, when they will scurry to their Lord from their graves. They (the sinful and disbelievers) will say, 'Alas to our destruction! Who has raised us from our graves? This is what Ar Rahmān (the Compassionate) has promised, and the messengers spoke the truth."

Allāh then says, 'It (the second sounding of the trumpet) will be only single scream, after which they will all suddenly appear before Us." Reckoning will then commence, when every person will be punished for his/her sins and rewarded for good deeds. Allāh says, "On this day, no soul shall be oppressed in the least, and they will receive retribution only for what they did."

Allāh says in Surah Kahf, "They will find their deeds present, and your Lord shall not oppress anyone." [Surah 18, verse 50]

إِنَّ أَصْحَابَ الْجَنَّةِ الْيَوْمَ فِي شُغْلٍ فَكَّهُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾ هُمْ وَأَزْوَاجُهُمْ فِي ظِلَّلٍ عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ
مُسْكُونُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾ لَهُمْ فِيهَا فَاكِهَةٌ وَلَهُمْ مَا يَدَّعُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ سَلَامٌ قَوْلًا مِنْ رَبِّ رَحِيمٍ ﴿٥٨﴾

- (55) Verily the people of Heaven will be joyous in their occupation on this day.
 (56) They, together with their spouses will be resting on couches in the shade.
 (57) There they will have fruits and whatever they request. (58) They will have a greeting of peace from the Most Merciful Lord.

THE BOUNTIES FOR THE PEOPLE OF HEAVEN

"Verily the people of Heaven will be joyous in their occupation on this day." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that preoccupation with the bounties of the Hereafter will make a person oblivious of everything else imaginable. Some commentators have translated the Arabic word 'fākihūn' (translated above as 'joyous') as "enjoying the fruit of Heaven".

"They, together with their spouses will be resting on couches in the shade." Allāh says in Surah Wāqī'ah that the couches and thrones that the people of Heaven shall occupy will be woven with gold and will face each other.

Further describing the bounties, Allāh says, "There they will have fruits and whatever they request." The bounties of Heaven will therefore not be confined to what is mentioned in the Qur'ān and Ahadīth. A person will receive whatever else his heart desires.

A verse of Surah Zukhruf reads: "in Heaven there shall be whatever the heart desires and whatever pleases the eye." [Surah 43, verse 70]

Best of all will be that "They will have a greeting of peace from the Most Merciful Lord." Allāh will personally greet the people in Heaven.

Sayyidina Jābir رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that while the people of Heaven will be engrossed in its bounties, they will suddenly behold a bright light above. When they look upwards, they will notice that Allāh has turned His attention to them. Allāh will then Say, peace be on you, O people of Heaven." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 502]

وَامْتَرُوا الْيَوْمَ أَيُّهَا الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ أَلَمْ أَعْهَدْ إِلَيْكُمْ يَسْبِقَ آدَمَ أَنْ لَا تَعْبُدُوا الشَّيْطَانَ إِنَّهُ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ مُبِينٌ ﴿٦٠﴾ وَإِنْ أَعْبُدُونِي هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٦١﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَضَلَّ مِنْكُمْ جِثْلًا كَثِيرًا أَفَلَمْ تَكُونُوا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ هَذِهِ جَهَنَّمُ الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ أَصَلَوْهَا الْيَوْمَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْفُرُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ الْيَوْمَ نَخْتِمُ عَلَى أَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَتُكَلِّمُنَا أَيْدِيهِمْ وَتَشْهَدُ أَرْجُلُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَطَمَسْنَا عَلَى أَعْيُنِهِمْ فَاسْتَبَقُوا الصِّرَاطَ فَأَنَّى يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَمَسَخْنَاهُمْ عَلَى مَكَانَتِهِمْ فَمَا اسْتَطَاعُوا مُضِيًّا وَلَا يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَنُكِّسَهُ فِي الْخَلْقِ أَفَلَا يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾

(59) "Separate yourselves today, O you criminals!" (60) "O children of Ādam! Did I not emphasise to you that you should not worship Satan? He is certainly your open enemy." (61) "And (did I not emphasise to you) that you should worship only Me? This is the straight path." (62) "He has misled a large group from you. Did you not have any intelligence to understand?" (63) "This is Hell about which you were warned." (64) "Enter it today because you used to disbelieve." (65) On this day We shall seal their mouths. Their hands will speak to Us and their legs will testify to what they earned. (66) If We will, We shall obliterate their eyes. They will run to the path, but how will they see? (67) If We will, We will transfigure them as they stand and they will be unable to go ahead or backwards. (68) He whom We advance in age, We diminish in structure. Do they not understand?

THE PUNISHMENT OF THE CRIMINALS

After describing the condition of the people of Heaven, Allāh talks about those condemned to Hell. Allāh will tell them, "Separate yourselves today, O you criminals!" Although they may have lived with the believers in the world, and they may stand up with them after emerging from their graves, Allāh will command them to separate from the believers because their destination will be different.

Sayyidina Imām Abu Hanīfa رحمه الله عليه once spent the entire night repeating this verse in his Optional Salāh. He was concerned because this announcement will be most crucial and will determine whether people will be in Heaven or in Hell.

The disbelievers will then be addressed thus: "O children of Ādam! Did I not emphasise to you that you should not worship (obey) Satan? He is certainly your open enemy. And (did I not emphasise to you) that you should worship only Me? This is the straight path. He (Satan) has misled a large group from you. Did you not have any intelligence to understand? (As a result of following him, you should know that) This is Hell, which you were warned of. Enter it today because you used to disbelieve."

THE LIMBS OF THE SINNERS WILL TESTIFY AGAINST THEM

Further describing the torment of the disbelievers on the Judgment day, Allāh says, "On this day We shall seal their mouths. Their hands will speak to Us and their legs will testify to what (i.e. to the sins) they earned."

Allāh says in Surah Nūr, "The day when their tongues, their hands and their legs will testify against them with regard to what they did." There is no discrepancy between this verse and the one under discussion because there will be various stages on the Judgment day, each one being different from the other. Each verse describes a different stage. At times, the tongue will be sealed to allow other limbs to testify. At other times, the tongue will be allowed to admit to the sins it perpetrated.

"If We will, We shall obliterate their eyes. They will run to the path, but how will they see? If We will, We will transfigure them as they stand and they will be unable to go ahead or backwards." In these two verses, Allāh describes the fact that He can punish people in this very world as well. This punishment can assume various forms. Allāh can remove their eyes from their faces, thereby making their faces smooth without eyes. Allāh also has the power to transform them into other creatures, like He transfigured previous nations into pigs and monkeys. They will then be deprived of all their senses and will be unable to move about.

AS MAN GROWS OLD, HE BECOMES PHYSICALLY WEAK RETROGRESSES

"He whom We advance in age, We diminish in structure. Do they not understand?" As man advances in age, he gradually loses the faculties he possesses. He slowly becomes deaf, weak sighted and weak in physical strength. His skin begins to lose its tautness and hangs loosely. He eventually begins to even lose his faculty of understanding. By this gradual decline, man can understand that Allāh is capable of completely disfiguring a person or taking away his eyesight.

وَمَا عَلَّمْنَاهُ الشِّعْرَ وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لَهُ ۚ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ وَقُرْآنٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٦٩﴾ لِيُنذِرَ مَنِ كَانَ
حَيًّا وَيَحِقَّ الْقَوْلُ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٧٠﴾

(69) We did not teach him poetry, nor is it befitting of him. This is but advice and the clear Qur'ān... (70) ... to warn him who is living, and to establish proof against the disbelievers.

POETRY IS NOT BEFITTING OF THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ AND THE QUR'ĀN GIVES ADVICE

Even though the Arabs realised that the Qur'ān was not poetry, they still claimed that it was poetry to prevent others from accepting Islām. Allāh replied to their claim by saying, "We did not teach him [The Holy Prophet ﷺ] poetry, nor is it befitting of him." Poetry consists of imaginary figments of the mind and thus can present untruths. Such speech is certainly not befitting for a Prophet of Allāh ﷺ.

The Qur'ān is also not a piece of poetry because it is without any imaginary subjects. Its composition is of the highest eloquence, while the subject matter is certain truth. However, when people want to object, they will not see the truth.

Allāh says, "This is but advice and the clear Qur'ān, to warn him who is living (i.e. who has intelligence and is prepared to accept the truth), and establish proof against the disbelievers." Therefore, when the disbelievers will make excuses on the Judgment day, they will be told that Allāh's Holy Prophet ﷺ and the Qur'ān had come to them, but they refused to accept. They had therefore subjected themselves to punishment.

أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا خَلَقْنَا لَهُمْ مِمَّا عَمِلَتْ أَيْدِينَا أَنْعَمًا فَهُمْ لَهَا مَالِكُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ وَذَلَّلْنَاهَا
لَهُمْ فَمِنْهَا رَكُوبُهُمْ وَمِنْهَا يَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَلَهُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ وَمَشَارِبٌ أَفَلَا يَشْكُرُونَ
﴿٧٣﴾ وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ آلِهَةً لَّهُمْ يُنصَرُونَ ﴿٧٤﴾ لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ نَصْرَهُمْ
وَهُمْ لَهُمْ جُنْدٌ مُنْضَرُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾ فَلَا يَخْزِيكَ قَوْلُهُمْ إِنَّآ نَعْلَمُ مَا يُسْرُونَ وَمَا

(71) Do they not see that, from Our hand's work, We have created animals for them and they are its masters. (72) We placed these animals at their service; some of them are their means of transport, while they eat some. (73) From these animals, they derive many benefits and drinks. Are they not grateful? (74) They adopt various gods besides Allāh so that they may be assisted. (75) They are unable to render any assistance to them, and they will be a ready army against them. (76) Let not their speech grieve you. Indeed We are Aware of what they conceal and what they reveal.

ANIMALS ARE ALLĀH'S BOUNTY TO MAN

Allāh says, "Do they not see that, from Our hand's work, We have created animals for them and they are its masters?" Although Allāh is the True Master of everything, He has made man the interim masters of animals. Since man does not have complete mastery over these animals and other commodities, he will have to follow Allāh's commands concerning their treatment. He cannot do as he pleases.

"We placed these animals at their service; some of them are their means of transport, while they eat of some." Man appreciates Allāh's subjugation of these animals only when he loses control of them. Man then realises that if it were not for Allāh, he would not have any control of these animals. It is for this reason that the following Supplication is recited when mounting one's conveyance:

{TRANSLATION: "Pure is Allāh, Who has subjugated this for us whereas we would never have been able to control it and our return shall certainly be to our Lord."}

Allāh says further, "From these animals, they derive many benefits and drinks (milk). Are they not grateful?" Some of the many benefits of animals are:

- 📖 They are a means of transport.
- 📖 They may be consumed as food.
- 📖 Their skins may be used as clothing, bedding and rugs.
- 📖 They are helpful in ploughing fields.
- 📖 They are helpful in irrigating fields.
- 📖 They provide milk.

The verse refers to milk as "drinks" (i.e. in a plural form). The reason for this is that various types of milk are derived from various animals. From this milk, man also makes butter, cheese, yoghurt, etc.

Other commentators have mentioned that the word 'mashārib' (translated above as "drinks") may also be translated as "utensils." It was common in the past (and still in many areas of the world today), that people used the hides of animals to make utensils, water bags, etc.

THE FOOLISHNESS OF THE POLYTHEISTS

"They adopt various gods besides Allāh so that they may be assisted. They (these gods) are unable to render any assistance to them, and they will be ready army against them." On the Judgment day, these false gods will testify against those who worshipped them, becoming their opponents.

Allāh says in Surah Maryam, "Leaving Allāh, they adopt many gods so that these may be a token of honour for them. This will never be! They will soon reject their worship and become adversaries to them." [Surah 19, verses 8 1,82]

Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Let not their speech grieve you. Indeed We are aware of what they conceal and what they reveal." Accordingly, Allāh will punish them for their sins.

أَوَلَمْ يَرَ الْإِنْسَانُ أَنَّا خَلَقْنَاهُ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ فَإِذَا هُوَ خَصِيمٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٧٧﴾
 مَثَلًا وَنَسِيَ خَلْقَهُ قَالَ مَنْ يُحْيِي الْعِظَامَ وَهِيَ رَمِيمٌ ﴿٧٨﴾ قُلْ يُحْيِيهَا الَّذِي أَنشَأَهَا
 أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَهُوَ بِكُلِّ خَلْقٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٧٩﴾ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنَ الشَّجَرِ الْأَخْضَرِ
 نَارًا فَإِذَا أَنْتُمْ مِنْهُ تُوقَدُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾ أَوَلَيْسَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِقَدِيرٍ
 عَلَىٰ أَن يَخْلُقَ مِثْلَهُمْ بَلَىٰ وَهُوَ الْخَلَّاقُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٨١﴾ إِنَّمَا أَمْرُهُ إِذَا أَرَادَ شَيْئًا أَن
 يَقُولَ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ﴿٨٢﴾ فَسُبْحَنَ الَّذِي يَبْدِئُ مَلَكُوتُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَإِلَيْهِ
 تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾

(77) Has man not seen that We created him from a seed, and now he is suddenly an open adversary? (78) He coins similitude's for Us and forgets himself He says, "Who will give life to bones after they have decomposed?" (79) Say, "The One Who gave life to it the first time will revive it. He has knowledge of all things." (80) He Who created fire for you from a green tree from which you suddenly kindle fires. (81) Does the One Who created the heavens and the earth not have the power to create the likes of them? Why not? He is the Prolific Creator, the All Knowing. (82) When He wills anything, His only command is to say, "Be!" and it comes into being. (83) Pure is that Being in Whose hand lies the reins of everything, and to Whom you will all be returned.

FORGETTING HOW HE WAS CREATED, MAN REFUTES THE ADVENT OF JUDGMENT DAY

A polytheist by the name of Ās bin Wā'il once came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with a decomposing bone. He crushed the bone before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Will Allāh revive this bone after I have thrown it away?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Yes, Allāh will certainly revive it. He will then take your life, resurrect you, and throw you into Hell." It was then that Allāh revealed all the verses above. "Ruhul Ma'āni" (v.23 p.53) mentions the names of various other people regarding whom these verses may have been revealed.

Allāh says, "Has man not seen that We created him from a seed...." When man accepts the fact that Allāh has created him from a sperm cell, why should it be difficult for him to accept that Allāh can also reconstruct the decayed cells of his body to resurrect him? However, man seems to forget this and opposes the Prophets عليهم السلام when they remind him of these things. Therefore, Allāh says that man becomes "an open adversary."

Allāh continues, "He (man) coins similitude's for Us and forgets himself He says, 'Who will give life to bones after they have decomposed?'" Forgetting that Allāh created him from a lowly sperm, man has the audacity to question Allāh's ability to resurrect him for Judgment day.

Allāh says, "Say, 'The One Who gave life to it (these bones) the first time will revive it. He has knowledge of all things.'" Allāh knows exactly where a molecule of any substance will be at any given moment. It will therefore be simple for Him to reconstruct every person as he was:

"He Who created fire for you from a green tree..." Although green trees are filled with moisture, which normally does not make fire, Allāh can still create fire from them. No task is difficult for Allāh, not even the task of resurrecting the dead.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that two trees exist, called the 'Murkh' and the 'Ifār.' These trees are so succulent in nature that water drips from them. However, fire is created when the branch of one is rubbed against the branch of the other. People used these to ignite their fires in the past. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, ... a green tree from which you suddenly kindle fires."

Allāh then presents another proof to substantiate the advent of Judgment day. Allāh says, "Does the One Who created the heavens and the earth not have the power to create the likes of them? Why not? He is the Prolific Creator, the All Knowing." It is foolish to believe that a Being Who can create such large and powerful phenomenon like the heavens and the earth cannot resurrect a man!

"When He wills anything, His only command is to say, 'Be!' and it comes into being." When Allāh can create magnificent masterpieces by merely saying, "Kun! ("Be!)", how can one believe that He cannot resurrect people?

"Pure (from defects) is that Being in Whose hand lies the reins of everything (including resurrection), and to Whom you will all be returned." Rejecting the advent of Judgment day will subject one to punishment in the Hereafter, when everyone will be presented before Allāh.

سورة الصفّت

Makkan

Surah As-Saffat

Verses 182

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالصَّفَّاتِ صَفًّا ۚ (1) فَالزَّجَرِ زَجْرًا ۚ (2) فَالتَّلَايَةِ ذِكْرًا ۚ (3) إِنَّ إِلَهَكُمْ لَوَاحِدٌ ۚ (4)
 رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَرَبُّ الْمَشْرِقِ ۚ (5) إِنَّا زَيْنَا السَّمَاءَ الدُّنْيَا بِرِيَّةٍ
 الْكَوْكَبِ ۚ (6) وَحِفْظًا مِّنْ كُلِّ شَيْطَانٍ مَّارِدٍ ۚ (7) لَا يَسْمَعُونَ إِلَى الْمَلَأِ الْأَعْلَى وَيُقَذَّفُونَ
 مِنْ كُلِّ جَانِبٍ ۚ (8) دُحُورًا وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ وَاصِبٌ ۚ (9) إِلَّا مَنْ خَطِفَ الْخَطْفَةَ فَأَتْبَعَهُ
 شِهَابٌ ثَاقِبٌ ۚ (10)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the oath of those angels who stand in rows! (2) And by those angels who censure! (3) And by those angels who recite the 'reminder'! (4) Without doubt, your Deity is One. (5) He is the Lord of the heavens, the earth, whatever is between the two and He is the Lord of the points of the sun's rising. (6) Verily, We decorated the sky of this world with the adornment of the stars. (7) As a protection from every rebellious Satan. (8) They cannot eavesdrop on those (angels) of the upper heights and are pelted from every direction. (9) (They are) Repelled and shall have an eternal punishment. (10) Except for the one who snatches something and a flaming spark pursues him.

ALLĀH IS THE ONLY DEITY AND HE IS THE LORD OF EVERYTHING

Allāh takes an oath by various categories of angels to emphasise that He is the Only Deity. Allāh begins by saying, "By the oath of those angels who stand in rows!" These angels remain in this formation to worship Allāh.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم, "Will you not form rows like the angels do in front of Allāh?"

When the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم asked how the angels form their rows, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "They first complete the rows in front, and stand close together." ["Mishkāt" p. 98]

"And by those angels who censure!" The Arabic word 'zajar' (translated above as "who censure") also means to prevent and stop. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that these are the angels who prevent people from sinning, prevent Satan's evil influences, and inspire people to do good deeds.

"And by those angels who recite the 'reminder'!" These are the angels who recite Allāh's scriptures to the Prophets عليهم السلام. They convey the scriptures from Allāh to the Prophets عليهم السلام. Another interpretation is that they are those angels who are engaged in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) and glorifying Him.

These oaths were taken to emphasise the point that "Without doubt, your Deity is One." Allāh then goes on to describe His attributes. He says, "He is the Lord of the heavens, the earth, whatever is between the two and He is the Lord of the points of the sun's rising." The sun rises and sets at different points during the summer and the winter months; therefore the reference is made in the plural in this verse.

THE STARS ARE AN ADORNMENT AS WELL AS A MEANS OF PROTECTION FOR THE SKY

Allāh says, "Verily, We decorated the sky of this world with the adornment of the stars; as a protection from every rebellious Satan."

Before the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Satans (plural of Satan) used to frequently ascend to the skies, where they overheard the angels discussing future events. They used to then report these matters to fortune-tellers together with a hundred lies. When any of these events transpired as they had reported, people would begin to have faith in these fortune-tellers. However, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent as a Prophet, the Satans were barred from reaching the skies.

Therefore, Allāh says, "They cannot eavesdrop on those (angels) of the upper heights and are pelted (with the stars) from every direction. (They are) Repelled and shall have an eternal punishment." They can no longer eavesdrop as they did in the past.

"Except for the one who snatches something and a flaming spark pursues him." When some of these Satans are not deterred from attempting to eavesdrop, and manage to hear something, a flaming star is hurled at him. This star scorches him to cinders or makes him insane.

Allāh says about the stars in Surah Mulk that He has "made them a means of pelting the Satans." Surah Hijr and the above verses of Surah Sāffāt mention that every Satan who attempts to eavesdrop will be pelted by these stars.

People have objected to these verses by saying that the phenomenon of stars chasing the Satans cannot be witnessed, and can therefore not be proven. The following are some of the replies:

The occurrence could be so distant that man cannot see it.

These "sparks" could be products of the heat generated by stars and not the stars themselves.

- 📖 The occurrence cannot be seen during the day because of the light of the sun.

It should also be understood that it is not necessary that every shooting star is a pellet against a Satan. There could well be other reasons as well for their occurrence.

فَاسْتَفْتِهِمْ أَهُمْ أَشَدُّ خَلْقًا أَمْ مَنِ خَلَقْنَا إِنَّا خَلَقْنَاهُمْ مِنْ طِينٍ لَازِبٍ ﴿١١﴾ بَلْ عَجِبْتَ وَيَسْخَرُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَإِذَا ذُكِّرُوا لَا يَذْكُرُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَإِذَا رَأَوْا آيَةً يَسْتَسْخِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ وَقَالُوا إِن هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٥﴾ أَوَإِذَا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظْمًا إِنَّا لَمَبْعُوثُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ أَوْ أَبَاؤُنَا الْأَوَّلُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ قُلْ نَعَمْ وَأَنْتُمْ دَاخِرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَإِنَّمَا هِيَ زَجْرَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ فَإِذَا هُمْ يَنْظُرُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَقَالُوا يَوَيْلَنَا هَذَا يَوْمُ الدِّينِ ﴿٢٠﴾ هَذَا يَوْمُ الْفَصْلِ الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تُكَذِّبُونَ ﴿٢١﴾

(11) Ask them whether their creation was more difficult than the other things We created. Verily, We created them from sticky clay. (12) You will be surprised as they mock. (13) When they are given advice, they do not take heed. (14) When they see a miracle, they begin to ridicule. (15) They say, "This is nothing but manifest magic." (16) "Will we be resurrected after we have died and become dust and bones?" (17) "Or will this happen to our early forefathers?" (18) Say, "Yes! And you will be disgraced." (19) There will be only a single shout, after which they will all instantly stand up to look. (20) They will say, "Alas! This is the Day of Reckoning." (21) "This is the Judgement Day, which you used to deny."

A WARNING FOR THOSE WHO RIDICULE MIRACLES AND THE ADVENT OF JUDGMENT DAY

"Ask them (those who refute Judgment day) whether their creation was more difficult than the other things We created." When a person realises that Allāh is Able to create gigantic and powerful creations, he will realise that Allāh is certainly Capable of resurrecting people.

"Verily, We created them from sticky clay." Allāh created man from something that had no form nor any structure. Such things should prompt man to contemplate Allāh's greatness.

"You will be surprised as they mock (because they refute Allāh's great powers). When they are given advice, they do not take heed." In fact, they are so obstinate that even "When they see a miracle, they begin to ridicule. They say, 'This is nothing but manifest magic.'"

When they have reached such a stage of insolence, there can be no hope for their guidance.

Allāh quotes them as saying, "Will we be resurrected after we have died and become dust and bones? Or will this happen to our early forefathers?" They deem it impossible that they will ever be resurrected.

Allāh replies, "Say, 'Yes! (Despite your sarcasm, you will be resurrected). And you will be disgraced (when the error of your ways will be exposed)."

Resurrection and Judgment day will not be difficult at all but it will come to pass with "only a single shout, after which they will all instantly stand up to look." People will rise from their graves when the trumpet will be blown for the first time. Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "Thereafter, it will be blown a second time, when they will all suddenly be standing, watching." [Surah 39, verse 68]

When the disbelievers will rise from their graves, "They will say, 'Alas! This is the Day of Reckoning.'" Allāh will then tell them, "This is the Judgement Day, which you used to deny." They will then be subjected to punishment for their sins.

﴿أَحْشَرُوا الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا وَأَزْوَاجَهُمْ وَمَا كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ﴾ (22) مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ فَاهْدُوهُمْ إِلَى صِرَاطِ
الْحَنِيمِ ﴿23﴾ وَقَفُوهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ مَسْئُولُونَ ﴿24﴾ مَا لَكُمْ لَا تَنَاصَرُونَ ﴿25﴾ بَلْ هُمْ الْيَوْمَ
مُسْتَسْلِمُونَ ﴿26﴾ وَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ﴿27﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّا كُنْتُمْ تُأْتُونَنَا عَنِ
الْيَمِينِ ﴿28﴾ قَالُوا بَلْ لَمْ تَكُونُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿29﴾ وَمَا كَان لَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ بَلْ كُنْتُمْ
قَوْمًا طَٰغِينَ ﴿30﴾ فَحَقَّ عَلَيْنَا قَوْلُ رَبِّنَا إِنَّا لَذَٰئِقُونَ ﴿31﴾ فَأَعْوَبْتَكُمْ إِنَّا كُنَّا غَٰوِينَ ﴿32﴾
فَإِنَّهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ فِي الْعَذَابِ مُشْتَرِكُونَ ﴿33﴾ إِنَّا كَذَٰلِكَ نَفْعَلُ بِالْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿34﴾ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا
إِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ ﴿35﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ إِنَّا لَنَارِكُوا إِلَهَئِنَّا لِسَٰعِي
مُجْنُونٌ ﴿36﴾

- (22) "Assemble the oppressors, their companions and whatever they worshipped..." (23) ".... apart from Allāh, and lead them to the road of the Blaze." (24) "Halt them, for they will have to be questioned..." (25) "What is the matter with you that you do not help each other?" (26) On that day they will have surrendered. (27) They will turn to each other asking questions. (28) They (the followers) will say, "You people used to come to us with great might." (29) The leaders will reply, "But you people were never believers. (30) "We never had any authority over you, but you were a rebellious nation." (31) "The decree of our Lord has therefore been established against us. Undoubtedly, we shall all taste." (32) "We led you astray while we were ourselves astray." (33) Undoubtedly, they will all share in the punishment today. (34) Thus do We treat the criminals. (35) They were the ones who were proud when they were told, "There is none worthy of worship besides Allāh." (36) They used to say, "Should we leave our gods for an insane poet?"

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL BLAME EACH OTHER ON JUDGMENT DAY

Surah Sāffāt now discusses the condition of people on the Judgment day, after which Heaven and Hell are mentioned.

After the trumpet is sounded the second time, Allāh will command the angels saying, "Assemble the oppressors (the disbelievers), their companions (i.e. their followers) and whatever they worshipped apart from Allāh, and lead them to the road of the Blaze. Halt them, for they will have to be questioned..."

When they are halted, they will be asked, "What is the matter with you that you do not help each other?" In this world, they were allies to each other and they even promised to bear the burden of their fellow disbelievers on the Judgment day. Allāh quotes them in Surah Ankabūt as saying, "Follow our way and we will bear the burden of your sins." [Surah 29, verse 12]

However, no one will be able to assist another on the Day of Judgment and each one will hang his head down in disgrace. Allāh depicts this scene saying, "On that day they will have surrendered (knowing that they will be punished)."

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that people will be clinging onto those who called them towards something, even if the one being called was a single individual. They will never let go. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the verse, "Halt them, for they will have to be questioned. What is the matter with you that you do not help each other?"

"They will turn to each other asking questions. They (the followers) will say, 'You people used to come to us with great might (i.e. exercising your influence and authority over us, you induced us to perpetrate disbelief, but cannot assist us today).' The leaders will reply, 'But you people were never believers.' They will tell their followers that they (the leaders) merely told them to disbelieve, but it was them (the followers) who actually carried out the action of disbelieving.

The leaders will also tell their subordinates, "We never had any authority over you..." i.e. We never forced you to disbelieve, but merely spoke to you. The fact of the matter is that "you were a rebellious nation." You refused to accept the truth, so you disbelieved of your own will.

THE SINNERS ADMIT THAT THEY DESERVE TO BE PUNISHED

The disbelievers will then declare, "The decree of our Lord has therefore been established against us. Undoubtedly, we shall all taste." i.e. Allāh has decreed that all disbelievers and polytheists must enter Hell. We must therefore suffer the consequences of our deeds.

"We led you astray while we were ourselves astray." Both groups were disbelievers and must therefore enter Hell.

Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, they will all (leaders and followers) share in the punishment today."

"Thus do We treat the criminals. They were the ones who were proud when they were told, 'There is none worthy of worship besides Allāh.'" They were too proud to submit to the call of monotheism and worship Allāh.

"They used to say, 'Should we leave our gods for an insane poet?'" They rejected oneness of Allāh as well as the Prophet hood of the Holy Prophet of their time. For this reason, they will be punished as all disbelievers are in the Hereafter.

بَلْ جَاءَ بِالْحَقِّ وَصَدَّقَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾ إِنَّكُمْ لَذَائِقُوا الْعَذَابِ الْأَلِيمِ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَمَا تُحْزَنُونَ إِلَّا
مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ رِزْقٌ مَّعْلُومٌ ﴿٤١﴾
فَوَكَهَهُمْ مِّمَّنْ مَّا كَانُوا فِي جَنَّتِ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٤٢﴾ عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُّتَقَابِلِينَ ﴿٤٣﴾ يُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ
بِكَأْسٍ مِّنْ مَّعِينٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ بَيْضَاءَ لَذَّةٍ لِلشَّارِبِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ لَا فِيهَا غَوْلٌ وَلَا هُمْ عَنْهَا يُنْفَوْنَ ﴿٤٧﴾
وَعِنْدَهُمْ قَاصِرَاتُ الطَّرْفِ عِينٌ ﴿٤٨﴾ كَأَنَّهُنَّ بَيْضٌ مَّكْنُونٌ ﴿٤٩﴾

(37) He brought the truth and the messengers also confirmed him. (38) You will all definitely taste a grievous punishment. (39) You will be given retribution only for the deeds that you carried out. (40) Of course, the situation of Allāh's chosen bondsmen will be different. (41) For these people there will be a familiar provision... (42) ...of fruit. And they will be honourably treated... (43) ... In gardens of eternity... (44) ... Sitting on thrones, facing each other. (45) They will be presented with goblets filled with flowing wine. (46) (It will be) white and delicious for the drinkers. (47) It will neither produce headaches, nor will they be intoxicated by it. (48) With them, there shall be wide-eyed damsels, whose gazes are ever lowered. (49) As if they are well preserved eggs.

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL SUFFER IN HELL, WHILE THE BELIEVERS WILL ENJOY THE PLEASURES OF HEAVEN

Refuting the allegation of the disbelievers that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is (Allāh forbid!) "an insane poet," Allāh says, "He brought the truth and the (previous) messengers also confirmed him." All the Prophets عليهم السلام before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preached monotheism and they even foretold the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

However, the disbelievers still refused to believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and what he preached. Allāh warns them saying, "You will all definitely taste a grievous punishment (because of this arrogant attitude.) You will be given retribution only for the deeds that you carried out."

"Of course, the situation of Allāh's chosen bondsmen will be different." They will be granted salvation in the Hereafter on account of their Belief. Allāh says further, "For these people there will be a familiar provision of fruit." Allāh says in Surah Tūr, "We shall grant them additional fruit and meat as they desire." [Surah 52, verse 22]

"And they will be honourably treated in gardens of eternity (where they will be) Sitting on thrones, facing each other. They will be presented with goblets filled with flowing wine." Just as Heaven will have rivers of milk, water and honey, it will also have rivers of pure wine, which will be served to them by attendants. Describing this wine, Allāh says, "(It will be) white and delicious for the drinkers. It will neither produce headaches, nor will they be intoxicated by it." Therefore, none can question the purity of this wine.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that the wine of Heaven will not have the odour present in the wines of this world, and it will not be detestable like worldly wine. The wine of Heaven will be extremely tasty and will not adversely affect the body either.

"With them, there shall be wide-eyed damsels, whose gazes are ever lowered." These women will be so pure, beautiful and attractive, that it will seem "As if they are well preserved eggs." This denotes that they will be protected against all evils and will be pure. The Arabs commonly described beautiful women as eggs.

Allāh says in Surah Rahmān that these damsels will be like rubies and pearls. Some commentators say that since extremely white women (resembling the colour of eggs) are disliked by many, the women of Heaven will vary according to the taste of people. Some will have the reddish shade of rubies, while others will have different complexions.

The verse also says that these women will cast their gazes downwards, which denotes that they will be modest and will have eyes only for their husbands. [Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه]

فَاقْبَلْ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ قَالَ قَائِلٌ مِنْهُمْ إِنِّي كَانَ لِي قَرِينٌ ﴿٥١﴾ يَقُولُ
 أَإِنَّكَ لَمِنَ الْمُصَدِّقِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾ إِذَا مِنَّا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظْمًا أَءِنَّا لَمَدِينُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ قَالَ هَلْ أَنْتَ
 مُطْلِعُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ فَاطْلَعَ فَرَّاهُ فِي سَوَاءِ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٥٥﴾ قَالَ تَاللَّهِ إِن كِدْتَ لَتُرْدِينَ ﴿٥٦﴾
 وَلَوْلَا نِعْمَةُ رَبِّي لَكُنْتُ مِنَ الْمُحْضَرِينَ ﴿٥٧﴾ أَفَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَسِيَّتِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾ إِلَّا مَوْتَنَا الْأَوَّلَى
 وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُعَذَّبِينَ ﴿٥٩﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا لَهُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٦٠﴾ لِمِثْلِ هَذَا فَلْيَعْمَلِ الْعَامِلُونَ ﴿٦١﴾

(50) They will face each other to pose questions to one other. (51) One of them will say, "I had a certain companion..." (52) "...who used to say, 'Are you from those who confirm?'" (53) "Will we really be given the retribution for our deeds when we die and become sand and bones?" (54) He will ask, "Do you want to have a look?" (55) When he looks, he will see him in the midst of Hell. (56) He will say, "By Allāh! You almost destroyed me." (57) "If it were not for the bounty of my Lord, I would have certainly been from those brought forward." (58) 'Is not so that we shall not die again...' (59) "...except for our first death, and we will not be punished?" (60) Undoubtedly, this is the greatest success. (61) Those who wish to act should act in a like manner.

A MATTER BETWEEN A PERSON OF HEAVEN AND A PERSON OF HELL

The people of Heaven will be enjoying the pleasures and food of Heaven as they sit together talking. As they discuss, one of them will tell the others, 'I had a certain companion (who denied the advent of Judgment day). He used to say, 'Are you from those who confirm (the advent of Judgment day)? Will we really be given the retribution for our deeds when we die and become sand and bones?'" In this manner, the disbeliever used to deny Judgment day and ridicule the believer, whose efforts to convince him fell on deaf ears.

The person of Heaven will then say to his other companions of Heaven, "Do you want to have a look at him?" When he will take a look in Hell, he will see his worldly disbeliever companion "in the midst of Hell."

The believer will address the disbeliever, telling him "By Allāh! You almost destroyed me." i.e. You attempted to dissuade me from Islām and make me a disbeliever like you. "If it were not for the bounty of my Lord, I would have certainly been from those brought forward (to suffer punishment with you)."

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that it is possible that Allāh will grant the people of Heaven extremely good eyesight enabling them to see into Hell. From Heaven, they will also be able to converse with the inmates of Hell. It is also possible that the people of Heaven will be allowed to speak to the people of Hell from the barrier between the two, called A'raf. Of course, these interpretations need not be given to convince a person living in today's times, who can see and converse with people on the opposite end of the globe.

Turning again to his companions in Heaven, the person will say, "Is it not so that we shall not die again, except for our first death, and we will not be punished?"

Allāh then says, "Undoubtedly, this is the greatest success. Those who wish to act should act in a like manner." There cannot be any aspiration greater than attaining admittance to Heaven and being saved from Hell.

أَذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ نُزُلًا أَمْ شَجَرَةُ الزَّقُّومِ ﴿٦٢﴾ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاهَا فِتْنَةً لِلظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٦٣﴾ إِنَّهَا شَجَرَةٌ تَخْرُجُ فِي أَصْلِ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٦٤﴾ طَلْعُهَا كَأَنَّهُ رِئَوسُ الشَّيَاطِينِ ﴿٦٥﴾ فَإِنَّهُمْ لَا يَكُونُونَ مِنْهَا فَمَا لَوْ مِنْهَا الْبُطُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّ لَهُمْ عَلَيْهَا لَشَوْبًا مِّنْ حَمِيمٍ ﴿٦٧﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّ مَرْجِعَهُمْ لَإِلَى الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٦٨﴾ إِنَّهُمْ أَلْفَوْا آبَاءَهُمْ ضَالِّينَ ﴿٦٩﴾ فَهُمْ عَلَىٰ آثَارِهِمْ مُّهْرَعُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ وَلَقَدْ صَلَّىٰ قَبْلَهُمْ أَكْثَرَ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا فِيهِمْ مُّنْذِرِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ فَانظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿٧٤﴾ made it a test for the oppressors. (64) It is a tree that emerges from the depths of Hell. (65) Its fruit resembles the heads of snakes. (66) People will certainly eat from it and fill their bellies with it. (67) Thereafter they will be given a mixture of boiling water with it. (68) Thereafter their return will definitely be towards the boiling water. (69) They found their forefathers astray. (70) Then they rushed in their footsteps. (71) Most of the earlier people before them were astray. (72) We certainly sent warners among them. (73) So see the plight of those who were warned. (74) Of course, the situation of Allāh's chosen bondsmen will be different.

THE TREE OF ZAQQŪM WHICH THE PEOPLE OF HELL WILL EAT

After mentioning the bounties of Heaven, Allāh now starts to talk about the opposite side. Referring to the verse, "For these people there will be a familiar provision of fruit" and the associated bounties, Allāh asks "Is this better hospitality, or the tree of Zaqqūm ?"

The tree of Zaqqūm is extremely bitter, pungent and hideous. Allāh says, "It is a tree that emerges from the depths of Hell. Its fruit resembles the heads of snakes."

Even though it will be so horrible, "People will certainly eat from it and fill their bellies with it. Thereafter they will be given a mixture of boiling water with it."

Allāh says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "Then, O you deviated falsifiers. You shall surely eat from the Zaqqūm tree and you shall fill your bellies with it. You shall drink boiling water upon it and you shall drink like thirsty camels. This is the hospitality they will receive on the Day of Reckoning." [Surah 56, verses 5 1-56]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "If even a drop from the Zaqqūm tree were to be dropped onto the earth, it would contaminate the food of all mankind. Imagine the condition of the person whose diet it will be?" [Targhib wat Tarhib v.4 p.480]

"Thereafter (after eating the Zaqqūm and drinking boiling water) their return will definitely be towards the Blaze." They will have no escape from misery.

Allāh says that Zaqqūm is a test for people because many people ridicule the reality of this tree. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that some disbelievers mocked it saying, "How can a tree exist in fire?" Allāh can create anything in any situation and maintain it there.

When Abu Jahl heard about Zaqqūm, he said, "According to us, Zaqqūm means dates and butter. Even there we will enjoy them." He fabricated this definition because Zaqqūm never meant dates and butter in the Arabic language.

THE PEOPLE OF HELL FOLLOWED THEIR FOREFATHERS

"They found their forefathers astray. Then they rushed in their footsteps." Without verifying the reality of matters, these people rushed to follow their forefathers into Hell.

"Most of the earlier people before them were astray. (because of which) We certainly sent warners [Prophets عليهم السلام] among them." These Prophets عليهم السلام warned the people that disbelief will lead them to Hell. However, most of them refused to listen. They were therefore destroyed in this world and in the Hereafter. Referring to their destruction, Allāh says, "So see the plight of those who were warned."

"Of course, the situation of Allāh's chosen bondsmen will be different."

وَلَقَدْ نَادَيْنَا نُوحًا فَلِئَعْمَ الْمُجِيبُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾ وَنَجَّيْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ مِنَ الْكَرْبِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٧٦﴾
وَجَعَلْنَا ذُرِّيَّتَهُ هُمُ الْبَاقِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾ وَتَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ فِي الْآخِرِينَ ﴿٧٨﴾ سَلَامٌ عَلَى نُوحٍ فِي الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧٩﴾
إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ إِنَّهُمْ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ﴿٨٢﴾

(75) Indeed Nūh called to Us. How excellently do We respond to the plea for help? (76) We rescued him and his family from great distress. (77) We made his progeny the only survivors. (78) And, in his favour, We left for those to come after... (79) Peace be to Nūh in the universe. (80) Thus do We reward those who do good. (81) He was certainly from Our believing slaves. (82) Thereafter, We drowned the rest.

THE SUPPLICATION OF SAYYIDINA NŪH عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام AND THE DESTRUCTION OF HIS NATION

Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام preached to his people for 950 years. He pleaded with them to forsake idolatry and to accept Allāh as their Only Deity. Despite his tireless efforts, only a few people followed him. Despondent, he finally prayed to Allāh saying, "Do not leave a single household of the disbelievers on earth." [Surah Nūh (71), verse 26]

Allāh commanded him to build an ark, after which he took on board all the believers and a pair of each animal species. Allāh then sent torrents of water from the sky and from the earth, flooding the entire surface of the earth. While those on the ark were rescued, all the disbelievers perished, including Sayyidina Nūh's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام son.

Referring to this epic, Allāh says, "Indeed Nūh called to Us. How excellently do We respond to the plea for help? We rescued him and his family from great distress (i.e. the floods). We made his progeny the only survivors. And, in his favour, We left (a fond remembrance) for those to come after (who will pray): Peace be to Nūh in the universe',"

Allāh conferred the following favours on Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام:

1. His family was rescued from the floods.
2. His progeny remains on earth until this day.
3. After his demise, people still think fondly of him. All the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام after him, as well as their followers pray that peace is granted to him, meaning that he should be peaceful wherever he is.

"Thus do We reward those who do good." This verse refers to those people who carry out acts of virtue solely for Allāh's pleasure i.e. the sincere people.

"He was certainly from Our believing slaves." No good deed is accepted by Allāh without Belief. The two verses emphasise the importance of Belief and good deeds, which were also necessary for a Prophet to gain proximity to Allāh.

After Allāh rescued Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام and his family, Allāh "drowned the rest."

DID THE FLOODS OF SAYYIDINA NŪH عليه السلام COVER THE ENTIRE EARTH?

It is common knowledge that the people who lived after Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام were all from his progeny, because of which he is referred to as the second Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام. This is also indicated by the verse, "We made his progeny the only survivors."

Sayyidina Samura رضى الله عنه reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained the verse "We made his progeny the only survivors," he mentioned that Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام had three sons, viz. Hām Sām and Yāfith. He also narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that Sām was the forefather of the Arabs, Hām was the forefather of the Africans, while Yāfith was the forefather of the Romans. [Tirmidhi]

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports from Sayyidina Sa'īd bin Musayyib رحمه الله عليه that Sām was the forefather of the Arabs, the Persians and Romans, Hām was the forebear of the Africans, while the progeny of Yāfith were the Turks, the Ya'jūj, Ma'jūj and the nations around them.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that all the believers who boarded the ark passed away after a while without leaving any successors. The only survivors therefore, were Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, his three sons and their wives. However, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" does not quote a reference for this narration.

On the other hand, many commentators are of the opinion that the flood did not spread beyond the boundaries of the region to which Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام was sent as a Prophet. They say that the flood destroyed only the disbelievers who lived in Sayyidina Nūh's عليه السلام region. They say that he could not have been sent as a Prophet to the entire human race because this privilege is reserved for Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Therefore, the progenies of the people living in other regions could well have prospered into the people we see today.

They add that the verse "We made his progeny the only survivors" means that Sayyidina Nūh's عليه السلام progeny were the only survivors from those who boarded the ark. Of these people, only his progeny lived on. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v.23 p.98]

وَاتَّخَذَ مِنْ شِيعَتِهِ لِبَرَاهِيمَ ﴿٨٣﴾ إِذْ جَاءَ رَبُّهُ بِقَلْبٍ سَلِيمٍ ﴿٨٤﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَيِّهِ

وَقَوْمِهِ مَاذَا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾ أَيْفَكَاءَ إِلَهِةٍ دُونَ اللَّهِ تُرِيدُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾ فَمَا ظَنُّكُمْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٨٥﴾ فَظَرَّ نَظْرَةً فِي النُّجُومِ ﴿٨٦﴾ فَقَالَ إِنِّي سَقِيمٌ ﴿٨٧﴾ فَتَوَلَّوْا عَنْهُ مُدْبِرِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾ فَرَاغَ إِلَىٰ آلِهِمُ فَقَالَ أَلَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٩١﴾ مَا لَكُمْ لَا تَنطِقُونَ ﴿٩٢﴾ فَرَاغَ عَلَيْهِمْ صَرْبًا بِالْيَمِينِ ﴿٩٣﴾ فَأَقْبَلُوا إِلَيْهِ يَزِفُونَ ﴿٩٤﴾ قَالَ أَتَعْبُدُونَ مَا تَنْحِتُونَ ﴿٩٥﴾ وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَكُمْ وَمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ قَالُوا ابْنُوا لَهُ بُنْيَانًا فَأَلْقُوهُ فِي الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٩٧﴾ فَأَرَادُوا بِهِ كَيْدًا فَجَعَلْنَاهُمُ الْأَسْفَلِينَ ﴿٩٨﴾

(83) Verily, from his followers was Ibrahīm. (84) (Recall the time) when he came to his Lord with a sound heart. (85) And when he said to his people and his father, "What do you worship?" (86) "Do you desire concocted deities instead of Allāh?" (87) "What is your opinion about the Lord of the universe?" (88) He glanced once at the stars. (89) Then he said, "I feel ill." (90) So they turned their backs on him and left. (91) He hurried to their gods and said, "Do you not eat?" (92) "What ails you that you do not speak?" (93) He then turned to them, striking them with force. (94) The people came to him in haste. (95) He said, "Do you worship what you carve?" (96) "Whereas Allāh has created you and what you do?" (97) They said, "Construct a building for him and cast him into a blazing fire." (98) They devised a plot against him, but We made them the ones to look down.

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام PREACHES ONENESS OF ALLAH TO HIS PEOPLE, BREAKS THE IDOLS AND IS CAST INTO A FIRE

"Verily, from his [Sayyidina Nūh's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام] followers was Ibrahīm." Some commentators have mentioned that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام is said to be a follower of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام because the Shari'ahs of the two Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام were very much the same. Other commentators say that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام followed Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام in the effort that he exerted for the propagation of his religion.

"(Recall the time) when he came to his Lord with a sound heart." The Arabic word 'salīm' (translated above as "sound") refers to a heart that is ever aware of Allāh's presence and which is imbued with correct beliefs. It has sincere motives and is free from evil traits like pride, jealousy, etc.

Allāh then quotes a discussion that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام had with his people and his father. Allāh says that the incident is also worth remembering "When he said to his people and his father, 'What do you worship?'" They replied, "We worship idols and we are devoted to them." Thereupon Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said, "Do you desire concocted deities instead of Allāh? What is your opinion about the Lord of the universe?" i.e. Do you not worship Allāh at all, or do you worship Allāh together with your idols? "Ruhul Ma'āni" has interpreted the statement to mean: "Do you people think that Allāh will not punish you for this polytheism?"

Like many other polytheist nations, the people of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام also held a fair. On one occasion, they presented food to their idols and left for the fair. When they asked Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام to accompany them, "He glanced once at the stars. Then he said, 'I feel ill.'" The people believed in the strange effects that stars had on people, so they did not question his motive to remain behind. Consequently, "they turned their backs on him and left."

When they left, he put his plan into action and "hurried to their gods and (seeing all the food still intact before them) said, 'Do you not eat?'" When they did not reply, he said, "What ails you that you do not speak?"

"He then turned to them, striking them with force." Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام smashed the idols to pieces. The Arabic word "bil yamīn" (translated above as "with force") may also be translated as "with the right hand," meaning that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام held the axe in his right hand.

The rest of the incident has been mentioned in Surah Anbiya in the following words:

"So he reduced them (the idols) to fragments, except for the largest of them so that they may have recourse towards him. They exclaimed, 'Who has done this to our gods? He is certainly from the oppressors!' They said, 'We have heard a youth make mention of them. He is called Ibrahīm.' They said, 'Bring him before the people so that they be witnesses.' They asked, 'Is it you that did this to our gods, O Ibrahīm?' He replied, 'But this large one has done it. Ask them if they can talk.' They all searched their souls and said, 'You are oppressors indeed.' They then lowered their heads saying, 'You know very well that these cannot speak.' He said, 'Do you then worship besides Allāh such things that can neither profit you, nor harm you? Shame on you and on those that you worship besides Allāh! Do you not understand?'" [Surah Anbiya (21), verses 58 to 67]

Surah Sāffāt relates the story briefly, when it says, "The people came to him in haste. He said, 'Do you worship what you carve? Whereas Allāh has created you and what you do?'"

Unable to reply to Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, the people said, "Construct a building for him and cast him into a blazing fire." Consequently, they erected four walls and stoked a raging fire, which could not even be approached. They finally cast him in it using a catapult. However, Allāh says, "They devised a plot against him, but We made them the ones to look down." As they cast him in the fire, Allāh commanded the fire saying, "O fire! Be cool and peaceful for Ibrahīm." He managed to live peacefully in the fire without the slightest injury.

The details of this incident have been given in Surah Anbiya [Surah 21, verses 51-70], where the necessary notes were added with regard to the statement, "I feel ill."

As mentioned earlier, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام merely looked to the stars because the people believed that the stars have an effect on people, because of which they would not question Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام further. The author of "Bayān al-Qur'ān" writes that the knowledge of astrology is despised by the Shari'ah. The stars cannot affect the conditions of people on earth, and cannot foretell good and bad fortune. Acquiring this knowledge will weaken a person's reliance in Allāh and also leads to shirk (polytheism). It is also a waste of valuable time, which could be utilised more profitably.

وَقَالَ إِنِّي ذَاهِبٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي سَبِّحِينَ ﴿٩٩﴾ رَبِّ هَبْ لِي مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ فَبَشَّرْنَاهُ بِغُلَامٍ حَلِيمٍ ﴿١٠١﴾ فَلَمَّا بَلَغَ مَعَهُ السَّعَىٰ قَالَ يَبْنَؤُنِي فِي الْمَسَامِرِ أَنِّي أَبْجُكُ فَانْظُرْ مَاذَا تَرَىٰ قَالَ يَتَابَتِ أَفْعَالُ مَا تُؤْمَرُ سَتَجِدُنِي إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ مِنَ الصَّادِرِينَ ﴿١٠٢﴾ فَلَمَّا أَسْلَمَا وَتَلَّهُ لِلْجَبِينِ ﴿١٠٣﴾ وَنَدَيْنَاهُ أَنِ يَتَابَرِهِيْمُ ﴿١٠٤﴾ قَدْ صَدَّقْتَ الرُّؤْيَا إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٠٥﴾ إِنَّكَ هَذَا لَهُوَ الْبَلَتُوا لَمِينٍ ﴿١٠٦﴾ وَفَدَيْنَاهُ بِذَبْحٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿١٠٧﴾ وَتَرْكُنَا عَلَيْهِ فِي الْآخِرِينَ ﴿١٠٨﴾ سَلَامٌ عَلَىٰ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ﴿١٠٩﴾ كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١١٠﴾ إِنَّهُمْ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١١١﴾ وَبَشَّرْنَاهُ بِإِسْحَاقَ نَبِيًّا مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١١٢﴾ وَتَرْكُنَا عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَىٰ إِسْحَاقَ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا مُحْسِنٌ وَظَالِمٌ لِّنَفْسِهِ مُبِينٌ ﴿١١٣﴾

(99) Ibrahīm عليه السلام said, "I am going to my Lord, Who will soon guide me." (100) "O my Lord! Grant me a son from among the pious." (101) So We conveyed to him the good news of a tolerant son. (102) When the child reached the age where he could run about, Ibrahīm عليه السلام said to him, "O my beloved son! Verily, I have seen in a dream that I am slaughtering you. So consider your opinion." He replied, "O my beloved father. Do as you have been commanded. If Allāh wills, you will soon find me to be among the patient ones." (103) So when the two submitted and Ibrahīm turned his son on his side... 104.... We called to him saying, "O Ibrahīm!" (105) "You have certainly brought the dream to a realisation. Thus do We reward those who do good." (106) This is definitely a decisive test. (107) And We compensated him with a grand sacrifice. (108) And, in his favour, We left for those to come after... (109) 'Peace be on Ibrahīm in the universe. (110) Thus do We reward those who do good. (111) He was certainly from Our believing slaves. (112) We gave him the good news of Is'hāq, a Prophet from the pious. (113) We blessed him and Is'hāq. From the progeny of the two, there was the one who did good, as well as the open oppressor of his soul.

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام MIGRATES, AND OBEYS ALLĀH'S COMMAND TO SLAUGHTER HIS SON

When the people of his homeland near Babylon refused to accept his message of Oneness of Allāh, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام announced his migration saying, 'I am going to my Lord, Who will soon guide me.' He then left with Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام for Palestine, where they settled.

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام also took his wife Sayyidah Sarah عليها السلام with him. Later he married her gifted slave woman Sayyidah Hājir عليها السلام the time came when Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام made the following supplication to Allāh. He said, "O my Lord! Grant me a son from among the pious."

Allāh accepted his Supplication. Allāh says, "So We conveyed to him the good news of a tolerant son." Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه says that all the commentators are unanimous that the son referred to in this verse is Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام, born to Sayyidah Hājir عليها السلام. Allāh commanded Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام to leave Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام and his mother in Makkah, which was then a bare desert, with no inhabitants. It was then that the well of Zamzam originated, after which the Jurhum tribe arrived there from Yemen (this incident has been discussed in the commentary of verse 158 of Surah Baqarah).

Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام often visited his wife and child in Makkah. It once occurred that Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام saw himself in a dream slaughtering his son Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام. The dreams of the Holy Prophet عليه السلام are always true and denote a command from Allāh. He therefore addressed his son saying, "O my beloved son! Verily, I have seen in a dream that I am slaughtering you. So consider your opinion." Without hesitating, Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام said, "O my beloved father! Do as you have been commanded. If Allāh wills, you will soon find me to be among the patient ones."

Subsequently, father and son proceeded to a place called Mina (which is about three miles from Makkah). When they reached Mina, Satan attempted to mislead Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام. When Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام noticed this, he exclaimed "Allāhu Akbar!" and pelted Satan using seven pebbles. This caused Satan to sink into the ground, and the father and son proceeded further. When the ground released Satan, he again attempted the same ploy. For the second time, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام pelted him, causing him to sink into the ground. When he again emerged from the ground, Satan made a third attempt, but Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام dismissed him with another seven pebbles, while exclaiming, "Allāhu Akbar!"

Eventually, they reached the place of sacrifice. Allāh says, "So when the two submitted and Ibrāhīm turned his son on his side, We called to him saying, 'O Ibrāhīm! You have certainly brought the dream to a realisation. Thus do We reward those who do good.'"

Allāh further stated, "This is definitely a decisive test. And We compensated him with a grand sacrifice." When Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام tried to slaughter his son, the knife would not cut. It is commonly believed that Allāh covered Sayyidina Isma'il's عليه السلام throat with copper, so that the knife could not cut it.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه reports that Allāh replaced Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام with a ram from Heaven. Another narration states that Jibr'il عليه السلام brought the ram, which Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام slaughtered instead.

"And, in his favour, We left (a fond remembrance) for those to come after (who will pray): 'Peace be on Ibrāhīm in the universe'. Thus do We reward those who do good." Therefore, every nation after Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام held him in high esteem. The Ummah of Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم recite, "Alayhis Salām" ("Peace be on him") every time when Sayyidina Ibrāhīm's عليه السلام name is taken.

this are found in the books of Islāmic jurisprudence.

No person will be allowed to give the equivalent of an animal in charity because the object of the sacrifice is to give blood, as Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام did.

Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه reports that the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the sacrifice. He said that it was the practice of their father, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام. When they asked about the reward, he said that they will receive a reward for every hair on the animal's body. They then asked about woollen animals, to which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that they will receive a reward for every fibre of wool on the animal. [Ahmad and Ibn Majah]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that no action of a person is more beloved to Allāh on the day of Nahr (10th of Dhul Hijjah) than the spilling of the sacrificial animal's blood. He also added, "The animal will appear on the Day of Judgment with its horns, hide and hooves (to be weighed for reward)." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said that the sacrifice is accepted even before the first drop of blood reaches the ground. He therefore urged Muslims to offer the sacrifice with pleasure. [Targhib wat Tarhib v.2 p.104]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها to stand by as her animal was being sacrificed because her sins would be forgiven because of the sacrifice. When she asked whether this virtue was reserved for his family, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "For us and for all the Muslims." [Ibid]

THE NEWS OF THE BIRTH OF SAYYIDINA IS'HĀQ عليه السلام

Allāh says further, "We gave him [Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام] the good news of Is'hāq, a Prophet from the pious. We blessed him and Is'hāq."

Sayyidina Isma'īl عليه السلام was one of the renowned sons of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, with whom Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام built the Ka'ba, and who was the forefather of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The other famous son was Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام, whose son was Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام. Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام was also called Isra'īl. He had twelve sons, from whom the twelve tribes of the Bani Isra'īl originated. His progeny reproduced into large numbers and thousands of Prophets عليهم السلام were born of them.

"From the progeny of the two, there was the one who did good, as well as the open oppressor of his soul." This verse proves that being in the lineage of a Prophet does not necessarily mean that a person is a chosen servant of Allāh. Such a person can also be a disbeliever.

WHICH SON OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام WAS CALLED "DHABĪH" ("THE ONE WHO WAS SACRIFICED")

The Ahlul Kitāb (people of the book) claim that Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام was the 'Dhabih' (the one who was sacrificed), and this view is supported by a few Muslims as well. However, the vast majority and the authoritative Scholars say that the 'Dhabih' was Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام.

The proof for this is that Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام is referred to in the verse, "So We conveyed to him the good news of a tolerant son." This verse is immediately followed by the verse, "When the child reached the age where he could run about, Ibrahim عليه السلام said to him, 'O my beloved son! Verily, I have seen in a dream that I am slaughtering you...' This denotes that the same son is being referred to in the second verse as well, viz. Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام.

It is only thereafter, that Allāh says, "We gave him [Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام] the good news of Is'hāq, a Prophet from the pious. We blessed him and Is'hāq."

Another, more weighty proof, is the verse of Surah Hūd, where Allāh says that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and his wife Sayyidah Sarah رضى الله عنها were given "the glad tidings of Is'hāq, and Ya'qub after Is'hāq." This told Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام that Sayyidina Ya'qub عليه السلام will be born from Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام. He therefore knew that Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام would live on to become a father. It is also a fact that the incident of slaughtering took place when the son was still a child, as indicated by the words, "When the child reached the age where he could run about..." - The words, "Yā Bunayya" (translated above as "O my beloved son!" also suggest that the boy was young because the word is normally used to address a small boy

It would therefore be futile to test Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام by commanding him to slaughter a son whom he knew would live to become an adult, and who would not be killed by the slaughtering.

وَلَقَدْ مَنَنَّا عَلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ وَهَارُونَ ﴿١١٤﴾ وَنَجَّيْنَاهُمَا مِنْ الْكُرْبِ الْعَظِيمِ
 وَنَصَرْنَاهُمْ فَكَانُوا هُمُ الْغَالِبِينَ ﴿١١٥﴾ وَأَنزَلْنَاهُمَا الْكِتَابَ الْمُسْتَبِينَ ﴿١١٦﴾ وَهَدَيْنَاهُمَا
 الصِّرَاطَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ ﴿١١٧﴾ وَتَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِمَا فِي الْأَخْرَبِ ﴿١١٨﴾ سَلَّمَ عَلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ
 وَهَارُونَ ﴿١١٩﴾ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٢٠﴾ إِنَّهُمَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا
 الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٢١﴾

(114) Undoubtedly We favoured Mūsa and Hārūn. (115) We rescued the two of them and their people from great distress. (116) We assisted them and they became victorious. (117) We gave the two of them a Book that clearly elucidates matters. (118) And We guided the two of them to the straight path. (119) And, in their favour, We left for those to come after... (120) 'Peace be on Mūsa and Hārūn in the universe. (121) Thus do We reward those who do good. (122) They were certainly from Our believing slaves.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA AND HĀRŪN عليهما السلام

Allāh introduces the incident of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام by saying, "Undoubtedly We favoured Mūsa and Hārūn." Among the greatest favours that Allāh bestowed on them was that He made them the Holy Prophet عليه السلام. Another favour was that Allāh "rescued the two of them and their people from great distress. We assisted them and they became victorious." The Bani Isra'il lived under constant tyranny and oppression. Not only did Fir'aun (pharaoh) enslave them, but he even killed their sons. Allāh rescued them from this oppression and allowed them to leave Egypt with Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Allāh also destroyed Fir'aun (pharaoh) and his armies.

In addition to this, Allāh 'gave the two of them a Book (the Torah) that clearly elucidates matters (i.e. the laws of their religion). And We guided the two of them to the straight path (so that they could lead the Bani Isra'il)."

"And, in their favour, We left (a fond remembrance) for those to come after (who pray for them saying): 'Peace be on Mūsa and Hārūn in the universe.' Thus do We reward those who do good. They were certainly from Our believing slaves." Therefore, every nation after Sayyidina Mūsa and Hārūn عليهما السلام held them in high esteem. The Ummah of Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم recite, "Alay his Salaam" ("Peace be on him") every time their names are taken.

وَيَنَّ إِلْيَاسَ لِمَنِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٢٣﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ ۖ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٢٤﴾ أَتَدْعُونَ بَعْلًا
وَتَذَرُونَ أَحْسَنَ الْخَالِقِينَ ﴿١٢٥﴾ اللَّهَ رَبَّكُمْ وَرَبَّ آبَائِكُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٢٦﴾
فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأِنَّهُمْ لَمُحْضَرُونَ ﴿١٢٧﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلِصِينَ ﴿١٢٨﴾ وَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ فِي
الْآخِرِينَ ﴿١٢٩﴾ سَلَّمَ عَلَىٰ إِلَٰهٍ يَاسِينَ ﴿١٣٠﴾ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٣١﴾ إِنَّهُ مِنْ
عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٣٢﴾

(123) Indeed Ilyās was from the messengers. (124) When he said to his people, "Do you not fear?" (125) "Do you worship Ba'l and leave out the Best of all creators?" (126) "Allāh is your Lord and the Lord of your predecessors." (127) They falsified him, so they will certainly be brought forward (for punishment). (128) Of course, the situation of Allāh's chosen bondsmen will be different. (129) And, in his favour, We left for those to come after... (130) 'Peace be upon Ilyāsīn in the universes. (131) Thus do We reward those who do good. (132) He was certainly from Our believing slaves.

SAYYIDINA ILYĀS عليه السلام PREACHES TO HIS PEOPLE

Commentators mention that Sayyidina Ilyās عليه السلام was from the progeny of Sayyidina Hārūn عليه السلام. The people to whom he was sent to preach were idol worshippers, their focal idol being one called "Ba'l." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that this idol was made of gold. It was twenty cubits in height and had four faces. Satan used to enter the idol and address the worshippers and attendants from within, thereby deepening their faith.

Sayyidina Ilyās عليه السلام told them, "Do you not fear (Allāh). Do you worship Ba'l and leave out the Best of all creators? Allāh is your Lord and the Lord of your predecessors." In this manner, he urged them to worship Allāh only. He impressed upon their minds that Allāh is the best of all those who create forms so that they are never impressed by the idols they carve. However, "They falsified him, so they will certainly be brought forward (for punishment)."

Allāh adds, "Of course, the situation of Allāh's chosen bondsmen will be different." This verse proves that there were believers among Sayyidina Ilyās's عليه السلام nation.

"And, in his favour, We left (a fond remembrance) for those to come after (who pray for them saying): 'Peace be upon Ilyāsīn in the universe'. Thus do We reward those who do good. He was certainly from Our believing slaves." The word Ilyāsīn also refers to Sayyidina Ilyās عليه السلام. It is common in Arabic to add additional letters to a name, just like Mount Sinā (Sinai) is also called Mount Sinīn.

وَإِنْ لُّوطًا لِّمَنِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٣٣﴾ إِذْ بَجَّيْنَاهُ وَآهْلَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿١٣٤﴾ إِلَّا عَجُوزًا فِي الْغَابِرِينَ ﴿١٣٥﴾ ثُمَّ دَمَرْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ﴿١٣٦﴾ وَإِنَّا لَنَمُرُّونَ عَلَيْهِمْ مُصْبِحِينَ ﴿١٣٧﴾ وَبِالْأَيْلِ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿١٣٨﴾

(133) Indeed Lūt was from the messengers. (134) When We rescued him and all the members of his family... (135).... except an old lady among those left behind. (136) Thereafter, We annihilated the rest. (137) You pass by them in the mornings... (138) ... and at nights. Do you not understand?

THE DESTRUCTION OF SAYYIDINA LŪT'S عليه السلام NATION

The nation of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام were disbelievers and also perpetrated the vile act of homosexuality. Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام exerted himself to convince them of the error of their ways and to believe in oneness of Allāh. However, they refused to heed his advice. They even threatened to banish him from the town if he did not desist from preaching.

Eventually, Allāh commanded him to leave the town at night with his family, who were all believers, except his old wife who did not believe in him. Consequently, he left with them and Allāh overturned their town and rained stones on them. The incident has been mentioned in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verse 80-84] Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 77-83], Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verses 58-77], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 160-175] and Surah Ankabūt [Surah 29, verses 31-35].

A LESSON FOR THE PEOPLE OF MAKKAH

Addressing the people of Makkah, Allāh says, "You pass by them [the ruins of the people of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام] in the mornings and at nights. Do you not understand?" The Quraysh of Makkah often passed by these ruins on their way to Shām (Syria) for trade. Commentators mention that they usually passed these ruins during the morning when they travelled to Shām, and usually passed them at night on their return journey. Allāh urges them to take a lesson from these ruins and to stop opposing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Islām.

وإِنَّ يُونُسَ لَمِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٣٩﴾ إِذْ أَبَقَ إِلَى الْفُلِ الْمَشْحُونِ ﴿١٤٠﴾ فَسَاهَمَ فَكَانَ مِنَ الْمُدْحَضِينَ ﴿١٤١﴾ فَالْتَقَمَهُ الْحُوتُ وَهُوَ مُلِيمٌ ﴿١٤٢﴾ فَلَوْلَا أَنَّهُ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُسَبِّحِينَ ﴿١٤٣﴾ لَلِئْتُ فِي بَطْنِهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿١٤٤﴾ فَبَدَّلْنَاهُ بِالْعَرَاءِ وَهُوَ سَقِيمٌ ﴿١٤٥﴾ وَأَنْبَتْنَا عَلَيْهِ شَجَرَةً مِّنْ يَقْطِينٍ ﴿١٤٦﴾ وَأَرْسَلْنَاهُ إِلَىٰ مِائَةِ أَلْفٍ أَوْ يَزِيدُونَ ﴿١٤٧﴾ فَامْتَنَوْا فَمَتَّعْنَاهُمُ إِلَىٰ حِينٍ ﴿١٤٨﴾

(139) Yunus was certainly from the messengers. (140) When he made an exit to the crowded ship. (141) They drew lots and he was of the losers. (142) Then a fish swallowed him, and he was blameworthy. (143) If he were not from those who glorify Allāh... (144) ... he would have remained in its belly until the day people are resurrected. (145) We cast him on a barren shore, and he was ill. (146) We then caused a creeper to grow over him. (147) Then We sent him to a nation of a hundred thousand or more. (148) They believed and We allowed them to enjoy themselves for a while.

SAYYIDINA YUNUS عليه السلام LEAVES HIS PEOPLE AND IS SWALLOWED BY A LARGE FISH

Commentators write that Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام preached to his people for a very long time, but received no response from them. Eventually, he told them that they will be punished after three days. He waited for the duration, but when he noticed nothing happening on the third day, he left them, fearing that he may be wrong. After he left, the people noticed the signs of punishment approaching and immediately repented to Allāh and became believers. As a result of this, Allāh forgave them and removed the punishment. It is with reference to this that Allāh says in Surah Yunus, "There was no nation who believed, then their belief profited them, except the nation of Yunus عليه السلام. When they believed, We averted from them a punishment of disgrace in this worldly life and We granted them enjoyment for a while." [Surah 10, verse 98]

In the meantime, Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام left for the coast and boarded a ship. When the ship was in danger of sinking because of bad weather, the sailors exclaimed that there was slave on board who had fled from his master. According to another narration, Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام himself noticed that other ships were sailing, while his ship remained stationary. When he asked the people for the reason, they said that it appears as if a runaway slave was on board. They added that the ship would not move until the runaway slave was cast overboard.

Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام told them that he was the runaway slave (because he left the town without Allāh's permission), and should be thrown overboard.

When the people argued that they could not throw Allāh's Prophet overboard, Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام insisted that they draw lots to determine who was to be thrown overboard. When they thrice drew lots to determine who the person was, the name of Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام emerged each time.

The method used to draw lots was that every person cast an arrow in the sea. The person whose arrow surfaced would be the loser. When this occurred to Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام each time, even the people realised that he was to be thrown overboard. Consequently, Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام threw himself overboard. Allāh refers to this incident when He says, "They drew lots and he was of the losers." ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

As he leapt into the sea, a large fish swallowed him without chewing him and he reached its belly unharmed. He was now enveloped in the three darknesses: that of the night, the ocean and the fish. However, he engaged in Allāh's glorification, as quoted in Surah Anbiya, where Allāh says, ".... he supplicated in the darkness saying, 'There is no deity besides You. You are Pure. I have certainly been from among the oppressors.'" [Surah 21, verse 87]

Because of his constant glorification of Allāh and engagement in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr), Allāh protected him in the fish and finally rescued him. Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "So We responded to his call and rescued him from distress. Thus do We reward the believers." [Surah 21, verse 88]

In reference to this, Allāh says, "If he were not from those who glorify Allāh, he would have remained in its belly until the day people are resurrected."

Allāh then commanded the fish to spit Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام out at the shore, which it did. Allāh says, "We cast him on a barren shore, and he was ill." After spending time in the belly of the fish, Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام was extremely ill. Certain commentators say that he suffered extreme exhaustion.

He was in need of food, rest and shelter. Allāh caused a creeper to grow over him to shade him and a goat used to come to him each day, from which he drank milk. Allāh says, "We then caused a creeper to grow over him." In a miraculous way, Allāh made the creeper such that it provided ample shade for Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام, by growing upright without any support. Other commentators say that the creeper grew on a dry tree which stood there.

THE NUMBER OF SAYYIDINA YUNUS'S عليه السلام FOLLOWERS

Allāh sent Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام as a Prophet to the people of Nineveh, close to Mawsil. With regard to these people, Allāh says, "Then We sent him to a nation of a hundred thousand or more. They (repented,) believed and We allowed them to enjoy themselves for a while." Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام returned to his people after the brief separation.

"hundred thousand or more" The following interpretations have been tendered with regard to the apparent uncertainty in this verse:

- 📖 The Arabic word 'aw' (translated above as "or") may be translated as "but, in fact" i.e. the people numbered a hundred thousand, but, in fact were more."

- ❏ The Arabic word 'aw' (translated above as "or") may be translated as "and" i.e. they were a hundred thousand and even more.
- ❏ The verse speaks about man's estimation of their number, i.e. if anyone has to estimate, he would say that they were a "hundred thousand or more." [Qurtubi]
- ❏ If the figure was rounded off, it would stand at a hundred thousand. However, without rounding it off, it would be more. ["Bayānul Qur'ān"]

NOTE: Although a nation is not forgiven once Allāh's punishment arrives, the nation of Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام was an exception. This has been discussed in detail in the commentary of verse 98 of Surah Yunus (Surah 10).

فَاسْتَفْتِهِمُ الرِّبَّكَ الْبَنَاتُ وَلَهُمُ الْبَنُونَ ﴿١٤٩﴾ أَمْ خَلَقْنَا الْمَلَائِكَةَ إِنثًا وَهُمْ شَاهِدُونَ ﴿١٥٠﴾ أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ مِنْ إِفْكِهِمْ لَيَقُولُونَ ﴿١٥١﴾ وَلَدَ اللَّهُ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١٥٢﴾ أَصْطَفَى الْبَنَاتِ عَلَى الْبَنِينَ ﴿١٥٣﴾ مَا لَكُمْ كَيْفَ تَحْكُمُونَ ﴿١٥٤﴾ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿١٥٥﴾ أَمْ لَكُمْ سُلْطَانٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٥٦﴾ فَأَتُوا بِكِتَابِكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿١٥٧﴾ وَجَعَلُوا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ الْجَنَّةِ نِجَابًا ﴿١٥٨﴾ وَلَقَدْ عَلِمَتِ الْجِنَّةُ إِنَّهُمْ لَمُحْضَرُونَ ﴿١٥٩﴾ سُبْحَنَ اللَّهُ عَمَّا يُصِفُونَ ﴿١٦٠﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿١٦٠﴾

(149) Ask them, "Should your Lord have daughters, while you have sons?" (150) "Or have We created the angels as females in their presence?" (151) Behold! Because of their concocted beliefs, they will certainly say... (152) "Allāh has children." Undoubtedly, they are liars! (153) Has Allāh chosen daughters instead of sons? (154) What ails you people? How do you decide? (155) Do you not take heed? (156) Or have you some clear proof? (157) So bring your Book if you are truthful. (158) They have contrived a kinship between Allāh and the Jinn. The Jinn already know that they will be among those brought forward (for punishment). (159) Allāh is Pure of all they ascribe. (160) Of course, the condition of Allāh's sincere bondsmen will be different.

REBUKING THE POLYTHEISTS WHO ASCRIBE CHILDREN TO ALLĀH

Besides beguiling people into worshipping idols, Satan made people believe that the angels are Allāh's daughters and the Jinn are also related to Allāh. However, the fact is clear that Allāh "begets not, nor is He begotten." Allāh says in Surah Maryam, "It is not befitting of Rahmān (the Compassionate) to take children." [Surah 19, verse 92]

Allāh rebukes the polytheists for believing that the angels are His daughters. They have no proof to believe this because they were not present when Allāh created the angels. Allāh asks, "Or have We created the angels as females in their presence?"

Besides attributing children to Allāh, they chose to call the angels Allāh's daughters instead of Allāh's sons, whereas they regard daughters to be inferior to sons.

Allāh asks them, "What ails you people? How do you decide?" They have fabricated this belief without any proof whatsoever.

When the polytheists claimed that the angels are Allāh's daughters, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه asked them who were the mothers of these angels. The polytheists replied that their mothers were the daughters of the Jinn leaders. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v.23 p.151]

In this way, they even related the Jinn to Allāh. Allāh says, "They have contrived a kinship between Allāh and the Jinn. The Jinn already know that they will be among those brought forward (for punishment)." How can people who will be punished by Allāh be His relatives?

Allāh declares, "Allāh is Pure of all they ascribe. Of course, the condition of Allāh's sincere bondsmen will be different." They will be rescued from Hell and be admitted to Heaven.

فَإِنَّكُمْ وَمَا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿١٦١﴾ مَا أَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ بِفَاتِنِينَ ﴿١٦٢﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ هُوَ صَالِ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿١٦٣﴾ وَمَا مِنَّا إِلَّا
لَهُ مَقَامٌ مَّعْلُومٌ ﴿١٦٤﴾ وَإِنَّا لَنَحْنُ الصَّافُونَ ﴿١٦٥﴾ وَإِنَّا لَنَحْنُ الْمُسَبِّحُونَ ﴿١٦٦﴾ وَإِن كَانُوا لَيَقُولُونَ
لَوْ أَنَّ عِنْدَنَا ذِكْرًا مِنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٦٨﴾ لَكُنَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿١٦٩﴾ فَكَفَرُوا بِهِ فَسَوْفَ
يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٧٠﴾

(161) Surely you and whatever you worship... (162) cannot avert anyone from Allāh... (163) ...except for him who is destined to enter the Blaze. (164) The position of each of us is known. (165) Indeed, we are standing in rows. (166) Indeed, we are glorifying Allāh. (167) It is a fact that these people say... (168) "If only we had advice from the past... (169) ... we would then surely have been Allāh's sincere bondsmen." (170) They disbelieve it (the Qur'ān), and will soon come to know.

SOME QUALITIES OF THE ANGELS

Allāh addresses the polytheists saying, "Surely you and whatever you worship cannot avert anyone from Allāh..." Despite all their efforts, they cannot mislead anyone. However, they may well be successful with the person "who is destined to enter the Blaze."

Just as Allāh proved above that the Jinn are helpless before Him, Allāh now discusses the position of the angels, who are also helpless against Allāh. Just as the Jinn admitted their helplessness, Allāh quotes the angels as saying, "The position of each of us is known (to Allāh). Indeed, we are standing in rows (to worship Allāh). Indeed, we are glorifying Allāh." (It is strange that the angels worship Allāh, yet those who profess to worship the angels as Allāh's daughters, do not worship Allāh).

Before the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Arabs used to say, "If only we had advice (a divine scripture) from the past, we would then surely have been Allāh's sincere bondsmen."

Allāh mentions in Surah Fātir, "They take solemn oaths by Allāh that if a warner has to come to them, they would become more rightly guided than any nation. But when the warner came to them, it only increased them in animosity." [Surah 35, verse 42]

However, they failed to keep to their word, and "They disbelieve it (the Qur'ān), and will soon come to know."

وَلَقَدْ سَبَقَتْ كَلِمَتُنَا لِعِبَادِنَا الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٧١﴾ إِنَّهُمْ لَهُمُ الْمَنْصُورُونَ ﴿١٧٢﴾ وَإِنَّ جُنَدَنَا لَهُمُ الْغَالِبُونَ ﴿١٧٣﴾ فَلَوْلَ عَنَّهُمْ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ ﴿١٧٤﴾ وَأَبْصِرْهُمْ فَسَوْفَ يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿١٧٥﴾ أَفِعْدَايَا يَسْتَعْجِلُونَ ﴿١٧٦﴾ فَإِذَا نَزَلَ بِسَاحَتِهِمْ فَسَاءَ صَبَاحُ الْمُنْدَرِينَ ﴿١٧٧﴾ وَتَوَلَّ عَنْهُمْ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ ﴿١٧٨﴾ وَأَبْصِرْ فَسَوْفَ يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿١٧٩﴾

(171) Our decree has been issued concerning Our messenger slaves. (172) Verily, they will be assisted. (173) And surely Our army shall be victorious. (174) So ignore them for a while. (175) Keep watching them, for they shall soon see. (176) Do they seek to hasten Our punishment? (177) So when it descends on their plain, then the morning of those warned will be evil indeed. (178) Ignore them for a while. (179) Keep watching, for they shall soon see.

THE MESSENGERS WILL BE ASSISTED

"Our decree has been issued concerning Our messenger slaves [i.e. the Prophets عليهم السلام]. The decree is that] Verily, they will be assisted. And surely Our army shall be victorious."

Allāh declares in Surah Mumin, "We shall definitely assist Our messengers and those who believe in this worldly life, as well as on the Day witnesses will stand." [Surah 40, verse 51]

A verse of Surah Mujādala reads, "Allāh has ordained, 'Verily My messengers and I shall certainly be victorious.' Indeed, Allāh is Powerful, Mighty." [Surah 58, verse 21]

Allāh has sent many Prophets عليهم السلام to this world. Some of them had no followers at all, while others had very few followers [Muslim v.1 p.117]. These followers assisted the Prophets عليهم السلام to fight the disbelievers. In every era, the beliefs of the believers were always superior to those of the disbelievers. Even when people refused to believe, the Prophets عليهم السلام were always victors because the disbelievers were destroyed by Allāh's punishment.

When the Prophets عليهم السلام fought battles against the disbelievers, the Prophets عليهم السلام were always victorious in the end, even though they may have suffered temporary defeat on certain occasions. It rarely occurred that people killed a Prophet without contest, like the Bani Isrā'il managed to do. No Prophet عليه السلام was ever killed when he fought with an army of his own.

It should be borne in mind that such incidents where Prophet عليه السلام were killed are very rare, and they are not without some underlying reason known to Allāh. It should also be remembered that the above verses of Surah Sāffāt, Mu'min and Mujādala do not mention that the Prophets عليهم السلام will be victorious on every occasion. They merely state that the Prophets عليهم السلام will be victorious in the end.

Although the Muslims suffered a temporary defeat at Uhud, they won the battle of Ahzāb thereafter, then conquered Makkah, after which the people of Tā'if also accepted Islām. It was not long afterwards that the Roman and Persian empires also fell to the Muslims. The defeat at Uhud was the result of an error on that part of the Muslims, as Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Until (the time came when) you lost courage, disputed with regard to the order and disobeyed after you were shown what you liked. Some of you sought the world while some of you sought the Hereafter. Then Allāh deflected you from them to test you." [Surah 3, verse 152]

The Muslims were granted victory at Badr, thereby learning how to behave in such a situation. They then had to learn practically how to handle defeat, which was taught to them at Uhud. It was also on this occasion that they learnt the importance of adhering strictly to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم commands.

THE NECESSITY FOR SINCERITY AND PIETY

Allāh continued to allow the Muslims to be victorious as long as they maintained sincerity and piety. When they began to lose these, they began to fall prey to the disbelievers. As they began to cheat, lie, love the world and commit sins, the disbelievers started gaining the upper hand. They forgot the lesson of Uhud and wandered away from the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It was then that they started to lose the territories Allāh gave their forefathers.

Allāh says, "Do not lose courage and do not be grieved for you shall be elevated (victorious) if you are indeed believers." This verse cites belief as the condition for sovereignty. Whereas Muslims today wait for Allāh's help, they fail to fulfil the condition by continuing to sin.

Turning back to the verses of Surah Sāffāt, the next verse consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "So ignore them for a while. Keep watching them, for they shall soon see." Consequently, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم waited, but the wait was not long, when it culminated in the battle of Badr, where the disbelievers were crushed.

"Do they seek to hasten Our punishment (by asking when it will arrive). So when it descends on their plain, then the morning of those warned will be evil indeed" because they will be annihilated.

Allāh repeats the above verses when He says, "Ignore them for a while. Keep watching, for they shall soon see."

سُبْحَنَ رَبِّكَ رَبِّ الْعِزَّةِ عَمَّا يَصِفُونَ ﴿١٨٠﴾ وَسَلَامٌ عَلَى الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٨١﴾ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ
الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٨٢﴾

(180) Your Lord, the Lord of all honour is Pure from what they attribute to Him.

(181) Peace be upon the messengers. (182) And all praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of the universe.

ALLĀH, THE LORD OF ALL HONOUR IS PURE FROM WHATEVER THEY ASCRIBE TO HIM

These concluding verses of the Surah summarise the entire Surah. It states that Allāh is the Sole Owner and distributor of honour, and that He is free of whatever partners and children the polytheists attribute to Him.

The second verse conveys peace upon all the Prophets عليهم السلام collectively. Elsewhere in the Surah, peace was conveyed on individual Prophets عليهم السلام.

ALL PRAISE BELONGS TO ALLĀH

The Surah concludes with the words, "And all praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of the universe." Every act of Allāh's is praiseworthy and He will always be Worthy of praise in every situation and in every era.

"Ruhul Ma'ani" reports from Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه that the person who recites these three verses after every Salāh will have an entire scale worth of rewards. Certain Ahadith report the virtue of reciting these verses after a gathering. ["Ruhul Ma'ani" v.23 p.159]

سورة ص

Makkan

Surah Sad

Verses 88

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

صَّ وَالْفُرْعَانِ ذِي الذِّكْرِ ﴿١﴾ بَلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي عِزِّهِمْ وَشِقَاقٍ ﴿٢﴾ كَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنْ قَرْنٍ فَنَادَوا وَلَوْلَا تَحِيُّنُ الْمَوْتِ لَآتَيْنَا بِكُم مِّنْ بَيْنِهِمْ أَجْعَلُ الْأَلْهَةَ إِلَٰهًا وَاحِدًا إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ عُجَابٌ ﴿٥﴾ وَانطَلَقَ الْمَلَأُ مِنْهُمْ أَنِ امْشُوا وَاصْبِرُوا عَلَىٰ آلِهَتِكُمْ إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ يُرَادُ ﴿٦﴾ مَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا فِي الْمِلَّةِ الْآخِرَةِ إِن هَذَا إِلَّا أَحْنَالُ ﴿٧﴾ أَنزِلْ عَلَيْنَا الْكِتَابَ الْمُنِيرَ ﴿٨﴾ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمْ خَزَائِنُ رَحْمَةِ رَبِّكَ الْعَزِيزِ الْوَهَّابِ ﴿٩﴾ أَمْ لَهُمْ مُلْكُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فَلْيَرْتَقُوا فِي الْأَسْبَابِ ﴿١٠﴾ جُنْدٌ مَّا هُنَالِكَ مَهْزُومٌ مِنَ الْأَحْزَابِ ﴿١١﴾ كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَعَادٌ وَفِرْعَوْنُ ذُو الْأَوْدَادِ ﴿١٢﴾ وَثَمُودُ وَقَوْمُ لُوطٍ وَأَصْحَابُ لَيْكَةِ الْأَحْزَابِ ﴿١٣﴾ إِنَّ كُلَّ إِلَّا كَذَّبَ الرُّسُلَ فَحَقَّ عِقَابِ ﴿١٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Sād. By the oath of that Qur'ān, which is a Reminder. (2) In fact, the disbelievers are steeped in tribalism and conflict. (3) How many were the nations that We destroyed before them! Those people cried out, but it was not the time for escape. (4) They are surprised that a warner has come from among them. The disbelievers say, "He is a magician and a great liar." (5) "Has he made all the many gods into one god? This is indeed something strange!" (6) Their superiors passed saying, "Carry on, and remain devoted to your gods. Undoubtedly, this is something purposeful." (7) "We have not heard about this in the other creeds. This is merely some fabrication." (8) "Does some speech descend on him from among us?" However, they are in doubt concerning My revelation. The fact is that they have not yet tasted My punishment. (9) Or do they have possession of the treasures of mercy that belong to your Lord, the Mighty, the Benevolent? (10) Or does the kingdom of the heavens, the earth, and all between these belong to them? In that case, they should climb the ladders. (11) Here, there is an army of people who are from the defeated hordes. (12) Before them, the nations of Nūh denied, as well as the Ād and pharaoh (Fir'aun) the man of pangs... (13) And the Thamūd, the people of Lūt, and the people of Aykah. These were the hordes. (14) These were the people who denied the messengers. Therefore, My punishment had to come.

WARNINGS FOR THOSE WHO REJECT ONENESS OF ALLAH AND RISĀLAH (PROPHETHOOD)

Allāh begins the Surah with the word, "Sād" which is from the Muqatta'āt letters. Only Allāh knows the meaning of these letters. Before proceeding with the commentary, let us first acquaint ourselves with the circumstances surrounding the revelation of these verses.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that when Abu Tālib fell ill, the Quraysh came to see him, as did the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. While they were there, the Quraysh complained to him about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Turning to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Abu Tālib asked, "O my brother's son! What do you want of these people?"

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "I want only one word from them, by virtue of which all the Arabs will become subservient to them, and all non-Arabs will pay them Jizya (Non-Muslim tax in an Islamic State)." Abu Tālib said, "You want them to recite only this one word?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Yes, just one word. O my uncle, say 'Lā Ilāha illAllāh.'"

The members of the Quraysh sitting there said, "Should we believe in only one god? We have not heard such a thing in any other creed. You have fabricated this." It was with regard to this incident that the above verses of Surah Sād were revealed up to the words, "This is merely some fabrication." [Tirmidhi]

"By the oath of that Qur'ān, which is a Reminder." i.e. By the oath of this Qur'ān, the statements of the disbelievers are false.

"In fact, the disbelievers are steeped in tribalism and conflict (with the truth). How many were the nations that We destroyed before them! Those people cried out (in repentance when the punishment seized them), but it was not the time for escape." When Allāh's punishment arrives, nothing can save a person. Even Taubah (repentance) is not accepted then.

NOTE: The concluding Arabic words in the above verse (Lāta Hina) are unanimously written as one word in all the scripts of the Qur'ān. This is correct according to the Scholars, and it has thus been written in this manner throughout the ages. This has been established by Tawātur.

However, there is an Imām of Qur'ān by the name of Sayyidina Abu Ubaid Qāsim bin Sallām رحمه الله عليه, who is of the opinion that the words should be joined (i.e. the 'Lā' should be separate, and 'Tahīn' should be separate). He says that he personally saw it written in this manner in the Uthmāni script of the Qur'ān.

Imām Shāṭbi رحمه الله writes that all the Scholars have strongly objected to the opinion of Sayyidina Abu Ubaid رحمه الله. Although Sayyidina Abu Ubaid رحمه الله may be an Imām (One who leads the congregational Salāh, leader), his opinion is a solitary opinion, which stands in opposition to Tawātur. Therefore, Scholars have not favoured this opinion. Imām Jazari رحمه الله has also stated that this opinion is weak.

Based on this difference, the law of stopping during these words will also differ. Consequently, according to the opinion of the majority, it will be incorrect to stop after the word "Lā", and then to resume by reciting "Tahīn". This will only be permissible according to the opinion of Imām Abu Ubaid رحمه الله.

Mulla Ali Qāri رحمه الله says that the recitation of Imām Abu Ubaid رحمه الله is very rare because it even contradicts the rules of Arabic grammar. He also writes that the majority are of the opinion that if a person has to stop at the word "Lāt"; he should recite it as "Lāt" and not as "Lā".

"They are surprised that a warner has come from among them." They were surprised on two counts. The first was their surprise that a human being should be a Holy Prophet. The second was that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was made the Holy Prophet instead of some notable person. In Surah Zukhruf, Allāh quotes them as saying, "Why is this Qur'ān not revealed to a prominent man from one of the two cities?" [Surah 43, verse 31]

"The disbelievers say, 'He is a magician and a great liar.'" They said this when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم showed them his miracles.

Furthermore, they said, "Has he made all the many gods into one god? This is indeed something strange!" Since the Quraysh were following the ways of their predecessors, who worshipped many gods, they could not understand the concept of divine unity. When a plausible concept contradicts a customary practice, people tend to become fanatical. It was because of this that the Quraysh found oneness of Allāh to be strange.

"Their superiors passed saying, 'Carry on, and remain devoted to your gods.'" The elders among the Quraysh advised their people to carry on with their lives and not to remain in the company of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because he should not influence them.

They also added, "Undoubtedly, this is something purposeful." This sentence may be interpreted in three ways. According to the first interpretation, the verse would read, "There is an objective behind this." Therefore, the Quraysh leaders indoctrinated their people to believe that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had ulterior motives behind his message. This motive, they meant to convince people, was that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (Allāh forbid!) wanted to be a ruler.

Other commentators have tendered a second interpretation, saying that the superiors impressed upon others that the objective of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was purposeful, and that he would not be swayed off his course. They knew that they can expect no compromises from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The third interpretation is that the disbelievers believed that the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his message were among the calamities of time, which was headed their way. There was nothing they could do about it, but to swallow their anger and persevere. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

The polytheists also said, "We have not heard about this in the other creeds." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentions that they referred to the Christian faith in this verse. This was the last divine religion at the time, which the Christians had adulterated and corrupted. The Quraysh said this based on what they heard from the Christians. At that time the Christians had also forsaken oneness of Allāh and succumbed to the belief of Trinity.

The Quraysh also added, "This (oneness of Allāh) is merely some fabrication. Does some speech descend on him from among us?" They meant to say that there were so many affluent and influential people among them but the Prophet hood was not given to them. They said that if any divine scripture was to be revealed, it ought to have been revealed to one of these wealthy persons, not to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh says further, "However, they are in doubt concerning My revelation. The fact is that they have not yet tasted My punishment." These people say these things and refuse to believe because they have not yet been punished. If Allāh was to ever punish them, they will be forced to accept. However, it will then be too late, for their acceptance will not profit them.

"Or do they have possession of the treasures of mercy that belong to your Lord, the Mighty, the Benevolent?" This verse tells the polytheists that they have no right to question Allāh's decision to confer apostleship on whoever He wills. He confers this mantle on people according to His wisdom. These polytheists have no choice in the matter, and do not have the least control over Allāh's treasures of mercy. What right have they to object?

"Or does the kingdom of the heavens, the earth, and all between these, belong to them?" None of these are in their control because Allāh reserves the authority over all of these. Therefore, they have no right to question Allāh's authority in any matter whatsoever.

Allāh adds, "In that case, they should climb the ladders." i.e. If these people have any say in the kingdom of the heavens and the earth, why do they not ascend into the heavens? However, the fact is that they do not have any say in the affairs of the heavens and the earth. How can they then object to Allāh's doings?

"Here (in Makkah) there is an army of people who are from the defeated hordes." Allāh says that the people of Makkah, who oppose the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, are birds of the same feather as those who were destroyed before them. Just as the previous nations were defeated, the Quraysh also suffered a defeat at Badr. Certain commentators are of the opinion that "the defeated hordes" refer to the mass of parties that attacked Madinah on the occasion of the Battle of Khandaq (The Trench). They were defeated and had to return crestfallen to their homes. This verse therefore consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him that his enemies will soon be vanquished, just as the nations of the past were defeated. [Qurtubi, v.15 p. 153]

THE DESTROYED NATIONS OF THE PAST

"Before them, the nations of Nūh denied, as well as the Ād, and Fir'aun the man of pegs, the Thamūd, the people of Lūt, and the people of Aykah. These were the hordes. These were the people who denied the messengers. Therefore, My punishment had to come." The punishments that Allāh inflicted upon these nations have been mentioned in numerous verses of the Qur'ān, and is common knowledge.

"The people of Aykah" were the people of Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام. They lived in a forest, and were punished by means of the "canopy". When they all took shelter under a cloud on account of the severe heat, they were destroyed as they stood. The details are given in the commentary of verse 189 of Surah Shu'arā (Surah 26).

THE MEANING OF "MAN OF PEGS"

Allāh describes pharaoh (Fir'aun) as the "man of pegs". Some commentators say that he was called the "man of pegs" because he used pegs to torture people. He used to tie people to pillars and then hammer a peg into each hand and foot. They would then be left to die, suffering in this condition.

Other commentators state that he derived this title because of the amazing stability of his kingdom. Yet another group of commentators state that the title refers to his large army. Wherever his army camped, many tents had to be erected, all needing pegs to support them. Because of the large number of pegs, his army is referred to as "pegs". Hence, "man of pegs" will be translated as "man of armies". ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

وَمَا يَنْظُرُ هَؤُلَاءِ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً مَّا لَهَا مِنْ فَوَاقٍ ﴿١٥﴾ وَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا عَجَلْ لَنَا قِطْعًا قَبْلَ
يَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ ﴿١٦﴾

(15) These people are waiting only for a single shout, which will not allow even breath to be taken. (16) They say, "O our Lord! Hurry with our share before the Day of Reckoning."

THE FOOLISHNESS OF THE DISBELIEVERS

When the polytheists heard the warnings of punishment for disbelief, and about the plight that previous nations suffered, they used to mock it and pay no heed. With regard to this behaviour, Allāh says, "These people are waiting only for a single shout, which will not allow even a breath to be taken." An intelligent person is he who does not wait for the advent of Judgment day, when it will be too late. Rather, he accepts and believes.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله says that this verse is similar to the verses of Surah Yāsīn, where Allāh says, "They await only a single scream to seize them while they are arguing. They will then be unable to make any bequest, nor shall they return to their families." [Surah 36, verses 49 and 50]

In explaining this verse of Surah Sād, Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه mentions that, after the Battle of Badr, the polytheists seemed to be waiting only for Judgment day. Instead, they should have taken a lesson from the result of the battle and become Muslims. When the Judgment day will take place, none will be allowed the respite even to take a breath.

However, these people are too foolish to consider their own welfare. Rather, they invoke curses upon themselves by saying, "O our Lord! Hurry with our share (of punishment) before the Day of Reckoning." They foolishly say that it is not necessary to wait until the Judgment day for their punishment to be meted out. They would rather prefer it immediately. They say this because they do not believe in the advent of Judgment day. Otherwise, no person would ask for punishment.

أَصْبِرْ عَلَىٰ مَا يَقُولُونَ وَاذْكُرْ عَبْدَنَا دَاوُدَ ذَا الْأَيْدِ إِنَّهُ أَوَّابٌ ﴿١٧﴾ إِنَّا سَخَرْنَا الْجِبَالَ مَعَهُ
يُسَبِّحُنَا بِالْعِشِيِّ وَالْإِشْرَاقِ ﴿١٨﴾ وَالطَّيْرَ مَحْشُورَةً كُلٌّ لَهُ أَوَّابٌ ﴿١٩﴾ وَشَدَدْنَا مُلْكَهُ وَأَيَّنَّا
الْحِكْمَةَ وَفَصَّلَ الْخِطَابَ ﴿٢٠﴾

(17) Be patient with all they say and remember Our slave Dawūd, the strong. He was certainly penitent. (18) Verily, We subjugated the mountains with him, who would glorify Allāh by evening and at daybreak. (19) We also subjugated the birds, who all gathered together. They were all penitent towards Allāh. (20) We strengthened his kingdom and granted him wisdom and decisive speech.

ALLĀH CONSOLES THE HOLY PROPHET صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ BY MENTIONING SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام

The Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ used to be distressed by the statements of the polytheists. The above verse advises the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ to be patient about all that they say and also advises him to think of Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Describing Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, Allāh says that he was "strong" and "penitent".

Allāh then describes the Tasbīh (glorification) of Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, saying that He instructed the mountains and birds to join Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام in Tasbīh (glorification). Allāh adds, "They were all penitent towards Allāh." this means that all these creations of Allāh engaged in Tasbīh (Allāh's glorification). Refer to the commentary of verse 10 of Surah Saba where subject matter of a similar import was discussed.

Allāh further says about Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, "We strengthened his kingdom and granted him wisdom (Prophethood) and decisive speech." Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was very clear in his speech, making it easy for others to understand.

Hereafter, Allāh mentions an incident regarding Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, highlighting his patience. This incident serves to relate the verse: "Be patient with all they say" to the verse: "and remember Our slave Dawūd."

﴿وَهَلْ أَتَاكَ نَبَأُ الْخَصْمِ إِذْ سَوَّرُوا الْمِحْرَابَ﴾ (21) إِذْ دَخَلُوا عَلَى دَاوُدَ فَفَزِعَ مِنْهُمْ قَالُوا لَا تَخَفْ خَصْمَانِ بَغَى بَعْضُنَا عَلَى بَعْضٍ فَاحْكُم بَيْنَنَا بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا تُشْطِطْ وَاهْدِنَا إِلَى سَوَاءِ الصِّرَاطِ ﴿22﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا أَخِي لَهُ تِسْعٌ وَتِسْعُونَ نَعْجَةً وَلِيَ نَعْجَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ فَقَالَ أَكْفِلْنِيهَا وَعَزَّنِي فِي الْخِطَابِ ﴿23﴾ قَالَ لَقَدْ ظَلَمَكَ بِسُؤَالِ نَعْجِكَ إِلَى نَاعِجِهِ وَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْخُلَطَاءِ لِيَبْغَىٰ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَقَلِيلٌ مَّا هُمْ وَظَنَّ دَاوُدُ أَنَّمَا فَتَنَّاهُ فَاسْتَغْفَرَ رَبَّهُ وَخَرَّ رَاكِعًا وَأَنَابَ ﴿24﴾ فَغَفَرْنَا لَمْ ذَلِكَ وَإِنَّ لَمْ عِنْدَنَا لُزْلُمٌ وَحُسْنٌ مِّنَآبٍ ﴿25﴾

(21) Has the news about the disputants reached you, when they scaled the wall and entered his sanctuary? (22) When they entered upon Dawūd, he became alarmed at their presence. They said, "Do not be afraid. We are merely two disputants. One of us has transgressed against the other, so judge between us with the truth. Do not be unjust towards us and guide us to the straight path." (23) "This is my brother. He has ninety-nine ewes, while I have only one ewe. He said, 'Give it to me!' and he has been harsh towards me in speech." (24) Dawūd عليه السلام said, "He has oppressed you by asking for your ewe to add to his ewes. Indeed, there are many partners who transgress against each other, except for those who believe and do righteous deeds. And these are but a few." It occurred to Dawūd that We had tested him, so he sought forgiveness from his Lord, fell prostrate, and turned to Him in repentance. (25) So We forgave him for that. Undoubtedly, he has a close position to Us, and a favourable return.

TWO PERSONS COME TO SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عليه السلام, REQUESTING JUDGEMENT IN THEIR DISPUTE

These verses make reference to an incident involving Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, while the verses thereafter announce that Allāh made him His deputy on earth and instructed him to judge between people with justice. In the above incident, two persons scaled the wall of a sanctuary that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام had built specifically for worship (this is referred to as the 'Mihṛāb'). These two persons required Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام to pass judgement in their dispute. Naturally, when he saw the two appear suddenly before him, he became alarmed.

Sensing his fear, the two put him at ease, assuring him that they were not thieves, but a plaintiff and a defendant. They told him that the one party had transgressed against the other, and that he should pass judgement between them and show them the way.

The first person spoke, "This is my brother (in faith). He has ninety-nine ewes, while I have only one ewe. He said, 'Give it to me!' and he (did not address me in a manner that someone making a request would. Instead, he) has been harsh towards me in speech.”

With reference to their situation, Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام replied, “He has oppressed you by asking for your ewe to add to his ewes.” Then, making reference to the behaviour of people in general, he said, ‘Indeed, there are many partners (in business, as well as those who live together) who transgress against each other, except for those who believe and do righteous deeds. And these are but a few.”

Allāh began the above discussion with the words, “Be patient with all they say and remember Our slave Dawūd.” This denotes that the incident of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام is one in which patience was required. Therefore, an analysis of the incident should reveal aspects of patience. The Ahadīth provide no further details of the incident to highlight such aspects. However, judging from the Qur’ānic verses, it becomes evident that the two persons came to Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام during a time that he was engaged in Ibādah (worship). It was not the time for hearing cases. In addition to this, they entered his sanctuary in a most unusual manner, which startled Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام.

Furthermore, they addressed him saying, “so judge between us with the truth. Do not be unjust towards us and guide us to the straight path.” This manner of speech seems disrespectful, in addition to the fact that it implied that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام could actually be unjust and misleading.

Besides being a Prophet of Allāh, Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was also a powerful king. However, he tolerated their approach, overlooked their rudeness and heard their case.

SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عليه السلام IS TESTED AND REPENTS

“It occurred to Dawūd that We had tested him, so he sought forgiveness from his Lord, fell prostrate, and turned to Him in repentance.” Since Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام exercised the patience required of him and passed the correct verdict, how was he tested? The following explanations have been tendered:

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام listened only to the plea of the plaintiff. He did not ask the defendant for his side of the story, which is contrary to the practice of law, and seems to denote bias.

If the defendant did admit to the offence, Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام should have told him that he had oppressed the plaintiff, instead of telling the plaintiff that the defendant had oppressed him. This form of address also denotes bias in favour of the plaintiff.

When Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام realised that this case was a test for him, he immediately repented, because notable personalities are taken to task for acts that seem most insignificant to others. Allāh forgave him, and even adds, “Undoubtedly, he has a close position to Us, and a favourable return.”

In an unsubstantiated narration, “Ruhul Ma’āni” reports that the two disputants were Jibril عليه السلام and Sayyidina Mika’il عليه السلام. When the royal guards denied them entry into the sanctuary, they scaled the walls to gain access. It is not farfetched to believe that the two could have been these two angels, because it was not possible for humans to scale that high a wall.

However, if it be assumed that they two were angels, several questions arise. What dispute would angels have about ewes? Why would one transgress against the other? Why would one speak harshly to the other? Since they have no association with the things of this world, why would they lie to Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام?

Commentators explain that the angels merely stated a hypothetical situation. They meant to ask Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام what would be his decision if such a scenario developed. This was a means they employed to test him.

The “Mustadrak of Hākim” has reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was tested because of the little vanity that crept into his heart. He reports that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام once said, “O Allāh! Every moment during the day and night, there is a member of Dawūd’s family busy in Salāh, Tasbīh, Takbīr, or some other form of Your worship.”

Thereupon, Allāh told him, “O Dawūd! This all occurs with My assistance. If it were not for My assistance, you would never be able to engage in My worship. By my Honour, I shall hand over a day to you.” Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام then asked Allāh to inform him which day that would be. It was on that very day that the two disputants scaled the wall. [Mustadrak of Hākim, v.2 p.433]

While the above incident does not seem to explain the test, certain Scholars have mentioned that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was negligent of Allāh’s remembrance (Dhikr) during the period when he presided over the case. Although passing judgement is a form of worship, it is unlike the direct acts of worship, like Salāh, remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr), etc. This was the test that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام understood. Allāh knows best.

THE GENERAL PRACTICE OF BUSINESS PARTNERS

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام mentioned that partners commonly tend to oppress each other in their dealings. However, there are exceptions. These are people who have belief and carry out righteous deeds. Unfortunately, such people are very few. This statement of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام expresses the nature of partnerships as being volatile, being prone to disputes and betrayal. Fortunate indeed is the person who is saved from these trials.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh says, “I am the third of two partners (i.e. I am assisting them) as long as none betrays the other. When any of them betrays the other, I separate myself from them (i.e. I stop assisting them).” [Abu Dawūd]

A SUPPLICATION OF SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عليه السلام

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام was extremely devoted to Allāh’s worship and remembrance (Dhikr). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that Allāh loves most the Salāh of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام and the fasting of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام. Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام used to sleep until half the night has passed, after which he used to engage in Allāh’s worship for the next third of the night. He then slept for the remaining sixth of the night. He also fasted every alternate day. [Bukhari v.1 p.486]

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that one of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام Supplications was:

{TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! I ask You for Your love, for the love of those who love you, and for those actions that will let me reach Your love. O Allāh! Make your love more beloved to me than my own self, my wealth, my family, and cold water."} ["Mishkāt" p. 220]

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to speak to the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم about Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام, he used to say that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام worshipped Allāh more than any other human. [Ibid]

Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام used to earn a living by the effort of his own hands [Bukhari]. His trade was that he used to make armour, which he sold. In this manner, he was able to provide for his own needs, as well as contribute considerably to the poor.

THE SAJDĀH (PROSTRATION) TO BE MADE IN SURAH SĀD

According to the followers of the Shāfi'ī school of jurisprudence, no Sajdah (prostration) has to be made when reciting the above verse of Surah Sād. However, Sajdah (prostration) will be made according to the Hanafi school of jurisprudence.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to make the Sajdah Tilāwah (prostration of recitation) in Surah Sād, and said, "Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام made this Sajdah as Taubah (prostration for repentance). We shall make it out of gratitude." ["Mishkāt" p. 94]

REFUTING A DEFAMATORY INCIDENT

With regard to the story of the two disputants, certain books narrate an incident that is defamatory to the high status of the Prophet عليه السلام.

The incident tells that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام once saw a woman, with whom he fell in love. In an effort to marry her, he sent her husband out in Jihād. The husband was eventually martyred, after which Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام married the lady. This story is a fallacious lie, which is from the narrations of the Bani Isrā'il (Isrā'iliyāt).

It is surprising that Imām Hākim رحمه الله عليه has narrated this incident in his "Mustadrak" (v.2 p.586/7), and that Hāfidh Dhahabi رحمه الله عليه has not commented on it in his "Talkhīs" of the "Mustadrak."

Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه has mentioned that he will afflict a double penalty on the person who says such things about Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام and believes in it (i.e. 160 lashes). ["Ruhul Mā'āni", v.23 p.185]

The author of "Jalālain" has written that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام had 99 wives, whereas the complainant has only one, which Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام wanted for himself. This narration is also from the Isrā'ilites, which is insulting to the Prophets عليهم السلام. It also unsubstantiated.

يٰۤاٰدُوۡدُ اِنَّا جَعَلٰنَكَ خَلِيۡفَةً فِى الْاَرْضِ فَاحْكُم بَيْنَ النَّاسِ بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا تَتَّبِعِ الْهَوٰى فَيُضِلَّكَ
عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ الَّذِيۡنَ يَضِلُّوۡنَ عَنْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيۡدٌۢ بِمَا نَسُوۡا يَوْمَ الْحِسَابِ

(26) O Dawūd.' Indeed, We have made you a deputy on earth, so judge between people with the truth, and do not follow carnal passions which will mislead you from Allāh 's path. Verily there shall be a severe punishment for those who deviate from Allāh 's path because they forgot the Day of Reckoning.

THE DECLARATION OF SAYYIDINA DAWŪD عليه السلام AS ALLĀH'S CALIPH (DEPUTY)

Allāh addresses Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام in the above verse saying, "O Dawūd! Indeed, We have made you a deputy on earth, so judge between people with the truth, and do not follow carnal passions which will mislead you from Allāh 's path." It is compulsory for every ruler to be just in his judgement. However, the responsibility is greater when a person is a Caliph (deputy) as well as a Prophet of Allāh. It is absolutely essential for such a person to remain firmly on the side of truth justice.

THE EVIL OF FOLLOWING ONE'S PASSIONS

Allāh continues to address Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام saying, "and do not follow carnal passions which will mislead you from Allāh 's path." In essence, a person can follow only one of two things, viz. Huda (guidance), or Hawā (passions). Huda will entail everything that stems from Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is not permissible to follow anything that does not stem from these two sources, and which follows the dictates of the carnal self. Following the carnal passions prevents a person from fulfilling the obligations of the Shari'ah.

Many judges and magistrates pass judgement that is contrary to the laws of the Shari'ah. They also accept bribes and favour their relatives (nepotism) when passing their verdict. Allāh declares in Surah Nisā, "O you who believe, be firm in establishing justice and be witness for Allāh even if it be against yourselves, your parents and relatives. Be he affluent or poor, Allāh is closer to each of them. So do not follow your passions in enforcing justice." [Surah 4, verse 135]

It may also occur that unjust decisions are passed because of enmity between people. In this regard, Allāh says in Surah Mā'idah, "Let not enmity for a nation provoke you to be unjust. Be just! It is closer to piety, and fear Allāh! Indeed Allāh is Informed of what you do." [Surah 5, verse 8]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do you people know what Allāh says about the people who will first reach His shade on the Judgment day?" The Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم replied, "Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم know best." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "They are those people who accept their right when it is given to them, and fully hand over any right when it is asked of them. They are people who pass judgement in favour of others just as they would like others to pass judgement in their favour." ["Mishkāt" p. 322]

Following one's whims leads one to misinterpret the Qur'ān and Ahadith, holding a bad opinion of the Scholars, and devising ways to avoid paying Zakāh. To substantiate their legalisation of nudity and usury, some hide behind the writings of people who are bereft of sincerity, piety and knowledge. Following carnal passions spurs people to roam around naked, dance, delight in unlawful glances and hanker after wealth and fame. In pursuit of all this, they trample upon the injunctions of the Shari'ah. Some will then deprive legal heirs of their inheritance, especially female heirs. These, and many other evils are the direct result of ambitiously pursuing carnal desires.

On the other hand, there are those who follow the guidance of Allāh, brought by His illustrious Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They make it the purpose of their lives and heed to every command.

FOLLOWING CARNAL PASSIONS MISLEADS PEOPLE

Allāh cautions Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام saying, "do not follow carnal passions which will mislead you from Allāh's path." Just as a person who follows the dictates of his carnal passions becomes oblivious of the Shari'ah in this world, this subservience to his passions will mislead him from Allāh's path in the Hereafter as well. Although the person may do things in the name of Dīn (religion) and piety, his deeds will be contrary to the Shari'ah if he is a victim of his passions.

Those people who worship graves, idolise their saints and carry out the customs of Urs, do so to satisfy their carnal passions. People are more prone to follow these Bid'ah (heresy) acts than to follow the Sunnah. This is because the acts of Bid'ah (heresy) are their innovations, tailored to please them and Satan.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Satan says, 'I destroyed people by casting them into sin, but they destroy me by Istighfār (because they secure forgiveness through Istighfār, thereby putting Satan's efforts to waste). Therefore, I have devised actions that are not in Allāh's Dīn (religion), but which suit their desires. They then regard these acts as virtues, on account of which they do not make Istighfār (seek forgiveness).'" ["Targhib wat Tarhib"]

DEVIANT PEOPLE DESERVE SEVERE PUNISHMENT

"Verily there shall be severe punishment for those who deviate from Allāh's path because they forgot the Day of Reckoning." This verse sounds a warning to those who stray from Allāh's path and forget about their appointment on the Day of Judgment, when they will have to account for their deeds. The warning contained in this verse applies to every person who strays from Allāh's Dīn (religion) in any way.

Specifically, it applies to those people who deny the coming of Judgment day or, if they accept it, they are negligent about it and fail to make adequate preparations. As a result, they draw Allāh's punishment onto themselves.

وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَاءَ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا بَطْلًا ذَٰلِكَ ظَنُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَوَيْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنَ
النَّارِ ﴿٢٧﴾ أَمْ يَجْعَلُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ كَالْمُفْسِدِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ أَمْ يَجْعَلُ
الْمُتَّقِينَ كَالْفُجَّارِ ﴿٢٨﴾ كَذَّبَ أَتْرَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبْرَكٌ لِّدَبْرُوْا ءَايَاتِهِ وَلِيَسْذَكَّرَ أُولُو
الْأَلْبَابِ ﴿٢٩﴾

(27) We have not created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two without wisdom. This is the notion of the disbelievers. May the destruction of the Fire be for those who disbelieve. (28) Should We make those who believe and do righteous deeds like those who spread corruption on earth? Should We make the pious ones like the sinners? (29) This is a blessed Book that We have revealed to you so that the people may ponder over its verses, and so that the intelligent ones may take heed.

THE ANARCHISTS AND THE RIGHTEOUS PEOPLE CAN NEVER BE ALIKE, NEITHER CAN THE PIOUS AND THE SINNERS EVER BE ALIKE

Mention has already been made of Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام. Soon mention will also be made of Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام and then of Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام. The above three verses appear in between and make mention of oneness of Allāh, Risālah (prophethood) and Judgment day. These three subjects are constantly referred to in the Qur'ān, and form the basic requirements for success in the Hereafter.

The verses tell us that the heavens, the earth and whatever is contained between the two have not been created in vain and without reason. The first objective of all this creation is to recognise the immense power and grandeur of Allāh. Man should also ponder about the reason behind the creation of everything. There are humans as well as other creations in this world. There exists love between them, as well as oppression, disputes and killing. There are believers on earth as well as disbelievers. Man should ponder over the reason for which Allāh has created the entire system of the universe. Upon deep reflection, he will realise that Allāh has created everything for a purpose, based on His perfect wisdom.

Although belief and disbelief both co-exist in this world, the entire universe will soon come to an end. Thereafter, every man will be required to render an account of his deeds. The people of belief will succeed, whereas the people of disbelief will be punished. However, people who do not believe in the advent of Judgment day hold the opinion that there will be no recompense for good and evil deeds. In their estimation, people who do good are the same as those who perpetrate evil because neither will be rewarded or punished. People holding such beliefs are destined for destruction, which will manifest itself when they enter Hell.

Of course, there is a clear distinction between those who have Belief and carry out good deeds, as opposed to the anarchists. The good believers are destined for Heaven, while the anarchists are headed for Hell. It will be extremely foolish of the sinners to think that the pious believers will receive no rewards, or that they (the sinners) will receive the same bounties of Heaven that is promised to the righteous believers.

After discussing oneness of Allāh and Judgment day, Allāh now addresses the issue of Risālat (prophethood). Allāh says, "This is a blessed Book that We have revealed to you so that the people may ponder over its verses, and so that the intelligent ones may take heed." Those who recite and practise the injunctions of the Qur'ān will glean from its blessed nature by acquiring the best of both worlds. It is the duty of every intelligent person to understand the laws of the Shari'ah and implement them.

وَوَهَبْنَا لِدَاوُدَ سُلَيْمَانَ نِعَمَ الْعَبْدِ إِنَّهُ أَوَّابٌ ﴿٣٠﴾ إِذْ عُرِضَ عَلَيْهِ بِالْعَشِيِّ الصَّافِنَاتُ
الْجِيَادُ ﴿٣١﴾ فَقَالَ إِنِّي أَحْبَبْتُ حُبَّ الْخَيْرِ عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّي حَتَّى تَوَارَتْ بِالْحِجَابِ ﴿٣٢﴾
رُدُّوهُا عَلَيَّ فَطَفِقَ مَسْحًا بِالسُّوقِ وَالْأَعْنَاقِ ﴿٣٣﴾

(30) We gifted Sulaymān to Dawūd. A fine slave indeed! He was certainly most penitent. (31) When horses of the finest breed bending one foreleg were presented before him one evening. (32) He said, "Indeed, I have given preference to the wealth of this world over the remembrance of my Lord until it hid behind the veil." (33) "Return them to me." He then began to stroke their legs and manes.

THE INCIDENT OF THE HORSES THAT WERE PRESENTED BEFORE SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام

Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was the son of Sayyidina Dawūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Allāh had also granted him a kingdom and abundant wealth along with Prophethood. Allāh says about him, "A fine slave indeed! He was certainly most penitent."

The Qur'ān relates the incident of the well-bred horses that were presented to Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام one evening. It appears that the horses were reared for Jihād. The Arabic word "Sāfināt" refers to horses that bend one foreleg off the ground and stand on the remaining three. This is one of the qualities of a thoroughbred horse.

Sayyidina Sulaymān عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام once instructed that the horses be presented before him for inspection. It transpired that he became so distracted watching the horses, that the sun set, causing him to miss his Salāh. If the Salāh was a Fardh (obligatory) Salāh, he would be excused because he completely forgot, and none reminded him. If the Salāh was a Optional Salāh, then there is no question of a sin.

Nevertheless, he was distressed that his involvement with the horses distracted him from his Salāh. Although the inspection was also for Allāh's pleasure (therefore also a form of Allāh's remembrance), he still disliked that it should distract him from the direct remembrance of Allāh. When he remembered that he had missed the Salāh, he called for the horses to be returned. When they were brought back to him, he began to slaughter each one of them saying, "Indeed, I have given preference to the wealth of this world over the remembrance of my Lord."

As he slaughtered them, he also cut off their legs. This slaughtering of the horses will not be regarded as a waste of wealth, but as a sacrificial offering. In my humble opinion, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام cut off their legs after they were dead so as not to put them through additional suffering. He severed their legs because they made the horses valuable. The fact that the verse makes mention of the legs before the manes does not mean that he cut off the legs first, because many words are mentioned before others for reasons of eloquence, not for reasons of priority. An example of this is in Surah TāHā [Surah 20, verse 70], where Allāh says, "the Lord of Hārūn and Mūsa", whereas a verse of Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verse 122] mentions, "The Lord of Mūsa and Hārūn."

وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا سُلَيْمَانَ عَلَى كُرْسِيِّهِ جَسَدًا ثُمَّ أَنَابَ ﴿٣٤﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَهَبْ لِي مُلْكًا لَا يَنْبَغِي لِأَحَدٍ مِنْ بَعْدِي إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَهَّابُ ﴿٣٥﴾ فَسَخَرْنَا لَهُ الرِّيحَ تَجْرِي بِأَمْرِهِ رُحَاءً حَيْثُ أَصَابَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَالشَّيَاطِينَ كُلَّ بَنَّاءٍ وَعَوَّاصٍ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَأَخَرِينَ مُقَرَّنِينَ فِي الْأَصْفَادِ ﴿٣٨﴾ هَذَا عَطَاؤُنَا فَامْنُنْ أَوْ أَمْسِكْ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿٣٩﴾ وَإِنْ لَمْ عِنْدَنَا لُزْلٌ يُهْلِكُ وَحُسنَ مَتَابٍ ﴿٤٠﴾

(34) Verily We tested Sulaymān and I cast a body on his throne, after which he turned (to Us). (35) He said, "O my Lord! Forgive me and grant me a kingdom that cannot be had by any other after me. Undoubtedly, You are the Great Giver." (36) So We subjugated the wind for him, which would blow gently by his command wherever he wished to go. (37) (We also subjugated) the shayāṭīn for him, who were builders and divers. (38) Besides these (Satans) there were others who were shackled in chains. (39) "This is Our gift, so spend or withhold without any accountability." (40) Undoubtedly, he has a close position to Us, and a favourable return.

THE TEST AND SUPPLICATION OF SAYYIDINA SULAYMĀN عليه السلام. THE SATAN ARE AT HIS SERVICE, WHILE OTHERS ARE CHAINED

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه

that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام once resolved to cohabit with each of his seventy wives on a certain night. He intended to father a dynamic horseman from each wife, all of whom would be warriors in Jihād. An angel who was with him advised him to say "Insha Allāh" ("If Allāh wills"). However, Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام was determined and, although he knew within his heart that everything occurs only with Allāh's will, he did not say the words. It then transpired that only one of the wives conceived. She finally bore only an unformed foetus, which lacked half of its torso. After narrating the story, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام had said, 'Insha Allāh', he would have fathered seventy boys who would have all fought in Jihād." [Bukhari v.1 Pg.487]

The commentators have narrated the above incident, stating that this was the test referred to in the verse. The malformed foetus was the "body" that was cast onto his throne. When Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام realised his error, he immediately turned to Allāh in repentance.

In addition to his supplication for forgiveness, he prayed, "and grant me a kingdom that cannot be had by any other after me. Undoubtedly, You are the Great Giver." Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام added an attribute of Allāh to each end of his supplication, which is among the etiquette of supplication.

Allāh accepted his supplication. Whereas previously he had control over horses, Allāh now placed the winds at his service. The winds would carry him to any destination he wished. Allāh describes the swiftness of the wind in Surah Saba, where He says, "We subjugated the wind for Sulaymān. Its travel in the morning was a month's journey and its travel by the evening was a month's journey." Although the wind travelled swiftly, it blew very gently so that no one was jolted about while travelling. Today's modern aircraft have proven that speed and comfort can be combined.

Just as Allāh placed the winds at his service, Allāh also arranged an army of servants and soldiers for him. The Jinn were also placed at his command. Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام used them to construct buildings and to dive for jewels. There were a multitude of other duties they performed for him, some of which are mentioned in verse 82 of Surah Anbiya (Surah 21) and verse 13 of Surah Saba (Surah 34).

Allāh also granted Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام the power to keep many of the Satans in shackles. It appears that this was the punishment for those Jinn who did not obey the instructions that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام issued.

Referring to these great bounties that Allāh conferred on Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام, Allāh tells him, "This is Our gift, so spend or withhold without any accountability." Allāh gave Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام the authority to utilise his wealth as he pleased, without having to account for it. Thereafter, Allāh mentions another favour upon Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام, which was also conferred on his father, Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام. Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, he has a close position to Us, and a favourable return."

NOTE: No person after Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام ever enjoyed a kingdom like his. This was a result of the supplication that he made when he said, "and grant me a kingdom that cannot be had by any other after me." Although there have been people after Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام who exercised some control over the Jinn, it cannot be proven whether any other had control of the wind.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told them, "An evil Jinn made an attempt to interrupt my Salāh last night. However, Allāh granted me the power to arrest the Jinn. I intended to tie him to a pillar in the Masjid for you all to see, but I then recollected the Supplication of my brother Sulaymān, who said, 'O my Lord! Forgive me and grant me a kingdom that cannot be had by any other after me. Undoubtedly, You are the Great Giver.' I then drove the wretched devil away." [Bukhari v.1 p.487]

This hadith proves that Allāh can grant any person the ability to capture the Jinn. It was out of respect and regard for Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not shackle the Jinn. He did not want such an act to effect a difference in the unique individual privilege that Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام enjoyed. Sayyidina Sulaymān عليه السلام desired this privilege very much and he even made the above supplication for it.

وَأَذْكُرْ عَبْدَنَا أَيُّوبَ إِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبَّهُ أَنِّي مَسَّنِيَ الشَّيْطَانُ بِنُصْبٍ وَعَذَابٍ ﴿٤١﴾ أَرْكُضْ بِرِجْلِكَ هَذَا مُغَسِّلٌ بَارِدٌ وَشَرَابٌ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ أَهْلَهُ وَمِثْلَهُمْ مَعَهُمْ رَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَذِكْرًا لِأُولَى الْأَلْبَابِ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَخَذْ بِيَدِكَ ضِفَةً فَأَضْرِبْ بِهِنَّ وَلَا تَحْنُثْ إِنََّّا وَجَدْنَاهُ صَابِرًا نِعَمَ الْعَبْدِ إِنَّهُ أَوَّابٌ ﴿٤٤﴾

(41) Call to mind Our slave Ayyūb. When he called his Lord saying, "Verily Satan had afflicted me with pain and difficulty." (42) Strike your foot on the ground. This is cold water for bathing and drinking." (43) We gifted him his family and the like of them in addition, as a mercy from Us and a reminder for people of intelligence. (44) "Take a handful of twigs to hit with, and do not breach your oath." Verily, We found him to be patient. What a fine slave! He was certainly penitent.

THE ILLNESS OF SAYYIDINA AYYŪB عليه السلام, HIS SUPPLICATION, AND CURE

The incident of Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام was discussed in verses 83 and 84 of Surah Anbiya (Surah 21). His story is related very briefly in the Qur'an, hence the details are not clearly known. Only the incident of the golden locusts is reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about him (This will be narrated shortly).

In Durrul Manthūr, Hāfidh Jalālud Dīn Suyyuti عليه رحمه has narrated several other reports about Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام from Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Qatādah عليه رحمه, and Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه. However, these narrations are Isrā'īlites, and cannot be relied on.

The following facts have been established from the Qur'ān:

First. Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام suffered a terrible difficulty.

Second. Satan was the cause of this difficulty.

Third. The difficulty affected his personal health as well as his wealth.

Fourth. His family was also destroyed in the process.

Fifth. He exercised great patience for which Allāh praises him by saying 'Verily, We found him to be patient. What a fine slave! He was certainly penitent.'

The Isrā'īlites report that Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام suffered for seven years and a few months. While Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام enjoyed all types of bounties, he was soon left without any wealth and family. Only his wife remained by his side to care for him. The loyal lady's name was Rahmah.

Surah Anbiya mentions his supplication: "Difficulty has certainly afflicted me and You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy." His supplication in Surah Sād is: "Verily Satan had afflicted me with pain and difficulty." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the Arabic word "nusb" (translated above as "pain") refers to the extreme fatigue that one experiences after hard labour. The second word, "adhāb", is translated as "pain" which the verse of Surah Anbiya refers to as "durr" ("difficulty"). Other commentators say that "nusb" and "durr" refer to physical ailments, while "adhāb" refers to the loss of his family and wealth.

After accepting his supplication, Allāh commanded him thus, "Strike your foot on the ground." When he did as commanded, a spring of water gushed forth from the ground. Allāh then told him, "This is cold water for bathing and drinking." He therefore took a bath in the spring and drank water from it. As a result, Allāh granted him complete cure, both internally and externally.

Allāh also collected his scattered family around him, allowing them to enjoy a life of prosperity once more. Allāh then caused his family to grow to such an extent that they doubled in number. This is the interpretation of the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni", with regard to the verse "We gifted him his family and the like of them in addition..."

Another interpretation is that since his family members passed away earlier, Allāh granted Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام as many children as he had lost. Ibn Majah reports that the suffering of Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام began on a Wednesday, and he was cured on a Thursday.

Allāh adds that His cure of Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام was "a mercy from Us and a reminder for people of intelligence." The incident serves to remind the intelligent ones that Allāh will graciously reward those who exercise patience when afflicted by adversities.

Allāh then commanded Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام saying, "Take a handful of twigs to hit with, and do not breach your oath." This refers to an incident during the illness of Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام, when he became angry with his wife. The commentators have cited many different narrations regarding the reason for his displeasure. However, these are all Isrā'īlites. One such narration, reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, states that Satan once passed by the wife of Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام in the disguise of a physician. When she requested him to treat her husband, Satan said, "I shall cure him without charging you for the treatment and medicines. However, when he is cured, I want you to say that I cured him." She accepted.

When she mentioned this to Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام, he became angry and said, "You promised Satan that you will say that he cures? When I become well, I shall cane you a hundred times." When Allāh cured him, the time came to fulfil his oath to cane her. It was then that Allāh advised him as to how he should fulfil his oath. Allāh told him, "Take a handful of sticks to hit with, and do not breach your oath." Allāh advised him to take a hundred twigs in his hand and strike her with them as a substitute for caning her a hundred times. An analogy cannot be drawn from this incident to legalise the substitution of lashing a person once with a hundred whips instead of a hundred continuous lashes. The situation of Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام was an isolated incident, which only applies to him.

Nevertheless, the incident highlights the importance of fulfilling an oath. Although Allāh could have forgiven the oath without any substitution, Allāh did not do so, but decreed that he substitute the act instead. In this way, the position of the oath in Shari'ah is still maintained.

A similar incident is narrated by Abu Dawūd. Sayyidina Abu Umamah bin Sahl bin Hunaif رضى الله عنه reports that a person who was to be lashed for committing adultery with a slave woman had grown extremely weak. When the Ansār came to visit him in his illness, he told them to inquire the ruling from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They explained the situation to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, and also added that the person was so weak and frail that only skin and bone were left of him. They also told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the man's bones had become so weak that they would break if people were to bring him before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Consequently, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم to break a branch of a date palm into a hundred parts, which would then be used collectively to strike him. [v.2 p.258]

Although the person deserved to receive hundred lashes, he was not physically able to bear this punishment. Since the object of the punishment is not to take the person's life, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم substituted the punishment, so that the penalty does not completely lose its status in the Shari'ah. The penalties in Shari'ah should never be completely waived because the Qur'ān say about those deserving of these penalties, "And mercy for them (adulterers) should not take hold of you with regard to Allāh's Dīn (religion), if you believe in Allāh and the Last Day." The injunctions of Shari'ah should therefore be enforced so that people become conscious and are warned. These penalties should not be stalled, nor waived.

NOTE: THE ACCEPTANCE OF SUPPLICATION.

The question arises: "Did Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام make supplication for health during the days in which he suffered"? If he did, why was his supplication not answered? The fact is that Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام must have made supplication to Allāh during those days. However, he had to remain ill for as long as Allāh had predestined. Of course, he received the full rewards of his supplication, as well as an elevation of stages in the Hereafter. His supplication were therefore stored as a treasure for him in the Hereafter.

No supplication of a believer is wasted. Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the supplication of a believer is answered in one of the following three ways, as long as the supplication is not for the severing of family ties, or any other sin.

Firstly. He is granted exactly what he asks for in this world.

Secondly. This supplication is stored as a treasure for him in the Hereafter.

Thirdly. A pending calamity is averted in lieu of his supplication.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said this, the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم said, "We shall then make supplication in abundance." Thereupon, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh gives in abundance." ["Mishkāt" p. 196]

EVERYTHING HAPPENS BY THE DECREE OF ALLĀH

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that when Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام was afflicted with the difficulty, Allāh made him forget to make supplication for cure. Although he always engaged in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr), he did not make supplication. He did not have any inclination to make supplication either because he regarded the illness as a means of attaining Allāh's pleasure. He therefore wanted the illness to remain.

When Allāh decreed that he be cured, Allāh granted him the realisation and ability to make supplication. When he did make supplication, Allāh accepted it and restored his wealth and family. Allāh then praised him by stating, "Verily, We found him to be patient. What a fine slave! He was certainly penitent." [Durrul Manthūr v.4 p.328]

The fact is that everything in the universe happens by Allāh's decree. supplication is also accepted only when the realisation of the supplication is near at hand. Medicines are also effective only when Allāh's predestination (Taqdīr) ordains that it provides a cure. Allāh maintains complete control over everything. He gives comfort to whoever He wills, while He afflicts whoever He wills with hardship.

Hardships and difficulties are a blessing for the believers because they accrue tremendous rewards for them and elevate their ranks in the Hereafter. We should therefore never think that when a pious person is beset with problems, he must be suffering punishment for his sins.

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that on the Judgment day, when people will be granted their rewards for suffering in this world, those who enjoyed comfort and luxury will wish that their skins had been cut with scissors in this world. ["Mishkāt" p. 137]

The report of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه (wherein he related that Allāh made Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام forget to make supplication initially), is supported by the following narration of Sayyidina Abān bin Uthmān رضى الله عنه. Sayyidina Abān رضى الله عنه narrates that he heard his father, Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه say, "the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'No harm can come to the person who recites the following supplication thrice every morning and evening:

{TRANSLATION: "In the name of Allāh, with Whose name nothing In the heavens can do harm, and nothing on earth can harm. And He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing."}

Sayyidina Abān رضى الله عنه showed signs of paralysis on a part of his body, which prompted people to look at him in surprise as he narrated this hadith. Detecting their surprise, he asked, "What are you people staring at? Without doubt, the hadith is just as I have narrated it to you. The day when I was afflicted with this, I had forgotten to recite the supplication, thereby allowing Allāh's Taqdir (predestination) to take its course." ["Mishkāt" p. 209]

CONCLUDING THE INCIDENT OF SAYYIDINA AYYŪB عليه السلام

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that once, when Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام was bathing naked in private, gold locusts began to rain down on him. When he began to collect them in his clothing, Allāh asked him, "O Ayyūb! Have I not made you wealthy enough. You do not need what is before you." Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام replied, "I swear by Your Honour! You have certainly made me wealthy, but I can never be independent of Your blessings."

"Fat'hul Bāri" (v.6 p.420) reports on the authority of Ahmad and Ibn Hibbān, that Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه said, "When Allāh cured Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام, He rained gold locusts on him." This narration makes it clear that the incident of the locusts took place after Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام was cured.

"Fat'hul Baari" has also reported that, when Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام was afflicted with the disease, all his friends deserted him, except for two persons. They would still visit him every morning and evening. On one occasion, the two were talking among themselves, when the one said, "Ayyūb must have perpetrated a grave sin. Otherwise, Allāh would certainly have cured him by now." When the other person mentioned this to Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام, he was overcome with grief and made supplication to Allāh.

Thereafter, Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام needed to leave the house to relieve himself. It was then that Allāh sent revelation to him to strike his foot on the ground. When he did as he was commanded, a spring gushed from the earth, in which he bathed. Allāh made this water cure him completely. When his wife came to fetch him, she could not recognise him, and asked, "Where is the sick man who was here? I hope a wolf did not devour him." "It is me," replied Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام.

Not only did Allāh grant Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام complete cure, but He also restored the youth of his wife. Thereafter, she bore 26 sons. "Fat'hul Bāri" has also reported that Sayyidina Ayyūb عليه السلام had two granaries. The one was used to store wheat, while the second was used to store barley. Allāh sent a cloud, which showered so much gold in the wheat granary, that the gold began to flow. Allāh then sent another cloud, which showered silver in the barley granary. All praise be to Allāh for His bounties.

وَأَذْكُرْ عَبْدَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ أُولَى الْأَيْدِي وَالْأَبْصَارِ ﴿٤٥﴾ إِنَّا أَخْلَصْنَاهُمْ بِخَالِصَةٍ
ذِكْرَى الدَّارِ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَإِنَّمَا عِنْدَنَا لِمَنْ الْمُصْطَفَيْنَ الْأَخْيَارِ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَأَذْكُرْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ
وَالْيَسَعَ وَذَا الْكِفْلِ وَكُلٌّ مِنَ الْأَخْيَارِ ﴿٤٨﴾ هَذَا ذِكْرٌ وَإِنَّ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ لَحُسْنَ مَنَاقِبٍ ﴿٤٩﴾
جَنَّاتٍ عِدْنٍ مِّنْ مَّفْنَحَةٍ لَهُمْ فِيهَا الْأَنْبُوتُ ﴿٥٠﴾ مُتَّكِئِينَ فِيهَا يَدْعُونَ فِيهَا بِفَكَهَةٍ كَثِيرَةٍ وَشَرَابٍ
﴿٥١﴾ وَعِنْدَهُمْ قَصِيرَاتُ الْطَّرَفِ أَنْزَابٌ ﴿٥٢﴾ هَذَا مَا تُوعَدُونَ لِيَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٥٣﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا
لَرِزْقُنَا مَا لَهُ مِنْ نَفَادٍ ﴿٥٤﴾

(45) Call to mind Our slaves Ibrahīm, Is'hāq and Ya'qūb, who were men with hands and intelligence. (46) We have selected them for the speciality of remembering the Hereafter. (47) Undoubtedly, they are from among the chosen best in Our estimation. (48) Call to mind Isma'īl, Yasa and Dhul Kifl. They were all from the very best. (49) This is an Advice. Without doubt, the abstinent will have a pleasant abode... (50) .... the eternal gardens of Jannah (paradise), with the doors opened for them. (51) They will recline there, asking for the abundance of fruit and drinks. (52) They shall have with them wives with eyes downcast, and of the same age. (53) This is what you have been promised for the Day of Reckoning. (54) Indeed, this is Our provision, which will never terminate.

MENTION OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM, IS'HĀQ, AND YA'QŪB عليه

السلام

These verses commence with the mention of certain Prophets عليهم السلام, after which mention is made of the bounties of paradise.

Allāh says, "Call to mind Our slaves Ibrahīm, (his son) Is'hāq and (his son) Ya'qūb..." The Qur'ān often speaks of these great Prophets عليهم السلام. Mention has already been made of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, who endured many hardships while propagating the message of oneness of Allāh. He was cast into a huge fire, debated with the polytheists, and was even commanded to slaughter his son, Sayyidina Isma'īl عليه السلام. He built the Ka'ba with Sayyidina Isma'īl عليه السلام and made the announcement for Hajj. He also made the supplication, "O our Lord! Send among them (the people of Makkah) a messenger from their midst who will recite Your verses to them, teach them the Book and wisdom, and purify them. Without doubt, You are the Mighty, the Wise." [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 129]

Surah Baqarah, Surah Nahl and Surah Hajj have already mentioned the command to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Ummah to follow the creed of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام was the forefather of all the Prophets عليهم السلام after him.

Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was from the progeny of Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام, while the other Prophet عليه السلام were all from the progeny of the other son, Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام. Both these sons were given to Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام after he had already aged. In gratitude, he made the following supplication: "All praise be to Allāh, Who has gifted me with Isma'il and Is'hāq despite old age. Undoubtedly, my Lord hears all prayers." [Surah Ibrahim (14), verse 39]

Describing these Prophets عليهم السلام, Allāh says that they "were men with hands and intelligence." Commentators interpret this to mean that Allāh had granted these Prophets عليهم السلام the strength to obey Him, worship Him, and to have foresight and a deep understanding of religion. [Ibn Kathīr]

Allāh describes them further when He says, "We have selected them for the speciality of remembering the Hereafter." These illustrious men were devoted to the concern for the Hereafter. Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله narrates the following interpretation of this verse from Sayyidina Mālik bin Dinār رحمه الله. He said, "Allāh has removed love for the world and its remembrance from the hearts of these Prophets عليهم السلام, replacing it with love for the Hereafter and remembrance of it."

Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله has interpreted the verse thus: "These Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to remind people of the Hereafter and encourage them to prepare for the Hereafter."

Describing a third attribute of these Prophets عليهم السلام, Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, they are from among the chosen best in Our estimation. What more can be said in their praise?

Thereafter, Allāh speaks of other Prophets عليهم السلام, when He says, "Call to mind Isma'il, Yasa and Dhul Kifl. They were all from the very best." Mention was made of these Prophets عليهم السلام in Surah An'am [Surah 6, verse 86] and in Surah Anbiya [Surah 21, verse 85]. Allāh says, "This is an Advice (which should be acted upon)."

THE BOUNTIES THAT THOSE WHO ABSTAIN WILL ENJOY

"Without doubt, the abstinent will have a pleasant abode." Allāh describes the "pleasant abode" as "the eternal gardens of Heaven, with the doors opened for them." When people will be admitted into Heaven, they will find the doors open to welcome them. Allāh says in a verse of Surah Zumar, "Those who feared their Lord will be led to Heaven in groups. Until, when they arrive there and its gates are opened .." [Surah 39, verse 73]

Allāh then speaks of some of the comforts and food and drink that they will enjoy. Allāh says, "They will recline there, asking for the abundance of fruit and drinks." Describing their spouses in Heaven, Allāh says, "They shall have with them wives with eyes downcast, and of the same age. These wives will have eyes only for their husbands.

The people of Heaven will then be told, "This (honour and bounties) is what you have been promised for the Day of Reckoning. Indeed, this is Our provision, which will never terminate." Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 108] also describes the provisions of Heaven as prizes that will never come to an end. Verse 21 of Surah Barā'ah (Surah 9) as well as verse 6 of Surah Tin (Surah 95) describe the rewards of Heaven as being everlasting.

هَذَا وَاتَّ لِلطَّغْيِينَ لَشَرٌّ مَثَابٍ ﴿٥٥﴾ جَهَنَّمَ يَصْلَوْنَهَا فَيَنْسُ الْمِهَادُ ﴿٥٦﴾ هَذَا فَلْيَذُوقُوهُ
 حَمِيمٌ وَعَسَاقُ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَآخِرُ مِنْ شَكْلِهِۦٓ أَزْوَاجٌ ﴿٥٨﴾ هَذَا فَوْجٌ مُّقْتَحِمٌ مَّعَكُمْ لَا مَرْجَا
 يَهُمْ إِيَّاهُمْ صَالُوا النَّارِ ﴿٥٩﴾ قَالُوا بَلْ أَنْتُمْ لَا مَرْجَا يَكُمُ أَنْتُمْ قَدْ مَتَمُّوهُ لَنَا فَيَنْسُ الْقَرَارُ
 ﴿٦٠﴾ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا مَنْ قَدَّمَ لَنَا هَذَا فَزِدْهُ عَذَابًا ضِعْفًا فِي النَّارِ ﴿٦١﴾ وَقَالُوا مَا لَنَا لَا نَرَى
 رِجَالًا كُنَّا نَعُدُّهُمْ مِنَ الْأَشْرَارِ ﴿٦٢﴾ أَخَذْتَهُمْ سَخِرِيًّا أَمْ زَاغَتْ عَنْهُمْ الْأَبْصَارُ ﴿٦٣﴾ إِنَّ
 ذَلِكَ لَحَقٌّ تَخَاصُمُ أَهْلِ النَّارِ ﴿٦٤﴾

(55) This is it (so understand). As for the rebellious, there shall be the worst of abodes. (56) They shall have to enter Hell. What a terrible resting place indeed! (57) "This (is the punishment), so taste it! This is Hamīm and Ghassāq... (58) "...and a multitude of other punishments of its kind." (59) "This is an army to be entered with you. There is no welcome for them. They shall certainly be entered into the Fire." (60) They will say, "No! You are the ones for whom there is no welcome! You people have brought this on us. What a horrible station it is!" (61) They will cry out, "O our Lord! Double the punishment in the Fire for those who have brought this on us." (62) They will say, "Why do we not see those men whom we regarded as contemptible?" (63) "Did we make fun of them, or have our eyes failed to perceive them?" (64) This is certainly the truth, the dispute of the people of the Fire.

THE EVIL OUTCOME OF THE REBELLIOUS ONES, AND THEIR DISASSOCIATION FROM EACH OTHER IN HELL

After describing the favourable ending of the fortunate ones, Allāh says, "This is it (so understand)." Thereafter, Allāh describes the plight of the wretched ones, saying, "As for the rebellious, there shall be the worst of abodes. They shall have to enter Hell. What a terrible resting place indeed!" Hell is described as a terrible "resting place" because fire will be burning from beneath as well.

The people of Hell will be told, "This (is the punishment), so taste it! This is Hamīm and Ghassāq, and a multitude of other punishments of its kind." Other forms of punishment are Dari, Zamharir, Zaqqūm, Ghislīn, Sa'ūd, Maqāmi, etc. "Hamīm" is boiling water. Allāh says in Surah Muhammad that the people of Hell will be "given boiling water to drink, which tears their innards to shreds?" [Surah 47, verse 15]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that if a single bucket of "Ghassāq" was thrown on earth, every person on earth will rot. ["Mishkāt" p. 503]

The book "Mirqāt" (which is a commentary of "Mishkāt") has cited the following four interpretations of "Ghassāq":

1. It is the puss of the people of Hell, and the fluid that remains after their wounds are washed.
2. It is the tears of the people in Hell.
3. It refers to Zamharīr, which is the icy cold part of Hell.
4. It is the frozen, decaying puss of the people in Hell, which is too cold to drink. (However, people will be forced to drink it because of extreme hunger).

Whatever the interpretation, "Ghassāq" is something extremely horrid and foul smelling. May Allāh save us all from it. Āmīn.

Thereafter, Allāh describes a conversation between the people of Hell. Since many groups will be entered in succession, those who entered first will tell each other as they watch the others entering, "This is an army to be entered with you. There is no welcome for them. They shall certainly be entered into the Fire (just as we have been. We can therefore expect no assistance from them)."

Hearing this comment, the incoming group will say, "No! You are the ones for whom there is no welcome! You people have brought this on us (by misleading us to perpetrate disbelief). What a horrible station it is!"

These incoming groups will then plead to Allāh saying, "O our Lord! Double the punishment in the Fire for those who have brought this on us." Whereas the followers duly comply with the dictates of their leaders in this world, they will curse them in the Hereafter, asking Allāh to double their punishment.

THE PEOPLE OF HELL WILL BE SURPRISED NOT TO FIND THE PEOPLE OF BELIEF WITH THEM

Referring to the poor believers, the people of Hell will say, "Why do we not see those men whom we regarded as contemptible?"

The disbelievers (like the Jews, Christians, and Hindus) often tell the believers, "You carry on to Hell. We shall be in Heaven." Eventually, when the disbelievers find themselves in Hell. They will look around for the believers. When they see only other disbelievers like themselves, they will ask, "Why do we not see those men whom we regarded as contemptible?"

"Did we make fun of them (by deeming them to be inmates of Hell, whereas they were really inheritors of Heaven), or have our eyes failed to perceive them (here in Hell)?" They will then regret that they made fun of the believers. The ugly reality will now dawn upon them that the believers reached Heaven, while they will have to suffer the torments of Hell forever.

Allāh then asserts, "This is certainly the truth, the dispute of the people of the Fire."

قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا مُنذِرٌ وَمَا مِن إِلَهٍ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْفَهَّارُ ﴿٦٥﴾ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا
 بَيْنَهُمَا الْعَزِيزُ الْغَفُورُ ﴿٦٦﴾ قُلْ هُوَ نَبَأٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٦٧﴾ أَنْتُمْ عَنْهُ مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ مَا كَانَ لِي مِن
 عِلْمٍ بِالْمَلَأِ الْأَعْلَى إِذْ يَخْتَصِمُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ إِن يُوحَىٰ إِلَىٰ إِلَّا أَنَّمَا أَنَا نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٧٠﴾

(65) Say, "I am but a warner, and there is none worthy of worship except Allāh, the One, the Omnipotent." (66) "He is the Lord of the heavens, the earth, and whatever is between the two. He is the Mighty, the Most Forgiving." (67) Say, "This is a vital message." (68) "...to which you people are averse." (69) "I have no knowledge of lofty chiefs (angels) when they discuss." (70) "The revelation sent to me is that I am only a clear warner."

ONLY ALLĀH IS WORTHY OF WORSHIP HE IS THE ONE, THE OMNIPOTENT, MASTER OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH, THE MIGHTY, AND THE MOST FORGIVING

These verses confirm oneness of Allāh, Risālah (propheethood), and five attributes of Allah. Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Say (to the masses), 'I am but a warner (I will not force anyone to believe), and there is none worthy of worship except Allāh, (1) the One, (2) the Omnipotent.'" Allāh has supreme control over the universe, and everything happens only by His decree.

Furthermore, "He is (3) the Lord of the heavens, the earth, and whatever is between the two." It is therefore sheer foolishness to worship any other being. It should also be understood that "He is (4) the Mighty ", meaning that Allāh possesses the power and might to ensure that people are accountable for the evil they perpetrate. However, if they choose to repent, then Allāh is also (5) "the Most Forgiving."

After mentioning Allāh's five attributes, Allāh makes mention of the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Say, 'This (news that I have brought to you about my apostleship) is a vital message to which you people are averse.'"

Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell the people, "I have no (way to access the) knowledge of lofty chiefs (the angels) when they discuss. (Therefore, how am I able to inform of the things I tell you?)" Whereas the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had no association with the Ahlul Kitāb (people of book), from whom he could have gleaned the knowledge of bygone nations, he was able to give accurate accounts of past events. It is obvious that the only source of this knowledge is divine revelation.

If it were not for divine revelation, a human being would not be able to inform others about incidents like the creation of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, and the fact that Iblīs refused to prostrate to him. The discussion between Allāh and the angels (as mentioned in Surah Baqarah) concerned the creation of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, when Allāh told the angels, "I am about to place a viceroy on earth." Thereafter, the angels asked certain questions, which Allāh answered by demonstrating to them that Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was superior in knowledge to them. It was then that they admitted to Allāh, "We proclaim Your purity! We possess only the knowledge that You have given to us. Without doubt, You are the All Knowing, the Wise."

The fact 'that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was able to relate such incidents to the people proves that he received divine revelation. Asserting his Prophet hood, Allāh also commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell the people, "The revelation sent to me is that I am only a clear warner." This makes it clear that the duty of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to convey the message. He was not charged to force people to believe.

إِذْ قَالَ رَبُّكَ لِلْمَلٰٓئِكَةِ اِنِّیْ خَلُقُ بَشَرًا مِّنْ طِیْنٍ ﴿٧١﴾ فَاِذَا سَوَّيْتُهُ وَنَفَخْتُ فِيْهِ مِنْ رُّوْحِیْ فَقَعُوْا لَهٗ سٰجِدِیْنَ ﴿٧٢﴾ فَسَجَدَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ كُلُّهُمْ اٰجَعُوْنَ ﴿٧٣﴾ اِلَّا اِبْلِیْسَ اَسْتَكْبَرَ وَكَانَ مِنَ الْكَٰفِرِیْنَ ﴿٧٤﴾ قَالَ یٰۤاِبْلِیْسُ مَا مَنَعَكَ اَنْ تَسْجُدَ لِمَا خَلَقْتُ بِیَدِیْ اَسْتَكْبَرْتَ اَمْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الْاَعَالِیْنَ ﴿٧٥﴾ قَالَ اَنَا خَيْرٌ مِّنْهُ خَلَقْنِیْ مِنْ نَّارٍ وَخَلَقْتُمُ مِنْ طِیْنٍ ﴿٧٦﴾ قَالَ فَاٰخْرِجْ مِنْهَا فَاِنَّكَ رَحِیْمٌ ﴿٧٧﴾ وَاِنَّ عَلَیْكَ لَعْنَتِیْ اِلٰی یَوْمِ الدِّیْنِ ﴿٧٨﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ فَاَنْظِرْنِیْ اِلٰی یَوْمِ یُبْعَثُوْنَ ﴿٧٩﴾ قَالَ فَاِنَّكَ مِنَ الْمُنْظَرِیْنَ ﴿٨٠﴾ اِلٰی یَوْمِ الْوَقْتِ الْمَعْلُوْمِ ﴿٨١﴾ قَالَ فَبِعِزَّتِكَ لَاغْوِيَنَّهُمْ اَجْمَعِیْنَ ﴿٨٢﴾ اِلَّا عِبَادَكَ مِنْهُمْ الْمُخٰلَصِیْنَ ﴿٨٣﴾ قَالَ فَالْحَقُّ وَالْحَقُّ اَقُوْلُ ﴿٨٤﴾ لَا مَلٰٓئَکَ جَهَنَّمَ مِنْكَ وَمَعَن تَبِعَكَ مِنْهُمْ اَجْمَعِیْنَ ﴿٨٥﴾

(71) When your Lord said to the angels, "Verily, I am creating a human being from clay." (72) "So, when I have perfected him and blown My spirit into him, then every one of you should fall prostrate to him." (73) So every one of the angels prostrated to him... (74) except for Iblīs (Chief Devil). He was haughty, and was from among the disbelievers. (75) Allāh said, "O Iblīs (Chief Devil)! What has prevented you from prostrating to what I have created with My own hands? Are you too proud, or are you superior in rank?" (76) Iblīs (Chief Devil) replied, "I am better than he. You have created me from fire, while you have created him from clay." (77) Allāh said, Depart from here, for you are certainly outcast." (78) "My curse shall be on you until the Day of Reckoning." (79) Iblīs said, "O my Lord! Grant me respite until the Day when people are resurrected." (80) Allāh said, "You are then from those given respite..." (81) "... until the Day of the appointed time." (82) Iblīs (Chief Devil) said, "By Your honour! I shall definitely mislead all of them..." (83) "...except Your chosen slaves among them." (84) Allāh declared, "I speak the truth, and it is the truth that I always speak..." (85) "... I shall certainly fill Hell with you and all those of them who follow you."

THE DISOBEDIENCE AND PRIDE OF IBLĪS (CHIEF DEVIL) WHO REFUSES TO PROSTRATE TO SAYYIDINA ĀDAM عليه السلام

This subject matter of Sayyidina Ādam's عليه السلام creation and the refusal of Iblīs (Chief Devil) to prostrate, has been related in Surah Baqarah [Surah 2, verses 30-39], Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 11-25], Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verses 26-44], and Surah Isrā [Surah 17, verses 61-65]. Refer to these commentaries for the details.

When Allāh intended to create Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, he said to the angels, "Verily, I am creating a human being from clay. So, when I have perfected him and blown My spirit into him, then every one of you should fall prostrate to him."

Allāh used the word "bashar" to refer to a human being. Literally, the word "bashar" refers to something having skin that is not covered with hair. Animals also have skin, but their skin is covered with hair. Besides the head and the chin of men, the rest of the human's body is free of thick hair. Wherever else such hair grows, the Shari'ah has instructed that it be removed. Of course, it is compulsory for men to grow the beard. However, when people return to Heaven, men will not have beards, thereby fully expressing their nature as "basher (Human)".

The above verse states that man was created from clay, whereas Surah Hijr states that he was created from "melodious sand derived from dark decomposing clay." In Surah Rahmān Allāh says that He "created man from melodious sand that resembles potter's clay". Surah An'ām says that man was made from clay.

The fact is that all these verses describe the various stages of man's creation. Initially, sand was gathered from various parts of the earth. Water was then mixed with this sand, turning it into clay. Then this clay was left until it began to decompose and become dark in colour. Thereafter the mould of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was cast with this. When the mould set and dried, it became like pottery clay that has a melodious sound when struck (as is the case with any clay pot). The various verses of the Qur'ān individually refer to these various stages in man's creation.

According to Allāh's command, "every one of the angels fell prostrate to him [Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام]." Iblīs was also among the angels when the command was issued. However, he failed to comply. Allāh says in Surah Kahf, "He was from the Jinn and disobeyed the command of his Lord." A verse of Surah Baqarah reads: "He refused, was haughty, and was from among the disbelievers."

When Iblīs refused to prostrate, Allāh asked, "What prevented you from prostrating when I commanded you?" This verse proves that Iblīs was also commanded to prostrate to Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام. In the above verse of Surah Sad, Allāh says, "Allāh said, 'O Iblīs (Chief Devil)! What has prevented you from prostrating to what I have created with My own hands? Are you too proud, or are you superior in rank?'" Scholars have mentioned that "My own hands" has a metaphorical interpretation because Allāh is not dependent on physical limbs. Whenever importance is attached to something, a person will say that he made it with his own hands. Similarly, this is the interpretation of the verse.

However, others have mentioned that it is inappropriate to tender a metaphorical interpretation. They maintain that the interpretation of 'My own hands" refers to whatever Allāh intends, as is most befitting for His status. It is merely our duty to believe.

This is the same interpretation given for the phrase "blown My spirit into him." They say that Allāh knows best the interpretation of it, and that we should merely believe in it. However, other Scholars have stated that the phrase refers to instilling a soul into Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام.

After Allāh reprimanded Iblīs in this manner, "Iblīs (Chief Devil) replied, 'I am better than him. You have created me from fire, while you have created him from clay.'" He therefore contended that it was below his dignity to prostrate to Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام.

"Allāh said, 'Depart from here, for you are certainly outcast. My curse shall be on you until the Day of Reckoning.'" Of course, someone who is accursed until the Judgment day will certainly be accursed after that as well.

Iblīs (Chief Devil) was overcome with pride. He accepted being accursed, but could not overcome his pride to ask for forgiveness. Instead, he asked for an extended lease of life. He said, "O my Lord! Grant me respite until the Day when people are resurrected." "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that his request was to remain alive until the time that the trumpet is sounded for the second time. He therefore tried to escape death. "Allāh said, 'You are then from those given respite until the Day of the appointed time."

It was then that Iblīs (Chief Devil) disclosed what his heart concealed. "Iblīs said, 'By Your honour! I shall definitely mislead all of them; except Your chosen slaves among them." He took an oath to mislead people by making vice appear to be virtue. Of course, he realised that he could have no effect on those whom Allāh has selected for His obedience. Since he was accursed for not prostrating to Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, Iblīs (Chief Devil) took this oath because he wanted to take revenge against Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام and his progeny. This was extremely foolish of Iblīs (Chief Devil) because it was his own doing that brought the curse on himself, when he disobeyed Allāh's command.

Allāh intended that man be tested in this world. Therefore, he granted Iblīs the reprieve he requested, and gave him the opportunity to mislead mankind. However, Allāh also warned man that Iblīs (Chief Devil) and his army will attempt to mislead them at every step. Allāh sent His Prophets عليهم السلام to the world to show man what is right and what is wrong. Allāh also sent His divine scriptures for man's guidance. Thereafter, Allāh also arranged the system of the Caliphs, who continued to propagate the message to mankind. Therefore, whoever is heedless of these warnings and falls prey to the deception of Iblīs (Chief Devil) shall assume full responsibility for his deeds.

HELL WILL BE FILLED WITH IBLĪS AND HIS FOLLOWERS

After Iblīs (Chief Devil) took an oath to mislead mankind, "Allāh declared, 'I speak the truth, and it is the truth that I always speak. I shall certainly fill Hell with you and all those of them who follow you.'"

When Allāh sent Sayyidina Ādam and Hawwā عليهم السلام to earth, He also declared, "If there ever comes to you any guidance from Me, then whoever will follow My guidance shall have no fear on them, neither shall they grieve. Those who disbelieve and falsify shall be the dwellers of the Fire, where they will abide forever." [Surah Baqarah (2), verses 38 and 39]

NOTE : When Iblis (Chief Devil) said, "O my Lord! Grant me respite until the Day when people are resurrected," Allāh told him, "You are then from those given respite until the Day of the appointed time." Only Allāh knows exactly when this "Day of the appointed time" shall take place. When Allāh decrees that Iblis should die, he will die as a disbeliever, after which he will be condemned to Hell.

قُلْ مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ وَمَا أَنَا مِنَ الْمُتَكَلِّفِينَ ﴿٨٦﴾ إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾ وَلَنَعْلَمَنَّ نَبَأَهُ بَعْدَ حِينٍ ﴿٨٨﴾

(86) Say, "I do not ask you people for any payment for this, and I am not among those who pretend." (87) This is but Advice for the universe. (88) You will surely become aware of the reality after a while.

THERE IS NO PAYMENT FOR PROPAGATING THE TRUTH

People falsified the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he invited them to believe and recited the Qur'an to them. They refused to accept the truth even though he performed miracles for them. Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to invite them in a different manner. Allāh says, "Say [to them, O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم], 'I do not ask you for any payment for this...' i.e. I do not ask you for anything in return for the message of that Qur'an that I recite to you. Therefore, people should ponder about why a person would exert himself so greatly to propagate something for which he stands to earn no material gain. This should lead people to accept the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم must be commanded by Allāh to continue his mission.

Allāh also instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell the people, "and I am not among those who pretend." i.e. I am not one of those who would lay a false claim to Prophethood, neither would I claim that the Qur'an is from Allāh if it was not. Indeed, the Qur'an is from Allāh, and it is 'Advice for the (inhabitants of the) universe.' Therefore, accept the Qur'an as the truth before death.

"You people will surely become aware of the reality (that the Qur'an is the truth from Allāh) after a while (when you die)." However, then it will be too late. Other commentators have interpreted this verse to mean that the polytheists will come to learn the error of their ways when the Battle of Badr takes place.

NOTE : The verse "I do not ask you for any payment for this," is a message to all preachers that their efforts must be done solely for Allāh, without any payment from people. When preaching, they should not hope to receive anything from the people.

"...and I am not among those who pretend." This verse teaches Muslims, moreso Muslim preachers, that they should never pretend. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه said, "O people! Whoever knows something should express it. Whoever does not know something should say, 'Allāh knows best.' (i.e. He should not pretend that he knows, because this will entail lying). If you do not know something, admit it and say, 'Allāh knows best'. This is also knowledge. Allāh has commanded His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Say, 'I do not ask you for any payment for this, and I am not among those who pretend.'" [Bukhari, v.2 p.7 10]

There are many people who have no knowledge, yet assume the title of Mufti, Maulana or Ālimuddin. When they are asked about any religious ruling or hadith, they deem it below their dignity to admit their ignorance on the matter. They then say whatever occurs to them. The above verse is a caution to such people. Muslims should stay away from matters that are far from the truth, or have little bearing on reality.

A woman once told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that she was a co-wife, and asked whether she could tell her husband's other wife that her husband had given her certain things, which he did not. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "The person who falsely claims that he/she was given something is like a person who dons clothing of lies." ["Mishkāt" p. 281, from Bukhari and Muslim]

سورة الزمر

Makkan

Surah Zumar

Verses 75

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

تَنْزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ ﴿١﴾ إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ
بِالْحَقِّ فَاعْبُدِ اللَّهَ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ ﴿٢﴾ أَلَا لِلَّهِ الدِّينُ الْخَالِصُ وَالَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا
مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ مَا نَعْبُدُهُمْ إِلَّا لِيُقَرِّبُونَا إِلَى اللَّهِ زُلْفَىٰ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَحْكُمُ
بَيْنَهُمْ فِي مَا هُمْ فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ۗ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي مَنْ هُوَ كَاذِبٌ كَفَّارٌ
﴿٣﴾ لَوْ أَرَادَ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ وَلَدًا لَاصْطَفَىٰ مِمَّا يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ سُبْحَنَهُ ۗ هُوَ
اللَّهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ ﴿٤﴾ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ يُكْوِّرُ اللَّيْلَ عَلَى
النَّهَارِ وَيُكْوِّرُ النَّهَارَ عَلَى اللَّيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي
لِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ۗ أَلَا هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْغَفَّارُ ﴿٥﴾ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ نَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ
مِنْهَا زَوْجَهَا وَأَنزَلَ لَكُمْ مِنْ الْأَنْعَامِ ثَمَنِيَّةً ۖ أَرَأَيْتُمْ يَخْلُقُكُمْ فِي بُطُونِ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ
خَلْقًا مِنْ بَعْدِ خَلْقٍ ۖ فُطِنَتْ ثَلَاثُ ذَلِكُمْ ۚ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا
هُوَ فَأَنَّى تُصْرَفُونَ ﴿٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) This is a revealed book from Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise. (2) Undoubtedly, We have revealed the Book to you with the truth, so worship Allāh, making religion exclusively His. (3) Behold! Religion is purely for Allāh. Those people who take others as partners of Allāh say, "We worship them only so that they may draw us close to Allāh. Verily Allāh shall decide between them with regard to the matters in which they differ. Undoubtedly, Allāh does not guide the one who is a liar and a disbeliever. (4) If Allāh intended to take a son, He would have chosen whatever He desires from His creation. He is Pure, and He is the

One, the Omnipotent. (5) He has created the heavens and the earth with the truth. He folds the night into the day, folds the day into the night, and has subjugated the sun and the moon. Each one runs to a prescribed term. Behold! He is the Mighty, the Most Forgiving. (6) He has created you from a single soul, after which He made a spouse from the soul, and also made eight pairs for you from the (domestic) animals. Allāh creates you in the wombs of your mothers, as a creation after a creation in three darknesses. That is Allāh, your Lord, to Whom all Kingdoms belong. There is none worthy of worship besides Him. So where are you turning to?

ALLĀH IS ONE, MIGHTY AND OMNIPOTENT, WHO HAS SUBJUGATED THE SUN AND THE MOON, AND CREATED MAN IN THREE LAYERS OF DARKNESS

These opening verses of Surah Zumar discuss the revelation of the Qur'ān, establishes oneness of Allāh and refutes polytheism. These verses also describe Allāh's majestic creative power.

Allāh begins by saying, "This is a revealed book from Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise." Thereafter, Allāh changes the mode of address when He addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم directly saying, "Undoubtedly, We have revealed the Book to you with the truth, so worship Allāh, making religion (beliefs) exclusively His." Although the verse appears to address the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it is intended for the whole of mankind. Since it is compulsory for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to adhere to oneness of Allāh, it will also be necessary for others to hold the same belief. Allāh then declares, "Behold! Religion is purely for Allāh." This indicates that it is imperative that every person subscribes to the belief of oneness of Allāh.

Allāh then addresses a false notion of the Polytheists. Allāh says, "Those people who take others as partners to Allāh say, 'We worship them only so that they may draw us close to Allāh.'" These people contend that the partners they ascribe to Allāh will present their acts of worship in Allāh's court, or will at least intercede on their behalf before Allāh, so that their needs are fulfilled.

The fact is that Satan is a master at misleading people. When the Prophets عليهم السلام and others condemned polytheist, their discourses started to make an impact upon the minds of the polytheists. To maintain polytheist among the people, Satan made them believe that their worship of other beings was not contrary to oneness of Allāh. He told them that this was rather another form of oneness of Allāh because it was not possible to reach Allāh without the agency of Allāh's chosen servants. These chosen servants of Allāh, because of their proximity to Allāh, were able to intercede on behalf of others. Therefore, he impressed upon their minds that worshipping others, because it was useful in securing Allāh's proximity, was part of worshipping Allāh. He told them that the ministers in royal courts are a necessary link to reach the attention of worldly kings. Therefore, he said, it is even more necessary that links are sought to reach the divine presence of Allāh.

When Satan had convinced the misguided people about the truth of his 'preaching', they always had a ready reply for anyone who highlighted the abomination of polytheist to them. They simply said, “We worship them only so that they may draw us close to Allāh.” Today’s grave worshippers, who prostrate to the graves of saints, give the same reply.

“Verily Allāh shall decide between them with regard to the matters in which they differ.” This decision will be taken on the Judgment day when the disbelievers and polytheists will be condemned to Hell, while the believers will be admitted into Heaven.

“Undoubtedly, Allāh does not guide the one who is a liar and a disbeliever.” There are two types of guidance. The first type, which entails pointing out the right path to people, is meant for all mankind. However, the second type, which is to take a person by the hand and help him reach the destination, will not be granted to people who are obstinate in their disbelief and who are adamant not to seek the truth.

Thereafter, Allāh addresses those people who say that Allāh has children. Allāh says, “If Allāh intended to take a son, He would have chosen whatever He desires from His creation.” However, taking a son implies a defect in Allāh (Allāh forbid!) whereas “He is Pure from all defects”. Allāh has no children, and “He is the One, the Omnipotent.”

Allāh fulfils the needs of all creation, and does not require any assistance at all. People require children to assist them in times of need and during old age. Allāh is Eternal, Independent, and His attributes will never change. There can be none equal to Him or like Him in any way. It is therefore illogical to assume that any being can be His child.

Allāh then speaks of His tremendous creative powers when He says, “He has created the heavens and the earth with the truth. He folds the night into the day, folds the day into the night, and has subjugated the sun and the moon. Each one runs to a prescribed term. Behold! He is the Mighty, the Most Forgiving.” Allāh has charged the sun and the moon to carry out specific tasks. They will duly carry out their specific tasks until the time that Allāh ordains their end. None can act contrary to what Allāh has predestined because He is Mighty and cannot be overpowered. Of course, if any disbeliever chooses to repent and believe, Allāh is also the Most Forgiving and will certainly pardon.

Allāh says further, “He has created you from a single soul [Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام], after which He made a spouse from the soul...” Allāh has created all of mankind from Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, from whose left rib Allāh created his spouse, Sayyidah Hawwā عليها السلام. It is from their union that Allāh has allowed billions of people to flourish on earth.

Allāh has “also made eight pairs for you from the (domestic) animals.” These eight refer to the pairs (male and female) of cows, camels, goats and sheep. These eight pairs have been mentioned in verses 143 and 144 of Surah An’ām (Surah 6).

“Allāh creates you in the wombs of your mothers, as a creation after a creation in three darknesses.” The creation of man in the womb of his mother is a gradual process of several stages. After conception, the process begins with a clot of blood, followed by a lump of flesh, after which bones are formed, which are eventually dressed in muscle, tissue and skin. The “three darknesses” refer to the belly, the womb, and (thirdly) the membrane in which the foetus develops.

All the above are demonstrations of Allāh's power and might, which should lead man to perceive that only Allāh is the Creator and Master of the universe. Allāh then declares, "That is Allāh, your Lord, to Whom all Kingdoms belong. There is none worthy of worship besides Him. So where are you turning?" After realising that Allāh created people perfectly within three layers of darkness, man should be convinced that He is that Omnipotent Being Who deserves to be worshipped. Worshipping others despite having this knowledge is sheer foolishness.

إِنْ تَكْفُرُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَنِيٌّ عَنْكُمْ وَلَا يَرْضَىٰ لِعِبَادِهِ الْكُفْرَ وَإِنْ تَشْكُرُوا يَرْضَهُ لَكُمْ
وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِزْرَ أُخْرَىٰ ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ مَرْجِعُكُمْ فَيُنَبِّئُكُم بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ
إِنَّهُمْ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

(7) If you disbelieve, then Allāh is certainly Independent of you. Allāh is not pleased with disbelief for His slaves. If you are grateful, then this is what pleases Him. None shall bear the burden of another's sins. Thereafter, your return shall be to your Lord, Who will inform you of what you used to do. Verily, He has knowledge of the secrets of the heart.

ALLĀH IS INDEPENDENT, DISLIKES DISBELIEF AND LIKES GRATITUDE

After calling towards oneness of Allāh and highlighting the abomination of polytheism, Allāh dispels a doubt which may creep into people's minds. People may be led to think that Allāh is in need of them believing in oneness of Allāh, or that Allāh needs their worship. Allāh declares in the above verse that He is Independent of people, and He will not be harmed in any way if they choose to disbelieve.

However, this does not mean that Allāh will be pleased with people for adopting disbelief. Allāh will punish people for disbelief, while others will benefit greatly by being grateful to Allāh and sincerely believing in oneness of Allāh.

Allāh then tells the disbelievers that they should not be fooled into thinking that their leaders will suffer the punishment of disbelief on their behalf just because it was these leaders that led them to disbelief. Allāh declares, 'None shall bear the burden of another's sins.' Every person will have to suffer the eternal punishment for the disbelief that s/he perpetrates.

No person should ever think that he will not have to answer for his sins. None should also think that his deeds will not be presented in the Hereafter because they disappear after being committed. Such people should bear in mind that Allāh has knowledge of everything. Not only is He aware of those actions that are visible, but He is also perfectly Aware of the secrets that people hide in their hearts. On the Day of Judgment Allāh will remind people of the deeds that they carried out in this world. Therefore, people should endeavour to carry out the best deeds after becoming believers.

وَإِذَا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ ضُرٌّ دَعَا رَبَّهُ مُنِيبًا إِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا خَوَّلَهُ نِعْمَةً مِّنْهُ نَسِيَ مَا كَانَ يَدْعُو إِلَيْهِ مِن قَبْلُ وَجَعَلَ لِلَّهِ أَنْدَادًا لِّيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ قُلْ تَمَتَّعْ بِكُفْرِكَ قَلِيلًا إِنَّكَ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّارِ ﴿٨﴾ أَمَّنْ هُوَ قَنِيتٌ ءَانَاءَ الْيَلِّ سَاجِدًا وَقَائِمًا يَحْذَرُ الْآخِرَةَ وَيَرْجُوا رَحْمَةَ رَبِّهِ قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ إِنَّمَا يَتَذَكَّرُ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ ﴿٩﴾

(8) When any adversity afflicts man, he supplicates to Allāh, turning to Him only. Then, when Allāh confers a bounty upon him, he forgets for what he supplicated to Allāh before. He then ascribes partners to Allāh, thereby misleading (others) from Allāh 's path. Say, "Enjoy your disbelief for a while! You will certainly be from the inmates of the Fire." (9) Or the person who is engrossed in worship throughout the hours of the night, prostrating and standing, fearing the Hereafter and aspiring for the mercy of his Lord? Say, "Can those with knowledge be equal to those who do not have knowledge? Only those with intelligence will take heed."

MAN PRAYS TO ALLĀH FOR ASSISTANCE WHEN IN DIFFICULTY, BUT FORGETS TO SUPPLICATE WHEN IN COMFORT AND PROSPERITY

Allāh says, "When any adversity afflicts man, he supplicates to Allāh, turning to Him only (forgetting all his gods, knowing that they are helpless). Then, when Allāh confers a bounty upon him, he forgets for what he supplicated to Allāh before. (In addition to this) He then ascribes partners to Allāh, thereby misleading (others) from Allāh 's path."

Allāh says in Surah Ankabūt, "When they board a ship they supplicate to Allāh with sincere belief in Him. But when He rescues them to land, they again begin to ascribe partners to Him. To show in gratitude for the things We gave them and to enjoy. Soon they will come to know." [Surah 29, verses 65,66]

Allāh declares, "Say [to them, O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم], 'Enjoy your disbelief for a while! You will certainly be from the inmates of the Fire.'" This verse is addressed to those people who adamantly adhere to disbelief because they fear the loss of some material wealth, some position or their friends if they were to accept Islām. These people fail to realise that the material gains of this world cannot be compared to the eternal punishment of the Hereafter.

The punishment of Hell is not small issue. None will be prepared to endure the fire of this world for even five minutes in exchange for a kingdom. It is therefore extremely surprising that anyone can be prepared to endure the more intense fire of Hell for the trivial gains of this world! These gains are nothing, even though they appear to be immense.

THE ATTRIBUTES OF THE PIOUS

"Or the person who is engrossed in worship throughout the hours of the night, prostrating (at times) and standing (at times), fearing the Hereafter and aspiring for the mercy of his Lord (Can such person be equal to one who is a disbeliever and a sinner)? Say, 'Can those with knowledge be equal to those who do not have knowledge? Only those with intelligence will take heed.'" It is obvious that a believer with the above attributes cannot be compared to a sinful disbeliever. The purport of this verse is similar a verse of Surah Sād, where Allāh states, "Should We make those who believe and do righteous deeds like those who spread corruption on earth? Should We make the pious ones like the sinners?" [Surah 38, verse 28]

Thereafter, Allāh says, "Say, 'Can those with knowledge be equal to those who do not have knowledge?'" This verse makes it clear that those people whose knowledge has guided them to belief and who carry out good deeds cannot be compared to people who are ignorant of oneness of Allāh. The two groups of people cannot be equal because the people of knowledge will enter Heaven on the Judgment day, whereas the ignorant will be doomed to Hell.

"Only those with intelligence will take heed." People without intelligence, as well as those who do not utilise their intelligence, will be unable to heed the advice given to them. There are many people today who are regarded to be intelligent because of the inventions they have developed, and the scientific theories that they have postulated. However, they have not recognised Allāh. Many of them refute Allāh's existence (atheists), while others ascribe partners to Him (polytheists). The intelligence of such people is wasted. Any 'intelligence' that leads a person to Hell is useless.

THE VIRTUE OF TAHAJJUD SALĀH (SUPEREROGATORY PRAYER)

The above verse makes reference to the virtue of the Tahajjud Salāh (supererogatory prayer). Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best Salāh after the Fardh Salāhs (obligatory prayers) is that Salāh which is performed during the middle of the night." ["Mishkāt" p. 110]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned, "The most honourable people of my Ummah are those who are bearers of the Qur'an and who perform Salāh during the night." [Ibid]

Sayyidina Mughiera رضى الله عنه narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would exert himself so much in his nightly worship that his feet used to swell. When he was asked why he exerted himself so when all his past and future sins were forgiven, he would reply, "Should I then not be a grateful servant? i.e. It is necessary that I exert myself even more in gratitude." [Bukhari v.1 p. 152]

".... fearing the Hereafter and aspiring for the mercy of his Lord?" This phrase teaches us that a believer should combine the qualities of fear and hope. Describing certain Prophets عليهم السلام, Allāh says, "Verily, they would hasten to perform good deeds and supplicated to Us in anticipation and fear." [Surah Anbiya (21), verse 90]

A verse of Surah Sajdah reads, "Their sides part from their beds, they supplicate to their Lord in fear and hope, and they spend from what We have provided for them." [Surah 32, verse 16]

These verses make it clear that a person should continue to make supplication to Allāh and hope for His mercy and benevolence. However, he should also fear Allāh at all times. It is foolish for a person to merely entertain hopes that Allāh will be merciful towards him without carrying out good deeds.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once came to see a young Sahabi (companion) رضى الله عنه who was on his deathbed. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him, "How do you feel?" He replied, "I have hope in Allāh, yet I fear to be taken to task on account of my sins." Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "At this time (of death), whoever finds these two emotions in his heart, Allāh will certainly fulfil his hopes and save him from what he fears." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 140]

قُلْ يٰعِبَادِ الَّذِيْنَ ءَامَنُوْا اتَّقُوْا رَبَّكُمْ لِّلَّذِيْنَ اَحْسَنُوْا فِيْ هٰذِهِ الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةٌ
وَّارْضَ اللّٰهُ وَاسِعُهُۥۭۙ اِنَّمَا يُوَفِّي الصّٰدِقُوْنَ اَجْرَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿١٠﴾ قُلْ اِنِّىْۤ اُمِرْتُ اَنْ
اَعْبُدَ اللّٰهَ مُخْلِصًا لّٰهُ الدِّيْنَ ﴿١١﴾ وَاُمِرْتُ لِاَنْ اَكُوْنَ اَوَّلَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿١٢﴾ قُلْ اِنِّىْۤ اَخَافُ
اِنْ عَصَيْتُ رَبِّىْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيْمٍ ﴿١٣﴾ قُلْ اللّٰهُ اَعْبُدْ مُخْلِصًا لِّىْ دِيْنِىْ ﴿١٤﴾ فَاَعْبُدُوْا مَا
شِئْتُمْ مِّنْ دُوْنِهٖۙ قُلْ اِنَّ الْخٰلَسِيْنَ مَالِ الَّذِيْنَ خَسِرُوْا اَنْفُسَهُمْ وَاَهْلِيْهِمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِۙ اِلَّا ذٰلِكَ
هُوَ الْخٰسِرَانِ الْمُبِيْنِ ﴿١٥﴾ لَهُمْ مِّنْ قُوْفِهِمْ ظُلَلٌ مِّنَ النَّارِ وَمِنْ تَحْتِهِمْ ظُلَلٌۭ ذٰلِكَ
يُخَوِّفُ اللّٰهُ بِهٖۤ عِبَادَهُۥۙ يٰعِبَادُ فَاَنْتَقُوْنَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَالَّذِيْنَ اٰجْتَنَبُوا الطّٰغُوْتَ اَنْ يَّعْبُدُوْهَا وَاَنَابُوْا
اِلَى اللّٰهِ لَهُمُ الْبُشْرٰىۙ فَبَشِّرْ عِبَادِ ﴿١٧﴾ الَّذِيْنَ يَسْتَمِعُوْنَ الْقَوْلَ فَيَتَّبِعُوْنَ اَحْسَنَهٗۙ
اُوْلٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ هَدٰىهُمُ اللّٰهُ وَاُوْلٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْاٰلُوبِ ﴿١٨﴾ اَفَمَنْ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِ كَلِمَةُ
الْعَذَابِ اَفَاَنْتَ تُنْقِذُ مَنْ فِى النَّارِ ﴿١٩﴾ لٰكِنِ الَّذِيْنَ اَنْفَقُوْا رَهْمَۭمْ لَّهُمْ عُرْفٌ مِّنْ فَوْقِهَا
عُرْفٌ مَّبْنِيَّةٌ تَجْرِىۭ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ وَعَدَّ اللّٰهُ لَا يَخْلِفُ اللّٰهُ اَلْعِيَادَ ﴿٢٠﴾ اَلَمْ تَرَ
اَنَّ اللّٰهَ اَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَآءِ مَآءًۭ فَسَلَكَهُۥۙ يَنْبِيعٍ فِى الْاَرْضِ ثُمَّ يُخْرِجُ بِهٖۤ زَرْعًا مُّخْتَلِفًا
اَلْوَنُهٗ ثُمَّ يَهِيْجُ فَنَرٰهُ مُصْفَرًّا ثُمَّ يَجْعَلُهُۥۙ حُطَلًاۙ اِنَّ فِىْ ذٰلِكَ لَذِكْرًا
لِّاُوْلٰى الْاَلْبَابِ ﴿٢١﴾

(10) Say, "O those slaves of Mine who have believed! Fear your Lord. There shall be a pleasant recompense in this world for those who do good. Allāh's earth is vast. The patient ones shall be granted their reward without reservation." (11) Say, "I have been commanded to worship Allāh, making all of worship solely for Him." (12) "And I have been commanded to be the first of believers." (13) Say, "I fear the punishment of a severe day if I disobey my Lord." (14) Say, "I worship Allāh only, making my worship solely for Him." (15) "So worship whatever you wish besides Him." Say, "Verily the losers are those who put themselves and their families at a loss on the Judgment day. Behold! That is the evident loss." (16) They shall have flames above them and flames beneath them. It is with these things that Allāh warns His bondsmen. O my bondsmen Fear Me! (17) There are glad tidings for those who refrain from worshipping Satan, and who turn to Allāh. So convey glad tidings to My bondsmen... (18) ... who listen intently to the speech and follow the best of it. These are the ones whom Allāh has guided, and these are the ones who possess intelligence. (19) Or the one against whom the decree for punishment has been passed? Can you rescue the one who is in the Fire? (20) However, those who fear their Lord shall have balconies with balconies built above these. Beneath these, there will be rivers flowing. Allāh has made this promise, and Allāh never breaches His promise. (21) Do you not see that Allāh sends rain from the sky, and then channels it in springs within the earth? Thereafter, He extracts crops of different colours with it. Then the crops wither away, and you will see it turn yellow, after which Allāh devastates it. There is certainly a reminder in this for people of intelligence.

THE COMMAND TO FEAR ALLĀH AND WORSHIP HIM EXCLUSIVELY

Allāh has commanded the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to make certain declarations in the above verses.

The first command is: "Say, 'O those slaves of Mine who have believed! Fear your Lord.' "When a believer fears Allāh, he will be prompted to carry out good deeds and abstain from evil. He is reminded that "There shall be a pleasant recompense in this world for those who do good. Allāh's earth is vast." Of course, as a person accumulates good deeds to his name, he will have to be steadfast and persevere so that these do not come to an end. This perseverance is never in vain, because Allāh says "The patient ones shall be granted their reward without count."

"Allāh's earth is vast." There are times when a believer finds it difficult, if not impossible to carry out the injunctions of Islām, and to implement the Shari'ah in his life because of the constraints of the country he lives in. This part of the verse encourages such believers to pick up the courage to migrate to such a country where Din (religion) is more practicable. He should overcome the natural love he bears for his homeland, and migrate to another place, where, Insha Allāh, Allāh will ease the way for him. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "He who migrates in Allāh's way shall find in the land an abundance of pastures and vastness." [Surah 4, verse 100]

The second command issued to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is: "Say, 'I have been commanded to worship Allāh, making all of worship solely for Him. And I have been commanded to be the first of believers.'" The Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is the last Ummah to appear on earth. The first believer of this Ummah was none other than the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself. Just as it is necessary for all Muslims to adhere to the Shari'ah of Islām, this was also necessary for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This declaration tells people that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not merely a preacher, but he was himself a believer and a servant of Allāh. He practised whatever he preached to others.

The third command issued in the above verses is: "Say, 'I fear the punishment of a severe day if I disobey my Lord. 'The Prophets عليهم السلام were all sinless. This declaration is therefore hypothetical i.e. "If I were ever to sin, I would be fearful of the punishment of a severe day." If a sinless Prophet announces that he fears Allāh's punishment, how much more should a normal sinful person fear Allāh?

The fourth command issued to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is to "Say, 'I worship Allāh only, making my worship solely for Him." This is an invitation for the rest of mankind to follow suit.

"So worship whatever you wish besides Him." Those who refuse to worship Allāh may worship whatever they wish but should prepare themselves to face the terrible consequences of eternal punishment in the Hereafter.

The fifth command issued is: "Say, 'Verily the losers are those who put themselves and their families at a loss on the Judgment day (by adhering to disbelief and polytheism). Behold! That is the evident loss." This will be loss of immeasurable proportions from which none will be able to escape. When the verdict of eternal punishment is passed against any person, there will be none to assist, not even one's family and followers whose patronage was so valued in this world. In fact, these people will curse and pinning the blame on each other. It is with reference to this state of total desolation that Allāh says, "Behold! That is the evident loss."

Allāh then proceeds to describe the punishment awaiting the wretched ones. Allāh says, "They shall have flames above them and flames beneath them." This verse describes the enveloping flames as canopies, because of their encompassing nature. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه says that this verse is similar in meaning to verse 41 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7), where Allāh says, "They will have the bed of Hell and a canopy atop them. Thus do We punish the oppressors."

The verse is also similar to verse 55 of Surah Ankabūt, where Allāh says, "The day when the punishment will envelope them from above and from beneath their feet. It will then be said to them, 'Taste what you used to do.'" [Surah 29, verse 55]

"It is with these things that Allāh warns His bondsmen. O my bondsmen! Fear Me (by abstaining from acts that will draw My wrath)!" Allāh then praises those who abstain from disbelief and polytheism when He says, "There are glad tidings for those who refrain from worshipping Satan, and who turn to Allāh."

The Arabic word "tāghūt" (translated above as "Satan ") refers to someone who is extremely evil and exceedingly rebellious and disobedient. This aptly fits the description of Satan whose sole objective is to mislead mankind. Satan appears in various hideous forms before the polytheists, who then make idols in their very forms. Allāh is pleased with those bondsmen of His who refrain from disbelief and all forms of polytheism, who turn to Him only. Such people will be the inhabitants of Heaven.

Allāh says, "So convey glad tidings to My bondsmen; those who listen intently to the speech (Qur'ān) and follow the best of it" i.e. they practise those deeds that will earn them the most rewards, such as the Farā'idh (obligatory) and compulsory. From among the other categories of deeds, they also give preference to those deeds that earn the highest rewards.

With regard to these people, Allāh mentions further, "These are the ones whom Allāh has guided, and these are the ones who possess intelligence." Such people have sound intelligence, and do not blindly follow the misguided ways of their forefathers. They use their intelligence to realise that they should stay clear of disbelief and polytheism.

NOTE: "Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported the following incident in the commentary of the verse: "There are glad tidings for those who refrain from worshipping Satan, and who turn to Allāh."

When Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه accepted Islām, Sayyidina Abdur Rahmān bin Auf رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Sa'd bin Abi Waqqās رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Sa'id bin Zaid رضى الله عنه, and Sayyidina Zubayr bin Awwām رضى الله عنه approached him to confirm whether he accepted Islām. He replied in the affirmative and he advised them to follow suit. Thereupon, they all accepted Islām. It was on this occasion that Allāh revealed the above verse.

"Or the one against whom the decree for punishment has been passed? Can you rescue the one who is in the Fire?" This verse consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him that punishment has been decreed for certain people because they insist on remaining as disbelievers. It is not the task of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to save them from Hell, because this is beyond his capability. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is therefore urged not to be grieved about their disbelief.

Thereafter, Allāh makes mention of the glad tidings that he promised earlier. Allāh says, "However, those who fear their Lord shall have balconies with balconies built above these. Beneath these, there will be rivers flowing. Allāh has made this promise, and Allāh never breaches His promise." Therefore, the pious should rest assured that they will surely receive what has been promised to them.

Among those who refuse to accept Islām, there are many who (despite knowing the truth) do not believe because they fear a loss in their material belongings and world status. Such people are prepared to jeopardise their welfare in the Hereafter in exchange of the measly gains of this world. Drawing their attention to the transitory nature of this world, Allāh says, "Do you not see that Allāh sends rain from the sky, and then channels it in springs within the earth? Thereafter, He extracts crops of different colours with it. Then the crops wither away, and you will see it turn yellow, after which Allāh devastates it."

The nature of this world is similar to the flourishing crops in the fields. For a short while, it remains attractive and sought-after. However, it ultimately withers away to be reduced to nothing. The entire universe will also be reduced to nothing when the trumpet will sounded on the Judgment day. People hanker after the wealth of this world, constructing fortified palaces and fortresses. They amass large amounts of money, run business empires, and aspire to high positions. However, death is sure to overcome every person, thereby reducing all possessions and aspirations into the dust of oblivion.

Allāh declares in Surah Āl Imrān, "The life of this world is but an object of deceit." In hankering after the things of this world, people destroy their lives in the Hereafter. The vicissitudes of this world are ample lessons for people to learn from. Therefore, Allāh says, "There is certainly a reminder therein for people of intelligence." Instead of using their intelligence to learn lessons, people foolishly focus their minds on worldly progress.

Allāh declares in Surah Kahf, "Coin for them the similitude of this worldly life as the rain that We send from the sky, by which the plants of the earth flourish. Thereafter they become debris, to be carried by the winds. Allāh always has control over everything." [Surah 18, verse 45]

أَفَمَنْ شَرَحَ اللَّهُ صَدْرَهُ لِلْإِسْلَامِ فَهُوَ عَلَى نُورٍ مِّن رَّبِّهِٖٓ فَوَيْلٌ لِلْقَاسِيَةِ قُلُوبُهُم مِّن ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ اللَّهُ زَلَّ أَحْسَنَ الْحَدِيثِ كِتَابًا مُّتَشَبِهًا مَّتَانِي نَفْسَعِرُ مِنْهُ جُلُودُ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ ثُمَّ تَلِينُ جُلُودُهُمْ وَقُلُوبُهُمْ إِلَىٰ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ ذَٰلِكَ هُدَىٰ اللَّهِ يَهْدِي بِهِٗ مَن يَشَاءُ وَمَن يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِن هَادٍ ﴿٢٣﴾ أَفَمَن يَتَّبِعِ بَوَاجِهَهُ سُوٓءَ الْعَذَابِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَقِيلَ لِلظَّالِمِينَ ذُوقُوا مَا كُنتُمْ تَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ فَاُتَتْهُمْ الْعَذَابُ مِن حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ فَآذَاهُمُ اللَّهُ الْخِزْيَ فِي الْحَيَوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَلَقَدْ ضَرَبْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَٰذَا الْقُرْآنِ مِن كُلِّ مَثَلٍ لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ قُرْءَانًا عَرَبِيًّا غَيْرَ ذِي عِوَجٍ لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا رَّجُلًا فِيهِ شُرَكَاءُ مُتَشَكِّسُونَ وَرَجُلًا سَلَمًا لِّرَجُلٍ هَلْ يَسْتَوِيَانِ مَثَلًا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ إِنَّكَ مِيتٌ وَإِنَّهُمْ مَّيْتُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عِندَ رَبِّكُمْ تَخْتَصِمُونَ ﴿٣١﴾

(22) Or the person whose heart Allāh has opened to Islām, because of which he is upon a light from his Lord? Destruction be for those whose hearts have hardened against Allāh's remembrance. These people are in manifest deviation.

(23) Allāh has revealed the most superb articulation: a Book with subject matter of similar import, which is oft-repeated. The bodies of those who fear their Lord shiver with it, after which their hearts and bodies soften to Allāh's remembrance. This is Allāh's guidance, with which He guides whoever He wills. There can be no guide for the one whom Allāh sends astray. (24) Or the person who, with his face, will try to save himself from a terrible punishment on the Day of Judgment? It will be said to the oppressors, "Taste what you earned!" (25) Those before them falsified, so the punishment afflicted them from whence they did not perceive. (26) Allāh made them taste humiliation in this worldly life, while the punishment of the Hereafter is worse. If only they knew! (27) Verily, We have coined every type of similitude for people in this Qur'ān so that they may take heed. (28) It is an Arabic Qur'ān without any crookedness, so that they fear. (29) Allāh coins the similitude of a man who is owned by several masters who keep disputing over him; and another man who is owned entirely by one person. Can the two be equal? All praise be to Allāh, but most of them do not know. (30) Indeed, you shall certainly pass away, and they shall all pass away as well. (31) Then, on the Judgment day, you will all quarrel in the presence of your Lord.

THERE SHALL BE LIGHT FOR THOSE WHOSE HEARTS ALLĀH HAS OPENED TO ISLĀM, WHILE DESTRUCTION IS THE LOT OF THOSE WHOSE HEARTS ARE HARDENED AGAINST ALLĀH'S REMEMBRANCE

The previous verses discussed the conditions of the believers and the disbelievers in the Hereafter. The verses above now discuss the condition of the hearts of these two groups. Allāh says, "Or the person whose heart Allāh has opened to Islām, because of which he is upon a light from his Lord?" The heart of such a person is filled with the light of belief. On the other hand, there are those people who are deprived of this light of belief. Describing them, Allāh says, "Destruction be for those whose hearts have hardened against Allāh's remembrance (because they are not accustomed to taking Allāh's name). These people are in manifest deviation."

The above verse therefore makes a distinction between the two groups of people, making it clear that those whose hearts are filled with the light of belief cannot be compared to those whose hearts are hardened. Allāh mentions in Surah An'am, "Whoever Allāh wishes to guide, He expands his bosom for Islām. Whoever He desires to send astray, He narrows and constricts his bosom as if he is ascending in the sky with great difficulty. Thus Allāh afflicts with His punishment those who do not believe." [Surah 6, verse 125]

TWO SIGNS OF AN EXPANDED HEART

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the above verse and then said, "When celestial light (nūr) enters the heart, the heart expands." The Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم enquired, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, is there a sign by which one may recognise this?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Yes, the sign is that a person becomes detached from the 'Home of Deceit' (the world), turns towards the 'Home of Eternity' (Hereafter) and prepares for death in advance." ["Mishkāt" p. 446]

Allāh says in the above verse, "Destruction be for those whose hearts have hardened against Allāh's remembrance. These people are in manifest deviation." Such people are not affected by Allāh's remembrance, and their hearts do not soften by it. A person whose heart has not opened towards Islām will find it difficult to engage in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr). The remembrance (Dhikr) of Allāh is indeed a great boon, which is only appreciated by Allāh's chosen servants. Such people taste the sweetness of remembrance (Dhikr), which becomes their diet.

THE VIRTUE AND IMPORTANCE OF REMEMBRANCE OF ALLĀH (DHIKR)

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that one must not engage in much talk, unless the talk is Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr). This is so because excessive talking hardens the heart, and the hard-hearted person is the most distant from Allāh. [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Busr رضى الله عنه narrates that a person once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "The injunctions of Islām are many. It is difficult for me to act upon every single one of them. Show me something that I may remain steadfast upon." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Your tongue should remain wet with Allāh's remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr)." [Ibid]

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Busr رضى الله عنه reports that a villager once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who the best person was. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that the best person is the one whose life is long and whose deeds are good. The person then inquired about the best deed. The reply was, "That you leave this world while you tongue is moist with Allāh's remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr)." [Ibid]

THE INTERPRETATION OF "A BOOK WITH SUBJECT MATTER OF SIMILAR IMPORT, WHICH IS OFT-REPEATED"

Allāh proceeds to extol the virtues of the Qur'ān. Allāh says, "Allāh has revealed the most superb articulation: a Book with subject matter of similar import, which is oft-repeated." The Arabic word "mutashābihan" (translated above as "with subject matter of similar import") means that all verses of the Qur'ān are equal in eloquence, each a miraculous masterpiece. Another meaning of this word is that the verses are all inter-related, each one having a bearing on the other, and confirming the veracity of the other. Every part of the Qur'ān invites people to oneness of Allāh, establishes Risālah (prophethood) and confirms the advent of Judgment and the Hereafter.

The word "mathāni" (translated above as "oft-repeated") means that advice and good counsel is repeated often in the Qur'ān. Another meaning of the word is that the verses of the Qur'ān are often recited by people without them growing bored. Each time they recite a verse, a new meaning opens up to them.

THE QUALITIES OF THOSE WHO ENGAGE IN REMEMBRANCE (DHIKR) (THE DHĀKIRĪN)

Allāh describes one of the fundamental qualities of people who recite Qur'ān. He says, "The bodies of those who fear their Lord shiver with it (with the Qur'ān)..." The effect of this is that "their hearts and bodies soften to Allāh's remembrance." The above are the two exclusive attributes of people who fear Allāh.

Allāh says in Surah Anfāl, "The believers are those whose hearts tremble when Allāh is mentioned, whose faith (Belief) increases when His verses are recited to them and they trust only in their Lord." [Surah 6, verse 3]

Allāh says further, "This is Allāh's guidance with which He guides whoever He wills. There can be no guide for the one whom Allāh sends astray. Or the person who, with his face, will try to save himself from a terrible punishment on the Judgment day (Can such a person be compared to one who will enter Heaven)?" This verse means that people destined for Hell will first feel the heat of Hell on their faces. They will entertain the hope that the punishment will be confined to this, without the fire touching the rest of their bodies. However, they will be unable to escape entry into Hell, when their entire bodies will be scorched.

Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "Those who shall be resurrected on their faces will certainly be in the worst of predicaments and most deviated from the path." The fact that they will be dragged on their faces into Hell is a terrible punishment on its own. Allāh then speaks about the announcement to be made to these people. Allāh says, 'it will be said to the oppressors, "Taste what you earned!"

Allāh then makes it clear that the disbelievers should not think that the warnings sounded to them are idle threats. There were those in the past who suffered the consequences of their deeds. Allāh says, "Those before them falsified, so the punishment afflicted them from whence they did not perceive. Allāh made them taste humiliation in this worldly life, while the punishment of the Hereafter is worse. If only they knew!"

Allāh then describes the attributes of the Qur'ān. Allāh says, "Verily, We have coined every type of similitude for people in this Qur'ān so that they may take heed." Allāh then adds, "It is an Arabic Qur'ān ....." It was thus easy for the Qur'ān to be understood by the Arabs who were the first addressees of the Qur'ān. They were also in a position to understand the eloquence and rhetoric of the Qur'ān.

The third attribute of the Qur'ān mentioned in the verse is that it is "without any crookedness" i.e. there are no flaws or iniquities in the text of the Qur'ān, neither can any of these be found in the meanings of the verses. Allāh concludes the verse by saying that the Qur'ān was revealed "so that they fear" i.e. it was revealed so that people may refrain from falsifying the truth and fear that they will be taken to task for their evil deeds.

THE SIMILITUDE OF THE POLYTHEISTS AND THE MUWAHHID (MONOTHEISTS)

Allāh cites the similitude of a Polytheist and a Muwahhid (person who believes in oneness of Allāh). Allāh says, "Allāh coins the similitude of a man (a slave) who is owned by several masters who keep disputing over him..." Each master is fighting with the other for complete ownership of the slave so that the slave can do his work exclusively. Caught up in this struggle, the slave is also left bewildered, and has to suffer the ill tempers of each upset master.

The other slave is a "man who is owned entirely by one person." This slave enjoys peace of mind because he owes loyalty to only one master. Allāh asks,

"Can the two be equal?" Judging the state of mind of each slave, the fact becomes evident that they cannot be the same.

Similar is the example of a polytheist and a Muwahhid (monotheist). The Muwahhid (monotheist) worships one Allāh only, and begs all his needs from Allāh only. On the other hand, the Polytheists have several gods. They have to worship one, bow to another, prostrate to a third, etc. The difference between the Polytheist and the Muwahhid (monotheist) is extremely vast, and the two cannot be reconciled.

"All praise be to Allāh (Who has revealed a guidance, and exposed the fallacy of polytheism), but most of them do not know. " Most people fail to make a distinction between right and wrong.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, 'indeed, you shall certainly pass away, and they shall all pass away as well. " In this verse, Allāh consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him that those who oppose him in this world shall soon pass into the Hereafter, where they will suffer the terrible consequences of their evil deeds.

The Tafsīr "Jalālain" states that the polytheists of Makkah eagerly awaited the demise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, saying that they would then be free of him. Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that polytheists will also taste death. They can rest assured only if they are certain of escaping death. However, this is impossible. Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "If you pass away, will they live forever?" [Surah 21, verse 34]

QUARRELS ON JUDGMENT DAY

"Then, on Judgment day, you will all quarrel in the presence of your Lord." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه mentioned, "We used to recite this verse for a long time, but never understood how we would come to a dispute when our Kitāb (Book) is one, our Qibla is one, our Harām is one, and our Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is one. Then, when we began to wage war against each other, we realised that the verse was revealed with reference to us." ["Durrul Manthūr", from the "Mustadrak of Hākim"]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه said, "When we (Muslims) faced each other in combat during the battle of Siffin, we realised that this verse referred to us." ["Durrul Manthūr"]

Although Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه interpreted the verse as a reference to them, the general purport of the words would refer to all disputes and quarrels that would be raised before Allāh on Judgment day.

Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the first disputants to bring their case before Allāh on Judgment day will be two neighbours. The one whose right was denied, shall claim the right before Allāh. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 425]

On Judgment day, subjects will claim their rights from their rulers, the oppressed shall lay charges against their oppressors, creditors will claim their money from their debtors, and people will lay charges of backbiting and slander against others. The details of this are extensive. In short, if every person wishes to avoid being a defendant on the Day of Judgment then no person should ever misappropriate the right of another in this life.

PART TWENTY-FOUR

﴿فَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ كَذَبَ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَذَّبَ بِالْحَقِّ إِذْ جَاءَهُۥٓ أَلَيْسَ فِي
 جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوًى لِّلْكَافِرِينَ﴾ (32) ﴿وَالَّذِي جَاءَ بِالصِّدْقِ وَصَدَّقَ بِهِۦٓ أُولَٔئِكَ هُمُ
 الْمُتَّقُونَ﴾ (33) ﴿لَهُمْ مَا يَشَآءُونَ عِندَ رَبِّهِمْ ذَٰلِكَ جَزَآءُ الْمُحْسِنِينَ﴾ (34)
 ﴿يُكَفِّرُ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ أَسْوَأَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا وَيَجْزِيَهُمْ أَجْرَهُم بِأَحْسَنِ الَّذِي كَانُوا
 يَعْمَلُونَ﴾ (35)

(32) Who can be more unjust than he who lies about Allāh, and falsifies the truth when it comes to him? Is there no abode for the disbelievers in Hell? (33)

The one who brings the truth and confirms it, these are the people who are abstinent. (34) They shall have whatever they desire with their Lord. This is the reward of those who do good. (35) So that Allāh may excuse them for their evil doings and grant them the best of rewards for the good deeds they carried out.

THERE IS NONE AS UNJUST AS A LIAR

While the previous verses discussed the believers, Muwahhiddwīn (monotheists), as well as the disbelievers and polytheists, the above verses discuss the ultimate end of each group. Allāh states, "Who can be more unjust than he who lies about Allāh..." Some of the lies that the polytheists spoke about Allāh was that Allāh had taken a partner and that he had children. Another lie spoken by the polytheists was that whenever they were stopped from any evil, they said that Allāh had commanded them to do it. Allāh quotes them in Surah A'rāf as saying, "We found our forefathers doing this, and Allāh has commanded us to do this." Such people are described as the most unjust people, whose punishment will also be among the worst.

Another evil of such a person is that he 'falsifies the truth (the Qur'ān) when it comes to him?'" Allāh asks, "Is there no abode for the disbelievers in Hell?" This verse makes it clear that such people are doomed to Hell.

Allāh then describes the believers. He says, "The one who brings the truth and confirms it, these are the people who are abstinent." This verse refers to the Prophets عليهم السلام, and all those who perpetuated their responsibility after them. Allāh says that these people are those who abstain from vices like disbelief, polytheism and all other sins. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that "the truth" refers to the Kalimah, "Lā ilāha illallāh", and "The one who brings the truth" refers to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Talking about the towards for such a person, Allāh says, "They shall have whatever they desire with their Lord. This is the reward of those who do good."

"So that Allāh may excuse them for their evil doings and grant them the best of rewards for the good deeds they carried out." This verse means that Allāh has made His promise of rewards apparent to these people in this world so that they excel in good deeds. As a result of this, Allāh will pardon them for whatever evil deeds that may have perpetrated.

أَلَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِكَافٍ عَبْدَهُ وَيُخَوِّفُونَكَ بِالَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ وَمَنْ يُضْلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَمَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ مُضِلٍّ أَلَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِعَزِيزٍ ذِي انْتِقَامٍ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ قُلْ أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ أَرَادَنِيَ اللَّهُ بِضُرٍّ هَلْ هُنَّ كَاشِفَتُ ضُرِّيَّهِ أَوْ أَرَادَنِي بِرَحْمَةٍ هَلْ هِيَ مُمْسِكَةٌ بِرَحْمَتِهِ قُلْ حَسْبِيَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ يَتَوَكَّلُ الْمُتَوَكِّلُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ قُلْ يَتَّقُوا اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ مَكَانَتِكُمْ إِنِّي عَمِلْتُ فَمَنْ يَتَعَلَّمُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ مَنْ يَأْتِيهِ عَذَابٌ يُخْزِيهِ وَيَحِلُّ عَلَيْهِ عَذَابٌ مُقِيمٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ لِلنَّاسِ بِالْحَقِّ فَمَنْ أَسْتَكَدَّ فَلِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ ضَلَّ فَإِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهَا وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِوَكِيلٍ ﴿٤١﴾

(36) Is Allāh not Sufficient for His bondsman? They threaten you with those besides Allāh. There can be no guide for the one whom Allāh sends astray. (37) None can mislead the one whom Allāh guides. Is Allāh not the Mighty, the Most Capable of avenging? (38) Undoubtedly, if you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will certainly reply, "Allāh!" Say, "Tell me about those whom you worship besides Allāh. If Allāh wishes that any harm afflicts me, can they avert the harm? Or if Allāh wishes to shower mercy upon me, are they able to restrain His mercy?" Say, "Allāh suffices for me, and only in Him should those who have trust place their trust." (39) Say, "O my people! Carry out your actions where you are, for I am carrying out mine. Soon you will come to know..." (40) "...to whom a punishment will come which will humiliate him, and on whom an eternal punishment will descend." (41) Without doubt, We have revealed to you a Book with the truth for the people. Whoever is rightly guided, is guided for his benefit, and whoever is misguided, then it is to his own detriment. You have not been sent as a warder over them.

ALLĀH SUFFICES FOR HIS BONDSMEN, AND NONE CAN AVERT ANY DIFFICULTY OR FORTUNE

The polytheists took offence when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم propagated oneness of Allāh to them. One of them said, "You had better desist from speaking ill of our gods, otherwise we shall tell our gods to cause you to lose your senses." It was on this occasion that Allāh revealed the verse: "Is Allāh not Sufficient for His bondsman..."

Another narration reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم dispatched Sayyidina Khālid bin Walīd رضى الله عنه to demolish the idol Uzza. When he reached the place where Uzza was worshipped, the custodian of the idol said to him, "I am warning you that this idol will make you suffer greatly." Sayyidina Khālid رضى الله عنه did not heed the threat and demolished the idol with an axe. It was on this occasion that Allāh revealed the verse, "They threaten you with those besides Allāh." ["Durrul Manthūr"]

The polytheists were scared of their idols, and also threatened the believers with these idols. Allāh says, "Is Allāh not Sufficient for His bondsman?" meaning that He will protect His bondsmen from any calamities or tragedies. The idols are helpless objects that cannot do any good or evil. In fact, even man and Jinn do not have the power to effect any good or evil without Allāh's will.

"There can be no guide for the one whom Allāh sends astray. None can mislead the one whom Allāh guides. Is Allāh not the Mighty, the Most Capable of avenging?" Since the polytheists do not believe that Allāh is "the Mighty, the Most Capable of avenging," they fear that their idols can harm them. As a result, they remain in fear, and also attempt to instil this fear into others.

Thereafter, Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, if you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will certainly reply, 'Allāh!'" Once they have admitted to this, either by word or by deed, then "Say, 'Tell me about those whom you worship besides Allāh. If Allāh wishes that any harm afflicts me, can they avert the harm? Or if Allāh wishes to shower mercy upon me, are they able to restrain His mercy?' Say, (Why then should I fear your gods?) Allāh suffices for me, and only in Him should those who have trust place their trust (Therefore, I also place all my trust in Him Alone)."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is then commanded to make the following announcement: "Say, 'O my people! (Since you are not prepared to forsake your creed, and I am never going to abandon Islām) Carry out your actions where you are, for I am carrying out mine. Soon you will come to know to whom a punishment will come which will humiliate him, and on whom an eternal punishment will descend."

Commentators have mentioned that the humiliating punishment refers to the Battle of Badr when many of the polytheists were killed. These Polytheists were punished in this world, and will certainly suffer the everlasting punishment of the Hereafter.

Allāh concludes this set of verses by saying, "Without doubt, We have revealed to you a Book with the truth for the people. Whoever is rightly guided, is guided for his benefit, and whoever is misguided, then it is to his own detriment. You have not been sent as a warder over them." This verse reassures the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that his task was merely to convey the message of Islām to the people, and that he was not charged to compel them to believe. The ultimate decision to believe and to practise was left to them.

اللَّهُ يَتَوَفَّى الْأَنْفُسَ حِينَ مَوْتِهَا وَالَّتِي لَمْ تَمُتْ فِي مَنَامِهَا فَيُمْسِكُ الَّتِي قَضَىٰ عَلَيْهَا الْمَوْتَ وَيُرْسِلُ الْأُخْرَىٰ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ أَمْ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ شُفَعَاءَ قُلْ أُولَٰئِكَ كَانُوا لَا يَمْلِكُونَ شَيْئًا وَلَا يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ قُلْ لِلَّهِ الشَّفَعَةُ جَمِيعًا لَّمْ يَمْلِكْ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ثُمَّ إِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ اشْمَأَزَّتْ قُلُوبُ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾

(42) Allāh claims souls at the time of their death, as well as those that do not die during their sleep. Allāh then seizes the soul upon which death has been decreed, and releases others until their appointed term. There are certainly signs in this for people who think. (43) Or do they take intercessors besides Allāh? Say, "Even though they do not have control over anything, and have no understanding?" (44) Say, "All intercession is subject to Allāh's will. To Him belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. Eventually, you will all be returned to Him." (45) When Allāh the One is mentioned, the hearts of those who do not believe in the Hereafter contract. However, when the other gods besides Allāh are mentioned, they suddenly rejoice.

ALLĀH CLAIMS SOULS AND INTERCESSION IS ONLY BY HIS LEAVE

Allāh begins by mentioning His supreme control and mastery over the souls of people. Allāh says, "Allāh claims souls at the time of their death, as well as those that do not die during their sleep." When the life of a person has ended, Allāh seizes his soul completely, after which his body is left lifeless and motionless. When people fall asleep, their souls are partially seized, because of which they have no apparent control over their movements.

"Allāh then seizes the soul upon which death has been decreed, and releases others until their appointed term." Allāh releases those sleeping souls from His grasp if their lives are not yet over. None besides Allāh has any authority or say in this matter, which is a daily occurrence that happens before every person.

"There are certainly signs in this for people who think." During every waking moment a person should ponder about this phenomenon. He will then realise that he is so helpless that he does not even have any control over his sleeping and awakening. Keeping this in mind, he will perceive that He is the slave of The Being Who created him.

Thereafter, Allāh highlights the foolishness of the polytheists who have ascribed partners to Allāh. Allāh says, "Or do they take intercessors besides Allāh?" These partners are referred to as "intercessors" in the verse because the polytheists believed that these partners would intercede on their behalf before Allāh. Allāh says further, "Say, '(Do you take them as intercessors) Even though they do not have control over anything, and have no understanding?'" Allāh impresses upon the minds of the polytheists that their idols were nothing more than stones which have no powers, nor do they have any knowledge about anything. They do not even know the meaning of intercession, on whose behalf they should intercede, or before whom they should intercede. How can they ever be expected to intercede?

"Say, 'All intercession is subject to Allāh's will.'" Allāh shall permit intercession only for those whom He pleases, and on whose behalf He pleases. Not even chosen bondsmen like the Prophets عليهم السلام and angels shall be allowed to intercede on behalf of the disbelievers and Polytheists. It is therefore absurd for any disbeliever or polytheist to expect that s/he will ever be pardoned by the so-called "intercession" of their gods.

This answers the question of some polytheists who asked: "Since the angels and Prophet عليه السلام are chosen servants of Allāh who will be permitted to intercede on Judgment day, why can we not expect their intercession on our behalf when we have taken them as gods?" The foregoing discussion makes it clear that although these honourable personalities will be allowed to intercede, they will not be allowed to intercede on behalf of those whom Allāh will not forgive, viz, the disbelievers and the polytheists.

Intercession will be permitted only for those whom Allāh allows. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Who is there to intercede before Him without His permission?" [Surah 2, verse 255]

A verse of Surah TāHā! reads, "On that day intercession will benefit only those whom Rahmān (the Beneficent) permits and whose speech He is pleased with." [Surah 20, verse 109]

Referring to the intercession of the angels, Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "only the one with whom He is pleased will be able to intercede." [Surah 21, verse 28]

"To Him belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. Eventually, you will all be returned to Him." This verse emphasises the fact that everything lies in Allāh's control. He has perfect supremacy of every matter in this universe, as well as in the Hereafter.

Allāh then mentions the intense devotion that the polytheists had towards their idols, and their fervent dislike for Islām. Allāh says, "When Allāh the One is mentioned (i.e. when 'Lā Ilā ha Illallāh' is mentioned), the hearts of those who do not believe in the Hereafter contract." They are extremely annoyed that the names of their idols are not taken with the name of Allāh. On the other hand, "when the other gods besides Allāh are mentioned, they suddenly rejoice."

Similar is the condition of those perpetrators of Bid'ah (Innovations) and polytheism who pose as Muslims. They always take offence when they are reminded of Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) or adherence to the Sunnah. However, they are exuberant when told about following their saints, about the miracles of their saints, and about the fabricated stories about their saints. They can spend entire nights listening to these things, and are able to become ecstatic when hearing the sound of harmoniums and drums. As the night ends with the Fajr Adhān, they then head straight to their beds instead of the Masjid.

قُلِ اللَّهُمَّ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ عَلِيمَ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ أَنْتَ تَحْكُمُ بَيْنَ عِبَادِكَ فِي مَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَلَوْ أَنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ لَافْتَدَوْا بِهِ مِنْ سُوءِ الْعَذَابِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَبَدَا لَهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَمْ يَكُونُوا يَحْتَسِبُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَبَدَا لَهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا كَسَبُوا وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ فَإِذَا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ ضُرٌّ دَعَانَا ثُمَّ إِذَا خَوَّلَهُ نِعْمَةً مِنَّا قَالَ إِنَّمَا أُوتِيتُهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ بَلْ هِيَ فِتْنَةٌ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ قَدْ قَالُوا الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ فَمَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ فَأَصَابَهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا كَسَبُوا وَالَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ سَيُصِيبُهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا كَسَبُوا وَمَا هُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَايَتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾

(46) Say, "O Allāh! Creator of the heavens and the earth! Knower of the unseen and the seen! You shall pass judgement on Resurrection day between Your bondsmen concerning the matters in which they differed." (47) If the oppressors owned whatever is on earth and the like thereof in addition, they would certainly want to offer it as ransom to escape the evil of the punishment on Judgment day. Such things will become apparent to them from Allāh, which they never fathomed. (48) The evil of what they earned will become apparent to them, and they will be enveloped by what they used to mock. (49) When any adversity afflicts man, he supplicates to Us. Thereafter, when We confer a bounty upon him, he says, "I have been granted this because of (my) resourcefulness." Rather, it is a test, but most of them do not know. (50) Those before them said the same words, but the things that they earned did not profit them. (51) So (the repercussions of) the evil deeds they earned caught up with them. Soon (the repercussions of) the evil deeds that the oppressive ones among these people earn shall catch up with them as well. Then they will have no escape. (52) Do they not know that Allāh increases sustenance for whoever he pleases, and straitens as well? There are certainly signs in this for a believing nation.

A SPECIAL SUPPLICATION TAUGHT TO THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ AND THE INSOLENT OF MAN

In the first of the above verses, Allāh commands the Holy Prophet ﷺ to make the following Supplication: "O Allāh! Creator of the heavens and the earth! Knower of the unseen and the seen! You shall pass judgement on the Day of Resurrection between Your bondsmen concerning the matters in which they differed."

This supplication was taught to the Holy Prophet ﷺ as a consolation for the grief he suffered on account of the insolent behaviour of the people towards him, and the hardships they caused him. Through the Holy Prophet ﷺ, the Ummah has also been able to learn the same supplication, which they should recite when suffering difficulties from the masses.

Allāh is perfectly Aware of everything that is seen by people, as well as whatever is hidden from sight. Based on this perfect knowledge, He will swiftly pass judgement against those who denied the truth and who regarded falsehood as being the truth. After this judgement on the Day of Resurrection, Allāh will dispatch them to Hell. On the other hand, Allāh will issue the decree that the believers should be admitted into Heaven.

Allāh continues, "If the oppressors owned whatever is on earth and the like thereof in addition, they would certainly want to offer it as ransom to escape the evil of the punishment on the Day of Judgment." However, they will have nothing with them to offer on the Day of Judgment. Even if they did, it would never be accepted from them. Allāh says in Surah Baqara, "Fear the day when one soul will not avail another in the least, no intercession will be accepted, no ransom will taken, and they will not be helped." [Surah 2, verse 48]

The disbelievers refused to believe in the coming of Judgment day, and did not even believe in a fraction of the punishment that lie in store for them in Hell. Therefore, when they are flung into Hell, they will be encountered with punishment that they would never have imagined. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "Such things will become apparent to them from Allāh, which they never fathomed." It will be then that they will be prepared to ransom their souls from the punishment.

Allāh says further, "The evil of what they earned will become apparent to them, and they will be enveloped by (the punishment due for) what they used to mock."

Thereafter, Allāh makes mention of man's psychology. Allāh says, "When any adversity afflicts man, he supplicates to Us. Thereafter, when We confer a bounty upon him, he says, I have been granted this because of (my) resourcefulness." Instead of saying that Allāh conferred the bounty on him, the person attributes it to his own resourcefulness and intelligence. He gloats about his inventiveness and skill in generating money, instead of admitting that Allāh granted it to him.

Allāh declares, "Rather, it (the bounty) is a test, but most of them do not know." Allāh confers wealth to a person as a test to see whether he will be grateful or not. Man, who says that he earned everything because of his expertise, should ask himself: "My resourcefulness was with me at the time that I had no money, just as it is with me now that I have money. Why did my resourcefulness and intelligence not help me then?" In this way, he will come to realise that wealth is certainly a blessing from Allāh, which is not dependent on his intelligence. When people fail to express their gratitude to Allāh for His bounties, they have failed the "test" of Allāh's bounties.

"Those before them said the same words (that they acquired bounties by virtue of their own intelligence), but the things that they earned did not profit them." Their wealth and property could not save them from Allāh's punishment in this world. In the same way, they will be useless in the Hereafter as well.

"So (the repercussions [punishment] of) the evil deeds they earned caught up with them. Soon (the repercussions of) the evil deeds that the oppressive ones among these (present-day) people earn shall catch up with them as well." Consequently, seventy prominent polytheists were killed during the Battle of Badr, while seventy other polytheists were taken captive. The rest had to return to Makkah, disgraced and crestfallen. "Then they will have no escape." No person can ever escape Allāh's punishment when it comes to him.

"Do they not know that Allāh increases sustenance for whoever he pleases, and straitens as well?" Sustenance does not depend on the intelligence or resourcefulness of any person. Allāh provides for the educated as well as for the illiterate. It often happens that an intelligent and educated person is penniless, while an ignorant person becomes an affluent entrepreneur. Based on His perfect wisdom, Allāh grants whatever He wills to whoever He wills. "There are certainly signs in this for a believing nation."

﴿قُلْ يٰعِبَادِيَ الَّذِينَ أَسْرَفُوا عَلَىٰ أَنفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوا مِن رَّحْمَةِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَغْفِرُ
الذُّنُوبَ جَمِيعًا إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ﴾ ﴿٥٣﴾ وَأَنِيبُوا إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ وَأَسْلُمُوا لَهُ مِن
قَبْلِ أَن يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْعَذَابُ ثُمَّ لَا تُصْرَبُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَأَتَّبِعُوا أَحْسَنَ مَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكُم
مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ مِن قَبْلِ أَن يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْعَذَابُ بَغْتَةً وَأَنتُمْ لَا تَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾
أَن تَقُولَ نَفْسٌ بِحَسْرَتٍ عَلَىٰ مَا فَرَطْتُ فِي جَنبِ اللَّهِ وَإِن كُنتُ لَمِنَ السَّادِرِينَ
﴿٥٦﴾ أَوْ تَقُولَ لَوْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ هَدَانِي لَكُنتُ مِنَ الْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٥٧﴾ أَوْ تَقُولَ حِينَ
تَرَى الْعَذَابَ لَوْ أَنَّ لِي كَرَّةً فَأَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾ بَلَىٰ قَدْ جَاءَ تَاكَ
ءَاتِيَتِي فَكَذَّبْتَ بِهَا وَاسْتَكْبَرْتَ وَكُنتَ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٥٩﴾ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ تَرَى
الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ وُجُوهُهُم مُّسْوَدَّةٌ أَلَيْسَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوًى لِّلْمُتَكَبِّرِينَ
﴿٦٠﴾ وَسُجِّيَ لِلَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا بِمَقَارِبِهِمْ لَا يُمْسُهُمُ السُّوْءُ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ

﴿ 61 ﴾
﴿ 62 ﴾
﴿ 63 ﴾

اللَّهُ خَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَكِيلٌ ﴿ 62 ﴾ لَمْ مَقَالِيدُ السَّمَوَاتِ
 وَالْأَرْضِ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿ 63 ﴾

(53) Say, "O My bondsmen who have transgressed their souls! Never lose hope of Allāh's mercy. Verily, Allāh forgives all sins. Undoubtedly, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." (54) Turn to your Lord and surrender to Him before punishment afflicts you, after which you will not be assisted. (55) Follow the best injunctions, which your Lord has revealed to you before punishment suddenly afflicts you without you realising it. (56) (Do all this to avoid the situation where) a soul says, "Woe betide me for the neglect I showed with regard to Allāh! In fact, I was from among those who mocked!" (57) Or (that a soul says), "If only Allāh had guided me, I would have certainly been from among the abstinent." (58) Or that a soul says when seeing the punishment, "If only I had a chance (to return to the world), I would certainly be from among those who do good." (59) Indeed, My verses came to you, but you falsified them, you were arrogant and from among the disbelievers. (60) On the Day of Judgment, you will see that the faces of those who lied about Allāh will be dark. Is there not an abode in Hell for the arrogant? (61) Allāh will rescue those with Piety by virtue of their success. No evil will touch them, neither shall they grieve. (62) Allāh is the Creator of everything, and He is the Administrator of all things. (63) The keys of the heavens and the earth belong to him. Those who disbelieve in Allāh's verses (and signs) are the real losers.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF ALLĀH'S ALL-ENCOMPASSING MERCY, THE COMMAND TO TURN TO ALLĀH, AND THE MISERABLE PLIGHT OF THOSE WHO DO NOT BELIEVE

Allāh is the Wise, All Hearing, All Seeing, All Knowing, Omnipotent, and the Most Forgiving. Allāh declares His all-encompassing forgiveness when He instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to, "Say, 'O My bondsmen who have transgressed their souls! Never lose hope of Allāh's mercy. Verily, Allāh forgives all sins. Undoubtedly, He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful."

Allāh will forgive the greatest sinner if he sincerely repents to Him. Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه has mentioned that no verse of the Qur'an exceeds the above verse in expressing the vast nature of Allāh's mercy ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]. However, the condition for a disbeliever or a polytheist to be forgiven is that they accept Islām. They will not be forgiven if they remain as disbelievers and polytheists.

Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Verily Allāh does not forgive that polytheism be committed, but may forgive all sins besides this for whom He wills." [Surah 4, verse 48]

A verse of Surah Āl Imrān reads, "Verily those who disbelieve and die as disbelievers, the earth full of gold shall never be accepted from any of them if they ever wish to offer it as ransom. Theirs shall be a painful punishment and they shall have no helpers." [Surah 3, verse 91]

Allāh's doors of forgiveness are wide open for the disbelievers and polytheists on condition that they accept Islām and repent sincerely. Bukhari (v.2 p.7 10) reports that there were many polytheists who perpetrated vices like murder and adultery. They approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with the desire to accept Islām, but asked whether the major sins they committed could be revoked. It was then that Allāh revealed the following two verses:

"Those who do not call to another deity with Allāh, who only kill a soul forbidden by Allāh with a warrant, and who do not fornicate." [Surah Furqān (25), verse 68]

"Say, 'O My bondsmen who have transgressed their souls! Never lose hope of Allāh's mercy." [Surah Zumar (39), verse 53]

When a person accepts Islām and repents for his disbelief and polytheism, all his previous sins are forgiven, except the rights he owes to others. Similarly, a Muslim who may have committed an abundance of sins will be forgiven if he repents sincerely, except for the fights he owes to others. Compensating people for the rights owed to them is an integral part of Taubah (repentance).

Sayyidah Asmā bint Yazīd رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse, "Say, 'O My bondsmen who have transgressed their souls! Never lose hope of Allāh's mercy. Verily, Allāh forgives all sins.'" Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم added, "And Allāh does not mind." This means that Allāh does not mind forgiving the worst sinners for the worst sins. When a person repents sincerely to Allāh, there is nothing to prevent the repentance from being accepted.

It is best for a Muslim to constantly make Taubah (repentance). Even if he happens to perpetrate sins thereafter, he should repeat the Taubah (repentance) each time. Millions of sins cannot even come near to exhausting Allāh mercy. Allāh says in Surah Yusuf, "do not become despondent of Allāh's mercy. Indeed only the disbelieving nation grows despondent of Allāh's mercy." [Surah 12, verse 87]

In a discussion with the angels, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام said to them, "Only the deviant are despondent of Allāh's mercy." [Surah Hijr (15), verse 56]

While minor sins may be forgiven by carrying out good deeds, major sins require Taubah (repentance) to guarantee that they are forgiven. If a person passes away with belief before making Taubah (repentance), his sins will be forgiven, but there is no guarantee that the forgiveness will be without punishment. Although Allāh can pardon a person without him making Taubah (repentance), but the risk of being punished in this event is very high. It is therefore best to make Taubah (repentance) and not run the risk of suffering punishment.

Taubah (repentance) should be made constantly, and a person must never lose hope that Allāh will certainly forgive him. It is the hallmark of a loyal servant that he becomes convinced of Allāh's forgiveness after hearing Allāh's promises. However, he should also abstain from sins and always endeavour to perform good deeds.

None has been given greater glad tidings of forgiveness than the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In the opening verses of Surah Fatah, Allāh declares that all the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم past, present, and future errors are forgiven.

Despite this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to exert himself so greatly in worship that his feet used to swell. When asked the reason for this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Should I then not be a grateful slave?" [Bukhari p. 152] This means that the exertion in worship is a token of gratitude for the favour of forgiveness.

It is common knowledge that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave many Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم the good news that they were assured entry into Heaven. Among these were the famous Ashara Mubashara (The ten most pious Companions who were given glad tidings to enter paradise before their deaths). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also conveyed the following message of Allāh to those Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم who participated in the Battle of Badr: "Do as you please, because I have already forgiven you all."

Although these and many other Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم were assured entry into Heaven, they never understood it to mean that they were free to commit sins and discard their obligations. In fact, they always refrained from sin and laboured hard to carry out good deeds. They used to be even extremely wary of committing any sins that seemed most insignificant.

Allāh declares in Surah TāHā, Verily I am the Most Forgiving towards the one who repents, believes, does good deeds and is thereafter rightly guided." This verse tells us that Allāh will forgive those who make Taubah (repentance), who have belief and who perform good deeds.

The above discussion has been written so that no person commits sins freely after hearing about Allāh's all encompassing mercy. It has also been written so that no person delays his Taubah (repentance), because numerous authentic Ahadith state that many believers will also be sent to Hell to purify them of their sins. They will then be admitted into Heaven because of the intercession of the Prophets عليهم السلام, the angels, other believers, and (of course) Allāh's sheer mercy. ["Mishkāt" p. 490/1]

Thereafter, Allāh says, "Turn to your Lord and surrender to Him before punishment afflicts you, after which you will not be assisted." Once Allāh's punishment arrives, nothing can save a person. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has stated that the Arabic word 'in ī bu' (translated above as "turn to ") is derived from the root word 'inābah'. He points out that although the words 'inābah' and 'Taubah' have a similar meaning, there is a delicate difference. 'Taubah' takes place when a person turns to Allāh in repentance because he fears Allāh's punishment. On the other hand, 'inābah' will take place when a person turns in repentance to Allāh because he is ashamed of himself for sinning despite Allāh's tremendous favours on him.

Explaining the meaning of surrendering to Allāh, he says that it refers to devoting oneself to Allāh's obedience with complete sincerity.

"Follow the best injunctions, which your Lord has revealed to you before punishment suddenly afflicts you without you realising it." This verse refers to following the injunctions propounded in the Qur'ān. The following are some interpretations of the Arabic word "ahsan" (translated above as "the best"):

☐ The word means "the good injunctions" (i.e. without translating in the superlative form).

- 📖 It refers to those deeds that are relatively arduous in comparison to the concessions that the Shari'ah has granted. These deeds (azā'im) carry a greater reward than the concessions do.
- 📖 It refers to that act of worship, which holds the most reward compared to other acts of worship in the same category.
- 📖 It means that laws which have not been abrogated should be carried out instead of laws that have been abrogated.
- 📖 Sayyidina Atā رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that the three verses, beginning from "Say, 'O My bondsmen who have transgressed their souls..." until.... before punishment suddenly afflicts you without you realising it" were revealed in Madinah, with reference to Sayyidina Wahshi bin Harb رضى الله عنه. (He was the person who, as a disbeliever, martyred the uncle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Hamza رضى الله عنه during the Battle of Uhud).

The foregoing verses convey the message that a person should never lose hope of being forgiven, even though he may have committed the worst of sins. He should constantly obey Allāh's commands and abstain from all sins, fearing that Allāh's punishment may overtake him. The reason for all of this is to avoid the situation on the Day of Judgment when a soul should lament saying, "Woe betide me for the neglect I showed with regard to Allāh! In fact, (in addition to being disobedient to Allāh) I was (also) from among those who mocked (the believers)!"

Adherence to the Shari'ah is also necessary so that no soul says on the Day of Judgment, "If only Allāh had guided me, I would have certainly been from among the abstinent." They will not be able to say this because Allāh had sent the Prophets عليهم السلام, as well as His divine scriptures. The message of Islām was made clear, as were the punishments for disbelief and sin.

Leading a righteous life in this world will save a person from the punishment of the Hereafter, seeing which souls will cry out, "If only I had a chance (to return to the world), I would certainly be from among those who do good."

Allāh says in another verse, "If they were to be sent back (to the world), they would return to what they had been prohibited from and they truly are liars." When they had already wasted one life, and will be faced by the same trials of wealth, etc, how can they be expected to change themselves?

Allāh will tell them, "Indeed, My verses came to you, but you falsified them, you were arrogant and from among the disbelievers."

Allāh then describes the scene of the Day of Judgment, saying, "On the Day of Judgment, you will see that the faces of those who lied about Allāh will be dark." These will be the people who ascribed partners to Allāh, and attributed such things to Him of which He is free. Despite the fact that the truth came to them, these people behaved arrogantly and refused to accept. They were rather more concerned about what their mentors and associates would say. Allāh says about them, "Is there not an abode in Hell for the arrogant?" Hell shall certainly be their eternal abode.

On the other hand, "Allāh will rescue those with Piety (those who did good actions, shunned sin, disbelief and polytheism) by virtue of their success. No evil (punishment) will touch them, neither shall they grieve."

Allāh then describes His greatness when He says, "Allāh is the Creator of everything, and He is the Administrator of all things. The keys of the heavens and the earth belong to him. Those who disbelieve in Allāh 's verses (and signs) are the real losers."

قُلْ أَفَغَيْرَ اللَّهِ تَأْمُرُونِي أَعْبُدُ أَيُّهَا الْجَاهِلُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَوْحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ وَإِلَى الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِكَ لَئِنْ أَشْرَكَتَ لَيَحْبَطَنَّ عَمَلُكَ وَلَتَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴿٦٥﴾ بَلِ اللَّهَ فَاعْبُدْ وَكُنْ مِنَ الشَّاكِرِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾

(64) Say, "O ignorant ones! Do you command me to worship others besides Allāh?" (65) Indeed We have sent revelation to you and to those (The Prophets عليهم السلام) before you stating, "If you perpetrate polytheism, your deeds will certainly be wasted, and you will definitely become of the losers. (66) "Rather worship Allāh and be among the grateful ones."

TELL THE IGNORANT ONES THAT YOU CANNOT WORSHIP ANYONE BESIDES ALLĀH

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the polytheists told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to worship their gods, after which they would also worship Allāh. It was then that Allāh revealed the above verses, stating, "Say, 'O ignorant ones! Do you command me to worship others besides Allāh?"

Allāh says further, "Indeed We have sent revelation to you and to those (the Prophets عليهم السلام) before you stating, 'If you perpetrate polytheism, your deeds will certainly be wasted (without any reward), and you will definitely become of the losers" i.e. you will have lost your life in futility, achieving nothing but eternal damnation. The Prophets عليهم السلام were innocent of all sins, and it was impossible for them to perpetrate disbelief and polytheism. However, if one assumes that they could ever perpetrate disbelief and polytheism, even they would be unable to save themselves from Allāh's chastisement. Therefore, how can any other person expect any mercy in this matter. Although the verse is addressed to the Prophets عليهم السلام, it applies specifically to their Ummahs, and warns them against perpetrating these sins.

"Rather worship Allāh and be among the grateful ones." Allāh raised the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in an environment of disbelief and polytheism, but still safeguarded him from these vices. It is for this blessing that he is commanded to be grateful. Allāh advises the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to ignore the temptation of the disbelievers, and to continue to worship only Allāh.

وَمَا قَدَرُوا اللَّهَ حَقَّ قَدْرِهِ وَالْأَرْضُ جَمِيعًا قَبْضَتُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَالسَّمَوَاتُ
 مَطْوِيَّاتٌ يَمِينَهُ سُبْحَنَهُ وَعَلَىٰ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ فَصَعِقَ
 مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا مَنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ نُفِخَ فِيهِ أُخْرَىٰ فَإِذَا هُمْ قِيَامٌ
 يَنْظُرُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَأَشْرَقَتِ الْأَرْضُ بِنُورِ رَبِّهَا وَوُضِعَ الْكِتَابُ وَجِئَ بِالنَّبِيِّينَ
 وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ وَوُفِّيَتْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَا عَمِلَتْ
 وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾

(67) They have not revered Allāh as he deserves to be revered, although, on the Day of Judgment, the entire earth will be in His grasp, and the skies will be folded in His right hand. He is Pure and Exalted above all that they ascribe as partners to Him. (68) The trumpet will be blown, and everyone in the heavens and the earth will fall unconscious, except those whom Allāh chooses. Thereafter, it will be blown a second time, when they will all suddenly stand up, watching. (69) The earth will illuminate with the light of her Lord, the records of deeds will be placed, and the Prophets عليهم السلام and witnesses will be brought. Judgement will be passed between them with the truth (justice), and they will not be oppressed. (70) Every soul will be granted full recompense for what it did, and Allāh knows best what deeds people carried out.

"THEY HAVE NOT REVERED ALLĀH AS HE DESERVES TO BE REVERED"

Although Allāh cannot be seen in this world, His attributes and might are clearly manifested in this world. Every thinking person realises that Allāh has created everything. Therefore, He deserves to be worshipped. However, there are those who ascribe partners to Allāh and worship other beings. Not only are they themselves polytheists, but they even attempted to convince the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to commit polytheism. It is these people who "have not revered Allāh as he deserves to be revered."

It is extremely foolish not to worship Allāh, when His great powers are displayed to man every day of his life. On the Day of Judgment as well, His tremendous powers will be evident because "the entire earth will be in His grasp, and the skies will be folded in His right hand."

Allāh is "Pure and Exalted above all that they ascribe as partners to Him." Since a verse of Surah Shura states, "There is nothing like Him," Muslims believe that Allāh is free of a body and limbs. Therefore, if we assume that "His right hand" actually refers to a hand as we have, we will be guilty of comparing Allāh to ourselves. For this reason, we hold the belief that we do not know exactly what is meant by such a verse (and other such verses), but we believe in it and know that it is the truth from Allāh, according to whatever interpretation He intends.

Whereas certain Scholars have tendered interpretation of such verses, it is best to believe that only Allāh knows the true interpretation. We believe that Allāh is free of a physical body. Whenever any physical limb is attributed to Allāh in the Qur'ān or the Ahadith, we will say that Allāh best knows the interpretation of these. Such will be our stance whenever we encounter such Qur'ānic verses or Ahadith. We will apply this in the following hadith as well.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that a Jew once said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! Allāh shall certainly restrain the skies with one finger, the earth with one finger, the mountains with one finger, the trees with one finger, and the rest of creation also with one finger. Thereafter, Allāh will say, 'I am the King.'" When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم heard this he smiled so widely that his molars shone through. He then recited the verse, "They have not revered Allāh as he deserves to be revered, whereas, on the Day of Judgment..." The smile of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was confirmation of what the Jew said. [Bukhari p. 1102/3]

THE BLOWING OF THE TRUMPET ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

Allāh states, "The trumpet will be blown, and everyone in the heavens and the earth will fall unconscious, except those whom Allāh chooses. Thereafter, it will be blown a second time, when they will all suddenly stand up, watching."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "With his head bowed, Isrāfīl عليه السلام is attentively listening for the command to blow the trumpet." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the trumpet is shaped like a horn. ["Mishkāt" p. 482]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh will certainly make Judgment day dawn while two people are still busy opening a fabric (in a transaction). The transaction will not even be concluded and the fabric will not yet be folded when Judgment day shall take place. Judgment day will take place when a person will have milked his camel and not yet had the opportunity to drink the milk. Judgment day will certainly take place when a person will be busy plastering the wall of a pond and will not even have the opportunity to allow his animals to drink from it. Indeed, Judgment day will take place as a person lifts a morsel to his mouth, not allowing him the opportunity to eat it." [Bukhari]

When the trumpet is blown the first time, every living being will drop dead, while the souls of the dead will become unconscious. Thereafter, the trumpet will be blown for a second time and the dead will rise from their graves and proceed to the plain of Reckoning. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reported from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the period between the two soundings of the trumpet will be forty. When people asked Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه if he meant forty days, he declared, "I do not know." When they asked whether it was forty months, he said, "I do not know." When they asked whether he meant forty years, he again said, "I do not know." ["Mishkāt" p. 481]

THE EXCEPTION OF "THOSE WHOM ALLĀH CHOOSES"

Allāh mentions, "The trumpet will be blown, and everyone in the heavens and the earth will fall unconscious, except those whom Allāh chooses." The only authentic hadith that sheds light on the purport of the above exception is one narrated by Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه. He reports that there was once an argument between a Muslim and a Jew. As the quarrel became heated, the Muslim took an oath saying, "I swear by that Being Who gave superiority to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم over the universe!" In response to this, the Jew blurted, "I swear by the Being Who gave superiority to Mūsa عليه السلام over the universe!"

Upon hearing this, the Muslim slapped the Jew, who promptly reported the matter to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent for the Muslim and asked for his side of the story. After ascertaining the facts, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not express my superiority above any Prophet (in a manner that lowers the rank of the other Prophets), because, on the Day of Judgment, every soul shall fall unconscious. I shall also fall unconscious with them. I will then be the first to regain consciousness. I shall see Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام standing and holding on to Allāh's throne. I cannot say whether he will be among those who regained consciousness before me, or whether he will be among those whom Allāh has excluded (i.e. from among "those whom Allāh chooses")."

Another narration quotes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying, "I do not know whether his unconsciousness at Mount Tūr will be taken into account (in lieu of which he will not fall unconscious on the Day of Judgment), or whether he will among those who will regain consciousness before me." [Bukhari v.1 p.485, v.2 p.688 v.2 p.965]

"The earth will illuminate with the light of her Lord..." The earth will light up without the sun or the moon. It will be illuminated solely by the command of Allāh. Thereafter, "the records of deeds will be placed (in the hands of every person), and the Prophets and witnesses will be brought." The Prophets عليهم السلام will be brought forward to testify against their respective nations (Ummahs). They will also be questioned about the message they were entrusted to convey. Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "We shall definitely question those to whom messengers were sent, and we will surely question the messengers." [Surah 7, verse 6]

Along with the Prophets عليهم السلام, "witnesses" will also be brought forward. The implication of this term is extremely vast. It includes the Prophets عليهم السلام, the records of deeds, the recording angels, as well as the limbs and tongue of every person.

"Judgement will be passed between them with the truth (justice), and they will not be oppressed. Every soul will be granted full recompense for what it did, and Allāh knows best what deeds people carried out." According to Allāh's knowledge of every person's deeds, He will either reward or punish them. No person will receive a reward smaller than what he deserves. In fact, the rewards of every person will be multiplied at least ten times.

Allāh says in another verse, "Whosoever does a good deed will receive tenfold the like thereof Whoever perpetrates a sin will only be punished the like thereof and will not be oppressed." Another verse states, "the retribution for evil will be the like thereof" i.e. the punishment for a sin will not be increased as is the case for the rewards of good deeds which are multiplied at least ten times.

وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ زُمَرًا ۖ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءُوهَا فَتَحَتْ أَبْوَابُهَا وَقَالَ لَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ رُسُلٌ مِّنكُمْ يَتْلُونَ عَلَيْكُمْ آيَاتِ رَبِّكُمْ وَيُنذِرُونَكُمْ لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ هَٰذَا قَالُوا بَلَىٰ وَلَكِنْ حَقَّتْ كَلِمَةُ الْعَذَابِ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ قِيلَ ادْخُلُوا أَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا فَبِمَا كَفَرْتُمْ مَوَى الْمُتَكَبِّرِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا رَبَّهُمْ إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ زُمَرًا ۖ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءُوهَا وَفُتِحَتْ أَبْوَابُهَا وَقَالَ لَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ طِبْتُمْ فَادْخُلُوهَا خَالِدِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾ وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي صَدَقَنَا وَعْدَهُ وَأَوْرَثَنَا الْأَرْضَ نَتَبَوَّأُ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ حَيْثُ نَشَاءُ فَنِعْمَ أَجْرُ الْعَامِلِينَ ﴿٧٤﴾ وَتَرَى الْمَلَائِكَةَ حَافِينَ مِنْ حَوْلِ الْعَرْشِ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَقِيلَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧٥﴾

(71) The disbelievers will be dragged to Hell in groups. Until, when they arrive there, its gates will be opened and its keepers will say, "Did the messengers from among you not come to you, reciting to you the verses of your Lord, and warning you of this day's meeting?" They will say, "Certainly, However, the decree of punishment has been passed against the disbelievers." (72) It will be said, "Enter the gates of Hell, where you shall abide forever. Evil indeed is the abode of the haughty ones!" (73) Those who feared their Lord will be led to Jannah (Heaven) in groups. Until, when they arrive there and its gates are opened, its keepers will say, "Peace be on you! May you be pleased. Enter Heaven to abide forever." (74) They will say, "All praise be to Allāh, Who has fulfilled His promise to us, made us inheritors of the earth, and we may settle wherever we wish in Jannah (Heaven). Excellent indeed is the reward of those who perform good deeds!" (75) You shall see the angels thronging around the Throne, glorifying Allāh's praises. Then, with justice, judgement will be passed between people, and it will be said, "All praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of the universe."

THE DISBELIEVERS AND THE BELIEVERS WILL ENTER THEIR ABODES IN GROUPS

These verses describe the ultimate result of the disbelievers and the believers. Allāh says, "The disbelievers will be dragged to Hell in groups." A verse of Surah Tūr states, "The day when they (the disbelievers) will be forcibly shoved into the Fire of Hell." [Surah 52, verse 13]

The disbelievers will be dragged to Hell in many groups because the categories and levels of disbelief vary. Continuing the discussion on the disbelievers, Allāh says that they will be dragged "Until, when they arrive there, its gates will be opened..." "Just like the prisons of this world, the gates of Hell remain shut, and are opened only when a new inmate arrives. Addressing the newcomers, the keepers of Hell will ask, "Did the messengers from among you (with whom you could freely associated) not come to you, reciting to you the verses of your Lord, and warning you of this day's meeting?"

The people of Hell will reply, "Certainly (they recited the verses to us and warned us). However, the decree of punishment has been passed against the disbelievers." i.e. Allāh has decreed that all disbelievers will have to enter Hell. As a result of this, we will have to face the punishment, which would have been averted if we had not been disbelievers. Thereafter, "It will be said, 'Enter the gates of Hell, where you shall abide forever. Evil indeed is the abode of the haughty ones! - Because they were too proud to accept the truth, they died as disbelievers and will enter Hell which is the abode for proud people. Once they enter Hell, the gates will be shut behind them. 'They shall never be removed from the Fire."

Allāh then talks about the believers. He says, "Those who feared their Lord will be led to Heaven in groups." The primary stage of Piety is to accept Islām and shun disbelief and polytheism. Thereafter, the believers belong to several groups, based upon the amount and quality of good deeds that they perform, as well as their level of abstinence from sin. According to the groups that they belong to, they will be led into Heaven.

"Until, when they arrive there (at Heaven) and its gates are opened, its keepers will say, 'Peace be on you! May you be pleased. Enter therein to abide forever.'" They will find the gates of Heaven already open for them, just as doors are opened beforehand for guests to enter. They shall live in peace and comfort in Heaven, and will never have to leave. Allāh says in another verse of the Qur'an, "No difficulty shall afflict them there, neither will they be removed from there." [Surah Hijr (15), verse 48]

The people of Heaven will engage in remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) and shall praise Allāh abundantly. Allāh says, "They will say, 'All praise be to Allāh, Who has fulfilled His promise to us, made us inheritors of the earth, and we may settle wherever we wish in Heaven. Excellent indeed is the reward of those who perform good deeds!"

As the Surah concludes, Allāh briefly describes a scene on the Day of Judgment. Addressing the reader, Allāh says, "You shall see the angels thronging around the Throne, glorifying Allāh's praises. Then, with justice, judgement will be passed between people, and it will be said, 'All praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of the universe."

NOTE: Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never slept until he recited Surah Bani Isrā'il and Surah Zumar every night. [Tirmidhi]

سورة المؤمن

Makkan	Surah Al-Mu'min	Verses 85
--------	-----------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

حَمْدٌ تَزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ ۝ غَافِرِ الذَّنْبِ وَقَابِلِ التَّوْبِ
شَدِيدِ الْعِقَابِ ذِي الطَّوْلِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ إِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيرُ ۝

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

- (1) HāMīm. (2) This Book is revealed from Allāh, the Mighty, the All Knowing. (3) The Forgiver of sins, Acceptor of repentance, Severe in punishment, and All Powerful. There is none worthy of worship besides Him, and all shall return to Him.

ALLĀH IS THE FORGIVER OF SINS, THE ACCEPTOR OF REPENTANCE, AND ALSO SEVERE IN PUNISHMENT

Surah Mu'min is also called Surah Ghāfir. It is the first of a series of Surahs that begin with the words HāMīm. The others that follow are Surah HāMīm Sajdah, Surah Shura, Surah Zukhruf, Surah Dukhān, Surah Jāthiya, and Surah Ahqāf. These are referred to as the Seven Hawāmīm.

“Ruhul Ma’āni” has reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Everything has an essence, and the essence of the Qur’ān is in those Surahs that begin with HāMīm (the Hawāmīm).”

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned, “The person who, in the morning, together with Āyatul Kursi, recites from the beginning of Surah Ghāfir until the words “Ilayhil Masīr” (i.e. the first three verses), will be safe (from all calamities and difficulties). Whoever recites these two in the evening, shall remain safe until the following morning.”

Allāh commences the Surah with the words, “HāMīm.” This is from the Hurūfe Muqatta’āt. Only Allāh knows what the meaning of this is. Allāh then continues to say, “This Book is revealed from Allāh...” Hereafter, six attributes of Allāh are enumerated. These are (1) “the Mighty”, (2) “the All Knowing”, (3) “The Forgiver of sins”, (4) “Acceptor of repentance”, (5) “Severe in punishment” and (6) “All Powerful”.

After mentioning Allāh's might and knowledge, attention is drawn to the fact that Allāh is also "the Forgiver of sins and the Acceptor of repentance". Therefore, the believer should always turn to Allāh in repentance after committing a sin. If he does not seek Allāh's forgiveness, he should never think that he will be safe in the Hereafter, because Allāh is "Severe in punishment" and "All Powerful." Allāh is perfectly Capable of taking a person to task for his/her sins, and punishing the sinner in this world as well as in the Hereafter. None is able to avert Allāh's punishment when it comes.

"There is none worthy of worship besides Him, and all shall return to Him." It is compulsory for the disbelievers and the polytheists to repent for their disbelief and polytheism, and to accept the worship of One Allāh only. They should realise that they will not live in this world forever, but will soon have to leave for the Hereafter, where they will face Allāh. Therefore, they should make an effort to leave this world in a condition that their beliefs and deeds are all correct. In this way, they will be saved from eternal damnation in the Hereafter.

مَا يَجْدِلُ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَلَا يَغْرُرُكَ تَقْلُبُهُمْ فِي الْبِلَادِ ۖ كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَالْأَحْزَابُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ وَهَمَّتْ كُلُّ أُمَّةٍ بِرَسُولِهِمْ لِيَأْخُذُوهُ وَجَدْنَاهُمْ بِإِلْبَاطٍ لِيُدْحِضُوا بِهِ الْحَقَّ فَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عِقَابِ ۖ وَكَذَلِكَ حَقَّتْ لِكُلِّ رَيْبٍ عَلَى الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنَّهُمْ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ ۖ

(4) It is only the disbelievers who argue about Allāh's verses, so let not their travelling about through the lands deceive you. (5) Before them, the nation of Nūh falsified, as well as the many groups after them. Every nation resolved to seize their Prophet, and they argued with falsehood in an effort to refute the truth. So I seized them instead. How (severe) was My punishment? (6) Thus, the declaration of your Lord has been passed against the disbelievers, that they shall certainly be from among the inmates of the Fire.

ONLY THE DISBELIEVERS ARGUE ABOUT ALLĀH'S VERSES, AND THEIR TRAVELLING ABOUT SHOULD NOT DECEIVE YOU BECAUSE OTHERS LIKE THEM WERE PUNISHED

Those who refused to believe in the Qur'an used to argue with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and raise all sorts of ludicrous objections. Their arguments distressed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم greatly because of his deep concern for their salvation. These polytheists were affluent people, who ate the best and freely travelled where they wished because of their excellent means of transport. The possibility therefore existed that the Muslims would think that they, as believers, were poor, whereas the disbelievers, who denied Allāh, were enjoying the comforts and pleasures of this world. To dispel this thought, Allāh revealed the verse: "let not their travelling about through the lands deceive you." The pleasure they seem to enjoy is only a fleeting experience, which will soon come to an end. At the end, they will have to suffer the everlasting tortures of Hell.

Allāh then says, "Before them, the nation of Nūh falsified, as well as the many groups after them. Every nation resolved to seize their Prophet (and assassinate him), and they argued with falsehood in an effort to refute the truth." As much as they tried to subdue the truth, they could not succeed completely. Eventually, Allāh's punishment destroyed them. Allāh says, "So I seized them instead. How (swift) was My punishment?" Allāh's punishment was swift and extremely severe.

These verses console the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because they convey the message that the disbelievers of the previous Ummahs also argued with their Prophets عليهم السلام, just as the polytheists debated with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They were eventually destroyed when Allāh's punishment caught up with them in this world. In addition to this punishment, they will also be subjected to punishment in the Hereafter. Allāh says, "Thus, the declaration of your Lord has been passed against the disbelievers, that they shall certainly be from among the inmates of the Fire."

الَّذِينَ يَحْمِلُونَ الْعَرْشَ وَمَنْ حَوْلَهُ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَيُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَ
لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبَّنَا وَسِعْتَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ رَّحْمَةً وَعِلْمًا فَاغْفِرْ لِلَّذِينَ تَابُوا وَاتَّبَعُوا
سَبِيلَكَ وَفِهِمْ عَذَابَ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٧﴾ رَبَّنَا وَأَدْخِلْهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ عَدْنٍ الَّتِي وَعَدْتَهُمْ وَمَنْ
صَلَحَ مِنْ آبَائِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَذُرِّيَّاتِهِمْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٨﴾
وَقِهِمُ السَّيِّئَاتِ وَمَنْ تَقِ السَّيِّئَاتِ يَوْمَئِذٍ فَقَدْ رَحِمْتَهُ وَذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ
الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٩﴾

(7) The angels carrying the Throne, as well as those around them, glorify the praises of their Lord, believe in Him, and seek forgiveness for those who believe. (They say), "O our Lord! Your mercy and knowledge encompasses everything. So forgive those who repent and who follow Your path. And save them from the punishment of the Blaze." (8) "O our Lord! Admit them into the gardens of eternity, which You have promised them, as well as the righteous ones from among their fathers, their spouses, and their progeny. Undoubtedly, You are the Mighty, the Wise." (9) "And save them from difficulties. You have certainly showered Your mercy on the one whom You have saved from difficulties on this day. This is indeed the greatest success."

THE ANGELS CARRYING ALLĀH'S THRONE PRAY FOR THE BELIEVERS, AND FOR THE ADMISSION OF THEIR FATHERS, SPOUSES AND PROGENY INTO HEAVEN

Allāh highlights the lofty status of the believers by stating that the angels bearing Allāh's throne, as well as those close to them, all pray for the believers. Together with hymning Allāh's praises, they seek forgiveness on behalf of the believers, saying, "O our Lord! Your mercy and knowledge encompasses everything. So forgive those who repent (from disbelief and polytheism) and who follow Your path. And save them from the punishment of the Blaze."

In addition to this, they also supplicate, "O our Lord I Admit them into the gardens of eternity, which You have promised them, as well as the righteous ones from among their fathers, their spouses, and their progeny. Undoubtedly, You are the Mighty, the Wise." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" interprets the verse to mean that, together with those who will enter Heaven, Allāh should also enter their forefathers, spouses and progeny along with them.

Although the families of the people of Heaven may not be deserving of the positions they will receive alongside their kin, Allāh will admit them all together so that the joy of the people of Heaven will be completed. In fact, their joy will be amplified greatly when they have their kith and kin with them. The Arabic word "Ābā" (translated above as 'fathers ') refers to all a person's ascendants in genealogy. "Spouses" refers to husbands and wives.

Allāh says in Surah Tūr, "Those who carry out good deeds and whose progeny follow them in belief We shall join their progeny with them without reducing anything from their deeds." [Surah 52, verse 21]

Describing the people who will follow their forebears to Heaven, Allāh says, "the righteous ones" here in Surah Mumin, and a "progeny (who) follow them in Belief" in the verse of Surah Tūr. These definitions serve as specific conditions to be fulfilled. Therefore, a person's progeny may be admitted with him into Heaven only if they possess Belief. If they do not have Belief, their mere biological relationship will not be sufficient to take them into Heaven.

The angels pray further, "And save them (the Believers) from difficulties (Hell). You have certainly showered Your mercy on the one whom You have saved from difficulties on this day (Day of Judgment). This is indeed the greatest success." Certain commentators have interpreted "this day" as this worldly life. In this case, the Arabic word "sayyi'āt" (translated above as "difficulties") will be translated in its original meaning, viz, sins. This means that Allāh will shower His mercy on those whom He has saved from sin in this world.

The fact that the angels make supplication for the believers signifies their nobility and proximity to Allāh. A believer should always make supplication for himself and for others. Even those Companions رضى الله عنهم whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم signaled out as people destined for Heaven, always engaged in supplication and always carried out good deeds. This is the hallmark of true servitude.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُنَادُونَ لَمَقْتُ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ مَقْتِكُمْ أَنْفُسَكُمْ إِذْ تُدْعَوْنَ إِلَى الْإِيمَانِ فَتَكْفُرُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا آمَنَّا أَتَيْنَا وَأَحْيَيْنَا أَتَيْنَا فَأَعْرَفْنَا بِذُنُوبِنَا فَهَلْ إِلَى خُرُوجٍ مِّن سَبِيلٍ ﴿١١﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُ إِذَا دُعِيَ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ كَفَرْتُمْ وَإِنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَالْحُكْمُ لِلَّهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْكَبِيرِ ﴿١٢﴾

(10) Verily it will be announced to the disbelievers, "Undoubtedly, Allāh's hatred for you is worse than your hatred for yourselves. When you were called towards belief, you disbelieved." (11) They will say, "O our Lord! You gave us death twice and granted us life twice. We admit our sins, so is there any way to escape?" (12) "This is because you disbelieved each time that Allāh Alone was mentioned. However, you believed whenever partners were ascribed to Him. Judgement shall be for Allāh, the Exalted, the Great.

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL ADMIT THEIR SINS AND ASK FOR A MEANS TO ESCAPE, BUT WILL BE TOLD THAT THEY WILL SUFFER BECAUSE THEY WERE AVERSE TO ONENESS OF ALLAH AND INCLINED TO POLYTHEISM

In this world, the disbelievers hold a high opinion about themselves, thinking that they are superior to the Muslims. However, when they will see themselves in a most pathetic condition on the Day of Judgment, they will hate themselves bitterly. They will then be told, "Undoubtedly, Allāh's hatred for you is worse than your hatred for yourselves." Allāh detested them since their lives in this world. They will then be told the reason for Allāh's rejection of them. They will be told that it was because, "When you were called towards belief, you disbelieved."

Other commentators have interpreted "your hatred for yourselves" to mean "your hatred for each other". On the Day of Judgment, the followers will curse their leaders in disbelief, and vice versa. Each will pin the blame on the other, neither willing to acknowledge his folly. By this interpretation, the verse will be similar to a verse of Surah Ankabūt, where the disbelievers are told, "Soon, on the Day of Judgment, you will oppose each other and curse each other." [Surah 29, verse 25]

"They (the disbelievers) will say, 'O our Lord! You gave us death twice and granted us life twice. ... People will acknowledge that they were once lifeless entities in the backs of their fathers, which was their first death. Thereafter, Allāh instilled a soul in each person, bringing him/her to life. After passing through the various stages of development, every person tasted death and was buried. With the dawn of Judgment day, they will all be brought back to life, entering into a second physical life.

The disbelievers will declare that they ought to have believed in Allāh and should not have denied the advent of Judgment. They will say, "We admit our sins, so is there any way to escape?" It will now be impossible for them to prevent the punishment, and they will not be allowed a second chance to live in this world. The situation will be as described in Surah Sajdah, where Allāh quotes them as saying, "O our Lord! We have seen and we have heard. Return us so that we may carry out good deeds. We are now certainly convinced." [Surah 32, verse 12]

Allāh shall say to them, "This is because you disbelieved each time that Allāh Alone was mentioned. However, you believed whenever partners were ascribed to Him. Judgement shall be for Allāh, the Exalted, the Great." The disbelievers and polytheists disliked that Allāh should be referred to as The One and Only deity. However, whenever their idols were mentioned as partners to Allāh, they would be prepared to accept it as the truth. In the Hereafter, they will be reminded about their denial in this world. Of course, no amends can be made then, and they will be unable to escape the severe punishment of Hell.

هُوَ الَّذِي يُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ وَيُنَزِّلُ لَكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ رِزْقًا وَمَا يَتَذَكَّرُ إِلَّا مَنْ
 يُنِيبُ ﴿١٣﴾ فَادْعُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ رَفِيعُ
 الدَّرَجَاتِ ذُو الْعَرْشِ يُلْقِي الرُّوحَ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ لِيُنْذِرَ يَوْمَ
 التَّلَاقِ ﴿١٥﴾ يَوْمَ هُمْ بَرْزُورٌ لَا يَخْفَى عَلَى اللَّهِ مِنْهُمْ شَيْءٌ لِمَنِ الْمُلْكُ الْيَوْمَ لِلَّهِ الْوَاحِدِ
 الْقَهَّارِ ﴿١٦﴾ الْيَوْمَ تُجْزَى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ لَا ظُلْمَ الْيَوْمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَرِيعُ
 الْحِسَابِ ﴿١٧﴾

(13) It is Allāh Who shows you His signs, and sends sustenance for you from the sky. Only he who turns to Allāh will heed. (14) So supplicate to Allāh, making all of religion exclusively for Him, even though the disbelievers dislike it. (15) The Exalter of ranks and the Owner of the Throne. By His command, He sends revelation to those bondsmen whom He wills, so that they warn about the Day of Meeting. (16) The day they will all come forward and nothing of theirs will be hidden from Allāh. "To Whom does all Kingdom belong today? To Allāh, the One, the Omnipotent." (17) On this day every soul shall be recompensed for what it earned. No injustice shall be done today! Verily, Allāh is Swift in Reckoning.

ALLĀH SENDS REVELATION TO WHOEVER HE PLEASES, NOTHING IS HIDDEN FROM HIM, AND ONLY HIS KINGSHIP SHALL REMAIN DOMINANT

The above verses make mention of Allāh's favours, as well as His excellent attributes. Allāh begins, "It is Allāh Who shows you His signs..." Allāh shows many signs to man so that he may recognise Allāh's might and greatness. These signs clearly reveal to man that Allāh is One, and that He is the Creator and Master.

Allāh adds, "and sends sustenance for you from the sky." This verse depicts Allāh's might as well as His extreme benevolence towards His creation.

"Only he who turns to Allāh will heed (the many signs)." It is only these people who are able to effectively utilise their intelligence to accept the truth.

"So supplicate to Allāh, making all religion exclusively for Him (by not ascribing partners to Allāh), even though the disbelievers dislike it." One should remain steadfast in one's belief in oneness of Allāh, not once faltering in one's Belief. Naturally, those not subscribing to the same beliefs will take offence to this. However, their enmity should never be a cause for concern.

"The Exalter ranks..." Two interpretation have been given for this attribute of Allāh.

The first is that Allāh will elevate the ranks of His pious bondsmen in the Hereafter, in addition to defining a distinct status for them in this world. Allāh says in Surah Yusuf, "We elevate the ranks of whomsoever We will." A verse of Surah Mujādala reads, "Allāh shall elevate the believers among you and those given knowledge by many stages." This interpretation seems most appropriate, even though the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that it is somewhat farfetched.

The second interpretation of this attribute is that Allāh is Himself Most Exalted in attributes.

Allāh says further that He is "the Owner of the Throne. By His command, He sends revelation to those bondsmen whom He wills, so that they warn about the Day of Meeting." Divine revelation has been referred to as 'rūh' (soul/life) because it gives life to a person's spirituality. Certain commentators have mentioned that 'rūh' refers to Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام, who conveys Allāh's commands to the Prophets عليهم السلام. The phrase "to those bondsmen whom He wills" indicates that Allāh specially selects people to be Prophet عليه السلام. Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Allāh selects messengers from the angels and from mankind." The mantle of Prophet hood is not something that can be earned by a person's skill or aptitude. It is something commissioned only on the basis of Allāh's selection. Every Prophet from Sayyidina Adam عليه السلام to Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was hand picked by Allāh.

Allāh says that the purpose of the revelation He sent to the Prophets عليهم السلام was "so that they warn (people) about the Day of Meeting." This refers to the Day of Judgment, when people will meet Allāh on the Plains of Reckoning.

Referring to the Day of Judgment, Allāh says further, "The day they will all come forward and nothing of theirs will be hidden from Allāh." Allāh will announce, "To Whom does all Kingdom belong today?" All the rulers and monarchs of the world will be unable to reply because their temporary sovereignty would have been long since terminated. They will be totally helpless on that day. Finally, Allāh Himself shall reply that all kingdoms belong only "To Allāh, the One, the Omnipotent."

"On this day every soul shall be recompensed for what it earned (be it good or evil). No injustice shall be done today!" None shall be punished for what was not done, nor shall any be denied the full reward for a good deed. "Verily, Allāh is Swift in Reckoning." Allāh is Capable of reckoning with everyone at the same time, without the need to follow a sequence which keeps others waiting.

وَأَنذَرَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْآزِفَةِ إِذِ الْقُلُوبُ لَدَى الْحَنَاجِرِ كَظِيمٍ مَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ حَمِيمٍ
وَلَا شَفِيعٍ يُطَاعُ (18) يَعْلَمُ خَائِنَةَ الْأَعْيُنِ وَمَا تُخْفِي الصُّدُورُ (19) وَاللَّهُ يَقْضِي
بِالْحَقِّ وَالَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ لَا يَقْضُونَ شَيْئًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ

(18) Warn them about the pending day when hearts will be at the throats, slowly swallowing. The oppressors shall have no friend, nor any intercessor who will be obeyed. (19) Allāh knows the fraud of the eyes, and what the hearts conceal.

(20) Allāh passes judgement with justice. Those that they worship besides Allāh cannot pass judgement in any affair. Verily, only Allāh is the All Hearing, the All Seeing.

WARN THEM OF THE DAY WHEN HEARTS WILL REACH THE THROATS AND THE OPPRESSORS WILL HAVE NEITHER FRIENDS NOR INTERCESSORS

These verses also describe the scene of Judgment day. Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Warn them about the pending day..." The Judgment day is described as a fast approaching day which will inevitably occur. Allāh says that on the Day of Judgment, "hearts will be at the throats, slowly swallowing." It will seem as if their hearts are stuck in their throats, choking them. In this condition, they will suffer great distress and grief.

"The oppressors shall have no friend, nor any intercessor who will be obeyed." This refers to the people who in this world expected that their friends and intercessors will save them on the Day of Judgment day. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that "oppressors" refers to the disbelievers because they can truly be described as "oppressors"

ALLĀH IS AWARE OF THE FRAUD THAT THE EYES PERPETRATE, AS WELL AS EVERYTHING IN THE HEART

"Allāh knows the fraud of the eyes, and what the hearts conceal." Allāh is well aware of the movements of every physical limb, as well as the matters that are concealed within the heart. Allāh knows the beliefs, intentions and inclinations that every heart contains. No person should think that he will not be taken to task for what he conceals. The 'fraud' of the eyes refers to using the eyes for Unlawful purposes. These include looking at strange women, as well as winking at someone when backbiting about another. These are all sins, which Allāh is aware of, even though they are unknown to people.

Sayyidina Umm Ma'bid رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to make the following Supplication:

{TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! Purify my heart from hypocrisy, my actions from ostentation, my tongue from lies, and my eyes from fraud. Verily, You have knowledge of the fraud of the eyes and whatever hearts conceal."} ["Mishkāt" p. 220]

Thereafter, Allāh says, "Allāh passes judgement with justice. Those that they worship besides Allāh cannot pass judgement in any affair. Verily, only Allāh is the All Hearing, the All Seeing."

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا هُمْ أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً وَءَاثَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَأَخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ بِذُنُوبِهِمْ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَاقٍ ۚ ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَانَتْ تَأْتِيهِمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَكَفَرُوا فَأَخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ﴾

إِنَّهُ قَوِيٌّ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٢٢﴾

(21) Do they not travel on earth, so they may see what was the plight of those before them? Those people were more powerful than them in terms of strength, and in terms of the landmarks they left behind on earth. Nevertheless, Allāh seized them on account of their sins. They had none to protect them against Allāh. (22) This was because Our messengers used to come to them with clear signs, but they disbelieved. So Allāh seized them. Undoubtedly, He is Powerful, Severe in punishment.

DO PEOPLE NOT TRAVEL TO SEE HOW ALLĀH DESTROYED THOSE BEFORE THEM WHO WERE FAR MORE POWERFUL THAN THEMSELVES?

The polytheists of Makkah used to mock the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he warned them about Allāh's punishment. This was in spite of the fact that twice annually, as they travelled to Shām for trade, they passed by the ruins of former nations. Reminding them of this, Allāh says, "Do they not travel on earth, so they may see what was the plight of those before them? Those people (like the Ād and Thamud) were more powerful than them in terms of strength, and in terms of the landmarks they left behind on earth."

The previous nations were physically stronger than those after them, and they even constructed architectural masterpieces, which stand to this day, although in ruins. Their folly was that they rejected the preaching of the Prophets عليهم السلام. Therefore, despite their strength and skills, "Allāh seized them on account of their sins. They had none to protect them against Allāh." Another verse quotes the Ād as saying, "Who can be more powerful than us?" However, their strength was useless to them when Allāh's punishment arrived. They were left utterly devastated.

Allāh says further, "This (punishment) was because Our messengers used to come to them with clear signs, but they disbelieved. So Allāh seized them. Undoubtedly, He is Powerful, Severe in punishment." How can anyone protect themselves against Him? It is therefore necessary that people learn lessons from the events of the past.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا وَسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٢٣﴾ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَمْعَانِ وَقَفَرُوا
فَقَالُوا سِحْرٌ كَذَّابٌ ﴿٢٤﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بِالْحَقِّ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا قَالُوا اقْتُلُوا أَبْنَاءَ
الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مَعَهُ وَاسْتَحْيُوا نِسَاءَهُمْ وَمَا كَيْدُ الْكَافِرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ
﴿٢٥﴾ وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ ذَرُونِي أَقْتُلْ مُوسَىٰ وَلْيَدْعُ رَبَّهُ إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُبَدِّلَ دِينَكُمْ
أَوْ أَنْ يُظْهِرَ فِي الْأَرْضِ الْفَسَادَ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ إِنِّي عُذْتُ بِرَبِّي وَرَبِّكُمْ مِنَ
كُلِّ مَكْرٍ كَبِيرٍ لَا يَوْمُنِي بِيَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٢٧﴾

(23) Verily, We sent Mūsa with Our signs and a clear proof... (24) ...to Pharaoh (Fir'aun), Hāmān and Qārūn. They said, "He is a magician and a liar." (25) When he came to them with the truth from Us, they said, "Kill the Sons of those who believe in him and keep their women alive." The schemes of the disbelievers are ever lost. (26) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "Leave me to kill Mūsa, and he should call for his Lord. I fear that he may change your religion, or that he may spread anarchy on earth." (27) Mūsa said, "I seek the protection of my Lord and your Lord from every haughty person who does not believe in the Day of Reckoning."

ALLĀH SENDS SAYYIDINA MŪSA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام TO PHARAOH (FIR'AUN), HĀMĀN AND QĀRŪN, AND PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) THREATENS TO KILL HIM

After making a reference to the previously destroyed nations, Allāh discusses the incident of Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and Pharaoh (Fir'aun). This Surah covers the entire incident up to the eventual drowning of pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his army. The epic also includes the advice that a believer from Pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) court gave to the others.

Allāh says, "Verily, We sent Mūsa with Our signs (miracles) and (with) a clear proof to pharaoh (Fir'aun), Hāmān and Qārūn." Despite witnessing these miracles, they remained obstinate and said, "He is a magician and a liar." Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام ignored their insults and continued to propagate the truth. People gradually accepted his religion, and their numbers began to increase. To stem the tide of converts, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) and his advisors urgently convened a meeting. It was then that they decided to "Kill the sons of those who believe in him and keep their women alive." They therefore resolved to repeat what they did when pharaoh (Fir'aun) was initially warned that a child from the Bani Isrā'il would be responsible for the destruction of his kingdom.

However, despite their plots, they were not successful in restraining the rise of popularity that the religion of Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام enjoyed. In this regard Allāh says, "The schemes of the disbelievers are ever lost."

"Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, 'Leave me to kill Mūsa, and he should call for his Lord (for help when I am about to kill him). I fear that he may change your religion, or that he may spread anarchy on earth.'" When pharaoh (Fir'aun) expressed that he wished to assassinate Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, his courtiers advised him not to do so since it would make people think that Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was killed because pharaoh (Fir'aun) was unable to respond to his arguments. However, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) felt that the death of Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was the only way in which his kingdom could be preserved.

When pharaoh (Fir'aun) said that Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام should call on his Lord for assistance, he was, merely boasting about his power. In reality, he was terrified of Sayyidina Mūsa's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام curse. He meant the statement to be a jeer.

In an effort to lend credibility to his stance, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) told his people, "I fear that he may change your religion, or that he may spread anarchy on earth." He intended to convince the people of the fact that Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and his followers will soon pose a threat to the stability of Egypt, by attempting to assume control of the land. It is 'a common practice of worldly-minded people to violently subdue their adversaries. They swiftly kill any opposition so that they are able to continue their reign of tyranny. In addition to this, they convince the people that they are acting in the best interests of the state.

When Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام learnt of the plot to assassinate him, he said, "I seek the protection of my Lord and your Lord from every haughty person who does not believe in the Day of Reckoning." In making this Supplication, Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام made it clear to the people that Allāh, who is their Lord as well, shall offer protection against every haughty disbeliever. Therefore, they should never fear the threats of the disbelievers.

وَقَالَ رَجُلٌ مُؤْمِنٌ مِّنْ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ يَكْتُمُ إِيمَانَهُ أَتَقْتُلُونَ رَجُلًا أَن يَقُولَ رَبِّيَ اللَّهُ وَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَإِنْ يَكُ كَذِبًا فَعَلَيْهِ كَذِبُهُ وَإِنْ يَكُ صَادِقًا يُصِيبْكُمْ بَعْضُ الَّذِي يَعِدُكُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي مَنْ هُوَ مُسْرِفٌ كَذَابٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ يَقَوْمُ لَكُمْ الْمُلْكُ الْيَوْمَ ظَاهِرِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَمَنْ يَنْصُرُنَا مِنْ بَأْسِ اللَّهِ إِنْ جَاءَنَا قَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ مَا أُرِيكُمْ إِلَّا مَا أَرَى وَمَا أَهْدِيكُمْ إِلَّا سَبِيلَ الرَّشَادِ

﴿٢٩﴾

(28) A believing man from pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) people, who concealed his belief, said, "Will you kill a man for saying 'Allāh is my Lord', when he has brought the truth to you from your Lord? If he is lying, then his lies shall be to his own detriment. However, If he is truthful, a part of what he has prophesised shall afflict you. Verily, Allāh does not guide him who transgresses the limits and is a liar." (29) "O my people! You have sovereignty today, and are dominant on earth. But who can assist us against Allāh's punishment when it comes to us?" Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "I am suggesting to you only what I regard to be correct, and I am guiding you only towards the path of guidance."

THE TRUTH SPOKEN BY A PERSON FROM PHARAOH'S (FIR'AUN'S) PEOPLE

The above verses speak about a person from pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) people who accepted the message of Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام, just as Fir'aun's wife did. However, he concealed his belief. Certain commentators are of the opinion that this person was the son of pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) paternal uncle, who was earmarked to be pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) successor to the throne of Egypt. At that time, he was the commander of the army.

Unlike pharaoh's (Fir'aun's) other courtiers, he did not simply agree with what pharaoh (Fir'aun) said. He explained to them that the plot to assassinate Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام was foolish because they would be killing a person who was innocent of all crimes. All that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام did was to proclaim the truth and to say that Allāh was his Lord. This was not a punishable offence, let alone deserving the death warrant. In addition to this, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام also proved his declarations to them by means of miracles.

The person explained to them further, saying, "If he [Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام] is lying, then his lies shall be to his own detriment (i.e. he will suffer the punishment in this world)." Therefore, he bade them not to have the blood of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام on their hands if he is bound to be destroyed. However, he then pointed out the other dimension to them, saying, "However, if he is fruitful, a part of what (punishment) he has prophesised shall afflict you" i.e. he warned you that Allāh's punishment will afflict you if you do not believe, and if you indulge in sin. Accordingly, Allāh's punishment should be expected in this world and in the Hereafter.

Continuing his talk, the person said, "Verily, Allāh does not guide him who transgresses the limits and is a liar." By making this statement, the man impressed upon the minds of his audience that Allāh would have never supported Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام by granting him miracles if Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام were lying about being a Prophet. He also alluded to the fact that pharaoh (Fir'aun) was a transgressor because he wanted to kill an innocent person, thereby promoting widespread anarchy and strife on earth. He also intended to convey the message that pharaoh (Fir'aun) was a liar because he claimed to be Allāh. Allāh will therefore not allow his schemes to materialise.

Addressing the people further, the believer said, "O my people! You have sovereignty today, and are dominant on earth. But who can assist us against Allāh's punishment when it comes to us?" In the guise of a question, he wisely sounded a warning to the people. He made them aware of the fact that their kingdom and vast riches will be useless against Allāh's punishment.

Fearing that the message of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام may gain momentum, thereby crushing his rule, Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "I am suggesting to you only what I regard to be correct, and I am guiding you only towards the path of guidance." By saying this, he tried to convince the people that his plot to kill Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was the best and most effective solution.

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنَ بِقَوْمِ اِيَّيْ خَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ مِّثْلَ يَوْمِ الْاَحْزَابِ ﴿٣٠﴾ مِثْلَ دَابِ قَوْمِ
نُوحٍ وَعَادٍ وَثَمُودَ وَالَّذِينَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ وَمَا اللّٰهُ يُرِيدُ ظُلْمًا لِّلْعِبَادِ ﴿٣١﴾ وَيَقَوْمِ اِيَّيْ
خَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ يَوْمَ التَّنَادِ ﴿٣٢﴾ يَوْمَ تُؤَلَوْنَ مُدْبِرِينَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنَ اللّٰهِ مِنْ عَاصِيٍّ وَمَنْ
يُضِلِلِ اللّٰهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ ﴿٣٣﴾

(30) The one who believed said, "O my people! I fear that you may suffer the day of the previous nations..." (31) like the plight of the nation of Nūh, Ād, Thamud, and those after them. Allāh never wills injustice for His bondsmen."

(32) "O my people! Verily I fear the day of Calling for you..." (33) "....the day when you will turn back on your heels, and there shall be none to protect you from Allāh. There can be no guide for the one whom Allāh sends astray."

THE BELIEVER REMINDS HIS PEOPLE ABOUT THE DESTRUCTION OF FORMER NATIONS AND ABOUT THE FRIGHTFUL DAY OF JUDGMENT

Warning his people further, the believer said, "O my people! I fear that (if you continue to oppose Allāh's Prophet as you are doing) you may suffer the day (punishment) of the previous (destroyed) nations, like the plight of the nation of Nūh, Ad, Thamud, and those after them. " All these nations suffered destruction when they refused to obey Allāh. "Allāh never wills injustice for His bondsmen." All these nations were destroyed on account of the wrongs they perpetrated. It can never be said that Allāh was ever unjust to anyone.

Addressing his people further, he reminded them that they will not live forever. He said, "O my people! Verily I fear the day of Calling for you." Here he refers to the Day of Judgment, when much calling will take place. The first call will take place after the trumpet is blown for the first time. Referring to this, Allāh says, "The day when a caller shall call from a near place." Thereafter, because there will be many groups of people present, each shall be summoned by the names of their leaders. Allāh says, "The day when We shall call every person by his religious leader (Imām)."

When the righteous people will be given their records of deeds in their right hands, they will call out, "Come and read my record!" On the Day of Judgment, the people of Heaven, Hell and A'rāf will also be calling out to each other, as mentioned in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 44-51].

"The day when you will turn back on your heels... "i.e. you will turn away from the Plain of Resurrection, and head for Hell [Ma'ālimut Tanzīl]. When Allāh will decree that people should be dispatched to Hell, none will be able to escape Allāh's punishment, and none shall come to their aid.

Eventually, losing hope for the people around him, the believer person said, "There can be no guide for the one whom Allāh sends astray."

وَلَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ يُوسُفُ مِنْ قَبْلُ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَمَا زِلْتُمْ فِي شَكٍّ مِمَّا جَاءَكُمْ بِهِ حَتَّى
 إِذَا هَلَكَ قُلْتُمْ لَنْ يَبْعَثَ اللَّهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ رَسُولًا كَذَلِكَ يُضِلُّ اللَّهُ مَنْ هُوَ
 مُسْرِفٌ مُرْتَابٌ ﴿٣٤﴾ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ سُلْطَانٍ أَتَتْهُمْ كَبْرَ
 مَقْتًا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَعِنْدَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا كَذَلِكَ يَطْبَعُ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ قَلْبٍ مُتَكَبِّرٍ
 جَبَّارٍ ﴿٣٥﴾

(34) Without doubt, Yusuf عليه السلام came to you with clear signs, but you remained in constant doubt about what he brought to you. Until the time came when he passed away, then you said, "Allāh shall never ever send a messenger after him. Thus does Allāh send astray him who transgresses the limits and is sceptical..." (35) Those who dispute about Allāh's verses without any warrant coming to them. This is extremely detestable in the sight of Allāh and those who believe. Thus does Allāh set a seal on the heart of every haughty and tyrannical person."

THE DEVIATION OF THOSE WHO DOUBT, AND THE SEAL UPON THE HEARTS OF THE HAUGHTY ONES

The believers already reminded his people about the previously destroyed nations who refused to believe in their Prophets عليهم السلام. In the above verse, he specifically mentions one of the Prophet عليه السلام who lived in Egypt, viz. Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. He said to them, "Without doubt, Yusuf عليه السلام came to you with clear signs, but you remained in constant doubt about what he brought to you. Until the time came when he passed away, then you said, '(If he was Allāh's true messenger, then) Allāh shall never ever send a messenger after him. Thus does Allāh send astray him who transgresses the limits and is sceptical.'" When doubt and scepticism become a person's habit, he is reluctant to accept anything, even though it be the truth. In this manner, Allāh sends him astray.

Further describing the transgressors and sceptics, he said that they are "Those who dispute about Allāh's verses without any warrant coming to them. This (type of behaviour) is extremely detestable in the sight of Allāh and (in the sight of) those who believe."

He further told them that they disbelieve because Allāh has certainly set a seal on their hearts, just as He has "set a seal on the heart of every haughty and tyrannical person." Such people will not accept the truth because it will not penetrate the seal on their hearts.

NOTE: The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has written that the Yusuf عليه السلام mentioned in the verse refers to the son of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام. Leaving his native land of Kan'ān, he arrived in Egypt where he soon became a leader. Therefore, the phrase "came to you with clear signs" will mean that Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام came to the forefathers of the people he was addressing at that time.

Other commentators are of the opinion that the Yusuf mentioned in the Qur'ānic verse is the grandson of the famous Prophet Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. Allāh also made him a Prophet, and he lived among the Egyptians for twenty years. However, the people doubted his Prophet hood. Allāh knows best.

وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ يَهْمَنُ ابْنِي لِي صَرَحًا لَعَلِّي أَبْلُغُ الْأَسْبَابَ ﴿٣٦﴾ أَسْبَابَ السَّمَوَاتِ
فَأُطَّلِعَ إِلَى إِلَهِ مُوسَى وَإِنِّي لَأَظُنُّهُ كَذِبًا ۖ وَكَذَلِكَ زُينَ لِفِرْعَوْنَ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ
وَصُدَّ عَنِ السَّبِيلِ ۚ وَمَا كَيْدُ فِرْعَوْنَ إِلَّا فِي تَبَابٍ ﴿٣٧﴾

(36) Pharaoh (Fir'aun) said, "O Hāmān, build a tower for me so that I may reach the roads... (37) "... (That I may reach) The roads of the heavens so that I can have a close look at the deity of Mūsa. I strongly feel that he is a liar." In this manner the evil of his deeds was made appealing to pharaoh (Fir'aun), and he was prevented from the path. The scheme of pharaoh (Fir'aun) led only to destruction.

PHARAOH (FIR'AUN) COMMISSIONS THE CONSTRUCTION OF A TOWER, BUT HIS SCHEMES SERVE ONLY TO DESTROY HIM

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام conveyed the message to pharaoh (Fir'aun), he threatened to kill Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, and made many arrogant statements to flatter the audience. One of these statements was that he commanded his aide Hāmān to construct a high tower so that he may take a look at Allāh. Such is the condition of those who merely pose as gods. They require things like towers and staircases to ascend to heights. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) issued the command merely to deceive and impress the people. Reference to this command has already been made in Surah Qasas, where Allāh quotes pharaoh (Fir'aun) saying, "O Hāmān! Kindle for me a fire on sand, then construct a tower for me so that I may get a peek at Mūsa's Lord. I strongly feel that he is from the liars." [Surah 28, verse 38]

Allāh says further, "In this manner the evil of his deeds was made appealing to pharaoh (Fir'aun), and he was prevented from the path. The scheme of pharaoh (Fir'aun) led only to destruction." Eventually, pharaoh (Fir'aun) was drowned along with his entire army.

Allāh says in Surah TāHā, "So pharaoh (Fir'aun) followed them with his army and there covered them that of the sea that did cover them. Pharaoh (Fir'aun) misled his nation and never guided." [Surah 20, verses 78 and 79]

وَقَالَ الَّذِي ءَامَنَ يَقَوْمِ اتَّبِعُونِ اهْدِكُمْ سَبِيلَ الرَّشَادِ ﴿٣٨﴾ يَقَوْمِ إِنَّمَا هَٰذِهِ الدُّنْيَا مَتَعٌ وَإِنَّ الْآخِرَةَ هِيَ دَارُ الْقَرَارِ ﴿٣٩﴾ مَنْ عَمِلَ سَيِّئَةً فَلَا يُجْزَىٰ إِلَّا مِثْلَهَا وَمَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا مِّن ذَكَرٍ أَوْ أَنشَأَ وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ فَأُولَٰئِكَ يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ يُرْزَقُونَ فِيهَا بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَتَقَوْمِ مَا لِيَ أَدْعُوكُمْ إِلَى النَّجْوَىٰ وَتَدْعُونَنِي إِلَى النَّارِ ﴿٤١﴾ تَدْعُونَنِي لِأَكْفُرَ بِاللَّهِ وَأُشْرِكَ بِهِ مَا لَيْسَ لِي بِهِ عِلْمٌ وَأَنَا أَدْعُوكُمْ إِلَى الْعَزِيزِ الْغَفَرِ ﴿٤٢﴾ لَا جَرَمَ إِنَّمَا تَدْعُونَنِي إِلَيْهِ لَيْسَ لَهُ دَعْوَةٌ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَلَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَأَنْ مَّرَدَّنَا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَأَنَّ الْمُسْرِفِينَ هُمْ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ ﴿٤٣﴾ فَسَتَذْكُرُونَ مَا أَقُولُ لَكُمْ وَأَفَؤُضُ أَمْرِي إِلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بَصِيرٌ بِالْعِبَادِ ﴿٤٤﴾ فَوَقَدَهُ اللَّهُ سَيِّئَاتٍ مَا

مَكْرُوءًا وَحَاقَ بِكَالٍ فِرْعَوْنَ سُوءُ الْعَذَابِ ﴿٤٥﴾ النَّارُ يُعْرَضُونَ عَلَيْهَا غُدُوًّا وَعَشِيًّا وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ أَدْخِلُوا آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ أَشَدَّ الْعَذَابِ ﴿٤٦﴾

(38) The one who believed said, "O my people! Follow me and I sha'! lead you to the path of guidance." (39) "O my people! This worldly life is a trivial gain. Undoubtedly the Hereafter is really a place to live." (40) "Whoever perpetrates a sin shall be punished only for it. Whoever, male or female, carries out a good deed as a believer shall enter Heaven, where they will be sustained without restriction." (41) "O my people! How is it that I call you towards salvation, whereas you call me towards the Fire?" (42) "You call me to disbelieve in Allāh and to ascribe such partners to Him for which I have no justification. On the other hand, I am calling you towards the Mighty, the Most Forgiving." (43) "It is a fact that those towards whom you call me have no claim in this world or in the Hereafter. Our return shall certainly be to Allāh, and the transgressors will be the inmates of the Fire." (44) "You shall soon recall what I am telling you. I surrender my affairs to Allāh. Allāh is definitely Watchful over His bondsmen." (45) So Allāh saved him from the evils of the plots they made, and a terrible punishment enveloped the people of phara'oh (Fir'aun). (46) They will be presented before the Fire morning and evening. And, on the day that Judgment will take place, (they will be told) "Enter the people of phara'oh (Fir'aun) into the worst of punishments."

THE BELIEVING MAN TURNS REMINDS THE PEOPLE ABOUT THE TRANSIENT NATURE OF THIS WORLD AND THE PERMANENCE OF THE HEREAFTER

After listening to the ramblings of phara'oh (Fir'aun) about getting a look at Allāh from a tower, the believer said, "O my people! Follow me and I shall lead you to the path of guidance." He encouraged them to believe in Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام just as he believed. People are averse to believing because they fear a loss of their worldly belongings and position. Therefore, the believer impressed upon them that this world is temporary and not worthy of hankering after. He told them, "O my people! This worldly life is a trivial gain. Undoubtedly the Hereafter is really a place to live."

He further told them, "Whoever perpetrates a sin shall be punished only for it. Whoever, male or female, carries out a good deed as a believer shall enter Heaven, where they will be sustained without restriction." Whereas the punishment for sins will be proportionate to the sins, the reward for good deeds will far surpass the actual value of the deed.

He said, "O my people! How is it that I call you towards salvation, whereas you call me towards the Fire?" He was calling them towards actions that would lead to Heaven, whereas they called him towards disbelief, polytheism and all other acts that would take them to Hell. He further added, "You call me to disbelieve in Allāh and to ascribe such partners to Him for which I have no justification." Referring to himself, he impressed upon them that they have no justification for perpetrating polytheism.

"On the other hand, I am calling you towards (my Allāh, Who is) the Mighty, the Most Forgiving." In saying this, he conveyed the message that if they refuse to believe, Allāh has the might to punish them. However, if they repent and believe, Allāh will certainly forgive them.

"It is a fact that those (gods) towards whom you call me have no claim in this world or in the Hereafter." He told them that their gods have no authority in either world. They are unable to hear an invocation. They cannot even say 'yes' or 'no' to a plea, let alone being able to do any harm or good.

He advised them further saying, "Our return shall certainly be to Allāh, and the transgressors will be the inmates of the Fire." In this manner, he told them that they were transgressors, and needed to mend their ways before Allāh condemns them to an eternity in Hell.

"You shall soon recall what I am telling you. I surrender my affairs to Allāh. Allāh is definitely Watchful over His, bondsmen." Hereby he informed them that he totally relied on Allāh, Who would protect him from their evil plots.

ALLĀH RESCUES THE BELIEVER AND THE PEOPLE OF PHARA'OH (FIR'AUN)

When the believer pinned his trust in Allāh, Allāh complied by keeping him safe from the schemes of the disbelievers. Allāh says, "So Allāh saved him from the evils of the plots they made, and a terrible punishment enveloped the people of phara'oh (Fir'aun)." Phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his entire army were drowned in the sea. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that phara'oh (Fir'aun) issued a warrant of execution against the believer referred to above. As a result, the Believer left for the mountains. Phara'oh (Fir'aun) dispatched a thousand men to capture him, and they finally found him performing Salāh. Allāh ensured his safety by making wild animals attack the group, killing many of them. Others died of thirst in the mountains, and a few managed to return to Phara'oh (Fir'aun). However, Phara'oh (Fir'aun) had them all killed because he believed that they purposely allowed the believer to escape.

"They will be presented before the Fire morning and evening." After being drowned, Phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his men entered the realm of Barzakh (the intermediate stage between this world and the Hereafter). Each night and day in Barzakh, they will suffer the torment of Hell. They will also be reminded that "on the day that Judgment day will take place (they will be told) 'Enter the people of phara'oh (Fir'aun) into the worst of punishments.'" They will suffer the true punishment of Hell in the Hereafter.

PUNISHMENT IN THE GRAVE

The Ahadith make mention of punishment in the grave for the disbelievers and sinners. The following two verses of the Qur'ān also mention the same fact:

"They will be presented before the Fire morning and evening."

"Because of their sins they were drowned and made to enter the Fire." [Surah Nūh (71), verse 25]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned, "When any of you pass away, his abode in the Hereafter will be shown to him every morning and evening. If he is from the people of Heaven, he will be shown his place in Heaven. If he is from the inmates of Hell, he will shown his place in Hell. It will be said to them, "That is your true abode. You shall remain here (in the grave) until Allāh resurrects you on the Day of Judgment to enter there." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 25, from Bukhari and Muslim]

وَإِذْ يَتَحَاوَرُونَ فِي النَّارِ فَيَقُولُ الضُّعَفَاءُ لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا إِنَّا كُنَّا لَكُمْ تَبَعًا فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُعْتَنُونَ عَلَيْنَا نَصِيبًا مِّنَ النَّارِ ﴿٤٧﴾ قَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا إِنَّا كُلٌّ فِيهَا إِنَّكَ اللَّهُ قَدْ حَكَمَ بَيْنَ الْعِبَادِ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ فِي النَّارِ لِخَزَنَتِهِ جَهَنَّمَ ادْعُوا رَبَّكُمْ يُخَفِّفْ عَلَيْنَا يَوْمًا مِّنَ الْعَذَابِ ﴿٤٩﴾ قَالُوا أَوَلَمْ تَكُنْ تَأْتِيكُمْ رُسُلُكُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتٍ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ قَالُوا فَادْعُوا وَمَا دُعَاؤُ الْكَافِرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ ﴿٥٠﴾

(47) Remember the time when they will dispute with each other in the Fire. Then the weak ones will say to the haughty ones, "Verily we were your followers, so can you remove a portion of the Fire from us?" (48) The haughty ones will say, "We are all together in the Fire. Allāh has already passed judgement between His bondsmen." (49) The people in Hell will say to the keepers of Hell, "Supplicate to your Lord to lessen a day of the punishment for us." (50) They (the keepers) will ask, "Did your messengers not come to you with clear signs?" The people will reply, "Certainly." The keepers will then say, "Then you supplicate. The supplication of the disbelievers is lost."

THE PEOPLE OF HELL WILL ARGUE AND PIN THE BLAME ON EACH OTHER

In this world there are those who pander to the wishes of their leaders with great enthusiasm. In their obedience to their leaders, they even oppose the Prophet عليه السلام and forbid others from listening to these chosen servants of Allāh. However, when such people suffer the tortures of Hell, they will become sworn enemies of each other. The followers will say to their leaders, "Verily we were your followers, so can you remove a portion of the Fire from us?" Unable to help even themselves, their leaders will reply, "We are all together in the Fire. Allāh has already passed judgement between His bondsmen." Since the decision of eternal damnation will have been passed, none will be of any avail to another.

A similar dispute is mentioned in Surah Ibrahim, where the leaders reply, "If Allāh had guided us, we would have guided you. It makes no difference whether we vent our anxiety or we exercise patience. We have no escape." [Surah 14, verse 21]

THE INMATES OF HELL APPEAL TO THE KEEPERS OF HELL TO SUPPLICATE TO ALLĀH FOR MITIGATION

In an effort to relieve their punishment, the people of Hell will appeal to the keepers of Hell saying, "Supplicate to your Lord to lessen a day of the punishment for us." In response to this plea, the keepers will remind them of the reason for their entry in Hell. They will ask, "Did your messengers not come to you with clear signs (which you denied)?" The people will reply, 'Certainly.' The keepers will then say, 'Then you supplicate (because we cannot intercede on behalf of the guilty). The supplication of the disbelievers is lost.'" All their supplications will be ignored, just as they ignored the repeated messages of the Prophets عليهم السلام.

إِنَّا لَنَنْصُرُ رُسُلَنَا وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَيَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْأَشْهَادُ ﴿٥١﴾ يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ الظَّالِمِينَ مَعَذِرَتُهُمْ وَلَهُمُ اللَّعْنَةُ وَلَهُمْ سُوءُ الدَّارِ ﴿٥٢﴾

(51) We shall definitely assist Our messengers and those who believe in this worldly life as well as on the Day when witnesses will stand. (52) The day when the excuses of the oppressors will not benefit them, when they will be cursed and have the worst of abodes.

ALLĀH PROMISES ASSISTANCE FOR HIS MESSENGERS AND THE BELIEVERS

Allāh declares, "We shall definitely assist Our messengers and those who believe in this worldly life as well as on the Day when witnesses will stand." Allāh assures the Prophets عليهم السلام and the believers that they will certainly be granted assistance in this very world. Whereas the assistance is a certainty, there may sometimes be a delay in the arrival of Allāh's assistance. This delay is based on Allāh's infinite wisdom. One of the reasons is to grant temporary relief to the disbelievers so that they excel in their disobedience and rebellion. As a result of this, they are taken to task and punished much more severely (even in this very world).

The "witnesses" refer to the angels, who will testify that the Prophets عليهم السلام conveyed the message they were entrusted with, and that the disbelievers refused to believe in them.

Allāh says further, "The day when the excuses of the oppressors will not benefit them, when they will be cursed and have the worst of abodes (in Hell)."

وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْهُدَى وَأَوْرَثْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ الْكِتَابَ ﴿٥٣﴾ هُدًى وَذِكْرًا لِأُولَى الْأَلْبَابِ ﴿٥٤﴾ فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لِذَنْبِكَ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ بِالْعَشِيِّ وَالْإِبْكَرِ ﴿٥٥﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي ءَايَاتِ اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ سُلْطَانٍ أَتَتْهُمْ إِنْ فِي صُدُورِهِمْ إِلَّا كِبْرٌ مَّا هُمْ

بِإِغْيَاهُ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ ﴿٥٦﴾

(53) Verily We gave guidance to Mūsa and made the Bani Isrā'īl inheritors of the Book... (54) "... which is a guidance and advice for those with intelligence. (55) So be patient! Allāh's promise is certainly the truth. Seek forgiveness for your errors, and glorify the praises of your Lord morning and evening. (56) There is only pride in the hearts of those who dispute about Allāh's verses without any warrant that has come to them. They shall never reach (their aspirations). So seek refuge with Allāh. Undoubtedly, only He is the All Hearing, All Seeing.

THE COMMAND TO SEEK ALLĀH'S FORGIVENESS AND TO GLORIFY HIM AND PRAISE HIM

Allāh briefly mentions Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and the Bani Isrā'īl when He says, "Verily We gave guidance to Mūsa and made the Bani Isrā'īl inheritors of the Book, which is a guidance and advice for those with intelligence." However, the Bani Isrā'īl did not appreciate the great boon they were granted, but remained obstinate and continued to harass Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Therefore, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام had to exercise patience with them.

Instructing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to follow suit, Allāh says, "So be patient! Allāh's promise is certainly the truth. (However, if there has to be any deficiency in your patience, then) Seek forgiveness for your errors (because this is not befitting a Prophet of your calibre), and glorify the praises of your Lord morning and evening."

THERE IS PRIDE IN THE HEARTS OF THOSE WHO DISPUTE ABOUT ALLĀH'S VERSES

Allāh says, "There is only pride in the hearts of those who dispute about Allāh's verses without any warrant that has come to them." Besotted with themselves, they anticipate that they will have whatever they want. They expect to assume power over all others. However, Allāh says, "They shall never reach (their aspirations)." Thereafter, Allāh advises the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "So seek refuge with Allāh. Undoubtedly, only He is the All Hearing, All Seeing."

Ma'ālimut Tanzil reports that the above verse was revealed with reference to the Jews. They told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they will regain their lost kingdom and glory when their Messiah Dajjāl arrives. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse, "There is only pride in the hearts of those who dispute about Allāh's verses without any warrant that has come to them. They shall never reach (their aspirations)." Allāh then instructs people to seek His protection. By doing so, a person will be safeguarded from Dajjāl.

لَخَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ خَلْقِ النَّاسِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَى وَالْبَصِيرُ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَلَا الْمُسِيءُ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ إِنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَأَنبَىٰ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا

وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾

(57) The creation of the heavens and the earth is a greater feat than the creation of mankind, but most people do not know. (58) The blind and seeing cannot be equal, neither can those who believe and do good deeds be equal to the sinners. Little is it that they take heed. (59) There is indeed no doubt in the fact that Judgment day is imminent. However, most people do not believe.

THE BLIND AND THE SIGHTED CANNOT BE THE SAME, JUST AS THE RIGHTEOUS BELIEVERS AND EVIL SINNERS CANNOT BE THE SAME

The above verses dispel the doubts harboured by those who deny the advent of Judgment day. Many people foolishly deny Judgment day because they regard resurrection as something farfetched. Allāh draws their attention to the fact that He is perfectly Capable of creating enormous phenomena like the heavens and the earth. Therefore, it will be absolutely simple for Him to enact the relatively easy feat of resurrecting people for the Day of Judgment. This entails the simple task of restoring the already existing soul to its physical body. Simple as it is to understand, "most people do not know."

Allāh asserts, "The blind and seeing cannot be equal (which is obvious); (in a similar manner) neither can those who believe and do good deeds be equal to the sinners. Little is it that they take heed." After one has digested this fact, one will realise that the good will have to be granted their due rewards, while the evil ones deserve to be punished. It is for this reason that Judgment day is certain. Therefore, Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, there is no doubt in the fact that Judgment of day is imminent. However, most people do not believe."

وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِي سَيَدْخُلُونَ جَهَنَّمَ دَاخِرِينَ ﴿٦٠﴾

(60) Your Lord says, "Supplicate to Me, I shall respond. Verily, those who are too proud to worship Me shall soon enter Hell in humiliation."

THE COMMAND TO MAKE SUPPLICATION AND THE PROMISE OF ACCEPTANCE

Allāh promises, "Supplicate to Me, I shall respond." Allāh is extremely Bountiful by allowing man the privilege of making supplication to Him and also promising a response to their supplication. The unique ecstasy experienced by means of supplication can be experienced only by those who are truly aware of the etiquette of supplication.

Supplication is great form of worship, as indicated by the concluding words of the above verse where Allāh says, "Verily, those who are too proud to worship (supplicate to) Me shall soon enter Hell in humiliation."

THE IMPORTANCE AND VIRTUE OF SUPPLICATION

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "supplication is the essence of all worship." ["Mishkāt" p. 194] The Arabic word "mukh" (translated above as "essence") refers to whatever is contained within a peel or shell. When an almond shell is opened, the almond itself is valued, while the shell remains worthless.

Supplication is not only an extremely fundamental act of worship (Ibādah), but it is the very essence of all forms of worship (Ibādah). The purpose of worship (Ibādah) is to express one's helplessness and dependency to Allāh. When a person engages in worship (Ibādah), his external self and internal self are humble in Allāh's court. Since supplication entails a great expression of humility, it is regarded as the essence and marrow of all forms of worship (Ibādah).

When making supplication, a person admits his dependence on Allāh, and places his needs before Allāh with the conviction that no other can assist him. He acknowledges the fact that only Allāh can give him what he requires, and that none can prevent Allāh from fulfilling his needs. Realising all of this, he stretches his hands before Allāh, thereby expressing the deepest humility and dependence. This becomes a form of Ibādah, attracting Allāh's pleasure.

As for the person who does not want to make supplication, he regards it below his dignity to beg of Allāh, indicating that he is filled with pride. Allāh is therefore extremely angry with such a person.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Nothing is more honourable than supplication in Allāh's sight." ["Mishkāt" p. 194, from Tirmidhi]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "Allāh becomes angry with the person who does not ask from Him." ["Mishkāt" p. 195]

Supplication is the simplest and most effective manner of securing safety from all difficulties. It does not require any effort of the hands and feet nor any investment of wealth. Each person needs to do is keep his mind attentive and make supplication. Supplication is possible for the rich, the poor, the ill, the healthy, the traveller, the male, the female, the old and the young. It can be practised individually or collectively.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Never fail to make supplication because none can ever be destroyed with supplication." [Targhib wat Tarhib]

About those who regard Supplication to be below their dignity, Allāh says, "Verily, those who are too proud to worship (make Supplication to) Me shall soon enter Hell in humiliation." It is unfortunate that people attach importance only to the things of this world, because of which they are totally oblivious of what they say in their Supplication. They merely raise their hands as a formality, unaware of the etiquette and presence of mind required for this great worship (Ibādah). I have written a booklet about the virtues of Supplication, which may be referred to for further details.

اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمْ اللَّيْلَ لِتَسْكُنُوا فِيهِ وَالنَّهَارَ مُبْصِرًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَذُو
 فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ ذَٰلِكُمُ اللَّهُ
 رَبُّكُمْ خَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَأَنَّى تُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ كَذَٰلِكَ يُؤْفَكُ
 الَّذِينَ كَانُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ يَجْحَدُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمْ الْأَرْضَ فَرَارًا
 وَالسَّمَاءَ بِنَاءً وَصَوَّرَكُمْ فَأَحْسَنَ صُورَكُمْ وَرَزَقَكُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ ذَٰلِكُمُ
 اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ فَتَبَارَكَ اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٦٤﴾ هُوَ الْحَيُّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا
 هُوَ فَادْعُوهُ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٦٥﴾

(61) It is Allāh Who has made the night for you to rest, and has made the day for you to see. Without doubt, Allāh is the Granter of Grace to mankind, but most people are ungrateful. (62) This is Allāh, your Lord, the Creator of everything. None besides Him is worthy of worship, so whence are you wandering? (63) Thus did those who rejected Allāh's verses wander (astray). (64) It is Allāh Who made the earth a stable abode for you, and the skies a roof (It is He) Who fashioned you, beautified your appearances, and sustained you with pure things. This is Allāh, your Lord. So blessed is Allāh, the Lord of the universe. (65) He is the Living, besides Whom no other deserves to be worshipped. So pray to Him, devoting worship solely to Him. All praise is for Allāh, the Lord of the universe.

ALLĀH IS THE CREATOR OF THE EARTH, THE SKIES, THE NIGHT, THE DAY, AND EVERYTHING ELSE

Discussing His bounties and creative power, Allāh declares, "It is Allāh Who has made the night for you to rest, and has made the day for you to see (to comfortably earn your sustenance). Without doubt, Allāh is the Granter of Grace to mankind..." As a result of this, man ought to be grateful to Allāh. However, "most people are ungrateful."

"This is Allāh, your Lord, the Creator of everything. None besides Him is worthy of worship, so whence are you wandering? Thus did those who rejected Allāh's verses wander (astray)." Rejecting Allāh's signs and verses causes people to fall prey to their carnal passions and the guile of Satan.

Allāh then recounts some of His favours upon mankind when He says, 'It is Allāh Who made the earth a stable abode for you, and the skies a roof' Allāh has created the earth in such a manner that (despite the tremendous speed of rotation and orbit) people are not shaken about and flung off.

Furthermore, "(It is He) Who fashioned you, beautified your appearances, and sustained you with pure things (to eat drink, and wear). This is Allāh, your Lord. So blessed is Allāh, the Lord of the universe. He is the Living, besides Whom no other deserves to be worshipped. So pray to Him, devoting worship solely to Him. All praise is for Allāh, the Lord of the universe."

﴿قُلْ إِنِّي نُهَيْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ الَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ لَمَّا جَاءَنِيَ الْبَيِّنَاتُ مِنْ رَبِّي وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أُسْلِمَ لِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ﴾ (66) هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ عَلَقَةٍ ثُمَّ يُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِتَبْلُغُوا أَشَدَّكُمْ ثُمَّ لِيَكَوْنُوا شُيُوخًا وَمِنْكُمْ مَن يُنَوِّقُ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَيَبْلُغُوا أَجَلًا مُّسَمًّى وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿67﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ فَإِذَا قُضِيَ أَمْرًا فَإِنَّمَا يَقُولُ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ﴿68﴾

(66) Say, "I have been prohibited from worshipping those whom you worship besides Allāh since the clear signs have come to me from my Lord. I have also been commanded to be obedient to the Lord of the universe. (67) It is He Who created you from sand, then from a drop of fluid, then from a clot of blood, after which Allāh extracted you as a child. Thereafter, (Allāh preserves you) to reach your strength, and then to become old, the lives of some of you being taken first. And (He preserves you) so that you reach the appointed term, and so that you may understand. (68) It is Allāh Who gives life and death. When He decrees a matter all He has to say is "Be." and it is.

I CANNOT WORSHIP YOUR GODS BECAUSE I HAVE BEEN COMMANDED TO OBEY THE LORD OF THE UNIVERSE

Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "Say (to the Polytheists), I have been prohibited from worshipping those whom you worship besides Allāh since the clear signs have come to me from my Lord. I have also been commanded to be obedient to the Lord of the universe." This declaration put an end to the aspirations of the polytheists, who entertained hopes that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would join their ranks or even compromise with them.

Allāh then describes the various stages of man's creation. Allāh says, 'It is He Who created you from sand...' Allāh created the first man, Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, from sand, which therefore becomes the base element in man's creation. Thereafter, Allāh caused Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام and his progeny to reproduce 'from a drop of fluid'. Thus, children are conceived when this 'fluid' (sperm) fertilises the egg of a female, which gradually develops until it forms "a clot of blood". This clot of blood develops further until it forms into a little lump of flesh. Allāh then creates bones and organs in this flesh, instils life in it "after which Allāh extracted you as a child." This discussion is given in the commentary of verse 5 of Surah Hajj (Surah 22).

THE STAGES OF HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Allāh then proceeds to describe the progress of man's development after infancy and childhood. Allāh says, "Thereafter, (Allāh preserves you) to reach your strength" i.e. the stage when man's faculties of perception and the strength of his limbs are toned and fully functional. However, this stage of youthful vibrancy also disappears, after which you "become old."

However, every human being does not pass through this cycle, because there are many people whose lives come to an end before they reach old age, while others die as children. This is referred to in the phrase "the lives of some of you being taken first." Allāh further says that He allows man to pass through these stages of development so that they may "reach the appointed term" i.e. Judgment day, when every person will have to answer for his/her deeds.

Another reason for leading man through these stages is so that he "may understand" i.e. So that he may reflect and understand the various reasons for and the wisdom behind the rungs in his ladder to the Hereafter.

"It is Allāh Who gives life and death." Allāh does as he pleases, with none to prevent Him. In fact, He is so Mighty that "When He decrees a matter, all He has to say is 'Be!' and it is." Allāh's mere intention to bring something into existence is sufficient. Mention has also been made of this in the commentary of verse 117 of Surah Baqarah.

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ أَنَّى يُصْرِفُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا
بِالْكِتَابِ وَمِمَّا أَرْسَلْنَا بِهِ رُسُلَنَا فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ إِذِ الْأَغْطُلُ فِي
أَعْتَقِهِمْ وَالسَّالْسِلُ يُسْحَبُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ فِي الْحَمِيمِ ثُمَّ فِي النَّارِ يُسْجَرُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ ثُمَّ
قِيلَ لَهُمْ أَنِمْ مَا كُنتُمْ تُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ قَالُوا ضَلُّوا عَنَّا بَلْ لَمْ نَكُنْ
نَدْعُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ شَيْئًا كَذَلِكَ يَضِلُّ اللَّهُ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٧٤﴾ ذَلِكَ بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَفْرَحُونَ
فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَمِمَّا كُنتُمْ تَمْرَحُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾ ادْخُلُوا أَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
فَإِنَّكُمْ مُتَوَكِّلُونَ عَلَى الْمَتَكِرِينَ ﴿٧٦﴾ فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ فَكَيْمَا يُرِيدُكَ بَعْضُ
الَّذِي نَعِدُهُمْ أَوْ تَوَفَّيْنَاكَ فَإِلَيْنَا يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٧٧﴾

(69) Have you not seen those who dispute about Allāh's verses? Where are they heading? (70) Those who falsify the Book and that with which We sent Our messengers. They shall soon come to know... (71) ... When yokes will be placed around their necks, as well as chains. They will be dragged... (72) ... into the boiling water, after which they will be cast as fuel for the Fire. (73) Thereafter it will be told to them, "Where are those whom you ascribed as partners... (74) ...to Allāh?" They will reply, "They have been lost to us. In fact, we never worshipped anything before this." Thus does Allāh send the disbelievers astray. (75) This is because you were unjustifiably haughty on earth and because you were boastful. (76) Enter the gates of Hell where you will live forever. Evil indeed is the abode of the proud ones! (77) Be patient, for verily Allāh's promise is true. So if We show you some of what We have promised them, or if We have to claim your soul, then only to Us shall they be returned.

THE INMATES OF HELL WILL BE DRAGGED IN CHAINS TO THE FIRE AND ASKED WHERE ARE THEIR GODS

The verses above refer to those people who dispute about Allāh's verses, and who falsify the divine scriptures and Allāh's messages to the Holy Prophets عليهم السلام. Allāh warns them when He says, "They shall soon come to know (about their punishment); when yokes will be placed around their necks, as well as chains. They will be dragged into the boiling water, after which they will be cast as fuel for the Fire."

Thereafter it will be told to them, 'Where are those whom you ascribed as partners to Allāh?' They will reply, 'They have been lost to us (we cannot expect any help from them). In fact, we never worshipped anything before this.'

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has rendered the following two interpretations of this verse:

1. They meant, "We now realise that our gods were nothing."
2. They were lying, just as they are quoted as saying, "By Allāh, our Lord, we never perpetrated polytheism!" [Surah An'ām (6), verse 23]

After mentioning their reply, Allāh says, "Thus does Allāh send the disbelievers astray." Whereas they regarded their gods to be everything in this world, they will write them off as nothing in the Hereafter. Because of the hysteria they will suffer on the Day of Judgment, they will even be audacious enough to blatantly lie to Allāh.

They will then be told, "This (punishment) is because you were unjustifiably haughty on earth and because you were boastful." These people allowed their preoccupation with the world to make them heedless of the Hereafter, and cause them to forget that all bounties come from Allāh. They will also be told, "Enter the gates of Hell where you will live forever. Evil indeed is the abode of the proud ones!" When Allāh's messengers and their deputies preached to these people, they considered it an insult to heed their teachings because of their arrogance.

The above verse states, "They will be dragged into the boiling water, after which they will be cast as fuel for the Fire." However, Allāh says in Surah Dukhān reads, "Grab him and drag him to the very midst of the Blazing Fire! Then pour the punishment of boiling water over his head." This verse therefore conveys the message that the boiling water will be poured after the people have been entered into the fire of Hell. Therefore, certain people have pointed out the seeming discrepancy between the two verses. It should be noted that there is no inconsistency between the two verses. The verse of Surah Mumin does not specify that the boiling water will be at the very beginning (even before entering Hell itself). After entering Hell, some people will first experience the boiling water, while others will experience the torture of "the Blazing Fire" (which does not necessarily refer to the entire Hell, but can well be a part of it).

Thereafter, Allāh encourages the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be patient.

Allāh says, "Be patient, for verily Allāh's promise is true. So if We show you some of what (punishment) We have promised them (while you are alive), or if We have to claim your soul (before punishing them), then only to Us shall they be returned (in either case)." Therefore, they will receive their due punishment in the Hereafter, from which they have no escape.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلًا مِّن قَبْلِكَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّن قَصَصْنَا عَلَيْكَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّن لَّمْ نَقْصُصْ
عَلَيْكَ وَمَا كَانَ لِرَسُولٍ أَن يَأْتِيَ بِقَايَةٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ قُضِيَ بِالْحَقِّ
وَخَسِرَ هُنَالِكَ الْمُبْطِلُونَ ﴿٧٨﴾

(78) Verily We have sent many messengers before you. Of these there are those whose narratives We have related to you, as well as those whose narratives We have not related to you. No messenger has the power to produce a miracle without Allāh's permission. So when Allāh's command comes, judgement will be passed with the truth and, on that occasion, the people of falsehood will be at a loss.

THE NARRATIVES OF SOME PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام WERE RELATED TO THE HOLY PROPHET صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, WHILE OTHERS WERE NOT. NO MIRACLE CAN TAKE PLACE WITHOUT ALLĀH'S COMMAND

The above verse contains two messages. The first, addressed to the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, says, "Verily We have sent many messengers before you. Of these there are those whose narratives we have related to you, as well as those whose narratives We have not related to you." The narratives of many of these Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام have been given in Surah Baqarah, Surah Mā'idah, Surah An'am, Surah A'rāf, Surah Hūd, Surah Anbiya, and many other Surahs. The fact that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was informed about the number of all the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام does not contradict this verse. The verse refers to the knowledge of the detailed incidents of these Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام, about which the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was not informed.

The "Musnad" of Imām Ahmad رحمه الله عليه reports from Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضي الله عنه that he once asked the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ about the number of Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام. The Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ replied, "They were a hundred and twenty-four thousand (124,000), 315 of them being the messengers." ["Mishkāt" p. 151]

Since this hadith is not Mutawātir, it is not essential to one's belief to believe in this (or any other) specific number of the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام.

The second message that this verse delivers is "No messenger has the power to produce a miracle without Allāh's permission." Every miracle that every one of the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام produced was possible only by Allāh's command. Whenever a nation requested a miracle from their the Prophet عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام, he could do nothing to comply with their request unless Allāh willed. Only then would Allāh grant the Prophets عليهم السلام the ability to perform the miracle that He wills. On many occasions, Allāh did not permit the miracle to take place, upon which people would deny the Prophet hood of the Prophets عليهم السلام. This happened to many Prophets عليهم السلام in the past, as well as to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This verse therefore encourages the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to exercise patience just as the Prophets عليهم السلام of the past did.

Allāh says further, "So when Allāh's command comes, judgement will be passed with the truth and, on that occasion, the people of falsehood will be at a loss." On the Day of Judgment, the believers will attain salvation, while the disbelievers and polytheists will be doomed to Hell.

اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَنْعَامَ لِتَرْكَبُوا مِنْهَا وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٧٩﴾ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ وَلِتَبْلُغُوا عَلَيْهَا حَاجَةً فِي صُورِكُمْ وَعَلَى الْفَالِكِ تَحْمِلُونُ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَيُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ فَأَيَّ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ تُنْكِرُونَ ﴿٨١﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ الْآرِضَ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا أَكْثَرَ مِنْهُمْ وَأَشَدَّ قُوَّةً وَآثَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَمَا أَغْنَى عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَرِحُوا بِمَا عِنْدَهُمْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ وَحَافَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا قَالُوا آمَنَّا بِاللَّهِ وَحَدَّمْ وَكَفَرْنَا بِمَا كُنَّا بِهِ مُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٨٤﴾ فَلَمْ يَكُ يَنْفَعُهُمْ إِيمَانُهُمْ لَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا سُنَّتَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي قَدْ خَلَتْ فِي عِبَادِهِ وَخَسِرَ هُنَاكَ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾

(79) Allāh created the animals for you so that you may ride some of them, while you may eat others. (80) There are many benefits for you in them, and (Allāh has created them) so that you may attain the need in your hearts by riding them. You are transported on them and on ships. (81) And Allāh shows you His signs, so which of Allāh's signs will you reject? (82) Do they not travel in the lands to see what was the plight of those before them? Those people were more than them in numbers, more powerful than them in strength and in terms of the landmarks they left behind on earth. However, everything they earned was of no avail to them. (83) When their messengers brought the clear signs to them, they became arrogant on account of the knowledge they had, and the punishment of their mockery enveloped them. (84) When they saw Our punishment, they said, "We believe in Allāh Alone and reject the partners we ascribed to Him. (85) However, their belief could not benefit them when they saw Our punishment. (This is) Allāh's practice, which has passed over His bondsmen. The disbelievers shall be at a loss.

THE BOUNTY OF ANIMALS AND SHIPS

Allāh reminds man of the many bounties that He has conferred upon them. Allāh says, "Allāh created the animals for you so that you may ride some of them, while you may eat others." Besides this, "There are many (other) benefits for you in them." Man derives milk, as well as leather and wool from their hides. Allāh adds, "(Allāh has created them) so that you may attain the need in your hearts by riding them." People use the animals as a means of transport for themselves, as well as for their goods, enabling them to conduct business without having to bear the burden themselves.

"You are transported on them and on ships." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes certain commentators as saying that this part of the verse refers to the transportation of women and children, because riding has already been mentioned. Whereas a man may venture to undertake a journey by himself, women and children have to be "transported" along.

"And Allāh shows you His signs, so which of Allāh's signs will you reject?" Allāh's signs are evident everywhere, and cannot be rejected by any person with a sound mind. Therefore, it will be sheer foolishness or obstinacy that will prevent a person from admitting oneness of Allāh.

THE DESTRUCTION OF FORMER NATIONS

Allāh says, "Do they not travel in the lands to see (from the ruins of former civilizations) what was the plight of those before them? Those people were more than them in numbers, more powerful than them in strength and in terms of the landmarks they left behind on earth. However, everything they earned was of no avail to them. When their messengers brought the clear signs to them, they became arrant on account of the knowledge they had, and the punishment of their mockery enveloped them." Eventually only the ruins of their settlements were left. It is necessary for those who recite the Qur'ān to reflect over these occurrences and to take a lesson from them.

Discussing the plight of the former nations further, Allāh says, "When they saw Our punishment, they said, 'We believe in Allāh Alone and reject the partners we ascribed to Him.' However, their belief could not benefit them when they saw Our punishment. (This is) Allāh's practice, which has passed over His bondsmen." The principle has always stood that belief and repentance are not accepted when Allāh's punishment arrives. [The only exception was the nation of Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام, the details of which have been discussed in the commentary of verse 98 of Surah Yunus (Surah 10)].

"The disbelievers shall be at a loss." It is therefore imperative that future nations take heed and do not fall in the same trap as their predecessors. •

سورة حم السجدة

Makkan

Surah Hā Mīm Sajdah or Fussilat

Verses 54

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

حَمْدٌ (1) تَنْزِيلٌ مِنَ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ (2) كِتَابٌ فُصِّلَتْ آيَاتُهُ قُرْءَانًا عَرَبِيًّا لِقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُونَ (3) بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا فَأَعْرَضَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ (4) وَقَالُوا قُلُوبُنَا فِي أَكِنَّةٍ مِمَّا نَدْعُونَ إِلَيْهِ فِيءِ آذَانِنَا وَقُرْ وَمِنْ بَيْنِنَا وَبَيْنِكَ حِجَابٌ فَأَعْمَلَ إِنَّا عَمِلُونَ (5)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) HāMīm. (2) A revelation from the Beneficent, the Most Merciful. (3) A Book, the verses of which have been clearly expounded as an Arabic Qur'ān, for a nation with knowledge. (4) It is a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. However, most of them turn away and do not listen. (5) They say, "Our hearts are veiled from what you call us towards, and there are props in our ears. There is also a barrier between you and us, so do (as you please), we shall do (as we please)."

THE VERSES OF THE QUR'ĀN ARE CLEAR, AND IT IS A BEARER OF GLAD TIDINGS, AS WELL AS A WARNER

The Surah begins with the words "HāMīm" which is from the Hurūf Muqatta'at. As mentioned before, only Allāh has knowledge of the meaning of these words. Allāh then proceeds to describe the attributes of the Qur'ān. Allāh says that it is "A revelation from the Beneficent, the Most Merciful." Because of His infinite mercy, Allāh revealed the Qur'ān for the guidance of mankind.

Thereafter, Allāh says that the Qur'ān is "A Book, the verses of which have been clearly expounded..." Since the Qur'ān primarily addressed the Arabs, it was revealed as "an Arabic Qur'ān." The Arabs during the period of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were fluent and eloquent in the language, possessing a deep understanding of Arabic rhetoric. Therefore, the Qur'ān is extremely eloquent in its manner of address, far surpassing the speech of any man. For this reason, the Arabs had no choice but to concede to its miraculous and divine nature. The Qur'ān proclaims the truth to everyone, and it is necessary for everyone to believe in it. However, it is only those with intelligence and sound knowledge who will take heed. Therefore, Allāh says, that it was revealed 'for a nation with knowledge.'

Allāh then mentions the fourth quality of the Qur'ān when He says, "It is a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. "Despite the Qur'ān being as great as it is, there will always be those who are averse to the truth. Allāh says, "However, most of them turned away and do not listen." Not only are they obstinate, but they were even audacious enough to tell the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Our hearts are veiled from what you call us towards, and there are props in our ears (because we do not want to listen to you). There is also a barrier between you and us (even though we are close physically), so do (as you please), we shall do (as we please)." i.e. You go about your religion, while we shall practise our own. Thus saying, they made it clear that they were not interested in listening to the truth, nor accepting it.

قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ يُوحَىٰ إِلَىٰ أَنَّمَا إِلَهُكُمُ اللَّهُ. وَاحِدٌ فَاسْتَقِيمُوا إِلَيْهِ
وَأَسْتَغْفِرُواْ ۖ وَوَيْلٌ لِّلْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٦﴾ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْتُونَ الزَّكَاةَ وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ
كَافِرُونَ ﴿٧﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ مَمْنُونٍ ﴿٨﴾

(6) Say, "I am but a human like you. Revelation has been sent to me that your Deity is only One. So remain devoted to Him, and seek forgiveness from Him. Destruction be to the polytheists..." (7) "...who do not pay Zakāh and who disbelieve in the Hereafter." (8) "There shall certainly be an everlasting reward for those who believe and do righteous deeds."

PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS INSTRUCTED TO ANNOUNCE THAT HE IS HUMAN LIKE EVERYONE ELSE, EXCEPT THAT HE RECEIVES REVELATION

In response to the objection of the Polytheists that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could not be a Prophet because he was human, Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "Say, 'I am but a human like you. (However, the difference between us is that) Revelation has been sent to me that your Deity is only One. - A sound intellect will understand that Allāh is the Only Creator and Deity. This will then prompt one to obey all Allāh's commands, refrain from all forms of deviation, "remain devoted to Him, and seek forgiveness from Him." One should never lose hope of Allāh's mercy, and one can even secure forgiveness for disbelief and polytheism. When a person repents and accepts Islām, all his past sins are completely forgiven.

Allāh then speaks about the terrible fate of the polytheists when He says, "Destruction be to the polytheists, who do not pay Zakāh and who disbelieve in the Hereafter." How will they be particular about their daily Salāh when they cannot even spend annually from their wealth? They have certainly been overcome with miserliness. Certain commentators do not interpret the word 'Zakāh' as it is normally understood. Rather, they use the literal meaning of the word 'Zakāh', which refers to cleansing and purifying. Therefore, they maintain that the polytheists are doomed because they do not cleanse themselves of the impurity of polytheism.

Thereafter, Allāh describes the condition of the believers. Allāh says, "There shall certainly be an everlasting reward for those who believe and do righteous deeds."

﴿قُلْ أَيُّكُمْ لَتَكْفُرُونَ بِالَّذِي خَلَقَ الْأَرْضَ فِي يَوْمَيْنِ وَتَجْعَلُونَ لَهُ أَندَادًا ذَلِكَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ﴾ (9) وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا رَوَاسِيَ مِنْ فَوْقِهَا وَبَرَكَ فِيهَا وَقَدَّرَ فِيهَا أَقْوَاتَهَا فِي أَرْبَعَةِ أَيَّامٍ سَوَاءً لِلْسَّائِلِينَ ﴿10﴾ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَى إِلَى السَّمَاءِ وَهِيَ دُخَانٌ فَقَالَ لَهَا وَلِلْأَرْضِ أَنْتِنَا طَوْعًا أَوْ كَرْهًا قَالَتَا أَتَيْنَا طَائِعِينَ ﴿11﴾ فَتَقَضَّيْنَهُنَّ سَبْعَ سَمَوَاتٍ فِي يَوْمَيْنِ وَأَوْحَىٰ فِي كُلِّ سَمَاءٍ أَمْرَهَا وَزَيَّنَّا السَّمَاءَ الدُّنْيَا بِمَصَابِيحَ وَحِفْظًا ذَلِكَ تَقْدِيرُ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ ﴿12﴾

(9) Say, "Do you people really disbelieve in, and ascribe partners to the Being Who created the earth in two days? He is the Lord of the universe." (10) And Allāh has placed mountains on the surface of the earth, blessed the earth, and stipulated the earth's provisions in four complete days; for those who question. (11) Thereafter, Allāh turned to the sky, which was smoke, and said to it, as well as to the earth, "Come to Us willingly or unwillingly." Both replied, "We shall come willingly." (12) Within two days, Allāh then made them into seven skies, and issued a suitable command to each sky. Allāh decorated the sky of the world with lanterns and made them a means of protection. This is the decree of the Mighty, the Wise.

ALLĀH ADDRESSES THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH

Allāh admonishes the Polytheists, "Say, 'Do you people really disbelieve in, and ascribe partners to the Being Who created the earth in two days?'" It is sufficient for a person with sound intellect to understand that he should believe in oneness of Allāh after realising that Allāh is the Being Who created him. However, instead of believing, the polytheists ascribe partners to Allāh, regarding these partners to be equal to Allāh. These partners cannot create anything, but were themselves created. The Being Who created us and them "is the Lord of the universe."

Not only did Allāh create the magnificent earth, He also created everything on the earth. Citing some of these, Allāh says, "And Allāh has placed mountains on the surface of the earth, blessed the earth..." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that Allāh blessed the earth by creating various forms of fauna and flora. In addition to this, Allāh "stipulated the earth's provisions in four complete days..." Allāh has predetermined exactly how much food of a certain type will grow in precisely which place and time.

"..... in four complete days..." This means that Allāh created the earth in two days, after which He created the mountains and the other terrestrial phenomena in another two days, together with stipulating the various provisions. Commentators have opted for this interpretation because many other verses mention that Allāh created the heavens, the earth and everything between in six days. The other two days were used to create the heavens.

Allāh adds, "..... for those who question." Hākim رحمه الله عليه and Bayhaqi رحمه الله عليه report from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that when the Jews questioned the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the creation of the heavens and the earth, he replied to their query. Allāh then revealed the above verses, concluding with the words "...in four complete days for those who question." ["Durrul Manthūr"]

Thereafter, Allāh discusses the creation of the skies. Allāh states, "Thereafter, Allāh turned to the sky, (the basic nature of) which was smoke, and said to it, as well as to the earth, 'Come to Us willingly or unwillingly'" i.e. willingly or unwillingly submit to the laws that apply to you. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that they were not actually given a choice in the matter, but were commanded to comply in any event. "Both (the heavens and the earth) replied, 'We shall come willingly.'"

"Within two days, Allāh then made them into seven skies, and issued a suitable command to each sky." i.e. Commands were issued to the angels of every sky.

Furthermore, "Allāh decorated the sky of the world with lanterns and made them a means of protection. This is the decree of the Mighty, the Wise." The stars are used to pelt those Satan's who try to eavesdrop on the discussions taking place among the angels.

Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "It is He Who created for you whatever is on earth. Thereafter he turned His attention to the sky and perfected it as seven skies." Allāh also says in Surah Nāzi'āt, "Allāh raised the roof of the sky and perfected it. He made the night dark and exposed its day. Thereafter, He spread out the earth." [Surah 79, verses 28-30]

The above verses teach us that Allāh first created the basic structure of the earth and thereafter placed the weighty mountains upon it. Thereafter, Allāh created the seven skies, which were in the form of smoke. It was only then that Allāh spread the earth out as we see it. Therefore, these verses of Surah Baqarah and Surah Nāzi'āt, as well as the above verses of Surah HāMīm Sajdah will not contradict each other.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم RECITES THE VERSE IN RESPONSE TO THE OBSTINACY OF THE QURAYSH

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه writes (v.15 p.338) that the Quraysh once spoke among themselves saying, "The affair of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has become extremely contentious. We should send to him a person who is well versed in poetry, fortune-telling and magic. He should enter into a discussion with Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and inform us about the reality of Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم message." Thereupon, Utba bin Rabi'ah stood up saying, "I swear by Allāh! I am well-versed in poetry, fortune-telling, as well as magic. I shall certainly be able to tell you whether Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم message is from any of the three i.e. poetry, fortune-telling or magic." Consequently, he was sent to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

When Utba reached the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he said, "O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! Are you better than Qusayy bin Kilāb? Are you better than Hishām? Are you better than Abdul Muttalib? Are you better than Abdullāh? (These were all the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم forefathers). You speak ill of our gods, regard our forefathers as deviated and foolish, and you deride our religion. (What do you wish to achieve?) If you desire to be a leader, we will make you our leader and even raise flags to announce your leadership as long as you live. If you desire to marry, we will marry you to ten of our finest Quraysh women. If you desire wealth, we will amass so much wealth for you, which will make you and your progeny independent of everyone. If it is the ill effect of a Jinn causing you to say what you do, we will raise enough money to ensure that you are cured."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم listened silently to what Utba had to say. When Utba was over, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم calmly said, "O Abu Walid! Have you had your say?" "Yes," replied Utba. Thereupon, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him to listen. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited "Bismillahir Rahmānir Rāhīm" followed by the verses of Surah HāMīm Sajdah. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reached the words, "If they turn away, then say, I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Ād and Thamud" [verse 13], Utba sprung up and placed his hand over the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم blessed mouth, pleading with him in Allāh's name to stop reciting.

Thereafter, Utba returned home and avoided the gatherings of the Quraysh. Abu Jahl said to him, "Have you lost your religion and moulded yourself in the cast of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم? Or do you just like his food?" Upon hearing this, Utba flew into a towering rage and said, "By Allāh! I shall never again speak to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! By Allāh! You know that I am the wealthiest person of the Quraysh (therefore, I have not maintained my silence because I need the food of any other person). When I spoke to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, he gave me a reply that was neither poetry, nor soothe-saying, nor magic. Thereafter, Utba recited the verses of Surah HāMīm Sajdah up to the words, "Say, I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Ād and Thamud." Utba continued, "I then placed my hand on his mouth and begged him not to recite further. You know well that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has never spoken a lie. I therefore stopped him for fear that punishment will afflict you people."

According to another narration, Utba listened attentively as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited for him until the Sajdah verse (Prostration is compulsory when the recitor recite a verse). Thereafter, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "O Abu Walid! You have heard what I said. Now you decide (whether to believe or suffer Allāh's punishment)." Utba then left.

As Utba approached the gathering of the Quraysh, they noticed a marked change in him. They said, "By Allāh! Abu Walid has changed. He has returned with another face." When he arrived in their midst, they asked him what had happened. He said, "By Allāh! I have heard such speech from Muhammad ﷺ, which I have never heard before. I swear by Allāh that it is neither poetry, nor soothe-saying. Therefore, listen to what I have to say about this affair. Leave Muhammad ﷺ to be and do not say anything to him. His teachings will certainly gain popularity. If the other Arabs assassinate him, your work will be done for you. However, if Muhammad ﷺ becomes a king, or his Prophet hood is exposed, you people will share the fortune with him, because his kingdom will be yours, and his honour will also be yours."

Hearing this, the other members of the Quraysh said, "O Abu Walid! It seems like Muhammad ﷺ has charmed you with a magic spell." Utba replied, "This is my opinion. You decide further."

فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَقُلْ أَنْذَرْتُكُمْ صَاعِقَةً مِثْلَ صَاعِقَةِ عَادٍ وَثَمُودَ ﴿١٣﴾ إِذْ جَاءَتْهُمْ
الرُّسُلُ مِنْ بَيْنِ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ قَالُوا لَوْ شَاءَ رَبُّنَا
لَأَنْزَلَ مَلَائِكَةً فَإِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَأَمَّا عَادُ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي
الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَقَالُوا مَنْ أَشَدُّ مِنَّا قُوَّةً أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَهُمْ هُوَ
أَشَدُّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً وَكَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يَجْحَدُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيحًا صَرْصَرًا فِي
أَيَّامٍ نَحْسَاتٍ لِنُذِيقَهُمْ عَذَابَ الْخِزْيِ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَخْزَىٰ
وَهُمْ لَا يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَأَمَّا ثَمُودُ فَهَدَيْنَاهُمْ فَاسْتَحَبُّوا الْعَمَىٰ عَلَى الْهُدَىٰ فَأَخَذَتْهُمْ
صَاعِقَةُ الْعَذَابِ الْهُونِ بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَنَجَّيْنَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَكَانُوا يَنْقُونَ
﴿١٨﴾

(13) If they turn away, then say, "I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Ād and Thamud." (14) When their messengers came to them from the front of them and from behind them (saying), "Worship Allāh Only", they replied, "If our Lord wanted (to send a messenger), he would have sent angels. We therefore disbelieve in what you have been sent with." (15) As for the Ād, they were arrogant on earth without reason, and said, "Who can be more powerful than us? "Do they not see that Allāh Who has created them is more powerful than them? They also rejected Our signs. (16) So We sent a fierce windstorm against them during the ominous days, to make them taste a humiliating punishment in this worldly life. The punishment of the Hereafter is even more humiliating, and they will never be assisted. (17) As for the Thamūd, We guided them, but they chose blindness instead of guidance. So, because of what they earned, a catastrophic punishment seized them, which was extremely humiliating. (18) We rescued those who believed and feared.

THOSE WHO DENY THE TRUTH ARE WARNED ABOUT RECEIVING PUNISHMENT LIKE THE ĀD AND THAMUD

In these verses, Allāh admonishes people for failing to believe, despite witnessing His many signs. Allāh tells them that there were many nations before them who also refused to believe, as a result of which they were destroyed when Allāh's punishment seized them.

Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "If they turn away, then say, 'I warn you of a punishment like the punishment of the Ād and Thamūd. When their messengers came to them from the front of them and from behind them (saying), 'Worship Allāh Only', they replied, 'If our Lord wanted (to send a messenger), he would have sent angels. We therefore disbelieve in what you have been sent with.'" These disbelievers said this because they could neither find fault with the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام, nor with the character of the Prophets عليهم السلام themselves. They therefore argued that if Allāh really wanted to send a Prophet, He would not have sent a man who is just like them.

After making simultaneous mention of the two nations, Allāh proceeds to mention them individually. Allāh first speaks of the nation of Ād, who were an extremely powerful nation, possessing tremendous physical strength. Allāh says, "As for the Ād, they were arrogant on earth without reason, and said, 'Who can be more powerful than us?'" When man is bestowed with wealth, strength and children, he becomes arrogant and boastful. In this foolish stupor, he thinks that none can ever compare to him. He then forgets that his Creator is Greater than him. Therefore, Allāh replied to the audacious claim of the Ād by saying, "Do they not see that Allāh Who has created them is more powerful than them?"

Allāh talks about them further when He says, "They also rejected Our signs." Despite witnessing all the signs that attest to Allāh's Oneness and Greatness, they chose to remain obstinate. As a result of this, Allāh "sent a fierce windstorm against them during the ominous days, to make them taste a humiliating punishment in this worldly life. The punishment of the Hereafter is even more humiliating, and they will never be assisted."

Their strength, wealth and pride will be of no avail to them when they suffer Allāh's punishment. Allāh says in Surah Hāqqa, "As for the Ād, they were destroyed by an icy tempest. Allāh unleashed it upon them for seven consecutive nights and eight consecutive days. You would have seen them lying flat on the ground as if they were hollow palm trunks." A similar reference is made to them in Surah Qamar where Allāh says, "The Ād denied, so how was My punishment and warnings? Verily We sent against them a cyclonic wind during days of perpetual misfortune. It ousted people as if they were uprooted palm trunks."

The Ahadith state that nothing can be truly ominous (i.e. augur ill for a person). Sayyidina Sa'd bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If there was anything like an ill omen, it would have been in three things, a house, a horse, or a woman." [Mishkāt p. 392, from Abu Dawūd]

Therefore, when the Qur'an mentions "during the ominous days" it will mean that the days were ill-fated specifically for the Ād. It will not mean that specific days are ominous, because this will then mean that all days of the week are ill fated, since the windstorm blew for eight consecutive days.

Allāh then discusses the plight of the Thamud. Allāh says, "As for the Thamūd, We guided them..." i.e. We sent Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام to them, who showed them the truth and taught them about oneness of Allāh. However, "they chose blindness instead of guidance. So, because of what they earned, a catastrophic punishment seized them, which was extremely humiliating." The Arabic word "Sā'iqah" actually refers to a bolt of lightning, but it may also be used to denote a catastrophe (ās translated above). Allāh concludes the epic by emphasising, "We rescued those who believed and feared (Allāh)."

وَيَوْمَ يُحْشَرُ أَعْدَاءُ اللَّهِ إِلَى النَّارِ فَهُمْ يُوزَعُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا مَا جَاءُوهَا شَهِدَ عَلَيْهِمْ سَمْعُهُمْ وَأَبْصَرُهُمْ وَجُلُودُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَقَالُوا لَجُلُودُهُمْ لِمَ شَهِدَتْمْ عَلَيْنَا قَالُوا أَنْطَقَنَا اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَنْطَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ خَلَقَكُمْ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَا كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَوِيُونَ أَنْ يَشْهَدَ عَلَيْكُمْ سَمْعُكُمْ وَلَا أَبْصَرُكُمْ وَلَا جُلُودُكُمْ وَلَكِنْ ظَنَنْتُمْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَعْلَمُ كَثِيرًا مِمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَذَلِكُمْ ظَنُّكُمُ الَّذِي ظَنَنْتُمْ بِرَبِّكُمْ أَرْدَاكُمْ فَأَصْبَحْتُمْ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴿٢٣﴾ فَإِنْ يَصْبرُوا فَالْنَّارُ مَثْوًى لَّهُمْ وَإِنْ يَسْتَعْتِبُوا فَمَا هُمْ مِنَ الْمُعْتَبِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ * وَقَيَّضْنَا لَهُمْ قُرَنَاءَ فَزَيَّنُوا لَهُمْ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَحَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلُ فِي أُمَمٍ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنَ الْإِنْسِ وَالْإِنْسِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا خَاسِرِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾

(19) The day when Allāh's enemies will be ushered towards the Fire and restrained. (20) Until, when they arrive there, their ears, eyes and skins will testify about what they did. (21) They will say to their skins, "Why do you testify against us?" They will reply, "Allāh, Who gives speech to everything, has enabled us to speak. It was He Who created you the first time, and to Him is your return." (22) You did not hide (your actions thinking) that your ears, eyes and skins will testify against you, but you thought that Allāh is unaware of most of the things you do. (23) That was the perception that you held about your Lord. It has destroyed you and made you among the losers. (24) Even if they exercise patience, the Fire shall be their abode. And if they try to please Allāh, they will never be allowed to do so. (25) We have delegated companions for them, who beautify for them whatever is before them and behind them. The decree shall be passed against them, together with all the groups of man and Jinn that have passed before them. Verily, they are all losers.

ALLĀH'S ENEMIES WILL BE TAKEN TO HELL, WHERE THEIR LIMBS WILL TESTIFY AGAINST THEM

Allāh speaks of the terrible plight that His enemies the disbelievers will suffer on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says, "The day (of Judgment) when Allāh's enemies will be ushered towards the Fire and restrained (because of their large numbers. This will continue) "Until, when they will arrive there, their ears, eyes and skins will testify about what they did." All the limbs will disclose exactly what sin they used to perpetrate. Even the skin, which covers the entire body, will be a witness to every sin. Surah Nūr and Surah Yāsīn mention that the hands and legs will testify against people.

Astonished that their very own bodies are giving testimony against them, people will exclaim, "Why do you testify against us?" i.e. By testifying against us, you are also condemning yourselves to punishment, because you are part of us. We denied our sins so that you will be saved from punishment, but you have now revealed the truth. We cannot understand why you should do this. The limbs will reply, "Allāh, Who gives speech to everything, has enabled us to speak." i.e.

Allāh gave us the ability to speak and commanded us to do so. How could we refuse? You should not be surprised at our ability to speak because Allāh can grant this faculty to whoever He pleases.

Muslim reports from Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه that once, while they were with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he laughed quietly. Then the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم, "Do you know why I laughed?" Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم know best," replied the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم. Thereupon, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I laughed at what a slave will say to his Lord (on the Day of Judgment). The slave will say, 'O my Lord! Did You not promise me that You shall never oppress me?' 'I did promise you this,' will be the reply.

Thereupon, the man will say, 'I will therefore not accept any witness against me, except those that are a part of me.' Allāh will say to him, 'Today, your own self will suffice as a witness against you. The 'Kirāman Kātibīn' (the recording angels) shall also suffice as witnesses against you.' His lips will then be sealed, and it will be said to his limbs, 'Speak!' Consequently, all his limbs will testify regarding the deeds he perpetrated. When he will be allowed to speak again, he will address his limbs saying, 'May you be destroyed! It was for your sake that I was disputing.'" ["Mishkāṭ" p. 485]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that, on the Day of Judgment, a hypocrite will say, "O my Lord! I believed in You, Your scripture and Your Holy Prophet. I performed Salāh, fasted, and spent in Sadaqah (Charity)." In this manner, he will continue to praise himself as much as possible. Thereupon, Allāh will say, "We shall soon find out when the witnesses are presented." The person will be puzzled about who the witnesses could be. His lips will then be sealed, and his thighs, flesh, and bones will be told to speak. All these will then testify to his deeds. This will take place so that none can raise an objection against Allāh. The above will happen to the hypocrite (Munāfiq) since Allāh will be displeased with him. [Muslim, p. 409]

While verse 65 of Surah Yāsīn (Surah 36) and the above hadith state that the mouth will be sealed, verse 24 of Surah Nūr (Surah 24) mentions that even the tongues of the sinful will testify against them. The reply to this seeming discrepancy is that the different verses refer to different stages of the Judgment day. There will be times when the tongues will be unable to move, while on other occasions Allāh will permit the tongues to speak.

"It was He Who created you the first time, and to Him is your return." Allāh is All Powerful, and can easily make other limbs speak on the Day of Judgment, just as He makes the tongue speak in this world.

Allāh will then address the disbelievers saying, "You did not hide (your actions thinking) that your ears, eyes and skins will testify against you, but you thought that Allāh is unaware of most of the things you do." In this world, the disbelievers do not think that their limbs will testify against them, and therefore think that committing sins secretly will be unnoticed. Little do they realise that they cannot hide from their own limbs. Worse still is the fact that they actually hold the same opinion about Allāh, thinking Allāh is also unaware of what they do. The fact that they sin proves that they regard Allāh as one of the creation, who has no knowledge of their secret deeds. This is why they sinned secretly and not because they were afraid of the testimony of their limbs (because they had no idea that their limbs could ever testify).

Bukhari reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه that he was once behind the drapes of the Ka'ba, when two persons of the Quraysh accompanied by someone from the Bani Thaqif tribe arrived there. He says that they were fat men with little intelligence. He could not hear their conversation clearly, but heard one of them asking, "Can Allāh hear what you say?" The second person replied, "He can hear if you talk loudly, but not if you talk silently." Thereupon, the third person said, "If Allāh hears, He can hear everything." When Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reported the incident to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh revealed the verses, "You did not hide (your actions) and made you among the losers." The verse therefore means that Allāh hears everything. In addition to Allāh's knowledge being a testimony against us, our limbs will also testify against us on the Day of Judgment about the sins we commit. Therefore we need to live a life of belief and good deeds.

THE EVIL PERCEPTION OF THE DISBELIEVERS WILL DESTROY THEM

Allāh continues, "That was the perception that you held about your Lord (that He is unaware of most of your actions). It has destroyed you and made you among the losers." If they had the conviction that Allāh is Aware of everything they do, they would have never sinned in public or in secret. However, this misconception led them to sin profusely and to abuse the limbs Allāh gave them as a favour. As a result, they will be eventually destroyed by Allāh's punishment.

"Even if they exercise patience, the Fire shall be their abode." When entered into Hell, it will not help them if they exercise patience or not. In either event, they will be doomed. Unlike this world, where a person's adversity will eventually be alleviated once he endures it patiently, the difficulties of the Hereafter will be perpetual, irrespective of one's patience.

Allāh adds, "And if they try to please Allāh, they will never be allowed to do so." They will be saved from Hell only if they had believed in this world, carried out good deeds, and abstained from sin. Nothing else will benefit in the Hereafter.

EVIL COMPANIONS ARE DELEGATED FOR THE DISBELIEVERS

"We have delegated companions for them, who beautify for them whatever is before them and behind them." These companions persuaded them that sins are good, and incite them to pursue the bidding of their passions. They also indoctrinate them with the belief that they need not worry about consequences because there shall be no life after death, and no Heaven or Hell. Being lured into this trap of deceit, the disbelievers fall deeper into disbelief and polytheism, thereby earning their stay in hell.

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentions that "whatever is before them" refers to the Hereafter, i.e. their evil companions make the disbelievers believe that nothing exists in the Hereafter. He interprets "and (whatever is) behind them" as this world, meaning that they decorate the things of this world to be attractive and seductive. It therefore becomes easy to tempt man to indulge in these.

Allāh says in Surah Shura, "We shall appoint a Satan to every person who turns a blind eye to Rahmān's, who will be his companion. Indeed, they will forbid people from the path, while the people think that they are rightly guided. Until, when the time arrives that they come to Us, they say, 'O Dear! If only there was the distance of the East and West between yourself and Me! A terrible companion you were indeed!'" [Surah 42, verses 36-38]

Allāh continues, "The decree (of punishment) shall be passed against them, together with all the groups of man and Jinn that have passed before them. Verily, they are all losers." In this world, they had lives, wealth and their physical limbs. However, all these will be lost to them when they face Allāh's punishment in Hell.

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَسْمَعُوا لِهَذَا الْقُرْآنِ وَالْغَوْا فِيهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَغْلِبُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ فَلَنَذِيقَنَّ الَّذِينَ
كَفَرُوا عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَشْوَأَ الَّذِي كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ ذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ أَعْدَاءِ اللَّهِ
الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِيهَا دَارُ الْخُلْدِ جَزَاءُ بِمَا كَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يَجْحَدُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا رَبَّنَا
أَرْنَا الَّذِينَ ضَلَّوْنَا مِنَ الْإِنْسِ وَآلِ الْيَمِينِ نَجْعَلُهُمَا تَحْتَ أَقْدَامِنَا لِيَكُونُوا مِنَ الْأَسْفَلِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾
إِنَّ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا رَبُّنَا اللَّهُ ثُمَّ اسْتَقَمُوا تَتَنَزَّلُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ أَلَّا تَخَافُوا
وَلَا تَحْزَنُوا وَأَبْشِرُوا بِالْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي كُنتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ نَحْنُ أَوْلَىٰ أَوْكُم فِي
الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَا تَشْتَهَىٰ أَنْفُسُكُمْ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَا
تَدْعُونَ ﴿٣١﴾ تَزُولُ مِنْ عَفْوَهِ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٣٢﴾

(26) The disbelievers say, "Do not listen to this Qur'ān, and make a noise (to disturb its recitation) so that you may be victorious." (27) So We shall definitely let the disbelievers taste a severe punishment, and We shall certainly punish them for the worst of their deeds. (28) This Fire shall be the punishment for Allāh's enemies. They shall have an eternal abode there as punishment for rejecting Our signs. (29) The disbelievers will say, "O our Lord! Show us the two groups from the Jinn and humankind who misled us. We want to trample them beneath our feet so that both groups become of those who are most humiliated." (30) Verily those who say, "Our Lord is Allāh" and are then steadfast, angels shall surely descend to them (saying), "Neither have any fear, nor grief, and rejoice about the Heaven that you have been promised." (31) "We are your friends in the life of this world, as well as in the Hereafter. There you shall have whatever your heart desires, and you shall have whatever you ask for." (32) "This is the hospitality from the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful."

THE DISBELIEVERS CONNIVE TO MAKE A NOISE TO INTERFERE WITH THE RECITATION OF THE QUR'ĀN

The first four verses discuss the connivance of the disbelievers, the punishment they are doomed to suffer, as well as the enmity they will display for each other on the Day of Judgment. The leaders of the polytheists in Makkah used to instruct their subordinates not to listen to the recitation of the Qur'ān, and to create a disturbance when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recites the Qur'ān. By talking loudly and discussing futile affairs, others would also be prevented from listening to the Qur'ān. Consequently, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite the Qur'ān, these wretches used to whistle, clap hands and recite poetry at the top of their voices.

Referring to these Mushrikīn (polytheists), Allāh says, "So We shall definitely let the disbelievers taste a severe punishment, and We shall certainly punish them for the worst of their deeds." Since this verse does not specify whether this punishment will be in the world or in the Hereafter, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that both may be referred to, or either the one or the other. He then quotes Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه as saying that "a severe punishment" refers to the Battle of Badr, while "punish them for the worst of their deeds" refers to the punishment of the Hereafter. Therefore, they will be punished in both worlds.

Allāh then says, "This Fire shall be the punishment for Allāh's enemies. They shall have an eternal abode there as a punishment for rejecting Our signs." They will not be fortunate enough to be released from Hell after a brief or long stay. Their suffering will be eternal.

THE MISGUIDED ONES WILL REQUEST TO TRAMPLE THEIR SENIORS BENEATH THEIR FEET

In this world, people remained as disbelievers upon the bidding of their leaders and seniors. Among those who led people astray were humans, as well as the Jinn. When these people persuaded their juniors to make noise while the Qur'ān was being recited, they gladly complied. However, on the Day of Judgment, their relationship will be greatly strained. The subordinates will cry for revenge and supplicate, "O our Lord! Show us the two groups from the Jinn and humankind who misled us. We want to trample them beneath our feet so that both groups become of those who are most humiliated.” Of course, it will be too late then, and they will all have to suffer the punishment they deserve.

GLAD TIDINGS FOR THE STEADFAST

“Verily those who say, ‘Our Lord is Allāh’ and are then steadfast (upon belief and Islām by fulfilling all the injunctions), angels shall surely descend to them (saying), Neither have any fear, nor grief and rejoice about the Heaven that you have been promised (by the Prophets عليهم السلام and the divine scriptures).”

“Ruhul Ma’āni” reports from Sayyidina Zaid bin Aslam رحمه الله عليه that the angels will address these people in this manner at the time of their death. Thereafter, they will again convey these glad tidings when the people rise from their graves on the Day of Judgment. Other commentators are of the opinion that these tidings are not restricted to these occasions, but they are conveyed to the pious believers on several occasions during their lives in the form of reassurances. In this manner, the pious are further encouraged to carry out good deeds.

Sayyidina Atā bin Abi Rabāh رحمه الله عليه says that “Neither have any fear” means that they should not fear that their actions have been rejected. Furthermore, “nor grief” means that they should not grieve over their past sins, because these have been forgiven.

THE ANGELS ADDRESS THE PEOPLE OF BELIEF

The angels also tell the believers, “We are your friends in the life of this world, as well as in the Hereafter.” The angels inspire the righteous to carry out good deeds, and assist them when necessary. The angels will therefore comfort the pious at the time of their death, by assuring them of their friendship in the Hereafter as well, when the angels will intercede on their behalf and greet them with the words, “Peace be upon you for the patience that you exercised. How blissful is the outcome of the Hereafter!” [Surah Ra’d (13), verse 24]

The welcoming angels will also briefly state the bounties of Heaven in the following words, “There you shall have whatever your heart desires, and you shall have whatever you ask for.” Nothing that a person desires or asks will be denied.

“This is the hospitality from the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful.” In Heaven, people will be the guests of Allāh, the Greatest. Therefore, the hospitality will be such that it is befitting of the rank of Allāh. As a result, every person will be given whatever he desires.

وَمَنْ أَحْسَنُ قَوْلًا مِّمَّنْ دَعَا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا وَقَالَ إِنِّي مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾
وَلَا تَسْتَوِ الْحَسَنَةُ وَلَا السَّيِّئَةُ ادْفَعْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ فَإِذَا الَّذِي بَيْنَكَ وَبَيْنَهُ
عَدَاوَةٌ كَأَنَّهُ وَلِيٌّ حَمِيمٌ ﴿٣٤﴾ وَمَا يُلْقِيهَا إِلَّا الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَمَا يُلْقِيهَا إِلَّا ذُو حِظٍّ
عَظِيمٍ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَإِنَّمَا يَنزَغَنَّكَ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ نَزْغٌ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ

(33) Whose speech can be better than the one who calls towards Allāh, performs righteous deeds, and says, "I am from the Muslims." (34) Good and evil cannot be equal. Resist with that which is best, and the one between yourself and whom there was enmity will instantly become like your bosom friend. (35) Only the patient ones will be inspired with this. Only the most fortunate will be inspired with this. (36) If any whisper from Satan has to reach you, then seek refuge with Allāh. Undoubtedly, He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing.

THE EXCELLENCE OF A PERSON WHO CALLS TOWARDS ALLĀH, ENCOURAGEMENT TO ADOPT GOOD CHARACTER, AND SEEKING ALLĀH'S REFUGE FROM SATAN

Allāh says, "Whose speech can be better than the one who calls towards Allāh, performs righteous deeds, and says, 'I am from the Muslims.'" This verse emphasises that the person who invites others towards oneness of Allāh and Islām should himself practise what he preaches. By doing so, his preaching will have greater effect on others.

The verse also highlights the fact that the caller to Allāh should be humble. He should not laude his own praises, but should proclaim that he is just like everyone else, i.e. an ordinary Muslim. He must never allow his knowledge and his noble effort to be a cause of pride and ostentation.

Of course, when a person preaches Islām, he will encounter all types of people. There will be many who will oppose him and behave in a harsh manner towards him. Although it will be permissible to reply to their behaviour by adopting a similar attitude like theirs, good character demands that a person calmly endures their harshness. It will therefore be best for him to be tolerant and gentle. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "Good and evil cannot be equal. Resist (the malice of your opponents) with that (manner of approach) which is best, and (by adopting this approach,) the one between yourself and whom there was enmity, will instantly become like your bosom friend."

Allāh then adds that this extremely noble quality of tolerance and good character is very rare, and will not be the lot of every person. Allāh says, "Only the patient ones will be inspired with this. Only the most fortunate will be inspired with this." Some commentators have interpreted "the most fortunate" to mean those who will earn the most rewards. Others say that it refers to those who are destined to enter Heaven. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

When a person engages in the noble task of propagating Allāh's religion (Dīn), Satan will always attempt to whisper evil thoughts and suggestions into his mind. Hence, Allāh advises, "If any whisper from Satan has to reach you, then seek refuge with Allāh. Undoubtedly, He is the All Hearing, the All Knowing." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has written that the literal meaning of the Arabic word "nazgh" (translated above as "whisper") is 'to poke or prod someone with a stick or with the finger'. This denotes that Satan's whispers are very subtle, but can also be forceful. When a preacher tolerates the difficulties that people give him, Satan immediately whispers into his heart saying, "You are preaching the truth, so why should you lower yourself before these ill-mannered people (i.e. leave them alone because they are not worthy of your noble effort)?" On this occasion, the person should seek Allāh's refuge by reciting "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytānir Rajīm" ("I seek refuge with Allāh from the accursed Satan").

وَمِنْ ءَايَاتِهِ اللَّيْلُ وَالنَّهَارُ وَالشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ لَا تَسْجُدُوا لِلشَّمْسِ وَلَا لِلْقَمَرِ
وَأَسْجُدُوا لِلَّهِ الَّذِي خَلَقَهُنَّ إِن كُنتُمْ إِيَّاهُ تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ فَإِنِ
أَسْتَكْبَرُوا فَالَّذِينَ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ يُسَبِّحُونَ لَهُ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَهُمْ لَا يَسْأَمُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾
وَمِنْ ءَايَاتِهِ أَنْ تَرَى الْأَرْضَ خَاشِعَةً فَإِذَا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا الْمَاءَ اهْتَزَّتْ وَرَبَتْ إِنَّ الَّذِي
أَحْيَاهَا لَمُحْيِ الْمَوْتِ إِنَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٣٩﴾

(37) From among Allāh's signs is the night, the day, the sun, and the moon. If you worship Allāh only, then do not prostrate to the sun, nor to the moon, but prostrate to Allāh, Who has created them. (38) If they are arrogant, then those who are close to your Lord glorify Him day and night without tiring. (39) Also from His signs is that you see the earth bare. Then, when We send rain upon it, it begins to stir and flourish. Verily, the One Who gave life to it is the One Who gives life to the dead. Indeed, He has power over all things.

THE DAY, THE NIGHT, THE SUN, AND THE MOON ARE ALL ALLĀH'S SIGNS, SO PROSTRATE ONLY TO HIM

In these verses, Allāh discusses various proofs of oneness of Allāh. Allāh says, "From among Allāh's signs is the night, the day, the sun, and the moon." The great power of Allāh is displayed in the fact that He alternates the night and the day. Allāh created the sun and the moon, he gave light to the sun, and it is Only He who has fixed their orbits. These factors prove that only Allāh is worthy of being worshipped. Therefore, Allāh says, "If you worship Allāh only, then do not prostrate to the sun, nor to the moon, but prostrate to Allāh, Who has created them."

This verse emphasises that if people claim to worship Allāh, they should worship Him only without making any other being a partner in Allāh's worship. Therefore, if a person perpetrates polytheism, he cannot make the claim that he worships Allāh.

"If they are (too) arrogant (to take heed), then (their attitude will not harm Allāh in the least because) those (angels) who are close to your Lord glorify Him day and night without tiring." Allāh is not in need of man's worship because He is Great without it as well. There are also innumerable angels perpetually engaged in Allāh's worship and glorification (Of course, Allāh is not in need of their worship either).

THE REVIVAL OF BARREN GROUND IS ALSO ONE OF ALLĀH'S SIGNS

After speaking about the celestial bodies, Allāh points out that many signs of His Oneness and power are also to be found on earth. Allāh says, "Also from His signs is that you see the earth bare. Then, when We send rain upon it, it begins to stir and flourish." As the water permeates into the ground, it revitalises the soil, causing shoots of vegetation to sprout from the ground. As a result of this, many edible plants and fruit grow, which are of tremendous benefit to man. Grass and other plants also grow, which are invaluable to animals.

This is a practical demonstration of Allāh's great powers. In addition to this, it proves that Allāh is perfectly Capable of resurrecting mankind for the Day of Judgment. Man sees this happening every day around him and cannot deny that Allāh is responsible for all this. It is therefore not farfetched to believe that He can repeat the process with dead people. Therefore, Allāh says, "Verily, the One Who gave life to it (the ground) is the One Who gives life to the dead. Indeed, He has power over all things".

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُلْحِدُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا لَا يَخْفَوْنَ عَلَيْنَا أَفَمَنْ يُلْقَى فِي النَّارِ خَيْرٌ أَمْ مَنْ يَأْتِي
 آمِنًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ أَعْمَلُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ إِنَّهُمْ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِالذِّكْرِ
 لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبٌ عَزِيزٌ ﴿٤١﴾ لَا يَأْنِيهِ الْبَاطِلُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَلَا مِنْ خَلْفِهِ
 تَنْزِيلٌ مِّنْ حَكِيمٍ حَمِيدٍ ﴿٤٢﴾ مَا يُقَالُ لَكَ إِلَّا مَا قَدْ قِيلَ لِلرُّسُلِ مِن قَبْلِكَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ
 لَذُو مَغْفِرٍ وَذُو عِقَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَلَوْ جَعَلْنَاهُ قُرْءَانًا آعْجَمِيًّا لَقَالُوا لَوْلَا فُصِّلَتْ
 آيَاتُهُ أَأَعْجَمِيٌّ وَعَرَبِيٌّ قُلْ هُوَ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا هُدًى وَشِفَاءٌ وَالَّذِينَ لَا
 يُؤْمِنُونَ فِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرٌ وَهُوَ عَلَيْهِمْ عَمًى أُولَٰئِكَ يُنَادَوْنَ مِن مَّكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ

44

(40) Verily those who are averse to Our signs are not hidden from Us. Is the one whom We cast into the Fire better than the one who will arrive safely on the Day of Judgment? Do as you please. Allāh is definitely Watching what you do. (41) Indeed those who disbelieve in the Reminder (Qur'ān) when it came to them (would never have disbelieved if they had contemplated). Without doubt, the Qur'ān is a mighty book. (42) No falsehood can approach it from the front or from the back. It is a revelation from the Wise Who is Most Worthy of praise. (43) You are being told only what was already said to the messengers before you. Without doubt, your Lord is One of immense forgiveness, and also One Who can inflict painful punishment. (44) If We had revealed the Qur'ān in a language other than Arabic, they would have said, "Why are its verses not clearly expounded? How can the scripture not be Arabic when the Holy Prophet is an Arab?" Say, "It is a guidance for those who believe, as well as a cure. As for those who do not believe, they have props in their ears and it is a means of deviation for them. These are the people who are called from a distant place."

THE "MULHIDĪN" (INFIDELS) ARE NOT HIDDEN FROM ALLĀH, SO DO AS YOU PLEASE

The believers fully accept the Qur'ān and derive benefit from it. On the other hand, there are two groups of people who are enemies of the Qur'ān. The first group denies that the Qur'ān is from Allāh. They are called the rejecters (polytheists). The second group does not deny the Qur'ān outright, but their enmity for the Qur'ān is exposed when they distort the interpretation of the Qur'ān to suit their desires. These people are called the "Mulhidīn", and are truly averse to the teachings of the Qur'ān.

Defining the Mulhidīn (infidels) in the very same manner, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه added, "They place the words of the Qur'ān where they should not be." Included in this definition are all those people who attempt to unravel the meanings of the 'Mutashābih' (allegorical) verses, as well as those who distort the interpretations of Qur'ānic verses in an effort to prove their fabricated beliefs and innovations.

Hakīmul Ummah Sayyidina Thanwī رحمه الله عليه (in his book 'Masā'ile Sulūk') quotes the above definition of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه. Thereafter, he quotes Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbas رضى الله عنه as saying, "Included in the meaning of this verse are all those fanatical saints who refute the accepted narrations of Tafsīr and fabricate (practices and beliefs) that contradict the principles of religion [which are based on the Qur'ān, Ahadīth, and teachings of the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم]."

Allāh says, "Verily those who are averse to Our signs are not hidden from Us (We are aware of their deeds, and will punish them accordingly). Is the one whom We cast into the Fire better than the one who will arrive safely on the Day of Judgment?" Any person possessing intelligence will realise that anyone who is saved from the torture of Hell is better than the one who will have to suffer eternal punishment there.

"Do as you please. Allāh is definitely Watching what you do." This is a warning to people. Allāh tells them that they may do as they please but they must realise that Allāh is Watching. Therefore, no deed will pass unnoticed, and they will be punished for every sin.

Thereafter, Allāh speaks about the Qur'ān. Allāh says, "Indeed those who disbelieve in the Reminder (Qur'ān) when it came to them (would never have disbelieved if they had contemplated). Without doubt, the Qur'ān is a mighty book. No falsehood can approach it from the front or from the back. It is a revelation from the Wise, Who is Most Worthy of praise."

ALLĀH CONSOLES THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "You are being told only what was already said to the messengers before you." i.e. Whatever insults the disbelievers fling at you were also flung at the previous Prophets عليهم السلام. However, they bore everything with patience, so you should do the same. "Without doubt, your Lord is One of immense forgiveness, and also One Who can inflict a painful punishment." Allāh says that if the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم opponents were to accept Islām, they would be forgiven along with the other believers. However, if they persist in their opposition to Islām and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh will surely deal with them.

THE OBSTINACY OF THE DISBELIEVERS

When a person is bent on opposition, he will concoct every possible excuse to substantiate his standpoint. Consequently, the polytheists argued that the miraculous nature of the Qur'ān would have been more evident if it were revealed in a language other than Arabic. However, this was yet another excuse to refute the Qur'ān. Allāh replied to them by saying, "If We had revealed the Qur'ān in a language other than Arabic, they would have said, 'Why are its verses not clearly expounded? How can the scripture not be Arabic when the Holy Prophet is an Arab?'" Therefore, whether the Qur'ān is in Arabic or any other language, it would be immaterial to the disbelievers, because they would deny it in any event.

THE QUR'ĀN IS A GUIDANCE AND A CURE

Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, instructing him to "Say, 'It (the Qur'ān) is a guidance for those who believe, as well as a cure. As for those who do not believe, they have props in their ears and it is a means of deviation for them. These are the people who are called from a distant place.'" i.e. They are like people who are being called by a person from a distant place. Although the person can hear the voice, he cannot understand the message. Similar is the case with the disbelievers. However, the disbelievers do not want to understand the message.

"These are the people who are called from a distant place." The above interpretation of this verse has been quoted from Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه. Other commentators mention that bad names denoting the evil nature of the disbelievers will be used to call them on the Day of Qiyāmah (judgement). They will be called from afar so that everyone present there will be able to hear how evil they were.

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ فَاخْتَلَفَ فِيهِ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لَفُضِيَ
بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَفِي شَكٍّ مِنْهُ مُرِيبٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ أَسَاءَ
فَعَلَيْهَا وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِظَلَّامٍ لِلْعَمَلِ ﴿٤٦﴾

(45) Verily We gave Mūsa the Book, concerning which disputes arose. If it were not for a decree proceeding from your Lord, a decision would have been given already. Undoubtedly, they are in great doubt about the matter. (46) Whoever does a good deed, does so for his own benefit, and whoever enacts an evil, it will be to his own detriment. Your Lord never oppresses His bondsmen.

EVERY PERSON'S GOOD WILL BENEFIT HIM, WHILE HIS EVIL WILL HARM HIM

In a previous verse, Allāh told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he was being offended just as the earlier Prophets عليهم السلام were offended. Now Allāh makes mention of one of these Prophets عليهم السلام, viz. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Allāh says, "Verily We gave Mūsa the Book (Torah), concerning which disputes arose." i.e. Some people accepted it, while others rejected. Similar was the attitude of people towards the Qur'ān.

"If it were not for a decree proceeding from your Lord (that they were not to be punished immediately), a decision (to punish them) would have been given already." If Allāh had not already stipulated the time when they were to be punished, He would have punished them already. However, all His decrees are based on His perfect wisdom.

"Undoubtedly, they are in great doubt about the matter." While some commentators have interpreted "the matter" as the Qur'ān, others are of the opinion that it refers to the punishment. Because of their lack of conviction, the disbelievers doubted that they will ever be punished.

"Whoever does a good deed, does so for his own benefit, and whoever enacts an evil, it will be to his own detriment. Your Lord never oppresses His bondsmen." Allāh will reward people in full for their good deeds, and will never punish a person for a sin he did not committed.

PARTTWENTY-FIVE

إِلَيْهِ يُرَدُّ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَمَا تَخْرُجُ مِنْ ثَمَرَاتٍ مِنْ أَكْمَامِهَا وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ أُنْثَى وَلَا تَضَعُ إِلَّا يَعْلَمُهُ وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ آيُنْ شُرَكَائِي قَالُوا ءَاذَنْتَكَ مَا مِنَّا مِنْ شَهِيدٍ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَدْعُونَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَظَنُوا مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ نَجٍّ ﴿٤٨﴾

(47) The knowledge of Judgment day is referred to Him only. In His knowledge is every fruit that emerges from its covering, every female that bears, and every female that delivers. The day when they will be asked, "Where are My partners?" They will submit, "We declare to You that none of us can testify (that You have any partner,)." (48) Those that they used to call upon will be lost to them and they will be convinced that they have no escape.

ONLY ALLĀH HAS KNOWLEDGE OF THE HEREAFTER

Allāh declares, "The knowledge of Judgment day is referred to Him only." Only Allāh has the knowledge of when Judgment day will take place. Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "They ask you concerning Judgment day, when will it occur? Say, 'The knowledge of it is with my Lord. Only He will manifest it on its time.'" [Surah 7, verse 187]

Once Sayyidina Jibril عليه السلام appeared in the form of a human to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and asked a few questions. One of these was regarding the time when Judgment day will occur. In reply the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The one being asked knows no more than the questioner" [Bukhari and Muslim]. This is the reply any person should give when the same question is posed.

Allāh then mentions certain other phenomena about which only He has knowledge. Allāh says, "In His knowledge is every fruit that emerges from its covering..." When a fruit begins to bud, it first appears as a little covering. Thereafter, the fruit gradually develops, until it is ripe. Allāh also has knowledge of "every female that bears, and every female that delivers." In fact, as mentioned in other verses, "Allāh has knowledge of everything."

Allāh then speaks about the plight of those who reject belief in oneness of Allāh, despite witnessing the numerous signs of Allāh's power and Oneness prevalent around them. On the Day of Judgment day, Allāh will ask them, "Where are My partners (that you contrived)?" They will submit, 'We declare to You that none of us can testify (that You have any partner).” Whereas they were adamant in their belief of polytheism, on the Judgment day the polytheists will deny that they ever perpetrated the vile crime. At the beginning, they will vehemently say, “By Allāh, our Lord! We were never polytheists!” However, when they realise that their denial is of no avail, they will admit, “These are our partners that we used to worship instead of You.” [Surah Nahl (16), verse 86]

Allāh says further, “Those that they used to call upon will be lost to them. ‘ All the hopes that they pinned in their gods will be dashed, “and they will be convinced that they have no escape.”

لَا يَسْتَعْمِلُ الْإِنْسَانُ مِنْ دُعَاءِ الْخَيْرِ وَإِنْ مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ فَيَوْسُقُ قَنُوطٌ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَلَيْنَ
أَذَقْنَاهُ رَحْمَةً مِنَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ ضَرْأٍ مَسَّهُ لِيَقُولَنَّ هَذَا لِي وَمَا أَطُنَّ السَّاعَةَ قَائِمَةً وَلَيْنَ
رُجِعْتُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي إِنَّ لِي عِنْدَهُ لَلْحُسْنَىٰ فَلَنُنَبِّئَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِمَا عَمِلُوا وَلَنُذِيقَنَّهُمْ
مِنَ عَذَابٍ غَلِيظٍ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَإِذَا أَنْعَمْنَا عَلَى الْإِنْسَانِ أَعْرَضَ وَنَأَىٰ بِجَانِبِهِ وَإِذَا مَسَّهُ
الشَّرُّ فَذُو دُعَاءٍ عَرِيضٍ ﴿٥١﴾

(49) Man never tires to pray for good. If adversity has to afflict him, he completely loses all hope. (50) If We allow him to taste Our mercy after the adversity that afflicted him, he will certainly say, “I deserve this. I do not think that Judgment day will take place. If I am ever returned to my Lord, I shall definitely have something better than this.” So We shall certainly inform the disbelievers of what they did, and We shall definitely make them taste a severe punishment. (51) When We favour man, he is averse and turns away. But when hardship afflicts him, he offers lengthy prayers.

MAN’S LOVE FOR WEALTH, HIS INGRATITUDE, AND REJECTION OF JUDGMENT DAY

Allāh discusses man’s psychology in these verses. Allāh says, ‘Man never tires to pray for good. “He keeps asking Allāh for wealth, health and all other good things. He remains happy as long as these positive factors remain with him. However, “If adversity (financial loss, illness, etc) has to afflict him, he completely loses all hope.” He then visualises himself as the only person who is suffering, thinking that his problems will never end. (Such is the condition of people who have not learnt Allāh’s Book, have not practised the guidelines detailed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, and have not remained in the company of the pious).

“If We allow him to taste Our mercy (wealth, good health, prosperity, etc) after the adversity that afflicted him, he will certainly say, ‘I deserve this. “Instead of conceding the fact that the bounty is Allāh’s favour, he attributes the good fortune to his ingenuity, thereby hoarding all the credit for himself. This type of behaviour was displayed by Qārūn, who said, "I have been granted all of this because of the knowledge I possess." [Surah Qasas (28), verse 78]

When man's difficulty is alleviated, he even begins to deny Judgment day, saying, "I do not think that Judgment day will take place. If I am ever returned to my Lord, I shall definitely have something better than this." He thinks that, since he 'deserved' a good life in this world because of his 'knowledge', he will also be deserving of the same in the Hereafter. He fails to realise that whatever he had was purely because of Allāh's favour on him.

Allāh says further, "So We shall certainly inform the disbelievers of what they did, and We shall definitely make them taste a severe punishment." It is only in the Ākhirah (hereafter) that the disbelievers will realise the error of their ways, and that (because of their deeds) they 'deserve' only punishment and humiliation.

Summing up man's attitude, Allāh says, "When We favour man, he is averse and turns away (i.e. he does not acknowledge Allāh's bounty and is not grateful). But when hardship afflicts him, he offers lengthy prayers." Instead of thanking Allāh for His favour, man becomes proud of himself whenever he is blessed with a bounty. The only time he turns to Allāh is when he is in dire straits. This behaviour is all too apparent everywhere.

قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ كَانَ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ كَفَرْتُمْ بِهِ مَنْ أَضَلُّ مِمَّنْ هُوَ فِي
شِقَاقٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ سُرِّيهِمْ ءَايَاتُنَا فِي الْآفَاقِ وَفِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ حَتَّى يَتَبَيَّنَ لَهُمْ أَنَّهُ
الْحَقُّ أَوَلَمْ يَكْفِ بِرَبِّكَ أَنَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ﴿٥٣﴾ أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ فِي مَرِيعَةٍ مِّنْ لِّقَاءِ
رَبِّهِمْ ءَلَا إِنَّهُمْ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُّحِيطُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾

(52) Say, "Tell me. If this Qur'ān is really from Allāh and you reject it, who will be further astray than the person who is in fanatical opposition?" (53) We shall soon show them Our signs on the horizons and within themselves, until it becomes clear to them that it is certainly the truth. Is it not sufficient that your Lord is Witness over everything? (54) Behold! They are in doubt about meeting their Lord. Behold! He Encompasses everything.

THE REJECTERS ARE INVITED TO PONDER ABOUT THE QUR'ĀN

These verses bring Surah Hā Mīm Sajdah to a close. The Surah began with mention of the Qur'ān being a clearly expounded revelation from Allāh. As the Surah progressed, more mention was made of the Qur'ān. Now, at the end, Allāh exhorts people to ponder about the Qur'ān, keeping their welfare in mind. Since the disbelievers reject the Qur'ān after it has been established with proof that Allāh revealed the Qur'ān, Allāh enjoins them to reflect that "If this Qur'ān is really from Allāh and you reject it, (then it will be clear that your opposition was unwarranted. So tell me,) who will be further astray than the person who is in fanatical opposition?"

Such people will certainly suffer punishment in the Hereafter. Therefore, before entering the realm of the Hereafter, the non-believers should carefully consider the matter in this very world.

Allāh says further, "We shall soon show them Our signs on the horizons..." The Arabic word "āfāq" (translated above as "horizons") refers to the skies, the earth, the sun, the moon, the stars, the trees, the rivers, and everything else that is visible. Some commentators mention that the word refers to the incidents of the previous nations, which are brought to mind when one sees the ruins of their civilisations.

Allāh adds that He also shows man His signs "within themselves". This refers to the various changes and stages that the human body experiences (as well as the wonders of the anatomy). An intelligent person will heed these signs and derive a lesson from them. People should ponder over these "until it becomes clear to them that it (the Qur'ān) is certainly the truth." Eventually every person will realise that the Qur'ān is certainly the truth from Allāh, even though many will not admit it.

"Is it not sufficient that your Lord is Witness over everything?" Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him that Allāh's testimony to his Prophet hood is sufficient. He should therefore ignore the taunts and abuses of the disbelievers and polytheists.

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "Behold! They are in doubt about meeting their Lord. Behold! He Encompasses everything." Therefore, He will certainly take them to task for their evil. They can have no escape from Him.

سورة الشورى

Makkan

Surah Ash-Shura

Verses 53

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

حَمْدٌ ۝۱ عَسَقَ ۝۲ كَذَلِكَ يُوحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ وَإِلَى الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ اللَّهُ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝۳ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْعَظِيمُ ۝۴ تَكَادُ السَّمَوَاتُ يَتَفَطَّرْنَ مِنْ فَوْقِهِنَّ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَ لِمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْعَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ۝۵ وَالَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ اللَّهُ حَفِظٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِوَكِيلٍ ۝۶ وَكَذَلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا لِنُنذِرَ أُمَّ الْقُرَىٰ وَمَنْ حَوْلَهَا وَنُنذِرَ يَوْمَ الْجَمْعِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ فَرِيقٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَفَرِيقٌ فِي السَّعِيرِ ۝۷ وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَجَعَلَهُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَلَكِنْ يُدْخِلُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ وَالظَّالِمُونَ مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ۝۸ أَمْ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ فَإِنَّهُ هُوَ الْوَلِيُّ وَهُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَوْتَىٰ وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝۹

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Hāmīm. (2) Ayn Sīn Qāf. (3) In this manner does Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise send revelation to you and to those before you. (4) To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth, and He is the Exalted, the Grand. (5) The skies can almost be rent asunder above them as the angels glorify the praises of their Lord and seek forgiveness for those on earth. Behold! Allāh is certainly the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful. (6) Allāh is Vigilant over those who adopt patrons besides Allāh. You are not a guardian over them. (7) In this manner did We reveal the Arabic Qur'ān to you so that you may warn the Mother of all cities, and those around her; so that you may warn them about the Day of Gathering, about which there shall be no doubt. A group shall be in Jannah (paradise), while another shall be in the Blaze. (8) If Allāh willed, He would have made them a single nation. However, He will enter whoever he wills into His mercy, and there shall be no friend nor assistant for the oppressors. (9) Or do they adopt patrons apart from Allāh? Indeed, Allāh is truly the Protecting Friend, and He shall resurrect the dead. He has power over all things.

ALLĀH IS MIGHTY, WISE, EXALTED, GRAND, MOST FORGIVING, MOST MERCIFUL

After introducing the Surah with a few Muqatta'at letters, Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "In this manner (i.e. just as this Surah is being revealed with all its associated benefits) does Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise send revelation to you and to those before you. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and the earth, and He is the Exalted, the Grand."

"The skies can almost be rent asunder above them..." This verse tells of the preposterous nature of the claims that the polytheists make. Their polytheistic beliefs are so outrageous that it could cause the skies to perish. Allāh therefore removes all credibility that may seem to exist in the claims of the polytheists before actually denying them in the forthcoming verses. By this interpretation, the verse will resemble verses 90 and 91 of Surah Maryam (Surah 19), where Allāh says, "The heavens may split asunder because of it, the earth may be cleaved open and the mountains may crash to smithereens. All this because they ascribed children to Allāh." ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil"]

Other commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that, because the skies are filled with angels who "glorify the praises of their Lord" and indulge in so many other duties delegated by Allāh, it is not an exaggeration to state that "The skies can almost be rent asunder..."

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The skies are creaking, and really ought to creak. I swear by the Being in Whose control lies my life! There is not a space of four fingers without an angel placing his forehead there in prostration before Allāh." ["Mishkāt" p. 457, from Ahmad, Tirmidhi and Ibn Majāh]

"the angels glorify the praises of their Lord" This means that they declare His purity from everything that is not befitting of His exalted status. At the same time, they also praise Allāh because of His most excellent attributes. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله has quoted from Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه that "Tasbīh (glorification)" refers to the angels exclaiming "Subhānallāh" because of their astonishment at the polytheists, who are prepared to bear the burden of Allāh's wrath because of their beliefs.

Allāh adds that the angels also "seek forgiveness for those (believers) on earth. Behold! Allāh is certainly the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful."

Thereafter, Allāh speaks about the polytheists when He says, "Allāh is Vigilant over those who adopt patrons besides Allāh. You [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] are not a guardian over them. Allāh will deal with them as He pleases, and when He pleases."

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further when he says, "In this manner did We reveal the Arabic Qur'ān to you so that you may warn (the inhabitants of) the Mother of all cities (Makkah), and those around her (in Arabia); so that you may warn them about the Day of Gathering (Judgment day), about which there shall be no doubt." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to warn people about the grave consequences of disbelief and polytheism. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and all the Prophets عليهم السلام warned people about the imminence of the Day of Judgment, when Allāh will pass judgement between the evil and the righteous. As a result, "A group shall be in Heaven, while another shall be in the Blaze."

Allāh says further, "If Allāh willed, He would have made them a single nation (of Believers). However, He will enter whoever he wills into His mercy and there shall be no friend nor assistant for the oppressors." Allāh guides people according to His wisdom. A verse of Surah Sajdah reads, "If We willed, We would have granted every soul its guidance." However, Allāh has granted every person a choice to either do good or to sin. It is for this reason that Allāh will punish people for misusing this choice.

Allāh then refutes the beliefs of the polytheists when He says, "Or do they adopt patrons apart from Allāh? Indeed, Allāh is truly the Protecting Friend, and He shall resurrect the dead. He has power over all things."

وَمَا اخْتَلَفْتُمْ فِيهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَحُكْمُهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ ذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبِّي عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَإِلَيْهِ
 أُنِيبُ ﴿١٠﴾ فَاطْرُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَمِنَ الْأَنْعَامِ
 أَزْوَاجًا يَذُرُّكُمْ فِيهِ لَيْسَ كَمِثْلِهِ شَيْءٌ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ ﴿١١﴾ لَهُ
 مَقَالِيدُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ إِنَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ
 ﴿١٢﴾

(10) The decision rests with Allāh concerning the matters about which you differ. That Allāh is my Lord. In Him do I trust, and to Him do I turn. (11) Allāh is the Creator of the heavens and the earth. He has created spouses for you from among you, and has also created pairs among the animals. He has created you within the wombs of your mothers. There is nothing like Him, and He is the All Hearing, the All Seeing. (12) To Him belongs the keys of the heavens and the earth. He increases sustenance for whoever He wills, and also straitens. Undoubtedly, He has knowledge of everything.

ALL THE MATTERS THAT YOU DIFFER IN WILL BE REFERRED TO ALLĀH, AND HE HAS CREATED YOU IN PAIRS

The attributes of Allāh are described in these verses. Allāh says, "The decision rests with Allāh concerning the matters about which you differ." The Book of Allāh (the Qur'ān) should be the judge in all those matters in which people differ. The law of the Qur'ān should be accepted as final in any matter. Thereafter, Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to declare, "That Allāh is my Lord. In Him do I trust (therefore, I have no fear for anything you may do), and to Him do I turn."

"Allāh is the Creator of the heavens and the earth. He has created spouses for you from among you, and has also created pairs among the animals. He has created you within the wombs of your mothers." Allāh has created all of mankind from the single pair of Sayyidina Ādam and Hawwā عَلَيْهِمَا السَّلَام. Thereafter, the process of reproduction continued, whereby multitudes of men and women have been born. In a similar manner, Allāh has also created animals as male and female, permitting their generations to flourish in succession.

THERE IS NOTHING LIKE ALLĀH

"There is nothing like Him, and He is the All Hearing, the All Seeing." Allāh has been forever and will be forever. Nothing preceded Him, and nothing will succeed Him. None possesses any attributes like Him, nor does anything resemble Him at all. If any of His attributes is given for another being, the resemblance will be only in the term used, not in the essence and true meaning of the attribute. It will therefore be wrong for any person to claim that Allāh has a physical body, or that he is confined to any space, direction or time. There is nothing that can be compared to Allāh in any way.

Reinforcing the belief in Allāh's overwhelming superiority, Allāh adds, "To Him belongs the keys of the heavens and the earth. He increases sustenance for whoever He wills, and also straitens. Undoubtedly, He has knowledge of everything."

﴿ شَرَعَ لَكُمْ مِنَ الدِّينِ مَا وَصَّى بِهِ نُوحًا وَالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ وَمَا وَصَّيْنَا بِهِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَى وَعِيسَى أَنْ أَقِيمُوا الدِّينَ وَلَا تَتَفَرَّقُوا فِيهِ كَبُرَ عَلَى الْمُشْرِكِينَ مَا نَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَيْهِ اللَّهُ يَجْتَبِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ يُنِيبُ ﴾ ﴿١٣﴾ وَمَا تَفَرَّقُوا إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْعِلْمُ بَعْيًا بَيْنَهُمْ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُسَمًّى لَفُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ أُورِثُوا الْكِتَابَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ لَفِي شَكٍّ مِمَّنْهُ مُرِيبٍ

(13) Allāh has ordained for you the same Dīn (religion) that He ordained for Nūh, as well as what He ordained for Ibrāhīm, Mūsā and Isā: "Establish the Dīn (religion of Islām) and do not be divided". That towards which you call the idolaters is weighty on them. Allāh draws whoever He wills towards Himself, and guides towards Himself the one who is penitent. (14) They divided only after knowledge came to them, because of the animosity between themselves. If it were not for a decree that issued forth from your Lord (allowing them grace) until a prescribed term, their matter would have been decided. Indeed, those who were given the Book after them are in grave doubt concerning it.

ALLĀH HAS ORDAINED FOR YOU THAT SAME DĪN (RELIGION) THAT HE ORDAINED FOR SAYYIDINA NŪH, MŪSA, AND ĪSA عَلَيْهِم السلام

The religion's of all the former Prophets عليهم السلام were based on the belief of oneness of Allāh and obedience to Allāh. Although the religion's differed in various detailed aspects of worship (Ibādah) and social conduct, the basic principle of oneness of Allāh was a common factor in all. In this regard, Allāh says, "Allāh has ordained for you the same religion that He ordained for Nūh, as well as what He ordained for Ibrahīm, Mūsa and Isā..." All the Prophets عليهم السلام, including the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم carried the same message forward. The final religion that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم brought includes the basic principles of belief that were common in all the previous religions, as well as a complete code of social and moral behavioural etiquette.

"Establish the religion of Islām, and do not be divided." This is an exhortation to remain steadfast on the religion of Islām without altering any part of it. This was ordained for all the Prophets عليهم السلام. A person should therefore not believe in a part of the religion while disbelieving in another part, neither should he practise a part while discarding another part. This was the practice of the Bani Isrā'īl, because of which Allāh reproached them saying, "Do you believe in a part of the Book and reject a part?" [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 85]

THE POLYTHEISTS DISLIKE THE INVITATION OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "That towards which you call the idolaters is weighty on them." There were two reasons because of which the polytheists despised the preaching of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The first was that they disliked the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was inviting towards One Allāh, whereas they believed in a multitude of other gods.

The second reason was that they disliked the fact that Allāh made Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم a Prophet instead of one of the affluent members of their society. It was in reply to this that Allāh says, "Allāh draws whoever He wills towards Himself and guides towards Himself the one who is penitent." Allāh confers prestige on whoever He wills from among His bondsmen, and only He can lead people towards guidance.

PEOPLE SEPARATE AFTER RECEIVING KNOWLEDGE

"They divided only after knowledge came to them, because of the animosity between themselves." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentioned that this verse refers to the Quraysh. Before the appearance of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they used to swear by Allāh that they would certainly become the most rightly guided people if Allāh had to send a Prophet to them. However, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was made a Prophet, they began to dispute among themselves, as a result of which some accepted, while others did not.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has also mentioned that this verse could well apply to the Ahlul Kitāb (the people of Book). While the Jews refused to accept the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because of the jealousy they bore towards him, the Christians also did not want to believe in him. It was not because of their aversion to Islām that they refused to accept, nor because of any personal grudge towards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, but they refused to accept only because of their overwhelming love for wealth and position.

Allāh says further, "If it were not for a decree that issued forth from your Lord (allowing them grace) until a prescribed term, their matter would have been decided." They would have deserved punishment already if Allāh had not predetermined that their punishment was due at a prescribed time. Others commentators have mentioned that the "prescribed term" refers to the Hereafter, when the disbelievers will be unable to escape Allāh's punishment.

".....Indeed, those who were given the Book after them are in grave doubt concerning it." Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله mentions that the verse refers to the Ahlul Kitāb (the people of Book) (Jews and Christians). They therefore inherited the division that was created before them. Other commentators have mentioned that the verse refers to the Quraysh, who were given the Qur'ān after the Ahlul Kitāb (the people of Book) were given their respective scriptures. In this case "concerning it" would mean "concerning the Qur'ān" or "concerning the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم".

فَلِذَلِكَ فَادْعُ وَاسْتَقِمْ كَمَا أُمِرْتَ وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَقُلْ ءَامَنْتُ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ مِنْ كِتَابٍ وَأُمِرْتُ لِأَعْدِلَ بَيْنَكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّنَا وَرَبُّكُمُ لَنَا أَعْمَلُنَا وَلَكُمْ أَعْمَلُكُمُ لَا حُجَّةَ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمُ اللَّهُ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَنَا وَإِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿١٥﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يُحَاجُّونَ فِي اللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا اسْتُجِيبَ لَهُمْ جُمُوعُهُمْ دَاحِضَةٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَعَلَيْهِمْ غَضَبٌ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ ﴿١٦﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ الْكِتَابَ بِالْحَقِّ وَالْمِيزَانَ وَمَا يُدْرِيكَ لَعَلَّ السَّاعَةَ قَرِيبٌ ﴿١٧﴾ يَسْتَعْجِلُ بِهَا الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهَا وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مُشْفِقُونَ مِنْهَا وَيَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّهَا الْحَقُّ أَلَا إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُمارُونَ فِي السَّاعَةِ لَفِي ضَلَالٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿١٨﴾ اللَّهُ لَطِيفٌ بِعِبَادِهِ يَرْزُقُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْقَوِيُّ الْعَزِيزُ ﴿١٩﴾

(15) This is what you should call towards. Be steadfast as you have been commanded, and do not follow their whims. Say, "I believe in the Book that Allāh has revealed, and I have been commanded to maintain justice between you people. Allāh is our Lord and your Lord. Our deeds are for us, and yours are for you. There is no dispute between yourselves and us. Allāh shall gather us all together, and to Him shall be our return." (16) Those who argue about their Lord after He has been accepted, their argument is useless before their Lord. Upon them is wrath, and they will suffer a severe punishment. (17) It is Allāh Who revealed the Book with the truth, as well as the Balance. How could you know that Judgment day is probably very close? (18) Those who do not believe in it seek to hasten you. Those who believe in it, fear it and know that it is the truth. Behold! Those who have doubts about Judgment day have deviation far away. (19) Allāh is Compassionate towards His bondsmen. He sustains whoever he wills, and He is the Powerful, the Mighty.

THE COMMAND TO BE STEADFAST AND JUST

Referring to the religion that Allāh ordained for Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, Allāh says further, "This (religion of Islām) is what you should call towards. Be steadfast as you have been commanded, and do not follow their whims." If any inclinations have to be shown towards the disbelievers, steadfastness will be lost. Even though the disbelievers detest the religion, no compromises can be made.

Allāh instructs further, "Say, 'I believe in the Book that Allāh has revealed, and I have been commanded to maintain justice between you people.'" i.e. I cannot command you to do anything which I do not do myself, neither will I allow you to suffer while I am at leisure.

"Allāh is our Lord and your Lord. (Therefore, we all have to obey Him and follow His religion. If you refuse, then remember) Our deeds are for us, and yours are for you (Allāh will take every person to task accordingly). There is no dispute between yourselves and us (because we have brought the message to you clearly). Allāh shall gather us all together, and to Him shall be our return." Allāh will reward those who believed in oneness of Allāh, and will punish those who perpetrated polytheism.

THE CLAIM OF THE DISBELIEVERS IS USELESS

"Those who argue about their Lord (i.e. about His religion) after He (His religion) has been accepted (by many sensible person), their argument is useless before their Lord." Although they may think that their arguments carry weight, these arguments can never come close to displacing the proofs that substantiate oneness of Allāh. When they reach Allāh's court on the Day of Judgment, the harsh reality will dawn on them that "Upon them is (Allāh's) wrath, and they will suffer a severe punishment."

The phrase "after He (His religion) has been accepted" tells us that many people had accepted the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They saw the miracles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and, when they contemplated over the matter, they reached the conclusion that he was certainly no madman. As a result, they realised that it was foolish to resist him, and accepted Islām wholeheartedly.

Thereafter, Allāh says, "It is Allāh Who revealed the Book with the truth, as well as the Balance." Most commentators, including Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, are of the opinion that "the Balance" refers to justice and equity, because the scale is normally used as a measure to weigh justly. Other commentators state that it refers to rewards and punishment, which Allāh will give to the obedient and the sinful respectively. A third group of commentators mention that the "Balance" refers to scales that will be erected on the Day of Judgment to weigh the deeds of people.

IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT JUDGMENT DAY IS VERY CLOSE

Allāh asks, "How could you know that Judgment day is probably very close?" Although the verse addresses the Holy Prophet ﷺ, it is intended as a note of concern for all of mankind. Every person should be concerned about his plight in the Hereafter. Since the actual time of Judgment day has not been specified, there is every possibility that the Judgment day will be very soon.

"Those who do not believe in it (Judgment day) seek to hasten you (by asking you to show it to them). (On the other hand,) Those who believe in it, fear it and know that it is the truth. Behold! Those who have doubts about Judgment day have deviated far away." This is because they refuse to accept despite the fact that they have witnessed the signs that indicate the truth.

"Allāh is Compassionate towards His bondsmen. He sustains whoever he wills, and He is the Powerful, the Mighty." Allāh sustains those who believe as well as those who disbelieve and who are sinful. The multitude of sins that people commit does not prevent Allāh's compassion from catering for their needs. Allāh's compassion is demonstrated in this manner and many other ways in this world. Apart from these, His compassion will also shine forth in the Hereafter.

Among the many interpretations of "Allāh is Compassionate towards His bondsmen", Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has included the following:

- 📖 Allāh rewards a person far in excess of the deeds he carries out.
- 📖 Allāh does not command people to carry out deeds that are beyond their capacity.
- 📖 Allāh never rejects their pleas for help.
- 📖 Allāh never allows anyone with hope in Him to become despondent.

"He is the Powerful, the Mighty." None can stop His compassion and grasp from reaching their target.

مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ حَرْثَ الْآخِرَةِ نَزِدْ لَهُ فِي حَرْثِهِ ۖ وَمَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ حَرْثَ الدُّنْيَا نُؤْتِهِ مِنْهَا وَمَا لَهُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ مِنْ نَصِيبٍ ﴿٢٠﴾

(20) Whoever desires the harvest of the Hereafter, We shall increase its harvest for him. And We shall grant a part of this world's harvest to the one who desires it; and he will have no share in the Hereafter.

THE SEEKER OF THE HEREAFTER WILL HAVE AN INCREASE, WHILE THE SEEKER OF THIS WORLD WILL HAVE NO SHARE IN THE HEREAFTER

Allāh discusses the rewards of people in accordance to their objectives in this world. Allāh says, "Whoever desires the harvest of the Hereafter, We shall increase its harvest for him." Allāh will grant a great return to those who believe in Him, follow His religion, and carry out good deeds in an effort to please Him. Every good deed will bring a reward that is multiplied a minimum of tenfold. Allāh may even increase this seven hundred times, as He says in verse 261 of Surah Baqarah, "The likeness of those who spend in the way of Allāh is as a grain which grows seven ears, in every ear a hundred grains. Allāh gives increased manifold to those whom He wills. Allāh is All Embracing, All Knowing."

The multiplication of rewards is therefore not restricted to seven hundred, but has no limit. The Ahadith bear testimony to the fact that the person who preaches and propagates the religion and the carrying out of good deeds, will receive the rewards of every person who carries out the same deeds. This will not diminish the rewards of those carrying out the deeds. Rewards in the Hereafter will continue to flourish just as the grains of wheat continue to multiply after being planted:

On the other hand, "And We shall grant a part of this world's harvest to the one who desires it; and he will have no share in the Hereafter." When a person focuses only on the gains of this world, and he concentrates all his efforts on acquiring it, Allāh will grant him exactly what he wants, or less. Even if he acquires all the wealth of the world, it will be insignificant compared to the gains of the Hereafter. Then too, he will receive only that much of the world which Allāh wills that he should have. It is also not important that a person should achieve whatever he wants in this world, since this world is not even the true abode of the believers.

Verses 18 and 19 of Surah Bani Isra'il (Surah 17) emphasise the same point about desiring the pleasure of this world rather than the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh says, "Whoever desires the pleasures of this world, We shall grant whatever We will for whoever We will in this very world, and then We will appoint Hell for him. He will enter it despicably and rejected. And whoever desires the Hereafter and exerts himself for it as he ought to and is a believer, then such are the people whose deeds will be appreciated."

أَمْ لَهُمْ شُرَكَاءُ شَرَعُوا لَهُمْ مِنَ الدِّينِ مَا لَمْ يَأْذَنْ بِهِ اللَّهُ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةُ
الْفَصْلِ لَفُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٢١﴾ تَرَى الظَّالِمِينَ
مُشْفِقِينَ مِمَّا كَسَبُوا وَهُمْ وَاقِعٌ بِهِمْ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
فِي رَوْضَاتِ الْجَنَّاتِ لَهُمْ مَا يَشَاءُونَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿٢٢﴾
ذَلِكَ الَّذِي يُبَشِّرُ اللَّهُ عِبَادَهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ قُلْ لَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا إِلَّا

الْمُودَّةَ فِي الْفُرْقِ وَمَنْ يَقْتَرِفْ حَسَنَةً نَزِدْ لَهُ فِيهَا حُسْنًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا فَإِنْ يَشَاءِ اللَّهُ يَخْتِمْ عَلَى قَلْبِكَ وَيَمَسُّهُ اللَّهُ الْبَاطِلَ وَيُجْحِقُ الْحَقَّ يَكَلِّمُنِيهِ إِنَّكُمْ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ﴿٢٤﴾

(21) Or do they have partners who have ordained for them such things in religion which Allāh has not permitted? If it were not for a decisive decree, the matter would have been decided between them. There shall certainly be an excruciating punishment for the oppressors. (22) You will see the oppressors fearing what they earned, whereas the punishment will have already befallen them. Those who believe and do righteous deeds will be in the gardens of Heaven. They shall have whatever they desire with their Lord. This is definitely a great favour. (23) These are the glad tidings that Allāh conveys to those bondsmen of His who believe and do good deeds. Say, "I ask of you no recompense, except the love between relatives. We will increase the beauty of the deed that a person carries out, for Allāh is surely the Most Forgiving, the Appreciative. (24) Or do they say that he has invented a lie against Allāh? If Allāh wills, He could seal your heart. Allāh eradicates falsehood and establishes the truth with His words. Undoubtedly He has thorough knowledge of the secrets of the heart.

THE SINFUL ONES WILL BE APPREHENSIVE OF THEIR DEEDS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT, WHILE BELIEVERS WILL BE IN THE GARDENS OF HEAVEN

Referring to the polytheists, Allāh says, "Or do they have (ascribe) partners (to Allāh) who have ordained for them such things in religion which Allāh has not permitted?" This is a rhetorical question, which emphasises that none has the ability nor the authority to introduce anything into the religion. Since the false gods of the polytheists have no jurisdiction in the matter, it will be foolish to worship them.

Although the polytheists deserve immediate punishment, they are not punished immediately because Allāh has already decreed that they would be punished at a later stage in this world. Otherwise, they will certainly suffer the most excruciating punishment in the Hereafter. They should never be foolish enough to rejoice because of the apparent delay in punishment. The more grace they have, the greater will be the punishment they draw towards themselves. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "If it were not for a decisive decree (to defer punishment), the matter would have been decided between them. There shall certainly be an excruciating punishment for the oppressors."

Addressing the reader, Allāh says that on the Day of Judgment, "You will see the oppressors fearing what they earned, whereas the punishment (on account of what they earned) will have already befallen them. (On the contrary,) Those who believe and do righteous deeds will be in the gardens of Heaven. They shall have whatever they desire with their Lord. This is definitely a great favour. These are the glad tidings that Allāh conveys to those bondsmen of His who believe and do good deeds."

NO WORLDLY RETURN IS EXPECTED FOR PREACHING

Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "Say, 'I ask of you no recompense except the love between relatives.'" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is instructed to make it clear to people that he requires no remuneration from them because his efforts are solely to please Allāh. Of course, since he was related to the Quraysh, he deserved to receive the cordial treatment expected from relatives. The Quraysh were duty-bound to maintain good relations with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and to refrain from harming him. Not only did the Quraysh refuse to accept the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but they also failed to honour the rights of their kinship, which was contrary to Arab tradition as well.

"We will increase the beauty of the deed that a person carries out (by crediting it with rewards that far exceed its worth), for Allāh is surely the Most Forgiving, the Appreciative." Therefore, constantly seek forgiveness from Allāh, and make every effort to perform good deeds.

REFUTING THOSE WHO REGARDED THE QUR'ĀN AS A FABRICATION

Allāh says further, "Or do they say that he [the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] has invented a lie against Allāh?" In response to this allegation, Allāh says, "If Allāh wills, He could seal your heart." As a punishment for inventing a lie (as claimed), Allāh could easily seal the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم heart, thereby causing him to forget the Qur'ān. However, Allāh continued to reveal the Qur'ān to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, making it clear to all that he was certainly Allāh's chosen Prophet.

"Allāh eradicates falsehood (as propagated by the polytheists) and establishes the truth (Islām) with His words. Undoubtedly He has thorough knowledge of the secrets of the heart." Therefore, Allāh is perfectly Capable of punishing people for the ill that they do.

وَهُوَ الَّذِي يَقْبَلُ التَّوْبَةَ عَنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَعْفُو عَنِ السَّيِّئَاتِ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾
وَيَسْتَجِيبُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَيَزِيدُهُمْ مِّنْ فَضْلِهِ ؕ وَالْكَافِرُونَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ
شَدِيدٌ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَلَوْ بَسَطَ اللَّهُ الرِّزْقَ لِعِبَادِهِ لَبَعَوْا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَٰكِن يُّنْزِلُ بِقَدَرٍ مَّا يَشَاءُ
إِنَّهُ بِعِبَادِهِ خَبِيرٌ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي يُنْزِلُ الْغَيْثَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا قَنَطُوا وَيَنْشُرُ
رَحْمَتَهُ ؕ وَهُوَ الْوَلِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ﴿٢٨﴾

(25) It is Allāh Who accepts repentance from His bondsmen, Who pardons sins and Who knows what you do. (26) He responds (to the supplications) of those who believe and who do righteous deeds, and He increases His favour for them. There shall be severe punishment for the disbelievers. (27) If Allāh increases sustenance for His bondsmen, they would rebel on earth. Instead, He sends according to a stipulated measure as He pleases. He is certainly Informed and Ever Watchful over His bondsmen. (28) It is He Who sends the rain after people have lost hope, and distributes His mercy. He is the Protecting Friend, Most Worthy of praise.

ALLĀH GIVES SUSTENANCE AS HE WILLS, AND SENDS RAINS AFTER PEOPLE HAVE LOST HOPE

Allāh describes His tremendous attributes and immense favours in the above verses. Allāh says:

- First. "It is Allāh Who accepts repentance from His bondsmen, Who pardons sins..."
- Second. It is Allāh "Who knows what you do." Allāh knows whether a person's repentance is sincere or merely lip service.
- Third. "He responds (to the supplications) of those who believe and who do righteous deeds (including abstaining from Unlawful food)..."
- Fourth. "and He increases His favour for them." Included in this is the fact that Allāh multiplies the reward for any good deed, even though the deed may be slight.
- Fifth. "There shall be severe punishment for the disbelievers." Therefore, people should not be deceived by the world. They should make every effort to save themselves from the punishment of Hell.
- Sixth. "If Allāh increases sustenance for His bondsmen, they would rebel on earth. Instead, He sends according to a stipulated measure as He pleases. He is certainly Informed and Ever Watchful over His bondsmen." According to His infinite wisdom. Allāh makes some people wealthy, while keeping others poor. There would have been tremendous rebellion and anarchy on earth if every person were rich.
- Seventh. "It is He Who sends the rain after people have lost hope (because of a delay in rains), and distributes His mercy." As a result all of creation benefits from the rains.
- Eighth. "He is the Protecting Friend, Most Worthy of praise." Allāh sees to the needs of all His creation, and every attribute and action of His deserves praise.

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَهُوَ عَلَى جَمْعِهِمْ إِذَا يَشَاءَ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَمَا أَصَابَكُمْ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ فِيمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِيكُمْ وَيَعْفُوا عَنْ

كَثِيرٍ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ
 ﴿٣١﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ الْجَوَارِ فِي الْبَحْرِ كَالْأَعْلَامِ ﴿٣٢﴾ إِنْ يَشَأْ يُسْكِنِ الرِّيحَ فَيَظْلَلْنَ رَوَاكِدَ عَلَى
 ظَهْرِهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ ﴿٣٣﴾ أَوْ يُوقِفَهُنَّ يَمَا كَسَبُوا وَيَعْفُ عَنْ كَثِيرٍ
 ﴿٣٤﴾ وَيَعْلَمَ الَّذِينَ يُخَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ مَحِيصٍ ﴿٣٥﴾

(29) From Allāh's signs are the creation of the heavens and the earth, as well as every creature that Hé has dispersed within the two. He has the Power to gather them all whenever He pleases. (30) The adversities that afflict you are a result of the deeds you earn, and Allāh pardons a great deal. (31) You cannot escape on earth, and you have no Protecting Friend, nor any Helper besides Allāh. (32) Among His signs are the ships at sea like mountains. (33) If Allāh wills, He could stop the winds, causing the ships to stand stationary on the surface of the sea. There are certainly signs in this for every person who is extremely patient and grateful. (34) Or Allāh could annihilate them because of the deeds they earn. And He pardons a great deal. (35) Those who dispute about His signs then learn that they shall have no escape.

THE CREATION OF THE HEAVENS, THE EARTH AND ALL LIFE ARE ALLĀH'S SIGNS

Describing His creative ability, Allāh says, "From Allāh 's signs are the creation of the heavens and the earth, as well as every creature that He has dispersed within the two." Since the creation are so many in number, one should never think that they are beyond Allāh's control because "He has the Power to gather them all whenever He pleases (as He will do on the Day of Judgment)."

ADVERSITIES ARE BECAUSE OF MAN'S ACTIONS

Allāh declares, "The adversities that afflict you are a result of the deeds you earn..." However Allāh does not punish people for every evil they commit. "Allāh pardons a great deal (of sins)." If Allāh were to take people to task for every sin, they would not have any rest, but would have to face an endless barrage of adversities.

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whenever a small or great adversity afflicts a person, it is on account of his sins. However, the sins that Allāh pardons are much more than those that He punishes." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The believer man and woman repeatedly suffer hardships involving themselves, their wealth and their families, until they reach Allāh without any sin to their account." [Tirmidhi]

This hadith makes it clear that adversities cause sins to be forgiven. Therefore, a person suffering hardships will be cleansed of all sins when he reaches the Hereafter. It is also a blessing that a person suffers punishment in this world rather than in the Hereafter, because a single punishment of the Hereafter is much more severe than every hardship of this world.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that Allāh may want to elevate the rank of a person to a great degree, but the person's deeds are insufficient to qualify him for the rank. Allāh then afflicts the person with difficulties that affect his health, wealth and family. Allāh then grants him patience to endure the adversities, until the person attains the rank that Allāh has ordained for him. ["Mishkāt" p. 137, from Ahmad and Abu Darwūd]

"The adversities that afflict you are a result of the deeds you earn....." This verse is addressed to the general Muslim public, and not to the Prophets عليهم السلام. Therefore, one cannot say that the Prophets عليهم السلام suffer adversities on account of their sins, because they were sinless. The Prophets عليهم السلام suffered adversities so that their ranks could be elevated.

"You cannot escape on earth..." People will remain in whatever condition Allāh has placed them in. It will be futile to turn to others for assistance because "you have no Protecting Friend, nor any Helper besides Allāh."

"Among His signs are the ships at sea like mountains." These ships are large enough to carry thousands of tonnes in human and mercantile cargo. "If Allāh wills, He could stop the winds, causing the ships to stand stationary on the surface of the sea. There are certainly signs in this for every person who is extremely patient and grateful." The winds are at Allāh's command, and will not propel ships if Allāh stops them. This verse denotes that the movement of the ships at sea is dependent on Allāh. Therefore, even ships that are mechanically propelled require fuel to move. This fuel (petrol, diesel, coal) is also Allāh's creation. If Allāh stops the supply of these forms of fuel, these ships will also be stationary. In addition to this, it was because of Allāh's inspiration that man was able to design and build the engines that propel these ships. Therefore, man is totally dependent on Allāh for everything.

Just as Allāh has the power to stop the winds, He is also Capable of destroying people as they travel on these ships because of their sins. However, Allāh does not sink every ship because of the sins of the occupants. Rather "He pardons a great deal (of their sins)." Allāh does not punish people immediately, but defers their punishment until a later date, or until the Hereafter.

Eventually, when the people of a ship are about to be shipwrecked (or people suffering any other calamity), they "then learn that they shall have no escape."

فَمَا أُوتِيتُمْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ فَمَنَعُ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَى لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ
 يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَحْنَبُونَ كَثِيرَ الْأَرْثِ وَالْفَوْحِ وَإِذَا مَا عَصَبُوا لَهُمْ يَغْفِرُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾
 وَالَّذِينَ اسْتَجَابُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَمْرُهُمْ شُورَىٰ بَيْنَهُمْ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَالَّذِينَ
 إِذَا أَصَابَهُمُ الْبَغْيُ هُمْ يَنْصُرُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾

(36) Whatever you have been given is merely an article of this worldly life. What is with Allāh is better and more lasting for those who believe in and trust their Lord... (37) ... And who abstain from major sins, immorality, and who pardon when they are angry. (38) ... And those who respond to (the commands of) their Lord, who establish Salāh, whose affairs (are decided) by mutual consultation between themselves, and who spend from what We have provided for them. (39) And those who retaliate when oppression affects them.

WHATEVER YOU HAVE ARE ARTICLES OF THE WORLDLY EXISTENCE, WHILE THAT WHICH IS WITH ALLĀH SHALL BE FOR THOSE WHO BELIEVE AND TRUST IN HIM

Describing the ephemeral nature of this world and the permanence of the Hereafter, Allāh says, "Whatever you have been given is merely an article of this worldly life. What is with Allāh is better and more lasting for those who believe in and trust their Lord..." Allāh then describes the attributes of the believers, when He says that they:

1. "trust their Lord"
2. "abstain from major sins, immorality"
3. "Pardon when they are angry."
4. "respond to (the commands of) their Lord."
5. "who establish Salāh (in the proper manner)."
6. "whose affairs (are decided) by mutual consultation between themselves."
7. "who spend from what We have provided for them."
8. "who retaliate when oppression affects them." They retaliate only to the extent of the oppression perpetrated against them -not more.

These are the salient qualities of a believer, which he should display at all times and on all occasions.

"Whatever you have been given is merely an article (asset) of this worldly life." This verse tells us that the commodities of this world are of benefit to one and all, be they believers or disbelievers. This verse also denotes that the things of this world are limited to this world, and will not proceed into the Hereafter. Of course, if they are utilised to procure rewards in the Hereafter, the benefit will extend there as well.

"And those who retaliate when oppression affects them." This verse denotes that it will be permissible for an oppressed person to avenge the injustice done to him. Naturally, the retaliation should not exceed the damage done. Details about this will follow shortly.

وَلَمَن أَنْصَرَ بَعْدَ ظُلْمِهِ فَأُولَئِكَ مَا عَلَيْهِمْ مِّن سَبِيلٍ ﴿٤١﴾ إِنَّمَا السَّبِيلُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ يَظْلِمُونَ
النَّاسَ وَيَبْغُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَلَمَن صَبَرَ
وَعَفَرَ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ لَمِنَ عَزْمِ الْأُمُورِ ﴿٤٣﴾

(40) The retribution for an evil is a proportionate response. As for the one who pardons and makes amends, his reward will be with Allāh. Verily, Allāh does not like the oppressors. (41) There will be no blame on the one who takes revenge after he has been wronged. (42) There will be blame only on those who oppress people and unjustly rebel on earth. An excruciating punishment shall be the lot of these people. (43) Whoever exercises patience and pardons, this is certainly among the most resolute matters.

PROPORTIONATE REVENGE MAY BE TAKEN, AND THE REWARD FOR PARDONING LIES WITH ALLĀH

The previous verse read: "And those who retaliate when oppression affects them." Since this verse does not provide details about the limits of retaliation, Allāh adds the details to the above verses. Allāh says, "The retribution for an evil is a proportionate response." A wronged person may retaliate only to the extent of the wrong done to one. If the retaliation exceeds the extent of the wrong, the person retaliating will then be guilty of injustice.

"As for the one who pardons and makes amends, his reward will be with Allāh." Although it is permissible to take revenge, it will be best to pardon the aggressor. This pardon will not be in vain because Allāh will amply reward a person for this. If a person chooses not to pardon, he himself should not oppress in turn because "Verily, Allāh does not like the oppressors."

"There will be no blame on the one who takes revenge after he has been wronged." When, within limits, a person takes revenge for a wrong done to him, he cannot be condemned because he merely exercised his right. If the aggressor or the aggressor's family wish to retaliate, they will be guilty of oppression. Concerning them, Allāh says, "There will be blame only on those who oppress people and unjustly rebel on earth. An excruciating punishment shall be the lot of these people."

Thereafter, Allāh proclaims, "Whoever exercises patience and pardons, this is certainly among the most resolute matters." While everybody does not have the capacity to do this, it should be borne in mind that the reward is extremely great. Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet وسلم that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام once asked Allāh who is most honourable in His sight. Allāh replied, "The person who pardons despite possessing the ability to retaliate." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 434]

وَمَن يُضْلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِن وَلِيٍّ مِّنْ بَعْدِهِ وَتَرَى الظَّالِمِينَ لَمَّا رَأَوْا الْعَذَابَ يَقُولُونَ
هَٰكِلَ إِلَىٰ مَرَدٍّ مِّن سَبِيلٍ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَتَرْتَبَّهُمْ يُعْرَضُونَ عَلَيْهَا خَشِيعَاتٍ مِّنَ الْأَلْدَلِ

يَنْظُرُونَ مِنْ طَرْفٍ خَفِيٍّ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ الْخَاسِرِينَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ
وَأَهْلِيَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ أَلَا إِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ فِي عَذَابٍ مُّقِيمٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَمَا كَانَتْ لَهُمْ مِنْ
أَوْلِيَاءَ يَنْصُرُونَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَمَنْ يُضْلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ ﴿٤٦﴾

(44) After Allāh, there can be no Protecting Friend for the one whom Allāh sends astray. When they witness the punishment, you will see the oppressors crying, "Is there any road to escape?" (45) You will see them presented to the Fire with their heads lowered in disgrace, looking on with secretive glances. The believers will announce, "The true losers are those who will lose themselves as well as their families on the Day of Judgment. Behold! The oppressors shall suffer an eternal punishment." (46) There shall be no friends for them to assist them against Allāh. There is no road for the one whom Allāh sends astray.

THE DESTRUCTION AND DISGRACE OF THE OPPRESSORS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

Allāh says, "After Allāh, there can be no Protecting Friend for the one whom Allāh sends astray." i.e. None can guide or help the one whom Allāh deprives of guidance. Allāh then describes the punishment such people will suffer. He says, "When they witness the punishment, you will notice the oppressors crying, 'Is there any road to escape?'" They will search for a way to return to the world, claiming that they will be righteous the second time around. However, all their pleas will be ignored.

Describing their plight further, Allāh says, "You will see them presented to the Fire with their heads lowered in disgrace, looking on with secretive glances. The believers will announce, 'The, true losers are those who will lose themselves as well as their families on the Day of Judgment.'" They will be unable to help themselves on the Day of Judgment, and even their family will desert them there. The punishment they will suffer will not be for a short period. "Behold! The oppressors shall suffer an eternal punishment."

Allāh adds, "There shall be no friends for them to assist them against Allāh." The disbelievers cannot expect any person to reverse Allāh's decree. "There is no road for the one whom Allāh sends astray." Allāh says in Surah Kahf, "You shall never find any allies besides Allāh for those whom He sends astray." [Surah 18, verse 97]

اَسْتَجِيبُوا لِرَبِّكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَا مَرَدَّ لَهُ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَكُم مِّنْ مَّلَاجٍ يَوْمَئِذٍ
وَمَا لَكُم مِّنْ نَّكِيرٍ ﴿٤٧﴾ فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ عَلَيْهِمْ حَفِظًا إِلَّا أَلْبَعُ وَإِنَّا إِذَا أَذَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنَّا رَحْمَةً فَجَرَحَ بِهَا وَإِنْ نُّصِيبُهُمْ سَيِّئَةً يَمَا فَدَمَتْ
أَيْدِيَهُمْ فَإِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ كَفُورٌ ﴿٤٨﴾ لِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ

يَهْبُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ إِنْتِثَا وَيَهْبُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ الذِّكُورُ ﴿٤٩﴾ أَوْ يُرْجِيهِمْ ذَكَرْنَا وَإِنْتِثَا
وَيَجْعَلُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ عَقِيمًا إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٥٠﴾

(47) Respond to (the commands of) your Lord before there comes to you a day from Allāh which cannot be averted. On that day, you will have no sanctuary, nor any protester. (48) So if they turn away, then We have not sent you as a guardian over them. Propagation is your only responsibility. Indeed, when We allow man to taste of Our mercy, he becomes exuberant. However, when an adversity afflicts him because of what his hands have forwarded, man becomes ungrateful. (49) To Allāh belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. He creates whatever he wills. He confers females to whoever He wills, confers males to whoever he wills... (50) .... or He pairs them as male and female. Allāh also makes whoever He wills barren. Indeed, He is the All Knowing, All Powerful.

ACCEPT THE COMMANDS OF YOUR LORD BEFORE JUDGMENT DAY

Allāh exhorts man to "Respond to (the commands of) your Lord before there comes to you a day from Allāh which cannot be averted. On that day, you will have no sanctuary, nor any protester." On the Day of Judgment there will be none to protest about the plight of another Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "So if they turn away, then (do not grieve because) We have not sent you as a guardian over them. Propagation is your only responsibility." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was not charged to make people accept, and will therefore not be questioned about the fact that the disbelievers did not believe.

MAN'S JOY AT GOOD FORTUNE AND INGRATITUDE IN TIMES OF ADVERSITY

"Indeed, when We allow man to taste of Our mercy, he becomes exuberant. However, when an adversity afflicts him because of what his hands have forwarded (i.e. his sins), man becomes ungrateful." i.e. He begins to talk as if he never experienced any fortune before the adversity.

ALLĀH CONFERS CHILDREN AS HE PLEASES

Allāh declares, "To Allāh belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. He creates whatever he wills. He confers females to whoever He wills, confers males to whoever he wills or He pairs them as male and female. Allāh also makes whoever He wills barren." Allāh grants only male offspring to some couples, whereas He grants all female children to others. There are also those couples to whom Allāh grants male and female offspring, while others have no children at all. The reproductive act alone does not ensure children. The decision rests with Allāh, Who is "the All Knowing, All Powerful." Everything happens according to His perfect wisdom, and none can alter His decrees.

وَمَا كَانَ لِشَيْءٍ أَنْ يُكَلِّمَهُ اللَّهُ إِلَّا وَحْيًا أَوْ مِنْ وَرَآئِ حِجَابٍ أَوْ يُرْسِلَ رَسُولًا
 فَيُوحِي بآذَنِهِ مَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّهُمْ عَلَى حَكِيمٍ ﴿٥١﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ رُوحًا مِنْ أَمْرِنَا
 مَا كُنْتَ تَدْرِي مَا الْكِتَابُ وَلَا الْإِيمَانُ وَلَكِنْ جَعَلْنَاهُ نُورًا نَهْدِي بِهِ مَنْ نَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا
 وَإِنَّكَ لَتَهْدَى إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ صِرَاطُ اللَّهِ الَّذِي لَكُمْ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي
 الْأَرْضِ ۚ أَلَا إِلَى اللَّهِ تَصِيرُ الْأُمُورُ ﴿٥٣﴾

(51) It is appropriate for a human that Allāh speaks to him only by means of inspiration, or from behind a veil, or that He sends a messenger who conveys the revelation by Allāh 's command, as He pleases. Verily Allāh is Exalted, the Wise. (52) In this manner did We reveal the Qur'ān to you by Our command. You did not know what was the Book or what was Belief, but We made it a light with which We guide those bondsmen of Ours whom We will. Without doubt, you guide towards the straight path... (53) .... the path of Allāh, to Whom belongs whatever is in the heavens and in the earth. Behold! All matters return to Allāh only.

HOW CAN MAN CONVERSE WITH ALLĀH?

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v.4 p.132) reports that the Jews once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "If you are really a Prophet, then why is it that you do not converse with Allāh or see Him like Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام did?" It was in response to this that Allāh revealed the above verse stating that it is only possible for a human being to converse with Allāh in one of three methods. These methods are:

First. "by means of inspiration" i.e. by instilling something within a person's heart, or showing him something in a dream.

Second. "from behind a veil" like Allāh spoke to Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام on Mount Tūr.

Third. "that He sends a messenger [Jibr'īl عليه السلام] who conveys the revelation by Allāh 's command, as He pleases."

These three methods are necessary because "Verily Allāh is Exalted, the Wise." No human has the capability to converse with Allāh directly. Allāh converses with people in one of the above methods, as He deems appropriate in His perfect wisdom.

NOTE 1: The "inspiration" that Allāh instils within the hearts of the Prophets عليهم السلام and the dreams that they see are clear commands from Allāh, which have to be practised (Qat'i). On the other hand, the inspiration (Ilhām) and dreams of other people are regarded as "Dhānni" i.e. they cannot be used as a proof to substantiate any act that is contrary to the Shari'ah.

NOTE 2: The “veil” mentioned in the verse refers to a veil of celestial light. A hadith of Muslim states, “Allāh’s veil is celestial light (Nūr). If it is removed, the radiance of His countenance would burn all of His creation as far as He can see.” [“Mishkāt” p. 21]

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام spoke to Allāh from behind the veil because (as a human) he was unable to withstand talking to Allāh while looking at Him directly. It is only in Heaven that Allāh will grant man the ability to look at Him directly.

Allāh states further, “In this manner did We reveal the Qur’ān to you by Our command.” While the Arabic word “Rūh” has been translated above as “the Qur’ān”, other commentators are of the opinion that it refers to Prophet hood or revelation. Further addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, “You did not know what was the Book or what was Belief...” i.e. before becoming a Prophet, you were unaware of Allāh’s Book, and of the detailed articles of faith. It was only after Allāh made the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a Prophet that the Qur’ān was revealed and he began to receive revelation pertaining to the details of faith. Of course, by then the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was already aware of the basic tenets of Belief.

“but We made it (the Qur’ān) a light with which We guide those bondsmen of Ours whom We will. Without doubt, you guide towards the straight path.” Allāh then describes that straight path (“Sirātal Mustaqīm”) as “the path of Allāh, to Whom belongs whatever is in the heavens and in the earth.” Allāh will be pleased with the person who treads this path of His. Allāh concludes the Surah by reminding man, “Behold! All matters return to Allāh only.”

سورة الزخرف

Makkan	Surah Az-Zukhruf	Verses 89
--------	------------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

حَمْ ۝۱ وَالْكِتَابِ الْمُمِينِ ۝۲ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاهُ قُرْءَانًا عَرَبِيًّا لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ ۝۳
وَأَنَّهُ فِي أُمِّ الْكِتَابِ لَدَيْنَا لَعَلِّ حَكِيمٌ ۝۴ أَفَضْرِبُ عَنْكُمْ الذِّكْرَ صَفْحًا
أَن كُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا مُّسْرِفِينَ ۝۵ وَكَمْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ نَّبِيِّ فِي الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝۶ وَمَا يَأْتِيهِمْ
مِّنْ نَّبِيٍّ إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ۝۷ فَأَهْلَكْنَا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ بَطْشًا وَمَضَىٰ مَثَلُ
الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝۸

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) HāMīm. (2) By the oath of the Clear Book! (3) We have made it an Arabic Qur'ān so that you understand. (4) Verily, in the Mother Book with Us, it is exalted and full of wisdom. (5) Should We take the Reminder away from you completely because you are a transgressing nation? (6) Numerous were the Holy Prophets that We sent among the former nations. (7) They used to ridicule every Prophet that came to them. (8) So We destroyed people who were much more powerful than these people. (Thus) did the example of the ancient men pass.

THE QUR'ĀN IS IN CLEAR ARABIC AND OFFERS ADVICE. THOSE WHO DENIED THE FORMER PROPHETS WERE DESTROYED

Taking an oath by the Qur'ān itself, Allāh says, "By the oath of the Clear Book! We have made it an Arabic Qur'ān so that you understand (and be rightly guided)." Since the first addressees of the Qur'ān were the Arabs, the Qur'ān spoke their language. Allāh then describes the noble position of the Qur'ān when He says, "Verily, in the Mother Book with Us (the "Lowhul Mahfūz"), it (the Qur'ān) is exalted and full of wisdom." Certain commentators have translated the word "Hakīm" (translated above as 'full of wisdom') as a Book that is free of contradictions.

Allāh says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "It is the honourable Qur'ān in the Lowhul Mahfūdh (Protected Tablet)." The concluding verse of Surah Burūj reads: "It is the Glorious Qur'ān in the Lowhul Mahfūz."

"Should We take the Reminder away from you completely because you are a transgressing nation?" This verse tells the disbelievers that they should never think that the revelation of the Qur'ān will cease merely because they refuse to accept it. The revelation continued because it was destined to be a guide for the believers and a proof against the disbelievers.

"Numerous were the Holy Prophets that We sent among the former nations. (However) They used to ridicule every Prophet that came to them. So We destroyed people who were much more powerful than these people (present today). (Thus) did the example of the ancient men pass." Despite their prowess and strength, they were unable to withstand Allāh's punishment.

This verse is similar in meaning to another verse in which Allāh says, "Those before them denied. These people do not even reach a tenth of what we gave the former people. However, they (the former nations) falsified, so how was my punishment?"

وَلَيْنَ سَأَلْنَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ خَلَقَهُنَّ الْعَزِيزُ الْعَلِيمُ
الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ مَهْدًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُمْ فِيهَا سُبُلًا لَعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ
وَالَّذِي نَزَّلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً يَقْدَرُ فَأَنْشَرْنَا بِهِ بَلْدَةً مَيِّتًا كَذَلِكَ تُخْرَجُونَ
وَالَّذِي خَلَقَ الْأَزْوَاجَ كُلَّهَا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنَ الْفَلَاحِ وَالْأَنْعَامِ مَا تَرْكَبُونَ لَيْسَ لَكُمُ
عَلَى ظُهُورِهِ ثُمَّ تَذْكُرُوا نِعْمَةَ رَبِّكُمْ إِذَا اسْتَوَيْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ وَتَقُولُوا سُبْحَنَ الَّذِي سَخَّرَ لَنَا
هَذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَكُم مُّقْرِنِينَ وَإِنَّا إِلَىٰ رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُونَ

(9) Undoubtedly, if you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will certainly say, "The Mighty, the All Knowing created them." (10) It is Allāh) Who made the earth into a bedding for you, Who made roads on it for you so that you may be guided... (11) ... and who sends rain from the sky in measure. With this rain We revive dead ground. In this manner will you all be resurrected. (12) (And it is Allāh) Who created all pairs and made ships and animals, which you ride. (13) That you may be seated on their backs, then recall the bounty of your Lord when you mount and say, "Pure is Allāh, Who has subjugated this for us whereas we would never have been able to control it..." (14) "...and our return shall certainly be to our Lord."

THE CREATION OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH, AND THE BOUNTY OF SHIPS AND ANIMALS

Allāh describes many of His creative feats in these verses, all of which denote that He is the One and Only Deity, Creator and Sustainer. Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, if you ask them (the disbelievers) who created the heavens and the earth, they will certainly (admit and) say, 'The Mighty, the All Knowing created them."

It is Allāh "Who made the earth into a bedding for you, and made roads on it for you so that you may be guided." Utilising the natural paths and passes of the landscape, man is able to guide himself in his travels. Commentators have also interpreted the verse to mean that man is able to perceive Allāh's greatness and grandeur by observing and pondering over the marvellous creation of the earth.

Allāh further says that it is He "Who sends rain from the sky in measure. With this rain We revive dead ground (causing it to flourish with vegetation). In this manner will you all be resurrected." Just as Allāh is Able to revive arid and barren ground, He is perfectly Capable of raising dead bodies on the Day of Judgment.

Furthermore, it is Allāh "Who created all pairs and made ships and animals, which you ride." All man has to do to ride an animal is to mount the animal and nudge it with his heel. Allāh has also taught man to make saddles and carriages, which are mounted on the backs of riding animals so that man can be seated comfortably during his travels.

THE SUPPLICATION FOR TRAVELLING

Allāh has created these animals for man's convenience so "That you may be seated on their backs, then recall the bounty of your Lord when you mount..." With his heart and tongue, man should remember Allāh's bounty when riding these animals. Allāh Himself teaches man the supplication to recite when recalling this great favour of His. Allāh advises man to say, "Pure is Allāh, Who has subjugated this for us whereas we would never have been able to control it. And our return shall certainly be to our Lord." In this supplication, man expresses his gratitude to Allāh for placing a mighty animal (or machine) at his service. It is therefore necessary that man use this bounty in a manner that is pleasing to Allāh. His attention is also drawn to the fact that he will have to return to Allāh, when he will be required to account for the bounties he enjoyed.

Tirmidhi reports that a riding animal was once brought for Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه. As he placed his foot on the stirrup, he said, "Bismillāh". When he sat on the animal's back, he said, "Al'hamdu Lillāh". Thereafter he recited the verse:

[TRANSLATION: "Pure is Allāh, who has subjugated this for us whereas we would never have been able to control it. And our return shall certainly be to our Lord."]

He then recited "Al'hamdu Lillāh" thrice, followed by "Allāhu Akbar" thrice. Thereafter, he recited the Supplication/pray:

[TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! You are Pure. I have certainly oppressed my soul, so forgive me, for none but You can pardon sins."]

After reciting this, Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه looked towards the sky and smiled. When the people asked him for the reason for smiling, he replied, "The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did exactly as I have done. When I asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم why he smiled, he said that when a person asks Allāh for forgiveness, Allāh says, 'My servant knows that none can forgive sins besides Me.'" [Mishkāt" p. 214]

The above verse reminds man that if Allāh did not subjugate the animals for man, he would never have been able to derive benefit from them. Man truly appreciates this subjugation when he loses control of his animal.

وَجَعَلُوا لِمَنْ عِبَادِهِ جُزْءًا إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَكَفُورٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٥﴾ أَمْ أَخَذَ مِنْ مِمَّا يَخْلُقُ بَنَاتٍ وَأَصْفَنَ كُمْ بِالْبَنِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَإِذَا بُشِّرَ أَحَدُهُمْ بِمَا ضَرَبَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ مَثَلًا ظَلَّ وَجْهُهُ مُسْوَدًّا وَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ ﴿١٧﴾ أَوْ مَنْ يُنشِئُوا فِي الْحَلِيِّ وَهُوَ فِي الْخِصَامِ غَيْرُ مُبِينٍ ﴿١٨﴾ وَجَعَلُوا الْمَلَائِكَةَ الَّذِينَ هُمْ عِبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ إِنثًا أَشْهَدُوا خَلْقَهُمْ سَتُكُنَّبَ شُهُودُهُمْ وَيُسْأَلُونَ ﴿١٩﴾

(15) They have apportioned a share for Allāh from His bondsmen. Man is clearly ungrateful. (16) Or has Allāh chosen daughters from His creation and selected you to have sons? (17) When any of them is given the tidings of that which they ascribe to Rahmān, his face darkens as he suppresses his emotions. (18) (Do they ascribe to Allāh) one who is brought up in jewellery and who cannot make herself clear in disputes? (19) And the angels, who are Allāh's bondsmen, they make into females. Did they witness the creation of the angels? Their testimony will certainly be recorded and they will be questioned.

REFUTING THOSE WHO ASCRIBE CHILDREN TO ALLĀH, HIGHLIGHTING THE FOOLISHNESS OF THOSE WHO CLAIMED THAT THE ANGELS ARE ALLĀH'S DAUGHTERS

Many people believe that Allāh has children, a belief that is popular among the Christians. It is common knowledge that a child is a part of the father. Therefore, attributing a child to Allāh would mean that another being is a part of Allāh, which is impossible. Just as the Christians believe that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام is Allāh's son and the Jews believed that Sayyidina Uzair عليه السلام was Allāh's son, the belief was popular among the polytheists of Arabia that the angels were Allāh's daughters. Refuting these preposterous beliefs, Allāh declares, "They have apportioned a share for Allāh from His bondsmen. Man is clearly ungrateful." Instead of being grateful to Allāh for everything, people are audacious enough to say that He has children. This is a clear expression of ingratitude for the innumerable favours Allāh has bestowed on every person.

Thereafter, Allāh specifically addresses the polytheists who believed that the angels were Allāh's daughters. Allāh asks, "Or has Allāh chosen daughters from His creation and selected you to have sons?" While ascribing children to Allāh will be tantamount to ascribing a weakness to Him, it is even worse to ascribe daughters to Him, considering the fact that people regard daughters as a sign of weakness. Allāh says in Surah Najm, "This is certainly an unjust distribution." [Surah 53, verse 22]

Allāh then describes the extreme dislike that the Arabs had for daughters. Allāh says, "When any of them is given the tidings of that which they ascribe to Rahmān (daughters), his face darkens as he suppresses his emotions. (Do they ascribe to Allāh) one who is brought up in jewellery and who cannot make herself clear in disputes?"

Allāh asks, "Did they witness the creation of the angels (because of which they are able to testify that the angels are female)? Their testimony will certainly be recorded and they will be questioned." Everything they say will be included in the record of their deeds and, on the Day of Judgment, they will be required to prove the validity of their claims.

وَقَالُوا لَوْ شَاءَ الرَّحْمَنُ مَا عَبَدْنَاهُمْ مَّا لَهُمْ بِذَلِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ هُمْ إِلَّا يَخْرُصُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾
 ءَأَيْنَتْهُمْ كِتَابًا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ فَهُمْ بِهِ مُسْتَمْسِكُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ بَلْ قَالُوا إِنَّا وَجَدْنَا ءَابَاءَنَا
 عَلَىٰ أُمَّةٍ وَإِنَّا عَلَىٰ ءَاثَرِهِمْ مُهْتَدُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ مَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ فِي قَرْيَةٍ مِّنْ نَّذِيرٍ
 إِلَّا قَالَ مُتْرَفُوهَا إِنَّا وَجَدْنَا ءَابَاءَنَا عَلَىٰ أُمَّةٍ وَإِنَّا عَلَىٰ ءَاثَرِهِمْ مُّقْتَدُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ قُلْ
 أَوَلَوْ جِئْتُكُمْ بِأَهْدَىٰ مِمَّا وَجَدْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ ءَابَاءَكُمْ قَالُوا إِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾
 فَانْقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَاَنْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُكْذِبِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾

(20) They say, "If Allāh willed, we would not have worshipped them. They have absolutely no justification for this and only speculate. (21) Or have We given them a book before this, onto which they hold fast? (22) They say, "But we found our forefathers following a certain way, and we will be guided in their footsteps." (23) In a like manner, whenever We sent a warner to any town before you, the affluent people of the town said, "We found our forefathers following a certain way, and we will be guided in their footsteps." (24.) The Holy Prophet replied) Even though I have brought to you something that is better guidance than that upon which you found your forefathers?" They replied, "We certainly disbelieve what you bring to us." (25) So We exacted retribution from them. See what was the plight of those who deny!

REFUTING AN IGNORANT STATEMENT OF THE POLYTHEISTS

When the polytheists were advised to forsake polytheism because Allāh had forbidden it, they would insolently say, "If Allāh willed, we would not have worshipped them (our gods)." They used this argument to substantiate their vile practices, but have actually no grounds to do so. Allāh says, "They have absolutely no justification for this and only speculate."

In making this statement, the polytheists meant to say that if polytheism was truly detestable to Allāh, why does Allāh not forcefully stop them? Therefore, they assume that their actions must be pleasing to Allāh because He is allowing them to continue. The reply to this argument has passed in the commentary of the following verses:

"Soon those who commit polytheism will say, 'If Allāh willed, neither we, nor our forefathers would not have committed polytheism, and we would not have forbidden anything.'" In the same manner those before them had denied until they tasted Our punishment. Say, 'Have you any knowledge that you may disclose for us? You only follow conjecture and speculation.'" [Surah An'ām (6), verse 148]

"The idolaters say, 'If Allāh willed then neither we, nor our forefathers would have worshipped anything besides Him, and we would never have forbidden anything without Him.' Those before them behaved in the same manner. The responsibility of the messengers is only clear propagation." [Surah Nahl (16), verse 35]

It should be understood that Allāh has sent man to this world as a test to see whether he will be obedient or not. It is obvious that the test cannot be possible if people were forced to do what Allāh willed. A test would mean that they have to be given a choice to opt either for good or for evil. If Allāh had to force people to do something, it will be pointless to reward or punish them.

"Or have We given them a book before this (Qur'ān), onto which they hold fast?" Allāh did not reveal any divine scripture to the Arabs. They can therefore not prove their beliefs from any reliable source. The only thread they hang on to is the claim to be following their forefathers. Therefore, whenever they are told to forsake their ways, "They say, 'But we found our forefathers following a certain way, and we will be guided in their footsteps.'"

Allāh says to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that these types of arguments are nothing new because "In a like manner, whenever We sent a warner to any town before you, the affluent people of the town said, 'We found our forefathers following a certain way, and we will be guided in their foot steps.'"

This discussion has passed in the following verses:

"And when it is said to them, 'Follow that which Allāh has revealed,' they say, 'But we wish to follow that upon which we found our forefathers.' What! (Will they follow their forefathers) even though they understood but naught, neither were they rightly guided?" [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 170]

"When it is told to them, 'Come towards what Allāh has revealed and towards the messenger,' they say, 'What we found our forefathers practising is sufficient for us.' (Will they follow their forefathers) even though their forefathers never understood anything, nor were they rightly guided?" [Surah Mā'idah (5), verse 104]

"When it is said to them, 'Follow what Allāh has revealed,' they say, 'We will follow what we found our forefathers upon.' Will they follow their forefathers even though Satan called their forefathers to the punishment of the Blaze?" [Surah Luqmān (31), verse 21]

Allāh effectively replies to their argument by saying, "(Will they follow their forefathers) even though their forefathers never understood anything, nor were they rightly guided?" and "Will they follow their forefathers even though Satan called their forefathers to the punishment of the Blaze?" It is certainly incorrect to follow people who were themselves lost. As Allāh says in another verse, "Follow the path of the one who turns to Me."

When the nations of the past refuted the Prophets عليهم السلام because they wished to follow their forefathers, each of the Prophet عليه السلام said his nation, "(Will you choose to follow your forefathers) Even though I have brought to you something that is better guidance than that upon which you found your forefathers?" However, these people arrogantly replied, "We certainly disbelieve what you bring to us."

Allāh then says that as a result of their insolence, "We exacted retribution from them (by destroying them with punishment). See what was the plight of those who deny!"

وَإِذْ قَالَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ إِنَّنِي بَرَاءٌ مِمَّا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِي فَطَرَنِي فَإِنَّهُ سَيَهْدِينِ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَجَعَلَهَا كَلِمَةً بَاقِيَةً فِي عَقْبِهِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ بَلْ مَتَّعْتُ هَؤُلَاءَ وَآبَاءَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ وَرَسُولٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ قَالُوا هَذَا سِحْرٌ وَإِنَّا بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾

(26) When Ibrahīm said to his father and to his people, "I exonerate myself from what you people worship..." (27) "Except for the One Who has created me. Undoubtedly, He shall guide me." (28) So he left a lasting word among his progeny so that they may abstain. (29) I have given enjoyment to these people and their forefathers until there came to them the truth and a messenger who expounds (matters) clearly. (30) When the truth came to them they said, "This is magic and we certainly reject it."

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام REJECTS POLYTHEISM AND THE MESSAGE OF TRUTH PREVAILS AMONG HIS PROGENY

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام was born among a community of polytheists in Babylon, who worshipped idols as well as the stars. Even his own father was a polytheist. When, despite his efforts, they refused to accept the belief of oneness of Allāh, he declared, "I exonerate myself from what you people worship, save for the One Who has created me. Undoubtedly, He shall guide me." Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام declared that he will never worship anyone besides Allāh, his Creator. In this statement he alluded that the people are all foolish not to worship the Being Who created them as well.

Saying this, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام left for Palestine with his wife. The commentary of verses 51 to 70 of Surah Anbiya contains the details of his journey and how he got another wife en route. It was from these two wives that he fathered two sons, Sayyidina Is'hāq عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isma'īl عليه السلام. It is with regard to the progeny from these two sons that Allāh says, "So he left a lasting word among his progeny so that they may desist (from polytheism)."

The "lasting word" in the verse refers to the belief in monotheism and exoneration from polytheism, which is also referred to in verses 132 and 133 of Surah Baqarah where Allāh says, "Ibrahīm and Ya'qūb enjoined their sons therewith

[i.e. to follow the creed of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام] saying, 'O my sons! Verily Allāh has chosen this religion for you, so die only as Muslims.' Or were you present when death presented itself before Ya'qūb? When he asked his sons, 'What will you worship after me?' They replied, 'We will worship your Deity and the Deity of your forefathers Ibrahim, Isma'il and Is'hāq Who is One Deity. We submit to Him only.'

The Quraysh were descendants of Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام yet they succumbed to polytheism. It was only after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preached to them that they eventually forsook polytheism and whole heartedly took to the pure belief of oneness of Allāh.

Thereafter, Allāh says, "I have given enjoyment to these people and their forefathers until there came to them the truth and a messenger [Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] who expounds (matters) clearly." Allāh says that the apparent reason for the denial of the Quraysh was that they were too engrossed in their worldly riches. As a result of this, "When the truth came to them they said, 'This is magic and we certainly reject it.'"

وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنُ عَلَى رَجُلٍ مِّنَ الْقَرْيَتَيْنِ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٣١﴾ أَهَمْ يَقْسِمُونَ رَحْمَتَ رَبِّكَ نَحْنُ قَسَمْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ مَّعِيشَتَهُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَرَفَعْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ دَرَجَاتٍ لِّيَتَّخِذَ بَعْضُهُم بَعْضًا سُلْحِيًّا وَرَحِمْتُ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا يَجْمَعُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَلَوْلَا أَن يَكُونَ النَّاسُ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً لَّجَعَلْنَا لِمَن يَكْفُرُ بِالرَّحْمَنِ لِيُثْبِتَ سُلْطَانًا مِّن فِضَّةٍ وَمَعَارِجَ عَلَيْهَا يَظْهَرُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَلِيُثْبِتَ أَيْوَابًا وَسُرُورًا عَلَيْهَا يُتَكَوَّنُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ وَزُخْرُفًا وَإِن كُلُّ ذَلِكَ لَمَّا مَتَّعَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةُ عِندَ رَبِّكَ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٣٥﴾

(31) They say, "Why is this Qur'ān not revealed to a prominent man from one of the two cities?" (32) Do they distribute the mercy of your Lord? We distribute their livelihood among them in this worldly life and elevate the ranks of some of them above others so that they may derive benefit from each other. The mercy of your Lord is better than what they amass. (33) If it were not (for fear) of mankind becoming a single nation (of disbelievers), We would have made roofs of silver for the homes of those who disbelieve in Rahmān, as well as staircases which they can climb. (34) And (We would have made) doors (of silver) for their homes, and couches on which they may recline. (35) And (We would have made these of) gold as well. This is all merely the articles of this worldly life. The Hereafter with your Lord is for those with Piety.

THE POLYTHEISTS WANTED THE PROPHET TO BE FROM AMONG THE AFFLUENT MEN OF MAKKAH OR TĀ'IF

People generally regard the wealthy as being prominent, irrespective of the fact that they may be tyrants, extortionists, usurers or thieves. If one has to question the people of any town about whom they regard as the most prominent person, they will always point to someone who is among the affluent. None will point to a pious man or a person with Islāmīc knowledge. This is generally the mentality of people, which is common throughout the ages. Although friend and foe bore testimony to the noble character and personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the polytheists objected to his Prophet hood on the grounds of his financial status.

Consequently, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preached to them, the polytheists said, "Why is this Qur'ān not revealed to a prominent man from one of the two cities (Makkah or Tā'if)?" The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" writes that the polytheists referred to Walid bin Mughiera from Makkah and Urwa bin Mas'ūd Thaqaifi from Tā'if. Both these men were prominent in worldly terms.

Refuting this statement, Allāh says, "Do they distribute the mercy of your Lord?" i.e. What right have they to stipulate who should be a Prophet? What authority over appointment of Prophets عليهم السلام do they have? The right to appoint Prophets عليهم السلام rests exclusively with Allāh. Allāh will appoint whoever He wills as Prophets عليهم السلام, and Allāh does not use worldly wealth and position as criteria. Allāh declares in Surah An'am, "Allāh best knows where (with whom) He wishes to place His message" [Surah 6, verse 124]

Allāh states further, "We distribute their livelihood among them in this worldly life and elevate the ranks of some of them above others so that they may derive benefit from each other." If everyone was to be wealthy, none will need to work and serve another. As a result, the system of the world would collapse. Since some people are wealthy and others are not, the poor depend on the wealthy for employment, while the rich rely just as much on the poor to have their work done. Therefore, the distribution of sustenance is Allāh's choice. If Allāh did not entrust this responsibility to man, how could He entrust the appointment of the Holy Prophet s (which is a much greater task) to man?

"The mercy of your Lord is better than what they amass." This verse makes it clear that Allāh's mercy, which assumes the form of Heaven and its bounties, is much better than all the wealth that people amass in the world.

Allāh then describes the deplorable nature of the world by stating that He can easily shower the beauties of the world onto people whom He detests (the disbelievers). Allāh says, "If it were not (for fear) of mankind becoming a single nation (of disbelievers), We would have made roofs of silver (or gold) for the homes of those who disbelieve in Rahmān, as well as staircases which they can climb. And (We would have made) doors (of silver and gold) for their homes, and couches on which they may recline. And (We would have made these of) gold as well." Since man's nature attracts him to the material things of this world, people would become disbelievers so that they can also stand a chance of attaining material gain. It is because of this that Allāh does not grant all the wealth to the disbelievers, but also confers a large portion to the Muslims. At the same time, Allāh also makes many disbelievers poor.

The fact is that Allāh despises this world and all its contents. Sayyidina Jābir عنه رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once passing by the carcass of a lamb, the ears of which were also cut. Pointing towards the carcass, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم if any of them was prepared to purchase the decaying carcass for the price of one Dirham. The Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم indicated that they were not even prepared to take it for free. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told them, "By Allāh! Allāh despises the entire world more than you people despise this dead lamb." [Muslim] Sayyidina Sahl bin Sa'd رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If the world was even worth the value of a mosquito's wing to Allāh, He would never have granted a disbeliever even a sip of water to drink." This means that if the world had even as much value as the wing of a mosquito, it would be too valuable to give even a small portion of it (a sip of water) to a person who rejects his Creator. It is common knowledge that Allāh has given the disbelievers much more than a mere sip of water, which means that the world is much more worthless than a mosquito's wing.

Sayyidina Shaddād رضى الله عنه reports that he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "O people! Without doubt, this world is a mere article in front of every person, from which good and evil people eat. Indeed, the promise of the Hereafter is a reality, where that King will pass judgement, Who is Just and Omnipotent. He will establish the Truth and obliterate falsehood. Become the sons of the Hereafter and not the sons of this world because the children of every mother run behind her." ["Mishkāt" p. 445]

After making mention of the adornments of the world, Allāh declares, "This is all merely the (abased and short-lived) articles of this worldly life. The Hereafter with your Lord is for those with Piety." Those who adopt Piety will enjoy the everlasting bounties of the Hereafter.

وَمَنْ يَعِشْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ الرَّحْمَنِ نُفِصَ لَهُ شَيْطَانًا فَهُوَ لَهُ قَرِينٌ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَيَصُدُّونَهُمْ
عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَيَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ مُهْتَدُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَنَا قَالَ يَلَيْتَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكَ
بَعْدَ الْمَشْرِقَيْنِ فَيَلْسَنَ الْقَرِينُ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَلَنْ يَنْفَعَكُمُ الْيَوْمَ إِذْ ظَلَمْتُمْ أَتَكُمُ فِي
الْعَذَابِ مُشْتَرِكُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ أَفَأَنْتَ تَسْمِعُ الصُّمَّ أَوْ تَهْدِي الْعُمْى وَمَنْ كَانَ فِي ضَلَالٍ
مُبِينٍ ﴿٤٠﴾ فَإِنَّمَا نَذْهَبَنَّ بِكَ فَإِنَّا مِنْهُمْ مُنْقِمُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ أَوْ نُرِيَّتَكَ الَّذِي وَعَدْتَهُمْ
فَإِنَّا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّقْتَدِرُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ فَاسْتَمْسِكْ بِالَّذِي أُوحِيَ إِلَيْكَ إِنَّكَ عَلَىٰ صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٤٣﴾
وَإِنَّمَا لَذِكْرُ لَكَ وَلِقَوْمِكَ وَسَوْفَ تُسْأَلُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَتَسْأَلُ مَنْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْ رُسُلِنَا
أَجَعَلْنَا مِنْ دُونِ الرَّحْمَنِ إِلَهًا يُعْبَدُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾

(36) We shall appoint a Satan to every person who turns a blind eye to Rahmān's advice, who will be his companion. (37) Indeed, they will forbid people from the path, while the people think that they are rightly guided. (38) Until, when the time arrives when they come to Us and say, "O dear! If only there was the distance of the East and West between yourself and Me.' A terrible companion you were indeed!" (39) "Since you were oppressive people, the fact that you all share the punishment shall be of no benefit to you. (40) Can you make the deaf hear, guide the blind and those who are in manifest deviation? (41) If We have to take you away, We shall still exact retribution from them. (42) Otherwise, We can show you what We have promised them, for We certainly have control over them. (43) So hold fast to the revelation We have sent to you. You are definitely upon the straight path. (44) This is certainly a Reminder to you and to your people. Soon, they shall be questioned. (45) Inquire from those messengers of Ours whom We have sent before you. Besides Rahmān, have We introduced another deity who can be worshipped?

A SATAN IS APPOINTED TO EVERY PERSON WHO TURNS A BLIND EYE TO ALLĀH'S ADVICE, WHO WILL BE USELESS TO HIM ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

The Arabic word "ya'shu" (translated above as "turns a blind eye") refers to a condition when a person cannot see despite not suffering from any ailment. The verse therefore refers to people whom the Qur'ān has reached, and who have even understood the Qur'ān. However, they behave obstinately and refuse to accept it as the truth. At this stage, Allāh delegates a Satan to be their constant companion who instigates them to reject the truth. While they are constantly being misled, these people are under the impression that they are rightly guided.

The Satan referred to in this verse is not the same Satan that is mentioned in the hadith where the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Every one of you has a companion from among the angels and a companion from among the Satans." [Muslim]

Although the person and the Satan were closely attached to each other in the world, the person will curse the Satan on the Day of Judgment, saying, "O dear! If only there was the distance of the East and West between yourself and Me! A terrible companion you were indeed (because you made evil seem good to me, causing me to sin)!"

A verse of Surah HāMim Sajdah reads, "We have delegated companions for them, who beautify for them whatever is before them and whatever is behind them." [Surah 41, verse 25]

Allāh says further that the people of Hell will be told, "Since you people were oppressive, the fact that you all share the punishment shall be of no benefit to you." When a person suffers any adversity or punishment in this world, he is consoled by the knowledge that he is not suffering alone. If there are others suffering the same plight, the intensity of the hardship is considerably reduced. However, even though many people will be suffering in Hell, this knowledge will have no impact upon the individual suffering of each person. This is so because of the severity of Hell.

Despite realising that Islām is the true religion, there are many people who are under the misconception that should they ever suffer punishment, the punishment will not be so intense because there are millions of others who will join them there. Besides being mistaken, these people are also extremely foolish to subject themselves to eternal punishment in the feeble hope that the suffering of others will reduce their own suffering.

There are many so-called Muslims who when reminded of fulfilling the Farā'idh (obligations) and abstaining from sin, say, "Who else is following the Shari'ah that we follow?" By presenting this foolish reply, these people feel good about including themselves among the sinners. What reply will they have to offer Allāh on the Day of Judgment when they stand in the file of the sinners and face punishment? Will they then be able to say that it matters not because there are thousands of others who will face their plight?

"Can you make the deaf hear, guide the blind and those who are in manifest deviation?" This verse tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he will be unable to guide people who obstinately refuse to lend an ear or who turn a blind eye and choose rather to adhere to their erroneous ways. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم task was only to propagate the message to people, irrespective of whether they listen or not. He was not charged with forcing them to believe.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "If We have to take you away (from this world or from Makkah, the disbelievers will not be able to escape Our punishment because), We shall still exact retribution from them. Otherwise (if We do not take you away), We can (still) show you what (punishment) We have promised them, for We certainly have control over them." Certain commentators have mentioned that the "retribution" mentioned in the verse refers to the loss of 70 polytheists lives in the Battle of Badr, as well as others 70 being taken captive.

"So hold fast to the revelation (Qur'ān) We have sent to you. You are definitely upon the straight path." This verse tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should forge ahead with propagation even though the disbelievers refuse to respond.

"This (Qur'ān) is certainly a Reminder to you and to your people." Allāh is the King of all kings and the Owner of all kingdoms. It is therefore a great honour for a person to be addressed by Allāh. Through the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh addresses the Ummah (followers) as well, which is an honour for them also. It is also an honour for the Arabs that Allāh revealed the Qur'ān in their language. While many did not appreciate this bounty, there were those chosen people who did.

Today, every chain of Qur'ānic recitation trails back to the Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم. It is by virtue of the Qur'ān that the Arabic language received importance in the world. To teach the meaning and interpretations of the Qur'ān, volumes have been written about the Arabic language and Arabic rhetoric. The Qur'ān elevated the rank of the Arabs themselves who were downtrodden before the advent of Islām. Before Islām, the Persians ruled Yemen, the Romans ruled Shām (north and north-west Arabia), while the Jews ruled over Madinah. The Arabs had therefore little authority over their region.

"...and to your people." Some commentators have mentioned that this phrase refers to the Quraysh because the Qur'ān was revealed in their dialect. Other commentators are of the opinion that it refers to all the Arabic-speaking people. These two interpretations will apply when the word "Dhikr" (translated above as "a Reminder") is translated as "an honour" or "a pride". However, if the word is translated as "a Reminder" or "an Advice", then "your people" will refer to all believers.

"Soon, they shall be questioned." They will be asked whether they fulfilled the rights of the Qur'an, whether they practised its injunctions, and whether they appreciated it.

Allāh says thereafter, "Inquire from those messengers of Ours whom We have sent before you." Although the verse seems to be addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it is actually addressed to the Jews, Christians and the polytheists. They are exhorted to pose a question to the former Prophets عليهم السلام. The question is: "Besides Rahmān, have We introduced another deity who can be worshipped?" The reply to this question, which may be sought in the scriptures of the Torah and Injil, will make it clear that none of the Prophets عليهم السلام ever taught polytheism to his people. Many commentators state that the verse poses this question to those religious scholars who study the Torah and Injil (Bible).

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِۦ فَقَالَ إِنِّي رَسُولُ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بِآيَاتِنَا إِذَا هُمْ مِنْهَا يَضْحَكُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَمَا نُرِيهِمْ مِنْ آيَةٍ إِلَّا هِيَ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ أُخْتِهَا وَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ بِالْعَذَابِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَقَالُوا يَتَّبِعُهُ السَّاحِرُ أَدْعُ لَنَا رَبَّكَ بِمَا عَاهَدَ عِنْدَكَ إِنَّا لَمُهْتَدُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَلَمَّا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُمْ الْعَذَابَ إِذَا هُمْ يَنْكُثُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَنَادَىٰ فِرْعَوْنُ فِي قَوْمِهِۦ قَالَ يَتَقَوَّمُ أَلَيْسَ لِي مُلْكُ مِصْرَ وَهَذِهِ الْأَنْهَارُ تَجْرَىٰ مِنْ تَحْتِي أَفَلَا تُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ أَمْ أَنَا خَيْرٌ مِّنْ هَٰذَا الَّذِي هُوَ مِثْلُ وَلَا يَكَادُ يُبِينُ ﴿٥٢﴾ فَلَوْلَا أُلْقِيَ عَلَيْهِ أَسُورَةٌ مِّنْ ذَهَبٍ أَوْ جَاءَ مَعَهُ الْمَلَأِكَةُ مُقَرَّرِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ فَاسْتَخَفَّ قَوْمَهُۥ فَأَطَاعُوهُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَتْسِقِينَ ﴿٥٤﴾ فَلَمَّا ءَاسَفُونَا انْتَقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَأَغْرَقْنَاهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ سَلَفًا وَمَثَلًا لِّلْآخِرِينَ ﴿٥٦﴾

(46) Undoubtedly, We sent Mūsa with Our signs to Phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his ministers. He said, "I am the messenger of the Lord of the universe. (47) When he came to them with Our signs, they began to laugh at them. (48) Every sign We showed them was greater than the other. We afflicted them with punishment so that they turn back. (49) They said, "O magician! On our behalf, supplicate to your Lord for the covenant He has made with you. Then we will surely be rightly guided." (50) When We removed the punishment from them, they instantly broke their promise. (51) Phara'oh (Fir'aun) called his people saying, "Does not the land of Egypt and these rivers flowing beneath me belong to me? Do you not see?" (52) "Am I not better than this person who is ignoble and can hardly express himself?" (53) "Why are bangles of gold not thrown to him, or why do angels not appear in successive groups with him?" (54) So Phara'oh (Fir'aun) made fools of his people and they followed him. They were a sinful nation indeed. (55) When they infuriated Us We exacted retribution from them and drowned them all. (56) Thus We made them forebears and an example for those to come after them.

PHARA'OH (FIR'AUN) AND HIS MINISTERS SCOFF AT SAYYIDINA MŪSA عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام WHEN HE SHOWS THEM THE MIRACLES

When Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام cast his staff down and it became a serpent, Phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his chieftains laughed, saying that it was not a miracle but an act of magic. They then arranged a contest between Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and the magicians of the country. The magicians were first to cast down their staffs and strings, thereby mesmerising the people into believing that these had become snakes. When Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام cast down his staff, the serpent it turned into devoured the snakes of the magicians. The magicians conceded defeat and submitted to Sayyidina Mūsa's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام religion. The details of this incident have been given in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 109-126], Surah TāHā [Surah 20, verses 57-73] and Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 33-51].

The magicians could not compete with Sayyidina Mūsa's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام miracle of the shining hand because it was beyond their capabilities. Besides these two miracles, there were numerous others, which served as punishment for phara'oh (Fir'aun) and the Egyptians. Reference to this is made in Surah A'rāf, where Allāh says, "So We sent to them the flood, the locusts, the ticks, the frogs and the blood as detailed signs. But they were an arrogant and sinful nation." [Surah 7, verse 133]

Allāh says, "Every sign (punishment) We showed them was greater (more potent) than the other. We afflicted them with punishment so that they turn back." When Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام told them that the miracles were a punishment for them, they even scoffed at this, saying that they still deem them to be acts of magic. He also told them that the punishment could be alleviated if they accepted his teachings. However, despite realising that they will be saved by his intercession, they still called him a wizard saying, "O magician! On our behalf supplicate to your Lord for the covenant He has made with you. Then we will surely be rightly guided (and accept your creed. However,) When We removed the punishment from them, they instantly broke their promise." Whenever a punishment was alleviated, they still adhered to their former ways of rejection.

Fearing that he might lose his kingdom to Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, "Phara'oh (Fir'aun) called his people saying, 'Does not the land of Egypt and these rivers flowing beneath me belong to me? Do you not see? Am I not better than this person who is ignoble and can hardly express himself?'" In this manner, he expressed his material superiority over Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. He told his people that Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was a poor man who belonged to a nation who were their slaves. Indoctrinated by phara'oh (Fir'aun), the people also said, "Should we believe in two humans like ourselves whereas their people are our slaves?" It was with reference to the stutter that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام had that phara'oh (Fir'aun) said that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام "can hardly express himself?"

Another objection that phara'oh (Fir'aun) raised was: "Why are bangles of gold not thrown to him, or why do angels not appear in successive groups with him?" i.e. If he is a true Prophet of Allāh, why does he not have wealth or an army of angels to support him? The people of every nation look up to their chieftains and ape whatever their chieftains do. The chieftains during the time of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام agreed to everything that phara'oh (Fir'aun) told them. Eventually solidarity was achieved when the chieftains indoctrinated the masses with the same ideas.

Allāh says, "So phara'oh (Fir'aun) made fools of his people and they followed him. They were a sinful nation indeed."

"When they infuriated Us (by denying Our messengers and signs) We exacted retribution from them and drowned them all. Thus, We made them forebears and an example for those to come after them." The people coming after them were to learn a lesson from the behaviour of their forebears and not tread in their misguided footsteps.

وَلَمَّا ضَرَبَ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ مَثَلًا إِذَا قَوْمُكَ مِنْهُ يَصِدُّونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَقَالُوا ءِأَلَهْتُمُنَا خَيْرٌ أَمْ هُوَ مَا ضَرَبُوهُ لَكَ إِلَّا جَدَلًا بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ خَصِمُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا عَبْدٌ أَنْعَمْنَا عَلَيْهِ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ مَثَلًا لِبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿٥٩﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَجَعَلْنَا مِنْكُمْ مَلَائِكَةً فِي الْأَرْضِ يَخْلَفُونَ ﴿٦٠﴾ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَعِلْمٌ لِّلْسَاعَةِ فَلَا تَمْتَرُ بِهَا وَاتَّبِعُونَ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٦١﴾ وَلَا يَصُدَّنَّكُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ إِنَّهُمْ لَكُفْرٌ عَدُوٌّ مُبِينٌ ﴿٦٢﴾ وَلَمَّا جَاءَ عِيسَى بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ قَالَ قَدْ حُشِّنْتُكُمْ بِالْحِكْمَةِ وَلَآئِبِينَ لَكُمْ بَعْضُ الَّذِي تَخْلِفُونَ فِيهِ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا ﴿٦٣﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ رَبِّي وَرَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوهُ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٦٤﴾ فَاخْتَلَفَ الْأَحْزَابُ مِنْ بَيْنِهِمْ فَوَيْلٌ لِّلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْ عَذَابِ يَوْمِ إِلِيمٍ ﴿٦٥﴾ هَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا السَّاعَةَ أَن تَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾

(57) When the peculiar example of the son of Maryam is cited your people suddenly start shouting. (58) They say, "Are our gods better or he?" They say this to you only to dispute, for they are a people given to arguing. (59) He [Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام] is but a slave upon whom We have bestowed Our bounties, and whom We have made an example for the Bani Isrā'īl. (60) If We will, We could have created angels among you on earth, who would appear in succession. (61) And he will certainly be a sign of Judgment day, so never doubt it, and follow me. This is the straight path. (62) Never let Satan stop you, for he is certainly your open enemy. (63) When Isā عليه السلام came with the clear signs, he said, "I have come to you with wisdom and to make clear to you the matters about which you differ. So fear Allāh and follow me." (64) "Allāh is definitely my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him only. This is the straight path." (65) However the parties differed between themselves. May the oppressors suffer the destruction of a painful day's punishment! (66) They are waiting only for Judgment day to come to them suddenly without them realising.

REFUTING THE FOOLISH STATEMENT OF THE QURAYSH AND AN INTRODUCTION TO SAYYIDINA ISĀ عليه السلام

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله reports that the Quraysh once told Abdullāh bin Zab'ari (who was then not yet a Muslim) that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recites the verse: "You and whatever you worship besides Allāh will be the fuel of Hell." Upon hearing this, Abdullāh bin Zab'ari said, "If I was present, I would have refuted this." When the Quraysh asked for an explanation, he replied, "I say that the Christians worship Masih [Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام] and the Jews worship Uzair عليه السلام. So will these two persons also be fuel for Hell?" The Quraysh became jubilant over this reply and they started shouting. The reply to this objection has passed in Surah Anbiya, where Allāh says, 'indeed those for whom We have ordained the best, these shall be kept far from Hell. They will not even hear its whisper.' [Surah 21, verses 101/2]

Another narration states that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told the Quraysh, "There is no good in anything that is worshipped besides Allāh." The Quraysh retorted, "Did you not say that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was Allāh's messenger and a pious man? According to what you have said, he also deserves to go to Hell because some people worship him." They also said, "If all gods besides Allāh are destined for Hell, we are happy that our gods will be with Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, Uzair عليه السلام and the angels." (So that they could also share in the bounties that these two Prophets عليهم السلام would receive).

The only intention of the polytheists was to wrangle and dispute. They had no concern for recognising the truth. Otherwise, anyone will understand that Allāh's chosen servants cannot be made to suffer punishment because of the polytheism that others commit. In the light of the above, it will now be easy to understand the verses in context. Allāh says, "When the peculiar example of the son of Maryam is cited your people suddenly start shouting." i.e. When it is said that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام will be with the idols of the polytheists, they shout with joy and say, 'Are our gods better or he [Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام]?'"

By asking this question, they implied that since Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام is Allāh's chosen servant and will be honoured in the Hereafter, their gods also deserve the same because they are worshipped like Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام is. Allāh says further, "They say this to you only to dispute, for they are a people given to arguing." They are such that they will always dispute with the truth.

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "People who go astray after guidance has come to them are a people given to arguing." Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse, "They say this to you only to dispute, for they are a people given to arguing." [Tirmidhi]

"He [Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام] is but a slave upon whom We have bestowed Our bounties..." Allāh blessed Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام with the great bounty of Prophet hood. No Prophet of Allāh ever called people to worship him or any other being besides Allāh. It is because of people's own foolishness that they succumb to the practices of polytheism. It will therefore be inappropriate for Allāh's pious servants to suffer punishment because of the polytheism that people commit. Those who perpetrate the vile act of polytheism will be punished for their sin. They will burn in Hell along with their idols.

Speaking further about Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, Allāh says, "whom We have made an example for the Bani Isrā' il." Allāh showed the Bani Isrā' il that He has the power to create a child without the agency of a father.

"If We will, We could have created angels among you on earth, who would appear in succession." The first interpretation of this verse is literal meaning that Allāh could well create angels on earth, who would live and die like ordinary human beings. Another interpretation is that Allāh could have settled angels on earth. Wherever they may be, Allāh's creation will remain His creation and can never be considered worthy of worship. The fact that the angels live in the heavens does not qualify them to be gods, neither can they be called Allāh's daughters.

The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v.4 p. 143) has interpreted the verse to mean that Allāh can easily destroy man and replace him with angels as vicegerents on earth. Unlike man, these angels will devote themselves to Allāh's worship.

"And he will certainly be a sign of Judgment day....." The following three interpretations of this verse have been mentioned:

- 📖 "he" refers to Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, whose return to this world from the heavens will be sign to indicate that Judgment day is very close.
- 📖 "he" may be interpreted as "it", which will refer to the Qur'ān. Therefore, the revelation of the Qur'ān is itself a sign to indicate that Judgment day is near. Holding up his index and middle fingers, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that Judgment day and he were as close as these two fingers.
- 📖 "he" may be interpreted as "it", which will refer to the miracles of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. The people who saw Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام raising the dead from their graves could easily be convinced of resurrection on the Day of Judgment.

Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell the people, "so never doubt it (Judgment day), and follow me. This is the straight path. Never let Satan stop you, for he is certainly your open enemy."

"When Isā came with the clear signs, he said, 'I have come to you with wisdom (Prophet hood and the Injil) and to make clear to you the matters about which you differ.” Part of his message entailed clarifying the injunctions of religion and setting right the contamination that the Bani Isrā’īl had introduced into the Torah. [“Ruhul Ma’āni”]

Addressing the Bani Isrā’īl further, Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام said, “So fear Allāh and follow me. Allāh is definitely my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him only. This is the straight path.” Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام performed the amazing miracles of raising the dead and blowing life into birds modelled from clay. Since such extraordinary feats could mislead the Christians into regarding him as Allāh, Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام clarified that Allāh is his Lord as well.

“However the parties differed between themselves.” The Christians fragmented into many denominations. While some of them regarded Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام as Allāh Himself, others believe that he is Allāh’s son. There are also those who believe in Trinity, and consider Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام to be one of three inseparable deities. Those Christians who do not subscribe to any of these three beliefs are also guilty of disbelief because they deny the Prophet hood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Of course, there will always be those from among them whom Allāh guides to Islām, like Najāshi the king of Abyssinia.

Allāh continues, ‘May the oppressors suffer the destruction of a painful day’s punishment! They are waiting only for Judgment day to come to them suddenly without them realising.’ Certain commentators have mentioned that the pronoun “They” refers to those Christians who split into various denominations after Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was raised to the heavens. They adamantly denied the truth despite recognising it as such. This behaviour resembles that if a person who is prepared to believe in Judgment day only when he sees it happen before him. Of course, it will then be too late.

Other commentators have mentioned that the word “They” refers to the Quraysh of Makkah who denied the occurrence of Judgment day. Because they do not believe it, they would not even realise that Judgment day is taking place when it does. The author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” writes that the verse depicts the foolishness of the polytheists, who are of the opinion that Judgment day will be good for them. However, when Judgment day does take place, they will have to face the harsh reality that it spells their destruction.

الْأَخْلَاءَ يَوْمَئِذٍ بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ إِلَّا الْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٦٧﴾ يَبْعَادُ لَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْكُمْ
الْيَوْمَ وَلَا أَنْتُمْ تَحْزَنُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَكَانُوا مُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٦٩﴾ ادْخُلُوا
الْجَنَّةَ أَنْتُمْ وَأَزْوَاجُكُمْ تُحْبَرُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ يُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِصِحَافٍ مِّنْ ذَهَبٍ وَأَكْوَابٍ
وَفِيهَا مَا شَتَّهِهِ الْأَنْفُسُ وَلَذَّ الْأَعْيُنُ وَأَنْتُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ وَتِلْكَ
الْجَنَّةُ الَّتِي أُورِثْتُمُوهَا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ لَكُمْ فِيهَا فَاكِهَةٌ كَثِيرَةٌ مِّنْهَا
تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾

(67) Friends will be enemies on that day, except for those with Piety. (68) "O My bondsmen! You shall have no fear today, neither will you grieve." (69) Those who believe in Our verses and were obedient." (70) "You and your spouses should enter into Heaven jubilantly." (71) Bowls and cups of gold will be passed around and in Heaven there shall be whatever the heart desires and whatever pleases the eye. You will abide there forever." (72) This is Heaven, which you have been made to inherit because of the deeds you carried out. (73) And you will have an abundance of fruit to eat in Heaven.

FRIENDS WILL BE ENEMIES ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT AND THE RIGHTEOUS WILL HAVE EVERYTHING THAT PLEASES THEM IN HEAVEN

Describing the terror of the Day of Judgment, Allāh says, "Friends will be enemies on that day, except for those with Piety." As mentioned in many previous verses, people on the Day of Judgment will curse their companions for leading them astray and for not allowing them to accept Islām. However, those people who avoided polytheism will remain friends on the Day of Judgment, and they will even intercede on behalf of each other.

On the Day of Judgment, Allāh will declare His favour on the righteous believers saying, "O My bondsmen! You shall have no fear today, neither will you grieve..." Describing these bondsmen, Allāh says that they are "Those who believe in Our verses and were obedient." They will then be told, "You and your spouses should enter into Heaven jubilantly." Allāh then mentions one of the bounties that people will enjoy in Heaven when He says, "Bowls and cups of gold will be passed around..." Youthful servants will serve food and drinks to the people of Heaven.

Allāh then encapsulates all the bounties of Heaven when He says, in Heaven there shall be whatever the heart desires and whatever pleases the eye." Irrespective of how wealthy a person may be in this world, he can never have whatever he desires. There are still things that may be too expensive for him, or which he cannot purchase. Even if the item can be purchased, there are times when he will be unable to enjoy it because of various reasons - ill health being a major reason. Even if a person is in the process of realising his desires in this world, he may never live long enough to witness the culmination.

The above verse makes mention of gold utensils, while a verse of Surah Dahar also speaks about silver utensils. One cannot compare the gold and silver of Heaven to that of this world, which has to be purified and smelted. It is not permissible for Muslim men and women to eat or drink from utensils made of gold or silver.

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not eat or drink from utensils of gold and silver." He also said, "The person who eats or drinks from gold or silver utensils is filling his belly with the fire of Hell."

Sayyidina Hudhaifah رضى الله عنه reports that Muslims may not eat or drink from gold and silver utensils because these are meant for the disbelievers in this world and for the Muslims in the Hereafter. Allāh also says that Heaven will contain "whatever pleases the eye." This means that nothing in Heaven will be unpleasant to look at. Everything a person looks at will be source of pleasure for him. He will also not be prohibited from looking at anything there. The concept of an "evil glance" will be non-existent there. To crown it all, these pleasures will never end because the people of Heaven will be told, "You will abide there forever."

In commemoration of the good deeds people do, they will be told, "This is Heaven, which you have been made to inherit because of the deeds you carried out and you will have an abundance of fruit to eat in Heaven."

إِنَّ الْمُجْرِمِينَ فِي عَذَابٍ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدُونَ ﴿٧٤﴾ لَا يُفْتَرُ عَنْهُمْ وَهُمْ فِيهِ مُبْسُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾ وَمَا ظَلَمْنَاهُمْ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا هُمُ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٧٦﴾ وَنَادَوْا يَمْلِكُ لِيَقْضِ عَلَيْنَا رَبُّكَ قَالَ إِنَّكُمْ مَرْكُوتٌ ﴿٧٧﴾ لَقَدْ جِئْتَكُمْ بِالْحَقِّ وَلَكِنْ أَكْثَرَكُمْ لِلْحَقِّ كَارِهُونَ ﴿٧٨﴾ أَمْ أَبْرَمُوا أَمْرًا فَإِنَّا مُبْرِمُونَ ﴿٧٩﴾ أَمْ يَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّا لَا نَسْمَعُ سِرَّهُمْ وَنَجْوَاهُمْ بَلَىٰ وَرُسُلُنَا لَدَيْهِمْ يَكْتُبُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾

(74) Verily, the criminals shall suffer the punishment of Hell forever. (75) The punishment shall not be lessened for them, and they will lose all hope there. (76) We did not oppress them, but they were oppressors themselves. (77) They will call out, "O Mālik! Your Lord should settle our matter." He will reply, "You people will certainly have to remain (here)." (78) We definitely brought the truth to you, but most of you disliked the truth. (79) Or have they devised a resolute plot? Indeed, We are also plotting. (80) Or do they think that We do not hear their secrets and their stealthy meetings? Most certainly We do, and Our scribes are with them, writing.

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL SUFFER FOREVER IN HELL, WHERE THEIR PUNISHMENT WILL NOT BE LESSENED

After mentioning the bounties that the people of belief will enjoy, Allāh now begins to discuss the plight of the disbelievers. Allāh says, "Verily, the criminals shall suffer the punishment of Hell forever. The punishment shall not be lessened for them, and they will lose all hope (of salvation) there." Another interpretation of losing hope is that they will be in perpetual sorrow because of the severity of Hell.

"We never oppressed them, but they were oppressors themselves." When the truth came to them in the world, they refused to accept it, thereby drawing Allāh's punishment to themselves.

Thereafter, Allāh mentions the request that the people of Hell will make to the chief keeper of Hell, who is an angel called Mālik عليه السلام. "They will call out, 'O Mālik! Your Lord should settle our matter (by taking our lives so that we are saved from punishment).' He will reply, 'You people will certainly have to remain (here).'" i.e. you will have to remain here forever without emerging and without dying.

Sayyidina A'mash رحمه الله عليه says that he heard that the period of a thousand years will pass between the request of the people in Hell and the reply of the keeper [Sayyidina Mālik رحمه الله عليه].

Tirmidhi reports that the inmates of Hell will consult with each other to make a request before the keepers of Hell. They will ask, "Supplicate to your Lord to lessen a day of punishment for us." Thereupon the keepers will reply, "Did your messengers not come to you with clear signs?" The people will reply, "Certainly." The keepers will then say, "Then you supplicate. The supplication of the disbelievers is lost." [Surah Mu'min (40), verses 49 and 50]

The inmates of Hell will be told, "We definitely brought the truth to you, but most of you disliked the truth." It was this aversion for the truth that landed these people into Hell. The Quraysh of Makkah detested the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, and devised many plots to hinder the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In fact, they even plotted to assassinate him. Allāh says, "Or have they devised a resolute plot? Indeed, We are also plotting." Allāh says that the polytheists are foolish to think that they can harm the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم through their schemes. Allāh's protection was always with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, and therefore their plots could never succeed. Allāh says in Surah Tūr, "Or are they plotting something? Indeed those who disbelieve will themselves be ensnared in a plot." [Surah 52, verse 42]

Allāh says further, "Or do they think that We do not hear their secrets and their stealthy meetings? Most certainly We do, and Our scribes are with them, writing." No secret conspiracies are hidden from Allāh. He is Aware of everything that people do and say, and He will punish them accordingly.

قُلْ إِنْ كَانَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ وَلَدٌ فَأَنَا أَوَّلُ الْعَبِيدِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ سُبْحَنَ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ رَبِّ الْعَرْشِ عَمَّا يَصِفُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾ فَذَرَهُمْ يَخُوضُوا وَيَلْعَبُوا حَتَّى يُلَاقُوا يَوْمَهُمُ الَّذِي يُوْعَدُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي فِي السَّمَاءِ إِلَهٌُ وَفِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَهٌُ وَهُوَ الْحَكِيمُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٨٤﴾ وَتَبَارَكَ الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَعِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَلَا يَمْلِكُ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ الشَّفْعَةَ إِلَّا مَنْ شِئَ بِالْحَقِّ وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٦﴾ وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَهُمْ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ فَأَنَّى يُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿٨٧﴾ وَقِيلَ لَهُ يَرْبِ إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمٌ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾ فَاصْفَحْ عَنْهُمْ وَقُلْ سَلَامٌ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٩﴾

(81) Say, "If Rahmān had a son, then I would have been the first worshipper."

(82) The Lord of the heavens and the earth, the Lord of the Throne is Pure from whatever people associate with Him. (83) So leave them to engage in talks and to play until they encounter the day that they have been promised. (84) It is Allāh

Who is the Deity the heavens and the Deity on earth. He is the Wise, the All Knowing. (85) Blessed is that Being to Whom belongs the kingdom of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two. The knowledge of Judgment day is only with Him, and to Him shall you all be returned. (86) Those (gods) that they worship besides Allāh have no power to intercede, except for the one who attests to the truth and those who have knowledge. (87) If you have to ask them who created them, they will definitely say, "Allāh So where are they wandering astray? (88) And (Allāh knows) the statement of the Holy Prophet when he said, O my Lord! This is a nation who refuse to believe. (89) Ignore them and say, "Salām ". They will soon come to know.

ALLĀH'S GREAT QUALITIES AND EXEMPTION FROM POLYTHEISM

This Surah refers to the polytheists who called the angels Allāh's daughters and the Christians who called Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام Allāh's son. In the verse being discussed, Allāh refutes these beliefs by instructing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to say "If Rahmān had a son, then I would have been the first worshipper." However, since Allāh has no children, only He should be worshipped. Allāh's disassociation with all partners is then expressed in the verse: "The Lord of the heavens and the earth, the Lord of the Throne is Pure from whatever people associate with Him."

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "So leave them to engage in (their frivolous) talks and to play until they encounter the day that they have been promised." In fact, everything in this world is play and sport. Allāh says in Surah Hadid "Know that the life of this world is merely play, futility, decoration, boasting among each other and rivalry in wealth and children. The example of this is like rain, the plants of which amaze the farmers. Thereafter it dries and you will see it become yellow, only to be reduced to bits. In the Hereafter there shall be severe punishment, forgiveness and (Allāh's) pleasure. The life of this world is but a commodity of deception." The disbelievers and polytheists are so engrossed in the futile matters of this world that they completely forget about the Hereafter. According to various commentators, "the day that they have been promised" refers to:

📖 the day of their death,

📖 the Day of Judgment,

📖 the Battle of Badr.

"It is Allāh Who is the Deity in the heavens and the Deity on earth. He is the Wise, the All Knowing." No other being is worthy of worship and none possesses the qualities that Allāh possesses.

Allāh continues to say, "Blessed is that Being to Whom belongs the kingdom of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two. The knowledge of Judgement day is only with Him, and to Him shall you all be returned." Upon people's return to Allāh they will be justly rewarded or punished.

When the polytheists are censured for worshipping idols, they claim that they worship Allāh, but pray to the idols only so that the idols may intercede on their behalf before Allāh. This was only an excuse because lifeless objects cannot even speak, let alone intercede. Then too, only those who have permission from Allāh can intercede. Allāh has never commanded them to regard their gods as intercessors, neither has He ever appointed them as intercessors. Allāh's Prophets عليهم السلام preached oneness of Allāh and abstinence from polytheism. Worship of other gods as intercessors was never encouraged. However, the polytheists concocted their own beliefs to support their whims.

On the Day of Judgment, only those people permitted by Allāh will be able to intercede. With reference to this, Allāh says, "Those (gods) that they worship besides Allāh have no power to intercede, except for the one who attests to the truth and those who have knowledge (only they will be permitted to intercede)." Allāh says in Ayatul Kursi, "Who is there to intercede before Him without His permission?" Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "only the one with whom He is pleased will be able to intercede." [Surah 21, verse 28]

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" says that "the one who attests to the truth and those who have knowledge" also refers to the angels, Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and Sayyidina Uzair عليه السلام even though they were worshipped. However, they will not want to intercede on behalf of the disbelievers, neither will they ever be permitted to do so.

"If you have to ask them who created them, they will definitely say, 'Allāh'." Despite acknowledging the fact that Allāh is their Creator, the disbelievers still worship other beings. This clearly displays their foolishness. Therefore, Allāh asks, ج

"And (like Allāh has knowledge of Judgment, Allāh also knows) the statement of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he said, 'O my Lord! This is a nation who refuse to believe. - In response to this statement Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, 'ignore them (i.e. do not expect them to believe) and say, 'Salām'." This is not the "Salām" that one greets with, which is actually a supplication for the peace and safety of the person. It is rather a statement to denote parting, which tells the addressee that his company is not desired. Referring to the same type of "Salām", a verse of Surah Qasas reads:

"When they hear futility, they turn away from it saying, 'Our deeds are ours and your deeds are yours. We greet you with peace (Salām). We do not wish to converse with the ignorant.'" [Surah 28, verse 55]

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "They will soon come to know. - The disbelievers will learn the error of disbelief and polytheism when they are faced with Allāh's punishment in this world or in the Hereafter."

سورة الدخان

Makkan

Surah Ad-Dukhan

Verses 59

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

حَمِّ ۝۱ وَالْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ ۝۲ إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةٍ مُبَارَكَةٍ إِنَّا كُنَّا مُنذِرِينَ ۝۳
فِيهَا يُفْرَقُ كُلُّ أَمْرٍ حَكِيمٍ ۝۴ أَمْرًا مِنْ عِنْدِنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا مُرْسِلِينَ ۝۵ رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِنَّهُ
هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ۝۶ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِن كُنْتُمْ مُوقِنِينَ ۝۷
لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ رَبُّكُمْ وَرَبُّ آبَائِكُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝۸ بَلْ هُمْ فِي شَكٍّ
يَلْعَبُونَ ۝۹

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Hāmim. (2) By the oath of the Clear Book! (3) We have revealed it on a blessed night. Verily We are the Warners. (4) The decision of every matter of wisdom is passed on this night... (5) ... as a command proceeding from Us. We are certainly the ones who send (Prophets).. (6) ...by way of mercy from Us. He is certainly All Hearing, All Knowing; (7) The Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two. If you will be convinced. (8) There is no Deity besides Him Who gives life and death. He is your Lord and the Lord of your predecessors. (9) However, they are frolicking in their doubts.

THE QUR'ĀN WAS REVEALED ON A BLESSED NIGHT. ALLĀH GIVES LIFE AND DEATH AND IS THE LORD OF ALL MANKIND, PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

Allāh says that the Qur'ān was revealed on a "blessed night". The most accurate interpretation of the "blessed night" is that it is Laylatul Qadr (The Night of Power). The following two verses support this interpretation:

📖 "The month of Ramadhān is the month in which the Qur'ān was revealed as a guide for mankind..." [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 185]

📖 "Verily, We revealed the Qur'ān on Laylatul Qadr." [Surah

Qadr (97), verse 1]

Sayyidina Ikrima رحمه الله عليه [who was a student of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه] is of the opinion that “a blessed night” refers to the night of the 15th of Shābān, known as the Night of Barā’ah. In support of this interpretation, a hadith is quoted in which it is mentioned that sustenance and deaths for the forthcoming year are determined. However, this narration is not authentic. There are also no Ahadīth that state that the Qur’ān was revealed on this night.

The question may arise that since the Qur’ān was revealed gradually over a period of 23 years, how can it be said that it was revealed in a single month of Ramadhān, or in a single night of Qadr? Some commentators have mentioned that the revelation of the Qur’ān began on the night of Qadr, during the month of Ramadhān. A more veritable answer to this is that on the night of Qadr the entire Qur’ān was revealed at once from the Lowhul Mahfuz (Protected Tablet), to the sky above the earth. Here it was placed in the Baitul Izzah. It was from this place that it was then gradually taken, through the order of Allāh, by Sayyidina Jibr’il صلى الله عليه وسلم to the Holy Prophet over a period of 23 years.

“Verily We are the Warners.” Through the Qur’ān, Allāh warns His bondsmen about the terrible consequences of disbelief and disobedience to Allāh’s commands. This encourages man to do good deeds and to shun evil.

“The decision of every matter of wisdom is passed on this night as a command proceeding from Us.” The author of “Ma’ālimut Tanzīl” has translated “kullu amrin Hakīm” (translated above as “every matter of wisdom”) as “every ordained/determined matter”. He also reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that everything to occur in the forthcoming year is copied from the Lowhul Mahfuz (Protected tablet) and detailed to the angels who will facilitate these matters. These matters include sustenance, good, evil, deaths, etc. Even the names of people who will be performing Hajj the following year are recorded.

“We are certainly the ones who send (The Holy Prophet’s) by way of mercy from Us. “It is out of Allāh’s mercy that He sends the Holy religion Prophets عليهم السلام and books to guide man in this world.

“He is certainly All Hearing, All Knowing, the Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two. If you will be convinced (then understand that Allāh sent the Prophets عليهم السلام and revealed the divine scriptures). There is no Deity besides Him Who gives life and death. He is your Lord and the Lord of your predecessors. However, they are frolicking in their doubts.” They have no concern for the Hereafter, no concern to ponder over the facts and no concern for their own welfare because they are too engrossed in frivolities.

فَارْتَقِبْ يَوْمَ تَأْتِي السَّمَاءُ بِدُخَانٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿١٠﴾ يَغْشى النَّاسَ هَذَا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾
 رَبَّنَا اكْشِفْ عَنَّا الْعَذَابَ إِنَّا مُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ أَتَىٰ لَهُمُ الذِّكْرَىٰ وَقَدْ جَاءَهُم رَّسُولٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿١٣﴾
 ثُمَّ تَوَلَّوْا عَنْهُ وَقَالُوا مُعَلَّمٌ بَجْنُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ إِنَّا كَاشِفُو الْعَذَابِ قَلِيلًا ۖ إِنَّكُمْ عَائِدُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ يَوْمَ

نَبِّئِشْ الْبَطْشَةَ الْكُبْرَىٰ إِنَّا مُنْقِمُونَ ﴿١٦﴾

(10) So wait for the day when the sky will issue forth a manifest smoke. (11) ... which will envelope mankind. This is a painful punishment. (12) "O our Lord! Remove this punishment from us and we will surely believe." (13) From where (now) can they have advice when a manifest messenger has already come to them... (14) ....and they turned away from him saying, "He is a trained madman"? (15) We shall alleviate the punishment for a while, but you people will certainly return. (16) The day when We shall seize them with a firm hold. Surely We will exact retribution.

PEOPLE ARE WARNED ABOUT THE DAY WHEN A SMOKE FROM THE SKY WILL ENVELOPE PEOPLE AND ALLĀH'S GRIP WILL BE FIRM

Allāh says, "So wait for the day when the sky will issue forth a manifest smoke which will envelope mankind. This is a painful punishment."

Many commentators are of the opinion that this smoke is one of the signs of Judgment day and it will fill the atmosphere between the earth and the sky. As a result of this smoke, the faithful believers will catch a cold, while the disbelievers and sinners will experience great difficulty in breathing. A hadith of Muslim (v.2 p.392), which is narrated by Sayyidina Hudhaifah bin Usaid Ghifārī رضى الله عنه, mentions ten signs of Judgment day, among which the smoke is also included. Therefore, this "smoke" has not yet appeared. It will only appear close to the Day of Judgment. This is the opinion of Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Zaid bin Ali رحمه الله عليه, Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه, Sayyidina Ibn Abi Mulaykah رحمه الله عليه, and many others.

The second opinion is that of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه, which is reported in Bukhari (v.2 p.714.15). When someone mentioned to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه that certain people have interpreted "the day when the sky will issue forth a manifest smoke" as an occurrence to take place before Judgment day, he became upset. He said, "Whoever has knowledge should comment, while those without knowledge should say, 'Allāh knows best' (because admission of one's ignorance is a part of knowledge). When the Quraysh rejected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he prayed to Allāh saying, 'O Allāh! Assist me against them by afflicting them with seven years of drought as took place during the time of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام.' Allāh accepted this supplication and a severe drought took its toll on the Quraysh. Matters deteriorated to such an extent that they were forced to eat carrion and bones. They suffered so much hunger that they actually began to see smoke emerging from the sky. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, 'Wait for the day when the sky will issue forth a manifest smoke.' It was then that the Quraysh cried out, 'O our Lord! Remove this punishment from us and we will surely believe.'"

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه continued to recite the verses of Surah Dukhān up to verse 15, ending with the words "We shall alleviate the punishment for a while, but you people will certainly return". Thereafter he asked,

"Will the punishment of the Day of Judgment be alleviated?" In this way he proved that the punishment of the "smoke" cannot refer to punishment that will occur on the Day of Judgment.

It transpired after this that the Quraysh sent Sayyidina Abu Sufyān (who was then not a Muslim) to the Holy Prophet ﷺ. He entreated the Holy Prophet ﷺ saying, "O Muhammad ﷺ! You encourage the fostering of good family ties. Your people are being destroyed. Please make supplication to Allāh to alleviate this hardship." Consequently, The Holy Prophet ﷺ supplicated to Allāh and the rains began to fall. The drought was broken, but the Polytheists still refused to believe, as Allāh says, "but you people will certainly return (to disbelief)."

When they refused to believe, Allāh revealed the verse saying, "The day when We shall seize them with a firm hold. Surely We will exact retribution." This took place when the polytheists were killed and captured during the Battle of Badr.

The polytheists promised to accept Islām when they prayed, "O our Lord! Remove this punishment from us and we will surely believe." Allāh says, "From where (now) can they have advice when a manifest messenger has already come to them and they turned away from him saying, 'He is a trained madman.'" They have already rejected a great personality like the Holy Prophet ﷺ, whose upright character was renowned and who even showed them miracles. Therefore, it cannot be hoped that they will ever desist merely for fear of punishment.

وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَجَاءَهُمْ رَسُولٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿١٧﴾
 عِبَادَ اللَّهِ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٨﴾ وَأَنْ لَا تَعْلَوْا عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنِّي آتِيكُمْ بِسُلْطَنِ مُبِينٍ ﴿١٩﴾
 وَإِنِّي عِدْتُ رَبِّي وَرَبِّكُمْ أَنْ تَرْجُمُونِ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَإِنْ لَمْ تُؤْمِنُوا لِي فَأَعَزِّلُونِ ﴿٢١﴾ فَدَعَا رَبَّهُ أَنْ هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمٌ تُجْرِمُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ فَاسْرِعْ بَعَادِي لَيْلًا إِنَّكُمْ مُتَّبَعُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَاتْرُكِ الْبَحْرَ رَهْوًا إِنَّهُمْ جُنْدٌ مُغْرَقُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ كَمْ تَرَكُوا مِنْ جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَزُرُوعٍ وَمَقَامٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَنَعْمَةً كَانُوا فِيهَا فَكَاهِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ كَذَلِكَ وَأَوْرَثْنَاهَا قَوْمًا آخَرِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾
 فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّمَاءُ وَالْأَرْضُ وَمَا كَانُوا مُنْظَرِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَلَقَدْ بَجَّيْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ أَلْمُهِينَ ﴿٣٠﴾ مِنْ فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا عَلِيًّا مِنَ الْمُسْرِفِينَ ﴿٣١﴾
 وَلَقَدْ أَخَذْنَاهُمْ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ عَلَى الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَءَايَيْنَاهُمْ مِنَ الْأَيِّتِ مَا فِيهِ بَلَاءٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٣٣﴾

(17) Before them We have definitely tested the people of phara'oh (Fir'aun), to whom an honourable messenger came... (18) .....(saying to them) "Hand over Allāh's bondsmen to me. I am a trustworthy messenger to you." (19) "And do not rebel against Allāh. I have come to you with a clear proof." (20) "I seek refuge with my Lord and your Lord that you should stone me." (21) "If you will not believe me, then stay away from me." (22) He then supplicated to his Lord saying, "These people are certainly a sinful nation." (23) (Allāh said), "Leave with my bondsmen by night, you will surely be pursued." (24) "Leave the sea as it is, for they (the people of phara'oh (Fir'aun)) are an army who will be drowned." (25) Plenty were the gardens and springs that they left... (26) .....along with the plantations, palatial homes... (27) .... and articles of pleasure which they enjoyed... (28) .... likewise. We then made others successors to this. (29) Neither the sky nor the earth wept for them, and they were denied reprieve. (30) Undoubtedly We saved the Bani Isrā'īl from a disgraceful punishment... (31) .... of phara'oh (Fir'aun). He was certainly a haughty person from those who transgress. (32) Without doubt We granted superiority to the Bani Isrā'īl over the universe because of their knowledge. (33) And We gave them such signs in which there was clear grace.

A MESSENGER COMES TO THE PEOPLE OF PHARA'OH (FIR'AUN) AND THEY ARE DROWNED WHEN THEY REJECT HIM

Allāh says, "Before them (i.e. the Quraysh) We have definitely tested the people of phara'oh (Fir'aun), to whom an honourable messenger [Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام] came." Phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his people were oppressing the Bani Isrā'īl, enslaving them and torturing them mercilessly. Therefore, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام told them "Hand over Allāh's bondsmen to me. (I am not merely talking on my own strength because) I am a trustworthy messenger (of Allāh) to you." He then warned them, "And do not rebel against Allāh. I have come to you with a clear proof (miracles)."

When Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام continued to preach to the people, Phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his people decided to assassinate him. It was then that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام fearlessly said to them, 'I seek refuge with my Lord and your Lord that you should stone me. If you will not believe me, then (at least) stay away from me (because harassing me would condemn you further and obstruct others from guidance).'

Eventually, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام made supplication to Allāh saying, "These people are certainly a sinful nation (so punish them)." Allāh accepted his supplication and decided to punish them. In preparation for the pending punishment, Allāh commanded Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "Leave with my bondsmen by night (for the sea, but remember) you will surely be pursued (by Phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his army)."

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام left with the Bani Isrā'īl one night. When Phara'oh (Fir'aun) received news of this, he mustered a large army and set out in pursuit of the Bani Isrā'īl. Allāh instructed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to strike the ocean with his staff, causing the waters to stop and make several dry paths for them to cross over to the opposite shore. The Bani Isrā'īl managed to cross over calmly and phara'oh (Fir'aun) followed with his troops. When the Bani Isrā'īl went across, Allāh closed the paths in the sea, thereby drowning phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his army. With reference to this, Allāh said to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, "Leave the sea as it is, for they (the people of Fir'oun) are an army who will be drowned."

Like other people who are infatuated with the world, Phara'oh (Fir'aun) and his people were also proud of and boastful about their riches. However, they had to leave everything behind when they were drowned. Allāh says about them, "Plenty were the gardens and springs that they left along with the plantations, palatial homes, and articles of pleasure which they enjoyed likewise. We then made others (the Bani Isrā'il) successors to this." The explanation of the Bani Isrā'il becoming successors to the land of Egypt has been given in the commentary of verse 59 of Surah Shu'arā (Surah 26) where Allāh says, "And We made the Bani Isrā'il successors to them."

Allāh further says, "Neither the sky nor the earth wept for them, and they were denied reprieve." Although they used to receive sustenance from the sky (rain) and the earth, the sky and earth detested these people because Allāh disliked them. Therefore, none was grieved at their deaths.

THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH WEEP AT THE DEMISE OF A BELIEVER

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Every believer has two doors in the heavens. His deeds enter through one, while his sustenance descends through the other. When the believer passes away, these two doors weep for him. Allāh refers to (the weeping of) these doors when He says, 'Neither the sky nor the earth wept for them (the disbelievers), and they were denied reprieve.' [Tirmidhi Chapter of the commentary of Surah Dukhān].

THE FAVOURS BESTOWED ON THE BANI ISRĀ'ĪL

Allāh says, "Undoubtedly We saved the Bani Isrā'il from a disgraceful punishment of Phara'oh (Fir'aun). He was certainly a haughty person from those who transgress. Without doubt We granted superiority to the Bani Isrā'il over the (inhabitants of the) universe (during their period) because of their knowledge."

In addition to this Allāh "gave them such signs in which there was clear grace." i.e. Allāh bestowed such bounties on them, in which Allāh's might and power could be clearly witnessed, e.g. rescuing them from the clutches of phara'oh (Fir'aun) who used to slaughter their boys; cleaving the sea open for them so that they could pass safely; sending Manna and Salwa from the heavens as their sustenance and creating numerous Prophets عليهم السلام and kings from their progeny.

إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ لَيَقُولُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ إِنْ هِيَ إِلَّا مَوْتَتُنَا الْأُولَىٰ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُنْشَرِينَ ﴿٣٥﴾ فَأَنذَرْتُ بَنِيَّ
 إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ أَهْمُ خَيْرٌ أَمْ قَوْمُ تُبَّعٍ وَالَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا
 مُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا لِلْعَيْبِ ﴿٣٨﴾ مَا خَلَقْنَاهُمَا إِلَّا
 بِالْحَقِّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِنْ يَوْمَ الْفَصْلِ مِيقَتُهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾

يَوْمَ لَا يُغْنِي مَوْلَى عَنْ مَوْلَى شَيْئًا وَلَا هُمْ يُنصَرُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ رَحِمَ اللَّهُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ
الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٤٢﴾

(34) Verily these people say... (35) ... "This is merely our first death and we will not be resurrected." (36) "Bring forth our forefathers if you are truthful." (37) Are they better than the people of Tubba and those before them? We destroyed them all, for they were all sinners. (38) We have not created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two in vain. (39) We have created them with wisdom, but most people do not know. (40) Indeed, the Day of Judgement has been stipulated for all of them. (41) The day when one companion will be of no avail to another, neither shall they be assisted... (42) ... except for those on whom Allāh has mercy. Allāh is undoubtedly the Mighty, the Most Merciful.

THE ARGUMENT OF THOSE WHO DENY JUDGMENT DAY, WHO ARE NO BETTER THAN THE PREVIOUSLY DESTROYED NATIONS

Allāh quotes those who deny the coming of Judgment day, who believe that people die only once and will remain dead corpses until eternity. They said, "This is merely our first death and we will not be resurrected." To prove their standpoint, they challenge the believers by saying, "Bring forth our forefathers if you are truthful (in saying that people can be resurrected)."

Allāh refutes their argument by stating, "Are they better than the people of Tubba and those before them? We destroyed them all, for they were all sinners." The people of "Tubba" as well as the powerful nations before them denied the Prophets عليهم السلام who came to them because they regarded themselves as mighty people. However, all their might and authority could not assist them when Allāh's punishment seized them. Allāh says in Surah Saba, "Those before them denied. These people (at present) cannot even reach a tenth of what We gave them (the previous nations), yet they falsify My messengers. How will My retribution be?" [Surah 34, verse 45]

WHO WERE THE PEOPLE OF "TUBBA"?

Commentators have deliberated at length about who were the people of "Tubba". The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v.4 p.153) has also penned an extensive treatise on the subject. In short, all commentators are unanimous about the fact that the word "Tubba" is a title of the kings of Yemen just as Caesar (Qaiser) was a title of Roman emperors and Kisra (Khusro) was the title of Persian kings.

The "Tubba" referred to in the above verse was a particular Yemeni king whose name was As'ad bin Malik and was known as Abu Kurb. Sayyidina Muhammad bin Is'hāq رحمه الله عليه narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that this Tubba was once passing by Madinah when he decided to attack the town. Learning of his intentions, two Rabbi (Jewish Scholars) from the Jewish Banu Qurayzah tribe of Madinah approached the Tubba. Their names were Ka'b and Asad. They said to him, "Do not destroy this town. We fear that a fleeting punishment will afflict you if you do not take heed to what we say. This is the place of migration for one of Allāh's Prophets عليهم السلام. He will hail from the Quraysh, his name will be Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and will be born in Makkah."

Thus saying, they managed to persuade him to change his mind. They then invited him to accept their Dīn (religion), which he eventually did. He later left from Madinah and headed back to Yemen along with the two Rabbis and a few more Jews. On the way to Yemen they passed by the tribe of Banu Hudhail who asked the king whether he wished to learn of a house that was a treasure of pearls, emeralds and silver. When he inquired, they told him that the Ka'ba in Makkah was the place. The Banu Hudhail told him this so that he could be destroyed when attempting to plunder the Ka'ba because they knew that any person who made this attempt was destroyed.

When the Tubba consulted with the two Rabbis, they told him, "The Ka'ba is the only house in our knowledge that is associated with Allāh. You can pray there, make offerings there and shave your hair. These people have advised you in this manner because of the enmity they bear for you." When the Rabbis advised him thus, the Tubba apprehended a few people of the Banu Hudhail and cut off their hands and legs. He also pierced their eyes with hot needles to blind them, after which he crucified them. The Tubba then proceeded to Makkah, where he shrouded the Ka'ba, sacrificed an animal and remained there for a few days. He also made Circumambulation of the Ka'ba and shaved his hair. He then returned for Yemen.

Before entering Yemen, his own tribe, the Bani Himyar confronted him and refused to permit him entry into Yemen because he had forsaken their Dīn (religion) of idolatry. He invited them to accept his Dīn (religion), telling them that his Dīn (religion) was better than theirs. They eventually decided that a fire should arbitrate in their dispute. The fire they ignited consumed all their idols and their adornments, while it receded when it reached the Rabbis. This was the beginning of a rapid spread of Judaism in Yemen. The people of Tubba were therefore believers 700 years before the Prophet ﷺ of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and 100 years before that of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها advised people not to speak ill of the people of Tubba because they were good people. "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports from Sayyidina Sahl bin Sa'd رضي الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not speak ill of the people of Tubba because they had become Muslims." ["Musnad" of Ahmad v.5 p.340]

In his "Musannaf", Abdur Razzāq رحمه الله reports from Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I do not know whether Tubba was a Prophet or not."

Whereas the above narrations make it clear that the Tubba was a good person, it cannot be determined exactly when his people were destroyed. However, the above verse of Surah Dukhān and verse 14 of Surah Qāf (Surah 50) make it clear that they were eventually destroyed. It may be said that Allāh's punishment afflicted them when they refused to accept oneness of Allāh on the occasion when the fire was made an arbitrator over them.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله writes that the name of the Tubba in question was As'ad and he was known as Abu Kuraib. His father was called Malkiku and he ruled for 326 years. Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه writes further that although the Tubba's people accepted oneness of Allāh upon his invitation, they reverted to infidelity after he passed away. They then began to worship idols and fire afterwards, as a result of which Allāh destroyed them, as mentioned in Surah Saba (Surah 34, verses 15 to 21). Therefore, according to Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه, the people of Tubba were the people of Saba. [Tafsīr of Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه, v.4 p. 143/4]

Thereafter Allāh says, "We have not created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two in vain. We have created them with wisdom, but most people do not know." One of the reasons of wisdom behind the creation of the universe is that man may recognise Allāh's power and might. Allāh says in Surah Yāsin, "Does the One Who created the heavens and the earth not have the power to create the likes of them? Why not? He is the Prolific Creator, the All Knowing." [Surah 36, verse 81]

NONE SHALL BE ABLE TO ASSIST ANOTHER ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

"Indeed, the Day of Judgement has been stipulated for all of them (whether they believe in it or not. It will be) the day when one companion will be of no avail to another, neither shall they be assisted, except for those on whom Allāh has mercy." The effect of Allāh's mercy upon the believers will be that their relationship in this world will be maintained in the Hereafter, where they will intercede on behalf of each other, thereby being of assistance to each other. Allāh is perfectly Capable of exacting retribution from the disbelievers because "Allāh is undoubtedly the Mighty", and He will also shower His mercy upon the believers because He is "the Most Merciful."

The Arabic word "moula" (translated above as "companion ") is derived from the root word "waliya", which refers to the friendship of two persons. Therefore, each friend will be called the "moula" of the other (and each one may refer to the other as "moulana" i.e. "our friend"). This relationship will be dissolved in the Hereafter, except in respect of those believers upon whom Allāh showers His special mercy. This relationship will be maintained only between the believers. No disbeliever or Muslim will be able to assist any disbeliever at all. Of course, Allāh will permit only certain believers to intercede on behalf of those whom He wills.

إِنَّ شَجَرَةَ الزَّقُّومِ ﴿٤٣﴾ طَعَامُ الْأَشِيمِ ﴿٤٤﴾ كَالْمُهْلِ يَغْلِي فِي الْبُطُونِ ﴿٤٥﴾
 كَغَلْيِ الْحَمِيمِ ﴿٤٦﴾ خَذُوهُ فَاَعْتَلُوهُ إِلَىٰ سَوَاءِ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٤٧﴾ ثُمَّ صُبُّوا فَوْقَ رَأْسِهِ
 مِنْ عَذَابِ الْحَمِيمِ ﴿٤٨﴾ ذُقْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْكَرِيمُ ﴿٤٩﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا مَا كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تَمْتَرُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾

like the residue of oil and will boil in the bellies... (46) ...just as water boils. (47) "Grab him and drag him to the very midst of the Blazing Fire!" (48) "Then pour the punishment of boiling water over his head." (49) "Taste! You are surely most honourable and esteemed." (50) "This is what you used to doubt."

THE INMATES OF HELL WILL EAT FROM ZAQQŪM AND WILL HAVE BOILING WATER POURED OVER THEM

The previous verses dealt with those who deny Judgment day. The verses under discussion discuss the suffering that will afflict the disbelievers in the Hereafter. Allāh says, "Verily the tree of Zaqqūm shall be food for the sinful." When the inmates of Hell will experience extreme hunger, one of the foods that will be fed to them will be the tree of Zaqqūm. Allāh says in Surah Sāffāt, "It is a tree that emerges from the depths of Hell. Its fruit resembles the heads of snakes." [Surah 37, verses 64,65]

The tree will be extremely bitter and its taste will resemble "the residue of oil" Despite its contemptible appearance and horrible taste, they will be forced to eat it because of the severe hunger they will suffer. When it will reach their bellies, it "will boil in the bellies just as water boils." In addition to this, they will fill their bellies with it, as mentioned in Surah Wāq'ah [Surah 56, verse 53].

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "If even a drop from the Zaqqūm tree was to be dropped onto the earth, it would contaminate the food of all mankind. So what do you think about the person whose diet it will be?" [Targhib wat Tarhib v.4 p.480]

The angels will be commanded, "Grab him and drag him to the very midst of the Blazing Fire!" Besides suffering the tree of Zaqqūm, which will boil in his belly, the inmate of Hell will have boiling water poured over his head. Allāh will command the angels saying, "Then pour the punishment of boiling water over his head." Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Boiling water will be poured over their heads. Whatever is in their bellies, as well as their skins will be melted with it." [Surah 22, verses 19,20]

THE RESULT OF ARROGANCE

Although a person may have been a king, a president or any other leading statesman in this world, and may have enjoyed tremendous popularity and esteem, he will suffer the terrible tortures of Hell if he is not a believer. This punishment will leave him in a sordid and miserable condition. He will be reminded of his pomp and glory in this world (which he regarded as his means of success) when he will be told in Hell, "Taste! You are surely most honourable and esteemed. This is what you used to doubt." Those of us who love the glamour of this world should take heed.

إِنَّ الْمَتَّقِينَ فِي مَقَامٍ أَمِينٍ ﴿٥١﴾ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُوتٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ يَلْبَسُونَ مِنْ سُنْدُسٍ
وَإِسْتَبْرَقٍ مُتَقَابِلِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ كَذَلِكَ وَرَوَّجْتَهُمْ بَحُورٍ عَيْنٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ يَدْعُونَ فِيهَا

يَكُلُّ فَنَكْهَةً ءَامِنِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ لَا يَذُوقُونَ فِيهَا الْمَوْتَ إِلَّا الْمَوْتَةَ الْأُولَىٰ
وَوَقَّعَتْهُمْ عَذَابَ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٥٦﴾ فَضَلَّامِينَ رَبِّكَ ذَٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٥٧﴾

(51) Verily the abstinent ones shall be in a place of peace... (52) ... in gardens and springs. (53) They will wear clothing of fine silk and thick silk, and will be seated facing each other. (54) This is how it will be. We will also marry them to fair, large-eyed damsels. (55) In comfort, they will call for all types of fruit there. (56) They will not taste death there, except for the first death (of this world). Allāh will save them from the punishment of the Blazing Fire... (57) ..... as a favour from your Lord. This is the greatest success.

THOSE WHO ABSTAINED FROM EVIL SHALL ENJOY GARDENS, SPRINGS AND THE CLOTHING AND SPOUSES OF HEAVEN FOREVER

After describing the terrible plight of the people of Hell, Allāh speaks about the bounties to be enjoyed by those who abstained from disbelief and polytheism. These shall be:

- First. Verily the abstinent ones shall be in a place of peace... People will have no fear, grief or anxiety in Heaven, neither will they have to worry about leaving the place.
- Second. They will abide "in gardens and springs..."
- Third. They will wear clothing of fine silk and thick silk"
- Fourth. They "will be seated facing each other." Commentators mention that will be seated in such a manner that none shall see the nape of the other.
- Fifth. We will also marry them to fair, large-eyed damsels. The Arabic word "hūr" is the plural of "hawrā", which refers to a fair woman who possesses beauty that it appealing to every eye. Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه reports that Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If a damsel of Heaven has to peek into this world, she would illuminate the atmosphere between the sky and the earth and fill it with her fragrance. It is a fact that the scarf on her head is more valuable than the earth and all its contents." [Bukhari]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that each man of Heaven will have at least two wives. Each will be wearing seventy outfits and the marrow in the bones of her legs will be visible from outside. [Tirmidhi]

Sixth. In comfort, they will call for all types of fruit there."

Seventh. "They will not taste death there, except for the first death

(of this world).” After reaching the Hereafter they will have no fear of death any more.

Eighth. Allāh will save them from the punishment of the Blazing Fire as a favour from your Lord.” Salvation from Hell and entry into Heaven can be attained only by Allāh’s grace. It is not compulsory for Allāh to accord this favour on any person. It is purely through His grace that Allāh accepts the belief and deeds of people.

Allāh then declares, “This is the greatest success.” This sentence reminds man that the material things that he regards as a means of success are in fact useless to him in the Hereafter. He should therefore concentrate his efforts on the Hereafter and make his way to Heaven because this will truly mean success for him.

فَإِنَّمَا يَسَّرْنَاهُ لِقَلَامِكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ فَارْتَقِبْ إِنَّهُمْ مُرْتَقِبُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾

(58) We have made the Qur’ān easy on your tongue so that they may understand. (59) So wait, for they are waiting as well.

WE HAVE MADE THE QUR’ĀN EASY ON YOUR TONGUE

Surah Dukhān began with mention of the Qur’ān and now concludes on the same note. Allāh says, “We have made the Qur’ān easy on your tongue so that they may understand.” The Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم language was Arabic, so the Qur’ān was also revealed in Arabic so that it could be easy for him as well as for the Arabs who were the first addressees of the Qur’ān.

“So wait, for they are waiting as well.” If the disbelievers refuse to accept the message of Islām and are waiting to cause harm to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, then it should be noted that nothing will materialise from their schemes because Allāh will ensure his safety. Allāh says in Surah Tūr, “Or do they say, ‘He is a poet whose death we are eagerly awaiting’? Say, ‘Wait, for I am also waiting with you.’” [Surah 52, verses 30,31]

سورة الجاثية

Makkan

Surah Al-Jathiyah

Verses 37

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

حَمْ ۝ (1) تَنْزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ ۝ (2) إِنَّ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَآيَاتٍ
لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝ (3) وَفِي خَلْقِكُمْ وَمَا يَبُثُّ مِنْ دَابَّةٍ آيَاتٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يُوقِنُونَ ۝ (4) وَأَخْلَفَ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ
وَمَا أُنْزِلَ اللَّهُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مِنْ رِزْقٍ فَأَحْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا وَتَصْرِيفِ الرِّيْحِ آيَاتٌ لِّقَوْمٍ
يَعْقِلُونَ ۝ (5) تِلْكَ آيَاتُ اللَّهِ تَتْلُوهَا عَلَيْكَ بِالْحَقِّ فَيَأْتِي حَدِيثٌ بَعْدَ اللَّهِ وَءَايَاتِهِ يَوْمُنُونَ
۝ (6)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

- (1) HāMīm. (2) The revelation of the Book is from Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise. (3) There are certainly many signs in the heavens and the earth for the believers. (4) In your creation and the creatures that We have spread out, there are also numerous signs for those with conviction. (5) The alternation of the night and day; the sustenance that Allāh sends from the skies that revives the earth after its death; and the turning of the winds; are all signs for people with understanding. (6) These are Allāh's verses that We recite to you with the truth. So in what fact will they believe in after Allāh and His signs?

THE VARIOUS SIGNS THAT DENOTE THE EXISTENCE AND ONENESS OF ALLĀH

Allāh begins the Surah by saying that "The revelation of the Book (Qur'ān) is from Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise." Allāh then enumerates the various signs of His grandeur. Allāh says, "There are certainly many signs in the heavens and the earth for the believers."

The believers witness these many signs of Allāh's greatness and ponder over them. In so doing, they are affected by Allāh's greatness, which settles deep within their hearts.

Allāh further says, 'in your creation and the creatures that We have spread out, there are also numerous signs for those with conviction. The alternation of the night and day; the sustenance (rain) that Allāh sends from the skies that revives the earth after its death; and the turning of the winds; are all signs for people with understanding." The revival of dead earth refers to the flourishing meadows and plantations that grow on the once arid land after good rains fall. The changing of the winds refers to various winds blowing in different directions, some being hot, others cold; some being beneficial and others destructive. People with understanding perceive all these phenomena around them and realise that all of this occurs only by the command and power of Allāh.

"These are Allāh's verses that We recite to you with the truth." The Qur'ān was recited to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who in turn recited it to humanity. It contains all the necessary facts to prove Allāh's oneness and greatness in a single miraculous magnum opus (mighty word of Allāh). If people fail to accept this, there can be nothing else that they can possibly accept. Therefore Allāh says, "So in what fact will they believe in after Allāh and His signs?"

وَبَلِّ لِكُلِّ أَفَّاكٍ أَثِيمٍ ﴿٧﴾ يَسْمَعُ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ تُنْزَلُ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ يُصِرُّ مُسْتَكْبِرًا كَأَن لَّمْ يَسْمَعْهَا
فَبَشِّرْهُ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٨﴾ وَإِذَا عَلِمَ مِنْ آيَاتِنَا شَيْئًا اتَّخَذَهَا هُزُوًا أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ
﴿٩﴾ مِّنْ وَرَائِهِمْ جَهَنَّمُ وَلَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ مَا كَسَبُوا شَيْئًا وَلَا مَا اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ
أَوْلِيَاءَ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٠﴾ هَٰذَا هُدًى وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مِّن رَّجْزٍ
أَلِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾

(7) Doom be for every lying sinner... (8) ...who hears Allāh's verses being recited to him and then remains haughty as if he had not heard them. Give him the tidings of a tormenting chastisement. (9) When he learns of any one of Our verses, he mocks it. There shall be a humiliating punishment for these people. (10) Before them is Hell. Whatever they earned will be of no avail to them, neither will the patrons that they adopted besides Allāh be (of any avail). A terrible punishment shall be theirs. (11) This is a great guidance, and there awaits a painful punishment of immense proportions for those who disbelieve the verses of their Lord.

AN EXCRUCIATING PUNISHMENT AWAITS EVERY LYING SINNER

Among the polytheists of Makkah there were those die-hards who vehemently opposed Islām and made every effort to obstruct others from accepting Islām. Abu Jahl and Nadhar bin Hārith were two such persons. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" relates that Allāh referred to Nadhar bin Hārith when He says, "Doom be for every lying sinner..."

He used to purchase storybooks from foreign countries and narrate these to people so that they may stay away from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and not listen to the recitation of the Qur'ān. Mention has been made of this in the commentary of verse 6 of Surah Luqmān (Surah 31) where Allāh says, "There are some people who purchase futile discourse to deviate from Allāh's path without knowledge, making a mockery of it (Allāh's path). There shall be a humiliating punishment for these people."

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that although the verse refers to a specific person, it applies equally to all people who lie and sin excessively. The Arabic words "affāk" and "athīm" (translated above as "lying sinner") are both in the superlative form and denote people who are lie and sin excessively.

Further describing such a person, Allāh says that he is someone "Who hears Allāh's verses being recited to him and then remains haughty (without taking heed) as if he had not heard them. Give him the tidings of a tormenting chastisement." Such a person is under the misconception that he will live forever as a leader in this world. He fails to realise that he will soon have to leave this world and in the Hereafter face the terrible consequences of his disobedience.

Allāh continues with the description of the "lying sinner" when He says, "When he learns of any one of Our verses, he mocks it. There shall be a humiliating punishment for these people. Before them is Hell. Whatever they earned will be of no avail to them, neither will the patrons that they adopted besides Allāh be (of any avail). A terrible punishment shall be theirs."

"This (Qur'ān) is a great guidance, and there awaits a painful punishment of immense proportions for those who disbelieve the verses of their Lord." The above verses describe the punishment of Hell as "tormenting", "humiliating", "terrible", "painful" and of "immense proportions". The fact is that the punishment of Hell cannot be described in words.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي سَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْبَحْرَ لِتَجْرِيَ الْفُلُكُ فِيهِ بِأَمْرِهِ وَلِيَسْتَفْهَمُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ﴾
 ﴿12﴾ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُم مَّا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا مِّنْهُ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ
 يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿13﴾

(12) It is Allāh Who subjugated the oceans for you so that ships may travel on them by His command; so that you may seek from His bounty; and so that you may express gratitude. (13) Allāh has also subjugated for you everything in the heavens and everything on earth. There are definitely signs in this for people who reflect.

THE SUBJUGATION OF EVERYTHING IN THE HEAVENS AND EARTH ARE SIGNS FOR PEOPLE WHO PONDER

In these verses, Allāh speaks about His bounties to man and the signs of oneness of Allāh. Allāh says that He has placed the oceans at man's service so that man may utilise them to transport themselves and their cargo to distant lands by ship. By means of this, people are able to conduct profitable business across the continents. Allāh has also placed valuable pearls and marine life beneath the oceans, all of which are of tremendous benefit to mankind. These are all part of Allāh's innumerable boons to man, which demand that man expresses gratitude to Him.

In the second verse, Allāh says that He "has also subjugated for you everything in the heavens and everything on earth." Allāh has created everything for man's benefit, which man should use in accordance with Allāh's commands. Some of the benefits accrued from these phenomena are of use in this world while others will profit a person in the Hereafter. Thereafter, Allāh says, "There are definitely signs in this for people who reflect."

قُلْ لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا يَغْفِرُوا لِلَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ أَيَّامَ اللَّهِ لِيَجْزِيَ قَوْمًا بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ
 مَن عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَن أَسَاءَ فَعَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿١٥﴾

(14) Tell the believers that they should pardon those who do not look forward to Allāh's days so that Allāh may grant recompense to every nation for what they earn. (15) Whoever does a good deed does so for his own benefit, and whoever commits a sin does so to his own detriment. You will all be returned to your Lord shortly.

TELL THE BELIEVERS THAT THEY SHOULD PARDON THE DISBELIEVERS AND THAT EVERY PERSON'S DEEDS SHALL BE TO HIS OWN BENEFIT OR DETRIMENT

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Tell the believers that they should pardon those who do not look forward to Allāh's days..." The disbelievers think that situations will remain the same always and that Allāh will not take them to task for what they do. They fail to realise that Allāh changes the condition of people over time and will soon turn conditions against them on account of their sins. This turn of the tide against the disbelievers and sinners is referred to as "Allāh's days".

Quoting from Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" interprets the verse to mean that the disbelievers are not eager to see the day when Allāh will grant the believers their rewards. The Muslims should overlook these people because they do not believe in the Hereafter at all. Other commentators state that this command to pardon the disbelievers applied only before the command for Jihād (religious war) was issued. They maintain that it was annulled after Jihād was ordained. Another group of commentators are of the opinion that the command was never annulled but still applies with reference to the minor hardships that the disbelievers present to the believers.

"....so that Allāh may grant recompense to every nation for what they earn." Allāh will reward the believers for their belief and deeds, while He will also punish the disbelievers for their disbelief and sins. Consequently, Allāh says, "Whoever does a good deed does so for his own benefit, and whoever commits a sin does so to his own detriment. You will all be returned to your Lord shortly."

وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحُكْمَ وَالنُّبُوَّةَ وَزَرَقْنَاهُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَفَضَّلْنَاهُمْ عَلَى
 الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَآتَيْنَاهُمْ بَيِّنَاتٍ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ فَمَا اخْتَلَفُوا إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ
 الْعِلْمُ بَعِيًا بَيْنَهُمْ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْضِي بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ

(16) Verily We gave the Bani Isrā'īl the Book, command and Prophet hood; sustained them with pure things and granted them excellence over the universe.

(17) We also gave them clear proofs concerning Dīn (religion). They differed only after knowledge came to them because of enmity between themselves. Indeed your Lord shall judge between them on the Day of Judgment concerning the differences they had.

THE VARIOUS BOUNTIES BESTOWED ON THE BANI ISRĀ'ĪL

Allāh says that He gave His divine scriptures to the Bani Isrā'īl and also the "command". While some commentators say that this refers to wisdom, others believe that it refers to a good understanding of religious matters. Allāh also blessed them with the privilege of having numerous Prophets عليهم السلام among them. Allāh says in Surah Mā'idah, "(Recall the time) When Mūsa عليه السلام told his nation (the Bani Isrā'īl), 'O my people, remember Allāh 's bounty on you when He raised messengers among you and made you kings. He gave you what He never gave anyone in the entire universe.' [Surah 5, verse 20]

Further describing His bounties on the Bani Isrā'īl, Allāh says that He "sustained them with pure things (i.e. Halāl (Lawful), nutritious and tasty food) and granted them excellence over (the inhabitants of) the universe (during their time)."

"We also gave them clear proofs concerning Dīn (religion)." Included in these were Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام miracles. Another interpretation of the "clear proofs" is that these refer to the signs that denoted the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Although the Jews were well aware of these signs, they still denied the Prophet hood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "When what they recognise comes to them, they deny it. Allāh's curse is on the disbelievers." [Surah 2, verse 89]

Allāh states further, "They differed only after knowledge came to them because of enmity between themselves." They fell into dispute because of a struggle for leadership among themselves. Other commentators state that the Jews differed among themselves because many of them were jealous that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was from among the Arabs and not from among them. Although they were eager to receive the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم initially, they later refused to acknowledge his apostleship because they expected him to be from among them. There were only a few of them who were fortunate enough to embrace Islām. The rest of them opposed Islām and continue to do so to this day.

Allāh declares, "Indeed your Lord shall judge between them on the Day of Judgment of day concerning the differences they had."

ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَاكَ عَلَىٰ شَرِيعَةٍ مِّنَ الْأَمْرِ فَاتَّبِعْهَا وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ
 (18) إِنَّهُمْ لَن يُغْنُوا عَنْكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا وَإِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ وَاللَّهُ وَلِيٌّ
 الْمُتَّقِينَ (19) هَذَا بَصِيرَتُ لِلنَّاسِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يُوقِنُونَ (20)

(18) Then We placed you on a special way, so follow it and do not follow the whims of those who have no knowledge. (19) Undoubtedly, these people will never be of any use to you against Allāh. Verily the oppressors are patrons to each other and Allāh is a Protecting Friend to the people with Piety. (20) These are eye-openers for people, a guidance and a mercy for people with conviction.

WE HAVE GIVEN YOU A SPECIAL DĪN (RELIGION). THE DISBELIEVERS CAN BE OF NO USE TO YOU AGAINST ALLĀH

Allāh says to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Then (after the Dīn (religion) of the Bani Isra'īl) We placed you on a special way (Shari'ah), so follow it and do not follow the whims of those who have no knowledge." i.e. Do not follow the Quraysh, who follow the ways of their heretical forefathers.

"Undoubtedly, these people will never be of any use to you against Allāh." i.e. If you ever had to follow the Dīn (religion) of the disbelievers, Allāh's punishment is sure to afflict you. The disbelievers would then be unable to be of assistance to you.

"Verily the oppressors (the Jews, Christians, Polytheists and Hypocrites) are patrons to each other and Allāh is a Protecting Friend to the people with Piety." Allāh will assist them in this world as well as in the Hereafter.

Referring to the verses of the Qur'an, Allāh says, "These are eye-openers for people, a guidance and a mercy for people with conviction."

أَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِينَ اجْتَرَحُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ أَن نَّجْعَلَهُمْ كَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
 سَوَاءٌ نَّجْزِيهِمْ وَمِمَّا تُهُمْ سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ (21) وَخَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ
 وَلِيُجْزَىٰ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ (22)

(21) Do those who perpetrate sins think that We will treat them like those who believe and who do good deeds, making their lives and deaths equal? Evil indeed is the decision they take. (22) Allāh has created the heavens and the earth with the truth so that every soul may be recompensed for what it does, and people will not be oppressed.

DO THE SINNERS THINK THAT THEY WILL BE TREATED LIKE THOSE BELIEVERS WHO DO GOOD DEEDS?

Allāh refutes the statement of those disbelievers who claimed that the believers were no better than themselves. They believed that Allāh will grant them riches in the Hereafter just as He gives them in this world. Allāh quotes one of these disbelievers in Surah HāMim Sajdah who said, "If I am ever returned to my Lord, I shall definitely have something better than this." [Surah 41, verse 50]

Allāh refutes their statement by asking, "Do those who perpetrate sins think that We will treat them like those who believe and who do good deeds, making their lives and deaths equal? Evil indeed is the decision they take." The two types of people can never be the same because the righteous believers believe in Allāh, worship Him and obey His every command. On the other hand, the disbelievers reject Allāh, are ungrateful for His bounties and disobey His commands. After death, the righteous believers will be admitted into Heaven while the disbelievers and the sinners will be doomed to Hell. Therefore, neither their lives nor their deaths are the same. The believers are better than the disbelievers in both worlds.

"Allāh has created the heavens and the earth with the truth (i.e. with wisdom) so that every soul may be recompensed for what it does, and people will not be oppressed." Every person will receive the full reward for every good deed and will be punished only for the sins he committed. Therefore, one of the reasons for creating the heavens and the earth is for people to recognise Allāh's might. Once a person recognises this, one will realise that Allāh is certainly Capable of resurrecting the dead and giving people the rewards and punishment for their deeds.

Verse 33 of Surah Ahqāf asks: "Do they not see that Allāh Who created the heavens and the earth and did not tire from creating them has the power to give life to the dead? Certainly! Allāh has power over all things." [Surah 46, verse 33]

أَفَرَأَيْتَ مَنِ اتَّخَذَ إِلَهُهُ هَوَاهُ وَأَضَلَّهُ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ وَخَتَمَ عَلَىٰ سَمْعِهِ وَقَلْبِهِ وَجَعَلَ عَلَىٰ
بَصَرِهِ عَشْنَوَةً فَمَنْ يَهْدِيهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ اللَّهِ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَقَالُوا مَا هِيَ إِلَّا حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا
نَمُوتُ وَنَحْيَا وَمَا يُهْلِكُنَا إِلَّا الدَّهْرُ وَمَا لَهُمْ بِذَلِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ هُمْ إِلَّا يَظُنُّونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَإِذَا نُنَادِي
عَلَيْهِمْ ءَايَتُنَا يَنْتَبِهْ مَا كَانَ حُجَّتَهُمْ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا اتَّبَعْنَا آبَاءَنَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾ قُلْ
اللَّهُ يُحْيِيكُمْ ثُمَّ يُمِيتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يَجْمَعُكُمْ إِلَىٰ يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا
يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾

(23) Have you seen the one who has taken his whims as a deity; whom Allāh has sent astray despite his knowledge; whose ears and hearts Allāh has sealed and on whose eyes Allāh has cast a veil? Who can guide him after Allāh? Will you not take heed? (24) They say, "This is merely our worldly life. We live and die and it is only time that will destroy us." They have no proof for this but only speculate. (25) When Our clear verses are recited to them, the only counter evidence they can present is to say, "Bring forth our forefathers if you are truthful." (26) Say, "Allāh gave you life, will give you death and will then gather you all for the Day of Judgment about which there is no doubt. However most people do not know."

HAVE YOU SEEN THE PERSON WHO TAKES HIS WHIMS AS HIS GOD?

Allāh explains the deviant nature of the polytheists who not only worship gods besides Allāh but even reject the advent of Judgment day. Allāh says that these people have reached such a low ebb in spiritual degradation that they worship whatever catches their fancy. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه writes that it was customary among the pagan Arabs to worship a particular stone and then discard it once they found another stone that appealed to them. In this manner, they took as gods whatever their whims desired.

Another interpretation of the verse is that a person does and says whatever he desires. Such people neither have love for guidance nor abhorrence for falsehood and deviation. They therefore become rudderless and susceptible to do whatever their whims demand of them. The Arabic word for whims is "Hawā". Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that "Hawā" is condemned everywhere it appears in the Qur'ān. Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "If they do not respond to you, then you should know that they are only following their whims. Who can be more unjust than the one who follows his whims (Hawā) without any guidance from Allāh? Verily Allāh does not guide an unjust nation." [Surah 28, verse 50]

IMPORTANT NOTES CONCERNING THE FOLLOWING OF ONE'S WHIMS

Just as following one's whims will prevent a disbeliever from accepting Islām, it also leads a Muslim to perpetrate sins without restraint. The Muslim will then be slave to the dictates of his carnal desires and will forsake Salāh, zakāh and Lawful (Halāl) earnings in the process. The Muslim will then have no regard for Lawful (Halāl) food and will ape the dressing and lifestyles of the disbelievers.

Following one's whims will catapult one to destruction while opposing one's whims will secure salvation in both worlds. Allāh says in Surah Nāzi'at, "As for the one who fears standing before his Lord and restrains himself from his whims, then Heaven shall certainly be the abode for him." [Surah 79, verse 40, 41]

A believer should always beware of his whims. Although it is permissible to satisfy certain desires, a person will destroy himself if he sets out to fulfil every desire. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The intelligent person is he who controls his desires and performs deeds for the life after death. The foolish person is he who lets himself follow his whims and entertains foolish hopes of Allāh's mercy." ["Mishkāt" p. 451]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that three factors secure success while another three lead to destruction. The three that secure success are:

- 📖 Fearing Allāh in private and in public.
- 📖 Speaking the truth when happy and when displeased.

- 📖 Adopting moderation when in poverty and when enjoying prosperity.

The three factors that lead to destruction are:

- 📖 Following the dictates of one's whims.
- 📖 Miserliness.
- 📖 Being proud of oneself. This is the most dangerous of the three. ["Mishkāt" p. 434]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "None of you has believed until his desires become subject to the Dīn (religion) I have brought." ["Mishkāt" p. 30]

Allāh says, "Have you seen the one who takes his whims as his god; whom Allāh has sent astray despite his knowledge; whose ears and hearts Allāh has sealed and on whose eyes Allāh has cast a veil? Who can guide him after Allāh? Will you not take heed?" As a person begins to serve the dictates of his whims, he gradually loses the capacity to accept the truth. At this stage his knowledge also ceases to be of use to him. He then turns a deaf ear to the truth, refuses to accept it, and cannot see what is right. Once he has deviated this far, there can be no hope of him ever finding the path to salvation.

THE RESPONSE TO A FOOLISH STATEMENT OF THE ATHEISTS

"They say, 'This is merely our worldly life. We live and die and it is only time that will destroy us.'" These disbelievers believe that people have to live their lives only in this world and then die to make way for those to come after them. They refuse to believe in resurrection and reckoning. Non-Muslims have always held the belief that time does everything. Although many of them may even have faith in Allāh, they believe that time causes life, death, vicissitudes in conditions and adversities. When people curse time for their difficulties, they are actually directing the curse at Allāh because everything happens by Allāh's will. In fact, time itself is Allāh's creation.

There are many people who believe that there is no beginning and no end to the universe and that everything is the effect of time. Such people are generally referred to as atheists. Time is merely the change of night and day and really has no effect on things. Time itself is not stable, but varies. These people have no reply when they are asked how time can affect the formation of a person's heart and limbs? They are equally speechless when asked how time affects the fact that a grape is small while a mango is larger? Why is the water of the sea salty while the water of rivers is not? Why are there so many types and sizes of animals? Why do some people have children while others do not? Why do some have only sons, while others have only daughters? The atheists have no reply to these and millions of other questions.

Allāh asserts, "They have no proof for this but only speculate." Everything they say is mere conjecture and without any basis. Their denial of Judgment day will not halt the advent of Judgment day. Judgment day will still take place irrespective of their beliefs. They will then regret their beliefs when they are faced with the worst punishment of Hell.

THE ARGUMENT OF THOSE WHO DENY JUDGMENT DAY

"When Our clear verses are recited to them (affirming the advent of Judgment day) the only counterevidence they can present is to say, 'Bring forth our forefathers if you are truthful.'" Unable to present a proof to substantiate their claim, all the disbelievers can say is that they want to see their long dead forefathers raised so that they may witness resurrection for themselves. In addition to this, they claim that they can then ask their forefathers about what happens after death.

Allāh replies to them by saying, "Say, 'Allāh gave you life, will give you death and will then gather you all for the Day of Judgment about which there is no doubt. However most people do not know.'" Allāh is not forced to accede to their requests. The message of Judgment day has been passed on to them in clear terms and the signs are evident. It is now the choice of every person to accept.

وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُحْشَرُ الْمُبْطِلُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَرَى كُلُّ أُمَّةٍ جَائِيَةً كُلُّ أُمَّةٍ تُدْعَى إِلَى كِتَابِهَا الْيَوْمَ تُحْزَرُونَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ هَذَا كِتَابُنَا يَنْطِقُ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْحَقِّ إِنَّا كُنَّا نَسْتَنسِخُ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَيُدْخِلُهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَفَلَمْ تَكُنْ ءَايَتِي تَتْلَى عَلَيْهِمْ فَاستَكْبَرْتُمْ وَكُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا تُجْرِمُونَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَالسَّاعَةُ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا قُلْتُمْ مَا نَدْرِي مَا السَّاعَةُ إِنْ نَظُنُّ إِلَّا ظَنًّا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُتَّبِعِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَبَدَأَهُمْ سَيِّئَاتٍ مَا عَمِلُوا وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَقِيلَ الْيَوْمَ نَنسِفُكُمْ كَمَا نَسِفْنَا لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ هَذَا وَمَأْوَهُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ نَصْرِينَ ﴿٣٤﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ أَخَذْتُمْ ءَايَةَ اللَّهِ هُزُوا وَغَرَّكُمْ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا فَالْيَوْمَ لَا يُخْرِجُونَ مِنْهَا وَلَا هُمْ يُسْعَوُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ فَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَرَبِّ الْآرْضِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَلَهُ الْكِبَرِيَاءُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٣٧﴾

(27) To Allāh belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth. On the day that Reckoning day will take place, the people of falsehood will be at a loss. (28) You will see every nation on their knees and every nation will be called towards their Book. "Today you will be recompensed for what you did." (29) "This is Our Book which speaks against you with the truth. Verily We used to have everything you did recorded." (30) As for those who believe and do good deeds, their Lord shall enter them into His mercy. That is the ultimate success. (31) As for those who disbelieved (Allāh will tell them), "Were My verses not recited unto you, and in spite of this you were arrogant and were a sinful nation?" (32) "When it was said that Allāh's promise is true and there is no doubt in the advent of Judgment day, you people used to say, 'We do not know what Judgment day is. We merely give it a passing thought but have never been convinced about it.'" (33) The evil of what they do shall become evident before them and they will be surrounded by the consequences of their mockery. (34) It will be said, "Today We shall forget you just as you forgot your meeting of this day. Your abode shall be the Fire and you shall have no helpers. (35) "This is because you treated Allāh's verses as a joke and were beguiled by the life of this world." Today they will neither be removed from the Fire nor will they be given the opportunity to please Allāh. (36) All praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of the heavens, the Lord of the earth and the Lord of the universe. (37) All majesty is His in the heavens and the earth and He is the Mighty, the Wise.

THE PEOPLE OF FALSEHOOD WILL BE AT A LOSS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT WHEN EVERY NATION WILL BE ON ITS KNEES

These verses bring Surah Jāthiya to a close. Allāh states, "To Allāh belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth." Allāh has created all of this and is the Controller of it all. This subject is repeated in the last verses after Judgment day is mentioned.

Allāh says further, "On the day that Reckoning will take place, the people of falsehood will be at a loss." This group includes all the disbelievers, polytheists, hypocrites and sinners. These people amassed a great deal of wealth in this world and also attained high social ranks and esteem. It was for the preservation of these things that they denied the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام. However, on the Day of Judgment they will arrive before Allāh without any wealth, family, children and position. Everything they exerted themselves for in this world will be left behind. All that they will have will be their sinful deeds, which will seal their damnation.

"You will see every nation on their knees..." They will be in this condition because of the fear that will overcome them. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه translated the verse as: "You will see all the nations gathered together."

"... every nation will be called towards their Book." i.e. every person will be summoned to view his record of their deeds, which will be given in every person's hand. Thereafter, reckoning will take place and Allāh will tell the people, "Today you will be recompensed for what you did. This is Our Book which speaks against you with the truth. Verily We used to have everything you did recorded." Allāh has appointed angels to record people's deeds. This record will be used as evidence against them on the Day of Judgment.

NOTE: The above verse states that "every" nation will be in its knees because of fear. However, it should be borne in mind that the pious believers [especially the Prophets عليهم السلام] are not included in the implication of this verse because Allāh says in Surah Naml, "And they will be safe from the terror of that day." If it is assumed that the kneeling will not be on account of fear, then it is possible that they will also be required to do so for a brief period on the Day of Judgment.

Allāh continues to say, "As for those who believe and do good deeds, their Lord shall enter them into His mercy (i.e. Heaven, which is an embodiment of Allāh's mercy). That is the ultimate success." Allāh then discusses the plight of the disbelievers who will suffer the terrible torments of Hell. When they will plead for reprieve, Allāh will ask them, "Were My verses not recited unto you, and in spite of this you were arrogant and were a sinful nation?" i.e. You shall now have to suffer for the arrogance and disobedience you displayed in the world.

Allāh will remind them further by saying, "When it was said that Allāh's promise is true and there is no doubt in the advent of Judgment day, you people used to say, 'We do not know what Judgment day is. We merely give it a passing thought but have never been convinced about it.'" Besides denying Qiyamah (Qiyāmah day), they also made a mockery of whatever the Prophets عليهم السلام brought to them. Allāh says that on the Day of Judgment "The evil of what they do shall become evident before them and they will be surrounded by the consequences (punishment) of their mockery."

Furthermore, the disbelievers will be told, "Today We shall forget you (i.e. leave you to burn in Hell and be eternally deprived of mercy) just as you forgot your meeting of this day. Your abode shall be the Fire and you shall have no helpers."

The people of Hell will be reminded that they suffer the punishment of Hell because they "treated Allāh's verses as a joke and were beguiled by the life of this world. Today they will neither be removed from the Fire nor will they be given the opportunity to please Allāh." No person will be allowed to repent in the Hereafter. The opportunity to make Taubah (repentance) is restricted to this worldly life.

Allāh concludes the Surah by declaring, "All praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of the heavens, the Lord of the earth and the Lord of the universe. All majesty is His in the heavens and the earth and He is the Mighty, the Wise."

PART TWENTY SIX

سورة الاحقاف

Makkan	Surah Al-Ahqaf	Verses 35
--------	----------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

حَمِّ ۝ تَزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ ۝ مَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَمَّا أُنذَرُوا مُعْرِضُونَ ۝ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَرُونِي مَاذَا خَلَقُوا مِنَ الْأَرْضِ أَمْ لَهُمْ شِرْكٌ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ ۚ أَتُنَوِّى بِكِتَابٍ مِنْ قَبْلِ هَذَا أَوْ أَثَرُونَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ۝ وَمَنْ أَضَلُّ مِمَّن يَدْعُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَنْ لَا يَسْتَجِيبُ لَهُ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ وَهُمْ عَنِ دُعَائِهِمْ غَافِلُونَ ۝ وَإِذَا حُشِرَ النَّاسُ كَانُوا لَهُمْ أَعْدَاءً وَكَانُوا بِعِبَادَتِهِمْ كَافِرِينَ ۝ وَإِذَا نُتِلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمُ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ قَالِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ۝

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) HāMīm. (2) This is a revealed Book from Allāh, the Mighty, the Wise. (3) We have created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two with wisdom and (until) a specified term. The disbelievers are averse to the warnings they are given. (4) Say, "Tell me about those whom you worship besides Allāh. Show me what they have created from the earth, or do they have a partnership in the heavens? Bring me a book before this or a shred of reported evidence if you are truthful." (5) Who can be more misled than the one who calls to beings besides Allāh who cannot respond to him until the Day of Judgment and who are totally unaware of their call? (6) When people are resurrected they will be enemies to them and will deny their worship. (7) When Our clear verses are recited to them, the disbelievers say about the truth as it comes to them, "This is manifest magic!"

THE GODS OF THE POLYTHEISTS HAVE NOT CREATED ANYTHING AND CANNOT RESPOND TO THEIR CALLS

Allāh declares that He created the heavens, the earth and everything between the two with perfect wisdom and they will exist until a term that Allāh has already predestined. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" writes that the "specified term" refers to the Day of Judgment, when the entire universe will be destroyed.

Allāh then depicts the foolishness of the Polytheists when He says that they pray to such beings who will never have the ability to even hear their prayer. Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "Say (to the polytheists), 'Tell me about those whom you worship besides Allāh. Show me what they have created from the earth, or do they have a partnership in the heavens?'" There is nothing on earth that their gods have created and they have no say over matters in the heavens. Any sensible person will therefore realise that there is no reason for them to be worshipped.

Besides common sense, a person may have learned about these gods from a divine book that was revealed before the Qur'ān or from something reported from their predecessors. However, the polytheists have no basis for their beliefs even from these quarters. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "Bring me a book before this or a shred of reported evidence (to prove your stand) if you are truthful."

Allāh continues to say, "Who can be more misled than the one who calls to beings besides Allāh who cannot respond to him until the Day of Judgment and who are totally unaware of their call? When people are resurrected they will be enemies to them and will deny their worship." i.e. the worshippers will be enemies to their gods or vice versa. Either interpretation will be valid because there will be mutual enmity between the two parties.

A FOOLISH STATEMENT OF THOSE WHO REJECT THE QUR'ĀN

Allāh states, "When Our clear verses are recited to them, the disbelievers say about the truth as it comes to them, 'This is manifest magic!' - They made this statement because they had nothing to reply to the miraculous nature of the Qur'ān. This was nothing new in the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because the nations of the previous Prophets عليهم السلام also made similar statements. Allāh says in Surah Dhāriyāt, "In the same way, whenever a The Holy Prophet came to those before them they said, 'He is a magician or a madman.'" [Surah 51, verse 52]

أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَيْنَاهُ قُلْ إِنِ افْتَرَيْتُمْ فَلَا تَمْلِكُونَ لِي مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا ۖ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تُفِيضُونَ فِيهِ
 كَفَىٰ بِهِ شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ ۖ وَهُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٨﴾ قُلْ مَا كُنْتُ بِدَعَا مِنَ الرُّسُلِ وَمَا
 أَدْرِي مَا يَفْعَلُ فِي وَلَا يَكْمُرُ ۖ إِنِ اتَّبِعُ إِلَّا مَا يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ وَمَا أَنَا إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٩﴾ قُلْ
 أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِن كَانِ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ وَكَفَرْتُمْ بِهِ ۖ وَشَهِدَ شَاهِدٌ مِنْ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ عَلَىٰ مِثْلِهِ ۖ فَتَأْمَنَ

وَأَسْتَكْبِرْتُمْ إِنَّا اللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٠﴾

(8) Or do they say that he has fabricated it? Say, "If I have fabricated it then you people will be unable to assist me against Allāh at all. He knows best about what you discuss concerning it. He suffices as Witness between us and He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful" (9) Say, "I am not a new thing among the messengers and I have no idea about what will happen to me and you people. I follow only what has been revealed to me and I am only a clear warner. (10) Say, "Tell me. What if this Qur'ān is really from Allāh and you people deny it and are arrogant whereas a witness from the Bani Isrā'īl testifies to a similar book and believes in it? Verily Allāh does not guide an oppressive nation."

A REPLY TO THE POLYTHEISTS WHEN THEY CLAIMED THAT THE HOLY PROPHET صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ FABRICATED THE QUR'ĀN

Whenever the polytheists heard the Qur'ān, they made spiteful statements. One of these statements was that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ had fabricated the Qur'ān. In other words, they said that Allāh had not revealed anything because the Qur'ān was a composition of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ. In reply to this allegation, Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ to tell them, "If I have fabricated it then (Allāh will certainly punish me for lying about the Qur'ān being His word and) you people will be unable to assist me against Allāh at all."

Allāh says in Surah Hāqqa, "If he [Muhammad صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ] has (falsely) attributed some words to Us We shall grab him by his right hand. We shall then sever his jugular vein and none of you will be able to protect him." [Surah 69, verses 44-47]

Since people will be unable to assist the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ against Allāh's punishment, it would have been futile for him to fabricate lies merely to please them.

"He knows best about what you discuss concerning it." Allāh has perfect knowledge about what the disbelievers say about the Qur'ān. At times they refer to it as magic, while at other times they call it a fabrication. This part of the verse warns them that they should not dwell under the misconception that they can escape Allāh because Allāh will take them to task for whatever they say about the Qur'ān.

The Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ is told to further tell the polytheists, "He suffices as Witness between us..." Allāh is Witness that the polytheists deny the Qur'ān, and Allāh also witnesses that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ propagated the Qur'ān as he was commanded. Allāh will therefore punish them for their rejection. However, if they repent and accept Islām, Allāh will certainly accept their repentance and forgive them because "He is the Most Forgiving, the Most Merciful." The fact that the disbelievers and polytheists are still alive and being sustained is a sign that Allāh is Most Merciful. Otherwise, He would have destroyed them.

"Say, 'I am not a new thing among the messengers....'" There were many Prophets صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ before the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, about whom people received reports in such abundance and from so many different sources that it is impossible to refute them. Just as the previous Prophets عليهم السلام invited people to accept oneness of Allāh, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did the same. Just as they performed miracles in front of the people, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did the same.

However, just as it was not necessary for any of the Prophets عليهم السلام to accede to the requests of the people when they demanded to see certain miracles, the same was also not necessary for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In addition to this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made it clear to them that he did not possess knowledge of the unseen. Neither did he ever claim to possess this knowledge nor is such knowledge a condition for someone to claim prophethood. Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that since he does not possess knowledge of the unseen, he should tell the people "I have no idea about what will happen to me and you people. I follow only what has been revealed to me and I am only a clear warner."

"Say, 'Tell me. What if this Qur'ān is really from Allāh and you people deny it and are arrogant whereas a witness from the Bani Isrā'īl testifies to a similar book and believes in it? Verily Allāh does not guide an oppressive nation." This verse prompts the disbelievers to ponder over their situation. By doing so, they will be guided to accept Islām. The verse is also a reply to a previous objection where the Polytheists accused the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم of fabricating the Qur'ān. Allāh tells them that while they obstinately reject the Qur'ān, there has been a witness from among the learned scholars of the Bani Isrā'īl who attested to the truth of the Qur'ān and accepted it as Allāh's word.

The disbelievers are prompted to think that they will be unable to avert Allāh's punishment when it afflicts them on account of their disbelief. There are many factors to prove that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was Allāh's messenger and that the Qur'ān is Allāh's Book. Another proof of this was that the Jews anticipated that Allāh's final Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was soon to appear among the Arabs and awaited his arrival. They accepted Islām, realising that the Qur'ān is certainly from Allāh.

The Arabs accepted the fact that the Jews were knowledgeable people and had already asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم several questions which they learnt from the Jews (e.g. about the soul, the people of the cave and Dhul Qarnain). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had furnished the correct replies for all of these questions, thus proving that he received revelation from Allāh. There was therefore nothing to prevent them from accepting Islām. The only thing that did prevent them from accepting Islām was the arrogance that had permeated into their hearts. They are thus advised to shun their arrogance before it leads them to the depths of Hell.

The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" has written that the Arabic phrase "Alā Mithlih" (translated above as "a similar") is an extra addition that will not affect the meaning of the other words (this is common in Arabic to 'decorate' a text). The verse will therefore mean that the witness from the Bani Isrā'īl has attested to the truth of the Qur'ān itself.

Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that the verse contains a hidden phrase that reads: "Who can be more misled than you people?" Therefore, the entire verse would convey the meaning that who can be more misled than you people who are arrogant and who deny the truth when a witness from among the Bani Isrā'il has already attested to the truth of the Qur'ān and believed in it? Therefore, the verse is similar to verse 52 of Surah HāMim Sajdah (Surah 41) where Allāh says, "Say, 'Tell me. If this Qur'ān is really from Allāh and you reject it, who will be further astray than the person who is in fanatical opposition?'"

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَوْ كَانَ خَيْرًا مَّا سَبَقُونَا إِلَيْهِ وَإِذْ لَمْ يَهْتَدُوا بِهِ
فَسَيَقُولُونَ هَذَا إِفْكٌ قَدِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾ وَمِنْ قَبْلِهِ كَتَبَ مُوسَىٰ إِمَامًا وَرَحْمَةً وَهَذَا كِتَابٌ
مُصَدِّقٌ لِّسَانًا عَرَبِيًّا لِّنَذِرَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا وَبُشْرَىٰ لِلْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا
رَبُّنَا اللَّهُ ثُمَّ اسْتَفْتَمُوا فَلَا خَوْفَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ
خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٤﴾

(11) The disbelievers say to the believers, "If this (faith) were good, you people would never have beaten us to it." If they have not been guided by means of the Qur'ān they would say, "This is an old lie!" (12) Before it was the book of Mūsa which was a leader and a mercy. This book is a confirmation in Arabic to warn the oppressors and it is glad tidings for those who do good. (13) Verily those who say, "Our Lord is Allāh" and are then steadfast, they shall have no fear neither shall they grieve. (14) These are the people of Heaven where they will abide forever as a reward for the deeds they carried out.

THE ARGUMENT OF THE DISBELIEVERS, THE EXCELLENCE OF THE TORAH AND THE REWARD FOR THOSE WHO POSSESS BELIEF AND REMAIN STEADFAST

Man has an almost instinctive inclination to consider himself better than others. Rich people regard themselves to be better and more intelligent than the poor just as certain tribes regard themselves to be superior to others. Referring to the same psyche of man, Allāh speaks about the attitude of the disbelievers who rated themselves to be superior than the believers. They felt that they were more worthy of receiving any good. Therefore, they said to the Muslims, "If this (faith of Islām) were good, you people would never have beaten us to it."

They reasoned that if Islām were good they would have been the first to accept it. However, since people of lower social standing had beaten them to accept Islām, they contended that Islām must be something inferior. They held the opinion that none could ever beat them to something good. The arrogance of these people led them to rate themselves as the best of people, thereby depriving themselves of true belief and Heaven.

Allāh says further, "If they have not been guided by means of the Qur'ān they would say, 'This is an old lie!'" They argued that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had someone write ancient tales for him when he composed the Qur'ān. All their arguments stemmed from obstinacy. To this day, none has ever risen to the challenge of the Qur'ān to produce even a single Surah of its kind.

Allāh then speaks of the Torah when He says, "Before it (the Qur'ān) was the book of Mūsa which was a leader and a mercy. This book (the Qur'ān) is a confirmation in Arabic to warn the oppressors (i.e. the polytheists of Makkah) and it is glad tidings for those who do good." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has interpreted the verse to mean that the disbelievers are foolish to reject the Qur'ān when they have accepted the Torah as a scripture from Allāh. Just as the subject matter of the Torah called to Allāh, the Qur'ān does the same because Allāh has revealed them both. It was therefore foolish for the polytheists to reject the Qur'ān especially since they spoke Arabic and could perceive that the Qur'ān was truly miraculous in nature.

It may also be said that the verse serves to console the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him that just as there were believers and non-believers of the Torah, there will be the same two groups with regard to the Qur'ān. Those who rejected the Torah also harassed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and told him that it was an "old lie" or a fabrication. However, he exercised patience and persevered. Therefore, the same was desired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

"Verily those who say, 'Our Lord is Allāh' and are then steadfast, they shall have no fear neither shall they grieve." This verse speaks about those people who declare that Allāh is their Lord and have this conviction embedded in their hearts. This condition is not temporary, but of a permanent nature as denoted by the word "steadfast". The word also denotes that such people fulfil the rights and demands of belief.

Steadfastness is an exceptionally great trait which cannot be under estimated. Sayyidina Sufyān bin Abdillāh Thaqafī رحمه الله once asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! The injunctions of Islām are numerous. Show me something that I may steadfastly hold on to." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him, "Say, 'I believe in Allāh' and then remain steadfast."

With regard to these people Allāh states, "These are the people of Heaven where they will abide forever as a reward for the deeds they carried out."

وَوَصَّيْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ بِوَلَدَيْهِ إِحْسَانًا حَمَلَتْهُ أُمُّهُ كُرْهًا وَوَضَعَتْهُ كُرْهًا وَحَمَلُهُ وَفَصْلُهُ
ثَلَاثُونَ شَهْرًا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ أَشُدَّهُ وَبَلَغَ أَرْبَعِينَ سَنَةً قَالَ رَبِّ أَوْزِعْنِي أَنْ أَشْكُرَ نِعْمَتَكَ
الَّتِي أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ وَعَلَىٰ وَالِدَيَّ وَأَنْ أَعْمَلَ صَالِحًا تَرْضَاهُ وَأَصْلِحْ لِي فِي ذُرِّيَّتِي إِنِّي تُبْتُ
إِلَيْكَ وَإِنِّي مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿١٥﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ نَقَبَلُ عَنْهُمْ أَحْسَنَ مَا عَمِلُوا وَنَتَجَاوَزُ عَنْ
سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ فِي أَصْحَابِ الْجَنَّةِ وَعَدَ الصَّادِقُ الَّذِي كَانُوا يُوعَدُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَالَّذِي قَالَ لَوْلَايَ
أَفِي لَكُمْ مَا أَعْدَانِي أَنْ أُخْرَجَ وَقَدْ خَلَتِ الْقُرُونُ مِنْ قَبْلِي وَهُمَا يَسْتَغِيثَانِ اللَّهَ وَيْلَكَ

ءَاْمِنَ اِنَّ وَعْدَ اللّٰهِ حَقٌّ فَيَقُوْلُ مَا هَذَا اِلَّا اَسْطِيْرُ الْاَوَّلِيْنَ ﴿١٧﴾ اُوْلٰئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ حَوَّ
 عَلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلُ فِيْ اَمْرِ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنَ الْجِيْنِ وَالْاِنْسِ اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا خٰسِرِيْنَ ﴿١٨﴾
 وَلِكُلِّ دَرَجَةٍ مِّمَّا عَمِلُوْا وَلِيُوَفِّيَهُمْ اَعْمَلَهُمْ وَهُمْ لَا يَظْلَمُوْنَ ﴿١٩﴾

(15) We enjoined man to treat his parents kindly. His mother bore him with hardship and delivered him with hardship and his bearing and weaning are for thirty months. Until the time arrives when he comes of strength and reaches the age of forty he says, "O my Lord! Grant me the ability to be grateful for the bounties that You have bestowed upon me and upon my parents and that I carry out good deeds that You are pleased with. And create sound capabilities in my progeny. Verily I repent to You and am from among those who surrender to You." (16) These are the people from whom We accept their good deeds, overlook their sins and will be among the people of Heaven (Jannah) because of the true promise that they have been promised. (17) The one who says to his parents, "Fie upon you two! Do you warn me that I shall be raised when many generations have passed before me?" The two of them seek Allāh's assistance saying, "Woe to you! Believe! Allāh's promise is true." He then says, "These are only tales of the old folk." (18) These are the people upon whom the decree has been passed from nations of men and Jinn who have passed on before them. They were all certain losers. (19) For every one there shall be ranks because of their deeds so that they may earn the full recompense for their deeds and they will not be shown the least injustice.

THE COMMAND REGARDING PARENTS, THE SUPPLICATION AND REWARDS OF THE RIGHTEOUS AND THE PUNISHMENT OF THE DISOBEDIENT

Allāh says, "We enjoined man to treat his parents kindly." The subject of treating parents kindly was discussed in verse 8 of Surah Ankabūt (Surah 29) and verse 14 of Surah Luqmān (Surah 31). Parents have to be treated kindly and obeyed because they are the visible cause of bringing a person into the world and have to endure great hardships and sacrifices to bring up their children.

Allāh then describes the difficulties that a mother endures for her children. Allāh says, "His mother bore him with hardship and delivered him with hardship." A mother carries her child in her womb for many months, enduring tremendous discomfort, pain and difficulty during this period. Eventually, when the time arrives for her to deliver the child, she has to bear the excruciating labour pains and then the indescribable pains of the birth itself.

"His bearing and weaning are for thirty months." The average child usually remains in the mother's belly and is suckled for a sum period of thirty months. Even during this period, the mother has to care for the child while the father arranges for the necessities of the child.

Allāh then proceeds to describe that believer who appreciates Allāh's bounties as well as the services that his parents rendered to him. Allāh says about him, "Until the time arrives when he comes of strength and reaches the age of forty..." The age of forty is regarded as the prime of mental maturity because a person is neither deceived by the passions and ambitions of youth nor does he experience the weakness and handicap of old age.

Allāh says that such a person makes the following supplication before Allāh: "O my Lord! Grant me the ability to be grateful for the bounties that You have bestowed upon me and upon my parents and that I carry out good deeds that You are pleased with." Not only does he make Supplication for his own piety and good deeds, but he also has concern for his offspring. Therefore, he continues to entreat Allāh saying, "And create sound capabilities in my progeny." He prays to Allāh to bless his progeny with capabilities that will benefit him and them in both worlds. If children are pious, they will carry out deeds that are pleasing to their parents and will serve them well. In this manner, the parents will be pleased and live a contented life.

When parents ensure that their children lead pious lives, they will also receive the rewards for the good deeds of their children without the rewards of the children being diminished in the least. In addition to this, pious children always make supplication for their parents.

Apart from making supplication for the ability to do good and for his children, Allāh's pious bondsman also seeks Allāh's forgiveness and confirms his submission to Allāh. Quoting the remainder of his supplication, Allāh says that he prays, "Verily I repent to You and am from among those who surrender to You."

Referring to pious believers like the one described above, Allāh says, "These are the people from whom We accept their good deeds, overlook their sins and will be among the people of Heaven because of the true promise that they have been promised." This refers to Allāh's promise of salvation that He conveyed to the people via the Prophets عليهم السلام.

SOME IMPORTANT NOTES

NOTE 1: The above verse makes it clear that every person must at least once in his youth (especially at 40) express gratitude to Allāh for all His favours. Although it is always necessary to show gratitude to Allāh, it is especially important when one has reached the prime of his intelligence and consciousness. A person should be grateful for what Allāh has granted to him as well as to his parents. He should also have concern for the spiritual welfare of his children and specially pray to Allāh for this.

NOTE 2: The verse has specified that the mother will bear and wean the child within a period of 30 months. The Muslim jurists have interpreted the verse to mean that a woman bears a child for six months, after which she can suckle him for the remaining 24 months. The minimum period of human gestation is therefore 6 months, whereas the maximum period of suckling is two years. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "Mothers shall suckle their children for two whole years, (that is) for those who wish to complete the (full period of) suckling." [Surah 2, verse 233]

Allāh says in Surah Luqmān, "His mother carried him in weakness upon weakness and his weaning is after two years." Both these verses also make it clear that a child may be suckled for two years. The Qur'ān does not stipulate the maximum period of pregnancy. The author of "Hidāyah" has written that the maximum period of pregnancy is two years. He substantiates this with a narration of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها which states that a child cannot live longer than two years in a mother's womb even though the (extra) period be equivalent to the shadow of a spindle. [Dār Qutni]

When this ruling was mentioned to Sayyidina Imām Mālik رحمه الله عليه, he commented, "Who says this? Every one of my neighbour's four children was born after (a pregnancy of) four years." It has also been narrated that Sayyidina Imām Mālik رحمه الله عليه himself stayed in his mother's womb for three years, where he even grew his teeth. Since such cases are extremely rare, we will not delve into the details.

If a woman gives birth to a child before six lunar months after marriage, the child will not be regarded as legitimate because the minimum gestation period of a human is six months. It will then be obvious that the child was conceived out of wedlock.

NOTE 3: "His mother bore him with hardship and delivered him with hardship."

Thereafter, during the next two years of suckling and the following years of tending, it is the mother who does most of the work for the child. Although the father works hard to see that the child receives the necessities, the mother has to do most of the tending and caring. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم emphasised that a person serves one's mother.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrates that someone once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to whom he should give priority in service and kind treatment. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Your mother." "Who next?" was the next question. Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم thrice repeated, "Your mother" to the next three questions of "Who next?". It was only on the fourth question that he said, "Your father." [Bukhari p. 883]

The Scholars have mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم thrice repeated the right of the mother because of the three hardships of bearing, delivering and suckling that she suffers. A person must also give preference to his mother when he spends his wealth.

After speaking about the believer who serves and obeys his parents, Allāh makes mention of the one who is given to being rebellious. Since he is a disbeliever, his parents entreat him to believe in Allāh and the Day of Judgment. However, he obstinately retorts, "Fie upon you two! Do you warn me that I shall be raised when many generations have passed before me (without being raised to this day)?"

"The two of them seek Allāh's assistance (by praying to Allāh to guide him) saying (to him), 'Woe to you! Believe! Allāh's promise is true.'" They try to convince him about the truth of Judgment day and that it cannot be said that Judgment day will never take place merely because it has still not occurred. It will take place at its appointed time which is known only to Allāh. However, unmoved by their appeals he tells them that Judgment day and resurrection "are only tales of the old folk."

"These are the people upon whom the decree (of punishment) has been passed from nations of men and Jinn who have passed on before them. They were all certain losers." Because they rejected the truth and refused to accept Islām, they will be at a total loss when they have to face the eternal punishment of Hell.

Allāh further says, "For every one there shall be ranks (in Heaven for the good and in Hell for the evil) because of their deeds so that they may earn the full recompense for their deeds and they will not be shown the least injustice." No deed of a believer will be wasted and none shall be punished for something s/he was innocent of.

وَيَوْمَ يُعْرَضُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَلَى النَّارِ أَذْهَبْتُمْ طَيِّبَاتِكُمْ فِي حَيَاتِكُمُ الدُّنْيَا وَاسْتَمْتَعْتُمْ بِهَا فَالْيَوْمَ تُجْزَوْنَ عَذَابَ الْهُونِ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَكْبِرُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَبِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَفْسُقُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾

(20) The day when the disbelievers will be presented to the Fire. "You have used your good things in your worldly life and enjoyed yourself with it. Today you will be recompensed with a disgracing punishment because you behaved proudly on earth without cause and because you were disobedient."

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL BE TOLD THAT THEY HAVE WASTED THEIR DEEDS AND WILL HAVE TO SUFFER A HUMILIATING PUNISHMENT IN THE HEREAFTER

When the disbelievers will be presented for punishment on the Day of Judgment, it will be made clear to them that they will suffer in Hell because they regarded this world as a place of mere entertainment and pursued every whim and desire. They did not have any concern to discern between Lawful (Halāl) and Unlawful and regarded it below their dignity to accept Islām. As a result of this arrogance, they will be subjected to a punishment that will humiliate them. It was with a view to this that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Sahabah (Companions of Prophet) رضى الله عنهم and the pious believers shunned the fulfilment of their desires in exchange for the rewards of the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that he once visited The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while Allāh's Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was lying on a straw mat, the pattern of which was imprinted upon his blessed body. He was resting his head on a leather pillow which was stuffed with the bark of a date palm. Seeing this situation, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه said, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Pray to Allāh to grant prosperity to your Ummah. The Romans and Persians have abundant wealth whereas they do not even believe in Allāh."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "O son of Khattāb! Are you still dwelling under the same misconception? These are the people who are given things of enjoyment in this very world. Does it not please you that they will have this world while we shall have the Ākhirah (Hereafter)?" ["Mishkāt" p. 447]

Sayyidina Zaid bin Aslam رضى الله عنه reports that Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه once asked for water. When he was brought some water sweetened with honey he said, "This is an excellent thing but I will not drink it because Allāh has condemned those people who fulfil their desires when He says, 'You have used your good things in your worldly life and enjoyed yourself with it.' I am therefore afraid to use things of pleasure because it should not happen that we are given everything in this world (and nothing in the Akhirah (Hereafter))." Saying this, he did not drink the mixture. ["Mishkāt" p. 449]

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه once saw him eating some meat and asked, "O Jābir! What is this?" Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه replied, "I had a desire to eat some meat so I bought some." Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه commented, "Do you buy everything that you desire? Are you not afraid of the verse 'You have used your good things in your worldly life and enjoyed yourself with it.' ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil"]

وَأَذْكُرْ أَخَاعِدٍ إِذْ أَنْذَرَ قَوْمَهُ بِالْأَحْقَافِ وَقَدْ خَلَّتِ النُّذُرُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٢١﴾ قَالُوا أَجِئْنَا لِنُؤْفِكَ عَنْ آلِهَتِنَا فَإِنَّا بِمَا نَعْبُدُونَ إِن كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾ قَالَ إِنَّمَا الْعِلْمُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَأُبَلِّغُكُمْ مَا أُرْسِلْتُ بِهِ وَلَكِنِّي أَرَأَيْتُمْ قَوْمًا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهُ عَارِضًا مُسْتَقْبِلَ أَوْدِيَتِهِمْ قَالُوا هَذَا عَارِضٌ مُّطْرُنًا بَلْ هُوَ مَا اسْتَعْجَلْتُمْ بِهِ رِيحٌ فِيهَا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٤﴾ تَدْمِرُ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ بِأَمْرِ رَبِّهَا فَأَصْبَحُوا لَا يُرَى إِلَّا مَسَكِنُهُمْ كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْقَوْمَ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَلَقَدْ مَكَنْتَهُمْ فِيمَا إِنْ مَكَنْتَكُمْ فِيهِ وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ سَمْعًا وَأَبْصَرًا وَأَفْئِدَةً فَمَا أَغْنَى عَنْهُمْ سَمْعُهُمْ وَلَا أَبْصَرُهُمْ وَلَا أَفْئِدَتُهُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِذْ كَانُوا يَجْحَدُونَ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَهْلَكْنَا مَا حَوْلَكُمْ مِنَ الْقُرَى وَصَرَفْنَا آلَايَاتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ فَلَوْلَا نَصْرُهُمُ الَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ قُرْبَانًا آلِهَةً بَلْ ضَلُّوا عَنْهُمْ وَذَلِكَ إِفْكُهُمْ وَمَا كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾

(21) Call to mind the brother of the Ād when he warned his people at "Ahqāf" whereas warners had already passed before him and after him (telling people) "Do not worship anyone besides Allāh. Verily I fear the punishment of a terrible day for you." (22) They said "Have you come to us to turn us away from our gods? Bring upon us what you warn us about, if you are truthful." (23) He said, "Knowledge is only with Allāh and I merely convey to you what I have been sent with. However, I notice that you are an ignorant nation." (24) When they observed it as a cloud approaching their valleys they exclaimed, "This is a cloud that will bring us rain." Rather, it was the thing they sought to hasten; a fierce wind bearing a painful punishment. (25) It demolished everything by the command of its Lord and it transpired that only their homes could be seen. Thus do We punish the sinful nation. (26) We granted them powers that We never gave you people and We gave them ears, eyes and hearts. However, their ears, eyes and hearts were of no benefit to them at all because they rejected Allāh's verses; and the mockery they made encompassed them. (27) We have destroyed the towns around you and clearly expounded the signs so that they return. (28) So why were they not helped by those whom they took as a means of gaining proximity (to Allāh) and whom they regarded as their gods? These will be lost to them. This is merely their lie and fabrication.

THE NATION OF ĀD ARE DESTROYED AFTER THEY REJECTED THE MESSAGE OF SAYYIDINA HŪD عليه السلام

"Call to mind the brother of the Ād..." Allāh reminds the Muslims about Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام who is referred to as "the brother of the Ād" because he was from among them. The Arabic word "Ahqāf" is the plural of "hiqf" and refers to the large sand dunes of Yemen where the nation of Ād resided. These are circular in shape and are practically ground level at the base. Because sand cannot remain fixed at one place, these dunes keep shifting.

Allāh says that Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام "warned his people at "Ahqāf" (that they should worship Allāh and abstain from polytheism) whereas warners had already passed before him and after him (telling people) 'Do not worship anyone besides Allāh. Verily I fear the punishment of a terrible day for you.'"

In response to his message, the people said, "Have you come to us to turn us away from our gods? (And if you say that we will suffer punishment for rejecting your message then) Bring upon us what you warn us about, if you are truthful." They challenged Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام to bring Allāh's punishment on them.

In reply to their challenge Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام said to them, "Knowledge is only with Allāh (i.e. only Allāh knows which nation is to be punished and at what time) and I merely convey to you what I have been sent with." i.e. I am entrusted with the task of conveying the message to you and I have no ability to afflict punishment. Noticing their aversion, he told them, "However, I notice that you are an ignorant nation."

The people of Ād were experiencing tremendous heat and were forced to leave their homes for cooler areas in the valley. As they all gathered there, they noticed a cloud approaching. They shouted out, "This is a cloud that will bring us rain." Allāh says that it was no ordinary cloud but "Rather, it was the thing (punishment) they sought to hasten; a fierce wind bearing a painful punishment."

Allāh says in Surah Hāqqa, "As for the Ād, they were destroyed by an icy tempest. Allāh unleashed it upon them for seven consecutive nights and eight consecutive days. You would have seen them lying flat on the ground as if they were hollow palm trunks. Do you see any of them surviving?" [Surah 69, verses 6-8]

Allāh says in Surah Dhāriyāt, "And (there is also a lesson) in (the story) of the Ād when we sent a wind to them that was devoid of any good. it reduced everything it passed to smithereens." [Surah 51, verses 41,42]

Allāh continues in Surah Ahqāf saying that the wind "demolished everything by the command of its Lord and it transpired that only their homes could be seen. Thus do We punish the sinful nation."

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that whenever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw a dark cloud in the sky, he would grow pale and would uneasily walk to and from the house. This anxiety would disappear only after the rains started to fall. When Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about this he replied, "O Ayshah! I fear that the situation should not be like that of the Ād who said, 'This is cloud that will bring us rain' when they saw the cloud approaching their valleys. 'Rather, it was the thing they sought to hasten; a fierce wind bearing a painful punishment. [Muslim v.1 p.294 and 495]

After recounting the incident of the Ād, Allāh addresses the people of Makkah saying, "We granted them (the Ād) powers that We never gave you people and We gave them ears, eyes and hearts."

Allāh blessed the Ād with great physical strength and wealth. However, when Allāh's punishment afflicted them, nothing could save them. Allāh did not deprive them of their senses, but they abused these. Allāh says further, "However, their ears, eyes and hearts were of no benefit to them at all because they rejected Allāh's verses..."

When an adversity afflicts a person in this world, he is able to utilise his senses and intelligence to alleviate the adversity to some degree. However, once Allāh's punishment afflicts a person because he rejects Allāh's verses, those faculties become useless to him. In addition to this, Allāh says that the evil consequences of "the mockery they made encompassed them." They will have to suffer the punishment they earned for mocking Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام and jeering at him to bring Allāh's punishment on them.

Addressing the Makkans further Allāh says, "We have destroyed the towns around you and clearly expounded the signs so that they return." Allāh refers to the destroyed cities of the Ād that lay in Yemen to the south of Makkah and the ruins of the Thamud that lie in Shām to the north of Makkah. When the Makkans travelled for trade to Shām, they passed the ruins of the Thamud and the destroyed cities of Sayyidina Lūt's عليه السلام nation. It was therefore required that they take a lesson from this.

However, the polytheists of Makkah did not heed these lessons and adamantly adhered to disbelief and polytheism. As a result, they were also destroyed when Allāh's punishment struck. When Allāh's punishment did overtake them, they received no assistance from the gods that they took as patrons and intercessors. The help that they claimed these gods would offer was a mere lie and figment of their imagination. In this regard Allāh says, "So why were they not helped by those whom they took as a means of gaining proximity (to Allāh) and whom they regarded as their gods? These will be lost to them. This is merely their lie and fabrication."

وَإِذْ صَرَفْنَا إِلَيْكَ نَفَرًا مِّنَ الْجِنِّ يَسْتَمِعُونَ الْقُرْآنَ فَلَمَّا حَضَرُوهُ قَالُوا أَنصِتُوا فَلَمَّا قُضِيَ وَلَّوْا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِمْ مُّنْذِرِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ قَالُوا يَتَقَوْمَنَا إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا كِتَابًا أُنزِلَ مِن بَعْدِ مُوسَىٰ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ يَهْدِي إِلَى الْحَقِّ وَإِلَىٰ طَرِيقٍ مُّسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٣٠﴾ يَتَقَوْمَنَا أَحِبُّوا دَاعِيَ اللَّهِ وَآمِنُوا بِهِ يَغْفِرَ لَكُمْ مِّن ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَيُجِرْكُمْ مِّن عَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٣١﴾ وَمَن لَا يُجِبْ دَاعِيَ اللَّهِ فَلَيْسَ بِمُعْجِزٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَيْسَ لَهُ مِن دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءُ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٣٢﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَلَمْ يَعْ يَخْلُقْهُنَّ يَفْعَلْ عَلَىٰ أَن يَحْيِيَ الْمَوْتَىٰ بَلَىٰ إِنَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَيَوْمَ يُعْرَضُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَلَى النَّارِ أَلَيْسَ هَذَا بِالْحَقِّ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ وَرَبِّنَا قَالَ فَذُوقُوا الْعَذَابَ بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَكْفُرُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾

(29) When We turned a group of the Jinn towards you, they attentively listened to the Qur'ān. When they presented themselves to listen they said, "Be silent." When the recitation was complete, they returned to their people as warners. (30) They said, "O our people! We have heard a book that was revealed after Mūsā which confirms what was before it and guides towards the truth and towards the straight path." (31) "O our people! Respond to Allāh's caller and believe in him; Allāh will forgive your sins and save you from a painful punishment." (32) "Whoever does not respond to Allāh's caller cannot escape on earth and has no protecting friend besides Allāh. Such people are in manifest deviation." (33) Do they not see that Allāh Who created the heavens and the earth and did not tire from creating them has the power to give life to the dead? Certainly! Allāh has power over all things. (34) The day when the disbelievers will be presented to the Fire (they will be asked), "Is this not the truth?" They will reply, "Certainly, by the oath of our Lord!" Allāh will say, "So taste the punishment because you used to disbelieve."

THE JINN HEAR THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ RECITE THE QUR'ĀN AND THEN RETURN TO INVITE THEIR PEOPLE TOWARDS ISLĀM

The Holy Prophet ﷺ was Allāh's messenger to man and Jinn alike. These verses of Surah Ahqāf as well as verses 1 to 19 of Surah Jinn (Surah 72) both make mention of how the Jinn listened to the Holy Prophet ﷺ recite the Qur'ān. Scholars have recorded that the Holy Prophet ﷺ met with the Jinn in their own settlement and elucidated the injunctions of Islām to them. In the terminology of the Muhaddithin, the incident is referred to as "Laylatul Jinn". They mention that "Laylatul Jinn" took place approximately six times.

"Ma'alimut Tanzil" (v.4 p.174) mentions that Allāh commanded the Holy Prophet ﷺ to propagate Islām to the Jinn and to recite the Qur'ān to them. Allāh then sent a group of Jinn from the city of Nineveh to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه accompanied the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he went to meet with the Jinn. The incident took place before the Hijrah to Madinah.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that the two of them approached the valley of Hajūn (which is the old name for the area of Makkah called Ma' la). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم drew a line on the ground and instructed Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه not to advance further than the line until he returned. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم proceeded ahead and recited the Qur'ān to an assembly of creatures that resembled donkeys. He also heard various types of deafening sounds which caused him to fear for the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم life. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم voice then faded and all the Jinn disappeared like fragments of cloud.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned after Fajr, he asked Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه whether he had fallen asleep. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه replied, "How could I sleep when I feared for your life? The thought kept occurring to me to call some people to find out what was happening to you." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "If you had moved from your spot one of them may have snatched you away. Did you see anything?"

"Yes," replied Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه, "I saw some black men dressed in white." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Those were the Jinn of the city Nasībīn. They came to ask me to allocate something as food for them so I allocated bones and the droppings of horses, animals, cows, etc for them." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه asked, "How will these things be of benefit to them?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Whenever they find a bone, they will have that much meat which was on that particular bone the day the meat was removed. In place of whatever droppings they find they will receive the equivalent amount of grain that the animal may have eaten (and has been changed into excrement)."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه asked, "What were the deafening sounds that I heard?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "A murder took place among the Jinn and they were pinning the blame on each other. They wanted me to resolve the issue, which I did with perfect justice."

According to another narration, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allocated bones as food for the Jinn and the droppings of animals as food for their animals. This is one of the reasons why man is prohibited from using bones and animal droppings for "Istinjā" (purifying oneself after passing urine or stool).

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه has also related that a few Sahabah (prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم and he met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم emerging from the cave of Hira on the morning that followed a "Laylatul Jinn". He said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "We searched for you the entire night but could not find you. We spent the entire night in the search because we were very worried." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "A caller from the Jinn came for me so I went with him and recited the Qur'ān to them."

Allāh says, "When they (the Jinn) presented themselves to listen they said, 'Be silent.' When the recitation was complete, they returned to their people as warners. They said, 'O our people! We have heard a book that was revealed after Mūsa which confirms what was before it and guides towards the truth and towards the straight path.'" This text makes it clear that the delegation of Jinn speaking were formerly Jews.

They further addressed their people saying, "O our people! Respond to Allāh 's caller and believe in him; Allāh will forgive your sins and save you from a painful punishment." This verse explains that the believers from among the Jinn will be rewarded with forgiveness and salvation from Hell. It does not state that they will be admitted into Heaven. In fact, no verse of the Qur'ān and no hadith makes it clear that the believers Jinn will enter Heaven. It is for this reason that the Scholars differ on the issue. While some of them are of the opinion that the believers Jinn will be admitted into Heaven, others say that the only reward they will receive for belief will be salvation from Hell, where after they will be turned into dust like the animals. Sayyidina Imām Abu Hanifa رحمه الله عليه has chosen not to make any decisive comment on the issue. (Further details will follow in Surah Rahmān, Insha Allāh).

They further advised their people: "Whoever does not respond to Allāh's caller (shall be inviting Allāh's punishment and) cannot escape on earth and has no protecting friend besides Allāh. Such people are in manifest deviation." Whereas this statement appears to be part of the Jinn's address, it may also be interpreted as an independent statement made by Allāh.

Since people who refute Allāh do not even believe in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), Allāh proceeds to make mention of the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh says, "Do they not see that Allāh Who created the heavens and the earth and did not tire from creating them has the power to give life to the dead? Certainly! Allāh has power over all things." This verse prompts the disbelievers to ponder about the fact that since Allāh was Able to create gigantic phenomena like the heavens and the earth without experiencing the least fatigue, how can one possibly imagine that mere resurrection will prove impossible for Him? If the matter is given due consideration, a person will be forced to admit that "Allāh has power over all things."

Allāh continues, "The day when the disbelievers will be presented to the Fire (they will be asked), 'Is this not the truth?'" This question will be posed to them because they denied the existence of Hell while living in the world and used to jeer at those who used to inform them of the reality of the Ākhirah (Hereafter). "They will reply, 'Certainly, by the oath of our Lord (this is a certainty)!'" However, their acceptance will now be futile. "Allāh will say, 'So taste the punishment because you used to disbelieve.'"

فَاصْبِرْ كَمَا صَبَرَ أُولُوا الْعَرْصِ مِنَ الرُّسُلِ وَلَا تَسْتَعْجِلْ لَهُمْ كَأَنَّهُمْ يَوْمَ يَرَوْنَ مَا يُوعَدُونَ لَمْ يَلْبَثُوا إِلَّا سَاعَةً مِّنْ نَّهَارٍ بَلَعَٰ قَهُلٌ يُهْلِكُ إِلَّا الْقَوْمَ الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ exercised patience and do not be hasty regarding them. The day when they will be shown what they had been promised, it will seem to them that they had not even lived a moment of a single day. This is a message. It will be only the sinful nation who will be destroyed.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS ENCOURAGED TO EXERCISE PATIENCE

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exerted himself greatly to convey the message of Islām to the masses. However, there were many people who behaved obstinately and refused to yield. Their behaviour hurt the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and caused him much grief. Allāh consoles him by saying, "Exercise patience like how the resolute ones among the messengers exercised patience and do not be hasty regarding them (that they should be punished). The day when they will be shown what they had been promised, it will seem to them that they had not even lived for a moment of a single day."

When the disbelievers are not punished in this world they say that it seems that they will not be punished. However, when they witness the extreme punishment in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) they will forget all the pleasures of this world and it will seem to them that they only spent a few moments in this world.

"This is a message." Some commentators have interpreted this sentence to mean that the verses of the Qur'ān conveyed thus far are sufficient as advice and warnings for man. Other commentators say that "This" refers to the Qur'ān i.e. "This Qur'ān is a message." This means that the Qur'ān contains the message of truth and informs man about acts that will earn him tremendous rewards and about sins that he should abstain from. The Qur'ān has therefore conveyed its message to man. Man now has the choice to act upon the advice of the Qur'ān and be saved from eternal punishment.

"It will be only the sinful nation who will be destroyed." The disobedient ones earn their own destruction by rebelling against Allāh's orders.

NOTE: "Exercise patience like how the resolute ones among the messengers exercised patience." While some commentators have mentioned that the verse refers to a specific group of Prophets عليهم السلام only, others maintain that all the Prophets عليهم السلام were equally resolute and steadfast. When it is assumed that only a limited number of Prophets عليهم السلام were resolute as described in the verse, it will be deemed necessary to name them. Consequently, some commentators have named all the Prophets عليهم السلام except Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام because he behaved hastily when he left his nation without waiting for Allāh's command. In verse 48 of Surah Qalam (Surah 68), Allāh has commanded the Holy Prophet عليه السلام not to be like Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام.

Other commentators have stated that the "resolute" Prophets عليهم السلام were the eighteen Prophets عليهم السلام mentioned in verses 83 to 86 of Surah An'am (Surah 6). With regard to these Prophets عليهم السلام, Allāh instructs, "These are those people whom Allāh has guided, so follow their guidance.” [Surah An’ām, verse 90]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that the “resolute” Prophets عليهم السلام were those who were granted their own Shariah. These were Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

سورة محمد

Madinan

Surah Muhammad

Verses 38

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَضَلَّ أَعْمَالَهُمْ ۖ (1) وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
وَعَمِلُوا بِمَا نُزِّلَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَهُوَ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ كَفَّرَ عَنْهُمْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ وَأَصْلَحَ بَالَهُمْ ۚ (2) ذَلِكَ
بِأَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا اتَّبَعُوا الْبَاطِلَ وَأَنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّبَعُوا الْحَقَّ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ ۚ كَذَلِكَ يَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ
لِلنَّاسِ أَمْثَلَهُمْ ۚ (3)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Allāh will destroy the deeds of those who disbelieve and prevent (others) from His path. (2) As for those who have faith, do righteous deeds and believe in what has been revealed to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, which is the truth from their Lord, Allāh will expiate their sins and rectify their situation. (3) This is because the disbelievers follow falsehood and the believers follow the truth from their Lord. In this manner does Allāh relate for people their parables.

THE DESTRUCTION OF THOSE WHO PREVENT OTHERS FROM ALLĀH'S PATH AND THE REWARD FOR THE BELIEVERS

The above verses draw a clear distinction between the believers and the disbelievers. Allāh begins the Surah by saying, "Allāh will destroy the deeds of those who disbelieve and prevent (others) from His path." Even though the disbelievers may carry out many good deeds and render great services to mankind, these deeds will not be recognised on the Day of Judgment on account of their disbelief.

Another factor that contributes to the destruction of their deeds is that they forbid others from following the path that Allāh has set out for man.

Allāh then speaks about the believers when He says, "As for those who have faith, do righteous deeds and believe in what has been revealed to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, which is the truth from their Lord, Allāh will expiate their sins and rectify their situation." This verse defines Imān (Belief) as belief in "what has been revealed to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. This makes it evident that after the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, no person can have belief without believing in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh also attests to the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the truth of his teachings by declaring that everything he preaches to people "is the truth from their Lord". Thereafter Allāh explains that the good fortune of the believers and ill-fortune of the disbelievers occur because "the disbelievers follow falsehood and the believers follow the truth from their Lord." In this verse, Allāh mentions that the truth is 'from their Lord' to indicate that the truth can proceed only from Him.

"In this manner does Allāh relate for people their parables." The author of "Ruhul Ma'ani" says that "their parables" refers to the condition and situation of people. Allāh discusses the conditions of the Believers and the disbelievers, making it clear that the believers follow the truth and will attain salvation. On the contrary, the disbelievers will suffer a tremendous loss as a result of their disbelief.

فَإِذَا لَقِيتُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَضَرْبَ الرِّقَابِ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَثْنَمْتُمُوهُمْ فَشُدُّوا الْوَثَاقَ فَإِمَّا مَنًّا بَعْدُ وَإِمَّا فِدَاءً
حَتَّىٰ تَضَعَ الْحَرْبُ أَوْزَارَهَا ۚ ذَٰلِكَ وَلَوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ لَآنصَرَّ مِنْهُمْ وَلَٰكِنْ لَّيَبُولُو أَعْيُنَكُمْ بِبَعْضِ
وَالَّذِينَ قُتِلُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَلَن يُضِلَّ أَعْمَالَهُمْ ﴿٤﴾ سَيَجْعَلُ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ مَصْرًا ۖ وَنُصْرًا ۖ وَالَّذِينَ
عَرَفْنَا لَهُمُ ﴿٥﴾ يَتَّيْنُهُمُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا ۖ إِن نُّصَرُوا لِلَّهِ يَنْصُرْكُمْ وَيُثَبِّتْ أَقْدَامَكُمْ ﴿٦﴾ وَالَّذِينَ
كَفَرُوا فَتَعَسَا لَهُمْ ۖ وَأَضَلَّ أَعْمَالَهُمْ ﴿٧﴾ ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَرِهُوا مَا أُنْزِلَ اللَّهُ فَاحْبَطَ أَعْمَالَهُمْ
﴿٨﴾ أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ ۖ دَمَّرَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَالْكَافِرِينَ أَتَيْنَاهُمُ ﴿٩﴾ ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ مَوْلَى الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَأَنَّ الْكَافِرِينَ لَا مَوْلَى لَهُمْ ﴿١٠﴾ إِنَّ
اللَّهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِن تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ ۖ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
يَتَمَنَّوْنَ وَيَأْكُلُونَ كَمَا تَأْكُلُ الْأَنْعَامُ وَالنَّارُ مَثْوًى لَهُمْ ﴿١١﴾ وَكَأَيِّن مِّن قَرْيَةٍ هِيَ أَشَدُّ قُوَّةً
مِّن قَرْيَتِكَ الَّتِي أَخْرَجْنَاكَ أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ ۖ فَلَا نَاصِرَ لَهُمْ ﴿١٢﴾ أَفَمَن كَانَ عَلَىٰ يَبِينَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّهِ
كَمَن زُيِّنَ لَهُ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ ۖ وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ ﴿١٣﴾

(4) When you confront the disbelievers in battle then strike their necks. Eventually, when you have slain them, then fasten a tight bond. Thereafter, it is either unconditional freedom or ransom until the war lays down her burdens. This is it. If Allāh willed, He could have exacted revenge from them, but this is to test some of you with others. The deeds of those who are martyred in Allāh's way shall never be destroyed. (5) Allāh shall shortly convey them to their destination, rectify their affairs... (6) ...and admit them into Heaven (Jannah) which He has introduced to them. (7) O you who believe! If you will assist Allāh, Allāh shall assist you and make you steadfast. (8) Destruction be for those who disbelieve and Allāh shall destroy their deeds. (9) This is because they dislike what Allāh revealed, because of which He lays their deeds to waste. (10) Have they not travelled on earth and seen what was the outcome of those before them? Allāh annihilated them and the disbelievers shall have the same. (11) This is because Allāh is the Protecting Friend of the believers and because the disbelievers have no protecting friend. (12) Allāh shall certainly admit those who believe and carry out good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. As for the disbelievers, they enjoy themselves and eat like the animals eat. The Fire shall be their abode. (13) Many were the towns that were more powerful than your town which drove you out. We destroyed them and they had none to assist them. (14) Can the one who is steadfast on a proof from his Lord be like those whose evil deeds have been beautified for them and who follow their whims?

FIGHTING IN JIHĀD, THE LAWS REGARDING PRISONERS OF WAR AND THE VIRTUE OF MARTYRS

In the above verses, Allāh instructs the Muslims that they should fight in earnest when confronting the enemy in Jihād. Allāh also instructs that those enemy soldiers who are not killed in the battle should be taken as prisoners and guarded well. Thereafter, the Muslims may either release the prisoners unconditionally, exchange them for Muslim prisoners, or demand a ransom for their release. The decision rests with the Amīr-ul-Mu'minīn. Muslims therefore have the following five choices in dealing with disbelievers prisoners of war:

1. Release them unconditionally.
2. Exchange them, for Muslim prisoners of war being held by the disbelievers.
3. Release them in exchange for monetary ransom (as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did after the Battle of Badr).
4. Execute them.
5. Distribute them among the Muslim soldiers as slaves.

The details of the third and fourth options have been discussed in the commentary of Surah Anfāl. When the prisoners of war are made slaves, they will then reside in the Muslim country under the protection of the Islāmic state.

Sayyidina Imām Abu Hanīfa رحمه الله عليه is of the opinion that it is not permissible to release disbelievers prisoners of war totally unconditionally i.e. without an exchange of prisoners or without a monetary ransom. In this regard, Imām Jassās رحمه الله عليه has written in "Ahkāmul Qur'ān" that Surah Barā'ah (Surah 9) was revealed after Surah Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He states the options of unconditional release and release on ransom have been repealed by verses of Surah Barā'ah like "Fight the polytheists wherever you find them" [verse 5] and "Fight those who do not believe in Allāh and the Last Day" [verse 29].

Whereas Sayyidina Imām Abu Hanīfa رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ does not permit the unconditional release of disbelievers prisoners of war, his two prominent students Imām Muhammad and Abu Yusuf رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ permit it. Imām Shāfi'ī رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ has also permitted this. Although the Hanafi school of jurisprudence does not permit the ransoming of disbelievers prisoners of war, Imām Muhammad رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ writes in "Siyar Kabīr" that this would be permitted if the Muslims are in need of the ransom money.

Allāh says, "If Allāh willed He could have exacted revenge from them..." i.e. Allāh could have punished the disbelievers in a way other than having them suffer death and captivity at the hands of the Muslims. However, Allāh has commanded the believers to fight in Jihād "to test some of you with others." i.e. to test whether the believers will actually risk their lives to confront the disbelievers in open battle. Jihād is also a test for the disbelievers because it provides the opportunity for them to realise the truth of Islām when they witness the ways in which Allāh assists the Muslims from unseen sources. They are then afforded the opportunity to accept Islām.

Allāh says further, "The deeds of those who are martyred in Allāh 's way shall never be destroyed." This verse assures the Muslims that martyrdom not only signifies success in their test, but it will also accrue to them tremendous rewards for every deed. Furthermore, "Allāh shall shortly convey them to their destination, rectify their affairs and admit them into Heaven which He has introduced to them." Allāh will ensure that all the affairs of these people are to their liking in the grave, on the Plain of Resurrection, and in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh has already introduced Heaven to the believers by means of his scriptures and the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام. Another interpretation of this verse is that Allāh will make people recognise their abodes in Heaven even better than they were acquainted with their abodes in this world (as reported in a hadith).

Allāh then proclaims His assistance to the Muslims when He says, "O you who believe! If you will assist Allāh (i.e. assist in propagating Islām), Allāh shall assist you and make you steadfast." Of course, Allāh needs no assistance from anyone.

After discussing the good fortune of the believers, Allāh proceeds to speak about the disbelievers. Allāh says, "Destruction be for those who disbelieve and Allāh shall destroy their deeds." They will suffer defeat at the hands of the believers and will also be doomed to suffer eternally in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). "This (ill-fortune) is because they dislike what Allāh revealed, because of which He lays their deeds to waste."

LEARNING LESSONS FROM TRAVELLING

Sounding a warning to the disbelievers who are beguiled by their wealth and prosperity, Allāh says, "Have they not travelled on earth and seen what was the outcome of those before them? Allāh annihilated them and the disbelievers shall have the same." Every disbeliever stands to face the same destruction in this world for their rejection. Of course, a far worse doom awaits them in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

"This (salvation of the believers and destruction of the disbelievers) is because Allāh is the Protecting Friend of the believers and because the disbelievers have no protecting friend."

THE REWARD OF THE BELIEVERS AND THE DOOM OF THE DISBELIEVERS

"Allāh shall certainly admit those who believe and carry out good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. As for the disbelievers, they enjoy themselves (in this world) and eat like the animals eat. The Fire shall be their abode." Because the disbelievers regard this world to be everything to them, they make every effort to accrue the pleasures of the world. Just like animals eat anywhere and eat as much as they please, the disbelievers do the same without any consideration of lawful and unlawful earnings.

This type of behaviour is clearly evident among the Western culture where man and woman foster intimate relationships without caring for marriage. Even those who do marry do not give a second thought to striking up an adulterous relationship with another person. Just like animals, they shamelessly fornicate in public, discarding every shred of modesty. Certain governments have even stooped to legalising homosexuality and lesbianism. In fulfilling his carnal passions, the disbeliever has stripped himself of all humane traits and adopted bestiality. This type of behaviour is now sweeping like wildfire through the Muslim masses.

Such people are not conscious of lawful (Halāl) and Unlawful food and earnings because they are engrossed in carnal enjoyment. Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "Enjoy your disbelief for a while! You will certainly be from the inmates of the Fire." [Surah 39, verse 8]

A WARNING TO THE PEOPLE OF MAKKAH

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Many were the towns that were more powerful than your town which drove you out. (However, despite their power and might) We destroyed them and they had none to assist them."

Allāh then portrays the stark difference between a believer and a disbeliever when He says, "Can the one who is steadfast on a proof from his Lord be like those whose evil deeds have been beautified for them and who follow their whims?" The two cannot be equal because of the unmistakable differences between them. Consequently, they will be treated differently in both worlds.

مَثَلُ الْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي وُعِدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ فِيهَا أَنْهَارٌ مِنْ مَّاءٍ غَيْرِ آسِنٍ وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ لَبَنٍ لَمْ يَتَغَيَّرَ طَعْمُهُ
وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ حَمْرٍ لَذَّةٍ لِلشَّارِبِينَ وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ عَسَلٍ مُصَفًّى وَلَهُمْ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ
مِّن رَّبِّهِمْ كَمَنْ هُوَ خَالِدٌ فِي النَّارِ وَسُقُوا مَاءً حَمِيمًا فَقَطَّعَ أَمْعَاءُهُمْ ﴿١٥﴾

(15) The description of the Heaven (Jannah) that the people of Piety have been promised is that it contains rivers of water that never contaminate, rivers of milk the taste of which never spoils, rivers of wine that are extremely palatable to those who drink it and rivers of the purest honey. The people there shall also have every type of fruit and forgiveness from their Lord. Can these people ever be like those who will abide forever in the Fire and are given boiling water to drink which tears their innards to shreds?

THE DELECTABLE DRINKS FOR THE PEOPLE OF HEAVEN COMPARED TO THE BOILING WATER GIVEN TO THE INMATES OF HELL

Like the foregoing verses, the above verse also discusses the blessings to be received by the righteous and the miserable condition that the disbelievers and sinners will find themselves in after death. Allāh describes the rivers of Heaven in the above verse when He says that Heaven "contains rivers of water that never contaminate, rivers of milk the taste of which never spoils, rivers of wine that are extremely palatable to those who drink it and rivers of the purest honey."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, there are a hundred ranks in Heaven that Allāh has specially reserved for those who strive in His way. A distance equivalent to the span between the sky and the earth separates each of these ranks from the next. So, whenever you ask Allāh for Heaven, ask Him for Jannatul Firdous (Paradise of Heaven) because it enjoys the best and most elevated position of Heaven. Only the throne of Rahmān lies above it and all the rivers of Heaven find their source in it." [Bukhari p. 391]

A similar narration reported by Sayyidina Ubādah bin Sāmīt رضى الله عنه states: "All four rivers of Heaven find their source in it." Mulla Ali Qāri رحمه الله has stated in his commentary of "Mishkāt" that these four rivers are the four mentioned in the above verse viz, rivers of water, milk, wine and honey. This hadith makes it clear that all these rivers have their source in Jannatul Firdous, from where the tributaries flow to the other parts of Heaven.

This verse describes the river of wine as being "extremely palatable to those who drink it". Allāh says in Surah Sāffāt, "They will be presented with goblets filled with flowing wine which will be white and delicious for the drinkers. It will neither produce headaches, nor will they be intoxicated with it." [Surah 37, verses 45-47]

Allāh also says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "Youngsters of eternal youth shall wait on them with goblets and jugs and glasses filled with flowing wine. Neither will they have headaches with it, nor will they be intoxicated." These verses make it evident that the drinks of Heaven will be extremely delectable and will not produce any ill-effects like the wines of this world.

Thereafter, Allāh adds, "The people there shall also have every type of fruit and forgiveness from their Lord. Can these people ever be like those who will abide forever in the Fire and are given boiling water to drink which tears their innards to shreds?" Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The people of Hell will suffer such severe hunger that this hunger alone would be as bad as any punishment they suffer in Hell. When they beg for food, they will be given "Dārī" to eat, which will neither nourish their bodies nor satisfy their hunger. When they plead for food a second time, they will be given food that will get stuck in their throats and choke them. Frantically thinking of some manner to swallow the food, they will recall that they used to take something to drink in this world to facilitate easy swallowing. When they will plead for something to drink, boiling water will be given to them in iron cups. When the cups will be brought to their mouths, it will scald their faces and when they drink the water, it will tear their innards to shreds." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 504, from Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina 'Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made the following comment regarding the verse "Before him is Hell and he will be given puss as water to drink. He will drink it in sips and it will not go down his throat." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When the puss will be brought to the person's mouth, he will abhor it. When it will be brought even closer, it will scorch his face. When he drinks it, his intestines will be ripped apart and emerge from his anus." Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the following two verses viz.

"...are given boiling water to drink, which tears their innards to shreds?" (Surah Muhammad, verse 15)

"If they seek assistance, they will be assisted with water like molten metal that will scorch their faces. The worst of drinks!" (Surah Kahf (18), verse 29) ["Mishkāṭ" p. 503]

وَمِنْهُمْ مَّن يَسْتَمِعُ إِلَيْكَ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا خَرَجُوا مِنْ عِنْدِكَ قَالُوا لِلَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ مَاذَا قَالَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا
 أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ طَبَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ ﴿١٦﴾ وَالَّذِينَ اهْتَدَوْا زَادَهُمْ هُدًى
 وَءَانَّهُمْ وَقَّوْلُهُمْ ﴿١٧﴾ فَهَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا السَّاعَةَ أَن تَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً ط فَفَءَ جَاءَ أَشْرَاطُهَا فَأَنَّىٰ لَهُمْ
 إِذَا جَاءَهُمْ ذِكْرُهُمْ ﴿١٨﴾ فَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لِذَنبِكَ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ
 وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مُتَقَلَّبَكُمْ وَمَثْوَاكُمْ ﴿١٩﴾

(16) There are those people who listen to you intently until they depart from your presence and then say to those who have been granted knowledge, "What has he said just now?" These are the ones on whose hearts Allāh has set a seal and who follow their whims. (17) As for those who are rightly guided, Allāh shall increase their guidance and grant them their Piety. (18) They now only seem to await Judgment day to come to them suddenly. Undoubtedly, its signs have already arrived. How will they be reminded when Judgment day does dawn on them? (19) Know well that none is worthy of worship besides Allāh and seek forgiveness for your shortcomings and for the believing men and women. Allāh has knowledge of your movements and your places of rest.

THE BEHAVIOUR OF THE HYPOCRITES AND THE SEAL UPON THEIR HEARTS

The hypocrites were disbelievers who feigned being Muslims. Their hypocrisy was evident from their deeds and behaviour. One of their practices was that they attended the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم gatherings and pretended to listen very attentively. However, their attention was elsewhere and they did not comprehend what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said. They merely sat there to fool others. When the gathering was over, they then met the learned Sahabah (prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم and asked them what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had mentioned.

Their first act of hypocrisy was to feign concentration during the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم sermons. The second act of hypocrisy was to pretend that they were concerned about what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had to say. Allāh says about them, "These are the ones on whose hearts Allāh has set a seal and who follow their whims."

Allāh then talks about the believers when He says, "As for those who are rightly guided, Allāh shall increase their guidance (because they believe and practise every new injunction) and grant them their Piety" i.e. Allāh will grant them the ability to act on all His commands and to abstain from everything that He has forbidden them from doing.

Allāh then rebukes the disbelievers for their attitude towards the truth when He says about them, "They now only seem to await Judgment day to come to them suddenly." i.e. They neither accept Islām, nor carry out good deeds. They are unaffected by the warnings of punishment and refuse to believe in the tidings of Heaven. All that seems left to convince them is Judgment day itself. With regard to Judgment day, Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, its signs have already arrived." The advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in itself a sign to denote the closeness Judgment of day. Another sign was the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم miracle of splitting the moon as referred to in the first verse of Surah Qamar (Surah 54) where Allāh says, "Judgment day has drawn near and the moon has been split."

However, when Judgment day does eventually take place, it will be too late for people to believe because belief will be unacceptable then. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "How will they be reminded when Judgment day does dawn on them?" Allāh says in Surah Fajr, "The day when Hell will be brought to the fore. On that day man will understand. But of what use will this understanding be?" [Surah 89, verse 23]

ENCOURAGEMENT TO SEEK FORGIVENESS

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Know well that none is worthy of worship besides Allāh and seek forgiveness for your shortcomings and for the believing men and women." This injunction is also addressed to the Muslim masses. Any erroneous act of The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that was not entirely becoming of the noble status of a Prophet is referred to as a "shortcoming" in the verse. Of course, every one of the Prophets عليهم السلام were innocent from sins but fell prey to human errors because they were human after all.

The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was commanded to seek forgiveness even though he was innocent so that his Ummah could learn from him and follow suit. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, a form of contamination settles in my heart and I repent to Allāh a hundred times daily." Another narration states that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would repent a hundred times in each sitting.

The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" writes further, "It is indeed Allāh's great benevolence to this Ummah that He has commanded the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to seek forgiveness on their behalf. Allāh has made him an intercessor and has also promised to accept his intercession." [v.4 p.183]

"Allāh has knowledge of your movements and your places of rest." The following are a few interpretations of the verse:

v Ibn Jarīr رحمه الله عليه - Allāh has knowledge of your moving about and of the places you reside in.

v Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه - Allāh has knowledge of your movements in this world as well as of your resting place in the Ākhirah (hereafter).

v Sayyidina Ikrima رحمه الله عليه - Allāh has knowledge of you when you were in the wombs of your mothers and also after you have been born in to the world.

v Ibn Kaysān رحمه الله عليه - Allāh has knowledge of your tossing and turning in your beds and your ultimate resting place in the grave. Allāh knows best. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v. 4 p.183]

وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَتْ سُورَةٌ فَإِذَا أُنْزِلَتْ سُورَةٌ مُحْكَمَةٌ وَذُكِرَ فِيهَا الْقِتَالُ
رَأَيْتَ الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَيْكَ نَظَرَ الْمَغْشَىٰ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ
لَهُمْ طَاعَةٌ وَقَوْلٌ مَّعْرُوفٌ فَإِذَا عَزَمَ الْأَمْرُ فَلَوْ صَدَقُوا اللَّهَ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُمْ ﴿٢٠﴾
فَهَلْ عَسَيْتُمْ إِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ أَنْ تُفْسِدُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَتَقَطَّعُوا أَرْحَامَكُمْ ﴿٢١﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ
لَعَنَهُمُ اللَّهُ فَأَصَمَّهُمْ وَأَعَمَّىٰ أَبْصَرَهُمْ ﴿٢٢﴾ أَفَلَا يَتَذَكَّرُونَ الْقُرْآنَ أَمْ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبٍ
أَفْئَالٌهَا ﴿٢٣﴾

(20) The believers say, "Why is a Surah not revealed?" Then when a Surah is revealed in which mention is made of fighting in Jihād, you will see those with a disease in their hearts looking at you with the look of a person who is overcome by the swoon of death. Their misfortune is still forthcoming. (21) Obedience and good words. Then when the command is ratified it will be best for them if they are true to Allāh. (22) It is just possible that if you are given authority, you would spread anarchy on earth and sever family ties. (23) These are the people whom Allāh has cursed, has deafened and made blind. (24) Do they not ponder over the Qur'ān or are there locks upon their hearts?

THE DISOBEDIENCE OF THE HYPOCRITES

The above verses describe the eagerness that the believers possessed for Jihād and the aversion that hypocrites had for it. Allāh says, "The believers say,

'Why is a Surah not revealed (with more commands from Allāh)?'" The true believers are eager to exert themselves further in fulfilling Allāh's commandments. The emotions of the hypocrites at this point is altogether different. Allāh says, "Then when a Surah is revealed in which mention is made of fighting in Jihād, you will see those with a disease (of hypocrisy) in their hearts (i.e. the Hypocrites) looking at you with the look of a person who is overcome by the swoon of death." The hypocrites detest Allāh's commandments because they regard them as a burden upon their shoulders.

The situation is more grave for them when Allāh commands Jihād because they will be forced to participate to maintain their guise as Muslims. In fact, their resentment is so profound that it is evident from their faces. The fact that the hypocrites are forced to participate in Jihād to maintain their guise is a punishment of its own. If any of them is then killed in the battle, the punishment is even worse. It is with regard to this that Allāh says, "Their misfortune is still forthcoming."

"Obedience and good words" i.e. instead of reacting adversely to Allāh's command, it would be best if the hypocrites accepted the command and verbally expressed their pleasure to conform. "When the command (to fight in Jihād) is ratified it will be best for them if they are true to Allāh (and prove the sincerity of their belief)."

"It is just possible that you are given authority, you would spread anarchy on earth and sever family ties." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that the verse is addressed to the Hypocrites. Given the knowledge of their excessive love for the world and their aversion for Jihād, it can be expected of them to cause strife and anarchy on earth if they are ever allowed to rule over people. In fact, they are so decadent that they are not even able to maintain cordial relationships with their family members.

Another translation of the Arabic word "tawallaytum" (translated above as "given authority") is to be averse. According to this translation, the verse addresses the hypocrites thus: "Is it possible that just as you are averse to Jihād, you will also spread anarchy on earth and sever family ties?" The question is rhetorical because when Jihād is forsaken, evil does soon gain the upper hand over society. Eventually, stability is lost and strife becomes the order of the day.

Allāh then says that the Hypocrites "are the people whom Allāh has cursed (cast far from His mercy), has deafened and made blind." Bereft of the faculty of listening to the truth and recognising it, they cannot be expected to tread the straight path.

THE NECESSITY OF PONDERING OVER THE QUR'ĀN

Allāh asks, "Do they not ponder over the Qur'ān or are there locks upon their hearts?" This verse reproaches the hypocrites for not thinking deeply about the advice of the Qur'ān. If they make the effort to deliberate over the Qur'ān, they would never remain hypocrites and would never do what they do. However, their hearts appear to be locked and inaccessible to positive thinking.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ارْتَدُوا عَلَىٰ أَدْبَارِهِمْ مِن بَعْدِ مَا بَيَّنَّ لَهُمُ الْهُدَىٰ الشَّيْطَانُ سَوَّلَ لَهُمْ
 وَأَمَلَىٰ لَهُمْ ﴿٢٥﴾ ذَلِكَ يَأْتِيهِمْ قَالُوا لِلَّذِينَ كَرِهُوا مَا نَزَّلَ اللَّهُ سَطِيْعُكُمْ
 فِي بَعْضِ الْأُمْرِ ۖ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ إِسْرَارَهُمْ ﴿٢٦﴾ فَكَيْفَ إِذَا تَوَفَّتْهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ يَضْرِبُونَ
 وُجُوْهُهُمْ وَأَدْبَارَهُمْ ﴿٢٧﴾ ذَلِكَ يَأْتِيهِمْ أَتَّبَعُوا مَا أَصْحَبَ اللَّهُ وَكَرِهُوا
 رِضْوَانَهُ فَأَحْبَطَ أَعْمَالَهُمْ ﴿٢٨﴾

- (25) Indeed those who have turned their backs after guidance has been clarified for them, Satan has beautified (their sins) for them and prolonged their hopes. (26) This is because they say to those who detest Allāh's revelation, "We shall follow you in some matters." Allāh has knowledge of their secret talks. (27) What will be their condition when the angels shall claim their souls while smiting their faces and backs? (28) This is because they pursue the things that anger Allāh and they dislike His pleasure. So Allāh lays their deeds to waste.

SATAN /DEVIL BEGUILLES THE APOSTATES

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that the above verses also refer to the hypocrites. They are unable to remain on the straight path because of their rebellious nature. Other commentators are of the opinion that the verses refer to the Ahlul Kitāb (the people of Book) because they turned their backs on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم despite the fact that they recognised him from the description of their scriptures.

Before the advent of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they used to tell others that they would be followers of the final messenger. The general words of the verse apply to both these groups equally.

Allāh says, "Indeed those who have turned their backs after guidance has been clarified for them, Satan has beautified (their sins) for them and prolonged their hopes." Satan makes them think that their ways are right and beautifies the material things of this world so that they are attracted to them and forget about Allāh. Satan also tells people that they still have long lives to lead in this world and that they will have to compromise the pleasures of this world if they were to accept Islām.

"This is because they say to those who detest Allāh's revelation, 'We shall follow you in some matters.' ... Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه interprets the verse to mean: "Satan beguiles the hypocrites and Jews because they say to the polytheists that they will join them in opposing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and abstaining from assisting the Muslims in Jihād. It is this allegiance that they pledge to the polytheists that allows Satan the opportunity to beautify their deeds for them and to prolong their hopes." [Qurtubi v.16 p.250]

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" disagrees with this interpretation, but it seems the most appropriate interpretation in my humble opinion. The author of "Bayānul Qur'an" has interpreted the verse to mean that the hypocrites turn their backs on Islām because they tell the Jews that they will secretly follow anything the Jews command them. However, to preserve their guise as Muslims, they will pretend to follow the commands of Islām. However, they fail to perceive that "Allāh has knowledge of their secret talks."

THE DISBELIEVERS ARE PUNISHED AT THE TIME OF THEIR DEATH

"What will be their condition when the angels shall claim their souls while smiting their faces and backs?" If the disbelievers are not punished in the world, they will be foolish to think that they have escaped punishment. Their real punishment will begin at the time of their death when the angels of death will beat them. They spend their lives escaping the call to Jihād, but will have to die some day. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that every sinful person will be beaten on the face and back at the time of death, but this cannot be perceived by onlookers just as the punishment of the grave cannot be sensed by the living.

Allāh says in Surah Anfāl, "If only you could see how the angels claim the souls of the disbelievers, smiting their faces and backs saying, 'Taste the punishment of the Blaze! This is because of what your own hands have sent forward and surely Allāh is not oppressive to His bondsmen.'" [Surah 8, verses 50, 51]

Allāh continues further, "This (punishment) is because they pursue the things that anger Allāh (disbelief, polytheism and sin) and they dislike His pleasure (i.e. accepting Islām). So Allāh lays their deeds to waste." Because of the disbelief and polytheism that they practise, all their deeds will be useless to them in the Akhirah (Hereafter). Besides the punishment at the time of death, they will continue to receive punishment forever.

أَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ أَنْ لَنْ يُخْرِجَ اللَّهُ أَضْغَنْثَهُمْ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَأَرَيْنَاكَهُمْ فَלَعَرَفْتَهُمْ بِسِيمَاهُمْ وَلَتَعْرِفَنَّهُمْ فِي لَحْنِ الْقَوْلِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ أَعْمَالَكُمْ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَلَنَبْلُوَنَّكُمْ حَتَّى نَعْلَمَ الْمُجْتَهِدِينَ مِنْكُمْ وَالصَّادِقِينَ وَنَبْلُوَ أَجْرَكُمْ ﴿٣١﴾

(29) Do those with a disease in their hearts think that Allāh will never expose their malice? (30) If We will, We would show them to you and you would recognize them by their features. You will surely recognise them by their manner of speech. Allāh has knowledge of their deeds. (31) We shall certainly test you until. We ascertain those of you who strive and those who are steadfast so that We may examine your deeds.

THE HYPOCRISY OF THE HYPOCRITES CAN BE DETERMINED FROM THEIR MANNER OF SPEECH

Although the hypocrites pretended to show solidarity with the Muslims, they harboured great animosity and malice towards the Muslims. These ill feelings often surfaced, but they still adamantly proclaimed to be Muslims. They even swore oaths that they were Muslims and they lived among the Muslims so that their true identities could be concealed. They even prided themselves for their ingenuity in disguising themselves. For a long period of time, Allāh did not expose their individual identities, but merely described the many traits and actions of the hypocrites. Details of this are mentioned in Surah Barā'ah (Surah 9), on account of which Surah Barā'ah is referred to as "Fādiha i.e. "The Humiliater". Other Surahs also mention such details.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Do those with a disease in their hearts think that Allāh will never expose their malice? If We will, We would show them to you (individually) and you would recognise them by their features. You will surely recognise them by their manner of speech." The behaviour and speech of insincere persons can be clearly distinguished from that of sincere Muslims. They swear oaths unnecessarily, speak in a staggered manner and reply to questions after much thought and deliberation. The hypocrites were allowed to maintain their guise for a long time until the time came when they were eventually driven out of the Masjidun Nabawi in humiliation. The details of this can be had from the biography of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم written by Ibn Hishām رحمه الله عليه [v. 2].

"Allāh has knowledge of their deeds." Allāh has perfect knowledge of those believers who are sincere and those people who have hypocrisy lurking in their hearts. Although the hypocrites may have thought that they were able to fool the Muslims, they had no hope of concealing their identities from Allāh.

Allāh addresses the Muslims saying, "We shall certainly test you (with commands like Jihād) until We ascertain those of you who strive and those who are steadfast so that We may examine your deeds."

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَشَاقُّوا الرَّسُولَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا تَبَيَّنَ لَهُمُ الْهُدَىٰ لَنْ يَضُرُّوا اللَّهَ شَيْئًا وَسَيُحِيطُ أَعْمَالُهُمْ ﴿٣٢﴾ ۖ يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَلَا تُبْطِلُوا أَعْمَالَكُمْ ﴿٣٣﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ مَاتُوا وَهُمْ كُفَّارٌ فَلَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ ﴿٣٤﴾ فَلَا تَهِنُوا وَتَدْعُوا إِلَى السَّلَامِ وَأَنْتُمْ الْآعِلُونَ وَاللَّهُ مَعَكُمْ وَلَنْ يَرْكَعَ أَعْمَالَكُمْ ﴿٣٥﴾

(32) Indeed those who disbelieve, forbid from Allāh's path and oppose the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم after guidance has been clarified for them cannot harm Allāh at all. Allāh will soon annul their deeds. (33) O you who believe! Obey Allāh, obey the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and do not invalidate your deeds. (34) Verily those who disbelieve, forbid from Allāh's path and then die as disbelievers, Allāh shall never forgive them. (35) So do not weaken, do not call for a truce and you will be dominant. Allāh is with you and will never devalue your deeds.

THE DISBELIEVERS CANNOT HARM ALLĀH IN THE LEAST AND ALL THEIR DEEDS WILL BE WASTED

Allāh declares, "Indeed those who disbelieve, forbid from Allāh's path and oppose the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم after guidance has been clarified for them cannot harm Allāh at all." In fact, they do harm to themselves by damning themselves to the eternal punishment of the Aakhirah (Hereafter). In addition to this, "Allāh will soon annul their deeds." Those deeds which would earn ample rewards for sincere believers will be useless to the disbelievers because of the absence of Belief.

"O you who believe! Obey Allāh, obey the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and do not invalidate your deeds."

Deeds are invalidated by having doubts in one's Belief, by perpetrating disbelief and polytheism, as well as by carrying out certain major sins. These factors deprive one of the rewards of good deeds. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that ostentation and boasting cause one's deeds to be annulled. The general meaning of the verse includes all factors that contribute to cancelling the reward of good deeds.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه said, "We, the Sahabah (prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم, were under the impression that all good deeds are certainly accepted. When the verse 'O you who believe! Obey Allāh, obey the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and do not invalidate your deeds' was revealed, we thought, 'What could invalidate our deeds?' We later realised that major sins and immoral acts were implied. Thereafter, whenever we saw any person commit a major sin or an immoral act, we would say that the person is destroyed. Later, when Allāh revealed the verse 'Verily Allāh does not forgive that polytheism be committed, but may forgive all sins besides this for whom He wills,' it became our practice that whenever someone committed a major sin, we would fear that he will be punished (i.e. we were never certain that he will be punished).

We also entertained hope that the person who did not commit any major sin would be forgiven." ["Ruhul Ma'āni", v.26 p.79]

Allāh further states, "Verily those who disbelieve, forbid from Allāh's path and then die as disbelievers, Allāh shall never forgive them." On the other hand, if a disbeliever opposed Islām, prevented others from Allāh's Dīn and then repented by accepting Islām, all the wrongs he perpetrated as a disbeliever will be forgiven and he will be worthy of entering Heaven. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said to Sayyidina Amr bin Al Ās رضى الله عنه, "Don't you know that acceptance of Islām destroys everything before it?"

QADHĀ (SAYING A PRAYER OR FAST AFTER DUE TIME) IS COMPULSORY AFTER INVALIDATING NAFL SALĀH OR FASTS

According to the Hanafi school of jurisprudence, a person will have to repeat any Optional Salāh or fasts if he unduly terminated them. Among the various proofs to substantiate this statement, the above verse is also cited. If a person started performing Salāh or fasting and then terminated the Salāh or fast before completing the act, he will be guilty of invalidating an act which had to be completed. He will therefore be acting contrary to Allāh's clear instruction of "do not invalidate your deeds." The verse prohibits people from invalidating any act of worship, whether it be by means of terminating the act before completion or by means of invalidating it in any other way.

"DO NOT WEAKEN"

Allāh addresses the Muslims further when He states, "So do not weaken, do not call for a truce..." This verse enjoins Muslims to engage in Jihād against the disbelievers when the disbelievers prepare to attack them. They should never shy away from Jihād on the pretext of calling for a truce because this is a sure sign of weakness. Of course, if the disbelievers propose a peace treaty, the Muslims are at liberty to accept it if it is beneficial for them. Details of this have been mentioned in the commentary of verse 61 of Surah Anfāl where Allāh says, "If they (the disbelievers) are inclined towards making peace, then you should also incline yourselves to it and trust in Allāh. Without doubt, He is All Hearing, All Knowing."

Allāh then tells the Muslims, "and you will be dominant." Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, "Do not lose courage and do not be grieved for you shall be dominant if you are indeed believers." This verse of Surah Āl Imrān stipulates the quality of belief as a condition for dominance. This means that the Muslims have to be imbued with the qualities of piety, love for the Ākhirah (Hereafter), trustworthiness and have to abstain from sins if they want to remain in an authoritative position on earth. When they cease to be true believers with these qualities, the disbelievers will speedily gain the upper hand over them and assume authority. Of course, there are certain instances when the Muslims will be allowed to avoid Jihād for legitimate reasons. To understand this, one may refer to the commentary of the verse "Now Allāh has lightened your burden and He knows that there is weakness within you." [Surah Anfāl (6), verse 66]

Allāh then makes a promise to the believers saying, "Allāh is with you..." Therefore, the believers should fight the disbelievers in earnest because they have Allāh's support. They should press on in the Jihād campaigns having perfect trust in Allāh and with the intention of pleasing Him only. Verse 7 of this Surah stated, "O you who believe! If you will assist Allāh (i.e. Allāh's Dīn), Allāh shall assist you and make you steadfast."

Allāh also promises the believers: "and (Allāh) will never devalue your deeds." Allāh will grant a person the full reward due to him/her for a deed. Of course, the condition is that the person does not invalidate the deed in some way. The minimum reward that any good deed earns is ten fold. Allāh then increases the reward for whoever He wills. Allāh states in Surah Jinn, "Whoever believes in his Lord has neither loss (of reward) nor oppression to fear (i.e. he does not have to fear being punished for something he did not do)." [Surah 72, verse 13]

إِنَّمَا الْحَيَوةُ الدُّنْيَا لَعِبٌّ وَلَهُمْ وَإِنْ تَوَمَّنُوا وَتَنَقَّلُوا يُؤْتِكُمْ أَجُورَكُمْ وَلَا يَسْأَلُكُمْ
أَمْوَالَكُمْ ﴿٣٦﴾ إِنْ يَسْأَلْكُمْوهَا فَيُخَفِّفْكُمْ تَبَخَّلُوا وَيُخْرِجْ أَصْغَنَكُمْ ﴿٣٧﴾ هَآئِنْدُ

هَؤُلَاءِ تَدْعُونَ لِنُفِقُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَمِنْكُمْ مَنْ يَبْخَلْ وَمَنْ يَبْخَلْ فَإِنَّمَا
يَبْخُلُ عَنْ نَفْسِهِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ الْغَنِيُّ وَأَنْتُمُ الْفُقَرَاءُ وَإِنْ تَتَوَلَّوْا يَسْتَبْدِلْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ
ثُمَّ لَا يَكُونُوا أَمْثَلَكُمْ ﴿٣٨﴾

(36) The life of this world is mere play and amusement. If you believe and fear Allāh, He will grant you your rewards and will not ask for your wealth. (37) If Allāh had to ask you for your wealth and demand it from you, you would have become miserly and He would have exposed your heartfelt dissatisfaction. (38) Behold! You are the very ones who are summoned to spend in Allāh's way but there are those among you who are miserly. Those who are miserly practise miserliness to their own detriment. Allāh is Independent and you are all needy. If you turn away, He will substitute you with another nation who will not be like yourselves.

THE FUTILITY OF THIS WORLDLY LIFE AND THE HARMS OF MISERLINESS

In the above verses, Allāh advises the believers to spend their wealth for the cause of Dīn (religion). Allāh first describes the reality of this world when He says, "The life of this world is mere play and amusement." Allāh makes a similar assertion in Surah Ankabūt when He says, "The life of this world is mere futility and play. Without doubt, the life of the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is true life. If only they knew." [Surah 29, verse 64]

Tangible objectives cannot be acquired through play and amusement. True pleasure and happiness can be had only in Heaven. It is therefore imperative for every person to exert himself/herself to attain success in the Ākhirah and escape falling prey to the temptations of this world.

Allāh further states, "If you believe and fear Allāh (by fulfilling His commands), He will grant you your rewards and will not ask for your wealth." Allama Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه interprets the verse to mean that Allāh does not command man to spend all his wealth in Zakāh. According to another interpretation, it means that Allāh has commanded man to spend his wealth on himself as well, for which he will be rewarded. Yet another interpretation explains that the wealth of man is not actually his because Allāh has given everything to him. Therefore, when Allāh asks man to donate in charity, it is not man's wealth that Allāh asks for, but Allāh's. Therefore, man should be happy when Allāh asks him to spend in charity because Allāh is merely asking for what actually belongs to Him.

Although the verse mentions that Allāh will not ask a person for his wealth if he believes, it does not mean that people will be asked for their wealth if they do not believe. There is no question of Allāh commanding the disbelievers to spend in charity because Allāh has nothing to do with them. The disbelievers fear that they will be asked to spend their wealth upon accepting Islām, because people in the world sometimes ask others for money when they have struck a relationship with them.

Allāh then says, "If Allāh had to ask you for your wealth and demand it from you, you would have become miserly and He would have exposed your heartfelt dissatisfaction." If people were forced to spend their wealth, they would be naturally dissatisfied and would hold back their wealth. It is evident nowadays that some Muslims find it extremely difficult to spend even 2,5% of their wealth for Zakāh.

There are also many who will pay their Zakāh but make no effort to ensure that the Zakāh is calculated properly. As a result, they pay less than what is due from them.

"Behold! You are the very ones who are summoned to spend in Allāh's way but there are those among you who are miserly. Those who are miserly practise miserliness to their own detriment." By failing to spend in charity, a person deprives himself of the rewards to be accrued. By spending in worthy causes, a person benefits himself by attaining the everlasting rewards in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), as well as an increase in blessings in this world.

"Allāh is Independent and you are all needy." Everything in the universe depends on Allāh for its existence and survival, while Allāh needs none. No person should ever think that s/he is benefiting Allāh in any way by spending in His path.

IF YOU TURN AWAY, ALLĀH WILL RAISE ANOTHER NATION

Allāh states, "If you turn away (from Islām), He will substitute you with another nation who will not be like yourselves." Allāh addresses the Muslims of every era, telling them never to think that Jihād, charity and the branches of Dīn (religion) are dependant on them or their nation. Allāh does not need anyone to do anything. Allāh is the Supreme Creator, the Master and Omnipotent. He may use whoever He wills for any task.

THE SERVICE THAT NON-ARAB NATIONS RENDERED TO ISLĀM

Tirmidhi reports a hadith in which the Sahabah (prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Who is the nation about whom Allāh says that He will substitute in our place if we turn away and who will not be like us?" Sayyidina Salmān Fārsī رضى الله عنه was present with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at that time. In reply to the question, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم placed his hand on Sayyidina Salmān's رضى الله عنه shoulder (or thigh according to another narration) and said, "This person and his nation (the Persians)." Another report states that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "This man and his companions."

Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم added, "I swear by the Being in Whose control lies my life! If belief was suspended from the Thurayya (Pleiades) constellation of stars, many Persians would acquire it." [Tirmidhi in the Chapter concerning the commentary of Surah Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم]

It occurred that once the Arabs started neglecting the Dīn (religion), Allāh raised many great men from Persia who rendered a tremendous service to Islām. Sayyidina Imām Abu Hanīfa رحمه الله عليه was one of these men, whose piety and knowledge is proverbial. One should also study the biography of Imām Bukhari رحمة الله عليه, another son of Islām of Persian origin. Yet another is Imām Bukhari's رحمة الله عليه teacher, Sayyidina Makki bin Ibrahim رحمة الله عليه, from whom Imām Bukhari رحمة الله عليه has narrated eleven "Thulāthiyāt"

Among a galaxy of Persian Muhaddithīn (scholars of Hadith) Hāfidh Dhahabi رحمة الله عليه has noted the following luminaries:

- 📖 Abu Ubaid Qāsim bin Sallām Harawi رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Nu'aim bin Hammād Marwazi رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Is'hāq bin Ibrahim Marwazi رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Zuhair bin Harb رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Qutaybah bin Sa'id Balkhi رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Abu Ja'far, Muhammad bin Mahrān Rāzi رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Abu Zakariyya, Yahya bin Mūsa Balkhi Sajistāni رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Hāfidh Zakariyya bin Yahya Balkhi رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Imām Abu Zur'ah Rāzi رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Imām Abu Hātim Rāzi رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Imām Abu Dawūd رحمة الله عليه (compiler of Sunan Abu Dawūd).
- 📖 Sulaymān bin Ash'ath Sajistāni رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Imām Tirmidhi رحمة الله عليه (Compiler of Sunan Tirmidhi).
- 📖 Abu Abdillah, Muhammad bin Yazīd Qazwīni Ibn Majah رحمة الله عليه (the compiler of Sunan Ibn Majah).
- 📖 Imām Ahmad bin Shu'ayb An Nasa'i رحمة الله عليه (compiler of Nasa'i).
- 📖 Imām Abu Ja'far., Muhammad bin Jarīr Tabari رحمة الله عليه (renowned as Ibn Jarīr Tabari).
- 📖 Al Hāfidhul Kabīr, Muhammad bin Is'hāq bin Khuzayma Naysapūri رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Hāfidh Abu Abdillah Muhammad bin Yahya bin Minda Asbahāni رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Imām Muslim رحمة الله عليه also hails from the Persian city of Naysapūr, although he is linked to the Arab tribe of Qushayr.

There are many more names that can be traced in historical sources. Apart from the famous scholars mentioned above, Imām Jalāludīn Suyuti رحمة الله عليه has also cited the names of the following:

- 📖 Hāfidh Abu Qāsim tabrāni رحمة الله عليه (compiler of the famous Ma'ājim).
- 📖 Hafidh Abu Hātim, Muhammad bin Hibbān رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Ibnus Sunni, Abu Bakr Dīnuri رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Hāfidh Abu Nu'aim Isbahāni رحمة الله عليه.
- 📖 Imām Bayhaqi رحمة الله عليه.

The above are the names of only eminent Muhaddithīn of Persian origin. If a list has to be made of non-Arab scholars (not only Persian) serving the various other branches of Dīn (religion), the list is endless. In the field of Qirā'ah, the names of Imām Abu Amr Dāni رحمه الله عليه, Imām Shāṭbi رحمه الله عليه and Imām Jazari رحمه الله عليه shine forth. The list on non-Arab Mufasssirin (commentators of the Qur'ān) and Fuqahā (Muslim Jurists) is also extensive. The scholars of Persia were also responsible for the propagation of the Hanafi school of jurisprudence. They are commonly referred to as "Scholars Mā Warāun Nahar" ("The Scholars from beyond the River").

One should also not forget the services that the Tatars (Tartars) and Turks rendered to Islām after becoming Muslims. The role that the Turks played in the Crusades is most notable. All non-Arab nations are implied in the verse "He will substitute you with another nation." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cited the Persians by way of example.

سورة الفتح

Madinan

Surah Al-Fath

Verses 29

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِنَّا فَتَحْنَا لَكَ فَتْحًا مُبِينًا ﴿١﴾ لِيُغْفِرَ لَكَ اللَّهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِن ذَنْبِكَ وَمَا تَأَخَّرَ وَيُتِمَّ نِعْمَتَهُ عَلَيْكَ وَيَهْدِيكَ صِرَاطًا مُسْتَقِيمًا ﴿٢﴾ وَنُصْرَكَ اللَّهُ نَصْرًا عَزِيزًا ﴿٣﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ السَّكِينَةَ فِي قُلُوبِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ لِيَزْدَادُوا إِيمَانًا مَعَ إِيْمَانِهِمْ ۖ وَلِلَّهِ جُنُودُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۖ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمًا ﴿٤﴾ لِيَدْخُلَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۖ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَيُكَفِّرَ عَنْهُمْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ ۖ وَكَانَ ذَلِكَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ فَوْزًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٥﴾ وَيُعَذِّبُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ ۖ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ ۖ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ ۖ وَالْمُشْرِكَاتِ ۖ الظَّالِمِينَ ۖ بِاللَّهِ ظَنِّ السَّوْءِ عَلَيْهِمْ دَائِرَةُ السَّوْءِ ۖ وَغَضِبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَعَنَهُمْ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ جَهَنَّمَ وَسَاءَتْ مَصِيرًا ﴿٦﴾ وَلِلَّهِ جُنُودُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۖ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَزِيزًا حَكِيمًا ﴿٧﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Indeed, We have granted you a manifest victory... (2) So that Allāh may forgive you for those shortcomings that have passed and those that may occur in the future; and so that He may complete His favour on you, guide you on the straight path... (3) And (so that) Allāh may render you assistance that is most powerful. (4) It is He Who sends tranquility into the hearts of the believers so that their faith increases together with the faith they have. The armies of the heavens and the earth belong to Allāh and Allāh is Ever All Knowing, the Wise. (5) (Allāh has granted you a manifest victory) so that He may admit the believing men and women into gardens beneath which rivers flow. They will abide there forever and He shall pardon them for their sins. This is a great success in Allāh's sight. (6) (Allāh has granted you a manifest victory) so that Allāh may punish the hypocrite men and women as well as the polytheistic men and women, all of whom hold an evil opinion of Allāh. An evil calamity shall befall them, Allāh is angry with them, curses them and has prepared Hell for them. What an evil place to return to! (7) The armies of the heavens and the earth belong to Allāh and Allāh is always the Mighty and Wise.

A CLEAR VICTORY AND THE PROMISES OF TREMENDOUS DIVINE ASSISTANCE AND FORGIVENESS

Surah Fatah makes mention of the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah and the Muslim conquest of Khaybar, after which it concludes with a beautiful description of the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم. The beginning of this Surah was revealed while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم were on a journey.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه narrates that after concluding the peace treaty at Hudaibiyyah, the Muslims were returning to Madinah in grief because they were unable to perform the Umrah they set out to perform. When the opening verses of Surah Fatah were revealed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم, "Such a verse has been revealed to me which is more beloved to me than the entire world." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the verse, 'indeed, We have granted you a manifest victory so that Allāh may forgive you for those shortcomings that have passed and those that may occur in the future.'

Thereupon, the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم said, "Congratulations to you, O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! We would like to know what will become of us." It was then that Allāh revealed the verse, "That He may admit the believing men and women into gardens beneath which rivers flow..." ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil" v.4 p.188, Bukhari v.2 p.600]

Sayyidina Zaid bin Aslam رحمه الله reports from his father that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once on a journey when Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه posed a question to him one night. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not reply, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه repeated the question. However, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not reply even the second time, and neither when the question was repeated a third time.

Thereupon, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه said to himself, "May your mother forsake you! (It was customary for the Arabs to say this when they were in sorrow). You have placed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in difficulty by repeating a question thrice, to which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not reply." Rebuking himself thus, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه hastened his camel until it proceeded ahead of all the others, fearing that some verse of the Qur'ān may be revealed condemning his act. After a while, he heard someone calling, "O Umar! Present yourself before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم." Consequently, he came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in fear that some verse must have been revealed concerning him. When he greeted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the latter said, "Such a Surah has been revealed to me that is more beloved to me than everything on which the sun rises." Thereafter, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verses, 'Indeed, We have granted you a manifest victory...' [Bukhari p. 600 and 716]

A DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE TREATY OF HUDAYBIIYAH

The polytheists of Makkah harassed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the prophet's companion's رضى الله عنهم to the extent that they were forced to migrate to Madinah. In the month of Dhul Qa'dah of the 6th year after the Hijrah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left with the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم for Makkah to perform Umrah. He appointed Sayyidina Namila bin Abdillāh Laythi رضى الله عنه to be the Amīr of Madinah in his absence. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the residents of Madinah as well as those living in the nearby villages to accompany him. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم donned the Ihram so that it may be understood that they intended to perform Umrah and had no intention to wage Jihād. They even took their sacrificial animals with them.

Upon reaching a place called Usfān, a person by the name of Bishr bin Sufyān met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and informed him that the Quraysh met at Dhu Tuwa and swore on oath that they would not permit his entry into Makkah. He also informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Khālid bin Walid (who was then still a Polytheist) had already reached a place called Kurā'ul Ghamim with a contingent of horsemen to resist the Muslims.

After hearing this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم changed course and travelled towards the right of their original course. Since this was not the conventional route, the terrain proved difficult because it was a series of rocky valleys. The route eventually led to the path to Hudaybiyyah. Hudaybiyyah lies between Makkah and Jeddah and forms the boundary of the Haram. The Muslims would not have passed by Hudaybiyyah if they took the conventional route from Usfān. However, it was necessary to alter course to avoid a skirmish with the Quraysh.

When the contingent of Quraysh horsemen received intelligence of the Muslims' new course, they returned to Makkah. In the meantime, the Muslims had already reached Hudaybiyyah. At Hudaybiyyah, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم camel sat down. When the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم remarked that she was being stubborn, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pointed out to them that she normally never behaved in this manner. He then added, "The Being that stopped the people of the elephants from entering Makkah has stopped her as well." Knowing well that the Quraysh were intent on resisting the Muslims' entry into Makkah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commented, "Today I will comply to any request that the Quraysh make if it can be done on the grounds of fostering family ties."

Water was very scarce at Hudaybiyyah. The prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم pointed out to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that there was no water for wudhu (ablution) and for drinking. All they had was the little water that was in the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم cup. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم placed his blessed fingers in the cup and water began gushing from between them. The narrator of this hadith Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه says that the water was sufficient for them to drink and to make wudhu (ablution). When he was asked how many they were, he replied, "We were 1500. Even if we were a hundred thousand, the water would have been enough for all."

Sayyidina Barā bin Āzib رضى الله عنه narrates, "You people interpret the "manifest victory" (mentioned in the verse) as the conquest of Makkah whereas we regard it to be the pledge of Ridhwān that was taken at Hudaybiyyah. We numbered more than 1400 then. There was a little water in the well at Hudaybiyyah, all of which we drew for using until there was not even a drop left. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم learnt of this, he came to the well and sat on one edge of it. He then asked for a bucket of the drawn water to be brought to him. When this was done, he added some of his blessed saliva to the water (according to another narration, he made wudhu (ablution) and gargled his mouth). He then threw the water into the well and instructed the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم to leave the well for while. After a while, when the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم began to draw water from the well, there was sufficient water to quench the thirst of all the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم and their animals."

There is no contradiction between the narrations of Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Barā bin Āzib رضى الله عنه. While Sayyidina Barā رضى الله عنه stated that they numbered more than 1400, Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه rounded the figure off to 1500. There is also no discrepancy between the incidents of the cup and the well because both are separate incidents that took place on that occasion.

While the Muslims camped at Hudaybiyyah, the Quraysh consecutively sent Budail bin Waraqa, Mukarraz bin Hafs, Halis bin Alqama and Urwa bin Mas'ūd Thaqafi as envoys to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made it clear to each one of them that they had come to perform Umrah and did not intend to fight.

THE LOVE AND SPIRIT OF SELF-SACRIFICE THAT THE PROPHET'S COMPANIONS رضى الله عنهم DISPLAYED TOWARDS THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

When Urwa bin Mas'ūd met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he was stunned to see the love and devotion that the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم showed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They would not allow the water falling from his limbs to touch the ground when he made wudhu and would immediately scoop it up. They would also hasten to pick up any hair that fell from his head.

When addressing the Quraysh afterwards, Urwa bin Mas'ūd said, "I have been to the royal courts of Caesars, Kisra and Najashi. I have never seen the followers of any ruler so devoted to him as the followers of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم are to him. If you ever fight against him, they will never desert him. Consider well what you intend doing."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه to proceed to Makkah to convince the Quraysh that the Muslims did not intend to fight. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه pointed out to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the Quraysh recognised him as one of their greatest enemies and that there are none of his tribe, the Banu Adi, present in Makkah to offer him any protection. He suggested to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Rather send Uthmān bin Affān رضى الله عنه because the Quraysh respect him more than myself." Consequently, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه as an envoy to the likes of Abū Sufyān and others to clarify the position of the Muslims. When Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه explained the matter to the Quraysh, they remained adamant that they would not allow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to make Circumambulation of the Ka'ba. However, they told Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه that he was allowed to make Circumambulation while he was there. Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه remarked that he would not make Circumambulation without the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه was then detained in Makkah but the Muslims received news that he was assassinated.

THE PLEDGE OF RIDHWĀN

When the Muslims heard that Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه had been assassinated, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the Muslims that now they would not return to Madinah without waging Jihād against the Quraysh because they had already created the atmosphere for war. It was then that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took a pledge of allegiance from each of the prophet's companion's رضى الله عنهم that they would fight with him to the end and never desert. Because of his absence, Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه was the only companion's رضى الله عنه that could not swear his allegiance. Therefore, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم added his second hand to the solemnising of the pledge, stating that it represented the hand of Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه.

This pledge took place beneath a tree at Hudaibiyyah. It was with regard to this that Allāh revealed the verse, "Allāh was well pleased with the believers when they pledged their allegiance to you beneath the tree." It is for this reason that the pledge is called "Bay'atur Ridhwān" ("The Pledge of Ridhwān" - Ridhwān meaning Allāh's pleasure). The prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم who took the pledge are referred to as "As'hābush Shajarah" ("The Companions of the Tree") because the pledge was taken beneath a tree.

Although the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم later learned that the news of Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه assassination was false, they still earned the rewards from Allāh and were awarded the medal of Allāh's pleasure, as announced in the Qur'ān - an accolade that will be recited forever.

Thereafter, the Quraysh sent Suhayl bin Amr to negotiate a peace treaty with the Muslims. They gave him explicit instructions that the treaty should not permit the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entry into Makkah because the Arabs will then taunt them by saying that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم forced an entry into Makkah. Suhayl bin Amr entered into a lengthy discussion with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم until the clauses of the treaty were concluded.

THE CLAUSES OF THE TREATY OF HUDAYBIYYAH

Bukhari (v.1 p.371,372) and Muslim (v.2 p.104) report that Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه commenced writing the treaty with the words: "This is what has been decided by Muhammad, the messenger of Allāh." Suhayl bin Amr and his companions objected to this saying, "We do not accept him as Allāh's messenger. If we did accept, why would we prevent him from performing Umrah? Rather write 'Muhammad, the son of Abdullāh.'"

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I am Muhammad, the messenger of Allāh as well Muhammad, the son of Abdullāh." Then, addressing Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Erase the words 'the messenger of Allāh'." Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه replied, "I cannot erase this attribute of yours." This he said out of reverence and not disobedience. Thereafter, the treaty was commenced with the words, "This is what has been decided by Muhammad, the son of Abdullāh."

Muslim (v.2 p.105) reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه to begin the treaty with the words, "Bismillahir Rahmānir Rahīm" ("In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful"). Suhayl bin Amr objected to this by saying, "What is 'Bismillahir Rahmānir Rahīm'? We do not acknowledge this. Rather write what we are familiar with i.e. 'Bismikallah Humma' ('In Your name, O Allāh')." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم acceded to this request as well.

According to "Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" (v.4 p.168), the words of the treaty were as follows:

"This is what Muhammad, the son of Abdullāh has negotiated with Suhayl bin Amr. The two have negotiated on the following:

1. No wars shall take place for a period of ten years. All shall live in peace and none shall attack the other.
2. Any person from the Quraysh who defects to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم without the consent of his senior will have to be returned.
3. Any person from Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم companions who defects to the Quraysh does not have to be returned.
4. There shall be a sealed bag between us (i.e. there will be no fighting between us. Other 'Scholars have explained this clause to mean that whatever has been concluded has been done so with a clear heart. Hearts are referred to as bags because they contain many secrets. A sealed bag will therefore denote a heart that will not exude deception.)
5. None shall physically steal nor hurt another with betrayal.
6. Whoever wishes to enter into a pact with Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم may do so.
7. Whoever wishes to enter into a pact with the Quraysh may do so.
8. You [the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] shall have to return to Madinah this year and not enter Makkah.
9. You may return next year with your companions to perform Umrah. You may then enter Makkah and stay for only three days.
10. (When you come) You may only carry those weapons that a *traveller normally carries and all swords are to be sheathed)

You may not enter with anything else.*

After the treaty was contracted, the Banu Khuzā'ah tribe (in accordance with the sixth clause) announced that they wished to enter into a pact with the Muslims. At the same time, the Banu Bakr tribe announced their solidarity with the Quraysh (in accordance with the seventh clause). It was actually this factor that led to the conquest of Makkah because the Muslims marched to Makkah when the Quraysh assisted the Banu Bakr in a fight against the Banu Khuzā'ah.

Some of the above clauses are recorded in Bukhari, others in Muslim and others in Abu Dawūd in the relevant chapters. Also refer to "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v.4 p.199 to 203).

THE DOUBTS OF SAYYIDINA UMAR رضى الله عنه

Displeased with some of the clauses, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Are we not on the truth and are the Quraysh not upon falsehood? Will not the martyred ones from us be in Heaven and the dead from among them be in Hell? Then why should we tolerate disgrace in our Dīn (religion) and return without Allāh's decision between us (by way of Jihād)?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "I am Allāh's messenger and will never disobey Him. Allāh's assistance is with me." Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه asked, "Did you not tell us that we would make Circumambulation of Allāh's house?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied by saying, "I did not say that it would be this year." Thereafter, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه went to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and posed the same questions. He received the same reply there as well.

After the treaty had been concluded, a companion رضى الله عنه by the name of Sayyidina Abu Jandal رضى الله عنه escaped from Makkah and joined the Muslims at Hudaybiyyah. He pleaded to the Muslims that he stood to suffer terribly at the hands of the polytheists if he were returned to Makkah. However, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was already bound to abide by the pledge and no degree of entreaty from the Muslims could shake his word. Eventually, Sayyidina Abu Jandal رضى الله عنه had to be left behind. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "May Allāh distance the person who becomes one of us and then deserts us (to join the ranks of the disbelievers because we do not need him). Allāh will certainly create a passage for the person from the disbelievers who comes to us and has to be returned." [Muslim v.1 p. 105]

SHAVING THE HEAD AND SLAUGHTERING THE ANIMALS

When the treaty was concluded, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the companions رضى الله عنهم to slaughter their sacrificial animals and to shave their heads (to release them from Ihrām). However, anticipating that perhaps something would happen to allow them to complete their Umrah, no one rose to fulfil the instruction. When no response was received after repeating the instruction for the third time, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went to his wife Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها.

When he related the account to her she said, "If you want them to slaughter their animals and shave their hair, go out there and without speaking to anyone, slaughter your camel and call someone to shave off your hair." When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did as advised, the companions رضى الله عنهم promptly followed suit. [Bukhari v.1 p.380]

THE INCIDENT OF SAYYIDINA ABU BASĪR رضى الله عنه AND HIS COMPANIONS

The incident of Sayyidina Abu Basīr رضى الله عنه and his companions is narrated in the books of Ahadīth with relevance to the hadith of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم quoted above where he said, "Allāh will certainly create a passage for the person from the disbelievers who comes to us and has to be returned (in compliance with the clause of the treaty)."

Sayyidina Abu Basīr رضى الله عنه became a Muslim in Makkah and left to join the Muslims in Madinah. However, the polytheists sent two persons from Makkah to bring him back in accordance with the clause of the treaty. True to his word, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allowed them to take him back. When the three reached Dhul Hulaifa, Sayyidina Abu Basīr رضى الله عنه managed to kill one of his captors, but the other escaped to Madinah. Upon seeing the person hasten towards him, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commented, "It seems as if something terribly frightful has occurred to him." When the person reached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he exclaimed, "My companion has been killed and I will also be killed."

Following close behind him came Sayyidina Abu Basīr رضى الله عنه. He said, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Allāh has absolved you of your responsibility when you returned me. Allāh has now freed me from my captors." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "This man is a true warmonger. If only there was someone to explain to him." Sayyidina Abu Basīr رضى الله عنه understood from this that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would return him again. He therefore left Madinah and set up a camp along the coast.

When Sayyidina Abu Jandal رضى الله عنه heard about this, he joined Sayyidina Abu Basīr رضى الله عنه there. Gradually, many other Muslims from Makkah joined the two until they became a sizeable group. Whenever a caravan of the Quraysh would pass by them en route to Shām (Syria), they would attack the caravan, kill the people and capture their merchandise. Beset with concern, the Quraysh sent a message to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم telling him that they wished to retract the clause that demanded the return of new Muslims to Makkah. All persons wishing to defect to the Muslims could now remain in Madinah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then sent a message to all the Muslims at the coast to come to Madinah. [Bukhari v.1 p.380/1]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed the message to Sayyidina Abu Basīr رضى الله عنه, who received it on his deathbed. He passed away holding the message in his hands. Sayyidina Abu Jandal رضى الله عنه buried him and erected a Masjid at the spot. Sayyidina Abu Jandal رضى الله عنه returned to Madinah with his companions, where he lived until the reign of Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه. During this period he left on a Jihād expedition towards Shām (Syria) where he was martyred. ["Fat'hul Bāri" v.5 p.351]

THE DECLARATION OF REWARD FOR THE BELIEVERS AND PUNISHMENT FOR THE POLYTHEISTS AND HYPOCRITES

. Allāh declares, "It is He Who sends tranquillity into the hearts of the believers so that their faith increases together with the faith they have." It is by virtue of this faith (Belief) that Allāh shall "admit the believing men and women into gardens beneath which rivers flow. They will abide there forever and He shall pardon them for their sins. This is a great success in Allāh's sight."

On the other hand, Allāh will "punish the hypocrite men and women as well as the polytheistic men and women." With regard to these people, Allāh mentions five things.

1. Allāh says that the polytheists and hypocrites men and women all "hold an evil opinion of Allāh." This includes their disbelief in Allāh, falsifying of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and their hope that the Muslims are destroyed in battle never to return to Madinah. Allāh will punish the Polytheists and hypocrites women as well because they harbour the same beliefs and malice that their men do.
2. "An evil calamity shall befall them." 'They will be killed or taken captive in battle and the snowballing success of the Muslims will prove to be a thorn in their side.
3. "Allāh is angry with them"
4. "(Allāh) curses them"
5. "and (Allāh) has prepared Hell for them. What an evil place to return to!"

Allāh continues thereafter by declaring, "The armies of the heavens and the earth belong to Allāh and Allāh is always the Mighty and Wise." This verse is a repetition of verse 4 above where Allāh mentions, "The armies of the heavens and the earth belong to Allāh and Allāh is Ever All Knowing, the Wise." Allāh is at liberty to use whichever armies He wills to accomplish any task He decrees. These verses warn the disbelievers against thinking that they will be able to vanquish the Muslims easily because the Muslims are few and ill equipped. At the same time, the Muslims are also encouraged not to lose hope because Allāh has tremendous means of rendering assistance to them despite all odds.

NOTE: Verse 4 states "Allāh is Ever All Knowing, the Wise" and verse 7 states "Allāh is always the Mighty and Wise." These verses make it clear to the Muslims that Allāh is well Aware of their friends as well as their foes. He is Mighty enough to enforce any decision that He takes and none can reverse His decree. He will therefore pass judgement according to His perfect wisdom, thereby rewarding people as He pleases and punishing others as he pleases.

NOTE: Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "So that Allāh may forgive you for those shortcomings that have passed and those that may occur in the future." The entire Ummah unanimously agree that the verse does not refer to real sins because all the Prophets عليهم السلام were innocent of such sins. The "shortcomings" mentioned in the verse refer to judgemental errors and Allāh used to admonish the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when any of these occurred. An example was when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم opted to accept ransoms from the captives of Badr. Another example was when he excused some hypocrites from participating in Jihād. With reference to this, Allāh states, "Allāh has forgiven you. Why did you exempt them before the true ones became manifest before you and you became aware of the liars." [Surah Tauba (9), verse 43]

Yet another example is when the blind Companion Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umm Maktūm رضى الله عنه came to see The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while the latter was busy inviting some prominent disbelievers towards Islām. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم became displeased at this and his displeasure became apparent when he frowned. Allāh disapproved of this act and revealed the verse, "He frowned and turned away because a blind man came to him." [Surah Abas (80), verses 1 & 2]

Despite the fact that Allāh had forgiven the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for everything, he still exerted himself greatly in worship, standing in Tahajjud Salāh for endless hours. This caused his feet to swell and crack. When he was asked about this exertion despite being forgiven, he replied, "Should I then not be a thankful slave? (i.e. it is only appropriate that I show gratitude for such a great favour by carrying out great acts of worship)." [Bukhari v.1 p.152 and v.2 p.716]

إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ شَهِيدًا وَمُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا ﴿٨﴾ لِّتُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَتُعَزِّرُوهُ وَتُوَقِّرُوهُ وَتُسَبِّحُوهُ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا ﴿٩﴾

(8) Verily We have sent you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] as a witness, a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. (9) So that you people believe in Allāh, believe in His messenger, assist Him (His religion), revere Him and glorify Him morning and evening.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS A WITNESS, A BEARER OF GLAD TIDINGS AND A WARNER

The first of the above verses express three great attributes of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The first attribute of being a witness refers to the testimony that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will give on the Day of Judgment when he will verify the veracity of his Ummah. This has been discussed in commentary of the following two verses:

📖 "...that you may be witness over the people and the messenger a witness over you." [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 143]

“...so that the messenger may be a witness over you, and that you be witnesses over mankind.” [Surah Hajj (22), verse 78]

The other two attributes are that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a bearer of glad tidings to convey to mankind good news about the tremendous rewards that Allāh has in store for them in the Akhirah (Hereafter) in exchange for Belief and good deeds. He also came to warn them against disobeying Allāh, which will spell their ultimate doom. Conveying glad tidings to people and warning them was the task of each of the Prophets عليهم السلام. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also fulfilled this task to the highest degree, as can be witnessed from the innumerable volumes of his sayings. A narration of Bukhari mentions that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was described with the very same attributes in the Torah.

Thereafter, Allāh addresses the believers, instructing them to “believe in Allāh, believe in His messenger, assist Him (His religion), revere Him and glorify Him morning and evening.” A believer should glorify Allāh with the conviction that Allāh is free from all types of defects and iniquities.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُبَايِعُونَكَ إِنَّمَا يُبَايِعُونَكَ اللَّهُ يَدُ اللَّهِ فَوْقَ أَيْدِيهِمْ فَمَنْ نَكَثَ فَإِنَّمَا يَنْكُثُ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ أَوْفَى بِمَا عَاهَدَ عَلَيْهِ اللَّهُ فَمَسْئُوتِيهِ أَجْرًا عَظِيمًا ﴿١٠﴾

(10) Indeed those who pledge their allegiance to you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم], they really pledge their allegiance to Allāh. Allāh's hand is above theirs. So whoever breaches (the pledge) does so to his own detriment. Allāh will soon grant a tremendous reward to the one who fulfils the pledge he makes with Allāh.

A PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TAKEN WITH THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم IS ACTUALLY A PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TAKEN WITH ALLĀH

When Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه was detained in Makkah after being sent to negotiate with the Quraysh, the rumour reached the Muslims at Hudaybiyyah that he had been martyred. This spurred the Muslims to resolve to wage Jihād against the Quraysh. On this occasion, the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم pledged their allegiance to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم beneath a tree in Hudaybiyyah, undertaking to fight to the last and never to desert him. It is with reference to this pledge that Allāh says, ‘indeed those who pledge their allegiance to you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم], they really pledge their allegiance to Allāh.’

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was Allāh's messenger who called people towards Allāh's obedience. People who respond to his call are actually responding to Allāh because the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم instructions proceed directly from Allāh. The pledge of allegiance taken on this occasion denoted obedience to Allāh as well as obedience to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In fact, numerous verses of the Qur'ān explicitly instruct obedience to both Allāh and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, 'Whoever obeys the messenger has obeyed Allāh.' [Surah 4, verse 80]

It is not necessary for people to place their hands on top of each others' hands when pledging allegiance because it will also suffice to take a pledge verbally. However, because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took the hands of the companions رضى الله عنهم when taking the pledge from them on the occasion of Hudaibiyah (as was customary in those days as it is now as well), Allāh states, "Allāh's hand is above theirs." Although Allāh is free of physical limbs, mention of "Allāh's hand" in the verse is merely metaphorical and is mentioned to emphasise the fact that the pledge taken with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was actually taken with Allāh. Mention of "Allāh's hand" also serves to accentuate the importance of the pledge.

Since the sincerity of a person swearing allegiance' cannot be ascertained, they are reminded to be true to their pledge when Allāh states, "So whoever breaches (the pledge) does so to his own detriment." Going against one's word is a major sin on its own. Breaching a pledge which one has sworn in Allāh's name is even worse. Even graver is breaching of a pledge that is taken with the Holy Prophet of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم. As for those who remain true to their word, Allāh declares, "Allāh will soon grant a tremendous reward to the one who fulfils the pledge he makes with Allāh."

NOTE: The system of pledging allegiance (Bay'ah) in the line of "Tarīqah" (commonly referred to as "Tasawwuf") is a blessed and sanctified practice. If a person becomes a follower of a "Sheikh" who adheres strictly to the Sunnah, he should dutifully maintain his relationship with him. However, if the "Sheikh" instructs one to carry out any act that contravenes the Shari'ah, the instruction should be ignored because it will be sinful. If a person has taken Bay'ah (pledged allegiance) to a "Sheikh" who is a sinner or someone who introduces innovations into religion, it will be compulsory to break contact with him.

سَيَقُولُ لَكَ الْمُخَلَّفُونَ مِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ شَغَلَتْنَا أَمْوَالُنَا وَأَهْلُونَا فَاسْتَغْفِرْ لَنَا يَقُولُونَ بِآلِسِنَاهُمْ مَا لَيْسَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ قُلْ فَمَنْ يَمْلِكُ لَكُمْ مِنْ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا إِنْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ ضَرًّا أَوْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ نَفْعًا بَلْ كَانَ اللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرًا ﴿١١﴾ بَلْ ظَنَنْتُمْ أَنْ لَنْ يَنْقَلِبَ الرَّسُولُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِلَى أَهْلِيهِمْ أَبَدًا وَزُيِّنَ ذَلِكَ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَظَنَنْتُمْ ظَنًّا سَوْءًا وَكُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا بُورًا ﴿١٢﴾ وَمَنْ لَمْ يُؤْمِنْ بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ فَإِنَّا أَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ سَعِيرًا ﴿١٣﴾ وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَغْفِرُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيُعَذِّبُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا

(11) Soon the villagers left behind will tell you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم], "Our wealth and families have preoccupied us, so seek forgiveness on our behalf" They utter with their tongues that which is not within their hearts. Say, "Who has any power against Allāh if He intends any harm to afflict you or if He intends any good to come to you? Nay, but Allāh is Ever Aware of what you do."

(12) However, the fact is that you people think that the messenger and the believers will never return to their families. This has been adorned in your hearts and you entertain evil thoughts. You were a destroyed nation. (13) Whoever does not believe in Allāh and His messenger (should know that) We have certainly prepared a blazing fire for the disbelievers. (14) To Allāh belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. He forgives whoever He wills and punishes whoever He wills. Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful.

THE EVIL THOUGHTS AND SCHEMES OF THOSE VILLAGERS WHO DID NOT ACCOMPANY THE JIHĀD EXPEDITIONS

"Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v.4 p.191) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that during the year that the treaty of Hudaibiyyah took place, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم announced to all the villages neighbouring Madinah that he intended to leave for Umrah. The announcement was intended to urge people to join the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for Umrah and to muster a sizeable group of people in case a skirmish arose or in case the Quraysh decided to resist the Muslims. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم even donned the Ihram and took a sacrificial animal along with him so that people could be convinced that he intended only to perform Umrah and not to fight.

As a result, a large group of companion's رضي الله عنهم numbering more than 1400 accompanied him. However, there were still a large number of villagers who did not accompany the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had not yet returned to Madinah when Allāh revealed the verse about them saying, "Soon the villagers left behind will tell you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم], 'Our wealth and families have preoccupied us, so seek forgiveness on our behalf'" They made excuses to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, telling him that they had to tend to their families and property because there was no one to do this in their absence.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived back in Madinah, these people came to him with the very same excuse that Allāh mentioned in the verse. Allāh refutes their excuses by stating, "They utter with their tongues that which is not within their hearts." Their utterances are nothing but lies. They made it seem like they actually wanted to accompany the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but were unable to do so because of their preoccupation. However, they had never intended to join the Muslims in the first place. Even their request for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to seek forgiveness on their behalf was insincere because they had no regard for this. They never believed in Allāh and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as His messenger, so how could they have any concept of forgiveness?

Allāh then cautions all those people who make false excuses and who intend plotting against Islām, "Who has any power against Allāh if He intends any harm to afflict you or if He intends any good to come to you?" It was necessary for people to respond to the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم announcement to join him. Those who did not heed this call were sinful and deserved chastisement. Therefore, Allāh cautions them that they will be helpless to resist Allāh's punishment if it had to overtake them on this account.

Addressing them further, Allāh says, "Nay, but Allāh is Ever Aware of what you do." Allāh is well Aware of what these people harbour in the deepest recesses of their hearts. They can therefore hide nothing from Him. Despite the claims they make, Allāh reveals their thoughts when He says, "However, the fact is that you people think that the messenger and the believers will never return to their families. This has been adorned in your hearts and you entertain evil thoughts." They believed and even hoped that the disbelievers should wipe out the Muslims. In fact, they would even discourage others from participating by urging them to hold back and see the outcome of the expedition first. Says Allāh about them, "You were a destroyed nation." ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"]

Allāh says further, "Whoever does not believe in Allāh and His messenger (should know that) We have certainly prepared a blazing fire for the disbelievers. To Allāh belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. He forgives whoever He wills and punishes whoever He wills. Allāh is Oft Forgiving, Most Merciful." If those who made the false excuses and undermined the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم repent for their sins after becoming true Muslims, Allāh will still forgive them.

سَيَقُولُ الْمُخَلَّفُونَ إِذَا انْطَلَقْتُمْ إِلَى مَغَائِرٍ لِنَأْخُذُهَا دَرُونا نَتَّبِعْكُمْ
يُرِيدُونَ أَنْ يُبَدِّلُوا كَلِمَ اللَّهِ قُلْ لَنْ تَتَّبِعُونَا كَذَلِكُمْ قَالَكُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ
فَسَيَقُولُونَ بَلْ تَحْسُدُونَنَا بَلْ كَانُوا لَا يَفْقَهُونَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿١٥﴾

(15) Soon, when you proceed to take possession of the booty, those left behind will say, "Allow us to follow you." They wish to alter Allāh's speech. Tell them, "You may never follow us! Thus has Allāh stated from before." They will then say, "You people are merely jealous of us." In fact, they understand but a little.

FURTHER DETAILS REGARDING THOSE WHO DID NOT ACCOMPANY THE MUSLIMS TO HUDAYBIYYAH

It was not long after the treaty at Hudaibiyyah that the Muslims conquered the Jewish stronghold of Khaybar. Allāh did promise the Muslims present at Hudaibiyyah that they will soon receive a large booty. For this reason, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم distributed the booty of Khaybar among those present at Hudaibiyyah. This was in lieu of the booty that they would have received had they fought the Quraysh on that occasion.

In the above verse, Allāh tells the Muslims that those who stayed behind from Hudaibiyyah will soon want to join the others when they proceed to Khaybar, where the booty proved tremendous. Allāh says, "Soon, when you proceed to take possession of the booty, those left behind will say, 'Allow us to follow you.'" However, Allāh issued a clear command that they should be told, "You may never follow us (to Khaybar)! Thus has Allāh stated from before."

"They wish to alter Allāh's speech." This phrase has been interpreted to mean that they wish to change Allāh's command not to take them along. Other commentators have interpreted the phrase to mean that they wish to change Allāh's instruction that the booty of Khaybar should be distributed only among those Muslims who were present at Hudaibiyyah. The hypocrites were prepared to march with the Muslims to Khaybar only because they knew that much was to be gained with only mild fighting.

"They will then say, 'You people are merely jealous of us.'" When the hypocrites were refused permission to join the Khaybar expedition, they claimed that the refusal was not Allāh's command but stemmed from jealousy on the part of the Muslims.

"In fact, they understand but a little." Allāh assures the Muslims that the refusal has nothing to do with jealousy, but stems from the fact that these people understand only the material gains of this world, which they hanker after. Their participation in the expedition would therefore be only for the sake of the booty and not for the sake of Allāh's religion

A question has arisen with regard to those Companions رضى الله عنهم who arrived from Abyssinia and received a share of the booty without being present at Hudaibiyyah. Commentators have tendered the following two explanations for this:

1. They were granted wealth from the "Khums" i.e. the one-fifth of the booty which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could distribute at his discretion. The participants at Hudaibiyyah were exclusively entitled to the other four-fifths.
2. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم accorded them a portion of the booty with the consent of the other Sahabah رضى الله عنهم [“Ma’ālimut Tanzīl” v.4 p.199 & “Ruhul Ma’āni” v. 26 p.101]

قُلْ لِلْمُخَلَّفِينَ مِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ سُدْعُونَ إِلَى قَوْمِ بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ تُقْبِلُونَهُمْ أَوْ يُسْلَمُونَ فَإِنْ
تَطِيعُوا بُرُؤَكُمْ اللَّهُ أَجْرًا حَسَنًا وَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا كَمَا تَوَلَّيْتُمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ يُعَذِّبْكُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا

(16) Tell those villagers who were left behind, "You will soon be called to a nation of immense strength whom you will fight or who will accept Islām. If you obey, Allāh will accord you a grand reward, but if you turn away like you did in the past, Allāh will inflict a painful punishment on you."

ALLĀH FURTHER ADDRESSES THOSE WHO FAILED TO JOIN THE MUSLIMS TO HUDAYBIYYAH

Allāh foretells an incident in the above verse. Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Tell those villagers who were left behind, 'You will soon be called to a nation of immense strength whom you will fight or who will accept Islām. If you obey, Allāh will accord you a grand reward, but if you turn away like you did in the past, Allāh will inflict a painful punishment on you.'"

With regard to whom the "nation of immense strength" refers, the following interpretations have been quoted:

- 📖 Sayyidina Rāfi bin Khudaij رضى الله عنه says, "We [the companions رضى الله عنهم] used to recite this verse but never knew which nation was being referred to. When Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه issued the command to fight the Banu Hanīfah tribe, we realised that the verse referred to them." The Banu Hanīfah tribe hailed from Yamāmah and supported one of their clansmen by the name of Musailamah Kadhāb, who claimed to be a Prophet.
- 📖 Certain commentators say that the verse refers to the Romans and Persians against whom Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه dispatched armies during his term as Caliph.
- 📖 Others say that the verse refers to the Banu Hawāzin tribe against whom the Battle of Hunayn was fought.
- 📖 It has also been mentioned that it refers to the Roman army against whom the Muslims marched to Tabūk.

After quoting these interpretations, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that the first seems most appropriate. As the Leader of the believers, Sayyidina Abu Bakr's رضى الله عنه command to march against the Banu Hanīfah was binding on the Muslims because failure to obey the Leader of the Believers (Amir-ur-Muminin) warrants punishment from Allāh. He adds that many members of the Banu Hanīfah accepted Islām, thereby fitting the description of "whom you will fight or who will accept Islām."

The call to fight the Banu Hawāzin did not take place in Madinah because the Muslims marched against them from Makkah immediately after the Conquest of Makkah took place. The verse therefore cannot refer to the Battle of Hunayn against them. He adds that the verse cannot also refer to the Battle of Tabūk because no fighting took place at Tabūk. The verse cannot refer to the battles against the Romans and Persians either because it cannot be proven that these battles were Fardh Ain (obligatory for every Muslim to participate). For this reason, anyone failing to participate in these battles cannot be reproached and made to suffer punishment.

"....or who will accept Islām. " This phrase may be translated as "or who will submit". In this case, it would refer to submission to pay the Jizya (Non-Muslim tax in an Islamic State). Allama Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله writes in "Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" (v.6 p.365) that ten to eleven thousand people from the Banu Hanīfah tribe were killed in the battle against the Muslims, while many of them also accepted the invitation to Islām that Sayyidina Khālid bin Walīd رضى الله عنه extended to them. These people also met with Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. It is therefore most apt to say that the verse refers to them. And Allāh knows best.

لَيْسَ عَلَى الْأَعْمَى حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْأَعْرَجِ حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْمَرِيضِ حَرَجٌ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ
وَرَسُولَهُ يُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّ يُعَذِّبْهُ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿١٧﴾

(17) There shall be no sin on the blind, no sin on the paralysed and no sin on the ill. Allāh will enter those who obey Him and His messenger into gardens beneath which rivers flow. As for those who turn away, He will inflict, a tormenting punishment on them.

THERE WILL BE NO SIN ON THOSE WITH VALID EXCUSES AND THE OBEDIENT ONES WILL ATTAIN HEAVEN

Allama Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه reports that when the verse "if you turn away like you did in the past, Allāh will inflict a painful punishment on you" - was revealed, those Muslims who were physically handicapped grew concerned about themselves because of their inability to participate in Jihād. It was then that Allāh revealed the above verse i.e. "There shall be no sin on the blind, no sin on the paralysed and no sin on the ill." i.e. There will be no sin on these people if they do not participate in Jihād, as well as for those having other disabilities. This concession has been discussed in Surah Taubah where Allāh says, "There shall be no sin on the weak, the ill and those who do not find the means to spend, if they present themselves with sincere hearts before Allāh and His messenger." [Surah 9, verse 91]

Allāh then mentions a general principle when He states, "Allāh will enter those who obey Him and His messenger into gardens beneath which rivers flow. As for those who turn away (from the injunctions of Allāh and His messenger), He will inflict a tormenting punishment on them."

لَقَدْ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذْ يُبَايِعُونَكَ تَحْتَ الشَّجَرَةِ فَعَلِمَ مَا فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ
فَأَنْزَلَ السَّكِينَةَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَأَثَبَهُمْ فَتْحًا قَرِيبًا ﴿١٨﴾ وَمَغَانِمَ كَثِيرَةً يَأْخُذُونَهَا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ
عَزِيزًا حَكِيمًا ﴿١٩﴾ وَعَدَكُمْ اللَّهُ مَغَانِمَ كَثِيرَةً تَأْخُذُونَهَا فَعَجَّلَ لَكُمْ هَذِهِ وَكَفَّ
أَيْدِيَ النَّاسِ عَنْكُمْ وَلِتَكُونَ آيَةً لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَيَهْدِيَكُمْ صِرَاطًا مُسْتَقِيمًا ﴿٢٠﴾ وَأُخْرَى
لَمْ تَقْدِرُوا عَلَيْهَا قَدْ أَحَاطَ اللَّهُ بِهَا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرًا ﴿٢١﴾ وَلَوْ قَتَلْتُمْ
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوَلَّوْا الْأَدْبَرَ ثُمَّ لَا يَجْدُوكَ وَإِنَّا لَا نَصِيرَا ﴿٢٢﴾ سُنَّةَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي قَدْ
خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَنْ يَجِدَ لِسُنَّةِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا ﴿٢٣﴾

(18) Allāh was well pleased with the believers when they pledged their allegiance to you beneath the tree. Allāh knew what was in their hearts, sent tranquility onto them and rewarded them with a victory close at hand. (19) And (Allāh will also reward them with) abundant spoils of war that they will take. Allāh is always Mighty, Wise. (20) Allāh promises you abundant spoils of war that you can have, will grant it to you immediately and restrain people's hands from you. This is to be a sign for the believers and so that Allāh may guide you to the straight path. (21) There are still other victories that you have not yet been able to attain and is well within Allāh's knowledge. Allāh has always had power over everything. (22) If the disbelievers were to fight you, they would turn their backs and then not find any ally or helper. (23) This has been Allāh's practice that has passed from before and you will not find any change in Allāh's practice.

THE VIRTUE OF THOSE WHO TOOK THE PLEDGE OF "RIDHWĀN" AND THE PROMISE OF A TREMENDOUS BOOTY FOR THEM

Beneath a tree of Hudaybiyyah, the Muslims pledged their allegiance to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, undertaking never to desert him if a battle arises. With regard to this pledge, Allāh announces, "Allāh was well pleased with the believers when they pledged their allegiance to you beneath the tree." This verse is a great honour for those Sahābah (Companions) رضى الله عنهم who took the pledge because it is a medal of Allāh's pleasure received in this very world. As a verse of the Qur'ān, this award will be before every reciter of the Qur'ān until the Day of Judgment. Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه has reported the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Insha Allāh, no person who took the pledge at Hudaybiyyah will ever enter Jahannam (Hell)."

"Allāh knew what was in their hearts" Allāh Was well aware of the sincerity brimming in their hearts and bestowed His favour on them when He "sent tranquillity onto them". Thus, they were completely satisfied with the decision that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had taken to enter into a treaty with the disbelievers –realising that it was for the benefit of the Muslims.

Allāh says further that He "rewarded them with a victory close at hand and abundant spoils of war that they will take." Commentators state that this victory refers to the conquest of Khaybar, the stronghold of the Banu Nadhīr, a Jewish tribe that was expelled from Madinah. This conquest took place two months after the treaty at Hudaybiyyah. The Muslims marched against the Jews of Khaybar because they constantly plotted and conspired with the polytheists against the Muslims. The Muslims received a tremendous amount of booty from this conquest –as Allāh had promised.

Allāh then states, "Allāh is always Mighty, Wise." Allāh is Mighty enough to grant victory to whoever He wills and His decisions are full of wisdom.

"Allāh promises you abundant spoils of war that you can have, will grant it to you immediately and restrain people's hands from you." When the Muslims marched to Khaybar, the Banu Asad and Banu Ghitfān tribes decided that it was an ideal opportunity for them to attack and loot Madinah. However, Allāh instilled fear into their hearts and therefore they never carried out what they intended. Allāh refers to this when He says that He would "restrain people's hands from you." ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"]

Other interpretations of "and restrain people's hands from you" are:

- 📖 The Jews intended to attack the families of the Muslims in Madinah while the men were out in Jihād. However, Allāh restricted their intentions to mere intentions and they were unable to accomplish the evil scheme. [Ruhul Ma'āni v.26 p.109]
- 📖 The Banu Asad and Banu Ghittfān tribes left to assist the Jews of Khaybar but returned before reaching Khaybar.
- 📖 Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه interprets the verse to mean that Allāh restrained the hands of the polytheists by means of the treaty, whereas they were already preparing to fight.

"This (booty) is to be a sign for the believers and so that Allāh may guide you to the straight path." Allāh granted the booty to the Muslims so that it may be of use to them and so that they may be convinced that Allāh is with them. In this way, they will always tread the straight path.

Allāh states further, "There are still other victories that you have not yet been able to attain and is well within Allāh's knowledge." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbas رضي الله عنه has mentioned that the victories mentioned in this verse are those that the Muslims gained after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed away, like those gained over the Romans and Persians. Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that it refers to the Conquest of Makkah, Sayyidina Ikrima رحمه الله عليه says that it is the victory at Hunayn, while Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه is of the opinion that it refers to all the Muslim conquests that are to take place until Judgment day. [Qurtubi]

Certain commentators have translated "victories that you have not yet been able to attain" as "victories that you have never deemed possible". Of course, Allāh knew of these because His knowledge encompasses events of the past, present and future. Allāh is perfectly Capable of according these conquests to the Muslims because 'Allāh has always had power over everything.'

"If the disbelievers were to fight you, they would turn their backs and then not find any ally or helper." While some commentators state that this verse refers to the polytheists of Makkah, others say that it refers to the Banu Asad and Banu Ghittfān tribes who had intended to attack Madinah in the absence of the Muslim army.

"This has been Allāh's practice that has passed from before and you will not find any change in Allāh's practice." It was always Allāh's practice with the Prophets عليهم السلام of the past that He would grant them victory at the end, assist those close to Him and grant them victory over the disbelievers.

وَهُوَ الَّذِي كَفَّ أَيْدِيَهُمْ عَنْكُمْ وَأَيْدِيَكُمْ عَنْهُمْ بِطَّنِ مَكَّةَ مِنْ بَعْدِ أَنْ أَظْفَرَكُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ

وَكَانَ اللَّهُ يَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرًا ﴿٢٤﴾

(24) It is Allāh Who restrained their hands from you and your hands from them right in Makkah after granting you dominance over them. Allāh is always Watchful over what you do.

ALLĀH RESTRAINED THE MUSLIMS AND DISBELIEVERS FROM ATTACKING EACH OTHER

Allama Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has cited several opinions with regard to the circumstances under which the above verse was revealed. Muslim has quoted two incidents in this regard, both of which are pertinent to the revelation of the verse.

The first has been narrated by Sayyidina Salamah bin Akwa رضى الله عنه. He says that after the treaty had been concluded between the Muslims and the people of Makkah, he was once lying beneath a tree to remove the thorns from it. As he lay there, four polytheists of Makkah passed by and uttered disrespectful words regarding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Disgusted with what they said, Sayyidina Salamah bin Akwa رضى الله عنه left the tree and went to lie beneath another tree. When the four of them hung up their swords to lie down, Sayyidina Salamah رضى الله عنه drew his sword and seized theirs. Addressing them he said, "I swear by the Being Who has granted honour to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! I shall sever from the roots the head of the person who even lifts his head." He then took them to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He says that when he reached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, his uncle Āmir رضى الله عنه brought seventy captives to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, all of whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forgave. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse "It is Allāh Who restrained their hands from you and your hands from them right in Makkah after granting you dominance over them." [Muslim v.2 p. 113]

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه narrates that a group of eighty armed polytheists descended the mount of Tan'im intending to attack the Muslims in a moment of unmindfulness. However, the Muslims apprehended them beforehand and they all surrendered. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم set them all free. It was on this occasion that the above verse was revealed. [Muslim v.2 p.1 16]

Allāh ensures the safety of the Muslims in unique ways. Allāh also changes the hearts of people most effectively and it is seen that hardened disbelievers used to accept Islām after being forgiven by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

هُم الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوكُمْ عَنِ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ وَالْهَدَىٰ مَعْكُوفًا أَنْ يَبْلُغَ مِجْلَهُ
وَلَوْلَا رِجَالٌ مُّؤْمِنُونَ وَنِسَاءٌ مُّؤْمِنَاتٌ لَّكَ تَعْلَمُونَهُمْ أَنْ تَطَّوُّهُمْ فَتَضَيِّبَكُمْ مِنْهُمْ مَعَرَّةٌ
بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ لِّيُدْخِلَ اللَّهُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ لَوْ تَزَيَّلُوا لَعَذَّبْنَا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْهُمْ
عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿٢٥﴾ إِذْ جَعَلَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الْحَمِيَّةَ حَمِيَّةَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَأَنْزَلَ
اللَّهُ سَكِينَتَهُ عَلَىٰ رَسُولِهِ وَعَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالزَّمَهُمْ كَلِمَةَ النِّقَمِ وَكَانُوا حَاقِقًا

بِهَا وَأَهْلَهَا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا ﴿٢٦﴾

(25) They are the ones who disbelieved, forbade you from the Masjidul Harām, and forbade the sacrificial animals, who were left restrained from reaching their destination. If it were not for you trampling many Muslim men and many Muslim women about whom you were unaware and then unknowingly suffering harm on their account, the matter would have been concluded. So that Allāh enters whoever He wills into His mercy. If they (these Muslim men and women) were to separate (from the Makkans), We would inflict a painful punishment on the disbelievers from the people of Makkah. (26) When the disbelievers took the prejudice within their hearts, then too, the prejudice of the period of ignorance; Allāh sent His tranquility into the heart of His messenger and the hearts of the believers and stuck the word of piety to them as they are most deserving of it and worthy of it. Allāh always has knowledge of everything.

THE DISBELIEVERS FORBID THE MUSLIMS FROM THE MASJIDUL HARĀM AND HAVE ENTRENCHED PREJUDICE WITHIN THEIR HEARTS

The above verse contains a series of matters. These are:

1. Allāh condemns the polytheists for forbidding the Muslims entry into the Masjidul Harām and also for preventing them from slaughtering their sacrificial animals within the Haram. This act of theirs was sufficient to warrant Jihād against them. Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه writes that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took seventy sacrificial animals with him, which were to be slaughtered in Makkah. Because the polytheists denied him entry into Makkah, the animals had to be slaughtered at Hudaybiyyah.

2. Allāh informs the Muslims that there were many Muslim men and women in Makkah the identities of whom were unknown to the Muslims ("many Muslim men and many Muslim women about whom you were unaware"). If the Muslims had been commanded to fight the Makkans, these innocent Muslims would have been unknowingly trampled underfoot and harmed by the companions (of Holy Prophet) رضى الله عنهم because they lived among the disbelievers. Allāh Ta'āla did not allow a battle to be fought out of regard for these Muslims who were unable to migrate to Madinah. A treaty was thus entered into even though the disbelievers deserved punishment on account of their deeds.

"and then unknowingly suffering harm on their account" The Arabic word "ma' arrah" (translated above as "harm") has also been translated as "hardship", "and reproach". Certain commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that if the Muslims had to meet the Makkans in battle, they may have mistakenly killed some Makkan Muslims in the process. As a result of this they would have to suffer insult (referred to as "harm") from the polytheists who would say that the Muslims kill their own kind.

Other commentators maintain that the verse means that if Jihād had to take place, the Muslims would have been sinful for killing the innocent Muslims. A third opinion states that "Diyah" (blood money) would have been due from the Muslims had they killed any of the innocent Muslims of Makkah. However, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has mentioned that these two opinions are not worth consideration.

3. Allāh prevented the Jihād so that even without waging Jihād, Allāh may enter "whoever He wills into His mercy." Therefore, Allāh saved the Muslims from a battle, entered them into the all-embracing fold of His mercy and even safeguarded the weak Muslims in Makkah. These Muslims were constantly harassed by the polytheists before the treaty, but could worship Allāh in peace thereafter. Certain commentators have mentioned that "whoever He wills" also includes the polytheists because after the treaty they had the opportunity to ponder about Islām and associate freely with the Muslims. As a result, thousands accepted Islām. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v.26 p.1 15]

4. "If they (the Muslim men and women in Makkah) were to separate (from the Makkans), We would inflict a painful punishment on the disbelievers from the people of Makkah." It is stated in "Ruhul Ma'āni" that these Muslim men and women in Makkah were nine in total - seven men and two women.

"When the disbelievers took the prejudice within their hearts, then too, the prejudice of the period of ignorance..." Allāh says that it was this prejudice that caused the polytheists to stop the Muslims from entering Makkah. The Arabic word "hamiyyah" (translated above as "prejudice") refers to any word or deed that a person uses to safeguard himself from something that he considers to be a defect or source of shame. When the Quraysh learned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم intended to perform Umrah, they resolved never to allow him into Makkah because the other Arabs would taunt them by saying that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entered Makkah against the wishes of the Quraysh. It was this unwarranted prejudice that spurred them on to oppose beginning the treaty with the words "Bismillahir Rahmānir Rahīm" and to write "Muhammad, the son of Abdullāh" instead of "Muhammad, the messenger of Allāh".

"Allāh sent His tranquillity into the heart of His messenger and the hearts of the believers..." It was because of this "tranquillity" that they did not oppose the decision to perform Umrah the following year and to return without a fight.

Allāh states further that He "stuck the word of piety to them as they are most deserving of it and worthy of it." Tirmidhi reports from Sayyidina Ubayy bin Ka'b رضى الله عنه that the "Kalimatut Taqwa" ("word of piety") refers to the Kalimah "Lā Ilāha Illallāh". It is called the "word of piety" because it protects the reciter from disbelief, polytheism and sins.

Allāh has stuck the "word of piety" to them means that He made the people of belief adopt this Kalimah and keep it as their lifelong companion. As a result, they fulfil the demands of this Kalimah and remember Allāh because of it. Allāh says that the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم are "most deserving" and "worthy" of this Kalimah, which means that Allāh has knowledge of the fact that they would accept the Kalimah and fulfil all its requirements. Allāh had conditioned them to be able to accept Islām and live their lives in accordance with its injunctions.

"Allāh always has knowledge of everything." In accordance with His infinite knowledge and wisdom, Allāh makes people worthy of receiving the Kalimah and then grants them the fortitude to remain steadfast on it.

لَقَدْ صَدَقَ اللَّهُ رَسُولَهُ الرُّؤْيَا بِالْحَقِّ لَتَدْخُلَنَّ الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ
ءَامِنِينَ مُحَلِّقِينَ رُءُوسَكُمْ وَمُقَصِّرِينَ لَا تَخَافُونَ فَعَلِمَ مَا لَمْ تَعْلَمُوا فَجَعَلَ مِنْ دُونِ
ذَلِكَ فَتْحًا قَرِيبًا ﴿٢٧﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَىٰ وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى
الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ وَكَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا ﴿٢٨﴾

(27) Verily, Allāh shall make the dream of His messenger come precisely true. When Allāh wills, you people shall definitely enter the Masjidul Harām in peace with your hair shaved or trimmed without any fear. Allāh had knowledge of that which you were unaware of, and has decreed a victory even before this (entry into the Masjidul Harām). (28) It is Allāh Who has sent His messenger with guidance and with the true religion so as to make it dominate over all religions. Allāh suffices as a Witness.

ALLĀH SHOWED A TRUE DREAM TO HIS MESSENGER AND HAS SENT HIM WITH THE TRUTH AND GUIDANCE

Commentators document that before the Muslims left for Hudaibiyyah, Allāh showed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a dream in which he saw himself and the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم peacefully entering the Masjidul Harām some of them with their heads shaved and others with their hair trimmed. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم related the dream to the prophet's companion's رضى الله عنهم, they were overjoyed and left for Makkah in anticipation of performing Umrah.

However, when the Muslims were halted at Hudaibiyyah and were bound by the treaty to return without performing Umrah, they were naturally disappointed. As mentioned earlier, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه expressed this disappointment to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. A narration of Muslim (v.2 p. 106) reports that Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه was well satisfied with the reply that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave him.

Although the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم accepted the situation, they were still overcome by natural feelings of sorrow. To dispel this feeling, Allāh revealed the above verse stating, "Verily, Allāh shall make the dream of His messenger come precisely true. When Allāh wills, you people shall definitely enter the Masjidul Harām in peace with your hair shaved or trimmed without any fear." The day did arrive the following year when the Muslims entered Makkah to perform Umrah without any fear. Since the dream did not stipulate the year of Umrah, the fact that the Umrah took place a year later does not affect the truthful nature of the dream itself.

"Allāh had knowledge of that which you were unaware of and has decreed a victory even before this (entry into the Masjidul Harām)." Allāh was well Aware of the reasons for the delay in performing Umrah, whereas the Muslims were not. If the Muslims had been adamant to fight the polytheists, it would have been extremely difficult for them to march against the Jews of Khaybar two months later. Even if they had to march to Khaybar, they would have had to fear an attack on Madinah from the Makkans in their absence. The treaty ruled out this fear. The "victory" mentioned in this verse refers to the Muslims victory at Khaybar, which took place before they returned the following year for Umrah.

Allāh then speaks about the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, when He says, "It is Allāh Who has sent His messenger with guidance and with the true religion so as to make it dominate over all religions." Allāh fulfilled this promise of His, as has been discussed in verse 33 of Surah Taubah where Allāh states, "it is He Who sent His messenger with guidance and the true religion so that He may make it overcome all other religions even though the polytheists detest it."

"Allāh suffices as a Witness." Allāh is sufficient as a Witness to the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم remains Allāh's messenger even though the polytheists of Makkah refused to begin the treaty with the words: "Muhammad, the messenger of Allāh". [Qurtubi v.16 p.292]

مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ مَعَهُ أَشِدَّاءُ عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ رُحَمَاءُ بَيْنَهُمْ تَرَاهُمْ رُكَّعًا سُجَّدًا يَبْتَغُونَ
فَضْلًا مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانًا سِيمَاهُمْ فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ مِنْ أَثَرِ السُّجُودِ ذَلِكَ مَثَلُهُمْ فِي التَّوْرَةِ
وَمَثَلُهُمْ فِي الْإِنْجِيلِ كَزَرْعٍ أَخْرَجَ شَطْئَهُ فَازْرَعَهُ فَاسْتَغْطَاظَ فَاسْتَوَىٰ عَلَىٰ سَوَافِهِ يَجْعَلُ
الزَّرْعَ لِيَغِيظَ بِهِمُ الْكُفَّارُ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ مِنْهُمْ مَغْفِرَةً
وَأَجْرًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٢٩﴾

(29) Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is Allāh's messenger and those with him are stern against the disbelievers and compassionate among themselves. You will see them sometimes bowing (in Ruku), sometimes prostrating, seeking Allāh's bounty and His pleasure. Their hallmark is the mark of prostration on their faces. This is their description in the Torah. Their portrayal in the Injil (Bible) is like that of a plantation that sprouts its shoots and strengthens it, after which it becomes thick and stands on its own stem, pleasing the farmer. (Allāh has nurtured the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم in this manner) so that the disbelievers may be enraged by them. Allāh has promised forgiveness and a grand reward for those of them who believe and do good deeds.

THE VIRTUE OF THE PROPHET'S COMPANIONS رضى الله عنهم

This Surah extols the praises of the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم in various verses and concludes in the same manner. Allāh says, "Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is Allāh's messenger and those with him are stern against the disbelievers and compassionate among themselves." This quality of the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم has been discussed in verse 54 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah

5) where Allāh says that they are “kind to the believers and stern towards the disbelievers.”

This trait was one of the outstanding qualities of the prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم. It is tragic that the reverse is practised by today’s Muslims. One will notice that love for this world has prompted many Muslims to be compassionate towards the disbelievers and harsh towards their fellow Muslims.

Allāh praises the prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم further when He says, “You (O reader) will see them sometimes bowing (in Ruku), sometimes prostrating”. This phrase describes the abundance of Salāh that the prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم performed and that they could always be found in Salāh. They were very particular even about the Nawāfil (optional) Salāh and would spend entire nights in Salāh.

The third attribute of the prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم discussed in this verse is that they always applied themselves to the purpose of “seeking Allāh’s bounty and His pleasure.” They never sought material gains from their deeds. All their deeds were intended to attain Allāh’s pleasure and happiness.

Allāh then describes them further with the words, “Their hallmark is the mark of prostration on their faces.” Quoting from various commentators, the author of “Ma’ālimut Tanzil” has recorded the following interpretations of this verse:

- 📖 As the literal meaning of the verse implies, traces of sand could be noticed on their foreheads on account of the prostration in Salāh.
- 📖 Their faces will be illuminated on the Day of Judgment, when it will be known that they were people who were very particular about their Salāh.
- 📖 The prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم were imbued with the qualities of humility and general good character. People who perform Salāh in abundance attain the special blessings of Salāh, one of which is that the qualities of humility and a friendly disposition shine on their faces.

“This is their description in the Torah.” Allāh says that He had described the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم in the above manner in the Torah given to Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. As far as their description in the Injil (Bible) goes, Allāh says, “Their portrayal in the Injil is like that of a plantation that sprouts its shoots and strengthens it, after which it becomes thick and stands on its own stem, pleasing the farmer.” After a farmer sows the seeds for his crop, the first sign of the expected harvest is when the tiny shoots of the crop begin to burst from the earth. These shoots are extremely fragile and weak at the beginning, but gradually strengthen and grow until they become firm, thick stems. The once brown ground now transforms into a flourishing field of sturdy crops – a scene which makes the farmer exuberant.

In a like manner, the prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were initially a small band of people, but their numbers eventually grew until they became a force to be reckoned with. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

وسلم, himself saw their numbers in excess of a hundred thousand, after which they continued to spread the religion until they even toppled the Roman and Persian Empires and no force could oppose them.

“(Allāh has nurtured the prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم in this manner) so that the disbelievers may be enraged by them.” As the strength and domination of the Muslims snowballed, the disbelievers grew increasingly incensed and were unable to tolerate the progress of Islām and the Muslims. However, despite their efforts to curtail the expansion of Islām, Islām continued to flourish. Allāh says in Surah Saff, “They intend to extinguish Allāh’s light with their mouths. However, Allāh shall bring His light to completion even though the disbelievers abhor it. It is He Who sent His messenger with guidance and the true religion to make it dominant over all other religions, even though the idolaters may abhor it.” [Surah 61, verses 8 and 9]

Allāh then states a blanket rule when He says, “Allāh has promised forgiveness and a grand reward for those of them who believe and do good deeds.” This applies to both the prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم and the Muslim Ummah after them until the Judgment day.

NOTE: In Surah Fath, Allāh praises the prophet’s companions رضى الله عنهم in the following verses:

- 📖 It is He Who sends tranquillity into the hearts of the believers so that their faith increases together with the faith they have. ‘The armies of the heavens and the earth belong to Allāh and Allāh is Ever All Knowing, the Wise.’ [verse 4]
- 📖 That He may admit the believing men and women into gardens beneath which rivers flow. They will abide there forever and He shall pardon them for their sins. ‘This is a great success in Allāh’s sight.’ [verse 5]
- 📖 “Indeed those who pledge their allegiance to you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم], they really pledge their allegiance to Allāh. Allāh’s hand is above theirs.” [verse 10]
- 📖 “Allāh was well pleased with the believers when they pledged their allegiance to you beneath the tree. Allāh knew what was in their hearts, sent tranquillity into them and rewarded them with a victory close at hand?” [verse 18]
- 📖 “Allāh sent His tranquillity into the heart of His messenger and the hearts of the believers and stuck the word of piety to them as they are most deserving of it and worthy of it.” [verse 26]
- 📖 “Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is Allāh’s messenger and those with him are stern against the disbelievers and compassionate among themselves...” [verse 29]
- 📖 Allāh has nurtured! the companions of رضى الله عنهم in this manner) so that the disbelievers may be enraged by them.” [verse 29]
- 📖 Allāh has promised forgiveness and a grand Reward for those of them who believe and do good deeds." [verse 29]

Allāh has also declared in verse 100 of Surah Taubah, "The first to lead the way, from the Immigrants, the Ansār, and those who followed them with sincerity; Allāh is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. He has prepared for them such gardens beneath which rivers flow, where they shall abide forever. This is the ultimate success."

Whereas these verses heap praises on the companions of (the Holy prophet) رضى الله عنهم, the Rawāfidh sect are emphatic that all the companions of (the Holy prophet) رضى الله عنهم save a handful were disbelievers. Such people who claim that the companions of (Companions) رضى الله عنهم were disbelievers have themselves become disbelievers because their claim diametrically opposes the verses of the Qur'ān. When these people are told that they have become disbelievers because they reject the verses of the Qur'ān, their next preposterous claim is that the Qur'ān we have before us is not the same Qur'ān that was revealed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They say that the original Qur'ān is with Imām Mahdi رحمة الله عليه. This statement is also infidelity.

When a person once insulted the companions of (Companions) رضى الله عنهم in the presence of Imām Mālik رحمة الله عليه, the esteemed scholar remarked that any person with any hatred for any of the companions of (Companions) رضى الله عنهم in his heart will be included in the purport of the verse "so that the disbelievers may be enraged by them" i.e. such a person will be regarded as a disbeliever. [Qurtubi]

"Allāh has promised forgiveness and a grand reward for those of them who believe and do good deeds" [verse 29]. In support of what the Rawāfidh say, some Shias deduce from the above verse that the words "those of them" limits the number of companions of (Companions) رضى الله عنهم who are promised the above [i.e. the verse does not refer to all the companions of (the Holy prophet) رضى الله عنهم]. This statement is foolish because the phrase "those of them" is not a preclusive clause, but is intended for elucidation (called "bayāniyya" in Arabic). Even if it is assumed that the clause is preclusive as they say, what proof have the Rawāfidh to say that it precludes all the companions of (Companions) رضى الله عنهم besides the ones whom they regard as Muslims?

In addition to this, it should be noted that Allāh declared, "Allāh was well pleased with the believers when they pledged their allegiance to you beneath the tree." This verse attests to the fact that Allāh is pleased with. All of the 1400 to 1500 companions of (Companions) رضى الله عنهم present at Hudaibiyyah without precluding anyone. Similarly, verse 100 of Surah Taubah (quoted above) states that Allāh is pleased with all the immigrants and Ansār who were the first to lead the way as well as those who followed them. Here too, no preclusive clause is used. How will the Shias reply to these verses, which include the likes of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه? Allāh declares that He is pleased with Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, yet the Shias are displeased with them! They are then actually displeased with Allāh (Allāh forbid!).

What can be said to people who intentionally deny the Qur'ān and who turn away from Belief? Having no concern for their own belief, the Shias revel in stating that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه had no belief. Our plea to the Muslim public is that they should ponder over the verses quoted above so that they never fall into doubt when presented with the Shia fallacy.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mughaffal رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Fear Allāh with regard to my companions رضى الله عنهم! Fear Allāh with regard to my companions رضى الله عنهم! Never make any of them a target after me. Whoever loves them, loves me because of his love for me, and whoever hates them, hates me because of his hatred for me. Whoever hurts them, hurts me and whoever hurts me, hurts Allāh. Soon Allāh shall seize the one who hurts Him." ["Mishkāt" p. 554, from Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you see the person who reviles my companions رضى الله عنهم, then tell him, 'May Allāh's curse be on you on account of your evil.'" [Ibid]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه quotes The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying, "Never revile my companions رضى الله عنهم because (their status is so high that) if any of you spend in charity the equivalent of Mount Uhud in gold, you will not attain (the reward) they attained for spending half a 'Mudd' in charity." ["Mishkāt" p. 553, from Bukhari and Muslim]

May Allāh save all Muslims from the evil of the Rawāfidh. Āmin

سورة الحجرات

Madinan

Surah Al-Hujurat

Verses 18

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَقْدِمُوا بَيْنَ يَدَيِ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ ۚ وَانْفُوا لِلَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿١﴾
يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَرْفَعُوا أَصْوَاتَكُمْ فَوْقَ صَوْتِ النَّبِيِّ وَلَا تَجْهَرُوا لَهُ بِالْقَوْلِ
كَجَهْرِ بَعْضِكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ أَن تَحْبَطَ أَعْمَالُكُمْ وَأَنتُمْ لَا تَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٢﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ
يُغْضُونَ أَصْوَاتَهُمْ عِندَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ امْتَحَنَ اللَّهُ قُلُوبَهُمْ لِلنَّفُورِ لَهُمْ
مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٣﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُنَادُونَكَ مِنَ وَرَاءِ الْحُجُرَاتِ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا
يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٤﴾ وَلَوْ أَنَّهُمْ صَبَرُوا حَتَّى تَخْرُجَ إِلَيْهِمْ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُمْ ۚ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿٥﴾

5

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) O you who believe! Never proceed ahead of Allāh and His messenger. Fear Allāh, for verily Allāh is All Hearing, All Knowing. (2) O you who believe! Never raise your voices above the voice of the messenger and do not speak to him loudly as you speak loudly with each other, lest your deeds be laid to waste without your realising it. (3) Verily those who lower their voices with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم are the ones whose hearts Allāh has purified for Piety. They shall have forgiveness and a tremendous reward. (4) Indeed most of those who call for you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] from outside the rooms have no understanding. (5) If they had exercised patience until you emerged towards them, it would have been best for them. Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.

THE ETIQUETTE OF BEHAVIOUR IN THE PRESENCE OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

The rooms in which the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives lived are referred to as the "Hujurāt". These were very small and constructed from palm trunks. The Surah is called Surah Hujurāt because of the mention of these rooms in the fourth verse. In the above verses, Allāh outlines certain etiquette to be followed when in the presence of the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

The first of these is contained in the verse: "O you who believe! Never proceed ahead of Allāh and His messenger. Fear Allāh, for verily Allāh is All Hearing, All Knowing." This verse is extremely concise and includes a vast range of meanings. Sayyidina Mujaḥid رحمه الله عليه interprets the verse to mean that the believers should await the word of Allāh and the Holy Prophet ﷺ before venturing to say or do anything by themselves. They should act only on the instructions of Allāh and His the Holy Prophet ﷺ.

Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه says that this verse was revealed in response to words of those who expressed the wish that some law be revealed with regard to certain matters. Allāh disliked this comment and revealed the above verse telling them not to speak ahead of Allah and His Holy Prophet ﷺ. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v.4 p.209 & "Ibn Kathīr" v.4 p.205]

Imām Bukhari رحمه الله عليه has narrated from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Zubayr رضي الله عنه that a group of people once came to the Holy Prophet ﷺ and requested that he appoint one of them as Amīr (leader) of the rest. Before the Holy Prophet ﷺ could say anything, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه advised that Sayyidina Qa'qa bin Ma'bad رضي الله عنه be made the Amīr, while Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه advised that Sayyidina Aqra bin Hābis رضي الله عنه be made Amīr. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه said to Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه that he was merely opposing him. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه replied that he never intended to do so. As the altercation ensued between the two, their voices began to rise. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse, "O you who believe! Never proceed ahead of Allāh and His messenger..." [p.7 18]

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that a large portion of the Surah was revealed at once to detail the etiquette to be observed in the presence of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. Muslims are told not to raise their voices above that of the Holy Prophet ﷺ and that they should never address the Holy Prophet ﷺ in the manner that they address each other, but should take care to be respectful. Allāh says, "O you who believe! Never raise your voices above the voice of the messenger and do not speak to him loudly as you speak loudly with each other, lest your deeds be laid to waste without your realising it." A narration of Bukhari (p.7 18) mentions that after this verse was revealed, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه would speak so softly before the Holy Prophet ﷺ that he had to be asked to repeat himself.

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet ﷺ once found Sayyidina Thābit bin Qais رضي الله عنه absent from his gathering. When the Holy Prophet ﷺ asked about his whereabouts, a companion رضي الله عنه volunteered to make enquiries. When the companion رضي الله عنه arrived at the house, he found Sayyidina Thābit bin Qais رضي الله عنه sitting in his house with his head bowed down. When the companion رضي الله عنه asked Sayyidina Thābit رضي الله عنه about the reason for his sadness, the latter replied, "I have a (natural) loud voice and my voice has been higher than that of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. I am therefore among the inmates of Hell." When the companion رضي الله عنه reported this to the Holy Prophet ﷺ, the Holy Prophet ﷺ

رضى الله عنه told him to tell Sayyidina Thābit رضي الله عنه that he is not from among the inmates of Hell but from among the dwellers of Heaven. [Bukhari p. 510 & 718]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضي الله عنه reports that when the above verse was revealed, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضي الله عنه used to whisper to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم like a person sharing a secret. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Zubair رضي الله عنه reports that after this verse was revealed, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه used to speak so softly to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had to ask him what he had said. Thereafter, Allāh revealed the verse stating, "Verily those who lower their voices with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم are the ones whose hearts Allāh has purified for piety. They shall have forgiveness and a tremendous reward."

The Arabic word "imtahana" (translated above as "purified") actually means "to test". The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" states that in this context, the word means "to purify", just as gold is purified from other alloys by smelting. In a like manner, Allāh had purified the hearts of the prophet's companions رضي الله عنهم so that it would purely contain [i]ety. In such tones does Allāh speak about the illustrious prophet's companions رضي الله عنهم – yet the vile Shias choose to vilify them!

NOTE : Scholars state that it is Makrūh (reprehensible) to raise one's voice at the grave of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is still necessary to respect him because he is alive in his grave. A person should greet him in a lowered voice.

"Indeed most of those who call for you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] from outside the rooms have no understanding." The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" has quoted several incidents pertinent to this verse. He narrates from Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضي الله عنه that some Arabs convened and decided, "Let us meet this person who claims to be a Prophet. If he is truly a Holy Prophet, we should attain the good fortune of believing in him ahead of others. If he is not a Prophet and is destined to be a king, we should still live under him (in any event, we will benefit by establishing a relationship with him)." When they came to Madinah, they began to shout out, "O Muhammad! O Muhammad!" The above verse was revealed with reference to these people.

According to a narration of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, some people from the Banu Ambar tribe arrived in Madinah and shouted aloud, "O Muhammad! Come out to meet us!" It was during the afternoon when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was taking a rest and he was awakened by the shouting. The above verse was then revealed.

Sayyidina Jābir رضي الله عنه reports that the verse was revealed when some people of the Banu Tamim tribe stood at the door of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم rooms and called for him to come out. The verse applies to all these incidents and admonishes the people involved saying, "If they had exercised patience until you emerged towards them (by yourself), it would have been best for them. Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." Allāh will certainly forgive any person who commits an error.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِن جَاءَكُمْ فَاسِقٌ بِنَبَأٍ فَتَبَيَّنُوا أَن تُصِيبُوا قَوْمًا بِمَهْلَةٍ فَتُصْحَبُوا عَلَىٰ
مَا فَعَلْتُمْ نَادِمِينَ ﴿٦﴾

(6) O you who believe! If any sinner brings you any news, then verify it, lest you should harm any nation unknowingly and then become remorseful of your actions.

ALWAYS VERIFY THE NEWS YOU HEAR SO THAT YOU MAY NOT CAUSE HARM TO ANYONE

“Ma’ālimut Tanzil” (v.4 p.212) reports that the above verse was revealed with regard to a Sahābi by the name of Sayyidina Walid bin Uqba bin Abi Mu’it رضي الله عنه. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commissioned him to collect the Zakāh of the Banu Mustaliq tribe. When the tribe heard that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sending someone, they waited for him outside the town to welcome him. During the period of ignorance, enmity existed between the Banu Mustaliq tribe and the same Walid bin Uqba رضي الله عنه. Therefore, when he saw the tribe waiting for him outside the town, Satan made him believe that the tribe was waiting to kill him on account of the past prejudice. Alarmed by this thought, he turned back for Madinah and informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the tribe refused to pay Zakāh and intended to kill him.

Hearing this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم decided to declare Jihād (religious war) against the tribe. When they heard this, a delegation from the tribe met with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They said to him, “We heard that you were sending an envoy to collect the Zakāh, so we came out of the town to welcome him. We intended to hand over our Zakāh to him as Allāh had commanded. However, the envoy thought it best to turn back while still on the road. We feared that you may have become upset with us on some account and sent him a letter recalling him. We seek refuge with Allāh from His wrath and the wrath of His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.”

Unable to rely on their word, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent Sayyidina Khālid bin Walid رضي الله عنه to the Banu Mustaliq with the instructions, “If these people are still living in Belief, then take their Zakāh from them. If not, then deal with them as you would deal with the disbelievers.” When Sayyidina Khālid bin Walid رضي الله عنه arrived there, he found that they were all still Muslims and collected the Zakāh from them. When he returned and informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the situation, Allāh revealed the above verse stating, “O you who believe! If any sinner brings you any news, then verify it (before taking any action,) lest you should harm any nation unknowingly and then become remorseful of your actions.”

Although the above incident was an isolated one, Allāh revealed the verse of the Qur’ān as an address to the entire mankind, telling them that every piece of information is not necessarily true. Therefore, one will have to establish the truth of every report and act only after the truth is ascertained. This applies to worldly matters as well as matter of religion. Only narrations of Ahadith that are reported by truthful and pious Muslims are accepted. If the personality of the narrator is unknown, he will be termed "Mastūrul Hāl" and his narration will not be accepted.

Quoting the above verse as substantiation, Imām Muslim رحمه الله عليه has written in the introduction of his book that the narration of a sinner (Fāsiq) will not be accepted.

وَأَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ فِيكُمْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ لَوْ يُطِيعُكُمْ فِي كَثِيرٍ مِّنَ الْأَمْرِ لَعَنِتُمْ وَلَٰكِنَّ اللَّهَ حَبَّبَ إِلَيْكُمُ الْإِيمَانَ وَزَيَّنَهُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَكَرَّهَ إِلَيْكُمُ الْكُفْرَ وَالْفُسُوقَ وَالْعِصْيَانَ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الرَّاشِدُونَ ﴿٧﴾ فَضَلَّاهُم مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَنِعْمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٨﴾

(7) Know well that the messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم is in your midst. There are many matters regarding which you will be placed in difficulty if he were to obey you people concerning them. However, Allāh has made Imān (Belief) beloved to you, has made it beautiful within your hearts and has made disbelief sin and disobedience abhorrent to you. These people are rightly guided. (8) This is on account of the grace and bounty from Allāh. Allāh is All Knowing, the Wise.

BY HIS GRACE AND BOUNTY, ALLĀH HAS MADE IMĀN BELOVED TO YOU AND HAS MADE DISBELIEF AND SIN HATEFUL

Reminding the believers of His tremendous favour on them, Allāh states, "Know well that the messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم is in your midst." In this regard, Allāh states in verse 164 of Surah Āl Imrān, "Allāh has undoubtedly favoured the believers by sending in their midst a messenger from among them, who recites to them His verses, purifies them and teaches them the Book and wisdom."

Allāh then tells the believers, "There are many matters regarding which you will be placed in difficulty if he [the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] were to obey you people concerning them." There are many matters concerning which the opinions of people are wrong and would produce harmful results for them if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were to act according to their opinions.

Allāh then makes mention of another favour that He bestowed on the Believers. Allāh says, "However, Allāh has made Imān (Belief) beloved to you, has made it beautiful within your hearts..." The light of belief has illuminated their hearts, the effect of which is that no believer will ever forsake his Belief irrespective of the odds. In addition to this, Allāh says that He "has made disbelief, sin and disobedience abhorrent to you."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that a person will taste the sweetness of Belief when the following three qualities are found in him/her:

1. When Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم are more beloved to the person anything else.
2. When a person loves another for Allāh's sake.

3. S/he hates returning to disbelief as much as s/he hates being cast into a fire. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 7]

Allāh then says about those in whose hearts Imān (Belief) is beloved and to whom disbelief and sin are abhorred, "These people are rightly guided."

Thereafter, Allāh adds that it was never incumbent on Him to bestow these favours upon the believers, but "This is (solely) on account of the grace from Allāh and bounty. Allāh is All Knowing, the Wise." Nothing is hidden from Allāh, Who bestows favours on His chosen bondsmen according to His infinite wisdom.

وَأِنْ طَائِفَتَانِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ اقْتَتَلُوا فَأَصْلَحُوا بَيْنَهُمَا فَإِنْ بَغَتْ إِحْدَاهُمَا عَلَى الْأُخْرَىٰ
فَقْتُلُوا الَّتِي تَبَغَىٰ حَتَّىٰ تَقَىٰ إِلَىٰ أَمْرِ اللَّهِ فَإِنْ فَاءَتْ فَأَصْلَحُوا بَيْنَهُمَا بِالْعَدْلِ وَأَقْسِطُوا إِنَّ
اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُقْسِطِينَ ﴿٩﴾ إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِخْوَةٌ فَأَصْلَحُوا بَيْنَ أَخَوَيْكُمْ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ
لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ ﴿١٠﴾

- (9) If two groups of believers fight each other, then reconcile between them. If the one group transgresses against the other, then fight that (transgressing) group until they return to Allāh's command. If they return, then reconcile between them with justice. Be just, for Allāh loves those who exercise justice.
(10) The believers are all brothers, so reconcile between your brothers. Fear Allāh so that mercy may be shown to you.

IF TWO GROUPS OF BELIEVERS BEGIN TO FIGHT, THEY SHOULD BE RECONCILED BECAUSE ALL BELIEVERS ARE BROTHERS TO EACH OTHER

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه narrates that someone once suggested to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that it may prove beneficial if the Holy Prophet himself approached Abdullāh bin Ubayy, who was the leader of the hypocrites. It was felt that in this event, Abdullāh bin Ubayy may forsake his opposition to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and accept Islām. Consequently, mounting his donkey, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left with a party of Muslims to meet Abdullāh bin Ubayy.

After crossing a tract of barren land, they reached Abdullāh bin Ubayy. As they approached him, the hypocrite said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Please stay far from me because the stench of your donkey is upsetting me." In reply to this, one of the Ansār said, "By Allāh! The donkey of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has a much more fragrant smell than you." Upon hearing this, Abdullāh bin Ubayy's people became incensed and a war of words ensued between the two groups. This eventually lead to a few fists flying and little skirmish with branches and sandals. Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه says that they later learned that it was with reference to this incident that Allāh revealed the verse "If two groups of believers fight each other, then reconcile between them." [Bukhari v.1 p.370]

"Durrul Manthūr" has reported another incident as the reason for the revelation of this verse. There is no discrepancy between the two incidents because the verse could have been revealed with regard to both.

Allāh says further, "If (after reconciliation) the one group transgresses against the other, then fight that (transgressing) group until they return to Allāh's command (i.e. they abide by Allāh's command not to fight). If they return, then reconcile between them with justice. Be just, for Allāh loves those who exercise justice." Once the transgressing group desists and abides by Allāh's command, the reconciling party should not oppress them in return, but they should resolve the situation with equity. Not only should the fighting be halted, but the two warring factions should be reconciled in a manner that their differences are effectively resolved. If this is not done, every possibility exists that another fight would break out between them.

When discord sets in between two Muslim parties, it becomes wājib (compulsory) for the Amīr-ul-Muminīn (Leader of the believers) to reconcile them and get them to obey the injunctions of the Qur'ān and Sunnah (What the Holy prophet practise). If any party rebels against the Leader of the believers (Amīr-ul-Muminīn), their complaints should be listened to and their grievances duly addressed. If they conclusively prove that the Leader of the believer has oppressed them, it will be necessary for the Muslim public to support them so that the Leader of the believers desists from his oppression. However, if they cannot prove this and are prepared to settle the affair only with a fight, the Muslim public has to support the Leader of the believers in a battle against them. The details pertaining to this are found in the books of Islāmic jurisprudence like "Hidāyah" and others.

"The believers are all brothers..." This relationship of brotherhood is based on the common factor of belief that they all share. It is therefore necessary that they show due regard for this relationship, refrain from fighting and be ready always to forgive each other if any of them happen to forego the rights owed to another.

However, if the situation arises where two Muslim factions are preparing to go to war with each other, it is necessary for other Muslims to make every effort to reconcile the two — as denoted by the verse "so reconcile between your brothers." In addition to this, Allāh advises the Muslims to "Fear Allāh so that mercy may be shown to you." If a person has fear for Allāh in his heart, he will conform to all the dictates of the Shari'ah, thereby attracting Allāh's mercy to himself.

Allāh states in verse 114 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), "There is no good in most of their secret consultations except in him who enjoins charity, a good deed or reconciliation between the people. Whoever does this seeking Allāh's pleasure, then We shall soon confer on him an immense reward." This verse makes it clear that consultations should take place for the above courses — one of the greatest being reconciliation between people. A person will be immensely rewarded for reconciling others, especially for reconciling husband and wife.

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once asked them, "Should I not inform you of something that is more virtuous than Optional fasting, charity and Optional Salāh?" When the companions of (of the Holy prophet) رضى الله عنهم begged to be informed, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "It is to reconcile between people. Mutual enmity is a shaver." [Abu

Dawūd & Tirmidhi]

According to another narration, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that enmity shaves off one's religion. [“Mishkāt” p. 428, from “Musnad of Ahmad” and Tirmidhi]

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا يَسْخَرَ قَوْمٌ مِّن قَوْمٍ عَسَىٰ أَن يَكُونُوا خَيْرًا مِّنْهُمْ وَلَا نِسَاءٌ مِّن نِّسَاءٍ عَسَىٰ أَن يَكُنَّ خَيْرًا مِّنْهُنَّ وَلَا تَلْمِزُوا أَنفُسَكُمْ وَلَا تَنَابَزُوا بِالْأَلْقَابِ بِئْسَ الْإِسْمُ الْفُسُوقُ بَعْدَ الْإِيمَانِ وَمَن لَّمْ يَتُبْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿١١﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اجْتَنِبُوا كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الظَّنِّ إِنَّ بَعْضَ الظَّنِّ إِثْمٌ وَلَا تَجَسَّسُوا وَلَا يَغْتَبَ بَعْضُكُم بَعْضًا أَيُحِبُّ أَحَدُكُمْ أَن يَأْكُلَ لَحْمَ أَخِيهِ مَيْتًا فَكَرِهْتُمُوهُ وَانفُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ تَوَّابٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿١٢﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ مِّن ذَكَرٍ وَأُنثَىٰ وَجَعَلْنَاكُمْ شُعُوبًا وَقَبَائِلَ لِتَعَارَفُوا إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِندَ اللَّهِ أَتَقَرُّكُمْ ﴿١٣﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ خَبِيرٌ ﴿١٣﴾

- (11) O you who believe! Men should not mock other men for perchance they may be better than them. Neither should any women mock other women, perchance they may be better than them. Never find faults with yourselves and do not call each other by derogatory names. It is indeed evil to be labeled with the name of sin after belief. Those, who do not repent are oppressors indeed. (12) O you who believe! Refrain from excessive assumption. Verily, some assumptions are a sin. Never spy and never backbite each other. Does any of you like to eat the flesh of his dead brother, which you so detest? Fear Allāh. Allāh is Most Pardoning, Most Merciful. (13) O people! We have certainly created you from a single male and female and made you into various families and tribes so that you may recognise each other. Verily, the most honoured of you in Allāh's sight is the most abstinent one. Allāh is certainly All Knowing, Informed.

CERTAIN INJUNCTIONS RELEVANT TO SOCIAL CONDUCT

THE FIRST:

The First of many pieces of advice given to the believers in the above verses is contained in the words “O you who believe! Men should not mock other men for perchance they may be better than them. Neither should any women mock other women, perchance they may be better than them.” Allāh addresses the believers in this manner because men ought to be associating with men and women with women. In no way does the verse denote that it is permissible for men to mock women and vice versa.

Allāh makes it clear that no person has the right to mock another. True virtue lies in Belief and good deeds when Allāh accepts these from a person. No person is aware of the inner condition of another person and about the intentions and sincerity that another person has. None has any idea about the status another person enjoys in Allāh's estimation. This will be revealed only on the Day of Judgment. Therefore, it is very possible that a person may mock someone who emerges to be far superior than him (the mocker) on the Day of Judgment. Even if the person who is mocking gains conclusive knowledge about his success in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) and about the doom awaiting the one he is mocking, he still has no reason to mock. Worse than this is when he mocks without knowing what his own plight is to be in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Mocking others is a sure sign of pride in the person who mocks because it indicates that the person considers himself free of the fault which he mocks. If a person keeps his own faults and shortcomings before him, he will find it impossible to mock others and backbite them. Another grave harm of mocking is the hurt it causes to others; which is unlawful in no uncertain terms.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Never fight with your brother, never mock him and never make a promise to him that you cannot fulfil." ["Mishkāt" p. 412]

It is permissible to joke with each other on condition that no lies are spoken and none is hurt. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to joke but would say that even in his jokes he spoke only the truth. ["Mishkāt" p. 216]

It should be borne in mind that mocking people is not only done verbally, but is also carried out by indications and gestures of the eyes or limbs. Such forms of mockery are also Unlawful. Allāh has condemned people who do this in the commentary of the first verse of Surah Humazah (Surah 104).

THE SECOND

The Second injunction Allāh expresses is contained in the verse "Never find faults with yourselves..." One should never disclose the physical defects of another person, neither verbally nor by gestures. The general wording of the verse also forbids publicising the faults of others. It is a common practice to imitate people with walking defects and to refer to them as crippled, or to tease people with other handicaps. It is imperative that Muslims refrain from this type of behaviour.

Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها, who was one of the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, was short in stature. Once, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها mocked her height by telling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that she [Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها] was only so tall, making a gesture with her hand. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told her, "You have spoken a sentence which would putrefy the oceans if it were mixed with them." ["Mishkāt" p. 414]

It should be noted that Allāh does not say, "Never find faults with others", but He says "Never find faults with yourselves..." The reason for this is that all Muslims are like one body. Therefore, finding faults with any individual is tantamount to finding fault with oneself. It is also common that a person will reply to an insult by using the same words for the person who is insulting him. Therefore, the person finding fault is actually finding fault with himself because the insult is returned to him.

THE THIRD

The Third injunction is expressed as "and do not call each other by derogatory names." Examples of these are calling a Muslim a "Fāsiq" (sinner) or a disbeliever. Similarly, calling a person by a name that expresses something evil is also Unlawful, e.g. donkey, pig. It is also Unlawful to call a Muslim revert by his former religion, e.g. calling him a Jew or a Christian.

One of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives by the name of Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها was formerly a Jewess. Once, when her camel had died, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jahsh رضى الله عنها, one of his other wives to give a camel to Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها. Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها exclaimed, "Should I give a camel to that Jewess!" the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم became so angry at the remark that he severed ties with Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها for the entire month of Dhul Hijjah, the month of Muharram and a part of Safar [Abu Dawūd v.2 p.276]. A narration of the "Musnad of Ahmad" (v.6 p.337/8) reports that this incident took place during the Hajj journey.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه says that calling a person by a derogatory name refers to a sin that he had previously committed and had already repented for; e.g. calling a person a crook, a drunkard, a prostitute; etc. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that when someone labels another because of a sin that the person committed, he (the person who labels) will not die until he is also found guilty of the same sin. ["Mishkāt" p. 414]

Allāh says further, "It is indeed evil to be labelled with the name of sin after Belief." When a Muslim mocks another person or finds fault with him/her, the Muslim will be regarded as a sinner (Fāsiq) and people may even call the Muslim by name of "sinner". He is therefore guilty of assuming the name of sinner for himself, which is terrible. A Muslim should always endeavour to be included in the list of the pious and righteous and never to be labelled as a sinner.

Allama Qurtubi رحمه الله has interpreted the verse to mean that a Muslim should never be labelled with a name that denotes a sin. Once a Muslim has repented for a sin, it is wrong to refer to him by the sin he committed; e.g. calling him a thief or a liar, etc. A Muslim revert should never be called a disbeliever in reference to what he was once.

THE FOURTH

The Fourth piece of advice that Allāh gives is "Those who do not repent are oppressors indeed." Such people are guilty of oppressing themselves because they are subjecting themselves to the everlasting doom of Hell.

THE FIFTH

The Fifth piece of advice that Allāh gives is when He says, "O you who believe! Refrain from excessive assumption. Verily, some assumptions are a sin." Assumptions pave the way for many sins such as slander and backbiting. When an assumption is allowed to develop, it leads to many evils and serious conflict between people. An assumption is nothing more than a personal opinion which seldom proves to be true. Allāh declares in Surah Najm, "assumptions are absolutely useless against the truth." [Surah 53, verse 28]

One should always entertain good opinions of Muslims and refrain from harbouring ill thoughts about any Muslim. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Beware of suspicion because suspicion is the falsest of all statements." ["Mishkāt" p. 427]

It should be noted that when a person fears that another person may cause harm to him and avoids the person as a precaution, his attitude will not be regarded as a sinful assumption. At the same time, he should not backbite the person, nor allow the assumption to escalate to the degree of conviction (i.e. he cannot be convinced that the person will really cause harm to him).

The verse makes it clear that all types of opinions about others are not sinful because Allāh says that "some assumptions are a sin." There are therefore also those 'assumptions' that are encouraged, e.g. having the good opinion about Allāh that He is Most Merciful and Forgiving while also abstaining from sins. It is also necessary for a Muslim to entertain a favourable opinion about fellow Muslims, especially about righteous Muslims. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Good opinions are part of good worship." ["Mishkāt" p. 479, from the "Musnad of Ahmad" and Abu Dawūd]

It is imperative for Muslims to stay away from such places that will lead others to suspect him of evil. Similarly, he should also abstain from all deeds and words that will also lead to such suspicions. It is not appropriate for a Muslim to live under a cloud of suspicion.

THE SIXTH

The Sixth command that Allāh issues is that Muslims should "Never spy". A person should never endeavour to unravel what another person does privately and should never search for another's faults. A person who spies on others will be punished in both worlds and will be disgraced in both worlds. Spying is usually prompted by suspicion, which has been outlawed in the same verse.

A Muslim is one who conceals the faults of his Muslim brother and never seeks to pursue the matter to condemn the person. Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person sees something in another which he deems inappropriate to disclose and conceals it, he will receive the great reward of bringing back to life an infant girl who was buried alive." ["Mishkāt" p. 424]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once mounted the pulpit and called out aloud, "O those who have verbally accepted Islām, but in whose hearts Belief has not reached! Do not harm the Muslims, do not insult them and never spy on their private lives. The person who seeks to expose a hidden fault of another, Allāh will expose him until he will be disgraced even in his own home." [Tirmidhi]

To investigate a person's faults or sins is also regarded as spying. One will also be regarded as a spy when one pretends to be sleeping with the intention of listening to the private discussions of others. All forms of spying are Unlawful.

THE SEVENTH

The Seventh instruction is "and never backbite each other. Does any of you like to eat the flesh of his dead brother, which you so detest?" This part of the verse equates backbiting to eating the flesh of a person's dead brother, which is a vile and abhorrent act. Therefore, just as people detest this cannibalistic act, they should also detest the act of backbiting. Backbiting is a serious offence in the Shari'ah and is sadly perpetrated even by people who regularly perform their Salah and are regarded as being 'pious'. They fail to realise the gravity of this deed in this world, but will be harshly reminded in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Then it will be too late for regrets.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once asked the companions رضى الله عنهم, "Do you know what backbiting is?" "Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم know best," was the reply. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then said, "To mention such a thing about your brother which he dislikes." One of the companion's رضى الله عنهم asked, "What if (the thing mentioned) is to be found within the person?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "If it is in him, you have backbitten him and if it is not in him, then you have slandered him." [Muslim v.2 p.323]

This hadith makes it clear that even expressing a sin or a fault that is truly in a person constitutes backbiting (Ghī bah). If the person is innocent of the sin or fault, the crime will be doubled because the offender will be guilty of slander as well as backbiting (Ghī bah). It is also learned from the hadith that one will be guilty of backbiting (Ghī bah) even though one mentions the fault/sin in front of the person concerned. The only condition for a statement to qualify as backbiting (Ghī bah) is that it should be disliked by the person it is directed at – irrespective of whether it is stated in front of him/her or behind his/her back. This should be noted by those people who speak ill of people in their absence and, when they are cautioned about making backbiting (Ghī bah), they say, "I am stating no wrong and can say this to his face as well!"

Slander will also be regarded as a type of backbiting (Ghī bah) because it is disliked by the person it is directed against. Satan has beguiled many a person into repeatedly committing this major sin of backbiting (Ghī bah) yet they are still under the impression that they are not guilty of any sin. Because backbiting (Ghī bah) infringes the rights of fellow man, one has to be extremely wary of it.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once mentioned that backbiting (Ghī bah) is worse than adultery. When someone asked the reason for this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person commits adultery and repents to Allāh, Allāh will forgive him. However, if he perpetrates backbiting (Ghī bah), he will not be forgiven until he is first forgiven by the person against whom he had spoken ill." ["Mishkāt" p. 415]

When a person backbites, he violates Allāh's rights because Allāh had forbidden it for him. At the same time, he violates the rights of fellow man because he is bringing disrepute to someone. It is therefore necessary that together with Taubah (repentance), the backbiter should also seek pardon from the person about whom s/he abused. Our learned scholars have stated that a person needs to seek pardon from the offended party only when the offended party has come to learn of the offence. However, if the backbitten person has no knowledge of the backbiting, the backbiter should seek forgiveness from Allāh on behalf of the backbitten person until his heart is content that he has redressed the wrong of backbiting.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the expiation for backbiting is to pray for the forgiveness of the person who was backbitten by saying, "Allāhummagh Firli Walah" ("O Allāh! Forgiven me and him"). ["Mishkāt" p. 415]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that on the night in which he was taken on Mi'rāj (Ascension), he saw some people whose nails were of copper. They were constantly tearing their faces and chests with these nails. When Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام about the identity of these people, he was informed that these are people who plundered the honour of others. [Abu Dawūd v.2 p.3 13]

Just as it is Unlawful to engage in backbiting (Ghī bah), it is also Unlawful to listen to backbiting (Ghī bah). When a person hears another engage in backbiting, it will be necessary for the listener to forbid the backbiter and to speak in defence of the person being backbitten. Sayyidah Asmā bint Yazīd رضي الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person defends someone whose flesh is being consumed by backbiting, it will be binding on Allāh to save him from the fire of Hell." ["Mishkāt" p. 424]

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person defends the honour of his (Muslim) brother, it will be binding on Allāh to save him from the fire of Hell on the Day of Judgment." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the Qur'ānic verse: "Assisting the believers is a bounden duty upon Us." [Ibid]

Sayyidina Mu'adh bin Anas رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person defends a 'Mu'min (believer) from the words of a hypocrite, Allāh will appoint an angel on the Day of Judgment who will protect his flesh from the fire of Hell. When a person exposes a fault of a Muslim, Allāh will halt him on the bridge of Hell until he is able to emerge from what he said i.e. seek pardon from the offended party and redress the situation." [Abu Dawūd v.2 p.3 13]

Sayyidina Jābir رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Abu Talha رضي الله عنه have both narrated from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when a Muslim's honour is being plundered at any place and another person present there does not assist him (by replying to the accusations), Allāh will not help him (the person failing to defend) on the day when he will most hope for help. On the other hand, when a person will assist a Muslim at a place where the Muslim's honour is being plundered, Allāh will assist him on the day when he will most wish for Allāh's assistance. ["Mishkāt" p. 424]

"Does any of you like to eat the flesh of his dead brother, which you so detest?" With relevance to this verse, the following incident is reported about a companion (of the Holy prophet) by the name of Sayyidina Mā'iz رضي الله عنه. When he committed the sin of adultery, he confessed the sin before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم four occasions. He was eventually condemned to be stoned to death. As people were returning from the stoning, someone mentioned to his companion, "Look at him. Allāh concealed his sin but he did not leave matters to rest until he has to be stoned like a dog." Although the Holy Prophet ﷺ overheard this remark, he kept silent. As they walked on a bit further, they passed by the carcass of a donkey, the foreleg of which was raised. The Holy Prophet ﷺ then called for the person who had made the remark and the one who had listened to him. When they presented themselves before the Holy Prophet ﷺ, he said to them, "Dismount and eat from this carcass." They entreated, "O the Holy Prophet ﷺ! Who can possibly eat from this?" the Holy Prophet ﷺ said, "The dishonour that you had brought to your brother a while ago is much worse than eating this carcass. I swear by the Being in Whose control is my life! He [Sayyidina Maa'iz رضى الله عنه] is presently diving in the rivers of Heaven." [Abu Dawūd v.2 p.252]

This hadith proves that backbiting about dead people is as bad as backbiting about living people.

NOTE: Backbiting (Ghī bah) is not only confined to verbal utterances. Gestures with the eyes and limbs, as well as mimicking a person will also be regarded as backbiting (Ghī bah). Backbiting about a person's children or a person's wife constitutes double backbiting (Ghī bah) because a person is backbiting about the father as well as the child, and the husband as well as the wife. It is unfortunate that there are so many people who have a penchant for backbiting and would speak ill of people to anyone at any time. Such people have no concern for the Ākhirah (Hereafter) at all.

NOTE: If one cautions others about the evil of a certain person so that they save themselves from him, it will not be regarded as backbiting (Ghī bah).

THE EIGHTH

The Eighth advice is contained in the words: "Fear Allāh (by abstaining from everything He has forbidden). Allāh is Most Pardoning, Most Merciful." Allāh will forgive any person who sincerely repents to Him irrespective of his sins.

THE NINTH

The Ninth advice imparted is "O people! We have certainly created you from a single male and female and made you into various families and tribes so that you may recognise each other." By creating people in this manner, people are able to recognise each other as members of different tribes and families. Everyone is equal as human beings because they are all the progeny of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام and Sayyidah Hawwā عليها السلام. The only distinction is by virtue of piety, as Allāh says, "Verily, the most honoured of you in Allāh's sight is the most abstinent one."

Allāh has decreed that virtue be judged on the basis of piety. It is tragic that despite this decree, people still regard others as being honourable because of their lineage and social status even though the person may be immersed in sin and lives on Unlawful earnings. Although people may lead such type of irreligious lives, they pride themselves for being from the lineage of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Their ways of life are typical of the enemies of Islām and have no semblance to the religion brought by their acclaimed forefathers, yet they boast about their lineage. Clean shaven people wearing suits and ties are given honour in society because of their social standing whereas pious and righteous people are treated disrespectfully and looked down upon.

There are also those people who regard themselves to be superior to others because of the colour of their skin or their nationality. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You are not better than a white person nor a black person unless you excel in Piety." ["Musnad of Ahmad" v.5 p. 108]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once climbed on top of Mount Safa and addressed the Quraysh with the following words, "Save yourselves from Hell because I cannot be of assistance to you on the Day of Judgment." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم individually addressed the Banu Ka'b, Banu Murrah, Banu Abdush Shams, Banu Abd Manāf, Banu Hāshim and Banu Abdul Muttalib, who were all families of the Quraysh. Similarly, he also addressed his maternal uncle Abbās رضى الله عنه, his maternal aunt Safiyya رضى الله عنها and his daughter Fātima رضى الله عنها with these words. ["Mishkāt" p. 470, from Bukhari and Muslim]

Family lineage will be of no avail on the Day of Judgment. It will be only Belief and good deeds that will save a person from Hell. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم's intercession will profit the only believers on the Day of Judgment. People only fool themselves by thinking that they can continue committing sins because they have a noble lineage. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said, "Allāh has put an end to the haughtiness of the period of ignorance from you people as well as the pride you had for your forefathers. Now there is either only a pious believer or a wretched sinner. Every man is the son of Ādam عليه السلام and Ādam عليه السلام was created from sand." ["Mishkāt" p. 418, from Abu Dawūd and Tirmidhi]

Explaining the words "so that you may recognise each other", the author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" mentions some of the benefits of people being divided into tribes and families. People with the same names can be distinguished from each other only by their relationship with different families. It by this relationship that people can discern their close relatives from their distant relatives. In this manner, they will be able to duly fulfil the rights they owe to their relatives – especially with regard to the laws of inheritance. When a person is aware of his lineage, he will not associate himself with another family, which has been prohibited in the Ahadith.

THE TENTH

The Tenth advice that Allāh gives is "Allāh is certainly All Knowing, Informed." People should always be conscious that Allāh is Aware of everything at all times. Allāh knows exactly who possesses true belief, who is involved in sin and what every person's state will be in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Every person should concern himself with belonging to the group of pious and righteous Muslims whose reckoning will be easy on the Day of Judgment.

قَالَتِ الْأَعْرَابُ ءَامَنَّا قُلْ لَمْ تُؤْمِنُوا وَلَكِنْ قُولُوا أَسْلَمْنَا وَلَمَّا يَدْخُلِ الْإِيمَانُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَإِنْ تُطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ لَا يَلِتْكُمْ مِنْ أَعْمَالِكُمْ شَيْئًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١٤﴾
 إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَرْتَابُوا وَجَاهَدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الصَّادِقُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ قُلْ أَتَعْلَمُونَ اللَّهُ بِدِينِكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿١٦﴾
 يَمُنُونَ عَلَيْكَ أَنْ أَسْلَمُوا قُلْ لَا تَمْنُوا عَلَيَّ إِسْلَمَكُمْ بَلِ اللَّهُ يَمُنُّ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ هَدَيْتُكُمْ لِلْإِيمَانِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ غَيْبَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاللَّهُ بَصِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٨﴾

(14) The villagers say, "We have faith." Say, "You do not have faith but rather say, 'We have accepted Islām' because faith (Imān) has not yet entered your hearts." If you obey Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh will not reduce your actions in the least. Verily Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (15) The believers are those who believe in only Allāh and His messenger and then have no doubts; and they strive with their wealth and lives in Allāh's path. These are the ones who are true. (16) Say, "Are you telling Allāh about your religion when Allāh has knowledge of whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth? Allāh has knowledge of everything." (17) [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] they boast about their favour to you that they have accepted Islām. Say, "Do not boast to me about your acceptance of Islām. Rather it was Allāh Who favoured you by guiding you to faith, if you are truthful." (18) Verily Allāh has knowledge of the unseen things in the heavens and the earth and Allāh Sees what you do.

A WORD OF CAUTION TO THOSE WHO MERELY CLAIM TO HAVE ACCEPTED ISLĀM

It is reported in "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" that the "villagers" mentioned in the above verse refers to some people of the Banu Asad tribe. They arrived in Madinah during years of drought and professed to be Muslims, but were not actually so. They used to scatter dirt in the streets of Madinah and were instrumental in raising the prices of commodities. They attended the gatherings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم morning and evening, constantly reminding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that whereas other Arabs only presented themselves in Madinah, they had come with all their wealth and families as well. They also kept telling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they did not fight him as certain other tribes did. In this manner, they continued boasting about their "favours" to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and asked him to spend the incoming Zakāh on them. Allāh then revealed the above verse with reference to them.

Allāh states, "The villagers say, 'We have faith.' Say, 'You do not have faith (within your hearts) but rather say, 'We have (superficially) accepted Islām' because faith (Belief) has not yet entered your hearts.'" The outward physical actions of Islām do not necessarily denote the presence of true belief within the heart. True belief denotes deep-rooted faith within the heart. Referring to the hypocrites in verse 8 of Sūrah Baqarah, Allāh says, "Among people there are those who say, 'We believe in Allāh and in the Final Day,' whereas they are not believers." Belief comprises of conviction within the heart coupled with verbal attestation of the same. If a person verbally attests to be a believer without having the conviction in his heart, he will be a hypocrite.

On the other hand, if a person has the conviction but does not verbally attest to this, he will also not be a believer. Speaking about the disbelievers of the people of Fir'oun (pharaoh), Allāh says in Surah Naml, "They unjustly and arrogantly rejected them (Allāh's signs) whereas their souls were convinced about them. So see what the outcome of the anarchists shall be." [Surah 27, verse 14]

There are many people who claim to be Muslims without having the necessary conviction in their hearts. Although they may be able to fool the Muslims in this world, Allāh does not regard them as believers.

Allāh states further, "If (inwardly and outwardly) you obey Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh will not reduce (the rewards of) your actions in the least." In fact, Allāh will compound the reward of good deeds by at least tenfold. Good deeds will profit a person only when s/he possesses belief. Merely claiming to have belief is insufficient and will render all one's deeds null and void in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). However, it should be noted that "Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." Therefore, if a person sincerely accepts Islām and repents, Allāh will forgive him.

Allāh then described the believers when He says, "The believers are only those who (sincerely) believe in Allāh and His messenger and then have no doubts; and they strive with their wealth and lives in Allāh's path." This refers to physically fighting the disbelievers in Jihād, as well as fighting one's carnal self to carry out good deeds and to abstain from sins. It also refers to making an effort to make sure that one's family and subordinates adhere to the injunctions of the Shari'ah.

Passing an accolade, Allāh says, "These are the ones who are true" i.e. they are true to their word when they claim to possess belief and are not like the hypocrites (Munāfiqīn).

It should be noted that Allāh describes the believers as people who not only believe in Allāh, but who also believe in Allāh's messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Believing only in oneness of Allāh without believing in the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is not regarded as belief in Allāh's sight. The belief which will guarantee salvation in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) has to include belief in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This verse therefore disproves the theory of those people who wish to merge all religions on the basis of belief in oneness of Allāh only.

People need not make claims to Allāh that they have believed because Allāh has knowledge of everything Allāh knows well who is true in their Belief and who is not. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "Say, 'Are you telling Allāh about your religion when Allāh has knowledge of whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth? Allāh has knowledge of everything.

It is reported in 'Ma'ālimut Tanzil' that after the above verse was revealed, the same villagers of the Banu Asad came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and attested that they really did accept Islām with sincere hearts. Allāh then revealed the verse "[O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] They boast about their favour to you that they have accepted Islām. Say, "Do not boast to me about your acceptance of Islām. Rather it was Allāh Who favoured you by guiding you to faith; if you are truthful (in your claim that you have really accepted Islām with sincere hearts)." People therefore have to be thankful to Allāh for guiding them to Islām.

With regard to the verse "They boast about their favour to you that they have accepted Islām" - it may be asked that these people said, "We have faith" and not "We have accepted Islām." Why has Allāh expressed their statement of "We have faith" as "they have accepted Islām"? One of the reasons for this is that Allāh wishes to emphasise the fact that these people were also insincere the second time as well when they told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they really did accept Islām with sincere hearts. Another reason that comes to mind is that Allāh wishes to tell these people that even since sincere believers do not have the right to boast about their 'favour' to Allāh in accepting Islām, how can they do such a thing when their belief is false?

The verse is a lesson to Muslims until the Day of Judgment that they have accepted Islām for their own benefit and cannot boast that they have done a favour to Islām or the Muslims in doing so. They therefore cannot demand funds or food from the Muslims on this basis. Of course, the Muslims will make every effort to assist them as far as possible, but they should never demand assistance. Each person is obliged to earn for himself.

Allāh concludes the Surah by once more reminding mankind that "Verily Allāh has knowledge of the unseen things in the heavens and the earth and Allāh Sees what you do." Man should therefore be wary of whatever he does.

سورة قاف

Makkan

Surah Qāf

Verses 45

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قَدْ وَالْقُرْآنِ الْمَجِيدِ ﴿١﴾ بَلْ عَجِبُوا أَنْ جَاءَهُمْ مُنْذِرٌ مِنْهُمْ فَقَالَ الْكَافِرُونَ هَذَا شَيْءٌ عَجِيبٌ ﴿٢﴾ أَوَذَا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا ذَلِكَ رَجْعٌ بَعِيدٌ ﴿٣﴾ قَدْ عَلِمْنَا مَا تَنْقُصُ الْأَرْضُ مِنْهُمْ وَعِنْدَنَا كِتَابٌ حَفِيزٌ ﴿٤﴾ بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِالْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ فَهُمْ فِي أَمْرٍ مَرِيجٍ ﴿٥﴾ أَفَلَمْ يَنْظُرُوا إِلَى السَّمَاءِ فَوْقَهُمْ كَيْفَ بَنَيْنَاهَا وَزَيَّنَّاهَا وَمَا لَهَا مِنْ فُرُوجٍ ﴿٦﴾ وَالْأَرْضَ مَدَدْنَاهَا وَأَلْقَيْنَا فِيهَا رَوَاسِيَ وَأَنْبَتْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ نَبَاتٍ ﴿٧﴾ وَذَكَرْنَا لِكُلِّ عِبْدٍ مُنِيبٍ ﴿٨﴾ وَنَزَّلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً مُبَارَكًا فَأَنْبَتْنَا بِهِ جَنَّاتٍ وَحَبَّ الْحَصِيدِ ﴿٩﴾ وَالنَّخْلَ بَاسِقَاتٍ لَهَا طَلْعٌ نَضِيدٌ ﴿١٠﴾ رِزْقًا لِلْعِبَادِ وَأَحْيَيْنَا بِهِ بَلَدَةً مَيِّتًا كَذَلِكَ الْخُرُوجُ ﴿١١﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

- (1) Qāf. By the oath of the Glorious Qur'ān (you will certainly be resurrected). (2) Yet they are astonished that a warner has come to them from among themselves. So the disbelievers say, "This is something strange. (3) "Will we be brought back to life after we have become sand? This resurrection is certainly farfetched!" (4) We know what the earth diminishes of them and with Us is the protected book. (5) They falsify the truth when it comes to them and are in a confused state. (6) Have they not looked at the sky above them and seen how We have made it, beautified it and that it has no cracks? (7) And (have they not looked at) the earth which We have spread out placed massive mountains on it and have grown on it every type of magnificent thing? (8) (These are all) eye-openers and reminders for every penitent slave. (9) We have sent blessed rains from the sky and have grown with it gardens, harvested grains... (10) .... and tall date palms with interwoven branches. (11) (These are all) as a provision for man. And We have revived dead land therewith (with the rains). Such shall the resurrection be.

ALLĀH'S CREATIVE POWERS, HIS BOUNTIES AND THE FALSIFICATION OF THE DISBELIEVERS

Surah Qāf contains proofs of oneness of Allāh (Tauhīd), mention of Judgment day, its occurrence, description and the plight of the disbelievers and believers. The Surah also contains mention of nations that were destroyed in the past.

"By the oath of the Glorious Qur'ān (you people will definitely be resurrected)." Allāh revealed the Qur'ān so that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may use it to warn the people. However, not stopping at falsifying the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the people even falsified the Qur'ān itself. They behaved haughtily and pretended to be astonished at the fact that Allāh had sent a Prophet from among their own people. In addition to this they also said, "Will we be brought back to life after we have become sand? This resurrection is certainly farfetched!"

In reply to their surprise at the resurrection, Allāh says, "We know what the earth diminishes of them." Allāh has perfect knowledge about the flesh, limbs and organs of their bodies that the earth will decompose after their deaths.

"...and with Us is the protected book." In this book (the 'Lowhul Mahfūz (the protected tablet)'), records are kept of every occurrence that has taken place and will take place. Allāh knows exactly which portions of every being's body is in which portion of the earth and whether it has become food to any animal or any creature. All the scattered portions of every being will be collected together on the Day of Judgment, once again formed into the being, the soul replaced and the body brought back to life. Allāh created the creation, gave life to them and then caused them to die. It is therefore simple for Him to bring them back to life on the Day of Judgment.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a person is buried, every part of his body disintegrates except a portion of his spine (the coccy). It will be from this bone that the body will be formed again on the Day of Judgment." [Mishkāt p. 481]

"They falsify the truth when it comes to them..." The polytheists were unable to understand resurrection. When Allāh sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to guide them and he proved his apostleship to them with various miracles, they still adamantly falsified him. They were therefore guilty of the multiple crime of rejecting the truth as well as the messenger of the truth. It is for this reason that they "are in a confused state." They were therefore prone to contradicting their own statements. They sometimes claimed that a human being cannot be a Prophet and sometimes said that a wealthy person should have been a Prophet instead. Sometimes they labelled the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a poet, sometimes as a magician and sometimes a madman.

Allāh dispels their doubts in His creative powers by saying, "Have they not looked at the sky above them and seen how We have made it (without any supporting pillars), beautified it (with the stars) and that it has no cracks?" Allāh Ta'āla asks further whether these people have not seen "the earth which We have spread out, placed massive mountains on it and have grown on it every type of magnificent thing (plants, trees, vegetation, etc)?"

"(These are all) eye-openers and reminders for every penitent slave." By pondering over these tremendous creations of Allāh, man ought to recognise Allāh's greatness.

Allāh continues to say, "We have sent blessed rains from the sky and have grown with it gardens, harvested grains and tall date palms with interwoven branches." The branches of the date palm grow systematically layer by layer, with the dates well protected at the top. Allāh then states that He has created all of these "as a provision for man."

In addition to this, "We have revived dead land with it (with the rains). Such shall the resurrection be. "Just as Allāh revives dead land with the rains and causes various types of vegetation to grow, He can also revive dead bodies on the Day of Judgment. This verse is the culmination of the proof being presented to those who doubt the occurrence of resurrection. They are being told that the manifestations of Allāh's creative powers are before them every day yet they refute His ability to re-create creation!

Allāh says in Surah Rūm, "So look at the signs of Allāh's mercy and how He revives the earth after it's death. Undoubtedly, He gives life to the dead and He has power over all things." [Surah 30, verse 50]

كَذَّبَ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَأَصْحَابُ الرَّسِّ وَثَمُودُ ﴿١٢﴾ وَعَادُ وَفِرْعَوْنُ وَإِخْوَانُ لُوطٍ ﴿١٣﴾
وَأَصْحَابُ الْأَيْكَةِ وَقَوْمُ تُبَّعٍ كُلٌّ كَذَّبَ الرُّسُلَ فَحَقَّ وَعِيدِ ﴿١٤﴾ أَفَعَيِينَا بِالْخَلْقِ الْأَوَّلِ بَلْ
هُمْ فِي لَبْسٍ مِّنْ خَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ ﴿١٥﴾

(12) The nation of Nūh عليه السلام, the people of "Rass" and the Thamud falsified before them. (13) So too did the Ād, Fir'aun and the people of Lūt عليه السلام. (14) As well as the people of "Aykah" and the nation of "Tubba ". Each one of them falsified their messengers so My warning came to pass. (15) Did We get tired with the first creation? No, yet they are in doubt concerning the new creation.

LEARNING LESSONS FROM THE DESTRUCTION OF PREVIOUS NATIONS

These verses warn people about the folly of previous nations who were content with their disbelief and believed that they will never be taken to task for their disbelief, evil deeds and falsification of their Anbiya (The Holy Prophets) عليهم السلام. However, they were all eventually destroyed when Allāh's punishment overtook them. The above verses mention a few of these unfortunate nations. The details of these nations are found in other Surahs. The people of "Rass" ("the people of the well") have been mentioned in Surah Furqān [Surah 25, verse 38], the people of "Aykah" are mentioned in Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verse 176] and the nation of "Tubba" are mentioned in Surah Dukhān [Surah 44, verse 37].

Allāh says about them, "Each one of them falsified their messengers so My warning came to pass." They were warned that they stood to face Allāh's punishment if they disbelieved, yet they took no heed.

Allāh then further dispels the doubt they have in the advent of resurrection by asking, "Did We get tired with the first creation?" Allāh never experiences fatigue. It is therefore impossible to think that Allāh is incapable of resurrecting people on the Day of Judgment because He became tired when He created them the first time. These people have no grounds to believe that Allāh is incapable of resurrecting creation. All they have are baseless doubts upon which they base their arguments. Allāh says, "they are (merely) in doubt concerning the new creation." These doubts are addressed time and again in the Qur'ān, yet they foolishly cling to them.

وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ وَنَعْلَمُ مَا تُوَسْوِسُ بِهِ نَفْسُهُ وَنَحْنُ أَقْرَبُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ حَبْلِ الْوَرِيدِ ﴿١٦﴾
يَنْتَلِقَى الْمُتَلَقِيَانِ عَنِ الشِّمَالِ غَيْرِ ﴿١٧﴾ مَا يَلْفِظُ مِنْ قَوْلٍ إِلَّا لَدَيْهِ رَقِيبٌ عَتِيدٌ ﴿١٨﴾
وَجَاءَتْ سَكْرَةُ الْمَوْتِ بِالْحَقِّ ذَلِكَ مَا كُنْتَ مِنْهُ تَحِيدُ ﴿١٩﴾

(16) Verily, We have created man, We are aware of the whispers that enter his heart and We are closer to him than his jugular vein. (17) When the two receivers receive, sitting on his right and left hand sides. (18) Whenever a word escapes, there is a watcher ready by him. (19) The pangs of death will arrive with the truth. "This is what you used to avoid."

ALLĀH KNOWS THE WHISPERS OF THE HEART AND IS CLOSER TO MAN THAN HIS JUGULAR VEIN

Allāh begins these verses by stating, "Verily, We have created man, We are aware of the whispers that enter his heart and We are closer to him than his jugular vein." This means that Allāh is Aware of every condition that man experiences, even though it be the deepest secrets of the heart.

ANGELS HAVE BEEN APPOINTED TO RECORD MAN'S ACTIONS

Allāh then speaks of the angels that He has appointed to record every person's deeds. Despite the fact that Allāh has perfect knowledge of every deed that every person carries out, He has appointed an angel on the right of every person and another on the left who meticulously record every deed that a person carries out. It is with reference to these two angels that Allāh says, "When the two receivers receive, sitting on his right and left hand sides."

Allāh says in Surah Infitār, "Honourable remembering scribes have been appointed over you who know what you do." The registers of deeds that these angels record will be presented on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says in Surah Jāthiya, "This is Our Book which speaks against you with the truth. Verily We used to have everything you did recorded." [Surah 45, verse 29]

Allāh states further, "Whenever a word escapes, there is a watcher ready by him."

When a person utters a good word, the angel on his right side records it and when he utters a word of evil, the angel on his left side records it. Besides his words, every deed is recorded in this manner.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and others have stated that these angels record only those good and evil deeds that are deserving of reward or punishment. They do not record permissible deeds that warrant neither rewards nor punishment. However it has also been reported from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that these angels record every deed that a person carries out, including the deeds that are not deserving of reward or punishment. They then present these deeds to Allāh every Thursday and only the deeds deserving reward or punishment are left in the registers. All other deeds are erased. After stating this, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه recited the following verse of Surah Rā'd, "Allāh effaces what He wills." [Surah 13, verse 39]

The general inference of the verse is that the deeds of the disbelievers are also recorded. After stating the above, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes from "Sharh Jowhara" that the deeds of children are recorded and that no recording angels are appointed for insane people. Are recording angels appointed for the Jinn? Although certain Scholars have mentioned that angels are appointed for them, there is no conclusive narration to substantiate this. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 26 p. 180]

THE PANGS OF DEATH

Allāh Ta'āla states further, "The pangs of death will arrive with the truth." When death will approach sinful people who dreaded its arrival, it will be said to them, "This is what you used to avoid." While they always tried to avoid death in every way and could not bear to even think of it, it arrived at its appointed hour to claim their souls. None can hope to escape death and the stages of the grave and the Ākhirah (Hereafter) that follow. Some of these stages will now be mentioned in the forthcoming verses.

وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ ذَلِكَ يَوْمُ الْوَعِيدِ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَجَاءَتْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّعَهَا سَائِقٌ وَشَهِيدٌ ﴿٢١﴾ لَقَدْ كُنْتُمْ فِي غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ هَٰذَا فَكُشِفْنَا عَنْكُمْ غِطَاءَكُمْ فَبَصَرُكُمُ الْيَوْمَ حَدِيدٌ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَقَالَ قَرِينُهُ هَٰذَا مَا لَدَىٰ عَيْنِي ﴿٢٣﴾ أَلْقِيَا فِي جَهَنَّمَ كُلَّ كَفَّارٍ عَيْنِي ﴿٢٤﴾ مَتَاعٍ لِلْخَيْرِ مُعْتَدٍ مُّرِيبٍ ﴿٢٥﴾ الَّذِي جَعَلَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَأَلْقِيَاهُ فِي الْعَذَابِ الشَّدِيدِ ﴿٢٦﴾ ﴿٢٧﴾ قَالَ لَا تَخْصِمُوهُ لَدَىٰ وَقَدْ قَدَّمْتُ إِلَيْكُم بِالْوَعِيدِ ﴿٢٨﴾ مَا يُبَدِّلُ الْقَوْلَ لَدَىٰ وَمَا أَنَا بِظَالِمٍ لِلْعَبِيدِ ﴿٢٩﴾

(20) The trumpet will be sounded. This is the day you were warned about. (21) Every soul shall come with a driver and a witness. (22) "You were certainly negligent about this. We have removed your veils from you and your vision is ever sharp today." (23) His companion shall say, "This is what I have ready." (24) "Throw every obstinate disbeliever into Hell." (25) "Everyone who prevented good, who was rebellious and who created doubts..." (26) "...who ascribed another deity with Allāh. So fling him into a severe punishment." (27) His companion will say, "O our Lord! I did not mislead him but he was in distant deviation." (28) Allāh shall say, "Do not argue before me when I have already sent a warning to you." (29) "The decree that proceeds from Me shall never be altered and I do not oppress My slaves."

BLOWING THE TRUMPET AND RESURRECTION

Describing the scene on the Day of Judgment, Allāh says, "The trumpet will be sounded. This is the day you were warned of. Every soul shall come with a driver and a witness." "Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes from Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه that the "driver" refers to the angel who will bring the person forth and the "witness" refers to the angels who will testify about the person's deeds. A hadith found in "Hilyatul Awliyā" states that one of the two recording angels will be the "driver" while the other will be the "witness".

According to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, the disbelievers will then be told, "You were certainly negligent about this. We have removed your veils from you and your vision is ever sharp today." In the world, their hearts are veiled from realising the truth when they are invited towards belief and warned against the terrible consequences of disbelief and polytheism. They fail to take heed and turn a blind eye. However, these veils will be removed on the Day of Judgment and they will be able to see the truth very clearly.

"His companion shall say, 'This is what, I have ready.'" Who is this "companion"? Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه states that the "companion" will be the angel who recorded a person's evil deeds. He will point to the register of evil deeds saying that he has it ready for scrutiny.

Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه states that the "companion" refers to the Satan that is appointed to accompany every person. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once informed the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم that every person has a Satan and an angel appointed to accompany him at all times. When the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether he also had these two companions, he replied, "Yes, but Allāh assisted me against the Satan and he became a Muslim. He now advises me only to do good." This hadith is supported by the following verse of Surah HāMim Sajdah: "We have delegated companions for them, who beautify for them whatever is before them and behind them." [Surah 41, verse 25]

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL BE FLUNG INTO HELL

Allāh will then instruct the angels, "Throw every obstinate disbeliever into Hell. Everyone who prevented good, who was rebellious and who created doubts..." While many commentators state that those "who prevented good" refers to the disbelievers who prevented people from accepting Islām, others are of the opinion that it refers to people who did not pay Zakāh. These people used to create doubts in the hearts of others concerning Allāh's being, the Dīn (religion) of Islām and the advent of Judgment day. In addition to this, they were polytheists "who ascribed another deity with Allāh." As a result of their sinful behaviour, Allāh will reiterate the command, "So fling him into a severe punishment."

When the disbeliever is flung into Hell, his companion who made evil attractive for him and who was responsible for misleading him will say, "O our Lord! I did not (forcefully) mislead him but he was in distant deviation." The companion will argue that the person fell prey to his guiles because he was inherently inclined towards evil. If this were not so, he would not have been affected. The companion was merely an aide to him and did not force him to resort to disbelief.

It is obvious that the "companion" is also a disbeliever who is destined for Hell. Since exonerating himself from blame will not save him from Hell, why will he make the plea, "O our Lord! I did not mislead him but he was in distant deviation"? In reply to this question, some Scholars have mentioned that the disbeliever will say this because he will not want to suffer the consequences of another person's evil deeds in addition to those of his own evil. However, his plea will be to no avail and he will have to suffer the consequences of misleading others as well. Allāh shall say to him, "Do not argue before me when I have already sent a warning to you." When Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was created, Allāh had already warned Iblis (chief Satan) and all of mankind by saying, "Whoever of them will follow you, I shall certainly fill Hell with the lot of you." [Surah A'raf (7), verse 18]

Allāh will add, "The decree that proceeds from Me shall never be altered and I do not oppress My slaves." Therefore, in accordance with Allāh's decree, the disbelievers will be cast into Hell.

NOTE: When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم received the gift of fifty Salāh on the night of Mi'rāj (Ascension) and then had it reduced to five Salāh on the direction of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, Allāh said, "Although the Salāh will be five, the rewards earned shall remain fifty because every good deed earns a ten-fold reward. 'The decree that proceeds from Me shall never be altered.'" ["Mishkāṭ" p. 529]

يَوْمَ نَقُولُ لِجَهَنَّمَ هَلِ امْتَلَأَتْ وَتَقُولُ هَلْ مِنْ مَزِيدٍ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَأُزْلِفَتِ الْجَنَّةُ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ غَيْرَ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٣١﴾ هَذَا مَا نُوْعِدُونَ لِكُلِّ أَوَّابٍ حَفِيفٍ ﴿٣٢﴾ مَنْ خَشِيَ الرَّحْمَنَ بِالْغَيْبِ وَجَاءَ بِقَلْبٍ مُنِيبٍ ﴿٣٣﴾ ادْخُلُوهَا بِسَلَامٍ ذَلِكَ يَوْمُ الْخُلُودِ ﴿٣٤﴾ لَهُمْ مَا يَشَاءُونَ فِيهَا وَلَدَيْنَا مَزِيدٌ ﴿٣٥﴾

(30) (On that) day We shall ask Hell, "Are you full?" and she will reply, "Are there any more?" (31) And Heaven will be brought close to those who feared Allāh and will not be far off. (32) "This is what you have been promised for every penitent and conscientious person. (33) "The one who feared Allāh without seeing Him and has arrived with a heart that is attached to Allāh." (34) "Enter Heaven in peace. This is a day of eternity." (35) They shall have whatever they desire there and We even have something extra for them.

ALLĀH'S ADDRESS TO HELL AND HER REPLY

The dimensions of Hell are so vast that even after millions of men and Jinn are cast into it, it would still appear to be empty. Therefore, when Allāh will ask her, "Are you full?", it will reply in eager anticipation of more, "Are there any more?"

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that Heaven and Hell once engaged in a discussion when Hell proudly said, "All the proud and aristocratic people will occupy me." Hearing this, Heaven said, "Why is it that the meek, downtrodden and simple people will occupy me?" Allāh addressed Heaven saying, "You are My mercy and I shall use you to show mercy to whoever I please." Then, addressing Hell, Allāh said, "You are My punishment and I shall use you to punish whoever I please. Both of you have My promise that I shall fill you both," ["Mishkāt" p. 505 from Bukhari and Muslim]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that Hell will continue repeating, "Are there any more?" as her inhabitants keep pouring in. Eventually Allāh will place His foot on Hell, causing it to recoil and plead, "Enough! Enough! I beg You by Your honour and munificence!" Heaven will also have space left as it is being filled. To fill Heaven, Allāh will create a new creation to occupy it."

Mention of Allāh's foot in this narration is among the 'Mutashābihāt' and one should bear in mind that Allāh cannot be compared to the creation. Allāh knows best the meaning of such narrations and we should not bother to unravel their meanings.

In response to the above narration, it was once mentioned to a saint that the new creation to fill Hell will be extremely fortunate to enter Heaven immediately after being created. The saint replied, "What enjoyment can they experience when they have not experienced the hardships and difficulties of the world? How will they appreciate the comforts of Heaven? It will be we who will really experience enjoyment. We will be able to appreciate the comforts of Heaven that will be much greater than the comforts of this world because we know difficulties and have experienced them."

HEAVEN AND THE PEOPLE OF HEAVEN

Allāh says, "And Heaven will be brought close to those who feared Allāh and will not be far off" They will then be entered into Heaven and, seeing the bounties stored for them there, they will be told, "This is what you have been promised for every penitent and conscientious person." Heaven is the promised abode for those people who conscientiously obey Allāh's commands and avoid sin. Describing the people of Heaven further Allāh says, "The one who feared Allāh without seeing Him and has arrived (in the Ākhirah (Hereafter)) with a heart that is attached to Allāh." The primary concern of such a person is to please only Allāh.

It will then be said to them, "Enter (Heaven) in peace. This is a day of eternity." i.e. this is a day when a decision is passed that will affect their eternal existence. They will therefore be able to live eternally in Heaven.

SEEING ALLĀH IN HEAVEN

"They shall have whatever they desire there and We even have something extra for them." Besides having whatever they desire in Heaven, they will also receive things far beyond the limits of their imagination. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه quotes from Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه that "something extra" refers to seeing Allāh Himself.

Imām Muslim رحمه الله عليه reports from Sayyidina Suhayb رضى الله عنه a hadith which states that Allāh will ask the people of Heaven whether they require anything else in Heaven. They will reply by saying, "You have illuminated our faces, entered us into Heaven and saved us from Hell. (What else could we want?)." Allāh shall then remove the veil concealing Him and they will be able to see Him directly. There will be nothing so beloved to them as this. After mentioning this hadith, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the following verse of Surah Yunus [Surah 10, verse 26]: "For those who do righteous deeds shall be The Best and more." ["Mishkāt" p. 5]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh says, "I have prepared for My righteous bondsmen in Heaven such bounties that no eye has ever seen, that no ear has ever heard about and that has never crossed the mind of an human." Thereafter, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If you please, you may recite the verse: "No soul knows what pleasures are hidden for him as a reward for the deeds he carries out." [Surah Sajdah (32), verse 17]

وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنْ قَرْنٍ هُمْ أَشَدُّ مِنْهُمْ بَطْشًا فَنَقَّبُوا فِي الْبِلَادِ هَلْ مِنْ مَحِيصٍ ﴿٣٦﴾
 إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَذِكْرٍ لِمَنْ كَانَ لَهُ قَلْبٌ أَوْ أَلْقَى السَّمْعَ وَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَلَقَدْ
 خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ وَمَا مَسَّنَا مِنْ لُغُوبٍ ﴿٣٨﴾
 فَأَصْبِرْ عَلَى مَا يَقُولُونَ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ قَبْلَ طُلُوعِ الشَّمْسِ وَقَبْلَ الْغُرُوبِ ﴿٣٩﴾
 وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْهُ وَادْبَرْ السُّجُودِ ﴿٤٠﴾

(36) How many were the nations that We destroyed before them who were mightier than them? So they journeyed through the cities (calling with concern) "Is there any escape?" (37) There is certainly a reminder in this for him who has a heart or who listens attentively. (38) We have created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two in six days without fatigue even remotely touching Us. (39) Patiently bear whatever they say and glorify the praises of your Lord before sunrise and before sunset. (40) Glorify Him during a portion of the night as well and after prostration.

LEARNING LESSONS FROM THE DESTRUCTION OF PREVIOUS NATIONS

Allāh speaks of past nations that were destroyed when He says, "How many were the nations that We destroyed before them who were mightier than them?" Many of the previous nations were much more powerful than the Quraysh of Makkah. Among these powerful nations that were destroyed was the Ād. Describing their phenomenal strength, Allāh quotes Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام who said to the Ād, "And, when you seize control, you seize like tyrants." [Surah Shu'arā (26), verse 130]

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Surah Muhammad, Allāh says, "Many were the towns that were more powerful than your town which drove you out. We destroyed them and they had none to assist them." [Surah 47, verse 13]

Allāh continues, "So they journeyed through the cities (desperately calling out) 'Is there any escape?'" When the time drew close for their punishment, their strength and resources were useless to them and they searched for safety. However, there was no escape and they were eventually destroyed.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes some commentators who say that the verse "So they journeyed through the cities. 'Is there any escape?'" refers to the people of Makkah. This means that the Makkans frequently journeyed through the ruins that were once powerful civilisations. Allāh asks them whether, after passing these ruins so often, they ever noticed a means of escape from His punishment, which they could use when punishment afflicts them. Since it is obvious that there is no escape, why are they still adamant to practise disbelief?

Allāh continues to say, "There is certainly a reminder in this for him who has a heart and who listens attentively." i.e. for a person whose ears and heart are attentive and willing. Those people whose hearts are not willing to accept any advice and who are inattentive cannot benefit from the advice given to them.

"We have created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two in six days without fatigue even remotely touching Us." A weak person will get exhausted after doing some work. Since Allāh is most Mighty and Powerful, it is impossible for Him to experience fatigue. This verse refutes the foolish statement of the Jews who said that Allāh began creating the universe on a Saturday, completed it on a Friday and then rested on Saturday (Allāh forbid!).

"Patiently bear whatever they say and glorify the praises of your Lord before sunrise and before sunset." Commentators mention that this verse refers to the Fajr Salāh and the Asr Salāh, both of which have special significance. Sayyidina Jmārah bin Rubiyyah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who performs Salāh before sunrise and before sunset shall never enter Hell." ["Mishkāt" p. 62]

"Glorify Him during a portion of the night [i.e. in Tahajjud Salāh (supper rogatory prayer)] as well and after prostration." Some commentators have mentioned that "after prostration" refers to performing Optional Salāh after ʿardh (obligatory) Salāh. Others state that it refers to engaging in Tasbīhāt (the act of praising Allāh) after Salāh. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that "before sunrise" refers to the Fajr Salāh, "before sunset" refers to Zuhr and Asr Salāh, "a portion of the night" refers to Maghrib and Isha, while "after prostration" refers to Optional Salāh.

وَأَسْمِعْ يَوْمَ يُنَادِ الْمُنَادُ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ قَرِيبٍ ﴿٤١﴾ يَوْمَ يَسْمَعُونَ الصَّيْحَةَ بِالْحَقِّ ذَٰلِكَ يَوْمُ

الْخُرُوجِ ﴿٤٢﴾ إِنَّا نَحْنُ نُحْيِي وَنُمِيتُ وَإِلَيْنَا الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٤٣﴾ يَوْمَ تَشَقُّقُ الْأَرْضُ عَنْهُمْ سِرَاعًا ذَلِكُمْ حَشْرٌ عَلَيْنَا يَسِيرٌ ﴿٤٤﴾ نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَقُولُونَ وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِجَبَّارٍ فَذَكَرْ بِالْقُرْآنِ مَنْ يَخَافُ وَعِيدِ ﴿٤٥﴾

(41) Listen attentively. The day when the caller shall call from a near place. (42) The day when people shall hear the screech in truth. This is the day of resurrection. (43) Indeed it is only We who give life and death and to Us shall be the return. (44) The day when the earth shall cleave open from above them (above their graves) and they will be running. This shall be a gathering very easy for Us. (45) We know best what they say and you are not one to force them. Warn by means of this Qur'an him who fears My threat.

THE BEGINNING OF THE JUDGMENT DAY AND A CONSOLATION TO THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ

Allāh Ta'āla introduces His description of the advent of Judgment day by telling the reader, "Listen attentively!" The reader is therefore advised to pay attention to the ensuing verses and take heed. Allāh continues to say, "The day when the caller shall call from a near place." The "caller" refers to the angel Sayyidina Isrāfil عليه السلام who will blow the trumpet to announce the advent of Judgment day. The sound of the trumpet shall be heard by all near and far and it will seem to all that it is being blown from a nearby place. It will be heard simultaneously by all the living and dead in the heavens and on earth.

People who lived in the past could not understand how a distant sound could appear to be nearby and heard simultaneously throughout the world. With today's technological advancements, however, this is no longer farfetched. For example, a person speaking on a telephone may be far away but sounds as if s/he is no more than a meter away.

"The day when people shall hear the screech in truth. This is the day of resurrection." This refers to the second blowing of the trumpet, which is sure to take place. When the trumpet is blown for the second time, creation will be resurrected. Unlike the sounds of this world that reach some people without reaching others, every soul will hear the sound of the trumpet.

"Indeed it is only We who give life and death and to Us shall be the return." Every person will have to return to Allāh and none can hope to escape. "The day when the earth shall cleave open from above them (as they lie in their graves) and they will be running. This shall be a gathering very easy for Us."

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "We know best what they say and you are not one to force them (to believe). Warn by means of this Qur'an him who fears My threat." the Holy Prophet's ﷺ duty was to convey the message to everyone irrespective of whether they listened or not. Of course, more effort should be concentrated on those who show an interest and who are prepared to accept the truth.

سورة الذریت

Makkan	Surah Adh-Dhariyat	Verses 60
--------	--------------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالَّذِينَ ذَرَوْا ﴿١﴾ فَأَلْحَمَلَتْ وَقَرًا ﴿٢﴾ فَأَلْجَرِيَتْ يُسْرًا ﴿٣﴾ فَأَلْمُقَسَمَتْ أَمْرًا ﴿٤﴾
 إِنَّمَا تُوعَدُونَ لَصَادِقٌ ﴿٥﴾ وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَوَافِعُ ﴿٦﴾ وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الْحُبُكِ ﴿٧﴾ إِنَّكُمْ لِنِى قَوْلٍ
 مُخْلِيفٍ ﴿٨﴾ يُؤْفَكُ عَنْهُ مَنْ أُفِكَ ﴿٩﴾ قِيلَ الْخَرَّضُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي عَمَرٍ سَاهُونَ
 ﴿١١﴾ يَسْأَلُونَ أَيَّانَ يَوْمَ الَّذِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ يَوْمَ هُمْ عَلَى النَّارِ يُفَنَّنُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ ذُوقُوا فَنَّتَكُمْ هَذَا الَّذِي
 كُنتُمْ بِهِ تَسْتَعْجِلُونَ ﴿١٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) By the oath of the winds that disperse (dust, clouds etc. .... (2) And by the clouds that bear heavy burdens... (3) And by the ships that move smoothly... (4) And by those angels who distribute things... (5) Indeed what you have been promised is undoubtedly true... (6) And retribution will undoubtedly take place. (7) By the oath of the sky in which there are roads... (8) You people are definitely varied in talks. (9) Turned away from it is he who is prone to turning away. (10) May the conjecturers be destroyed... (11) ...those who are lost in their ignorance. (12) They ask, "When will the day of retribution be?" (13) The day when they will be punished in the Fire. (14) "Taste your punishment! This is that which you sought to hasten."

JUDGMENT DAY IS A CERTAINTY, WHEN THE REJECTERS WILL BE CAST INTO HELL

Allāh begins this Surah by swearing oaths "By the winds that disperse", "the clouds that bear heavy burdens", "the ships that move smoothly" and "those angels who distribute things." Allāh takes oaths by all these things to emphasise the fact that "Indeed what you have been promised is undoubtedly true and retribution (for deeds i.e. Judgment day) will undoubtedly take place." Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه have both explained the meanings of these verses as mentioned above.

The oaths have been taken by angels who live in the heavens, clouds that occupy the sky, winds that blow between the sky and earth and ships that travel on oceans and rivers. A person who has knowledge of these things and who ponders deeply about them will realise that the Creator of these phenomena is most certainly Capable of resurrecting creation on the Day of Judgment.

Allāh then takes other oaths when He says, "By the oath of the sky in which there are roads (which the angels use). You people are definitely varied in talks. Turned away from it is he who is prone to turning away." While some people accept the advent of Judgment, others deny it. Those who refuse to accept the truth are deprived of all good. They will deny the advent of Judgment because their nature is such that they are prone to turning a blind eye to the truth.

"May the conjecturers be destroyed; those who are lost in their ignorance." Despite the truth of the Qur'ān being present before such people, their ignorance bars them from reflecting on the issues raised in the Qur'ān. Rather than follow the facts, they continue to speculate and say whatever they please.

"They ask, 'When will the day of retribution be?'" The day when they will be punished in the Fire. (And they will be told) "Taste your punishment! This is that which you sought to hasten." In the world, these people kept asking when will Judgment day take place. When it does occur and they receive their punishment, they will be reminded of the pretentiousness impatience.

إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿١٥﴾ أَخْذِينَ مَا أَرْتَهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٦﴾
كَانُوا قَلِيلًا مِّنَ اللَّيْلِ مَا يَهْجَعُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَبِالْأَسْحَارِ هُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ وَفِي أَمْوَالِهِمْ حَقٌّ لِّلسَّائِلِ
وَالْمَحْرُومِ ﴿١٩﴾

(15) Verily the abstinent ones shall be in gardens and springs... (16) ... receiving what their Lord confers on them. Indeed these people used to carry out good deeds before. (17) Little was it that they slept at night. (18) During the closing portions of the night they would be seeking forgiveness (from Allāh). (19) There was always a portion of their wealth (reserved) for beggars and deprived people.

THE REWARDS OF THE PIOUS

After describing the plight of the sinners and disbelievers, Allāh speaks about the pious believers. Allāh says, "Verily the abstinent ones shall be (enjoying themselves) in gardens and springs, (happily) receiving what their Lord confers on them." These people obviously shunned evil and sin, because of which they are called "the abstinent ones". In addition to this, they also "used to carry out good deeds" in a most befitting manner. It is on this account that they have also been termed "Muhsinīn". Among their good deeds, some of the most sterling ones are mentioned. Allāh praises them when He says, "Little was it that they slept at night." While others were sleeping soundly, these pious servants stayed awake to engage in Allāh's worship.

These people do not boast to others about their worship and notwithstanding the excellent quality of their Ibādah (worship), they never fail to seek Allāh's forgiveness for any shortcomings in their Ibādah. Allāh says, "During the closing portions of the night they would be seeking forgiveness (from Allāh)." It is the habit of people of Belief that they always make Istighfār (seek Allāh's forgiveness) after their Ibādah so as to compensate for any imperfections.

After speaking of the physical acts of worship that these people engage in, Allāh then mentions that they also carry out monetary acts of worship. Allāh says, "There was always a portion of their wealth (reserved) for beggars and deprived people." They are so meticulous about charity that they regard it to be a bounden duty.

Who are the "deprived people"? Some commentators mention that "deprived people" refers to the opposite of beggars i.e. people who do not ask from others. Such people are said to be "deprived" because people are unaware of their plight and they do not make it known. As a result, people do not think of them when giving charity.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The needy person is not he who goes begging from door to door, who will be satisfied with one or two morsels or dates. The real needy person is he who has nothing to gratify himself and none are aware of his need because he does not beg. [Bukhari v. 1]

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the "deprived person" is the person who makes an effort to earn, but the things of the world evade him all the time. Despite this, he still does not ask from others. Sayyidina Zayd bin Aslam رحمه الله says that "the deprived person" is he whose crops have all been destroyed. Others state that he is that person whose animals have all been destroyed when they were his only means of earning. Allāh knows best.

وَفِي الْأَرْضِ آيَاتٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَفِي أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَفَلَا تُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَفِي السَّمَاءِ رِزْقُكُمْ وَمَا تُوعَدُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ فَوَرَبِّ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّكُمْ لَحَقُّ مِثْلٍ مَّا أَنْتُمْ تَنْطِقُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾

(20) In the earth are signs for those who have conviction... (21) ...And within your own selves as well. Do you not see? (22) In the sky is your sustenance and what you have been promised. (23) By the Lord of the sky and the earth, this is certainly the truth just as you can speak.

ALLĀH'S SIGNS ON EARTH AND IN THE HUMAN BODY

Allāh speaks of His powers to create and to sustain. Allāh says, "In the earth are signs for those who have conviction and within your own selves as well. Do you not see?" When a person ponders about Allāh's creation on earth and about the wonders of his own body, he will certainly realise that Allāh has the power to resurrect people on the Day of Judgment. One will realise that the Being who has the tremendous powers to create all of this from nothing and to sustain and maintain it, must definitely have the power to resurrect.

This subject matter is referred to in the following verses:

"From His signs also, is that you see the earth bare. Then, when We send rain upon it, it begins to stir and flourish. Verily, the One Who gave life to it is the One Who gives life to the dead. Indeed, He has power over all things." [Surah HāMim Sajdah (41), verse 39]

"Was he (man) not a discharge of semen after which he developed into a clot of blood and then Allāh created him and perfected him? Then Allāh made the couple male and female. Does He then not have the power to resurrect the dead?" [Surah Qiyamāh (75), verses 37 to 40]

Allāh then continues to say, 'in the sky is your sustenance and what you have been promised.' Man's "sustenance" from the sky refers to the rain, which causes food to grow on earth. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه states that "what you have been promised" refers to good and evil. Other commentators are of the opinion that it refers to rewards and punishment, both of which have been predetermined.

"By the Lord of the sky and the earth, this is certainly the truth just as you can speak." i.e. It is a certainty just as people are certain that they are speaking when they do speak. What is it that is "certainly the truth"? Commentators have tendered the following interpretations:

Man's sustenance.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

The Qur'ān.

Retribution.

Whatever has been discussed since the beginning of the Surah.

From these interpretations, the most appropriate is that the verse is referring to the truth of retribution i.e. rewards and punishment for deeds. This emphasises the advent of "the day of retribution", which the disbelievers deny (as mentioned in verse 12 above).

NOTE : The last seven verses of this Para (juz) have been included in the next Para to facilitate easier understanding of the commentary because the verses are linked.

Para Twenty Six

هَلْ أُنْتُكَ حَدِيثُ ضَيْفِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ الْمُكْرَمِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ إِذْ دَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ فَقَالُوا سَلَامًا قَالَ سَلَامٌ قَوْمٌ مُنْكَرُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ فَرَاغَ إِلَى أَهْلِهِ فَجَاءَ بِعِجْلٍ سَمِينٍ ﴿٢٦﴾ فَقَرَّبَهُ إِلَيْهِمْ قَالَ أَلَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ فَأَوْحَسَ مِنْهُمْ خِيفَةً قَالُوا لَا تَحَفُّ وَلَا يَبْشُرُوهُ يُغْلِمِ عَلَيْهِمْ ﴿٢٨﴾ فَأَقْبَلَتْ امْرَأَتُهُ فِي صَرَقٍ فَصَكَتَ وَجْهَهَا وَقَالَتْ عَجُوزٌ عَقِيمٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ قَالُوا كَذَلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْحَكِيمُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٣٠﴾

(24) Has the story of Ibrahīm's عليه السلام honourable guests reached you? (25) When they came to him and greeted with Salām, he said, "Peace be upon you too. You people are strangers." (26) He then went to his family and returned with a fat (roasted) calf. (27) He served it to them and (when they did not partake of it) he said, "Are you not going to eat?" (28) He grew afraid of them. They said, "Do not be afraid," and they gave him the glad tidings of an intelligent child. (29) His wife arrived calling loudly, smote her face and said, "An old barren woman?" (30) They said, "Thus has your Lord said, and He is the Wise, the All Knowing."

Para Twenty Seven

﴿٣١﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّا أُرْسِلْنَا إِلَى قَوْمٍ مُّجْرِمِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾ لِنُرْسِلَ عَلَيْهِمْ حِجَارَةً مِنْ طِينٍ ﴿٣٣﴾ مُّسَوَّمَةً عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ لِلْمُسْرِفِينَ ﴿٣٤﴾ فَأَخْرَجْنَا مَنْ كَانَ فِيهَا مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٣٥﴾ فَمَا وَجَدْنَا فِيهَا غَيْرَ بَيْتٍ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَتَرَكْنَا فِيهَا آيَةً لِلَّذِينَ يَخَافُونَ الْعَذَابَ الْأَلِيمَ ﴿٣٧﴾

(31) He (Sayyidina Ibrahīm) said, "What is your duty, O messengers?" (32) They replied, "We have been sent to a criminal nation..." (33) "...to rain mud stones upon them." (34) "(The stones) have been marked by your Lord for them who transgress the limits." (35) "We shall remove those who are believers from the town." (36) "We found only a single home of Muslims there." (37) In this incident We have left a lesson for those who fear a painful punishment.

SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام RECEIVES GUESTS WHO INFORM HIM OF THE BIRTH OF HIS SON

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام left his hometown in the vicinity of Babylon and migrated to Palestine, where he took up residence. Sayyidina Lūt عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام also migrated to Syria (Shām) and lived with people who occupied several towns on the banks of the Jordan River. Allāh made Sayyidina Lūt عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام a Prophet and he made tremendous efforts to reform the people who engaged in many evil practices, homosexuality being the most prominent vice. Eventually, when they refused to heed his advice and warnings, Allāh Ta'āla dispatched a group of angels to punish them. In human form, these angels first paid a visit to Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Because the angels are revered bondsmen of Allāh, Allāh says, "Has the story of Ibrahīm's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام honourable guests reached you?"

When they came to him and greeted with Salām, he said, "Peace be upon you too." However, because it was the first time that he had met them, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام added, "You people are strangers." Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was hardly with them when he went to his wife and returned with a fat roasted calf. When he served the calf to the guests, they did not eat (because angels do not eat food). Encouraging them to eat, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام asked, "Are you not going to eat?" When they failed to respond after the verbal offer, "He grew afraid of them." According to verse 52 of Surah Hijr (15), Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said to them, "We are afraid of you." He was afraid because, not knowing that they were angels, he thought that they had come to him with evil intentions.

The angels calmed Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام by saying, "Do not be afraid. Indeed, we wish to convey to you the glad tidings of a knowledgeable child." [Surah Hijr (15), verse 53]

Surprised at this news, Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said, "Do you give me these glad tidings whereas old-age has afflicted me? What glad tidings can you deliver?" [Surah Hijr (15), verse 54]

Allāh relates the story in Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 71,72] when he says, "His wife, standing by, laughed as We conveyed to her the glad tidings of Is'hāq, and Ya'qūb after Is'hāq. She said, 'Woe is me! Shall I bear a child when I am an old woman and my husband here is an old man? This is indeed a strange event!'"

Here in Surah Dhāriyāt, Allāh relates the incident by saying, "His wife arrived calling loudly, smote her face and said, 'An old barren woman?'" The addition of the adjective "barren" makes it clear that she was a woman who had not born any child before. The angels replied, "Thus has your Lord said, and He is the Wise, the All Knowing." Allāh had already decreed that a child should be born to them, for He knows best and can do as He pleases. Eventually, the child Is'hāq عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was born, who was the father of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Sayyidina Ya'qūb عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was known as Isrā'īl and his progeny are referred to as the Bani Isrā'īl.

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE NATION OF SAYYIDINA LŪT عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام

When Sayyidina Ibrahīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was convinced that these people were angels, he asked them, "What is your duty, O messengers?" They replied, "We have been sent to (destroy) a criminal nation [the nation of Sayyidina Lūt] to rain clay stones upon them. (The stones) have been marked by your Lord for them who transgress the limits." Each stone bore the name of the transgressor it was intended to strike.

Surah Ankabūt [Surah 29, verses 31,32] mentions that the angels said, "We are to destroy the inhabitants of this town. Its inhabitants are certainly oppressors. Ibrahim عليه السلام said, 'Lūt is among them.' They replied, 'We know best who is present there. We shall definitely rescue him and his family, except for his wife. She will be among those left behind.'"

The incident in Surah Dhāriyāt continues as follows: The angels said further, "We shall remove those who are believers from the town. We only found a single home of Muslims there." The single home of believers refers to the household of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام with the exception of his wife. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports that the only believers in the town were Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and his two daughters. They were the only three people who were rescued from the punishment. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Sa'id bin Jubayr رحمه الله عليه that there were 13 believers. If this is correct, the "single home of Muslims" will be interpreted to mean that they had all gathered in the house of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام.

The angels then came to Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and told him, "So travel with your family during a portion of the night, follow on their heels and none of you should turn around. And proceed whence you have been commanded" [Surah Hijr (15), verse 65]. Describing the punishment, Allāh says in verses 73 and 74 of Surah Hijr (15), "So a scream seized them at sunrise. We turned them upside down and showered clay pebbles on them."

Some commentators mention that the scream destroyed those living in the area and their land was turned upside-down. Those living in the outlying areas were destroyed by the shower of stones.

Allāh concludes the episode by saying, "In this incident We have left a lesson for those who fear a painful punishment." Whereas the ruins of these cities ought to be a lesson for people, they treat it as a place of sightseeing and touring. The Dead Sea now marks the spot where the nation of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام was destroyed. The destruction of Sayyidina Lūt's nation عليه السلام is mentioned in Surah An'am [Surah 6, verses 80-84], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 77-83], Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verses 61-79], Surah Anbiyā [Surah 21, verses 74,75], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 160-175], Surah Naml [Surah 27, verses 54-58] and in Surah Ankabūt [Surah 29, verses 32-35].

وَفِي مُوسَىٰ إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَاهُ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ بِسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٣٨﴾ فَتَوَلَّىٰ رُكْبَهُ وَ قَالَ سَاحِرٌ وَّاحٍ
 مَّجْنُونٌ ﴿٣٩﴾ فَأَخَذَتْهُ وَجُودُهُ فَبَدَّتْهُمْ فِي الْيَمِّ وَهُوَ مُلِيمٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَفِي عَادٍ إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَا
 عَلَيْهِمُ الرِّيحَ الْعَقِيمَ ﴿٤١﴾ مَا تَذَرُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا جَعَلْنَاهُ كَالرَّيْمِ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَفِي
 ثَمُودَ إِذْ قِيلَ لَهُمْ تَمَتَّعُوا حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ ﴿٤٣﴾ فَعَتَوْا عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهِمْ فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ الصَّاعِقَةُ

وَهُمْ يَنْظُرُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ مَا أَسْتَطَعُوا مِنْ قِيَامٍ وَمَا كَانُوا مُنْصَرِفِينَ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَقَوْمَ نُوحٍ مِّنْ قَبْلُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾

(38) And (there is also a lesson) in (the story of) Mūsa عليه السلام when We sent him to phara'oh (Fir'oun) with a clear proof (39) However, phara'oh (Fir'oun) turned away together with his party and said, "(He is) either a magician or a madman" (40) So We seized him and his army and cast them into the ocean while he lamented. (41) And (there is also a lesson) in (the story of) the Ād when we sent a wind to them that was devoid of any good. (42) It reduced everything it passed to smithereens. (43) And (there is also a lesson) in (the story of) the Thamūd when they were told, "Enjoy yourselves for a while." (44) They transgressed against the command of their Lord, so a punishment seized them as they looked on. (45) They were unable even to stand and were helpless to avenge themselves. (46) Such was the condition of the nation of Nūh عليه السلام before. They were indeed a sinful nation.

THE DESTRUCTION OF PHARA'OH (FIR'OUN), THE ĀD AND THE THAMŪD

After recounting the destruction of Sayyidina Lūt's عليه السلام people, Allāh speaks about the rebellion and subsequent annihilation of phara'oh (Fir'oun), the nation of Ād and the nation of Thamūd.

Allāh says, "And (there is also a lesson) in (the story of) Mūsa عليه السلام when We sent him to Fir'oun with a clear proof" The "clear proof" refers to the various miracles that Allāh Ta'āla enabled Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to carry out. These miracles were so convincing that they were a "clear proof" to any person that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was definitely Allāh's Prophet and that his invitation to Oneness of Allāh was certainly the truth. However, despite the clear signs of Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام prophethood, "Fir'oun turned away together with his party and said, '(He is) either a magician or a madman!'" phara'oh (Fir'oun), his courtiers, his army and all his followers were then drowned because they all adopted the same proud attitude and refused to accept the truth. Allāh says, "So We seized him and his army and cast them into the ocean as he perpetrated lamentable acts." His deeds and his behaviour were a source of regret to him because they resulted in his own destruction as well as in the destruction of his people. The destruction of phara'oh (Fir'oun) has been discussed in several Surahs and will, Insha Allāh, also be discussed in Surah Nāzi'āt [Surah 79, verses 15 to 26].

Allāh continues to narrate, "And (there is also a lesson) in (the story of) the Ād when we sent a wind to them that was devoid of any good." The story of the Ād has already passed in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 65-72], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 50-60], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 123-140], and Surah HāMim Sajdah [Surah 41, verses 13-16]. The incident is also mentioned in Surah Qamar [Surah 54, verses 18-22] and in Surah Hāqqa [Surah 69, verses 6-8].

Allāh sent Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام as a messenger to them. The Ād were an extremely proud and powerful nation who made the claim, "Who can be more powerful than us?" Allāh sent a wind to destroy them that was extremely devastating and held no good for them. If the wind brought them rain, it would have had some benefit for them. However, the wind was not only devoid of rain but it was devoid of any good whatsoever. Describing the punishment, Allāh says in Surah Hāqqa, "As for the Ād, they were destroyed by an icy tempest. Allāh unleashed it upon them for seven consecutive nights and eight consecutive days. You would have seen them lying flat on the ground as if they were hollow palm trunks. Do you see any of them surviving?"

Here in Surah Dhāriyāt Allāh describes the intensity of the wind by saying, "it reduced everything it passed to smithereens." Allāh Ta'āla uses the Arabic word "Ramīm" to describe the remains of everything that the wind passed. This word generally refers to decomposed remains of corpses and the crushed remains of dry grass. The various verses describing their punishment make it clear that when the punishment struck, the Ād were felled like palm trunks while everything about them was reduced to dust. Of course, after the passage of time, their bodies were also reduced to dust.

The wind that destroyed the Ād blew from a westerly direction (called the 'Dabūr' in Arabic). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said, "I have been assisted with the 'Saba' and the Ād were destroyed with the 'Dabūr'." The Saba is a wind that blows from an easterly direction. It is this wind that drove the disbelievers away from Madinah when they lay siege to Madinah during the Battle of the Trench.

Allāh Ta'āla then discusses the destruction of the Thamūd. Allāh sent Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام as a Prophet to them. However, they were obstinate and refused to accept the message of Oneness of Allāh. The details of the Thamūd are discussed in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 73-79], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 61-68], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 141-159], Surah HāMim Sajdah [Surah 41, verses 17-18], Surah Qamar [Surah 54, verses 23-32] and in Surah Hāqqa [Surah 69, verses 4-5].

When the Thamūd requested that Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام causes a pregnant camel to emerge from a mountain, Allāh made this miracle possible. However, when they were told that the camel should be allowed to drink by herself every alternate day and that their camels should drink during the other days, they grew upset. They eventually killed the camel despite warnings from Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام who said to them, "This camel of Allāh is a sign for you, so leave it to graze in Allāh's land and do not afflict it with evil, for then a painful punishment will seize you." [Surah A'rāf (7), verse 73]

When they killed the camel, Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام said to them "Enjoy yourselves for awhile." Allāh mentions in Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 65] that Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام said to them, "Enjoy yourselves in your homes for three days. This is a promise that will not be falsified." As promised, they were wiped out after three days. Allāh says, "a punishment seized them as they looked on." Allāh says in Surah HāMim Sajdah, "So, because of what they earned, a catastrophic punishment seized them, which was extremely humiliating." [Surah 41, verse 17]

The Arabic word "Sā'iqa" used in both the above verses to describe the punishment has been simply translated as "punishment". Commentators mention that it actually refers to a form of punishment that is inflicted by a bolt of lightning or a thunderclap. The same punishment has been described in Surah Hūd and Surah Qamar as "a scream". Nevertheless, it struck them after three days. Allāh says in Surah Hūd, "A scream seized the oppressors and they were left lying face down in their homes as if they never existed there." [Surah 11, verse 67.68]

"They were unable even to stand and were helpless to avenge themselves." When Allāh's punishment strikes a nation, nothing can help them.

Allāh then speaks of the punishment that afflicted the nation of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. Allāh says, "Such was the condition with the nation of Nūh عليه السلام before (the Ād and Thamūd) They were indeed a sinful nation (as well, just like the others)." Numerous Surahs discuss the incident of Sayyidina Nūh and his nation.

وَالسَّمَاءَ بَنَيْنَاهَا بِأَيْدٍ وَإِنَّا لَمُوسِعُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَالْأَرْضَ فَرَشْنَاهَا فَنِعْمَ الْمُهَيَّدُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَمِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَا زَوْجَيْنِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَاذْكُرُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ إِنِّي لَكُمْ مِنْهُ نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَلَا تَجْعَلُوا مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ إِنِّي لَكُمْ مِنْهُ نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٥١﴾ كَذَلِكَ مَا أَتَى الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنْ رَسُولٍ إِلَّا قَالُوا سَاحِرٌ أَوْ مُجُنٌّ ﴿٥٢﴾ اتَّوَصَوْا بِهِ ۖ بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ طَاغُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ فَوَلَّ عَنْهُمْ فَمَا أَنْتَ بِمَلُومٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَذَكَرْ فَإِنَّ الذِّكْرَى تَنْفَعُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾

(47) We created the sky with might and We certainly possess vast powers. (48) And we have spread the earth out. What excellent spreaders. (49) We have created pairs from everything so that you may take heed. (50) So hasten towards Allāh. Verily I am a clear warner to you from Him. (51) Do not ascribe another deity with Allāh. Verily I am a clear warner to you from Him. (52) In a like manner, whenever a Prophet came to those before them, they said that he is a magician or a madman. (53) Have they made bequests to each other (to behave in this manner)? Nay, but they are a rebellious folk. (54) Ignore them, for you will not be blamed. (55) Continue advising because advice is beneficial for the believers.

THE CREATION OF THE EARTH AND SKY WITH THE INSTRUCTION TO HASTEN TOWARDS ALLĀH

In these verses Allāh speaks about the creation of many of His creation and instructs man to turn to Him and to remain steadfast on Oneness of Allāh. Allāh discusses many aspects in these verses.

Firstly. Allāh begins by saying, "We created the sky with might and We certainly possess vast powers." Allāh's powers are infinite and He is Able to do as He pleases. Allāh experienced no difficulty in creating the skies and everything occupying space. Allāh mentions in Surah Qāf, "We have created the heavens, the earth and whatever is between the two in six days without fatigue even remotely touching Us." [Surah 50, verse 38]

Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه translates "Innā Lamusi'ūn" (translated above as "We certainly possess vast powers") as "it is We who grant abundant sustenance."

Secondly. "And we have spread the earth out. What excellent spreaders!" Man is able to lie down and sleep comfortably on the earth without fearing that he will fall off somewhere. Allāh asks in Surah Ghāshiyah, "And (have they not looked at) the earth, how it was spread out?" [Surah 88, verse 20]

Thirdly. "We have created pairs from everything..." Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله states that this refers to the opposites that Allāh has created like the day and night, good fortune and ill fortune, guidance and deviation, the earth and the sky, black and white, health and illness, etc. Allāh created all of this "...so that you may take heed" i.e. by witnessing all these bounties, man should realise that Allāh is his All Powerful Lord. He should then turn his attention towards Allāh and worship only Him.

Fourthly. "So hasten towards Allāh." Worship Allāh and never disobey Him.

Fifthly. Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to announce to the people, "Verily I am a clear warner to you from Him."

Sixthly. "Do not ascribe another deity with Allāh." This command to abstain from polytheism (shirk) is clear.

Seventhly. "Verily I am a clear warner to you from Him."

Eighthly. Allāh Ta'āla then tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the opposition that he receives from the polytheists is nothing new because "In a like manner, whenever a Prophet came to those before them (i.e. before the Makkans), they said that he is a magician or a madman." However, these Anbiya (The Holy Prophets) عليهم السلام exercised patience and persevered with their duties.

Ninthly. Allāh asks, "Have they (i.e. the various nations) made bequests to each other (to behave in this manner)? Nay, but they are a rebellious folk." The question is rhetorical. It is obvious that every nation could not have made a bequest to the nation after them. It was the inherent rebelliousness of every nation that drove them to oppose the Prophets عليهم السلام.

Tenthly. Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Ignore them, for you will not be blamed." The duty of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to do his best to convey the message of Islām clearly to the masses. After doing this, he could not be blamed for those who refused to accept.

Eleventhly. Allāh finally instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to persevere in his duty when He says, "Continue advising because advice is beneficial for the believers." Advice is extremely beneficial for those who are destined to be believers. As for those who have already believed, it serves to fortify their belief. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُونِ ﴿٥٦﴾ مَا أُرِيدُ مِنْهُمْ مِنْ رِزْقٍ وَمَا أُرِيدُ أَنْ يُطْعَمُوا

﴿٥٧﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الرَّزَّاقُ ذُو الْقُوَّةِ الْمَتِينُ ﴿٥٨﴾ فَإِنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا ذُنُوبًا مِثْلَ ذُنُوبِ

أَجْرِهِمْ فَلَا يُسْتَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ فَوَيْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ يَوْمِهِمُ الَّذِي يُوعَدُونَ ﴿٦٠﴾

(56) I have created man and Jinn only to worship Me. (57) I require neither sustenance from them nor do I want them to feed Me. (58) Without doubt, Allāh is the Sustainer, the Possessor of absolute power, Strong. (59) There shall certainly be substantial punishment for the oppressors, which shall be similar to the punishment of those like them, so do not hurry Me. (60) Woe be to the disbelievers on the day about which they have been promised.

ALLĀH HAS CREATED MAN AND JINN ONLY FOR HIS WORSHIP AND HE DOES NOT REQUIRE ANY SUSTENANCE FROM THEM

Allāh clearly declares, "I have created man and Jinn only to worship Me." From among His creation, Allāh has granted intelligence to man, Jinn and angels. In addition to this, Allāh has also granted man and Jinn the capacity to carry out good and evil. Allāh has created man and Jinn for the express purpose of worshipping Him. However, it is evident that those who are obedient to Him are fewer in number than the disobedient ones whereas man and Jinn ought to be exerting all their efforts to obey Allāh. While Allāh has informed man and Jinn that they have been created to worship Him, he has also warned them saying, "I shall definitely fill Hell with the multitude of man and Jinn" [Surah Hūd (11), verse 119]. It is therefore incumbent on all of mankind to worship Allāh Alone and to abstain from disbelief and sin.

Allāh says further, "I require neither sustenance from them nor do I want them to feed Me." Allāh expresses His independence in this verse. Unlike the masters of this world who want their slaves to earn for them, Allāh Ta'āla requires nothing from His slaves. Mankind can do nothing to benefit Allāh and the worship they undertake is only for their own benefit.

Allāh asserts, "Without doubt, Allāh is the Sustainers, the Possessor of absolute power, Strong." Allāh sustains everything in the universe and none can compare with His power and strength. How can creation ever hope to provide Him with sustenance?

Allāh then speaks of the punishment that the disbelievers shall have to face when He says, "There shall certainly be substantial punishment for the oppressors, which shall be similar to the punishment of those like them, so do not hurry Me." The disbelievers shall certainly receive the punishment they deserve. The fact that the punishment has not yet arrived does not mean that they will be able to escape from it.

The Arabic word "Dhanūb" (translated above as "substantial punishment") actually refers to a bucket that is full. It is used metaphorically here to denote punishment.

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "Woe be to the disbelievers on the day about which they have been promised." While some commentators state that this day refers to the day when the Battle of Badr took place, others maintain that it refers to the Day of Judgement.

سورة الطور

Makkan

Surah At-Tūr

Verses 49

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالطُّورِ ۝۱ وَكِتَابٍ مَّسْطُورٍ ۝۲ فِي رَقٍ مَّنْشُورٍ ۝۳ وَالْبَيْتِ الْمَعْمُورِ ۝۴
وَالسَّقْفِ الْمَرْفُوعِ ۝۵ وَالْبَحْرِ الْمَسْجُورِ ۝۶ إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ لَوَاقِعٌ ۝۷ مَا لَهُ مِنْ
دَافِعٍ ۝۸ يَوْمَ تَمُورُ السَّمَاءُ مَوْرًا ۝۹ وَتَسِيرُ الْجِبَالُ سَيْرًا ۝۱۰ فَوَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ
لِّلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ۝۱۱ الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي خَوْضٍ يَلْعَبُونَ ۝۱۲ يَوْمَ يَدْعُوتُ إِلَى نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ دَعَاً
۝۱۳ هَٰذِهِ النَّارُ الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ بِهَا تُكَذِّبُونَ ۝۱۴ أَفَيْسَرُ هَٰذَا أَمْ أَنْتُمْ لَا
بُصُرَوتَ ۝۱۵ أَصْلَوْهَا فَاصْبِرُوا أَوْ لَا تَصْبِرُوا سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْكُمْ إِنَّمَا تُجْزَوْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ
تَعْمَلُونَ ۝۱۶

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) By the oath of Mount Tūr... (2) ... and the written book... (3) ... which is in an open parchment. (4) And (by the oath of) the "Baytul Ma'mūr",... (5) ...the raised roof... (6) ... and the kindled ocean. (7) Indeed, the punishment of your Lord shall take place. (8) There shall be none to avert it. (9) The day when the sky shall tremble uncontrollably... (10) ... and the mountains will fly through the air. (11) Woe be to the deniers on that day... (12) ... Those who are frolicking in their vanities. (13) The day when they will be forcibly shoved into the Fire of Hell. (14) "This is the Fire that you used to deny!" (15) "Is this magic or are you unable to see?" (16) "Enter into it! Bear with it or don't it, will make no difference to you! You are being recompensed only for what you used to do."

THE MISERABLE CONDITION OF THE DISBELIEVERS ON THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT WHEN THEY WILL BE THRUST INTO HELL

In these verses Allāh takes oaths on certain things that bear great significance to man. Thereafter, Allāh asserts, "Indeed, the punishment of your Lord shall take place." Allāh emphasises this fact with the various oaths because many people deny it. Such oaths are also taken at the beginning of Surah Dhāriyāt (Surah 51) and Surah Nāzi'āt (Surah 79).

Allāh begins the Surah by saying, "By the oath of Mount Tūr." This is the mountain on which Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام stood when Allāh spoke to him. Thereafter, Allāh Ta'āla takes an oath by "the written book" "Ruhul Ma'āni" has reported several interpretations of this. One interpretation is that it refers to the book of deeds that will either be given to people on the Day of Judgement either in their right hands or in their left hands. Other commentators state that this refers to the Qur'ān, while another group of commentators are of the opinion that it refers to the "Lowhul Mahfūz (the Protected tablet, in which the deeds of mankind have been recorded from eternity)".

Describing the "written book" Allāh says that it is "in an open parchment". The Arabic word "riq" (translated above as "parchment") actually refers to a thin piece of leather. This was used as writing material during the early days. The word "Manshūr" means "open". This adjective supports the opinion of those commentators who maintain that the "written book" refers to peoples' books of deeds because Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'il [Surah 17, verse 13], "On the Day of Judgement We shall take out for him a book that he will see opened before him."

"And (by the oath of) the "Baytul Mamūr". When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw this during the Mi'rāj (Ascension), he asked Jibr'il عليه السلام what it was. Jibr'il عليه السلام replied, "This is the Baytul Mamūr. Every day seventy thousand angels enter it and once they emerge, they never ever get another opportunity to return to it." [Muslim v. 1 p. 94]

It is mentioned in "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" that the sanctity that the Baytul Ma'mūr enjoys in the heavens is just like that which the Ka'ba enjoys on earth. Daily 70000 angels make Circumambulation of the Baytul Ma'mūr, enter it to perform Salāh and then never receive a second chance.

Allāh then takes an oath by "the raised roof". "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه that this refers to the Arsh (throne) of Allāh, which is the roof of Heaven.

"...and (by the oath of) the kindled ocean." The oceans shall be kindled into a blazing fire on the Day of Judgement, as Allāh says in Surah Takwīr [Surah 81, verse 6], "When the oceans are set alight."

Some commentators have translated the verse to mean "By the oath of the brimming ocean."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that only the person intending Hajj, Umrah or Jihād in Allāh's path should venture to travel by sea because beneath the sea is fire and beneath this fire is an ocean. [Abu Dawūd v. 1 p. 327]

Allāh Ta'āla begins by taking an oath by Mount Tūr, which is a sacred place. Thereafter, Allāh swears by the book in which people's deeds are recorded. Third, an oath is taken by the Baytul Ma'mūr around which the angels make Circumambulation and glorify Allāh. Then, Allāh takes an oath by His throne (Arsh) - a place where the angels live, from where revelation comes and where Heaven is found. Finally, Allāh takes an oath by the "kindled ocean" — a place of fire.

Allāh takes all these oaths to emphasise the fact that 'indeed, the punishment of your Lord shall take place' and 'There shall be none to avert it.' Man ought to realise from this that the Being Who created all of these great phenomena is certainly capable of rewarding the good and punishing the evil. When Judgement will dawn, there can be none to avert it.

Sayyidina Jubayr bin Mut'im رضى الله عنه narrates that when he had not yet accepted Islām, he came to Madinah to discuss the issue of the captives of Badr with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When he came close to the masjid, he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reciting Surah Tūr as he led the Maghrib Salāh. Sayyidina Jubayr رضى الله عنه states that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reached the verse: 'indeed, the punishment of your Lord shall take place. There shall be none to avert it' he felt as if his heart had burst. The fear for Allāh's punishment made him accept Islām because he felt as if the punishment would overtake him before he stood up from his place. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 4 p. 337]

Allāh then describes the scene of the Day of Judgement. Allāh says that Judgement will be "The day when the sky shall tremble uncontrollably and the mountains will fly through the air." Allāh says in Surah Takwīr [Surah 81, verse 3], "When the mountains shall be made to fly about." A verse of Surah Naml reads, "You will look at the mountains, thinking them to be solid, but they will be passing by like clouds." [Surah 27, verse 88]

Allāh says in Surah Wā'qiah, "When the earth shall be violently shaken and the mountains powdered to dust and become floating dust particles." [Surah 56, verses 4-6]

"Woe be to the deniers on that day." Describing these people, Allāh says that they are "Those who are frolicking in their vanities." They are preoccupied with various types of idle pursuits as a form of amusement. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" comments by saying that these people are engaged in promoting falsehood, speak against the truth and make sport and amusement their occupations. Whereas this is their occupation in this world, their condition in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) shall be different. Allāh says that on the Day of Judgement "they will be forcibly shoved into the Fire of Hell." The angels will push them into Hell with their hands shackled to their necks.

Allāh states in Surah Rahmān, "The criminals will be recognised by their traits and will be seized by their forelocks and feet." [Surah 55, verse 41]

It will then be said to them, "This is the Fire that you used to deny!" When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to invite them to the truth and perform miracles, these polytheists used to say that his acts are mere acts of magic. For this reason, they will be asked, 'Is this (punishment) magic or are you unable to see?'

It will also be said to them, "Enter into it! Bear with it or don't, it will make no difference to you!" By exercising patience in this world, difficulties are often alleviated. However, in the Hereafter, nothing will alleviate their suffering. Their punishment will not be because of any injustice against them, but merely a recompense for the evil deeds they carried out. Therefore, Allāh shall tell them, "You are being recompensed only for what you used to do."

إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَنَعِيمٍ ﴿١٧﴾ فَكَفَّيْنِ بِمَا ءَانَتْهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ وَوَقَّيْنَهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ عَذَابَ
 الْجَحِيمِ ﴿١٨﴾ كُلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيئًا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ مُتَكِينِينَ عَلَى سُرُرٍ
 مَصْفُوفَةٍ وَزَوَّجْنَاهُمْ بِحُورٍ عِينٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَاتَّبَعَتْهُمْ ذُرِّيَّتُهُمْ بِإِيمَانٍ أَلْحَقْنَا
 بِهِمْ ذُرِّيَّتَهُمْ وَمَا أَلَتْنَاهُمْ مِنْ عَمَلِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ كُلُّ امْرِئٍ بِمَا كَسَبَ رَهِينٌ ﴿٢١﴾
 وَأَمَدَدْنَاهُمْ بِفِكَهٍ وَلَحْمٍ مِّمَّا يَشْتَهُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ يَشْرَعُونَ فِيهَا كَأْسًا لَا لَغْوٌ فِيهَا وَلَا
 تَأْسِيمٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَيَطُوفُ عَلَيْهِمْ زُلُمَانٌ لَهُمْ كَأَنَّهُمْ لُؤْلُؤٌ مَكْنُونٌ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ
 عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّا كُنَّا قَبْلُ فِي أَهْلِنَا مُشْفِقِينَ ﴿٢٦﴾ فَمَنْ أَلَّهِ
 عَلَيْنَا وَوَقَّعْنَا عَذَابَ السَّمُورِ ﴿٢٧﴾ إِنَّا كُنَّا مِنْ قَبْلُ نَدْعُوهُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْبَرُّ
 الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٢٨﴾

(17) Verily those who fear Allāh shall be in gardens and bounties... (18) ....
 Enjoying what their Lord gives them. And their Lord shall save them from the punishment of the Blaze. (19) "Eat and drink with blessings in return for the deeds that you carried out." (20) They will be reclining on couches arranged in rows and We shall marry them to fair maidens with large eyes. (21) Those who carry out good deeds and whose progeny follow them in belief We shall join their progeny with them without reducing anything from their deeds. Every person shall be detained for his deeds. (22) We shall grant them additional fruit and meat as they desire. (23) There they will pass around a cup in which there is no absurd talk and no sin. (24) Their youngsters shall wait on them, appearing to be concealed pearls. (25) They will face each other asking questions. (26) They will say, "Before this we used to be fearful among our families." (27) "However, Allāh graced us and saved us from the punishment of Hell." (28) "Indeed we always used to pray before. He is certainly the One who treats with kindness, the Most Merciful."

THE BOUNTIES THAT THOSE WHO FEAR ALLĀH WILL ENJOY IN THE HEREAFTER

After speaking of the punishment that the sinners and disbelievers will suffer in Hell, Allāh speaks of the bounties that the believers will enjoy in Heaven. Allāh says, "Verily those who fear Allāh shall be in gardens and bounties, enjoying what their Lord gives them." The people of Heaven will be busy enjoying the bounties that Allāh has reserved for them, the greatest of which is that He saved them 'from the punishment of the Blaze.' Their bounties shall last forever and they will never have to fear suffering punishment. It will be said to them, "Eat and drink with blessings in return for the deeds that you carried out." The food and drink of Heaven shall cause no difficulty to a person irrespective of the quantity that he eats and drinks.

In addition to this, "They will be reclining on couches arranged in rows." This is also mentioned in Surah Dukhān [Surah 44, verse 53] and Surah Wā'qiah [Surah 56, verses 15,16]. It is gathered from these verses that the couches will be arranged in rows facing each other.

Allāh then mentions the boon of marriage when He says, .... and We shall marry them to fair maidens with large eyes." After creating Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, Allāh created a spouse for him in the form of Sayyidah Hawwa عليها السلام. Man's progeny succeeded from them as couples married to have children. Because man instinctively requires companionship, Allāh shall cater for this in Heaven as well. Together with their wives of this world, Allāh shall also marry the men of Heaven to the "Hūr Īn" whom He has created expressly for them in Heaven. The Arabic word "Hūr" is the plural of the word "Hawrā" which refers to women who are extremely fair in complexion. "Īn" is the plural of "Aynā" which refers to women who have large eyes.

THE PROGENY OF THE BELIEVERS

Allāh Ta'āla then mentions another bounty that he will bestow on the people of Heaven. This bounty is that Allāh will allow the family and progeny of people to reach their ranks in Heaven even though the others have not attained these ranks. This will be done to please the people of Heaven without reducing their rewards in any way. Allāh says further, "Every person shall be detained for his deeds" i.e. no person will be held responsible for the misdeeds of another, even though the other is a member of his family.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes from "Mustadrak Hākim" and "Bayhaqi" that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه said, "Indeed Allāh shall elevate the rank of a believer's (Mu'min's) progeny to his rank even though their deeds are fewer. This will be done to satisfy the people of Belief." He then recited the above verse.

"Tabrāni" narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when a person is entered into Heaven, he will ask about the whereabouts of his parents, wife and children. When he is told that they were unable to reach his rank, he will make Supplication to Allāh. Allāh will then command that they also be elevated to his rank.

Allāh then mentions another bounty when He says, "We shall grant them additional fruit and meat as they desire." Allāh says in Surah Zukhruf, "You will have an abundance of fruit to eat there (in Heaven)." [Surah 43, verse 72]

Allāh says in Surah Mursalāt [Surah 77, verse 41], "Indeed the pious shall be in shade and springs and shall have the fruits they desire." A verse of Surah Wā'qiah reads, "A variety of fruits to choose from and the meat of birds of their choice." [Surah 56, verses 20,21]

Therefore, it is clear that people will have "the fruits they desire" as well as "a variety of fruit to choose from". The above verses also make it clear that in addition to "the meat of birds", they shall have "meat as they desire", referring to all other types of meat. All these foods shall be eaten as and when one pleases. Unlike occasions in this world when a person is forced to eat things that he dislikes, he will thoroughly enjoy everything he eats in Heaven.

"There they will pass around a cup in which there is no absurd talk and no sin." There shall be no shortage of anything in Heaven. Therefore, passing a cup around will be purely for the pleasure of doing so. The Arabic word "ka 's" (translated above as "cup") actually refers to a cup that is brimming with drink. Allāh says in Surah Naba, "And (the pious shall receive) brimming glasses" [Surah 78, verse 34]. As and when people require, they shall have a cup full of drink, as Allāh says in Surah Dahar, "those filling will fill by an appropriate measured!" [Surah 76, verse 16]

These cups will be filled with drinks from "Tasnīm" with mixtures of ginger and camphor. By drinking these drinks, the people of Heaven will not become intoxicated and will therefore not make absurd statements and babble nonsensical talks. Because the wines of Heaven will be a special bounty from Allāh, there will not even be any sin for consuming them. It is for this that Allāh says, "There they will pass around a cup in which there is no absurd talk and no sin."

There will be young lads in Heaven who will serve these drinks to the people. Allāh says, "Their youngsters shall wait on them, appearing to be concealed pearls (in their beauty and in the smooth texture of their complexion)." Allāh says in Surah Dahar, "Lads of eternal youth will wait on them. When you see them, you will think that they are scattered pearls." [Surah 76, verse 19]

Allāh says further, "They will face each other asking questions." They will ask each other the reasons for which they were entered into Heaven. Although they will be aware of these reasons, they will ask each other to remember these things and to remind themselves of Allāh's favours on them.

"They will say, 'Before this we used to be fearful among our families. ~ When these people lived in the world, they were constantly worried that they should never disobey Allāh and earn His wrath. They were always wary of the fact that they would have to face Allāh and render an account for their deeds. This statement is mentioned in Surah Hāqqa in the following words, 'It was always convinced that I shall certainly meet my reckoning.'" [Surah 69, verse 20]. Conviction and concern about the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is the true capital of a believer. Once a believer has acquired this, he will easily pass the stages there.

The people of Heaven will say further, "However, Allāh graced us and saved us from the punishment of Hell." A believer realises that the actions he carries out do not owe their existence to his own intelligence and dexterity. He believed from the depths of his heart that good deeds, Belief, piety, abstinence, concern for the Ākhirah (Hereafter) and every other thing is a blessing from Allāh. Similarly, entry into Heaven and salvation from Hell are also achieved solely through Allāh's grace and favour.

"Indeed we always used to pray before (in this world). He is certainly the One who treats with kindness, the Most Merciful." Through His munificence, Allāh accepted their supplication and entered them into Heaven.

فَذَكِّرْ مَا أَنْتَ بِنِعْمَتِ رَبِّكَ بِكَاهِنٍ وَلَا مَجْنُونٍ ﴿٢٩﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ شَاعِرٌ نَّبْرِصُ
بِهِ رَبِّ الْمُنُونِ ﴿٣٠﴾ قُلْ تَرَبَّصُوا فَإِنِّي مَعَكُمْ مِنَ الْمُرْصِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ أَمْ تَأْمُرُهُ

أَحَلَّمُهُمْ يَهْدِيَّ أَمْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ طَاغُونَ ﴿32﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ نَقُولُكُمْ بَلْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿33﴾ فَلْيَأْتُوا
 بِحَدِيثٍ مِثْلِهِ إِنْ كَانُوا صَادِقِينَ ﴿34﴾ أَمْ خُلِقُوا مِنْ غَيْرِ شَيْءٍ أَمْ هُمْ الْخَالِقُونَ ﴿35﴾
 أَمْ خُلِقُوا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بَلْ لَا يُوقِنُونَ ﴿36﴾ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمْ خَزَائِنُ رَبِّكَ
 أَمْ هُمْ الْمُصِيطِرُونَ ﴿37﴾ أَمْ لَهُمْ سُلَّمٌ سَلَّمُ يَسْتَمِعُونَ فِيهِ فَلْيَأْتِ مُسْتَمِعُهُمْ بِسُلْطَانٍ مُبِينٍ
 ﴿38﴾ أَمْ لَهُ الْبَنَاتُ وَلَكُمْ الْبَنُونَ ﴿39﴾ أَمْ تَسْأَلُهُمْ أَجْرًا فَهُمْ مِنْ مَغْرَمٍ مُثْقَلُونَ ﴿40﴾ أَمْ
 عِنْدَهُمُ الْغَيْبُ فَهُمْ يَكْنُبُونَ ﴿41﴾ أَمْ يُرِيدُونَ كَيْدًا فَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هُمْ الْمَكِيدُونَ ﴿42﴾ أَمْ
 لَهُمْ إِلَهٌ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿43﴾

(29) So continue reminding for, by the grace of your Lord, you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] are neither a fortune-teller nor a madman. (30) Or do they say, "He is a poet whose death we are eagerly awaiting"? (31) Say, "Wait, for I am also waiting with you. (32) Or is their intelligence commanding them to do this or are they a rebellious nation? (33) Or are they saying, "He has fabricated it"? The fact of the matter is that they will not believe. (34) They should produce a speech like it if they are truthful. (35) Or were they created without a creator or are they creators themselves? (36) Or did they create the heavens and the earth? The fact is that they have no conviction. (37) Or are the treasures of your Lord with them or do they possess powers to enforce? (38) Or do they have a ladder by which they are able to eavesdrop? So let their eavesdropper produce a clear proof. (39) Or are daughters for Him and sons for you? (40) Or do you ask from them a fee so that they feel as if they are burdened by a penalty? (41) Or do they have knowledge of the unseen which they are writing? (42) Or are they plotting something? Indeed those who disbelieve will themselves be ensnared in a plot. (43) Or do they have a deity besides Allāh? Allāh is Pure from the partners they ascribe to Him.

REFUTING THE CLAIMS OF THE REJECTERS

These verses begin with an address to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم after which several questions are posed to the polytheists. The discussion therefore appears to be a dialogue between the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the polytheists.

Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "So continue reminding (and do not worry about the taunts of the disbelievers) for, by the grace of your Lord, you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] are neither a fortune-teller nor a madman (as they claim).".

Allāh Ta'āla then quotes the foolish statement of the disbelievers who said about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "He is a poet whose death we are eagerly awaiting." They claimed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was merely a poet and like so many other poets who have passed on, they (Allāh forbid!) will be relieved of him once he dies. They regarded him to be a poet who will have his say as long as he lives and who will then be forgotten once he dies without a following. Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to reply to them by saying, "Wait, for I am also waiting with you" i.e. 'I am waiting with you to see your miserable condition once Allāh's punishment afflicts you for turning away from the truth. Whereas I shall reap success and rewards for my efforts, you people will suffer failure, punishment and destruction.' The author of 'Ma'ālimut Tanzīl' states that this verse refers to the defeat or the polytheists at the Battle of Badr when many polytheists leaders were killed.

Allāh Ta'ala then asks, "Or is their intelligence commanding them to do this or are they a rebellious nation?" Their intelligence seemed to be encouraging them to reject the truth and to cling to their false beliefs and customs. However, it is the duty of true intelligence to encourage acceptance of the truth and rejection of falsehood. It is therefore obvious that the intelligence that they valued so much was actually no intelligence at all.

Allāh says further, "Or are they saying, 'He has fabricated it?'" The polytheists claimed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fabricated the Qur'ān. They made this claim merely because of their obstinacy since even they realised that the Qur'ān can be nothing else but the word of Allāh. Allāh asserts, "The fact of the matter is that they will not believe." If they were true in their claim, why is it that they were unable to accept the challenge of the Qur'ān to produce a single Surah like any in the Qur'ān? Allāh says, "They should produce a speech like it if they are truthful." However, none shall ever be able to meet the Qur'ān's challenge. Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'īl, "Say, 'If mankind and the Jinn combine to produce the like of this Qur'ān, they would not be able to produce its example even if they are assistants to each other'" [Surah 17, verse 88]. After almost 1500 years, none has been able to meet this challenge and none shall ever do so.

"Or were they created without a creator or are they creators themselves?" Even the polytheists are forced to admit that they are creation and that there is a Creator. If they deny that they were created, their existence will be questioned. They will then be asked whether they created themselves. It is obvious that neither did they create themselves nor are they able to create another being. Once a person realises that he is a creation, he ought to believe in the existence of the Creator.

Allāh asks further, "Or did they create the heavens and the earth?" This question is rhetorical because it is obvious that these people could never create the heavens and the earth. They are therefore forced to admit that these phenomena are also the products of the Mighty Creator. However, despite admitting these facts, "The fact is that they have no conviction."

"Or are the treasures of your Lord with them..." If they possessed the treasures of Allāh's mercy, they could appoint whoever they please as Anbiya (The Holy Prophets) عليهم السلام. However, they have no choice in the matter. Only Allāh may appoint a Prophet. This verse is a reply to the question that the polytheists posed as quoted in verse 31 of Surah Zukhruf (43), "They say, 'Why is this Qur'ān not revealed to a prominent man from one of the two cities (i.e. Makkah or Tā'if)?'"

Allāh asks further "or do they possess powers to enforce?" i.e. "Do they wield the power to forcibly choose who a Prophet should be?" Since the obvious replies to these questions are negative, it is evident that they then have no right to object to Allāh's choice of Prophet's عليهم السلام. Allāh says in Surah An'am, "Allāh knows best where He wishes to place His message." [Surah 6, verse 124]

"Or do they have a ladder by which they are able to eavesdrop? So let their eavesdropper produce a clear proof" i.e. they should produce a clear proof to substantiate the truth of their stand (Qurtubi). The fact that the Qur'an is a revelation from Allāh is proven by the fact that no human is able to match even a single short Surah of the Qur'an. It is now the responsibility of the disbelievers to prove the truth of their beliefs. Therefore, Allāh asks them whether they have a ladder to climb into the heavens in search of a suitable proof. They are challenged to furnish a divine proof just as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could recite the revelation that came to him.

"Or are daughters for Him and sons for you?" The polytheists regarded the angels as Allāh's daughters. However, when a daughter was born to any of them, they regarded it as a disgrace. A nation that attributes to Allāh something that they regard as a disgrace must really be a foolish nation. How can such a nation raise objections against Allāh and say that He ought to appoint those people as the Holy Prophets whom they select as such?

"Or do you ask from them a fee so that they feel as if they are burdened by a penalty?" No person is ever required to pay a fee for accepting Islām. In fact, people are invited to accept Islām for their personal benefit in this world and in the Akhirah. Therefore no person can make the excuse that they stand to lose anything by accepting Islām.

Allāh then asks, "Or do they have knowledge of the unseen which they are writing?" They used to say that they are awaiting the demise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that his following and his religion may cease to exist after him. Allāh asks them whether they have knowledge of the unseen to be so certain that they will live on after him to see what they wish to see. [Qurtubi]

"Or are they plotting something? Indeed those who disbelieve will themselves be ensnared in a plot." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that this warning came to pass when the polytheists of Makkah convened to decide their course of action against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh mentions this meeting in Surah Anfāl when He says, "When the disbelievers schemed against you to imprison you, kill you or exile you. They plan and Allāh plans, and Allāh is the best of planners." [Surah 8, verse 30]

However, the evil scheming of the disbelievers was foiled because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left Makkah unharmed and reached Madinah safely. It was after he reached Madinah that the Battle of Badr took place in which seventy polytheists were killed, many of them being their leaders. Thus, they were at the receiving end of their plot. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 27 p. 39]

Allāh closes the dialogue by asking, "Or do they have a deity besides Allāh? Allāh is Pure from the partners they ascribe to Him."

وَإِنْ يَرَوْا كِسْفًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ سَاقِطًا يَقُولُوا سَحَابٌ مَّرْكُومٌ ﴿٤٤﴾ فَذَرَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ يُلَاقُوا يَوْمَهُمُ

الَّذِي فِيهِ يُصْعَقُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ يَوْمَ لَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ كَيْدُهُمْ شَيْئًا وَلَا هُمْ يُنصَرُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَإِنَّ
 لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا عَذَابًا دُونَ ذَلِكَ وَلَكِنْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَأَصْبِرْ لِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ فَإِنَّكَ
 بِأَعْيُنِنَا وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ حِينَ تَقُومُ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْهُ وَإِدْبَرَ النُّجُومِ ﴿٤٩﴾

(44) If they see a portion of the sky hurtling down they say, "This is a cloud in stacked layers." (45) So leave them until they meet their day in which they will fall unconscious. (46) The day when their plots will be of no avail to them and they will not be assisted. (47) There shall surely be another punishment besides this for the oppressors but they have no idea. (48) Bear patiently with the decision of your Lord for you are under Our protection. Glorify the praises of your Lord when you rise. (49) And glorify Him during a portion of the night and even after the stars have vanished.

THE MISERABLE PLIGHT OF THE REJECTERS ON THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT

Allāh speaks of the rebelliousness of the disbelievers in these verses, He exhorts the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be patient and promises him protection. In the first of these verses, Allāh describes the rebelliousness of the polytheists when He says, "If they see a portion of the sky hurtling down (towards them) they say, 'this is a cloud in stacked layers.' " This means that even if they have to witness Allāh's punishment coming to them in the form of a hurtling "portion of the sky" (meteorite, asteroid, etc), they will not want to believe. This is despite the fact that they said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "We shall never believe in you until you drop the sky upon us in fragments as you claim..." [Surah Bani Isrā'il (17), verses 90-92]

If, as they requested, a "portion of the sky" was to come hurtling towards them, they would refuse to admit that it is from Allāh and will brush it off as being a mere cloud that has layers stacked high atop each other. Like this, they will concoct various interpretations instead of admitting that it is from Allāh Ta'āla or a miracle of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh discusses this rebelliousness of theirs in Surah Hijr where He says, "If We open to them a door of the sky and they climb it during the day they will say, 'Our eyes have merely been mesmerized. Indeed we are a bewitched people.'" [Surah 15, verses 14,15]

Allāh then addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "So leave them until they meet their day in which they will fall unconscious." While some commentators are of the opinion that this day refers to the Battle of Badr, others maintain that it refers to the day when the trumpet will be sounded for the first time to announce the advent of Judgement. Allāh continues to say that on that fateful day, "their plots will be of no avail to them and they will not be assisted."

"There shall surely be another punishment besides this for the oppressors..." Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضي الله عنه says that this punishment refers to the Battle of Badr and Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه says that the reference is to the seven-year drought that afflicted Makkah. However, "they have no idea" that this warning is not merely an idle threat but a reality that is certain.

Allāh Ta'āla advises the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further by saying, "Bear patiently with the decision of your Lord" i.e. "bear with Allāh's decision to delay the punishment and do not seek to hasten it. They shall be punished when Allāh decrees. You have nothing to fear from them because "you are under Our protection."

Allāh further instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to "Glorify the praises of your Lord when you rise." Sayyidina Atā رحمه الله عليه, Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Ibn Jurayj رحمه الله عليه interpret this verse to mean that Tasbīh (Words of glorifying) and Tahmīd (Words of praising) should be recited each time one rises from a gathering. In this regard it has been reported that whenever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم rose from a gathering he used to recite:

With reference to this, a Sahābi رضى الله عنه asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. You are reciting certain words that you never recited habitually before." the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "These words serve as an expiation for everything (inappropriate) that occurred in the gathering." [Abu Dawūd]

Allāh further instructs, "And glorify Him during a portion of the night and even after the stars have vanished." While some commentators have interpreted "during a portion of the night" as the Maghrib and Isha Salāh and "after the stars have vanished" as the two Rakāhs of Fajr, others maintain that "during a portion of the night" refers to performing the Tahajjud Sahāh at night.

سورة النجم

Makkan

Surah An-Najm

Verses 62

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالنَّجْمِ إِذَا هَوَىٰ ۝ (1) مَا ضَلَّ صَاحِبُكُمْ وَمَا غَوَىٰ ۝ (2) وَمَا يَنْطِقُ عَنِ الْهَوَىٰ ۝ (3) إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا وَحْيٌ يُوحَىٰ ۝ (4) عَلَّمَهُ شَدِيدُ الْقُوَىٰ ۝ (5) ذُو مِرَّةٍ فَاسْتَوَىٰ ۝ (6) وَهُوَ بِالْأُفُقِ الْأَعْلَىٰ ۝ (7) ثُمَّ دَنَا فَتَدَلَّىٰ ۝ (8) فَكَانَ قَابَ قَوْسَيْنِ أَوْ أَدْنَىٰ ۝ (9) فَأَوْحَىٰ إِلَىٰ عَبْدِهِ مَا أَوْحَىٰ ۝ (10) مَا كَذَبَ الْفُؤَادُ مَا رَأَىٰ ۝ (11) أَفَتُمَارُونَهُ عَلَىٰ مَا يَرَىٰ ۝ (12) وَلَقَدْ رَآهُ نَزْلَةً أُخْرَىٰ ۝ (13) عِنْدَ سِدْرَةِ الْمُنْتَهَىٰ ۝ (14) عِنْدَهَا جَنَّةُ الْمَأْوَىٰ ۝ (15) إِذْ يَغْشَى السِّدْرَةَ مَا يَغْشَىٰ ۝ (16) مَا زَاغَ الْبَصَرُ وَمَا طَغَىٰ ۝ (17) لَقَدْ رَأَىٰ مِنْ ءَايَاتِ رَبِّهِ الْكُبْرَىٰ ۝ (18)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) By the star when it sets. (2) Your companion is neither deviated nor has he lost his way. (3) He does not speak of his own whims. (4) Whatever he says is revelation revealed to him. (5) He has been taught by one of immense might... (6) ...and who is extremely powerful. He then appeared in his original form... (7) ... when he was on the highest part of the horizon. (8) Then he approached and drew close... (9) ...and was as close as two bows or even closer. (10) Then (Allāh) sent that revelation to His slave, which He revealed. (11) The heart does not mistake what it sees. (12) Are you disputing with him concerning what he saw? (13) He certainly saw him once more... (14) ...at the "Sidratul Muntahā"... (15) ... close to which is "Jannatul Ma'wā". (16) When the "Sidratul Muntahā" is covered by that which covers it. (17) The sight neither wavered nor transgressed. (18) He definitely saw some of Allāh's great signs.

EVERYTHING THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم SAID WAS REVELATION AND HE SAW SAYYIDINA JIBRĪL عليه السلام TWICE IN HIS ORIGINAL FORM

The greater portion of these verses speak about the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the incident where he saw Sayyidina Jibrīl عليه السلام.

Allāh begins the Surah by taking an oath saying, "By the star when it sets. Your companion is neither deviated nor has he lost his way. He does not speak of his own whims. Whatever he says is revelation revealed to him."

Although the Arabic word "Najm" is singular, it refers to the entire galaxy of stars. Certain commentators have mentioned that it refers to the Pleiades constellation of stars, which comprises of seven individual stars. Allāh swears an oath by the stars to emphasise prophethood and divine revelation because just as the stars serve to guide people in the dark, so too do the Holy Prophets عليهم السلام and divine revelation guide people who have wandered astray.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was never a polytheist. Even before he announced his prophethood to people, he always believed in One Allāh. However, when he began inviting the Quraysh to believe in One Allāh, they took offence and started saying that he had forsaken the creed of his forefathers and wandered astray. They even called him a fortune-teller and a poet. Allāh Ta'āla refutes their statements by declaring that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has never deviated, from the path of truth and whatever he preaches to people is absolutely true. Whatever he tells them is not figments of his imagination but truths of divine revelation that Allāh had revealed to him.

Because people find the right directions in the dark by using the stars as guides, Allāh takes an oath by the stars to emphasise that guidance may be had by following the teachings of the revelation that descends on their "companion" viz. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It was indeed unreasonable of the Quraysh to falsify the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when they knew him from his childhood and were well aware of the fact that he never spoke a lie to any soul. It was therefore impossible that he could ever lie about Allāh by saying that Allāh had made him a Prophet.

Allāh continues to say, "He has been taught by one of immense might and who is extremely powerful." This verse refers to Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام who brought revelation from Allāh Ta'āla to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh emphasises the fact that Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام is extremely powerful and strong so that none can think that perhaps a Satan or another creature may have waylaid him and prevented him from delivering the revelation as it should be delivered. Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام is so powerful that no creation has the ability to overpower him.

THE FIRST SIGHTING

"He then appeared in his original form when he was on the highest part of the horizon..." Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام usually appeared in the form of a human being when he brought revelation to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. One day, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم requested to see Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام in his original form. Consequently, Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام appeared before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in his original form when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in the cave of Hira. According to another narration, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him like this while he was in the Ajyād district of Makkah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام on the eastern horizon with his six hundred wings spread out. They were so large that they even covered the western horizon. The sight was so tremendous that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fell unconscious.

When this happened, Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام immediately appeared in a human form, hurried to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and wiped the dust from his face. His hurrying to the aid of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is described as "then (he) approached and drew close and was as close as two bows or even closer." It was the custom of the Arabs that whenever they entered into a pact with each other, they used to hold the strings of their bows so close to each other that they touched. This was done to emphasise their unity and convince each other that they would now always stand together as one united force.

Allāh adds that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام were "even closer" than two bows. This alludes to the spiritual closeness that the two shared. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم regained consciousness, Allāh sent revelation to him. This is referred to by the verse "Then (Allāh) sent that revelation to His slave, which He revealed." Quoting from Sayyidina Sa'id bin Jubayr رضى الله عنه, "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" mentions that this verse refers to the revelation of verse 6 of Surah Duhā (Surah 93) up to verse 4 of Surah Inshirā (Surah 94). Other commentators are of the opinion that the revelation transmitted to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was that none shall enter Heaven until he enters and that no Ummah shall enter Heaven until his Ummah enters.

"The heart does not mistake what it sees." i.e. whatever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw was certain and doubtless.

"Are you disputing with him concerning what he saw?" Allāh censures the polytheists for denying what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them he had seen, which was absolutely true.

THE SECOND SIGHTING

"He certainly saw him once more at the 'Sidratul Muntahā..." After seeing Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام in his original form in Makkah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him again in this form at the "Sidratul Muntahā" when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went for Mi'rāj (ascension). Describing the "Sidratul Muntahā", Allāh says, "close to which is 'Jannatul Ma'wā'. When the 'Sidratul Muntahā' is covered by that which covers it." The gardens of Heaven where people will abide in peace forever are in the vicinity of the "Sidratul Muntahā". When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw the "Sidratul Muntahā" something most beautiful enshrouded it.

Allāh Ta'āla says further, "The sight neither wavered nor transgressed." i.e. when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw what was before him, his gaze remained fixed on it and he did not turn to the right or left. His gazes also did not fall on anything besides what he was being shown. Therefore, he was able to accurately recount exactly what he saw.

"He definitely saw some of Allāh 's great signs." Muslim (v. 1 p. 98) narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه that "Allāh 's great signs" refers to the sighting of Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him at the "Sidratul Muntahā" with all his six hundred wings (just as he had seen him once before on earth).

WHAT IS THE "SIDRATUL MUNTAHĀ"?

The Arabic word "Sidrah" means a lotus or a jujube tree. 'Muntahā' means the 'limit' or 'apex' i.e. a point beyond which there is nothing more. The "Sidratul Muntahā" is therefore a tree at which everything stops. Whatever deeds ascend to the heavens first stop at the "Sidratul Muntahā" before proceeding further and all commands descending to earth also stop there before descending further. [Qurtubi v. 9 p. 94]

The books of Ahadith contain detailed narrations concerning the epic journey of Mi'rāj (ascension). These narrations also speak of the "Sidratul Muntahā". During the journey of Mi'rāj (ascension), the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم met several Anbiya (The Holy Prophets) عليهم السلام in the many heavens. After meeting Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, he proceeded to the "Sidratul Muntahā". The fruit of the "Sidratul Muntahā" were as large as the water jugs of Hijr and the leaves were the size of elephants' ears. According to one narration, the "Sidratul Muntahā" was covered by golden butterflies, while another narration states that it was enshrouded in magnificent colours, the beauty of which cannot be described. According to another narration, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that when the "Sidratul Muntahā" was covered by that with which Allāh covered it, it took on a new appearance. When the "Sidratul Muntahā" was covered, it became so beautiful that none of Allāh's creation can describe its beauty. To highlight this indescribable beauty Allāh says, "When the 'Sidratul Muntahā' is covered by that which covers it."

WHAT IS "JANNATUL MA'WĀ"

The Arabic word "Ma'wā" literally refers to a "place where one takes up residence". Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله has recorded the following interpretations of "Jannatul Ma'wā".

1. The Heaven in which the Allāh-fearing people shall reside.
2. The place in paradise where the souls of the Shuhadā (martyrs) stay.
3. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه states that this is the place in Heaven where Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام is.
4. The place in Heaven where the souls of all the believers abide.
5. The place where Jibr'il عليه السلام and Mika'il عليه السلام stay. Allāh knows best.

NOTE: There exists a difference of opinion with regard to whether the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Allāh in Mi'rāj (ascension) or not. There also exists a difference with regard to whether the sighting was with the physical eyes or with the heart (spiritual). Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها maintains that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not see Allāh, while Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه is of the opinion that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did see Allāh. Other Scholars hold the view that no comment should be made on the issue. They neither confirm nor deny whether the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Allāh Ta'āla or not.

Sayyidina Masrūq رحمه الله، who was a student of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها، once asserted that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did see Allāh Ta'āla during the night of Mi'rāj (ascension) In support of this assertion, he quoted the verses:

"[The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] undoubtedly saw him on the clear horizon." [Surah Takwīr (81), verse 23]

"He certainly saw him once more..." [Surah Najm (53), verse 13]

Upon this, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "I was the first person of this Ummah to ask the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about this. He replied, 'I saw Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام only twice in his original form.'" [Muslim v. 1 p. 98]

When Sayyidina Masrūq رحمه الله asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها about the verse: "then (he) approached and drew close. And was as close as two bows or even closer" she replied that this referred to Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام. She added that Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام usually appeared before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in human form. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him in his original form, he encompassed the entire horizon from east to west. [Ibid]

After discussing the issue in his commentary of Muslim, Imām Nawawī رحمه الله states that the majority of Scholars share the opinion of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه.

However, an analysis of Ahadith narrations on the subject and the verses of Surah Najm along with the pronouns mentioned, lead one to believe that these verses refer to seeing Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام. This fact is clearly apparent from the verses: "... who is extremely powerful. He then appeared in his original form when he was on the highest part of the horizon. Then he approached and drew close and was as close as two bows or even closer."

Concerning the verse "The heart does not mistake what it sees" Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه says that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام with all his 600 wings [Muslim v. 1 p. 97]. The pronoun "him" in the verse "He certainly saw him once more" obviously refers to the one who was seen "on the highest part of the horizon" and who then "approached and drew close."

When Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه recited the verse, "He definitely saw some of Allāh's great signs" he stated that this referred to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم seeing Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام in his true form with 600 wings. When Sayyidina Abu Huraira رضى الله عنه recited the verse "He certainly saw him once more" he commented that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام (Muslim v. 1 p. 98). Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها also mentioned that the verses of Surah Najm refer to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم seeing Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام and not Allāh Ta'āla.

In support of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās's رضى الله عنه opinion, Imām

Nawawi رحمه الله عليه states that it appears as if Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه heard this from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. This statement is questionable because the narration of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها is quoted from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself, as she stated. According to her narration, it is clear that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself mentioned that Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام is referred to in the verse "He certainly saw him once more". The statement of Imām Nawawi رحمه الله عليه therefore seems to be based purely on his good opinion of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه. Furthermore, the opinion of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه is that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Allāh Ta'āla with the eyes of his heart and not with his physical eyes. (Muslim v. 1 p. 98)

If one has to reflect deeper, one will realise that the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم sighting of Allāh cannot be conclusively proven from these Qur'ānic verses nor from the narrations of Ahadīth. The third opinion therefore seems most appropriate i.e. no comment should be made on the issue neither can one confirm nor deny whether the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw Allāh Ta'āla or not. A detailed discussion appears in v. 8 p. 608 of "Fat'hul Bārī".

أَفَرَأَيْتُمُ اللَّتَّ وَالْعُزَّىٰ (19) وَمَنْوَةَ الثَّلَاثَةِ الْآخَرَىٰ (20) أَلَكُمُ الذَّكَرُ وَلَهُ الْأُنثَىٰ (21)
تِلْكَ إِذَا قُسِمَةُ ضِرَی (22) إِنْ هِيَ إِلَّا أَسْمَاءٌ سَمِيْتُمُوهَا أَنْتُمْ وَآبَاؤُكُمْ مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ بِهَا
مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ إِنْ يَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا الظَّنَّ وَمَا تَهْوَى الْأَنْفُسُ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ الْهُدَىٰ
(23) أَمْ لِلْإِنْسَانِ مَا تَمَنَّى (24) فَلِلَّهِ الْآخِرَةُ وَالْأُولَىٰ (25) وَكَمْ مِنْ مَلَكٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ
لَا تُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ شَيْئًا إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ أَنْ يَأْذَنَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَرْضَىٰ (26) إِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا
يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ لَيُسَمُّونَ الْمَلَائِكَةَ تَسْمِيَةً الْأُنثَىٰ (27) وَمَا لَهُمْ بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ يَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا
الظَّنَّ وَإِنَّ الظَّنَّ لَا يُغْنِي مِنَ الْحَقِّ شَيْئًا (28)

(19) Have you seen Lāt and Uzza... (20) ... and the third one Manāt? (21) Are males for you and females for Him? (22) This is certainly an unjust distribution. (23) These are merely names which you and your forefathers have kept, for which Allāh has not revealed any warrant. They follow only assumptions and what their whims fancy whereas guidance has already come to them from their Lord. (24) Should man have whatever he wishes for? (25) The Hereafter and the world are only for Allāh. (26) How many are the angels in the heavens whose intercession shall be of no avail except after Allāh grants per duty for whoever He wills and is pleased. (27) Indeed those who do not believe in the Hereafter give feminine names to the angels... (28)... without possessing any knowledge. They follow only assumptions and assumptions are absolutely useless against the truth.

THE IDOLS OF THE ARAB POLYTHEISTS

Before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم announced his prophethood, the Arabs, including the people of Makkah worshipped idols. The people of Makkah were all from the progeny of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and Ismā'il عليه السلام. Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام made Supplication to Allāh saying, "safeguard my children and myself from worshipping idols." Therefore, for a long period of time, the people of his progeny were all sincere believers in One Allāh. Gradually, with the influence of other Arab tribes, the people of Makkah also became idol-worshippers. The Arabs worshipped several idols which they carved from various materials. Three of these idols were the most famous and are mentioned in the above verses. They were "Lāt", "Manāt" and "Uzza".

WHO WERE "LĀT", "MANĀT" AND "UZZA"?

"Fat'hul Bārī" quotes from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that "Lāt" was a person from Tā'if. This opinion is most accurate even though other commentators maintain that he was from Maqām Nakhla or Ukāz. The name "Lāt" is derived from the verbs "Latta" and "Yaluttu". Lāt lived in the vicinity of Tā'if and owned some goats. Whenever a traveller passed, he used the milk of the goats to prepare a meal called "Herrera" which he fed to the travellers. He also gave them a thick beverage made of crushed barley to drink. Every person to whom he fed this meal grew in size. Legend has it that his real name was Āmir bin Zarb and that he also acted as judge among the Arabs. When he died, a person called Amr bin Luhay told the people that "Lāt" did not really die but had entered into a rock. The people began worshipping this rock and built a mausoleum above it. ["Fat'hul Bārī" v. 8 p. 612]

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that "Uzza" was a white rock that was situated in Batn Nakhla. A person by name of Zālīm bin As'ad started worshipping "Uzza" and people eventually built a place of worship there. It is reputed that a voice used to emerge from here. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has stated that "Uzza" was a female Satan who used to frequently visit three acacia trees in Batn Nakhla.

Another idol to which the polytheists of Makkah used to attach great significance was "Hubal". When the polytheists gained victory at Uhud, their leader Abu Sufyān shouted, "May Hubal be exalted!" Upon the instruction of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, his companions رضى الله عنهم replied, "Allāh is Most Exalted and Greater!" Thereupon Abu Sufyān cried out, "We have Uzza while you have no Uzza!" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told his companions رضى الله عنهم to reply by saying, "Allāh is our Walī (Protecting Friend) while you have no Protecting Friend!" Polytheism (shirk) tends to make people so foolish that they actually elevate their idols above Allāh even though they have faith in Allāh. [Tafsīr Qurtubi v. 17 p. 99,100]

The third idol mentioned in the verse is 'Manāt'. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that the name "Manāt" was adopted for this idol because the people believed that they could attain nearness to Allāh by sacrificing animals near "Manāt". 'Manāt' was an idol of the Banu Hudhayl and Banu Khuza'ah tribes. 'Manāt' was worshipped at a place called Mushallal, which is near Qudayd and lies near the road leading from Makkah to Madinah (closer to Makkah).

It is stated in "Fat'hul Bāri" that Amr bin Luhay stationed 'Manāt' close to the sea at Qudayd. The Azd and Ghassān tribes used to perform Hajj here and greatly revered here. After perform Hajj at the Ka'ba, returning from Arafāt and completing their rites at Mina, these people used to adorn another Ihrām to perform Hajj for 'Manāt'.

It is because the Arabs attached such great importance to these three idols that Allāh has mentioned them in the Qur'ān by saying, "Have you seen Lāt and Uzza and the third one Manāt?" i.e. have you not seen that these idols neither have power to benefit nor to harm. Therefore, how can they be worshipped?

LĀT IS DESTROYED

The Banu Thaqif tribe lived in Tā'if where Lāt was stationed. When this tribe accepted Islām, because they were still new to Islām, they requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to allow Lāt to remain standing for three years. However, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not permit this and sent Sayyidina Abu Sufyān bin Harb رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Mughiera bin Shu'ba رضى الله عنه to demolish Lāt. After accepting Islām, the people of Tā'if told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they were unable to bring themselves to demolish Lāt and that they preferred not being asked to perform Salāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that he could understand their reluctance to demolish Lāt and that they would not have to do it themselves. However, concerning the issue of Salāh, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to them, "There is no good in any religion that is devoid of Salāh." They were therefore constrained to perform Salāh. [Sīrah of Ibn Hishām Chapter on the Thaqif delegation and their conversion to Islām]

THE DEMOLITION OF UZZA

It is recorded in "Fat'hul Bāri" (v. 8 p. 612) that when the Muslims conquered Makkah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent Sayyidina Khālid bin Walīd رضى الله عنه to destroy Uzza. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that Uzza was a female Satan who frequently visited three acacia trees in Batn Nakhla. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent Sayyidina Khālid bin Walīd رضى الله عنه with the instruction to cut down the first of the three trees. When Sayyidina Khālid bin Walīd رضى الله عنه returned, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him whether he saw anything. When Sayyidina Khālid bin Walīd رضى الله عنه replied in the negative, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent him to cut down the second tree. After he had completed this task, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم posed the same question to him. When he again submitted that he had seen nothing, he was sent to cut down the third tree.

When Sayyidina Khālid bin Walīd رضى الله عنه cut the third tree, he noticed a dark skinned woman with dishevelled hair clasping her shoulders and baring sharp fangs. Behind her was her attendant called Dubayya. Striking her on her head, Sayyidina Khālid bin Walīd رضى الله عنه killed her and then killed her attendant. When he related the entire episode to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That was Uzza. She will never be worshipped again." [Tafsīr Qurtubi v. 9 p. 100]

"Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" (v. 4 p. 316) reports that when Sayyidina Khālid bin

Walid رضى الله عنه reached the place he saw a naked woman sitting. Her hair was dishevelled and she was throwing sand on her head. He drew his sword and executed her. When he reported this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That woman was Uzza."

A contradiction? Whereas it was stated earlier that Uzza was a white rock, it now appears that she was a Satan woman (?). It should be understood that the Satan used to (and still do) terrify the polytheists by appearing in various frightening forms. The Polytheists then make idols in these forms and begin worshipping them. These Satan regard this as homage to themselves and thus begin to reside at the places where the Polytheists worship their idols. They often appear before the Polytheists while they are awake as well as in their dreams.

THE DESTRUCTION OF MANĀT

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله writes (v. 4 p. 454) that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم dispatched Sayyidina Abu Sufyān bin Harb رضى الله عنه to destroy Manāt. Another narration mentions that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم delegated the task to Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه.

There were many other idols that the Arabs worshipped besides these. Among the famous ones were Dhil Khalsā, which was known as the Ka'ba of Yemen and was worshipped by the Douws and Khat'am tribes. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent Sayyidina Jarīr bin Abdullāh Bajali رضى الله عنه to destroy it.

THE FOOLISHNESS OF THE POLYTHEISTS

After highlighting the helplessness of idols, Allāh asks, "Are males for you and females for Him?" Not only were the polytheists foolish enough to ascribe children to Allāh, they ascribed such children to Him which they regarded as disgraceful i.e. daughters. They held the belief that the angels were the daughters of Allāh whereas if they were given the choice of children they would chose sons. In this regard Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'il [Surah 17, verse 40], "Has your Lord chosen sons only for you and taken the angels as His daughters? You are surely making a preposterous statement."

Allāh says in Surah Sāffāt [Surah 37, verses 149-155], "Ask them, 'Should your Lord have daughters, while you have sons? Or have We created the angels as females in their presence? Behold! Because of their concocted beliefs, they will certainly say, 'Allāh has children.' Undoubtedly, they are liars! Has Allāh chosen daughters instead of sons? What ails you people? How do you decide? Do you not take heed?"

Allāh says in Surah Nahl [Surah 16, verses 57-59], "They assign daughters unto Allāh. Allāh is Pure! Yet they have for themselves what they desire? When any of them is given the glad tidings of a daughter, his face darkens and he suppresses his fury. He hides from the people because of the evil tidings that he received. Must he keep her with disgrace or bury her in the sand? Evil indeed is the decision that he takes!"

It is with reference to wanting sons for themselves and daughters for Allāh that Allāh says, "This is certainly an unjust distribution."

THE POLYTHEISTS FABRICATED THEIR IDOLS AND THEIR NAMES

Allāh says about the idols of the polytheists, "These are merely names which you and your forefathers have kept, for which Allāh has not revealed any warrant. The objects that the polytheists adopted as their deities never deserved to be worshipped and could never have been sanctioned by Allāh. 'They follow only assumptions and what their whims fancy whereas guidance has already come to them from their Lord.'" The polytheists and their pagan forefathers did as they pleased and chose whatever they wanted to worship. This was despite the fact that they had received guidance from Allāh previously. Their behaviour was therefore purely obstinate. The "guidance" mentioned in the verse refers to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Qur'ān. Allāh's Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and His Qur'ān made it clear to them that there is none worthy of worship besides Allāh and presented numerous proofs to them. However, they still refused to accept.

Allāh states further, "Should man have whatever he wishes for?" This verse tells us that man can never have whatever he desires in this world. The polytheists entertained the hope that their idols would grant them whatever they desired in this world and would intercede on their behalf on the Day of Judgement. These were merely false hopes. Whereas a man cannot accomplish whatever he wants in this world even by exerting himself greatly, how can he hope that helpless idols can fulfil his desires?

"The Hereafter and the world are only for Allāh." This means that Allāh has complete control over the affairs of this world and the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Neither the polytheists nor their idols have any say in these affairs. Therefore, it is only Allāh who can be of assistance to people in both worlds and He can easily destroy all their hopes.

THE POLYTHEISTS BELIEVED THAT THEIR IDOLS WILL INTERCEDE ON THEIR BEHALF ON THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT

The polytheists believed that their idols and the angels whom they worshipped would intercede on their behalf on the Day of Judgement. Satan made them believe that the intercession of their idols would draw them close to Allāh. The Qur'ān explains to them that their idols are unable to do anything for themselves, let alone save the polytheists. Besides being unable to assist others, idols are lifeless and cannot even protect themselves from others. Whereas the Prophet's عليهم السلام and the angels are able to intercede on behalf of others, they will be unable to do so if they do not receive Allāh's per duty to intercede. Allāh refers to this when He says, "How many are the angels in the heavens whose intercession shall be of no avail except after Allāh grants per duty for whoever He wills and is pleased with."

Therefore, Allāh will allow His pious creation to intercede on behalf of only those people with whom He is pleased. There is therefore no hope of Allāh granting per duty for anyone to intercede on behalf of the disbelievers and polytheists. In Surah Anbiya [Surah 21, verses 26-28], Allāh refutes the beliefs and actions of those people who worship the angels and who believe that they are Allāh's children. Allāh says, "They say, 'Rahmān has taken a son.' He is Pure! They (the angels) are but honourable slaves. They do not speak ahead of Him and duly carry out His orders. He knows what is before them and what is behind them and only the one with whom He is pleased will be able to intercede. They tremble with fear for Him."

Allāh states further, "Indeed those who do not believe in the Hereafter give feminine names to the angels without possessing any knowledge." The polytheists held incorrect beliefs and carried out evil deeds because they did not believe in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). If they believed in the Ākhirah and were concerned about answering to Allāh, they would never have called the angels Allāh's daughters. It is this lack of belief in the Ākhirah that is referred to when Allāh says, "without possessing any knowledge". Without any proof or reason, they took the liberty to make gods for themselves. Allāh says, "They follow only assumptions and assumptions are absolutely useless against the truth." Their first assumption was believing that their idols were worthy of worship and the second was believing that these idols would intercede for them in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

THE NECESSITY FOR BELIEF IN AND CONCERN FOR THE ĀKHIRAH

The verse "Indeed those who do not believe in the Hereafter..." makes reference to an extremely fundamental factor. It tell us that people who do not believe in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) tend to get involved in polytheism (shirk). Disbelieving in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is a major cause for not only committing disbelief and polytheism (shirk), but for remaining steadfast in these practices. If a polytheist does believe in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), his belief is generally very hazy and he is easily convinced by others to believe that his idols will intercede for him on the Day of Judgement and save him from Hell. In this manner, even the little fear he has for the Ākhirah vanishes from his heart.

Besides the polytheists, there are many other types of disbelievers. There are the atheists who believe that there is no god at all and that they have no creator. Consequently, they do not believe in resurrection and life after death. Since they do not believe in any god, they believe that there is no one to answer to after death.

There are others who believe in a God and accept that they have a Creator. However, they ascribe partners to Allāh and believe in reincarnation. Therefore, these people do not believe in resurrection, rewards and punishment.

Another group affiliate themselves to a Prophet, like the Jews and the Christians. Compared to the other groups of disbelievers, they have a much greater concept of Ākhirah. However, their obstinacy has destroyed them. They refuse to believe in the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and have gradually lost the fear of the Ākhirah. The Jews have become so indifferent to the Ākhirah that they claim, "The Fire will touch us only for a limited number of days" [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 80]. Despite knowing that they are unable to place their hands in the fire of this world for a minute, they are audacious enough to claim that they will tolerate a few days in the intensified fire of Hell rather than believing in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Although the Christians believe in the Ākhirah, they have fallen prey to the false preaching of their religious leaders. They have been told that they are at liberty to do whatever they please during the week because they can confess to the priest on sundays and have all their sins forgiven. They even believe that there is no need to confess to all their sins because his forgiveness will be good for every sin. As a result of this foolish behaviour, they have also become oblivious of the Ākhirah.

This gross indifference has made their once blurry concept of punishment in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) fade into extinction. As a result, they are immersed in disbelief, polytheism (shirk) and major sins.

THE NECESSITY FOR PEOPLE TO BE CONCERNED WITH SAVING THEMSELVES FROM PUNISHMENT IN THE ĀKHIRAH

It is tragic to note that many people have no concern for their lives after death and scarcely have an idea that Allāh has revealed a Religion by which they can be saved from punishment in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). This concern and belief in the Ākhirah are essential for a person. If a person believes that he will have to suffer punishment in the Ākhirah if he dies as a disbeliever, he will be unable to rest or find taste in food until he finds the Dīn (religion) that Allāh has sent for man's salvation. If a person truly has a concern, Insha Allāh he will certainly be convinced that the only Dīn (religion) acceptable to Allāh is the religion of Islām. He will then not be led astray by any religious leader and will be able to make it clear to them that they are merely leading people into the fire of Hell.

It is actually the combination of three factors that have prepared people to enter Hell. These are (1) weak belief in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), (2) following human whims and passions and (3) fabricating their own religions based purely on personal speculation. There are also many people who are Muslims, who believe in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) but are unable to resist their whims and temptations. They are given to forsaking Salāh, not paying Zakāh, earning a living by Unlawful sources, consuming Unlawful food and committing all sorts of sins. Such people are also preparing themselves for punishment in Hell. Indifference towards the Ākhirah and following their whims have weakened them to the extent that they are unable to desist from sin.

THE STATUS OF MAN'S ASSUMPTIONS

Allāh Ta'āla expresses the status of man's assumptions by stating, "assumptions are absolutely useless against the truth". This verse is a lesson for those people who pitch their logic and rationale against the clear statements of the Qur'an and Ahadith by voicing their "opinions" which contradict the Qur'an and Ahadith.

There are also many who think ill of others and these evil assumptions of others lead them to backbiting and slander. Such people should be concerned that the evil assumptions they have of others must not disgrace them in this world and cause them to suffer in Hell. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Beware of assumptions because the worst lie is an assumption." ["Mishkāt" p. 427 from Bukhari and Muslim]

فَاعْرِضْ عَنْ مَن تَوَلَّى عَنْ ذِكْرِنَا وَلَمْ يُرِدْ إِلَّا الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا ﴿٢٩﴾ ذَلِكَ مَبْلَغُهُم مِّنَ الْعِلْمِ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَن ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَن اهْتَدَى ﴿٣٠﴾ وَلِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ أَسْتَوُوا بِمَا عَمِلُوا وَيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ أَحْسَنُوا بِالْحُسْنَى ﴿٣١﴾ الَّذِينَ يَحْتَنِبُونَ كَبِيرَ الْإِثْمِ وَالْفَوَاحِشَ إِلَّا اللَّمَمَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ وَاسِعُ الْمَغْفِرَةِ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِكُمْ إِذْ أَنشَأَكُم مِّنَ الْأَرْضِ وَإِذْ أَنتُمْ أَجْنَةٌ فِي بُطُونِ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ فَلَا تُزَكُّوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنِ اتَّقَى ﴿٣٢﴾

(29) So ignore him who turns away from Our advice and who desires only the life of this world. (30) This is the extent of their knowledge. Verily your Lord knows best about the person who deviated from His path and He knows best about him who is rightly guided. (31) To Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth so that He may punish the evil-doers for their deeds and reward those who do good with the best. (32) (They are) those who stay away from major sins and indecent acts except for minor sins. Indeed your Lord is One of extensive mercy. He was best Aware of you when He created you from the earth and when you were foetuses in the wombs of your mothers. So do not ascribe purity to yourselves. He knows best who is the most pious.

THE KNOWLEDGE OF WORLDLY PEOPLE IS LIMITED AND ALLĀH KNOWS THE DEVIATED FROM THE RIGHTLY GUIDED

Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by saying, "So ignore him who turns away from Our advice" i.e. do not hanker after him and do not be grieved by his deeds. Your duty is to convey the message and those who reject will have to suffer the consequences of their rejection. Allāh further describes the person who rejects the advice of the Qur'an as one "who desires only the life of this world." Every aspect of such a person's life revolves around this world. He earns to live and lives to earn.

Regarding the people of this world, Allāh says further, "This is the extent of their knowledge." The purpose of the progress that they make in this world and the degrees they attain is to gain only the material possessions of this world. All their thoughts and mental energies are restricted to attaining this same objective. Allāh says in Surah Rūm, "They have superficial knowledge of the life of this world, whereas they are negligent of the Hereafter." [Surah 30, verse 7]

Love for this world prevents people from belief and even those who have Belief grow increasingly negligent of the Ākhirah (Hereafter) as they take a deeper interest in this world. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who loves his world will damage his Ākhirah (Hereafter) and the person who loves his Ākhirah (Hereafter) will damage his world. So chose that which is everlasting above that which is temporary" ["Mishkāt" p. 441]. Giving preference to the Ākhirah (Hereafter) over this world is a sign of intelligence. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "Love for this world is the source of every sin. ["Mishkāt" p. 444]

One of the supplications that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always made was:

{TRANSLATION: "O Allāh! Do not place any difficulties in our religion and do not make the world our greatest concern and the extent of our knowledge."} ["Mishkāt" p. 219]

Allāh continues to say, "Verily your Lord knows best about the person who deviated from His path and He knows best about him who is rightly guided." Allāh is best Aware of the deeds and conditions of either group and shall reward or punish them accordingly.

THE GOOD AND EVIL DOERS WILL GET WHAT THEY DESERVE

"To Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is in the earth." Allāh created everything in the universe including man. Among men two groups emerged, those who do good and those who do evil. According to their deeds, the good will be rewarded and the evil will be punished. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "so that He may punish the evil-doers for their deeds and reward those who do good with the best."

Allāh then describes those who do good as "those who stay away from major sins and indecent acts except for minor sins." Allāh states that just as these people are particular about carrying out good deeds and adorning themselves with noble characters and personalities, they also ensure that they stay away from sin and evil. The person who carries out good deeds but is not particular about refraining from evil cannot be described as one with perfect Belief. Perfect Belief entails carrying out whatever Allāh commands and staying away from everything that He forbids. A person can regard himself as "those who do good" only when he fulfils these two prerequisites.

There are many people who do a great deal of good deeds including many Nafl (optional good deeds). However, they fail to refrain from sins. It must be borne in mind that abstaining from sin is a great form of Ibādah (worship) in itself. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Refrain from sin and you will become the greatest worshipper" ["Mishkāt" p. 440]. It is evident that carrying out a good deed is much easier than refraining from a sin. Many people do not regard abstaining from sin as an act of virtue whereas the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has described it as the greatest form of worship. Together with carrying out good deeds, one must make a special effort to stop committing the sins that one is accustomed to.

The above verse makes reference to major sins as well. The details regarding the description and examples of major sins have been given in the commentary of the verse: "From all the things forbidden to you, if you refrain from the major sins, We shall expiate from you your evil deeds and enter you into a place of honour." [Surah Nisā (4), verse 31]

In addition to refraining from major sins, "those who do good" also stay away from “indecent acts”. Although indecent acts are regarded as “major sins”, they are mentioned separately so that people exercise extra caution to stay away from all major sins that involve indecent behaviour. The Arabic word “Fawāhish” (translated above as “indecent acts”) entails all acts that men and women engage in which are indecent in any way.

Allāh says that the people who “do good” abstain from all types of sin but, being human, they sometimes succumb to the temptation of committing minor sins. These sins do not exclude them from the category of “those who do good”. Nevertheless, because their frame of mind is one of religiousness and because they fear Allāh, they do not find solace after committing a sin until they sincerely repent to Allāh. In addition to this, they take care not to ever repeat the sin. It should also be borne in mind that minor sins are forgiven once a person carries out good deeds, as Allāh states in Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 114], “Verily good deeds obliterate evil deeds.”

The author of “Bayānul Qur’ān” states that the exception (i.e. except for minor sins) means that although a person needs to refrain from major sins to be regarded as “those who do good”, committing minor sins occasionally will not disqualify him from belonging to this group of praiseworthy people. However, persistently committing such sins will certainly disqualify him from this group. He stresses that this verse neither sanctions committing minor sins nor does it mean that a person will be rewarded for good deeds only if he abstains from major sins. Verse 7 of Surah Zilzāl (Surah 99) makes it clear that a believer will be rewarded for every good deed even without the precondition of abstaining from major sins. However, committing major sins will exclude one from being included in the illustrious group of people who “do good” and who will be rewarded tremendously.

It is vitally important to reiterate the warning that the verse does not sanction minor sins. Although such sins are termed as “minor” and they can be forgiven by carrying out good deeds, they can never be sanctioned because they will then cease to be sins at all. The term “minor” is relative and is used only because these sins are of a lesser degree than others which are termed “major”. Both are sins nonetheless.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said to her, “O Ayshah! Beware of the (seemingly) insignificant sins because Allāh has appointed someone to be vigilant of them (i.e. the angels whom Allāh has appointed to record sins are writing them down and one could well be questioned concerning them).” [“Mishkāt” p. 485 from Ibn Mājah, Dārmi and Bayhaqī]

“Indeed your Lord is One of extensive mercy.” People who commit sins should never grow despondent and think that they have no option but to suffer punishment. They should never lose sight of the fact that Allāh’s mercy is vast and all encompassing. They should repent for their sins, repair the wrong they did to others and try their utmost never to repeat the sin. This is all that is needed for Allāh’s mercy to engulf the sinner. Of course, Allāh reserves the right to forgive people without repentance but disbelief and polytheism (shirk) will not be forgiven.

“He was best Aware of you when He created you from the earth and when you were foetuses in the wombs of your mothers." The first man was created from the earth after which people have procreated to give birth to later generations. Allāh was keeping track of every individual's progress from the inception of man and from the time that every individual was passing through the various stages of development in his mother's womb. Nothing is hidden from Allāh.

THE PROHIBITION AGAINST PROCLAIMING ONE'S PIETY

Allāh declares, "So do not ascribe purity to yourselves. He knows best who is the most pious." Allāh knows best who are the people who abstain from disbelief and polytheism (shirk). Even before people were born Allāh was Aware of their identities and the deeds they were destined to carry out. He knew exactly whether they would be carrying out good deeds and what deficiencies may exist in these deeds. Allāh will therefore either reward or punish people according to the deeds they carry out. It is foolish of a person to go about telling people about the many fasts that he observes, about the many Rakāhs of Salāh that he performs, about the many times that he performed Hajj, etc. Even though he may have carried out all these acts of Ibādah, no person is capable of worshipping Allāh as He deserves to be worshipped. Therefore, there will always be some deficiency in a person's Ibādah (worship), even though he fails to realise it. Since one's acts of Ibādah are fraught with faults, one is not justified in boasting about these.

The above verse prohibits:

- 📖 Praising oneself.
- 📖 Lauding one's actions.
- 📖 Telling others of one's good deeds so that they revere and patronise one.
- 📖 Boasting about one's deeds.

In fact, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم disliked people to keep names which proclaimed their piety. Sayyidah Zaynab bint Abu Salamah رضى الله عنها narrates that her name used to be Barra (meaning virtuous/pious) but the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم changed her name to Zaynab saying, "Do not proclaim your own piety (i.e. do not call yourself pious) because only Allāh knows who of you are pious." [Muslim v. 2 p. 208]

This hadith means that when a person keeps such a name and is asked "Who are you? ", their reply will be "I am pious (Barra)." This appears to be self-praise, which is prohibited. Just as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم changed the name Barra to Zaynab, he also changed the name of another girl from Āsiya (sinner) to Jamila (beautiful). [Muslim]

This teaches us that just as one should not adopt a name or title that exudes self-praise, the name should also not portray sin and vice. Although a believer should be pious he should not go about proclaiming his piety to others. At the same time, he is susceptible to sins and should make Tauba (repentance) to secure forgiveness for these sins. He must therefore never adopt a name or title that indicates sinfulness. There are many people who, because of humility, call themselves "Al Abdul Āsy" ("The sinful slave") or "Āsy pur Ma'āsy" ("The sinner who is full of sin"). Adopting such titles contradicts the explicit instructions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

أَفَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي تَوَلَّى ﴿٣٣﴾ وَأَعْطَى قَلِيلًا وَأَكْدَى ﴿٣٤﴾ أَعِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ الْغَيْبِ فَهُوَ يَرَى ﴿٣٥﴾
 أَمْ لَمْ يُبَيِّنْ بِمَا فِي صُحُفِ مُوسَى ﴿٣٦﴾ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ الَّذِي وَفَّى ﴿٣٧﴾ أَلَا نَزَرُ وَزَرَهُ وَزَرَّ
 أَخْرَى ﴿٣٨﴾ وَأَنْ لَّيْسَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ إِلَّا مَا سَعَى ﴿٣٩﴾ وَأَنْ سَعِيهِ سَوْفَ يَرَى ﴿٤٠﴾ ثُمَّ يُخْرَجُهُ
 الْجَزَاءَ الْأَوَّلَى ﴿٤١﴾ وَأَنْ إِلَى رَبِّكَ الْمُنْتَهَى ﴿٤٢﴾ وَأَنْتُمْ هُوَ أَضْحَكُ وَأَبْكَى ﴿٤٣﴾ وَأَنْتُمْ
 هُوَ أَمَاتٌ وَأَحْيَا ﴿٤٤﴾ وَأَنْتُمْ خَلَقَ الذَّوْجَيْنِ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَى ﴿٤٥﴾ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ إِذَا تُمْنَى ﴿٤٦﴾ وَأَنْ
 عَلَيْهِ النَّشَأَ الْأُخْرَى ﴿٤٧﴾ وَأَنْتُمْ هُوَ أَغْنَى وَأَقْنَى ﴿٤٨﴾ وَأَنْتُمْ هُوَ رَبُّ الشُّعْرَى ﴿٤٩﴾ وَأَنْتُمْ
 أَهْلَكَ عَادًا الْأُولَى ﴿٥٠﴾ وَثَمُودًا فَمَا أَبْقَى ﴿٥١﴾ وَقَوْمَ نُوحٍ مِنْ قَبْلُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا هُمْ أَظْلَمَ
 وَأَطْعَى ﴿٥٢﴾ وَالْمُؤَنَفَكَةَ أَهْوَى ﴿٥٣﴾ فَغَشَّاهَا مَا عَشَى ﴿٥٤﴾

(33) Have you seen him who turns away? (34) Who gives a little and then stops? (35) Does he have knowledge of the unseen which he can see? (36) Has he not been informed of what appeared in the scriptures of Mūsa? (37) And in the scriptures of Ibrāhīm who fulfilled? (38) That one bearer shall not be burdened with the burden of another. (39) Man shall have only that for which he strives... (40) .... and his efforts shall soon be seen... (41) .... after which he will be given retribution in full. (42) The end shall surely be to your Lord. (43) It is certainly He (Allāh) Who makes (people) laugh and cry. (44) It is only He Who gives death and life. (45) Verily it is only He Who created pairs of male and female... (46) ... from the seed when it issues forth. (47) The second creation is undoubtedly His responsibility. (48) Verily He grants affluence and poverty. (49) And He is the Lord of Sirius. (50) He destroyed the former Ād... (51) .... and the Thamūd so that none remained. (52) And (He destroyed) the people of Nūh before, who were most tyrannical and rebellious. (53) He also threw down the overturned cities. (54) So that thing engulfed them which did.

THE MISCONCEPTION OF THE DISBELIEVERS THAT ONE SOUL WILL BE ABLE TO ASSIST ANOTHER ON THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT

"Ruhul Ma'āni" (v. 27 p. 65) reports that Walid bin Mughiera was impressed by the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم recitation of the Qur'ān and started drawing closer to Islām. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entertained great hope that he would accept Islām. However, a polytheist began teasing him and told him, "Are you leaving the religion of your forefathers? You think that if you die without accepting the religion of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, you will suffer punishment after death. Let us do this. Return to your religion and I will bear the punishment you are due to receive. However, there is a price attached to this." He fixed a price which Walid agreed to pay. Walid therefore lost all interest in embracing Islām. However, Walid had not yet paid the entire amount when miserliness got the better of him and he stopped paying the man the promised amount. It was with reference to this incident that Allāh revealed the above verses.

"Have you seen him who turns away? Who gives a little and then stops? Does he have knowledge of the unseen which he can see?" i.e. he does not know whether one person will be allowed to bear the punishment of another. In fact, this will not be permitted in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). The polytheists merely fabricated the concept of one person bearing the brunt of another person's sins.

"Has he not been informed of what appeared in the scriptures of Mūsa? And in the scriptures of Ibrāhīm who fulfilled? That one bearer shall not be burdened with the burden of another. And that man shall have only that for which he strives. And that his efforts shall soon be seen, after which he will be given retribution in full." While the Arab polytheists were the progeny of Sayyidina Ismā'il عليه السلام [the son of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام], the Jews of Madinah followed the religion of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Because it was these two groups who disputed with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh Ta'āla refers to the scriptures revealed to Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. Allāh asks them whether they had read in these scriptures that no soul shall bear the burden of another.

Every person will have to suffer the punishment for his disbelief. In fact, none will even be prepared to bear another's burden of sin. The believer will see the rewards of his belief while the disbeliever will have to suffer the punishment for his disbelief. It is Allāh's law that no person will be allowed to bear the burden of another person's sins even though they may strike a deal to this effect in the world. Their pacts in this world that contradict Allāh's law hold no weight. Each will have to suffer for his own wrong. Details of this subject have passed in the commentary of verses 12 and 13 of Surah Ankabūt (Surah 29).

Allāh says that "man shall have only that for which he strives." This verse seems to refute the common concept of 'Isāl Thawāb' i.e. carrying out good deeds and conferring the reward on the deceased. In reply to this dilemma, some Scholars have mentioned that the verse refers to the belief of one person, which will not benefit a second person in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). A believer can therefore not confer his belief on a disbeliever. It is for this reason that verse 21 of Surah Tūr (52) contains the clause "follow them in belief" when Allāh mentions:

"Those who carry out good deeds and whose progeny follow them in belief We shall join their progeny with them without reducing anything from their deeds."

Other Scholars have replied to this by saying that the verse contains a general rule that has a few exceptions. Among these exceptions is Hajj Badal, which is Hajj made on behalf of another person. The Ahadith mention that a person receives the reward for a Hajj Badal when it is made on his behalf even though he did not perform it personally. Another exception is Sadaqah (charity), the reward of which will reach the soul of a dead person when it is given on his/her behalf. When one recites Qur'ān or makes Dhikr on behalf of another person without getting paid for it, the rewards for this will reach the deceased according to the Hanafi and Hanbali schools of jurisprudence. However, according to the Shāfi'ī and Māliki schools of jurisprudence, physical acts of worship cannot be conferred on anyone. The rewards for these Ibādāt (plural of Ibādah) will accrue only to the person who carries them out. The scholars of the Hanafi and Hanbali schools of jurisprudence base this deduction on Hajj Badal and Sadaqah mentioned in the Ahādith.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that the generality of this verse ("man shall have only that for which he strives") has been revoked by the verse: "Those who carry out good deeds and whose progeny follow them in belief We shall join their progeny with them without reducing anything from their deeds." [Surah Tūr(52), verse 21] This verse of Surah Tūr denotes that people will even benefit from the belief of their forebears.

It is recorded in "Ruhul Ma'āni" that the governor of Khurasān once asked Sayyidina Husain bin Fadhl رحمه الله about the apparent disparity between the verse "Allah gives increased manifold to those whom He wills" and the verse "man shall have only that for which he strives". In reply to this question, Sayyidina Husain bin Fadhl رحمه الله said, "The verse of Surah Najm ("man shall have only that for which he strives") mentions Allāh's "Adl" (justice). A person will therefore definitely receive the reward for his deeds in proportion to the worth of the deed. He shall receive what is his right and the reward cannot be lost to him. On the other hand, the verse "Allah gives increased manifold to those whom He wills" mentions Allāh's "Fadhl" (generosity). Allāh therefore has the option of granting people even more than they deserve." The governor of Khurasān was so pleased with this reply that he kissed the forehead of Sayyidina Husain bin Fadhl رحمه الله. "Ruhul Ma'āni" mentions that Sayyidina Ibn Atiyya رحمه الله also made the same interpretation.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that the verse "man shall have only that for which he strives" applies only to sins because Allāh shall multiply the rewards of good deeds many times over as mentioned in the Ahādith. Therefore, the verse "Allah gives increased manifold to those whom He wills" refers to the multiplied rewards that Allāh shall grant people for their good deeds. As for sins, Allāh shall punish people only to the extent of the sin. The punishment for sins will not be multiplied.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" quotes from Sayyidina Ikrima رحمه الله that the verse of Surah Najm applies only to the people of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and was recorded in their scripture. They received rewards only for the deeds that they carried out personally. However, Allāh has granted the privilege to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they are able to carry out good deeds on behalf of others. Of course, the supplication of the previous Ummahs for each other used to be accepted. An example of this is the supplication that Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام made for himself, for his parents and for all the believers of his time as recorded in verse 28 of Surah Nūh (Surah 71). Another example is the supplication that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام made for himself and his brother in the verse: "O my Lord! Forgive me and my brother and enter us in Your mercy. Surely You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy." [Surah A'rāf(7), verse 151]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the deeds of people cease once they die except for three things, the rewards of which will continue to accrue to them. These are (1) Sadaqah Jāriya, (2) knowledge that was imparted and continues to benefit the recipient and (3) pious children who continue to make supplication for the deceased. Certain Ahadīth mention seven such deeds the rewards of which perpetuate. There can be no objection to this hadith in the light of the above verse of Surah Najm because the deeds referred to are carried out by the same person. The supplication of pious children will benefit the parents because it was the parents efforts that produced the piety in the children so that they would be capable of making supplication for their parents.

Allāh Ta'āla describes Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام as "Ibrahīm who fulfilled". This means that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام duly fulfilled every task that Allāh commanded of him. The discussion of the tasks that Allāh entrusted Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام with have been discussed in Surah Baqarah where Allāh says, "When his Lord tried Ibrahīm with certain words, which he fulfilled." [Surah 2, verse 124]

Other commentators state that the verse refers to time when Allāh commanded Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام saying, "Submit!" to which Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام replied, "I submit to the Lord of the universe" [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 131]. After this, Allāh placed many trying difficulties in the path Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام, affecting his wealth, health and family. These were such that it took great patience and fortitude to endure and to fulfil Allāh's commands in their wake. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that the command to slaughter his son and the sterling obedience that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام displayed on that occasion is sufficient to bear testimony to his devotion to Allāh.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه mentioned that during the time of Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام a relative of a murderer was sometimes executed in place of the murderer himself. Instead of executing a murderer, it used to occur that the murderer's father, son, brother, uncle, cousin, wife, husband or slave had to give their life in exchange.

Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام prevented them from doing this and conveyed to them Allāh's message which read, "One bearer shall not be burdened with the burden of another."

Some commentators quote two Ahadīth to explain 'Ibrahīm who fulfilled'. They say that it refers to the fact that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام was particular about performing four Rakāhs Salāh early every morning and continued this practice until his death. This hadith has been narrated by Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه. In the second hadith the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked his companions رضي الله عنهم, "Do you know why Allāh Ta'āla says about His friend 'Ibrahīm who fulfilled'? Every morning and evening he used to recite:

{TRANSLATION: "So glorify Allah's purity during the evenings and mornings. All praise is for Him in the heavens and the earth, and glorify His purity during the latter part of the day and during the afternoons. He extracts the living from the dead, the dead from the living and revives the earth, after it's death. Thus will you people be resurrected." [Surah Rūm (30), verses 17-19}]

Allāh continues to say, "The end shall surely be to your Lord." Irrespective of how long one lives in this world, one will certainly have to die. Thereafter one will have to stand in Allāh's court to give an account of all one's deeds. Another interpretation of this verse is that when one ponders over Allāh's creation, the end result of this reflection will lead one to recognise Allāh. One should then not think about the Being of Allāh because this is beyond man's understanding.

ALLĀH DOES EVERYTHING

Allāh says further, "It is certainly He (Allāh) who makes (people) laugh and cry." Laughing, crying and their causes have been created by Allāh. In addition to this, Allāh says that "It is only He who gives death and life." Besides Allāh, none has the ability to give life or death to anything.

"Verily it is only He who created pairs of male and female from the seed when it issues forth." When the male and female gametes unite by Allāh's command after the sperm issues forth, a child is conceived. Just as Allāh is responsible for creating people in this manner "The second creation is undoubtedly His responsibility (as well)." Human existence does not terminate after people have died and their bodies have decomposed. They will be resurrected and presented for questioning in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh Ta'āla has assumed responsibility for resurrecting people on the Day of Judgement and He shall certainly fulfil His task despite the denial of the polytheists and disbelievers. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 27 p. 69]

Allāh continues, "Verily He grants affluence and poverty." Allāh has created wealth and everything that wealth can acquire including those things that continue generating more wealth, such as plantations, buildings, etc.

"And He is the Lord of Sirius." The Arabic word "Shi'rā" refers to Sirius (also called the Dog Star, which is the brightest star in the sky because of its closeness to the earth). The Arabs used to worship this star and believed that it had an effect on their lives. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that the Banu Himyar and Banu Khuzā'ah tribes used to worship this star and that a person named Abu Kabsha from the Banu Khuzā'ah tribe initiated its worship. In this verse, Allāh refutes the belief that this star could have an effect on people. Just as everything else is Allāh's creation, so too is this star. People are thereby exhorted to forsake worshipping this star and to rather worship the Lord of this star.

THE DESTRUCTION OF FORMER NATIONS

Allāh then states that it was He Who "destroyed the former Ād and the Thamud so that none remained." The Ād was the same arrogant nation who proclaimed, "Who can be more powerful than us?" and the Thamud were so powerful that they used to carve homes out of mountains. However, notwithstanding the might of these nations, Allāh Ta'āla destroyed their civilisations when they rejected Belief.

"And (He destroyed) the people of Nūh before, who were most tyrannical and rebellious. He also threw down the overturned cities." The "overturned cities" refers to the destroyed cities of the people of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام. These people rejected the message of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and indulged in the vile sin of homosexuality. As a result, the very ground on which their cities stood was lifted into the sky, overturned and tossed down. In addition to this, stones were rained on them. The sheer force of the punishment was so severe that Allāh describes it by merely saying, "So that thing (punishment) engulfed them which did." This verse is similar to the verse which describes the horror of phara'oh (Fir'oun) and his army's punishment. The severity of that punishment was also so indescribably severe that Allāh merely states, "and there covered them that of the sea that did cover them." [Surah TāHā (20), verse 78]

"Then which bounties of your Lord do you doubt?" Allāh created humans as male and female; made them laugh and cry; gave them life and shall revive them after death; granted them wealth and the benefits that it acquires and even informed them about the destruction of former nations so that they take heed. However, instead of taking heed and appreciating these bounties, the disbelievers doubt them.

NOTE: Concerning the adjective 'former' in the verse "the former Ād", the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that this adjective is used because the Ād was the first nation to be destroyed after the nation of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. He then quotes the commentator Allāma Tabarī رحمه الله عليه who stated that this adjective is used to distinguish the Ād from another nation who also called themselves Ād. This second Ād nation used to live in the vicinity of Makkah with the Amāliq nation. The eminent scholar Mubarrad رحمه الله عليه states that "the former Ād" refers to the original nation of Ād while the Thamūd are referred to as "the second Ād".

فَيَايَءَ آلَاءِ رَبِّكَ نَسْمَارِي ﴿٥٥﴾ هَذَا نَذِيرٌ مِّنَ النَّذِرِ الْأُولَىٰ ﴿٥٦﴾ أَزِفَتِ الْأَافِزَةُ ﴿٥٧﴾ لَيْسَ
لَهَا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ كَاشِفَةٌ ﴿٥٨﴾ أَفَمِنْ هَذَا الْحَدِيثِ تَعْجَبُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ وَتَضْحَكُونَ وَلَا تَبْكُونَ ﴿٦٠﴾
وَأَنْتُمْ سَعِيدُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ فَاسْجُدُوا لِلَّهِ وَاعْبُدُوا ﴿٦٢﴾

(55) Then which bounties of your Lord do you doubt? (56) This is a warner from among the earlier warners. (57) The swift approaching matter has arrived. (58) There is none to avert it besides Allāh. (59) Are you astonished about this matter? (60) And do you laugh instead of crying? (61) And continue being arrogant? (62) Prostrate to Allāh and worship Him.

PEOPLE ARE SURPRISED ABOUT JUDGMENT WHEN IT HAS ALREADY COME SO CLOSE

Allāh says in these concluding verses of the Surah, "This is a warner from among the earlier warners." The word "This" refers either to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or to the Qur'ān. The verse means that all the subject matter of the Qur'ān that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم conveyed to mankind were also conveyed by the earlier Anbiya (the Holy Prophets) عليهم السلام and their divine scriptures. What the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم conveyed was therefore nothing strangely new. The addressees of the Qur'ān must therefore be cautious not to follow in the footsteps of the previous nations who were destroyed when they rejected the message of their Prophet's عليهم السلام.

"The swift approaching matter has arrived. There is none to avert it besides Allāh." Even though many people do not believe in the coming of Judgement, it will still occur. Whenever Allāh decrees a matter, it is inevitable. In fact, its occurrence is a certain as something that has already arrived. No person's rejection will prevent it. It is therefore wise for every person to prepare for it because nothing will be able to stop it when it arrives.

"Are you astonished at this matter? And do you laugh instead of crying? And continue being arrogant?" Allāh asks man whether he is astonished at the warnings of the Qur'ān and the advent of Judgement. Instead of adopting a proud attitude and mocking Islām, the disbelievers are urged to forsake their disbelief, to repent and to accept Islām. Their pride which prompts them to reject the truth and to think lowly of Muslims shall be the cause of their doom in both worlds. The Arabic word "Sāmidūn" (translated above as "being arrogant") is derived from the root word "Sumūd", which denotes lifting the head proudly. This word is also used to denote singing, engaging in futile entertainment and swelling with anger.

"Prostrate to Allāh and worship Him." This final verse of the Surah tells people that after hearing about Allāh's immense powers, about the destruction of previous nations and about the imminence of Judgement, the only course of action befitting of an intelligent person is to submit and bow to the truth. They should therefore prostrate only to Allāh and worship Him only. Many commentators have translated "worship Him" as "obey him"

According to Imām Abu Hanīfah رحمه الله عليه, it is Wājib (compulsory) to make Sajdah (prostration) when reciting or hearing this concluding verse of Surah Najm.

سورة القمر

Makkan

Surah Al-Qamar

Verses 55

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

أَقْرَبَتِ السَّاعَةُ وَانْشَقَّ الْقَمَرُ ﴿١﴾ وَإِنْ يَرَوْا آيَةً يُعْرِضُوا وَيَقُولُوا سِحْرٌ مُسْتَعِمَّرٌ ﴿٢﴾
وَكَذَّبُوا وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَكُلُّ أَمْرٍ مُسْتَقَرٌّ ﴿٣﴾ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مِنَ
الْأَنْبَاءِ مَا فِيهِ مُرْدَجَرٌ ﴿٤﴾ حِكْمَةٌ بَالِغَةٌ فَمَا تُغْنِ النُّذُرُ ﴿٥﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) (Qiyamāh) the day of Judgement has drawn close and the moon has been split. (2) If they see any sign they turn away and say that it is magic that will soon vanish. (3) They deny and they follow their whims whereas every matter is established. (4) Indeed such news has come to them in which there is sufficient warning to caution. (5) A most perfect wisdom, but warners have not benefited (them).

THE MOON HAS BEEN SPLIT AND A BELIEF OF THE POLYTHEISTS IS REFUTED

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم demonstrated many miracles to the polytheists of Makkah when he announced his prophethood. The polytheists themselves requested for many of these miracles. Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that once when the polytheists asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to show them a miracle, he split the moon. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 22]

A narration of Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه states that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once called the people to witness that the moon once split into two parts. One part was visible on top of the mountain while the other was below. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 21]

Tirmidhi reports that the splitting of the moon occurred twice while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in Makkah and that the first two verses of Surah Qamar were revealed with reference to this. "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 4 p. 258) reports that when the Quraysh of Makkah sighted the splitting, they claimed that they had been mesmerised. However, when they made inquiries from some travellers, they attested that they had seen the moon split into two parts. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse "Judgement has drawn close and the moon has been split."

Tirmidhi reports that when the travellers attested to the splitting, some polytheists said, "If we were mesmerised, everyone else could not have been." The splitting of the moon indicated to people that something that they thought to be impossible turned into reality. In a like manner, Judgement day will also be a reality even though the disbelievers regard it to be impossible.

Allāh states further, "If they see any sign they turn away and say that it is magic that will soon vanish." It was the practice of the polytheists to ignore miracles when they saw them, claiming that what they saw was merely the temporary effect of magic on them. In this manner "They deny and they follow their whims." despite witnessing great miracles, they refused to believe because they had made gods out of their own whims and passions. Instead of accepting the truth, they chose to follow only that which appealed to their whims.

Allāh asserts that "every matter is established" i.e. the truth shall remain the truth and falsehood shall remain falsehood. These will not be altered by anything and if the disbelievers fail to perceive the truth initially, the truth will eventually dawn upon them and they will realise that it is not magic that they see. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" has interpreted the verse to mean that good will be the lot of good people and evil shall be the lot of evil people. The good will lead people to Heaven and evil will lead people to Hell.

Referring to the polytheists of Makkah, Allāh says further, "Indeed such news has come to them in which there is sufficient warning to caution." The narratives of previous civilisations who were destroyed because of their disbelief are sufficient for people to realise the error of their ways. These incidents should jolt thinking persons out of their slumber because they are filled with "most perfect wisdom". However, when the disbelievers and polytheists are drowning in polytheism (shirk) and disbelief, it seems as if "warners have not benefited (them)". They stubbornly pay no attention to warnings and continue in their ways. Allāh says in Surah Yunus [Surah 10, verse 101], "Arguments and warnings are of no avail to those people who do not believe."

The splitting of the moon has been authentically recorded in Bukhari, Muslim and various other books of Ahadīth. There is therefore no doubt that it actually occurred. However, because of their enmity for Islām, the disbelievers object to this miracle by saying that if the moon was really split, this fact would have been recorded in other parts of the world because the moon is seen from everywhere. In reply to this objection, Scholars have tendered the following replies.

Firstly, there was no system of recording in those times for the account to be well documented. Paper was an extremely scarce commodity then. If it ever was recorded, there exists every possibility that the recording was lost through the passage of time.

Secondly, it is evident that the moon does not rise over the entire world at the same time. While one part of the world is experiencing daylight, another part is experiencing nightfall. As for those parts of the world where it was daytime, there is no question of them witnessing the event. Although it was night in many other parts of the world then, it is obvious that while the night was still young in some parts, it was later in other parts and even later elsewhere. Overcast conditions could well have prevented people in other parts from witnessing this event.

In addition to this, although the splitting was visible from Mina, many people there did not witness it because they may have been involved in other activities. Many were in their homes and many were sound asleep. It is therefore obvious that if everyone in Makkah did not see it, it is even less likely that everyone else in the rest of world would see it. There was certainly no forewarning given to anyone, so none saw the necessity to stand outside to watch. Those people who were required to see did see the event. If the people of the world or all the Arabs had seen the miracle, some records would then surely be found. The people of Makkah who saw the miracle did not believe in it and regarded it to be an act of mesmerism. It is therefore obvious that they would never have documented the event to give it impetus. There is therefore no wonder that the event is not recorded in historical works.

Although the sun is far larger than the moon, yet the sun is not visible to the entire world at the same time. While some parts of the world are experiencing daylight, others have nightfall. When a solar eclipse takes place, the news spreads fast that it will be visible only from certain countries at certain times. It is not visible to the entire world. Then too, although the news of the eclipse is disseminated through the media months in advance, every person of the country concerned does not see it because the news does not reach everyone. In fact, even if one has to ask the educated people of a country when an eclipse took place in their country and how many times it occurred, they will be unable to answer. There is scarcely a book available that details the chronological sequence of eclipses throughout history.

If this is the case with solar eclipses which occur relatively frequently, one should not be surprised when the splitting of the moon is not documented when it occurred only once. In addition to this, it occurred only in Arabia at the time of Isha and no sooner did it split into two, then a short while later the two parts joined to reform.

Under the influence of the disbelievers, many Muslims also refute the occurrence of the splitting of the moon and say that the verse only refers to the Day of Judgement. This is farfetched because the verse is clearly phrased to refer to an incident in the past tense - not in the future tense. Even though one may prove this point by interpreting the verse in the future tense, there is no way in which one can interpret the relevant authentic Ahadith on the subject. There is nothing to prevent the Great Being of Allāh from making the moon split in Makkah over 1400 years ago when all accept that He shall make it split by means of the blowing of the trumpet on the Day of Judgement. There is therefore no necessity to search for farfetched interpretations of the verse.

فَقَوْلٌ عَنْهُمْ يَوْمَ يَدْعُ الدَّاعِ إِلَى شَيْءٍ نَّكُرٍ ﴿٦﴾ خُشَعًا أَبْصَرُهُمْ يَخْرُجُونَ
مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ كَأَنَّهُمْ جَرَادٌ مُنْتَشِرٌ ﴿٧﴾ إِلَى الدَّاعِ يَقُولُ الْكَافِرُونَ هَذَا يَوْمٌ عَسِرٌ ﴿٨﴾

(6) ... So ignore them. The day when the caller shall call to a thing that is unpleasant. (7) Their gazes will be cast down and they shall emerge from their graves as if they are scattered locusts... (8) ... running towards the caller. The disbelievers will say, "This is an extremely difficult day."

ON THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT PEOPLE WILL EMERGE FROM THEIR GRAVES LIKE SCATTERED LOCUSTS

The first of the above verses addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him, "So ignore them." Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to be heartbroken by the disbeliever's rejection. They shall suffer the consequences of their deeds.

Allāh continues to say, "The day when the caller shall call to a thing that is unpleasant." "The caller" in the verse refers to the angel who will blow the trumpet to sound the advent of Judgement. When Judgement will take place, the disbelievers will see for themselves the truth of what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم preached to them. When the trumpet will be blown the second time, people will return to life and emerge from their graves. Allāh describes the scene by saying, "Their gazes will be cast down and they shall emerge from their graves as if they are scattered locusts running towards the caller." The people will all hasten towards the Plains of Resurrection in droves of billions. Because the Plains of Resurrection will be large, open and vast, it will appear as if the large numbers of people are swarms of locusts converging on a field. As this takes place, "The disbelievers will say, 'This is an extremely difficult day.'"

In Surah Ma'ārij [Surah 70, verses 43,44], Allāh says, "the day (of Judgment) when they will hurriedly emerge from the graves as if they are rushing towards a temple. Their gazes will be lowered and humiliation will engulf them. This is the day that they were promised."

كَذَبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ فَكَذَّبُوا عَبْدَنَا وَقَالُوا مَجْنُونٌ وَازْدُجِرَ ﴿٩﴾ فَدَعَا رَبَّهُ أَنِّي مَغْلُوبٌ
فَانصُرْ ﴿١٠﴾ فَفَتَحْنَا أَبْوَابَ السَّمَاءِ بِمَاءٍ مُنْهَمِرٍ ﴿١١﴾ وَفَجَّرْنَا الْأَرْضَ عُيُونًا فَالْتَقَى الْمَاءُ
عَلَى أَمْرٍ قَدِ قَدِرَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَحَمَلْنَاهُ عَلَى ذَاتِ الْوُجْهِ وَدُسِّرَ ﴿١٣﴾ يَجْرِي بِأَعْيُنِنَا جَزَاءً لِمَنْ كَانَ
كُفْرًا ﴿١٤﴾ وَلَقَدْ تَرَكْنَاهَا آيَةً فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ ﴿١٥﴾ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنُذْرٍ ﴿١٦﴾ وَلَقَدْ
يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ ﴿١٧﴾

(9) The nation of Nūh denied before them. They falsified Our slave, said that he is a madman and he was rebuked. (10) So he supplicated to his Lord (saying), "Indeed I am overpowered so assist me." (11) So We opened up the doors of the sky to torrential rains. (12) And We cleaved springs in the earth so that the waters met for a matter preordained. (13) We carried him [Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام] on an ark of planks and nails... (14) ... travelling under Our vigilance. This was the reward for the one who was not appreciated. (15) Verily We left (the incident) as a lesson, so is there anyone who will take heed? (16) How was My punishment and My warnings? (17) Undoubtedly We have made the Qur'an simple to take lesson from, so is there any who will take lessons?

THE DESTRUCTION OF SAYYIDINA NŪH'S عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام NATION

As the obstinacy of the Makkan polytheists intensified, Allāh Ta'āla cautioned them by relating the accounts of various nations of the past who falsified the Anbiya (The Holy Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام). Surah Qamar briefly mentions the destruction of the nations of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, Sayyidina Hūd عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام (the Ād), Sayyidina Sālih عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام (the Thamūd) and the nation of Sayyidina Lūt عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Allāh begins by making mention of the nation of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. Allāh says, "The nation of Nūh denied before them [i.e. before the Mushrikīn (polytheists) of Makkah]. They falsified Our slave, said that he is a madman and he was rebuked." The people of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام behaved most disrespectfully towards him and refused even to listen to him. The details of this incident are found in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 59-64], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 25-49] and Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verse 105-121]. More will follow in Surah Nūh (Surah 71), Insha Allāh.

Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام preached Oneness of Allāh to his people for 950 years and made great efforts to guide the people. However, they refused to listen to him and accused him of being misguided by saying, "We see that you are surely in manifest deviation." They became so obstinate and bold that they said to Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, "So bring forth what you promise us if you are of the truthful ones." In this way, they asked for punishment. Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام had already begun to lose hope in them because after 950 years effort "Only a few believed in him."

Eventually, Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام grew frustrated and pleaded to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Assist me, for they have denied me." The above verse of Surah Qamar states that Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام also prayed to Allāh saying, "indeed I am overpowered so assist me." The supplication he made invoking Allāh's punishment on his people is quoted in Surah Nūh as follows: "O my Lord! Leave not on earth even one of the disbelievers. Surely if You leave them they will mislead Your bondsmen and only sinners and disbelievers will be born to them. [Surah (71), verses 26, 27]"

Allāh accepted the supplication of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and commanded him to build an ark. Here in Surah Qamar, Allāh describes the ark as "an ark of planks and nails." When the ark was completed, Allāh commanded Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام to take all the believers with him on the ark along with a pair of every animal. When this was done, Allāh sent torrential rains from the sky and caused water to gush from the ground. The water level on the ground thus rose extremely high; as Allāh says that "the waters met for a matter preordained." The "matter" was the destruction of the entire disbelieving nation.

The ark travelled under Allāh's protection and all aboard were kept safe while the disbelievers all drowned. Because the people ill treated Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and did not appreciate the good counsel he gave them, Allāh says, "This was the reward for the one who was not appreciated." After making mention of the destruction of the disbelievers, Allāh says, "Verily We left (the incident) as a lesson,"

so is there anyone who will take heed? How was My punishment and My warnings?" This verse make it clear that the incidents of previous nations are not merely mentioned in the Qur'ān for the sake of story-telling, but are mentioned so that people derive lessons from them. The punishments that afflicted the people of the past were not mere hardships but were extremely devastating. The disbelievers should ponder deeply about these incidents and realise that their plight shall be for punishment. Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام had already begun to lose hope in them because after 950 years effort "Only a few believed in him."

Eventually, Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام grew frustrated and pleaded to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Assist me, for they have denied me." The above verse of Surah Qamar states that Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام also prayed to Allāh saying, "indeed I am overpowered so assist me." The supplication he made invoking Allāh's punishment on his people is quoted in Surah Nūh as follows: "O my Lord! Leave not on earth even one of the disbelievers. Surely if You leave them they will mislead Your bondsmen and only sinners and disbelievers will be born to them." [Surah (71), verses 26, 27]

Allāh accepted the supplication of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام and commanded him to build an ark. Here in Surah Qamar, Allāh describes the ark as "an ark of planks and nails." When the ark was completed, Allāh commanded Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام to take all the believers with him on the ark along with a pair of every animal. When this was done, Allāh sent torrential rains from the sky and caused water to gush from the ground. The water level on the ground thus rose extremely high; as Allāh says that "the waters met for a matter preordained." The "matter" was the destruction of the entire disbelieving nation.

The ark travelled under Allāh's protection and all aboard were kept safe while the disbelievers all drowned. Because the people ill treated Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام and did not appreciate the good counsel he gave them, Allāh says, "This was the reward for the one who was not appreciated." After making mention of the destruction of the disbelievers, Allāh says, "Verily We left (the incident) as a lesson, so is there anyone who will take heed? How was My punishment and My warnings?" This verse make it clear that the incidents of previous nations are not merely mentioned in the Qur'ān for the sake of story-telling, but are mentioned so that people derive lessons from them. The punishments that afflicted the people of the past were not mere hardships but were extremely devastating. The disbelievers should ponder deeply about these incidents and realise that their plight shall be similar if they also choose to adamantly oppose the truth.

ALLĀH HAS MADE THE QUR'ĀN SIMPLE

Allāh declares, "Undoubtedly We have made the Qur'ān simple to take lesson from, so is there any who will take lessons?" This verse is mentioned four times in Surah Qamar. The first time is after the incident of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. The second one follows the narrative of the Ād, the third follows that of the Thamūd while the fourth follows the story of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام. The verse makes it clear that Allāh has simplified the Qur'ān for people. Thereafter Allāh invites man to derive lessons from the Qur'ān.

The Arabic phrase "Lidh Dhikr" (translated above as "to take lesson from") has been interpreted by Sayyidina Sa'īd bin Musayyib رحمه الله عليه as "for memorisation" and 'for recitation'. This means that Allāh has made the Qur'ān easy to memorise and easy to recite. At the same time, Allāh has also made the Qur'ān easy to understand. Of course, every person does not have the capacity to deduce laws of jurisprudence from the Qur'ān. This fact is no cause for objection because the verse does not state that every single part of the Qur'ān from the beginning to the end is easily understandable in every way. It is incorrect for people to use this verse to interpret the Qur'ān according to their personal understanding, thereby contradicting the interpretations of the Mufasssirin (exegesist). Most of these people do not even understand Arabic and the laws of the language.

Allāh Ta'āla has been extremely benevolent to the Muslim Ummah by granting us the ability to commit the Qur'ān to memory. If it should ever happen (Allāh forbid!) that the written copies of the Qur'ān are destroyed, it can easily be rewritten according to the recitation of a young child who is a Hāfidh (One who memorise the Quran). The Jews and Christians lost their scriptures because they relied on the written copies. Now all they have is translations without an original with which to compare the translations.

THE MIRACULOUS NATURE OF THE QUR'ĀN AND PEOPLE'S NEGLIGENCE

One of the great miracles of the Qur'ān is that women, old men, children and young adults of all age groups are able to memorise it. They are able to do this even though they would be unable to memorise a lengthy text in their own languages. People who seek only this world, are heedless of the Ākhirah and who make their children seekers of the world like themselves deprive themselves of the great boon of the Qur'ān, of memorising it and of reciting it with proper tajwīd (the real accent of Arabic pronunciation). The fact of the matter is that so many people are Muslims only by heritage. They are Muslims because they were born in a Muslim home and have no concern for educating themselves about the requisites of Religion. To make matters worse, they cast their children in the same mould. True Muslims are those who take the Qur'ān to heart, memorise it and are able to recite it with proper Tajwīd. In addition to this, they make their children Huffādh (plural of Hāziz), educate their children in Islām, make them Scholars and keep them in the company of pious Scholars.

O Muslims! It is extremely easy to make your children Huffādh. It is ignorant people who have made the statement that becoming a Hāfidh is akin to chewing iron balls. One should bear in mind that the Qur'ān is not memorised because of a person's good memory but because of a miracle.

Many ignorant people are given to saying that there is no benefit in memorising the Qur'ān like a parrot. It is tragic that such people know the value of money but are oblivious of the virtues of the Ākhirah (Hereafter). They seem not to understand that one earns the reward of ten good deeds for every letter of the Qur'ān that one recites. In addition to this, the parents of a Hāfidh will be given a shining crown to wear on the Day of Judgement and the Hāfidh will be permitted to intercede for his family members on the Day of Judgement, thereby saving them from Hell. Many people fail to understand these benefits and say that a Hāfidh will soon become a "Mulla" and will be unable to earn a living. I often tell people that nothing prevents a Hāfidh from engaging in business or taking up employment if he wants to. Of course, becoming a "Mulla" is an extremely great fortune for any person, but those who do not want this good fortune should at least make an effort to make their children Huffādh. Thereafter, they are at liberty to pursue any lawful career.

THE BLESSINGS OF THE QUR'ĀN

I have seen many people becoming Huffādh while working, while studying and even after growing white hairs. Children who become Huffādh are blessed with an excellent memory and develop an extremely sound understanding. It is noticed that they always excel their pirs (mentors) in any field they choose to further their studies. The blessings of the Qur'ān cause people to progress in this world as well as in the Ākhirah. It is regrettable that so many people have not understood the immense blessings that the Qur'ān offers. They will realise this only once try it for themselves.

THE PENALTY FOR FORGETTING THE QUR'ĀN

Just as it is important to memorise the Qur'ān, it is also extremely important to ensure that one does not forget it after memorising. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Take care not to allow the Qur'ān to slip away from memory (by reciting it in Salāh and out of Salāh). I swear by the Being in whose control is my life! The Qur'ān is quicker to escape one's memory than a camel that is (loosely) fastened." ["Mishkāt" p. 190 from Bukhari and Muslim]

Just as the Qur'ān is quickly memorised and absorbed into the hearts of those who value it, it rapidly vanishes from the hearts of those who are not particular about revising it often. The Qur'ān is not in need of any person and has no need to remain with a person who is indifferent towards it. There are severe punishments for those who forget the Qur'ān. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who forgets the Qur'ān after learning it shall appear before Allāh on the Day of Judgement in the form of a leper (i.e. without teeth and limbs)." ["Mishkāt" p. 191 from Abu Dawūd and Dārmi]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned, "When the good deeds of my Ummah were shown to me I noticed among these the deed of removing any harmful object lying in a Masjid. When the sins of my Ummah were shown to me I did not see any sin graver than that of a person forgetting a Surah or verse of the Qur'ān that was given to him." ["Mishkāt" p. 69 from Tirmidhi and Abu Dawūd]

People who make their children Huffādh do not merely look at the few years of effort in this world, but focus on the success of the Ākhirah and the everlasting boons to be found there. Allāh shall surely appreciate the efforts of such people.

كَذَبَتْ عَادٌ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَدَايَ وَنَذْرِ ﴿١٨﴾ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِم رِيحًا صَرْصَرًا فِي يَوْمِ نَحْسٍ
مُتَمَرٍّ ﴿١٩﴾ نَزِعَ النَّاسُ عَنْهُمْ أَعْجَازُ تَخَلَّي مُنْفَعِرٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَدَايَ وَنَذْرِ ﴿٢١﴾

وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ ﴿٢٢﴾

(18) The Ād denied, so how was My punishment and warnings? (19) Verily We sent against them a cyclonic wind during days of perpetual misfortune. (20) It ousted people as if they were uprooted palm trunks. (21) So how was My punishment and warnings? (22) Undoubtedly We have made the Qur'ān simple to take lesson from, so is there any who will take lessons?

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE ĀD

Allāh sent Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام as messenger to the nation of Ād. When he preached to them the message of Oneness of Allāh and made great efforts to reform them, they acted insolently and said to him, 'indeed we see you in foolishness and we surely consider you to be among the liars.' They also told him that they were not at all convinced by the warnings of punishment that he sounded to them. They said, "Bring what you have promised us if you are of the truthful!" Consequently, Allāh "sent against them a cyclonic wind during days of perpetual misfortune." The wind raged for seven consecutive nights and eight consecutive days. As the wind blew, the Ād were cast down like felled palms. They are likened to palm trees because they were extremely stolid and powerful people. In fact, Allāh says about the Ād that they "were arrogant on earth without reason, and said, 'Who can be more powerful than us?'"

Their pride was smashed when the wind disproved their invincibility. Allāh says that the wind was so powerful that "It ousted people as if they were uprooted palm trunks." Allāh states in Surah Hāqqa [Surah 69, verse 7], "You would have seen them lying flat on the ground as if they were hollow palm trunks."

Allāh concludes this incident by saying, "So how (severe) was My punishment and warnings? Undoubtedly We have made the Qur'ān simple to take lesson from, so is there any who will take lessons?"

كَذَبَتْ ثَمُودُ بِالنُّذُرِ ﴿٢٣﴾ فَقَالُوا أَبَشْرًا مِمَّا وَاحِدًا نَبِّئُهُ إِنَّا إِذًا لَفِي ضَلَالٍ وَسُعُرٍ ﴿٢٤﴾
 أَلَمْ يَأْتِ الْذِّكْرُ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ بَيْنِنَا بَلْ هُوَ كَذَّابٌ أَشِرٌّ ﴿٢٥﴾ سَبِعَ لَمُؤْنَ غَدَاً مِّنَ الْكُذَّابِ الْأَشْرِ
 ﴿٢٦﴾ إِنَّا مَرْسِلُوا النَّاقَةَ فَنَنَ لَهُمْ فَارَقِبْهُمْ وَاصْطَبِرْ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَبَنَيْنَهُمْ أَنْ الْمَاءَ قِسْمَةٌ بَيْنَهُمْ كُلُّ
 شَرِبٍ مُّخْتَصَرٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ فَادَّوَا صَاحِبَهُمْ فَنَغَاطَى فَعَقَرَ ﴿٢٩﴾ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنُذْرٍ ﴿٣٠﴾ إِنَّا
 أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً فَكَانُوا كَهَشِيمِ الْحَنْظَرِ ﴿٣١﴾ وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلْ
 مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ ﴿٣٢﴾

(23) The Thamūd denied the warners. (24) They said, "If we were to follow a lonesome human from among ourselves, we would surely be astray and insane." (25) "Has a revelation come only to him from among all of us? Nay, he is but an arrogant liar." (26) Tomorrow they shall come to know who is an arrogant liar.

(27) "We shall certainly send the camel as a test to them so watch them and be patient." (28) "Inform them that the water shall be shared between them and each should present himself on his turn." (29) So they called for their companion who attacked and cut. (30) How was My punishment and warnings? (31) Verily We sent against them a single shout and they became like the rubble of a fence builder. (32) Undoubtedly We have made the Qur'ān simple to take lesson from, so is there any who will take lessons?

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE THAMŪD

The Thamūd lived after the Ād and used to carve their homes out of the mountains. Allāh Ta'āla sent Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام as a Prophet to them. He preached Oneness of Allāh to them and invoked them to carry out good deeds. However, pride got the better of them and they told Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام that he was just an ordinary human being like the rest of them and that there was nothing special about him which should make them follow him. They said to him, "If we were to follow a lonesome human from among ourselves, we would surely be astray and insane. Has a revelation come only to him from among all of us? Nay, he is but an arrogant liar."

They accused Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام of pretending to be the Holy Prophets عليهم السلام so that people can look up to him and respect him. Allāh says, "Tomorrow they shall come to know who is an arrogant liar." i.e. it will not be long before they come to realise the error of their ways and that he is really Allāh's true messenger. The people of Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام asked him to extract a pregnant camel from a mountain as a miracle to prove his apostleship. They said that if he demonstrates this miracle for them, they would believe that he is Allāh's Holy Prophet. When Allāh allowed Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام to demonstrate this miracle for them, Allāh caused a large camel to emerge from the mountain. Because of her large size, the camel ate and drank much more than normal camels.

Allāh quotes the words of Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام to his people when he told them, "This camel of Allāh is a sign for you, so leave it to graze in Allāh's land and do not afflict it with evil, for then a painful punishment will seize you." [Surah A'rāf (7), verse 73]

The Thamūd had one well from which they gave their animals water to drink. Because the large camel also required water, Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام said to the people, "This is the camel. It will have a day to drink and your animals will have an appointed day to drink." In the words of Surah Qamar, Allāh Ta'āla instructed Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام saying, "We shall certainly send the camel as a test to them, so watch them and be patient. Inform them that the water shall be shared between them and each should present himself on his turn."

The Thamūd did not like the camel to share with their animals and finally decided to kill it even though Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام had warned them that they would suffer a terrible chastisement if they ever harmed the camel. Nevertheless, "they called for their companion who attacked (the camel) and cut." He killed the camel by hamstringing her. When Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام discovered what they had done, he said to them, "Enjoy yourselves in your homes for three days. This is a promise that will not be falsified." [Surah Hūd (11), verse 65]

Consequently, Allāh "sent against them a single shout and they became like the rubble offence builder" i.e. besides losing their lives, even their bodies were left in shreds like destroyed fencing. Whereas Surah Qamar and Surah Hūd mention that they were destroyed by a shout, Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verse 78] mentions that "an earthquake seized them." The two types of punishment are mentioned because both afflicted them. Concerning this incident as well Allāh asks, "How was My punishment and warnings?" Allāh then concludes the story by reiterating, "Undoubtedly We have made the Qur'ān simple to take lesson from, so is there any who will take lessons?"

كَذَّبَتْ قَوْمُ لُوطٍ بِالَّذِي إِذَا أُرْسِلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حَاصِبًا إِلَّا آءَالُ لُوطٍ نَجَّيْنَاهُمْ بِسَحَرٍ
 (34) نِعْمَةً مِّنْ عِنْدِنَا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي مَنْ شَكَرَ (35) وَلَقَدْ أَنْذَرَهُمْ بَطْشَتَنَا فَتَمَارَوْا
 بِالَّذِي (36) وَلَقَدْ رَاودُوهُ عَنْ ضَيْفِهِ فَطَمَسْنَا أَعْيُنَهُمْ فَذُوقُوا عَذَابِي وَنُذِرِ (37)
 وَلَقَدْ صَبَّحَهُمْ بُكْرَةً عَذَابٌ مُّسْتَقَرٌّ (38) فَذُوقُوا عَذَابِي وَنُذِرِ (39) وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا
 الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ فَهَلْ مِنْ مُّذَكِّرٍ (40)

(33) The people of Lūt عليه السلام denied the warners. (34) Verily We sent against them a cyclonic wind that showered stones on them, except for the family of Lūt whom We rescued during the close of the night. (35) This was a special favour from Us. In this manner do We reward the grateful. (36) He certainly warned them that We would seize them but they started disputing about the warnings. (37) They attempted to seduce his guests so We obliterated their eyes. "Taste My punishment and the result of My warnings!" (38) Without a doubt, during the early hours of the morning a chastisement with long-lasting effects afflicted them. (39) So taste My punishment and the result of My warnings!" (40) Undoubtedly We have made the Qur'ān simple to take lesson from, so is there any who will take lessons?

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE NATION OF SAYYIDINA LŪT عليه السلام

Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام migrated with Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام from their homeland and they both took up residence in Shām. Allāh Ta'āla sent Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام as a Holy Prophet to a group of several cities, the largest of which was Sodom. The people of these cities were evil people who carried out numerous acts of vice. The worst of these vices was the homosexuality. Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام preached to them to accept Oneness of Allāh and to desist from their evil deeds but despite his tireless efforts they still continued in their ways. Eventually Allāh sent His punishment.

Before the punishment arrived, Allāh sent a few angels to Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام who told him, "We are to destroy the inhabitants of this town [i.e. the town of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام]. Its inhabitants are certainly oppressors. Ibrahim عليه السلام said, '(How can you destroy the entire town when) Lūt is among them.' They replied, "We know best who is present there. We shall definitely rescue him and his family, except for his wife. She will be among those left behind (to perish in the punishment)." [Surah Ankabūt (Surah 29), verses 31,32]

After giving Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام the good news that he was to father a son, the angels left to meet Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام. Because they met Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام in the form of handsome men, he was anxious that his people might try to sodomise them. As expected, when the people saw the angels, they hurried to grab hold of them. Allāh refers to this when He says, "They attempted to seduce his guests."

When Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام saw them approach, he tried to reason with them saying, "Oh my people! These daughters of mine (i.e. the women of my Ummah) are purer for you, so do fear Allāh and do not disgrace me before my guests. Is there not a righteous man among you?" He warned them about the grievous consequences of their deeds but none heeded his warning. Allāh says that Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام "certainly warned them that We would seize them but they started disputing about the warnings." Therefore, the first punishment to afflict them was that Allāh "obliterated their eyes." They were not only unable to see, but Allāh flattened their faces and there was no longer any eyes on their faces. Allāh then said to them, "Taste My punishment and the result of My warnings!"

The angels told Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام that he should take his family away during the night because they were going to destroy the people. In this manner, he and his family were rescued, except for his wife who was also killed in the punishment because she was not a believer. Early the next morning, stones were rained on the people. Each stone was marked with name of the person it was destined to strike, as Allāh says in Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verse 83] that the stones "were marked by your Lord". The ground where the cities stood was also lifted to the sky and thrown back upside down.

Some commentators mention that the people in the cities were killed when it was overturned while those in the outlying areas were struck by the stones. When Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه was asked whether anyone was left alive from the people of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام, he replied, "None survived. There was one person from them who was in Makkah at the time on business. When he left the Harām after forty days, a stone struck him dead as well."

Here in Surah Qamar; Allāh states, "Verily We sent against them a cyclonic wind that showered stones." Allāh says further, "Without, a doubt, during the early hours of the morning a chastisement with long-lasting effect afflicted them." Concluding the epic, Allāh reiterates, "So taste My punishment and the result of My warnings! Undoubtedly We have made the Qur'ān simple to take lesson from, so is there any who will take lessons?"

NOTE : Allāh says about the safe delivery of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام and his family, "This was a special favour from Us. In this manner do We reward the grateful." This tells us that Allāh bestows His special favours on those believers who are grateful to Him. It is therefore necessary that believers continue worshipping Allāh and expressing their gratitude to Him at the same time.

وَلَقَدْ جَاءَ آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ النَّذْرُ ﴿٤١﴾ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا كُلِّهَا فَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ أَخَذَ عَزِيزٌ مُّقْنَدٍ ﴿٤٢﴾
 أَكْفَرْتُمْ حَيَّرٌ مِّنْ أَوْلِيَّكُمْ أَمْ لَكُمْ بَرَاءَةٌ فِي الزُّبُرِ ﴿٤٣﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ نَحْنُ جَمِيعٌ مُّنتَصِرٌ ﴿٤٤﴾
 سَيَهْرِمُ الْجَمْعُ وَيُولُونَ الدُّبُرَ ﴿٤٥﴾ بَلِ السَّاعَةُ مَوْعِدُهُمْ وَالسَّاعَةُ أَذًى وَأَمْرٌ ﴿٤٦﴾ إِنَّ
 الْمُجْرِمِينَ فِي ضَلَالٍ وَسُعُرٍ ﴿٤٧﴾ يَوْمَ يُسْحَبُونَ فِي النَّارِ عَلَى وُجُوهِهِمْ ذُوقُوا مَسَّ سَقَرَ ﴿٤٨﴾
 إِنَّا كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَاهُ بِقَدَرٍ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَمَا أَمْرُنَا إِلَّا وَاحِدَةٌ كَلَمْحٍ بِالْبَصَرِ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَلَقَدْ
 أَهْلَكْنَا أَشْيَاعَكُمْ فَهَلْ مِنْ مَّذْكَرٍ ﴿٥١﴾ وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ فَعَلُوهُ فِي الزُّبُرِ ﴿٥٢﴾
 وَكُلُّ صَغِيرٍ وَكَبِيرٍ مُّسْتَطَرٌ ﴿٥٣﴾ إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَنَهَرٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ فِي مَقْعَدٍ صِدْقٍ
 عِندَ مَلِكٍ مُّقْنَدٍ ﴿٥٥﴾

(41) Warnings definitely came to the people of phara'oh (Fir'oun). (42) They denied every one of Our signs so We seized them with the grasp of one most mighty and powerful. (43) Are your disbelievers better than these people or do you have immunity (from punishment) in the scriptures? (44) Or do they say, "We are a victorious band." (45) The band shall soon be defeated and they will turn their backs and flee. (46) Nay, Judgement day is their appointment and day of Judgement, shall be most severe and most bitter. (47) Indeed the criminals are in deviation and in blazing fires. (48) The day when they shall be dragged into the Fire on their faces (it will be said to them) "Taste the touch of the Blaze!" (49) We have certainly created everything by measure. (50) And Our command is but once like the blinking of an eye. (51) Verily We have destroyed nations like yourselves so is there any who will take heed? (52) Whatever they did was (recorded) in the Books. (53) Every minor and major deed is recorded. (54) Verily the abstinent ones shall be in gardens and rivers... (55) ... in a grand place by the Powerful Sovereign.

THE DESTRUCTION OF THE PEOPLE OF PHARA'OH (FIR'OUN)

Phara'oh (Fir'oun) and his people were also extremely rebellious. Because phara'oh (Fir'oun) was a powerful ruler with a large force, he swelled with pride and claimed divinity. Allāh Ta'āla sent Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to preach Oneness of Allāh to phara'oh (Fir'oun) and his people. Despite witnessing various miracles of Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, phara'oh (Fir'oun) and his chieftains refused to believe. Because they controlled the people, the people also did not believe. Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام warned them that they would suffer grave punishment if they did not believe, but his warnings fell on deaf ears.

The people of phara'oh (Fir'oun) also experienced several forms of punishment as lessons to mend their ways. These are mentioned in Surah A'rāf where Allāh says, "Without doubt We afflicted the people of phara'oh (Fir'oun) with droughts and shortages in their produce so that they take heed. When favourable conditions prevailed they said, 'This is what we deserve.' However, when adverse conditions afflicted them they would attribute the misfortune to Mūsa and those with him. Lo! Their misfortune is in the knowledge of Allāh, but most of them know it not. They said, 'Whenever you bring a sign before us to bewitch us, we still do not want to believe in you.' So We sent to them the flood, the locusts, the ticks, the frogs and the blood as detailed signs. But they were an arrogant and a sinful nation. Whenever a punishment afflicted them they said, 'O Mūsa, pray for us to your Lord by that which He had pledged to you. If you remove the punishment from us, we would certainly believe in you and send the Bani Isrā'il with you.' When We removed the punishment from them up to the period appointed for them to reach in Allāh's knowledge, they suddenly breached the covenant. So We took revenge on them and drowned them in the sea because they denied Our signs and were negligent." [Surah 7, verses 130-136]

ALLĀH ADDRESSES THE PEOPLE OF MAKKAH

Allāh states further, "Are your disbelievers better than these people... "In this verse, Allāh Ta'āla asks the polytheists of Makkah whether they think that they are better than the nations of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام, Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام and Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام. This question is in terms of physical strength and wealth. It is obvious that the polytheists of Makkah were far inferior to these nations in all these respects. Despite their superior position, all these nations were destroyed when they rejected Belief. Allāh prompts the Makkans to ponder whether they will ever be able to resist Allāh's punishment when it came to them. The facts stare them in the face. Since these powerful nations of the past were helpless against Allāh's punishment, there was no way in which they could be saved.

Allāh asks them further, "...or do you have immunity (from punishment) in the scriptures?" Allāh asks them whether any previous scriptures had absolved them of punishment so that they feel free to continue sinning and rejecting Belief. Like the previous question, this question is also rhetorical. There has been no divine scripture that has ever absolved any disbeliever of punishment. Since they are unable to resist Allāh's punishment and have nothing to guarantee their exemption from punishment, the disbelievers have no reason to cling to disbelief.

THE DEFEAT OF THE POLYTHEISTS AT BADR

Allāh asks, "Or do they (the Makkan polytheists) say, 'We are a victorious band. ... The claimed that they were so united that they were invincible. This claim was extremely bold and obviously untrue. Let alone the rest of the world, their numbers were paltry compared the rest of the Arab nation. The only factor that safeguarded them from being attacked was the fact that they lived within the Haram and no one attacked them out of respect for the place.

"Durrul Manthūr" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that the polytheists made this claim when they marched for the Battle of Badr. They boasted about their superior numbers and their unity, not realising that Allāh is the Master of the universe and that He can make any nation victorious over another, irrespective of numbers and strength.

As the polytheists marched boastfully, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was entreating Allāh Ta'āla for assistance. He prayed to Allāh saying, "O Allāh! By the promise you have made, I entreat You (to assist the Muslims). O Allāh! If this small band is destroyed, there shall be none to worship You." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم persistently made this Supplication to Allāh until Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه held him by the hand and said, "Enough, O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! You have entreated your Lord very greatly." Later the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم emerged from where he was reciting the verse, "The band shall soon be defeated and they will turn their backs and flee." [Bukhari p. 408, 562, 766]

The Makkans soon had to swallow their proud words. They had to suffer disgrace when their fully armed army of a thousand was defeated by an ill equipped band of 313 men. Seventy polytheists were killed and another seventy were taken prisoner. Throughout the course of history, large armies of disbelievers boasted that they would crush Muslim armies because of their superiority. However, they also suffered disgrace when the Muslims convincingly defeated them. Even today many disbelievers forces are intent on destroying the Muslims in various parts of the world. Insha Allāh, they shall soon suffer disgrace. "The band shall soon be defeated and they will turn their backs and flee."

THE SEVERITY OF THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT

Allāh states further, "Nay, Judgement day is their appointment and day of Judgement shall be most severe and most bitter." Although the disbelievers will suffer defeat and disgrace in this world, the suffering of the Ākhirah (Hereafter) will be much worse. Just as it is extremely difficult to even taste let alone swallow something bitter, the Day of Judgement will also be extremely difficult to endure.

Allāh says further, "indeed the criminals are in deviation and in blazing fires." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has translated this verse to mean that "the criminals are in destruction and insanity."

"The day when they shall be dragged into the Fire on their faces (and it will be said to them) 'Taste the touch of the Blaze!' - The fire of this world cannot be compared to the fire of the Ākhirah (Hereafter), which is 69 times more intense than the fire of this world. Whereas a person cannot even endure a few seconds of this world's fire, a touch of the fire of Hell will be too excruciating to even describe. One can therefore not even imagine the intensity of suffering there for a long time. One should ponder deeply over this."

EVERYTHING IS CREATED BY MEASURE

Concerning the creation of all things, Allāh says, "We have certainly created everything by measure." This verse means that everything was created according to Allāh's predetermined plan as recorded in the "Lowhul Mahfūdh" (The Protected tablet). Allāh had already determined the destinies of everything before He created them.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the polytheists of Makkah once disputed with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the issue of Taqdir (predestination). It was then that Allāh revealed the two verses: "The day when they shall be dragged into the Fire on their faces (and it will be said to them) 'Taste the touch of the Blaze!' We have certainly created everything by measure." [Muslim v. 2 p. 336]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Amr bin Al Ās رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh had written the destinies of the heavens and the earth fifty thousand years before creating them, while His throne was still on water. [Muslim v. 2 p. 335]

Allāh continues, "And Our command is but once like the blinking of an eye." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has mentioned three interpretations of this verse:

- A. Whatever Allāh wants to do is accomplished like a single action without any difficulty.
- B. Whatever Allāh creates comes into being with the single command of "Kun" ("Be"). The creation is then swifter than the blinking of an eye.
- C. The advent of Judgement shall take place in an instant just like the blinking of an eye. If this interpretation is assumed, it will coincide with the verse of Surah Nahl where Allāh says, "The affair of Judgement of Day is just like a blink of the eye, or even closer." [Surah 16, verse 77]

"Verily We have destroyed nations like yourselves (who perpetrated disbelief) so is there any who will take heed?"

ALL THE DEEDS OF PEOPLE ARE METICULOUSLY RECORDED

"Whatever they did was (recorded) in the Books." This refers to the books of the recording angels who have been appointed to record every good and evil deed of every person. Therefore, no person need fear that any deed of his was wasted and had passed unnoticed. These records are so meticulously kept that "Every minor and major deed is recorded." The Lowhul Mahfūdh (the protected tablet) contains the records of everything past, present and future.

Allāh then speaks of the rewards that the pious and righteous people will receive when He says, "Verily the abstinent ones shall be in gardens and rivers..." The description of these rivers are mentioned in Surah Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم where Allāh says, "The description of the Heaven that the people of Taqwa (pious peoples) have been promised is that it contains rivers of water that never contaminate, rivers of milk the taste of which never spoils, rivers of wine that are extremely palatable to those who drink it and rivers of the purest honey." [Surah 47, verse 15]

Allāh says that the abstinent ones shall reside "in a grand place" The literal translation of the Arabic word 'Maq'ad Sidq' is "a place of truth". "Sidq" (truth) refers to truthfulness in word, deed and beliefs. Those people who are true in all these respects shall be rewarded with a special station in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). It is for this reason that the station they will receive in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is called "a place of truth". Allāh adds that the "place of truth" will be "by the Powerful Sovereign." This indicates that their positions in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) will be extremely elevated.

سورة الرَّحْمَنِ

Madinan	Surah Ar-Rahman	Verses 78
---------	-----------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الرَّحْمَنُ ① عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ② خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ ③ عَلَّمَهُ الْبَيَانَ ④
 الشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ بِحُسْبَانٍ ⑤ وَالنَّجْمُ وَالشَّجَرُ يَسْجُدَانِ ⑥ وَالسَّمَاءَ رَفَعَهَا
 وَوَضَعَ الْمِيزَانَ ⑦ أَلَّا تَطْغَوْا فِي الْمِيزَانِ ⑧ وَأَقِيمُوا الْوَزْنَ بِالْقِسْطِ
 وَلَا تُخْسِرُوا الْمِيزَانَ ⑨ وَالْأَرْضَ وَضَعَهَا لِلْأَنَامِ ⑩ فِيهَا فَكِهِةٌ وَالنَّخْلُ
 ذَاتُ الْأَكْمَامِ ⑪ وَالْحَبُّ ذُو الْعَصْفِ ⑫ وَالرَّيْحَانُ ⑬ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) Ar Rahmān (The Most Merciful)... (2) ... taught the Qur'ān. (3) He created man ... (4) .... and taught him to speak. (5) The sun and moon (orbit in) calculated courses. (6) And the creeper and the tree prostrate. (7) (Allāh) raised the sky and erected the scales... (8) ....so that you do not transgress in the matter of the scale. (9) And so that you establish the scale with justice and you do not make the scale deficient. (10) (Allāh) has placed the earth for people. (11) On it are fruit, palms with sheathed stalks,... (12) ... seeds as chaff and sustenance as well. (13) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you (man and Jinn) deny?

AR RAHMĀN TAUGHT THE QUR'ĀN AND COMMANDS JUSTICE

In Surah Rahmān, Allāh discusses the various favours that He has blessed man and Jinn with. These favours are tremendous and benefit people in this world and in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh repeats the verse "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you (man and Jinn) deny?" 31 times in the Surah. This lends great beauty to the Surah in terms of recitation and meaning.

THE VIRTUES OF THE QUR'ĀN

The opening verses of Surah Rahmān make mention of such bounties that feed one's Belief, soul and body. Allāh begins by saying, "Ar Rahmān (The Most Merciful) taught the Qur'ān." The Qur'ān is an extremely great bounty of Allāh to mankind. Allāh taught man the words of the Qur'ān, the meanings of the verses and has also allowed man to understand the eloquence and rhetoric of the Qur'ān. In addition to this, Allāh has also made it easy for man to memorise the Qur'ān. Man, who is merely an entity filled with blood, is extremely honoured to be able to contain the speech of Allāh in his bosom and to speak it with his tongue. Hundreds of thousands and millions of books have been written containing explanations of the Qur'ān and this practice will continue until Judgement day.

Besides teaching the Qur'ān to man, Allāh has also granted him the privilege of teaching the Qur'ān to others. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that when a person has been granted the bounty of the Qur'ān (i.e. he has memorised it) and he thinks that another person has a bounty greater than his, then he is ungrateful for an extremely great bounty.

Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best of you is he who learns the Qur'ān and teaches it." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 270]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best of my Ummah are the bearers of the Qur'ān and those who stay awake [in Ibādah (worship)] at night." ["Mishkāt" p. 110]

The Qur'ān is the book of Allāh as well as Allāh's speech. The Muslims are truly honoured to have this great miracle in their hearts and flowing fluently even from the tongues of their little children. They are even able to remember the verses that are alike (Mutashābihāt) and are able to recite it while sleeping and when awake.

People who have nothing of the Qur'ān in their hearts are extremely unfortunate. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The heart that has nothing of the Qur'ān is like a deserted house." ["Mishkāt" p. 186 from Tirmidhi and Dārimi]

THE BOON OF SPEECH

Allāh continues to say that "He created man and taught him to speak." Allāh granted man knowledge, granted him the ability to speak and even taught him how to utilise this ability. Man can thus express what he feels and thinks. Allāh Ta'āla has also taught man how to speak eloquently and how to explain the meanings of the Qur'ān. Not only did Allāh teach people speech, but He taught man various languages and manners of expression. Man is also able to translate from language to language.

Allāh then speaks of the solar and lunar orbits when he says, "The sun and moon (orbit in) calculated courses." The orbits and movements of the sun and moon have been determined by Allāh and they are not at liberty to move as they please and when they please. Allāh says in Surah Yāsīn, "The sun travels towards its destination. This is the decree of the Mighty, the All Knowing. We have stipulated phases for the moon, until it returns like a branch of an old date palm. It is not possible for the sun to catch up with the moon, nor is it possible for the night to precede the day. They all swim within their orbits." [Surah 36, verses 38-40]

Furthermore, "the creeper and the tree prostrate." Just like worshippers are pleased to prostrate before Allāh out of obedience to Him, so too are all of Allāh's creation pleased to obey Him, including those plants that have an upright trunk and those that creep and have no rigidity. The watermelon, pumpkin and other plants that are unable to stand erect are referred to in this verse together with all large and small trees that stand by themselves. This interpretation is favoured by Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Ibn Jarīr رحمة الله عليه.

Allāh then speaks of the sky when He says that He "raised the sky". It is Allāh Who raised the sky to its towering height. Once a person understand this, he will realise that it is also Allāh who gives height to everything else, whether the height is physical or figurative.

THE COMMAND TO WEIGH JUSTLY

Allāh Ta'āla states further that he "erected the scales so that you do not transgress in the matter of the scale. And so that you establish the scale with justice and you do not make the scale deficient." Allāh Ta'āla cautions man not to demand extra in weight when dues are given to him and not to reduce weight when payment is due from him. The abomination of this act is explained in the opening verses of Surah Taffīf [Surah 83, verses 1-6]. The command to be just in weight and measurement is also mentioned in Surah An'am [Surah 6, verse 152] where Allāh commands: "And give full measure and weight in fairness." Allāh also commands the same in Surah Bani Isrā'il where He says, "Measure in full when you measure and weigh with proper scales." [Surah 17, verse 35].

Furthermore Allāh says that he "has placed the earth for people." Allāh Ta'āla has made the earth such that it is neither too hard nor too soft. People are able to dig the earth to create dams, wells, graves, plant plantations and lay the foundations of their buildings. At the same time, the earth can support man's structures, carry his railroads and highways and the beating hooves of his animals. Man is able to use the resources of the earth without her mumbling a word in protest. It is with reference to this that Allāh mentions in Surah Mulk [Surah 67, verse 15] that the earth is submissive.

Allāh then enumerates the various benefits that the earth gives to mankind when He says that the earth has "fruit (and) palms with sheathed stalks" Allāh has covered the stalks of such plants so that the fruit are protected and also because these coverings may be used for a variety of purposes. In addition to this, Allāh has also created "seeds as chaff". This verse refers to cereals like wheat, barley, etc which are like little seeds that provide ample nourishment for man. These foods are also protected in coverings that are separated as chaff to be fed to animals.

Together with all these bounties of the earth, Allāh has provided "nourishment as well." Some commentators have translated the Arabic word "Rayhān" (translated above as "nourishment") as "fragrant plants" whereas others translate it as "flowers". Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه translates it as "sustenance" and has stated that the word "Rayhān" refers to sustenance wherever it is mentioned in the Qur'ān. The word "Rayhān" is used in place of "Rizq" (sustenance) because sustenance is something from which a person derives satisfaction.

The above verses mention those bounties of Allāh from the earth that are a staple diet for man, those that he eats for pleasure and those that he feeds to his animals. Therefore, Allāh asks, "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you (man and Jinn) deny?" Both man and Jinn benefit tremendously from these favours.

خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ صَلْصَلٍ كَالْفَخَّارِ ﴿١٤﴾ وَخَلَقَ الْجَانَّ مِنْ مَّارِجٍ مِّن نَّارٍ ﴿١٥﴾ فَيَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنْسَانُ وَالْجَانُّ لَا تَكْذِبَانِ ﴿١٦﴾

(14) (Allāh has) created man from melodious sand that resembles potter's clay. (15) And created Jinn from pure leaping fire. (16) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you (man and Jinn) deny?

THE CREATION OF MAN AND JINN

Allāh describes the creation of man when He says that He has "created man from melodious sand that resembles potter's clay." Allāh Ta'ālā took sand, mixed it with water to make clay and then used the clay to fashion the mould of the first man, Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام. When it dried it became hard and would make a melodious sound if struck, just like a clay pot or vase. There were various stages in the creation of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام and these were discussed in the commentary of verse 33 of Surah Hijr (Surah 15).

"And (Allāh) created Jinn from pure leaping fire." Just as Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was the father of mankind, many Scholars assert the Iblis (chief devil) was the father of the Jinn. Therefore, it is often said that man in general is created from sand and that the Jinn are created from fire because their fathers were created from these substances. The blessing of being created and granted life is an extremely great bounty without which many other bounties cannot be enjoyed. Because Allāh has granted these many favours to mankind and to Jinn, it is incumbent on them to be grateful to Him. Allāh reminds them of this when He states "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you (man and Jinn) deny?"

رَبُّ الْمَشْرِقَيْنِ وَرَبُّ الْمَغْرِبَيْنِ ﴿١٧﴾ فَيَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنْسَانُ وَالْجَانُّ لَا تَكْذِبَانِ ﴿١٨﴾ مَرَجَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ يَلْتَقِيَانِ ﴿١٩﴾ بَيْنَهُمَا بَرْزَخٌ لَا يَبْغِيَانِ ﴿٢٠﴾ فَيَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنْسَانُ وَالْجَانُّ لَا تَكْذِبَانِ ﴿٢١﴾ وَلَهُ الْجَوَارِ الْمُنشَآتُ فِي الْبَحْرِ كَالْأَعْلَامِ ﴿٢٢﴾ فَيَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنْسَانُ وَالْجَانُّ لَا تَكْذِبَانِ ﴿٢٣﴾ كُلُّ مَنٍ عَلَيْهَا فَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ ذُو الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ ﴿٢٤﴾ فَيَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنْسَانُ وَالْجَانُّ لَا تَكْذِبَانِ ﴿٢٥﴾

(17) (Allāh is) the Lord of the two east's and the two wests. (18) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (19) He has released the two waters so that they meet. (20) Between the two (waters) is a barrier so that the two do not transgress. (21) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (22) Pearls and coral emerge from both of them. (23) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (24) His are the raised ships on the oceans like mountains. (25) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (26) Everything on earth shall perish. (27) Only the countenance of your Lord the Possessor of majesty and benevolence shall remain. (28) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?

ALLĀH SEPARATES SALTY WATER FROM FRESH WATER AND CREATES THE JEWELS IN THESE WATERS

These verses also expound Allāh's great bounties. Allāh begins by saying that He is "the Lord of the two east's and the two wests." The "east's" refers to the rising points of the sun while the "west's" refers to the setting points of the sun. The rising and setting of the sun determines the day and night, both of which are beneficial to man and Jinn. During the day people are able to carry out various acts that are not possible during the night and vice versa. Allāh reminds people of this great favour when He says, "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?"

"Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Ikrima رحمه الله عليه that the "the two east's" refer to the point where the sun rises during summer and the point where it rises during the winter. Similarly, the "two west's" refer to the point where the sun sets during the summer and the point where it sets during the winter. It has also been reported that according to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, "the two east's" refers to the rising of the sun and the rising of the twilight while "the two west's" refers to the setting of the sun and the setting of the twilight.

Allāh then speaks of the oceans when he says, "He has released the two waters so that they meet. Between the two (waters) is a barrier so that the two do not transgress." Although two types of water bodies seem to be one to the onlooker, they are actually separated by an invisible barrier. In this way, the salty water and fresh water never mix. Man and Jinn derive various benefits from the two types of water and therefore are obliged to express gratitude to Allāh. Allāh reminds them of this when He says, "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?"

"Pearls and coral emerge from both of them." The various jewels that emerge from the sea are also a great favour from Allāh and man and Jinn are required to be grateful to Allāh for these. Allāh reiterates, "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?" Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه states that the Arabic word "Lu 'lu" (translated above as "pearls") refers to smaller pearls and the word "Marjān" (translated above as coral) refers to larger pearls.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه stated that the word "Lu 'lu" (translated above as "pearls") refers to large pearls and the word "Marjān" (translated above as "coral") refers to red coral.

An explanation of the two types of water that do not mix has been given in the commentary of Surah Furqān where Allāh states, "It is He Who has merged two seas, the one being sweet and quenching, while the other is salty and bitter. He has created between them a barrier that acts as an impregnable veil." [Surah 25, verse 53]

Some have raised the objection that since pearls and coral are not found in fresh water whereas the verse mentions that pearl and coral emerge from “both of them”. In reply to this, some Scholars have mentioned that “both of them” means “the collection of both of them” (i.e. coral and pearl emerge from the collection of both waters). Others have mentioned that pearls are found in both fresh water and salt water but because they are found mostly in salt water, people generally are unaware of fresh water pearls. Of course, Allāh’s knowledge is supreme and man may not contest His knowledge. Man’s knowledge of things is extremely limited compared to Allāh’s knowledge.

Allāh Ta’āla goes on to say that “His are the raised ships on the oceans like mountains.” These huge ships remain afloat only by Allāh’s will. When waters get rough and strong winds blow, it is only Allāh that protects the ship and those in the ship. Allāh allows the large ships laden with hundreds of tons of cargo to traverse through the oceans so that man may transport goods from one continent to another. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, “in the huge ships which traverse the oceans carrying goods of benefit to man ... are signs for those who have intelligence.” [Surah 2, verse 164]

Allāh has inspired man to build ships and has granted him the expertise and capabilities to accomplish the task. Allāh has also taught man how to navigate the oceans, how to load his shipping vessels and how to derive maximum benefit from this skill. The shipping trade caters for the needs of millions of people throughout the world. It is therefore incumbent on people to express their gratitude to Allāh for this. Therefore, Allāh reiterates, “So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?”

EVERYTHING SHALL PERISH

“Everything on earth shall perish.” Man, Jinn, fauna, flora, everything on land and everything at sea are all destined to perish when their lives have expired. When everything shall perish it will be “Only the countenance of your Lord the Possessor of majesty and benevolence (Who) shall remain.”

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه states that “Jalāl” (translated above as “majesty’s”) refers to Allāh’s grandeur and greatness and “Al Ikrām” (translated above as “benevolence”) means that Allāh should be revered to the extent that no degree of shirk (polytheism) is perpetrated. Viewing the word “Al Ikrām” from a different perspective, other commentators have mentioned that it means that Allāh is the only One who can truly bestow favours and mercy on creation. Allāh states in Surah Fajr [Surah 89, verse 15], “As for man, when his Lord tries him by granting him honour and favours, he says, ‘My Lord has honoured me’”.

Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā’īl [Surah 17, verse 83], “When We bestow favours upon man, he turns away and, changing direction, goes far.” It is stated in “Faydhul Qadir” that the special honour denoted by the word “Ikrām” is not granted to sinners. However, general favours are granted to the disbelievers as well. It is my humble opinion that every human is blessed with a degree of honour by simply being human. This is denoted by the verse of Surah Bani Isrā’īl [Surah 17, verse 70] where Allāh says, “We have granted honour to the children of Ādam.” However, for the disbelievers this honour is restricted to this world. As soon as they die, they will be made to suffer disgrace, which will perpetuate until eternity. In the Ākhirah (Hereafter), the disbelievers will have neither honour nor favours, whereas the believers shall enjoy an abundance of both. "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?"

يَسْأَلُهُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ هُوَ فِي شَأْنٍ ﴿٢٩﴾ فَيَايَا آلَاءَ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٣٠﴾
 سَنَفْرُغُ لَكُمْ أَيُّهُ الثَّقَلَانِ ﴿٣١﴾ فَيَايَا آلَاءَ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٣٢﴾ يَمَعَشَرُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسُ إِنِ
 اسْتَطَعْتُمْ أَن تَنفُذُوا مِنْ أَقْطَارِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ فَانفُذُوا لَا تَنفُذُونَ إِلَّا بِسُلْطَانٍ
 ﴿٣٣﴾ فَيَايَا آلَاءَ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٣٤﴾

(29) All in the heavens and the earth ask from Him and He is engaged in some matter every day. (30) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (31) We shall soon free Ourselves for you, O the two of you groups. (32) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (33) O assembly of Jinn and man! If you are able to transcend the limits of the heavens and the earth, then do so. You will be unable to transcend without the power. (34) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?

In the above verses, Allāh expresses His greatness and the dependence of man and Jinn on Him. Allāh also reminds man and Jinn that they are not free to do as they please but will be required to render an account for all their deeds. Allāh states that the day of Judgement will come when "We shall soon free Ourselves for you, O the two of you groups." This verse is symbolic and does not mean that Allāh is too preoccupied with other duties to take reckoning. Allāh is Capable of doing everything perfectly at once and no act will hinder Him from accomplishing another. The symbolic reference is to emphasise the fact that reckoning will be meticulous.

Allāh also states that "He is engaged in some matter every day." This means that Allāh is busy tending to the matters of the universe at every given point in time. By warning man and Jinn about the advent of Judgment day and reckoning, Allāh is bestowing them with an extremely great favour. Therefore, Allāh states, "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?"

Highlighting the helplessness of man and Jinn, Allāh states, "O assembly of Jinn and man! If you are able to transcend the limits of the heavens and the earth, then do so. You will be unable to transcend without the power." It is clear that even the combined forces of man and Jinn cannot harness the power to transcend the limits of the heavens and the earth. Since man and Jinn are helpless in this very world, they will surely be powerless in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) as well. It is therefore wishful thinking to believe that one will be able to escape Allāh's punishment because there is nowhere to hide. When Judgement day arrives, every person will realise the error of his ways. However, it will then be too late. It is a great favour from Allāh that He has forewarned man and Jinn about this inevitable day. "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?"

يُرْسَلُ عَلَيْكُمَا شَوَاظٌ مِّن نَّارٍ وَنُحَاسٌ فَلَا تَنْصِرَانِ ﴿٣٥﴾ فَيَايَ ءَالِئِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٣٦﴾
 فَإِذَا انشَقَّتِ السَّمَاءُ فَكَانَتْ وَرْدَةً كَالدِّهَانِ ﴿٣٧﴾ فَيَايَ ءَالِئِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٣٨﴾
 فَيَوْمَئِذٍ لَا يُسْأَلُ عَنْ ذَنْبِهِ إِنْسٌ وَلَا جَانٌّ ﴿٣٩﴾ فَيَايَ ءَالِئِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٤٠﴾
 يُعْرَفُ الْمَجْرُمُونَ بِسِمَتِهِمْ فَيُؤْخَذُ بِالتَّوَصُّمِ وَالْأَقْدَامِ ﴿٤١﴾ فَيَايَ ءَالِئِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٤٢﴾
 هَذِهِ جَهَنَّمُ الَّتِي يُكَذِّبُ بِهَا الْمَجْرُمُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ يَطُوفُونَ بَيْنَهَا وَبَيْنَ حَمِيمٍ ءَانِ ﴿٤٤﴾ فَيَايَ ءَالِئِ
 رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٤٥﴾

(35) A flame and smoke shall be unleashed on the two of you (man and Jinn) and you will be helpless to ward it off. (36) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (37) (The time shall certainly come) when the sky shall cleave asunder and become red like hide. (38) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (39) On that day no man and no Jinn shall be asked about his sins. (40) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (41) The criminals will be recognized by their traits and will be seized by their forelocks and feet. (42) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (43) "This is Hell which the criminals used to deny." (44) They shall pass between it and the boiling water. (45) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?

THE SCENE OF JUDGEMENT

In the above verses, Allāh describes the horrors of Judgement day so that people may refrain from disbelief and become sincere Muslims. To remind man and Jinn to be grateful for these words of caution, Allāh often repeats the verse, "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?"

Referring to the advent of Judgement, Allāh says, "A flame and smoke shall be unleashed on the two of you (man and Jinn) and you will be helpless to ward it off" The intensity of this fire will be extreme. Allāh says in Surah Mursalāt that the people of Hell will be told, "Proceed towards the canopy of three parts which will neither provide shade nor offer shelter against the heat. Indeed, it (Hell) throws sparks like huge palaces resembling pitch black camels. May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!" [Surah 77, verses 30-34]

These verses of Surah Mursalāt state that the smoke of Hell shall assume the appearance of a canopy. Whereas the canopies of this world offer protection from heat, the smoke canopy of Hell will offer no such protection even though it will be extremely dark. None shall be able to assist another then.

Allāh then describes the splitting of the sky on the Day of Judgement when He says that the time shall certainly come "when the sky shall cleave asunder and become red like hide." A verse of Surah Furqān states, "Call to mind the day when the sky will be rent asunder with clouds and the angels will descend in large numbers." [Surah 25, verse 25]

"On that day no man and no Jinn shall be asked about his sins." A person is questioned to ascertain the facts because the questioner is unaware of the truth of a matter. However, questions are sometimes posed merely to remind the person being asked about certain acts. Allāh was Aware of every person's acts even before people were created and has no need to ask them what they did in the world. Their questioning will therefore not be to establish whether they did something or not but it will be to remind them of their misdeeds. Allāh says in Surah Qasas [Surah 28, verse 78], "The criminals will not be questioned about their sins."

The guilty ones shall be forced to admit their misdeeds on the Day of Judgement and they will be unable to deny anything. Allāh says in Surah A'raf, "We shall definitely question those to whom messengers were sent and We will surely question the messengers. We will certainly narrate to them with knowledge and We were not absent." [Surah 7, verses 6,7]

Allāh states further, "The criminals will be recognised by their traits. The traits by which they will be recognised are mentioned in Surah Bani Isrā'il [Surah 17, verse 97] in the following words: "We shall raise them on their faces on the Day of Judgement, blind, dumb and deaf" Another trait is mentioned in Surah TaHa as: "The day when the trumpet will be blown and the criminals shall be gathered with blue eyes. They will whisper to each other saying, 'You have tarried only for ten days.'" [Surah 20, verses 102,103]

According to these verses the disbelievers will be deaf, dumb, blind and blue-eyed on the Day of Judgement. They will be recognised by these characteristics, "will be seized by their forelocks and feet" and cast into Hell. When they are thrown into Hell, they will be told, "This is Hell which the criminals used to deny." They will thus be exposed to the worst forms of punishment. Citing one of these forms of punishment, Allāh says, "They shall pass between it (Hell) and the boiling water." Commentators interpret this verse to mean that the people in Hell will sometimes be made to suffer in the Fire itself and will sometimes have boiling water poured on them. Concerning the punishment of boiling water, Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Boiling water will be poured over their heads. Whatever is in their bellies, as well as their skins will be melted with it." [Surah 22, verses 19,20]

Allāh says in Surah Kahf [Surah 18, verse 29], "If they beseech help, they will be helped with water that is like the residue of burnt oil and will scorch their faces. A terrible drink indeed!" Allāh speaks about it in Surah Muhammad as: "Can these people ever be like those who will abide forever in the Fire and are given boiling water to drink, which tears their innards to shreds?" [Surah 47, verse 15]

A verse of Surah Sāffāt [Surah 37, verse 68] states: "Thereafter their return will definitely be towards the boiling water." This verse tells us that there will be a special place in Hell where the people of Hell will be taken to be given boiling water to drink. Thereafter, they will be returned to their respective places of punishment. While some commentators state that the place of boiling water will be outside the boundaries of Hell, this is unlikely because none shall ever emerge from Hell after entering. It is therefore believed that the place of the boiling water will be within the confines of Hell. Allāh knows best.

The Arabic word "Ān" used in the verse describes the boiling water as being at the most extreme point possible i.e. the water shall remain at the highest degree of heat possible and shall not cool down even with the passing of time.

وَلَمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهِ جَنَّاتٍ ﴿٤٦﴾ فَإِئْءِ ءَالَءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٤٧﴾ ذَوَاتَا أَفْنَانٍ ﴿٤٨﴾ فَإِئْءِ ءَالَءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٤٩﴾ فِيهَمَا عَيْنَانِ تَجْرِيَانِ ﴿٥٠﴾ فَإِئْءِ ءَالَءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٥١﴾ فِيهَمَا مِنْ كُلِّ فِكْهَةٍ زَوْجَانِ ﴿٥٢﴾ فَإِئْءِ ءَالَءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٥٣﴾ مُتَّكِئِينَ عَلَى فُرُشٍ بَطَآئِنُهَا مِنْ إِسْتَبْرَقٍ وَحَى الْجَنَّتَيْنِ دَانِ ﴿٥٤﴾ فَإِئْءِ ءَالَءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٥٥﴾ فِيهِنَّ قَصَصْتُ الطَّرْفَ لَمْ يَطْمُتْهُنَّ إِئْسٌ قَبْلَهُمْ وَلَا جَانٌ ﴿٥٦﴾ فَإِئْءِ ءَالَءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٥٧﴾ كَأَنَّهُنَّ الْيَاقُوتُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ ﴿٥٨﴾ فَإِئْءِ ءَالَءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٥٩﴾ هَلْ جَزَاءُ الْإِحْسَنِ إِلَّا الْإِحْسَنُ ﴿٦٠﴾ فَإِئْءِ ءَالَءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٦١﴾

(46) The one who fears standing in the presence of his Lord shall have two gardens. (47) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (48) Both these (gardens) shall be filled with branches. (49) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (50) In both (gardens) there shall be two gushing springs. (51) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (52) In both there shall be a pair of every fruit. (53) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (54) The people [of Jannah (Heaven)] shall recline on bedding lined with thick silk. The fruit of both gardens shall be extremely close. (55) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (56) In these gardens, there shall be maidens with lowered gazes whom no man or Jinn has ever touched. (57) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (58) They seem to appear like rubies and pearls. (59) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (60) Can the reward for good be anything but good? (61) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?

THE TWO GARDENS OF PARADISE THAT THE PIOUS SHALL ENJOY

After mentioning every bounty of the two gardens of paradise in the foregoing verses, Allāh repeats the question: "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?" Whereas the gardens of this world were described at the beginning of the Surah, the concluding verses describe the gardens of the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Allāh says, "The one who fears standing in the presence of his Lord shall have two gardens." Although Heaven is itself an extremely large garden, there shall be several gardens within it, depending on the deeds of people. The above verse states that the person who abstains from sins and who is concerned about reckoning on the Day of Judgement shall be blessed with two gardens of Heaven. Concern for reckoning on the Day of Judgement is a great factor to motivate people to abstain from sin and to carry out good deeds. Allāh states in Surah Nāzi'āt, "As for the one who fears standing before his Lord and who restrains himself from carnal passions, then Heaven shall definitely be his abode." [Surah 80, verses 40,41]

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه once recited the verse, "The one who fears standing in the presence of his Lord shall have two gardens." He then said, "There shall be two gardens of gold for the forerunners in Islām and two gardens of silver for those who followed them." ["Mustadrak" of Hākim]

Allāh describes the two gardens by saying, "Both these (gardens) shall be filled with branches." There shall be an abundance of green and lush branches in these gardens, indicating that they will be filled with an abundance of fruit. The second description states that "In both (gardens) there shall be two gushing springs." In addition to providing refreshing water, the springs shall provide a scenic setting to watch. The springs of Heaven are described in Surah Dahar (Surah 76) and Surah Tatfif (Surah 83). Surah Dahar [Surah 76, verse 18] states that the name of one spring is "Salsābīl" while Surah Tatfif [Surah 83, verse 26] states that the other spring is called "Tasnīm". Allāh states in verses 5 and 6 of Surah Dahar, "The good shall certainly drink from a cup the mixture of which is camphor. The springs from which Allāh's bondsmen shall drink they shall cause to gush forth abundantly."

Allāh describes the third characteristic of these gardens when He says, "in both there shall be a pair of every fruit." The one type of fruit will be similar to what we see in this world while the other will be seen only in Heaven. Some commentators mention that the one type of fruit will be fresh while the other type will be dried. However, both will be equal in taste. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned that the "pair" refers to the sweet and sour fruit that are found in this world, which will be found in Heaven. However, bitter fruit like the wild gourd (bitter apple) shall be sweet in Heaven. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 27 p. 117]

THE BEDDING OF THE RIGHTEOUS IN HEAVEN

Further describing the bounties awaiting the righteous in Heaven, Allāh speaks about their bedding and wives. Allāh says, "The people (of Heaven) shall recline on bedding lined with thick silk." This verse tells us that inner lining of this bedding will be made of thick silk. In this world, the outer lining of a bedding is usually decorated and made from material that is far more expensive than the material used for the inner lining. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضي الله عنه said, "You have been told that the inner linings of the beddings of Heaven are made from thick silk. You can then well imagine how beautiful and comfortable the outer linings are!" [Hākim]

Sayyidina Sa'īd bin Jubair رحمه الله عليه said, "The inner lining is thick silk." If you want to know what the outer lining shall be made of then recite the verse of Surah Alif Lām Mim Sajdah where Allāh says, "No soul knows what pleasures are hidden for him as a reward for the deeds he carries out." This means that nothing can be said about the beauty of the outer lining. One will know the reality of this only in Heaven.

Allāh continues, "The fruit of both gardens shall be extremely close." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه mentioned that if Allāh's friends in Heaven wish to pluck fruit while standing they may do so. They may also pluck fruit while sitting or even while lying down. In every condition, the fruit will be close by. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

THE WIVES OF THE PEOPLE OF JANNAH (HEAVEN)

The men of Heaven shall have their worldly wives in Heaven as well as wives from the "Hūr In". These wives will be extremely beautiful and shall have eyes for none other than their husbands. Allāh refers to this when he says, "in these gardens there shall be maidens with lowered gazes". In addition to this, "no man or jinn has ever touched" them. Describing their beauty, Allāh says that "They seem to appear like rubies and pearls." The explanation of the Arabic word "Marjān" (translated above as "pearls") has been discussed in the commentary of verse 22 of this Surah. Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه states that the complexions of these maidens will be as clear as rubies and as white as pearls. Other commentators state that the complexion of their faces will resemble rubies, while the rest of their bodies will be the colour of pearl.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the faces of the first group to enter Heaven will shine like the fourteenth moon while the faces of the next group will shine like a bright star. Each person shall have two damsels of Heaven as wives. (Their complexions will be so beautifully clear that) the marrow of their shins will be visible through their skin and flesh. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 461]

A narration of Tirmidhi states that even though the damsels will be wearing seventy sets of clothing, the marrow of their bones will be visible to the onlooker. ["Mishkāt" p. 497]

The two damsels that the hadith of Bukhari mention will be the minimum number a person will marry. According to a person's deeds, he will marry as many as Allāh pleases. Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person with the lowest status in Heaven shall be given eighty thousand servants and seventy-two wives. Mulla Ali Qāri رحمه الله عليه writes in his commentary that two of these wives shall be wives from this world and the other seventy shall be from the damsels of Heaven. Allāh knows best.

"Can the reward for good be anything but good?" The reward for the person who lived a good life, who worshipped Allāh only, who abstained from polytheism (shirk) and who carried out good deeds shall be good indeed. He will be blessed with Heaven and all the bounties of Heaven. In a hadith of Muslim, the Arabic word · ihsān" (translated above as "good") has been defined as "worshipping Allāh as if one can see Him, and if one is unable to do this, one should be mindful of the fact that Allāh is watching him."? The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said this in reply to a question posed by Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام.

وَمِنْ دُونِهِمَا جَنَّتَانِ ﴿٦٢﴾ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٦٣﴾ مُدْهَمَّتَانِ ﴿٦٤﴾ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٦٥﴾ فِيهِمَا عَيْنَانِ مُضَاهَتَانِ ﴿٦٦﴾ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٦٧﴾ فِيهِمَا فَكَّهُمٌ وَنَخْلٌ وَرَمَانٌ ﴿٦٨﴾ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٦٩﴾ فِيهِنَّ خَيْرٌ حَسَنٌ ﴿٧٠﴾ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَانِ ﴿٧١﴾ حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ ﴿٧٢﴾ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا

تُكْذِبَانِ ۖ لَمْ يَطْمِثْهُنَّ إِنْسٌ قَبْلَهُمْ وَلَا جَانٌّ ۚ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكْذِبَانِ ﴿٧٥﴾
 مُتَّكِئِينَ عَلَى رَفْرَفٍ خُضِرٍ وَعَبَقَرِيٍّ حِسَانٍ ۚ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكْذِبَانِ ﴿٧٦﴾ نَبْرًا
 أَسْمُ رَبِّكَ ذِي الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ ﴿٧٨﴾

(62) Lesser than these two gardens are another two gardens. (63) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (64) Both dark green. (65) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (66) Both have gushing springs. (67) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (68) In both are fruits, date palms and pomegranates. (69) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (70) In them are marvellous and stunning women. (71) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (72) Fair damsels sheltered in tents. (73) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (74) Neither any man nor Jinn has ever touched them. (75) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (76) The people of Heaven shall recline on green decorated and exceptionally beautiful bedding. (77) So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny? (78) Blessed is the name of your Lord, the Possessor of majesty and benevolence.

THE VARIOUS OTHER LEVELS OF HEAVEN

The above verses mention the other levels of Heaven apart from the two mentioned earlier. All of these are of lesser eminence than the first two and will be awarded to people whose deeds and spiritual status are of a lesser degree than the people who will occupy the first two gardens of Heaven. Surah Wā'qiah which follows Surah Rahmān speaks of the two groups to enter Heaven, who are referred to as the "Sābiqūn" and the "As 'hābul Yamīn". The Heaven mentioned in the above verses will be given to the "As 'hābul Yamīn" and the first two gardens will be for the "Sābiqūn".

Describing the next two levels of Heaven, Allāh says that both will be "dark green". The Arabic word 'Mudhāmatān' actually refers to something that is black. The word is used here because the gardens of Heaven are so lush and dark green in colour that they appear to be black. The single word 'Mudhāmatān' completes this entire verse and this is therefore the only verse of the Qur'ān that contains only one word.

Allāh describes further, "Both have gushing springs." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه states that these two springs will shower prosperity and blessings on the people of Heaven. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه state that these springs will bring a fine mist of fragrance into the homes of the people in Heaven. Other commentators state that they will run with gushing water which will never come to an end. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"]

"In both are fruits, date palms and pomegranates." One cannot imagine these to be like those we see in this world because everything in Heaven will be exclusive to Heaven and share only their names with the fruit of this world. Just like the rest of the Surah, Allāh reminds man and Jinn to be grateful to Him by repeating,

"So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?"

THE WIVES OF HEAVEN

Allāh states that the gardens of Heaven have "marvellous and stunning women." Sayyidina Ibn Salamah رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the women of Heaven are "marvellous" in character and "stunning" in beauty. Referring to the fact that these women will be reserved for their husbands, Allāh states; "Fair damsels sheltered in tents."

Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "if a damsel of Heaven has to peek into this world, she would illuminate the atmosphere between the sky and the earth and fill it with her fragrance. It is a fact that the scarf on her head is more valuable than the earth and all its contents." ["Mishkāt" p. 495 from Bukhari]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The tent of a believers in Heaven shall be carved from a single hollow pearl. The tent shall be sixty miles wide (or 60 miles long according to another narration). He shall have a wife in each corner and the one will be unable to see the other as he goes to each one. The believers shall have two gardens of silver where the utensils and everything else will be made of silver. They shall also have two gardens of gold where the utensils and everything else will be made of gold. Only the veil of honour shall separate the person of Heaven from seeing his Lord. All this shall be in the eternal garden of paradise." ["Mishkāt" p. 495 from Bukhari and Muslim]

Describing the purity of the damsels of Heaven, Allāh says, "Neither any man nor Jinn has ever touched them."

After describing the women of Heaven Allāh says, "The people of Heaven shall recline on green decorated and exceptionally beautiful bedding." "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" states that the word "Abqariy" (translated above as "decorated") refers to everything good that one is proud to have. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once referred to Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه as "Abqariy".

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "Blessed is the name of your Lord, the Possessor of majesty and benevolence." While the 27th verse of the Surah describes Allāh as "the Possessor of majesty and benevolence", the Surah ends with the same description of Allāh's grandeur.

SOME NOTES CONCERNING SURAH RAHMĀN

NOTE 1: The verse "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?" is repeated 31 times in the Surah. By reciting the verse continuously, the reader feels a sense of joy and is spiritually enlightened. Even those listening to the recitation experience a sense of elation and happiness. It is for this reason that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم referred to Surah Rahmān as the bridegroom of the Qur'ān. ["Mishkāt" p. 189]

NOTE 2: Allāh reminds man and Jinn of His favours in the verse "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?" Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه

عنہ narrates that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited Surah Rahmān to the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم, they all listened in silence. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then said to them, "When I recited this Surah to the Jinn on the night I met with them, they seemed to have a better reply than you. Whenever I recited the verse 'So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?' they responded by saying:

{TRANSLATION: "We do not deny any of Your favours, O our Lord. All praise belongs to You."} [Tirmidhi]

Appreciation of Allāh's favours entails admitting these favours and using them in a manner that pleases Him. Denying Allāh's favours means that one says that one did not receive a certain favour from Allāh or that one says that what one has are the fruits of one's labours. Similarly, adopting an attitude that reveals this will also be tantamount to denying Allāh's favours.

NOTE 3: Why does Allāh say, "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?" after verses that portray His punishment as well? How can punishment be regarded as a favour? The answer is that Allāh's favour lies in His warning people of the consequences of evil. By mentioning the punishment for evil deeds, Allāh is warning people to refrain from such deeds so that they never find themselves suffering the same. This forewarning is an act of great kindness.

NOTE 4: Allāh makes it clear in verse 56 of Surah Dhāriyāt (Surah 51): "I have created man and Jinn only to worship Me." Allāh has created both these creations for the purpose of worshipping Him, His bounties are tremendous to both and He has sent guidance to both. However, because Allāh has selected man as His vicegerent on earth, man is superior to Jinn. Nevertheless, both are responsible for fulfilling Allāh's commands. Whether Allāh sent Anbiya (The Holy Prophets عليهم السلام) among the Jinn, the difference of opinion has been discussed in the commentary of verse 130 of Surah An'ām (Surah 6). What is certain is that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent as messenger, he was the messenger to both man and Jinn. This is evident from the verses of Surah Rahmān and the verses of Surah Ahqāf [Surah 46, verses 29-32] in which Allāh quotes the invitation that the Jinn extended to their fellow Jinn after listening to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says that the believer Jinn said to their fellow Jinn: "O our people! Respond to Allāh's caller and believe in him; Allāh will forgive your sins and save you from a painful punishment." [Surah 46, verse 31]

The details of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم meeting with the Jinn have been discussed in the commentary of the above verses of Surah Ahqāf. Further details will also be mentioned in the commentary of Surah Jinn (Surah 72), Insha Allāh.

NOTE 5: The Jinn are also obliged to worship Allāh and the disbelievers among them will also be sent to Hell. Allāh says in Surah Sajdah, "If We willed, We would have granted every soul its guidance.. However, the decree has issued from Me that I will surely fill Hell with a collection of man and Jinn." [Surah 32, verse 13]

Whereas it is clear that the disbelieving Jinn will enter Hell, some Muhaddithin (commentators of Ahadith) and Mufasssirin (commentators of Qur'an) have queried whether the believing Jinn will enter Heaven. This question is answered by the fact that when discussing the bounties of Heaven, Allāh states "So which favours of your Lord do the two of you deny?" This makes it clear that the Jinn may also enter Heaven. The Scholar (Allāma) Shibli رحمه الله عليه favours this opinion in his renowned book about the Jinn titled "Ākāmul Marjān" (Chapter 24). Together with this opinion, he also cites another opinion that the Jinn will be allowed only up to the doors of Heaven from where humans will be able to see them without them being able to see the humans in Heaven. The third opinion he cites is that the believer Jinn will remain on the A'rāf (the place between Heaven and Hell). He has quoted a hadith to substantiate this opinion. The third opinion is one of silence i.e. no comment can be made about the issue.

NOTE 6: The 27th and the final verse of the Surah mention Allāh's quality of being "Dhul Jalāli wal Ikrām" ("the Possessor of majesty and benevolence"). The explanation of this has been given in the commentary of verse 27. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised that Muslims recite "Dhul Jalāli wal Ikrām" abundantly and use it in their Supplication. [Hākim v. 1 p. 499]

Sayyidina Thowbān رضى الله عنه reports that after the Fardh (obligatory) Salāh, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite:

{TRANSLATION : O Allāh! You Peace and all peace comes from you. You are Blessed, O "Dhul Jalāli wal Ikrām" (the Possessor of majesty and benevolence)} [Muslim.]

Sayyidina Mu'adh bin Jabal رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, once heard a person saying in his supplication, "Yā Dhal Jalāli wal Ikrām!" the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the person, "Your du'ā (pray) is accepted. Now ask what you please." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates that he was once sitting with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when another person completed his Salāh and said:

{TRANSLATION: O Allāh! I am supplicating to You because all praise belongs to you and there is none worthy of worship besides you., You are the most Benevolent and the Creator of the heavens and the earth. O Dhul Jalāli wal Ikrām (Possessor of majesty and benevolence)!}

After hearing this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He has supplicated by that name of Allāh with which a person is granted whatever he asks." [Abu Dawūd p. 210]

سورة الواقعة

Makkan	Surah Al-Waqiah	Verses 96
--------	-----------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِذَا وَقَعَتِ الْوَاقِعَةُ ﴿١﴾ لَيْسَ لِمَنْ يُلْقِيهَا كَذِبٌ ﴿٢﴾ خَافِضَةٌ رَافِعَةٌ ﴿٣﴾ إِذَا رُجَّتِ
الْأَرْضُ رَجًا ﴿٤﴾ وَبُسَّتِ الْجِبَالُ بَسًا ﴿٥﴾ فَكَانَتْ هَبَاءً مُتْبِنًا ﴿٦﴾ وَكُنْتُمْ أَزْوَاجًا
ثَلَاثَةً ﴿٧﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) When Judgement day (Qiyāmah) will take place... (2) ...there shall be none to deny its advent. (3) It will lower and elevate. (4) When the earth shall convulse with violent earthquakes. (5) And the mountains will be shattered to pieces... (6) ...and become like scattered dust. (7) You people will then be in three groups.

JUDGEMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH) WILL LOWER AND ELEVATE

This Surah discusses the advent of Judgement day (Qiyāmah) and the rewards and punishment that people will witness after being dispatched to Heaven and Hell. Allāh begins by saying, "When Judgement day (Qiyāmah) will take place there shall be none to deny its advent." Many people deny the coming of Judgement day (Qiyāmah) when the Anbiya (The Holy Prophets عليهم السلام) and the divine scriptures have clearly informed them about it. However, when people will actually witness Judgement day taking place, none shall be able to deny it.

Those who deny Judgement day will then exclaim, "O our Lord! We have seen and we have heard. Return us so that we may carry out good deeds. We are now certainly convinced." [Surah Sajdah (32), verse 12]

Describing the Day of Judgement, Allāh says, "It will lower and elevate." There are many people in this world who enjoy high social standing and may even be kings, ministers and leaders. However, because they die as disbelievers or as sinners, they will be disgraced and lowered on the Day of Judgement. The punishment and reckoning of the Day of Judgement will strip them of all the pride they possessed in this world. On the other hand, there are those who are trampled in this world and looked down upon. However, because they are people of Belief, are righteous and carry out good deeds, they will be elevated on the Day of Judgement. There shall be many of them whose reckoning will be extremely easy while others will enter Heaven without any reckoning at all.

Allāh Ta'āla reminds people of the Day of Judgement "When the earth shall convulse with violent earthquakes. And the mountains will be shattered to pieces and become like scattered dust." Everything in the universe will be reduced to nothing.

"You people will then be in three groups." These three groups are:

1. "Sābiqūn" (the forerunners) who are also referred to as the "Muqarrabūn" (those brought close).
2. "The average believers who are referred to as the "As'hābul Yamīn" (the people of the right). Both these two groups are collectively referred to as the "As' hābul Maymana".
3. the disbelievers who are referred to as the "As' hābul Shimāl" (the people of the left).

فَأَصْحَابُ الْمَيْمَنَةِ مَا أَصْحَابُ الْمَيْمَنَةِ ﴿٨﴾ وَأَصْحَابُ الشِّمَالِ مَا أَصْحَابُ الشِّمَالِ ﴿٩﴾
وَالسَّابِقُونَ السَّابِقُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ أُولَئِكَ الْمُقَرَّبُونَ ﴿١١﴾ فِي جَنَّاتٍ النَّعِيمِ ﴿١٢﴾ ثَلَاثَةٌ مِنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٣﴾
وَقَلِيلٌ مِنَ الْآخِرِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ عَلَى سُرُرٍ مَوْضُونَةٍ ﴿١٥﴾ مُتَّكِئِينَ عَلَيْهَا مُتَقَابِلِينَ ﴿١٦﴾
يَطُوفُ عَلَيْهِمْ وِلْدَانٌ مُخَلَّدُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ بِأَكْوَابٍ وَأَبَارِيقٍ وَكَأْسٍ مِنْ مَعِينٍ ﴿١٨﴾ لَا يُصَدَّعُونَ عَنْهَا
وَلَا يُزْفُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَفَكَهَمَتِ مِمَّا يَخْتَارُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَلَحْدَ طَيْرٍ مِمَّا يَشْتَهُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَخَوَّرَ عَيْنٌ ﴿٢٢﴾
كَأَمْثَلِ اللَّوْلِيِّ الْمَكُونِ ﴿٢٣﴾ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَغْوًا وَلَا
تَأْثِيمًا ﴿٢٥﴾ إِلَّا قِيلًا سَلَامًا سَلَامًا ﴿٢٦﴾ وَأَصْحَابُ الِّيمِينِ مَا أَصْحَابُ الِّيمِينِ ﴿٢٧﴾ فِي سِدْرٍ
مَخْضُودٍ ﴿٢٨﴾ وَطَلْحٍ مَنضُودٍ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَظِلٍّ مَمْدُودٍ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَمَاءٍ مَسْكُوبٍ ﴿٣١﴾ وَفَكَهَمَتِ
كَثِيرٌ ﴿٣٢﴾ لَا مَقْطُوعَةٍ وَلَا مَمْنُوعَةٍ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَفُرُشٍ مَرْفُوعَةٍ ﴿٣٤﴾ إِنَّا أَنشَأْنَهُمْ إِنِشَاءً ﴿٣٥﴾
فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَجْكَارًا ﴿٣٦﴾ عُرْبًا أَرَابًا ﴿٣٧﴾ لِأَصْحَابِ الِّيمِينِ ﴿٣٨﴾ ثَلَاثَةٌ مِنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٣٩﴾
وَلِلَّهِ مِنَ الْآخِرِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾

(8) So the people of the right; how excellent are the people of the right! (9) And the people of the left; how wretched are the people of the left! (10) The forerunners are the forerunners. (11) These are indeed those brought close. (12) They will be in gardens of bliss. (13) A large group from among the earlier ones. (14) A few from among the later ones. (15) They will be on woven thrones. (16) Reclining on these facing each other. (17) Youngsters of eternal youth shall wait on them... (18) ..with goblets and jugs and glasses filled with flowing wine. (19) Neither will they have headaches with, nor will they be intoxicated. (20) And (they will be served) a variety of fruits to choose from... (21) ... and the meat of the birds they desire. (22) And (they shall have) fair large eyed damsels... (23) ... who are like preserved pearls. (24) (All of this) as a reward for the deeds they carried out. (25) They will not hear any noise there nor any foolish talk. (26) Instead they will hear the resonant call of "Peace", "Peace (27) And the people of the right, how excellent are the people of the right! (28) They will be in (gardens of) thorn less lotus trees... (29) ... and bananas stacked high. (30) (They will be) in extensive shade. (31) And flowing water. (32) And an abundance of fruit... (33) ... that will not come to an end and will not be restricted. (34) And elevated thrones. (35) Indeed We have created these damsels very specially. (36) And We have made them all virgins... (37) ... most beloved and of equal age... (38) ... for the people of the right. (39) A large group from among the early ones. (40) A large group from among the later ones.

THE THREE GROUPS ON THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT

The above verses discuss the "people of the right" who will all enter Heaven. These are further classified into the 'Muqarrabūn' ("those brought close") and the average believers. Allāh briefly describes the broad categories of the good and the evil when He says, "So the people of the right; how excellent are the people of the right! And the people of the left; how wretched are the people of the left!"

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that these people are referred to as "the people of the right" because they will receive their records of deeds in their right hands. They may also be termed "the people of the right" because they will proceed towards the right of the Plain of Resurrection after judgement is passed. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" quotes a third opinion. He says that when Allāh Ta'āla removed the souls of mankind from the back of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, the souls of these people went to the right and Allāh said that He had created them for Heaven. Other commentators state that the word "Maymana" (translated above as "right") is derived from the root word "Yumn" which means "blessed/fortunate". These people have been given this title because they are truly blessed and most fortunate.

The opposite of these people are the "people of the left". The reasons for referring to them in this way are the opposite of those mentioned above. Therefore, they shall be the ones to receive their records of deeds in their left hands. They will proceed towards the left of the Plain of Resurrection after judgement is passed and when Allāh Ta'āla removed the souls of mankind from the back of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام, the souls of these people went to the left and Allāh said that He had created them for Hell. It may also be said that the word 'Mash'ama' (translated above as "left") is derived from the root word "Shum" which means "wretched/unfortunate".

Allāh then describes the "Sābiqūn" ("forerunners") when He states, "The forerunners are the forerunners. These are indeed those brought close (Muqarrabūn)." The "Sābiqūn" are from among the "people of the right" but have been granted a greater status than the rest of the "As'habul Maymana" ("people of the right") because they led the rest in Belief and good deeds. They will receive additional bounties in Heaven compared to the rest of the “people of the right”.

WHO ARE THE “SĀBIQŪN”?

“The forerunners are the forerunners. These are indeed those brought close.” Who are these Sābiqūn (forerunners)? The following opinions have been quoted:

- A. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه states that these people are forerunners in making Hijrah (migrating).
- B. Sayyidina Ikrima رضى الله عنه says that these people were the first to accept Islām.
- C. Sayyidina Ibn Sīrīn رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that these are the early Muslims who performed Sahāh facing the two Qiblas viz. Baytul Muqaddas and the Ka’ba.
- D. Sayyidina Rabī bin Anas رحمه الله عليه says that these are the believers who were first to carry out the commands of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.
- E. Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه says that these are the people who are the first to leave for Salāh.
- F. Sayyidina Sa’id bin Jubayr رحمه الله عليه says that these are the people who hasten to repent and to carry out good deeds. Describing many attributes of the true believers, Allāh Ta’āla says in Surah Mu’minūn, “These people hasten to perform good deeds and are the forerunners in this.” [Surah 23, verse 61]

There is no contradiction in the above interpretations of the Sābiqūn. However, the interpretation of Sayyidina Sa’id bin Jubayr رحمه الله عليه seems most comprehensive because it includes all the others.

THE GREATEST BOUNTY FOR THE “SĀBIQŪN”

Allāh says about the Sābiqūn, “These are indeed those brought close.” There is no bounty superior to being close to Allāh. In addition to this “They will be in gardens of bliss.” Allāh Ta’āla then briefly states the numbers of people who will belong to this group. Allāh says, “A large group from among the earlier ones. A few from among the later ones.”

The “earlier ones” refers to the Ummahs prior to this Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, while “the later ones” refers to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. These verses therefore tell us that the majority of people in this “Sābiqūn/ Muqarrabūn” group will be from nations prior to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Although the number of people from the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this group will be very large, they will still be fewer than those belonging to previous Ummahs. It should be borne in mind that all the Anbiya (The Holy Prophets عليهم السلام) are also included in the rank of the Sābiqūn together with the members of each Prophet’s Ummah صلى الله عليه وسلم. This does not necessarily mean that the number of the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم

Ummah is less than the collective number of the previous Ummahs.

Sayyidina Buraydah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There will be 120 rows of people entering Heaven. Of these, 80 rows will be from my Ummah and the other 40 rows will be people from all the other Ummahs." ["Mishkāt"]

ADDITIONAL BOUNTIES FOR THE SĀBIQŪN

Allāh continues to say that the Sābiqūn "will be on woven thrones." This verse does not state from what the thrones will be woven. Mufasssīrīn mention that they will be woven with golden thread and studded with gems. The people of Heaven will be "Reclining on these facing each other." In this manner they will be able to speak to each other without anyone's back facing another.

In addition to this, "Youngsters of eternal youth shall wait on them with goblets and jugs and glasses filled with flowing wine." These waiters will remain youthful forever and will always serve the people of Heaven. In Surah Tūr, Allāh speaks about these youth in the following words: "Their youngsters shall wait on them, appearing to be concealed pearls." [Surah 52, verse 24]

Pure wine will be served to the people of Heaven. In Surah Muhammad [Surah 47, verse 15], Allāh describes this wine as "extremely palatable to those who drink it." One should not think that this wine will be harmful like the wines of this world because Allāh adds, "Neither will they have headaches with it, nor will they be intoxicated."

After mentioning the drinks, Allāh speaks of the food of Heaven when he says, "And (they will be served) a variety of fruits to choose from and the meat of the birds they desire."

Continuing the discussion of Heaven's bounties, Allāh says, "And (they shall have) fair large eyed damsels." After describing the beauty of these women in these words, Allāh says that the clarity and texture of their complexion is "like preserved pearls". Allāh then says that all these bounties are "a reward for the deeds they carried out."

It is often the case in this world that a person enjoys prosperity, has beauty and also wives and children. However, he is still plagued by noise and disturbances that interrupt his rest. Often, he is unable to stop the disturbances and is forced to tolerate them. This will not be the case in Heaven. Allāh Ta'āla says, "They will not hear any noise there nor any foolish talk. Instead they will hear the resonant call of 'Peace', 'Peace'." These greetings of peace will be from Allāh, as mentioned in Surah Yāsin where Allāh says, "They will have a greeting of peace from the Most Merciful Lord." The people of Heaven will also be greeting each other with words of Salām (peace) as mentioned in Surah Yunus: "their greeting (in Heaven) will be Salām." In addition to this, the angels will even be greeting the people of Heaven. Allāh says in Surah Ra'd, "(The angels will be saying) 'Peace be upon you because of the patience that you exercised. How blissful is the outcome of the Hereafter!'"

THE BOUNTIES OF THE “AS’HĀBUL YAMĪN”

Allāh speaks of the As’habul Yamīn (the people of the right) when He says, “And the people of the right, how excellent are the people of the right! They will be in (gardens of) thorn less lotus trees.” Unlike certain species of lotus trees in this world, the trees of Heaven will have no thorns so that none may be injured.

Sayyidina Abu Umāmah رضى الله عنه narrates that a villager once said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, “Allāh has mentioned a harmful tree in the Qur’ān.” When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him what the tree was he replied, “The lotus tree that has thorns.” The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told him, “Allāh mentions “thorn less lotus trees”. Allāh shall remove the thorns from this tree and replace every thorn with a fruit. It will bear such fruit that will burst to reveal fruit of 72 colours. No colour will resemble the other.” [Hākim v. 2 p. 474]

In addition to this, their Heaven shall have “bananas stacked high . Everyone is well aware of the pleasure that banana lovers get from this delectable fruit. People cannot even imagine the pleasure that they will derive from the bananas of Heaven. The people of Heaven will enjoy all of this “in extensive shade . They will have comfortable shade without having to worry about the heat. The shade of Heaven will be true shade and not the artificial shade of this world . It is for this reason that Allāh says in Surah Nisā, “We shall enter them into abundant shade.” [Surah 4, verse 57]

The shade of Heaven will be extremely comfortable and one will not feel hot or cold. Allāh says in Surah Dahar, “They will recline on couches there (in Heaven) and will not feel heat or cold.” [Surah 76, verse 13]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “There is a tree in Heaven that is so large that it will take a rider a hundred years to pass (through the shadow).” [Bukhari]

Allāh continues to say that Heaven shall have ‘flowing water “Ma’ālimut Tanzīl” [v. 4 p. 140] mentions that the rivers of Heaven will run on the surface of the ground without requiring furrows in the ground to travel. The water will flow in whichever direction one desires. There will be no need for a bucket and rope either to reach the water.

The “people of the right” shall also enjoy “an abundance of fruit that will not come to an end and will not be restricted.” They will be able to eat whatever fruit they desire in whatever quantity they desire. It is reported in a hadith that as soon as a person plucks a fruit of Heaven another fruit will grow in its place immediately. [Majma’uz Zawāid v. 1 p. 414]

The As’habul Yamīn will relax on “elevated thrones”. Sayyidina Abu Sa’id Khudri رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the “elevated thrones” will be as high as the distance between the heavens and the earth i.e. the distance of 500 years journey. [“Mishkāt” p. 497 from Tirmidhi]

OLD WOMEN SHALL BE YOUNG IN HEAVEN

Allāh then describes the women of Heaven. Apart from the “Hūr In” of Heaven (who are a special creation), Allāh shall make the believers women of this world the wives of the people of Heaven. Believers women who passed away in old age, those who passed away young, those who were unmarried and those who were married will all be made wives of the men of Heaven. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that every person who passed away either young or old shall be made thirty years of age in Heaven. Thereafter, their age shall not advance. [“Mishkāt” p. 499]

Therefore, even old women who passed away as believers will be made young again in Heaven. Allāh refers to this when he says, “indeed We have created these damsels very specially. And We have made them all virgins, most beloved and of equal age for the people of the right.” The women of Heaven shall be attractive, extremely beloved to their husbands and equal in age.

THE STORY OF AN OLD SAHĀBĪ LADY

“Shamā’il Tirmidhi” reports that an old lady once asked, “O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Pray that Allāh enters me into Heaven.” The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to her, “Old women will not enter Heaven.” Hearing this the old woman left weeping. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent someone after her with the message that she will not be old when she enters Heaven. She will be transformed into a young lady because Allāh states, “indeed We have created these damsels very specially. And We have made them all virgins, most beloved and of equal age for the people of the right.”

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained the verse “indeed We have created these damsels very specially”, he said, “Among the women whom Allāh shall specially create are those women who are purblind in this world and those whose eyes secrete a white fluid (because of some ailment).” In the context of this hadith, a purblind woman is a woman whose eyes do not open fully and they constantly tear.

In this group there shall be “A large group from among the early ones. (and) A large group from among the later ones.”

وَأَصْحَابُ الشِّمَالِ مَا أَصْحَابُ الشِّمَالِ ﴿٤١﴾ فِي سَمُومٍ وَحَمِيمٍ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَظِلٍّ مِّنْ يَحْمُومٍ ﴿٤٣﴾ لَا
 بَارِدٍ وَلَا كَرِيمٍ ﴿٤٤﴾ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُتْرَفِينَ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَكَانُوا يُصْرُفُونَ عَلَى الْغَنِيِّ
 الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَكَانُوا يَقُولُونَ أَإِذَا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظْمًا إِذَا نَا لَمَبْعُوثُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ أَوْ
 ءَابَاؤُنَا الْأَوَّلُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ قُلْ إِنَّ الْأَوَّلِينَ وَالْآخِرِينَ ﴿٤٩﴾ لَمَجْمُوعُونَ إِلَى مِيقَاتٍ مَّعْلُومٍ
 ﴿٥٠﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ أَنتُمُ الصَّاَلُونَ الْمُكَذِّبُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ لَاكُلُونِ مِن شَجَرٍ مِّن زُقُومٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ فَتَالَتُونَ مِنْهَا
 الْبُطُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ فَشَرِبُوا عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْحَمِيمِ ﴿٥٤﴾ فَشَرِبُوا شَرَبَ الْحَمِيمِ ﴿٥٥﴾ هَذَا نَزَّاهُمْ يَوْمَ
 الدِّينِ ﴿٥٦﴾

They shall be in a fierce scorching wind, boiling water... (43)... and the shade of black smoke... (44) ... that will neither be cool nor hospitable. (45) Verily these people used to be affluent before. (46) They used to persistently carry out major sins. (47) They used to say, "After we die and have become sand and bones, will we then be resurrected?" (48) "Or our early forefathers?" (49) Say, "Indeed the early ones and the latter ones... (50) ....shall certainly be gathered for an appointment of a known day. (51) Then, O you deviated falsifiers... (52) ....you shall surely eat from the Zaqqūm tree. (53) And you shall fill your bellies with it. (54) You shall drink boiling water upon it... (55) .... and you shall drink like thirsty camels." (56) This is the hospitality they will receive on the Day of Reckoning.

THE PUNISHMENT OF THE "PEOPLE OF THE LEFT"

These verses refer to the torment that the "As 'hābush Shimāl" ("people of the left") will suffer in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). At the beginning of the Surah (verse 9), they were referred to as "As'hābul Mash'ama". Allāh says, "And the people of the left, how wretched are the people of the left! They shall be in a fierce scorching wind, boiling water and the shade of black smoke that will neither be cool nor hospitable." This "shade of black smoke" is in contrast to the "extensive shade" that the "people of the right" shall enjoy as mentioned in verse 30 above. Whereas the shade for the people of Heaven shall be comfortable, the shade for the people of Hell will provide torment instead of comfort.

THE MISCHIEF OF THE DISBELIEVERS IN THIS WORLD

Referring to the people of Hell, Allāh says, "Verily these people used to be affluent before." Their lives of prosperity in this world shall be the cause of their destruction. In the stupor of their wealth and positions, they did not believe and were not inclined to turn to Allāh. They regarded their comfortable lives as everything and gave no thought to their plight in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). In addition to this, "They used to persistently carry out major sins." They adamantly clung to disbelief and polytheism (shirk) and pledged never to waver from their ways and to die as they were.

Not only were these people averse to accepting Belief, they were also opposed to the belief of resurrection. Allāh says, "They used to say, 'After we die and have become sand and bones, will we then be resurrected? Or our early forefathers?'" They regard the advent of Judgement as something impossible. By this statement, they meant to say that they might still believe someone who says that they will be brought back to life immediately after dying. However, they thought it impossible that even their earlier forefathers would be resurrected on the Day of Judgement when they had died such a long time ago and their bodies would have been reduced to nothing.

In response to their denial, Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell them, "Indeed the early ones and the latter ones shall certainly be gathered for an appointment of a known day." Judgement day is a certainty and every person shall be raised then to render an account of their deeds to Allāh Ta'āla. The punishment that the disbelievers will suffer in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is then mentioned when Allāh says, "Then, O you deviated falsifiers, you shall surely eat from the Zaqqūm tree. And you shall fill your bellies with it." The Zaqqūm tree is an extremely bitter and hideous looking tree in Hell which the people there will be forced to eat because of their extreme hunger. Not only will they eat a little to appease their hunger, but they will fill their bellies with it. This will add to their suffering.

The disbelievers are further told, "You shall drink boiling water upon it and you shall drink like thirsty camels." Allāh concludes the discussion of the people of Hell by stating, "This is the hospitality they will receive on the Day of Reckoning."

نَحْنُ خَلَقْنَكُمْ فَلَوْلَا تُصَدِّقُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تُمْنُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ ءَأَنْتُمْ تَخْلُقُونَهُ أَمْ نَحْنُ
الْمَخْلُقُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ نَحْنُ قَدَرْنَا بَيْنَكُمْ الْمَوْتَ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَسْبُوقِينَ ﴿٦٠﴾ عَلَىٰ أَنْ يُبَدِّلَ أَمْثَلَكُمْ
وَنُنْشِئَكُمْ فِي مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ وَلَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمُ الْأَوَّلَىٰ فَلَوْلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾
أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَحْرُثُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ ءَأَنْتُمْ تَزْرَعُونَهُ أَمْ نَحْنُ الزَّارِعُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ لَوْ نَشَاءُ لَجَعَلْنَاهُ
حُطَلًا فَظَلَمْتُمْ تَفَكَّهُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾ إِنَّا لَمُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ بَلْ نَحْنُ مَحْرُومُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ أَفَرَأَيْتُمُ الْمَاءَ
الَّذِي تَشْرَبُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ ءَأَنْتُمْ أَنْزَلْتُمُوهُ مِنَ الْمُزْنِ أَمْ نَحْنُ الْمُنْزِلُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ لَوْ نَشَاءُ جَعَلْنَاهُ
أُجَاجًا فَلَوْلَا تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ أَفَرَأَيْتُمُ النَّارَ الَّتِي تُورُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ ءَأَنْتُمْ أَنْشَأْتُمْ شَجَرَتَهَا أَمْ
نَحْنُ الْمُنْشِئُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ نَحْنُ جَعَلْنَاهَا تَذَكُّرًا وَمَتَاعًا لِلْمُقْوِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾ فَسَبِّحْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ
الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٧٤﴾

(57) We have created you, so why do you not accept? (58) Tell me about the seed that you issue forth. (59) Do you create the child or are We the Creators? (60) We have decreed death among you and We are not helpless... (61) .... to replace you with others like you and make you into forms that you have no knowledge of. (62) You have perfect knowledge of the first creation, so why do you not take heed? (63) Tell me about what you plant. (64) Do you make it grow or are We the Ones who make it grow? (65) If We wish We could reduce it to bits and leave you astounded... (66) ...(saying) "We are being taxed." (67) "Rather, we are deprived." (68) Tell me about the water you drink. (69) Do you cause it to rain from the clouds or is it We Who cause it to rain? (70) If We willed it, We could have made the water salty, so why are you not grateful? (71) Tell me about the fire that you kindle. (72) Did you create the tree (to make the fire) or is it We Who created it? (73) We have made it as a reminder and as a source of benefit to the travellers. (74) So glorify the name of your Majestic Lord.

WHO CREATED MAN AND PROVIDED THE MEANS FOR HIS EXISTENCE?

After mentioning the three types of people to be grouped in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), Allāh speaks about the creation of man and the various things that facilitate his existence in this world. Although the rejecters are addressed, the reminder is for all. Allāh says, "We have created you, so why do you not accept?" Allāh says in Surah Dahar [Surah 76, verse 1], "Undoubtedly, a moment in time has passed by man when he was not even something worth mentioning." Man accepts that he was once nothing and none even knew about his birth. Thereafter, it was Allāh who brought him into existence. If Allāh is perfectly Capable of creating man the first time, he is surely able to do so the second time on the Day of Judgement.

At the same time it is necessary to understand that Allāh has created man and that He sent the Anbiya (The Holy Prophets عليهم السلام) for man's guidance and has given man the option to act. It is therefore necessary that He appoints a day for reckoning when people will be granted their rewards or doomed for punishment. (Otherwise the option to do good and abstain from evil is pointless because people will have a free reign to do as they please and justice will never be seen). It is therefore logical that the Day of Judgement has to take place. Despite this, some people still regard Judgement day as an impossibility.

The first man was created from sand, after which the generations issued forth by procreation. Allāh has determined the process of procreation to take place when the sperm of a man meets the egg of a woman. At this stage, a child is conceived to be later born a complete child. With reference to this Allāh says, "Tell me about the seed that you issue forth. Do you create the child or are We the Creators?"

When a husband and wife cohabit, there is no guarantee that a child will be conceived. Conception takes place when Allāh wills. When this does happen, it is only Allāh who sees to the nourishment and development of the child and ensures that the child is born healthy. It often happens that a child is conceived but dies before being born. Only Allāh decides whether a child is born with a deformity or not. Man has no control over these matters. The fact that Allāh is the only One who decides these matters proves that He is the Master and Controller. Yet many men refuse to yield to Him and do not accept the guidance He sent with the Prophets عليهم السلام.

Allāh says further, "We have decreed death among you". Allāh determines when a person will die and man has no say in the matter and has to leave the world when his time expires.

".... and We are not helpless to (destroy you and) replace you with others like you and make you into forms that you have no knowledge of." Allāh has the ability to transform people into any form he desires whenever He desires. Therefore, no man should regard himself to be indispensable and should fear to sin.

"You have perfect knowledge of the first creation, so why do you not take heed?" It is not difficult for man to realise that just as Allāh created him the first time, Allāh is Powerful enough to resurrect him on the Day of Judgement. After creating man the first time, Allāh still retains the power to repeat the process. Allāh says in Surah Qāf, "Did We get tired with the first creation? Nay, but they are in doubt concerning the new creation." [Surah 50, verse 15]

THE BOUNTY OF PLANTATIONS

Allāh says further, "Tell me about what you plant." Man prepares the land for plantation and then plants the seeds of the crop he desires. Thereafter, who sees to it that the seed germinates and grows? Allāh asks, "Do you make it grow or are We the Ones who make it grow?" After the seed is placed in the ground, it is Allāh who decides whether it should grow and to what extent it should grow. Even if the crop grows well, it is again Allāh Who will decide whether man should derive benefit from the crop. Allāh says, "If We wish We could reduce it to bits and leave you astounded (saying) 'We are being taxed. Rather, we are deprived.'" If Allāh sends a calamity to destroy the crop, people complain that all their efforts in tilling and planting were lost.

THE BOUNTY OF RAIN

"Tell me about the water you drink. Do you cause it to rain from the clouds or is it We Who cause it to rain?" Man has no say in the falling of the rain. When man is desperately in need of rain, he stares at the sky in hope. Eventually, Allāh sends him the much needed rain. Allāh says in Surah Shura, 'it is He Who sends the rain after people have lost hope, and distributes His mercy.' [Surah 42, verse 28]

Allāh says further, "If We will We could have made the water salty." Allāh could have easily made the water unpalatable so that no man or animal could drink. However, through His mercy, Allāh made the water tasty and refreshing. Man is also able to use this water to wash himself, his clothing and many other things. It is therefore imperative that he expresses gratitude to Allāh for all of this. Reminding man of this favour, Allāh asks, "so why are you not grateful?"

FIRE IS ALSO A GREAT BOUNTY

Fire is indispensable to man for its multitude of uses. Discussing this favour to man, Allāh says, "Tell me about the fire that you kindle. Did you create the tree (to make the fire) or is it We Who created it? We have made it as a reminder and as a source of benefit to the travellers." The Arabs used a certain tree to strike a fire just as people are able to do so by using stones as flints. Referring to this is Surah Yāsīn, Allāh says, "He (Allāh) Who created fire for you from a green tree, from which you suddenly kindle fires." [Surah 36, verse 80]

Whereas a green tree has a high moisture content that does not allow it to ignite, yet Allāh allows man to make a fire from it. This demonstrates Allāh's great powers; hence the verse states that fire is a "reminder" for man. Although fire can be extremely dangerous and harmful, its benefits are too numerous to mention. Even today when cooking and baking are done using electrical appliances, fire is still used extensively in industries and areas that have no electricity. Fire is also a constant "reminder" of the fire of Hell, reminding us to abstain from all evil and sin.

Allāh says that He had made fire "a source of benefit to the travellers." When people are travelling in remote areas, they light fires when they camp at a place. The fire allows them to cook their food, to stay warm and to keep wild animals away. Another benefit is that a lost traveller can find his way when he sees the light of a fire that others make.

After mentioning all these favour to man, Allāh says, "So glorify the name of your Majestic Lord." The Lord Who gave man all these bounties is Pure from all defects and flaws. It is therefore necessary that man glorifies Allāh's purity at all times.

﴿ 76 ﴾ فَلَا أَقْسَدُ بِمَوْقِعِ النُّجُومِ ﴿ 75 ﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَقَسَمٌ لَّوْ تَعْلَمُونَ عَظِيمٌ ﴿ 76 ﴾ إِنَّهُ
 لَقُرْآنٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿ 77 ﴾ فِي كِتَابٍ مَّكْنُونٍ ﴿ 78 ﴾ لَا يَمَسُّهُ إِلَّا الْمُطَهَّرُونَ ﴿ 79 ﴾ تَنْزِيلٌ مِّنْ
 رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿ 80 ﴾ أَفِيْهِذَا الْحَدِيثِ أَنْتُمْ مُّذْهِبُونَ ﴿ 81 ﴾ وَتَجْعَلُونَ رِزْقَكُمْ أَنَّكُمْ تُكَذِّبُونَ
 ﴿ 82 ﴾

(75) I swear by the "Mawāqī'un Nujūm"! (76) This is undoubtedly a great oath if you knew. (77) Verily it is the honourable Qur'ān... (78) ... in a preserved book. (79) Only the pure ones may touch it. (80) A revelation from the Lord of the universe. (81) Do you regard this as something trivial? (82) Have you fixed as your shares that you shall deny?

THE QUR'ĀN IS DEFINITELY A REVELATION FROM ALLĀH

Allāh highlights the grandeur of the Qur'ān in the foregoing verses. Allāh declares, "I swear by the 'Mawāqī'un Nujūm'! This is undoubtedly a great oath if you knew. Verily it is the honourable Qur'ān in a preserved book." Commentators mention that the "preserved book" refers to the "Lowhul Mahfūdh" ("The Protected Tablet"), as Allāh says at the end of Surah Burūj [Surah 85, verses 21, 22], 'it is the honourable Qur'ān in the protected tablet (Lowhul Mahfūdh)." The Lowhul Mahfūdh is called "The Protected Tablet" because it is protected against any changes and alterations.

What is meant by "Mawāqī'un Nujūm"? While some commentators state that this refers to the points where the stars set, others maintain that it refers to the points where they rise. Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه states that "Mawāqī'un Nujūm" refers to the various portions of the Qur'ān. While the word "Najm" normally refers to stars, it also refers to parts of something that is completed gradually (much like instalments on a payment). The portions of the Qur'ān would therefore refer to the parts of the Qur'ān that were gradually revealed. Taking an oath by these parts of the Qur'ān, Allāh Ta'āla makes it clear that the Qur'ān is safely protected in the protected tablet (Lowhul Mahfūdh) where no man or Jinn can alter it.

Allāh continues, "Only the pure ones may touch it." According to Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, this means that only the pure angels are allowed access to the "protected tablet (Lowhul Mahfūdh)". Allāh then speaks of the Qur'ān when He says that it is "A revelation from the Lord of the universe." It is the duty of Allāh's creation that they believe in the Qur'ān, honour it, learn it, memorise it and teach it. However, many people, especially the people of Makkah, did not show due regard for it and treated it very lightly.

Allāh asks them, “Do you regard this (Qur’ān) as something trivial?” The author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” states that the word “Mudhinūn” (translated above as “regard as something trivial”) is derived from the root word ‘idhān’ which refers to applying oil to leather/skin to soften it. Therefore, the symbolic meaning of the word is that although the disbelievers ought to seriously reflect on the Qur’ān, they have softened their approach to the Qur’ān and treat it like something trivial.

“Have you fixed as your shares that you shall deny?” Instead of being grateful that Allāh had revealed the Qur’ān for their guidance, people refuse to believe in it as if they had already assigned to themselves the task of disbelieving. Therefore, the word which is usually translated as “sustenance” is translated as “share” or “gratitude” in this verse. This translation is appropriate only if it is assumed that the verse is linked to the preceding verses and that it refers to the Qur’ān.

Muslim (v. 1 p. 59) narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه when it once rained. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the prophet’s companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم, “This morning some people were grateful while others were ungrateful. Those who said that the rain was Allāh’s mercy were grateful while those were ungrateful who said that it rained because a certain star fell.” It was then that the verses were revealed where Allāh says, “I swear by the ‘Mawāqī’un Nujūm’ Have you fixed as your shares that you shall deny?”

According to this hadith, the word “Rizq (Sustenance)” assumes its original meaning of sustenance. The verse therefore means that instead of being grateful for the rain Allāh sends to people as sustenance, they choose rather to deny that the bounty came from Him. Instead of attributing the bounty to Him, they attribute it to the stars. Imām Nawawi رحمه الله عليه quotes Sheikh Abu Umar Ibnus Salāh رحمه الله عليه who says that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه does not mean that all the above verses were revealed concerning the incident of the stars. All the verses do not refer to the incident. It is only the verse “Have you fixed as your shares that you shall deny?” that was revealed with reference to the incident.

The other verses refer to another subject. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentioned all the verses because they were revealed simultaneously.

The author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” mentions that the above narration of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه does not contradict the interpretation mentioned earlier concerning the disbeliever’s denial of the Qur’ān. This is so because the Qur’ān speaks of the bounties of this world as well as those of the Hereafter. By reading the bounties mentioned in the Qur’ān, people ought to express their gratitude to Allāh. However, they resign themselves rather to refuting Allāh’s bounties. As a result of this attitude, they attribute the rain to the falling stars instead of to Allāh even though the Qur’ān constantly repeats the fact that it is only Allāh who sends the rains.

THE LAWS PERTAINING TO RECITING AND TOUCHING THE QUR’ĀN

Allāh Ta’āla declares, “Only the pure ones may touch it.” Because the verse is phrased as a statement and not a command, commentators interpret the verse to mean that only the angels who are pure from sin have access to the “Lowhul Mahfūdh (the protected tablet)”. Other commentators are of the opinion that the statement has the meaning of a command. Therefore, they interpret the verse to mean that only people who are pure from Hadath Asghar and Hadath Akbar may touch the Qur’ān. This ruling that prohibits people in any of the above two states of impurity from touching the Qur’ān is not based purely on this interpretation of the verse. There are several authentic Ahadith to substantiate it.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم dispatched Sayyidina Amr bin Hazam رضى الله عنه as governor to Yemen, he had many pieces of advice written for him. Among these was the fact that one may not touch the Qur’ān unless one was in a state of purity.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه also narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Only the pure may touch the Qur’ān.”

Before touching the Qur’ān it is necessary for one to be pure of Hadath Asghar and Hadath Akbar [i.e. in the state of wudhu (ablution) and Ghusl (taking bath)].

A person in an impure state may touch the Qur’ān if the Qur’ān is covered in something that is not attached to the Qur’ān. If the Qur’ān is in a cover that is sewn or attached to the Qur’ān in some way, an impure person may not touch it.

A woman who is menstruating (Haidh) or experiencing afterbirth bleeding (Nifās) may neither touch nor recite the Qur’ān, even from memory. The same applies to a person in the state of Hadath Akbar.

A person in the state of Hadath Asghar [i.e. someone without wudhu (ablution)] may recite the Qur’ān from memory. If he desires to recite while looking into the Qur’ān, he may turn the pages using a cloth to cover his hands or by using a knife or something else for turning.

Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never prohibited anyone from reciting the Qur’ān except the person in the state of Janābah (Hadath Akbar). Women who are bleeding because of menstruation or afterbirth fall into this category because they are required to take a bath.

فَلَوْلَا إِذَا بَلَغَتِ الْحُلُقُومَ ﴿٨٣﴾ وَأَنْتُمْ حِينِيذٍ نَنْظُرُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾ وَنَحْنُ أَقْرَبُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْكُمْ
وَلَكِنْ لَا بُصْرُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ فَلَوْلَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ غَيْرَ مَدِينِينَ ﴿٨٦﴾ تَرْجِعُونَهَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ
﴿٨٧﴾ فَأَمَّا إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُقَرَّبِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾ فَرَوْحٌ وَرَيْحَانٌ وَجَنَّتْ نَعِيمٍ ﴿٨٩﴾ وَأَمَّا إِنْ كَانَ
مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الْيَمِينِ ﴿٩٠﴾ فَسَلَامٌ لَكَ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الْيَمِينِ ﴿٩١﴾ وَأَمَّا إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ
الْمُكَذِّبِينَ الضَّالِّينَ ﴿٩٢﴾ فَنُزُلٌ مِنْ حَمِيمٍ ﴿٩٣﴾ وَتَصْلِيَةٌ جَمِيمٍ ﴿٩٤﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا لَهُوَ حَقُّ
الْيَقِينِ ﴿٩٥﴾

(83) Then why do you not (intervene) when the soul reaches the throat... (84) and you are all there watching? (85) We are even nearer to him than you but you fail to see. (86) If you are exempt from reckoning, why do you not... (87) ...return the soul if you are truthful? (88) Therefore, if he was from among those brought close... (89) ... he shall have comfort, sustenance and the garden of bliss. 90. If he was from among the people of right... (91) .... (he will be told), "Peace be on you. You are from the people of the right." (92) However, if he was among the rejecters and deviated ones... (93) ... he will be served boiling water... (94) .... and shall enter the blazing fire. (95) This is most definitely the irrefutable truth.

WHY DO YOU NOT RETURN THE SOUL TO THE BODY AT THE TIME OF DEATH IF YOU ARE EXEMPT FROM RECKONING?

In these verses, Allāh Ta'āla highlights man's helplessness at the time of death and also mentions the plight that each of the three groups of the Hereafter shall experience.

Allāh created man and commanded him to carry out many acts and to abstain from many others. These commands are to test man's obedience to Allāh. Allāh says in Surah Mulk that He "created life and death to test which of you will carry out the best deeds." [Surah 67, verse 2]

It is therefore evident that death has to follow life, after which people will be tried and given the rewards or punishment they deserve. Man has no say in the matter of death. Allāh has predetermined the length of every person's life and when s/he shall die. None can postpone or prepone this hour. It is impossible to do anything to disrupt Allāh's plan of events.

In the above verses, Allāh tells man that when another person is dying and everyone else is watching and sympathising, none of them is able to do anything for the person even though they all wish to save his life. Allāh says that He is closer to the person than those standing around him because Allāh knows the person's physical and spiritual conditions. Allāh asks, "If you are exempt from reckoning, why do you not return the soul if you are truthful" Every man has to appear for reckoning and has to leave this world to do so. Because none is exempt, none has the choice to remain any longer than the period that Allāh has fixed. When Allāh sends the angels of death to extract the souls of people, those around them are helpless to save them. Allāh therefore makes it clear that just as people are helpless in this world, they will also be helpless in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) when Allāh will restore people's souls to their bodies so that they may render an account for their deeds.

Despite the fact that all these events are a certainty, some people still reject them without any substantiation. If man had the power to prevent death, he would then certainly have the power to prevent restoration of life on the Day of Judgement. Only then will they be justified in claiming that man will not be resurrected and will not be tried for his deeds. However, in this very world, man can see for himself that he is totally helpless against death. Therefore, it is certain that he is also helpless to prevent resurrection and has no grounds to say that Judgement day shall not take place. Hence, his word is nothing against Allāh's clearly revealed verses of the Qur'ān.

Concerning the deceased person Allāh says, "Therefore, if he was from among those brought close, he shall have comfort, sustenance and the garden of bliss. If he was from among the people of right (he will be told), 'Peace be on you. You are from the people of the right.'

On the other hand, "if he was among the rejecters and deviated ones, he will be served boiling water and shall enter the blazing fire."

None can deny any of the above because "This is most definitely the irrefutable truth."

(96) So glorify the name of your Majestic Lord.

Allāh concludes the Surah with this verse which is identical to verse 74 of this Surah. After mentioning the various bounties that He has bestowed on man and after sounding stern warnings to the Disbelievers, Allāh instructs, "So glorify the name of your Majestic Lord." Allāh is free from all defects and Most Glorious. Therefore, whatever He informs man is the absolute truth. It is necessary for man to express His glory and to be convinced about it. It is best that Allāh be glorified (through Tasbīh ) and praised during certain special hours.

Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه narrates that when the verse "Fa Sabbih Bismi Rabbikal Azīm" ("So glorify the name of your Majestic Lord") was revealed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed his companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم to recite it in the Ruku. It is for this reason that we recite "Subhāna Rabbiyal Azīm" during Ruku. He states that when the verse "Sabhi Hisma Rabbikal A'lā" was revealed, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed them to recite it in the Sajdah (prostration). Hence, we recite "Subhāna Rabbiyal A'lā during Sajdah (prostration)".

NOTE : Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who recites Surah Wāqī 'ah every night shall never suffer from poverty."

Therefore, Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه used to instruct his daughters to recite Surah Wā'qiah every night. [Shu'abul Belief v. 2 p. 492]

When Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه was on his deathbed, Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه asked him, "What do you desire?" "Allāh's mercy," came the reply. When Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه asked him whether he needed a doctor, he replied, "The doctor made me ill (i.e. Allāh, Who is the real healer, has given me this illness)." When Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه asked whether he should send an allowance for him, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه replied that he had no need for an allowance. Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه insisted that he accept it because he was leaving his family behind. To this, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه replied, "I have taught them something which if they continue reciting, they will never be in need. I have heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say that the person who recites Surah Wāqī 'ah every night will never suffer from poverty."

"Kanzul Ummāl" (v. 1 p. 592) reports, "Teach Surah Wā'qiah to your women because it is a Surah of wealth."

سورة الحديد

Madinan

Surah Al-Hadīd

Verses 29

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

سَبَّحَ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿١﴾ لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٢﴾ هُوَ الْأَوَّلُ وَالْآخِرُ وَالظَّاهِرُ وَالْبَاطِنُ وَهُوَ
بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٣﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَى عَلَى
الْعَرْشِ يَعْلَمُ مَا يَلِجُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا وَمَا يَنْزِلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَمَا يَعْرُجُ فِيهَا وَهُوَ
مَعَكُمْ أَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٤﴾ لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ
تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ ﴿٥﴾ يُولِجُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُولِجُ النَّهَارَ فِي اللَّيْلِ وَهُوَ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ
﴿٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) Everything in the heavens and the earth glorifies Allāh. He is the Mighty, the Wise. (2) To Him belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth, He gives life and death and has power over all things. (3) He is the First, the Last, the Apparent, the Hidden and He has knowledge of everything. (4) It is He Who created the heavens and the earth in six days and then focussed on the throne. He knows what enters the earth, what emerges from it, what descends from the sky and what lifts into it. He is with you wherever you are and Allāh sees whatever you do. (5) To Him belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth and all matters return to Allāh. (6) He enters the night into the day and the day into the night. He has knowledge of the secrets of the heart.

THE KINGDOM OF THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH BELONGS TO ALLĀH WHO HAS KNOWLEDGE OF EVERYTHING

These opening verses of Surah Hadid describe some of Allāh's qualities. Allāh begins by saying, "Everything in the heavens and the earth glorifies Allāh. He is the Mighty, the Wise. To Him belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth, He gives life and death and has power over all things." The verse continues to say that Allāh

"is the First" i.e. He was in existence before creation. He is also "the Last", meaning that He will be there after creation has perished. Therefore, there never was and never will be a time when Allāh is not there. In addition to this, Allāh is also "the Apparent" in that He can be recognised by the numerous signs in creation. At the same time, Allāh is also "the Hidden" because He cannot be seen in this world. Nothing is hidden from Him though because "He has knowledge of everything."

"It is He Who created the heavens and the earth in six days and then focussed on the throne. He knows what enters the earth, what emerges from it, what descends from the sky and what lifts into it. He is with you wherever you are and Allāh sees whatever you do." These verses describe the complete knowledge of Allāh, emphasising the fact that nothing can be hidden from Him.

"To Him belongs the kingdom of the heavens and the earth and all matters return to Allāh." The deeds of all will be presented before Allāh on the Day of Judgement so that the decisions for reward and punishment can be made.

"He enters the night into the day and the day into the night." Allāh causes the alternating of day and night, with one being longer than the other during the various seasons. Allāh also "has knowledge of the secrets of the heart." Allāh knows whatever people think and is aware of the disbelief or Belief that a person's heart conceals.

ءَامِنُوا بِاللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهِۦ ۚ وَاَنْفِقُوْا مِمَّا جَعَلَكُمْ مُّسْتَخْلَفِيْنَ فِيْهِۦۤ فَالَّذِيْنَ ءَامَنُوْا مِنْكُمْ
وَاَنْفَقُوْا لَهُمْ اَجْرٌ كَبِيْرٌ ﴿٧﴾ وَمَا لَكُمْ لَا تُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ وَالرَّسُوْلِ يَدْعُوْكُمْ لَتُؤْمِنُوْا بِرَبِّكُمْ
وَقَدْ اَخَذَ مِيْثَاقَكُمْ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ﴿٨﴾ هُوَ الَّذِيْ يُزِيْلُ عَنِ عَبْدِهٖۤ ؕ اٰيٰتٍ يَلِيْنٰتٍ
لِّيُخْرِجَكُمْ مِّنَ الظُّلُمٰتِ اِلَى النُّوْرِ ۗ وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ بِكُمْ لَرَءُوْفٌ رَّحِيْمٌ ﴿٩﴾ وَمَا لَكُمْ اَلَّا
تُنْفِقُوْا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَلِلّٰهِ مِيرٰثُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ لَا يَسْتَوِيْ مِنْكُمْ مَّنْ اَنْفَقَ مِنْ قَبْلِ
الْفَتْحِ وَقَتْلِ اُولٰٓئِكَ اَعْظَمُ دَرَجَةً مِّنَ الَّذِيْنَ اَنْفَقُوْا مِنْۢ بَعْدِ وَقَتْلَوْا ۚ وَكُلًّا وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ
الْحُسْنٰى ۗ وَاللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ خَبِيْرٌ ﴿١٠﴾ مَّن ذَا الَّذِيْ يُقْرِضُ اللّٰهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا فَيُضَاعِفُهٗ لَهٗ
وَلَهٗۤ اَجْرٌ كَرِيْمٌ ﴿١١﴾

(7) Believe in Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and spend from the wealth of which Allāh has made you inheritors. There shall be a great reward for those of you who believe and spend. (8) Why is it that you do not believe in Allāh when the messenger is calling you to believe in your Lord and when Allāh has taken a pledge from you? (That is) if you want to believe. (9) It is He Who revealed clear verses to His slave to remove you from darkness (and bring you) into light. Indeed Allāh is Most Compassionate and Most Merciful towards you. (10) Why is it that you do not spend in Allāh's way when the heritage of the heavens and the earth belongs to Him?. None of you can equal those who spent and fought (in battle) before the conquest (of Makkah). These people are greater in status than those who spent and fought after (the conquest of Makkah). However, Allāh has promised good for all and Allāh is Informed of what you do. (11) Who is it that will lend to Allāh a beautiful loan so that Allāh may multiply it for him and so that he may have a bounteous reward?

BELIEVE IN ALLĀH AND HIS HOLY PROPHET ﷺ AND SPEND FROM WHAT HE HAS GIVEN YOU

In the first of the above five verses, Allāh instructs, "Believe in Allāh and His Holy Prophet ﷺ and spend from the Wealth of Which Allāh has made you inheritors." Allāh reminds man that the wealth he now has once belonged to others and that Allāh had granted it to him. He should therefore spend it in a manner that pleases Allāh so that it may profit him before it is given to another person. Whatever one spends in Allāh's way as a believer shall never be wasted because "There shall be a great reward for those of you who believe and spend."

Allāh asks, "Why is it that you do not believe in Allāh when the messenger is calling you to believe in your Lord?" Allāh did not leave man on his own but sent the Holy Prophet ﷺ to call people towards Oneness of Allāh. However, many still refuse to believe. In addition to this, "Allāh has (also) taken a pledge from you?" This pledge refers to the pledge of "Alist", which was discussed in the commentary of verses 172 to 174 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7). When this pledge was taken, every soul attested to the fact that Allāh is their Lord.

"(That is) if you want to believe." If people really want to believe, they have no excuses to offer because the proofs have been made clear, the signs are manifest and there are answers for all their doubts.

Thereafter, Allāh mentions his sending Prophet ﷺ and the Qur'ān to mankind. Allāh says, "it is He (Allāh) Who revealed clear verses (of the Qur'ān) to His slave [The Holy Prophet ﷺ] to remove you from darkness [of disbelief and polytheism (shirk)] (and bring you) into the light (of Belief and Islām). Indeed Allāh is Most Compassionate and Most Merciful towards you." Allāh's compassion towards man is evident from the many favours that He bestows to man.

Allāh again encourages people to spend in His cause by saying, "Why is it that you do not spend in Allāh's way when the heritage of the heavens and the earth belongs to Him?" Whatever man spends really belongs to Allāh. Allāh is the real Owner and Master of all wealth while man is only a temporary trustee of this wealth. Man will have to leave everything behind when he dies, after which it will be the property of another person just as it came to him earlier. Eventually, all shall perish to leave everything for Allāh.

THOSE WHO SPENT BEFORE THE CONQUEST OF MAKKAH

There were many Muslims who spent their wealth for Islām before the conquest of Makkah and fought for Islām during this period. After the conquest of Makkah, Islām grew strong and there was no longer a fear that Islām will be vanquished. Allāh says, "None of you can equal those who spent and fought (in battle) before the conquest (of Makkah). These people are greater in status than those who spent and fought after (the conquest of Makkah). However, Allāh has promised good (forgiveness and Heaven) for all and Allāh is Informed of what you do." Allāh has knowledge of every good deed that a person does and shall reward every person even though the person may carry out the deed well after the conquest of Makkah.

The sentence "Allāh has promised good for all" tells us that Allāh Ta 'aala has promised Heaven to all the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم. Allāh also mentions in Surah Tauba, "The first to lead the way, from the Immigrants, the Ansār, and those who followed them with sincerity; Allāh is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. He has prepared for them such gardens beneath which rivers flow, wherein they shall abide forever. This is the ultimate success." [Surah 9, verse 100]

Allāh has promised Heaven to the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم and has declared that He is pleased with them all. However, calling themselves Muslims, the Rawāfidh falsify this promise of Allāh by claiming that all the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم save a few were disbelievers. Among the 'first to lead the way' were Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, both of whom the Rawāfidh hate.

WHO WILL GIVE A LOAN TO ALLĀH?

Allāh asks, "Who is it that will lend to Allāh a beautiful loan so that Allāh may multiply it for him and so that he may have a bounteous reward?" Allāh is the Creator and Master of man as well as the Creator and Master of the wealth that man possesses. When man spends his wealth for Allāh's pleasure, Allāh refers to it as a "beautiful loan" and will greatly multiply the reward for this. Allāh has no need for man's wealth and man does only himself a favour by spending in worthy courses. The wealth Allāh asks man to spend belongs to Allāh and the direct benefit of the spent wealth accrues to other men like himself. Despite this, Allāh multiplies the spender's rewards a minimum of seven hundred times and even more if He pleases. Giving a "beautiful loan" entails (among other factors) spending Halāl wealth and spending it happily.

Muslim (v. 2 p. 258) reports a hadith in which it is stated that when the last third of the night remains, Allāh proclaims. "Who shall supplicate to Me so that I accept his supplication? Who shall ask of Me so that I may grant his request? Who shall beg Me for forgiveness so that I may forgive him? Who shall give a loan to One Who has everything and Who does not oppress?" This announcement continues until dawn. Allāh says that the loan should be given to "One Who has everything" so that no person thinks that Allāh is in need of his wealth. It is only the spender who stands to gain. Nothing spent in Allāh's way is wasted because the reward will certainly accrue in the Hereafter.

يَوْمَ تَرَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ يَسْعَى نُورُهُمْ بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَبِأَيْمَانِهِمْ بُشْرَانُكُمْ الْيَوْمَ جَنَّتٌ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿١٢﴾ يَوْمَ يَقُولُ الْمَتَّقُونَ وَالْمُتَّقَاتُ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَنْظَرُونَا نَقْتَسِمَ مِنْ نُورِكُمْ قِيلَ ارْجِعُوا وَرَاءَكُمْ فَالْتَمِسُوا نُورًا فَضَرَبَ بَيْنَهُمُ سُبُورًا

لَهُمْ بَابٌ بِأَبْوَابِهِ فِيهِ الرَّحْمَةُ وَظَاهِرٌ مِنْ قِبَلِهِ الْعَذَابُ ﴿١٣﴾ ينادونهم ألم نكن معكم قالوا بلى ولكن كنتم فنتم أنفسكم وتربصتم وازتبتم وعزتكم الأمانى حتى جاء أمر الله وعزكم بالله العزور ﴿١٤﴾ فالיום لا يؤخذ منكم فدية ولا من الذين كفروا ماؤنكم النار هي مؤنكم وبئس المصير ﴿١٥﴾

(12) On the day (of Judgement), you will see the light of believing men and believing women run ahead of them and on their right-hand sides. "Today you are given the glad tidings of gardens beneath which rivers flow, where you shall live forever." That is the supreme success. (13) On that day the hypocrite men and hypocrite women shall say to the believers, "Wait for us so that we may have some of your light." It will be said, "Return from where you came and seek light there!" Then a wall with a door will be placed between them. Allāh's mercy will be on the inside while there will be punishment on the outside. (14) They (the hypocrites) will call out to them (the believers), "Were we not with you?" They will reply, "Certainly, but you trapped yourselves in deviation, you laid in wait, you doubted and hopes deceived you until Allāh's command arrived. And the deceiver deceived you about Allāh." (15) "Today ransom shall neither be accepted from you nor from the disbelievers. Your abode shall be the Fire and it is the worst of places to return to."

THE BELIEVERS SHALL HAVE LIGHT ON THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT WHILE THE HYPOCRITES WILL REMAIN IN DARKNESS

These verses speak about the condition of the believers (Mu'minīn), (Mu'mināt) (female believers), Hypocrites (Munāfiqīn) and female Hypocrites (female Munāfiqāt) on the Day of Judgment. Addressing the reader, Allāh says, "On the day (of Judgement), you will see the light of believing men and believing women run ahead of them and on their right hand sides. (They will be told) "Today you are given the glad tidings of gardens beneath which rivers flow, where you shall live forever." That is the supreme success."

On the Day of Judgement, every type of person will be present, the believer, the disbeliever, the hypocrite and the polytheist. The disbelievers and Polytheists will be in total darkness while the believers will be given a light by which they will be able to cross the bridge of Sirāt. The intensity of light every believer will receive will depend on the amount of good deeds he carried out. As the believers will proceed ahead with the aid of their lights, the hypocrites will follow them. However, the hypocrites will fall far behind until they are left in total darkness. They will then plead to the believers saying, "Wait for us so that we may have some of your light."

However, "It will be said (to them), 'Return from where you came and seek light there!' Then a wall with a door will be placed between them. Allāh's mercy will be on the inside while there will be punishment on the outside." With this barrier in place, the hypocrites will be separated from the believers and will be unable to reach them.

They will therefore be left in darkness.

"They (the hypocrites) will call out to them (the believers), 'Were we not with you?'" The hypocrites live among the believers, perform Salāh with them and even participate in Jihād expeditions with the believers. They will therefore question the believers for leaving them in darkness. The Believers will reply saying, "Certainly, but you trapped yourselves in deviation, you laid in wait (for a calamity to befall the Muslims), you doubted (the truth of Islām) and hopes deceived you until Allāh's command arrived." Then hypocrites anticipated that Islām will be short-lived and will not make any progress. Although they pretended to be Muslims, they actually bore enmity towards the Muslims. It is for this reason that they never became sincere Muslims and always hoped the worst for Islām and the Muslims. In this manner they led their lives "until Allāh's command arrived" i.e. until death overtook them. When death overtakes a person, it is too late to make Taubah (repentance). In addition to this, "the deceiver deceived you about Allāh." The "deceiver" refers to Satan, who leads such people astray until they are unable to tell truth from falsehood.

It will then be said to the hypocrites, "Today ransom shall neither be accepted from you nor from the disbelievers. Your abode shall be the Fire and it is the worst of places to return to." The hypocrites shall also suffer eternal damnation like the disbelievers. ["Durrul Manthūr"]

Although the verse mentions that the light of the believers shall be "ahead of them and on their right-hand sides", it does not mean that they will not have light on their left-hand sides. The following hadith mentions the light on their left-hand sides. A person once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "There must have been a great many Ummahs between your Ummah and the Ummah of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. How will you be able to recognise your Ummah on the Day of Judgement?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Because of making wudhu (ablution), the faces, hands and feet of my Ummah shall be shining bright. No other Ummah shall have this feature. I shall also recognise them by the mark of prostration on their foreheads. Another feature of theirs shall be that there shall be light ahead of them as well as on their right- and left-hand sides." [Hakim v. 2 p. 478]

"Allāh's mercy will be on the inside while there will be punishment on the outside." While some commentators are of the opinion that this wall refers to the "A'rāf", which will separate the believers from the disbelievers (and hypocrites), others maintain that it refers to another wall. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" writes that it is the wall between Heaven and Hell. Nothing conclusive can be said about the reason for the door in the wall or about how long it will remain. It is possible that the door could be there to facilitate communication between the people of Heaven and the people of Hell. Reference is made to this communication in Surah Saffāt where Allāh says that a person in Heaven will be asked, "Do you want to have a look at him (your disbeliever friend)?" When he looks, he will see him in the midst of Hell. He will say, "By Allah! You almost destroyed me. If it were not for the bounty of my Lord, I would have certainly been from those brought forward (for punishment)." [Surah, verses 54-57]

It is also possible that the door refers to the door of Heaven through which the believers shall enter after separating from the hypocrites. It will remain open only until they all enter. Thereafter it will be sealed forever. Allāh knows best.

NOTE : Concerning the light of the believers on the Day of Judgement, Allāh says in Surah Tahrim, "On that day Allāh shall not disgrace the Holy Prophet and the believers with him. Their light shall travel ahead of them and on their right hand sides. They will say, 'O our Lord! Perpetuate our light for us and forgive us. Verily You have power over everything.'" [Surah 66, verse 8]

Although all good deeds are a source of light in the Hereafter, the Ahadith have mentioned certain deeds that are a special source of light. Sayyidina Burayda رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Give the glad tidings of perfect light on the Day of Judgement to those who proceed to the Masajid in the darkness." [Tirmidhi and Abu Dawūd]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Amr bin Al Ās رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "For the person who performs Salāh regularly, Salāh shall be a light for him on the Day of Judgement, a proof (to his Belief) and a means of salvation for him. As for the person who does not perform Salāh regularly, it will neither be a light nor a proof nor a means of salvation. Such a person will be raised on the Day of Judgement with the likes of Qārūn, phara'oh (Fir'oun), his minister Hāmān and Ubay bin Khalaf ." [Ahmad v. 2 p. 169]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'id Khudri رضى الله عنه quotes from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the person who recites Surah Kahf on a Friday shall have light between that Friday and the next. [Bayhaqi v. 3 p. 249]

Sayyidina Amr bin Shu'ayb رضى الله عنه reports from his great grandfather that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not remove a white hair because it is a light of a Muslim. When a person grows a white hair as a Muslim, a good deed is recorded in lieu of it, a sin is forgiven for it and he is elevated a rank (in Heaven) because of it." ["Mishkāt" p. 382 from Abu Dawūd]

﴿أَلَمْ يَأْنِ لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَنْ تَخْشَعَ قُلُوبُهُمْ لِذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَمَا نَزَلَ مِنَ الْحَقِّ وَلَا يَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ مِنْ قَبْلُ فَطَالَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْأَمَدُ فَقَسَتْ قُلُوبُهُمْ وَكَثِيرٌ مِنْهُمْ فَسِقُونَ﴾ (16) ﴿أَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا قَدْ بَيَّنَّا لَكُمُ الْآيَاتِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ﴾ (17)

(16) Has the time not arrived for the hearts of the believers to submit to Allāh's remembrance and the truth that has been revealed? Do not become like those who were given the Book before, after which a long period of time elapsed and their hearts hardened? A large number of them were sinners. (17) Know that Allāh revives the earth after its death. We have expounded the signs for you so that you may understand.

HAS THE TIME NOT ARRIVED FOR THE HEARTS OF THE BELIEVERS TO SUBMIT?

The above verse addresses those Muslims who are lacking in good deeds and whose hearts have not yet focussed on Allāh's Dhikr and the Qur'ān as it should have. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once entered the Masjid where he found some companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم laughing. As the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم moved his shawl from his face, it was noticed that his face was reddening. He said, "Are you laughing when your Lord has not yet revealed a surety that you are forgiven? (You should therefore not waste your time laughing and jesting). Concerning your laughter Allāh has revealed the verse: 'Has the time not arrived for the hearts of the believers to submit to Allāh's remembrance and the truth that has been revealed...'".

The prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! What is the expiation for our laughter?" In reply, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Cry as much as you have laughed."

This verse was once recited in the presence of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه while some people from Yamama were with him. When they began to weep, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said to them, "We also used to cry like this. Thereafter, such people came whose hearts were hard." ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 27 p. 179, 180]

This verse makes it clear that the people of Belief should devote themselves to Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr), recitation of the Qur'ān and understanding the Qur'ān. Belief will be strengthened when the heart submits to Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) and to the Qur'ān. When this submission is missing, the heart begins to harden. As the heart hardens, a person becomes more inclined towards the world and loses concern for the Ākhirah. The person will then complete two Rakāhs Salāh in less than a minute, all the while thinking about his worldly activities instead of concentrating on his Salāh.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Apart from Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr), do not speak excessively because talks apart from Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) cause the heart to harden. The heart that is hard is furthest from Allāh." [Tirmidhi]

A FASCINATING INCIDENT

Sayyidina Fudhayl bin Ayādh رحمه الله عليه was a famous Muhaddith (Scholar of hadith) and is regarded as one of the greatest saints. Before becoming pious, he was a robber. During this period it transpired that he fell in love with a certain woman. As he was scaling a wall to meet her, he heard someone reciting the verse: "Has the time not arrived for the hearts of the believers to submit to Allāh's remembrance and the truth that has been revealed?" As soon as he heard this verse, he exclaimed, "Certainly O my Lord. The time has certainly arrived." Saying this, he turned and headed towards a deserted house. There he found a few travellers consulting. When one suggested that they leave on their way, the other proposed that they wait for the morning because Fudhayl was in the area and would rob them.

When Fudhayl overheard this conversation, he thought, "I have been spending my entire nights in sin and the Muslims are now terrified of me. It seems as if Allāh Ta'āla has sent me here this night so that I forsake sinning." He then made the following Supplication to Allāh Ta'āla, "O Allāh! I beseech Your forgiveness and my repentance is that I shall spend my life at Your sacred home (in Makkah)."

He then left for Makkah where he spent his entire life in Ibadāh. Whenever tears came to his eyes, he would weep so much that the people around him would take pity on him. Allāma Ibn Hibbān رحمه الله writes about Sayyidina Fudhayl رحمه الله عليه: "He took up residence in Makkah Mukarramah with great sacrifice. He was always abstinent and feared Allāh greatly. He would cry a lot, spend much of his time in solitude and avoid people. Until he passed away He kept no material possessions."

Sayyidina Fudhayl bin Ayādh رحمه الله once saw some people joking and laughing while learning Ahadith. He called them and said, "O heirs of the Anbiya (The Holy Prophets عليهم السلام! Enough! Enough! Enough! You are leaders who will be followed."

On one occasion when he noticed someone laughing he said, 'I shall tell you something good.' He then recited the verse: "Do not be boastful, for verily Allāh does not like the boastful."

DO NOT BE LIKE THE AHLUL KITĀB (PEOPLE OF BOOK)

Addressing the believers further, Allāh says, "Do not become like those who were given the Book before (i.e. the Jews and Christians), after which a long period of time elapsed and their hearts hardened?" As time passed, the Jews and Christians grew negligent of the teachings of their scriptures and fell deeper into sin. Eventually when they failed to repent to Allāh, their hearts hardened. When this happened, they were unable to differentiate between good and evil and saw no need to preserve their religions. As a result, many of them resorted to disbelief and polytheism (shirk). Referring to this condition, Allah says, "A large number of them were sinners."

It is therefore necessary for believers to make their hearts submit, to engage in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr), to recite the Qur'ān and to practise the injunctions of the Qur'ān. May Allāh protect us from becoming like the Jews and Christians. Āmin.

Allāh then says. "Know that Allāh revives the earth after its death." Just as Allāh revives dead ground when He sends the rains, He can soften hard hearts when people engage in remembrance (Dhikr) and recitation of the Qur'ān. "We have expounded the signs for you so that you may understand."

إِنَّ الْمُصْذِقِينَ وَالْمُصْذَقَاتِ وَأَقْرَضُوا اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا يَضَعُ لَهُمْ وَلَهُمْ أَجْرٌ
كَبِيرٌ ﴿١٨﴾ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الصَّادِقُونَ وَالشَّهَدَاءُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ لَهُمْ
أَجْرُهُمْ وَنُورُهُم وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿١٩﴾

(18) Verily Allāh shall multiply (the rewards of) those men who give charity, those women who give charity and those who give Allāh a beautiful loan. Theirs shall be a bounteous reward. (19) Those who believe in Allāh and His messengers are extremely true. The martyrs shall be near their Lord where they shall have their reward and light. Those who disbelieve and deny Our signs will be the dwellers of the Blaze.

THE REWARDS OF THOSE WHO SPEND IN CHARITY

Concerning those people who spend sincerely in charity, Allāh says, “Verily Allāh shall multiply (the rewards of) those men who give charity, those women who give charity and those who give Allāh a beautiful loan. Theirs shall be a bounteous reward.” This discussion has been given in the commentary of verse 12 of this Surah.

WHO ARE THE “SIDDIQĪN?

Allāh says, “Those who believe in Allāh and His messengers are extremely true (the Siddiqīn).” Real Belief means that one’s belief in Allāh should be absolutely true and without a trace of doubt. Belief also demands that a person be true in word and deed. Although truthfulness generally refers to truthfulness in speech, the Arabic word “Sidq” (truthfulness) refers to truth in speech and in action. Similarly, lying can also be in word and deed.

Sayyidina Asmā bint Abi Bakr رضى الله عنها narrates that a woman once told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that she was a co-wife, and asked whether she could tell her husband’s other wife that her husband had given her certain things. which he did not (merely to make her jealous). The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, “The person who falsely claims that he/she was given something is like a person who dons clothing of lies.” This means that the person is covered in lies from head to toe. This hadith refers to lying in word and in deed.

Allāh says further, “The martyrs shall be near their Lord where they shall have their reward and light.” According to this translation, the sentence concerning the Shuhadā (martyrs) is not linked to the sentence concerning the Siddiqīn. However, the sentence can also be regarded as part of the preceding sentence. If regarded as part of the preceding sentence, it would mean that both the Siddiqīn and the Shuhadā (martyrs) shall be near their Lord and will enjoy their rewards and light. The Arabic context of the phrase “shall be near their Lord” means that it is by Allāh’s command that they are as they are, or that their condition is within His knowledge. [“Ma’ālimut Tanzil” v. 4 p. 298]

According to the general intent of the verse (i.e. if all the phrases were to be linked), every person who believes in Allāh and His Anbiya (The Holy Prophets عليهم السلام) shall be regarded as Siddiqīn and Shuhadā. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه once said to the people sitting with him, “You are all Siddiqīn (Righteous) and Shuhadā (martyrs).” When someone exclaimed, “What are you saying?” Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه recited the above verse without separating the phrases, which is translated as: “Those who believe in Allāh and His messengers are extremely true and martyrs by their Lord (i.e. in the sight of their Lord).”

After reporting this, the author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” writes that it is appropriate to say that “those who believe in Allāh and His messengers” refers to people with perfect belief and who carry out actions that behave people with perfect Belief. The person who is a believer but who engages in acts of carnal passion and is negligent of the commands of the Shari’ah can scarcely be regarded as a Shahid (martyr) and a Siddiq (true believer).

Allāh says in Surah Nisā, “Whoever obeys Allāh and His messenger,, then they will be with those the Holy Prophets, “Siddiqīn”, martyrs and “Sālihīn” upon whom Allāh has bestowed His bounties. These are indeed the best of companions.” It is apparent from this verse that the Anbiya (The Holy Prophets عليهم السلام), the Siddiqīn (true believers) and the Shuhadā (martyrs) hold a very high status. Other believers will be able to share their company who make good companions for them. Combining the two verses conveys the idea that although the average believer belongs to the category of the Siddiqīn (true believers) and Shuhadā (martyrs), there will be group from among them who will attain greatly elevated ranks on account of their excellent Belief and good deeds. Others will be granted the honour of sharing their company despite the vast difference in status. Those that will enjoy the elevated ranks receive the title of “Siddiq” because of their true belief, such as Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. He accepted the message of Islām as soon as he heard it and remained steadfast until his last breath. He sacrificed his health and wealth for Islām and on one occasion gave everything he possessed in Allāh’s path.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once climbing Mount Uhud with Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, and Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه when the mountain began shaking. Striking his foot on the mountain, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Be still! There is a Prophet, a Siddiq and two martyrs on you.” [Bukhari]

In this hadith, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم foretold that both Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه would be martyrs. The Ahadith mention certain deeds that one may carry out to be included in the ranks of the Prophets عليهم السلام, the Siddiqīn (true believers) and the Shuhadā (martyrs). Sayyidina Abu Sa’id Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “The truthful and trustworthy trader will be with Prophets and the Siddiqīn.” [Tirmidhi]

In Surah Maryam (Surah 19), Allāh refers to Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام as a Siddiq (verse 41) as well a Sayyidina Idrīs عليه السلام (verse 56). Verse 75 of Surah Mā’idah also gives Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام the title of Siddiq. Therefore, the class of the Siddiqīn is divided into several categories. Belonging to these categories are both the Prophet’s عليهم السلام as well as their followers. Of course, the status of these groups vary. The Siddiqīn (true believers) and the Shuhadā (martyrs) referred to in verse 69 of Surah Nisā belong to the highest category of Siddiqīn (true believers) and Shuhadā (martyrs).

WHO ARE THE SHUHADĀ (MARTYRS)?

While some commentators state that the Shuhadā (martyrs) are those who die fighting in Jihād, other commentators are of the opinion that the word Shuhadā means “Shāhidīn” i.e. witnesses. The witnesses are those who will testify on the Day of Judgement, such as the Prophets عليهم السلام who will testify against their respective nations. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Ummah will testify that the previous Prophets عليهم السلام truly preached to their Ummahs and, when the Ummahs will question the veracity of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Ummah, he will testify to this. The details of this have passed in Surah Baqarah [Surah 2, verse 143], Surah Nisā [Surah 4, verse 41] and Surah Hajj [Surah 22, verse 78].

Besides the Prophets عليهم السلام, there are many others who will be given the honour of being witnesses on the Day of Judgement. One should aspire to attain this noble position and make an effort to stay away from all deeds that are unbecoming of the status of a witness. Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that people who curse often will be deprived of being witnesses and intercessors on the Day of Judgement. [Muslim v. 2 p. 322]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "It is inappropriate for a Siddiq to curse." [Ibid]

A Siddiq should guard his tongue and take care not to curse any person or any animal. It is unfortunate that many teachers are in the habit of cursing the children they teach.

Allāh terminates the verse by mentioning the opposite of these pious people when He says, "Those who disbelieve and deny our signs will be the dwellers of the Blaze."

أَعْلَمُوا أَنَّهَا الْحَيَوةُ الدُّنْيَا لَعِبٌ وَهَوٌّ وَزِينَةٌ وَتَفَاخُرٌ بَيْنَكُمْ وَتَكَاثُرٌ فِي الْأَمْوَالِ
وَالْأَوْلَادِ كَمَثَلِ غَيْثٍ أَعْجَبَ الْكُفَّارَ نَبَاتُهُ ثُمَّ يَهِيجُ فَتَرَاهُ مُصْفَرًّا ثُمَّ يَكُونُ حُطَمًا
وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانٌ وَمَا الْحَيَوةُ الدُّنْيَا إِلَّا مَتَاعُ
الْعُرُورِ ﴿٢٠﴾ سَابِقُوا إِلَىٰ مَغْفِرَةٍ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ وَجَنَّةٍ عَرْضُهَا كَعَرْضِ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ
أُعِدَّتْ لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ ذَٰلِكَ فَضْلُ اللَّهِ يُؤْتِيهِ مَن يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ ذُو
الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٢١﴾

(20) Know that the life of this world is merely play, futility, decoration, boasting among each other and rivalry in wealth and children. The example of this is like rain which feeds the plants that amaze farmers. Thereafter it dries and you will see it become yellow, only to be reduced to bits. In the Hereafter there shall be severe punishment, forgiveness and (Allāh's) pleasure. The life of this world is but a commodity of deception. (21) Race towards the forgiveness of your Lord and a Heaven, the width of which is like that of the sky and the earth. It has been prepared for those who believe in Allāh and His messengers. That is the grace of Allāh which He gives to whoever He desires. Allāh is the Possessor of immense grace.

THE WORLD IS A PLACE OF DECEPTION

Allāh describes the life of this world in the above verse. Allāh says, "Know that the life of this world is merely play, futility, decoration..." "Everything in this world appears to be very beautiful and attractive. Those who have a great deal of wealth will be "boasting among each other and (engaging in) rivalry in wealth and children. When people begin to do this, they quickly forget Allāh Who has granted all their wealth to them. Allāh says in Surah Takāthur, "Rivalry in amassing wealth shall destroy you until you reach the graves." [Surah 102, verses 1, 2]

Allāh Ta'āla goes on to describe the transitory nature of this world when He says, "The example of this (world) is like rain which feed the plants that amaze farmers. Thereafter it dries and you will see it become yellow, only to be reduced to bits." When rain falls, plants and vegetation begin to flourish. Plantations begin to grow very well and farmers are extremely happy with the growth. However, as time takes its toll on the fields, they start drying up and becoming yellow. Not long afterwards, they are reduced to nothing, a far cry from what they were.

It is the same with this world. While everything appears to be beautiful and enticing, people forget the end result. They then engage in all types of illicit activities to earn wealth. This leads them to steal, rob, swindle and bribe people just to make money. Many of those who earn their money in a Hālāl manner also fall prey to the love of wealth when they begin to neglect their Fardh (obligatory) and Wajib (Compulsory) duties while earning. There are very few people who are conscious of Halāl (lawful) and Harām (unlawful) when it concerns earning and who avoid sinning in the process. It is tragic that many people make their livelihood a curse for themselves, flouting the Shari'ah and subjecting themselves to the punishment of the Hereafter. Referring to this, Allāh says, "In the Hereafter there shall be severe punishment." On the contrary, the Hereafter shall hold 'forgiveness and (Allāh's) pleasure' for those who abstain from Unlawful earnings and who spend their wealth in the right courses. Instead of their wealth being a cause for "severe punishment" in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), their wealth shall be a cause of "forgiveness and (Allāh's) pleasure."

Allāh ends the verse by saying, "The life of this world is but a commodity of deception." In this world, neither are the lives of people nor everything else eternal. The person who places his reliance in this world shall become negligent of the Ākhirah (Hereafter), where he will suffer for this negligence. A truly intelligent person is he who does not attach his heart to this world and who focuses his attention on the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

THE COMMAND TO RACE TO ALLĀH'S FORGIVENESS AND HEAVEN

Once it has become evident that this world and everything it contains is of a fleeting nature, sound intelligence demands that people should rather compete with each other in the race towards Allāh's forgiveness and the permanent abode of the Hereafter. Therefore, Allāh says, "Race towards the forgiveness of your Lord and a Heaven, the width of which is like that of the sky and the earth."

Competing with each other in the race towards Heaven is an act of extreme virtue because, unlike any other race, every participant gains tremendously.

Allāh shall reward every person for his/her effort and none will have to concede the rewards of their deeds to another. No person's reward will be deducted from that of another. Of course, the rewards will be earned in full when the deeds are carried out sincerely and without hurting others.

This verse encourages the believers to compete with each other in carrying out good deeds, much like verse 133 of Surah Āl Imrān where Allāh says, "Hasten to the forgiveness of your Lord and that Heaven which has the expanse of the heavens and the earth and has been prepared for the pious." Both these verses encourage people not to delay in carrying out good deeds because one has no guarantee of life. No good deed should be postponed for another day because the opportunity may never present itself again.

The verse of Surah Hadid states, "a Heaven, the width of which is like that of the sky and the earth" and the verse of Surah Āl Imrān states, "that Heaven which has the expanse of the heavens and the earth." In both cases, the size of the sky and the earth has been used to describe the size of Heaven because the earth and the sky are the largest phenomena known to man. In reality, Heaven is much larger than the earth and sky. Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed there are a hundred stages in Heaven. A single stage of these is sufficient to contain the entire universe." [Tirmidhi]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the Heaven that the person of the lowest level of Heaven shall have is ten times larger than this world. [“Mishkāṭ” p. 492 from Bukhari and Muslim]

Allāh says that Heaven "has been prepared for those who believe in Allāh and His messengers." This verse makes it clear that people who do not believe in Allāh and who falsify the Prophets عليهم السلام will not be able to enter Heaven. A person who believes in Allāh and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who appeared in his time shall be worthy of Heaven irrespective of the time in which he lived.

Allāh says further, "That is the grace of Allāh which He gives to whoever He desires. Allāh is the Possessor of immense grace." Every person will enter Heaven solely because of Allāh's grace. Therefore, none has the right to boast about his deeds because these cannot qualify him to enter Heaven. It is Allāh who guides people to Belief and accepting these deeds are His prerogative.

مَا أَصَابَ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي أَنْفُسِكُمْ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ نَبْرَأَهَا إِنَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ﴿٢٢﴾ لِكَيْلَا تَأْسَوْا عَلَى مَا فَاتَكُمْ وَلَا تَفْرَحُوا بِمَا آتَاكُمْ وَاللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ كُلَّ مُخْتَالٍ فَخُورٍ ﴿٢٣﴾ الَّذِينَ يَبْخُلُونَ وَيَأْمُرُونَ النَّاسَ بِالْبَحْلِ وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ﴿٢٤﴾

(22) Every calamity that afflicts you on earth and in yourselves is recorded in the Book before We even create it. This is certainly easy for Allāh. (23) So that you do not grieve about what you lose and you do not boast about what you receive. Allāh dislikes every haughty braggart... (24) ... who is miserly and who instruct others to be miserly. And whoever turns away, then (he should know that) Allāh is certainly Independent, Most Worthy of praise.

EVERY CALAMITY HAS BEEN RECORDED LONG BEFORE IT OCCURS

Man has not come to earth merely to waste his life. Man's life on earth is a test. Allāh says in Surah Mulk , "He (Allāh) has created life and death to test who of you will carry out the best deeds." Since man has been sent to earth as a test, he has to expect conditions that are trying. The following are the two categories of aspects that test man:

A. Wealth, comfort and other bounties.

B. Calamities, problems and other difficulties.

Many people forget Allāh Ta'āla when they are tested with the first category of trials. They tend to neglect good deeds and become preoccupied with their indulgence in the comforts of the world. The previous verses cautioned people that "the life of this world is merely play, futility, decoration, boasting among each other and rivalry in wealth and children." Allāh told people that this world is transitory and is just like a crop that flourishes for a while, dries up and then becomes something that one would not realise even existed before. By this example, Allāh impresses on man that the world is not something to be desired.

In the foregoing verses, Allāh speaks about the second category of trials i.e. hardships and difficulties. Allāh says that every calamity that afflicts people shall definitely take place because it is recorded in the "protected tablet (Lowhul Mahfūdh)". The calamities that affect man may either be "on earth" such as droughts, floods, earthquakes, destruction of crops by locusts or hail, etc. Besides these types of calamities, difficulties may also affect people on a personal level such as illness, paralysis, handicaps, etc. These are all inevitable. One should never lose sight of the fact that Allāh causes these phenomena to happen and an intelligent servant of Allāh never complains or objects.

NEVER GRIEVE OVER SOMETHING LOST OR BOAST ABOUT SOMETHING GAINED

Allāh says further that He has informed man about the fact that all conditions are from Him "So that you do not grieve about what you lose and you do not boast about what you receive." Grieving excessively over a loss distracts one from Allāh's remembrance and causes one to neglect one's efforts for the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Calamities are inevitable and one is entitled to feel instinctively grieved. However, one should not purposely prolong the grief and should not do such actions that anger Allāh Ta'āla.

Together with not expressing excessive grief over one's losses, Allāh also forbids people from boasting about the bounties that one receives. Whatever one receives is from Allāh and has been preordained. No person can claim that he "deserved" what he received.

Sayyidina Suhayb رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The condition of a believer is amazing and this condition is exclusive to the believer. When he experiences good fortune, he is grateful and this is best for him. On the other hand, If he experiences ill fortune, he is patient and this is also best for him."

CONDEMNING PRIDE AND MISERLINESS

Allāh says, "Allāh dislikes every haughty braggart who is miserly and who instruct others to be miserly." Many people who are blessed with wealth tend to become boastful and proud. They then begin to have a high regard for themselves and think others to be low. Allāh warns such people that He has no love for them. Because such people are prone to have great love for their wealth, they become miserly and even promote their niggardly nature to others. Not only do they withhold their own money but they also prevent others from spending in charity even though they know that the money will not benefit them.

One will notice that when certain generous people instruct their cashiers or treasurers to give money to collectors, these people take the money out but are very reluctant to give the money. It appears as if their hearts are refusing to part with it even though it does not belong to them and the owner has already instructed that it be spent in charity.

"And whoever turns away, then (he should know that) Allāh is certainly Independent, Most Worthy of praise." Allāh does not require people's wealth. If a person spends in charity, he will receive the reward for it. However, if one chooses to be miserly, it will be to his own detriment.

لَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلَنَا بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مَعَهُمُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْمِيزَانَ لِيَقُومَ النَّاسُ
بِالْقِسْطِ وَأَنْزَلْنَا الْحَدِيدَ فِيهِ بَأْسٌ شَدِيدٌ وَمَنْفَعٌ لِلنَّاسِ وَلِيَعْلَمَ اللَّهُ مَنْ يَصْرِفُهُ
وَرُسُلَهُ بِالْغَيْبِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ

(25) Indeed We have sent Our messengers with clear proofs and sent with them the Book and Scale so that people uphold justice. And We have revealed iron that holds great awe and benefits for man. (Allāh has made iron) so that He knows who will assist Him and His messengers without seeing Him. Verily Allāh is Powerful, Mighty.

ALLĀH SENT THE PROPHETS عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام WITH CLEAR PROOFS AND SCRIPTURES SO THAT JUSTICE IS ESTABLISHED

Allāh says, "Indeed We have sent Our messengers with clear proofs and sent with them the Book and Scale so that people uphold justice." Allāh Ta'āla refers to all the divine scriptures when he mentions "the Book". The "Scale" refers to justice because it is an instrument used to weigh justly and as such symbolises justice. Allāh has sent the Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام, the divine scriptures and the scale "so that people uphold justice."

THE USES OF IRON

Allāh states further, “And We have revealed iron that holds great awe...”. Iron has always been used to make weapons of war. Swords, spears, bayonets and guns of the past were made from iron, which is still indispensable in the manufacture of modern-day weaponry such as missiles, bombs, etc. People have always stood in awe of these weapons and the armament of a nation has always kept its enemies at bay. Believers use these weapons to fight disbelief and shirk and to establish Islām in the world. The disbelievers have always feared Jihād and shall continue fearing.

Iron also holds great “benefits for man.” The benefits of iron are not unknown to anyone. There is some iron in almost everything man has to make. Even items made out of wood require iron nails and things that may have no iron in them have to be made with tools or machines that are all made of iron. Iron is required to construct buildings and is also indispensable for farming because of the use of farming equipment such as tractors and age-old iron hoes. Iron is needed as bridles for animals and its versatility cannot be overruled in mining all other minerals that are also indispensable. The benefits of iron are truly innumerable and cannot be discussed in detail here.

Allāh has made iron “so that He knows who will assist Him and His messengers without seeing Him.” Allāh wishes to see who of His servants will take up weapons to defend His Religion and render assistance to His Prophets عليهم السلام. When there is a need for Jihād, Allāh’s sincere slaves will march in His path, knowing that they may be killed. It should be understood that Allāh is aware of everything even before its actual occurrence. Something coming to Allāh’s knowledge does not refute this accepted belief since there are two types of knowledge. One is of something before its occurrence (i.e. the knowledge that it will happen), while the other is of the same incident after its occurrence (i.e. the knowledge that it has already happened). This verse refers to the second type i.e. the knowledge that a certain incident had taken place.

“Verily Allāh is Powerful, Mighty.” This makes it clear that Allāh is not in need of man’s assistance. Allāh is Capable of defending His religion and His Prophets عليهم السلام without the assistance of others. However, a person will benefit himself by making efforts to defend the religion.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَجَعَلْنَا فِي ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا النُّبُوَّةَ وَالْكِتَابَ فَمِنْهُمْ مُهْتَدٍ
وَكَثِيرٌ مِنْهُمْ فَسِقُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ ثُمَّ قَفَّيْنَا عَلَىٰ آثَرِهِمْ بِرُسُلِنَا وَقَفَّيْنَا بِعِيسَى
ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ وَآتَيْنَاهُ الْإِنْجِيلَ وَجَعَلْنَا فِي قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ اتَّبَعُوهُ رَأْفَةً وَرَحْمَةً
وَرَهْبَانِيَّةً ابْتَدَعُوهَا مَا كَتَبْنَاهَا عَلَيْهِمْ إِلَّا ابْتِغَاءَ رِضْوَانِ اللَّهِ فَمَا رَعَوْهَا حَقَّ
رِعَايَتِهَا فَآتَيْنَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ وَكَثِيرٌ مِنْهُمْ فَسِقُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ have sustained prophethood and scriptures in their progenies. Among them were those who were rightly guided while most of them were sinners. (27) Thereafter We successively sent Our messengers in their footsteps. We sent Isā عليه السلام the son of Maryam, gave him the Injil and placed compassion and mercy in the hearts of those who followed him. They invented monasticism which We did not ordain for them but they did it in search of Allāh's pleasure. However, they did not observe it as it ought to have been observed. We granted their reward to those of them who believed while many of them were sinners.

THE FOLLOWERS OF SAYYIDINA ISĀ عليه السلام INVENT MONASTICISM AFTER ALLĀH SENT THE PROPHETS عليهم السلام IN SUCCESSION

Allāh says that He sent Prophet عليهم السلام among the progenies of both Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام and Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. While there were many people of their progenies who accepted the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام, there were also many who did not accept. Thereafter, Allāh specifically mentions Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام to whom Allāh gave the Injil. Among those who accepted his message and who gave him support were his disciples, called the Hawariyyin. Concerning these disciples, Allāh says that He "placed compassion and mercy" in their hearts.

Allāh states further that the Christians, "invented monasticism which We did not ordain for them but they did it in search of Allāh's pleasure. However, they did not observe it as it ought to have been observed." "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said to him, "O Ibn Umm Abd! Do you know from where the Bani Isrā'īl devised monasticism?" Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه replied, "Allāh and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم know best." Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "After Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, tyrannical kings reigned who indulged in numerous sins. The believers took strong exception to this and thrice engaged them in battle. However, they lost each time and when they were reduced to only a few men, they said, 'If we continue fighting them, they will kill us all and there will be none left to preach the true religion. We should therefore spread out on earth and wait until Allāh sends the Holy Prophet about whose coming Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام had promised us.' Consequently, they occupied mountains and caves and practised monasticism. While some adhered to the true religion, others became disbelievers." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the verse: "They invented monasticism which We did not ordain for them but they did it in search of Allāh's pleasure. However, they did not observe it as it ought to have been observed." [v. 4 p. 301]

This narration appears without a chain of narrators and without the reference of any source.

One may question that how could these followers of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام engage in Jihād when it was not prescribed in their Shari'ah? It may be said that these people were perhaps attacked and were forced to defend themselves. As outlined in the commentary of verse 111 of Surah Taubah (Surah 9), it is apparent that the followers of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام did receive the command to wage Jihād. Allāh knows best.

\\ The institution of monasticism was an addition to the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام which unnecessarily burdened the human soul. Allāh did not sanction the practice. Monks were not allowed to marry, were extremely frugal in eating, drinking and dressing and ate only what was necessary to sustain them. They built churches in the mountains where they spent their entire lives. It was one of these monks who informed Sayyidina Salmān Fārsī رضي الله عنه about the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and described the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to him. It was then that Sayyidina Salmān رضي الله عنه left for Madinah aspiring to meet the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Monks stayed away from people and rulers because these people encouraged them to live like them. They continued to lead lives of abstinence with the hope that living as monks would please Allāh Ta'āla.

However, the time came when the monks also succumbed to the attraction of the world. Whereas they had intended to wait for the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they refused to believe in him when he appeared even though they were certain that he was the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام foretold. Of course, there were many who accepted him, concerning whom Allāh says, "We granted their reward to those of them who believed." However, "many of them were sinners" who obstinately refused to accept.

Even before the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Christians had already adulterated the teachings of their religion by changing the Injil and subscribing to the Trinity. In addition to this, they began to hold the belief that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام had died for their sins. It is because of this belief that their priests exercise the liberty to pardon them for their sins every Sunday. The Christians of the earlier centuries were largely Roman Catholic. However, the Protestant sprung up from among them and many of them proved to be great sinners.

THE SORRY STATE OF TODAY'S CHRISTIANS, THEIR GREED AND OPPRESSION

When the Christians stopped following Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, they lost the "compassion and mercy" that Allāh had instilled in their forebears. When they refused to accept the apostleship of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they became archenemies of the Muslims just as the Jews are. Apart from the disbelief they practise, the Christians are leaders in sin and vice. In fact, it is they who teach sin to the rest of the world. Because they entertain the false belief of Atonement, they have become the most morally depraved nation, with nudity, adultery and other sins being the norm for many. The sacred institution of marriage is fast becoming extinct in their countries and they have even legalised homosexuality. Extra-marital affairs and illegitimate children are all too common in their societies.

It is strange to note that the Pope never seems to oppose the immoral legislation that their governments pass. Did Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام ever sanction the promotion of immorality and promiscuity? It is tragic that African and Asian countries ape the ways of Europe and America and find themselves spiralling into the bottomless pit of immorality. Those who profess to be followers of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام have taken the leader in sin whereas Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام has nothing to do with the religion of Christianity as practised today. Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام preached Oneness of Allāh, chaste behaviour and even informed his followers that they should believe in the Holy Prophet to come after him viz. Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. By rejecting the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Christians have directly opposed the clear instruction of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام.

In addition to this, Christians dutyaries are found throughout the world preaching their religion to others whereas Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام clearly told them in the Bible that they were to preach only to the "lost sheep of the House of Isra'īl". Matthew 10:5 reads, "These twelve Jesus sent out, charging them, "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Isra'īl." Matthew 15:24 quotes that Sayyidina Isā said, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Isra'īl."

Despite the various interpolations of the Bible, the Bible still contains many references to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. John 14:25 and 14:26 contain the following extract: "These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you. But the Counselor [i.e. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you."

John 16:7 reads, "Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Counselor [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you."

In John 14:16, Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام said to the Jews, "And I will pray the father, and He will give you another Counselor [i.e. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], to be with you for ever."

Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام is also quoted as saying in John 16:13 "When the Spirit of truth [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come."

After a few lines, information is given regarding the ascension of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام to the heavens when he said to his disciples, "I am leaving the world and going to the Father." This extract coincides with verses 157 and 158 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4) where Allāh says, "With certainty, they never killed him [Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام] but Allāh raised him towards Himself Allāh is Mighty, the Wise."

After the above few verses, the Bible speaks about Sayyidina Isā's عليه السلام return to the world in the following words, "I have said this to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have (shall) over come the world." [All the above extracts have been quoted from the "revised standard version of "The Holy Bible" published by the Bible Society of South Africa in 1979]

Dear Christians! Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام has said that he was sent as a Holy Prophet to the Bani Isra'īl, so do not contravene his orders by placing duty Aries everywhere. Rather accept Islām. The Qur'ān tells us that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was raised to the heavens and the Ahadīth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم make it clear that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام shall return to this world and pass away naturally. The Bible conveys the same message. It is therefore sensible for Christians to obey Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام by accepting Islām. They should not be obstinate by clinging to the now corrupted religion that they preach. They are only destroying their lives in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) by doing this.

THE UNITED STAND OF THE JEWS AND CHRISTIANS AGAINST ISLĀM

Although the Jews and Christians during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recognised him to be Allāh's Holy Prophet, very few accepted Islām. In fact, narrations make it clear that the Jews settled in Madinah specifically to await the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that they could follow him. However, when the time came for them to accept, they reneged. Referring to this, Allāh says, "When what they recognise comes to them, they deny it. Allāh's curse is on the disbelievers." [Surah Baqara (2), verse 89]

Among those Jews who accepted Islām was Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Salām رضى الله عنه, a former Rabbi (Jewish Scholar). He said, "When I saw his [The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم] face, I knew that this could not be the face of a liar." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 168]

Because the Christians also knew about the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, many Christians including the king of Abyssinia accepted Islām during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, the majority refused to accept and refuse even today. Whereas millions of Hindus have accepted Islām in the Indo-Pak sub continent, the Christians refuse to budge. Although many have accepted Islām, the vast majority are still antagonistic towards Islām. Wherever they see poor Muslims, they are quick to provide financial assistance, schools and hospitals so that these Muslims are won over and easily converted to Christianity. The falsehood of any religion is evident by the fact that it employs the greed for money to propagate itself.

The incident of the Christian delegation from Najrān was discussed in the commentary of verse 61 of Surah Āl Imrān where Allāh commanded the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to issue the challenge of Mubāhala [mutual imprecation (to prove ones opinion truth)] to the Christians. Allāh told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Whoever disputes with you concerning this after the knowledge has come to you, then say to them, 'Come! We shall summon your sons and our sons, your wives and our wives, yourselves and ourselves. Then we shall collectively supplicate sincerely (to Allāh) to invoke His curse upon the liars.'" When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم issued this challenge to the delegation, one of the leaders said, "You know very well that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is the true messenger of Allāh and that whatever he says about Isā عليه السلام is undisputedly true. You are also well aware of the fact that none survived of any nation that challenged a Prophet in Mubāhala (mutual imprecation). If you wish to disgrace yourselves, then accept the Mubāhala (mutual imprecation) and if you wish to remain upon your religion and return to your cities, then enter into a truce with him."

When they saw the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ready for Mubāhala (mutual imprecation) with members of his family, another of their leaders told them, "O

Christians, I see such faces before me who, if they ask Allāh to move a mountain from its place, He would surely do so. I strongly advise you to avoid the Mubāhala (mutual imprecation) otherwise you would be destroyed and until the day of Judgment there shall be no Christian left upon the surface of the earth." They then said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O Abul Qasim صلى الله عليه وسلم, we have decided to decline the challenge to Mubāhala (mutual imprecation). We shall leave you to your religion and we shall remain upon ours... This incident clearly portrays the stubbornness of the Christians. Despite being convinced of the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was Allāh's true messenger, they chose rather to deny it and suffer the consequences of the Hereafter.

This is their attitude up to this day. Although our Scholars have defeated them in countless debates and proven to them that the Bible has been interpolated and that their religion has been fabricated, they refuse to accept Islām for many political and non-political reasons.

Although the Jews and the Christians regard the religion of each other as false, they stand united in their opposition to Islām. They are intent on destroying Islām, but the light of Islām will not be snuffed by their breaths. Allāh declares, "They try to extinguish the light of Allāh with their mouths, but Allāh will tolerate only that His light be completed even though the disbelievers detest it." [Surah Taubah (9), verse 32]

Allāh mentions in the foregoing verses that He "placed compassion and mercy in the hearts of those who followed him." Whereas the true followers of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام were imbued with these great qualities, those after them who have no attachment with Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام have harassed the world because of their greed to dominate the world. They plundered the Asian countries and greatly oppressed the people of India in the 1850's. People who truly follow Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and who have mercy and compassion would never cause the devastation that was at Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام clearly said to his disciples that a Prophet by the name of Ahmad shall come after him and instructed them to follow him. However, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came to them, they dispelled him as a magician. They disobeyed their Bible, refused to accept the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and even lost the compassion and mercy that was supposed to be their hallmark. They now subscribe to the Trinity and Atonement, which has left them soiled in every type of sin. They are left without true monks and priests because their present religious leaders dance to the tune of political leaders. They never voice their opposition to irreligious legislation and are actually being used by politicians to further their own selfish interests.

NOTE : The Christians devised the institution of monasticism with the intention of pleasing Allāh. However, they were unable to observe it properly and finally lost their Religion altogether. Not only did they stop practising the injunctions of their Religion, but they actually forsook their beliefs. They started believing that they have three gods, one of whom died for their sins.

Just as monasticism was not allowed in their religion, it is also not allowed in our Shari'ah. Allāh has made the Shari'ah easy to follow. Allāh says, "Allāh desires ease for you and desires not hardship." [Surah Baqarah (2), verse 185]

Speaking about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Surah A'rāf, Allāh says, "He enjoins them to do good, prevents them from evil, permits for them pure things, forbids the impure from them and removes from them the burden and shackles that were upon them." [Surah 7, verse 157]

Verse 6 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5) states, "Allāh does not want to place any difficulty upon you." In the same strain, verse 78 of Surah Hajj (Surah 22) states, "He has chosen you and has not placed any hardship upon in religion."

The above verses make it clear that there are no injunctions in the Shari'ah of Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم that are burdensome. Sayyidina Uthmān bin Madh'ūn رضى الله عنه narrates that he requested perdyuty from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to castrate himself. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "He is not of me who castrates someone, nor him who is castrated. The castration of my Ummah (i.e. the method whereby they can curb their passions) is fasting." Someone asked, 'Allow us to travel and enjoy vacations.' The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "The travelling and vacation of my Ummah is striving in the path of Allah." When someone asked perdyuty to practise monasticism, he replied, "The monasticism of my Ummah is that they remain in the Masjid after one Salāh waiting for the next Sahāh." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 69]

It is evident that the monasticism practised by the Christians is not allowed in Islām. The Shari'ah of Islām does not permit a person to remain a bachelor when he is able to marry. Islām also commands people to care and provide for their families and to associate amicably with people. The Shari'ah allows a person to eat and dress well on condition that his food and clothing are acquired legally and he is not guilty of ostentation and extravagance. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Eat, drink and spend in charity as long as there is no extravagance and boastfulness involved." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 377]

It is best to adopt simplicity in one's dressing because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was always simple. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who forsakes wearing beautiful clothing out of humility, Allāh shall dress him in the garments of honour. The person who marries for Allāh's pleasure, Allāh shall give him the crown of a king to wear." [Ibid]

Of course, one should not wear simple clothing so that one may beg from people or so that one may appear pious to others. It should never be for worldly gains. Performing Fardh (obligatory) and Nafl (mandatory) Salāh, observing Fardh (obligatory) and Nafl (mandatory) fasts and standing long hours in Ibādah during the nights does not fall into the ambit of monasticism.

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Never make things hard for yourselves because Allāh will then also make matters hard for you. A group of people made things hard for themselves so Allāh made it also hard for them. Those left in the monasteries are the ones remaining of this group. "The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the verse: "They invented monasticism which We did not ordain for them but they did it in search of Allāh's pleasure. However, they did not observe it as it ought to have been observed." [Abu Dawūd v. 2 p. 316]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that three persons enquired from the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم concerning his practices of worship. When they were informed, they considered it to be little and said, "What are we in comparison to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم? Allāh has forgiven all his sins. (While this is sufficient for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because of his innocence, we need to make more effort)." One of them said that he will perform Salāh the entire night through. The other said that he will fast daily and the third exclaimed that he would remain aloof from women and never get married.

In the meantime the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned and asked them whether they were making these statements. He then told them, "By Allāh! Indeed I am the one who fears Allāh the most and the most abstinent from all of you. However, I fast (Nafl (mandatory) fasts) and there are days when I do not fast. I perform Salāh (at nights) and I sleep, and I also marry. Whoever disregards my practices is not of me." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 758]

It should be noted that because the Religion is easy, every person is able to carry out the injunctions of Religion. It does not mean that the injunctions suit people's desires. It also does not mean that a person is free to do as he pleases in Religion. If this were so, the Shari'ah would have never specified injunctions of Hālāl (lawful) and Unlawful. There would then be no obligation of Salāh, fasting, Zakāh, Hajj and Jihād. This interpretation of an easy religion is misleading.

Sayyidina Abu Ūmāma رضى الله عنه narrates that they (the Sahāba) were travelling with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on a Jihād campaign when they passed by a cave that had good water and edible vegetation. When a Sahābi رضى الله عنه expressed the wish to spend his life there in isolation to worship Allāh, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "I was not sent with Judaism or Christianity. Rather, I was sent with a religion that is straight and easy to practise. I swear by The Being in whose hands is the life of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, a morning or evening in Allāh's path is better than this entire world and its contents. Your standing in the rows of Jihād is better than sixty years of Salāh." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 334 from Ahmad]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has himself declared the religion of Islām to be an easy religion. This religion strikes the perfect balance between abstinence from the world and participation in the affairs of the world. While one may seek what is Hālāl, one should also refrain from the Unlawful.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَءَامِنُوا بِرَسُولِهِ يُؤْتِكُمْ كِفْلَيْنِ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ وَجَعَلَ لَكُمْ نُورًا تَمْشُونَ بِهِ وَيَعْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ لَيْلًا يَعْلَمُ أَهْلُ الْكِتَابِ أَلَا يَقْدِرُونَ عَلَى شَيْءٍ مِّنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَأَنَّ الْفَضْلَ بِيَدِ اللَّهِ يُؤْتِيهِ مَن يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٢٩﴾

(28) O you who believe! Fear Allāh and believe in His apostle, He shall grant you two shares of His mercy, create a light for you to walk in and forgive you. Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (29) So that the People of the Book may know that they have no power over Allāh's grace and that all grace is in Allāh's hand. He grants it to whoever He pleases. Allāh is the Possessor of immense grace.

THE CHRISTIANS WHO ACCEPT ISLĀM ARE PROMISED A DOUBLE SHARE OF REWARD

Commentators state that the first of the above two verses is addressed to the Christians. Addressing them, Allāh states, "O you who believe [in Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام]! Fear Allāh and believe in His apostle [Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم], He shall grant the two of you shares of His mercy..."

Sayyidina Iyādh bin Himār Mujāshī'i رضي الله عنه narrates that once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed them in a sermon saying, 'Indeed my Lord has commanded me to tell you of those things that he has taught to me today and about which you have no knowledge. Allāh has said that the wealth He gives to anyone is Hālāl (nothing will become Unlawful by the declaration of any person, as the polytheists used to do). Allāh has also said, 'I have created man upon the true religion and the devils have averted them from it. These devil's (plural of devil) have made things Unlawful for them that I have declared Hālāl (Lawful). They have also instructed them to ascribe partners to Me, whilst I have sent no warrant for this.' Without doubt, Allāh gazed at the people of the world. He declared the Arabs and the non-Arabs as despicable save for those who remained from the Ahlul Kitāb (people of book)." [Muslim v. 2 p. 385]

These people who remained from the Ahlul Kitāb (People of the Book) were those who followed Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and who did not change their religion at all. It is these people whom Allāh addresses in the above verse. They are encouraged to accept the religion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم according to the bequest of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. In return, Allāh would grant them double reward; one for sincerely following Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and the other for following Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Those who truly followed Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام believed in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم before he appeared and declared their belief when he announced his apostleship.

Allāh says about them in Surah Qasas, "Those to whom We have given the Book from before believe in it (the Qur'ān). When it is recited to them, they say, 'We believe in it. It is definitely the truth from our Lord. Indeed, we were subservient (i.e. Muslims) from before (i.e. we were aware of the coming of the Qur'ān).' These people will be granted their reward twice on account of their patience. They resist evil with good and spend from what We have given them." [Surah 28, verses 5 2-54]

This verse of Surah Qasas also makes it clear that the Ahlul Kitāb (people of book) who accept Islām will be given double reward. In the letter that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent to Heraclius, the Emperor of Rome, it was said, 'Accept Islām, you will be left in peace and granted your reward twice.' [Bukhari v. 1 p. 5]

Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the following three groups of people will receive their reward twice:

- 1). Those People of the Book, Who Believed in their Prophets عليهم السلام and then also believed in Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

- 2). Those slaves who, together with fulfilling the errands of their masters, also take care to fulfil the obligations of Islam upon them.
- 3). Those people who marry their slave women after educating them thoroughly and freeing them. [Bukhari v.1 p.20]

One may ask, “Believing in any Prophet entails believing in all the Prophets عليهم السلام Therefore, the person who believes in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم without formerly belonging to the Ahlul Kitāb (People of Book) believes in all the Prophets عليهم السلام. Why is it then that only when a person from the Ahlul Kitāb becomes a Muslim his reward is doubled? Why is their reward greater?”

It should be understood that a double is not necessarily more than a single. For example, the double of ten is twenty, which is less than the single figure of forty. In addition to this, the verses and Ahadith that mention this reward do not state that the reward will be double of that which the average Muslim receives, but that the person will receive the reward twice or receive “two shares of mercy”. It is not specified how much reward will be granted twice. As the verse of Surah Qasas makes it clear, their reward will be “on account of their patience”, indicating that they had to endure great trials in their lives. When a person deserves greater rewards, it is only fair that he gets it. Others have no right to object to this. Can the rewards of Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه be equal to that of a person who did not suffer as much as he did?

Together with receiving their rewards twice, Allāh also promises the Ahlul Kitāb (People of book) that he shall “create a light” for them to walk in. this refers to a light in their hearts whereby they will be able to remain steadfast on Belief and be able to practise the injunctions of Religion with conviction. Allāh adds, “and forgive you. Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.”

Allāh shall do this and makes it known “So that the People of the Book may know (on the Day of Judgement) that they have no power over Allāh’s grace and that all grace is in Allāh’s hand. He grants it to whoever He pleases. Allāh is the Possessor of Immense grace.”

“Ma’ālimut Tanzīl” reports that the Ahlul Kitāb (people of book) who did not accept Islām said to the Muslims, “The People of the Book who believe in your Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم shall receive a double reward whereas everyone else will receive just a single reward. We and you are therefore on par with a reward each.” It was then that the above verses were revealed. Allāh tells such people that by merely claiming that they are entitled to a single reward will not secure them salvation in the Hereafter. It is Allāh who reserves the prerogative to reward people and He has promised this for the believers.

Although only the Christians were addressed in the above verses, the phrase “So that the People of the Book may know” refers to both the Jews and the Christians. These people entertained the belief that they have a right to Heaven because they are family of the Prophets عليهم السلام. Allāh makes it clear to them that He shall decide who is entitled to enter Heaven and who is not. He shall permit into Heaven only those who believe in His final Holy Prophet Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

PARA TWENTY-EIGHT

سورة المجادلة

Madinan

Surah Mujādalah

Verses 22

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قَدْ سَمِعَ اللَّهُ قَوْلَ الَّتِي تُجَادِلُكَ فِي زَوْجِهَا وَتَشْتَكِي إِلَى اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ يَسْمَعُ تَحَاوُرَكُمَا إِنَّ
 اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ ﴿١﴾ الَّذِينَ يُظَاهِرُونَ مِنْكُمْ مِنْ نِسَائِهِمْ مَا هُنَّ أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ إِنَّ
 أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ إِلَّا الَّتِي وَلَدْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَيَقُولُونَ مُنْكَرًا مِنَ الْقَوْلِ وَزُورًا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ
 لَعَفُوفٌ غَفُورٌ ﴿٢﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يُظَاهِرُونَ مِنْ نِسَائِهِمْ ثُمَّ يَعُودُونَ لِمَا قَالُوا فَتَحَرِيرُ رَقَبَةٍ مِّنْ
 قَبْلِ أَنْ يَتَمَاسَّا ذَلِكُمْ تُوعَظُونَ بِهِ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ﴿٣﴾ فَمَنْ لَّمْ يَجِدْ فَصِيَامُ
 شَهْرَيْنِ مُتَتَابِعَيْنِ مِن قَبْلِ أَنْ يَتَمَاسَّا فَمَنْ لَّمْ يَسْتَطِعْ فَاِطْعَامُ سِتِّينَ مِسْكِينًا ذَلِكَ
 لَتُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَتِلْكَ حُدُودُ اللَّهِ وَلِلْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) Allāh had certainly heard the speech of the lady who debated with you concerning her husband and who complained to Allāh. Allāh was listening to your discussion. Verily Allāh is All Hearing, All Seeing. (2) Those of you who practise "Zihār" with their wives, their wives are not their mothers. Their "mothers are only those who have given birth to them. Indeed they are merely making foolish and false statements. Verily Allāh is Most Pardoning, Most Forgiving. (3) Those who practise "Zihār" and then wish to retract what they say, they will have to free a slave before the couple can touch each other. This is the advice Allāh gives you and Allāh is Informed of what you do. (4) The one who cannot do this should fast for two consecutive months before the couple can touch each other. The one who cannot even do this should feed sixty poor people. This (injunction) is so that you believe in Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. These are the limits set by Allāh and the disbelievers shall have a painful punishment.

THE LAWS OF “ZIHĀR”

The foregoing verses make reference to an incident concerning a Sahābiya lady رضى الله عنها. Because the Surah speaks about her debate with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Surah has been named Surah Mujādala (The Surah of the Debate). It should be understood at the outset that before Islām came to them, the Arabs used two methods to prohibit their wives from themselves other than by divorce. The one method was called “Īla” and the other “Zihār”. Īla takes place when a husband swears that he will never approach his wife. This was discussed in the commentary of verse 226 of Surah Baqarah.

The, second method called Zihār entailed telling one’s wife, “You are like the back of my mother to me (i.e. Unlawful for me).” Because the statement includes the word “zahar” (back), the act is called Zihār, which is a derivative of “zahar”. This act is referred to as “Zihār” in the Ahadith and books of Islāmic jurisprudence.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING THE REVELATION OF THE ZIHĀR VERSES

A Sahābiya lady by the name of Sayyidah Khowla bint Tha’laba رضى الله عنه was married to Sayyidina Aws bin Sāmit رضى الله عنه. When he once intended to cohabit with her, she refused in the best interests of his welfare. However, he became upset and immediately blurted out the words, “You are like the back of my mother to me.” He soon regretted his statement, but told her that she was now Unlawful for him. Hearing this, Sayyidah Khowla رضى الله عنها exclaimed, “By Allāh! This cannot be divorce.”

She then went to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and presented her case thus, “O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! When my husband married me, I was young and rich. My husband has since consumed all my wealth and youth. Now when the members of my family have all been scattered and I am an old woman, he has carried out Zihār with me. He now regrets his act. Is there any way by which the two of us can be reunited?” The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied by saying, “You are Unlawful for him.”

She said, “O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! I swear by the Being Who revealed the Qur’ān to you! My husband never used the word ‘Talāq’ (divorce). I have children from him and I am most beloved to him.” When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم reiterated his earlier reply, she said, “I shall present my case in Allāh’s court. I have lived with my husband for too long.” The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to her that as far as he understood the matter, she was Unlawful for her husband and that no clear injunction had been revealed to him in this regard.

During her discussion with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, she added that if her small children had to be left with her husband, they would be destroyed. On the other hand, if they were left with her, they would probably die of starvation. As she was saying this, she raised her eyes to the heavens saying, “O Allāh! I plead my case before You. Reveal a command to Your Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that my difficulty is alleviated.” This was the first time that a Muslim practised Zihār.

At that point, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said to Sayyidah Khowla رضى الله عنها عنها, "Enough! Do you not see the change you are effecting on the face of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم?" At that stage, revelation had begun to descend to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, which made it appear as if he were in a slumber. When the revelation finished, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told Sayyidah Khawla رضي الله عنها to summon her husband. When she brought him, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the above verses of Zihār before them.

After relating the incident, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها said, "Blessed is the Being Who hears all voices. Being in the same room, I could not hear some of the things that the lady said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, yet Allāh was hearing everything and revealed verses of the Qur'ān in this regard. "

Allāh says, "Allāh had certainly heard the speech of the lady who debated with you concerning her husband and who complained to Allāh. Allāh was listening to your discussion. Verily Allāh is All Hearing, All Seeing." Because Sayyidah Khawla's رضي الله عنها husband thought them to be divorced while she did not, Allāh first mentions the status of Zihār before mentioning the penalty.

Therefore, Allāh says, "Those of you who practise "Zihār" with their wives (should know that) their wives are not their mothers." By stating the words of Zihār, a person's wife neither becomes his mother nor does she attain the status of his mother. Allāh makes it clear that "Their mothers are only those who have given birth to them." It is Unlawful for a person to marry his mother and his wife cannot be made Unlawful like his mother merely by uttering some foolish words.

Allāh Ta'āla then mentions the despicable nature of Zihār when He says that husbands who practise Zihār "are merely making foolish and false statements." A mere statement of this nature cannot alter the status of a man's wife. All it does is that it makes him sinful for attempting to alter Allāh's laws. When Allāh has made his wife Hālāl (Lawful) for him, who is he to then declare her to be Unlawful for him? However, should a man repent and offer the penalty, he should bear in mind that "Verily Allāh is Most Pardoning, Most Forgiving."

THE KAFFĀRA (PENALTY) FOR ZIHĀR

Allāh then mentions the penalty to absolve a person from Zihār, thereby restoring the marriage to normality. The above verses state three courses of action in sequence. Allāh says firstly, "Those who practise 'Zihār' and then wish to retract what they say, they will have to free a slave before the couple can touch each other." The clause "before the couple can touch each other" specifies that before the slave is freed the couple can neither cohabit nor do anything that leads to intercourse such as kissing, embracing, etc.

"This is the advice Allāh gives you..." This penalty is a means of securing forgiveness as well as a means of ensuring that the person does not repeat his act. If a person indulges in intercourse with his wife before freeing the slave, Allāh will punish him for this transgression because "Allāh is Informed of what you do."

Allāh continues, "The one who cannot do this should fast for two consecutive months before the couple can touch each other." This is the second penalty for a person who is unable to free a slave. He may resort to this course only when he cannot afford a slave or when slaves are not available, as is the case nowadays. He will have to live separately from his wife during the course of the two months.

Allāh mentions the third means as, "The one who cannot even do this should feed sixty poor people. This (injunction) is so that you believe in Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم" i.e. so that you fulfil all Allāh's commands and refrain from all that He has prohibited. Allāh then reminds people, "These are the limits set by Allāh and the disbelievers shall have a painful punishment."

SPECIFIC LAWS CONCERNING ZIHĀR

Ruling: A person will be guilty of practising Zihār when he likens his wife to his mother's back, thigh or private part.

Ruling: The same will apply when a man likens his wife to any of the above parts of his sister, paternal aunt or nursing mother.

Ruling: If a man says that his wife is like his mother, without likening her to any part of the body, his intention will be taken into account. If he says that he intended to divorce her by these words, she will be divorced. If he says that he intended Zihār, Zihār it will be. However, if he says that he merely meant that his wife deserves honour like his mother, it will be of no consequence i.e. neither divorce nor Zihār.

Ruling: A person may free any type of slave as expiation for Zihār. It makes no difference whether the slave is male or female, mature or immature, Muslim or disbeliever. Of course, the slave should neither be blind nor without both arms or both legs.

Ruling: When observing the two month's fast, the fasts of the month of Ramadhān may not be included because these are already obligatory. It is also not permissible that any of these fasts be observed during days in which fasting is prohibited.

Ruling: If a person cohabits with his wife during the two months of fasting, he will have to begin fasting all over again. Because the phrase "before the couple can touch each other" is general in its meaning, a person will be guilty of disrupting the succession of fasts even if he cohabits with his wife during the night. If he does so during the day, the fast of that day will also be nullified.

Ruling: The Kaffāra (penalty) will be fulfilled by feeding one poor person two meals for sixty days. One may also feed two meals to sixty poor people on a single day. In each case, the poor should be fed to their fill. The Kaffāra (penalty) will also be fulfilled by giving a poor person half a "Sā" (approximately 1.6 kg) of wheat or one "Sā" of dates or barley for sixty days. The equivalent price of these items may also be given.

Ruling: If the wife is divorced after Zihār or she passes away, the Kaffāra (penalty) will be waived. However, the husband is still required to repent.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُحَادُّونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ كِتُوبًا كَمَا كُتِبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَفَدَّ أَنْزَلْنَا آيَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ

وَالْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابٌ مُهِينٌ ﴿٥﴾ يَوْمَ يُعَذِّبُهُمُ اللَّهُ جَمِيعًا فَيُنَبِّئُهُم بِمَا عَمِلُوا أَحْصَاهُ
 اللَّهُ وَسُوهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ﴿٦﴾

(5) Verily those who oppose Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم will be disgraced like those before them were disgraced. We have certainly revealed clear signs and the disbelievers shall suffer a humiliating punishment. (6) On the Day (of Judgement) Allāh shall raise them all and inform them of the deeds they carried out. Allāh has kept record while they have forgotten. Allāh is Witness over everything.

THOSE WHO OPPOSE ALLĀH AND THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم SHALL BE DISGRACED

The above verses speak about the disgrace that the disbelievers will suffer in this world and in the next. Allāh says, "Verily those who oppose Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم will be disgraced like those before them were disgraced." Consequently, the polytheists of Makkah suffered a humiliating defeat in the battles they fought against the Muslims. The reason for their humiliation is referred to by the phrase, "We have certainly revealed clear signs". Because the disbelievers refused to accept the clear signs and verses that Allāh revealed, they will have to suffer punishment. In addition to the disgrace of this world, "the disbelievers shall suffer a humiliating punishment" in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) as well.

Allāh continues, "On the Day (of Judgement) Allāh shall raise them all and inform them of the deeds they carried out. Allāh has kept record (of their deeds) while they have forgotten." Although man will be unable to remember the deeds he carried out in the world and all the words he spoke throughout his lifetime, "Allāh is Witness over everything." Allāh never forgets and shall remind people of their deeds, which are also recorded by the recording angels. According to these words and deeds, people will either be rewarded or punished.

أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مَا يَكُونُ مِنْ نَجْوَى ثَلَاثَةٍ إِلَّا هُوَ رَابِعُهُمْ وَلَا خَمْسَةٍ إِلَّا هُوَ سَادِسُهُمْ وَلَا آدْنَى مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْثَرُ إِلَّا هُوَ مَعَهُمْ أَيْنَ مَا كَانُوا ثُمَّ يُنَبِّئُهُم بِمَا عَمِلُوا يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٧﴾

(7) Do you not see that Allāh knows whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth? Whenever there is a secret gathering of three, He is the fourth. When there are five, He is the sixth and whenever there are less or more, He is with them wherever they may be. Then on the Day of Judgement Allāh will inform them of the deeds they carried out. Verily Allāh has knowledge of everything.

ALLĀH HAS KNOWLEDGE OF ALL SECRET MEETINGS

Describing Allāh's all encompassing knowledge to readers of the Qur'an, the verse reads, "Do you not see that Allāh knows whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth? Whenever there is a secret gathering of three, He is the fourth. When there are five, He is the sixth and whenever there are less or more, He is with them wherever they may be." Allāh has knowledge of everything that a group of any size discusses, regardless of the measures of secrecy they adopt. "Then on the Day of Judgement Allāh will inform them of the deeds they carried out. Verily Allāh has knowledge of everything."

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ نُهُوا عَنِ النَّجْوَى ثُمَّ يَعُودُونَ لِمَا نُهُوا عَنْهُ وَيَتَنَجَّوْنَ بِالْآثِمِ وَالْعُدُونِ
وَمَعْصِيَةِ الرَّسُولِ وَإِذَا جَاءُوكَ حَيَّوكَ بِمَا لَمْ يُحَيِّكَ بِهِ اللَّهُ وَيَقُولُونَ فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ لَوْلَا
يُعَذِّبُنَا اللَّهُ بِمَا نَقُولُ حَسْبُهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ يَصْلَوْنَهَا فِئْسَ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٨﴾ يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا
إِذَا تَنَجَّيْتُمْ فَلَا تَنُجَّوْا بِالْآثِمِ وَالْعُدُونِ وَمَعْصِيَةِ الرَّسُولِ وَتَنَجَّوْا بِالْبِرِّ وَالْتَّقْوَى وَاتَّقُوا
اللَّهَ الَّذِي إِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ ﴿٩﴾ إِنَّمَا النَّجْوَى مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ لِيَحْزَنَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَلَيْسَ
بِضَارِهِمْ شَيْءٌ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١٠﴾

(8) Can you not see those who were prevented from holding secret meetings but who then returned to what they had been prevented from? They secretly convene to conspire sin, transgression and disobeying the messenger. When they come to you, they greet you with words that Allāh does not greet you with and they say to themselves, "Why does Allāh not punish us for what we say?" Sufficient for them is Hell which they shall enter, and it is the worst of places to return to. (9) O you who believe! When you convene secret meetings, then do not do it to conspire sin, transgression and disobeying the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Rather hold these secret meetings for purposes of virtue and Taqwa (piety). Fear Allāh to Whom you shall all be gathered. (10) Secret meetings are really from Satan to cause grief to the believers but can do nothing to harm them except with Allāh's permission. In Allāh only should the believers trust.

THE MISCHIEF OF THE JEWS AND THE HYPOCRITES

In addition to all their other acts of mischief, the Jews often convened secret meetings. The Arabic word "najwa" is used for these secret meetings. The commonly used term "Munājāt" is derived from this word and is used to refer to the secret supplication that a person makes to Allāh, which none but Allāh hears.

The Jews were arch-enemies of Islām and the Muslims, and one of their acts of mischief was that they used to sit alongside the streets and glare at any Muslim who passed by them. They then used to wink at each other and start whispering among themselves. The hypocrites also joined them in this act, caused much hurt to the Muslims. When the Muslims complained to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about this, he forbade them from repeating this in future. However, they did not heed his words and continued doing as they used to. It was with regard to this that Allāh revealed the verse, "Can you not see those who were prevented from holding secret meetings but who then returned to what they had been prevented from? They secretly convene to conspire sin, transgression and disobeying the messenger."

It was also the practice of the Jews that instead of saying "As Salāmu Alaykum" ("Peace be on you") when greeting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they used to say, "As Sāmu Alaykum" ("May death come to you"). In this manner, they cursed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while people thought that they were greeting him. Allāh refers to this evil practice when He says, "When they come to you, they greet you with words that Allāh does not greet you with".

A group of Jews once greeted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with these vile words when Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها responded by saying, "May death and a curse come to you." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to her, "O Ayshah, be lenient because Allāh likes leniency in all matters." She said, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, did you not hear what they said? I have merely told them what they said." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 925]

Another narration states that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You did not hear the reply I gave them. Allāh accepted the curse I made and did not accept the curse they made." ["Mishkāt" p. 398]

After saying such things, the Jews used to "say to themselves, 'Why does Allāh not punish us for what we say?' " They meant to say that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is truly Allāh's messenger, Allāh would have already punished them for showing disrespect to him. This analogy is incorrect because Allāh has not stated that He will punish people immediately for their sins. While many people are punished in this world as well as in the Hereafter, others are punished only in the Hereafter. One will be foolish to believe that one is not committing a sin merely because one is not being punished.

Allāh says about such people, "Sufficient for them is Hell which they shall enter, and it is the worst of places to return to." They are warned that their punishment is awaiting them in Hell, which is worse than any punishment of this world.

THE BELIEVERS ARE CAUTIONED NOT TO APE THE PRACTICES OF THE JEWS

Allāh says, "O you who believe! When you convene secret meetings, then do not do it to conspire sin, transgression and disobeying the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Rather hold these secret meetings for purposes of virtue and Taqwa (piety). Fear Allāh to Whom you shall all be gathered. Secret meetings are really from Satan to cause grief to the believers but can do nothing to harm them except with Allāh's permission." Satan inspired the Jews and the polytheists to do what they did so that the Muslim are hurt by their deeds. However, their plots can do nothing if Allāh does not will it to be effective. "In Allāh only should the believers trust." Only Allāh can help one to overcome the harm that one's enemies try to cause.

The religion of Islām is a complete religion. Just as Islām teaches Ibādāt (acts of worship), Islām also offers detailed guidance in matters of social etiquette. One of the finer aspects of social etiquette is that a person should not be hurt physically or emotionally. Physical harm will be discussed in the ensuing verses.

An important aspect of avoiding emotional harm is that people should not speak privately among themselves, leaving out someone who is in their midst. Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you are three persons together, two of you should not engage in a private discussion until another person joins them. If two will engage in a private discussion, the third one left alone will be hurt because he will think that they are talking about him." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 632]

If there are more than three persons in a group, two of them may talk privately because the others then have no reason to suspect anything.

يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ ءَامَنُوْا اِذَا قِيْلَ لَكُمْ تَقَسَّحُوْا فِى الْمَجْلِسِ فَلَقَسَّحُوْا يَفْسَحِ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ
وَإِذَا قِيْلَ اَنْشُرُوْا فَاَنْشُرُوْا يَرْفَعِ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ ءَامَنُوْا مِنْكُمْ وَالَّذِيْنَ اٰتَوْا الْعِلْمَ دَرَجٰتٍ
وَاللّٰهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ خَبِيْرٌ

(11) O you who believe! When it is said to you, "Make way!" in gatherings, then make way, Allāh shall make way<sup>1</sup> for you. And when it is said to you, "Stand up and leave!" then stand and leave, Allāh shall elevate the believers among you and those given knowledge by many stages. Allāh is Informed of what you do.

ETIQUETTE OF GATHERINGS AND THE VIRTUE OF SCHOLARS

The above verses offer two pieces of guidance to the believers. The first is that people sitting in a gathering should make way for those arriving later. They should sit in a manner that there remains sufficient space for others to sit. If they do this, Allāh Ta'āla will be graceful towards them, shower His mercy on them and forgive their sins.

A person arriving late for a gathering should ensure that he does not get anyone up from their place to accommodate him and that he does not force his way into a gathering. At the same time, those seated should try their best to accommodate others. Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No person should get another person up from his place to sit in that place. Yes, you should sit loosely and make place in the gathering." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 928]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best gathering is the one that is most accommodating." Sayyidina Jabir bin Samura رضى الله عنه reports that when they [the companions of prophet (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم] used to join the gatherings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they would sit wherever they found place.

Sayyidina Wāthila bin Khattāb رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once sitting in the Masjid when someone came towards him. Seeing him approach, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم moved from his place to make way for him to sit. The person said, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! There is ample space (you need not move from your place)." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed it is the right of a Muslim that his brother makes way for him when he sees him approach." ["Mishkāṭ"

p. 404]

The second guidance is contained in the words, "And when it is said to you, 'Stand up and leave!' then stand and leave". This teaches us that we should not sit so long with a person that it causes him difficulty, especially when at his house. The correct method is that one should assess the situation for oneself. One should judge what time has been allocated for one to sit with the person and determine whether one has overstayed one's visit. One should never wait to be told to leave because this would cause greater difficulty to the host.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has written that the companions of the prophet (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم always desired to sit in the gatherings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم until the very end. Allāh revealed the verse to inform them that they ought to leave the gathering when they were told to because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has other needs to tend to.

Another interpretation of the verse is that whenever a Muslim is told to stand up for Jihād or for any other good deed, he should respond immediately.

When the Muslim practises this, "Allāh shall elevate the believers among you and those given knowledge by many stages." Although "those given knowledge" are also included among the "believers", they are mentioned separately because of the elevated status that they enjoy over other Muslims. Whereas they enjoy an elevated status by virtue of their Belief, they have been accorded an even higher rank because of the knowledge of Qur'an and Ahadith that they possess. Not only do the Scholars enjoy an elevated status over the average Muslim, they are also superior in status to the Muslim who engages in excessive Nafl (mandatory) Ibādāt.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The virtue of an Allāma (Scholar) who carries out his Fardh obligations and then sits down to teach people good things over the worshipper who fasts the entire day and who performs Salāh the entire night, is like my virtue over the lowest among you." In another hadith, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who passes away while seeking knowledge so that the Religion may be elevated, his rank in Heaven will be only one lower than that of the Prophets عليهم السلام."

Sayyidina Uthmān bin Affān رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that on the Day of Judgement, the Prophets عليهم السلام will be first to intercede, followed by the Scholars and then the Shuhadā (martyrs).

"Allāh is informed of what you do." Every person shall reap the fruit of what s/he does in this world because nothing escapes Allāh.

يَتَأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِذَا نَجَّيْتُمُ الرَّسُولَ فَقَدِّمُوا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ نَجْوَتِكُمْ صَدَقَةٌ ذَٰلِكَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ
وَأَطْهَرُ فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَجِدُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿١٢﴾ ءَاسْأَلْتُمُ أَنْ تُقَدِّمُوا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ نَجْوَتِكُمْ
صَدَقْتُمْ فَإِذَا لَمْ تَفْعَلُوا وَتَابَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ فَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَءَاتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَاطِيعُوا اللَّهَ
وَرَسُولَهُ وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٣﴾

(12) O you who believe! When you (wish to) speak privately to the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, then offer charity before speaking. This is best for you and purer. If you do not find the means then (know that) Allāh is certainly Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (13) Are you reluctant to offer charity before your private discussions? If you do not do it and Allāh pardons then establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and obey Allāh and His messenger. Allāh is Informed of what you do.

THE COMMAND TO OFFER CHARITY BEFORE SPEAKING PRIVATELY TO THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

The first of the two verses above commands the believers to offer charity before speaking to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in private. The second verse cancels this command. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the Muslims used to pose many questions to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When their constant questioning became taxing on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh revealed the above verse to lessen the burden. The Muslims were now required to offer charity before gaining access to the private company of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When the throngs of questioners were quelled, Allāh cancelled the command and the Muslims were permitted to speak to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم without offering charity.

Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله relates that this verse was revealed when some people sought permission from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to enter into private discussion with him. This gave the impression to others that they were perhaps the topic of discussion. When such private discussions began to occupy too much of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم private time, Allāh revealed the above verse so that the practice may stop. [Qurtubi v. 17 p. 301]

Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه said, "There is a verse in Allāh's Book that none before and none after me has ever practised. I had a single Dinār (gold coin), which I changed into ten Dirhams (silver coins). I used to offer a Dirham in charity each time I entered into private discussion with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh then cancelled the command." [Ibn Kathir v. 4 p. 326]

Those Muslims who could not afford to offer charity have been precluded from the command by the words, "If you do not find the means then (know that) Allāh is certainly Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." Tirmidhi reports from Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه that when the verse: "O you who believe! When you speak privately to the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, then offer charity before speaking" was revealed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him [Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه], "Do you think that the Muslims will be able to afford one Dinār?" When Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه said that the Muslims will not be able to afford it, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم proposed half a Dinār. Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه said that this was also too much. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه what amount would be possible, he said that they would be able to afford a barley grain's weight of gold. To this the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "You have reduced the figure a great deal." It was then that Allāh revealed the verse, "Are you reluctant to offer charity before your private discussions?" Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه therefore used to say that it was because of him that Allāh lessened the burden of the Ummah.

Allāh says, "Are you reluctant to offer charity before your private discussions? If you do not do it and Allāh pardons you (by cancelling the order), then (do not fail to practise the other commands of Religion. Therefore) establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and obey Allāh and His messenger."

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that the phrase "Allāh pardons you" denotes that the Muslims sinned by expressing reluctance to offer charity before speaking to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in private. Allāh offered the Muslims the option to compensate for their sin by establishing Salāh, paying Zakāh and obeying all the commands of Allāh and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Nothing of this will go unnoticed because "Allāh is Informed of what you do."

﴿۱۴﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ قَالُوا قَوْمًا غَضِبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مَا هُمْ مِنْكُمْ وَلَا مِنْهُمْ وَيَحْلِفُونَ عَلَى الْكَذِبِ وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿۱۵﴾ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا إِنَّهُمْ سَاءَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿۱۶﴾ اتَّخَذُوا أَيْمَانَهُمْ جُنَّةً فَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُهِينٌ ﴿۱۷﴾ لَنْ تَغْنَى عَنْهُمْ أَمْوَالُهُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿۱۸﴾ يَوْمَ يَبْعَثُهُمُ اللَّهُ جَمِيعًا فَيَحْلِفُونَ لَهُ كَمَا يَحْلِفُونَ لَكَ وَيَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ عَلَىٰ شَيْءٍ أَلَّا إِنَّهُمْ هُمُ الْكَاذِبُونَ ﴿۱۹﴾ اسْتَحْذَرُوا الشَّيْطَانَ فَاسْخَبَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ فَاسْتَسْخَبَهُمْ ذَكَرَ اللَّهُ أُولَٰئِكَ حِزْبُ الشَّيْطَانِ أَلَّا إِنَّ حِزْبَ الشَّيْطَانِ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿۲۰﴾ الْآذِلِينَ

(14) Have you not seen those who befriend a nation with whom Allāh is angry? They are neither from among you nor from among them and they knowingly take false oaths. (15) Allāh has prepared a severe punishment for them. Evil indeed is that which they do. (16) They take their oaths as shields and prevent (others) from Allāh's path. Theirs shall be a humiliating punishment. (17) Neither their wealth nor their children can offer them any help against Allāh. They are the inmates of the Fire where they shall abide forever. (18) On the Day (of Judgement) when Allāh shall raise them all, they will take oaths before Him just as they take oaths before you thinking that they are in good stead. Behold! They are certainly liars. (19) Satan has overpowered them and made them forget to remember Allāh. These are the group of Satan. Behold! The group of Satan are at a loss. (20) Verily those who oppose Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم are the most disgraced.

THE FALSE OATHS OF THE HYPOCRITES AND THEIR SPYING FOR THE JEWS

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that the above verses were revealed with reference to the hypocrites. These people pretended to be Muslims but maintained strong ties of friendship with the Jews. They also informed the Jews about all the secrets of the Muslims that they learnt while associating with them.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" also reports that a Jew by the name of Abdullāh bin Nabtāl always sat in the Holy Prophet's ﷺ gatherings and kept the Jews informed of many secrets. The Holy Prophet ﷺ once went to his room and said to those with him, "Shortly, a person will come who has the heart of a tyrant and who sees with the eyes of Satan. Do not speak to him." After a little while a blue-eyed person appeared. He was none other but Abdullāh bin Nabtāl. The Holy Prophet ﷺ called him and asked, "Why do you and your friends speak ill of me?" He swore that he did no such thing and immediately went to bring his friends. They all swore that they too had never spoken ill of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse, "Have you not seen those (Hypocrites) who befriend a nation with whom Allāh is angry?" i.e. they befriend the Jews.

Although the hypocrites associated with the Jews and the Muslims, Allāh Ta'āla makes it clear to the Muslims that "They are neither from among you nor from among them." The hypocrites were never loyal to any party and remained only with that party who would benefit them the most. Even though they used to inform each party that they are loyal to them, they were loyal only to their own welfare. Allāh refers to the same double standards when He says in Surah Nisā, "Swaying between, they are neither towards these, nor towards those." The hypocrites carried out the various obligations of Islām merely to show the Muslims.

Allāh says further that the Hypocrites "knowingly take false oaths." The Hypocrites knew that they were lying when they took the false oaths, but yet felt no shame. Allāh declares, "Allāh has prepared a severe punishment for them. Evil indeed is that which they do."

"They take their oaths as shields and prevent (others) from Allāh's path. Theirs shall be a humiliating punishment." The hypocrites take false oaths to shield themselves against the enmity of the Muslims so that their wealth and children can remain safely theirs. Little do they realise that they are destroying their lives in the Hereafter by their hypocritical stance and their wealth and children will be of no avail to them. Allāh says, "Neither their wealth nor their children can offer them any help against Allāh. They are the inmates of the Fire where they shall abide forever."

Not only will their evil be restricted to this world, but they will even lie in the Ākhirah. Allāh informs the Muslims, "On the Day (of Judgement) when Allāh shall raise them all (and ask them about their evil deeds), they will take oaths before Him (denying their evil deeds) just as they take oaths before you thinking that they are in good stead." However, they cannot lie to Allāh. Allāh asserts, "Behold! They are certainly liars." Not only are the Hypocrites guilty of lying, but they are also proud about it and boast about it. While they are concerned about their welfare in this world, they are oblivious about the ruin facing them in the Hereafter.

SATAN HAS OVERPOWERED THE HYPOCRITES

Allāh says, "Satan has overpowered them and made them forget to remember Allāh." Because they have forgotten Allāh, they are oblivious of the Hereafter. Their only interest is the world in which Satan makes their evil appear good to them. They therefore think that the disbelief and polytheism (shirk) they perpetrate are benefiting them. They are so loyal to Satan that Allāh terms them as "the group of Satan." They labour under the misconception that they are successful. However, they fit perfectly into the intent of the verse that states: "Verily the losers are those who put themselves and their families at a loss on the Day of Judgment. Behold! That is the evident loss." Therefore, Allāh declares, "Behold! The group of Satan are at a loss."

Allāh Ta'āla continues, "Verily those who oppose Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم are the most disgraced." In fact, every person who enters Hell will be disgraced. In Surah Al Imrān, Allāh quotes the Supplication of the Believers as, "Our Lord, indeed You have disgraced the one whom You enter in the fire." There shall be many groups of people in the fire of Hell. According to the extent of a person's evil, he will be made to suffer disgrace in the Hell. Allāh says about the Hypocrites, 'Most assuredly, the hypocrites shall be in the lowest depth of the fire.' Because they will be in the lowest depths of Hell, they will correspondingly be the most humiliated.

كَتَبَ اللَّهُ لَا غَلَبَ لَنَا أَوْ رُسُلِي إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ ﴿٢١﴾ لَا تَجِدُ قَوْمًا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ يُوَادُّونَ مَنْ حَادَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَلَوْ كَانُوا آبَاءَهُمْ أَوْ أَبْنَاءَهُمْ أَوْ إِخْوَانَهُمْ أَوْ عَشِيرَتَهُمْ أُولَئِكَ كَتَبَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الْإِيمَانَ وَأَيَّدَهُم بِرُوحٍ مِّنْهُ وَيَدْخُلُهُمْ جَنَّاتٌ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ أُولَئِكَ حِزْبُ اللَّهِ أَلَا إِنَّ حِزْبَ اللَّهِ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ

(21) Allāh has ordained, "Verily My messengers and I shall certainly be victorious." Indeed, Allāh is Powerful, Mighty. (22) You will not find people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day befriending those who oppose Allāh and His messenger even though they are their fathers, their sons, their brothers or their families. These are the people in whose hearts Allāh has written Belief (faith) and whom Allāh assists, with His mercy. Allāh shall enter them into gardens beneath which rivers flow where they shall abide forever. Allāh is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. These are the group of Allāh. Behold! The group of Allāh shall be the only successful ones.

PEOPLE OF BELIEF DO NOT BEFRIEND THE ENEMIES OF ALLĀH EVEN THOUGH THEY ARE RELATED

Whereas the previous verses spoke about those who oppose Allāh and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the above verses speak about the sincere believers. When one becomes a sincere believer, there can be no room to accommodate the friendship of people who are antagonistic towards Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is not possible for a believer to befriend an enemy of His Creator and Master. When one becomes Allāh's friend, one cannot owe allegiance to another. One's friendship and enmity are subservient to Allāh's pleasure. One will strike up a relationship for Allāh's pleasure and forsake a relationship for Allāh's pleasure.

Sayyidina Abu Umāma رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The one who loves for Allāh's sake, hates for Allāh's sake, gives for Allāh's sake and takes for Allāh's sake has perfected his Belief." [Abu Dawūd]

Echoing this attribute of a believer Allāh says, "You will not find people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day befriending those who oppose Allāh and His messenger even though they are their fathers, their sons, their brothers or their families." People with true Belief are never reluctant to sever ties even with the closest relatives when these relatives oppose the Religion of Allāh. In fact, they will even be prepared to fight them if they confront them in Jihād.

THE SAHABAH رضى الله عنهم (COMPANIONS OF THE HOLY PROPHETS) DISPLAY THEIR UNWAVERING BELIEF DURING THE BATTLE OF BADR WHEN THEY FOUGHT THEIR OWN RELATIVES

There were several incidents in the lives of the companions of the prophet (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم when they killed their opponents in battle knowing that the adversary was their close relative. In the Battle of Badr, Sayyidina Abu Ubayda bin Jarrāh رضى الله عنه killed his father Jarrāh, Sayyidina Mus'ab bin Umayr رضى الله عنه killed his brother Ubayd bin Umayr and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه killed one of his close relatives.

After accepting Islām, the son of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Abdur Rahmān said to his father, "Father, during the Battle of Badr there were many occasions when I could have killed you, but I avoided the opportunities." Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه said to him, "If I had the opportunity, I would have never advanced until I had killed you." ["Sirah of Ibn Hishām"]

When the Battle of Badr commenced, three members of the Ansār advanced to meet three of the polytheists in combat. When the polytheists asked them who they were, the Ansār replied that they were from the Ansār. The Polytheists insisted that they wanted to fight their cousins and called to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Send us some adversaries from our own people." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then sent Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Hamza رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Ubaydah bin Hārith رضى الله عنه. Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه advanced to fight Walid bin Utba, Sayyidina Hamzah رضى الله عنه tackled Shaybā and Sayyidina Ubaydah bin Hārith رضى الله عنه fought Utba. While Walid and Shayba were killed, Sayyidina Ubaydah رضى الله عنه mortally injured Utba, who also fatally wounded Sayyidina Ubaydah رضى الله عنه. Sayyidina Ali and Hamzah رضى الله عنه then killed Utba and took Sayyidina Ubaydah رضى الله عنه away. When Sayyidina Ubaydah رضى الله عنه subsequently passed away, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I testify that you are certainly a martyr." ["Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" v. 3 p. 273]

We have mentioned this story to illustrate that the disbelievers were not only prepared to kill their Muslim relatives in battle, but they actually preferred killing them instead of any other. If this is the case with those who stand to defend falsehood, why should a Muslim care to scrutinise whether his adversary in combat is a relative or not? When a Muslim fights for Allāh's sake, he cannot afford to feel sorry for those who are out to destroy the Religion of Islām.

Allāh continues to speak about the sincere Believers when He says, "These are the people in whose hearts Allāh has written Belief (faith) and whom Allāh assists with His mercy." "Rūhul Ma'āni" interprets the Arabic word "rūh" (translated above as "mercy") to mean a special light with which Allāh illuminates the hearts of believers so that they have serenity and are able to have insight into matters. Allāh adds, "Allāh shall enter them into gardens beneath which rivers flow where they shall abide forever. Allāh is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. These are the group of Allāh. Behold! The group of Allāh shall be the only successful ones."

سورة الحشر

Madinan

Surah Al-Hashr

Verses 24

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

سَبَّحَ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿١﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي أَخْرَجَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ لِأَوَّلِ الْحَشْرِ مَا ظَنَنْتُمْ أَنْ يَخْرُجُوا وَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ مَانِعَتُهُمْ حُصُونُهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ فَأَلْتَهُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَمْ يَحْتَسِبُوا وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الرُّعْبَ يُخْرِبُونَ بُيُوتَهُمْ بِأَيْدِيهِمْ وَأَيْدِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَاعْتَبِرُوا يَأْأُولِ الْأَبْصَارِ ﴿٢﴾ وَلَوْلَا أَنْ كَتَبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْجَلَآءَ لَعَذَّبَهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَلَهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ عَذَابٌ النَّارِ ﴿٣﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ شَاقُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَمَنْ يُشَاقِ اللَّهَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) Whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth glorifies Allāh. He is the Mighty, the Wise. (2) It was He who removed the disbelievers from among the People of the Book from their homes for the first exile. You never thought that they would emerge and they thought that their fortresses would save them from Allāh, but Allāh's grasp came to them from where they never expected. Allāh cast terror into their hearts and they uprooted their homes with their own hands and with the hands of the believers. So take heed, O people with insight! (3) If Allāh had not decreed the exile for them, He would certainly have punished them in this world. And in the Hereafter, theirs shall be the punishment of the Fire. (4) This is because they opposed Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Whoever opposes Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, then (he should know that) verily Allāh punishes very severely.

THE JEWS ARE EXPELLED FROM MADINAH

The Arabic word "hashar" refers to gathering people together. The word is used when people leave their place of residence and gather together in another place. It is for this reason that the Day of Judgement is also described as the day of “hashar”. On the Day of Judgement, people from every part of the globe will gather together on the Plains of Resurrection.

The ‘first exile’ refers to the expulsion of the Jewish Banu Nadhīr tribe from Madinah. They were sent to a place called Khaybar, which lies a hundred miles north of Madinah. This occurred during the lifetime of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. During the Caliph of Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, they were expelled from Khaybar and they proceeded to live in Ariha (Jericho), Tima and Adhra’āt. This expulsion is referred to as the second exile. Because the Surah speaks about the exile of the Banu Nadhīr, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه used to refer to it as Surah Banu Nadhīr.

Allāh begins the Surah by saying, “Whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth glorifies Allāh. He is the Mighty, the Wise.” Everything in the universe sings Allāh’s praises, declaring that He is free from all faults and partners. None can overpower Allāh because He is Mighty and Omnipotent. Everything He decrees is based on His perfect wisdom and is therefore for the best.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived in Madinah, there were three major Jewish tribes there. These were the:

1. Banu Nadhīr tribe.
2. Banu Qurayza tribe.
3. Banu Qaynuqa tribe.

These tribes were reasonably powerful and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم signed a peace treaty with them. The clauses of the treaty specified that the Jews and Muslims would not fight each other and that each will assist the other if an enemy attacks any one of them. However, the Jews breached the treaty. The plight of the Banu Qurayzah was discussed in the commentary of verses 26 and 27 of Surah Ahzāb (Surah 33), while that of the Banu Qaynuqa was discussed in the commentary of verse 12 of Surah Āl Imrān where Allāh says, “Say to those who disbelieve, ‘You shall be vanquished and gathered in Hell, which is the worst of beddings.’” Their plight will again be discussed later in this Surah. The verses under discussion concern the Banu Nadhīr.

THE REASON FOR THE EXPULSION OF THE BANU NADHĪR

The Battle of Badr occurred during the 2nd year after Hijrah and the Battle of Uhud during the 3rd year after Hijrah. While some historians say that the Banu Nadhīr were expelled before the Battle of Uhud, others maintain that it was after the battle. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once went to the quarters of the Banu Nadhīr to discuss the Diyah (blood money) due for the murder of two members of the Banu Āmir tribe. Amr bin Umayyah killed the two persons and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had to pay the Diyah (Blood money). When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم approached the Jews of the Banu Nadhīr for financial assistance, they requested that he meet with them in their quarters. Before his arrival, the Jews planned to seat the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم beneath the shade of a particular wall from which one of them was to drop a rock to kill the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. A Jew by the name of Amr bin Jahāsh volunteered for the task.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived with Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه and they were made to sit on the spot. Before the Jews could put their sinister plan into motion, Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the plot and he quickly stood up from the spot. He then left with his companions for Madinah. When they reached Madinah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent Sayyidina Muhammad bin Maslama رضى الله عنه to issue the ultimatum to the Banu Nadhīr that they were to leave the town.

When the message reached the Jews, the hypocrites said to them that they would leave with them if they were forced to and if they had to fight a battle, they (the Hypocrites) would assist them. Mention is made of this promise in verse 11 of this Surah. The Jews grew bold with this promise and sent a message to the Muslims that they would not leave. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prepared the Muslims for battle. He appointed Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umm Maktūm رضى الله عنه as the Amīr of Madinah in his absence and marched with the Muslims to lay siege to the Jewish fortresses.

When the Muslims arrived, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed them to fell the date palms and burn the date plantations of the Jews. The Jews eventually ran out of food and when they realised that the Hypocrites were not going to assist them, they asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to exile them so that their lives may be spared. They requested that they be allowed to take with them as much as their camels could carry apart from weapons. Whereas they were initially bold enough to oppose the order of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh eventually instilled terror in their hearts and they actually begged to be exiled afterwards.

While many historians state that the siege lasted for six days, the historian Wāqidi places the figure at fifteen. Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allowed every three persons from the Banu Nadhīr to take turns riding one camel. To take as much as possible with them on a camel, the Jews even broke down their homes and removed the doors. The Muslims assisted them in this "work. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "they uprooted their homes with their own hands and with the hands of the believers." While some of them left for Shām, many settled in Khaybar. The people of Khaybar were very pleased with their arrival and welcomed them with singing and music. The above is reported in Allāma Ibn Kathīr's رحمه الله عليه "Al Bidāya wan Nihāya".

When the Jews shut themselves up in their fortresses, they thought that they were invincible and the Muslims never expected that the Jews would leave the area. However, Allāh cast terror into their hearts and they surrendered themselves. With this background to the incident, one would be able to understand when Allāh says, "It was He who removed the disbelievers from among the People of the Book from their homes for the first exile. You never thought that they would emerge and they thought that their fortresses would save them from Allāh, but Allāh's grasp came to them from where they never expected. Allāh cast terror into their hearts and they uprooted their homes with their own hands and with the hands of the believers. So take heed, O people with insight!"

The evil practices of the Jews necessitated that they receive punishment in this world just as the Quraysh were punished when many of them were killed in the Battle of Badr. However, Allāh had already decreed that they should suffer banishment and the disgrace that accompanies it. In addition to this, they had to destroy their homes and leave behind much of their belongings. This was to be their punishment in this world, in addition to the inevitable punishment of the Ākhirah. Concerning this Allāh says, "If Allāh had not decreed the exile for them, He would certainly have punished them in this world. And in the Hereafter, theirs shall be the punishment of the Fire."

Allāh outlines the reason for this punishment when He says, "This is because they opposed Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Whoever opposes Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, then (he should know that) verily Allāh punishes very severely." The Banu Qaynuqa was the first Jewish tribe to be expelled from Madinah, followed by the Banu Nadhīr who breached the pact when they attempted to assassinate the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Next was the turn of the Banu Qurayzah, as mentioned in verses 26 and 27 of Surah Ahzāb (Surah 33). The Banu Qurayzah were guilty of assisting the polytheists armies who lay siege to Madinah during the Battle of Ahzāb (also known as the Battle of the Trench).

Besides these three large Jewish tribes, there were several smaller tribes in and around Madinah. Ibn Hishām رحمه الله عليه has mentioned the names of these tribes in his biography of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Bukhari (v. 2 p. 574) and Muslim (v. 2 p. 94) mention that all the Jewish tribes were expelled from Madinah, including the Banu Qaynuqa and the Banu Hāritha. The narration also mentions that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Salām رضى الله عنه belonged to the Banu Qaynuqa tribe.

مَا قَطَعْتُمْ مِنْ لَيْسَةٍ أَوْ نَرَكْتُمْوهَا قَائِمَةً عَلَىٰ أُصُولِهَا فَبِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ وَلِيُخْزِيَ
الْفَاسِقِينَ ﴿٥﴾

(5) Every date palm that you cut or left standing on its roots was by Allāh's permission and to humiliate the sinners.

THE DATE PLANTATIONS WERE CUT BY ALLĀH'S ORDER

When the Muslims lay siege to the fortresses of the Banu Nadhīr, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed the companions of the prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم cut down their date plantations and set it alight. The Jews objected by saying, "O Abul Qāsim! You prevent people from causing anarchy. Is the cutting of the palms not anarchy?" According to another narration, some of the Immigrants prevented the companions of the prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم from cutting the date palms, telling them that the plantations will soon be booty for the Muslims.

A third narration mentions that after initially commanding the companions of the prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم to cut the palms down, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stopped them. The companions of the prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم then came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asking whether they will be guilty of a sin by cutting the palms down or whether they would be taken to task for leaving them uncut. It was then that Allāh revealed the above verse. [Ibn Kathīr v. 4 p. 323]

Allāh says to the companions of the prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم, "Every date palm that you cut or left standing on its roots was by Allāh's permission and to humiliate the sinners." Whatever act is done by Allāh's permission will be for the benefit of religion. In this case, the benefit was that the action humiliated the Jews. When the Jews saw their plantations burning, their hearts also burnt with it. With their morale broken and without food, the Jews eventually surrendered and were prepared to enter into a pact with the Muslims. The act of felling and burning the date plantations therefore led to the exiling of the Jews from Madinah and would earn rewards from Allāh. Anything done in obedience to Allāh's command will always earn a person rewards.

وَمَا أَفَاءَ اللَّهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْهُمْ فَمَا أَوْجَفْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ خَيْلٍ وَلَا رِكَابٍ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يُسَلِّطُ رُسُلَهُ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٦﴾ مَا أَفَاءَ اللَّهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْقُرَى فَلِلَّهِ وَلِلرَّسُولِ وَلِذِي الْقُرْبَىٰ وَالْيَتَامَىٰ وَالْمَسْكِينِ وَابْنِ السَّبِيلِ كَيْ لَا يَكُونَ دُولَةً بَيْنَ الْأَغْنِيَاءِ مِنْكُمْ وَمَا إِلَانَكُمْ الرَّسُولُ فخذوه وما نهاكم عنه فانتهوا وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ﴿٧﴾

(6) You neither ran your horses nor your camels for the "Fay" that Allāh gave to His messenger, but Allāh grants His messenger authority over whoever He pleases. Allāh has power over everything. (7) The "Fay" that Allāh granted His messenger from the people of the villages is for Allāh, for the messenger, for the relatives, for the orphans, for the poor and for the travellers so that this wealth may not remain amassed riches with the wealthy among you. Hold fast to what the messenger gives you and refrain from what He prevents you. Fear Allāh, for Allāh punishes very severely.

THE RECIPIENTS OF "FAY"

The wealth that the Muslims receive as booty from the disbelievers by way of a truce without fighting a battle is called 'Fay'. When the Muslims receive booty after a battle, the booty is referred to as "ghanīma" or "anfāl". The recipients of "anfāl" were discussed in verse 41 of Surah Anfāl (Surah 8) and the recipients of 'fay' are discussed in the above verses.

Because the Muslims did not have to fight a battle to earn the wealth of the Banu Nadhīr, they were not actually entitled to a share of it. When some Muslims felt that they were entitled to a share, Allāh revealed the verse "You neither ran your horses nor your camels for the 'fay' that Allāh gave to His messenger, but Allāh grants His messenger authority over whoever He pleases. Allāh has power over everything." Because Allāh granted the victory to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it was his prerogative to distribute the wealth as he pleases.

Allāh then outlines the manner in which "fay" ought to be distributed.

Allāh says, "The 'Fay' that Allāh granted His messenger from the people of the villages is for Allāh, for the messenger, for the relatives, for the orphans, for the poor and for the travellers." Besides the settlement of the Banu Nadhīr, the Muslims also received 'Fay' from the town of Fidak, from half of Khaybar and from the Banu Uraynah.

Allāh declares that the 'fay' should firstly be 'for Allāh'. Many commentators have mentioned that that this is mentioned for blessings, just as Allāh mentions concerning the "anfāl": "Know that from whatever spoils of war that you acquire, a fifth of it shall be for Allāh." Other commentators interpret the verse to mean that Allāh has the greatest right to this wealth because everything does belong to Him. Therefore, He shall decree how this wealth will be distributed.

Allāh then says that the next recipient shall be "the messenger". This means that Allāh has informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about those to whom the wealth is to be given, and he would distribute it accordingly. Unlike the "anfāl", a fifth of 'fay' was not given to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Commentators state that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was granted complete authority over the wealth of "fay" and that the recipients mentioned afterwards in the verse were directives for him.

"The relatives" refers to the family of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who were granted a share during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for the tremendous support they gave to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and to the religion of Islām. The fourth, fifth and sixth recipients mentioned are "the orphans", "the poor" and "the travellers". The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم distributed the 'Fay' according to the directions of Allāh Ta'āla and also extracted a year's maintenance for his wives from this wealth. The rest of the 'Fay' was used for the benefit of the Muslim public and for Jihād preparations. Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم possessed complete authority over the 'Fay', none of it could be inherited by his heirs because he said, "We (i.e. the Prophet) do not leave inheritance. Whatever we leave behind is charity." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 436]

After the demise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, his successors used to distribute the "Fay" exactly as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to. Muslim leaders do not have complete authority over 'Fay' to do as they please and are constrained to follow the directives of the Shari'ah in this regard. "Fay" may be used for:

- 📖 Acquiring weapons for Jihād.
- 📖 Building bridges and roads for the Muslim public.
- 📖 Seeing to the needs of the Mujāhidīn (Muslim soldiers) and their families.
- 📖 Paying the (Ulema) Scholars.
- 📖 Paying the Muslim judges and Zakāh collectors.

"The relatives" refer to members of the Banu Hāshim and Banu Abdul Muttalib. According to Imām Shāfi'ī رحمه الله and Imām Ahmad bin Hanbal رحمه الله, members of these families will be given a portion of the 'Fay' according to the principle of 'for a male is twice the share of a female'. Imām Mālik عليه الله رحمة is of the opinion that the Muslim leader is at liberty to distribute the 'fay' among these families as he deems fit. He may also give it to some and exclude others. According to Imām Abu Hanīfa عليه الله رحمة, this category of recipients was entitled to a share only during the lifetime of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. After the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed away, the Khulafa (Caliphs) did not appoint a separate share for them. Of course, a member of these families will receive a share if s/he falls into the any of the categories of "the orphan's", "the poor" or "the travellers". In fact, should any of them fall into these categories, they will receive preferential treatment. Orphans will receive a share only if they are Muslims and poor. ["Ruhul Ma'āni"]

After mentioning the recipients of 'fay', Allāh says that the 'fay' should be distributed in this manner "so that this wealth may not remain amassed riches with the wealthy among you." The Arabic word "dūla" (also pronounced "dowla") is derived from the root word "tadāwul" which denotes the passing on of something from one person to another. Wealth should not stagnate with one person or one group of people. When it is distributed through society, more people benefit from it. It is unfortunate that a large portion of even relief funds intended to aid the poor and suffering of many countries but end up with the rich because people have lost their religious conscience and are obsessed with love for wealth.

IT IS FARDH (OBLIGATORY) TO OBEY THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

Allāh declares, "Hold fast to what the messenger gives you and refrain from what He prevents you." This verse makes it clear that the Qur'ān does not contain every command and prohibition. Allāh has commanded many injunctions and prohibited many others through the agency of His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. These injunctions are found both in the words and actions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When an action was carried out in the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he did not object to it, it means that he sanctioned the action. Such an action will therefore be sanctioned in the Shari'ah. Describing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, a verse of Surah A'rāf states, "He enjoins them to do good, prevents them from evil, permits for them pure things, forbids the impure." [Surah 7, verse 157]

THOSE WHO REFUTE THE AHADĪTH

Nowadays there are many ignorant leaders who reject the authority of the Ahadīth in enforcing injunctions of the Shari'ah. For this reason they reject many injunctions of the Shari'ah. Their claim to be followers of the Qur'ān is false because the Qur'ān explicitly commands:

"Say, 'Obey Allāh and the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم.'" [Surah Āl Imrān (2), verse 32]

"Whoever obeys the messenger has obeyed Allāh and whoever turns away, We have not sent you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] as a warder over them." [Surah Nisā (4), verse 80]

"Hold fast to what the messenger gives you and refrain from what He prevents you.” [Surah Hashr (59), verse 7]

In the light of these verses, it is evident that these people really have no desire to follow the Qur’ān and want only to alter the injunctions of the Shari’ah. It is unfortunate that they accept payment from the enemies of Islām to spread Disbelief among the Muslims (Allāh forbid!).

Bukhari reports the hadith of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه in which he says that Allāh has cursed those women who draw tattoos and those who have themselves tattooed. He says that Allāh also curses those women who trim their eyebrows and those who file their front teeth for beauty. They are all cursed because they seek to alter the appearance of Allāh’s creation.

When a woman heard that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه had said this, she came to him saying that she heard he was cursing women. He replied, “Why should I not curse those whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has cursed and who are also accursed in Allāh’s book?” The woman told him that she had read the entire Qur’ān but not found any verse to that effect. He remarked, “If you had recited the Qur’ān you would have certainly come across such a thing. Does Allāh not say, “Hold fast to what the messenger gives you and refrain from what He prevents you.”

She replied that she had read that verse. Thereupon he said that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had forbidden the actions of those women whom he had cursed. Therefore, the prohibition of these acts are also intended by the Qur’ān since it enjoins practice upon the things prescribed by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and invokes abstention from those things that he had forbidden. [“Mishkāt” p. 381, Bukhari v. 2 p. 725]

Without hesitation, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه directly attributed the statement of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to Allāh by saying that Allāh curses those women whom the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cursed. This verse occurs after mention of the distribution of ‘fay’ to illustrate that the words of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and those of Allāh are one. Therefore, whatever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did with the ‘fay’ was perfectly correct and pleasing to Allāh. Allāh concludes the verse by saying, “Fear Allāh, for Allāh punishes very severely.”

لِلْفُقَرَاءِ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ الَّذِينَ أُخْرِجُوا مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ وَأَمْوَالِهِمْ يَبْتَغُونَ فَضْلًا مِّنَ اللَّهِ
وَرِضْوَانًا وَيَنْصُرُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الصَّادِقُونَ ﴿٨﴾

(8) (A share of the “fay” is also reserved) for the poor immigrants who were removed from their homes and their possessions. They seek Allāh’s grace and pleasure and assist Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. These are the ones who are true.

THE VIRTUE OF THE IMMIGRANTS

The above verse mentions that the Muslims who migrated from Makkah to Madinah (the Immigrants) are also entitled to a share of the ‘fay’. Suffering under the oppression of the polytheists, the Immigrants had to leave their possessions in Makkah and arrived in Madinah without anything. The 'fay' would therefore provide invaluable assistance to them. They had no ulterior motives for migrating to Madinah. All they intended was to "seek Allāh's grace and pleasure and (to) assist Allāh and His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم" by participating in Jihād. Allāh says about them, "These are the ones who are true" i.e. true in their faith and in practising the injunctions of the Shari'ah.

Although the poor Immigrants may be included in the categories of "the orphans", "the poor" and "the travellers", the above verse mentions them separately to highlight their virtue. They deserve special mention because of the hardships and difficulty that they endured for the sake of Islām.

وَالَّذِينَ تَبَوَّءُوا الدَّارَ وَالْإِيمَانَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ يُحِبُّونَ مَنْ هَاجَرَ إِلَيْهِمْ وَلَا يَجِدُونَ فِي
صُدُورِهِمْ حَاجَةً مِمَّا أُوتُوا وَيُؤْثِرُونَ عَلَىٰ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَلَوْ كَانَ بِهِمْ خَصَاصَةٌ
وَمَنْ يُوقِ شُحَّ نَفْسِهِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٩﴾

(9) (The "fay" is also for) those who made the place (Madinah) their home before them and had made faith their home. They love those who migrate to them and find no want in their hearts for what they (the immigrants) are given. They prefer (others) above themselves even though they are themselves in need. Whoever is saved from the miserliness of the soul are really the successful ones.

THE STERLING QUALITIES OF THE ANSĀR

The verse above speaks about the Ansār of Madinah who had settled in Madinah a very long time before the Immigrants. Allāh says that they also deserve a share of the 'fay'. Allāh begins by saying that the Ansār had made Madinah their home after arriving from Yemen long before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم announced his Risālah (Prophethood). A few of them met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at Mina during the Hajj and accepted Islām. The rest of them accepted Islām afterwards and were such staunch Muslims that they could not be separated from it. Allāh refers to the steadfastness of their belief when he says that the Ansār had "made faith their home".

Praising them further Allāh says, "They love those who migrate to them" i.e. they had great love for the Immigrants who arrived in Madinah from Makkah. They did not regard the arrival of the new immigrants as a burden and neither did they think that their arrival would adversely affect their livelihood and earnings. Their love for their Immigrants brethren was sincere and true.

In addition to this, they found 'no want (jealousy) in their hearts for what they (the immigrants) are given.' Whenever the Immigrants were given anything that they were not given, the Ansār bore no grudges. The fourth quality of theirs that Allāh mentions is that "They prefer (others) above themselves even though they are themselves in need."

THE MUTUAL LOVE BETWEEN THE MUHĀJIRĪN (IMMIGRANTS) AND THE ANSĀR (INHABITANTS OF MADINAH)

The books of Ahadīth mention many incidents concerning the love that the Ansār bore for the Immigrants and how they gave the Immigrants preference over their own needs. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Ansār of Madinah actually requested the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to divide their date plantations between themselves and the Immigrants. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم declined the offer, the Ansār proposed that the Immigrants assist on the plantations and then share in the produce. This the Immigrants accepted. Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked those present who would feed a certain person who was also there. One of the Ansār volunteered and took the person home.

When he reached his home, he informed his wife that the person was the guest of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and that they were to entertain him. When his wife told him that the only food in the house was the children's, he told her to put the children to sleep and to prepare the food for the guest. The couple then devised a plan whereby the wife would put out the lamp while pretending to fix it so that guest would continue eating thinking that the couple were also partaking of the meal. In this manner, the guest ate to his fill while the couple remained hungry the entire night. When the host met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the following day, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "Allāh liked your deed of remaining hungry while your guest ate. Allāh has therefore revealed the verse: "They prefer (others) above themselves even though they are themselves in need." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 536]

One may not conclude that the parents acted wrongly by depriving the children of their food because the children had already eaten supper and the food was being kept for their breakfast. If the children were really hungry, the parents would not have been unable to put them to sleep.

One may also not say that the couple disregarded the laws of Veil (Hijāb) by eating together with the guest because the incident took place before the laws of Veil (Hijāb) were revealed.

NOTE: Who was the companions of prophets (Sahābi) رضى الله عنه who entertained the guest? He was one of the following three persons:

📖 Sayyidina Abu Talha Ansāri رضى الله عنه

📖 Sayyidina Abdullāh Bin Rawāha رضى الله عنه

📖 Sayyidina Qais bin Thābit رضى الله عنه

THE ONE WHO IS SAVED FROM MISERLINESS IS SUCCESSFUL

Allāh says, "Whoever is saved from the miserliness of the soul are really the successful ones." This verse speaks of the abominable nature of miserly behaviour. The subtlety in stating "miserliness of the soul" instead of just "miserliness" can be understood when it occurs that a person's heart wants to contribute in charity but his soul is reluctant. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes quotes certain commentators who are of the opinion that "shuh" (translated above as "miserliness") actually refers to a kind of miserliness that is coupled with greed.

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Beware of oppression because oppression will become darkness on the Day of Judgement and beware of 'shuh' because 'shuh' has destroyed those before you. It prompted them to spill each other's blood and make Unlawful things Hālāl (Lawful)." [Muslim]

"Shuh" is actually ingrained in man's personality. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "but selfishness ('shuh') has been made present in the souls of men." [Surah 4, verse 128]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The worst of traits in a person is 'shuh' that instils terror within him and cowardice that extracts the soul." ["Mishkāt" p. 165 and Nasa'i v.1 p.34]

Another Hadith states that Belief and miserliness cannot share the same heart. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also mentioned that miserliness and bad character cannot be combined with Belief. [Tirmidhi]

Whenever a person wants to spend in charity, his soul will not want to allow it. However, when he suppresses the desires of his soul and spends, Allāh shall grant him tremendous rewards.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that a person once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم which type of Sadaqah (charity) earned the most reward. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the most rewarding Sadaqah (charity) is the Sadaqah (Charity) spent when a person is healthy, when his soul is miserly, when he fears poverty and he is hopeful of becoming wealthy. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then added, "Do not delay Sadaqah (charity) until the time when your soul is at your throat and you say, 'Give so much to so-and-so and give so much to so-and-so'. However (this is futile because) it has already become the property of so-and-so (since everything will become the property of the heirs when the person dies)." [Bukhari v. 1 p.191]

Sayyidina Abu Sa'id Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a single Dirham spent in charity while one is alive and well is better than a hundred Dirhams spent while one is on one's deathbed. [Abu Dawūd]

There are many people who extravagantly waste large amounts of money on sinful purposes and to win fame. However, they are extremely reluctant to spend on the Wājib (Compulsory) and Fardh (obligatory) charities. Many of them withhold even their Zakāh and do not perform their obligatory Hajj. If they do pluck up the courage to perform Hajj, they often do it for show.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Time will pass very fast, deeds will decrease, miserliness will be cast into people's hearts and murder will increase." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 1046]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه has also mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cited the following three factors as means of salvation:

1. Adhering to the demands of Taqwa (piety) in private and in public.
2. Speaking the truth when happy and when angry.

3. Being thrifty when rich and when poor.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then mentioned the following three factors which cause destruction:

1. Pursuing the demands of one's carnal self.
2. Succumbing to the demands of miserliness.
3. Being proud about oneself. [Mishkāt p. 434]

Miserliness is an extremely evil trait. One should make every effort to control one's desires, to spend in avenues pleasing to Allāh, to avoid spending in sinful avenues and to avoid extravagance. This is the way to success because Allāh says, "Whoever is saved from the miserliness of the soul are really the successful ones."

وَالَّذِينَ جَاءُوا مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانِنَا الَّذِينَ سَبَقُونَا
بِالْإِيمَانِ وَلَا تَجْعَلْ فِي قُلُوبِنَا غِلًا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١٠﴾

(10) Those who come after them say, "O our Lord! Forgive us and our brothers who passed before us with Belief. And do not place any impurity in our hearts against those who believe. O our Lord! Indeed You are the Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

THE MUSLIMS AFTER THE IMMIGRANTS AND ANSĀR ARE ALSO ENTITLED TO THE "FAY"

According to most commentators, this verse is linked to those above in that it tells Muslims that all those still to come after the Immigrants and Ansār may also benefit from the 'Fay'.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه narrates from Sayyidina Ibn Jarīr رحمه الله عليه that Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه once recited the verse, "Alms are only for the poor, the destitute, the orphans, those appointed to collect them, those whose hearts have to be reconciled, for the freedom of slaves, for those in debt, for the path of Allāh and for the traveller..." He then said, "Alms (Zakāh) are only for these people." He then recited the verse, "Know that from whatever spoils of war that you acquire, a fifth of it shall be for Allāh, His messenger, the relatives, the poor, the orphans and the travellers..." He then said, "The spoils of war shall be for those mentioned in this verse."

Thereafter, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه recited the verses, "The Fay' that Allāh granted His messenger from the people of the villages is for Allāh, for the messenger, for the relatives, for the orphans, for the poor and for the travellers... (up to the verse). Indeed You are the Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." These verses include all Muslims. Every Muslim is entitled to a share of the Fay'. If I stay alive (long enough), even a shepherd tending his flock among the Sard Him yar' will receive his share where he is, without having a drop of perspiration on his brow in acquiring in it." [Ibn Kathīr v. 4 p. 340]

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه writes that "those who come after them" are the third category of people whose needy members are worthy recipients of the 'fay' - the first two categories being the Immigrants and the Ansār. This refers to the people "who followed them (the Immigrants and Ansār) with sincerity". Those who revile the Immigrants and Ansār and regard them as disbelievers (like the Rawāfidh) cannot fall into this category and are therefore not worthy recipients of the 'fay'.

Allāh speaks about the supplication that these 'believer make. In the first supplication they ask, "O our Lord! Forgive us and our brothers who passed before us with Belief." We learn from this verse that one should seek Allāh's forgiveness for oneself as well as for one's Muslim brothers. By seeking forgiveness, one will be forgiven and one's stages in Heaven will be elevated.

The second supplication they make is, "And do not place any impurity in our hearts against those who believe. O our Lord! indeed You are the Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." The Arabic word "ghil" (translated above as "impurity") includes enmity, jealousy, hatred and all types of ill feelings that may exist between two persons. Their supplication to Allāh is that He cleanses their hearts from ill feelings against all "those who believe" i.e. all believers in the past, present and future.

THE EVILS OF JEALOUSY, MALICE AND ENMITY

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Avoid enmity between yourselves because this shaves (off good deeds just as a razor shaves off hair)." ["Mishkāt" p. 428 from Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Zubayr رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The diseases of previous nations has stealthily crept up to you. The diseases are jealousy and enmity. These traits actually shave. I do not say that they shave hair but they shave off religion." [Ibid]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the doors of Heaven are opened every Monday and Thursday. Whereas Allāh's mercy encompasses everyone, it does not reach the two people who harbour enmity towards each other. Allāh says about them, "Defer their matter until they reconcile." [Ibid]

During the period of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, there were a few people in whose hearts the diseases of the previous Ummahs had crept. Nowadays, there are fully-fledged wars waged between people who claim to be Muslims. The jealousy and enmity that exists between such Muslims leads them to disputes and even murder. They do not even consider making supplication for Allāh to remove the impurities that fill their hearts because they are content with it. It is tragic to notice that such people will exploit every gathering to backbite about fellow Muslims and publicise their shortcomings.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم clearly informed his companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم that they should not speak ill of any companion in front of him [i.e. in front of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] because he wished to meet every person with a clean heart. [Tirmidhi]

THE DEVIATION OF THE RAWĀFIDH

Whereas Allāh praises those who pray for their predecessors the Immigrants and Ansār, the Rawāfidh pride themselves for the hatred they bear for the Immigrants and Ansār. These are the same people who refute the authenticity of our Qur'ān and claim that the real Qur'ān is hidden in some cave with the Mahdi. The enmity they bear towards the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم is so great that they claim that all except a few prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم became disbelievers after the demise of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه reports that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "Allāh has commanded people to seek forgiveness on behalf of the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم but people have started to swear them." She then recited the verse: "Those who come after them say, 'O our Lord! Forgive us and our brothers who passed before us with Belief. And do not place any impurity in our hearts against those who believe. O our Lord! Indeed You are the Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.'"

Sayyidina Amir Sha'bi رحمه الله عليه once said to Sayyidina Mālik bin Mighwal رحمه الله عليه that the Jews and the Christians are actually better than the Rawāfidh in that if the Jews are asked who were the best people of their Ummah, they will say that the best are the companions of Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. Similarly, if the Christians are asked who are the best of their Ummah, they will say that the best were the companions of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام (the Hawāriyīn). However, if the Rawāfidh are asked who are the worst people of their Ummah, they will reply that the worst people of their Ummah were (Allāh forbid!) the companions of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Whereas Allāh has commanded Muslims to pray for the Sahābah رضى الله عنهم, the Rawāfidh prefer rather to revile them. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 4 p. 321]

Imām Mālik رحمه الله عليه stated that the above verse allocates a share of the "Fay" for those Muslims who come after the Immigrants and Ansār and who make Supplication for them. Because the Rawāfidh curse the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم instead of making supplication for them, they are not entitled to any share of the "Fay".

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ نَافَقُوا يَقُولُونَ لِإِخْوَانِهِمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ لَئِنْ أُخْرِجْتُمْ لَنَخْرُجَنَّ مَعَكُمْ وَلَا نَطِيعُ فِيكُمْ أَحَدًا أَبَدًا وَإِنْ قُوتِلْتُمْ لَنَنْصُرَنَّكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَشْهَدُ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١١﴾ لَئِنْ أُخْرِجُوا لَا يَخْرُجُونَ مَعَهُمْ وَلَئِنْ قُوتِلُوا لَا يَنْصُرُوهُمْ وَلَئِنْ نَصَرُوهُمْ لَيُوَلُّنَّ الْأَدْبَارَ ثُمَّ لَا يَنْصُرُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ لَأَنْتُمْ أَشَدُّ رَهْبَةً فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِنْ اللَّهِ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ لَا يَقْنَلُونَكُمْ جَمِيعًا إِلَّا فِي قُرَى مُحَصَّنَةٍ أَوْ مِنْ وَرَاءِ جُدُرٍ بَأْسُهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ شَدِيدٌ تَحْسَبُهُمْ جَمِيعًا وَقُلُوبُهُمْ شَتَّى ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿١٤﴾﴾

(11) Have you not seen the hypocrites who say to their disbelieving brothers of the People of the Book, "If you are exiled, we shall definitely leave with you and we shall never ever obey the word of anyone concerning you. We shall also certainly assist you if you are fought." Allāh testifies that they are certainly liars. (12) If they (the Jews) are exiled, they (the hypocrites) will not leave with them and if they are engaged in battle, they will not assist them. Even if they have to assist them, they will surely turn their backs after which they will not have any assistance. (13) Without doubt the fear that they have in their hearts for you is more than the fear they have for Allāh. This is because they are a nation that has no understanding. (14) Their combined forces will fight you only from fortified strongholds or from behind walls. The in-fighting among them is intense. You think that they are united whereas their hearts are divided. This is because they are a nation that has no knowledge.

THE FALSE PROMISES THAT THE HYPOCRITES MADE TO THE JEWS

As was discussed at the beginning of the Surah, when the Holy Prophet ﷺ ordered the Jews of the Banu Nadhīr tribe to leave Madinah, they refused. The leader of the hypocrites Abdullāh bin Ubay bin Salūl sent a message to the Jews informing them that they should not leave because he and his companions would support them. This promise of support is mentioned in the verses above. They told the Jews that if the Jews were forced out of Madinah, they would show their solidarity and leave with them. On the other hand, if they are forced to do battle against the Muslims, they (the hypocrites) would fight with them. They also added that if anyone had to dissuade them from siding with the Jews, they would ignore the request.

However, Allāh knew that they were insincere and declares, "Allāh testifies that they are certainly liars." Allāh adds, "If they (the Jews) are exiled, they (the hypocrites) will not leave with them and if they are engaged in battle, they will not assist them." This was exactly what happened. When the Jews informed the Holy Prophet ﷺ that they would not leave Madinah, the Muslims lay siege to their fortresses. Expecting help from the hypocrites, the Jews locked themselves in their fortresses. However, no help came and when they eventually lost hope in the hypocrites, they were forced to accept banishment rather than face execution.

Even when the Jews began taking their homes apart to take along whatever they could, they received no assistance from the hypocrites. On this occasion no battle was fought. However, even if there were a battle and if the hypocrites did emerge to fight with the Jews, they would have certainly deserted the battlefield, leaving the Jews to fend for themselves. Referring to this Allāh says, "Even if they have to assist them, they will surely turn their backs after which they will not have any assistance."

Addressing the Muslims, Allāh says further, "Without doubt the fear that they have in their hearts for you (Muslims) is more than the fear they have for Allāh." A Muslim fears Allāh more than anything else. On the contrary, the hypocrites had more fear for others than they had for Allāh. This was because their claim to have Belief was false. They feared that if they assist the Jews against the Muslims, their pretence would be exposed.

"This is because they are a nation that has no understanding" i.e. the hypocrites fear the Muslims more than they fear Allāh because they do not understand Allāh's greatness and awesome power.

Allāh further informs the Muslims that the "combined forces (of the Jews and hypocrites) will fight you only from fortified strongholds or from behind walls." This was exactly how the Banu Nadhīr faced the Muslims. The same was the case when the Muslims fought the Jews in Khaybar. However, despite these measures, the Muslims still defeated the Jews. Describing their condition Allāh says, "The in-fighting among them is intense. You think that they are united whereas their hearts are divided. This is because they are a nation that has no knowledge."

كَمَثَلِ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قَرِيبًا ذَاتُوا وِبَالًا أَمْرَهُمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١٥﴾

(15) Their example is like those shortly before them who tasted the consequence of their deed. Theirs shall be a painful punishment.

THE MISCHIEF AND EXILE OF THE JEWISH BANU QAYNUQA TRIBE

As mentioned earlier, there were three major Jewish tribes in Madinah. The first was the Banu Nadhīr, whose expulsion from Madinah has already been discussed. The second was the Banu Qurayza whose men were executed and whose women and children were taken into captivity. Their incident is mentioned in verses 26 and 27 of Surah Ahzāb (Surah 33). The plight of the third tribe, the Banu Qaynuqa is mentioned in the above verse. All three tribes entered into a peace treaty with the Muslims, in which they agreed never to fight the Muslims and never to assist an enemy of the Muslims. However, all three tribes betrayed the Muslims.

The Banu Qaynuqa was the first of the three Jewish tribes to be expelled from Madinah. When the Muslims returned from the Battle of Badr, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم assembled the Jews in the Banu Qaynuqa marketplace and said to them, "Fear Allāh and accept Islām otherwise you may suffer the same plight as the Quraysh. You know very well that I am Allāh's Holy Prophet. Your scripture speaks of me and you have taken a covenant with Allāh that you will follow the Holy Prophet mentioned in your scripture." The Jews replied by saying, "O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! Do not deceive yourself the defeat of the Quraysh makes no difference to us. They are amateurs and have no idea about warfare. You defeated them quite by chance. By Allāh! If you ever have to face us in battle, you will know who we are!"

During this period it occurred that a woman went to sell milk to a Jewish goldsmith. When the Jews insulted her honour, war was declared between the Muslims and the Banu Qaynuqa. The Muslims surrounded them for fifteen days and the Jews were forced to surrender. Eventually they told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they were prepared to accept whatever decision he passed. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was about to pass the decision that they were to be executed when Abdullāh bin Ubay said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "How can you kill a tribe of seven hundred men in a single morning or evening when they have always been assisting me?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then allowed him to decide their fate. He decided that they should be exiled from Madinah. They then proceeded to settle in the Adhra'at. ["Fat'hul Bārī" v. 7 p. 330]

The verse therefore means that the plight of the Banu Nadhīr "is like those shortly before them who tasted the consequence of their deed (i.e. like the Banu Qaynuqa). Theirs shall be a painful punishment." Just as the Banu Qaynuqa were expelled from Madinah, the Banu Nadhīr were also expelled. Both therefore suffered disgrace in this world and cannot avoid the punishment of the Hereafter.

كَمَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ إِذْ قَالَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ اكْفُرْ فَلَمَّا كَفَرَ قَالَ إِنْ بَرِئْتُ مِنْكَ إِنِّي
أَخَافُ اللَّهَ رَبَّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ فَكَانَ عَقِبَهُمَا أَنَّهُمَا فِي النَّارِ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَذَلِكَ
جَزَاءُ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٧﴾

(16) Like the example of Satan when he says to man, "Be a disbeliever." So when man becomes a disbeliever Satan says, "I have nothing to do with you. Indeed I fear Allāh, the Lord of the universe." (17) The plight of the two is that both shall suffer in the Fire forever. This is the punishment of the oppressors.

SATAN FOOLS MAN AND LEADS HIM INTO THE FIRE OF HELL

The above verses make it clear that the way in which the Hypocrites made false promises to the Jews and then left them in the lurch is not a new practice. Satan employs the same tactic when he coaxes people to be disbelievers. When they eventually succumb to his ploy and perpetrate disbelief, he withdraws and says, "I have nothing to do with you. Indeed I fear Allāh, the Lord of the universe." Verse 48 of Surah Anfāl (Surah 8) clearly depicts how Satan promised the disbelievers support before the Battle of Badr but then deserted them in the heat of the moment.

Emulating the practice of their mentor, the hypocrites left the Jews to suffer the consequences on their own. Such deceit is not unusual from people who were determined to disobey Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Muslims should beware of people who claim to be saints but whose objectives are actually to attain wealth and fame. Just as Satan claims to fear Allāh, they also make the claim merely to deceive people. They will also absolve themselves of blame before Allāh and will want nothing to do with their followers in the Hereafter.

Allāh says that both Satan and his followers shall suffer in Hell forever. The verses warn especially the hypocrites not to follow Satan and not to persist with disbelief because the result will be eternal damnation in Hell.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَلْتَنْظُرْ نَفْسٌ مَّا قَدَّمَتْ لِغَدٍ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ نَسُوا اللَّهَ فَأَنْسَاهُمْ أَنفُسَهُمْ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ

الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ لَا يَسْتَوِي أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ وَأَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ
 هُمُ الْفَائِزُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ لَوْ أَنزَلْنَا هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ عَلَى جَبَلٍ لَّرَأَيْنَتْهُ خَشَعًا مُّصَدِّعًا مِّنْ
 خَشْيَةِ اللَّهِ وَتِلْكَ الْأَمْثَلُ نُضْرِمَهَا لِلنَّاسِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَفْكُرُونَ ﴿٢١﴾

(18) O you who believe! Fear Allāh and let every soul see what it has sent ahead for tomorrow. Fear Allāh! Indeed Allāh is Informed of what you do. (19) And do not become like those who forgot Allāh after which He made them forget themselves. Those are the sinners. (20) The people of the Fire and the people of Heaven cannot be the same. Only the people of Heaven are successful. (21) If We have to reveal this Qur'ān to a mountain, you will see it yield and shatter out of fear for Allāh. These are parables that We illustrate to people so that they reflect.

THE COMMAND TO FEAR ALLĀH AND TO BE CONCERNED ABOUT THE HEREAFTER

Allāh instructs Muslims to be concerned about their lives in the Hereafter and to make an effort to secure entrance into Heaven. Allāh says, "O you who believe! Fear Allāh and let every soul see what it has sent ahead for tomorrow." This verse twice repeats the instruction to fear Allāh. Commentators mention that the first instruction to fear Allāh is to remind people to repent for past sins, while the second instruction informs them that they should always be conscious about repenting for their sins in future. Other commentators state that the first instruction to fear Allāh is to remind people to perform their Farā'idh (obligations) and compulsory at while the second instruction warns people to fear Allāh so that they do not perpetrate sins.

Allāh concludes the verse by saying, "Fear Allāh! Indeed Allāh is Informed of what you do." Allāh is Aware of both the good and the evil deeds that a person carries out. People should bear in mind that Allāh will reward them for every good deed that they perform regardless of how small it may be. At the same time, the disbelievers, polytheists and sinners must not forget that Allāh is Informed about every evil they perpetrate, even though they may carry out the evil most secretly. One should always bear in mind that one will soon leave this world and head for the Hereafter where one will have to render an account for one's deeds. It will then be decided whether one shall spend eternity in Heaven or in Hell.

APPRECIATE LIFE

Muslims are urged to think about the deeds they have sent ahead to the Hereafter. The more good deeds one does, the more rewards one will earn in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). The fewer good deeds one does in this world, the less one will have in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). On the contrary, the more sins one commits in this world, the greater will be the punishment in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) and vice versa. One should therefore never pass the opportunity to do good and one should do one's utmost to avoid sins. In addition to one's obligatory duties, one should also be particular about remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr), Tilāwah (recitation of the Holy Qur'ān), acts of generosity and all forms of optional deeds. One should not waste one's life in sin and futile acts.

THE VIRTUES OF REMEMBRANCE OF ALLĀH (DHIKR)

Sayyidina Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "For me to recite 'Subhān Allāh wal hamdu lillāh wa lā ilāha illallāhu wallāhu akbar' is more beloved than everything upon which the sun shines." ["Mishkāt" p. 200 and Muslim v.2 p.345]

One should not lose a second of one's life without engaging in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr). One should value every moment and use it to improve one's lot in the Akhirah (Hereafter). We must never waste our time in futile pastimes such as reading the lies in newspapers and joining people in wasteful customary practices. Life is like one's capital in a business with which one enters the marketplace of this world to trade. In this world one will either purchase one's ticket to Heaven or to Hell. With the passing of every second and minute, man's capital is decreasing. Whereas many people are securing their passes to Heaven by engaging in good deeds, there are also many who are having their passports stamped for Hell.

It is indeed tragic that when people will be granted their rewards for their good deeds in the Hereafter, those who had purchased their destruction will stare in disbelief and regret the precious moments they wasted in this life. However, their remorse will not profit them in the least. Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said "A date palm is planted in Heaven for the person who recites 'Subhānallāh hil Azīm wa bi hamdihi'." [Tirmidhi, Chapter of Supplication]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that on the night in which he was taken for Mi'rāj (Ascension), he met Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام who said to him, "O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! Convey my Salāms (greetings) to your Ummah and tell them that the soil of Heaven is excellent and the water is fine. Heaven is an empty ground and its plants are, 'Subhān Allāhi wal Hamdu Lilāhi wa Lā Ilāha IllAllāhu Allāhu Akbar'." ["Mishkāt"]

This hadith tells us that the plants of Heaven will be planted there when a person carries out good deeds. Allāh causes the excellent soil and water of Heaven to yield a fine crop when a person plants the seed by carrying out good deeds.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who recites 'Subhān Allāh' a hundred times in the morning and 'Subhān Allāh' a hundred times in the evening shall earn the reward of performing Hajj a hundred times. The person who praises Allāh (by reciting 'Al Hamdu Lillāh') a hundred times in the morning and again praises Allāh a hundred times in the evening shall earn the reward of contributing a hundred horses for Jihād. The person who recites 'Lā Illāha Illallāhu' a hundred times in the morning and recites 'Lā Ilāha Illallāhu' a hundred times again in the evening will have the reward of freeing a hundred slaves from the progeny of Sayyidina Isma'il عليه السلام. A person who recites 'Allāhu Akbar' a hundred times in the morning and 'Allāhu Akbar' a hundred times in the evening, none shall match his reward except the person who recited these words as much as he did or more than him." ["Mishkāt" p. 202 from Tirmidhi]

AN INCIDENT DURING THE TIME OF THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ

Sayyidina Jarīr bin Abdullāh رضى الله عنه narrates that they were once with the Holy Prophet ﷺ during the early part of the morning when some people came. They had no proper clothes and wrapped themselves in woollen shawls. They were all from the Banu Mudhar tribe and their swords hung from their necks. Seeing their poverty, the face of the Holy Prophet ﷺ changed colour. The Holy Prophet ﷺ kept entering and leaving his house (busy doing something) until the sun had crossed its meridian. He then instructed Sayyidina Bilāl عليه السلام to call out the Adhān for Zuhr. When the Zuhr Salāh was over, The Holy Prophet ﷺ mounted the Mimbar (pulpit) and recited the first verse of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), which reads, “O mankind, fear your Lord who created you from a single soul, created from it its spouse, and spread multitudes of men and women from the two. Fear that Allāh by Whom you ask of each other and (be wary of) family ties. Verily Allāh is Vigilant over you.”

Thereafter, The Holy Prophet ﷺ recited the foregoing verse of Surah Hashr, “O you who believe! Fear Allāh and let every soul see what it has sent ahead for tomorrow. Fear Allāh! Indeed Allāh is Informed of what you do.” The Holy Prophet ﷺ then exhorted the companions of prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم to give Sadaqah (charity). According to their means, the companions of prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم added their contributions. While some gave one Dinār, others gave one Dirham, some clothing and food. The narrator of the hadith mentioned that some brought a Sā of wheat, another a Sā of dried dates and some even gave half a date. Later, a man from among the Ansār presented a bag full of coins (either full of gold or silver coins). The bag was so heavy that he was barely able to carry it. Thereafter, the companions of prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم started donating much more until there was a heap of food and a heap of clothing in the Masjid. The narrator says that the face of the Holy Prophet ﷺ became so resplendent that it appeared as if it were covered with liquid gold.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ then told the companions of prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم, “Whoever sets a good example in Islām shall have the reward of his deed and the reward of the deeds of all those who follow his example without reducing the rewards of the others in the least. On the contrary, whoever sets a bad example in Islām shall be burdened with the sin of his deed as well as the burden of all those who follow his example without their burdens being lightened in the least.” [Muslim v. 1 p. 327]

“DO NOT BECOME LIKE THOSE WHO FORGOT ALLĀH”

Addressing the Muslims, Allāh states further, “And do not become like those who forgot Allāh.” People who forgot Allāh are those who neglected Allāh's commands, adopted lives of sin and who drifted so far from Allāh that they eventually forgot about Him. Because they forgot Allāh, Allāh “made them forget themselves” i.e. they forgot that they are soon to die and will suffer the consequences of their behaviour in Hell. By concentrating all their efforts in acquiring this world, they deprive themselves of the bounties of Heaven. Allāh adds that these people “are the sinners”. The author of “Ruhul Ma'āni” interprets this to mean that these people are the ones who have reached the pinnacles of sin.

Allāh asserts, “The people of the Fire and the people of Heaven cannot be the same. Only the people of Heaven are successful.” The people destined for Hell are far from being successful even though they may think that they are.

THE MIGHT OF THE QUR’ĀN

Allāh says, “If We have to reveal this Qur’ān to a mountain, you will see it yield and shatter out of fear for Allāh.” The author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” (v. 28 p. 61) writes that this verse admonishes man for the hardness of his heart and lack of submission and reflection when reciting the Qur’ān. Whereas man behaves indifferently towards the dynamic verses of the Qur’ān, a mountain would submit and shatter to bits if it were granted intelligence and the Qur’ān revealed to it.

The author of “Ma’ālimut Tanzīl” adds that the mountain would shatter at the thought that it is unable to fulfil the rights of the Qur’ān. It is unfortunate that man fails to realise the gravity of the responsibility that comes with the Qur’ān. The Qur’ān contains so many such “parables” that Allāh illustrates “to people so that they reflect.”

هُوَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ عِلْمُ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٢٢﴾
 هُوَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْمَلِكُ الْقُدُّوسُ السَّلَامُ الْمُؤْمِنُ الْمُهَيْمِنُ
 الْعَزِيزُ الْجَبَّارُ الْمُتَكَبِّرُ سُبْحَنَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ هُوَ اللَّهُ
 الْخَلِيقُ الْبَارِئُ الْمُصَوِّرُ لَهُ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَىٰ يُسَبِّحُ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
 وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢٤﴾

(22) He is Allāh besides Whom there is none worthy of worship. He is the Knower of the unseen and the seen. He is the Beneficent, the Most Merciful. (23) He is Allāh besides Whom there is none worthy of worship. He is the Sovereign, the Most Pure, the Giver of peace, the Giver of security, the Vigilant, the Mighty, the Overpowering, the Glorious. He is Pure from whatever they ascribe as partners to Him. (24) He is Allāh, the Creator, the Perfect Maker, the Fashioner Who has the most beautiful names. Whatever is in the heavens and the earth glorifies Him. He is the Mighty, the Wise.

ALLĀH HAS THE MOST BEAUTIFUL NAMES WHICH ILLUSTRATE HIS ATTRIBUTES

Describing Allāh’s divinity, the verse states, “He is Allāh besides Whom there is none worthy of worship.” Only Allāh can be worshipped and all the gods that people worship besides Him cannot match Him at all. Allāh then describes many of His various attributes:

First. Allāh says that He is “Ālimul Ghaybi wash Shahādah” (“He is the Knower of the unseen and the seen”). Everything that man can see and those things that he cannot see are in Allāh’s knowledge. Allāh knows everything that has occurred in the past, what is at present and everything that will be in the future. Allāh also knows everything that cannot take place and things that will not take place. That knowledge of the unseen that the Prophets عليهم السلام possessed was from Allāh. They only knew what Allāh had informed them about and did not possess knowledge of everything unseen.

Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān, “Allāh does not inform you of the unseen, but Allāh chooses whom He pleases from His messengers.” In a verse of Surah Jinn Allāh says,

“He is the Knower of the unseen and He has informed none of His unseen knowledge except his selected messengers.”

Second. “He is the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.” Both the words “Rahmān” and “Rahīm” are derived from the root word “rahmah” (mercy). Both words are emphasised forms and denote someone who is extremely merciful. Some commentators say that the word “Rahmān” contains more emphasis than the word “Rahīm”. Allāh’s extreme mercy is manifest in this world and will be clearer in the Ākhirah.

Third. Allāh says that He is “Al Malik” (“the Sovereign”). All the kings and sovereigns in this world are really not kings at all because they are Allāh’s slaves and creation. Allāh is the King of all kings because everything belongs to Him. Allāh says in Surah Yāsin “Pure is that Being in Whose hand lies the reins of everything, and to Whom you will all be returned.”

Fourth. Allāh is “Al Quddūs” (“the Most Pure”). Allāh is free of all defects and faults in every respect. After completing the Witr Salāh, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite, “Subhānal Malikul Quddūs” (“Glory be to the Sovereign, the Most Pure”). When saying this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to lengthen the sound of the “wāw” in the word “Quddūs” i.e. the sound of the two in the word “Quddūs”.

Fifth. Allāh is also “As Salām” (“Giver of peace”). Many scholars have translated the word “As Salām” to mean that Allāh is Perfect in every respect. None of His attributes can deplete in any way.

Sixth. Allāh is “Al Mu’min” (“the Giver of security”). Only Allāh keeps His creation safe and secure in this world. He blesses the hearts of His pious servants with contentment in this world and will do the same for them in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Referring to this, Allāh says, “The greatest fright shall not distress them.” Allāh says in Surah Zukhruf, “O My bondsmen! You shall have no fear today, neither will you grieve.” Some scholars mention that “Al Mu’min” means that Allāh had made a pledge with His creation that He shall never oppress them.

Seventh. Allāh is “Al Muhaymin” (“the Vigilant”), meaning that Allāh is Watchful over all His creation.

Eighth. Allāh is “Al Aziz” (“the Mighty”). Nothing can stop Allāh from doing what He wants and He has the power to do whatever He wants.

Ninth. Allāh is "Al Jabbār" ("the Overpowering"), meaning that He has the power to do as He pleases with His creation without any interference. Some commentators mention that "Al Jabbār" means that Allāh is the one who sets matters right. Allāh restores losses, mends broken things and rectifies situations.

Tenth. Allāh is "Al Mutakabbir" ("the Glorious"). This word means that Allāh's majesty is perfect. When the word is used to describe creation, it means that the person is proud. Whereas pride is regarded as a flaw in creation, it is not so when attributed to Allāh because Allāh truly possesses all good and virtue. When any person has a good quality, it is because Allāh has granted it to him and it is not his own doing. Instead of regarding himself as a great person and looking down on others, the person should rather be grateful to Allāh.

Allāh says at the end of Surah Jāthiya, "All majesty (pride) is His in the heavens and the earth and He is the Mighty, the Wise." Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh Ta'āla says that pride and greatness and glory are His special attributes and He will cast into Hell whoever tries to wrestles from Him.

Eleventh. Allāh is "Al Khāliq" ("the Creator").

Twelfth. He is also "Al Bāri" ("the Perfect Maker"). The translations of the above two attributes are alike. Some Scholars have mentioned that "Al Khāliq" means that Allāh creates things in perfect proportion and "Al Bāri" means that He brings things from non-existence into existence. Commentators also state that "Al Khāliq" means that Allāh creates things without the need to refer to any model. He is also able to create other things from the original in a most perfect manner. "Al Bāri" means that He is Able to create many things in the same manner without any differences between them.

Thirteenth. Allāh is "Al Musawwir" ("the Fashioner"). Allāh has created all the various types of bodies and phenomena. He makes things that can easily be distinguished even though they may be of the same species. Allāh says in Surah Infitār, "(Allāh) created you, perfected you, gave you due proportion and made you in the fashion He desired."

Allāh continues by saying that He "has the most beautiful names." Allāh possesses each of the attributes that His various names denote. Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "Allāh the most beautiful of names, so call Him by them." A verse of Surah Bani Isrā'il reads, "Say, 'Call unto Allāh or call unto Rahmān. By whichever name you call to Him, to Him belongs the most beautiful names.'"

A hadith of Bukhari states that Allāh has 99 names and whoever learns them well shall enter Heaven. For further information one may refer to the commentary of verse 180 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7) as well as the book "Al Hisnul Hasīn" written by Allāma Jazari رحمه الله عليه. Allāh's 99 names are mentioned in Tirmidhi and also in Ibn Mājah. where some names are mentioned that are not in Tirmidhi.

Allāh concludes the Surah by stating, "Whatever is in the heavens and the earth glorifies Him. He is the Mighty, the Wise."

NOTE : Sayyidina Ma'qal bin Yasār رضى الله عنه has narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever recites, 'A-ūdhu Billāhis Samī 'il Alīm Minash Shaytānir Rajīm' thrice in the morning and then recites the last three verses of Surah Hashar, Allāh shall appoint seventy thousand angels to invoke Allāh 's mercy on him until the evening. If he dies during that day he will die as a martyr. Whoever does this in the evening, Allāh shall appoint seventy thousand angels to invoke Allāh's mercy on him until the morning. If he dies during that night he will die as a martyr."

[Tirmidhi]

سورة الممتحنة

Madinan

Surah Al-Mumtahinah

Verses 13

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا عَدُوِّي وَعَدُوَّكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءَ تُلْقُونَ إِلَيْهِم بِالْمَوَدَّةِ وَقَدْ كَفَرُوا بِمَا جَاءَكُمْ مِنَ الْحَقِّ يُخْرِجُونَ الرَّسُولَ وَإِيَّاكُمْ أَنْ تُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ رَبِّكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ خَرَجْتُمْ جِهَادًا فِي سَبِيلِي وَابْتِغَاءَ مَرْضَاتِي تُسِرُّونَ إِلَيْهِم بِالْمَوَدَّةِ وَأَنَا أَعْلَمُ بِمَا أَخْفَيْتُمْ وَمَا أَعْلَنْتُمْ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْهُ مِنْكُمْ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ سَوَاءَ السَّبِيلِ ﴿١﴾ إِنْ يَتَفَقَّهْتُمْ يَكُونُوا لَكُمْ أَعْدَاءً وَيَبْسُطُوا إِلَيْكُمْ أَيْدِيَهُمْ وَأَلْسِنَتَهُم بِالسُّوءِ وَوَدُّوا لَوْ تَكْفُرُونَ ﴿٢﴾ لَنْ تَنفَعَكُمْ أَرْحَامُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٣﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) O you who believe! Do not take my enemy and your enemy as friends, offering your friendship to them when they reject the truth that has come to you. They have exiled the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and yourselves because you believe in Allāh your Lord. If you emerge to strive in My path and to seek My pleasure (you would not befriend them). You secretly show friendship to them when I am Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal. The one who does this from among you has certainly strayed from the straight path. (2) If they find you, they will be enemies to you and extend their tongues and hands towards you with evil intent. They wish that you were disbelievers. (3) Neither your relatives nor your children will profit you on the Day of Judgement when you will be separated. Allāh is Watchful over what you do.

PROHIBITION AGAINST BEFRIENDING ALLĀH'S ENEMIES

The above verses were revealed concerning Sayyidina Hâtib bin Abi Balta'a رضى الله عنه, who wrote a secret letter to the polytheists of Makkah. Imâm Bukhari رحمه الله عليه records the incident in his Chapter of Jihād (religious war) (p. 422), Chapter of Battles (p. 567) and Chapter of Tafsir (exegesis) (p. 726). Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم called for him, Sayyidina Zubayr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Miqdād رضى الله عنه and (according to some narrations) Sayyidina Abu Marthad Ghanawi رضى الله عنه, who were all experienced horsemen.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed them saying, "Ride until you reach Rawda Khākh. There you will find a polytheist woman with a note from Hātib addressed to the polytheists."

The prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم raced their horses to the place where they saw the woman riding a camel. They made the camel sit and searched for the note. However, they could not find it. They told themselves that she must have the note with her because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could never be wrong. When they asked her for the note, she denied having it in her possession. They then adopted a sterner attitude and threatened to remove all her clothing if she did not surrender the note. Seeing their determination, she removed the note from her waistband. Other narrations state that she removed the note from the plait of her hair. The note was indeed from Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه addressed to the polytheists. It informed them that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم intended attacking Makkah. The riders returned with the note to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم learnt of the contents of the note, he asked Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه what the matter was. Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه explained, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Please do not be hasty. I did not write this note because of disbelief or because I have become an apostate. I am not one of the Quraysh and was only living with them. The others who have migrated with you have relatives in Makkah by virtue of whom their families and property are protected. Because I have no relatives there I wanted to do a favour for the Quraysh so that they become indebted to me. In this way, they will see to the protection of my family."

After hearing the story, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He has spoken the truth." Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه then exclaimed, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Permit me to behead this hypocrite." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Hātib participated in the Battle of Badr and Allāh has said that the participants of Badr are forgiven irrespective of what they do." It was with reference to this incident of Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه that Allāh revealed the opening verse of Surah Mumtahina. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه then remained silent.

"Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" (v. 4 p. 284) reports the text of Sayyidina Hātib's رضى الله عنه note. This narration mentions that Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! I did not write the note because I am a hypocrite or because I wished to betray the messenger of Allāh. I knew that Allāh would grant victory to His Prophet and complete His Religion irrespective of whether I wrote or not. However, I was always an alien in Makkah and my mother still lives there. So I wished that the people of Makkah become indebted to me (and care for my mother on account of this)."

However, this notion of Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه was incorrect because since the Muslims were due to conquer Makkah in a few day's time, the polytheists would only have been indebted to Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه for a few days. Thereafter he would have been reunited with his family in Makkah.

Allāh addresses the Muslims saying, "O you who believe! Do not take my enemy and your enemy as friends, offering your friendship to them when they reject the truth that has come to you. They have exiled the messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and yourselves because you believe in Allāh your Lord." A muslim should not express friendship with the disbelievers even if it is superficial. Because of the way in which the disbelievers behave towards the muslims, they do not deserve the friendship of the muslims. Allāh tells the muslim, "If you emerge to strive in my path and to seek My pleasure (you would not befriend them)."

Allāh chides the Muslims when He says, "You secretly show friendship to them when I am Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal. (A Muslim should not regard this as a minor offence because) The one who does this from among you has certainly strayed from the straight path."

The disbelievers harass and expel the Muslim from their homelands for the mere reason that the Muslims regard Allāh to be their Lord. Their hostility does not stop at this. Allāh says, "If they find you, they will be enemies to you and extend their tongues and hands towards you with evil intent." Wherever the disbelievers meet the Muslims, they will make every attempt to harm them either physically or verbally. This is because "They wish that you were disbelievers."

Addressing the Muslims at large, Allāh continues "Neither your relatives nor your children will profit you on the Day of Judgement when you will be separated. Allāh is Watchful over what you do." This verse is especially pertinent to the incident of Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه because he wrote the note with the intention of securing protection for his relatives in Makkah. Little did he realise that his concern for his relatives meant betraying the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, an act which can well jeopardise his position on the Day of Judgement. This concern for one's relatives will certainly not be able to rescue one from Allāh's punishment in the Hereafter.

Allāh says in Surah Luqmān, "O people! Fear Allah and beware of the day when a father will be of no avail to his son, nor will a child be of any avail to his father." [Surah 31 verse 33]

Allāh says in Surah Abas, "So when the deafening scream will come, on that day man will flee from his brother, his mother, his father, his wife and his sons. On that day every one of them will be preoccupied with a predicament that will make him oblivious of another." [Surah 80, verses 3 3-37]

On the Day of Judgement, no person will want anything to do with another person and will stay far away from anyone who is likely to ask for assistance. If this is the situation with relatives, one can well imagine how non-relatives will avoid one. When a person is aware of this, he will realise that it is futile for him to risk his welfare in the Hereafter for the sake of relatives who will be unable to assist him there.

THE LAW OF THE SHARI'AH CONCERNING SPYING

In his compilation of Ahadith, Imām Abu Dawūd رحمه الله عليه has included a chapter titled "The Law Concerning a Spy who is a Muslim". In this chapter he has quoted the incident of Sayyidina Hātib رضى الله عنه. The next chapter speaks about the spy who is a Dhimmī (A non-muslim who lives in a muslim country and pays tax to Government.) and the following chapter concerns the spy who is a legal visitor to a Muslim country (termed as a Mustā'min). The fourth type of spy that could be a menace to a Muslim country is a person from a hostile Kuffar (disbeliever's) country (termed as a Harbi). The fifth type of spy is a person belonging to a country that has entered into a peace treaty with the Muslims (termed a Mu'ahid)

The Fuqahā (Muslim jurists) differ in their opinions concerning these five types of spies. In his commentary of Muslim, Imām Nawawī رحمه الله states that all the Fuqahā unanimously agree that the Harbi spy should be executed. Imām Mālik رحمه الله and Imām Awzā'ī رحمه الله state that a Dhimmi and a Mu'ahid spy will be guilty of breaching the pact they have made with the Muslims. They are therefore at the mercy of the Muslim leader who is at liberty to enslave them or to execute them. According to the other Fuqahā the treaty will be nullified only if the treaty contained a clause that prohibits spying.

If a spy is a Muslim, the Muslim leader will decide on an appropriate punishment according to Imām Shafī'ī رحمه الله, Imām Awzā'ī رحمه الله and Imām Abu Hanīfa رحمه الله. However, he may not be executed. According to Imām Mālik رحمه الله, the Muslim leader is at liberty to do as he deems appropriate.

قَدْ كَانَتْ لَكُمْ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ فِي إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَالَّذِينَ مَعَهُ إِذْ قَالُوا لِقَوْمِهِمْ إِنَّا بُرَءُوكُمْ وَمِنْكُمْ
وَمِمَّا تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ كَفَرْنَا بِكُمْ وَبَدَا بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمْ الْعَدَاوَةُ وَالْبَغْضَاءُ أَبَدًا حَتَّى تُؤْمِنُوا
بِاللَّهِ وَحْدَهُ إِلَّا قَوْلَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ لِأَبِيهِ لَأَسْتَغْفِرَنَّ لَكَ وَمَا أَمْلِكُ لَكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ رَبَّنَا
عَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْنَا وَإِلَيْكَ أَنَبْنَا وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٤﴾ رَبَّنَا لَا تَجْعَلْنَا فِتْنَةً لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَاعْفِرْ لَنَا
رَبَّنَا إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٥﴾ لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِيهِمْ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ لِمَنْ كَانَ يَرْجُوا اللَّهَ
وَالْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٦﴾

(4) There was certainly a sterling example for you in Ibrahīm عليه السلام and those who followed him when they said to their people, "We exonerate ourselves from you and from that which you worship apart from Allāh. We reject you, and enmity and hatred have surfaced between yourselves and us forever until you believe in One Allāh." (There was a sterling example in all he did) except the statement of Ibrahīm عليه السلام to his father when he said, "I shall definitely pray for your forgiveness and I have no power to do anything for you before Allāh. O our Lord! In You do we trust, to You do we turn (in repentance) and to You shall we return." (5) "O our Lord! Do not make us a test for the disbelievers and forgive, O our Lord. Indeed You are the Mighty, the Wise." (6) There was certainly an excellent example in them for those of you who have faith in Allāh and the Last Day. As for him who turns away, Allāh certainly is Independent, Most worthy of praise.

THE STERLING EXAMPLE OF SAYYIDINA IBRAHĪM عليه السلام

There will always be a conflict between belief and disbelief. The Qur'an quotes the discussion between Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام, his father and his people in various verses. In the above verse, Allāh quotes what he and his followers said to the disbelievers of their nation.

Allāh says, "There was certainly a sterling example for you in Ibrahim عليه السلام and those who followed him when they (explicitly) said to their people, 'We exonerate ourselves from you and from that which you worship apart from Allāh. We reject you (because we reject your beliefs) and enmity and hatred have surfaced between yourselves and us forever until you believe in One Allāh'".

The Muslims should never be ambiguous when expressing their stand in relation to the disbelievers. They must never bow before the disbelievers and should make it clear to the disbelievers that they cannot be the same. The disbeliever should never get the impression from the Muslims that their religion of disbelief is also correct or that Islām is weak. They must clearly get the message that the Muslims do not belong with them and that they do not belong with the Muslims as long as they remain disbelievers.

Among the things that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام said to his father was: "I shall definitely pray for your forgiveness and I have no power to do anything for you before Allāh" i.e. I cannot save you from Allāh's punishment if you chose to remain a disbeliever. In keeping with this promise to seek forgiveness for his father, Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام prayed to Allāh saying, "Forgive my father, for he is among those who have deviated." Scholars have mentioned that this was a Supplication to Allāh to forgive his father after guiding him to Islām. Allāh says in Surah Taubah, "Ibrahim عليه السلام sought forgiveness for his father only because of a promise that he had made to him. When it became clear to him that his father was Allāh's enemy (when he died as a disbeliever), he exonerated himself from him." [Surah 9, verse 114]

In the above verses Allāh makes it clear that the practices of Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and his followers were excellent examples to emulate except his deed of seeking forgiveness for his disbeliever father.

"O our Lord! In You do we trust, to You do we turn (in repentance) and to You shall we return." While some commentators state that here Allāh quotes some of the supplication that Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and his followers made to Allāh, others are of the opinion that the verse enjoins all Muslims to make this supplication to Allāh. Added to this are the supplication: "O our Lord! Do not make us a test for the disbelievers and forgive, O our Lord. Indeed You are the Mighty, the Wise."

Allāh continues, "There was certainly an excellent example in them (i.e. in Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام and his followers) for those of you who have faith in (presenting themselves before) Allāh and (in) the Last Day. As for him who turns away, Allāh certainly is Independent, Most worthy of praise." If any Muslim wishes to bow before the disbelievers, he will be doing no harm to Allāh because Allāh does not need anyone.

عَسَىٰ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَجْعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَ الَّذِينَ عَادَيْتُمْ مِنْهُمْ مَوْدَّةً وَاللَّهُ قَدِيرٌ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

﴿٧﴾ لَا يَنْهَكُمُ اللَّهُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ لَمْ يُقَاتِلُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَلَمْ يُخْرِجُوكُمْ مِّن دِيَارِكُمْ أَن تَبَرُّوهُمْ
 وَتُقْسِطُوا إِلَيْهِمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُقْسِطِينَ ﴿٨﴾ إِنَّمَا يَنْهَكُمُ اللَّهُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ قَاتَلُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ
 وَأَخْرَجُوكُم مِّن دِيَارِكُمْ وَظَاهَرُوا عَلَىٰ إِخْرَاجِكُمْ أَن تَوَلَّوهُمْ وَمَن يَتَوَلَّهُمْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ
 الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٩﴾

(7) Allāh shall soon create love between you and those who are your enemies. Allāh is Most Capable and Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (8) Allāh does not forbid you from behaving cordially and justly towards those who do not fight you for religion and who do not exile you from your homes. Verily Allāh loves those who are just. (9) Allāh forbids you from befriending only those who fight you for religion, who exile you from your homes and who assist (others) in exiling you. Those who befriend them are certainly oppressors.

MAINTAINING RELATIONS WITH THE PEOPLE OF ONE'S FORMER HOMETLAND AFTER MIGRATING

The prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم who migrated to Madinah still had many disbelievers relatives in Makkah. It occurred to many of the Immigrants that their ties with these disbelievers relatives were now automatically severed. Although it was necessary to terminate friendly relations with the disbelievers, Allāh promised the Immigrants in the above verses that He would soon restore the love between them and their relatives. This occurred upon the conquest of Makkah when the polytheists all accepted Islām. When Makkah was conquered, even the staunchest polytheists accepted Islām, such as Abu Sufyān رضى الله عنه, Suhayl bin Amr رضى الله عنه and Hakīm bin Hizām رضى الله عنه. Until then Abu Sufyān was the Makkan leader who led the polytheists in battle against the Muslims. Suhayl bin Amr was the envoy of the polytheists who negotiated the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah and who would not allow Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه to write 'Muhammad, the Messenger of Allāh' on the treaty.

It is simple for Allāh to guide people and to reunite separated hearts. Therefore, Allāh says, "Allāh is Most Capable and Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." "When a person accepts Islām, Allāh forgives all his previous sins. Since Allāh forgives all that a person has done during his life as a disbeliever, Muslims should also adopt the same attitude and should not think that they cannot befriend a person who was an enemy to them until a few days ago.

The disbelievers are of two types. The first type are those who do not fight the Muslims, do not exile them from their homes and do not assist others in carrying out such actions. The other type are those who actively engage in these activities. Concerning the first group Allāh says, "Allāh does not forbid you from behaving cordially and justly towards those who do not fight you for religion and who do not exile you from your homes. Verily Allāh loves those who are just." About the second group Allāh says, "Allāh forbids you from befriending only those who fight you for religion, who exile you from your homes and who assist (others) in exiling you. Those who befriend them are certainly oppressors."

"Ruhul Ma'āni" quotes Sayyidina Zubayr رضى الله عنه who said that the first group consists of women and children of the disbelievers. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله states that these are the people who accepted Islām but who continued to live in Makkah. The Immigrants and the Ansār severed ties with them because they neglected the Fardh (obligatory) obligation of migrating to Madinah.

Imām Bukhari رحمه الله has narrated that after the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah, the Muslims and polytheists were no longer at war and lived in peace. During this period, the mother of Sayyidah Asma bint Abi Bakr رضى الله عنها came to Madinah and expressed a need for some assistance. Since Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها was unsure whether it was permissible to spend on a polytheist woman, she asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, 'My mother has come and has expressed a need. Should I maintain family ties by spending on her?' The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Yes. Maintain your family ties." A narrator of this hadith, Sayyidina Sufyān bin Uyaynah رحمه الله says that it was on this occasion that Allāh revealed the verse: "Allāh does not forbid you from behaving cordially and justly towards those who do not fight you for religion..." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 884]

The "Musnad" of Imām Ahmad رحمه الله narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Zubayr رضى الله عنه that Qila bint Abdil Uzza brought a gift for her daughter Sayyidah Asma bint Abi Bakr رضى الله عنها. Because her mother was a polytheist, Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها refused to accept the gift and refused to allow her mother into her house. She asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها to enquire about the situation from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When she enquired from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh revealed the verse:

"Allāh does not forbid you from behaving cordially and justly towards those who do not fight you for religion..." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then permitted her to accept the gift and to allow her mother into the house.

Allāh clearly forbids Muslims from maintaining friendly ties with those polytheists who fight the Muslims because of their religion and who make every effort to expel the Muslims from their homeland. Concerning those Muslims who befriend such disbelievers, Allāh says, "Those who befriend them are certainly oppressors." Such people oppress themselves by exposing themselves to Allāh's punishment when they flout His commands.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا جَاءَكُمْ الْمُؤْمِنَاتُ مُهَاجِرَاتٍ فَأَمْتَحِنُوهُنَّ ۚ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِإِيمَانِهِنَّ فَإِنْ عَلِمْتُمُوهُنَّ مُؤْمِنَاتٍ فَلَا تَرْجِعُوهُنَّ إِلَى الْكُفَّارِ لَا هُنَّ حِلٌّ لَّهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحِلُّونَ لَهُنَّ وَءَاثُوهُمْ مَا أَنْفَقُوا وَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ تَنْكِحُوهُنَّ إِذَا آتَيْتُمُوهُنَّ أَجُورَهُنَّ وَلَا تُمْسِكُوا بِعِصَمِ الْكُوفَارِ ۚ وَسَلُّوا مَا أَنْفَقْتُمْ وَلْيَسْأَلُوا مَا أَنْفَقُوا ۚ ذَٰلِكُمْ حُكْمُ اللَّهِ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَكُمْ ۚ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٠﴾ وَإِنْ فَاتَكُمْ شَيْءٌ مِّنْ أَزْوَاجِكُمْ إِلَى الْكُفَّارِ فَعَاقِبْتُمْ فَاتَّوُوا الَّذِينَ ذَهَبَتْ أَزْوَاجُهُمْ مِّثْلَ مَا أَنْفَقُوا ۚ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِي أَنْتُمْ بِهٖ مُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١١﴾

(10) O you who believe! When believing women come to you as immigrants, then examine them. Allāh best knows the condition of their Imān (Belief). If you determine that they really are believers, then do not return them to the disbelievers. Neither are these women lawful for the disbelieving men nor are the disbelieving men lawful for these women. Return to them (i.e. to the disbelieving husbands) what they have spent (as dowry). There is no harm if you (Muslim men) marry these women when you give them their dowry. Do not stubbornly cling to your disbelieving wives. Ask for what (dowry) you have spent and let the disbelieving men ask for what they have spent. This is Allāh's command. Allāh decides between you and Allāh is All Knowing, the Wise. (11) If you lose any of your wives to the disbelievers and then have your own back, then pay those who have lost their wives the equivalent of what they have spent. Fear Allāh in Whom you believe.

THE LAW REGARDING WOMEN IMMIGRANTS

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم to Makkah to perform Umrah during the 6th year after Hijrah, he heard that the polytheists were intent on resisting their entry into Makkah. Setting up camp in Hudaybiyyah, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه into Makkah to verify the situation. The polytheists sent Suhayl bin Amr as their negotiator to the Muslim's. Finally, the ten clauses of the Treaty were agreed on. The details of this incident were discussed in the commentary of the first seven verses of Surah Fath (Surah 48).

The second and third clauses of the treaty read as follows:

📖 Any person from the Quraysh who defects to Muhammad (the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) without the consent of his senior will have to be returned.

📖 Any person from Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم companions who defects to the Quraysh will not have to be returned.

The clauses were still not written when the son of Suhayl bin Amr (Abu Jandal) appeared in the Muslim camp with his feet in fetters. He was held captive in Makkah in this manner because he had accepted Islām, but managed to escape when he heard that the Muslims were at Hudaybiyyah. He pleaded with the Muslims to take him back to Madinah with them. However, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked his father's permission to take him to Madinah, Suhayl flatly refused. He was thus taken back in captivity. His story is lengthy and is mentioned together with the story of his compatriot Abu Basir رضى الله عنه in the commentary of the first seven verses of Surah Fath (Surah 48). When the treaty was concluded, the Muslims slaughtered their "Hady" (sacrificial) animals and prepared to return to Madinah.

It was then that some women came to the Muslims and requested to be taken to Madinah because they had accepted Islām. Allāh subsequently revealed the verse: "O you who believe! When believing women come to you as immigrants, then examine them..." The verse "If you lose any of your wives to the disbelievers..." was revealed at a later stage.

Allāh says, "O you who believe! When believing women come to you as immigrants, then examine them. Allāh best knows the condition of their Belief (because He knows the secrets of the heart). If you determine that they really are believers, then do not return them to the disbelievers. Neither are these women lawful for the disbelieving men nor are the disbelieving men lawful for these women." When a woman leaves the disbeliever country to settle in a Muslim country, her manage to the disbeliever in the disbeliever country will terminate.

Although the clause of the treaty stated that any Muslim from Makkah headed for Madinah should be returned, women were exempted from the clause by mutual agreement. One can therefore not accuse the Muslims of breaching the terms of the treaty. In addition to this, the dowry that the disbeliever husbands paid was returned to them. The disbeliever husbands also realised that their Muslim wives would not be happy living with them. They did not mind that their former wives stay with the Muslims because there was no threat of them being a danger during times of war. The disbelievers therefore did not insist that their wives return to them.

Among the immigrant women who came to the Muslims was Umm Kulthūm, the daughter of the notorious Uqba bin Abi Mu'it. When her family members tried to get her back, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not hand her over to them. Others like her were Subay'ah bintul Hārith and Umayma bint Bishr. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also did not return them when their families came for them. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 28 p. 76]

Allāh enjoins, "Return to them (i.e. to the disbelieving husbands) what they have spent (as dowry)." This law applied only during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because it was included in a clause of the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah. Women were specially exempted from the clause that demanded Muslims from Makkah to be returned to Makkah after joining the rest of the Muslims in Madinah. However, the polytheists permitted this exemption on condition that the dowry of the migrating women is paid back to the former husband.

The polytheists of Makkah violated the treaty within a year, after which the Muslims conquered Makkah. Once the treaty terminated, the clauses also terminated. Therefore, if a Muslim woman migrates after the treaty, she will not be returned to her husband and the husband and disbeliever country in which she formerly resided will have no claim from the Muslim country.

Allāh continues, "There is no harm if you (Muslim men) marry these women when you give them their dowry." This injunction permits Muslim men from a Muslim country to marry those women who migrate to their country. According to Imām Abu Hanīfa رحمه الله عليه, there is no necessity for her to complete her Iddah before remarrying. She may marry a Muslim man immediately after arriving in the Muslim country. However, Imām Muhammad رحمه الله عليه and Imām Abu Yusuf رحمه الله عليه, the two eminent students of Imām Abu Hanīfa رحمه الله عليه, state that she has to pass the duration of her Iddah before remarrying. If she is expecting when she reaches the Muslim country, she may remarry only after delivering the child. ["Hidāyah"]

The clause "when you give them their dowry" does not mean that they cannot be married if the dowry is not paid before marriage. If the couple agree on a fixed dowry, the husband may pay it before the marriage or undertake to pay it afterwards.

"Do not stubbornly cling to your disbelieving wives." When a man accepts Islām and migrates to a Muslim country, his marriage will terminate if his wife chooses to remain a disbeliever in the "Dārul Harb". The marriage will be terminated to the extent that if his former wife has a real sister living as a Muslim in the Muslim country, he may marry her.

"Ask for what (dowry) you have spent and let the disbelieving men ask for what they have spent." This part of the verse enjoins Muslim men to claim their dowry from the "Dārul Harb" if their wives chose to remain in the "Dārul Harb" as disbeliever. Similarly, the Disbelievers husbands of the "Dārul Harb" may claim back the dowries they spent on their wives who have accepted Islām and migrated to the Muslim country. As mentioned earlier, this injunction was repealed once the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah ended.

"This is Allāh's command. Allāh decides between you and Allāh is All Knowing, the Wise." Allāh reserves the right to abrogate commands as and when He pleases because he is best aware of man's welfare and issues commands with perfect wisdom.

"If you lose any of your wives to the disbelievers and then have your own back, then pay those who have lost their wives the equivalent of what they have spent." This verse details that when the wives of Muslim men stay behind in the "Dārul Harb" and Muslim women migrate to the Muslim country from the "Dārul Harb", the dowry money owed to the disbelievers husbands in the "Dārul Harb" may be paid to the Muslim men whose wives remained in the "Dārul Harb". In a similar manner, the disbelievers government will have to pay out their men who had lost their wives to the Muslim country. If the money owed to the disbelievers is more than what was paid to the Muslim husbands, the Muslim country should pay the difference to the "Dārul Harb" government. On the contrary, if the money that the disbelievers government owes the Muslim husbands is more than what the Muslim husbands were paid by the Muslim government, the Muslims should demand the difference from the "Dārul Harb" government. This injunction also ceased to apply after the termination of the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah.

Allāh concludes the verse by saying, "Fear Allāh in Whom you believe." This phrase enjoins that all Allāh's commands be fulfilled and all His prohibitions be refrained from.

يٰٓأَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا جَاءَكَ الْمُؤْمِنَاتُ يُبَايِعْنَكَ عَلَىٰ أَن لَّا يُشْرِكْنَ بِاللَّهِ شَيْئًا وَلَا يَسْرِقْنَ
وَلَا يَزْنِينَ وَلَا يَقْتُلْنَ أَوْلَادَهُنَّ وَلَا يَأْتِينَ بِبُهْتَانٍ يَفْسِدُنَّ بِهِنَّ بِأَيِّدِهِنَّ وَأَرْجُلِهِنَّ
وَلَا يَعْصِيَنَّ فِي مَعْرُوفٍ فَبَايِعُهُنَّ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُنَّ اللَّهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ﴿١٢﴾

(12) O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Accept the pledge of allegiance from the believing women and seek forgiveness from Allāh on their behalf when they come to you to pledge that they will not ascribe any partner to Allāh, that they will not steal, that they will not fornicate, that they will not kill their children, that they will not come forth with slander which they fabricate before their hands and legs and that they will not disobey you in any good. Indeed Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.

THE WORDS OF THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE AND ITS CONDITIONS

The Muslims conquered Makkah the year after the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah. When this happened, the polytheists feared that they would have to face the consequences of their transgression against the Muslims. However, with the announcement of "There shall be no reproach on you today", The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forgave them all for whatever they had previously done. Apart from a few individuals, all the polytheists accepted Islām. They all then pledged their allegiance to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The verbal pledge of allegiance that the women swore is mentioned in the above verse.

Scholars mention that Allāh refers to taking this pledge from women when He instructs in verse 10 that the immigrant women should be examined. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that whenever a woman migrated to Madinah, she was required to swear that she neither migrated because of hatred for her husband, nor because of love for a Muslim man, nor because she was disinclined from any place, nor because she feared being apprehended for any misdeed. She had to swear that she migrated only for the sake of Islām and for the love of Allāh and His Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When she took this oath she was not returned to the disbelievers and the dowry she was paid by her former husband was refunded to him.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that whenever 'Mu'min (Believer) women migrated to Madinah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would examine them using the verse "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Accept the pledge of allegiance from believing women..." When these women accepted the terms of the pledge as mentioned in the verse, their examination would be over. When this was done, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would say to them. "You may go. You have already pledged your allegiance." Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها says, "By Allāh! The hand of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never touched the hand of any woman. He accepted only their verbal pledge of allegiance." [Muslim v. 2 p. 131]

Although the words of the pledge seem confined to six prohibitions, the sixth clause ("that they will not disobey you in any good") secures an undertaking to practise the entire religion.

The clauses of the pledge are:

Firstly. "That they will not ascribe any partner to Allāh."

Secondly. "That they will not steal."

Thirdly. "That they will not fornicate."

Fourthly. "That they will not kill their children." "This clause was especially pertinent during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because people used to kill their children fearing that they would be unable to feed them. It was also a common practice to bury infant girls alive, as is discussed in Surah Nahl, Surah Zukhruf and Surah Takwīr . The killing of children also refers to abortion.

Fifthly. "That they will not come forth with slander which they fabricate before their hands and legs." Commentators have mentioned that this clause may be interpreted in the following two manners:

That a woman should not claim that a child born to her from another man is her husband's.

She should not take custody of another child and then claim that it is her husband's. This may well happen when a woman's husband is away from the house for a long period of time.

Sixthly. "That they will not disobey you in any good?" The Arabic word "ma'rūf" (translated above as 'good?') includes all actions that a Muslim ought to carry out, whether the act is Fardh (obligatory), Wajib (Compulsory), Mustahab (preferable) or Nafl (mandatory). It is the demand of one's Belief that one makes an effort to fulfil all such injunctions.

Sayyidah Umm Atiyya رضى الله عنها says that when the women pledged their allegiance to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he would recite the verse: "that they will not steal, that they will not fornicate, that they will not..." In addition to this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would prevent them from practising "nowha" (wailing and screaming) upon the death of any person. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 871]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that he once accompanied the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to the Eidul Fitr Salāh. After performing the Salāh and delivering the Khutba (sermon), The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم passed through the rows of men and came to where the women were. Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه was with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at that time. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the verse: "O you who believe! When believing women come to you as immigrants then examine them.. (up to the end of the verse)." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then asked the women, "Are you all steadfast on this?" All but one woman remained silent. She said, "Yes, we are steadfast on it." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then exhorted the women to contribute Sadaqah (charity) and Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه spread out a sheet. The women then began to cast their rings on the sheet. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 133]

It is evident from certain narration that the men also undertook to observe the same conditions that the women undertook when they pledged their allegiance to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyidina Ubādah bin Sāmīt رضى الله عنه narrates that a group of prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم were sitting with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he said to them, "Come pledge your allegiance to me that you will not ascribe any partner to Allāh, that you will not steal, that you will not fornicate, that you will not kill your children, that you will not come forth with slander which you fabricate before your hands and legs and that they will not be disobedient in any good. It is Allāh's responsibility to reward whoever fulfils this. Whoever breaches the pledge and is punished in this world, this will be expiation for him.

As for the one who breaches and whose sin Allāh conceals in this world, his matter rests with Allāh. Allāh may forgive him if Allāh wills or Allāh may punish him." Sayyidina Ubādah رضى الله عنه states that they all then pledged their allegiance to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with the above conditions. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 7]

Just as the pledge of allegiance was taken from the women, the men were also required to pledge "That they will not come forth with slander which they fabricate before their hands and legs." Concerning women, this means:

That a woman should not claim that a child born to her from another man is her husband's.

She should not take custody of another child and then claim that it is her husband's.

However, since these interpretations cannot apply to men, commentators of Hadith mention that the condition means that a man should not slander another person. The phrase "before your hands and legs" is added because most sins stem from these limbs. Other commentators translate the phrase as "between your hands and legs" refers to the heart, which lies in this position. The tongue from which the slander is made manifest is merely a spokesman for the sentiments of the heart. ["Fat'hul Bāri"]

It is my humble opinion that this interpretation should also be assumed in the right of women and that the situations of a woman labelling another child as her husband's should be regarded as examples of this interpretation. In this manner, one interpretation will fit everyone.

The above narration of Sayyidah Umm Atiyya رضى الله عنها makes it clear that the pledge of allegiance was not confined to only those conditions mentioned in the verse. She mentions that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also took the undertaking from them that they will not practise "nowha". It is learnt that the conditions of the pledge can therefore be amended according to the prevailing circumstances. Therefore, when taking the pledge of allegiance (called Bay'ah), the saints of our times include conditions like "I will not shave my beard" so that people abstain from sins that are common in today's times.

Sayyidina Ubādah bin Sāmit رضى الله عنه narrates that they [the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم] also pledged that they will obey the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم during times of difficulty and ease and when others are being preferred above them. They also pledged that they would never fear the reproach of any person when doing things for Allāh. In addition to this, they undertook to never fight their leaders unless they saw them perpetrate brazen disbelief. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 1045]

Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should seek forgiveness on behalf of the believing women because 'Indeed Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.'

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَتَوَلَّوْا قَوْمًا غَضِبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ قَدْ يَئِسُوا مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ كَمَا

(13) O you who believe! Do not befriend a nation with whom Allāh is angry and who have lost hope in the Hereafter just as the disbelievers in the graves have lost hope.

THE COMMAND NOT TO BEFRIEND THE DISBELIEVERS IS REPEATED

Much of the Surah emphasises the prohibition against befriending the disbelievers. The concluding verse of the Surah mentions that Muslims should especially refrain from befriending the Jews. Although all disbelievers have earned Allāh's anger, the "nation with whom Allāh is angry" is said to refer to the Jews because Allāh has referred to them specifically as "those who have incurred Allāh's wrath". Allāh also says about them that "Humiliation and poverty were stamped on them and they became deserving of Allāh's wrath." Allāh also says about them, "So they earned wrath upon wrath." Another verse states, "They return with the wrath of Allāh and wretchedness has been laid on them." Because these verses refer to the Jews, commentators state that Allāh also refers to the Jews in the above verse where He says, "a nation with whom Allāh is angry."

Some commentators state that a few poor Muslims used to inform the Jews about the activities of the Muslims for some food as payment. The above verse was revealed to prohibit these Muslims from doing this.

Many commentators state that "a nation with whom Allāh is angry" refers to the Jews and the Christians, while a group is also of the opinion that "a nation with whom Allāh is angry" refers to the hypocrites. In effect, all disbelievers are referred to by these words and the believers should ensure that they never entertain close relations with any of these people.

Referring to the "nation with whom Allāh is angry" Allāh says that they "have lost hope in the Hereafter just as the disbelievers in the graves have lost hope." Just as the dead disbelievers are convinced that they cannot attain salvation after death, those who have incurred Allāh's wrath have convinced themselves that Judgement day shall not take place. It is therefore foolish to befriend such people.

The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" states that "Those who have been given the scriptures recognise the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم just as they recognise their very own sons." They therefore knew very well that they were doomed to Hell if they did not follow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, their pride and jealousy did not allow them to follow him. In this way, they resigned themselves to their fate and "have lost hope in (their salvation in) the Hereafter just as the disbelievers in the graves have lost hope." It is therefore foolish to befriend people who know that they are doomed but who do nothing about it. The prohibition against maintaining close ties of friendship with the disbelievers applies to all disbelievers irrespective of whether they are staunch in their disbelief or not. The verse seems to emphasise severing ties with the Jews probably because they were many in Madinah and because they were exceptionally evil.

سورة الصف

Madinan

Surah As-Saff

Verses 14

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

سَبِّحَ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿١﴾ يَتَأَيَّهَا الَّذِينَ
ءَامَنُوا لِمَ تَقُولُونَ مَا لَا تَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٢﴾ كَبُرَ مَقْتًا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَنْ تَقُولُوا مَا لَا
تَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٣﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الَّذِينَ يُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِهِ صَفًّا كَأَنَّهُمْ
بُنْيَنٌ مَرْصُوصٌ ﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

- (1) Whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth glorifies Allāh. He is the Mighty, the Wise. (2) O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do? (3) It is indeed a most hateful thing that you say that which you do not do. (4) Verily Allāh loves those who fight in His path in rows as if they are a solid building.

“WHY DO YOU SAY THAT WHICH YOU DO NOT DO?”

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Salām رضى الله عنه narrates that a few prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم were sitting together speaking about good deeds when they said that if they knew which deed pleased Allāh most, they would carry it out. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse, “Whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth glorifies Allāh. He is the Mighty, the Wise. O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do?” [Tirmidhi, Chapter of Tafsir]

‘Ma’ālimut Tanzil’ reports that Allāh Ta’āla revealed the verse “Verily Allāh loves those who fight in His path in rows as if they are a solid building” when the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم said that if they knew what deed was most beloved to Allāh, they would carry out the deed and spend their lives and all their wealth for the same. Shortly after they said this, the Battle of Uhud took place and many of them were found lacking in their resolve. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse “O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do?”

Some commentators state that when the prophet's companions (Sahābah)

رضى الله عنهم heard about the rewards that the martyrs of Badr received, they said, "If we are afforded the opportunity to fight in Jihād, we would fight with all our might." However, when they were forced to flee from the battlefield during the Battle of Uhud, Allāh chided them with the verse: "O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do?"

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Ibn Zaid رحمه الله that the verse refers to the hypocrites who promised their assistance to the Muslims but failed to honour their promise.

Allāma Qurtubī رحمه الله has reported (v. 18 p. 78) that Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه killed a polytheist who used to harass the Muslims to a great extent. However, another person informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that it was he who killed the polytheist. This news greatly pleased the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdur Rahmān bin Awf رضي الله عنه censured Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه for not informing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he had killed the polytheist because this led to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم receiving false information. When Sayyidina Suhayb رضي الله عنه clarified the matter to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh revealed the verse: "O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do?"

It is not farfetched to assume that the verse was revealed with reference to all of the above incidents because the meaning of the verse is general and calls on all believers to reflect. Every believer should ponder about whether his words correspond with his deeds or whether he is guilty of betraying his words. One should honour one's promises and pledges. Of course, it is a sin to honour a promise to sin. One should never claim to have done something that one did not do. One should also ensure that one does not betray one's words by preventing others from doing something that one is guilty of.

Allāh adds, 'it is indeed a most hateful thing that you say that which you do not do.' One should make every effort to avoid creating false impressions about oneself because this will incur Allāh's wrath.

THE TERRIBLE PLIGHT OF THOSE LECTŪRERS WHOSE DEEDS DO NOT CORRESPOND WITH THEIR WORDS

Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them when he ascent to the hearers he passed by some people whose lips were being cut with scissors of fire. When he asked Sayyidina Jibr'il عليه السلام who these people were, the reply was that they were those lecturers of his Ummah who used to enjoin others to do good, but forgot (to do good) themselves. According to another narration, he said that they were those lecturers who did not practise what they instructed others to do. ["Mishkāt" p. 438]

It is evident that the above verse of the Qur'ān enjoins people to match their deeds with their words when they enjoin others to do good and to refrain from evil. The injunction certainly does not mean that one should not advise others when one is guilty of negligence. Rather, the injunction demands that one continues to preach and practise as well. It is unfortunate that many people who are negligent of their religious practises dwell under the misconception that they cannot preach what they do not practise. They say that they do not want to oppose the verse of Surah Saff that states: "O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do?"

The Qur'ān does not say that one should neither preach the truth nor practise it. The Qur'ān requires that one practises and preaches the truth simultaneously. One should understand that practising the injunctions of the Shari'ah is a separate command of the Qur'ān and enjoining others to practise the Shari'ah is a separate command altogether. Omitting one of these commands because one has neglected the other is a sin. By doing this, one will be guilty of two sins.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Each of you is a warder and will be questioned regarding his charge." [Bukhari Vol 2 p. 783]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "Whoever sees an evil should change it with his hand. If he is unable to do so, he should do so with his tongue. If he is unable to do so, he should do so with his heart (by regarding the act as an evil). This is the lowest form of Belief." [Muslim v. 1 p. 51]

This hadith makes it clear that it is the duty of every person to enjoin good and forbid people from evil.

PRAISE FOR THE MUJĀHIDĪN (MUSLIM SOLDERS)

Allāh then praises those who fight in Jihād when He says, "Verily Allāh loves those who fight in His path in rows as if they are a solid building." This verse extols the virtue of those Mujāhidīn (Muslim soldiers) who fight in a resolute manner as a united force.

When battles were fought in the past, soldiers of each army formed rows and the battle commenced when the two opposing rows clashed. Occasionally, a soldier would call out, "Who shall come forward for a challenge?" someone from the opposite army would then fight him in single combat. In a like manner, two, three or more man-on-man challenges may take place at the beginning. Thereafter, the entire rows of soldiers advance towards each other and engage in combat. This is the actual battle which the verse refers to.

وَإِذْ قَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِقَوْمِهِ يَنْقُورِ لِمَ تُوذُونَنِي وَقَدْ تَعْلَمُونَ أَنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ إِلَيْكُمْ فَلَمَّا زَاغُوا أَزَاغَ اللَّهُ قُلُوبَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْفَاسِقِينَ ﴿٥﴾ وَإِذْ قَالَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ إِنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ إِلَيْكُمْ مُصَدِّقًا لِمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ مِنَ التَّوْرَةِ وَمُبَشِّرًا بِرَسُولٍ يَأْتِي مِنْ بَعْدِي اسْمُهُ أَحْمَدُ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ قَالُوا هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٦﴾

(5) When Mūsā عليه السلام said to his people, "O my people! Why do you harass me when you know that I am Allāh's messenger to you?" However, when they chose to be crooked, Allāh further twisted their hearts. Allāh does not guide a sinful nation. (6) When Isā the son of Maryam said, "O children of Isrā'īl! indeed I am the messenger of Allāh to you, verifying the Torah before me and giving the glad tidings of a messenger to come after me, whose name will be Ahmad." When he came to them with clear signs, they said, "This is clear magic.

SAYYIDINA MŪSA عليه السلام AND SAYYIDINA ISĀ عليه السلام ANNOUNCE THAT THEY ARE MESSENGERS OF ALLĀH

Allāh quotes Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام who said to the Bani Isrā'il, "O my people! Why do you harass me when you know that I am Allāh's messenger to you?" Every messenger of Allāh عليه السلام deserved the greatest respect. However, despite accepting Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام as Allāh's Holy Prophet, the Bani Isrā'il continuously harassed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Verses 51 to 74 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2), verses 20 to 26 of Surah Mā'idah (Surah 5) and verse 69 of Surah Ahzāb (Surah 33) mention some of the ways in which the Bani Isrā'il harassed Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام tried to convince them that they should desist from this behaviour, but they were not prepared to take heed. Allāh says, "However, when they chose to be crooked, Allāh further twisted their hearts." When people have made up their minds not to accept the truth, they will not take heed even though it comes to them time and time again. They will therefore be deprived of guidance because of their stubbornness and opposition to the truth. Allāh concludes the verse by saying, "Allāh does not guide a sinful nation." This means that after they have been shown the path to salvation, Allāh will not grant them the ability to tread this path.

Allāh then speaks of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, who said to his people. "O children of Isrā'il! Indeed I am the messenger of Allāh to you, verifying the Torah before me and giving the glad tidings of a messenger to come after me, whose name will be Ahmad." Despite preaching to them for a long time, only a few Jews responded to the call of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. These followers were called the Hawāriyyin. The rest of the Jews remained antagonistic towards Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and even attempted to assassinate him. However, they were unsuccessful in their attempt because Allāh raised Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام to the heavens. The details of this were discussed in the commentary of verse 157 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4). However, the Jews did succeed in corrupting the religion of the Christians by making them believe that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام is Allāh's son. This belief has been discussed in the commentaries of Surah Mā'idah [Surah 5, verses 72-77] and Surah Taubah [Surah 9, verse 30].

THE CHRISTIANS OPPOSE SAYYIDINA ISĀ عليه السلام

It is clear that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was sent only to the Bani Isrā'il (the Jews). This fact is evident even in the Bible, although the Christians have interpolated it to a great extent. Matthew 105 reads, "These twelve Jesus sent out, charging them, "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Isrā'il." Matthew 15:24 quotes that Sayyidina Isā said, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Isrā'il."

The behaviour of the Christians contradict these words of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام whom they profess to follow. Whereas he told them that he was sent exclusively for the Bani Isrā'il and that they should enter no town other than those of the Bani Isrā'īl, they are actively propagating their adulterated religion to the entire world. Although the Jews claim to belong to the "Children of Isrā'īl" (Bani Isrā'īl), they will not allow the Christians to displace them from their religion. They merely use the Christians to further their political motives while the Christians tire themselves to promote their heretical beliefs to the world, especially to the Muslims. This they do by tempting people with money and food. It is obvious that a true religion should convince people of its truth without the need to tempt them with wealth. Only that religion which cannot prove the truth of its beliefs needs to rely on tempting people to win converts.

SAYYIDINA ISĀ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام FORETELLS THE COMING OF THE HOLY PROPHET صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام clearly informed the Bani Isrā'īl that a messenger by the name of Ahmad will come after him. He referred to the coming of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ. The Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was called by several names. The Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said, "I am Muhammad. I am Ahmad. I am Māhi (Obliterator) because Allāh shall use me to obliterate disbelief and shirk. I am Hāshir because people will be raised from their graves after I am raised. I am also Āqib (the last one) because no Holy Prophet shall come after me." [Muslim]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ narrates that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ said, 'I am closest to Isā the son of Maryam in this world and in the Ākhirah. All the Prophets (Anbiya) عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام are like step brothers who have different mothers. They all have the same Religion (belief in Oneness of Allāh, Risālah and Judgment). There is no Holy Prophet between Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and myself' [Muslim v. 2 p. 265]

The Christian monks were well aware of the coming of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ as Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام prophesied. In fact, it was one of them who informed Sayyidina Salmān Fārsī رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ about the coming of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ. This led him to settle in Madinah so that he could await the coming of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ. The details of his story have been discussed in the commentary of verse 157 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7).

THE COMING OF THE HOLY PROPHET صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ AS PROPHESED IN THE TORAH AND BIBLE

The Jews and Christians during the time of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ were aware of the prophecies that their divine scriptures contained about the coming of the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ. This was discussed in the commentary of verse 157 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7) where Allāh states: "Those who follow the unlettered messenger and Holy Prophet that they find written with them in the Torah and Injīl."

The verse of Surah Saff under discussion tells us that Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام did indeed inform his followers that the Holy Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ was to come after him. However, we shall quote Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام as reported in the Bible. In John 14:15 and John 14:16, Sayyidina Isā عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said to the Jews, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will pray the father, and He will give you another Counselor [i.e. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], to be with you for ever."

John 14: 25 and 14:26 contain the following extract: "These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you. But the Counselor [i.e. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you."

John 16:7 reads, "Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you."

THE MEANING OF THE WORD "PARACLETE"

The above extracts are all verbatim quotations from the Bible. The word "Counselor" appearing in each of the three texts is a translation of the word "Paraclete" (or "Periclytos" in the original Greek manuscripts of the Bible). Although the Christians have used "Counselor" and "Comforter" to translate the word, the actual translation of the word is "the one whom people praise exceedingly", which is the translation of the Arabic name 'Muhammad'. When the Hebrew spoken by Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was translated as "Periclytos" in early Greek translations of the Bible, the essence of the name Ahmad was still tangible. When the Christians realised that this was a proof for the Muslims, they omitted the word from their translations and replaced it with words like "Counselor's "Comforter" 'intercessor', "Spirit of truth" and sometimes even "Holy Spirit".

Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام has also prophesied the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in John 16:13 where he said, "When the Spirit of truth [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come."

Being masters at altering their scriptures, the Jews and Christians have effectively changed the word Periclytos. However, their deception cannot take them very far because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fits the description of Muhammad, Ahmad and Periclytos just as well as he fits the description of "Counselor" and "Comforter". On the Day of Judgement, he will also be an 'intercessor' for the Muslims.

If the Christians say that the prophecy of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام does not fit the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, we may ask them whom it does refer to in that case. If they falsely claim that it refers to someone before the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, we ask them why were their religious scholars awaiting the coming of the "The Holy Prophet of the end of time". Why was it that many Jewish Rabbis (Jewish Scholar), Christians monks and Christians kings accept the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as the "The Holy Prophet of the end of time" when they heard about him or met him during his time. The incidents of Heraclius the Emperor of Rome, Najāshi the king of Abyssinia and the Christians of Najrān who arrived in Madinah are famous in this regard. In the incident of Sayyidina Salmān Fārsī رضي الله عنه, the last monk he lived with distinctly told him, "It is best that you now wait for the 'Holy Prophet of the end of time'. His advent is now imminent."

We may also ask the Christians why is it that after the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم none of them searched for or awaited the coming of anyone. For further details on the subject one may refer to the book "Izhārul Haq" in Arabic by Maulana Rahmatullāh Kirānwi رحمه الله عليه.

FALSE CLAIMANTS TO THE PROPHETHOOD

The prophecy of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام about the coming of a Prophet by the name of Ahmad refers only to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet himself said, "I am the seal of all Prophets. There shall be no Holy Prophet after me." However, there has been a person from India before the partitioning who has claimed that he is a Prophet after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He claims that the above verse of Surah Saff refers to him. Not only is he guilty of disbelief by altering the meaning of this verse, but he is also guilty of rejecting the following verse of Surah Ahzāb where Allāh says, 'Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is not the father of any man among you, but he is Allāh's messenger and the seal of all the Prophets. Allāh has knowledge of all things.' [Surah 33, verse 40]

The verse after the prophecy of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام says, "When he came to them with clear signs, they said, 'This is clear magic.' " This verse is phrased in the past tense and tells us that the Holy Prophet that Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام prophesied had already arrived when the Qur'ān was revealed and that the disbelievers denounced his miracles as "clear magic" The world knows that those who claimed to be the Prophets after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were called liars and other names, but none was referred to as a bringer of "clear magic" - In fact, none of them could ever show the people a miracle.

The person we have referred to from the Indian subcontinent can therefore not claim to be the one referred to in the above verse because this claim is refuted by the very next sentence where Allāh says, "When he came to them with clear signs, they said, 'This is clear magic.' " "In addition to this, his name was not even Ahmad. Those who know whom we are referring to will know him. We do not wish to soil our Tafsir by mentioning his name.

وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ افْتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ وَهُوَ يُدْعَىٰ إِلَى الْإِسْلَامِ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٧﴾ يُرِيدُونَ لِيُطْفِئُوا نُورَ اللَّهِ بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَاللَّهُ مُتِمُّ نُورِهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَىٰ وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٩﴾

(7) Who can be more unjust than he who fabricates lies about Allāh when he is being called to Islām? Allāh does not guide the unjust folk. (8) They intend to extinguish Allāh's light with their mouths. However, Allāh shall bring His light to completion even though the disbelievers abhor it. (9) It is He Who sent His messenger with guidance and the true Dīn (religion) to make it dominant over all other religions, even though the idolaters may abhor it.

THE LIGHT OF ALLĀH SHALL CONTINUE TO SHINE EVEN THOUGH THE DISBELIEVERS ABHOR IT

Allāh states, "Who can be more unjust than he who fabricates lies about Allāh when he is being called to Islām? (There can be none more unjust than he and) Allāh does not guide the unjust folk."

Allāh then says that those who refuse to accept Islām "intend to extinguish Allāh's light with their mouths." They try whatever they can to destroy Islām. Nevertheless, their efforts are all wasted because Islām will continue to grow from strength to strength because "Allāh shall bring His light to completion even though the disbelievers abhor it." Since the coming of Islām. The disbelievers have left no stone unturned to stop its spread. Despite their intense efforts even today, Islām is spreading unabated in their very own countries. Even though they are spending millions of dollars to stem the tide of Islām, they are daily witnessing their own people Turning to Islām.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has narrated from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that once when Wahy (divine revelation) did not come for forty days, the Jew Ka'b bin Ashraf said to his people, "You have cause to rejoice because Allāh has extinguished the light of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and it appears as if his religion shall never reach completion." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was naturally hurt by this remark. It was then that Allāh revealed the above verses. Thereafter, Wahy (revelation) continued to come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم unabated.

Allāma (Scholar) Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has reported the following five interpretations of "Allāh's light":

1. The Qur'ān.
2. Islām.
3. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself.
4. The proofs of Allāh's existence.
5. Just as one cannot prevent sunlight from spreading, one cannot stop the Religion of Islām from spreading.

Allāh continues, 'it is He (Allāh) Who sent His messenger with guidance and the true Religion to make it dominant over all other religions, even though the idolaters may abhor it.' Allāh's decree shall overwhelm all circumstances and will definitely come to pass. Even though the disbelievers do everything possible to stop the spread of Islām, Islām shall dominate over all other religions. One may refer to the commentary of verse 32 of Surah Taubah (Surah 9) for more details.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا هَلْ أَذِلَّكُمْ عَلَىٰ تَحَرُّقٍ نُّنَجِّكُمْ مِنْ عَذَابِ أَلِيمٍ ﴿١٠﴾ تَوَسَّنْوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ
وَجَاهِدُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ ذَٰلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ قَاعِلُونَ ﴿١١﴾ يَغْفِرَ لَكُمْ
ذُنُوبَكُمْ وَيُدْخِلَكُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرَىٰ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ وَمَسْكِنٌ طَيِّبَةٌ فِي جَنَّاتٍ عَدْنٍ ذَٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ

الْعَظِيمُ (12) وَأُخْرَىٰ تُحِبُّونَهَا نَصْرٌ مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَفَتْحٌ قَرِيبٌ وَيَسِّرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ (13)

(10) O you who believe! Should I not show you a trade that will save you from a painful punishment? (11) Believe in Allāh and His messenger and strive in Allāh's path with your wealth and lives. This is best for you if you but knew. (12) Allāh shall forgive your sins and enter you into gardens beneath which rivers flow and into wonderful mansions in eternal paradise. That is the supreme success. (13) Another bounty that you love is help from Allāh and a near victory. Give glad tidings to the believers.

TIDINGS OF A TRADE THAT WILL SAVE ONE FROM A PAINFUL PUNISHMENT

The above verses draw man's attention to the "trade" of the Ākhirah. In this world, man needs to earn to provide for his food and lodging. To acquire this wealth, many people resort to trade and commerce. It often occurs that in man's involvement with his trade, he forgets to prepare for his life after death and becomes totally oblivious of the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh addresses the believers saying, "O you who believe! Should I not show you a trade that will save you from a painful punishment?"

Two aspects are given serious consideration in business. One is that a profit is attained and the other is that a loss is not incurred. It is a commonly accepted notion that averting a loss is better than earning a profit. It is for this reason that Allāh first mentions that the "trade" of the Ākhirah (Hereafter) will save one from "a painful punishment". Thereafter, Allāh mentions the gardens of Heaven and its bounties that one shall receive as profits for carrying out the "trade".

The "trade" that Allāh advises man to involve himself with is to "Believe in Allāh and His messenger and (to) strive in Allāh's path with your wealth and lives." Allāh states further that "This is best for you if you but knew." As a reward for carrying this out, "Allāh shall forgive your sins and enter you into gardens beneath which rivers flow and into wonderful mansions in eternal paradise." The people of Heaven shall live there forever and will never have to leave. Allāh says in Surah Kahf that the people of Heaven "will abide there (in Heaven) forever and will never want to leave it." [Surah 18, verse 108]

A verse of Surah Fātir states that the people of Heaven will say, "All praise be to Allāh, Who has removed grief from us. Undoubtedly our Lord is Most Forgiving, Appreciative, Who has settled us in an eternal home by His grace. Here, no difficulty will ever afflict us, nor shall any tiredness touch us." [Surah 35, verse 34, 35]

This verse makes it clear that belief in Allāh, belief in the Holy Prophet ﷺ and striving in Allāh's path are the prescription for salvation in the Hereafter. The wealth and riches of this world (which are short-lived) are nothing compared to the everlasting bounties of the Hereafter. The wealth of this world that is acquired wrongfully will even be a source of punishment for a person in the Hereafter. Therefore, a believer should strive for success only in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) because "That is the supreme success."

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله quotes that Sayyidina Uthmān bin Madh'un

رضى الله عنه once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم which trade was most beloved to Allāh so that he could adopt the same. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse: "O you who believe! Should I not show you a trade that will save you from a painful punishment..."

Allāh refers to the same trade when He mentions in Surah Taubah, "So rejoice with your bargain that you have made" and when He says in Surah Fātir, "a trade that will never be destroyed."

Allāh says further, "Another bounty that you love is help from Allāh and a near victory." This verse adds that the rewards of this "trade" are not confined to the Ākhirah (Hereafter) but will also be seen in this world. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentioned that this verse refers to the Muslim conquest of Rome and Persia. Other Scholars mention that refers to the conquest of Makkah.

"Give glad tidings to the believers." The believers are given the tidings of this greatly profitable business and the great profits have already been witnessed time and time again. If today's Muslims carry out the same deeds mentioned, they will also reap the same profits and secure their success in the Hereafter.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا كُونُوا أَنصَارَ اللَّهِ كَمَا قَالَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ لِّلْحَوَارِيِّينَ مَن أَنصَارِي إِلَى اللَّهِ قَالَ لِّلْحَوَارِيِّينَ نَحْنُ أَنصَارُ اللَّهِ فَآمَنَتْ طَائِفَةٌ مِّنْ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ وَكَفَرَتْ طَائِفَةٌ فَأَيَّدْنَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا عَلَىٰ عَدُوِّهِمْ فَأَصْبَحُوا ظَاهِرِينَ ﴿١٤﴾

(14) O you who believe! Be the helpers of Allāh as Isā the son of Maryam said to the Hawariyyīn (disciples of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام), "Who will help me towards Allāh?" The Hawariyyīn replied, "We shall be Allāh's helpers." So a group of the Bani Isrā'īl believed while a group of them disbelieved. We assisted the believers against their enemies and they became victorious over them.

BECOME ALLĀH'S HELPERS

Jihād was mentioned at the beginning of the Surah and the previous verse also highlighted the virtues of striving in Allāh's path. Allāh concludes the Surah by instructing the believers to assist in propagating Allāh's religion. The opportunities for Jihād, migrating for the sake of Islām or assisting in the propagation of Islām arises in every believer's life. By applying oneself to these demands, one will be able to assist the spread of Islām and become a helper of Allāh's religion. Of course, Allāh is Independent and does not require the assistance of any person. Allāh refers to people as "Allāh's helpers" when they assist in the propagation of Islām to express their high rank.

Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was the Holy Prophet who lived closest to the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. There were many people during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who were well aware of the teachings of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, especially the Christian monks. Therefore, Allāh quotes an incident in the life of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. Although most of the Bani Isrā'īl rejected Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام, he had a few disciples who were called the Hawariyyīn (Disciples). They actively engaged in spreading the religion of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام in various regions.

Allāh addresses the believers saying, "O you who believe! Be the helpers of (the Religion of) Allāh as Isā the son of Maryam said to the Hawariyyīn (Disciples)," Who will help me towards (spreading the Religion of) Allāh?" The Hawariyyīn (Disciples) replied, "We shall be Allāh's helpers." Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله mentions that after the Hawariyyīn (Disciples) pledged to assist in the propagation of Sayyidina Isā's عليه السلام Religion, he dispatched them to the various areas of Shām (Syria).

The commentary of verses 52 and 53 of Surah Āl Imrān (Surah 3) discussed who the Hawariyyīn (Disciples) were and why they were called by this name. Allāh then says, "So a group of the Bani Isrā'īl believed while a group of them disbelieved."

THE THREE GROUPS AMONG THOSE WHO CLAIM TO FOLLOW SAYYIDINA ISĀ عليه السلام

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 4 p. 339) reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه that after Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was raised to the heavens, his followers began to differ among themselves. A group claimed that he was Allāh Himself who had come to the world. Another group claimed that he was Allāh's son while a third group claimed that he was Allāh's Prophet whom Allāh had raised to the heaven. When the groups clashed, the two disbeliever groups (the first and second groups) overpowered the group of believers (the third group). When Allāh sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to the world, the group of believers became dominant. This is referred to in the verse "We assisted the believers against their enemies and they became victorious over them." This group then dominated the others by way of their superior belief that was confirmed by the Qur'ān.

This victory of the believers followers of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام does not refer to a physical victory after a battle because the books of history make no mention of such a battle. It is for this reason that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned that the victory was in respect of strength of beliefs. This group then accepted Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام and had the Qur'ān to substantiate their beliefs and to disprove the beliefs of the other two groups.

The above interpretation applies to the time of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه. However, the history of latter centuries proved that Allāh assisted the believers against the Christians in the physical battles referred to as the Crusades.

سورة الجمعة

Madinan

Surah Al-Jumu'ah

Verses 11

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يُسَبِّحُ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ الْمَلِكِ الْقُدُّوسِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ ﴿١﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي
بَعَثَ فِي الْأُمِّيَّةِ رَسُولًا مِنْهُمْ يَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِهِ وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ
وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَإِنْ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٢﴾ وَآخَرِينَ مِنْهُمْ لَمَّا يَلْحَقُوا بِهِمْ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٣﴾ ذَلِكَ فَضْلُ اللَّهِ يُؤْتِيهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ

﴿٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth glorify Allāh the Sovereign, the Most Pure, the Mighty, the Wise. (2) It is He Who sent among the unlettered nation a Holy Prophet from themselves who recites His verses to them, purifies them and teaches them the Book and wisdom. Without doubt, they were in clear deviation before this. (3) (Allāh also sent the Prophet to) other people from them whom they have not yet met. He is the Mighty, the Wise. (4) This is Allāh's grace which He grants to whoever He pleases. Allāh is the Possessor of immense grace.

ALLĀH HAS SENT HIS HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم TO TEACH PEOPLE AND TO PURIFY THEM SPIRITUALLY

Allāh begins Surah Jumu'ah by saying, "Whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on earth glorify Allāh." Allāh then enumerates His attributes when He says that He is "the Sovereign, the Most Pure". The interpretation of "Al Malik" and "Al Quddūs" was explained in the commentary of verse 23 of Surah Hashr (Surah 59). Allāh then states that He is also "Al Azīz" ("the Mighty") and "Al Hakīm" ("the Wise"). These two attributes are repeated in various verses of the Qur'ān. While "Al Azīz" means that Allāh is Most Mighty, it also means that Allāh is the One Who possesses all true honour and respect. Mention of these attributes reminds man that Allāh has the might to apprehend any sinner and none can escape from Him. In addition to this, everything He does is full of wisdom. Everything He instructs man to do must be dutifully carried out because there is wisdom in every act that He commands. Nothing that He commands is futile.

Allāh then reminds mankind of an extremely great favour that He has bestowed on them. The favour is expressed in the verse where Allāh says, "It is He Who sent among the unlettered nation (the Arabs) a Prophet from themselves who recites His verses to them, purifies them and teaches them the Book and wisdom." Allāh refers to the Arabs as an "unlettered nation" because most of them were illiterate. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "We (Arabs) are an unlettered nation. We can neither write nor count." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was himself unlettered, as Allāh mentions in verses 157 and 158 of Surah A'rāf (Surah 7). Allāh says in verse 158 of Surah A'rāf, "So believe in Allāh and His messenger, the unlettered Prophet."

Allāh says in Surah Ankabūt, "Before this you were unable to recite any book, neither could you write with your right hand. Otherwise (i.e. if you were literate), the people of falsehood would be cast into doubt (thinking that you wrote the Qur'ān)." [Surah 29, verse 48]

Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was untutored., millions of literate people would sacrifice their lives for him. He brought to mankind a book (the Qur'ān) of such eloquence that even the most learned linguists are unable to match. Allāh made the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the guide and mercy for mankind. All of mankind are expected to follow in his footsteps and are forced to surrender to his superior knowledge.

Allāh describes the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم using the following descriptions:

First. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a messenger 'from themselves' i.e. from among the Arabs.

Second. He "recites His (Allāh's) verses to them."

Third. He "purifies them" spiritually. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم purified people's souls from all types of evil qualities.

Fourth. He "teaches them the Book and wisdom." Commentators mention that "the Book" refers to the Qur'ān and "wisdom" refers to the understanding of the Qur'ān. Teaching "wisdom" also refers to teaching people the words of the Qur'ān, the meanings of the words and the interpretations of the verses. Refer to the commentary of verse 129 of Surah Baqarah for further details.

Allāh states further, "Without doubt, they (the Arabs) were in clear deviation before this." This means that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent among the Arabs they were immersed in sin. They worshipped idols, engaged in murder, infanticide and all other types of sins. Their reformation began with the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent as a Holy Prophet to the entire universe, his coming spread the light of guidance throughout the globe.

THE SERVICE THAT NON-ARABS RENDERED TO ISLĀM

When the message of Islām transcended beyond the Arabian peninsula, non-Arabs accepted the Qur'ān and Ahadith, memorised them, mastered the interpretations and even began writing books on Tafsir and laws of the Qur'an. They took the message to others and there was an extremely large number of Scholars and pious people among them. Their services to Islām have been truly tremendous.

Allāh refers to the non-Arabs when He says, "(Allāh also sent the Holy Prophet to) other people from them whom they (the Arabs) have not yet met. He is the Mighty, the Wise." When this verse was revealed, the message of Islām had not yet spread out of Arabia. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that when this verse of Surah Jumu'ah was revealed, the companions of prophets (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who the people were "whom they have not yet met". When the question was repeated thrice, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم placed his hand on Sayyidina Salmān Fārsi رضى الله عنه, who was of Persian origin. This denoted that he was among the people whom the Arabs had not yet met with the message of Islām. Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If belief was by the Thurayya (Pleiades) constellation of stars, there would be people from among them (the Persians) who would acquire it there." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 727]

It was by way of example that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that there will be people from among the Persians who would acquire belief even if it were by the Thurayya (Pleiades) constellation of stars. This would also refer to all other non-Arab nations besides the Persians. When the Persians began to neglect the teachings of the Qur'an and Sunnah and succumbed to Shia beliefs, Allāh chose other nations to serve Islām, all of whom have also rendered sterling service to the Religion.

"This (Belief) is Allāh's grace which He grants to whoever He pleases. Allāh is the Possessor of immense grace." Allāh grants the wealth of Belief to whomever He pleases. Every person blessed with belief should be grateful to Allāh, especially those who have the honour to serve Allāh's religion.

مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ حُمِّلُوا التَّوْرَةَ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَحْمِلُوهَا كَمَثَلِ الْحِمَارِ يَحْمِلُ أَسْفَارًا بِئْسَ مَثَلُ الْقَوْمِ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٥﴾ قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ هَادُوا إِنْ زَعَمْتُمْ أَنَّكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ لِلَّهِ مِنْ دُونِ النَّاسِ فَتَمَنَّوُا الْمَوْتَ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٦﴾ وَلَا يَمَنَّوْنَهُ أَبَدًا بِمَا قَدَّمْتُمْ أَيْدِيَهُمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِالظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٧﴾ قُلْ إِنْ الْمَوْتَ الَّذِي تَمُرُّونَ مِنْهُ فَإِنَّهُ مُلَاقِيكُمْ ثُمَّ تُرَدُّونَ إِلَىٰ عِلْمِ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَيُنْشِئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٨﴾

(5) The analogy of those who were charged with bearing the Torah and then failed to bear it, is like that of a donkey carrying books. Vile is the analogy of the people who falsify Allāh's verses. Allāh does not guide the unjust nation. (6) Say, "O Jews! If you think that you are Allāh's friends and others are not, then wish for death if you are truthful." (7) They shall never wish for death because of the deeds that their hands send forth. Allāh does not guide the unjust nation.

 (8) Say, "Verily the death that you flee from shall certainly find you. Thereafter you shall be returned to the Knower of the unseen and the seen and He will inform you of what you used to do."

AN ANALOGY OF THE JEWS WHO ARE TOLD THAT IT IS FUTILE TO FLEE FROM DEATH

The above verses speak about the sorry religious position of the Jews and the terrible plight they are destined to suffer in both worlds. The Jews are the descendants of Sayyidina Ya'qūb عليه السلام, whose title was Isrā'īl. It is for this reason that they are referred to as the Bani Isrā'īl (the children of Isrā'īl). Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام and Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام were two of the more famous Prophet whom Allāh sent among the Bani Isrā'īl. Allāh Ta'āla gave Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام the Torah which contained detailed laws for the Bani Isrā'īl. Many of them did learn the Torah and practised its injunctions. Referring to them in Surah Mā'idah, Allāh says, "The Prophets عليهم السلام, who were subservient to Allāh, judged the Jews with it (the Torah); and those of Allāh and the scholars (also judged with it) because they were instructed to preserve Allāh's Book and they were witnesses to it." [Surah 5, verse 44]

Initially the Jewish scholars practised the Torah and enjoined people to do the same. However, they soon began to neglect the injunctions of the Torah and even started making changes in the Torah. When they began to do this, they no longer remained worthy bearers of the Torah. Drawing an analogy of these people Allāh states, "The analogy of those who were charged with bearing the Torah (i.e. with fulfilling its commands) and then failed to bear it (i.e. failed to practise), is like that of a donkey carrying books. Vile is the analogy of the people who falsify Allāh's verses. Allāh does not guide the unjust nation."

THE EVIL OF THE JEWS AND THEIR GOOD OPINION OF THEMSELVES

Although the Jews had the Torah with them, they perpetrated the villainy of assassinating many Prophets عليهم السلام. Besides rejecting the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they even attempted to assassinate him. This they did even though they realised that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the final Prophet described in their scriptures.

Despite their evil behaviour, the Jews maintained that only they were Allāh's friends and that none other enjoyed this privilege. In Surah Mā'idah Allāh quotes that they said, "We are the children of Allāh and His loved ones!" [Surah 5, verse 18]

In addition to this they also used to say that the bounties of the Hereafter are reserved exclusively for them. In reply, Allāh tells them in verse 94 of Surah Baqarah "If the home of the Hereafter is reserved exclusively for you and none else, then wish for death if you are truthful."

Here in Surah Jumu'ah, Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Say, 'O Jews! If you think that you are Allāh's friends and others are not, then wish for death if you are truthful.'"

This verse tells them that if they are convinced that only they are Allāh's friends, why are they labouring in this world? It is then best for them to leave this world and proceed to Heaven where they will have no difficulties at all. Since death is the gateway to the Hereafter, they ought to have a speedy death so that they may reach the Hereafter more quickly. If they say that death is not in their control, then they should at least wish for death. However, "They shall never wish for death because of the deeds that their hands send forth. Allāh does not guide the unjust nation."

This verse makes it clear that their claim to be Allāh's friends is false and that they fear punishment for the disbelief and other sins that they carry out. Allāh says about the Jews in Surah Baqarah, "You will find them to be the most greedy of all people for life; even more than the idolaters. Each of them wishes that he is granted a life of a thousand years. Even the fact that he is granted this life would not save him from punishment." The Jews know that they will have to face punishment in the Akhirah (Hereafter) for their sins and therefore wish that they can live for as long as possible.

One may ask that a Muslim will also refuse to wish for death if anyone were to ask him to do so. Therefore, how can wishing for death be a criterion for truth and falsehood? In reply to this, it should first be understood that the Jews were asked to wish for death because they claimed that they were the beloved friends of Allāh and that only they would enter Heaven. Instead of giving them a detailed theoretical reply, they are told to wish for death so that they realise the error of their claim in an instant.

As for a Muslim, his dislike for death is a natural feeling. More than this, the Ahadīth have prohibited Muslims from wishing for death because it is best for a Muslim to continue living. If he is a good person, staying alive is best for him because he then has the opportunity to carry out more good deeds and to improve his position in the Akhirah (Hereafter). On the other hand, if he is a sinful person, remaining alive will afford him a greater opportunity to repent and amend his ways. However, if a person is adamant to remain as a disbeliever, thinking that he has the exclusive right to enter Heaven. He will be addressed as the Jews are addressed in the foregoing verses of the Qur'ān.

It should be borne in mind that some Jews held the opinion that they would enter Hell, albeit for a short period. They would say, "The Fire will touch us only for a limited number of days." The verses under discussion do not apply to such Jews, but only to those who believed that they would enter Heaven immediately after dying. In the commentary of verses 94 to 96 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2) it was narrated from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that the Jews declined when they were challenged to Mubāhala (mutual imprecation for each other) i.e. where two opposing parties pray for the death of the one whose claim is false.

Allāh addresses the Jews further when He says, "Verily the death that you flee from shall certainly find you." The death of every person has been predetermined and none can escape this appointment. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Wherever you may be, death will find you even though you be in lofty towers." [Surah 4, verse 78]

Those who die as disbelievers are destined for Hell irrespective of how long they live. Despite knowing this, "Each of them (the Jews) wishes that he is granted a life of a thousand years. (However) Even the fact that he is granted this life (of a thousand years) would not save him from punishment."

Every person shall die and will have to face the consequences of his deeds in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh further tells the Jews that after death, "you shall be returned to the Knower of the unseen and the seen and He will inform you of what you used to do." Knowing that the punishment for disbelief is eternal damnation to Hell, any sensible person would realise that he should believe in Allāh and His Prophets عليهم السلام. None should labour under the misconception that his sins pass unnoticed and that he will not have to account for them. Allāh has perfect knowledge of the seen and the unseen and will reward or punish people accordingly.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِذَا نُودِيَ لِلصَّلَاةِ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْجُمُعَةِ فَاسْعَوْا إِلَىٰ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ
وَذَرُوا الْبَيْعَ ذَٰلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٩﴾ فَإِذَا قُضِيَتِ الصَّلَاةُ
فَأَنْشِرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَابْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَاذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا لَّعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ

(9) O you who believe! When the Adhān is called out for Salāh on the day of Jumu'ah, then hasten towards Allāh 's remembrance and leave trading. This is best for you if you but knew. (10) When the Salāh has been completed then disperse in the land, seek from Allāh's bounty and remember Allāh abundantly so that you may be successful.

THE INJUNCTION TO PROCEED IMMEDIATELY FOR THE JUMU'AH SALĀH WHEN THE ADHĀN IS CALLED OUT

These verses express the obligatory (Fardh) nature of the Jumu'ah (Friday) Salāh. Allāh Ta'āla says, "O you who believe! When the Adhān is called out for Salāh on the day of Jumu'ah, then hasten towards Allāh's remembrance and leave trading." The first Khutbah (sermon) is referred to as "Allāh's remembrance". This verse commands Muslims not to delay in presenting themselves for the Jumu'ah Salāh once the Adhān has been called.

One's occupation should not deter one from responding to the call of the Adhān (the call of the prayer). The command to "leave trading" is merely an example of an occupation that could prevent one from presenting oneself for the Jumu'ah Salāh. People tend to hesitate to do something when it means that they have to forfeit any worldly gain. They will therefore not want to close their businesses for the Jumu'ah Salāh. It is for this reason that Allāh makes it clear that "This is best for you if you but knew."

During the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم only one Adhān was called out for the Jumu'ah Salāh. This was called out after the Imām had already alighted the Mimbar (pulpit). During those times people would be present in the Masjid before the Adhān. They may have been only a few who arrived after hearing the Adhān. This was the state of affairs during the Caliph of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه as well. When Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه became the Khalifa (Caliphs), the number of Muslims had grown considerably. He therefore initiated another Adhān that was called out in the trading area further from the Masjid in a place called "Zowrā" It was from this time that the first Adhān was called out. Scholars state that a person should hasten to the Masjid from the time that this first Adhān is called out. The Ummah accepts this act of Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه because he was among the "Khulafa Rāshidīn" (The Righteous Caliphs) and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explicitly mentioned, "You should steadfastly hold on to the my practices and the practices of the rightly guided Khulafa Rāshidīn (righteous caliphs)."

THE VIRTUES OF THE JUMU'AH SALĀH

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The angels stand at the doors of the Masjid on the day of Jumu'ah. They record the name of the person who arrives first (for the Jumu'ah Salāh), thereafter the name of the person who arrives second. In this manner, they record each person's name as he arrives in the Masjid. The person who leaves for the Jumu'ah Salāh as soon as the afternoon arrives shall receive the reward of sacrificing a camel. The one who arrives after him shall have the reward of sacrificing a cow. The next person shall receive the reward of sacrificing a sheep, the next of sacrificing a fowl and the next of giving an egg in charity. Once the Imām comes out to ascend the Mimbar (pulpit), the angels fold up their records and listen to the Khutbah." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 121, 127 and Muslim v. 1 p. 282]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who performs wudhu and performs it properly, proceeds to the Masjid for the Jumu'ah Salāh, listens attentively to the Khutbah and remains silent, then his sins will be forgiven from that Jumu'ah until the next Jumu'ah and a further three days in addition. This is because every good deed is rewarded a minimum of ten fold. The one who touches (plays with) pebbles (or anything else) has engaged in futility (i.e. he has forfeited his rewards because his act betrays lack of concern for the Khutbah)." [Muslim v. 1 p. 283]

Whereas the above narration mentions performing wudhu (ablution), other Ahādith encourage performing Ghusl (taking a bath), applying oil to the hair, applying Itr (perfume), brushing the teeth with a Miswāk, wearing the best clothes, walking to the Masjid and sitting as close as possible to the Imām. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 122, 123]

While listening to the Khutbah (Sermon), one is not permitted to even indicate to another person to stop talking because this will disturb one's concentration. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If you tell someone who is talking to be silent, you have perpetrated an act of futility." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 127]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best day is the day of Jumu'ah. Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was created on this day, he was entered into Heaven on this day and taken out of Heaven on this day. Judgement day shall take place on the day of Jumu'ah." [Muslim v. 1 p. 282]

THE WARNING AGAINST NEGLECTING THE JUMU'AH SALĀH

It is not compulsory for a sick person, a Musāfir (traveller), a woman and a slave to present themselves for the Jumu'ah Salāh. The mature male who is not suffering from an illness that prevents him from performing Salāh has to leave his occupation and present himself in the Masjid for the Jumu'ah Salāh in a suitable manner.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once stood on the Mimbar (pulpit) and said, "People should refrain from neglecting the Jumu'ah Salāh otherwise Allāh shall seal their hearts and they will be included among the neglectful ones." [Muslim v. 1 p. 284]

Sayyidina Abu Ja'd Dhamari رضى الله عنه narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh will set a seal on the heart of the person who neglected three Jumu'ah Salāhs out of laziness." ["Mishkāt" p. 121]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he truly intended to appoint someone else to lead the Salāh while he personally set fire to the homes of those who neglected the Jumu'ah Salāh. ["Mishkāt" p. 121]

THE MOMENT WHEN SUPPLICATION ARE ACCEPTED

There is a moment during the day of Jumu'ah when supplication are accepted. It has been mentioned that this moment is from the time that the Imām sits on the Mimbar (pulpit) until the Jumu'ah Salāh is complete. [Muslim v. 1 p. 281]

It is also reported that one should search for this time between the Asr Salāh and sunset. [Tirmidhi v. 1 p. 111]

THE VIRTUE OF RECITING SURAH KAHF ON FRIDAYS

Reciting the first three verses of Surah Kahf on a Friday will protect one from the evil of Dajjāl. [Tirmidhi v. 2 p. 116]

Other Ahadīth state this virtue for reciting the concluding verses of Surah Kahf on a Friday. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that the person who recites Surah Kahf on a Friday shall have light until the following Friday. This means that his grave will be illuminated for this period so that he will have light in his grave if he dies during this time. It may also mean that his heart will be illuminated until the following Friday. [Bayhaqi in "Da'wātul Kabīr"]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also enjoined that Surah Hūd be recited every Friday. [Daarmi p. 326]

RECITING DURŪD SHARĪF (BENEDICTION) ON A FRIDAY

Although the recitation of Durūd Sharīf is extremely important at all times, the Shari'ah emphasises that Muslims increase their recitation of Durūd (Benediction) on Fridays. ["Mishkāt" p. 120]

DISPERSING IN THE LAND AND SEEKING ALLĀH'S BOUNTY AFTER THE JUMU'AH SALĀH

Allāh states, "When the Salāh has been completed, then spread out in the land, seek from Allāh's bounty... "This verse does not make the act of dispersing and seeking Allāh's bounty compulsory. The verse only makes it clear that this act is totally permissible. The verse tells us that after the Jumu'ah Salāh is over, the Muslims have fulfilled their obligation and can proceed to engage in their worldly occupations to seek their sustenance. Muslims may now continue with the work they had left to attend the Jumu'ah Salāh. Because the verse does make seeking one's livelihood compulsory after the Jumu'ah Salāh, one will be commended for remaining in the Masjid up to Asr or Maghrib and engaging in acts of Ibādah (worship).

After declaring the permissibility of engaging in one's occupation after the Jumu'ah Salāh, Allāh instructs the Muslims to "remember Allāh abundantly so that" they "may be successful." This phrase reminds Muslims that their actions should not be devoid of Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr). A believer should be constantly engaged in Allāh's Dhikr (remembrance). In fact, Salāh is also a form of remembering Allāh as Allāh says in Surah TāHā, "establish Salāh for My remembrance."

Allāh says in Surah Ankabūt, "Without doubt, the remembrance of Allāh is greatest." Allāh states in Surah Ahzāb, "O you who believe! Remember Allāh in abundance and glorify Him morning and evening."

Allāh says that a believer should engage in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) so that he "may be successful". Remembrance of Allāh is such a great thing that it ensures one's success in both worlds. One's heart attains contentment and tranquillity with remembrance (Dhikr). Remembrance Allāh (Dhikr) has been emphasised at this juncture because people are negligent of Allāh when they are busy in shopping centres and marketplaces. While in the marketplaces, we should recite the following remembrance (Dhikr):

{TRANSLATION: "There is none worthy of worship besides the One Allāh Who has no partner. All Kingdom and praises belong to Him only. He gives life and death and is the Living Who shall never die. All good is in his control and He has power over everything."}

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the person who recites the above remembrance (Dhikr) in the marketplace shall have a million good deeds recorded to his account. In addition to this, a million of his sins will be forgiven, his rank will be elevated a million stages and a mansion will be built for him in Heaven. [Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah]

وَإِذَا رَأَوْا تِجَارَةً أَوْ لَهْوًا انفَضُّوا إِلَيْهَا وَتَرَكُوكَ قَائِمًا قُلْ مَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ مِّنَ اللَّهْوِ وَمِنَ
التِّجَارَةِ وَاللَّهُ خَيْرُ الرَّازِقِينَ ﴿١١﴾

(11) When they see trade or futility, they hurry to it and leave you standing. Say, "That which is with Allāh is better than futility and trade. Allāh is the Best of providers."

REBUKING THOSE WHO LEFT THE KHUTBAH (SERMON) TO GATHER AROUND A TRADE CARAVAN

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that the prophet's companions (Sahābah) صلى الله عليه وسلم were performing the Jumu'ah Salāh with the Holy Prophet when one Friday when a trade caravan of camels suddenly appeared in Madinah. The caravan was laden with food and drink. When the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم heard the arrival of the caravan being announced in the marketplace, many of them left the Masjid to gather around the caravan. Eventually, there were only twelve prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم left with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the Masjid. It was on that occasion that Allāh revealed the verse, "When they see trade or futility, they hurry to it and leave you standing. Say, 'That which is with Allāh is better than futility and trade. Allāh is the Best of providers. ~ [Bukhari v. 1 p. 128, v. 2 p. 727]

A narration of Muslim (v. 1 p. 284) reports that the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم were listening to the Khutbah (sermon) being delivered by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when the caravan appeared in Madinah. Because the Khutbah (Sermon) assumes the status of the Salāh and is regarded as part of the Salāh, some narrators have mentioned that the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم were performing Salāh instead of saying that they were listening to the Khutbah (Sermon). The narration of Muslim reports that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه were among the twelve prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم who remained behind in the Masjid.

The "Marāsīl" of Imām Abu Dawūd رحمه الله (p. 7) reports that initially the Jumu'ah Salāh used to be recited like the Eid Salāh i.e. with the Salāh first and the Khutbah (sermon) second. It once occurred that the Salāh was over and the Khutbah (sermon) was in progress when a trade caravan arrived in Madinah. A person came into the Masjid announcing that the trade caravan of Dihya bin Khalifa had arrived (Dihya was then not yet a Muslim). When the caravan arrived in Madinah, Dihya bin Khalifa's family welcomed the caravan by beating drums. Thinking that there was no harm in leaving the Khutbah (sermon), some prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم left to meet the caravan. It was then that Allāh revealed the verse, "When they see trade or futility, they hurry to it and leave you standing. Say, 'That which is with Allāh is better than futility and trade. Allāh is the Best of providers. ~ Thereafter, the Khutbah (sermon) was delivered before the Salāh.

It appears from this narration of the 'Marāsīl' that the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم who left the Masjid thought that the Khutbah (sermon) was not part of the Salāh and that they were at liberty to leave as soon as the Salāh was over. They therefore committed an error in judgement, for which Allāh chided them when He says, "When they see trade or futility, they hurry to it and leave you standing." 'Ma'ālimut Tanzīl' reports that "futility" refers to the beating of the drums.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" also reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم how many of them were left in the Masjid. When they informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم twelve men and one woman stayed behind, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to them that if they had not remained behind with him, stones from the sky would have rained on the people. Another narration reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed them that had they all had left the Masjid, the entire valley would have been flowing with fire.. [‘Ma’ālimut Tanzil” v. 4 p. 345, 346]

There was a shortage of food in Madinah during that time and food prices were very high. Therefore, the prophet’s companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم hurried to the caravan because they feared that they would get nothing from the caravan if they did not hurry and if they had to wait until after the Khutbah (sermon). Thinking that there was no harm in leaving before the Khutbah (sermon) ended and fearing that the Jews and hypocrites would get most of the merchandise, the prophet’s companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم hurried to meet the caravan without waiting for the Khutbah (sermon) to end. With this in mind, one can understand why the prophet’s companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم acted like they did. However, an error is an error and cannot be justified.

Allāh says, “Say, ‘That which is with Allāh is better than futility and trade..” This verse tells us that listening to the Khutbah (sermon) and performing the Jumu’ah Salāh attracts ample blessings in one’s provision from Allāh. This is much better than the commodities of this world which one may acquire by forsaking the Khutbah (sermon) and Salāh. It is therefore necessary for the believer to focus his attention on Allāh at all times and to fulfil Allāh’s commands.

“Allāh is the Best of providers.” Allāh has created all forms of sustenance and He has also created the means to acquire these forms of sustenance. Everything that one receives is because Allāh wills it so. Even if a person gives something to another person, it is because Allāh has placed the inspiration within his heart to do so.

Ruling : The Khutbah (sermon) of the Jumu’ah Salāh is a condition for the validity of the Salāh. It is therefore imperative that the Khutbah (sermon) precedes the Salāh. If two Rakāhs of Salāh are performed on a Friday afternoon without the Khutbah (sermon), it will not be regarded as the Jumu’ah Salāh.

Ruling : It was the practice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to recite Surah Jumu’ah (Surah 62) in the first Rakāh of the Jumu’ah Salāh and Surah Munāfiqūn (Surah 63) in the second Rakāh. [Muslim v. 1 p. 2871]

It has also been reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite Surah A’lā (Surah 87) in the first Rakāh and Surah Ghāshiya (Surah 88) in the second Rakāh of both the Eid and Jumu’ah Salāhs. Whenever the Eid and Jumu’ah Salāhs occurred on the same day, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite Surah A’lā and Surah Ghāshiya in both these Salāhs. [Muslim v. 1 p. 288]

سورة المنافقون

Madinan

Surah Al-Munāfiqūn

Verses 11

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِذَا جَاءَكَ الْمُنَافِقُونَ قَالُوا نَشْهَدُ إِنَّكَ لَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ إِنَّكَ لَرَسُولُهُ وَاللَّهُ يَشْهَدُ
 إِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١﴾ اتَّخَذُوا أَيْمَانَهُمْ جُنَّةً فَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ إِنَّهُمْ
 سَاءَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ ءَامَنُوا ثُمَّ كَفَرُوا فَطَمَعَ عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا
 يَفْقَهُونَ ﴿٣﴾ وَإِذَا رَأَيْتَهُمْ تُعْجِبُكَ أَجْسَامُهُمْ وَإِنْ يَقُولُوا تَسْمَعُ لِقَوْلِهِمْ كَأَنَّهُمْ
 خُشُبٌ مُسْنَدَةٌ يُحَسِّبُونَ كُلَّ صَیْحَةٍ عَلَيْهِمْ هُمُ الْعَدُوُّ فَاحْذَرْهُمْ فَنَلَّهْمُ اللَّهُ أَنَّى يُؤْفَكُونَ
 ﴿٤﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ تَعَالَوْا يَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ لَوَّا رُءُوسَهُمْ وَرَأَيْتَهُمْ يَصُدُّونَ
 وَهُمْ مُسْتَكْبِرُونَ ﴿٥﴾ سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْهِمْ أَسْتَغْفَرْتَ لَهُمْ أَمْ لَمْ تَسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ لَنْ
 يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْفَاسِقِينَ ﴿٦﴾ هُمُ الَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ لَا
 تُنْفِقُوا عَلَى مَنْ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ حَتَّى يَنْفَضُوا وَلِلَّهِ خَزَائِنُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
 وَلَكِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ ﴿٧﴾ يَقُولُونَ لِنْ رَجَعْنَا إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ لِيُخْرِجَ
 الْأَعْرَضُ مِنْهَا الْأَذَلَّ وَلِلَّهِ الْعِزَّةُ وَلِرَسُولِهِ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلَكِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ لَا
 يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) When the hypocrites come to you they say, "We testify that you are certainly Allāh's messenger." Allāh knows well that you are His messenger and Allāh testifies that the hypocrites are liars. (2) They use their oaths as shields and prevent (others) from Allāh's path. Evil indeed is that which they do. (3) This is because they believed and then they disbelieved, so their hearts were sealed and they do not understand. (4) When you look at them, their physical appearance appeals to you and when they speak, you listen attentively to what they have to say. They are like sticks leaning against a support. They think that every shout is against them. They are enemies so beware of them. May Allāh destroy them! Whence are they wandering astray? (5) When they are told, "Come forward and Allāh's messenger will seek forgiveness for you," they turn their heads around and you see them arrogantly turning away. (6) It is the same to them whether you seek forgiveness for them or whether you do not seek forgiveness for them. Allāh shall never forgive them. Verily Allāh does not guide the sinful nation. (7) They are the ones who say, "Do not spend on those with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم until they disperse." To Allāh belongs the treasures of the heavens and the earth but the hypocrites do not understand. (8) They say, "If we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us shall certainly exile the humiliated ones." All honour belongs to Allāh, His messenger and the believers but the hypocrites do not know it.

THE MISCHIEF OF THE MUNĀFIQĪN (HYPOCRITES)

Surah Munāfiqūn speaks about the evil words and false oaths of the hypocrites. The hypocrites were those people who outwardly professed to be Muslims but were disbelievers by heart. They reluctantly performed Salāh with the Muslims and even participated in Jihād (Islamic war). However, they did not desist from speaking ill of the Muslims and of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Ahadīth commentators state that the Muslims were once on a Jihād (Islamic war) expedition against the Banu Mustaliq tribe when one of the Immigrants slapped one of the Ansār. The Ansāri rallied support from his fellow Ansār and the Immigrants supported the Muhājir (immigrant). Upon hearing the noise, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "What are these cries of ignorance?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said this because all were one after accepting Islām and it is most unbecoming for Muslims to rally support among their tribes against fellow Muslims. When the companion of prophet (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the situation, he said, "Leave this cry of ignorance because it has a horrible smell."

When Abdullāh bin Ubay the leader of the hypocrites heard about this, he said to the others, "Now the Muhājirīn (immigrants) have started to hit the Ansār (inhabitants). They came from outside and we gave them food and drink and now they have become bold. This is certainly a case of biting the hand that feeds one. Do not spend on them so that they may disperse. When they have nothing to eat, they will leave by themselves." He also said, "If we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us (the Ansār) shall certainly exile the humiliated ones (the Immigrants)."

This incident is narrated in Bukhari (p. 28, 29) by Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه. When Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه reported the matter to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he summoned the hypocrites and asked them whether they had made the statements. Abdullāh bin Ubay took solemn oaths before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stating that he had never mentioned anything of the sort. The other hypocrites also swore similar oaths and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم believed them. When this happened, Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه felt extremely grieved because it made him look a liar. He therefore stayed indoors and refused to come out.

When Allāh revealed Surah Munāfiqūn up to the verse "the honourable ones among us shall certainly exile the humiliated ones," The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم summoned Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه and said to him, "Allāh has confirmed what you said." On occasions like this, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه was rarely able to control himself. As he had said earlier concerning Sayyidina Hātib bin Abi Balta'a رضى الله عنه, he repeated on this occasion when he said, "O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Permit me to behead this hypocrite (i.e. Abdullāh bin Ubay)." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Leave him. If you kill him, people will say that Allāh's messenger kills his own companions."

THE BELIEF OF THE SON OF THE HYPOCRITE LEADER

Tirmidhi reports that when the son of Abdullāh bin Ubay heard that his father had said, "the honourable ones among us shall certainly exile the humiliated ones", he refused to allow his father into Madinah until his father admitted that he was humiliated and that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was honourable. When he admitted this, he was allowed to enter Madinah. The son's name was also Abdullāh. We shall now review the Surah from the beginning.

Allāh states, "When the hypocrites come to you they say, 'We testify that you are certainly Allāh's messenger. Allāh knows well that you are His messenger and Allāh testifies that the hypocrites are liars.'" The hypocrites lied when they said that they had accepted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as Allāh's true messenger. An oath is taken to confirm that what a person says coincides with what is within his heart. The oath of the hypocrites would have therefore meant that they truly accepted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as Allāh's messenger. However, their oaths were blatant lies. Truthful people seldom have to take oaths because people know them to be truthful. However, the hypocrites repeatedly took oaths because they were not truthful.

Allāh mentions, "Allāh knows well that you are His messenger" to emphasise that the testimony of the hypocrites was not needed because Allāh has already confirmed the fact that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was Allāh's messenger.

"They use their oaths as shields..." The hypocrites took oaths merely so that the Muslims may regard them as Muslims and so that their wealth, families and properties may remain safe among the Muslims. They feared that if their disbelief was exposed, they would suffer the fate of the other disbelievers. Therefore, because their oaths seemed to protect them by confirming their Belief, these oaths are referred to as shields.

Allāh says further that the hypocrites "prevent (others) from Allāh's path." Besides refusing to accept Islām, they even prevent their children and associates from accepting. Although the hypocrites think that they are doing well for themselves by benefiting from the Muslims and the disbelievers, "Evil indeed is that which they do." Their behaviour is indeed evil because it will subject them to the everlasting punishment of Hell.

"This (evil behaviour of theirs) is because they believed (superficially at first) and then they disbelieved..." i.e. then their disbelief was exposed when they made certain statements. Once their façade was exposed to all, "their hearts were sealed and they do not understand." They were thereafter unable to perceive the truth.

THE TALKS OF THE HYPOCRITES ARE VERY IMPRESSIVE

Further describing the hypocrites, Allāh says, "When you look at them, their physical appearance appeal to you and when they speak, you listen attentively to what they have to say." The hypocrites were handsome men with good physique. Their talks were also very impressive and captivating. However, "They are like sticks leaning against a support." Just as these sticks may seem long and strong, they are lifeless and cannot even stand by themselves. Similarly, the hypocrites had strong bodies that were devoid of belief and courage. They are of no use to the Muslims.

The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" interprets the verse to mean that the hypocrites are not like fruit-bearing trees that are of benefit to people. They are rather like sticks leaning against something. Instead of giving benefit, they only derive benefit from others, much like parasites.

Allāh then describes the cowardice and fear of the Hypocrites. Allāh says, "They think that every shout is against them." Whenever they hear something being said, they fear that it should not reveal their hypocrisy. They then feel that some calamity will befall them. Allāh warns the Muslims, "They are enemies so beware of them." Muslims should beware that the hypocrites should never cause difficulty for them. Allāh then says, "May Allāh destroy them! Whence are they wandering astray?"

"When they are told, 'Come forward and Allāh's messenger will seek forgiveness for you,' they turn their heads around and you see them arrogantly turning away." "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 4 p. 350) narrates that when the verses of Surah Munāfiqūn exposed the truthfulness of Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه and the lie of Abdullāh bin Ubay, someone said to Abdullāh bin Ubay, "See what a stern reprimand has been revealed against you. Why do you not go to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and ask him to pray to Allāh to forgive you?" To this, Abdullāh bin Ubay responded by turning his head around and arrogantly saying, "I believed when you people asked me to believe and I even gave Zakāh when you people asked me to. Now the only thing left is for you to ask me to prostrate to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم." It was on this occasion that Allāh revealed the verse, "When they are told, 'Come forward and Allāh's messenger will seek forgiveness for you,' they turn their heads around and you see them arrogantly turning away."

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that they "turn their heads away" as a sign of mocking the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh then asserts, "It is the same to them whether you seek forgiveness for them or whether you do not seek forgiveness for them. Allāh shall never forgive them (because their hearts have already been sealed). Verily Allāh does not guide the sinful nation."

THE HYPOCRITES TELL OTHERS NOT TO SPEND ON THE MUSLIMS

Further describing the hypocrites, Allāh says, "They are the ones who say, 'Do not spend on those with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم until they disperse.'" This statement was another of the many ignorant statements that the hypocrites were used to making.

In this statement they regard themselves as providers, forgetting that Allāh is the One Who provides. They thought that if they stopped supporting the Immigrants, they would be forced to seek their own sustenance and desert the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the process. People enamoured with this world are given to making such statements and they often harass those working and collecting for Masājid (mosques) and Madāris (religious schools) thinking that it is their money that run these institutions.

Allāh replies to their intimidation by stating, "To Allāh belongs the treasures of the heavens and the earth." Allāh grants wealth and sustenance to whoever He wills and none can deprive another by withholding funds because Allāh can easily arrange another source of income. Allāh provides for all His creation. However, "the hypocrites do not understand."

HONOUR BELONGS TO ALLĀH, TO THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم AND TO THE BELIEVERS

"They say, 'If we return to Madinah, the honourable ones among us shall certainly exile the humiliated ones.'" Because the hypocrites resided in Madinah before the Immigrants arrived there, they regarded it as their city. Since the Immigrants were aliens to their city, the hypocrites held the opinion that they were the honourable ones and that the Immigrants were humiliated people. They made their intentions clear that they intended to expel the Immigrants from Madinah.

Allāh replies to their statement by saying, "All honour belongs to Allāh, His messenger and the believers but the hypocrites do not know it." The hypocrites felt that they are honourable because they have the material possessions of this world. However, their enjoyment in this world was short lived because they were soon banned from entering the Masjid. Although some of them sincerely accepted Islām and were able to live honourably, the rest of them died without accepting Islām and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was prohibited from performing their Janāzah Salāh (funeral prayer).

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تُلْهِكُمْ أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿٩﴾ وَأَنْفِقُوا مِنْ مَّا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ أَحَدَكُمُ الْمَوْتُ فَيَقُولَ رَبِّ لَوْلَا أَخَّرْتَنِي إِلَى أَجَلٍ قَرِيبٍ فَأَصَّدَقَ وَأَكُنْ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَلَنْ يُؤَخَّرَ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِذَا جَاءَ أَجَلُهَا وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ

(9) O you who believe! Let not your wealth and your children make you neglect Allāh's remembrance. Those who do this are certainly losers. (10) Spend from what We have provided for you before death comes to any of you and then he says, "O my Lord! Why do you not grant me respite for a little while so that I could spend in charity and become of the righteous." (11) Allāh shall not grant respite to any soul when its term arrives. Allāh is Informed of what you do.

YOUR WEALTH AND CHILDREN SHOULD NOT MAKE YOU NEGLECT ALLĀH'S REMEMBRANCE

One's wealth and children are two factors that cause one to neglect remembrance of Allāh. They cause one to neglect one's Fardh (obligatory) and Wājib (compulsory) duties along with the Nafl (mandatory) acts of worship. They cause one to be engrossed in the affairs of this world and to continue earning wealth for oneself and for one's children. One then becomes obsessed with making one's children wealthy. It then happens that one does not care from what sources one earns one's wealth. One also neglects to pay one's Zakāh and other monetary obligations. Even if one's source of income is Hālāl (Lawful), deep engrossment in earning can still distract one from remembering Allāh. One is then given to spending one's wealth on one's family and children in avenues that are not permissible and that entail extravagant behaviour.

Allāh warns the Muslims saying, "O you who believe! Let not your wealth and your children make you neglect Allāh's remembrance." One may earn to provide sufficiently for one's wife, children and parents because this forms part of Allāh's remembrance (since it entails fulfilling Allāh's commands). However, one should not make earning one's living the object of one's life because one will then be distracted from remembering Allāh. Allāh says, "Those who do this (i.e. who allow their wealth and children to make them neglect Allāh's remembrance) are certainly losers." Of course, the disbelievers are at a complete loss because they are doomed to eternal damnation in Hell. As for those believers who allow their wealth and children to distract them from Allāh's remembrance, they shall suffer to the extent of their negligence. A moment spent without Allāh's Dhikr (remembrance) is a great loss indeed.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that a person who once recites "Subhā Nallāhi Wa Bi Hamdihi" shall have a date palm planted for him in Heaven. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also said that reciting "Subhā Nallāhi wal Hamdu Lillāhi wa Lā Ilāha Illallāhu Allāhu Akbar" is more beloved to him than everything on which the sun shines. Therefore, by neglecting Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) one will be depriving oneself of great blessings.

Allāh then instructs Muslims to spend their wealth in charity when He says, "Spend from what We have provided for you before death comes to any of you..." Every person earns wealth to spend it. Whereas the believers spend their wealth in avenues that please Allāh, people who love wealth and do not wish to practise religion prefer to hoard the wealth. They become slaves of their wealth and are reluctant to spend it even in Zakāh.

Allāh adds that people should spend in charity before death because when death overtakes them, it will be too late to carry out any good deed. After death, a person will plead to Allāh to return him to the world so that he may carry out the good deeds he neglected while alive. He will say, "O my Lord! Why do you not grant me respite for a little while so that I could spend in charity and become of the righteous."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه once mentioned that whoever has the means to perform Hajj and pay Zakāh but does not do so, will plead to Allāh to return him to this world so that he may donate in charity and carry out good deeds. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه then recited the verses: "O you who believe! Let not your wealth and your children make you neglect Allāh's remembrance. Those who do this are certainly losers. Spend from what We have provided for you before death comes to any of you and then he says, 'O my Lord! Why do you not grant me respite for a little while so that I could spend in charity and become of the righteous. Allāh shall not grant respite to any soul when its term arrives. Allāh is Informed of what you do."

Allāh concludes by saying, "Allāh shall not grant respite to any soul when its term arrives." Good deeds can be performed only before death. One should carry out as many good deeds as possible so that one does not have any regrets after death. None should think that his deeds are passing by unnoticed because "Allāh is Informed of what you do."

سورة التغابن

Madinan

Surah At-Taghābun

Verses 18

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يُسَبِّحُ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿١﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْكُمْ كَافِرٌ وَمِنْكُمْ مُؤْمِنٌ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٢﴾ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ وَصَوَّرَكُمْ فَأَحْسَنَ صُورَكُمْ وَإِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٣﴾ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تُسِرُّونَ وَمَا تُعْلِنُونَ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ﴿٤﴾ أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ نَبَأُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ فَذَاقُوا وَبَالَ أَمْرِهِمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٥﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُ كَانَتْ تَأْتِيهِمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَقَالُوا أَبَشَرٌ يَهْدُونَنَا فَكَفَرُوا وَتَوَلَّوْا وَاسْتَغْنَى اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ غَفِيٌّ حَمِيدٌ ﴿٦﴾ زَعَمَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنْ لَنْ يُعَذِّبَهُمُ اللَّهُ بِبَلَاءٍ وَرَبِّي لَتُبْعَثَنَّهُمْ لِنُبْحُونَ يَوْمَ مَا وَعَدْتُمْ وَذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ﴿٧﴾ فَتَأَمَّنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرُسُولِهِ وَالنُّورِ الَّذِي أُنْزِلَنَا وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ﴿٨﴾ يَوْمَ يَجْمَعُكُمْ لِيَوْمِ الْجَمْعِ ذَلِكَ يَوْمُ التَّغَابُنِ وَمَنْ يُؤْمِنْ بِاللَّهِ وَيَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا يُكَفِّرْ عَنْهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِ وَيُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٩﴾ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿١٠﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) Whatever is in the heavens and on earth glorify Allāh. All kingdom and all praise belong to Him and He has power over all things. (2) It is He Who created you, so among you are believers and among you are disbelievers. Allāh is Watchful over what you do. (3) He has created the heavens and the earth with the truth, fashioned you and beautified your appearance. To Him shall the return be. (4) He knows what is in the heavens and the earth, He knows what you conceal and what you reveal. Allāh has knowledge of the secrets of the heart. (5) Has the news of the bygone disbelievers not reached you? They tasted the evil consequences of their affairs and theirs shall be a painful punishment. (6) This is because their messengers came to them with clear signs and they said, "Will a human guide us?" So they disbelieved and turned away. Allāh had no need for them. Allāh is Independent, Most Worthy of praise. (7) The disbelievers think that they will never be resurrected. Tell them, "Definitely by the oath of my Lord! You will certainly be resurrected and then you will be informed of what you did. This is very simple for Allāh." (8) So believe in Allāh, in His messenger and in the light that He revealed. Allāh is Informed of what you do. (9) The day when He will gather you for the day of gathering, that will be the day of great loss. The one who believes in Allāh and carries out good deeds, Allāh shall expiate his sins and enter him into gardens beneath which rivers flow. He shall abide there forever. That is the great success. (10) Those who disbelieve and falsify Our verses are the inmates of the Fire in which they shall abide forever. It is the worst of places to return to.

THERE ARE BELIEVERS AND DISBELIEVERS AMONG THOSE WHOM ALLĀH HAS CREATED

The word "Taghābun" is derived from the root word "ghaban", which means "a loss". The Day of Judgement is referred to as the Day of Taghābun in the 9th verse of this Surah because many people will suffer a great loss on this day. Allāh begins the Surah by stating, "Whatever is in the heavens and on earth glorify Allāh." All of creation either glorify Allāh verbally or physically by way of submitting to His commands. Furthermore, "All kingdom and all praise belong to Him." Allāh has complete control over all of creation and no one has the authority to question Him. Everything He does and every quality of His is praiseworthy. In addition to this, Allāh "has power over all things." Allāh can do whatever He wills and nothing is an obstacle in His way.

Allāh's creative powers are then expressed when he says, "It is He Who created you, so among you are believers and among you are disbelievers." Allāh created man and granted him intelligence to discern right from wrong. In addition to this, Allāh also sent the Prophets عليهم السلام and divine scriptures to guide man. Those who accepted Allāh's message became believers and those who put Allāh's guidance to waste remained disbelievers. Of course, "Allāh is Watchful over what you do." Allāh knows the physical deeds that people carry out as well as their thoughts and the inclinations of their hearts. He will reward the believers for their good works and punish the disbelievers for their disbelief and sins.

ALLĀH CREATED THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH AND FASHIONED MAN MOST BEAUTIFULLY

Allāh continues, "He has created the heavens and the earth with the truth (wisdom), fashioned you and beautified your appearance." One of Allāh's greatest bounties to man is that He has beautifully fashioned the appearance of man within the womb of his mother. Allāh created man's eyes, ears, arms, legs and all his other limbs and organs in perfect proportion to each other and He has granted beauty to them all. Man is therefore indebted to Allāh and ought to express sincere gratitude to Him. Man himself is witness to the superior beauty that he enjoys over the rest of creation. Regardless of how unattractive a person may be and how beautiful another creation may appear, he will never want to exchange his physical appearance for that of the other creation.

"To Him shall the return be." Allāh is the only Creator, the only Fashioner and everyone shall return to Him. It is therefore imperative that a person turns only to Him, worships Him only, expresses gratitude to Him and engages in His remembrance at all times.

Allāh states further. "He knows what is in the heavens and the earth, He knows what you conceal and what you reveal. Allāh has knowledge of the secrets of the heart." Allāh's knowledge is not restricted to what people say and do, but He is even Aware of what they think. One should always bear this in mind so that one may abstain from all evil.

LEARNING LESSONS FROM NATIONS THAT HAVE BEEN DESTROYED PREVIOUSLY

Addressing every reader of the Qur'ān, Allāh says, "Has the news of the bygone disbelievers not reached you? They tasted the evil consequences of their affairs and theirs shall be a painful punishment." Allāh warns people that if they do not desist from disbelief, they stand to face the same plight of the many nations that have been destroyed previously.

Allāh then mentions why the previous nations adamantly clung on to their beliefs of disbelief. Allāh says, "This is because their messengers came to them with clear signs..." However, instead of believing in these Prophets عليهم السلام and the miracles they showed, the people looked for excuses to reject and said, "Will a human guide us?" They told the Prophets عليهم السلام that the position of a Prophet can be filled only by pure beings like the angels. As a result, "they disbelieved and turned away. Allāh had no need for them. Allāh is Independent, Most Worthy of praise." Man benefits only himself by believing in and by worshipping Allāh. Allāh does not need anyone's worship. Therefore, those who choose disbelief will have to suffer the punishment for their sins. If people do not worship Allāh, His attributes will not diminish in the least. He remains Most Worthy of praise irrespective of man's worship.

THE FALSE NOTION OF THE DISBELIEVERS AND THE INVITATION TO BELIEVE

Allāh says. "The disbelievers think that they will never be resurrected. Tell them, 'Definitely by the oath of my Lord! You will certainly be resurrected and then you will be informed of what you did. This is very simple for Allāh.'"

"So believe in Allāh, in His messenger and in the light (the Qur'ān) that He revealed. Allāh is Informed of what you do."

Allāh then refers to the Day of Judgement when He says, "The day when He will gather you for the day of gathering, that will be the day of great loss." Although every person dies at a different time, they will all be gathered together on the Day of Judgment and collectively appear for reckoning. For this reason, it is called the "day of gathering".

The Day of Judgment is referred to as “the day of great loss” because people will lose a great deal on that day. As for the disbelievers, their loss is evident because they will lose the privilege of entering Heaven and will lose their souls in Hell. The loss that the believers will suffer will be that they will regret not carrying out more good deeds so that they could attain more bounties in Heaven.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Every person to whom death comes shall be remorseful.” When the Prophets صلى الله عليه وسلم asked about the remorse, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “The one who carried out good deeds will regret that he did not carry out any more good deeds and the sinful one will regret his disobedience.” [“Mishkāt” p. 484]

Sayyidina Muhammad bin Abi Umayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “If a person obediently prostrates before Allāh from the day he was born until the day he dies, he will still consider his deeds too meagre on the Day of Judgment. He will then express the desire to be returned to the world so that he could earn even more rewards.” [“At Targhīb wat Tarhīb” v. 4 p. 397]

Although some scholars interpret “Taghābun” as a two-way process where one party causes loss to another, this interpretation is incorrect because the disbelievers cannot cause any loss to the believers on the Day of Judgment.

Allāh then mentions the destiny that people will face on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says, “The one who believes in Allāh and carries out good deeds, Allāh shall expiate his sins and enter him into gardens beneath which rivers flow. He shall abide there forever. That is the great success.”

On the contrary, “Those who disbelieve and falsify Our verses are the inmates of the Fire in which they shall abide forever. It is the worst of places to return to.”

مَا أَصَابَ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ وَمَنْ يُؤْمِنْ بِاللَّهِ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ قَلْبَهُ وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾ وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ فَإِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ فَإِنَّمَا عَلَى رَسُولِنَا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١٢﴾ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ يٰٓأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِنِ مِنْ آزْوَاجِكُمْ وَأَوْلَادِكُمْ عَدُوٌّ لَّكُمْ فَاحْذَرُوهُمْ وَإِنْ تَعَفَّوْا وَتَصَفَّحُوا وَتَغْفِرُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١٤﴾ إِنَّمَا أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَأَوْلَادُكُمْ فِتْنَةٌ وَاللَّهُ عِنْدَهُ أَجْرٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٥﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ وَأَسْمِعُوا وَأَطِيعُوا وَأَنْفِقُوا خَيْرًا لِأَنْفُسِكُمْ وَمَنْ يُوقْ شَحْ نَفْسِهِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ إِنْ تَقَرَّضُوا اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا يُّضَاعِفْهُ لَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ شَكُورٌ حَلِيمٌ ﴿١٧﴾ عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿١٨﴾ of the one who believes in Him and Allāh has knowledge of everything. (12) Obey Allāh and obey the messenger. If you turn away, then (be aware that) the responsibility of the messenger is only clear propagation. (13) He is Allāh besides Whom there is none worthy of worship. Only in Allāh should the believers trust. (14) O you who believe! You have enemies among your spouses and children so be wary of them. If you pardon, overlook and forgive, then Allāh is certainly Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (15) Your wealth and children are merely a test. Great rewards are with Allāh. (16) So fear Allāh as much as you can, listen, obey and spend. This is best for you. Those who are saved from the miserliness of their souls are indeed the successful ones. (17) If you lend to Allāh a beautiful loan, He will multiply your rewards and forgive you. Allāh is Appreciative, Tolerant... (18) ..... Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Mighty, the Wise.

EVERY CALAMITY STRIKES BY ALLĀH'S COMMAND

These concluding verses of Surah Taghābun discuss several issues. Allāh says, "Every calamity afflicts you only by Allāh's command." Therefore, one should be happy with every condition because every condition comes from Allāh. When a calamity afflicts one, one should accept that it is from Allāh and one should bear it with patience. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whatever (difficulty) afflicts you could have never missed you and what misses you could never have afflicted you." [Ibn Majah p. 9]

Allāh says further, "Allāh guides the heart of the one who believes in Him..." This means that Allāh grants the believer the ability to exercise patience when afflicted with an adversity so that he is able to earn great rewards. Whenever he is afflicted with difficulty, he says, "Innā Lillāhi wa Innā Ilayhi Rāji'ūn" ("To Allāh we belong and to Him shall we return").

"Allāh has knowledge of everything." Allāh is well aware of the behaviour of those who exercise patience as well as those who do not exercise patience. He grants each person the reward or punishment due to him.

Allāh then instructs, "Obey Allāh and obey the messenger. If you turn away, then (be aware that) the responsibility of the messenger is only clear propagation." Once the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has propagated the message of Islām, it is up to the individual to accept. It was not his responsibility to force people to accept Islām.

Allāh Ta'āla continues, "He is Allāh besides Whom there is none worthy of worship. Only in Allāh should the believers trust."

SOME WIVES AND CHILDREN ARE ENEMIES

Allāh says, "O you who believe! You have enemies among your spouses and children so be wary of them." Man needs to marry and have children. The love between husband, wife and children is natural and Islām encourages this love. However, Islām has stipulated a limit for this love. The limit is that Allāh's right should take precedence over all these forms of love. Whether the person be one's husband or wife, son or daughter, one is allowed to have only that much love for them which will not prevent one from fulfilling the injunctions of the Shari'ah. One should live one's life according to the Shari'ah, together with loving one's family as well.

‘Ma’ālimut Tanzīl’ reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that when some Muslims in Makkah decided to migrate to Madinah, their wives and children said to them, “We endured your conversion to Islām but will be unable to endure your migration.” Hearing this, they forsook the idea of migrating. It was with reference to this that Allāh revealed the verse, “O you who believe! You have enemies among your spouses and children so be wary of them.”

Another circumstance of revelation narrated concerns Sayyidina Awf bin Mālik Ashja’ī رضى الله عنه. When he once intended to proceed in Jihād, his wife and children prevented him saying, “To whom are you leaving us?” Upon hearing this, he changed his mind. It was also with reference to this incident that the verse was revealed. Allāh therefore warns Muslims to beware that their spouses and children do not prevent them from carrying out good deeds.

The Arabic word “azwāj” (translated above as “spouses” is the plural of the word “zawj” which refers to husbands and wives. Therefore, every male and female Muslim should ensure that his/her children and spouse do not place obstacles in the path of religion.

DO NOT DESTROY YOURSELF FOR THE LOVE OF YOUR WIFE OR CHILDREN

Both husbands and wives should carry out the injunctions of the Shari’ah and should ensure that their children do the same. If one has so much love for one’s wife or children that it prevents one from fulfilling the injunctions of the Shari’ah, this love is actually enmity and it will manifest itself as such on the plains of resurrection. There one will have to face the punishment for the sins one carried out on account of one’s love for them. One will be foolish to tire oneself in earning for one’s family when one’s source of income is unlawful. Added to the sin of earning unlawful wealth, one will then be burdened by the dual sins of consuming unlawful and also feeding others with it. One will have to suffer the punishment of all these sins in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

One will notice many men engaging in Unlawful activities just to please their families. They will be seen taking loans on interest, embezzling funds and taking goods on credit merely so that their wives can dress most exquisitely for every function. They even accept bribes so that they can maintain the extravagant lifestyles of their families. Intoxicated by their passions, their families fail to realise that they are destroying the man’s life in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). When the man will witness the suffering he is destined for in the Hereafter, his wife and children will not be able to assist him at all. He will then see them as the enemies they were. Instead of advising him to do good, to abstain from evil and to prepare for his Ākhirah (Hereafter), they kept him occupied in fulfilling their every whim and desire.

Of course, all wives and children are not like this. There are many who offer good counsel and encourage the practise and propagation of Religion. It is for this reason that the verse states that one has enemies “among” one’s spouses and children. It does not say that all of them are enemies.

Thereafter, Allāh encourages forgiveness. Allāh says, “If you pardon, overlook and forgive, then Allāh is certainly Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." It often occurs that one's spouse or children make a request that one dislikes or that one cannot fulfil. As a result, one naturally becomes upset. With reference to such situations, Allāh advises Muslims that they should overlook and forgive. Allāh is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful and will forgive one when one acts in this manner.

WEALTH AND CHILDREN ARE A TEST

Allāh tells man, "Your wealth and children are merely a test. Great rewards are with Allāh." Earning one's wealth and spending the wealth is a test for man, as is rearing children and living with them. In carrying out these activities, one should be careful that one does not transgress any of Allāh's laws and that one does not make these the object of one's life. Tending these things must not prevent one from obeying Allāh's commands. The greatest rewards are with Allāh, so one should concentrate all one's efforts towards pleasing Allāh by fulfilling the requirements of Belief. Verse 28 of Surah Anfāl (Surah 8) is similar to this verse. One should refer to the commentary of that verse for a more detailed explanation of how one's wealth and children are a test for one.

TAQWA (FEAR ALLĀH) AND SPENDING IN ALLĀH'S PATH

"So fear Allāh as much as you can, listen, obey and spend. This is best for you." This verse includes several pieces of advice. Adopting Taqwa (translated above as 'fear Allāh "') entails abstaining from everything that Allāh has prohibited and fulfilling all the injunctions that He has ordained. Allāh has not ordained anything that is beyond man's capability. Of course, certain acts require one to apply oneself and suppress one's desires. Whatever good deeds one carries out and whatever wealth one spends in Allāh's path will benefit one because one will enjoy the rewards for this. It is for this reason that Allāh says, "This is best for you."

Allāh continues, "Those who are saved from the miserliness of their souls are indeed the successful ones." The discussion concerning miserliness and "Shuh" in particular has been given in the commentary of verse 9 of Surah Hashr (Surah 59).

A LOAN GIVEN TO ALLĀH

"If you lend to Allāh a beautiful loan, He will multiply your rewards and forgive you." A "beautiful" loan refers to charity that is given with sincerity and with a happy heart. Everyone and everything belongs to Allāh, even the wealth that one possesses. It is Allāh's grace that He rewards people for spending the wealth that belongs to Him. Spending in good causes is termed as a loan only because it resembles a loan. In reality, Allāh needs nothing and the person spending has everything to gain. This discussion has been given in the commentary of verse 245 of Surah Baqarah.

"Allāh is Appreciative" because He gives tremendous rewards for even the smallest deeds. Allāh is also "Tolerant" because He does not punish people immediately after they have sinned and He also forgives sins as soon as the sinner repents. In addition to this, Allāh is also the "Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Mighty, the Wise."

سورة الطلاق

Madinan

Surah At-Talāq

Verses 12

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا طَلَقْتُمُ النِّسَاءَ فَطَلِّقُوهُنَّ لِعَدَّتِهِنَّ وَأَحْصُوا الْعِدَّةَ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ رَبَّكُمْ لَا تُخْرِجُوهُنَّ مِنْ بُيُوتِهِنَّ وَلَا يَخْرُجْنَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَأْتِيَنَّ بِفَحِشَةٍ مُبِينَةٍ وَتِلْكَ حُدُودُ اللَّهِ وَمَنْ يَتَعَدَّ حُدُودَ اللَّهِ فَقَدْ ظَلَمَ نَفْسَهُ لَا تَدْرِي لَعَلَّ اللَّهَ يُخْدِثُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ أَمْرًا ﴿١﴾ فَإِذَا بَلَغْنَ أَجَلَهُنَّ فَأَمْسِكُوهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوفٍ أَوْ فَارِقُوهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوفٍ وَأَشْهِدُوا ذَوَى عَدْلٍ مِّنكُمْ وَأَقِيمُوا الشَّهَادَةَ لِلَّهِ ذَلِكَ يُوَعِّظُ بِهِ مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مَخْرَجًا ﴿٢﴾ وَيَرْزُقْهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ وَمَنْ يَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ فَهُوَ حَسْبُهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بَلِّغُ أَمْرِهِ قَدْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدْرًا ﴿٣﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! When you wish to divorce your wives, then divorce them before their waiting period and count the waiting period. Fear Allāh, your Lord. Do not turn them out of their homes and neither should they leave by themselves unless they perpetrate flagrant indecency. These are the limits set by Allāh. Whoever transgresses Allāh's limits has certainly oppressed his soul. You do not know whether Allāh may later bring something new to pass. (2) So when they have reached close to completing their waiting periods, then either keep them in good faith or separate from them in good faith. Make two reliable persons witness and establish the testimony for Allāh. It is with this that the one who believes in Allāh and the Last Day is advised. Allāh shall create an escape for the one who fears Him (i.e. the one who has Taqwa)... (3) ... and shall provide for him from sources that he never expected. Allāh is Sufficient for the one who trusts in Him. Allāh shall certainly bring His affairs to completion and Allāh has set a measure for everything.

THE LAWS OF “TALĀQ” AND “IDDAH”

The opening verses of Surah Talāq discusses some laws of “Talāq” (divorce) and “Iddah” (the waiting period after divorce). Because the Surah deals with laws pertaining to women, it is also referred to as Surah Nisā Qusra i.e. the short Surah Nisā (Nisā means women). Bukhari narrates that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه referred to the Surah by this name.

When a man and a woman join in “Nikāh” (marriage), they really intend to establish a relationship for a lifetime. However, it does happen that they are incompatible or that they have to be separated for some other reasons. Therefore, the Shari’ah has instituted the laws of Talāq (divorce). When a husband divorces his wife, she has to observe the Iddah (waiting period). She is not allowed to marry another man until her Iddah (waiting period) has expired. There is a difference in the length of Iddah (waiting period) for women who menstruate, pregnant women and women who have passed menopause.

When a woman is divorced and she still menstruates, the duration of her Iddah will be three periods of menstruation according to Imām Abu Hanīfa رحمه الله and Imām Ahmad bin Hanbal رحمه الله. According to Imām Shafi’i رحمه الله, the duration of her Iddah (waiting period) will be three periods of “Tuhr” (a period of Tuhr is the period between two menstrual cycles i.e. when a woman does not bleed). This difference of opinion stems from the interpretation of the Arabic word “Qurū” in verse 228 of Surah Baqara. This word has a dual meaning and may be translated as menses or as Tuhr. While some jurists have taken the first meaning, others have taken the second. Each group has its proofs to substantiate its stand. The details of this can be found in the detailed books of jurisprudence.

Allāh addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, “O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! When you wish to divorce your wives, then divorce them before their waiting period.” Although the initial address is to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the verse is subsequently phrased using plural pronouns (note that this change in address is not reflected in the English translation). This indicates that the instruction is directed to the entire Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The phrase “divorce them before their waiting period” means that the divorce should take place at a time when the woman can commence her Iddah (waiting period) without undue delay. The Iddah (waiting period) will commence from the menstrual cycle that follows the divorce. This menstrual cycle and the two after it will complete the Iddah (waiting period). It is therefore most appropriate that the divorce is given during a period of Tuhr so that the Iddah can commence as soon as the menstrual cycle begins. According to the instruction of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the Ahadith, a Talāq (divorce) should be pronounced during a period of Tuhr in which no intercourse has taken place.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه divorced his wife while she was menstruating. When his father Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه mentioned this to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم became very angry and instructed Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه to retract the divorce, to keep his wife for a period of Tuhr, to wait for another menstrual cycle to pass and to issue another divorce only during the second period of Tuhr if he still wanted to.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also told him that the divorce should take place during a Tuhr in which no intercourse has taken place. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then said to him, "This is the Iddah (waiting period) that Allāh has commanded." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 729]

This Hadith makes it clear that it is not permissible to divorce a woman who is experiencing her menstrual cycle. It is also clear that when divorce is given during Tuhr, the woman will be able to complete three complete periods of menstruation as soon as the Tuhr expires. According to the Shafī'i school of jurisprudence, the divorce should be pronounced at the beginning of the Tuhr so that three periods of Tuhr can commence immediately.

"..... and count the waiting period." This part of the verse instructs people to carefully count the passing days of the Iddah (waiting period) because many laws hinge on the expiry of the Iddah. When a woman receives a 'Raj'ī' divorce from her husband, he is entitled to take her back into his marriage before the expiry of the Iddah and he is obliged to pay her maintenance during this period. If the husband does not take her back during the Iddah, she will be free to marry someone else after the expiry of her Iddah. If the period of Iddah is not carefully calculated, certain laws may be violated. Examples of such violations are:

She may marry someone else before the expiry of her Iddah (waiting period).

She may be demanding maintenance after the expiry of tile Iddah.

The husband may decide to take her back, after the expiry of the Iddah, thinking that the Iddah has not yet expired.

Further details concerning Talāq and Iddah (waiting period) have been mentioned in the commentaries of verses 228 to 230 of Surah Baqarah and verse 49 of Surah Ahzāb (Surah 33).

Allāh adds "Fear Allāh your Lord." This part of the verse cautions the couple against violating Allāh's commands in the matter of the Iddah. No woman should falsely claim that her Iddah has expired. She should also not falsify the expiry date with the intention of receiving extra maintenance. By the same token, no man should falsely claim that he had taken his wife back during the Iddah.

DIVORCEES MAY NOT BE TURNED OUT OF THEIR HOMES

Allāh says, "Do not turn them (divorcees) out of their homes..." A divorced woman should be allowed to spend her Iddah (waiting period) in her husband's home. She is entitled to spend her Iddah there and the onus is on the husband to provide for her. No one has the right to turn divorcees out of their houses during their period of Iddah. Allāh Ta'āla also makes it clear that "neither should they (women) leave by themselves..." Allāh Ta'āla then cites the exception when divorcees may be turned out of their husband's houses. This is when "they perpetrate flagrant indecency." According to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه, 'flagrant indecency' refers to fornication (after divorce), in which case the woman will be taken from the home to be lashed. She will then be returned to the same home. According to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, a woman will be guilty of 'flagrant indecency' when she uses offensive language when addressing the husband and his family. In this case she will not be permitted to live with them in the same house.

"These are the limits set by Allāh. Whoever transgresses Allāh's limits has certainly oppressed his soul." The person who transgresses the limits that Allāh has set is subjecting himself to punishment in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) and is therefore oppressing himself. One will be guilty of oppressing oneself if one violates any of the laws of Talāq (divorce) or Iddah (waiting period).

"You do not know whether Allāh may later bring something new to pass" i.e. after the divorce. It may occur that a man regrets the divorce after a while and may decide to take his wife back. It is therefore necessary that a person observes the injunctions of the Shari'ah when he intends to divorce his wife.

The author of 'Ma'ālimut Tanzīl' writes that this part of the verse makes it clear that three divorces should not be pronounced all at once because this denies a man the right to take his wife back. If three divorces have to be pronounced, each should be issued in a separate Tuhr. A person retains the right to take back his wife within the Iddah (waiting period) if he issues two clear divorces because the divorce will be regarded as 'Raj'ī (reversible)'. However, if he issues a "Bā'in (irreversible)" divorce, he will also be deprived of the right to retain her. In this case, he will first require her consent. However, when three divorces are issued all at once, even this option will be forfeited. One should therefore be extremely cautious in the matter.

WHEN THE IDDAH (WAITING PERIOD) IS NEAR COMPLETION, THE DIVORCEE MAY EITHER BE TAKEN BACK IN GOOD FAITH OR SEPARATED IN GOOD FAITH

Allāh says, "So when they (divorcees) have reached close to completing their waiting periods, then either keep them in good faith or separate from them in good faith." Whatever option the husband chooses, his intention should not be to harm the woman in any way. He will be sinful if he takes her back before the expiry of the Iddah (waiting period) with the intention of issuing another divorce so that she is forced to spend another period of Iddah. This has been discussed in Surah Baqarah where Allāh says, "When you divorce women, and they reach their term (Iddah), then retain them in kindness or release them in kindness. Do not retain them to hurt them and transgress the limits set by Allāh, for whoever does so, has verily oppressed his own soul." [Surah 2, verse 231]

Allāh states further, "Make two reliable persons witness." It is Mustahab (preferable though not compulsory) to have two reliable men witness the husband's choice of either keeping his wife or separating from her. The witnesses should be pious and truthful men. Their testimony will be required should a dispute arise about the issue.

"and establish the testimony for Allāh." This part of the verse enjoins that the testimony should be given properly and to please Allāh so that the wronged person may receive his dues. The verse also means that the witnesses should not request payment for rendering their testimony because it is not permissible to do so. Of course, they may be reimbursed for the costs they incur in travelling to the court. The details concerning testimony have been discussed in the commentary of verses 282 and 283 of Surah Baqarah (Surah 2).

"It is with this that the one who believes in Allāh and the Last Day is advised." All the injunctions mentioned in the foregoing verses are replete with guidance and can bring only good to the person who practises them. The one who is convinced about the coming of the Day of Judgement knows that he has to adhere to these teachings because he will have to stand before Allāh Ta'āla and account for his deeds.

THE VIRTUES OF "TAQWA (PIETY)" AND "TAWAKKUL (TRUST IN ALLĀH)"

Allāh continues, "Allāh shall create an escape for the one who fears Him (i.e. the one who has Taqwa) and shall provide for him from sources that he never expected." "Ta qwa" basically entails carrying out Allāh's commands and abstaining from everything that He has forbidden. Adopting Taqwa (piety) in the laws of Talāq (divorce) and Iddah as well as in all other aspects of life will certainly bring good to a person. Taqwa guarantees success for a believer in both worlds. Allāh has promised two things for a person of Taqwa.

The first promise is that Allāh shall create an escape for him from every difficulty. Man is plagued by various adversities and difficulties in this world. Those who attempt to ward off their problems by employing sinful means only find themselves sinking even deeper into the problem. Allāh advises man that the solution to all his problems lies in adopting Taqwa (piety).

A person once approached Sayyidina Ibn Abbās رضى الله عنه and said, "I have pronounced three divorces. (Is there any way in which I can have my wife back?)" Sayyidina Ibn Abbās رضى الله عنه replied, "You people do foolish things and then say, 'O Ibn Abbās! O Ibn Abbās!' Allāh Ta'āla says, 'Allāh shall create an escape for the one who fears Him (i.e. the one who has Taqwa)'. You have not displayed any Taqwa (piety). I cannot find any escape for you from this problem. Your wife has been separated from you because you disobeyed Allāh." [Abu Dawūd p. 299]

The second promise that Allāh makes to the person who adopts Taqwa (piety) is that Allāh "shall provide for him from sources that he never expected." Both these promises shall be realised in this world as well as in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I know of a verse that is sufficient for people if they practise it. The verse is 'Allāh shall create an escape for the one who fears Him (i.e. the one who has Taqwa) and shall provide for him from sources that he never expected.'" ["Mishkāt" p. 453]

"Allāh is Sufficient for the one who trusts in Him." Whereas Allāh makes the foregoing promises of availing His unseen help to those who adopt Taqwa (piety), He also makes a promise to those who adopt Tawakkul (i.e. those who trust in Him). Allāh tells them that He shall suffice for them against all odds. Taqwa and Tawakkul are the wheels on a believer's vehicle and are indispensable to him.

Sayyidina Amr bin Al Ās رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Man's heart remains somewhat occupied in one valley or another. Allāh has no concern for the person who places all of his heart in these occupations and he will destroy himself in one of these valleys. However, Allāh will see to all of these occupations for the person who has Tawakkul (trust) in Him. ["Mishkāt" p. 453]

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If you trust in Allāh as He deserves to be trusted, He will provide for you just as He provides for the birds. They leave in the mornings with empty bellies and return in the evening with their bellies full." ["Mishkāt" p. 452 from Tirmidhi]

There are various levels of Tawakkul [trust (in Allāh)]. Forsaking means is one of these levels and it is this approach that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم adopted. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said, 'I have not received revelation instructing me to amass wealth and to be a trader. Instead, revelation has instructed me to 'glorify the praises of your Lord and be of the ones who prostrate. And worship your Lord until the certainty (death) comes to you. ... ["Mishkāt" p. 444]

A person who adopts the necessary means to acquire things but who does not exclusively pin his reliance on these means is also regarded as one who adopts Tawakkul [trust (in Allāh)]. Although such a person uses the means at his disposal, he still trusts in Allāh. When one realises that Allāh is the Provider regardless of the means, one will be able to abstain from sinful means of earning one's living.

ALLĀH HAS SET A MEASURE FOR EVERYTHING

"Allāh shall certainly bring His affairs to completion." Whatever Allāh decides to do shall certainly come to pass and He is at liberty to decree whatever injunction He deems appropriate. None can stop Him.

"Allāh has set a measure for everything." It is in accordance with this set measure that Allāh decrees conditions and injunctions.

وَالَّتِي بَاسَنَ مِنَ الْمَجِيزِ مِنْ نِسَائِكُمْ إِنْ أَرَبْتُمْ فَعِدَّتُهُنَّ ثَلَاثَةُ أَشْهُرٍ وَالَّتِي لَمْ
يَحْضُنَّ وَأُولَتْ الْأَحْمَالِ أَجَلُهُنَّ أَنْ يَضَعْنَ حَمْلَهُنَّ وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ
إِسْرًا ﴿٤﴾ ذَلِكَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ أَنْزَلَهُ إِلَيْكُمْ وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يُكَفِّرْ عَنْهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِ وَيُعْظِمْ لَهُ
أَجْرًا ﴿٥﴾ أَسْكِنُوهُمْ مِنْ حَيْثُ سَكَنْتُمْ مِنْ وَجْدِكُمْ وَلَا تُضَارُّوهُمْ لِضَيِّقُوا عَلَيْهِمْ وَإِنْ كُنَّ
أُولَاتٍ حَمْلٍ فَأَنْفِقُوا عَلَيْهِنَّ حَتَّى يَضَعْنَ حَمْلَهُنَّ فَإِنْ أَرْضَعْنَ لَكُمْ فَآتُوهُنَّ أُجُورَهُنَّ
وَأَمْرُوا بَيْنَكُمْ بِمَعْرُوفٍ وَإِنْ تَعَاَسَرْتُمْ فَسْتَزِعْ لَهُ أُخْرَى ﴿٦﴾ لِيُنْفِقَ ذُو سَعَةٍ مِّن
سَعَتِهِ وَمَنْ قُدِرَ عَلَيْهِ رِزْقُهُ فَلْيُفْسِقْ مِمَّا آتَاهُ اللَّهُ لَا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا مَا آتَاهَا

(4) If you are in doubt concerning those women who have lost hope of menstruating, then their waiting period and the waiting period of those women who do not menstruate shall be three months. The period of pregnant women shall be when they deliver. Allāh shall create ease in the affair of the one who fears Him (i.e. the one who has Taqwa). (5) This is Allāh's command that He has revealed to you. For the one who fears Allāh, Allāh shall expiate his sins and grant him an immense reward. (6) According to your means, house them (the divorcees) where you house yourselves and do not harm them with intent to pressurise them. If they are expecting, then provide for them until they deliver. If they suckle for you, then pay them their dues and consult with each other in a befitting manner. If each one makes matters difficult for the other, then another woman may suckle the child. (7) The wealthy person should spend according to his ability. As for the one whose means are restricted, he should spend from what Allāh has given him. Allāh does not burden a soul with more than He has given it. Allāh shall soon create ease after difficulty.

ADDITIONAL LAWS CONCERNING THE IDDAH (WAITING PERIOD)

Allāh stipulates an Iddah (waiting period) of three months for the woman who has passed menopause and for the woman who has not yet begun menstruating. The Iddah of a pregnant woman will terminate as soon as she delivers the child or when she aborts a child whose limbs have already formed. According to Imām Abu Hanifa رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ, this shall be the Iddah of a pregnant woman if she is divorced and even if her husband passes away. Whereas the Iddah of another widow is four months and ten days, the Iddah of a pregnant woman will expire as soon as she delivers – even though the child is born a few minutes after her husband's death. In a like manner, the Iddah of a pregnant divorcee will also expire as soon as she delivers and not after three menstrual cycles.

NOTE: If a woman is divorced before husband and wife could share any time in privacy, she will not have to observe the Iddah (waiting period).

NOTE: If a woman stopped menstruating without her having reached menopause, her Iddah (waiting period) will not expire after three months. She will have to wait until three menses pass or until she undergoes menopause.

Allāh states further, "Allāh shall create ease in the affair of the one who fears Him (i.e. the one who has Taqwa). "Allāh shall make matters easy for this person in this world as well as in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). "This is Allāh's command that He has revealed to you. For the one who fears Allāh, Allāh shall expiate his sins and grant him an immense reward."

The virtues of adopting Taqwa (piety) have been mentioned thrice in this Surah. These are:

1. "Allāh shall create an escape for the one who fears Him [i.e. the one who has Taqwa (piety)] and shall provide for him from sources that he never expected"
2. "Allāh shall create ease in the affair of the one who fears Him [i.e. the one who has Taqwa (piety)]."
3. "For the one who fears Allāh (i.e. the one who adopts 'Taqwa), Allāh shall expiate his sins and grant him an immense reward."

These verses clearly express the great virtue of adopting Taqwa (piety) because it guarantees Allāh's promises which never fail to pass. When a person adopts Taqwa he will see the manifestation of Allāh's promises. Because Muslims have generally forsaken Taqwa and Tawakkul [trust (in Allāh)] and have immersed themselves in sin and running after the things of this world, they find themselves deprived of Allāh's unseen assistance.

LAWS CONCERNING THE MAINTENANCE OF DIVORCEES

There are five categories of women who are required to observe a period of Iddah (waiting period). These are:

1. Divorcees who are given Raj'ī (reversible) divorces and who are not expecting.
2. Divorcees who are given Bā'in (irreversible) or Mughallaza divorces and who are not expecting
3. Divorcees who are expecting.
4. Divorcees who have exercised the option of Khula (divorce obtain by a wife for a ransom of her dowry).
5. Widows.

Each of the above women have a right to the following:

1. Food and drink.
2. Housing.
3. Clothing.

The husband who issues the divorce is obliged to provide maintenance for his divorced wife during her Iddah (waiting period). This will apply in all situations of divorce, Raj'ī, Bā'in and. Mughallaza irrespective of whether the wife is expecting or not. In addition to this, he will have to provide living quarters for her during this period. If he houses her in his own home, he will not be able to have any contact with her (not even see her) if the Talāq is Bā'in or Mughallaza. Khula is regarded as a Bā'in divorce and a woman divorced as a result of Khula will also have to observe Iddah.

When a woman becomes widowed, her maintenance will not be paid from the husband's estate. She will have to use the wealth she inherits or her dowry to sustain herself if she has no other wealth or if no one is willing to support her. If she does not even have this much and is forced to work outside her home, she may leave her house to work during the day donned in the Veil that the Shari'ah ordains. However, she should spend every night at home during the Iddah (waiting period). If she gets delayed returning from work, she is allowed to return a little later in evening.

A widow should spend her Iddah (waiting period) in the house where she lived with her husband. She may spend her Iddah elsewhere only if:

- 📖 The house does not have enough means in it for her to live after dissolving the estate.
- 📖 The heirs force her out of the house.
- 📖 The house was rented and she cannot afford to pay the rent.
- 📖 Her life or property is threatened if she lives there.

THE COMMAND TO HOUSE THE DIVORCEE

Allāh continues, "According to your means, house them (the divorcees) where you house yourselves and do not harm them with intent to pressurise them (into leaving the house)." The husband should provide accommodation for his divorced wife and he should not resort to any means by which she is forced to leave the house. Allāh states further, "If they are expecting, then provide for them until they deliver." The Iddah (waiting period) of an expectant woman expires as soon as she delivers. It is necessary for the husband to provide for her until she delivers the child even though it may be nine months later.

LAWS CONCERNING SUCKLING

Addressing the men who have divorced their wives, Allāh says, "If they (the divorcees) suckle for you, then pay them their dues..." When a child is born, the father and mother together share the responsibility of raising the child. While the father earns for the family, the mother tends to the feeding of the children and to other domestic chores. However, once the couple have divorced, this arrangement may change. The mother will naturally still want to suckle the child and if she does so without asking remuneration, it would be best. If she does ask for remuneration for suckling, the husband will be obliged to pay because it is his responsibility to provide for the child. This matter is discussed in the above verse.

In addition to this, Allāh instructs, "and consult with each other in a befitting manner." The wife should not demand an exorbitant sum as payment for suckling the child and once a sum has been agreed on, she should not refuse to suckle. The husband should not be uncompromising, thinking that the wife is obliged to suckle the child irrespective of how much he pays. Similarly, the wife should also not be uncompromising simply because the father is obliged to provide. Each should consider the welfare of the child and act in the child's best interests, putting their own prejudices aside.

The husband is not obliged to agree to the price that his wife demands if it is exorbitant. He is at liberty to hire another woman to suckle the child in such an event. Of course, none can replace a child's mother. It is therefore best if the couple come to some agreement by which the child's mother is able to suckle. Some details concerning suckling has been discussed in the commentary of verse 233 of Surah Baqarah.

NOTE: When the divorced mother takes the child for suckling during the Iddah (waiting period), she will be receiving maintenance from her husband. She is therefore not entitled to ask remuneration for suckling during the Iddah. Once her Iddah expires and the child is still being suckled, she may then ask for remuneration for suckling if she chooses to do so. The husband will then be obliged to pay her for this in addition to the maintenance that he is required to pay for the rearing of the child.

"If each one makes matters difficult for the other, then another woman may suckle the child." If the mother demands too much and the father is not willing to pay, the father will have to find another woman to suckle the child. Although the verse is a command for the father to find another woman to suckle, the wording of the verse infers that Allāh will see to the sustenance of the child even if the mother cannot. How many motherless children has Allāh Ta'āla not provided for?

"The wealthy person should spend according to his ability. As for the one whose means are restricted, he should spend from what Allāh has given him. Allāh does not burden a soul with more than He has given it." Each father should spend on his family according to his means. When Allāh grants a person children, He will also provide the means to care for the child.

ALLĀH CREATES EASE AFTER EVERY DIFFICULTY

Allāh says, "Allāh shall soon create ease after difficulty." When a person spends in good causes, he should never fear that his wealth will diminish. The books of jurisprudence usually mention only food, drink and accommodation as being binding on the husband during the Iddah (waiting period). The author of "Bahrur Rā'iq" has quoted from several other books that if the Iddah is prolonged for some reason (e.g. her menses are delayed) and if she needs clothing, the Qādhī (Muslim judge) can rule that he has to provide clothing as well. However, this is usually not mentioned because women generally do have sufficient clothing to wear during the period of the Iddah.

وَكَايْنِ مِّنْ قَرَبَةٍ عَنَّتْ عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهَا وَرُسُلِهِ فَحَاسِبْنَهَا حَسَابًا شَدِيدًا وَعَذَبْنَهَا عَذَابًا ثَقِيلًا ﴿٨﴾
 فَذَاقَتْ وَبَالَ أَمْرِهَا وَكَانَ عِقَبُهُ أَمْرَهَا خُسرًا ﴿٩﴾ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ
 يَتَأُولَى الْأَلْبَابِ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا قَدْ أَنزَلَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكُمْ ذِكْرًا ﴿١٠﴾ رَسُولًا يَتْلُوا عَلَيْهِمْ ءَايَاتِ اللَّهِ
 مُمِينَاتٍ لِّيُخْرِجَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ وَمَنْ يُؤْمِن بِاللَّهِ

وَيَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا يُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا قَدْ أَحْسَنَ اللَّهُ لَكَ رِزْقًا ﴿١١﴾

(8) Many were the towns that rebelled against the commands of their Lord and of His messengers, so We severely took them to task and meted out an admonishing punishment to them. (9) They tasted the consequences of their deeds and the end result their deeds was a total loss. (10). Allāh prepared a severe punishment for them. So fear Allāh O intelligent ones., who have believed. Allāh has certainly revealed a Reminder to you. (11) (And Allāh has also sent to you) a messenger who recites Allāh's clear verses to you to remove the believers who do good deeds from darkness and to bring them into light. Whoever believes in Allāh and does good deeds, Allāh' shall enter him into gardens beneath which rivers flow. There they shall abide forever. Allāh has appointed a most excellent provision for him.

THE COMMAND TO LEARN A LESSON FROM NATIONS WHO WERE DESTROYED IN THE PAST

In the above verses Allāh tells people about the nations of the past who were destroyed because they rebelled against Allāh and His Prophets عليهم السلام. People are thereby encouraged to believe and to carry out good deeds so that they do not suffer the same fate. The people of the previous nations were destroyed by Allāh's punishment and will have to face severe reckoning in the Hereafter. In addition to this, they will also have to face the punishment of Hell. In this world already, they had a taste of Allāh's punishment and the real punishment will face them in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). The end-result of their deeds was therefore a total loss because it brought them no good whatsoever. "Allāh prepared a severe punishment for them."

THE QUR'ĀN IS A GREAT REMINDER

Allāh says, "So fear Allāh O intelligent ones who have believed. Allāh has certainly sent a Reminder to you" i.e. the Qur'ān. In addition to this Qur'ān, Allāh has also sent "a messenger who recites Allāh's clear verses to you." The verses of the Qur'ān are extremely clear, and make the truth stand out from falsehood. Allāh has sent the Qur'ān and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم "to remove the believers who do good deeds from darkness and to bring them into light." Those who do not believe in the Qur'ān and who do not follow the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم shall remain in the perpetual darkness of disbelief and polytheism (shirk). Eventually they will have to suffer the darkness of Hell.

Allāh then describes the bounties that the pious believers shall receive when He says, "Whoever believes in Allāh and does good deeds, Allāh shall enter him into gardens beneath which rivers flow. There they shall abide forever. Allāh has appointed a most excellent provision for him." The provisions of Heaven shall last forever.

اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ سَبْعَ سَمَاوَاتٍ وَمِنَ الْأَرْضِ مِثْلَهُنَّ يَنْزِلُ الْأَمْرُ بَيْنَهُنَّ لِنَعْلَمَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ أَحَاطَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمًا ﴿١٢﴾

(12) It is Allāh Who created the seven heavens and the earth in a like manner. He sends commands between them so that you may know that Allāh has power over all things and that Allāh's knowledge encompasses everything.

ALLĀH CREATED THE SEVEN HEAVENS AND THE SEVEN EARTHS

Allāh concludes the Surah by stating, "It is Allāh Who created the seven heavens and the earth in a like manner" i.e. seven in number. "He sends commands between them." Allāh sends His commands to the seven heavens and the seven earths because His creation live in all of these realms. Allāh's commands that affect the physical universe affect the lives of all His creation e.g. the command for rain to fall, for a disaster to strike, etc. Allāh also issues commands that form the injunctions of the Shari'ah. Man and Jinn are obliged to carry out those commands.

Majority of the Scholars are of the opinion that the seven earths form seven layers one above the other just as the seven heavens do. The fact that man is unable to witness this does not affect the reality of the matter. The believer believes what Allāh tells him whether he can see it or not. Authentic Ahadith confirm the existence of seven earths. Such Ahadith are narrated by Sayyidina Sa'id bin Zaid رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها in Bukhari (v. 1 p. 543) and Muslim (v. 2 p. 32, 33).

The hadith of Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه states that the person who even once usurped the land of another, Allāh shall plunge him through the seven earths until the Day of Judgment.

Sayyidina Suhayb رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always recited the following supplication whenever he entered a locality:

{TRANSLATION: O Allāh! Lord of the seven heavens and whatever is beneath them! Lord of the seven earth's and whatever is upon them! Lord of the Satan and whoever they lead astray! Lord of the winds and whatever they blow! We ask You for the good of this town and the good of the people of this town. We seek Your protection from the evil of this town, from the evil of the people of this town and from the evil within it."}

Allāh informs man about everything in the heavens and the earth so that he "may know that Allāh has power over all things and that Allāh's knowledge encompasses everything." Nothing is beyond His knowledge and beyond His control.

سورة التحريم

Madinan

Surah At-Tahim

Verses 12

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ لِمَ تُحَرِّمُ مَا أَحَلَّ اللَّهُ لَكَ تَبْلَغْ لِي مَرْضَاتَ أَزْوَاجِكَ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ قَدْ
فَضَّ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ تَحِلَّةَ أَيْمَانِكُمْ وَاللَّهُ مَوْلَاكُمْ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْحَكِيمُ

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Seeking the pleasure of your wives, why do you declare unlawful that which Allāh has made lawful for you? Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful. (2) Allāh has ordained that you release yourselves from your oaths. Allāh is your Protecting Friend and He is the All Knowing, the Wise.

PROHIBITION AGAINST DECLARING THINGS HĀLĀL (LAWFUL) AND HARĀM (UNLAWFUL)

It was the practice of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to visit each of his wives after the Asr Salāh and spend a short while with all of them. Once, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had some honey at the home of Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jahsh رضي الله عنها, Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها consulted with each other. They decided that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم visited the first of the two, she would ask him whether he had eaten Maghāfir (this was a type of gum that did not have a pleasant smell). When one of them did mention this to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he said, 'I have not had any Maghāfir. I only had some honey with Zaynab bint Jahsh. I swear by Allāh that I shall never have any more honey again.' It was then that Allāh revealed the verse: "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Seeking the pleasure of your wives, why do you declare unlawful that which Allāh has made lawful for you? Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 729]

Because Allāh Ta'āla had made the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a role model for the Ummah, Allāh made various incidents occur in his life to teach lessons to people. One may not say that Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها and Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها deliberately wanted to hurt the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because their action was a typical form of teasing that happens in good faith between husband and wife. Another narration of Bukhari (v. 2 p. 793) mentions that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told his wife not to relate the incident to anyone else.

Allāh chides the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Seeking the pleasure of your wives, why do you declare that thing unlawful which Allāh has made lawful for you?" Allāh Ta'āla mentioned this because it does not behove the Holy Prophet of Allāh to carry out such an action merely to please his wives. Although taking an oath is not a forbidden act, Allāh chided the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because the act was not in keeping with his lofty status. Whereas the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not regard honey as a Harām (forbidden) food, Allāh referred to the act as such to emphasis the fact that the act did not suit the behaviour of a Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, Allāh did forgive him, as indicated by the phrase "Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful."

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE ONCE AN OATH IS TAKEN?

Allāh states, "Allāh has ordained that you release yourselves from your oaths." In this verse, Allāh has added the word "yourselves" to indicate that the injunction applies to the entire Ummah. When a person takes an oath to do or not to do something, he has undertaken a pledge with Allāh and this pledge has to be fulfilled. There are two methods by which one may be absolved of one's oath. The first method is by carrying out the action that one vowed to carry out on condition that the act is not sinful. Alternatively, one may pay Kaffāra (expiation) once the oath is breached. In both cases, the oath will no longer be binding on one.

It should be borne in mind that one may take two types of oaths:

A. An oath that one will do something or that one will not do something. Such oaths are further classified into those attached by a condition and those that are unconditional.

B. The second type of oath occurs when one declares something that is Hālāl (permitted) as being Unlawful for oneself. According to Imām Abu Hanīfa رحمه الله عليه, this type of oath necessitates Kaffāra just as Kaffāra is necessary when one breaches one's oath.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه narrates without a chain of narrators that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم paid the Kaffāra (expiation) for his oath. He also narrates from Sayyidina Zaid bin Aslam رحمه الله عليه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم freed a slave as Kaffāra.

وَإِذْ أَسَرَّ النَّبِيُّ إِلَى بَعْضِ أَزْوَاجِهِ حَدِيثًا فَلَمَّا نَبَأَتْ بِهِ وَأَظْهَرَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ عَرَفَ بَعْضُهُمْ وَأَعْرَضَ عَنْ بَعْضٍ فَلَمَّا نَبَأَهَا بِهِ قَالَتْ مَنْ أَنْبَاكَ هَذَا قَالَ نَبَأَنِي الْعَلِيمُ الْخَبِيرُ ﴿٣﴾

(3) When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whispered something to one of his wives, she informed about it. When Allāh disclosed this to him, he made a part of it known and ignored a part of it. When he informed her about it, she exclaimed, "Who told you about it?" He replied, "The All Knowing, The Informed One told me."

AN INCIDENT BETWEEN THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ AND SOME OF HIS WIVES

Many commentators, including the author of "Bayānūl Qur'ān" have mentioned that the above verse also concerns the incident of the honey. They state that when the Holy Prophet ﷺ took the oath not to have honey, he told the wife that was with him at that time not to inform anyone else about the incident. When she related the story to another wife, Allāh Ta'āla informed the Holy Prophet ﷺ about her act. Because of his kindness, the Holy Prophet ﷺ did not relate to her exactly what she told the other wife so that she would not be embarrassed. He merely informed her that he knew she had divulged the secret and he also mentioned the name of the other wife. When he told her this, she asked in surprise, "Who told you about it?" The Holy Prophet ﷺ replied "The All Knowing and Informed One told me."

However, many commentators narrate another incident. They state that the Holy Prophet ﷺ was once in his quarters with his wife Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها when she requested permission to leave. In her absence, the Holy Prophet ﷺ shared the bed with his slave girl Sayyidah Māriya Qibtiyya رضى الله عنها who was the mother of his son Sayyidina Ibrāhīm رضى الله عنه. Returning prematurely, Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها noticed that the door was closed and realised what had happened.

When the Holy Prophet ﷺ again met Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها, she complained that he had not been fair to her by using her turn with him for sharing a bed with Sayyidah Māriya رضى الله عنها. The Holy Prophet ﷺ explained to her that he had acted within the law of Shari'ah because Sayyidah Māriya رضى الله عنها was his lawful slave girl. However, to please Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها, The Holy Prophet ﷺ declared Sayyidah Māriya رضى الله عنها unlawful for himself and told Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها not to mention the incident to anyone else. However, when the Holy Prophet ﷺ had left, Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها gave Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها the good news that the Holy Prophet ﷺ has severed further contact with Sayyidah Māriya رضى الله عنها. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil"]

The author of 'Ma'ālimut Tanzil' states that the phrase "When the Holy Prophet ﷺ whispered something to one of his wives," refers to the time when the Holy Prophet ﷺ told Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها that he has declared Sayyidah Māriya رضى الله عنها unlawful for himself and that she should not inform anyone else about what had transpired. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" narrates that the Holy Prophet ﷺ also informed Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها that Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه would be his successors as leaders of the Muslims. When the Holy Prophet ﷺ later told Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها that she had informed Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها, she asked, "Who told you about it?" the Holy Prophet ﷺ replied, "The All Knowing and Informed One told me."

When the Holy Prophet ﷺ told Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها that he was aware of what she has done, he mentioned only the incident of Sayyidah Māriya رضى الله عنها and did not tell her that he also knew that she had informed Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها about the pending Caliph of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه.

رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه. He did not mention this because he did not want this information to spread. Allāh refers to this when He says, "he made a part of it known and ignored a part of it."

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله states that although the incident concerning Sayyidina Māriya Qibtiyya رضي الله عنه is not narrated in any authentic hadith, the narration is nevertheless sound and fits the context of the verse better.

In the verse to follow, Allāh Ta'āla directs both Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها to repent. If it is assumed that the verse refers to the narration concerning the honey, they are required to repent because although they did not intend to hurt the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they nevertheless did. Therefore, they were both equally guilty. However, if it is assumed that the verse refers to the incident of Sayyidah Māriya Qibtiyya رضي الله عنها, the instruction to repent would apply to Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها only if she allowed Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها to narrate the incident knowing that it was supposed to be a secret. This could well occur if, for example, Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها had approached Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها saying, "I have to tell you a secret. Although I am not supposed to tell anyone, I will tell you because we are so close." In such a situation, it was appropriate for Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها to refuse to listen. It is for this reason that Allāh addresses both of them in the following verse.

إِنْ نُّؤَبَّأَ إِلَى اللَّهِ فَقَدْ صَغَتْ قُلُوبُكُمَا وَإِنْ تَظَاهَرَا عَلَيْهِ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ مَوْلَاهُ وَجِبْرِيلُ
وَصَالِحُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ ظَهِيرٌ ﴿٤﴾ عَسَىٰ رَبُّهُ إِنْ طَلَّقَكُنَّ أَنْ
يُبدِلَهُنَّ أَزْوَاجًا خَيْرًا مِنْكُنَّ مُسْلِمَاتٍ مُّؤْمِنَاتٍ قَنَاطَاتٍ تَزِينْنَ لَكُمْ سَرَائِرَ سَلَجَاتٍ تَعْلَمْنَ أَنَّ
الَّذِينَ يَخْلِقْنَ كَمَا يَخْلَقُكُمْ وَتَعْلَمْنَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْمَوْلَىٰ سِرًا

(4) If the two of you repent to Allāh, then your hearts have surely turned. However, if you two assist each other against him [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], then his protecting friends are Allāh, Jibr'il and the pious believers. Besides these, the angels are also aides to him. (5) If he has to divorce all of you, then his Lord shall certainly replace you with wives better than yourselves who will be Muslims, believers, obedient, repentant, worshippers, women who fast, previously married women and virgins.

ALLĀH ADDRESSES THE WIVES OF THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

وسلم

Addressing Sayyidah Hafsa رضي الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها, Allāh states, "If the two of you repent to Allāh, then your hearts have surely turned" i.e. turned back towards the best course after straying for a while. Allāh Ta'āla directed them to repent because their behaviour caused the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to take an oath that he would never again enjoy the things that he loved very much viz. honey and Sayyidah Māriya Qibtiyyah رضي الله عنها. In doing this, they hurt the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Allāh says further, "However, if you two assist each other against him [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], then (you can do him no harm because) his protecting friends are Allāh, Jibr'il and the pious believers. Besides these, the angels are also aides to him." None can harm the person who has so many powerful beings to assist him.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that he had not yet completed asking Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه about the identities of the two women referred to in the verse "if you two assist each other against him", when Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه said that they were Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 731]

Allāh Ta'āla then addresses all the wives of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "If he has to divorce all of you, then his Lord shall certainly replace you with wives better than yourselves who will be Muslims, believers, obedient, repentant, worshippers, women who fast, previously married women and virgins." However, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never divorced all his wives and it was not necessary for Allāh to replace them.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم PRACTISES "ĪLA"

It once occurred that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was upset with his wives and practised "Eela" i.e. he took an oath that he would not engage in sexual contact with them. During that period, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stayed in an upstairs room. The news spread among the companions of prophet (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had divorced his wives. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه first approached Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها, his daughter Sayyidah Hafsa رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها before approaching the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to verify the matter. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was already with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه arrived. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه said to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Why should you be perturbed by women? If you divorce them, then Allāh, Jibril, Mika'il, myself Abu Bakr and all the believers are with you." Confirming the words of Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, Allāh revealed the verse, "However, if you two assist each other against him [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم], then his protecting friends are Allāh, Jibril and the pious believers. Besides these, the angels are also aides to him. If he has to divorce all of you, then his Lord shall certainly replace you with wives better than yourselves who will be Muslims, believers, obedient, repentant, worshippers, women who fast, previously married women and virgins."

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه also informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the Sahabāh رضى الله عنهم were sitting in the Masjid thinking that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had divorced his Wives. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم denied that he had divorced them, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه requested permission to inform the Sahabāh رضى الله عنهم accordingly. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "You may tell them if you please."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then left the room to resume contact with his wives. When Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he had left the room on the 29th day whereas he had taken an oath not to have contact with his wives for a month, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told her that the month had consisted of 29 days. [Muslim Pgs. 478-482]

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا قُوا أَنْفُسَكُمْ وَأَهْلِيكُمْ نَارًا وَقُودُهَا النَّاسُ وَالْحِجَارَةُ عَلَيْهَا مَلَائِكَةٌ
 غِلَاطٌ شِدَادٌ لَا يَعْصُونَ اللَّهَ مَا أَمَرَهُمْ وَيَفْعَلُونَ مَا يُؤْمَرُونَ ﴿٦﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
 لَا تَعْنِدُوا الْيَوْمَ إِنَّمَا تُخْرَوْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٧﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا تَوْبُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ
 تَوْبَةً نَّصُوحًا عَسَىٰ رَبُّكُمْ أَن يُكَفِّرَ عَنْكُمْ سَيِّئَاتِكُمْ وَيُدْخِلَكُم جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي
 مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ يَوْمَ لَا يُخْزِي اللَّهُ النَّبِيَّ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُ نُورُهُمْ يَسْعَىٰ بَيْنَ
 أَيْدِيهِمْ وَبِأَيْمَانِهِمْ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا أَتِمِّمْ لَنَا نُورَنَا وَاعْفِرْ لَنَا إِنَّكَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ
 قَدِيرٌ ﴿٨﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ جَاهِدِ الْكُفَّارَ وَالْمُنَافِقِينَ وَاغْلُظْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَمَأْوَهُمْ
 جَهَنَّمُ وَلَسَ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٩﴾

(6) O you who believe! Save yourselves and your families from the Fire, the fuel of which is people and stones. Harsh and strong angels are appointed over it who never disobey what Allāh commands them and who carry out exactly what they have been instructed. (7) "O you who disbelieve! Do not make excuses today. You are being punished only for what you have perpetrated." (8) O you who believe! Sincerely repent to Allāh. Soon your Lord shall expiate your sins and enter you into gardens beneath which rivers flow. On that day Allāh shall not disgrace the Holy Prophet and the believers with him. Their light shall travel ahead of them and on their right-hand side. They will say, "O our Lord! Perpetuate our light for us and forgive us. Verily You have power over everything." (9) O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Strive against the disbelievers and the hypocrites and be stern with them. Their abode is Hell. What an evil abode indeed!

THE COMMAND TO SAVE ONESELF AND ONE'S FAMILY FROM HELL

Addressing the believers, Allāh Ta'āla says, "O you who believe! Save yourselves and your families from the Fire, the fuel of which is people and stones." Whereas the heat of this world's fires fuelled by wood, oil, gas, etc is unbearable, the fire of Hell which is fuelled by people and stones is much more intense. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the fire of Hell is 69 times more intense than the fire of this world. [""Mishkāt"" p. 242]

Common sense demands that we should make every effort to rescue ourselves and our families from this inferno. This can be achieved by ensuring that we do not disobey Allāh's commands and that our families also do not do so. In addition to this, we should educate them about the injunctions of the Shari'ah and ensure that they practise all of these diligently. While most people realise that they have to provide for the physical needs of their families, few realise that they are also obliged to save their families from the fire of Hell. It is for this reason that Allāh expressly instructs people to tend to this matter. This command also includes ensuring that our families eat only that which is Halāl (lawful) and that we feed them only Halāl foods.

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The flesh nourished by Unlawful shall never enter Heaven and Hell is more deserving of such flesh." Filling the bellies of one's family with Unlawful food is a great injustice because it will plunge them into Hell. One should also make every effort to educate one's family about the injunctions of Religion because practice is impossible without knowledge. Deeds carried out without the relevant knowledge will be defective and may also lead one to destruction in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

"Durrul Manthūr" narrates from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه that the "stones" that will be the fuel for Hell refer to brimstone (sulphur)". One can well imagine the intensity of a raging fire that is further fuelled by a substance as flammable as sulphur. One should be aware of the horror of Hell and also makes one's family aware of the same.

Concerning the angels in charge of Hell, Allāh says, "Harsh and strong angels are appointed over it who never disobey what Allāh commands them and who carry out exactly what they have been instructed." A person in Hell therefore has no hope of ever convincing the warders of Hell to allow them to escape.

Allāh then mentions what the disbelievers will be told on the Day of Judgment. When they will make various excuses for their evil behaviour, it will be said to them, "O you who disbelieve! Do not make excuses today. (You were warned in the world but you falsified Allāh's messengers and the coming of Judgment day. Therefore, do not grieve or complain because) You are being punished only for what you have perpetrated."

Allāh then instructs the believers to repent for their sins and He extols the virtues of Tauba (repentance). Allāh says, "O you who believe! Sincerely repent to Allāh. Soon your Lord shall expiate your sins and enter you into gardens beneath which rivers flow." "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" quotes Sayyidina Mu'ādh bin Jabal رضى الله عنه who says that the "Taubatan Nasūha" (sincere repentance) referred to in the verse is that repentance after which a person does not return to the sin he repented for, just as milk never returns to the udders. According to Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه, "Taubatan Nasūha" means that one should truly regret one's sin and make a resolution never to repeat the sin.

Allāh then conveys glad tidings to the believers when He says that on the Day of Judgment, "Allāh shall not disgrace the Holy Prophet and the believers with him." It shall be only the disbelievers who will suffer humiliation on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "Today humiliation and misfortune are certainly upon the disbelievers!" [Surah 16, verse 27]

Because "the believers with him" refer to those believers with perfect Belief, one may not object by saying that sinful believers will suffer some disgrace on the Day of Judgment when they will have to suffer a while in Hell. An additional bounty that the believers shall enjoy on the Day of Judgment will be that "Their light shall travel ahead of them and on their right-hand side." They will have perfect light when crossing the bridge of Sirāt and will be able to cross it easily without falling into Hell.

On the Day of Judgment, the believers will pray to Allāh saying, "O our Lord! Perpetuate our light for us and forgive us. Verily You have power over everything." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه mentioned that the believers will make this supplication when they will notice that the light of the hypocrites will be extinguished, causing them to plunge into darkness. The hypocrites will then try to benefit from the light of the believers but will fall behind them.

THE COMMAND TO WAGE JIHĀD AGAINST THE DISBELIEVERS AND HYPOCRITES

Allāh instructs, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Strive against the disbelievers and the hypocrites and be stern with them. Their abode is Hell. What an evil abode indeed!" Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله states that this verse instructs the Muslims to wage Jihād against the disbelievers and to make it clear to the hypocrites that they are headed for doom in the Hereafter where they will be plunged into darkness and eventually into Hell. According to Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه, "be stern with them" refers to enforcing capital punishment against the hypocrites because they were guilty of deeds that deserved this.

In my humble opinion, "be stern with them" refers to calling the hypocrites out by name and banning them from the Masjid of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم eventually did.

صَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا امْرَأَتَ نُوحٍ وَامْرَأَتَ لُوطٍ كَانَتَا تَحْتَ عَبْدَيْنِ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا صَالِحِينَ فَخَانَتَاهُمَا فَلَمْ يُغْنِيَا عَنْهُمَا مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا وَقِيلَ ادْخُلَا النَّارَ مَعَ الدَّٰخِلِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَصَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا امْرَأَتَ فِرْعَوْنَ إِذْ قَالَتْ رَبِّ ابْنِ لِي عِنْدَكَ بَيْتًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَنَجِّنِي مِنْ فِرْعَوْنَ وَعَمَلِهِ وَنَجِّنِي مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١١﴾ وَمَرْيَمَ ابْنَتْ عِمْرَانَ الَّتِي أَحْصَنَتْ فَرْجَهَا فَنَفَخْنَا فِيهِ مِنْ رُوحِنَا وَصَدَّقَتْ بِكَلِمَاتِ رَبِّهَا وَكُتِبَ عَلَيْهَا مِنَ الْقَنِينِ ﴿١٢﴾

(10) For the disbelievers Allāh draws the parallel of the wife of Nūh عليه السلام and the wife of Lūt عليه السلام. They were both in the marriage of two pious men of My bondsmen but they betrayed them. So they were of no assistance to their wives against Allāh and the two (women) were told, "Enter the Fire with those entering." (11) For the believers, Allāh draws the parallel of the wife of phara'oh (Fir'oun) when she said, "O my Lord! Build for me a home by You in Heaven and save me from phara'oh (Fir'oun), from his deeds and save me from the oppressive nation." (12) (For the believers, Allāh also draws the parallel of)

Maryam the daughter of Imrān who guarded her chastity and into whom We blew Our spirit. She believed in the words of her Lord, in His scriptures and she was among the obedient.

THE WIVES OF SAYYIDINA NŪH AND LŪT عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام WERE DISBELIEVERS WHILE THE WIFE OF PHARA'OH (FIR'OUN) AND SAYYIDAH MARYAM عَلَيْهَا السَّلَام WERE BELIEVERS

The above verses describe two women who clung to disbelief despite being married to Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام. They also speak about a woman who believed despite being married to one of the worst disbelievers. The two Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام who married disbelieving women were Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and Sayyidina Lūt عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام. While it was permissible in their Shari'ah to marry such women. Our Shari'ah allows men to marry only Muslim women and women who belong to the Ahlul Kitāb (people of Book).

Just as one of the sons of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام did not believe even after witnessing Allāh's punishment before him, the wife of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام also refused to accept his message despite spending her life with him. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ says that she used to say that Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was insane.

As numerous verses of the Qur'ān mention, the nation of Sayyidina Lūt عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام perpetrated the unnatural act of homosexuality. Despite his tireless efforts to reform them, the people refused to listen. His wife also assisted them in their ways by informing them whenever Sayyidina Lūt عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام had guests so that they could carry out their vile act with the guests. Whenever some guest arrived at his house, she would light a fire. Seeing the light and smoke, the people were informed about the arrival of the guests, while the guests and Sayyidina Lūt عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام thought that it was a sign of welcoming the guests. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" mentions that the phrase "they betrayed them" refers to Sayyidina Nūh's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام wife calling him insane and Sayyidina Lūt's عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام wife calling the people to sodomise his guests.

Because these two ladies died as disbelievers, they will be made to enter Hell with the rest of the disbelievers despite their relationship with great Prophets عَلَيْهِمُ السَّلَام. The author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" writes (v. 4 p. 368) that this verse serves as a warning to sinful people and disbelievers who think that they will attain salvation merely by associating with pious people. The good company will not save them in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) if they continue sinning and violating Allāh's commands.

The first of the two believing women that Allāh mentions is the wife of phara'oh (Fir'oun). Whenever people believed in Sayyidina Mūsa عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, phara'oh (Fir'oun) would torture them most severely. It is reported that he used to make them lie on the ground and then hammer tent pegs through their hands. It is for this reason that he is referred to as "The man of pegs" in Surah Sād and in Surah Fajr. "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ that phara'oh (Fir'oun) also had pegs nailed into his wife's hands and feet. When this was done, the angels shaded her and she made the supplication, "O my Lord! Build for me a home by You in Heaven."

Allāh then showed her a vision of her home in Heaven. She continued, ‘save me from phara’oh (Fir’oun), from his deeds and save me from the oppressive nation’ i.e. from those who carry out phara’oh’s (Fir’oun’s) instructions and who harass the believers.

“Ma’ālimut Tanzīl” mentions that she made the supplication when phara’oh (Fir’oun) instructed his men to place a heavy rock on her chest. Allāh then showed her house in Heaven which was made of pearl. While looking at this vision, her soul departed. The rock was placed on her body after her soul had already departed and she therefore felt no pain. Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Ibn Kaysān رحمه الله عليه state that Allāh raised her to Heaven where she is given food and drink. And Allāh knows best.

The women whose virtues the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has extolled are:

1. Sayyidah Khadija رضي الله عنها
2. Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام
3. Sayyidah Fātima رضي الله عنها
4. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها
5. Sayyidah Āsiyah رضي الله عنها, who was Fir’oun’s wife

In a hadith of Bukhari (v. 1 p. 532), the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentions that while many men have reached spiritual perfection, among women there were Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام and Sayyidah Āsiyah رضي الله عنها who achieved this perfection. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم added that the excellence of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها over people is like the excellence of Tharid over other types of food.

Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام was the mother of Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. Much has been mentioned about her in Surah Āl Imrān [Surah 3, verses 33-51], Surah Maryam [Surah 19, verses 16-36] and Surah Anbiya [Surah 21, verse 91]. Because Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام was born without a father, the Jews accused Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام of fornication. Allāh announces her innocence when He says, “Maryam the daughter of Imrān who guarded her chastity and into whom We blew Our spirit.” Allāh sent Sayyidina Jibr’īl عليه السلام to blow into the collar of Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام, causing her to conceive. It was not long after this that she gave birth to Sayyidina Isā عليه السلام. The details of this have been discussed in the commentary of verses 16-36 of Surah Maryam (Surah 19).

Allāh describes her further ‘when He says, “She believed in the words of her Lord, in His scriptures and she was among the obedient.” According to the laws of Arabic grammar, the word “Qānitīn” (translated above as “obedient”) should read “Qānitāt” (obedient women). Among other interpretations, Scholars mention that the verse is phrased as it is to indicate that her obedience to Allāh matched those of many saintly men. This is perhaps why the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that while many men have reached spiritual perfection, among women there were Sayyidah Maryam عليها السلام and Sayyidah Āsiyah رضي الله عنها who achieved this perfection.

Para Twenty-Nine

سورة الملك

Makkan	Surah Al-Mulk	Verses 30
--------	---------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

تَبَرَّكَ الَّذِي بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝ (1) الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْمَوْتَ وَالْحَيَاةَ لِيَبْلُوَكُمْ
 أَيُّكُمْ أَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْغَفُورُ ۝ (2) الَّذِي خَلَقَ سَبْعَ سَمَاوَاتٍ طِبَاقًا مَا تَرَى فِي
 خَلْقِ الرَّحْمَنِ مِن تَفَوتٍ فَأَنظِرِ الْبَصَرَ هَلْ تَرَى مِن فُطُورٍ ۝ (3) ثُمَّ أَنظِرِ الْبَصَرَ كَرَّتَيْنِ
 يَنقَلِبْ إِلَيْكَ الْبَصَرُ خَاسِئًا وَهُوَ حَسِيرٌ ۝ (4) وَلَقَدْ زَيَّنَّا السَّمَاءَ الدُّنْيَا بِمَصْبِيحٍ وَجَعَلْنَاهَا
 رُجُومًا لِلشَّيَاطِينِ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لَهُمْ عَذَابَ السَّعِيرِ ۝ (5)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) Most Exalted is the Being in Whose control is all sovereignty and Who has power over everything. (2) He has created death and life to test which of you carry out the best deeds. He is the Mighty, the Most Forgiving. (3) He has created the seven heavens in layers. You will not see any inconsistency in Allāh's creation. Look again. Do you see any cracks? (4) Look again and once again and your gaze will return embarrassed and exhausted. (5) Indeed we have beautified the nearest sky with lanterns and have made them a means of pelting the Satan. We have prepared for them the punishment of the Blaze.

ALLĀH HAS CREATED LIFE AND DEATH AS A TEST

The above verses discuss Allāh's grandeur and the control that He wields over the universe. Various aspects are discussed.

First. Allāh begins the Surah by saying, "Most Exalted is the Being in Whose control is all sovereignty." The entire universe and everything within the universe are in Allāh's control and everything belongs to Him. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Yāsin, "Pure is that Being in Whose hand lies the reins of everything." [Surah 36, verse 83]

Second. "He has power over everything."

Third. "He has created death and life to test who of you carry out the best deeds." People come into the world, live for a while and eventually leave once death comes to them. Allāh has not made man's life and death a futile exercise. There is great wisdom in this. Allāh says in Surah Qiyāmah, "Does man think that he will be left to be?" Allāh has not created man in vain. Allāh gave man life and has revealed certain orders and injunctions that man has to carry out. The more good deeds a person does, the better person will he be. Once one dies, one will be rewarded according to the amount of good deeds that one carried out and one will be punished for one's sins if Allāh does not forgive them. Allāh says in Surah Mu'minūn, "Did you think that We had created you in vain and that you would not return to Us?" Much has been discussed in this regard in the commentary of verse 7 of Surah Hūd (Surah 11), where Allāh says, "to test who of you performs better deeds."

Fourth. "He is the Mighty, the Most Forgiving." Nothing is beyond Allāh's control. His might is such that none can escape Him if He wishes to punish anyone. At the same time, He is also Most Forgiving and none can prevent His mercy and forgiveness from reaching whoever He wills.

Fifth. "He has created the seven heavens in layers."

Sixth. Addressing every person reciting the Qur'ān, Allāh says, "You will not see any inconsistency in Allāh's creation." If one glances at the sky, one will not be able to see fissures in it, as Allāh says in Surah Qāf, "Have they not looked at the sky above them and seen how We have made it, beautified it and that it has no cracks." Despite the absence of any pillars supporting the skies, no sky and no sphere falls on another and they all maintain their distance from each other. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the distance between each of the seven skies is a journey of five hundred years. ["Mishkāt" p. 510 from Ahmad and Tirmidhi]

Seventh. Allāh again addresses the reader of the Qur'ān saying, "Look again. Do you see any cracks? Look again and once again i.e. ponder deeply into the matter. After exhaustive deliberation, you will find that there are no defects in Allāh's creation and 'your gaze will return embarrassed and exhausted." One will be embarrassed because one will not have found what one intended to find.

Eighth. "Indeed we have beautified the nearest sky with lanterns." These lanterns refer to the stars, as mentioned in Surah Sāffāt where Allāh says, "Verily, We decorated the sky of this world with the adornment of the stars." The beauty that the twinkling stars lend to the night sky is no secret to people who appreciate beauty.

Ninth. Allāh says that He has made the stars "a means of pelting the Satan." When the Satan attempt to eavesdrop on the conversations of the angels, the angels chase them away by pelting with stars. It is not necessary for an entire star to be displaced to pelt a Satan because a part of a star may also be used for this purpose. Referring to this in Surah Hīr, Allāh says that for the Satan "who steals a hearing, a clear flame pursues him."

Tenth. "We have prepared for them (the Satan) the punishment of the Blaze." The Satan are themselves disbelievers and they also influence man to disbelieve in Allāh and in His Prophets عليهم السلام. If someone does not fall prey to their guiles and becomes a believer, they entice him to lead a life of sin. They ascend to the heavens in an attempt to hear the future events that the angels are discussing. It is then that the angels pelt them with the stars. While many of them die when the star strikes them, others become insane. Those who hear something minor and manage to escape the hurtling star, convey the message to fortune-tellers after adding hundreds of lies to it. They do this so that people may have faith in fortune-tellers and turn away from belief. For more details, refer to the commentaries of Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verses 16-18], Surah Nahl [Surah 16, verse 16] and Surah Sāffāt [Surah 37, verses 6-10].

NOTE: It appears from the verse "created death and life" that life and death are physical phenomena. Death is actually the absence of life. Therefore, since death involves the extraction of the soul, it is not difficult to understand it as a physical occurrence.

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ عَذَابُ جَهَنَّمَ وَيَسَّرَ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٦﴾ إِذَا أُلْقُوا فِيهَا سَمِعُوا لَهَا شَهِيقًا وَهِيَ تَفُورُ ﴿٧﴾ تَكَادُ تَمَيَّزُ مِنَ الْغَيْظِ كُلَّمَا أُلْقِيَ فِيهَا فَوْجٌ سَأَلَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ نَذِيرٌ ﴿٨﴾ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ قَدْ جَاءَنَا نَذِيرٌ فَكَذَّبْنَا وَقُلْنَا مَا نَزَّلَ اللَّهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ كَبِيرٍ ﴿٩﴾ وَقَالُوا لَوْ كُنَّا نَسْمَعُ أَوْ نَعْقِلُ مَا كُنَّا فِي أَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ ﴿١٠﴾ فَأَعْرِضُوا عَنْهُمْ فَسُحِّقَا لَا أَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ ﴿١١﴾

(6) The punishment of Hell shall be for those who disbelieve in their Lord and it is indeed an evil place to return to. (7) When they are thrown into it, they will hear it roar as it rages. (8) It will seem as if it is about to burst out of fury. Each time a group is thrown into it, its keeper will ask, "Did a warner not come to you?" (9) They will reply, "Certainly, a warner surely came to us but we denied and said, 'Allāh had not revealed anything. You are merely in great deviation.'" (10) They will also say, "If we had listened or understood, we would not be among the inmates of the Blaze." (11) So they will admit their sins. May the inmates of the Blaze be distanced!

THE DISBELIEVERS WILL SUFFER THE FURY OF HELL AND ADMIT THEIR WRONG

Whereas the verse preceding the above verses mentioned that the Satan will suffer the punishment of the "Blaze" (Hell), the above verses describe the plight of the disbelievers in the very same Hell. Allāh states, "The punishment of Hell shall be for those who disbelieve in their Lord and it is indeed an evil place to return to. When they are thrown into it, they will hear it roar as it rages. "Hell will be raging so violently that 'it will seem as if it is about to burst out of fury.'" Hell will be angry with the disbelievers. Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "When it (Hell) will see them from a distance, they will hear the roar of its fury and its crackling."

Allāh says further, "Each time a group is thrown into it, its keeper will (rebukingly) ask, "(How did you end up here?) Did a warner not come to you?" i.e. did a messenger of Allāh عليه السلام not warn you about the consequences of rejecting Oneness of Allah? The disbelievers will reply. "Certainly, a warner surely came to us but we denied and said, 'Allāh had not revealed anything. You are merely in great deviation.'"

Expressing their remorse, the disbelievers will then say to the keeper of Hell, "If we had listened or understood, we would not be among the inmates of the Blaze."

In this manner, "they will admit their sins." They will confess that they were at fault by rejecting the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام. Allāh says, "May the inmates of the Blaze be distanced (forever from Allāh 's mercy)!"

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُم بِالْغَيْبِ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ ﴿١٢﴾ وَأَسِرُوا قَوْلَكُمْ أَوْ
أَجْهَرُوا بِهِ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ﴿١٣﴾ أَلَا يَعْلَمُ مَنْ خَلَقَ وَهُوَ اللَّطِيفُ الْخَبِيرُ ﴿١٤﴾

(12) Indeed those who fear their Lord without seeing Him shall have forgiveness and a great reward. (13) Speak secretly or openly, verily He has knowledge of the secrets of the heart. (14) Does the One Who created not know, when He has knowledge of intricacies and is Informed?

FORGIVENESS AND A GRAND REWARD FOR THOSE WHO FEAR ALLĀH

The first of the above three verses mentions the virtue of the people of Belief and the virtue of carrying out good deeds and abstaining from evil. In contrast to the disbelievers who will suffer the punishment of the "Blaze", the believers will enjoy 'forgiveness and a great reward.'

Thereafter, Allāh says, "Speak secretly or openly." Whether a person says something to another person openly or whether he entertains a thought in his heart, Allāh has knowledge of everything because "Verily, He has knowledge of the secrets of the heart." Allāh is Aware of every false belief in a person's heart. "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that then Polytheists (one who ascribe unto Allāh) of Makkah used to say, "Speak in secrecy so that the Lord of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم does not hear." It was in response to this that Allāh revealed this verse.

"Does the One Who created not know, when He has knowledge of intricacies and is Informed?" Since Allāh has created everything, it is obvious that He has knowledge of everything. It makes no difference whether His creation speaks and acts openly or in secrecy, Allāh has knowledge of everything they say or do. Since Allāh has knowledge of everything, people say and do, he will certainly be able to take them to task for their wrong and will reward them for the good they do.

هُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ ذُلُولًا فَامْشُوا فِي مَنَاكِبِهَا وَكُلُوا مِن رِّزْقِهِ وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُورُ ﴿١٥﴾

ءَأَمِنْتُمْ مِّنْ فِي السَّمَاءِ أَن يَخْسِفَ بِكُمُ الْأَرْضَ فَإِذَا هِيَ تَمُورُ ﴿١٦﴾ أَمْ أَمِنْتُمْ مِّنْ فِي السَّمَاءِ
 أَن يُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ حَاصِبًا فَسَتَعْلَمُونَ كَيْفَ نَذِيرِ ﴿١٧﴾ وَلَقَدْ كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ
 فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ ﴿١٨﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَى الطَّيْرِ فَوْقَهُمْ صَفَقَتِ وَيَقِضْنَ مَا يُمْسِكُهُنَّ إِلَّا
 الرَّحْمَنُ إِنَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ بَصِيرٌ ﴿١٩﴾

(15) It is He Who subjugated the earth for you so walk on its roads and eat from His sustenance. To Him shall you be resurrected (16) Do you have no fear that He in the heavens will cause the earth to swallow you up after which it should quake? (17) Or do you have no fear that He in the heavens should send a devastating windstorm against you? Soon you shall come to know how My warnings are. (18) Verily those before them denied, so how (devastating) was My punishment? (19) Have they not seen the birds above them spreading their wings out and folding them in? It is Only The Merciful Who keeps them suspended in the air. Verily He is Watchful over everything.

IS MAN FEARLESS OF ALLĀH WHEN ALLĀH HAS THE POWER TO PUNISH HIM AT ANY TIME?

These verses speak about Allāh's power to create and to sustain His creation. Allāh says, 'it is He Who subjugated the earth for you.' Allāh has granted man the ability to exploit the resources of the earth. Man can dig into the ground to lay foundations for his buildings; he digs wells; he ploughs the fields to sow his crops and derives various types of benefit from the earth. Allāh says, 'so walk on its roads.' Allāh allows man to travel on earth so that he can transport himself and his goods from town to town and from country to country. In this manner, people can have food from different places. Allāh tells man that he may "eat from His sustenance" Every type of food that the earth yields and whatever it does not yield is from Allāh and it is through these types of provisions that Allāh sustains His creation.

However, Allāh reminds man that enjoying the bounties He gives in this world is not everything. Together with using Allāh's bounties, man must bear in mind that he will soon have to leave this world for the Ākhirah (Hereafter). He will then be placed beneath the surface of the earth and later resurrected when the trumpet is blown to signal the advent of Judgment Day. Man will then face Allāh and will be required to account for everything he did in this world. Therefore, man should enjoy Allāh's bounties and not forget to express gratitude and to utilise the bounties in a manner pleasing to Allāh. To remind man of this, Allāh states, "To Him shall you be resurrected."

Allāh then reminds man that he ought to accept the teachings of His Prophets عليهم السلام because failure to do so could attract Allāh's punishment from the earth and from the sky. Allāh says, "Do you have no fear that He (Whose commands are issued) in the heavens will cause the earth to swallow you up after which it should quake?" Allāh can create large chasms in the earth's surface and cause entire communities to be plunged into them as the earth convulses. Man will then be punished by the same earth which Allāh had made subservient to him. Just as Allāh is Capable of punishing man using the earth, Allāh can also punish him using the atmosphere above the earth. Allāh says, "Or do you have no fear that He in the heavens should send a devastating windstorm against you?" Although the air in the atmosphere is usually calm, Allāh has the power to make it blow so fast that it can lift man and machine and fling them far off, destroying them totally. Such punishment struck former nations like the Ād and also occur in many parts of today's world.

Allāh continues, "Soon you shall come to know how My warnings are." The disbelievers will realise the truth of the warnings of punishment that the Prophets عليهم السلام sounded when Allāh's punishment strikes them in this world. If Allāh does not choose to punish them in this world, they will certainly suffer the consequences of their sins in the Hereafter. Allāh says, "Verily those before them denied, so how (devastating) was My punishment?" Every person should take a lesson from the punishment that seized former nations and they should take precautions not to fall into the same predicament.

Allāh then describes His great power when He asks, "Have they not seen the birds above them spreading their wings out and folding them in? It is only the Merciful Who keeps them suspended in the air. Verily He is Watchful over everything." Whether the birds have their wings spread wide apart or whether their wings are folded beneath them, they are able to stay in the air by the command of Allāh. It is only Allāh Who allows birds and other creatures to fly because if the same wings were given to man or to other creatures, they would be unable to fly without Allāh's will.

In these opening verses of Surah Mulk, Allāh has made it clear that He wields power in the heavens, on earth and in the space between the two. His supremacy in the heavens is indicated by the verse, "Indeed we have beautified the nearest sky with lanterns...". His control over the earth is implied in the verse "It is He Who subjugated the earth for you..." and His sovereignty in everything between the heavens and the earth is mentioned in the verse "Have they not seen the birds above them..."

أَمَّنْ هَذَا الَّذِي هُوَ جُنْدٌ لَّكُمْ يَنْصُرُكُمْ مِّنْ دُونِ الرَّحْمَنِ إِنِ الْكَافِرُونَ إِلَّا فِي غُرُورٍ
 أَمَّنْ هَذَا الَّذِي يَرْزُقُكُمْ إِنِ أَمْسَكَ رِزْقَهُ بَلْ لَّجُوا فِي عُتُوٍّ وَنُفُورٍ

(20) Besides Rahmān (the Merciful), who can be your army to assist you? Indeed, the disbelievers are in deception. (21) Who can give you sustenance if He Who sustains you stops providing for you? However, they adamantly continue their rebellion and enmity.

WHO BESIDES RAHMĀN (THE MERCIFUL) CAN ASSIST YOU AND PROVIDE FOR YOU?

Allāh speaks about the assistance and sustenance that He provides for mankind. Commentators state that the disbelievers who refused to respond to the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took pride in two things. The first was that they had wealth and a strong clan who could protect them from harm. The second was that they believed that they had plenty of idols who would protect them from harm. Allāh refutes both these beliefs when he says, "Besides The Merciful, who can be your army to assist you?" If Allāh's punishment has to overtake any nation, none but Allāh can rescue them from it. However, "the disbelievers are in deception". Satan has deceived the polytheists into believing that their idols, their wealth and their tribes will assist them.

Allāh says further, "Who can give you sustenance if He Who sustains you stops providing for you?" It is obvious that if Allāh stops providing for anyone, none will be able to offer relief "However, they adamantly continue their rebellion and enmity." Despite the various proofs that are presented to them, the disbelievers remain undeterred in their rebellious attitude and continue to harbour enmity for the Muslims and for Islām.

أَمَّنْ يَمْشِي مَكْبًا عَلَىٰ وَجْهِهِ أَهْدَىٰ أَمَّنْ يَمْشِي سَوِيًّا عَلَىٰ صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ قُلْ هُوَ
 الَّذِي أَنْشَأَكُمْ وَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ وَالْأَبْصَرَ وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ قُلْ هُوَ
 الَّذِي ذَرَأَكُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَإِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾

(22) Is the one who walks upside down on his face more rightly guided or he who walks upright on the straight path? (23) Say, "It is Allāh Who created you and gave you ears, eyes and hearts. Little is the gratitude that you show." (24) Say, "It is Allāh Who spread you out on earth and it is to Him that you shall be gathered."

CAN THE PERSON WALKING UPSIDE DOWN BE LIKE THE ONE WALKING UPRIGHT?

Allāh draws an analogy of the disbeliever and the believer. Allāh says, "Is the one who walks upside down on his face (i.e. the disbeliever) more rightly guided or he who walks upright on the straight path (i.e. the believer)?" It is obvious that the person walking upright faces no danger of falling because he can see perfectly and has control over himself. In addition to this, he is treading a path that is straight and which poses no danger to the person walking.

EXPRESSING GRATITUDE TO ALLĀH FOR ONE'S LIMBS

Expressing the favours he bestowed on man, Allāh says, "Say, 'It is Allāh Who created you (when you were nothing) and (in addition to creating you, Allāh) gave you ears, eyes and hearts.'" Besides these invaluable parts of the body, Allāh has also blessed man with other great bounties in his body. It is therefore proper for man to express his heartfelt gratitude to Allāh. It is necessary for every human to express this gratitude in word and in deed. However, Allāh anticipates man's ingratitude when he says, "Little is the gratitude that you show."

Allāh Ta'āla has created the means for man to utilise his senses and faculties of perception. Allāh has placed the faculty of hearing in the ears, the faculty of seeing in eyes, the faculty of tasting in the tongue, the faculty of smelling in the Allāh says in Surah Abas, "On that Day many faces will be dusty, covered in darkness. These will be the sinful disbelievers." [Surah 80, verses 40-42]

Referring to this scene, Allāh says, "When they will see it (Judgment Day) approaching close, the faces of the disbelievers will contort and it will be said, 'This is what you used to ask for.'" When Judgment Day will take place, the disbelievers will be reminded of how they used to ask for it. They will then regret what they did when they witness the punishment in store for them.

قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ أَهْلَكَنِیَ اللَّهُ وَمَنْ مَعِیَ أَوْ رَحِمَنَا فَمَنْ یُجِیْرِ الْکَافِرِینَ مِنْ عَذَابِ أَلِیْمٍ
 قُلْ هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ أَمَنَّا بِهِ وَعَلِیْهِ تَوَكَّلْنَا فَسَتَعْلَمُونَ مَنْ هُوَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِینٍ ﴿٢٨﴾ قُلْ
 أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ أَصْبَحَ مَاؤُكُمْ غَوْرًا فَمَنْ یَأْتِیْکُمْ بِمَاءٍ مَعِینٍ ﴿٣٠﴾

(28) Say, "Tell me. If Allāh destroys me and everyone with me or showers mercy on us, who can save the disbelievers from a painful punishment?" (29) Say, "He is Ar Rahmān. We believe in Him and trust in Him. Soon you shall come to know who is in clear deviation." (30) Say, "Tell me. If your water sinks to the depths of the earth, who can provide you with pure water?"

WHO IS THERE FOR YOU IF ALLĀH FORSAKES YOU?

In the first of the above verses Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to say to his enemies that instead of wasting their time wishing for some calamity to afflict him and his companions, they should rather worry about their own plight when they will have to suffer the punishment for their disbelief. It makes no difference to the Muslims whether Allāh grants them death or allows them to live, they shall benefit in either situation. In fact, their condition in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is much better than all the wealth of this world.

Thereafter, Allāh instructs, "Say, 'He is Ar Rahmān. We believe in Him and trust in Him. (We expect every good from Him and are convinced that we are rightly guided. However, you refuse to believe this. Therefore) Soon you shall come to know who is in clear deviation.'" When Allāh decides to punish the disbelievers either in this world or in the Hereafter, they will realise that they were on the wrong and that the Muslims were right. However, then it will be too late.

Allāh continues, "Say, 'Tell me. If your water sinks to the depths of the earth, who can provide you with pure water?'" Allāh reminds mankind that He has made pure water accessible to them by placing the water in rivers, wells, dams and lakes. Taking the water from these sources, man is able to fulfil his necessities. In the above verse, Allāh tells mankind that if He willed, He could make the water sink to the depths of the earth so that mankind will be unable to reach it. Then, Allāh asks, who can provide the water?

The author of "Jalālain" writes that after reciting this verse, the reader of the Qur'ān should say, "Allāhu Rabbal Ālamin" i.e. only Allāh, the Lord of the universe can provide the water. He writes further that in reply to the question "Tell me. If your water sinks to the depths of the earth, who can provide you with pure water?" some proud people said, "Pickaxes and spades will provide the water." Allāh Ta'āla then removed the fluid from their eyes, causing their eyes to dry up completely. This was to teach them a lesson that it is Allāh who provides the water in their eyes. Once this is removed, they should try to get it back with the pickaxes and spades they boasted about.

THE VIRTUES OF SURAH MULK

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is a Surah in the Qur'ān comprising thirty verses. It interceded on behalf of a person until he was forgiven. The Surah is 'Tabāra Kalladhi Biyadihil Mulk' (Surah Mulk)." ["Mishkāt" p. 186 from Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Abu Dawūd, Nasa'ī and Ibn Majah]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that a Sahābi [companion (of prophet)] رضى الله عنه pitched his tent on a spot without realising that there lay a grave there. From the grave he heard someone reciting 'Tabāra Kalladhi Biyadihil Mulk' (Surah Mulk) until he had completed the entire Surah. The Sahābi [companion (of prophet)] رضى الله عنه related the entire episode to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, who said, "This Surah prevents punishment. It offered protection from Allāh's punishment to the person in the grave." ["Mishkāt" p. 188 from Ahmad, Tirmidhi and Dārmī]

Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates that Rasullullāh (prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم would not sleep until he had recited Surah Alif Lām Mīm Tanzīl (Surah Sajdah, the 32nd Surah of the Qur'ān) and "Tabāra Kalladhi Biyadihil Mulk" (Surah Mulk).

سورة القلم

Makkan

Surah Al-Qalam

Verses 52

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

نُ ۝ وَالْقَلَمِ وَمَا يَسْطُرُونَ ۝ مَا أَنْتَ بِمَجْنُونٍ ۝ وَإِنَّ لَكَ لَأَجْرًا غَيْرَ
مَمْنُونٍ ۝ وَإِنَّكَ لَعَلَى خُلُقٍ عَظِيمٍ ۝ فَسَتَبْصُرُ وَيُبْصِرُونَ ۝ بِأَيِّكُمْ الْمَقْتُولُ
۝ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ ۝

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful

(1) Nūn. By the oath of the pen and what the angels write! (2) By the grace of your Lord, you are certainly not insane. (3) Indeed, you shall have a reward that never comes to an end. (4) Verily, you have an exalted character. (5) Soon you shall see and they will also see... (6) ...who of you is insane. (7) Indeed only your Lord knows best who deviates from His path and only He knows those who are rightly guided.

ALLĀH TELLS THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم THAT HIS CHARACTER IS MOST LOFTY AND THAT HIS REWARDS SHALL NEVER END

The Surah begins with the letter "Nūn" (the 25th letter of the Arabic alphabet), which is from among the Hurūf Muqatta'āt. Only Allāh knows the meanings of the Hurūf Muqatta'āt. Taking an oath by the pen and by those angels who record the deeds of people, Allāh asserts that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is certainly not insane (as the polytheists claimed). Having no excuse to refute the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, all the polytheists could say was that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was (Allāh forbid!) insane.

Commentators state that "the pen" in the above verse refers to the pen that Allāh created initially and which He commanded to write down everything that was to occur in the future. Sayyidina Ubāda bin Sāmīt رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh first created the pen. He then commanded the pen to write. When the pen asked what it should write, Allāh Ta'āla told it to write everything that has been predestined. The pen then wrote everything that was to occur in the future. Other commentators are of the opinion that "the pen" refers to all pens including the one mentioned above.

Allāh Ta'āla states, "Nūn. By the oath of the pen and what the angels write! By the grace of your Lord, you are certainly not insane." Through His grace and benevolence, Allāh Ta'āla had made the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a prophet and blessed him with many bounties. It is not possible for a person with such perfect blessings to be insane. The things that Allāh swears oaths by are also witnesses. Therefore, in these verses, Allāh tells man that he should study the history of the world as has been recorded. In doing so, he will realise that a person as great as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم cannot be insane. It is impossible for an insane person to possess such a lofty personality and to be as perfect as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further, Allāh says, "Indeed, you shall have a reward that never comes to an end - Because he continuously invited people to Oneness of Allah and bore the hardships that people gave him, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was entitled to great rewards in the Hereafter. Allāh also tells him, "Verily, you are upon an exalted character." This verse praises the personality of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and also refutes the allegation of the disbelievers that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was insane. The incidents mentioned in the books of Ahadīth bear testimony to the excellent character of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In, fact, even the Torah testified to this, as mentioned in the commentary of verse 45 of Surah Ahzāb (Surah 33).

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also taught his Ummah excellent character. The "Mu'atta" of Imām Mālik رحمه الله عليه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have been sent to perfect noble character."

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Good character will be the heaviest thing on a believer's scale of good deeds on the Day of Judgment. Allāh detests the rude and foul-mouthed person." [Tirmidhi]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also mentioned that he loved most the person with the best character. He also mentioned that those with the best character have the most perfect Belief. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 431]

When one of her students asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها about the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم conduct at home, she mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم assisted in the domestic work and then left when it was time for Salāh. She also mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never hit any woman nor any slave. He fought only when in Jihād. He would never take revenge for any harm to him personally and would punish only those who violated Allāh's laws. [Muslim]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها mentioned that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was never vulgar, never pretended to be vulgar and he never shouted in the marketplace. He never responded to evil by using evil but always forgave and overlooked. [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that in the ten years that he spent as an assistant to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he was never scolded for anything he did wrong. If any of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives had to scold Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would tell them to leave him alone because whatever happens has been predestined. ["Mishkāṭ" p.

519]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه also mentioned that whenever someone shook hands with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he never turned away from the person until the person himself turned away. He also mentioned that he never saw the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sit with his legs stretched out towards another person. [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hārith رضى الله عنه says that he never saw any person smile more than the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. ["Mishkāṭ" p. 520]

Sayyidina Mu'adh bin Jabal رضى الله عنه narrates that when he placed his foot into the stirrup of his animal as he was leaving for Yemen, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised him, "Display your best character with people." [Mālik]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Verily with good character, a believer can reach the status of those who spend their nights in Ibādah and their days in fasting." [Abu Dawūd]

Allāh continues, "Soon you shall see and they will also see who of you is insane." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه states that on the Day of Judgment those who called the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a madman will realise that they were the mad ones to refer to him as such. Other commentators state that the disbelievers will realise this in this world when they see the rapid spread of Islām and how people who were once enemies of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم become Muslims and are prepared to give their lives for him. On the other hand, his opponents who are not guided become disgraced and defeated. The Battle of Badr clearly showed them that those who called the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a madman were madmen themselves. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 29 p. 29]

"Indeed only your Lord knows best who deviates from His path and only He knows those who are rightly guided". Allāh will therefore reward or punish people accordingly.

فَلَا تُطِيعِ الْمَكْدِبِينَ ﴿٨﴾ وَذُوَا لَو يُدْهِنُ فَيَدْهِنُونَ ﴿٩﴾ وَلَا تُطِيعِ كُلَّ حَلَّافٍ مَّهِينٍ ﴿١٠﴾ هَمَّازٍ مَّشَّامٍ بَنِيٍّ ﴿١١﴾ مَنَاجٍ لِلْخَيْرِ مُعْتَدٍ أَثِيمٍ ﴿١٢﴾ عَتَلٍ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ زَنِيمٍ ﴿١٣﴾ أَن كَانَ ذَا مَالٍ وَبَنِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ إِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتُنَا قَالَ أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٥﴾ سَنَسِفُهُ عَلَى الْخُرُطُومِ ﴿١٦﴾

(8) So do not obey those who deny. (9) They wish that you would compromise and then they would compromise. (10) Do not obey every person who excessively swears on oath, who is disgraced... (11) ...who searches for the faults of others, who excels in carrying tales... (12) who vehemently prevents good, who transgresses, is sinful... (13) harsh and whose lineage is uncertain as well. (14) All because he has wealth and Sons. (15) When Our verses are recited to him, he says, "These are fables of the old men." (16) We shall soon brand him on his snout.

DO NOT OBEY THOSE WHO REJECT THE DĪN (RELIGION) AND DO NOT COMPROMISE ISLĀM

Allāh says, "So do not obey those who deny. They wish that you would compromise and then they would compromise." It has always been the practice of the enemies of Islām that they will never concede the truth but they would want the Muslims first to accept their religions. When this fails, they invite the Muslims to compromise the teachings of Islām, claiming that they will then also reduce their opposition. In the above verse, Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to fall for this trap of the disbelievers. He should not compromise the Religion of Allāh and should continue preaching the message of Islām as he had been doing.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that the polytheists of Makkah told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that if he stopped speaking ill of their idols they would stop opposing him. It was then that Allāh revealed the above verse. This verse makes it clear that it is not permissible to forsake the truth to please people.

TEN REPREHENSIBLE TRAITS OF A DISBELIEVER

Allāh continues to describe ten evil characteristics of a particular disbeliever and tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to obey this person. Commentators state that the person referred to in these verses is Walid bin Mughiera, who was one of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم worst enemies. Allāh Ta'āla describes him as a person:

1. "who excessively swears on oath"
2. "who is disgraced"
3. "who searches for the faults of others" and frequently backbites.
4. "who excels in carrying tales." thereby spreading rumours and causing enmity between others.
5. "who vehemently prevents good" He used to prevent people from accepting Islām and from spending their wealth for good causes. He was also a miserly person.
6. "who transgresses" the limits and oppresses others.
7. who "is sinful"
8. who is "harsh"
9. "whose lineage is uncertain as well's Walid did not belong to the Quraysh and was adopted by Mughiera when he was eighteen years of age. In fact, some commentators say that he was illegitimate. Because many illegitimate children develop evil character traits when they are not brought up properly, they lack the sense of honour and respect that is imbued in other children. It is for this reason that they are usually looked down upon.

10. "All because he has wealth and sons." Because Walid was wealthy and had many sons, he became arrogant.

As a result, he refuted the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says, "When Our verses are recited to him, he says, 'These are fables of the old men.'" He claimed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was merely relating tales that were passed on from generation to generation. Instead of being grateful to Allāh for the bounties Allāh blessed upon him, he became arrogant and rejected the message of Islām.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that to the best of his knowledge, Allāh has not attributed so many evil characteristics to anyone as Allāh had attributed to Walid bin Mughiera. Walid had a large nose, which Allāh Ta'āla refers to as a "snout" when Allāh says, "We shall soon brand him on his snout." It is reported that a sword struck his nose during the Battle of Badr, causing a scar to remain on it. As a result, he appeared unsightly to others. This was his punishment in this world. Of course, the punishment of the Hereafter will be a great deal more severe.

إِنَّا بَلَوْتَهُمْ كَمَا بَلَوْنَا أَصْحَابَ الْجَنَّةِ إِذْ أَقْسَمُوا لَيَصْرِمُنَّهَا مُصْبِحِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَلَا يَسْتَنْوُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَطَافَ
عَلَيْهَا طَائِفٌ مِّن رَّبِّكَ وَهُمْ نَائِمُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ فَأَصْبَحَتْ كَالصَّرِيمِ ﴿٢٠﴾ فَتَنَادَوْا مُصْبِحِينَ ﴿٢١﴾ أَنِ
اغْدُوا عَلَيَّ حَرْثَكُمْ إِنَّ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾ فَانْطَلَقُوا وَهُمْ يَخْفَفُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ أَن لَّا يَدْخُلَهَا الْيَوْمَ
عَلَيْكُمْ مِّنْهُمْ مَّسْكِينٌ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَعَدُوا عَلَى حَرٍِّ قَدِيرٍ ﴿٢٥﴾ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهَا قَالُوا إِنَّا لَضَالُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ بَلْ نَحْنُ
مَغْرُومُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ قَالَ أَوْسَطُهُمْ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ لَّكُمْ لَوْلَا تُسَبِّحُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ قَالُوا سُبْحَنَ رَبِّنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾
فَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَلَوْمُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ قَالُوا يَوَيْلَنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا طَائِفِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ عَنِ رَبِّنَا إِن
يُبَدِّلْنَا خَيْرًا مِّنْهَا إِنَّا إِلَى رَبِّنَا رَاغِبُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ كَذَلِكَ الْعَذَابُ وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾

(17) Verily We have tested them as We tested the people of the orchard when they swore that they will pluck the fruit in the morning.. (18)... but they did not say, "Insha Allāh ". (19) So a visitation from your Lord swept over their orchard as they slept (20) So their orchard had become like a harvested crop by the morning. (21) They called to each other in the morning... (22) "Leave early for the plantation if you wish to pluck the harvest." (23) As they walked, they whispered to each other saying.. (24) .. "No poor person should ever enter your presence today. (25) They proceeded with the thought that they had the power to with hold (26) When they saw the orchard they exclaimed, "We must have lost the way!" (27) "Nay! We are the deprived ones." (28) The good one among them said, "Did I not ask you why you failed to glorify Allāh?" (29) They said, "Glorified is our Lord! We were oppressors indeed." (30) They turned to each other pinning the blame on one another. (31) They cried, "Woe be to us! We have certainly transgressed!" (32) "We hope that our Lord will replace for us something better than our orchard. Indeed we have confidence in our Lord." (33) Such is the punishment. However, the punishment of the Hereafter is much more severe. If only they knew.

THE STORY OF THE PEOPLE WHO OWNED AN ORCHARD

After the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم migrated to Madinah, Allāh Ta'ālā afflicted Makkah with a severe drought. Referring to this drought, Allāh says, "Verily We have tested them (the people of Makkah) as We tested the people of the orchard"

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه mentioned that this orchard was near San'ā in Yemen. It was cultivated by people who regularly performed their Salāh. Their heirs were generous people like themselves and always gave some of the crop to the poor. For this reason, the poor always gathered at the orchard when they plucked the fruit and when they separated the grain from the chaff. When one of these generous persons passed away, he left his estate to his three sons. When the harvest was ripe for the plucking, the three brothers met with each other. They decided that if they continued being generous to the poor, their wealth would be depleted and there would be nothing left for their own large families. Therefore, to avoid the throng of poor people, they decided to pluck the fruit very early in the morning and return home with it before the poor could arrive at the orchard. They then took oaths that they will abide by this decision. However, they all forgot to add "Insha Allāh" to their oaths. They also undertook not to share any of the harvest with the poor.

During the night, Allāh sent a devastating disaster which wiped out their entire orchard. They slept through the night oblivious of that fact that "their orchard had become like a harvested crop by the morning." Corresponding to the Arabic usage of the Banu Khuzayma tribe, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه translated the word "sarīm" (translated above as "harvested crop") as black ash.

Subsequently, "They called to each other in the morning (saying)" Leave early for the plantation if you wish to pluck the harvest. "Furthermore," As they walked, they whispered to each other saying, "No poor person should ever enter your presence today." The three reminded each other about the conditions of their oaths. Allāh says, "They proceeded with the thought that they had the power to withhold (the share of the poor)."

However, "When they saw the orchard (destroyed) they exclaimed, 'We must have lost the way!'" They thought that they must have gone to someone else's orchard. However, when they realised that it was really their orchard, they lamented, "Nay (it is our orchard)! We are the deprived ones." They understood that instead of them trying to deprive the poor, they had become the deprived ones because of their evil intentions.

"The good one among them said, 'Did I not ask you why you failed to glorify Allāh?'" i.e. why you failed to say "Insha Allāh". However, the damage was already done and all they could do was grieve over their situation. "They said,

'Glorified is our Lord! We were oppressors indeed'".

"They cried, 'Woe be to us! We have certainly transgressed!'" They realised the error of their ways and undertook to continue the tradition of their forefathers to share the crop with the poor. They then said, "We hope that our Lord will replace for us something better than our orchard. Indeed we have confidence in our Lord."

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه mentioned that he heard that because the Taubah of the brothers was sincere, Allāh blessed them with a vineyard that bore so much grapes that a single bunch was sufficient to load a mule.

Allāh concludes the incident by saying, "Such is the punishment (in this world for the person who transgresses). However, the punishment of the Hereafter is much more severe. If only they knew."

إِنَّ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ عِندَ رَبِّهِمْ جَنَّاتٍ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٣٤﴾ أَفَتَجْعَلُ السَّالِينَ كَالْعَجْرَمِ ﴿٣٥﴾ مَا لَكُمْ كَيْفَ تَحْكُمُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ أَمْ لَكُمْ كِتَابٌ فِيهِ تَدْرُسُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ إِنْ لَكُمْ فِيهِ مَا تَخْتَرُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ أَمْ لَكُمْ أَيْمَانٌ عَلَيْنَا بَلِغَةٌ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْفَيْصَةِ إِنَّ لَكُمْ لِمَا تَحْكُمُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ سَلِّمُوا بِهِمْ بِذَلِكَ رِجْمٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ أَمْ لَهُمْ شُرَكَاءُ فَلْيَأْتُوا بِشُرَكَائِهِمْ إِنْ كَانُوا صَادِقِينَ ﴿٤١﴾

(34) Verily the abstinent ones shall have gardens of bliss close to their Lord. (35) Should We treat the obedient ones in the same manner as the disobedient ones? (36) What is the matter with you? How do you judge? (37) Do you have a book with you that you study... (38) ....in which you have things that appeal to you? (39) Or do you have an oath from Us that will last until Judgment Day stating that you shall have whatever you decide? (40) Ask them which of them will stand surety for this. (41) Or do they have partners? Let them bring their partners if they are truthful.

THE OBEDIENT AND THE DISOBEDIENT CANNOT BE TREATED EQUALLY

Describing the rewards of the "Muttaqin" (abstinent/pious/Allāh fearing people), Allāh says, "Verily the abstinent ones shall have gardens of bliss close to their Lord." Thereafter, Allāh asks, "Should We treat the obedient ones in the same manner as the disobedient ones?" The sinful shall meet the punishment for their sins while the obedient ones will be rewarded for their obedience. It is not possible that the obedient ones should be deprived of their reward so that they receive treatment equal to the disobedient. Similarly, it is not correct that the Disbelievers receive the blessings of the people of piety.

Whenever the rewards of the "Muttaqin" (people with Piety) used to be mentioned, the disbelievers used to say that they would also receive the same in this world. "In fact", they added, "we are more deserving than they." It was in reply to this claim that Allāh says, "Should We treat the obedient ones in the same manner as the disobedient ones? What is the matter with you? How do you judge?" Their claim not only contradicts logic but it also does not conform with the laws of the world. When even worldly courts do not treat an innocent person and a criminal alike, how can such injustice be expected from Allāh Who is the Most Just of all who show justice?

Allāh Ta'āla asks the disbelievers, "Do you have a (revealed) book with you that you study, in which you have things that appeal to you? Or do you have an oath from Us that will last until Judgment Day stating that you shall have whatever you decide?" The reply is obvious. Neither do the disbelievers have any divine scripture nor any covenant from Allāh that permits them to do and say what they please. Therefore, how can they take such liberties?

Thereafter, Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Ask them which of them will stand surety for this" i.e. who will stand surety that whatever they (the disbelievers) say is true?

Allāh asks further, "Or do they have partners? Let them bring their partners if they are truthful." Allāh asks them to produce those whom they ascribe as His partners, who have promised them that they will be treated like the obedient servants of Allāh. The disbelievers therefore have absolutely no basis to claim that the obedient and the disobedient will be treated equally. Neither do they have a divine scripture that states this, nor an oath from Allāh, nor any partner,, nor anyone of their own who will stand surety for this claim. All thinking people of the world will unanimously agree that it is foolish to make a claim without any basis.

يَوْمَ يُكْشَفُ عَنْ سَاقٍ وَيُدْعَوْنَ إِلَى السُّجُودِ فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ خَشَعَتِ أَبْصَارُهُمْ تَرْهَوْنَهُمْ
ذَلَّةٌ وَقَدْ كَانُوا يُدْعَوْنَ إِلَى السُّجُودِ وَهُمْ سَالِمُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾

(42) The day when the "shin" will be exposed and people will be summoned to prostrate but will be unable to. (43) Their gazes will be cast down and disgrace shall overcome them. Indeed they used to be summoned to prostrate when they were hail and healthy.

THE "SHIN" WILL BE EXPOSED AND THE HYPOCRITES WILL BE DISGRACED

Describing the Day of Judgment, Allāh says, "The day when the 'Shin' will be exposed and people will be summoned to prostrate but will be unable to." Whereas the true believers will be able to prostrate before Allāh on that occasion, the backs of the hypocrites and those who performed Salāh for show will become rigid like a plank and they will be unable to prostrate. The revealing of the 'Shin' is among the "Mutashābihāt". We should believe in it without trying to scrutinise the meaning and precise manner of occurrence. Pages 731 and 1107 of Bukhari as well as pages 100 and 104 of Muslim record the Ahadith concerning the exposing of the 'Shin' and the call to prostrate.

The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" writes that the summoning to prostrate should not lead one to believe that people will be required to obey instructions in the Hereafter as they are required to do in this world. People will not be commanded to prostrate when the 'Shin' is exposed but the occurrence will be so magnificent that they will be forced to prostrate. Since the hypocrites and those who performed Salāh for show will be unable to prostrate, it is obvious that the disbelievers will also be unable to prostrate.

Further describing the pitiful state of the disbelievers and hypocrites on the Day of Judgment, Allāh says, "Their gazes will be cast down and disgrace shall overcome them. Indeed they used to be summoned to prostrate when they were hail and healthy." The reason for their disgrace and inability to prostrate will be that when they were summoned to sincerely prostrate to Allāh in the world while they were healthy and capable, they refused to do so. Had they sincerely prostrated in this world, they would be able to do so in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Concerning the commentary of "Indeed they used to be summoned to prostrate when they were hail and healthy", "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v. 4 p. 383) reports from Sayyidina Sa'īd bin Jubayr راحة الله عليه that these people regularly heard the call of "Hayya Alas Salāh" ("Come to Salāh") and "Hayya Alal Falāh" ("Come to success") in the Adhān but they did not respond to the Adhān by performing their Salāh.

فَذَرْنِي وَمَنْ يُكَذِّبُ هَذَا الْحَدِيثَ سَنَسْتَدْرِجُهُمْ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَأَمْلِي لَهُمْ إِنَّ
كَيْدِي مَتِينٌ ﴿٤٥﴾ أَمْ تَسْأَلُهُمْ أَجْرًا فَهُمْ مِنْ مَغْرَمٍ مُثْقَلُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمُ الْغَيْبُ فَهُمْ
يَكْنُتُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾

(44) So leave Me and the one who falsifies this speech. We shall gradually lead them on in a manner that they do not realise. (45) I am granting them respite. Indeed, My planning is formidable. (46) Or are you asking remuneration from them because of which they feel burdened by a penalty? (47) Or do they have knowledge of the unseen, which they are busy writing?

ALLĀH GRANTS THE DISBELIEVERS RESPITE

In the above verses Allāh Ta'āla sounds a warning to those who reject the truth of the Qur'ān. Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh states, "So leave Me and the one who falsifies this speech (the Qur'ān). We shall gradually lead them on in a manner that they do not realise." In this verse, Allāh also consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, telling him not grieve about the fact that the disbelievers are not being punished for their disbelief. Allāh is merely allowing them time to fall deeper into sin and disbelief so that they become deserving of greater punishment in the Hereafter. The disbelievers regard this period of grace as an opportunity to revel more in the pleasures of this world, thinking that they are being blessed. Allāh says, "I am (only) granting them respite. Indeed, My planning is formidable."

Allāh asks the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Or are you asking remuneration from them because of which they feel burdened by a penalty?" The question is hypothetical. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not ask the people for any remuneration for propagating his message. He did it only to please Allāh. However, they behaved reluctantly as if they were being burdened by an imposed penalty. Seeing that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم endured so much difficulty to propagate the message of Islām without being paid for it, the disbelievers ought to have realised that there was something for their benefit in the message. However, they failed to think and continuously rejected the message.

Allāh asks further, “Or do they have knowledge of the unseen, which they are busy writing?” This is another hypothetical question probing the reason for the disbelievers’s denial of the Qur’ān. Allāh asks whether it is not perhaps some knowledge of the unseen that is preventing them from believing in the Qur’ān. Since the disbelievers have nothing to prove that they have divine direction to deny what the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم says, they are obliged to carry out Allāh’s commands. It is therefore foolish of them to deny the Qur’ān and the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم without any sound reason.

فَاصْبِرْ لِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ وَلَا تَكُنْ كَصَاحِبِ الْحُوتِ إِذْ نَادَىٰ وَهُوَ مَكْظُومٌ ﴿٤٨﴾ ۚ لَوْلَا أَن نَّذَرَكُمُ
نِعْمَةً مِّن رَّبِّنَا لَنِدَّ بِالْعُرَاءِ وَهُوَ مَذْمُومٌ ﴿٤٩﴾ ۚ فَاجْنِبْهُ رَبُّهُ فَعَمَلَهُ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٥٠﴾

(48) So be patient with the decree of your Lord and do not be like the person of the fish. He called as he was suppressing his grief. (49) If the grace of his Lord did not reach him, he would have been cast on to the bare shore in a wretched condition. (50) So his Lord selected him and made him among the righteous.

EXERCISE PATIENCE AND DO NOT BE LIKE THE PERSON OF THE FISH

In the above verses Allāh Ta’āla tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the punishment that the disbelievers deserve will seize them soon enough. Allāh is giving them respite only for a little while so that they may either excel in evil and become deserving of a greater punishment or so that they may have a chance to repent and accept Islām. Allāh advises the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to grow impatient about this matter. Allāh says, “So be patient with the decree of your Lord and do not be like the person of the fish.” Allāh Ta’āla refers to Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام as the ‘person of the fish’. When Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام left his nation before Allāh commanded him to, he was swallowed by a fish.

The details of his story have been discussed in the commentaries of Surah Yunus [Surah 10, verse 98], Surah Anbiya [Surah 21, verses 87 and 88] and Surah Sāffāt [Surah 37, verse 139-148].

Referring to the Supplication he made to Allāh to rescue him from the fish, Allāh says, “He called as he was suppressing his grief” He was grieved because his people did not accept his message, because he had left them before Allāh’s command and because of the discomfort of being in the stomach of the fish. The supplication he made was:

ARABIC

["There is no deity besides 'You. You are Pure. I have certainty been from among the oppressors."]

The author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" mentions that Sayyidina Yunus عليه السلام intended to repent to Allāh as well as seek assistance through this supplication. Allāh continues, "If the grace of his Lord did not reach him, he would have been cast onto the bare shore in a wretched condition." However, he received Allāh's grace and when he was cast ashore Allāh made a creeper grow over him to give him shade.

"So his Lord selected him and made him among the righteous." Leaving his nation before Allāh commanded him to do so was an error of judgement that is part of human nature. Allāh forgave him and preserved his rank among the righteous and pious Prophets عليهم السلام.

وَإِنْ يَكَادُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَيُزْلِقُونَكَ بِأَبْصَرِهِمْ لَمَّا سَمِعُوا الذِّكْرَ وَيَقُولُونَ إِنَّهُ لَمَجْنُونٌ ﴿٥١﴾ وَمَا هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾

(51) When the disbelievers hear the Reminder, it seems as if they could almost make you slip with their gazes and they say, "He is certainly insane!" (52) The Qur'ān is but a Reminder for the universe.

THE DISBELIEVERS WISH TO MAKE YOU FALTER WITH THEIR GAZES

The polytheists of Makkah left no stone unturned to harm the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They even contemplated afflicting him with the evil eye. They therefore secured the services of a person whose gaze was particularly effective. He was told to cast the evil eye on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would become ill. However, Allāh protected the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he was unaffected by the person.

Other commentators state that the verse does not refer to casting the evil eye, but means that polytheists used to cast angry glances at the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because of the enmity they bore. They called the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم an insane person when he recited the Qur'ān to them, whereas the Qur'ān is "a Reminder for the universe." It is impossible that an insane person could be responsible for conveying such a great revelation.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله states that this verse proves that the effect of the evil eye is a reality. It can have an ill effect on people when Allāh permits. He has quoted many Ahadīth on the subject, including a hadith of the "Mu'atta" of Imām Mālik رحمه الله in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The evil eye is a reality." Sayyidah Asma bint Umays رضي الله عنها once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether she should treat the children of Sayyidina Ja'far رضي الله عنه for the effects of the evil eye because it affected them very quickly. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told her to do so because if anything could outstrip Taqdir (predestination), it would be the evil eye. ["Mishkāt" p. 390].

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite the following Supplication to protect his grandsons Sayyidina Hasan رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Husain رضى الله عنه from evil:

“I seek the protection of “Allāh’s complete words for the two of you from every Satan, from every poisonous creature and from every evil eye.”

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would then say that Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام used to use these words to secure protection for his sons Sayyidina Isma‘īl عليه السلام and Sayyidina Is’hāq عليه السلام.

Sayyidina Imrān bin Husain رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that incantations may be used عليه السلام to cure the effects of the evil eye and the bite of a poisonous creature. [“Mishkāṭ” p. 390 from Ahmad and Tirmidhi]

Although incantations may also be used to treat other conditions (as proven by the Ahadīth), they are more necessary for the above two situations. The incantations that are permissible in the Shari’ah are those that consist of Allāh’s names, verses of the Qur’ān and supplication. One may not use incantations that include polytheistic words because these make one a polytheist. The last verse of Surah Nūn above is a tried and trusted cure for the ill effect of the evil eye.

سورة الحاقة

Makkan

Surah Al-Hāqqah

Verses 52

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
 الْحَاقَّةُ ① مَا الْحَاقَّةُ ② وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْحَاقَّةُ ③ كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ وَعَادٌ بِالْقَارِعَةِ ④ فَأَمَّا
 ثَمُودُ فَأَهْلِكُوهَا ⑤ بِالطَّاغِيَةِ ⑥ وَأَمَّا عَادٌ فَأَهْلِكُوهَا ⑦ بِرِيحٍ صَرْصَرٍ عَاتِيَةٍ ⑧
 سَخَّرَهَا عَلَيْهِمْ سَبْعَ لَيَالٍ وَثَمَنِيَةَ أَيَّامٍ حُسُومًا فَتَرَى الْقَوْمَ فِيهَا صَرْعَى كَأَنَّهُمْ أَعْجَازُ
 نَخْلٍ خَاوِيَةٍ ⑨ فَهَلْ تَرَى لَهُمْ مِنْ بَاقِيَةٍ ⑩ وَجَاءَ فِرْعَوْنُ وَمَنْ قَبْلَهُ وَالْمُؤْتَفِكَاتُ
 بِالْحَاطِثَةِ ⑪ فَمَعْصَوْا رَسُولَ رَبِّهِمْ فَأَخَذَهُمْ أَخَذَةً رَابِيَةً ⑫ إِنَّا لَمَّا طَغَا الْمَاءُ حَمَلْنَاكِ فِي الْجَارِيَةِ
 ⑬ لَنَجْعَلَنَّ لَكُنَّ نَذِيرَةً وَتَعِيَةً ⑭ أَذُنٌ وَعِيَةٌ ⑮

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) The Inevitable (Day of Judgment)! (2) What is the Inevitable? (3) What shall inform you what the Inevitable is? (4) The Thamūd and the Ād falsified the Clamour. (5.) As for the Thamūd, they were destroyed by a deafening sound. (6) As for the Ād, they were destroyed by an icy tempest. (7) Allāh unleashed it upon them for seven consecutive nights and eight consecutive days. You would have seen them lying flat on the ground as if they were hollow palm trunks. (8) Do you see any of them surviving? (9) Phara'oh (Fir'oun), those before him and the overturned cities sinned. (10) They disobeyed the messengers of their Lord so He seized them most severely. (11) When the waters became turbulent, We carried you in the ark... (12) . . .to make the incident an advice for you so that remembering ears may remember.

THE DESTRUCTION OF THOSE WHO FALSIFIED DAY OF JUDGMENT

The Arabic word "Hāqqah" refers to something that is inevitable and which cannot be postponed. In the above context, it refers to the Day of Judgment. Another name for the Day of Judgment is "Al Qāri'ah" ("The Clamour"), which is used in verse 4 of this Surah. To emphasise the importance of the Judgment day, Allāh begins the Surah by stating, "The Inevitable! What is the Inevitable? What shall inform you what the Inevitable is?"

The fundamental teachings of every Prophets عليه السلام that Allāh sent were three:

- (1) (Belief in Tauhīd (the oneness of Allāh.))
- (2) (Belief in Risālah (the prophethood of the particular prophet).)
- (3) (Belief in the Day of Judgment).)

Sayyidina Hūd عليه السلام was sent as a prophet to the Ād while Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام was sent as prophet to the Thamūd. Because these two nations refused to accept the message of these two Prophet عليه السلام, they were destroyed in this very world. Allāh says, "The Thamūd and the Ād falsified the Clamour. As for the Thamūd, they were destroyed by a deafening sound." The Arabic word "Tāghī'ya" (translated above as "deafening sound") literally refers to something that is extremely severe and which transgresses all limits.

Allāh continues, "As for the Ād, they were destroyed by an icy tempest. Allāh unleashed it upon them for seven consecutive nights and eight consecutive days." Referring to the punishment of the Ād in Surah HāMim Sajdah, Allāh Ta'āla says, "So We sent a fierce windstorm against them during the ominous days, to make them taste of a humiliating punishment in this worldly life. The punishment of the Hereafter is even more humiliating, and they will never be assisted" [Surah 41, verse 16]

The entire Ād nation was destroyed by this fierce wind. Describing the aftermath of the wind, Allāh says, "You would have seen them lying flat on the ground as if they were hollow palm trunks. Do you see any of them surviving?" Just as none of them survived Allāh's punishment, readers of the Qur'ān should bear in mind that they also are helpless against Allāh's punishment. They should therefore ensure that they never warrant this punishment for themselves.

THE FLOODS DURING THE TIME OF SAYYIDINA NŪH عليه السلام

Allāh says further about the disbelievers after the Ād and Thamūd, "Phara'oh (Fir'aun), those before him and the overturned cities sinned. They disobeyed the messengers of their Lord so He seized them most severely." Like their disobedient predecessors, these people met the same fate when Allāh's punishment overtook them. The "overturned cities" refers to the cities of the people of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام.

Allāh then speaks about the floods during the time of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. Allāh says, "When the waters became turbulent, We carried you in the ark..." Every person during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as well as every person alive today is from the progeny of the believers who were rescued in the ark of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام because they were the only people to survive the floods. Therefore, every person owes his existence to the fact that Allāh saved the believers during the floods. Because those believers were the forefathers of the reader of the Qur'ān, Allāh says "We carried you in the ark" instead of saying "We carried them in the ark"

Allāh says further that this incident transpired "...to make the incident an advice for you so that remembering ears may remember." It is only people who take the time to ponder and reflect who will learn a lesson from such incidents.

فَإِذَا نُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ نَفْخَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ ۖ وَجُمِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ وَالْجِبَالُ فَدُكَّتَا دَكَّةً وَاحِدَةً ﴿١٤﴾
 فَيَوْمَئِذٍ وَقَعَتِ الْوَاقِعَةُ ﴿١٥﴾ وَانْشَقَّتِ السَّمَاءُ فَهِيَ يَوْمَئِذٍ وَاهِيَةٌ ﴿١٦﴾ وَالْمَلَكُ عَلَى أَرْجَائِهَا
 وَيَحْمِلُ عَرْشَ رَبِّكَ فَوْقَهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ ثَمَنِيَّةٌ ﴿١٧﴾ يَوْمَئِذٍ تُعْرَضُونَ لَا تَخْفَى مِنْكُمْ خَافِيَةٌ ﴿١٨﴾
 فَأَمَّا مَنْ أَوْفَىٰ كَتَبَهُ بِيَمِينِهِ ۖ فَيَقُولُ هَٰؤُلَاءِ أَقْرَبُوا كِتَابِيَّةً ﴿١٩﴾ إِنِّي ظَنَنْتُ أَنِّي مُلْكٌ حَسْبَائِيَّةٌ
 ﴿٢٠﴾ فَهُوَ فِي عِيشَةٍ رَاضِيَةٍ ﴿٢١﴾ فِي جَنَّةٍ عَالِيَةٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ قُطُوفُهَا دَانِيَةٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ كُلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا
 هَنِيئًا بِمَا أَسْلَفْتُمْ فِي الْأَيَّامِ الْخَالِيَةِ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَأَمَّا مَنْ أَوْفَىٰ كَتَبَهُ بِشِمَالِهِ ۖ فَيَقُولُ بَلَيْتَنِي لَوْ
 أَوْتِ كِتَابِيَّةٌ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَلَوْ أَدْرِي مَا حِسَابِيَّةٌ ﴿٢٦﴾ بَلَيْتَهَا كَانَتِ الْقَاضِيَةَ ﴿٢٧﴾ مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنِّي مَالِيهٖ
 ﴿٢٨﴾ هَلَكَ عَنِّي سُلْطَانِيَّةٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ خَذُوهُ فَعْلُوهُ ﴿٣٠﴾ ثُمَّ لَجِّجِمْ صَلْوَهُ ﴿٣١﴾ ثُمَّ فِي سِلْسِلَةٍ ذَرْعُهَا
 سَبْعُونَ ذِرَاعًا فَاسْلُكُوهُ ﴿٣٢﴾ إِنَّهُ كَانَ لَا يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَلَا يَحْضُرُ عَلَىٰ طَعَامِ
 الْمَسْكِينِ ﴿٣٤﴾ فَلَيْسَ لَهُ الْيَوْمَ هُنَا حَمِيمٌ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَلَا طَعَامٌ إِلَّا مِنْ غِسْلِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ لَا يَأْكُلُهُ إِلَّا
 الْخَاطِثُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾

(13) When the trumpet will be blown once... (14) .. and the earth and mountains lifted and smashed to bits all at once... (15) . . .on that day that will take place which is to take place. (16) The sky will be split and become absolutely weak that day... (17) .... with angels at its ends. That day eight angels shall carry the throne of your Lord above them. (18) On that day, you will all be presented and nothing of yours shall be remain hidden. (19) As for the one who receives his record (of deeds) in his right hand, he will call out, "Come and read my record!" (20) "I was always convinced that I shall certainly meet my reckoning. (21) So he will enjoy a pleasing life... (22) ..... in lofty gardens. (23) The fruit of these gardens are near at hand. (24) "Eat and drink with all blessings as a reward for the (good) deeds that you sent ahead during the days gone by." (25) As for the one who receives his record in the left hand, he will cry, "Oh dear! If only I were not given my record..." (26) "...and I had not known my reckoning!" (27) "Alas! If only death had been my end!" (28) "My wealth has not helped me." (29) "My kingship has been lost to me." (30) "Grab him and place a yoke around his neck!" (31) "Then enter him into the Blaze!" (32) Then fasten him in a chain seventy cubits in length." (33) "Verily he never believed in the Majestic Allāh..." (34) "...and he never encouraged feeding the poor." (35) "There shall neither be any friend for him today..." (36) "...nor any food except 'ghislīn'." (37) "Only the sinners shall eat it."

THE EARTH AND MOUNTAINS WILL BE REDUCED TO BITS ON THE DAY OF QIYĀMAH (JUDGMENT) AND PEOPLE WILL BE GIVEN THEIR RECORDS OF DEEDS

Describing the Day of Judgment, Allāh says, "When the trumpet will be blown once and the earth and mountains lifted and smashed to bits all at once, on that day that will take place which is to take place. The sky will be split and become absolutely weak that day with angels at its ends. That day eight angels shall carry the throne of your Lord above them." Commentators state that eight angels shall be carrying Allāh's throne after the trumpet is blown the second time.

Allāh continues, "On that day you will all be presented and nothing of yours shall be remain hidden." Even though Allāh has knowledge of everything that man does, He ensures that the angels record every deed. Surah Jāthiya mentions that on the Day of Judgment people will be told about their records of deeds, "This is Our Book which speaks against you with the truth. Verily We used to have everything you did recorded." [Surah 45, verse 29]

Allāh says, "As for the one who receives his record (of deeds) in his right hand, he will (happily) call out (to everyone else), 'Come and read my record! I was always convinced that I shall certainly meet my reckoning.'" Receiving one's record of deeds in one's right hand will be the sign that one is successful. The person who is convinced about reckoning on the Day of Judgment will be extremely cautious about all his deeds and will abstain from sin.

Allāh then describes the bounties that the successful person will enjoy in the Ākhirah. Allāh says, "So he will enjoy a pleasing life in lofty gardens. The fruit of these gardens are near at hand." Also describing the fruit of Heaven, Allāh says in Surah Rahmān, "The fruit of both gardens shall be extremely close." These verses make it clear that a person in Heaven will have no difficulty reaching any fruit he pleases because they will all be within easy reach.

The people of Heaven will be told, "Eat and drink with all blessings as a reward for the (good) deeds that you sent ahead during the days gone by."

Allāh Ta'āla then speaks of the pitiable condition of the unsuccessful ones who will receive their records of deeds in their left hands behind their backs. Allāh says, "As for the one who receives his record in the left hand, he will cry, 'Oh dear! If only I were not given my record and I had not known my reckoning! Alas! If only death had been my end!'" He will wish that everything had come to an end once he died and that he did not have to be resurrected. Lamenting further, he will say, "My wealth has not helped me. My kingship has been lost to me." Neither his wealth nor his position in the world was of any benefit to him.

THE HUMILIATION OF THE DISBELIEVERS

Instructing the angels on the Day of Judgment, Allāh shall say, "Grab him (the disbeliever) and place a yoke around his neck! Then enter him into the Blaze! Then fasten him in a chain seventy cubits in length. Verily he never believed in the Majestic Allāh and he never encouraged feeding the poor."

The condition of the disbelievers in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) will be the antithesis of the believer's condition. The believers will receive bliss and peace in Heaven because they were convinced of the forthcoming resurrection. The resurrection is therefore a blessing for them. On the other hand, the resurrection will be a curse for the disbelievers because they will be subjected to eternal punishment. They will wish that it had never occurred. Then they will realise that the wealth and positions they hankered after in this world are useless because these cannot save them from Allāh's punishment.

GOVERNMENTS OF THE WORLD

People attain posts in high offices with great effort and often after perpetrating great injustices. When monarchies controlled countries, people vied to become king. Nowadays, countries are run by the farce termed democratic leadership. Very few people are unaware of the large sums of money spent on sustaining election campaigns and subsequent celebrations and ceremonies. In addition to this, various crimes like bribery and even murder pave the way to many electoral victories. Any post achieved after such evils must surely be a curse to its bearer.

The Shari'ah dictates that position should not be given to a person who is desirous of it. The Ahadith make it clear that such position will be a source of despair in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). While a person may rejoice at being elected president or minister, he may well be fettered in chains on the Day of Judgment. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Amar رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that if a ball of lead the size of a cup has to be dropped from the sky, which is a journey of five hundred years, it would reach the earth before nightfall. However, if it is dropped from one end of a chain of Hell, it would take forty years before it reaches the opposite end. ["Mishkāt" p. 504 from Tirmidhi]

NOTE: One of the reasons mentioned for the punishment of the disbeliever in Hell is that he did not believe in Allāh. The second is that he did not encourage feeding of the poor. This shows the importance of feeding the poor and encouraging others to do the same. Neglecting this duty is so grave that it is mentioned with Disbelief. One can then imagine the gravity of usurping the wealth of the poor and oppressing them in any way.

THE PEOPLE OF HELL WILL HAVE TO EAT "GHISLĪN (FILTH)"

Allāh says, "There shall neither be any friend for him today nor any food except 'ghislīn'. Only the sinners shall eat it." The word "ghislīn" is derived from the word "ghusl" which means "to wash". Commentators state that 'ghislīn' refers to the filth that accumulates after the wounds of the people of Hell are washed and cleansed. Because the bodies of the people in Hell will be perpetually covered in puss and blood, there is no question of them benefiting from any treatment. It is for this reason that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has interpreted the word 'ghislīn' as the blood and puss that flows from the flesh of the people of Hell. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 29 p. 58]

فَلَا أَقْسِمُ بِمَا تُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَمَا لَا تُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلُ رَسُولٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَمَا هُوَ بِقَوْلِ

شَاعِرٌ قَلِيلًا مَّا تُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ وَلَا يَقُولُ كَآهِنٌ قَلِيلًا مَّا نَذْكُرُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ نَزِيلٌ مِّن رَّبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَلَوْ نَقُولُ عَلَيْنَا بَعْضُ الْأَقَاوِيلِ ﴿٤٤﴾ لَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُ بِالْيَمِينِ ﴿٤٥﴾ ثُمَّ لَقَطَعْنَا مِنْهُ الْوَتِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ فَمَا مِنْكُمْ مِّنْ أَحَدٍ عَنْهُ حَاجِزِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَنَذْكُرُهُ لِلْعٰثِقِينَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَإِنَّا لَنَعْلَمُ أَنَّ مِنْكُمْ مُّكَذِّبِينَ ﴿٤٩﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَحَسْرَةٌ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَحَقُّ الْيَقِينِ ﴿٥١﴾ فَسَبِّحْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٥٢﴾

(38) I swear by the things that you see... (39) .....and by the things that you do not see! (40) Verily this Qur'ān is a word brought by an honoured messenger [Jibrīl عليه السلام]. (41) It is not the word of a poet. Few are those of you who believe. (42) Neither is it the word of a fortune-teller. Few are those of you who understand. (43) It is a revelation from the Lord of the universe. (44) If he [Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] has (falsely) attributed some words to Us... (45) ...We shall grab him by his right hand. (46) We shall then sever his jugular vein... (47) .... and none of you will be able to protect him. (48) The Qur'ān is certainly advice for the pious. (49) Indeed We know that some of you falsify (it). (50) This shall certainly be a source of remorse for the disbelievers. (51) It is undoubtedly the absolute truth. (52) So glorify the name of your Majestic Lord.

THE QUR'ĀN IS ALLĀH'S WORD AND CONTAINS ADVICE FOR THE PIOUS

The above verses describe the Qur'ān and refute the statements of those disbelievers who claimed that the Qur'ān is not word of Allāh. Allāh says, "I swear by the things that you see and by the things that you do not see! Verily this Qur'ān is a word brought by an honoured messenger [Jibrīl عليه السلام]. It is not the word of a poet. Few are those of you who believe. Neither is it the word of a fortune-teller. Few are those of you who understand." The works of poets are unlike the average speech of people and the words of fortune-tellers contain hundreds of lies together with a few truths concerning forthcoming events. They get the news from Satan who eavesdrop on the conversations of the angels. This subject has been discussed in Surah Hijr [Surah 15, verses 16-18], Surah Sāffāt [Surah 37, verses 6-10] and Surah Mulk [Surah 67, verse 5]. More is also mentioned in the Surah Jinn (Surah 72).

It was sheer stubbornness that led the Polytheists of Makkah to call the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a poet and a fortune-teller because they knew him very well and were certain that he was neither of the two. However, there were those who forsook this unwarranted stubbornness and accepted the Islām. It is with reference to these people that Allāh adds "Few are those of you who believe" and "Few are those of you who understand."

By taking an oath on everything man sees and everything that he does not see, Allāh has effectively taken an oath by everything that He has created. Allāh has therefore used His entire creation to testify that the Qur'ān has certainly been brought by a most honoured messenger angel, viz. Jibrīl عليه السلام. Among the other interpretations of "the things that you see" and "the things that you do not see"

are:

- 📖 The effects of Allāh's power and the secrets behind these.
- 📖 Bodies and souls.
- 📖 Man, Jinn and the angels. [Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 29 p. 60]

Allāh tells people that Jibrīl عليه السلام is an honourable messenger whom Allāh has used to convey the Qur'ān to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Other commentators state that the "honoured messenger" refers to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself, meaning that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was honoured by the mantle of prophethood. He was therefore a prophet of Allāh and not a poet or a fortune-teller.

Allāh continues to say that the Qur'ān "is a revelation from the Lord of the universe." This verse emphasises what has already been said and also clarifies a doubt that may creep into one's mind if verse 40 is understood to mean: "Verily this Qur'ān is the word of an honoured messenger" instead of "Verily this Qur'ān is a word brought by an honoured messenger".

Allāh continues, "If he [Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] has (falsely) attributed some words to Us, We shall grab him by his right hand. We shall then sever his jugular vein and none of you will be able to protect him." These verses prove the truthfulness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a false claimant to prophethood and falsely claimed that Allāh had revealed the Qur'ān to him, there is nothing to stop Allāh from punishing him most severely.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that Allāh has portrayed the punishment in this manner because it is a disgraceful punishment meted to lowly criminals. It was common in earlier times that the executioner would grab the condemned person by the right hand and then behead him, causing the jugular vein to be severed. Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه interprets the punishment to mean that first his right hand would be cut and then his jugular vein. Such a punishment would serve as an effective lesson for everyone else.

"The Qur'ān is certainly advice for the pious" i.e. for those who fear Allāh, who fulfil His commands and abstain from sin.

"Indeed We know that some of you falsify (it)." Allāh is Aware of every person who denies the truth of the Qur'ān and will punish them for this.

"This (Qur'ān) shall certainly be a source of remorse for the disbelievers." When the believers will be rewarded with the bounties of Heaven in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) for believing in and for practising the Qur'ān, those who rejected the Qur'ān will regret their actions and wish that they had also done the same. However, it will then be too late and they will have to suffer the torment of Hell.

"It (the Qur'ān) is undoubtedly the absolute truth." There is nothing doubtful in the Qur'ān and everything it contains is absolutely true.

Allāh concludes the Surah by stating, "So glorify the name of your Majestic Lord." Just as Allāh is the Greatest, His name is also the greatest. Man is enjoined to hymn Allāh's praises because Allāh is certainly worthy of every praise.

A CAUTIONARY NOTE

Verse 40 of Surah Ahzāb (Surah 33) clearly announces that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was Allāh's final messenger. It is therefore obvious that everyone who claimed prophethood after him were false in their claim. These people all suffered the consequences of their evil. One of these is referred to as Musaylama Punjab who lived in Gurdaspur in the Qādiān district of India. Claiming to be a prophet, he also made various prophecies, all of which proved to be false. Even those prophecies that were specifically intended to prove his truthfulness exposed his falsehood.

Using the above verses of Surah Hāqqah to substantiate his claim to prophethood, he told the people that if he were false, Allāh Ta'āla would have already severed his jugular vein and ensured that he lived no longer. Little did he realise that the verses of Surah Hāqqah above refer to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and not to every person who pleases to call himself a prophet. There were many false prophets before Musaylama Punjab who did not suffer this plight because Allāh is not obliged to disprove them in this manner. In fact, if he were killed, he would not have suffered the disgrace he did when all his prophecies failed. He was subjected to repeated disgrace as one prophecy after another failed. This made it clear to people that he was certainly not a prophet.

The poor man did not read the verse of Surah Nisā where Allāh says, "Whoever opposes the messenger after the guidance has become manifest to him and follows a path other than that of the believers, We shall allow him to do that which he is doing and then enter him into Hell. It is the worst of abodes." When a person chooses to remain deviant, his hearts worsens all the time as Allāh says in Surah Saff, "However, when they chose to be crooked, Allāh further twisted their hearts." [Surah 61, verse 5]

Therefore, no deviant person should ever think that he is treading the right path merely because he is living well and because Allāh has not afflicted him with punishment. Allāh is merely allowing him to do as he pleases so that he may plunge further into sin. Thereafter, Allāh will cast him into Hell where he will realise the error of his ways. The above verse of Surah Nisā makes it clear that the person who treads a path other than that of the believers will find himself in Hell. May Allāh save us all. Āmīn.

سورة المعارج

Makkan	Surah Al-Ma'arij	Verses 44
--------	------------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

سَأَلَ سَائِلٌ بِعَذَابٍ وَاقِعٍ ۝ (1) لِلْكَافِرِينَ لَيْسَ لَهُمْ دَافِعٌ ۝ (2) مِنْ أَفْئِدَةِ الْمَعَارِجِ ۝ (3) تَعْرُجُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَالرُّوحُ إِلَيْهِ فِي يَوْمٍ كَانَ مِقْدَارُهُ خَمْسِينَ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ ۝ (4) فَأَصْبَرَ صَبْرًا جَمِيلًا ۝ (5) إِنَّهُمْ يَرَوْنَهُ بَعِيدًا ۝ (6) وَنَرَاهُ قَرِيبًا ۝ (7)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful

- (1) An enquirer asks about a pending punishment... (2) ...that will afflict the disbelievers, which cannot be averted... (3) ... and is from Allāh, the Controller of the skies. (4) The angels and souls ascend to Him. This punishment will take place on a day, the duration of which shall be fifty thousand years. (5) So exercise patience in a most beautiful manner. (6) Verily they see it being far off... (7) ...but We see it being nearby.

THERE SHALL BE NONE TO AVERT PUNISHMENT ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

The Surah derives its name from the word "Dhil Ma'arij" (translated above as "the Controller of the skies" in the third verse, which is an attribute of Allāh Ta'āla. Ma'arij is the plural of the word "Ma'rij" which refers to a place of climbing. Commentators state that the Ma'arij refer to the skies because the angels are constantly climbing to and fro the skies.

Referring to the circumstances surrounding the revelation of the opening verses of the Surah, commentators quote the supplication of Nadhar bin Hārith, a polytheist who was an arch enemy of the Muslims in Makkah. He prayed, "O Allāh! If this religion (Islām) is the truth, then shower stones on us or afflict us with some painful punishment (for not accepting it)." 'Ruhul Ma'āni' reports from Nasa'i that it was Abu Jahl who made this supplication. It was then that Allāh revealed the verses, "An enquirer asks about a pending punishment that will afflict the disbelievers, which cannot be averted and is from Allāh, the Controller of the skies."

Just as Allāh is Capable of punishing the Polytheists with a shower of stones from the sky as they requested, He can also punish them with the very earth on which they live (such as an earthquake). Allāh exercises control over the earth just as He exercises control over the earth. The result of this supplication was that Nadhar bin Hārith, Abu Jahl and many other polytheists leaders were killed during the Battle of Badr. In total, seventy polytheists were killed during the battle of Badr and seventy were taken captive, many of whom accepted Islām.

Allāh continues, "The angels and souls ascend to Him. "The angels ascend to the heavens where they receive their commands from Allāh and then return to fulfil these on earth. When people pass away, their souls are transported to the heavens to be presented before Allāh and are then sent back to either live peacefully in the grave or to suffer punishment.

"This punishment will take place on a day, the duration of which shall be fifty thousand years." The punishment that the polytheists asked for will take place on the Day of Judgment. This punishment of the Hereafter will be in addition to the punishment they received during the Battle of Badr. The two punishments are separate and both are implied by the 'pending punishment'.

RECONCILING THE DAY OF A THOUSAND YEARS WITH THE DAY OF FIFTY THOUSAND YEARS

The "day the duration of which shall be fifty thousand years" refers to the Day of Judgment, as substantiated by a hadith of Muslim which describes the punishment of those who do not pay their Zakāh. However, Surah Sajdah states, "He ordains every affair from the heavens to the earth, after which every affair will ascend to Him on a day, the duration of which is a thousand years according to your count." [Surah 32, verse 5]

This verse of Surah Sajdah describes the duration of the Day of Judgment to be a thousand years. Ahadith of "Mishkāt" (p. 447) states that the poor will enter Heaven five hundred years before the rich, which is half a day earlier.

There therefore appears to be a discrepancy concerning the duration of the Day of Judgment; fifty thousand years or one thousand years? Scholars mention that the difference in duration will depend on the condition of people. While it will appear to some that the day is fifty thousand years long because of its severity, others will feel that it is a thousand years long, while it will seem even shorter to others. Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه reports that someone once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم out of surprise, "How long will that day be, the duration of which is fifty thousand years!" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "I swear by the Being in whose control is my life! The day will be made so easy for the believer that it will seem easier than a person performing Salāh in this world." ["Mishkāt" p. 487]

Refer also to what has been discussed in the commentaries of verse 5 of Surah Sajdah (Surah 32) and verse 47 of Surah Hajj (Surah 22), where Allāh states, "Verily a single day with your Lord is like a thousand years according to your count."

Allāh continues, "So exercise patience in a most beautiful manner." This type of patience entails that one should not complain in the least. Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he has completed his task of conveying the message to the people. If they still refuse to accept, he should not become despondent and sad. He should be patient because if they are not punished in this world, they will certainly meet the consequences of their evil in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Allāh says, "Verily they see it (Judgment Day) being far off but We see it being nearby." The disbelievers treat the news of Judgment Day like a myth whereas it is a certain reality and everything that is certain is not far off. Allāh says in Surah An'ām, "Without a trace of doubt, what you have been promised will certainly come to pass and you cannot escape." [Surah 6, verse 134]

يَوْمَ تَكُونُ السَّمَاءُ كَالذَّهْلِ ۖ وَتَكُونُ الْجِبَالُ كَالْعِهْنِ ۚ وَلَا يَسْأَلُ حِمِيمٌ حِمِيمًا ۚ
يَبْصُرُونَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْمُجْرِمِ ۖ لَوْ يَفْتَدِي مِنْ عَذَابِ يَوْمِئِذٍ بِبَنِيهِ ۚ وَصَصِيَّتِهِ
وَأَخِيهِ ۚ وَفَصِيلَتِهِ الَّتِي تُتَوَكَّلُ ۚ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا ثُمَّ يُنْجِيهِ ۚ كَلَّا إِنَّمَا
لَظَنَ ۚ نَزَاعَةَ لِلشَّوَى ۚ تَدْعُوا مَنْ أَدْبَرَ وَتَوَلَّى ۚ وَجَمْعَ فَاوَعَى ۚ

(8) The day when the sky will become like the dirty residue of oil... (9) ...and the mountains will become like coloured wool. (10) No friend will ask about another friend... (11) ... even though they will be shown each other. The sinner will wish that as ransom for the punishment of that day he could offer his sons... (12) ...his wife, his brother... (13) ...his tribe with whom he lived... (14) ... and everyone on earth so that he may be saved. (15) This will never be. The Fire shall certainly be flaming... (16) ...tearing off the scalp. (17) It will call the one who turned away and was averse... (18) ... who amassed wealth and tended it.

ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT, FRIENDS WILL NOT ASK ABOUT EACH OTHER AND PEOPLE WILL WANT TO OFFER THEIR RELATIVES AS RANSOM TO SAVE THEMSELVES

Describing the day of Judgment, Allāh says, "The day when the sky will become like the dirty residue of oil and the mountains will become like coloured wool." Surah Qāri'ah [Surah 101, verse 5] adds that the mountains will fly about like coloured cotton wool. The author of "Jalālain" has translated the verse to mean that the sky will become like molten silver, which aptly portrays verse 16 of Surah Hāqqah which states that the sky will "become absolutely weak that day".

After describing the condition of the sky and mountains on the Day of Judgment, Allāh speaks about the perplexity of people on the Plains of Resurrection when he says, "No friend will ask about another friend even though they will be shown each other." None will be able to assist another and each person will be so preoccupied with his own predicament that he will be oblivious of others.

"The sinner will wish that as ransom for the punishment of that day he could offer his sons, his wife, his brother, his tribe with whom he lived and everyone on earth so that he may be saved." People will be so concerned about their own plight that they will be prepared to give everything that was dear to them in this world so that they may be saved from the punishment of Hell. However, no amount of ransom will be accepted and each person will have to face the punishment he deserves.

Allāh continues, "The Fire shall certainly be flaming, tearing off the scalp. It will call the one who turned away (from the truth) and was averse, who amassed wealth and tended it." The above verses make it clear that the disbeliever will not mind ransoming everyone on earth to save himself from the punishment of Hell. However, this will not help him at all because nothing will be accepted as ransom on the day of Judgment. Hell will recognise those that are destined to enter her and she will call for them. Although people of different types will enter Hell, the verse briefly mentions that the people to enter Hell will be those who were averse to the truth and hoarded the wealth of this world instead.

The verse describes the disbeliever as a person who has tremendous love for wealth and who is miserly. Such people do not spend their wealth in charity and will do anything to amass wealth. They will not hesitate to accept bribes, to usurp the wealth of others and to swindle others. In their love for hefty bank balances, they do not discriminate between lawful and unlawful means. The destination of such people is the fire of Hell. Those Muslims who are guilty of the same behaviour should ponder about their ways. They should make an effort to earn Halāl (Lawful) wealth and to fulfil the rights that they owe. Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه would say, "O children of Ādam عليه السلام! You hear the warnings yet you continue amassing wealth."

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the Day of Judgment, a neck will appear from Hell with eyes to see with, ears to hear with and a tongue to speak with. It will then say, 'I have been appointed (to punish) three persons (viz.).'"

- 📖 Every person who is a rebellious oppressor.
- 📖 Every person who worships another with Allah.
- 📖 Every picture-maker." ["Mishkāt" from Tirmidhi]

Allāma Ibn Kathir رحمه الله عليه reports that just as a bird runs about looking for grains, this neck will seek out those who are destined for Hell.

﴿إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ خُلِقَ هَلُوعًا﴾ (19) إِذَا مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ جَزُوعًا ﴿20﴾ وَإِذَا مَسَّهُ الْخَيْرُ مَنُوعًا ﴿21﴾ إِلَّا الْمُصَلِّينَ ﴿22﴾ الَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَى صَلَاتِهِمْ دَائِمُونَ ﴿23﴾ وَالَّذِينَ فِي أَمْوَالِهِمْ حَقٌّ مَّعْلُومٌ ﴿24﴾ لِلسَّائِلِ وَالْمَحْرُومِ ﴿25﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يُصَدِّقُونَ بَيِّمَ الَّذِينَ ﴿26﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ مِّنْ عَذَابِ رَبِّهِمْ مُّشْفِقُونَ ﴿27﴾ إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّهِمْ غَيْرُ مَأْمُونٍ ﴿28﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِفُرُوجِهِمْ حَافِظُونَ ﴿29﴾ إِلَّا عَلَىٰ أَزْوَاجِهِمْ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ غَيْرُ مَلُومِينَ ﴿30﴾ فَمَنْ ابْتَغَىٰ وَرَاءَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْعَادُونَ ﴿31﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَمْتِنَتِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رَعُونَ ﴿32﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ بِشَهَادَتِهِمْ قَائِمُونَ ﴿33﴾ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَىٰ صَلَاتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُونَ ﴿34﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي جَنَّةٍ

(19) Verily man has been created anxious. (20) When difficulty afflicts him, he panics... (21)... and when he experiences good fortune, he becomes miserly. (22) (This is the condition of all) except those who perform Salāh... (23) .those who are constant in their Salāh... (24) ....and who have a stipulated right in their wealth... (25) ...for the beggar and the destitute. (26) (They are) Those who believe in the truth of the day of reckoning... (27)....and who fear the punishment of their Lord. (28) Indeed the punishment of their Lord is not something not to be afraid of .( 29) (They are) Those who safeguard their chastity... (30) .except when it comes to their spouses and the slave women whom they own. They will surely not be blamed for (cohabiting with) them. (31) Whoever seeks more than this, then such persons are transgressors indeed. (32) Those who give due regard to trusts and their pledges... (33) ...who stand firm by their testimony... (34) ....and who guard their Salāh. (35) These people shall be honoured in the gardens of Heaven.

THE FICKLE NATURE OF MAN AND THE ATTRIBUTES OF ALLĀH'S PIOUS BONDSMEN

The above verses describe man's evil characteristics and many of his positive qualities. In the previous verses, Allāh mentioned that Hell will call those people who were averse to the truth and who constantly amassed wealth. Allāh continues with the description of man's character traits when He says, "Verily man has been created anxious." The author of 'Ruhul Ma'āni' writes that the Arabic word "halū'ā" (translated above as "anxious ") refers to that aspect of man's nature when he becomes nervous because of haste. The word is generally used to describe the behaviour of camels.

Describing man further, Allāh says, "When difficulty afflicts him, he panics and when he experiences good fortune, he becomes miserly." Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that these two verses elucidate the meaning of "halū'ā". The verses tell us that man's anxious nature becomes evident when difficulty afflicts him. He then begins to wail and lament. On the other hand, when he experiences good fortune, he does not spend his wealth on the poor and needy. Instead, he fears that his bank balance should not experience any deficit. He becomes miserly despite knowing that his wealth will not last forever and that he will be unable to take it with him after death. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the worst qualities that are present in a person are miserliness that makes a person fearful and cowardice that extracts the soul. ["Mishkāt" p. 165 from Abu Dawūd]

Allāh then begins to describe those fortunate bondsmen of His who conquer these traits. Allāh says that they are:

Firstly. "Those who perform Salāh" and "who are constant in their Salāh". Commenting on this attribute, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that such a person regularly performs his Salāh and he does not allow anything to distract him from it. Quoting another interpretation, he says that such people do not allow their thoughts and concentration to deviate while performing Salāh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When you perform Salāh, perform the Salāh of a person who is bidding farewell (to this world)." ["Mishkāt" p. 445]

Secondly. Those "who have a stipulated right in their wealth for the beggar and the destitute." Such noble people spend their wealth on those needy people who beg for assistance as well as on those who do not beg despite dire necessity. They seek out those in need and fulfil their needs without being asked. While some commentators say that the "stipulated right" refers to Zakāh, others state that this refers to a fixed sum of charity that a person undertakes to spend either daily, weekly, monthly, etc.

Thirdly. "Those who believe in the truth of the day of reckoning". They have firm conviction that all their good deeds will be rewarded in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Although all believers hold this belief, the difference between the average believer and those belonging to this group of devoted bondsmen is that the latter make every attempt to prepare for the Ākhirah.

Fourthly. Those "who fear the punishment of their Lord. Indeed the punishment of their Lord is not something not to be afraid of" Despite remaining engaged in various types of Ibādah (worship), these people fear that their deeds may not be accepted because of some deficiency on their part. They are always concerned that they may be taken to task for their misdeeds and they do not become complacent. Describing such people in Surah Muminūn, Allāh Ta'āla says, "...those who spend of what they have been granted and whose hearts tremble because they have to return to their Lord." A true believer never feels that he is totally safe from Allāh's punishment.

Fifthly. "Those who safeguard their chastity except when it comes to their spouses and the slave women whom they own. They will surely not be blamed for (cohabiting with) them (because these women are lawful for them). Whoever seeks more than this (i.e. other women besides their wives and slaves), then such persons are transgressors indeed." When a person seeks to satisfy his sexual desires in a manner other than the lawful means that Allāh has ordained, he will be guilty of a grave sin which will warrant punishment in both worlds.

This verse outlaws all manners of sexual gratification that do not involve one's lawful spouse or lawful slave woman. Therefore, homosexuality, lesbianism, incest, masturbation etc are all Harām (forbidden). Also outlawed is the practice of Mut'ah which the Rawāfidh hold sacred. Despite other reasons for its impermissibility, the above verse clearly prohibits it because even by the definition of the Rawāfidh, the woman with whom Mut'ah is practised is not regarded as the man's wife. It is for this reason that they believe that if a man dies before the expiry of the Mut'ah term, the woman will not inherit from his estate. There are several other rights owing to a wife that they do not accord for the woman in a Mut'ah contract, making it evident that such a woman is not the wife of her consenting "partner".

Sixthly. "Those who give due regard to trusts and their pledges" All the rights that man owes to Allāh are regarded as trusts and must be fulfilled. Among these are Ṣalāh, Zakāh, fasting, Kaffārah (expiation), fulfilling vows and all other obligations. These matters are between the individual and Allāh and every person knows where he has slipped up. Man is also obliged to fulfil the trusts that he owes to his fellow man. Kings, presidents, ministers and people in positions of authority occupy positions of trust and have to fulfil these honestly. Failing in their responsibilities will entail a breach of trust.

Ties of mutual trust also exist between a buyer and seller, husband and wife and parents and children. In each situation, either party is obliged to fulfil the trust owed to the other party by fulfilling the rights owed to the other. Failure to fulfil the trust owed to another will subject one to severe reckoning on the Day of Judgment. It is also compulsory for one to restore the trust that another person places in one's custody.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that a villager once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when Judgment Day will take place. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Wait for Judgment Day when trusts will be breached." When the person asked how trusts will be breached, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Wait for Judgment Day when positions of authority will be given to people who are not worthy of them."

In addition to fulfilling trusts, Allāh also emphasises fulfilling pledges. This includes pledges made with people as well as the pledge of "Alist" when mankind pledged that they would always regard Allāh as their Lord. Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'il, "And fulfil the pledge. Certainly, questioning shall take place with regard to pledges." [Surah 17, verse 34]

Seventhly. Those "who stand firm by their testimony". This verse refers to all forms of testimony, including testifying to the oneness of Allāh, the prophethood of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and testifying to the truth of everything that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم taught. Presenting true and accurate testimony in judicial hearings is also implied. This is especially important to ensure that no person's rights are trampled upon. Sayyidina Zaid bin Khālid رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked, "Should I not inform you about the person whose testimony is best? He is the person who offers his testimony before he is asked to do so." When a person can offer testimony which would restore someone's right and ensure justice, he is obliged to offer the testimony when summoned. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "The witnesses should not refuse when summoned ... Conceal not testimony for whoever conceals it has a sinful heart." [Surah 2, verses 282, 283]

Eighthly. Those "who guard their Salāh ". Being particular about one's Salāh is an integral quality of a believer. Because of its great importance, adherence to Salāh is repeated.

Allāh concludes the description by announcing the reward that such people will receive. Allāh says, "These people shall be honoured in the gardens of Heaven."

فَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِكَ مَهْطَعِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ عَنِ الْيَمِينِ وَعَنِ الشِّمَالِ عِزِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾ أَتَطْمَعُ كُلُّ امْرِئٍ مِّنْهُمْ أَن يَدْخُلَ جَنَّةَ نَعِيمٍ ﴿٣٨﴾ إِنَّا خَلَقْنَاهُمْ مِّمَّا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ فَلَا أُقْسِمُ بِرَبِّ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ إِنَّا لَقَدِرُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾ عَلَىٰ أَن تَبْدَلَ خَيْرًا مِنْهُمْ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَسْبُوقِينَ ﴿٤١﴾ فَذَرَهُمْ يَحْضُوا وَيَلْعَبُوا حَتَّىٰ يُلَاقُوا يَوْمَهُمُ الَّذِي يُوْعَدُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ يَوْمَ يُخْرَجُونَ مِنَ الْأَجَادِثِ سِرَاعًا كَانَتْهُمْ إِلَىٰ

نُصِبَ يُوفُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ خَشَعَةَ أَبْصَارِهِمْ تَرْهَقُهُمْ ذِلَّةٌ ذَٰلِكَ الْيَوْمِ الَّذِي كَانُوا يُوعَدُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾

(36) What is the matter with the disbelievers that they run towards you... (37) ... in groups to your right and your left? (38) Does every one of them desire that he should enter the garden of bliss? (39) This shall never be! Verily We have created them from what they know. (40) I swear by the Lord of the East and the West! Indeed We have the power... (41) ...to replace them with people better than them. We can never be outstripped. (42) So leave them to indulge and to frolic until they meet their day that they are promised... (43) the day when they will hurriedly emerge from the graves as if they are rushing towards a temple. (44) Their gazes will be lowered and humiliation will engulf them. This is the day that they were promised.

LEAVE THE DISBELIEVERS TO OWN THEIR DEVICES FOR THEY WILL SOON BE DISGRACED ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

The above verses refer to the behaviour of the disbelievers towards the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. "Ruhul Ma'ani" reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to sit near the Ka'ba to recite Qur'an, the polytheists used to form several groups and sit around him. They then used to mock the Qur'an as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited. Seeing the poor Muslims with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the polytheists used to say, "If these people are going to enter Heaven like Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم says, then we will surely enter first."

Allāh says, "What is the matter with the disbelievers that they run towards you in groups to your right and your left? Does every one of them desire that he should enter the garden of bliss?" Allāh dispels this hope of theirs by saying, "This shall never be!" The polytheists claimed that since Allāh had given them wealth in this world, He would give them even better in the Akhirah. This hope was foolish and totally unfounded.

"Verily We have created them from what they know" i.e. from a sperm. Knowing that Allāh had created them from such a humble origin, the polytheists are foolish to deny resurrection. Allāh says in Surah Qiyamah, "Was he (man) not a discharge of semen, after which he developed into a clot of blood and then Allāh created him and perfected him? Then Allāh made the couple male and female. Does He then not have the power to resurrect the dead?" [Surah 75, verses 37-40]

Allāh continues, "I swear by the Lord of the East and the West! Indeed We have the power to (destroy them and to) replace them with people better than them. We can never be outstripped."

"So leave them to indulge (in falsehood) and to frolic until they meet their day that they are promised" i.e. the Day of Judgment. Such people were not destined to believe until death. Describing the Day of Judgment, Allāh says that it is "the day when they will hurriedly emerge from the graves as if they are rushing towards a temple. Their gazes will be lowered and humiliation will engulf them. This is the day that they were promised." The disbelievers deny the occurrence of Judgment Day when they are reminded about it. However, they will regret their scepticism when it will occur before their very eyes. Then it will be too late to believe.

سورة نوح

Makkan

Surah Nūh

Verses 28

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ أَنْ أَنْذِرْ قَوْمَكَ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١﴾ قَالَ يَقُولُونَ إِنِّي لَكُمْ نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٢﴾ أَنْ أَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَأَتَّقُوهُ وَأَطِيعُوا ۖ يَغْفِرَ لَكُمْ مِنْ ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَيُخْرِجَكُمْ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ۚ إِنَّ أَجَلَ اللَّهِ إِذَا جَاءَ لَا يُؤَخَّرُ ۚ لَوْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي دَعَوْتُ قَوْمِي لَيْلًا وَنَهَارًا ﴿٤﴾ فَلَمْ يَزِدْهُمْ دُعَائِي إِلَّا فِرَارًا ﴿٥﴾ وَإِنِّي كُلَّمَا دَعَوْتُهُمْ لِتَغْفِرَ لَهُمْ جَعَلُوا أَصْوَاعَهُمْ فِيْٓ أَفْئَادِهِمْ ۖ وَاسْتَعْشَوْا ثِيَابَهُمْ وَأَصْرُوا ۖ وَاسْتَكْبَرُوا ۖ اسْتِكْبَارًا ﴿٦﴾ ثُمَّ إِنِّي دَعَوْتُهُمْ جَهَارًا ﴿٧﴾ ثُمَّ إِنِّي أَعْلَنْتُ لَهُمْ وَأَسْرَرْتُ لَهُمْ إِسْرَارًا ﴿٨﴾ فَقُلْتُ اسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ غَفَّارًا ﴿٩﴾ يُرْسِلِ السَّمَاءَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِدْرَارًا ﴿١٠﴾ وَيُمْدِدْكُمْ بِأَمْوَالٍ وَيَبْنِ وَيَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ جَنَّاتٍ وَيَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ أَنْهَارًا ﴿١١﴾ مَا لَكُمْ لَا تَرْجُونَ لِلَّهِ وَقَارًا ﴿١٢﴾ وَقَدْ خَلَقَكُمْ أَطْوَارًا ﴿١٣﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَوْا كَيْفَ خَلَقَ اللَّهُ سَبْعَ سَمَوَاتٍ طِبَاقًا ﴿١٤﴾ وَجَعَلَ الْقَمَرَ فِيهِنَّ نُورًا وَجَعَلَ الشَّمْسَ سِرَاجًا ﴿١٥﴾ وَاللَّهُ أُنَبِّتُكُمْ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ نَبَاتًا ﴿١٦﴾ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُكُمْ فِيهَا وَيُخْرِجُكُمْ إِخْرَاجًا ﴿١٧﴾ وَاللَّهُ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ الْأَرْضَ بِسَاطًا ﴿١٨﴾ لَتَسْلُكُوا مِنْهَا سُبُلًا فِجَاجًا ﴿١٩﴾

In the name of Allāh, Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) Verily We sent Nūh عليه السلام as a prophet to his nation instructing him, "Warn your people before a painful punishment afflicts them." (2) He said, "O my people! Indeed I am a clear warner to you." (3) "Worship Allāh, fear Him and obey me. (4) "Allāh will then forgive your sins and grant you respite until a specified period. Verily, when Allāh's specified period arrives, it is not delayed. If only you knew." (5) He said, "O my Lord! Indeed I called my people day and night..." (6) "However, my calling only made them run further away." (7)

"Whenever I called them so that You may forgive them, they placed their fingers in their ears, covered themselves with their shawls, remained implacable and expressed great pride." (8) "I then called to them loudly..." (9) "...and explained to them publicly and privately." (10) "I said to them, 'Seek forgiveness from your Lord. Indeed He is Most Forgiving.'" (11) "He will send rain to you in torrents..." (12) "...increase your wealth, your sons and make orchards and rivers for you." (13) "What is the matter with you that you are not convinced of Allāh's majesty..." (14) "...when He has created you in so many phases?" (15) "Have you not seen how Allāh has created the seven skies in layers..." (16) "...has made the moon a celestial light in them and the sun a lantern?" (17) "Allāh has created you from the earth in a unique manner." (18) "He will then return you to the earth and then remove you from it in a unique manner." (19) "And Allāh has made the earth a bedding for you..." (20) "...so that you travel in its wide roads."

SAYYIDINA NŪH عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام REMINDS HIS PEOPLE ABOUT ALLĀH'S BOUNTIES TO THEM BUT THEY REFUSE TO LISTEN

Like many other previous Surahs, Surah Nūh discusses the story of Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and the destruction of his people when they rejected his preaching. Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام was sent as a prophet approximately a thousand years after Sayyidina Ādam عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام and he preached to his people for nine hundred and fifty years. His people were idol-worshippers who made their own idols, named them and worshipped them. Verse 23 of this Surah mentions some of the names of these idols. When Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام preached Oneness of Allah to them, they argued with him, as mentioned in Surah A'rāf and Surah Hūd.

Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام said to them, "O my people! Indeed I am a clear warner to you. Worship Allāh, fear Him and obey me (by living your lives as I show you). Allāh will then forgive your sins and grant you respite until a specified period. Verily, when Allāh's specified period arrives, it is not delayed. If only you knew." He told them that if they believed, Allāh would allow them to live comfortably until their destined hours of death when they would pass peacefully into the bliss of Ākhirah (Hereafter). However, he also reminded them that if they refused to believe, Allāh will punish them when a specific period arrives and there shall be nothing to postpone this period.

When his people refused to accept his teaching, Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام supplicated to Allāh thus: "O my Lord! I was not negligent in my duty) Indeed I called my people day and night. However, (the people were so averse that) my calling only made them run further away. Whenever I called them so that You may forgive them, they placed their fingers in their ears (so that they may not hear me), covered themselves with their shawls (so that they may not see me), remained implacable and expressed great pride." Because of their pride, the people refused to listen to Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام.

Supplicating to Allāh, Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام continued, "I then called to them loudly and explained to them publicly and privately." Sayyidina Nūh عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام explored every avenue of preaching but the people were adamant not to respond. He exhorted them, "Seek forgiveness from your Lord. Indeed He is Most Forgiving. He will send rain to you in torrents (thus alleviating the drought), increase your wealth, your sons and make orchards and rivers for you." He explained to them that everything they had was a blessing from Allāh and that the signs of Allāh's greatness was all around them to see. Reminding them of this, he added, "What is the matter with you that you are not convinced of Allāh's majesty when He has created you in so many phases?" Man's existence begins with a drop of sperm. Thereafter, Allāh evolves it into a clot of blood once it fuses with the female gamete. Afterwards, Allāh makes the foetus develop, giving it its skeletal structure, flesh and organs. Despite having knowledge of Allāh's creative genius, man is foolish not to accept Him as Lord.

In addition to expounding the signs of Allāh's greatness in the creation of man, Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام also pointed out other natural signs to them. He said to them, "Have you not seen how Allāh has created the seven skies in layers, has made the moon a celestial light in them and the sun a lantern?" Just as a house is illuminated by a lamp, so too is the earth illuminated by the light of the sun.

NOTE: The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that Allāh has described the sun as a "lantern" because the light of the sun is fuelled from within without being a reflection of another light source. On the other hand, the light of the moon is described as 'nūr' (translated above as "celestial light") because it is a soft light which is a reflection of the light of the sun.

Although the moon is located in the sky closest to us, Allāh says that He has placed it "in them" (i.e. in the skies). This term is used as a figure of speech and has no other implication. For example, if one says, "Zaid is in Baghdad", it means that Zaid is located in a specific part of Baghdad and does not mean that he is everywhere in Baghdad.

Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام continued, "Allāh has created you from the earth in a unique manner [when He created Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام]. He will then return you to the earth (when you die) and then remove you from it in a unique manner." When resurrection will take place on the Day of Judgment, Allāh will join the molecules of every body, bring them back to life and usher them to the Plains of Resurrection. By mentioning this to his people, Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام reminded them of Judgment Day together with pointing out Allāh's greatness.

After discussing the heavens, Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام turned their attention to the earth when he said, "And Allāh has made the earth a bedding for you so that you travel in its wide roads." Despite its spherical structure, Allāh has made the earth as flat as a bed for man so that he can travel easily throughout the earth to fulfil his various needs. Allāh has placed the earth at man's service so that he may derive benefit from its resources. Allāh says in Surah Mulk, "It is He Who subjugated the earth for you so walk on its roads and eat from His sustenance." [Surah 67, verse 15]

The above verse does not denote that the earth is flat and not spherical in shape. The same applies to other verses as well such as verse 6 of Surah Naba (Surah 78) and verse 20 of Surah Ghāshiyah (Surah 88). These verses describe the earth from man's point of view as he stands on earth because it appears flat to him. These verses emphasise that although the earth is spherical in shape, Allāh has not allowed this to affect man's existence on its surface. It should be noted that believing that the earth has a spherical shape or not believing this has no bearing on the Shari'ah. No verse of the Qur'ān refutes this belief.

قَالَ نُوحٌ رَبِّ إِنِّهْم عَصَوْنِي وَأَتَّبَعُوا مَن لَّمْ يَزِدْهُ مَالُهُ وَوَلَدُهُ إِلَّا خَسَارًا ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَكَرُوا مَكْرًا كَبِيرًا ﴿٢٢﴾ وَقَالُوا لَا نَذَرُنَّ آلِهَتَكُمْ وَلَا نَذَرُنَّ وَدًّا وَلَا سُوَاعًا وَلَا يَغُوثَ وَيَعُوقَ وَنَسْرًا ﴿٢٣﴾ وَقَدْ أَضَلُّوا كَثِيرًا وَلَا تَزِدِ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا ضَلَالًا ﴿٢٤﴾ مِمَّا خَطِيئَتُهُمْ أُعْرِقُوا فَأُدْخِلُوا نَارًا فَلَمْ يَجِدُوا لَهْم مِّنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَنْصَارًا ﴿٢٥﴾ وَقَالَ نُوحٌ رَبِّ لَا تَذَرْ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ دَيَّارًا ﴿٢٦﴾ إِنَّكَ إِن تَذَرَهُمْ يُضِلُّوا عِبَادَكَ وَلَا يَلِدُوا إِلَّا فَاجِرًا كَفَّارًا ﴿٢٧﴾ رَبِّ آغْفِرْ لِي وَلِوَلَدِي وَلِمَن دَخَلَ بَيْتِيَ مُؤْمِنًا وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَلَا تَزِدِ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا نَبَارًا ﴿٢٨﴾

(21) Nūh عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! They have refused to obey me and have followed him whose wealth and children have only increased his loss." (22) "They have devised mighty plots." (23) They say, 'Never forsake your gods! Do not forsake Wadd, Suwa, Yaghūth, Ya'ūq and Nasr! (24) "They have certainly led many astray. Do increase the deviation of the oppressors." (25) Because of their sins they were drowned and made to enter the Fire. (26) They found none to assist them against Allāh. Nūh عليه السلام said, "O my Lord! Leave not on earth even one of the disbelievers." (27) "Surely if You leave them they will mislead Your bondsmen and only sinners and disbelievers will be born to them." (28) "O my Lord! Forgive me, my parents, whoever enters my home as a believer and all the believing men and women. Increase the oppressors only in destruction!"

SAYYIDINA NŪH عليه السلام FINALLY PRAYS FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF HIS PEOPLE AND THEY ARE DROWNED

In the above verses, Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام prays for the forgiveness of the believers and for the destruction of the disbelievers. He prayed to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! They (my people) have refused to obey me and have followed him whose wealth and children have only increased his loss." Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام mentioned that instead of following him, the people opted to follow the wealthy people of his nation. They always looked up to the rich because of their wealth and families and did whatever these people told them. The wealth and families of the wealthy therefore proved to be a loss not only for the wealthy but also for the masses who followed them. Neither did the wealth of the rich benefit the masses, nor did they enjoy any status with the rich. Following their commands only ensured that they remained as disbelievers.

Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام further said that the wealthy "devised mighty plots" to ensure that the masses remained devoted to their idols. They imposed on the others saying, "Never forsake your gods! Do not forsake Wadd, Suwa, Yaghūth, Ya'ūq and Nasr!" As a result, "They have certainly led many astray." There was therefore no room for the masses to be reformed. Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام prayed to Allāh saying, "Do increase the deviation of the oppressors." They chose deviation instead of guidance and undertook to remain steadfast on disbelief. Deviation was therefore what they wanted.

Allāh revealed to Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام, "None shall ever believe from your people besides those who have already believed." The number of those who believed was very few, as Allāh says in Surah Hūd, "Only a few believed with him." [Surah 11, verse 40]

Allāh then commanded Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام to build an ark and to take on board all the believers as well as a pair of every land creature. Thereafter, Allāh rained water from the sky and in addition caused water to gush from the earth. Eventually all the disbelievers were drowned including the wife and a son of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام.

After preaching to his people with love for 950 years without receiving a decent response from them but enmity and ridicule instead, Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام grew extremely despondent and his heart became detached from them. It was in this state that he prayed to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! Leave not on earth even one of the disbelievers. Surely if You leave them they will mislead Your bondsmen and (there is no hope of their progeny accepting either because) only sinners and disbelievers will be born to them. O my Lord! Forgive me, my parents, whoever enters my home as a believer and all the believing men and women. Increase the oppressors only in destruction!"

NOTE: Allāh mentions, "Because of their sins they were drowned and made to enter the Fire." Scholars mention that this verse proves that punishment in the grave is a reality because the words "drowned" and "made to enter the Fire" are both in the past tense. The Ahadith also make it clear that the disbelievers and many sinful believers will be subjected to punishment in the grave because of their sins. It is evident that the people of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام will suffer punishment in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) which will be after resurrection. However, since the verse states that they have already been made to enter the Fire, this can only be taking place in the realm of "Barzakh" (the existence between the worldly life and the life of the Ākhirah (Hereafter), usually referring to the period within the grave). Refer to the commentary of verse 27 of Surah Ibrahim (Surah 14) and the commentary of verse 46 of Surah Mu'min (Surah 40) for more details.

سورة الجن

Makkan	Surah Al-Jinn	Verses 28
--------	---------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قُلْ أُوحِيَ إِلَيَّ أَنَّهُ اسْتَمَعَ نَفَرٌ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ فَقَالُوا إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا قُرْآنًا عَجَبًا ۖ يَهْدِي إِلَى
الرُّشْدِ فَآمَنَّا بِهِ وَلَمْ نُشْرِكْ بِرَبِّنَا أَحَدًا ۝ وَأَنَّهُ تَعَلَّى جَدُّ رَبِّنَا مَا اتَّخَذَ صَاحِبَةً وَلَا
وَلَدًا ۝ وَأَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُولُ سَفِيهُنَا عَلَى اللَّهِ شَطَطًا ۝ وَأَنَّا ظَنَنَّا أَن لَّنْ نَقُولَ
الْإِنسَ وَالْجِنِّ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا ۝ وَأَنَّهُ كَانَ رِجَالٌ مِّنَ الْإِنسِ يَعُوذُونَ بِرِجَالٍ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ
فَزَادُوهُمْ رَهَقًا ۝ وَأَنَّهُمْ ظَنُّوا كَمَا ظَنَنْتُمْ أَن لَّنْ يَبْعَثَ اللَّهُ أَحَدًا ۝ وَأَنَّا لَمَسْنَا
السَّمَاءَ فَوَجَدْنَاهَا مُلِئَتْ حَرَسًا شَدِيدًا وَشُهُبًا ۝ وَأَنَّا كُنَّا نَقْعُدُ مِنْهَا مَقْعِدَ
لِّلشَّمْعِ فَمَن يَسْتَمِعِ الْآنَ يَجِدْ لَهُ شِهَابًا رَّصَدًا ۝ وَأَنَّا لَا نَدْرِي أَشَرُّ أُرِيدَ يَمَنَ فِي
الْأَرْضِ أَمْ أَرَادَ بِهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ رَشَدًا ۝ وَأَنَّا مِنَّا الصَّالِحُونَ وَمِمَّا دُونَ ذَلِكَ كُنَّا طَرَائِقَ
قَدَدًا ۝ وَأَنَّا ظَنَنَّا أَن لَّنْ نُعْجِزَ اللَّهَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَن نُّعْجِزَهُ هَرَبًا ۝ وَأَنَّا لَمَّا
سَمِعْنَا الْهُدَىٰ ءَامَنَّا بِهِ فَمَن يُؤْمِنُ بِرَبِّهِ فَلَا يَخَافُ بَخْسًا وَلَا رَهَقًا ۝ وَأَنَّا
مِنَّا الْمُتْسِلُونَ وَمِنَّا الْقَاسِطُونَ فَمَن أَسْلَمَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ تَحَرَّوْا رَشَدًا ۝ وَأَمَّا
الْقَاسِطُونَ فَكَانُوا لِجَهَنَّمَ حَطَبًا ۝ وَالْوَلِيُّ اسْتَقَمُوا عَلَى الطَّرِيقَةِ لَأَسْقِينَهُمْ مَّاءً
غَدَقًا ۝ لِنَقِينَهُمْ فِيهِ وَمَن يُعْرِضْ عَن ذِكْرِ رَبِّهِ يَسْلُكْهُ عَذَابًا صَعَدًا ۝ وَأَنَّ
الْمَسْجِدَ لِلَّهِ فَلَا تَدْعُوا مَعَ اللَّهِ أَحَدًا ۝ وَأَنَّهُ لَمَّا قَامَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ يَدْعُوهُ كَادُوا يَكُونُونَ
عَلَيْهِ لِبَدًا ۝

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) Say, "Revelation has come to me that a group of Jinn attentively listened to me and said, 'Indeed we have heard a most astounding Qur'ān. (2) "It points towards the roads of guidance so we believed in it and we shall never ascribe any partner to our Lord. (3) "Most exalted is the majesty of our Lord, Who has neither taken a wife nor a child." (4) "Undoubtedly, the ignorant among us used to say things about Allāh that transgresses the limit..." (5) "...and we always thought that no human or Jinn could ever lie about Allāh." (6) "Indeed there were those from mankind who used to seek protection from men of the Jinn who increased them only in rebellion." (7) "They thought as you think that Allāh shall not resurrect anyone." (8) 'We have sought to reach the heavens but found it filled with stern guards and flaming fires. (9) "Indeed we used to take up positions there to sit and eavesdrop. Now whoever eavesdrops will find a flaming fire lying in ambush for him." (10) "We have no idea whether evil is intended for those on earth or whether their Lord intends guidance for them. (11) "Among us there are the righteous ones and those who are otherwise. We were of different ways." (12) 'We know that we are unable to escape Allāh on earth and we shall never be able to escape from Him by fleeing. (13) "Verily when we heard the guidance, we believed in it. Whoever believes in his Lord has neither loss nor oppression to fear. (14) "Certainly some of us are Muslims while some of us are oppressors. Those who accept Islām have surely sought the path of good." (15) "As for the oppressors, they shall be fuel for Hell. (16) If they remain steadfast upon the path, We shall definitely bless them with abundant showers... (17) ... to test them with it. Whoever is averse to the reminder of his Lord, We shall enter him into a severe punishment. (18) Indeed, prostration is only for Allāh, so do not supplicate to anyone else with Allāh. (19) When Allāh's slave stood up to call to Him, they densely crowd around him.

THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم RECITES THE QUR'ĀN TO A GROUP OF JINN WHO THEN INVITE THEIR PEOPLE TO ISLĀM

Allāh created the Jinn long before he created Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام and they lived on earth before man. Just like mankind, there are disbelievers and Muslims among them and they are also required to carry out Allāh's commands. Before the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Jinn used to listen to the discussions of the angels in the sky and learn about future events. They would then reveal the news to human fortune-tellers who would in turn relate it to people. When the events transpired as foretold, people became convinced that the fortune-tellers possessed knowledge of the unseen. In this manner, the Jinn and their compatriot fortune-telling human friends deceived people.

However, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent to the world, the Jinn were barred from reaching the skies to eavesdrop on the conversations of the angels. Whenever any of them tried to eavesdrop thereafter, a flaming fire was thrown at him. A narration of Bukhari states that when the Jinn realised that they were no longer free to eavesdrop, they made groups to travel the length and breadth of the earth to investigate the cause for this new occurrence. One of the groups arrived at a place called Nakhla in Tihāma (the area in which Hijāz is situated). At that time, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was leading the Fajr Salāh there and the Jinn had the opportunity to hear the Qur'ān. They listened very attentively and concluded that it was the Qur'ān which prevented them from eavesdropping in the skies. They then returned to their fellow Jinn and said,

"Indeed we have heard a most astounding Qur'ān. It points towards the roads of guidance so we believed in it and we shall never ascribe any partner to our Lord." It was concerning this incident that Allāh revealed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the verses: "Say, 'Revelation has come to me that a group of Jinn attentively listened to me..." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 732]

When their free access to the heavens was barred after the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Jinn continued to make attempts to eavesdrop. They would take up positions in the clouds and eagerly try to hear something. Those who managed to overhear something before being struck by the fire quickly passed the word to others waiting there and the word quickly found its way to fortune-tellers. Of course, what is overheard in the short duration was extremely little. They therefore mixed this with many lies before transmitting them to the fortune-tellers. This has been discussed in the commentaries of verses 16-18 of Surah Hijr (Surah 15), verses 6-10 of Surah Sāffāt (Surah 37), and verse 5 of Surah Mulk (Surah 67).

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that some people asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to enlighten them about fortune-tellers. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "They are nothing." It was then said that they sometimes do predict accurately. Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That will be a statement that a Jinn has snatched up and whispered into his friend's ear, just as a fowl pecks at food. He then mixes it with over a hundred lies." [Mishkāt p. 393 from Bukhari and Muslim]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها also reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the angels descend to the clouds and discuss the decisions that Allāh had made. Whatever the Jinn overhear, they quickly pass onto fortune-tellers who add many lies to the news. [“Mishkāt” p. 392 from Bukhari]

Allāh Ta'āla narrates what the group of Jinn said to their fellow Jinn after listening to the Qur'ān. They said, "Indeed we have heard a most astounding Qur'ān. It points towards the roads of guidance (Oneness of Allah) so we believed in it and (because we understand Oneness of Allah) we shall never ascribe any partner to our Lord. Most exalted is the majesty of our Lord, Who has neither taken a wife nor a child (as we previously believed). Undoubtedly, (we practised Polytheism because) the ignorant among us used to say things about Allāh that transgresses the limit and we always thought that no human or Jinn could ever lie about Allāh." Because so many of the Jinn subscribed to Polytheism (Shirk), the others thought that it must be correct. However, this is no excuse to practise Polytheism (Shirk) because Allāh has given every man enough intelligence to understand the truth of Oneness of Allah and the fallacy of Polytheism (Shirk).

The Jinn continue, "Indeed there were those from mankind who used to seek protection from men of the Jinn who increased them only in rebellion." Whenever people of the past camped at an eerie place during the night, they used to call out to the leader of the Jinn in that vicinity saying, "O leader of this valley! I seek your protection from the fools under your command." Hearing this, the Jinn leaders would be flattered to think that man and Jinn fear them and beseech their help just as they would beseech Allāh's help when in need.

Addressing the Jinn further, the group said, "They (humans) thought as you think that Allāh shall not resurrect anyone." However, they now realised that this belief was incorrect and that Judgment day will come whether people believe in it or not.

They continued, "We have sought to reach the heavens (to eavesdrop) but found it filled with stern guards and flaming fires. Indeed we used to take up positions there (in the sky) to sit and eavesdrop. Now whoever eavesdrops will find a flaming fire lying in ambush for him."

"We have no idea whether evil is intended for those on earth or whether their Lord intends guidance for them." The Jinn expressed that they had no idea whether the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would be widely accepted or whether people would reject his message. They could therefore not say whether people would deserve Allāh's grace or punishment in the end. The Jinn informed the others about this because as inhabitants of the earth, they would also be affected by the result of people's reaction to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. They therefore warned the Jinn that since guidance had now come to them, they should take heed not to subject themselves to Allāh's punishment by rejecting the truth.

They said further, "Among us there are the righteous ones and those who are otherwise (disbelievers and sinners). We were of different ways. (Therefore, many of us thought that we could escape Allāh's punishment when it comes. However, now we know better.) We know that we are unable to escape Allāh on earth and we shall never be able to escape from Him by fleeing. (Wherever we go, Allāh still wields complete power over us)."

"Verily when we heard the guidance, we believed in it. Whoever believes in his Lord has neither loss nor oppression to fear." The believers will receive the rewards for their good deeds. It will never happen that a sincere good deed will be unrewarded or that a person (although a disbeliever) will be punished for a sin he did not commit. In fact, the rewards that a person will receive for good deeds will far outweigh the actual value of the deed. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Undoubtedly Allāh does not even oppress the weight of an atom. If it be a good deed, He shall multiply it and confer from His side a tremendous reward."

Some commentators have interpreted the Arabic word "rahaqa" (translated above as "oppression") to mean disgrace. Therefore, the believers have no disgrace to fear in the Hereafter.

The Muslim Jinn said further, "Certainly some of us are Muslims while some of us are oppressors. Those who accept Islām have surely sought the path of good (by securing success in both worlds). As for the oppressors, they shall be fuel for Hell."

Allāh Ta'āla continues, "If they remain steadfast upon the path, We shall definitely bless them with abundant showers to test them with it." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" writes that this verse is linked to the first verse viz. "Say, 'Revelation has come to me that...'" Therefore, the verse reads: "Say, 'Revelation has come to me that if they remain steadfast upon the path, We shall definitely bless them with abundant showers (of bounties) to test them with it.'" Allāh showers bounties on people to see whether they express gratitude for these or not. Furthermore, 'Whoever is averse to the reminder of his Lord, We shall enter him into a severe punishment.'"

Allāh asserts, 'indeed, prostration is only for Allāh, so do not supplicate to anyone else with Allāh.' This means that worship is reserved exclusively for Allāh. The verse makes it clear that it is not permissible to prostrate to any being besides Allāh even though the prostration is carried out for respect and not for worship. It was common in the past for people to prostrate before their kings and even today many so-called saints have their devotees prostrate to them when arriving or when leaving. Such practices are totally Harām (unlawful) and are tantamount to polytheism.

Some commentators have translated the word "masājid" (translated above as "prostration") as "places of prostration" (i.e. the plural of Masjid). This translation will have the same meaning as the above interpretation i.e. prostration (for which these places were built) should be for Allāh only. If one is travelling and stops for Salāh somewhere, the place will also be regarded as a "place of prostration" and the Salāh should be for Allāh only.

"When Allāh's slave stood up to call to Him, they densely crowd around him." Like the foregoing verses, this verse is also linked to first verse viz. "Say, 'Revelation has come to me that...'" The verse therefore means: "Say, 'Revelation has come to me that when Allāh's slave [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] stood up to call people to Allāh, they (the Jinn) densely crowd around him." When the Jinn saw Salāh for the first time and heard the Qur'ān for the first time, they eagerly thronged around the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه say that the above verse refers to the Quraysh and the rest of the Arabs who thronged together to oppose the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he started to preach Oneness of Allah.

NOTE: Because the Arabs used to seek the protection of the Jinn when stopping over at a place on their journeys, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that whenever a person stops at a place while on journey, he should recite:

"I seek, the protection of Allāh's complete words from the evil of that which He had created"

When he recites this, Allāh will protect him from all harm until he leaves the place. [Muslim]

قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَدْعُوا رَبِّي وَلَا أُشْرِكُ بِهِ أَحَدًا ﴿٢٠﴾ قُلْ إِنِّي لَا أَمْلِكُ لَكُمْ ضَرًّا وَلَا رَشَدًا ﴿٢١﴾
 قُلْ إِنِّي لَنْ يُخِيرَنِي مِنَ اللَّهِ أَحَدٌ وَلَنْ أَجِدَ مِنْ دُونِهِ مُلْتَحَدًا ﴿٢٢﴾ إِلَّا بَلَاغًا مِنَ اللَّهِ
 وَرِسَالَةً وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَإِنَّ لَهُ نَارَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدًا فِيهَا أَبَدًا ﴿٢٣﴾ حَتَّى
 إِذَا رَأَوْا مَا يُوعَدُونَ فَيَسْأَلُونَ مَنْ أَوْفَىٰ نَاصِرًا وَأَقَلَّ عَدَدًا ﴿٢٤﴾ قُلْ إِنْ أَدْرَىٰ
 أَقْرَبُ مَا تُوعَدُونَ أَمْ يَجْعَلُ لَهُ رَبِّي أَمَدًا ﴿٢٥﴾ عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ فَلَا يُظْهِرُ عَلَىٰ

غَيْبِهِ أَحَدًا ﴿٢٦﴾ إِلَّا مَنِ ارْتَضَىٰ مِنْ رَسُولٍ فَإِنَّهُ يَسْلُكُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِ
رَصَدًا ﴿٢٧﴾ لِيَعْلَمَ أَنْ قَدْ أَبْلَغُوا رَسُولَكَ رَبِّهِمْ وَأَحَاطَ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ وَأَحْصَىٰ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ
عَدَدًا ﴿٢٨﴾

(20) Say, "I worship only my Lord and I do not ascribe any as His partner." (21) Say, "Indeed I have no power to do you any harm nor any good." (22) Say, "Without doubt, none can ever protect me from Allāh and I cannot find any refuge besides Him." (23) "(My responsibility is nothing) except transmitting from Allāh and fulfilling His messages. Whoever disobeys Allāh and His messenger shall have the fire of Hell where they will live forever." (24) When they see what they have been promised, they will realise who had the weakest assistant and whose numbers were fewer. (25) Say, "I do not know whether what you have been promised is near or whether your Lord has specified a lengthy term for it" (26) "He is the Knower of the unseen and He has informed no one about His unseen knowledge... (27) ...except His selected messengers." So He has dispatched guards in front of him and behind him... (28) ....so that He may know that they have conveyed the messages of their Lord. He has knowledge of their conditions and He keeps meticulous count of everything.

AN INVITATION TO ONENESS OF ALLAH AND EXONERATION FROM DISBELIEF

Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Say, 'I worship, only my Lord and I do not ascribe any as His partner. (I therefore advise you with what I personally practise. Because I am also a human being just like the rest of you.) Indeed I have no power to do you any harm nor any good. (I am therefore unable to bring Allāh 's punishment to you as you request. Furthermore, If Allāh 's punishment has to afflict you, I cannot avert it. If I were to anger Allāh on any account,) Without doubt, none can ever protect me from Allāh and I cannot find any refuge besides Him. (I am unable to abandon my duty of prophethood and I cannot even alter the revelation I receive.) (My responsibility is nothing) except transmitting from Allāh and fulfilling His messages. (Remember,) Whoever disobeys Allāh and His messenger shall have the fire of Hell where they will live forever'"

Allāh says further, "When they (the disbelievers) see what they have been promised (Judgment day), they will realise who had the weakest assistant and whose numbers were fewer." In this world, the disbelievers look down on the Muslims, thinking that they have weak allies and fewer numbers. On this account, they regard themselves as superior. However, they will realise the error of their ways on the Day of Judgment when the Muslims will emerge as the superior ones and will have each other to intercede for them. On the other hand, the disbelievers will have no allies to help them.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the disbelievers about Judgment day and the severity of the day, they mocked him by asking him to inform them of the exact date of Judgment Day! It was in response to such questions that Allāh revealed the verse: "Say, 'I do not know whether what you have been promised (that is Judgment Day) is near or whether your Lord has specified a lengthy term for it. He is the Knower of the unseen and He has informed no one about His unseen knowledge except His selected messengers." Allāh sometimes informed the Prophets عليهم السلام about certain matters of the unseen so that their prophecies could convince people that they are certainly Allāh's messengers.

Allāh informs these Prophets عليهم السلام about the unseen via divine revelation. When Allāh sends this revelation to His prophet, He commissions "guards (angels) in front of him and behind him" i.e. all around him to ensure that no Satan can interfere with the revelation. Allāh Ta'āla had commissioned four angels to carry out this task for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh adopts these measures "So that He may know (especially so that people may know) that they (the angels) have conveyed the messages of their Lord (without any interference). (Of course, nothing is hidden from Allāh because) He has knowledge of their conditions and He keeps meticulous count of everything." Allāh has perfect knowledge of the angels. He appoints and selects only those who are most capable. In addition to this, Allāh also knows exactly what revelation is being conveyed to the Prophets عليهم السلام.

The above verses reveal that Allāh has revealed to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a great deal of knowledge about the unseen (which includes knowledge of the Shari'ah). However, Allāh did not inform him about the exact date of Judgment Day. Neither does this affect the status of his prophethood at all nor does it mean that Judgment Day will not take place. However, Allāh has revealed sufficient knowledge of Nabuwwah (prophethood) to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for people to successfully lead their lives. We should make every effort to practise this and should not delve into matters that have no relevance.

سورة المزمل

Makkan

Surah Al-Muzzammil

Verses 20

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَزْمِلُ ① قُمْ أَيْلًا إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ② نِصْفَهُ أَوْ انْقُصْ مِنْهُ قَلِيلًا ③ أَوْ زِدْ عَلَيْهِ
وَرَتِّلِ الْقُرْآنَ تَرْتِيلًا ④ إِنَّا سَنُلْقِي عَلَيْكَ قَوْلًا ثَقِيلًا ⑤ إِنَّ نَاشِئَةَ اللَّيْلِ هِيَ أَشَدُّ وَطْأً
وَأَقْوَمُ قِيلًا ⑥ إِنَّ لَكَ فِي النَّهَارِ سَبْحًا طَوِيلًا ⑦ وَاذْكُرْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ وَتَبَتَّلْ إِلَيْهِ تَبْتِيلًا
⑧ رَبُّ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَاتَّخِذْهُ وَكِيلًا ⑨

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent the Most Merciful.

(1) O you wrapped in a cloth! (2) Stand up all night except a little while... (3) ...half the night or slightly less... (4) .. or add some more. And recite the Qur'ān steadily. (5) Verily We shall soon cast a weighty word upon you. (6) Undoubtedly, waking at night is extremely difficult but speech is most correctly spoken then. (7) You certainly have intensive work during the day. (8) Remember the name of your Lord and cut yourself off from everything to focus your attention solely on Him. (9) He is the Lord of the East and the West. There is none worthy of worship besides Him so adopt Him as your guardian.

THE COMMAND TO WORSHIP ALLĀH AT NIGHT AND TO TURN ONLY TO HIM

Although this Surah was revealed before the Hijrah (migration), some commentators mention that certain verses were revealed after the Hijrah. Scholars mention that whenever the polytheists said or did something that hurt the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم very deeply, he would wrap himself up in a cloth. Addressing him by this description, Allāh says, "O you wrapped in a cloth!" This form of address is one of endearment and said in good nature just as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once addressed Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه by the name Abu Turāb (Father of sand) and addressed Sayyidina Hudhaifa رضى الله عنه by the name Noumān (one who sleeps a lot).

Once, when the polytheists called the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by an unpleasant name, Allāh revealed the above verses of the Qur'ān beginning with an affectionate term to annul the name that the polytheists used. Allāh instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to perform Tahajjud (A prayers said after midnight) Salāh saying, "Stand up all night except a little while, half the night or slightly less or add some more. And recite the Qur'ān steadily." Allāh Ta'āla gave the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the option of spending half the night in Ibādah, less than half (one-third) or more than half (two-thirds).

Together with this command, Allāh adds, "And recite the Qur'ān steadily." Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to recite the Qur'ān so hastily that words are cut out and the proper meaning is not understood. Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always recited the Qur'ān steadily, the command is emphasised in this verse because Qirā'ah (recitation of the Qur'ān) is prolonged in the Tahajjud Salāh and during this time, the heart is attentive to the recitation. However, because one is also sleepy at this time, one should not hurry the Salāh in an effort to get to sleep earlier. Whatever one recites should be recited steadily and when one becomes sleepy, one should sleep. This is the instruction of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم according to a hadith of Bukhari and Muslim.

The Tahajjud Salāh is Sunnah for the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and great virtues have been promised for performing it. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله quotes certain Scholars who state that the Tahajjud Salāh was Obligatory for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He reports from Sa'yidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that Tahajjud was Obligatory for all the Prophets عليهم السلام.

Reciting the Qur'ān steadily as commanded in the above verse refers to reciting the words of the Qur'ān clearly, ensuring that each letter is recited from its correct Makhraj (place in the mouth or throat from which the letter originates) and with all the correct qualities related to the letter. The Qurrā (experts in the science of Qur'ānic recitation) have classified three ways of reciting the Qur'ān. These are Tartil, Tadvir and Hadar. Tartil denotes reciting the Qur'ān very slowly while Hadar refers to a very swift recitation. Tadvir falls between the two i.e. neither very slowly nor very fast. One may recite the Qur'ān in any of these manners provided that one's recitation conforms with the rules for proper recitation of the Qur'ān (Tajwīd) and provided that no word is cut off while reciting.

The Qurrā have reported from Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه that reciting the Qur'ān "steadily" means that one should recite the words of the Qur'ān with Tajwīd (i.e. properly conforming with the rules of recitation).and one should recognise the appropriate halting places when reciting. It is unfortunate that it has become fashionable for people (even for so-called Qurrā) to "eat" many letters while reciting the Qur'ān. Among the many letters that such people "feed" on is the Alif, such as in the verse:

رَبَّنَا ابْصُرْنَا وَسَمِعْنَا فَأَرْجِعْنَا

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further, Allāh continues, "Verily We shall soon cast a weighty word upon you." This verse refers to the revelation of the Qur'ān.

Allāh describes the Qur'ān as a "weighty word" because the effort of propagating the message of the Qur'ān was not easy. When this verse was revealed, much of the Qur'ān was still not revealed and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was still to receive much more opposition from the Polytheists.

The Qur'ān is also referred to as a "weighty word" because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was placed under severe pressure when the Qur'ān was revealed to him. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that the colour of the Holy Prophet's face would change when any verses of the Qur'ān were revealed. She says that when revelation was over, perspiration would be streaming down his face even during the severest winters. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 1]

Sayyidina Zaid bin Thābit رضى الله عنه has also narrated that the thigh of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once on his leg when revelation of some Qur'ānic verses began. He says that he felt as if his leg would break with the weight that the Holy Prophet's thigh exerted at that time.

Allāh continues, "Undoubtedly, waking at night is extremely difficult" i.e. difficult for the Nafs (carnal self). This difficulty is a fleeting difficulty of this world but the benefits that Tahajjud (A prayer said after midnight) earns one are tremendous. One will forget all these difficulties when one realises the marvellous bounties and ranks in Heaven that it secures for one. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that there are exquisite multi-storeyed palaces in Heaven that are transparent. These are reserved for those who feed others, who greet everyone with Salām and who perform Salāh at night when everyone else is sleeping. ["Targhib wat Tarhib" v. 1 p. 424]

Allāh continues, "but speech is most correctly spoken then." At night there is no noise because people are asleep and one will not be disturbed as one is during the daytime. Therefore, it will be easier for one to concentrate on one's Ibādah (worship) during this time. One will then be able to recite Qirā'ah at leisure and take one's time to make supplication.

Allāh says to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "You certainly have intensive work during the day." During the daytime, people have domestic, social and other duties to attend to and will therefore be unable to concentrate in their Ibādah (worship).

"Remember the name of your Lord..." Taking Allāh's name [engaging in remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr)] is not restricted to Salāh but can be done at any time and at all times. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم engaged in remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr) during all hours of the day. [Muslim]

"...and cut yourself off from everything to focus your attention solely on Him." When engaging in Ibādah (worship), one should focus complete attention on Allāh. The sign that one's complete attention is focussed on Allāh is that one's relationship with Allāh overpowers one's relationship with everyone else such as one's children, one's spouse, one's friends, etc. One will then not allow one's relationship with anyone else to hinder obedience to Allāh's laws. Although the person whose attention is always focussed on Allāh will be seen associating with people, his heart is turned towards Allāh. Such a person will please people without violating Allāh's laws.

"He (Allāh) is the Lord of the East and the West. There is none worthy of worship besides Him so adopt Him as your guardian." This verse makes it clear that everything in the universe happens by Allāh's command and people should realise that they should worship Allāh only and that only He can assist them in all matters. They should ask all their needs only from Him.

وَأَصْبِرْ عَلَىٰ مَا يَقُولُونَ وَاهْجُرْهُمْ هَجْرًا جَمِيلًا ﴿١٠﴾ وَذَرْنِي وَالْمُكَذِّبِينَ أُولَىٰ النَّعْمَةِ
وَمَهْلَكُهُمْ قَلِيلًا ﴿١١﴾ إِنَّ لَدَيْنَا أَنْكَالًا وَجَحِيمًا ﴿١٢﴾ وَطَعَامًا ذَا غُصَّةٍ وَعَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿١٣﴾ يَوْمَ
تَرْجُفُ الْأَرْضُ وَالْجِبَالُ وَكَانَتِ الْجِبَالُ كَثِيرًا مَّهِيلًا ﴿١٤﴾

(10) Patiently bear whatever they say and separate from them in a most beautiful manner. (11) Leave me with the falsifiers who are blessed with bounties and grant them grace for a while. (12) Verily We have manacles, the Blazing fire... (13) .....food that gets stuck in the throat and a painful punishment. (14) (This punishment will take place) on the day that the earth and mountains will shake and the mountains will be reduced to a heap of dust.

ALLĀH ENJOINS THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم TO PATIENTLY BEAR THE HARASSMENT OF THE DISBELIEVERS

In the above verses, Allāh Ta'āla consoles the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling him not to be grieved by the rejection of the polytheists. Engrossed in the bounties that Allāh had granted them, they refused to listen to the teachings of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, these bounties are temporary. Allāh granted them more of the world so that they can slip further into deviation and become deserving of Allāh's punishment in the Hereafter. The message of this verse is similar to that of verses 44 and 45 of Surah Qalam (Surah 68) where Allāh says, "So leave Me and the one who falsifies this speech. We shall gradually lead them on in a manner that they do not realise. I am granting them respite. Indeed, My planning is formidable."

Allāh then mentions the punishment that the people will receive who falsify the Qur'ān and the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says, "Verily We have (in store for them) manacles, the Blazing fire, food that gets stuck in the throat and a painful punishment."

Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the hunger that the people of Hell will suffer will be so extreme that it will equal the other forms of punishment in Hell. When they will plead for food, they will be given Darī (Thorny trees) to eat, which will neither provide nutrition nor satisfy their hunger. When they plead for food a second time, they will be given 'food that gets stuck in the throat'. In an effort to get the food down their throats, they will recall that in this world they used to drink something in such a situation. They will then plead for something to drink. Boiling water will be given to them suspended on iron hooks. The water will be so hot that when it is brought close to their faces, their faces will be scalded. When they drink it, it will incinerate their entrails. [“Mishkāt” p. 504]

Allāh continues, “(This punishment will take place) on the day that the earth and mountains will shake and the mountains will be reduced to a heap of dust” i.e. on the Day of Judgment. According to other commentators, the verse reads: “Leave me with the falsifiers on the day that the earth and mountains will shake and the mountains will be reduced to a heap of dust.”

إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ رَسُولًا شَهِدًا عَلَيْكُمْ كَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ رَسُولًا ﴿١٥﴾ فَعَصَىٰ فِرْعَوْنُ الرَّسُولَ فَأَخَذْنَاهُ أَخْذًا وَبِيلًا ﴿١٦﴾ فَكَيْفَ تَنْقُونَ إِن كُفَرْتُمْ يَوْمًا يَجْعَلُ الْوِلْدَانَ شِيبًا ﴿١٧﴾ السَّمَاءُ مُنْفَطِرٌ بِهِ ۚ كَانَ وَعْدُهُ مَفْعُولًا ﴿١٨﴾ إِنَّ هَذِهِ تَذْكِرَةٌ ۖ فَمَنْ شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا ﴿١٩﴾

(15) Verily We have sent a messenger to you as a witness just as We sent a messenger to phara’oh (Fir’oun). (16) Phara’oh (Fir’oun) refused to obey the messenger so We seized him most severely. (17) So if you disbelieve, how will you save (yourselves) from the day that will turn children’s hair white? (18) The sky will be cleft apart on that day. Allāh’s promise always takes place. (19) This is advice indeed. So whoever wishes to do so, should adopt a path to his Lord.

THOSE WHO DISBELIEVE WILL BE PUNISHED LIKE PHARA’OH (FIR’OUN) AS WELL AS RECEIVE SEVERE PUNISHMENT ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

Allāh reminds people that just as He sent Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام to phara’oh (Fir’oun), He also sent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم who will be a witness against them on the Day of Judgment if they do not believe. Mankind should take a lesson from what happened to phara’oh (Fir’oun) and his army when they refused to believe Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. They should be cautious not to suffer the same punishment in this world, which could well afflict anyone who disbelieves in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In addition to the punishment they received in this world, they will also suffer punishment on the Day of Judgment.

Allāh describes the Day of Judgment as a day so frightening that children will even grow old because of fear. This expression is metaphorical and used to highlight the severity of the Day of Judgment. Other commentators state that children will grow old on that Day of Judgment because it will be so long.

“This is advice indeed. So whoever wishes to do so, should adopt a path to his Lord” i.e. a path that leads to His pleasure and which will lead one to Heaven. This path refers to Islām.

﴿٢٠﴾ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَعْلَمُ أَنَّكَ تَقُومُ أَدْنَىٰ مِن ثُلَاثِي إِلَيْلٍ وَنِصْفِهِ وَيُلْقِيُكَ وَطْأَيْتَهُ مِنَ الَّذِينَ مَعَكَ وَاللَّهُ

يُقَدِّرُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ عَلِمَ أَنْ لَنْ تُحْصَوْهُ فَتَابَ عَلَيْكُمْ فَاقْرَءُوا مَا تَيَسَّرَ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ عَلِمَ أَنْ سَيَكُونُ مِنْكُمْ مَرْضَىٰ وَآخَرُونَ يَضْرِبُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ يَلْتَمِعُونَ مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ وَآخَرُونَ يَقْتُلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَاقْرَءُوا مَا تَيَسَّرَ مِنْهُ وَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَاقْرِضُوا اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا وَمَا تُقَدِّمُوا لِأَنْفُسِكُمْ مِنْ خَيْرٍ نَجِدُوهُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ هُوَ خَيْرًا وَأَعْظَمَ أَجْرًا وَاسْتَغْفِرُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٢٠﴾

(20) Verily your Lord knows that you and a group of those with you stand (in worship) close to two-thirds of the night, half the night and a third. Allāh determines the night and the day. He knows that you are unable to precisely calculate (the duration of each portion of the night) so He has turned to you in mercy. Therefore, recite that part of the Qur'ān which is easy. Allāh knows that some of you may fall ill, others will travel in the world in search of Allāh's bounty and others will fight in Allāh's path. So recite that of the Qur'ān which is easy, establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and give to Allāh a good loan. Whatever good you send ahead for yourselves, you will find it with Allāh in a better and more rewarding state. Seek forgiveness from Allāh. Verily Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.

CONCESSION IN TAHAJJUD (A PRAYER SAID AFTER MIDNIGHT) AND THE COMMAND TO ESTABLISH SALĀH, PAY ZAKĀH AND SPEND IN CHARITY

At the beginning of the Surah, Allāh Ta'āla gave the believers a choice concerning the duration of their Tahajjud Salāh (A prayer said after midnight) i.e. two-thirds, half or one-third of the night. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه states that when Allāh revealed the verses "Stand up all night except a little while; half the night or slightly less or add some more" the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم found it difficult to precisely calculate two-thirds, half or one-third of the night. Fearing that they should miscalculate and fail to stand for the stipulated periods, the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم therefore stood in Salāh the entire night until the break of dawn. As a result of this exertion, their feet used to swell and they grew extremely pale.

Taking pity on them, Allāh Ta'āla revealed the verse "Verily your Lord knows that you and a group of those with you stand (in worship) close to two-thirds of the night, (others stand) half the night and (others) a third." Allāh therefore made it easier for the Muslims and commanded them to "recite that part of the Qur'ān which is easy". Therefore, instead of having to remain in Salāh for an entire half, two-thirds or a third of the night, they were now permitted to recite as much as they could manage. There was now no fixed portion of the night during which they were constrained to engage in Ibādah (worship).

The first reason that Allāh cites for the concession granted is that "He knows that you are unable to precisely calculate (the duration of each portion of the night) so He has turned to you in mercy." The second reason for the concession is mentioned thereafter where Allāh says, “Allāh knows that some of you may fall ill, others will travel in the world in search of Allāh’s bounty (i.e. in search of their livelihood) and others will fight in Allāh’s path.” Because people in these conditions will find it difficult to perform the Tahajjud Salāh and to adhere to fixed durations of the night, Allāh Ta’āla has made the Tahajjud Salāh Mustahab (preferable) without stipulating a fixed portion of the night in which the Salāh should be completed.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه narrates from Sheikh Abu Nasr Qushayri رحمه الله عليه that it is commonly believed that the compulsion to perform the Tahajjud Salāh (A prayer said after midnight) no longer applied to the Ummah of the Holy Prôphet صلى الله عليه وسلم but the compulsion still applied to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself. Some Scholars are of the opinion that the compulsion still applies to the Ummah but it was only the stipulation of a fixed portion of the night that no longer applied.

“Ruhul Ma’āni” reports from Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها that the opening verses of Surah Muzzammil had made Tahajjud Salāh compulsory for the Muslims. Consequently, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the prophet’s companions (Sahābah) رضي الله عنهم performed the Salāh consistently for twelve months before the final verse of the Surah was revealed to remove the compulsion. Tahajjud then became optional. According to another narration, it was eighteen months before the closing portion of the Surah was revealed.

Allāh commands the Muslims further by saying, “So recite that of the Qur’ān which is easy, establish Salāh, pay Zakāh and give to Allāh a good loan.” Allāh enjoins Muslims to spend their wealth on His creation and in avenues that are pleasing to Him. Although the wealth people have actually belongs to Allāh and they are also Allāh’s creation, Allāh is generous enough to reward us abundantly for spending in His way. In addition to this, Allāh refers to this as a “loan”. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, “Who is it that will lend to Allah a good loan so that Allah may increase it manifold?” [Surah 2, verse 245]

Allāh Ta’āla concludes the Surah by saying, “Whatever good you send ahead for yourselves, you will find it with Allāh in a better and more rewarding state. Seek forgiveness from Allāh. Verily Allāh is Most Forgiving, Most Merciful.” One should seek Allāh’s pardon after every good deed because one does not know what faults may exist in one’s deeds.

سورة المدثر

Makkan	Surah Al-Muddaththir	Verses 56
--------	----------------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
 يٰٓأَيُّهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ ﴿١﴾ قُمْ فَأَنذِرْ ﴿٢﴾ وَرَبِّكَ فَكْبِرْ ﴿٣﴾ وَثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ ﴿٤﴾ وَالرُّجْزَ فَاهْجُرْ ﴿٥﴾
 وَلَا تَمْنُنْ تَسْتَكْبِرُ ﴿٦﴾ وَلِرَبِّكَ فَاصْبِرْ ﴿٧﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) O you wrapped in garments. (2) Stand up and warn. (3) Announce the greatness of your Lord. (4) Keep your clothing clean. (5) Stay away from sin. (6) Do not give to others with the intention of receiving more back. (7) Be patient for the sake of your Lord.

THE COMMAND TO THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ TO PREACH

In a narration of Bukhari (v. 1 p. 2), Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet ﷺ was in the cave of Hira when divine revelation came to him for the first time.

The Holy Prophet ﷺ used to frequent the cave and take food along with him because he would spend many days there. One day, an angel approached him in the cave and said, "Read!" When the Holy Prophet ﷺ said that he was unlettered and therefore unable to read, the angel embraced The Holy Prophet ﷺ so hard that he experienced great difficulty. Thereafter, the angel repeated the command to read and the Holy Prophet ﷺ gave the same reply. For the second time, the angel embraced the Holy Prophet ﷺ in the same manner. When he released the Holy Prophet ﷺ, he repeated the question. Again the Holy Prophet ﷺ told him that he was unable to read and again the angel embraced him. Thereafter, the angel said, "Read in the name of your Lord Who created man from a clot of blood"

The Holy Prophet ﷺ repeated what the angel said and then the angel left. The Holy Prophet ﷺ immediately left for home in a very frightened state. He said to his wife Sayyidah Khadijah رضى الله عنها, "Cover me! Cover me!" When she covered him, he lay down for a while until the fear subsided. Thereafter, no revelation was forthcoming for some time. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 376]

Sayyidina Jābir bin Abdillāh رضى الله عنه narrates that during this period, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once heard a voice calling him from the sky. When he looked up he saw the same angel who came to him in the cave of Hira. The angel was sitting on a chair and filled the space between the sky and the earth. Overcome with fear, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned home and again said to his wife Sayyidah Khadija رضى الله عنها, "Cover me! Cover me!" It was then that Allāh revealed the verses, "O you wrapped in garments. Stand up and warn. Announce the greatness of your Lord. Keep your clothing clean. Stay away from sin." After this, revelation continued to come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم until he passed away. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 3]

Because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was wrapped up in a shawl at that time, Allāh address him saying, "O you wrapped in garments." Allāh further commanded the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to propagate Oneness of Allah when He says, "Stand up and warn." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a warner as well as a giver of glad tidings but because warning people against Polytheism was more necessary during the early years of propagation, Allāh instructed him to do only this.

"Announce the greatness of your Lord." This is an instruction to propagate the grandeur of Allāh after being convinced himself. This announcement takes place at the beginning of Sarah and during the Ṣalāh when one says "Allāhu Akbar" ("Allāh is the Greatest").

"Keep your clothing clean." Although this command refers to the physical purity of one's clothing, Scholars have deduced that it also refers to spiritual purity because on occasions when physical impurity is not permitted, spiritual impurity can also not be permitted.

Allāh commands further, "Stay away from sin." This command makes reference to purity of one's limbs because sins are generally carried out with the limbs. Some commentators mention that "sin" in this context refers specifically to idol-worship. Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never worshipped idols at all during his life, this command is actually directed to the Polytheists. The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that "sin" refers 'to the attraction of this world which is the greatest idol that people worship. Whereas idols are worshipped only in confined areas like temples, the world is worshipped everywhere, including in many Masājid. It is for the love of this world that many Masājid are built and many wars are fought. In fact, many people even recite the Qur'ān for worldly gain and propagate the religion for the same objective. Like these, there are so many other good deeds that many people carry out for worldly gain. Such deeds translate into worship of the world.

"Do not give to others with the intention of receiving more back." Whatever one gives to another should not be given with the motive that the person will repay more than what is due. Neither should such a clause be desired nor stated. Whatever one gives should be given only for Allāh's pleasure. Describing His sincere bondsmen in Surah Dahar Allāh says, "Despite the love (need) for food, they feed the poor, the orphan and the captive and say, 'We feed you only for Allāh's pleasure and desire neither a return, nor thanks from you.'" This verse tells us that let alone expecting recompense from the recipient, one should not even desire that the recipient says a word of thanks.

"Be patient for the sake of your Lord." Because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was charged with propagating the Religion, he could expect opposition from the Polytheists. Allāh therefore enjoins him to endure the opposition with patience and that the patience should be exercised for Allāh's pleasure. Patience endured for Allāh's pleasure will earn one tremendous rewards and the thought of this reward eases the task of being patient. Allāh says in Surah Zumar, "The patient ones shall be granted their reward without reservation." [Surah 39, verse 10]

فَإِذَا نُفِرَ فِي الْأَقْصَرِ ﴿٨﴾ فَذَلِكَ يَوْمٌ عَسِيرٌ ﴿٩﴾ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ غَيْرُ يَسِيرٍ ﴿١٠﴾ ذَرْنِي وَمَنْ خَلَقْتُ وَحِيدًا ﴿١١﴾ وَجَعَلْتُ لَهُ مَالًا مَمْدُودًا ﴿١٢﴾ وَبَنِينَ شُهُودًا ﴿١٣﴾ وَمَهْدَتْ لَهُ تَهِيدًا ﴿١٤﴾ ثُمَّ يَطْمَعُ أَنْ أَزِيدَ ﴿١٥﴾ كَلَّا إِنَّهُ كَانَ لِإِيْتِنَا عَنِيدًا ﴿١٦﴾ سَأَرْهُقُهُ صَعُودًا ﴿١٧﴾ إِنَّهُ فَكَّرَ وَقَدَّرَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَقِيلَ كَيْفَ قَدَّرَ ﴿١٩﴾ ثُمَّ قِيلَ كَيْفَ قَدَّرَ ﴿٢٠﴾ ثُمَّ نَظَرَ ﴿٢١﴾ ثُمَّ عَبَسَ وَبَسَرَ ﴿٢٢﴾ ثُمَّ أَدْبَرَ وَاسْتَكْبَرَ ﴿٢٣﴾ فَقَالَ إِن هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ يُؤْتَرُ ﴿٢٤﴾ إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا قَوْلُ الْبَشَرِ ﴿٢٥﴾ سَأُصْلِيهِ سَقَرَ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا سَقَرٌ ﴿٢٧﴾ لَا تُبْقِي وَلَا تَذَرُ ﴿٢٨﴾ لَوَاحٌ لِّلْبَشَرِ ﴿٢٩﴾ عَلَيْهَا تِسْعَةَ عَشَرَ ﴿٣٠﴾

(8) When the trumpet is blown... (9) ...that day will be an extremely severe day... (10) ...for the disbelievers and will not be easy. (11) Leave Me with the one whom I have created single-handedly... (12) ...and to whom I have granted ever increasing wealth... (13) ...sons who live with him... (14) ...and for whom I have prepared every type of amenity. (15) He then wishes that I grant him even more. (16) Never! He was certainly opposed to Our verses. (17) I shall soon make him climb a mountain of Hell. (18) Verily, he thought and devised something. (19) May he be destroyed! How does he plot? (20) May he be destroyed again! How does he plot? (21) He looked... (22) ..and then frowned and scowled (23) Then he turned away and was proud. (24) He said, "This is nothing but magic recounted from the past." (25) "This is nothing but the word of man." (26) I shall soon enter him into Hell. (27) What shall inform you what Hell is? (28) It neither spares nor leaves. (29) It distorts the body. (30) Nineteen angels are commissioned over it.

THE EVIL OF THE POLYTHEISTS AND THE WARNING OF PUNISHMENT

Allāma Baghawī رحمه الله عليه narrates in "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" (v. 4 p. 415) that Walid bin Mughiera was once in the Masjidul Harām when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the first two verses of Surah Ghāfir to him. Walid was moved by the verses. Noticing this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم repeated the verses. After listening to them, Walid left. When he met with his tribe the Banu Makhzūm, he told them that he had just heard such a speech from Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم that was neither the speech of man nor Jinn and which was extremely sweet.

When the Quraysh heard about this, they grew concerned that if Walid were to accept Islām, the rest of the Quraysh would soon follow suit. Abu Jahl put them at ease saying that he would solve the problem for them. He then went to Walid and sat beside him, pretending to be extremely sad. Walid asked, "What is the matter dear cousin? Why are you so sad?" Abu Jahl said, "The Quraysh had decided to amass wealth for you and to assist you until old age. Now they think that you listen to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and that you go to him. The son of Abu Quhāfa [i.e. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه] is also there and you eat with them."

Walid did not like what he heard and said, "How can the Quraysh think this? Do they not know that I am superior to them. Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his companions rarely eat a full stomach (Where will they have food to feed me?)" Walid then accompanied Abu Jahl to a gathering of the Quraysh and said, "You people say that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is insane. Did you ever see him strangle himself?" When they replied in the negative, he continued, "You people claim that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is fortune-teller. Did you ever hear him speak like a fortune-teller?" When they again replied in the negative, he said, "You say that he is a poet. Did you ever hear him recite poetry?" When they declared that they had not, he added, "You say that he is a liar. Have you ever heard him speak a lie in his life?" They were forced to concede that they had never heard him speak a lie. In fact, they had given him the title of Al Amin (The Trustworthy).

When the Quraysh asked him what was his opinion about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Walid said, "I think that he is certainly a magician. Do you not see how his speech separates husband from wife and father from son?"

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that Abu Jahl told Walid that the Quraysh would not be satisfied with Walid until he says something about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that makes it evident that he is not following the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Walid asked for a period of grace to consider the matter and then later declared before the Quraysh that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was a magician.

Walid bin Mughiera was extremely wealthy. He owned fields, dairy animals, orchards, businesses and many slaves. In addition to this, he had ten sons who were always at his service. Whenever Heaven was mentioned before him, he would say, "If Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is true, then Heaven was created for me." With the above details in mind, we will now discuss the commentary of the verses of this Surah.

Allāh begins by discussing Judgment Day when He says, "When the trumpet is blown, that day will be an extremely severe day for the disbelievers and will not be easy."

Allāh then speaks about Walid bin Mughiera when He says, "Leave Me with the one whom I have created single-handedly. ..." i.e. leave him to Me to punish him. No one assisted Allāh in creating Walid and therefore Allāh does not need to consult with anyone when He wishes to punish. The verse may also be translated as:

"Leave Me with the one whom I have created alone ..." i.e. I created him without the wealth and family he now boasts about. Allāh recounts the bounties that He blessed Walid with. Allāh further says about Walid that he is one, "whom I have granted ever increasing wealth, sons who live with him, and for whom I have prepared every type of amenity."

Allāh continues, "He then wishes that I grant him even more. Never!" This verse denies that Walid will ever receive more in this world and also denies that he will receive anything in the Hereafter as he claimed when he said that Heaven was created for him. "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that after this verse was revealed, Walid suffered repeated losses in his wealth and in his family until he was finally killed in the Battle of Badr. According to another report, the king of Abyssinia had him killed.

Describing the punishment that Walid will suffer in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), Allāh says, "I shall soon make him climb a mountain of Hell." Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the mountain is a mountain of fire that will take a person in Hell seventy years climb and another seventy years to descend. This will continue forever without any respite. [Tirmidhi]

Referring to the time when Walid said that he needed some time to think about what to say to slander the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "Verily, he thought and devised something. May he be destroyed! How does he plot? May he be destroyed again! How does he plot? He looked and then frowned and scowled. Then he turned away and was proud. He said, 'This is nothing but magic recounted from the past. This is nothing but the word of man.'"

Allāh further speaks about the punishment that Walid will be made to suffer. Allāh says, "I shall soon enter him into Hell. What shall inform you what Hell is? It neither spares nor leaves (anyone). It distorts the body. Nineteen angels are commissioned (as keepers) over it (Hell)."

وَمَا جَعَلْنَا أَصْحَابَ النَّارِ إِلَّا مَلَائِكَةً وَمَا جَعَلْنَا عِدَّتَهُمْ إِلَّا فِتْنَةً لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِيَسْتَفِيقَ الَّذِينَ
أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ وَيَرَدَّادَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِيْمَانًا وَلَا يَرْثَابَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَلِيَقُولَ الَّذِينَ فِي
قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ وَالْكَافِرُونَ مَاذَا أَرَادَ اللَّهُ بِهَذَا مَثَلًا كَذَلِكَ يُضِلُّ اللَّهُ مَن يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي مَن يَشَاءُ وَمَا
يَعْلَمُ جُنُودَ رَبِّكَ إِلَّا هُوَ وَمَا يَإِذَا ذَكَرْنَاهُ لِلنَّاسِ

31

(31) We have made only angels the keepers of the Fire. We have made their number only a test for the disbelievers so that the People of the Book may be convinced and so that the believers may be increased in faith. So that the People of the Book and the believers may not doubt and so that those with diseased hearts and the disbelievers may say, "What does Allāh intend with this strange example?" Thus does Allāh send astray whoever He wills and guides whoever He wills. Only He knows the armies of your Lord. This is certainly Advice for mankind.

THE NUMBER OF ANGELS IN CHARGE OF HELL

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that when Allāh revealed the verse: "Nineteen angels are commissioned over it" Abu Jahl said to the Quraysh, "Shame on you! Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم tells you that nineteen angels are commissioned as keepers of Hell. Brave as you are, will you take punishment from them? Will ten of you not be sufficient to overcome one angel?" A person by the name of Usayd bin Kalda was also present there. He said, "I shall take care of seventeen angels. Ten will be on my back and seven on my stomach. You finish off the other two."

According to another narration, he said, "I shall walk ahead of you across the bridge of Sirāt. I will push aside ten angels with my right shoulder and the other nine with my left shoulder. We will then cross over the bridge and enter Heaven." It was then that Allāh Ta'āla revealed the verse, "We have made only angels the keepers of the Fire." In this verse, Allāh Ta'āla makes it clear that the keepers of Heaven are not like ordinary human beings who can be shoved about. The angels have strength of immense proportion. A narration states that the strength of a single angel is equal to the strength of all mankind and Jinn put together. ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 6 p. 284]

Allāh continues, "We have made their number only a test for the disbelievers..." i.e. to test who will deny it, thereby plunging himself into further deviation. In addition to this, Allāh has specified their number "So that the People of the Book (the Jews and Christians) may be convinced" that the Qur'ān is truly Allāh's scripture because their scriptures also mentioned that the guardian angels of Hell are nineteen in number. Allāh also revealed the number "so that the believers may be increased in faith (and) So that the People of the Book and the believers may not doubt" that the number is indeed nineteen.

Another reason for specifying the number is "so that those with diseased hearts and the disbelievers may say, 'What does Allāh intend with this strange example?' Thus does Allāh send astray whoever He wills and guides whoever He wills." Those with Belief will never object to something that Allāh and His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say. It is only those with hypocrisy or disbelief lurking in their hearts who will raise objections.

"Only He knows the armies of your Lord." Some commentators state that this verse was revealed in response to the statement of the polytheists who said that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has only nineteen assistants. Allāh tells them that His armies are so large that only He has knowledge of them.

The nineteen angels mentioned in the verse are the principal keepers of Hell. These angels have many aides who are appointed to carry out various tasks in Hell. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Hell will be brought on the Day of Judgment with seventy thousand leashes restraining it and there will be seventy thousand angels holding each leash.

"This is certainly Advice for mankind." Allāh has mentioned Hell and described it for people so that they take heed and take precautions to avoid it by accepting Islām and adhering to its principles and practices. However, some people are so unfortunate that they are never inspired to believe despite repeated cautions.

كَلَّا وَالْقَمَرِ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَإِلَّالِ إِذْ أَدْبَرَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَالصُّبْحِ إِذَا أَشْفَرَ ﴿٣٤﴾ إِنَّهَا لَإِحْدَى الْكُبَرِ ﴿٣٥﴾ نَذِيرًا
لِّلْبَشَرِ ﴿٣٦﴾ لِمَنْ شَاءَ مِنْكُمْ أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ أَوْ يَتَأَخَّرَ ﴿٣٧﴾ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ رَهِينَةٌ ﴿٣٨﴾ إِلَّا
أَصْحَابَ الْيَمِينِ ﴿٣٩﴾ فِي جَنَّاتٍ يَسَاءَلُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾ عَنِ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٤١﴾ مَا سَلَكَكُمْ فِي سَقَرٍ ﴿٤٢﴾
قَالُوا لَمْ نَكُ مِنَ الْمُصَلِّينَ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَلَمْ نَكُ نُطْعِمِ الْمِسْكِينَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَكُنَّا نَحْمُسُ مَعَ الْخَافِضِينَ
﴿٤٥﴾ وَكُنَّا نَكْذِبُ يَوْمَ الدِّينِ ﴿٤٦﴾ حَتَّى أَتَانَا الْيَقِينُ ﴿٤٧﴾ فَمَا تَنْفَعُهُمْ شَفَاعَةُ الشَّافِعِينَ
﴿٤٨﴾ فَمَا لَهُمْ عَنِ التَّذِكْرِ مُعْرِضِينَ ﴿٤٩﴾ كَانَهُمْ حُمُرٌ مُسْتَنْفِرَةٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ فَرَّتْ مِنْ قَسْوَرَةٍ
﴿٥١﴾ بَلْ يَرِيدُ كُلُّ امْرِئٍ مِنْهُمْ أَنْ يُؤْتَى صُحُفًا مُنشَرَةً ﴿٥٢﴾ كَلَّا بَلْ لَا يَخَافُونَ الْآخِرَةَ
﴿٥٣﴾ كَلَّا إِنَّهُ تَذَكُّرٌ ﴿٥٤﴾ فَمَنْ شَاءَ ذَكَّرُوهُ ﴿٥٥﴾ وَمَا يَذْكُرُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ
هُوَ أَهْلُ التَّقْوَى وَأَهْلُ الْمَعْرِفَةِ ﴿٥٦﴾

(32) Indeed, by the oath of the moon! (33) And by the oath of the night when it retreats! (34) And by the oath of the morning when gets bright! (35) undoubtedly Hell is among the gravest matters. (36) A warning for mankind.. (37) ...for those of you who wish to advance and those who wish to retreat. (38) Every soul is a pawn for his deeds... (39) ...except for the people of the right. (40) They will be in gardens asking... (41) . .from the sinners. (42) "What has landed you in Hell?" (43) They will reply, "We were not among those who performed Salāh..." (44) "...and we did not feed the poor. (45) "We used to be absorbed with those who were absorbed..." (46) "...and we used to deny the Day of Reckoning..." (47) "....until death came to us." (48) The intercession of intercessors will not help them. (49) What is the matter with them that they are so averse to the Advice... (50) ... that they seem like wild donkeys... (51) . . fleeing from a lion? (52) In fact, each one of them wants to be given open scriptures. (53) Never! The fact is that they have no fear for the Hereafter. (54) Behold! This is the Advice. (55) So whoever wills should take heed. (56) They cannot take heed unless Allāh wills. It is He Who should be feared and Who forgives.

THE SINNERS WILL BE ASKED WHAT LANDED THEM IN HELL

Taking oaths on the moon, the night and the day, Allāh asserts that the punishment of Hell is a grave matter that should not be treated lightly. The warnings that Allāh and His Prophets عليهم السلام have sounded in this regard are absolutely true and people should heed them. Allāh. Says that these warnings are 'for those of you who wish to advance and those who wish to retreat.' Therefore each person should evaluate his deeds to ascertain whether his deeds are advancing him in faith or whether they are causing him to decline in faith and status in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

"Every soul is a pawn for his deeds..." Just as an article is retained by a pawnbroker as a pawn until a loan is repaid, every soul will be detained until an account of its deeds is given. Because the worst of sins are disbelief and polytheism, the disbelievers and Polytheists will be held back in Hell forever. They will not be released just as a pawnbroker will not release an article if the loan is not repaid. Neither will intercession be accepted on their behalf nor will they be able to offer any ransom for their souls. As for those believers who sinned, they will be saved from Hell either:

- ❏ because their good deeds are more than their sins, or by the intercession of others, or
- ❏ after paying back the rights they owed to other people, or solely by the grace of Allāh.

Many people will be refused permission to enter Heaven because they owe many rights to others. On the Day of Judgment they will have to repay these rights by forfeiting their good deeds. However, if their good deeds are depleted before the rights are paid, they will have to bear the burden of the sins that the oppressed party committed. This will eventually land them in Hell. ["Mishkāt" p. 435 from Muslim]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Unays رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that on the Day of Judgment, Allāh will gather all His slaves who will be naked and without any possessions. They will then be addressed in a manner that those far away will hear just as clearly as those who are nearby. Allāh will then say, "I am the Judge. I am the King. No person from the people of Hell shall ever enter Hell until I avenge the right owed to him by a person from Heaven and no person from the people of Heaven shall ever enter Heaven until I avenge the right that he owes to a person from Hell; even though it be a slap." The prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! How will he be able to compensate the wrong when everyone will be naked and without anything?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "By good deeds and sins." ["At Targhib wat Tarhib" v. 4 p. 404]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who wrongfully lashed his slave even once will have to compensate for it on the Day of Judgment." ["At Targhib wat Tarhib" v. 4 p. 403]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that if a child owes his parent some money, the parent will claim the debt on the Day of Judgment. The child will tell the parent, "But I am your child" However, this will make no difference to the parent, who will still demand payment. In fact, the parent will wish that the child owed him more. ["At Targhib wat Tarhib" v. 4 p. 405]

Allāh says further that everyone will be a pawn for his deeds "except for the people of the right." Because of their Belief and good deeds, these fortunate people will not be detained on the Plain of Reckoning and there will be nothing to prevent their entry into Heaven. Verses 27-40 of Surah Wāqī'ah (Surah 56) describe who the 'people of the right' are. In this Surah, Allāh says about the "people of the right" that "They will be in gardens asking from the sinners, 'What has landed you in Hell?' They will reply, 'We were not among those who performed Salāh and we did not feed the poor. We used to be absorbed with those who were absorbed and we used to deny the Day of Reckoning until death came to us.'" These people used to be absorbed in speaking ill of Islām and in plotting schemes against Islām. It is evident that these people were disbelievers and actively engaged in opposing Islām.

Concerning these unfortunate people, Allāh says, "The intercession of intercessors will not help them." There will be none to intercede on behalf of the disbelievers to get them released from Hell. Allāh says in Surah Mu'min, "The oppressors shall have no friend, nor any intercessor who will be obeyed." In this world, these people were averse to the advice given to them in the Qur'ān. In fact, they were so averse that they appeared to be like "wild donkeys fleeing from a lion?"

"In fact, each one of them wants to be given open scriptures. Never!" Allāh says that these people had no intention of believing the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but made impossible requests to him. They used to tell the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that they would believe that he is Allāh's prophet only if there appeared a scripture by the head of each one of them when he awakes in the morning, telling them that he is Allāh's messenger and that they should follow him. This was just an excuse that they used and this behaviour plunged them further into disbelief. ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 6 p. 286]

"The fact is that they have no fear for the Hereafter." These people did not accept Islām and behaved in this manner because they did not fear punishment in the Hereafter.

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "Behold! This is the Advice. So whoever wills should take heed. They cannot take heed unless Allāh wills. It is He Who should be feared and Who forgives." Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates that after reciting the above verse the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Your Lord said, 'I ought to be feared so do not ascribe partners to Me. The person who fears Me and does not ascribe partners to Me deserves forgiveness.'" ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 29 p. 154]

سورة القيامة

Makkan

Surah Al-Qiyāmah

Verses 40

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

لَا أَقْسِمُ بِيَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ ۖ وَلَا أَقْسِمُ بِالنَّفْسِ اللَّوَّامَةِ ۚ أَيَحْسَبُ الْإِنْسَانُ أَلَّنْ نَجْمَعَ عِظَامَهُ ۚ بَلَىٰ قَدَرِينٌ عَلَىٰ أَنْ تُسَوَّىٰ بَنَانُهُ ۚ بَلْ يُرِيدُ الْإِنْسَانُ لِيَفْجُرَ أَمَامَهُ ۚ يَسْتَلْ أَيَّانَ يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ ۚ فَإِذَا يَرْقُ الْبَصَرُ ۚ وَخَسَفَ الْقَمَرُ ۚ وَجُمِعَ الشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ ۚ يَقُولُ الْإِنْسَانُ يَوْمَئِذٍ أَيْنَ الْمَفْرُ ۚ كَلَّا ۖ لَا وَرَدَ ۚ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْمُسْتَقَرُّ ۚ يُبْنُوا الْإِنْسَانُ يَوْمَئِذٍ بِمَا قَدَّمَ وَأَخَّرَ ۚ بَلِ الْإِنْسَانُ عَلَىٰ نَفْسِهِ بَصِيرَةٌ ۚ وَلَوْ أَلْقَىٰ مَعَاذِرَهُ ۚ

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) I swear by the Day of Judgment! (2) And I swear by the chiding soul! (3) Does man think that We shall never gather his bones? (4) We most certainly will! We have the power to perfect even his fingertips. (5) The fact is that man wants to sin in his life ahead of him. (6) He asks, "When will the Day of Judgment come?" (7) When eyes will be bewildered... (8) ....the moon will eclipse... (9) . . .and the sun and moon will be joined... (10) ...man will say on that day, "Where is an escape?" (11) No! There is no place of safety. (12) On this day, the only abode shall be towards your Lord. (13) On that day man will be informed of whatever he sent ahead and left behind. (14) In reality, man will be well aware of himself... (15) ... even though he will make excuses.

MAN WILL HAVE NO ESCAPE ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT BUT WILL STILL MAKE EXCUSES FOR HIS SINS

Surah Qiyāmah describes the events on the Day of Judgment and when a person dies. This Surah creates within a person concern for the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

The Polytheists of Makkah denied the coming of Judgment Day and used to say that it is not possible for decomposed bones to be assembled into a complete human being. A person by the name of Adi bin Rabī'ah once asked "O

Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! Inform me when Judgment Day will take place, how it will take place and what will happen then." When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم informed him about Judgment Day, he said, "I will not believe you even if I have to witness this day unless Allāh gathers together some bones." Other commentators state that Abu Jahl sneered, "Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم claims that Allāh will gather bones together after they have decomposed"

Allāh refutes the scepticism of these polytheists when He asserts, "I swear by the Day of Judgment! And I swear by the chiding soul." Here Allāh refers to the soul that regrets the sins that it commits and when it does good, it also chides itself for not being sincere enough and for not fulfilling all the etiquette of the deed. By taking these oaths, Allāh asserts that people will definitely be resurrected on the Day of Judgment.

Allāh continues, "Does man think that We shall never gather his bones? We most certainly will! We have the power to perfect even his fingertips." Let alone gathering man's bones together, Allāh has the power to perfectly reconstruct every part of the man's body up to the minutest detail of the fingertips and individual fingerprints.

"The fact is that man wants to sin in his life ahead of him. He asks, "When will the Day of Judgment come?" The disbelievers ask about the Day of Judgment with the intention of refuting it because they do not want to stop sinning. They know that if they accept that Judgment Day will take place, they will have to prepare for it by carrying out good deeds and leading a life of abstinence. However, they fail to realise that whatever Allāh has decreed will certainly take place whether they believe it or not. Judgment Day will not be cancelled because they deny it.

"When eyes will be bewildered, the moon will eclipse, and the sun and moon will be joined (with neither one having any light), man will say on that day, 'Where is an escape? No! There is no place of safety. On this day, the only abode shall be towards your Lord.'" Every person will have to remain where Allāh decides that he should be.

"On that day man will be informed of whatever he sent ahead and left behind" Every deed that a person carried out in the world will be recorded in his record of deeds given to him. "In reality, man will be well aware of himself even though he will make excuses." Every man knows what he does in this world and he will recall his deeds in the Hereafter. In addition to this, his limbs will also testify to his deeds. Regardless of the excuses they make, "On this day, the excuses of the oppressors will not profit them."

Some commentators have translated the verse as: "In reality, man will be well aware of himself even though he cast veils (when committing sins, thinking that none will see him)." However, man fails to realise that in this situation, his own body is present and that it will eventually testify against him.

لَا تُحَرِّكْ بِهِ لِسَانَكَ لِتَعْجَلَ بِهِ ﴿١٦﴾ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا جَمْعَهُ وَقُرْآنَهُ ﴿١٧﴾ فَإِذَا قَرَأَهُ فَأَنبَحْ تُرْبَانَهُ ﴿١٨﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا بَيَانَهُ ﴿١٩﴾ responsibility to collect it and to make you recite it. (18) So when We have recited it, follow its recitation. (19) Thereafter, it is responsibility to make it clear.

ALLĀH TELLS THE HOLY PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم TO RECITE THE QUR'ĀN ONLY AFTER LISTENING TO IT ATTENTIVELY

In the above verse, Allāh Ta'āla commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the usual affectionate manner. Explaining the circumstances of revelation, Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that when revelation used to come to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he would try to repeat the words immediately upon hearing them, fearing that he would forget them. In this manner, the strain would be multiplied. Advising him not to exert himself so much, Allāh said, "Do not move your tongue with the Qur'ān to hasten it. Verily, it is Our responsibility to collect it (in your heart) and to make you recite it. So when We have recited it follow its recitation." Allāh commanded the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to first listen attentively to the recitation of the Qur'ān and then to repeat the words.

"Thereafter, it is Our responsibility to make it clear" i.e. We will ensure that you are able to recite it clearly to people and to convey it to them.

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that after this verse was revealed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would first listen to Jibril عليه السلام. Thereafter, he would recite it exactly as Jibril عليه السلام had recited it. [Bukhari v. 1 p. 3 and v. 2 p. 733]

كَلَّا بَلْ تُحِبُّونَ الْعَاجِلَةَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَتَذَرُونَ الْآخِرَةَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ نَّاصِرَةٌ ﴿٢٢﴾ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهَا نَاطِرَةٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ بِاسِرَةٍ ﴿٢٤﴾ تَنْظُرُونَ أَن يَقْعَلَ يَٰ فَاقرَةٌ ﴿٢٥﴾ كَلَّا إِذَا بَلَغَتِ التَّرَاقِيَ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَقِيلَ مَنْ رَاقٍ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَظَنَّ أَنَّهُ الْفِرَاقُ ﴿٢٨﴾ وَالْتَفَتِ الْإِنْسَانُ بِالنَّاسِ ﴿٢٩﴾ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْإِنْسَانُ ﴿٣٠﴾

(20) It shall not be. The fact is that you love this world... (21) ..and you forsake the Hereafter. (22) Many faces on that day will be resplendent... (23) ...beholding the sight of their Lord. (24) And many faces on that day will be gloomy... (25) ..sensing that they will be dealt with most severely. (26) It will never be. Undoubtedly, when the soul reaches the collar-bone... (27) .... and it is said, "Who can cure him?" (28) ... and he is certain that this is really the parting... (29) .... and when one leg is joined with the other... (30) .... then on this day you will be drawn towards your Lord.

THE CONDITION OF PEOPLE WHEN THEY DIE AND THE APPEARANCE OF THEIR FACES ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

After simplifying matters for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and instructing him to first listen to the recitation of the Qur'ān before reciting it, Allāh Ta'āla resumes the discussion concerning Judgment Day. Allāh asserts, "It shall not be" i.e. those who deny the Qur'ān will not accept the truth. The advent of Judgment Day will neither be cancelled nor postponed because of their rejection.

Allāh Ta'āla then explains the reason for which the disbelievers are averse to accepting Islām. Addressing them, Allāh says, "The fact is that you love this world and you forsake the Hereafter." This love for the world and disregard for the Hereafter prevents them from accepting the truth.

Describing the conditions of the believers and the disbelievers on the Day of Judgment, Allāh says, "Many faces on that day will be resplendent..." i.e. rejoicing and free from worries. People who teach the Ahadith of the Holy Prophet ﷺ have received the supplication of the Holy Prophet ﷺ in this regard. The Holy Prophet ﷺ said, "May Allāh keep the person resplendent who hears something from me and then passes it on as he heard it, for many a person who receives a message remembers it better than the one who actually heard it." ["Mishkāt" p. 35]

Together with being happy, the believers will be "beholding the sight of their Lord". This verse makes it clear that people will see Allāh in the Hereafter, something which is impossible in this world. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet ﷺ said, "The person occupying the lowest rank of Heaven will see his gardens, wives, bounties, servants and thrones within a distance of a thousand years. The most honoured of them will be those who will be able to look at their Lord morning and evening." Thereafter, The Holy Prophet ﷺ recited the verse: "Many faces on that day will be resplendent, beholding the sight of their Lord." ["Mishkāt" p. 501 from Tirmidhi and Ahmad]

On the contrary, "many faces on that day will be gloomy, sensing that they will be dealt with most severely." Because of the evil they committed in this world these people will rue the punishment awaiting them. Allāh continues, "It will never be" i.e. it will never be prudent to prefer the life of this world to that of the Hereafter. It is rather necessary for people to prepare for death and the life thereafter because this world is transient.

Describing death, Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, when the soul reaches the collarbone and it is said (by those around the dying person) 'Who can cure him?'; and he is certain that this is really the parting; and when one leg is joined with the other". This happens to many a dying person. However, many commentators state that this verse refers to the pangs of death because the soul is extracted first from the feet. When all these signs are manifest "then on this day you will be drawn towards your Lord." At this stage, a person's relationship with this world and with the people of this world is severed and he leaves for the next life where Allāh will decide whether he deserves Heaven or Hell.

فَلَا صَدَقَ وَلَا صَلَّى ﴿٣١﴾ وَلَٰكِن كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّى ﴿٣٢﴾ ثُمَّ ذَهَبَ إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِۦ يَتَمَطَّىٰ ﴿٣٣﴾ أَوَلَىٰ لَكَ فَأُوقَىٰ ﴿٣٤﴾ ثُمَّ أَوَلَىٰ لَكَ فَأُوقَىٰ ﴿٣٥﴾ اَيَحْسَبُ الْإِنْسَانُ أَنْ يُتْرَكَ سُدًى ﴿٣٦﴾ أَلَمْ يَكُنْ

نُطْفَةٍ مِنْ مَنِيٍّ يُمْنَىٰ ﴿٣٧﴾ ثُمَّ كَانَ عَلَقَةً فَخَلَقَ فَسَوَّىٰ ﴿٣٨﴾ فَبَعَلَ مِنْهُ الزَّوْجَيْنِ الذَّكَرَ
وَالْأُنثَىٰ ﴿٣٩﴾ أَلَيْسَ ذَلِكَ بِقَدِيرٍ عَلَىٰ أَنْ يُحْيِيَ الْمَوْتَىٰ ﴿٤٠﴾

(31) So he neither verified nor performed Salāh... (32) .... but instead he denied and walked away. (33) Then he went to his family in arrogance. (34) Woe to you and woe to you again! (35) Woe to you yet again and again! (36) Does man think that he will be left to be? (37) Was he not a discharge of semen... (38) .after which he developed into a clot of blood and then Allāh created him and perfected him? (39) Then Allāh made the couple male and female? (40) Does He then not have the power to resurrect the dead?

MAN FORGETS HIS HUMBLE BEGINNING AND BEHAVES ARROGANTLY

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" reports that Allāh refers specifically to Abu Jahl but also to all leaders of the disbelievers when He says, "So he neither verified nor performed Salāh but instead he denied and walked away. Then he went to his family in arrogance." The behaviour of a proud person clearly displays his pride. When the truth is presented to him, he turns away arrogantly and refuses to listen. His style of walking also exudes pride.

Addressing such a person, Allāh says, "Woe to you and woe to you again! Woe to you yet again and again!" This curse seals the damnation of the person, emphasising that he will never escape punishment which is extremely close at hand. The Arabic word "owla" (translated above as "woe") literally refers to something that is close at hand and cannot be averted. Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله صلى الله عليه وسلم narrates that when these verses were revealed, The Holy Prophet grabbed hold of Abu Jahl's clothes and recited to him, "Woe to you and woe to you again! Woe to you yet again and again!" Abu Jahl said, "You are threatening me when I am the most honourable person walking between the mountains of Makkah." Abu Jahl was later killed in disgrace during the Battle of Badr.

Allāh continues, "Does man think that he will be left to be?" People are foolish to think that they will not be punished for rejecting the Qur'ān and the articles of Belief. They think that they will be left to enjoy their lives as they please regardless of the evil they carry out. Allāh refutes this misconception, reminding man that he will soon be required to render an account for all his deeds.

Allāh asks, "Was he (man) not a discharge of semen after which he developed into a clot of blood and then Allāh created him and perfected him? Then Allāh made the couple male and female? Does He then not have the power to resurrect the dead?" Allāh reminds man that he was once a mere drop of semen but Allāh developed him into a perfectly-formed human being after passing through several stages. Man accepts that Allāh accomplished all of this with every human that was born, yet he refuses to believe that Allāh can resurrect man on the Day of Judgment even though people accept that doing something the second time is easier than the first time.

A HADITH: Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when one reaches the end of Surah Tin (Surah 95), one should recite:

Allāh is certainly the Wisest of the wise and I am witness to it."

Similarly, when one reaches the end of Surah Qiyāmah (Surah 75), one should say:

"Indeed Allāh has the power to resurrect the dead."

In a like manner, when reaching the end of Surah Mursalāt (Surah 77), one should recite:

"We believe in Allāh." ["Mishkāt" p. 81 from Abu Dawūd]

سورة الدهر

Madinan

Surah Ad-Dahar

Verses 31

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
 هَلْ أَتَى عَلَى الْإِنْسَانِ حِينٌ مِّنَ الدَّهْرِ لَمْ يَكُنْ شَيْئًا مَّذْكُورًا ﴿١﴾ إِنَّا خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ
 مِن نُّطْفَةٍ أَمْشَاجٍ نَّبْتَلِيهِ فَجَعَلْنَاهُ سَمِيعًا بَصِيرًا ﴿٢﴾ إِنَّا هَدَيْنَاهُ السَّبِيلَ إِمَّا
 شَاكِرًا وَإِمَّا كَفُورًا ﴿٣﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Undoubtedly, a moment in time has passed by man when he was not even something worth mentioning. (2) Indeed We have created man from a mixed seed to test him and We made him (a) hearing and seeing (being). (3) We guided him to the path, so he is either grateful or ungrateful.

ALLĀH CREATED MAN AND GUIDED HIM. WHILE MANY ARE GRATEFUL, OTHERS ARE NOT

Surah Dahar is also called Surah Insān. The Surah begins with the creation of man and then classifies two types of people, the grateful and the ungrateful. Allāh then discusses the punishment that the ungrateful ones will suffer, followed by the bounties that the grateful ones will enjoy in the Hereafter. The concluding verses of the Surah enjoin the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be patient and instruct the performance of Tahajjud Ṣalāh (A prayer said after midnight).

Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, a moment in time has passed by man when he was not even something worth mentioning." Whether a man is haughty and proud, he must bear in mind that he was once nothing at all. Allāh creates him from a drop of semen, that is also something that people would rather not mention. Allāh says, "Indeed We have created man from a mixed seed" i.e. from a mixture of the male and female gametes. Thereafter, he develops into a clot of blood, gradually becoming a lump of flesh and then a perfectly formed human being. Allāh then instils the soul into the child and allows it to be born. However, this child is not born without a purpose.

Allāh says that He created this human "to test him", as Allāh says in Surah Mulk "to test which of you carry out the best deeds." Allāh also granted man various faculties like intelligence and the five senses. However, man's guidance is not derived from these faculties, but Allāh sent Prophets عليهم السلام for this purpose. It is necessary for man to recognise his Creator by looking at His creation. Man is also required to follow the teachings of the Prophets عليهم السلام. When he does this, he will be expressing gratitude to Allāh because whatever He granted man will then be used correctly. However, there are still many who are ungrateful viz, the disbelievers. Referring to these two groups, Allāh says, "so he (man) is either grateful or ungrateful."

إِنَّا أَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ سَلَاسِلًا وَأَغْلَالًا وَسَعِيرًا ﴿٤﴾ إِنَّ الْأَبْرَارَ يَشْرَبُونَ مِنْ
كَأْسٍ كَانَ مِزَاجُهَا كَافُورًا ﴿٥﴾ عَيْنًا يَشْرَبُ بِهَا عِبَادُ اللَّهِ يُفَجِّرُونَهَا تَفْجِيرًا ﴿٦﴾
يُوفُونَ بِالنَّذْرِ وَيَخَافُونَ يَوْمًا كَانَ شَرُّهُ مُسْتَطِيرًا ﴿٧﴾ وَيُطْعَمُونَ أَلْطَعَامَ عَلَىٰ حَيْثُ مَسْكِنًا
وَبَيْمًا وَأَسِيرًا ﴿٨﴾ إِنَّمَا نَطْعِمُكُمْ لَوَجْهِ اللَّهِ لَا نُرِيدُ مِنْكُمْ جَزَاءً وَلَا شُكْرًا ﴿٩﴾ إِنَّا نَخَافُ مِنْ
رَبِّنَا يَوْمًا غُيُوسًا فَظَرِيرًا ﴿١٠﴾ فَوَقَدْنَاهُمْ اللَّهُ شَرَّ ذَٰلِكَ الْيَوْمِ وَلَقَدْهُمْ نَصْرَةٌ وَسُرُورًا ﴿١١﴾
وَجَزَاءٌ بِمَا صَبَرُوا جَنَّةٌ وَحَرِيرًا ﴿١٢﴾ مُتَكِينِينَ فِيهَا عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ لَا يَرَوْنَ فِيهَا شَمْسًا وَلَا
زَهْرًا ﴿١٣﴾ وَدَانِيَةً عَلَيْهِمْ ظِلُّهَا وَذُلَّتْ أَطْرُفُهَا نَازِلًا ﴿١٤﴾ وَيُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ ثَانِيَةً مِنْ فَضْوَةٍ
وَأَكْوَابٍ كَانَتْ قَوَارِيرًا ﴿١٥﴾ قَوَارِيرًا مِنْ فِضَّةٍ قَدَرُهَا وَقْدِيرًا ﴿١٦﴾ وَيُسْقَوْنَ فِيهَا كَأْسًا كَانَ
مِزَاجُهَا زَجْجًا ﴿١٧﴾ عَيْنًا فِيهَا تُسَمَّى سَلْسِلًا ﴿١٨﴾ وَيُطَوَّفُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَدَانٌ مُخَلَّدُونَ إِذَا رَأَيْتَهُمْ
حَسِبَتْهُمُ لُؤْلُؤًا مَنُورًا ﴿١٩﴾ وَإِذَا رَأَيْتَ ثُمَّ رَأَيْتَ نَعِيمًا وَمُلْكًا كَبِيرًا ﴿٢٠﴾ عَلَيْهِمْ ثِيَابٌ سُدُسٌ
خُضْرٌ وَأَسْتَبْرَقٌ ۖ وَحُلُوعٌ أَسَاوِرٌ مِنْ فِضَّةٍ وَسَقَاهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ شَرَابًا طَهُورًا ﴿٢١﴾ إِنَّ هَٰذَا كَانَ
لَكُمْ جَزَاءً وَكَانَ سَعْيُكُمْ مَشْكُورًا ﴿٢٢﴾

(4) Verily for the disbelievers We have prepared chains, yokes and a flaming fire. (5) The good shall certainly drink from a cup which contains a (palatable) tonic of camphor. (6) Allāh's bondsmen shall drink from springs which they shall cause to gush forth abundantly. (7) They fulfil their vows and fear the day when difficulty shall be widespread. (8) Out of love for Allāh, they feed the poor, the orphan and the captive... (9) ... (saying,) "We feed you only for Allāh's pleasure and desire neither a return nor thanks from you." (10) "Verily we fear from our Lord a day that will be severe and extremely bitter." (11) So Allāh shall save them from the evil of that day and will give them resplendence and joy. (12) As a reward for their patience, they shall have gardens and silk (13) They will recline on couches there (in Heaven) and will feel neither heat nor cold. (14) Its shade will be close above them and its fruit will hang low. (15) Utensils of silver will be brought to them as well as glasses of crystal... (16) such crystal that is like silver, which those serving will fill with an appropriate measure. (17)

In Heaven they will drink from cups which contain a (wonderful) tonic of ginger. (18) They will drink from a spring in Heaven called Salsabīl (19) Lads of eternal youth will wait on them. When you see them, you will think that they are scattered pearls. (20) If you look there (in Heaven), you will see tremendous bounties and an enormous kingdom. (21) Their clothing will be fine green silk and thick silk. They will be adorned with bangles of silver and their Lord shall give them an extremely pure drink. (22) "This is your reward and appreciation for your-efforts."

THE PUNISHMENT OF THE DISBELIEVERS AND THE FOOD, DRINK AND CLOTHING OF THE BELIEVERS

Referring to the punishment that Allāh has in store for the disbelievers in Hell, Allāh says, "Verily for the disbelievers We have prepared chains, yokes and a flaming fire." Many other verses of the Qur'ān have discussed these forms of punishment. Refer to the commentary of verse 8 of Surah Yāsīn (Surah 36) and verses 30 to 37 of Surah Hāqqah (Surah 69).

Allāh then describes the bounties that the pious and righteous believers will enjoy in Heaven. Allāh says, "The good shall certainly drink from a cup which contains a (palatable) tonic of camphor." A few verses later Allāh says, "In Heaven they will drink from cups which contain a (wonderful) tonic of ginger." The camphor and ginger of Heaven cannot be compared to the camphor and ginger of this world because they will be so excellent that nothing of this world can compare to them. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه stated that everything that Allāh has mentioned about Heaven resembles the things of this world only in name. Otherwise, they cannot be compared to the things of this world.

"Allāh's bondsmen shall drink from springs which they shall cause to gush forth abundantly." Commentators mention that the cups of the people in Heaven will be filled with the water of these springs. The people of Heaven will have these springs at their command and will be able to direct the flow of the water wherever they please, in their gardens, their palaces or wherever else.

Allāh then describes who are these loyal servants who will receive these bounties. Allāh says that they are those who 'fulfil their vows' i.e. whenever they vow to do something good, they ensure that they fulfil the vow. It is Wājib (compulsory) for a person to fulfil his vow, as Allāh commands in Surah Hajj : "(They should) fulfil their vows". Although one will not be sinful for not taking a vow (to do something good), once it is taken it will be compulsory to fulfil. According to the Ahadith, a person should not fulfil a vow to carry out a sin. If a person vows to commit a sin, he should not fulfil the vow but should rather pay the Kaffāra (expiation) for breaking an oath. ["Mishkāt" p. 297]

Allāh says further that these people 'fear the day when difficulty shall be widespread.' This refers to the Day of Judgment when the sun, moon and stars will be without light, the sky will split, mountains will fly about like wool and people will scurry in fright from their graves. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once noticed Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها weeping. When he asked her the reason for weeping, she replied that fear for Hell made her weep. She then asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether he would remember his family members on the Day of Judgment. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told her that no person will remember another:

1. When deeds will be weighed at the scales until a person knows whether his good deeds weighed heavily or lightly.
2. When the records of deeds will be distributed until a person knows whether his record is given in his right or left hand
3. When the bridge of Sirāt is placed over Hell. [Abu Dawūd v.2 p. 298]

Describing yet another sterling quality of His pious bondsmen, Allāh says, "Out of love for Allāh, they feed the poor, the orphan and the captive..." i.e. they spend on the needy for the pleasure of Allāh. While some commentators state that the "captive" refers to a Muslim captive, others maintain that a person will also be rewarded for spending on a disbeliever captive, especially if he had been captured unjustly.

When spending on the needy, these pious slaves of Allāh say to the recipients, "We feed you only for Allāh's pleasure and desire neither a return nor thanks from you." Saying this, they put the needy person at ease by informing him that they do not want him to return the favour. In fact, they do not even expect the person to thank them. They help others only for Allāh's pleasure and for His reward. This verse teaches us that we should have absolutely no motives for spending on the needy. It should also not matter to us whether the person appreciates the good turn or not because we should desire only Allāh's pleasure.

Many people who spend on the needy (especially on family and friends) often remind the beneficiary about the favour and say to others, "I did so much for him and he couldn't even say 'Thank you'!" By saying this, they destroy many rewards they may have earned for the deed. Although the recipient should thank the donor, make supplication for him and tell others about his generosity, the donor should not expect this. The donor should anticipate only Allāh's pleasure.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said that Allāh will not speak to three persons on the Day of Judgment. In addition to this, Allāh will not even look at them with mercy, will not purify them and will punish them most severely. The narrator of the hadith Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه exclaimed, "Woe to them. Who are they, O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that they are:

1. The person whose trousers hang below his ankles.
2. The person who reminds others of the favours he did them.
3. The person who sells his goods by taking false oaths.
[Muslim]

Allāh quotes the statement of His pious bondsmen further. They say, "Verily we fear from our Lord a day that will be severe and extremely bitter. " They are always conscious of the fact that they will have to face reckoning on the Day of Judgment. The Arabic word "abūs" (translated above as "severe") refers to something that causes a person's face to be distorted out of fear and which presents itself in an unforgiving and ruthless manner. While the second adjective "amateur" (translated above as "extremely bitter") contains a similar meaning, it refers to something that is more effective in causing a person's face to distort. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه reports from Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه that "abūs" refers to something that causes the mouth to be distorted while "amateur" refers to something that causes the forehead and eyebrows to contort.

Because they feared the severity of the Day of Judgment, "Allāh shall save them from the evil of that day and will give them resplendence and joy." Allāh shall illuminate their faces and fill their hearts with happiness. May Allāh make us among them. Āmīn.

Furthermore, "As a reward for their patience, they shall have gardens and silk. They will recline on couches there (in Heaven) and will feel neither heat nor cold." The climate of Heaven shall be perfect in every way and the people there will suffer no discomfort whatsoever. The word "patience" used in the verse refers to all three categories of 'abr' viz. (1) steadfastly fulfilling Allāh's commands, (2) restraining one's carnal self from committing sins and (3) exercising patience when afflicted by difficulties and hardships.

"Its shade will be close above them." There will not be any harsh sunlight in Heaven. Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "We shall enter them into abundant shade." Allāh then refers to the fruit of Heaven when He says that "its fruit will hang low." The fruit will be within easy reach of the people and they shall have any fruit they desire at any time.

"Utensils of silver will be brought to them as well as glasses of crystal; such crystal that is like silver, which those serving will fill with an appropriate measure." This means that the glasses of Heaven will be as bright as silver and as clear and sparkling as crystal. The servants pouring the drinks will pour so accurately that the drink will neither be too much nor too little for the person. It will always be exactly what he wants.

"In Heaven they will drink from cups which contain a (wonderful) tonic of ginger. They will drink from a spring in Heaven called Salsabil." The author of 'Ruhul Ma'āni' states that the mixture will sometimes be ginger and sometimes camphor. There is therefore no discrepancy between this verse and verse 5 above.

Allāh then speaks of the servants in Heaven. Allāh says, "Lads of eternal youth will wait on them. When you see them, you will think that they are scattered pearls." They are described as such because their bright appearance will resemble pearls and they will be found everywhere. Allāh says in Surah Tūr, "Their youngsters shall wait on them, appearing to be concealed pearls." A verse of Surah Wāqī'ah states, "Youngsters of eternal youth shall wait on them with goblets and jugs and glasses filled with flowing wine. Neither will they have headaches with it, nor will they be intoxicated"

Allāh continues, "If you look there (in Heaven), you will see tremendous bounties and an enormous kingdom." Allāh describes Heaven as a vast kingdom so that no one thinks that it will merely be a few gardens and houses of the type that people own in this world. In fact, the entire world that we know is minute compared to the Heaven of a single person. Allāh will say to the last person entering Heaven,

"Go and enter your Heaven which is the size of the world and ten times more." The narrator of the hadith states that this person will be the lowest ranking person in Heaven. ["Mishkāt" p. 492 from Bukhari and Muslim]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person occupying the lowest rank of Heaven will see his gardens, wives, bounties, servants and thrones within a distance of a thousand years. The most honoured of them will be those who will be able to look at their Lord morning and evening. "Thereafter, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse: "Many faces on that day will be resplendent, beholding the sight of their Lord." ["Mishkāt" p. 501 from Tirmidhi and Ahmad]

If this will be the Heaven of the lowest ranking person in Heaven, one cannot imagine what people belonging to the other ranks will enjoy.

"Their clothing will be fine green silk and thick silk." Of course, the silk of Heaven is immensely superior to that of this world. The clothes of Heaven will be green because green is most comforting to the eye. However, there are no words in the verse to indicate that the clothes of Heaven will only be green. There is every possibility that the clothes will be available in every colour because "In Heaven you shall have whatever your heart desires, and you shall have whatever you ask for." [Surah HāMim Sajdah (41), verse 31]

In addition to this, "They will be adorned with bangles of silver". Surah Kahf and Surah Hajj state that the bangles will be made of gold. There is no discrepancy between the verses because they will wear bangles of both gold and silver. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that if a person of Heaven has to peep into this world and his bangle becomes visible, its brilliance will outshine the sun just as the sun outshines the stars. ["Mishkāt" p. 498 from Tirmidhi]

QUESTION: Bangles look nice on women and do not suit men. Why will the men of Heaven wear bangles?

ANSWER : The style and appeal of clothing and jewellery vary from nation to nation. Although men generally do not wear bangles, it would be made appealing to the people of Heaven and they will want to wear them. Taking watch straps as an example, one will notice that they are of various types and styles and even men wear gold and silver straps that look good on them. In certain parts of the world bangles are put on men when they marry and all their people look on in admiration. Because it is a custom, everyone accepts it and approves of it. In fact, they are so adamant to practise this custom that they even refuse to obey the prohibition of the Shari'ah in this regard.

The foregoing verses read: "The good shall certainly drink from a cup which contains a (palatable) tonic of camphor" and "Utensils of silver will be brought to them" as well as glasses of crystal." The people of Heaven will be honoured because waiters will serve these drinks to them. However, their honour is made even clearer in the verse where Allāh says, "their Lord shall give them an extremely pure drink" because here Allāh is making the drinks available to them directly without an intermediary. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" states that the drink is described as being "extremely pure" because it will not emerge from the body as impure urine. Rather, it will become perspiration that will be better than musk. The people of Heaven will first eat and then drink this pure drink which will cause the food to digest and become perspiration that is better than the purest musk. The stomach will thus become empty and will be able to take more food.

Allāh will announce to the people of Heaven, "This is your reward and appreciation for your efforts."

إِنَّا نَحْنُ نَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْآنَ تَنْزِيلًا ﴿٢٣﴾ فَاصْبِرْ لِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ وَلَا تُطِعْ مِنْهُمْ ءَائِمًا أَوْ
كَفُورًا ﴿٢٤﴾ وَادْكُرْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا ﴿٢٥﴾ وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَاسْجُدْ لَهُ وَسَبِّحْهُ
إِيلًا طَوِيلًا ﴿٢٦﴾ إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ يُحِبُّونَ الْعَاجِلَةَ وَيَذَرُونَ وَرَاءَهُمْ يَوْمًا ثَقِيلًا ﴿٢٧﴾
نَحْنُ خَلَقْنَاهُمْ وَشَدَدْنَا أَسْرَهُمْ وَإِذَا شِئْنَا بَدَّلْنَا أَمْثَلَهُمْ تَبْدِيلًا ﴿٢٨﴾ إِنَّ هَذِهِ
تَذَكُّرَةٌ فَمَنْ شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا ﴿٢٩﴾ وَمَا تَشَاءُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ إِنَّ
اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمًا ﴿٣٠﴾ يَدْخُلُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ وَالظَّالِمِينَ أَعَدَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا
أَلِيمًا ﴿٣١﴾

(23) Verily We have revealed the Qur'ān to you bit by bit. (24) So remain steadfast on the command of your Lord and do not follow any sinner or disbeliever from them. (25) Remember the name of your Lord morning and evening. (26) Prostrate to Him during the night and glorify Him for a long time at night (27) Indeed these people love the world and leave behind them a weighty day. (28) Only We have created them and only We strengthened their joints. Whenever We wish, We could replace them with people just like them. (29) This is certainly an advice. So whoever wills should adopt a path towards his Lord. (30) You cannot will anything without Allāh's will. Verily Allāh is All Knowing, the Wise. (31) He enters whoever He wills into His mercy and has prepared a painful punishment for the oppressors.

ALLĀH COMMANDS THE HOLY PROPHET ﷺ TO ENGAGE IN REMEMBRANCE OF ALLĀH (DHIKR) ALL THE TIME AND TO ENGAGE IN WORSHIP DURING THE NIGHT

After mentioning the bounties of Heaven, Allāh mentions a tremendous bounty that He has conferred on man in this world and which will allow man to attain the lofty bounties of the Ākhirah (Hereafter). This bounty is the Qur'ān. Addressing the Holy Prophet ﷺ, Allāh says, "Verily We have revealed the Qur'ān to you bit by bit. "Instead of revealing the entire Qur'ān at once, Allāh revealed it bit by bit for several reasons. Among these was that it made it easier for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and for the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم to absorb. Because the teaching of the Qur'ān resulted in persecution from the disbelievers, Allāh enjoins, "So remain steadfast on the command of your Lord and do not follow any sinner or disbeliever from them (because they intend to stop your preaching)."

Allāh commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further, "Remember the name of your Lord morning and evening Prostrate to Him during the night and glorify Him for a long time at night." These verses make it clear that together with propagating the Religion, the preacher should not neglect his personal Ibādah because this will give him strength and allow his mission to prosper.

Allāh Ta'āla then gives the reason for the aversion of the disbelievers. Allāh says that they refuse to accept the truth because "Indeed these people love the world." They think that if they accept Islām, they will have to forsake all their worldly possessions. Little do they realise that even if they do have to suffer a loss in this world, they will suffer even more in the Hereafter if they do not accept Islām. Unlike the temporary losses of this world, the suffering of the Hereafter will be eternal.

Making further reference to the disbelievers, Allāh says that they "leave behind them a weighty day." This world and the Ākhirah are like co-wives of a person. Loving the one will jeopardise one's love for the other. A strange feature to note is that even people who have no wealth, no status, no honour and nothing else of this world also cling on to disbelief. The fact is that Allāh guides whoever He wills on to the straight path.

Refuting the surprise that the disbelievers display about Judgment Day and resurrection, Allāh says, "Only We have created them and only We strengthened their joints. Whenever We wish, We could replace them with people just like them." This verse tells man that he has no reason to be surprised because Allāh can easily resurrect him just as Allāh created him the first time and strengthened him. In saying "We strengthened their joints" Allāh Ta'āla alludes to the fact that even though man's limbs and organs are perpetually in motion and the wear and tear on them is phenomenal, they continue to function from birth until death. When machines made of iron and steel wear out and require regular servicing to remain functioning for even a short period, man's body which is made of soft muscle and tissue functions for tens of years without maintenance. It is certainly only Allāh Who makes this possible.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "It is compulsory for you to pay Sadaqah for every joint of your body each day." Saying "Subhā Nallāh" is Sadaqah (charity), saying "Al Hamdu Lillāh" is Sadaqah, saying "Allāhu Akbar" is Sadaqah, saying "Lā Ilāha Illallāhu" is Sadaqah, enjoining good is Sadaqah and forbidding evil is Sadaqah. Performing two Rakāhs of Salāh during midmorning (called Salātut Duhā or Chasht Salāh) suffices as Sadaqah for all these joints." ["Mishkāt" p. 116 from Muslim]

According to another hadith, every person is created with 360 joints. If his good deeds for the day equal this number each day, he will have secured salvation from Hell each day. Good deeds include saying "Allāhu Akbar", saying "Al Hamdu Lillāh ", saying "Lā Ilāha Illallāhu", saying "Subhā Nallāh", seeking Allāh's forgiveness, removing a stone, thorn, bone, etc from the road and enjoining good and forbidding evil. ["Mishkāt" p. 168 from Muslim] Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "This is certainly an advice. So whoever wills should adopt a path towards his Lord. You cannot will anything without Allāh's will. Verily Allāh is All Knowing, the Wise. He enters whoever He wills into His mercy and has prepared a painful punishment for the oppressors."

سورة المرسلات

Makkan

Surah Al-Mursalāt

Verses 50

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالْمُرْسَلَاتِ عُرْفًا ۝ (1) فَالْعَصْفَاتِ عَصْفًا ۝ (2) وَالنَّشِيرَاتِ فَشْرًا ۝ (3) فَالْمُرْسَلَاتِ فَرَقًا ۝ (4)
 فَالْمُلْقِيَاتِ ذِكْرًا ۝ (5) عَذْرًا أَوْ نَذْرًا ۝ (6) إِنَّمَا تُوعَدُونَ لَوَاقِعٌ ۝ (7) فَإِذَا النُّجُومُ طُمِسَتْ ۝ (8)
 وَإِذَا السَّمَاءُ فُرِجَتْ ۝ (9) وَإِذَا الْجِبَالُ سُفِفَتْ ۝ (10) وَإِذَا الرَّسُلُ أُنْفِتَ ۝ (11) لِأَيِّ
 يَوْمٍ أُجِّلَتْ ۝ (12) لِيَوْمِ الْعَصَلِ ۝ (13) وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا يَوْمَ الْفَصْلِ ۝ (14) وَلَيْلٌ يُومِدُ ۝ (15)
 لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the oath of those winds that are sent to give benefit. (2) By the oath of those winds that blow extremely severely. (3) By the oath of those winds that disperse the clouds. (4) By the oath of those winds that separate the clouds. (5) By the oath of those winds that induce the remembrance of Allāh... (6) .....be it by way of repentance or warning. (7) Verily what you have been warned about shall certainly take place. (8) So when the light of the stars will be obliterated... (9)..... when the sky will be split... (10) ..... when mountains will fly about... (11) .... and when the messengers will be gathered for an appointed time. (12) For which day shall their matter be postponed? (13) For the Day of Judgment. (14) What will tell you what the Day of Judgment is? (15) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!

JUDGEMENT IS POSTPONED UNTIL THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

In these opening verses of Surah Mursalāt, Allāh Ta'āla swears oaths by various types of winds to assert that "Verily what you have been warned about (i.e. Judgment Day) shall certainly take place." Allāh Ta'āla makes it clear to people that their refusal to believe in the Day of Judgment will neither cause it to be postponed nor cancelled. Allāh mentions beneficial and destructive winds. Those winds that bring rain clouds are beneficial while those that blow fiercely are usually destructive. These types of clouds induce man to think of Allāh because the beneficial winds are a sign of His mercy and prompt man to be grateful to Allāh. On the other hand, destructive winds instil fear in man's heart and prompt him to repent to Allāh so that he may be saved from punishment. Man needs to realise that this gratitude and repentance will be of benefit to him on the Day of Judgment. However, should he neglect these obligations, he will be answerable on the Day of Judgment.

Allāh then describes the Day of Judgment. Allāh says that it will be on the Day of Judgment "when the light of the stars will be obliterated, when the sky will be split, when mountains will fly about, and when the messengers will be gathered for an appointed time."

Allāh then asks, "For which day shall their matter be postponed?" Allāh Himself answers the question by saying, "For the Day of Judgement." In these verses, Allāh tells the disbelievers that they should not think that because they have not yet been punished in this world, they will never be punished. They should bear in mind that their punishment has been deferred to another time viz, the Hereafter. Concerning those who deny Allāh, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the other Prophet عليه السلام or Judgment Day, Allāh says, "May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!"

أَلَمْ نُهْلِكِ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ ثُمَّ نَتَّبِعُهُمُ الْآخِرِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ كَذَلِكَ نَفْعَلُ بِالْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿١٨﴾
وَبَلِّغْ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ﴿١٩﴾ أَلَمْ تَخْلُقْهُمْ مِنْ مَّاءٍ مَهِينٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ فَجَعَلْنَاهُ فِي قَرَارٍ مَكِينٍ ﴿٢١﴾
إِلَى قَدَرٍ مَعْلُومٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ فَقَدَرْنَا فَنِعَمَ الْقَدِرُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَبَلِّغْ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ أَلَمْ تَجْعَلِ
الْأَرْضَ كِفَاتًا ﴿٢٥﴾ أَحْيَاءَ وَأَمْوَاتًا ﴿٢٦﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا رُوسَ شَمَخَاتٍ وَأَسْقَيْنَاكُمْ مَاءً فُرَاتًا
وَبَلِّغْ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾

(16) Have We not destroyed the former nations... (17) ... and then joined the later generations with them? (18) Thus do We treat the sinners. (19) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day! (20) Have We not created you from despised water... (21) .... placed it in a safe place... (22) ....for a specified period... (23) ... and determined (it precisely)? We are certainly the best of those who determine. (24) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day! (25) Have We not made the earth consist of... (26) .... both the living and the dead? (27) Have We not placed towering mountains on earth and given you palatable water to drink? (28) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!

LEARNING FROM THE DESTRUCTION OF FORMER NATIONS AND GRATITUDE FOR ALLĀH'S BOUNTIES

When the disbelievers were warned about Allāh's punishment, they denied it, saying that they cannot believe in something that has not come. Explaining to them that His punishment is a reality that has already struck many nations before them, Allāh says, "Have We not destroyed the former nations and then joined the later generations with them?" i.e. We punished the later generations as well because they followed the same route of disbelief that their forebears followed. "Thus do We treat the sinners." The punishment of the disbelievers is a preordained affair. They will certainly be punished, if not in this world, then certainly in the Hereafter. However, there have been many whom Allāh has punished in both worlds. Those who deny the tenets of belief are cursed when Allāh says, "May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!"

Refuting the scepticism of those who deny Judgment Day, Allāh says, "Have We not created you from despised water (semen), placed it in a safe place (the womb) for a specified period (the gestation period) and determined (this period precisely)? We are certainly the best of those who determine." It is according to this specific period that children are born. Allāh reiterates, "May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!"

Allāh continues, "Have We not made the earth consist of both the living and the dead?" Just as there are living beings on earth, there are also corpses and carcasses beneath its surface. When Judgment Day arrives, all those who are alive will also die. Allāh will then resurrect the dead like a new creation from the earth.

Allāh asks further, "Have We not placed towering mountains on earth..." to lend stability to the earth? However, even these massive creations will be uprooted on the Day of Judgment and will float about like cotton wool, a demonstration that irrespective of its apparent might, nothing can withstand Allāh's supremacy.

Recounting another favour to mankind, Allāh asks, "(Have We not) given you palatable water to drink?" Man cannot thank Allāh enough for providing drinking water for him and for the multitude of other favours. It is therefore necessary that man accepts and practises Allāh's commands and everything that the Prophets عليهم السلام have taught. The lot of those who deny this shall be miserable indeed because Allāh says, "May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!"

أَنْطَلِقُوا إِلَى مَا كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تَكْذِبُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ أَنْطَلِقُوا إِلَى ظِلٍّ ذِي ثَلَاثِ شُعَبٍ ﴿٣٠﴾ لَا ظِلِيلٍ وَلَا يُغْنِي مِنَ الْهَبِ ﴿٣١﴾ إِنَّهَا تَرْمِي بِشَرَرٍ كَالْقَصْرِ ﴿٣٢﴾ كَأَنَّهُ جِمَالَتٌ صُفْرٌ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَيْلٌ لِّلْمُكْذِبِينَ ﴿٣٤﴾ هَذَا يَوْمٌ لَا يَنْطِقُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَلَا يُؤْذَنُ لَهُمْ فَيَعْتَرِدُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَيْلٌ لِّلْمُكْذِبِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾ هَذَا يَوْمُ الْفَصْلِ جَمَعْنَاكُمْ وَالْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٣٨﴾ فَإِنْ كَانَ لَكُمْ كَيْدٌ فَكِيدُونِ ﴿٣٩﴾ وَيْلٌ لِّلْمُكْذِبِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾

(29) "Proceed towards that which you used to deny!" (30) "Proceed towards the canopy of three parts..." (31) "...which will neither provide shade nor offer shelter against the heat." (32) Indeed, it (Hell) throws sparks like huge palaces... (33) ...resembling pitch black camels. (34) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day! (35) This is that day when they will be unable to speak... (36) ...and they will not be permitted to offer any excuses. (37) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day! (38) "This is that Day of Judgement. We have gathered you together with the former nations." (39) "So if you have any plot, use it against Me!" (40) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!

THE ADDRESS TO THE DISBELIEVERS ON THE DAY OF JUDGMENT

When the disbelievers are gathered on the Day of Judgment, they will be told, "Proceed towards that which you used to deny!" With these words, they will be commanded to enter Hell which they regarded as a myth in this world. A great mass of smoke of three parts will then emerge from Hell, resembling a large canopy. Though resembling a canopy, it will not serve the purpose of a canopy because it "will neither provide shade nor offer shelter against the heat. Commentators state that the disbelievers will have to wait in this smoke after their reckoning while the believers will rest in the shade of Allāh's throne.

Describing Hell further, Allāh says, "Indeed, it (Hell) throws sparks like huge palaces resembling pitch black camels." Commentators mention that the larger sparks of Hell will be as large as huge palaces while the smaller sparks will resemble black camels. When the sparks of Hell are so enormous, one cannot imagine the vastness of Hell itself. Allāh reiterates, "May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!"

Allāh continues, "This is that day when they will be unable to speak and they will not be permitted to offer any excuses." This will be during the initial stages of the Day of Judgment. However, people will be permitted to speak later on, but their excuses will not benefit them at all. Allāh says in Surah Mu'minūn, "The day when the excuses of the oppressors will not benefit them, when they will be cursed and will have the worst of abodes." [Surah 40, verse 52]

"May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!" On the Day of Judgment, the disbelievers will be told, "This is that Day of Judgement. We have gathered you together with the former nations. So if you have any plot, use it against Me!" None will be able to escape Allāh's punishment on the Day of Judgment and there will be nothing to help them. Allāh repeats the curse when He says, "May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!"

إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي ظِلِّلٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿٤١﴾ وَفَوَاحِهِ مِمَّا يَشْتَهُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ كُلُّوْا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيئًا بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَيَلٌَّ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ﴿٤٥﴾ كُلُّوْا وَتَمَنَّعُوا قَلِيلًا إِنَّكُمْ جُنُحُمْونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَيَلٌَّ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ أَزْكَوْا لَا يَرْكَعُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَيَلٌَّ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَيَايَ حَدِيثٍ بَعْدَهُ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾

(41) Verily those with Piety shall be (enjoying themselves) in shade, springs...

(42) ...and the fruit of their choice. (43) "Eat and drink with all blessings as reward for the deeds you carried out." (44) Thus do We reward those who do good. (45) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day! (46) "Eat and enjoy yourselves for a few days. You are certainly sinners." (47) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day! (48) When they are told to bow, they do not bow. (49) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day! (50) So what will they believe in after the Qur'ān?

THE REWARDS OF THOSE WITH PIETY

After discussing the plight of the disbelievers on the Day of Judgment, Allāh mentions the bliss that His pious servants will enjoy. Allāh says, "Verily those with Piety shall be (enjoying themselves) in shade, springs". It is with reference to this shade that Allāh says in Surah Dahar, "Its shade will be close above them." Surah Dahar also mentions some of the springs of Heaven. In addition to this, they will also enjoy "the fruit of their choice." They will be told, "Eat and drink with all blessings as a reward for the deeds you carried out. Thus do We reward those who do good." Eating and drinking with blessings means that the food and drink of Heaven will be good for the body as well as pleasing to the heart. A person will not dislike anything in Heaven because everything there is appealing. Allāh says in Surah Zukhruf, "in Heaven there shall be whatever the heart desires and whatever pleases the eye." [Surah 43, verse 70]

Allāh then addresses the disbelievers saying, "Eat and enjoy yourselves for a few days (in this world). You are certainly sinners" i.e. you are certainly disbelievers because you are guilty of the worst sin viz. disbelief. If they do not believe before their deaths, they face eternal damnation. "May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day!"

"When they are told (in this world) to bow, they do not bow." These people refuse to submit to Allāh and do not perform Ṣalāh when they are enjoined to do so.

"May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day? So what will they believe in after the Qur'ān?" The Qur'ān explains Oneness of Allah and Belief to people most excellently and no book can ever match its eloquence. However, the disbelievers still refuse to submit. It is therefore obvious that nothing else can expect to guide them.

Para Thirty

سورة النبا

Makkan	Surah Naba	Verses 40
--------	------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

عَمَّ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ﴿١﴾ عَنِ النَّبِإِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٢﴾ الَّذِي هُمْ فِيهِ مُخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٣﴾ كَلَّا سَيَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤﴾ كَلَّا سَيَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥﴾ الَّذِي تَجْعَلُ الْأَرْضَ مِهْدًا ﴿٦﴾ وَالْجِبَالَ أَوْتَادًا ﴿٧﴾ وَخَلَقْتُمْ أَزْوَاجًا ﴿٨﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا نَوْمَكُمْ سُبَاتًا ﴿٩﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا أَيْلًا لِبَاسًا ﴿١٠﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا النَّهَارَ مَعَاشًا ﴿١١﴾ وَبَنَيْنَا فَوْقَكُمْ سَبْعًا شِدَادًا ﴿١٢﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا سِرَاجًا وَهَّاجًا ﴿١٣﴾ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ الْمُعْصِرَاتِ مَاءً ﴿١٤﴾ ثَجَاجًا ﴿١٥﴾ لِنُخْرِجَ بِهِ حَبًّا وَنَبَاتًا ﴿١٥﴾ وَجَنَّاتٍ أَلْفَافًا ﴿١٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) What do they ask about? (2) About the great news... (3) ...concerning which they differ? (4) Take heed! They will soon come to know. (5) Take heed again! They will soon come to know. (6) Have We not made the earth a bedding... (7) the mountains pegs... (8) .... and created you in pairs? (9) (And have We not) made your sleep a means of rest... (10) ...the night a drape... (11) ... and the day a means of earning livelihood? (12) (And have We not) made seven powerful skies above you... (13) ..and made a bright lantern. (14) And We sent torrential rains from laden clouds... (15) ...to extract with it seeds, plants... (16) .and dense gardens.

THE GREAT NEWS IS JUDGEMENT DAY (QIYĀMAH)

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه narrates that some members of the Quraysh were once having a discussion. When it was mentioned that the Qur'an spoke about Judgment Day, some of them accepted while others did not. "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" adds that some of them asked, "What has Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم brought?" It was with reference to this discussion that Allāh revealed the verse "What do they ask about?" Allāh Himself replies to the question when He says, "About the great news (Judgment Day) concerning which they differ? "While some of them believed in Judgment Day, others did not.

Allāh says, "Take heed! They will soon come to know." Allāh then repeats, "Take heed again! They will soon come to know." They will realise the error of their ways when Judgment Day does take place, but then it will be too late.

Allāh then mentions some of His creations that are there for all to see. By pondering over these, man will realise Allāh's great power and will understand that the Being Who created such phenomenal things must certainly have the power to resurrect people on the Day of Judgment. Allāh asks, "Have We not made the earth a bedding, the mountains pegs, and created you in pairs?" Because the mountains prevent the earth from shaking, man is able to stand, walk and travel easily on earth. Allāh has also created a spouse for man so that man may marry, may have a loving companion through the difficulties of life and may have contentment. In addition to this, marriage allows for procreation so that man may survive on earth.

Allāh continues, "(And have We not) made your sleep a means of rest..." Man gets physically and mentally tired during his daily activities and needs sleep to recuperate and replenish his energy. After a good night's rest, man again has the energy to continue his daily activities. The Arabic word 'subātā' (translated above as 'a means of rest') literally refers to cuffing something. This word aptly describes sleep because the voluntary movements of a person's limbs terminate while he sleeps and his fatigue is alleviated.

Allāh says that He made "the night a drape and the day a means of earning livelihood?" Man has the night to rest at home and the light of the day in which to earn a living. Therefore the night and the day are great bounties from Allāh. One can well imagine the difficulty if night had to be perpetual or if day had to be perpetual.

Allāh continues, "(And have We not) made seven powerful skies above you and made a bright lantern" i.e. the sun. Generating its own light, the sun provides the earth with innumerable benefits apart from light. It provides heat and allows plants and vegetation to grow. Besides these, research has disclosed numerous other benefits of the sun that were previously unknown.

"And We sent torrential rains from laden clouds to extract with it seeds, plants and dense gardens." Allāh uses the rain as a means of growing plants, many of which form man's staple diet. Among the many things that rain also grows is fodder for animals, which in turn provide man with food, milk, hide, transport and labour. The Arabic word 'alfafa' (translated above as "dense") refers to trees the branches of which twine into each other as they grow.

إِنَّ يَوْمَ الْفَصْلِ كَانَ مِيقَتًا ﴿١٧﴾ يَوْمَ يُفْعُ فِي الصُّورِ فَتَأْتُونَ أَفْوَاجًا ﴿١٨﴾ وَفُتِحَتِ السَّمَاءُ فَكَانَتْ أَبْوَابًا ﴿١٩﴾ وَسُيِّرَتِ الْجِبَالُ فَكَانَتْ سَرَابًا ﴿٢٠﴾

(17) Verily the Day of Judgement has been fixed. (18) The day when the trumpet will be blown and you will come in armies. (19) The sky will be opened and will become many doors. (20) The mountains will be made to fly and will be reduced to dust.

In the above verses, Allāh Ta'āla recounts some manifestations of His immense power. By pondering about these, man will realise that Allāh is certainly Capable of resurrecting the dead on the Day of Judgment. Allāh makes it clear that the Day of Judgment will neither be preponed nor postponed even though there may be people who deny its advent and are sceptical about it. Allāh says, "Verily the Day of Judgement has been fixed. The day when the trumpet will be blown and you will come in armies." Every generation from the time of Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام will present themselves for reckoning and they will arrive from their graves in large numbers.

Allāh describes the scene of the day further when He says, "The sky will be opened and will become many doors. The mountains will be made to fly and will be reduced to dust." Allāh says in Surah Naml, "You will look at the mountains, thinking them to be solid but they will be passing by like clouds." A verse of Surah Muzzammil reads: "the day that the earth and mountains will shake and the mountains will be reduced to a heap of dust." Describing the same scene on the Day of Judgment, Allāh says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "When the earth shall convulse with violent earthquakes. And the mountains will be shattered to pieces and become like scattered dust."

إِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ كَانَتْ مِرْصَادًا ﴿٢١﴾ لِلطَّٰغِيْنَ مَنَآبَا ﴿٢٢﴾ لَّيْسِيْنَ فِيْهَا أَحْقَابًا ﴿٢٣﴾ لَا يَذُوْقُوْنَ فِيْهَا بَرْدًا وَلَا شَرَابًا ﴿٢٤﴾ إِلَّا حَمِيْمًا وَغَسَاقًا ﴿٢٥﴾ جَزَاءً وَفَاقًا ﴿٢٦﴾ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا لَا يَرْجُوْنَ حِسَابًا ﴿٢٧﴾ وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا كِذَابًا ﴿٢٨﴾ وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ أَحْصَيْنَاهُ كِتَابًا ﴿٢٩﴾ فَذُوقُوا فَلَنْ نَّزِيْدَكُمْ إِلَّا عَذَابًا ﴿٣٠﴾

(21) Indeed Hell is a place of ambush... (22) ....an abode for the rebellious. (23) They will remain there for an extremely long period of time. (24) In Hell they will taste neither any coolness nor any drink... (25) .... except boiling water and Ghassāq... (26) .... as a befitting punishment (for their sins). (27) Indeed they never looked forward to reckoning... (28) .... and adamantly falsified Our verses. (29) .... We have meticulously recorded everything in the book. (30) "So taste! We shall increase you only in punishment."

When Judgment Day takes place at its appointed time, the righteous and the sinful will see what is in store for them. The bounties that the pious will enjoy in the Hereafter will be discussed in the commentary of verse 31 and the verses thereafter. Allāh begins by speaking about the plight of the disbelievers and polytheists in the above verses when He says, "Indeed Hell is a place of ambush". The angels appointed to punish people in Hell are lying in wait for them. No sooner will they arrive than the angels will start punishing them. Other commentators state that verse should be translated as "Indeed Hell is waiting in ambush." Lending the description to Hell itself is not farfetched because Allāh has given life to Hell. Allāh says in Surah Furqān, "When it (Hell) will see them from a distance, they will hear the roar of its fury and its crackling." [Surah 25, verse 12]

Allāh says further that Hell is "an abode for the rebellious. They will remain there for an extremely long period of time.” The most rebellious are the disbelievers and Polytheists. The Arabic word “ahqāb” (translated above as “an extremely long period of time”) is the plural of “hiqb”. According to Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه, the word refers to an infinite period of time. According to Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umar رضى الله عنه, a single “hiqb” is equivalent to eighty years. It has also been reported that a single day of these eighty years is equal to a thousand years of this world. Whatever the interpretation, the Qur’ān is explicit that people will spend many periods of “hiqb” in Hell.

Because the period of a “hiqb” has not been specified, and because Surah Nisā and Surah Jinn mention the word “abada” (until eternity) when mentioning the punishment of the disbelievers and polytheists, it is the belief of the Ahlus Sunnah wal Jamā’ah that the disbelievers and Polytheists will suffer eternally in Hell just as the believers will enjoy Heaven eternally. Just as the bounties of the people of Heaven will never come to an end, the punishment of the people in Hell will also not come to an end. It is for this reason that commentators state that the interpretation of “ahqāb” is “hiqb” after “hiqb” i.e. the people of Hell will suffer “hiqb” after “hiqb” of punishment until eternity.

Allāh continues, “In Hell they will taste neither any coolness nor any drink..” The people of Hell will have no respite from punishment. Neither will they have relief from the heat nor from thirst. Of course, this verse does not contradict the existence of Zamharīr, an icy cold part of Hell in which many will be placed for punishment. The “coolness” mentioned in this verse refers to a welcome relief from the heat of Hell and not an icy cold punishment.

Allāh then adds that the only drink that the people of Hell will receive will be “boiling water and Ghassāq”. Allāh says in Surah Muhammad that the people of Hell will be “given boiling water to drink, which tears their innards to shreds?” [Surah 47, verse 15]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that if a single bucket of “Ghassāq” were to be thrown on earth, every person on earth will rot. [“Mishkāt” p. 503]

The book “Mirqāt” (which is a commentary of “Mishkāt”) has cited the following four interpretations of “Ghassāq”:

1. It is the puss of the people of Hell, and the fluid that remains after their wounds are washed.
2. It is the tears of the people in Hell..
3. It refers to Zamharīr, which is the icy cold part of Hell.
4. It is the frozen, decaying puss of the people in Hell, which is too cold to drink (However, people will be forced to drink it because of extreme thirst).

Whatever the interpretation, “Ghassāq” is something extremely horrid and foul smelling. May Allāh save us all from it. Āmīn.

Allāh then says that whatever the people of Hell will suffer shall be "a befitting punishment (for their sins)." Because disbelief and polytheism are the worst of sins, the disbelievers and Polytheists deserve the worst of punishment. They will suffer punishment until eternity because they lived their entire lives as disbelievers and Polytheists. Allāh then says about these people, 'indeed they never looked forward to reckoning and adamantly falsified Our verses. We have meticulously recorded everything in the book' They will be told, "So taste (the punishment)! We shall increase you only in punishment."

إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ مَفَازًا ﴿٣١﴾ حَدَائِقَ وَأَعْنَابًا ﴿٣٢﴾ وَكَوَاعِبَ أَزْوَاجًا ﴿٣٣﴾ وَكَأْسًا دِهَاقًا ﴿٣٤﴾ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَغْوًا وَلَا كِدَابًا ﴿٣٥﴾ جَزَاءً مِّن رَّبِّكَ عَطَاءً حِسَابًا ﴿٣٦﴾ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا الرَّحْمَنُ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِنْهُ خِطَابًا ﴿٣٧﴾ يَوْمَ يَقُومُ الرُّوحُ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ صَفًّا لَا يَتَكَلَّمُونَ إِلَّا مَن أَذِنَ لَهُ الرَّحْمَنُ وَقَالَ صَوَابًا ﴿٣٨﴾ ذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ الْحَقُّ فَمَن شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ مَآبًا ﴿٣٩﴾ إِنَّا أَنذَرْنَكُمْ عَذَابًا قَرِيبًا يَوْمَ يَنْظُرُ الْمَرْءُ مَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدَاهُ وَيَقُولُ الْكَافِرُ يَلَيْتَنِي كُنْتُ تُرَابًا ﴿٤٠﴾

(31) Those with Taqwa (Piety) shall certainly have success... (32) ... gardens, grapes... (33) ...youthful maidens of equal age... (34) ....and brimming glasses. (35) In Jannah (Heaven) they shall hear neither futile talk nor lies. (36) (All this will be) compensation, conferred as an ample gift from your Lord... (37) ... Who is the Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between them and the Most Compassionate. They will be unable to address Him. (38) On the day when every living being and the angels will stand in rows, none of them will be able to speak except the one whom Ar Rahmān permits and who speaks correctly. (39) That is the Day of Truth. So whoever wills should adopt a recourse towards his Lord. (40) We have certainly warned you of a near punishment; the day when a man will see what his hands sent ahead and the disbeliever will say, "Oh! If only I had been dust!"

After speaking about the terrible plight that the disbelievers will suffer in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), Allāh discusses the good fortune of those who possess piety. There are various levels of Piety. The highest level is abstaining from polytheism. Thereafter, there are numerous other levels depending on a person's abstinence from sin. According to these levels, people will enjoy varied levels in Heaven. Allāh says, "Those with piety shall certainly have success..." Although the word "mafāza" is translated as "success", it also refers to a place of success viz. Heaven.

Allāh then recounts the bounties of Heaven which are a manifestation of a person's success. These bounties include "gardens". The Arabic word used here for gardens is "hadā'iq", which is the plural of "hadiqa". "Hadiqa" actually refers to a garden or orchard that is surrounded by four walls. Although grapes are to be found in such orchards like all other fruit, Allāh mentions grapes separately because grapes are a more celebrated fruit than other fruit.

Also among the bounties of Heaven will be 'youthful maidens of equal age'. Husbands and wives in Heaven will be of the same age so that compatibility will be optimal. Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that every person to enter Heaven will be thirty years of age irrespective of their age in this world when they passed away. Thereafter, they will not age.

"Shamā'il Tirmidhi" reports that an old lady once asked, "O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Pray that Allāh enters me into Heaven." The Nabi صلى الله عليه وسلم said to her, "Old women will not enter Heaven." Hearing this the old woman left weeping. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent someone after her with the message that she will not be old when she enters Heaven. She will be transformed into a young lady because Allāh states, 'indeed We have created these damsels very specially. And We have made them all virgins, most beloved and of equal age for the people of the right.'

Allāh states further that in Heaven people will enjoy "brimming glasses ". This verse does not contradict verse 16 of Surah Dahar (Surah 76) where Allāh says that "those filling (the glasses) will fill by an appropriate measure." There is no contradiction because those people who desire to have their glasses brimming over will have their desire.

"In Heaven they shall hear neither futile talk nor lies." Not only will the people of Heaven not speak lies and hold useless discussions, they will not even hear this from others. Allāh continues, "(All this will be) compensation (for their good deeds), conferred as an ample gift from your Lord ". Whatever the people of Heaven receive will be much more than everything they desire. There will be nothing left to be desired.

Whatever the people of Heaven receive will be from Allāh, "Who is the Lord of the heavens, the earth and whatever is between them and the Most Compassionate. They will be unable to address Him." The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" interprets the verse to mean that the people of Hell will be unable to request respite and the people of Heaven will be unable to ask for more without His permission.

"On the day when every living being and the angels will stand in rows, none of them will be able to speak except the one whom Ar Rahmān permits and who speaks correctly." Whoever wants to speak will not be able to speak. Only those whom Allāh knows will speak correctly will be granted permission to speak. Such people include those who will intercede on behalf of others. Referring to the angels, Allāh says in Surah Anbiya, "He knows what is before them and what is behind them and only the one with whom He is pleased will be able to intercede. They tremble with fear for Him." [Surah 21, verse 28]

"That is the Day of Truth. So whoever wills should adopt a recourse towards his Lord" i.e. one should accept Islām and continue to perform good deeds until one's death. "We have certainly warned you of a near punishment" The punishment of the Day of Judgment is near because whatever is certain is regarded as being near.

Allāh continues, "The day when a man will see what (deeds) his hands sent ahead

(in his record of deeds). "Allāh says in Surah Kahf, "The record of deeds shall be placed and you will see the sinners afraid of what is contained in them. They will say, 'Woe be to us! What is with this book that it does not leave anything small or large unrecorded?' They will find their deeds present and your Lord shall not oppress anyone." [Surah 18, verse 50]

Allāh says in Surah Zilzāl, "Whoever does an atom 's weight of good will see it and whoever does an atom 's weight of evil will see it." [Surah 99, verses 7,8]

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying that on the Day of Judgment, "the disbeliever will say, 'Oh! If only I had been dust!'", "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه that every creature will be resurrected on the Day of Judgment, even the birds and animals. Then retribution will be taken from every one of them who oppressed another in any way. Consequently, a hornless goat will have revenge from the horned goat that butted it in the world. When revenge is exacted from all the animals, Allāh will command them, "Become dust!" Seeing this, the disbeliever will think that it would have been better for him if he were an animal so that his affair would be terminated after revenge is taken. He would then not have to suffer any further punishment. Although animals will have no reward, they will also have no punishment like the disbelievers. It is on this occasion that "the disbeliever will say, 'Oh! If only I had been dust!'"

Other commentators have stated that the disbeliever will express this wish when he sees the punishment in store for him. He will then wish that he were never born.

سورة النزعت

Makkan

Surah An-Nāzi'at

Verses 46

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالنَّازِعَاتِ غَرَقًا ① وَالنَّاشِطَاتِ نَشْطًا ② وَالسَّابِحَاتِ سَبْحًا ③ فَالسَّابِقَاتِ سَبْقًا ④
فَالْمُدَبِّرَاتِ أَمْرًا ⑤ يَوْمَ تَرْجُفُ الرَّاجِفَةُ ⑥ تَتَّبِعُهَا الرَّادِفَةُ ⑦ فُلُوبٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ
وَاجِفَةٌ ⑧ أَبْصَرُهَا خَشِيعَةٌ ⑨ يَقُولُونَ أَيْنَا لَمَرْدُودُونَ فِي الْحَافِرَةِ ⑩ أَيْنَا كُنَّا
عِظَمًا نَخِرَةً ⑪ قَالُوا تِلْكَ إِذَا كَرَّةٌ خَاسِرَةٌ ⑫ فَإِنَّمَا هِيَ زَجْرَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ ⑬ فَإِذَا هُمْ
بِالسَّاهِرَةِ ⑭

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the oath of those angels who harshly extract souls... (2) .... those who untie knots... (3) .... those who swim along... (4) ... who then swiftly race... (5) ... and those who arrange the commands (of Allāh). (6) The day (shall certainly take place) when that which shakes shall shake... (7) . . .to be followed by that which will follow. (8) On that day, many hearts will be fluttering... (9) ... with their gazes cast down. (10) They say, "Will we be returned to our former states..." (11) "...even after we have become decomposed bones?" (12) They say, "In that case the return shall be a tremendous loss." (13) It will be only a single blast... (14) ... and they will all immediately be present for Reckoning.

These verses speak about the advent of Judgment Day. Allāh begins by taking oaths of several types of angels to assert that "The day (shall certainly take place) when that which shakes shall shake."

Allāh says, "By the oath of those angels who harshly extract souls". The emphasis in this verse denotes that these angels mercilessly wrench the soul from every portion of the dying person's body, causing excruciating pain. Allāh then swears by those angels "who untie knots". This refers to those angels who remove souls very gently from the body. Commentators state that the first group of angels extract the souls of the disbelievers while the second group extract the souls of the believers. Of course, there are times when Allāh causes the death of a believer to be difficult so that he may earn an exalted status in the Hereafter.

The Ahadith mention that the soul of a believer emerges from the body as easily as water emerges from a water-bag. On the other hand, when a disbeliever has to leave this world for the Hereafter, dark-faced angels descend from the heavens. They carry with them sack cloth and appear before him as far as the eyes can see. Then the angel of death himself comes, sits by the head and says, "O foul soul! Emerge towards Allāh's anger!" The soul then disperses throughout the body in an attempt to escape. Thereafter the angel of death forcefully extracts the soul, just as wet wool wrapped around a skewer is forcefully removed. When the angel of death removes the soul, the other angels, without losing a split second, grab hold off the soul and wrap it in the sack cloth. ["Mishkāt" p. 142]

Allāh Ta'āla then takes an oath by those angels "who swim along". Commentators state that this refers to the fluid and swift movement of the angels as they transport the soul of the believer to the heavens. Thereafter, Allāh swears by the angels "who then swiftly race" off with the souls of people once Allāh instructs them where to take the souls. Once the decision is made and the instruction issued, the angels hasten to "arrange the (fulfilment of the) commands (of Allāh)."

The above oaths are taken to assert that "The day (shall certainly take place) when that which shakes shall shake" This verse refers to the Day of Judgment and "that which shakes" refers to the first blowing of the trumpet, which will violently shake everything. The first blowing of the trumpet will "be followed by that which will follow" i.e. by the second blowing of the trumpet.

Describing the condition of people on the Day of Judgment, Allāh says, "On that day, many hearts will be fluttering with their gazes cast down." Allāh then quotes what the disbelievers used to say about Judgment day. They say, "Will we be returned to our former states even after we have become decomposed bones?" The disbelievers regard the advent of Judgment day as something farfetched and cynically ask this question. They also say "In that case the return shall be a tremendous loss." The disbelievers said that if Judgment day were to take place as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, they would be ruined because they will then suffer the punishment for their rejection. However, this statement was also intended to mock the belief of Judgment day because the disbelievers did not even have a vague belief that Judgment day could be a reality. If they did have the concern that they may have to suffer a loss, they would not have behaved as badly as they did.

Even if a dishonest person warns people not to go to a certain place because there is a large snake there, people would be very cautious to go there because they fear for their safety. If the disbelievers during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم believed that the possibility of Judgment day could exist, they would have been foolish to make the claims they did when they knew the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be an honest person.

"It will be only a single blast and they will all immediately be present for Reckoning." Although the disbelievers regarded the advent of Judgment day to be something farfetched and impossible, it is an extremely simple matter for Allāh. When Allāh issues the command, all it takes for people to be resurrected for Judgment day is a single blast of the trumpet and everyone will present themselves without delay.

هَلْ أُنَبِّئُكَ حَدِيثُ مُوسَى ﴿١٥﴾ إِذْ نَادَاهُ رَبُّهُ بِالْوَادِ الْمُقَدَّسِ طُوًى ﴿١٦﴾ أَذْهَبَ إِلَى فِرْعَوْنَ
إِنَّهُ طَعَنَ ﴿١٧﴾ فَقُلْ هَلْ لَكَ إِلَهٌ إِلَّا أَن تَرْكَى ﴿١٨﴾ وَأَهْدِيكَ إِلَى رَبِّكَ فَتَخْشَى ﴿١٩﴾ فَأَرَاهُ
الْآيَةَ الْكُبْرَى ﴿٢٠﴾ فَكَذَّبَ وَعَصَى ﴿٢١﴾ ثُمَّ أَذْبَرَ يَسْعَى ﴿٢٢﴾ فَحَشَرَ فَنَادَى ﴿٢٣﴾ فَقَالَ
أَنَا رَبُّكُمْ الْأَعْلَى ﴿٢٤﴾ فَأَخَذَهُ اللَّهُ نَكَالَ الْآخِرَةِ وَالْأُولَى ﴿٢٥﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَعِبْرَةً لِّمَن
يَخْشَى ﴿٢٦﴾

(15) Has the story of Mūsa عليه السلام reached you? (16) When his Lord called him on the blessed valley of Tuwa. (17) "Go to Phara'oh (Fir'oun) for he has certainly transgressed." (18) "Tell him, 'Do you want to be purified?'" (19) "'And should I guide you to your Lord so that you may fear (Him)?" (20) So he showed him a great sign. (21) But he falsified and disobeyed. (22) Then he turned away and applied himself. (23) He gathered the people and proclaimed... (24) .... "I am your highest Lord!" (25) So Allāh seized him with the punishment of this world and the Hereafter. (26) There is certainly a lesson in this for the one who fears.

Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was from the Bani Isrā'il who lived in Egypt from the time of Sayyidina Yusuf عليه السلام. The Copts of Egypt greatly oppressed the Bani Isrā'il and made their lives miserable. It was during these trying times that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was born. Upon direction from Allāh Ta'āla, his mother placed him in a basket, which she put in the river. When the basket passed by phara'oh's (Fir'oun's) palace, phara'oh's (Fir'oun's) wife had it removed from the river. When she saw the child inside, she was overwhelmed with the child and beseeched phara'oh (Fir'oun) to keep the child as a son in the palace. Consequently, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام grew up in phara'oh's (Fir'oun's) palace. When he grew up, he killed a Copt by mistake when he tried to assist an Isrā'īli. When the news reached phara'oh (Fir'oun) and his ministers, they decided to execute Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. Learning of their intention, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام left Egypt and settled in Madyan where he married and tended the goats of his father-in-law for ten years.

He then decided to return to Egypt with his wife but lost the way. Eventually, he saw what appeared to be a fire in the distance. Thinking that he could get a brand of fire to keep his wife warm and find someone to direct him, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام set out in the direction of the 'fire'. When he reached the sacred valley of Tuwa where the 'fire' was, Allāh addressed him and made him a Nabi (Prophet). Allāh asked him to throw down his staff, which Allāh made into a snake and Allāh also showed him that his hand could become a shining lamp by placing it beneath his arm. Allāh also commanded him to preach to phara'oh (Fir'oun) and his people. It is with reference to this that Allāh says, "Has the story of Mūsa عليه السلام reached you? When his Lord called him on the blessed valley of Tuwa (He said to him) 'Go to phara'oh (Fir'oun) for he has certainly transgressed. Tell him,

'Do you want to be purified? And should I guide you to your Lord so that you may fear (Him)?'

Complying with Allāh's command, Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام left for Egypt where he was joined by his brother Hārūn عليه السلام whom Allāh had also made a Nabi (Prophet) at Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام request. Entering phara'oh's (Fir'oun's) court, they warned him about Allāh's punishment if he did not desist from his evil ways. They told him, 'it has been revealed to us that punishment shall be for those who falsify and turn away.' Hearing that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام preached the divinity of Allāh, Phara'oh (Fir'oun) was extremely upset because he indoctrinated the people into believing that he was their god. He asked Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام a series of questions to intimidate him, but Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام answered the questions with great courage. Unable to win any ground from Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام, phara'oh (Fir'oun) finally said, "If you take another as a deity besides myself I shall definitely make you of the prisoners!" Mūsa عليه السلام said, 'Even if I bring you a clear proof?' phara'oh (Fir'oun) said, 'Bring it if you are truthful. 'So Mūsa عليه السلام cast down his staff and it suddenly became a manifest serpent. And he withdrew his hand, which instantly turned white for all to see.' [Surah Shu'arā (26), verses 29-33]

It is with reference to these miracles that Allāh says, "So he [Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام] showed him phara'oh (Fir'oun) a great sign. " However, instead of accepting, phara'oh (Fir'oun)' Falsified and disobeyed." Phara'oh (Fir'oun) then declared that Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was a magician and arranged a contest between Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام and the magicians of the land. Not only did Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام defeat the magicians, but he made them all believers. However, phara'oh (Fir'oun) was still adamant not to accept and continued claiming his divinity. Allāh says that phara'oh (Fir'oun) "turned away and applied himself to find a way to stop the spread of Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام message. "He gathered the people and proclaimed, 'I am your highest Lord!" However, all his schemes failed and he was eventually drowned with his entire army. Allāh says, "So Allāh seized him with the punishment of this world and the Hereafter."

Allāh says about phara'oh (Fir'oun) in Surah Hūd, "He will lead his people on the Day of Judgement and enter them into the Fire. It is an evil place indeed where they shall be entered." About him and his army, Allāh says in Surah Qasas, "We set a curse after them in this world and on the day of Judgment, they shall be among the hateful."

Allāh declares, "There is certainly a lesson in this for the one who fears." People who are concerned that they should not suffer the same plight because of disobedience will heed the lessons in this episode. However, those who are heedless of the warnings and who do not care to apply their intelligence will continue to disobey Allāh. Like Fir'oun and his people, they will also destroy themselves.

The details of Sayyidina Mūsa's عليه السلام story is discussed in Surah Yunus [Surah 10, verses 75-92], Surah TāHā [Surah 20, verses 9-98], Surah Naml [Surah 27, verses 7-14], Surah Qasas [Surah 28, verses 3-50] and several other Surahs as well.

ءَأَنْتُمْ أَشَدُّ خَلْقًا أَمْ السَّمَاءُ بَنَتْهَا <sup>(27)</sup> رَفَعَ سَمَكَهَا فَسَوَّيْنَهَا <sup>(28)</sup> وَأَغْطَشَ لَيْلَهَا وَأَخْرَجَ
ضُحَاهَا <sup>(29)</sup> وَالْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ دَحَاهَا <sup>(30)</sup> أَخْرَجَ مِنْهَا مَاءَهَا وَمَرْعَاهَا <sup>(31)</sup> وَالْجِبَالَ
أَرْسَلَهَا <sup>(32)</sup> مَلَأَ لَكُمْ وَلِأَنْعَامِكُمْ <sup>(33)</sup>

(27) Are you more difficult to create or the sky? Allāh has created it... (28) elevated its roof perfected it... (29) ....made its night dark and made its day manifest. (30) Thereafter, Allāh spread out the earth. (31) He extracted from the earth her water and fodder... (32) ...and firmly stationed the mountains. (33) All this for your benefit and for the benefit of your animals.

Further addressing those who reject the coming of Judgment day, Allāh asks, "Are you more difficult to create or the sky?" Because the sky is a much larger creation and contains so many phenomena, any person will understand that its creation should be more difficult than the creation of a man. If Allāh has the power to create the sky, he certainly has the power to resurrect man on the Day of Judgment. Not only did Allāh create the sky, Allāh also "elevated its roof perfected it, made its night dark and made its day manifest." Allāh relates the night and day to the sky because it appears as if they extend from the sky.

After creating the sky, "Allāh spread out the earth. He extracted from the earth her water and fodder and firmly stationed the mountains (to stabilise the earth). All this for your benefit and for the benefit of your animals." It is therefore incumbent upon man to express gratitude to Allāh for all these bounties and to believe in the divine scriptures and whatever Allāh has revealed to His Prophets عليهم السلام. Refer to the commentaries of verses 9 to 12 of Surah HāMim Sajdah (Surah 41) for details about the sequence in which Allāh created the heavens and the earth.

فَإِذَا جَاءَتِ الطَّامَةُ الْكُبْرَى <sup>(34)</sup> يَوْمَ يَذْكُرُ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا سَعَى <sup>(35)</sup> وَتُرِزَّتِ الْجَحِيمُ لِمَنْ
بَرَى <sup>(36)</sup> فَأَمَّا مَنْ طَغَى <sup>(37)</sup> وَءَاثَرَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا <sup>(38)</sup> فَإِنَّ الْجَحِيمَ هِيَ الْمَأْوَى <sup>(39)</sup> وَأَمَّا مَنْ
خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهِ وَنَهَى النَّفْسَ عَنِ الْهَوَى <sup>(40)</sup> فَإِنَّ الْجَنَّةَ هِيَ الْمَأْوَى <sup>(41)</sup> يَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ
السَّاعَةِ أَيَّانَ مُرْسَاهَا <sup>(42)</sup> فِيمَ أَنْتَ مِنْ ذِكْرِهَا <sup>(43)</sup> إِلَى رَبِّكَ مُنْهَلَا <sup>(44)</sup> إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُنْذِرٌ
مَنْ يَخْشَاهَا <sup>(45)</sup> كَانَتْهُمْ يَوْمَ بَرُونَهَا لَمْ يَلْبِسُوا إِلَّا عَشِيَّةً أَوْ ضُحَاهَا <sup>(46)</sup>

(34) So when the tremendous calamity befalls... (35) ... that day man will recall what he did... (36) .... and Hell will be manifest for those who look on. (37) As for the one who transgresses... (38) ... and who prefers the life of this world... (39) ...then Hell shall certainly be his abode. (40) As for the one who fears standing before his Lord and who restrains himself from carnal passions... (41) .... then Heaven shall definitely be his abode. (42) They ask you about when Judgment Day will take place. (43) What have you to tell about it? (44) To your Lord belongs (the knowledge of) its term. (45) You are a warner only to him who fears it. (46) The day when they see it, it will seem as if they lived only an evening or a morning.

Referring to Judgment day, Allāh says, "So when the tremendous calamity befalls, that day man will recall what he did and Hell will be manifest for those who look on." The Arabic word "tāmma" (translated above as "calamity") is derived from the word "tāmma" which refers to something that rises above and overwhelms everything else. Judgment Day is therefore referred to as "tāmma" because it is a calamity that overwhelms all other calamities.

Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه states that "the tremendous calamity" refers to the second blowing of the trumpet. When Judgment Day takes place, every person will realise whether his deeds are good enough to take him to Heaven or whether they are lacking. On that day there will be only two groups, as Allāh says in Surah Shura, "A group shall be in Heaven, while another shall be in the Blaze." [Surah 42, verse 7]

Allāh refers to these two groups individually. Speaking of those destined for Hell, Allāh says, "As for the one who transgresses and who prefers the life of this world, then Hell shall certainly be his abode." People generally cling to disbelief and refuse to accept Islām because they fear losing their wealth or positions. This displays their preference for this world over the Hereafter. It is for the same reason that Muslims also commit sins. Chasing after wealth, fame and position leads people to commit sins, to neglect their Obligatory and Compulsory obligations and to involve themselves in everything that violates Allāh's commands. On the other hand, when a person gives preference to the life Hereafter, he will be conscious about leading a life of piety and will stay far from sin.

Allāh then speaks about the second type of person when He says, "As for the one who fears standing before his Lord and who restrains himself from carnal passions, then Heaven shall definitely be his abode." Whenever a person wants to do good and abstain from evil, his carnal self presents an obstacle. One's carnal self wants only pleasure and enjoyment and loves the world for this. It has no inclination for the Hereafter because its concern is only for the pleasures of this world. It will therefore spur a person on to commit sins and to lead a life of recklessness. Therefore, when a person gains control over his carnal self (his Nafs), he will be able to abstain from sin and will content himself with what is Halāl (lawful) instead of Harām (unlawful). Such people will attain the high ranks of Heaven.

The person who fears standing for reckoning before Allāh will receive two gardens of Heaven, as Allāh says in Surah Rahmān, "The one who fears standing in the presence of his Lord shall have two gardens." [Surah 55, verse 46]

Sayyidina Jābir رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I fear most for my Ummah that they follow the dictates of their Nafs (Carnal self) and that they entertain lengthy hopes. The desires of the Nafs (carnal self) prevents one from the truth and lengthy hopes make one forget about the Ākhirah (Hereafter). This world is travelling and leaving while the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is travelling and approaching Each has its sons, so if you can avoid being a son of this world then do so. Today you are in the place of deeds (the world) where there is no reckoning and tomorrow you will be in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) where there are no deeds (only reckoning)." ["Mishkāt" p. 444]

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "They ask you about when Judgment day will take place." The disbelievers actually asked about Judgment day mockingly because they did not really want to know when it will occur. Allāh says to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "What have you to tell about it?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم could not inform them about when Judgment day will take place because he was not informed about its date. "To your Lord belongs (the knowledge of) its term. "Allāh says in Surah A'rāf, "They ask you regarding Judgment day, when will it occur? Say, 'The knowledge of this is with my Lord. Only He will manifest it on its time. It will be weighty on the heavens and the earth and will appear suddenly.' They ask you as if you have perfect knowledge of it. Say, 'The knowledge of this is only with Allāh, but most people do not know.'" [Surah 7, verse 187]

Allāh says, "You are a warner only to him who fears it." Those who have no concern for Judgment day will not heed a thousand warnings of Judgment day. However, a single warning suffices for the one who is concerned about his plight in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "The day when they see it will seem as if they lived only an evening or a morning." People persistently ask about the date of Judgment Day as if they are looking forward to it. All they intend doing is to mock the belief. However, when they see Judgment day taking place before their very eyes, they will regret their ways and their lives of tens or even hundreds of years will seem even less than a day. The life which they thought would never end, will seem like only a dream.

سورة عبس

Makkan

Surah Abas

Verses 42

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

عَبَسَ وَتَوَلَّى ۖ (1) أَنْ جَاءَهُ الْأَعْمَى (2) وَمَا يُدْرِيكَ لَعَلَّهَ يَرْكَبُ ۖ (3) أَوْ يَذَّكَّرُ فَتَنْفَعَهُ
الذِّكْرَى (4) أَمَّا مَنْ أَسْتَفْتَى (5) فَأَنْتَ لَمْ تَصَدَّى (6) وَمَا عَلَيْكَ أَلَّا يَرْكَبُ ۖ (7) وَأَمَّا
مَنْ جَاءَكَ يَسْعَى (8) وَهُوَ يَخْشَى (9) فَأَنْتَ عَنْهُ تَلَهَّى (10) كَلَّا ۚ إِنَّا نَذْكُرُهُ ۖ (11) فَمَنْ
شَاءَ ذَكِّرْهُ (12) فِي صُحُفٍ مُكْرَمَةٍ (13) مَرْفُوعَةٍ مُطَهَّرَةٍ (14) بِأَيْدِي سَفَرَةٍ (15) كِرَامٍ
بَرَرَةٍ (16)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) He frowned and turned away... (2) ..because a blind man came to him. (3) How do you know that perhaps he will be purified... (4) ....or he may take heed and the advice will prove beneficial to him? (5) As for him who was indifferent ... (6) ...to him do you attend... (7) ...when there would be no blame on you if he is not purified. (8) As for him who comes running to you... (9) ...in fear... (10) ....to him you show indifference. (11) This should never be. Indeed this Qur'ān is a reminder. (12) So whoever desires should take heed. (13) It is in scriptures that are honoured... (14) ... elevated and pure... (15) ... in the hands of scribes... (16) ....who are honourable and righteous.

Sayyidina Abdullah bin Umm Maktūm رضى الله عنه was a blind prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم and was popularly known as Sayyidina Ibn Umm Maktūm رضى الله عنه. Some say that his name was Amr and that his father's name was Qais. He was among the earliest Immigrants and migrated to Madinah before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It once occurred that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was propagating Islām among some of the polytheists leaders when Sayyidina Ibn Umm Maktūm رضى الله عنه arrived. Because he was blind, he did not realise that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was occupied with the others and he kept insisting that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم teach him something.

Since his arrival disturbed the discussion and complying with his request would interrupt what was being said to the polytheists leaders, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ignored him, thinking that he could speak to him at any other time. On the other hand, the opportunity to address the Quraysh leaders was rare and if any of them accepted Islām, it would influence many others to follow. Tirmidhi reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was addressing one of the polytheists leaders whereas "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" states that he was speaking to Utba bin Rabī'ah, Abu Jahl, Abbās bin Abdul Muttalib, Ubay bin Khalf and Umayyah bin Khalf. Allāma Baydawi رحمه الله merely states that some leaders of the Quraysh were present.

The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم reaction became evident on his face when he frowned. Referring to this, Allāh says, "He frowned and turned away because a blind man came to him." Here Allāh refers to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as he third person to maintain his honour. It is only afterwards that Allāh addresses him as the second person when Allāh says, "How do you know that perhaps he will be purified or he may take heed and the advice will prove beneficial to him?" Because Sayyidina Ibn Umm Maktūm رضى الله عنه was a believer, any advice given to him would have benefited him and served to purify him.

On the other hand, "As for him who was indifferent, to him do you attend when there would be no blame on you if he is not purified." The polytheists leaders were indifferent towards the advice given to them. There was no need for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to preach to them persistently because he was not obliged to make them believe.

Allāh continues, "As for him who comes running to you in fear, to him you show indifference." Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله writes that although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم's intention was laudable, Allāh chided him because the hearts of the men of "Suffa" should not be hurt and to make it clear that a poor believer is better than a wealthy disbeliever. The message here is the same as contained in verse 52 of Surah An'ām (Surah 6) where Allāh says, "Do not shun those who call unto their Lord morning and evening, aspiring for His pleasure. You are not accountable at all for them, nor are they at all accountable for you, that you shun them and become of the oppressors." The same message is conveyed in Surah Kahf where Allāh says, "Restrain yourself with those who, seeking His pleasure, call to their Lord morning and evening. And do not shift your attention from them with the intent of acquiring the adornment of this worldly life." [Surah 18, verse 28]

After the revelation of this Surah, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم showed special regard for Sayyidina Ibn Umm Maktūm رضى الله عنه. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to see him approach, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would say, "Welcome to the one concerning whom my Lord has chided me." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would then ask him several times if he needed anything. "Istī'āb" and "Isābah" mention that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم appointed Sayyidina Ibn Ummi Maktūm رضى الله عنه as governor of Madinah thirteen times when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم left on expeditions. In the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم absence, he was in charge of affairs in Madinah and would lead the Salāh.

Allāh says further, "This should never be" i.e. you should never ignore a believer who comes to you to learn the religion because "Indeed this Qur'ān is a reminder. So whoever desires should take heed" The duty of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to propagate the message of Islām and he was not charged with making people believe. If anyone refused to believe, it was to his own detriment and his disbelief would not harm the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the least.

Allāh then describes the Qur'ān itself when He says, "It is in scriptures that are honoured, elevated and pure (in Allāh's sight because the Satan cannot reach there); in the hands of scribes who are honourable and righteous." The Qur'ān is preserved in the "Lowhul Mahfūdh (The protected tablet)" where noble and pious angels record events.

قِيلَ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا أَكْفَرُهُ ۚ مِنْ أَيِّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْتَهُ ۖ خَلَقْتَهُ فَقَدَرَهُ ۖ ثُمَّ
 السَّبِيلَ يَسَّرَهُ ۖ ثُمَّ أَمَانَهُ فَأَقْبَرَهُ ۖ ثُمَّ إِذَا شَاءَ أَنشَرَهُ ۖ كَلَّا لَمَّا يُفْضَلُ مَا أَمَرُهُ ۖ

- (17) Woe be to man! How ungrateful is he? (18) From what did Allāh create him?
 (19) From a drop of semen. Allāh created him, made him in due proportion...
 (20) . . . and then eased the way for him. (21) Allāh then gave him death and concealed him in a grave. (22) Then Allāh shall resurrect him when He wills.
 (23) Behold! Man has not done what Allāh has commanded him.

These verses discuss man's ingratitude and his creation. Allāh says, "Woe be to man! How ungrateful is he?" Allāh created man and showers innumerable favours on him but he does not thank Allāh for them. Even worse is that man who refuses to accept Allāh as his Lord.

"From what did Allāh create him? From a drop of semen. Allāh created him, made him in due proportion." If man ponders about his beginnings, he will truly humble himself before Allāh. Allāh developed the sperm cell from its original lowly state and eventually fashioned a human being with functioning organs and limbs. Allāh has also made the parts of the body in perfect proportion so that they may function optimally. Allāh says in Surah Qiyāmah, "Was he (man) not a discharge of semen after which he developed into a clot of blood and then Allāh created him and perfected him?" [Surah 75, verses 37,3 8]

After creating man, Allāh "then eased the way for him." Allāh led the foetus through the various stages of its development and when the child was ready to be born, Allāh made it possible for it to emerge whole through an extremely narrow exit.

Furthermore, "Allāh then gave him death and concealed him in a grave." Life and death are in Allāh's control. Man has no control over life, no control over death and no control over the life after death either. Allāh has taught man to bury the dead because burial is most befitting for man's honour. Leaving a corpse above the ground to be ravaged by animals who scatter the bones about does not accord man's body the respect it deserves. Every body therefore gets the respect it deserves. The treatment it receives after the burial depends on the deeds of the person in this world.

There are certain nations who cremate their dead and others who feed their dead to vultures. These are nations who do not follow a divine religion and are therefore grossly misguided. However, even their dead eventually end up in the ground because the ashes of the deceased come to rest on the ground and the vultures who devoured the corpse become dust after their death. In this regard Allāh says in Surah Mursalāt, "Have We not made the earth consist of both the living and the dead?" [Surah 77, verses 25,26]

Allāh states further that after creating man, perfecting him and causing him to die, "Then Allāh shall resurrect him when He wills." Death is not the end of a person. After death, people will have to account for whatever they did in this world and face the rewards or punishment they deserve.

"No! (Man has certainly not expressed gratitude. In addition to this) Man has not done what Allāh has commanded him." Some commentators state that this refers to breaching the pledge of "Alist". Whereas man pledged to acknowledge only Allāh as his Lord, he breached the pledge after coming to this world. The verse could also refer to man's disobeying the commands of the Prophets عليهم السلام and what is contained in the divine scriptures. Of course, the verse refers to the condition of man in general and to all of mankind collectively.

فَلْيَنْظُرِ الْإِنْسَانُ إِلَى طَعَامِهِ ﴿٢٤﴾ أَنَا صَبَبْنَا الْمَاءَ صَبًّا ﴿٢٥﴾ ثُمَّ شَقَقْنَا الْأَرْضَ شَقًّا ﴿٢٦﴾ فَأَنْبَتْنَا فِيهَا حَبًّا ﴿٢٧﴾ وَعَبَاً وَقَضْبًا ﴿٢٨﴾ وَزَيْتُونًا وَنَخْلًا ﴿٢٩﴾ وَحَدَائِقَ غُلْبًا ﴿٣٠﴾ وَفِكَهَةً وَأَبًّا ﴿٣١﴾ مَتَاعًا لَّكَ وَلِأَنْعَمِ لَكَ ﴿٣٢﴾

(24) Let man look at his food. (25) We make the rain pour forth in abundance. (26) Then We cause the earth to part into clefts. (27) We then grow in the earth grains... (28) grapes, vegetables... (29) ..... olives, date palms... (30) .... dense gardens... (31) ... fruit and fodder... (32) ...for your benefit and for the benefit of your animals.

Allāh commands man to reflect for a while. Allāh says, "Let man look at his food" Man should ponder about the various types of food that Allāh causes to grow from the ground such as 'grains, grapes, vegetables, olives, date palms, dense gardens, fruit and fodder'. "Allāh has created fruit for enjoyment and fodder for man's animals. Then too, these fruit and other food do not grow sparsely so that only one or two are available. Allāh causes them to grow in abundance from huge plantations so that entire nations are fed.

Allāh has made the rain a means for all these foods to grow. When the rain seeps into the ground, Allāh causes the seed of the plant to split and the shoot to sprout from it. Referring to this, Allāh says, "We make the rain pour forth in abundance. Then We cause the earth to part into clefts." Allāh has taken care of all this 'for your benefit and for the benefit of your animals.' Man should ponder about these phenomena and express gratitude to Allāh for all of this. Together with verbal gratitude, man should also show his gratitude by using Allāh's bounties in a manner that pleases Allāh. At the same time, he should always turn to Allāh in repentance.

فَإِذَا جَاءَتِ الصَّاعِقَةُ ﴿٣٣﴾ يَوْمَ يَقْرَأُ الْمَرْءُ مِنْ أَخِيهِ ﴿٣٤﴾ وَأُمِّهِ وَأَبِيهِ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَصَحْبِهِ
وَبَنِيهِ ﴿٣٦﴾ لِكُلِّ أَمْرٍ مِنْهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ شَأْنٌ يُغْنِيهِ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَوُجُوهُ مُسْفِرَةٌ ﴿٣٨﴾ ضَاحِكَةٌ
مُسْتَبْشِرَةٌ ﴿٣٩﴾ وَوُجُوهُ عَلَيْهَا غَبَرَةٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ تَرْهَقُهَا قَتَرَةٌ ﴿٤١﴾ أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْكَافِرُ
الْفَجَرُ ﴿٤٢﴾

(33) So when the deafening scream will come... (34) .... on that day man will flee from his brother... (35) .... his mother, his father... (36)...his wife and his sons. (37) On that day every one of them will be preoccupied with a predicament that will make him oblivious of another. (38) On that day many faces shall be radiant... (39) .....laughing and happy. (40) And many faces will be dusty... (41) ... covered in darkness. (42) These will be the sinful disbelievers.

Allāh depicts the scene of Judgment Day in these verses. Allāh says, "So when the deafening scream will come..." (i.e. the second blowing of the trumpet on the Day of Judgment), on that day man will flee from his brother, his mother, his father, his wife and his sons. On that day every one of them will be preoccupied with a predicament that will make him oblivious of another."

Referring to the faces of the pious believers, Allāh says, "On that day many faces shall be radiant, laughing and happy." On the other hand, concerning the faces of those who forgot Allāh in this world and who continued to sin and cling to disbelief, Allāh says "And many faces will be dusty, covered in darkness. These will be the sinful disbelievers." They will look like this because of their humiliation and fear on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says in Surah Qiyāmah, "And many faces on that day will be gloomy, sensing that they will be dealt with most severely." [Surah 75, verses 24,25]

Allāh says in Surah Al Imrān, "The day when some faces will be illuminated while others shall be darkened, As for those whose faces shall be darkened, it will be said to them, 'Had you disbelieved after believing? So taste the punishment because of your disbelief' As for those whose faces shall be illuminated, they will be in the mercy of Allāh, where they shall abide forever." [Surah 3, verses 106,107]

سورة التكوير

Makkan

Surah Al-Takwīr

Verses 29

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِذَا الشَّمْسُ كُوِّرَتْ ﴿١﴾ وَإِذَا النُّجُومُ انْكَدَرَتْ ﴿٢﴾ وَإِذَا الْجِبَالُ سُيِّرَتْ ﴿٣﴾ وَإِذَا الْعِشَارُ عُطِّلَتْ ﴿٤﴾ وَإِذَا الْوُحُوشُ حُشِرَتْ ﴿٥﴾ وَإِذَا الْبِحَارُ سُجِّرَتْ ﴿٦﴾ وَإِذَا النُّفُوسُ زُوِّجَتْ ﴿٧﴾ وَإِذَا الْمَوْءِدَةُ سُيِّلَتْ ﴿٨﴾ بِأَيِّ ذَنْبٍ قُتِلَتْ ﴿٩﴾ وَإِذَا الصُّحُفُ نُشِرَتْ ﴿١٠﴾ وَإِذَا السَّمَاءُ كُشِطَتْ ﴿١١﴾ وَإِذَا الْجَحِيمُ سُعِّرَتْ ﴿١٢﴾ وَإِذَا الْجَنَّةُ أُزْلِفَتْ ﴿١٣﴾ عَلِمَتْ نَفْسٌ مَّا أَحْضَرَتْ ﴿١٤﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) When the sun loses its light. (2) When the stars fall down. (3) When the mountains are made to fly about. (4) When pregnant camels are forsaken. (5) When wild animals are gathered. (6) When the oceans are set alight. (7) When souls are joined. (8) When the girl buried alive will be asked... (9) ... for what sin she was killed. (10) When the records of deeds will be opened. (11) When the sky will be opened. (12) When Hell will be fuelled. (13) When Heaven will be brought close. (14) On that day every soul will know what (deeds) it had presented.

This Surah is called Surah Takwīr or Surah Kuwwirat. The above verses describe what will happen on the Day of Judgment. Some of the events described will take place after the first blowing of the trumpet while others will take place after the second blowing of the trumpet.

The following six events will take place after the first blowing of the trumpet:

1. "When the sun loses its light." The literal meaning of the Arabic word "kuwwirat" (translated above as "loses its light") is "to fold". It is well within Allāh's power to literally fold the sun. However, commentators like Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه, Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه say that the light of the sun will be folded i.e. the sun will lose its light.

2. "When the stars fall down."

3. "When the mountains are made to fly about." This has been referred to in Surah Tāhā, Surah Naml, Surah Wāqī'ah and Surah Muzzammil. The mountains will fly about like the clouds and eventually be reduced to dust.

4. "When pregnant camels are forsaken." The Arabic word "ishār" (translated above as "pregnant camels") is the plural of the word "ashrā" which refers to a camel that is in her tenth month of pregnancy. Although such an animal is generally prized, no one will be interested in her when Judgment of Day takes place. The same will apply to everything else that people prize.

5. "When wild animals are gathered." While some commentators interpret the verse to mean that all wild animals will die on the Day of Judgment, others interpret it to mean that retribution will be taken from every animal that oppressed another in any way. This interpretation is in keeping with a hadith in which it is mentioned that a hornless goat will have revenge from the horned goat that butted it in the world. When revenge is exacted from all the animals, Allāh will command them, "Become dust!" Mention of a goat is merely by way of example because the same will apply to all animals. In fact, a hadith reported in "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that revenge will even be exacted from ants. This will of course take place after the second blowing of the trumpet. If this interpretation is applied, it may be said that the verses of the Surah merely state the events of Judgment Day collectively without specifying the sequence.

6. "When the oceans are set alight." "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that the waters of the ocean will be heated and eventually dried up. Fire will then take its place.

Thereafter, Allāh mentions six events that will take place after the second blowing of the trumpet:

1. "When souls are joined." After the disbelievers are separated from the believers, the members of each group will be joined with each other. Allāh says in Surah Ibrāhīm, "On that day you will see the criminals shackled together in fetters." [Surah 14, verse 49]

2. "When the girl buried alive will be asked for what sin she was killed." The Arab Polytheists during the period of ignorance disliked having daughters and used to bury their infant daughters alive. Allāh says in Surah Nahl, "When any of them is given the glad tidings of a daughter, his face darkens and he suppresses his fury. He hides from the people because of the evil tidings that he received. Must he keep her with disgrace or bury her in the sand? Evil indeed is the decision that he takes!" Such people will be taken to task on the Day of Judgment.

3. "When the records of deeds will be opened" Every person will receive his record of deeds on the Day of Judgment. The successful ones will receive theirs in their right hands while the unsuccessful ones will receive theirs in their left hands. Allāh says in Surah Bani Isrā'īl, "We shall cast every person's record of deeds upon his neck. On the Day of Judgment We shall take out for him a book that he will see opened before him. 'Read your book. Today you are a sufficient witness against yourself'" [Surah 17, verses 13,14.]

Allāh says in Surah Kahf, "The record of deeds shall be placed and you will see the sinners afraid of what is contained in them. They will say, 'Woe be to us! What is with this book that it does not leave anything small or large unrecorded?' They will find their deeds present and your Lord shall not oppress anyone." [Surah 18, verse 50]

4. "When the sky will be opened."

5. "When Hell will be fuelled" to make it burn more intensely.

6. "When Heaven will be brought close" to the pious just as Hell will be brought close to the disbelievers; as Allāh says in Surah Shu'arā, "Heaven will be brought close to the pious while Hell will be revealed to the deviant ones." [Surah 26, verses 90,91]

When all these events will take place, "On that day every soul will know what (deeds) it had presented" People will then realise whether they are destined for Heaven or for Hell.

فَلَا أَقْسِمُ بِالْخَنَسِ ﴿١٥﴾ الْجَوَارِ الْكُنَسِ ﴿١٦﴾ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا عَسَسَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَالصُّبْحِ إِذَا تَنَفَّسَ ﴿١٨﴾ إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلُ رَسُولٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿١٩﴾ ذِي قُوَّةٍ عِنْدَ ذِي الْعَرْشِ مَكِينٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ مُطَاعٍ ثَمَّ أَمِينٍ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَا صَاحِبُكُمْ بِمَجْنُونٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَلَقَدْ رَآهُ بِالْأَفْقِ الْمُبِينِ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَمَا هُوَ عَلَى الْغَيْبِ بِضَنِينٍ ﴿٢٤﴾ وَمَا هُوَ بِقَوْلِ شَيْطَانٍ رَجِيمٍ ﴿٢٥﴾ فَأَيْنَ تَذْهَبُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ لِمَنْ شَاءَ مِنْكُمْ أَنْ يَسْتَقِيمَ ﴿٢٨﴾ وَمَا تَشَاءُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾

(15) I swear by the planets that recede... (16) ...that travel and hide. (17) And (I swear by) the night when it departs... (18) ...and by the morning when it takes a breath. (19) Undoubtedly this Qur'ān is a word brought by an honoured messenger Jibr'il عليه السلام... (20) ...who is powerful and of high rank in the sight of the Owner of the Throne. (21) He is also obeyed there and trustworthy. (22) Verily your companion is not insane. (23) He certainly saw him on the clear horizon. (24) He is also not miserly with the knowledge of the unseen. (25) The Qur'ān is not the word of any accursed Satan. (26) So where are you heading? (27) It is but a great advice to the universe... (28) ....for those of you who wish to tread the straight path. (29) You cannot will anything without the will of Allāh the Lord of the universe.

Allāh takes several oaths in this Surah to assert the fact that "Undoubtedly this Qur'ān is a word brought by an honoured messenger [Jibr'il عليه السلام]." These verses also refute the statement of those disbelievers who claimed that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was insane.

Allāh says, "I swear by the planets that recede, that travel and hide." Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه has mentioned the planets referred to in these verses are Saturn, Mercury, Jupiter, Mars and Venus. These verses refer to the rising and setting of the planets which appear like stars in the sky and the verses make it clear that they travel in their orbits as well.

"And (I swear by) the night when it departs" Some commentators translate this verse as “By the night when it brings darkness”. They says that this interpretation is more appropriate because it refers to the beginning of the night and the next verse [viz. “by the morning when it takes a breath”] refers to the closing of the night i.e. the arrival of the day. In this way, they maintain, both parts of the night are referred to.

Allāh swears these oaths to assert that “Undoubtedly this Qur’ān is a word brought by an honoured messenger. [Jibrīl عليه السلام], who is powerful and of high rank in the sight of the Owner of the Throne. He is also obeyed there (in the heavens) and trustworthy.”

The fact that Allāh entrusted Jibrīl عليه السلام to convey revelation to the Prophet عليه السلام proves that he must certainly be trustworthy.

After mentioning Jibrīl عليه السلام, Allāh Ta’āla speaks of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh says, “Verily your companion is not insane.” The Polytheists of Makkah knew the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم very well and they were convinced that none could be more truthful and honest than he. Therefore, since the veracity of the angelic messenger and that of the human messenger is proven beyond doubt, it would be foolish to doubt the truth of the Qur’ān.

The author of “Bayānul Qur’ān” writes that the oaths Allāh takes in these verses are extremely apt. While the travelling and hiding of the planets symbolise the travelling of the angels and their disappearance into the heavens, the departure of the night and arrival of the day symbolise the departure of the darkness of disbelief and arrival of the light of guidance, the cause of this being the Qur’ān.

“He [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] certainly saw him [Jibrīl عليه السلام] on the clear horizon.” Jibrīl عليه السلام normally met the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the appearance of a prophet’s companions (Sahabi) by the name of Sayyidina Dihya Kalbi رضى الله عنه. However, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him twice in his original form. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him once at the “Sidratul Muntahā” on the night of Mi’raj (Ascension) and again on the horizon when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in the Ajyād district of Makkah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saw that he had six hundred wings and that they spanned across the horizon. [Tirmidhi]

Allāh continues to say that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم “is also not miserly with the knowledge of the unseen” i.e. he conveys all the revelation that he is charged to convey.

“The Qur’ān is not the word of any accursed Satan. So where are you heading?” Once it has been established that the messenger angel has all the right credentials and the messenger Nabi صلى الله عليه وسلم is also truthful beyond doubt, how can one wander astray thinking that the Qur’ān is doubtful? In addition to this, it has also been proven that the Qur’ān is neither the word of a Satan, nor a sooth-sayer, nor a madman, nor a poet nor a person who has ulterior motives. “It (the Qur’ān) is but a great advice to the universe, for those of you who wish tread the straight path. (However) You cannot will anything without the will of Allāh the Lord of the universe.” “Everything is in Allāh’s control, even guidance.

سورة الانفطار

Makkan	Surah Infitār	Verses 19
--------	---------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْفَطَرَتْ ﴿١﴾ وَإِذَا الْكَوَاكِبُ انْتَرَتْ ﴿٢﴾ وَإِذَا الْبِحَارُ فُجِرَتْ ﴿٣﴾ وَإِذَا الْقُبُورُ بُعِثَتْ ﴿٤﴾ عَلِمَتْ نَفْسٌ مَّا قَدَّمَتْ وَأَخَّرَتْ ﴿٥﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

- (1) When the sky splits... (2) ....the stars fall... (3) . . .the oceans are poured forth...
(4) . . .and graves tipped over... (5) . . .every soul shall come to know what it had sent ahead and left behind.

These verses also depict the scene of Judgment Day. Allāh Ta'āla says, "When the sky splits, the stars fall, the oceans are poured forth (i.e. fresh and salt water bodies will merge to become one mass of water) and graves tipped over (i.e. corpses will emerge from their graves), every soul shall come to know what it had sent ahead and left behind" While the first three occurrences will take place after the first blowing of the trumpet, the fourth will take place after the second blowing.

The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that when all waters become one, they will seep into the earth and no water will be left on the surface of the earth.

يَتَأْتِيهَا الْإِنْسَانُ مَا عَرَفَ رَبِّكَ الْكَرِيمَ ﴿٦﴾ الَّذِي خَلَقَكَ فَسَوَّدَكَ فَعَدَلَكَ ﴿٧﴾ فِي أَيِّ صُورَةٍ مَّا شَاءَ رَكَّبَكَ ﴿٨﴾

- (6) O man! What has cast you into deception concerning your Magnanimous Lord... (7) ... Who has created you, perfected you, gave you due proportion... (8) .. and made you in the fashion He desired.

Describing the creation of man, Allāh Ta'āla reminds man to turn his attention towards Allāh. Man was absolutely nothing when Allāh created him, perfected his form and, according to His perfect wisdom, made him as He pleased. Neither did man have the option to be created nor did he have a choice to decide his height, size or features. Every person is as Allāh made him and lives in this condition. It is now incumbent on every man to accept the commands of Allāh that His Prophets عليهم السلام taught and to practise Allāh's religion.

Among men there are those who have accepted Allāh's Religion and those who have rejected. There are also those who have accepted Allāh's religion but they still neglect His commands. They do not fulfil the Farā'idh (obligations) and continue sinning. When it is brought to their attention that this type of life is incorrect, their Nafs (carnal self) and Satan fool them into thinking that there is no need to curb their ways because Allāh is Magnanimous and will continue forgiving them. They fail to realise that because Allāh is so Magnanimous, He deserves to be obeyed.

The weakness of man is that he has no sense of loyalty and is not faithful to Allāh. Despite the innumerable bounties that Allāh bestows on man, man still disobeys Him. Even if it were certain that every sin will be forgiven without punishment, it would still be incumbent to obey Allāh's commands. Obeying Allāh's commands merely because one fears punishment is a sign of disloyalty. A loyal servant shivers at the mere thought of disobeying Allāh. Such a servant looks at the great bounties that Allāh blesses him with and without concentrating only on the punishment for disobedience, he applies himself to fulfilling the command at hand. In fact, he regards leading a life of disobedience as a punishment of its own. Although punishment causes physical pain, the pain that the faithful servant feels when he is found to be disloyal is greater than the pain of any punishment.

كَلَّا بَلْ تُكَذِّبُونَ بِالَّذِينَ ﴿٩﴾ وَإِنَّ عَلَيْكُمْ لَحَافِظِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ كِرَامًا كَنِينٍ ﴿١١﴾ يَعْمُونَ مَا تَفْعَلُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ إِنَّ الْأَبْرَارَ لَفِي نَعِيمٍ ﴿١٣﴾ وَإِنَّ الْفَجَّارَ لَفِي جَحِيمٍ ﴿١٤﴾ يَصْلَوْنَهَا يَوْمَ الَّذِينَ وَمَا هُمْ عَنْهَا بِغَائِبِينَ ﴿١٥﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا يَوْمَ الَّذِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ ثُمَّ مَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا يَوْمَ الَّذِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ يَوْمَ لَا تَمْلِكُ نَفْسٌ لِنَفْسٍ شَيْئًا وَالْأَمْرُ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلَّهِ ﴿١٨﴾

(9) It should never be! The fact is that they deny retribution. (10) Verily there are guardians upon you... (11) ... who are noble and are recording. (12) They know what you do. (13) Indeed the righteous shall be immersed in bounties... (14) .... and the sinners will surely be in Hell... (15) .... which they will enter on the Day of Retribution. (16) They will certainly not be absent from it. (17) Do you know what the Day of Retribution is? (18) Do you really know what the Day of Retribution is? (19) It shall be a day when one soul will be unable to benefit another soul in the least. On that day all authority will be Allāh's.

Allāh says, "It should never be!" i.e. one should never be deceived by his Nafs (carnal self) and by Satan. By being deceived, one will harm only oneself. The result of this is that people will deny that retribution will take place and they will become reckless in their behaviour. For this reason, Allāh reminds them, "Verily there are guardians upon you who are noble (in Allāh's sight) and are recording. They know what you do." It is therefore best for people to carry out good deeds and to refrain from sins.

Allāh then briefly describes the retribution that will take place on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says, "Indeed the righteous shall be immersed in bounties and the sinners will surely be in Hell which they will enter on the Day of Retribution. They will certainly not be absent from it." They will have to suffer eternally in Hell and will be unable to escape. Allāh refers to the same in Surah Mā'idah when he says, "They will try to escape from the fire, but they will not be able to escape and theirs will be a permanent chastisement." [Surah 5, verse 37]

Allāh continues, "Do you know what the Day of Retribution is? Do you really know what the Day of Retribution is?" People should therefore be concerned about their plight on the Day of Judgment. Allāh then briefly describes the Day of Judgment when he says, "It shall be a day when one soul will be unable to benefit another soul in the least. On that day all authority will be Allāh's." Although many people have been vested with some authority in this world, they will all be helpless on the Day of Judgment. They have no authority to do anything but will rather be on the receiving end, requiring assistance from others. However, none will be able to assist another.

سورة المطففين

Makkan

Surah Mutaffifin

Verses 36

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَيْلٌ لِّلْمُطَفِّفِينَ ﴿١﴾ الَّذِينَ إِذَا أَكَالُوا عَلَى النَّاسِ يَسْتَوْفُونَ ﴿٢﴾ وَإِذَا كَالُوهُمْ أَوْ وَزَنُوهُمْ يُخْسِرُونَ ﴿٣﴾ أَلَا يَظُنُّ أُولَٰئِكَ أَنَّهُمْ مَبْعُوثُونَ ﴿٤﴾ لِيَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٥﴾ يَوْمَ يَقُومُ النَّاسُ لِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Woe to the cheaters... (2) ...who, when they take measure from mankind, demand in full. (3) But if they measure or weigh for people, they reduce. (4) Do such people not consider that they will be raised... (5) ... unto an awful day ... (6) ..the day when all of mankind will stand before the Lord of the universe?

Surah Mutaffifin is also called Surah Tatfif. The word "Tatfif" refers to diminishing quantities when weighing or measuring (cheating). A common method of measuring quantities of grain in previous times was by filling utensils of standardised sizes.

The above verses condemn the act of cheating people when weighing or measuring for them. Allāh speaks of people who cheat others who buy from them and when they buy from others, they watch carefully to see that they are given their share in full. Allāh reminds such people about the Day of Judgment when they will be taken to task for their misdeeds and punished accordingly. In fact, the punishment for the sin of cheating in weight and measure is also experienced in this world. Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to those who cheat in weighing and measuring that they have been given to a sin that caused people of previous nations to be destroyed in this world. ["Mishkāt"]

The nation of Sayyidina Shu'ayb عليه السلام started the evil practice of cheating in weight and measure. Despite his persistent efforts to reform them, the people refused to desist from this evil. Eventually, Allāh's punishment destroyed them. The details of this have been discussed in the commentary of Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 176-191] and Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 85-92].

The "Mu'atta" of Imām Mālik رحمه الله reports from Sayyidina Abdullah bin

Abbās رضي الله عنه that sustenance is constrained for those who cheat in weight and measure. This means that they will either be given less sustenance or that they will be deprived of blessings in their sustenance.

It is Harām (Unlawful) to give a customer less than the weight or the measurement for which he has paid. On the contrary, the Shari'ah has encouraged traders to give the customer more than what he pays for. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once passing by a person who was employed to measure for a trader. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "Measure and give more."

Just as it is Harām (unlawful) to reduce when weighing and measuring, it is also sinful to reduce in other matters and such an act will considerably reduce the rewards of one's good deeds as well. Every believer has accepted to fulfil a set of responsibilities which he owes to Allāh and to fellow man. Cheating in these responsibilities also constitute sin. The "Mu'atta" of Imām Mālik رحمه الله عليه reports a Hadith in which Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه, after performing Salāh, met a person who was not present for the Asr Salāh. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه asked him what had prevented him from performing Asr Salāh, to which he presented some excuse. To this Sayyidina Umar عليه السلام replied, "You have cheated!" (i.e. cheated yourself by depriving yourself of the rewards for performing Salāh in congregation). After reporting this narration, Imām Mālik رحمه الله عليه writes that everything can either be completed properly or one may cheat in completing it.

Cheating can take place in several other manners as well such as:

- 📖 Omitting the Sunnah acts of salāh.
- 📖 Omitting the Sunnah acts of Hajj and Umrah.
- 📖 Fasting without abstaining from sins like backbiting.
- 📖 Reciting the Qur'an incorrectly.
- 📖 Not paying zakāh in full.

While one will be depriving oneself of the complete rewards for these deeds, certain acts may completely nullify one's good deed e.g. reciting the Qur'an incorrectly in Salāh may nullify one's Salāh.

Another form of "Tatfif" (cheating) is when an employee is employed to work for an agreed number of hours but accepts his full salary for working less hours. An employee is obliged to do the work he is being paid for. It is Harām (unlawful) for one to accept one's full salary when the desired work is incomplete or incorrect. An employee will be guilty of "Tatfif" if he uses his working hours to engage in activities that are not related to his work such as smoking or idle chatter. It is unfortunately the practice of many employees to work diligently while the employer is watching but to engage in something else when his back is turned. The person doing this is guilty of "Tatfif".

Also guilty of "Tatfif" is the employee who does something contrary to what he is paid for or who accepts a bribe to do something because of his position of employment. While the bribe is in itself Harām (unlawful), part of his salary will also become Harām (unlawful) for him because he is not doing what he is being paid for.

Reminding man about the consequences of the Ākhirah (Hereafter), Allāh Ta'āla says, "Do such people not consider that they will be raised unto an awful day; the day when all of mankind will stand before the Lord of the universe?" Concerning this day, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that it will be a day when people will be immersed in their perspiration up to their ears.

Every believer should be concerned about this day when he will have to account for all his deeds before Allāh and will have to suffer the punishment for his sins. By constantly keeping this in mind, Insha Allāh one will neither violate the rights one owes to Allāh nor those that he owes to fellow man. The factor that contributes most towards sin is man's indifference towards the Day of Judgment.

كَلَّا إِنَّ كِتَابَ الْفَجَارِ لَفِي سِجِّينٍ ﴿٧﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا سِجِّينٌ ﴿٨﴾ كِتَابٌ مَرْقُومٌ ﴿٩﴾ وَيَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ الَّذِينَ يَكْذِبُونَ يَوْمَ الَّذِينَ ﴿١١﴾ وَمَا يَكْذِبُ بِهِ إِلَّا كُلُّ مُعْتَدٍ أَثِيمٍ ﴿١٢﴾ إِذَا تُنْأَىٰ عَنْهُ الْإِنشَاءُ قَالَ أَسْطِطِرُّ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ كَلَّا بَلْ رَانَ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ كَلَّا إِنَّهُمْ عَنْ رَبِّهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَمَحْجُوبُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّهُمْ لَصَالُوا الْجَحِيمِ ﴿١٦﴾ ثُمَّ يُقَالُ هَذَا الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تُكَذِّبُونَ ﴿١٧﴾

(7) It shall never be! Verily the records of the sinners shall be in "Sijjīn". (8) How will you know what the records placed in "Sijjīn" are? (9) A sealed book. (10) May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day... (11) ...those who deny the Day of Retribution. (12) It is only every sinful transgressor who denies it. (13) When Our verses are recited to him, he says, "These are fables of the men of old" (14) Never! In fact, the rust of their sins has covered their hearts. (15) Never! They will certainly be veiled from (seeing) their Lord on that day. (16) They will then definitely enter Hell. (17) Thereafter it will be said, "This is what you used to deny."

Allāh asserts, "It shall never be!" i.e. it shall never be as the disbelievers think that Judgment day will not take place. Judgment Day will certainly take place. Man should never think that his words and deeds have disappeared into thin air and that he is not required to account for them. Indeed, the records of every person's deeds are preserved. Allāh says, "Verily the records of the sinners shall be in 'Sijjīn'." These records will be presented on the Day of Judgment and will be testimony against a person. None will be able to deny anything that he contain.

Allāh asks, "How will you know what the records placed in 'Sijjīn' are?" Allāh replies by saying that it is "A sealed book". There can be no additions or omissions made to these records.

Allāh continues, "May misery be the lot of the deniers on that day, those who deny the Day of Retribution. It is only every sinful transgressor who denies it. When Our verses are recited to him, he says, 'These are fables of the men of old' Never! (The Qur'ān can never be fables). In fact, the rust of their sins has covered their hearts." Their evil deeds, especially their infidelity and Polytheism have covered their hearts with a "rust" that prevents the truth from penetrating. They can therefore not understand the truth and persist in rebellion.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, a form of contamination settles in my heart and I repent to Allāh a hundred times daily." [Muslim] Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When a believer commits a sin, a black spot forms on his heart. This spot is erased only when he repents. However, if he does not repent and continues sinning, the blackness also increases until it encompasses his heart. This blackness is the "rust" that Allāh refers to in the verse, "Never! In fact, the rust of their sins has covered their hearts."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has prescribed Taubah (repentance) as the cure for the rust that settles on the heart. One should therefore resort to Taubah (repentance) as soon as one commits a sin so that the heart is never covered by the "rust" that prevents one from discerning falsehood from the truth.

Concerning the plight of those who deny Judgment day, Allāh says, "Never! They will certainly be veiled from (seeing) their Lord on that day. They will then definitely enter Hell. Thereafter it will be said, 'This is what you used to deny.'" Imām Shāfi'ī رحمه الله states that this verse also proves that the believers will be able to see Allāh Ta'āla in the Hereafter.

كَلَّا إِنَّ كِتَابَ الْأَبْرَارِ لَفِي عَلَيَّتِ ﴿١٨﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا عِلْيُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ كِتَابٌ مَرْقُومٌ ﴿٢٠﴾ يَشْهَدُهُ الْمُرَقَّوْنَ ﴿٢١﴾

- (18) It shall never be! Verily the records of the righteous shall be in "Illiyiyyin".
 (19) How will you know what the records placed in "Illiyiyyin" are? (20) A sealed book... (21) ... which the close angels witness.

Allāh asserts, "It shall never be!" i.e. it shall never be as the disbelievers think that Judgment Day will not take place because it certainly will. People should not think that their words and deeds have disappeared into thin air and that they are not required to account for them. Indeed, every person's deeds are recorded. Allāh says, "Verily the records of the righteous shall be in 'Illiyiyyin'. How will you know what the records placed in 'Illiyiyyin' are? (It is) A sealed book which the close angels witness.

"Sijjīn" is a place beneath the seven earths where the souls of the disbelievers are kept after death while the "Illiyiyyin" is a place above the seven skies where the souls of deceased believer are kept. Explaining the deaths of the believers and the disbelievers, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that when the angel of death removes the soul of a believer, he addresses it saying, "O pure soul, emerge towards Allāh's forgiveness and pleasure." Consequently, the soul emerges as easily as a drop of water from a water bag. Without wasting a moment, the other angels take the soul from the hands of the angel of death and place it in the shrouds of Heaven and perfume it with the fragrances of Heaven. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that this fragrance is better than the best fragrances of this world. They then ascend with it to the heavens. Each time they pass by a gathering of angels, they are asked, "Who is this pure soul?" Taking the best of names used in the world, they furnish the name of the person with his father's name.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم continued to say that they then approach the doors of the first heaven, which is opened upon their request. In this manner, they reach the seventh heaven with the soul. Upon reaching there Allah tells them, "Place the record of My slave in the Illiyyin and return him to the earth, because I have created him from the earth, shall return him to it and will resurrect him from it."

He is then returned to the grave, where he will reply correctly to all the questions. Then the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned the bounties that the believer will receive in the grave.

Thereafter the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made mention of the death of a disbeliever. He said that when a disbeliever has to leave this world for the Hereafter, dark-faced angels descend from the heavens. They carry with them sack cloth and appear before him as far as the eyes can see. Then the angel of death himself comes, sits by the head and says, "O foul soul! Emerge towards Allah's anger!" The soul then disperses throughout the body in an attempt to escape. Thereafter the angel of death forcefully extracts the soul, just as wet wool wrapped around a skewer is forcefully removed.

When the angel of death removes the soul, the other angels, without losing a split second, grab hold off the soul and wrap it in the sack cloth. Such a foul odour emanates from the soul that does not emanate from any decomposing body on earth. They then take this soul up to the heavens and, whenever they pass any group of angels, they ask, "Who is this foul soul?" Using the worst names on earth, they reply, "This is so and so, the son of so and so (taking the person's name)."

When they reach the doors of the heavens, they request entry, but the doors are not opened. Then the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the following verse of Surah A'rāf, "The doors of the heavens are not opened for them and they will not enter Heaven until a camel passes through the eye of a needle." Thereafter, Allāh tells the angels to record the person's name in Sijjīn which lies beneath the lowest earth. The soul is then cast there. [Mishkāt p. 142-143]

إِنَّ الْأَبْرَارَ لَفِي نَعِيمٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ يَنْظُرُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ تَعْرِفُ فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ نَضْرَةَ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٢٤﴾ يُسْقَوْنَ مِنْ رَحِيقٍ مَخْمُومٍ ﴿٢٥﴾ خِتَمُهُمُ مِنْ مِسْكِ ﴿٢٦﴾ فِي ذَلِكَ فَلْيَتَنَافَسِ الْمُتَنَافِسُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَمِنْ أَمَامِهِمْ تَسْنِيمٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ عَيْنًا يَشْرَبُ بِهَا الْمُقَرَّبُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾

(22) Verily the righteous shall be enjoying bounties... (23) ... while looking on from couches. (24) You will recognise the resplendence of bounties on their faces. (25) They will be given pure sealed wine to drink... (26) .....the seal of which is musk. It is for this that competitors should compete. (27) Its mixture shall be of Tasnīm... (28) ...a spring from which those close to Allāh shall drink.

Allāh describes the bounties that His pious bondsmen will enjoy in Heaven. These are the people whose records shall be placed in the "Illiyyin". Allāh says, "Verily the righteous shall be enjoying bounties while looking on from couches." Some commentators have interpreted this verse to mean that these people will be able to see each other despite being far apart.

Furthermore, "You will recognise the resplendence of bounties on their faces." By merely looking at them, one will realise that they are extremely happy. Referring to the same joy, Allāh says in Surah Dahar, "So Allāh shall save them from the evil of that day and will give them resplendence and joy." The joy that the people of Heaven will enjoy shall be heartfelt and not merely superficial.

Referring to the drinks that they will enjoy, Allāh says, "They will be given pure sealed wine to drink, the seal of which is musk." One cannot imagine the exquisite taste of a wine that has a seal of pure musk. This wine will be such that it will neither intoxicate nor produce any headaches like the wine of this world. Allāh says in Surah Wāq'ah, "Youngsters of eternal youth shall wait on them with goblets and jugs and glasses filled with flowing wine. Neither will they have headaches with it, nor will they be intoxicated." [Surah 56, verses 17-19]

Encouraging the believers to do good, Allāh says, "It is for this that competitors should compete." Just as people compete with each other to acquire the commodities of this world, they should do the same to attain the bounties of the Ākhirah (Hereafter). People are foolish to vie with each other for things like wine which intoxicates and which produces headaches and bad breath. In addition to this, consuming it makes one sinful and deprives one of the wine of the Hereafter. Like this, all other commodities of this world are also not worth competing for. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that the following three persons will be unable to enter Heaven:

1. The habitual drunkard?
2. The one who severs ties of kinship
3. The one who practises witchcraft.

Further describing the drinks of Heaven, Allāh says, "Its mixture shall be of Tasnīm, a spring from which those close to Allāh shall drink." "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that those who are really close to Allāh shall have the pure water of the Tasnīm spring to drink, whereas other inhabitants of Heaven will have only a bit of it mixed with their other drinks.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ أَجْرَمُوا كَانُوا مِنَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا يَضْحَكُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَإِذَا مَرُّوا بِهِمْ يَتَغَامَزُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾
وَإِذَا انْقَلَبُوا إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِمْ انْقَلَبُوا فَكِهِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَإِذَا رَأَوْهُمْ قَالُوا إِنَّ هَٰؤُلَاءِ لَضَالُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾
وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حَفِظِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾ فَالْيَوْمَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مِنَ الْكُفَّارِ يَضْحَكُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ عَلَىٰ

الْأَرَايِكِ يَنْظُرُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ هَلْ تُوِبَ الْكُفَّارُ مَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾

(29) Verily those who sin used to laugh at the believers. (30) When they passed by them, they used to wink at each other. (31) When they returned to their families, they would return jesting. (32) When they saw them, they used to say, "These people are certainly astray." (33) Yet they were never sent as warders over them. (34) However, today the believers shall laugh at the disbelievers... (35). ... while looking on from couches. (36) The fact is that the disbelievers are punished only for what they did.

After describing the bounties of the pious believers, Allāh Ta'āla speaks about the way in which the disbelievers behaved towards the believers. When they used to see a gathering of poor believers like Sayyidina Khabbāb رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه and others, they used to laugh at them and wink to each other indicating that these people claim to be worthy of Heaven whereas they do not even have clothing to cover themselves properly nor shoes to wear. They would then proceed laughing and jesting in this manner to their families. Concerning the believers, they would also say, "These people are certainly astray."

Allāh says that the disbelievers behave in this manner whereas "they were never sent as warders over them" i.e. over the believers. This means that the disbelievers will not be asked whether the believers were rightly guided or stray in the Hereafter. Therefore, instead of concerning themselves with the affairs of the believers, the disbelievers ought to worry about their own plight in the Hereafter.

On the Day of Judgment, the tables will be turned against the disbelievers and the superiority of the believers will be manifest. Whereas the disbelievers laughed at the believers in this world, "However, today (on the Day of Judgment) the believers shall laugh at the disbelievers while looking on from couches. The fact is that the disbelievers are punished only for what they did." They shall then have a taste of their own medicine.

سُورَةُ الْاِنْشِقَاقِ

Makkan

Surah Inshiqāq

Verses 25

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انشَقَّتْ ① وَأَذْنَتْ لِرَبِّهَا وَحُقَّتْ ② وَإِذَا الْأَرْضُ مُدَّتْ ③ وَأَلْقَتْ مَا فِيهَا وَتَخَلَّتْ ④ وَأَذْنَتْ لِرَبِّهَا وَحُقَّتْ ⑤ يَتَأْتِيهَا الْإِنْسُنُ إِنَّكَ كَادِحٌ إِلَى رَبِّكَ كَدًّا فَمَلَقِيهِ ⑥ فَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ بِيَمِينِهِ ⑦ فَسَوْفَ يُحَاسَبُ حِسَابًا يَسِيرًا ⑧ وَيَنْفِلُ إِلَى أَهْلِهِ مَسْرُورًا ⑨ وَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ وَرَاءَ ظَهْرِهِ ⑩ فَسَوْفَ يَدْعُوا ثُبُورًا ⑪ وَيَصْلَى سَعِيرًا ⑫ إِنَّكَ كَانَ فِي أَهْلِهِ مَسْرُورًا ⑬ إِنَّكَ ظَنَنْتَ أَنْ لَنْ يَحْجُوزَ ⑭ بَيْنَكَ وَرَبِّكَ كَانَ يَدُوكَ بَصِيرًا ⑮

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) When the sky will be rent asunder... (2) ... and it will hearken to its Lord as it rightly should. (3) When the earth will be stretched out... (4) ... and, casting out whatever is within it, will become empty. (5) It will hearken to its Lord as it rightly should. (6) O man, indeed you make great efforts in your journey towards your Lord and will soon meet with (the fruit of your efforts. (7) As for him who is given his record in his right hand... (8) . .. an easy reckoning will be taken from him... (9)... and he will return happily to his family. (10) As for him who is given his record behind his back... (11) .... he will soon call for destruction... (12) ... and will enter the Blazing Fire. (13) Indeed he used to be happy among his family. (14) He used to think that he would not return. (15) He certainly will. Verily his Lord was ever Watchful over him.

Allāh begins the Surah by speaking about the condition of the sky and the earth on the Day of Judgment and then refers to the conditions of the good and the sinful on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says, "When the sky will be rent asunder and it will hearken to its Lord as it rightly should (because it is impossible for it to disobey Allāh's command). When the earth will be stretched out and, casting out whatever is within it, will become empty." All dead bodies will surface from beneath the earth together with the treasures that the earth hides within her. Just like the sky, the earth "will hearken to its Lord as it rightly should." Both the sky and the earth are obliged to obey Allāh's commands and do what He wants them to do.

These opening five verses of the Surah are followed by a hidden clause which reads, "On that day, man will see the deeds he committed". The verses therefore read, "When the sky will be rent asunder and it will hearken to its Lord ... (and) when the earth will be stretched out ... on that day, man will see the deeds he committed".

Allāh says in Surah Ibrāhīm, "The day when the earth will be changed into another earth, and the skies (will also be changed)." This verse denotes that the sky and the earth will be completely changed on the Day of Judgment. At the same time, they will appear as described in the above verses of Surah Inshiqāq. There is therefore no discrepancy between this verse of Surah Ibrāhīm and the verses of Surah Inshiqāq.

Allāh continues, "O man, indeed you make great efforts in your journey towards your Lord and will soon meet with (the fruit of) your efforts." This verse summarises man's life in this world. Everything that a person needs in this world requires some effort from him and everything that man says or does in this effort are recorded. The world is fast passing by in this manner and Judgment Day is fast approaching. In fact, every person's individual reckoning starts when he passes away. Eventually, the trumpet will be sounded and everything will cease to exist.

When the trumpet is blown for the second time, people will emerge from their graves and present themselves before Allāh for reckoning. The records of deeds will then be distributed among mankind. Allāh says, "As for him who is given his record in his right hand, an easy reckoning will be taken from him and he will return happily to his family." Allāh says about such a person in Surah Hāqqah, "As for the one who receives his record (of deeds) in his right hand, he will call out, 'Come and read my record! I was always convinced that I shall certainly meet my reckoning. So he will enjoy a pleasing life in lofty gardens. The fruit of these gardens are near at hand. (They will be told) 'Eat and drink with all blessings as a reward for the (good) deeds that you sent ahead during the days bygone.'" [Surah 69, verses 19-24]

On the other hand, "As for him who is given his record behind his back, he will soon call for destruction and will enter the Blazing Fire." Allāh mentions in Surah Hāqqah that these people will receive their records of deeds in their left hands. These will be given to them from behind their backs. This will be when every person will "meet with the fruit of his efforts". Describing such a person in Surah Hāqqah, Allāh says, "As for the one who receives his record in the left hand, he will cry, 'Oh dear! If only I were not given my record and I had not known my reckoning! Alas! If only death had been my end!'" [Surah 69, verses 25-27]

"Indeed (in the world) he used to be happy among his family." He used to enjoy himself in the world without any concern for the Day of Judgment. In addition to this, "He used to think that he would not return" to account for his deeds before Allāh. However, his belief was false. Allāh declares, "He certainly will" have to return to Allāh to account for his deeds. He was wrong to think that Allāh was unaware of his deeds because "Verily his Lord was ever Watchful over him."

NOTE : Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said that the person who is required to account for his deeds will be destroyed. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم what was then the meaning of the verse "As for him who is given his record in his right hand, an easy reckoning will be taken from him". The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained that an easy reckoning means that one's deeds will merely be presented before Allāh without one being questioned. As for the person whose deeds are scrutinised, he will certainly be destroyed because he will be unable to reply. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 736 and v. 2 p. 928]

فَلَا أَفْسِمُ بِالشَّفَقِ ﴿١٦﴾ وَالْأَيْلِ وَمَا وَسَقَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَالْقَمَرِ إِذَا اتَّسَقَ ﴿١٨﴾ لَتَرْكَبُنَّ طَبَقًا
عَنْ طَبَقٍ ﴿١٩﴾ فَمَا لَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَإِذَا قُرِئَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقُرْآنُ لَا يَسْجُدُونَ ﴿٢١﴾
بِالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُكَذِّبُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يُوعُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ
﴿٢٤﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ مَمْنُونٍ ﴿٢٥﴾

(16) I swear by the twilight... (17) ....by the night, by what the night encompasses ... (18) ...and by the moon when is it full. (19) You will certainly proceed from phase to phase. (20) What is the matter with them that they do not believe... (21) ... and do not prostrate when the Qur'ān is recited to them? (22) Rather, the disbelievers choose to deny. (23) Allāh is well Aware of whatever they amass. (24) So give them the tidings of a painful punishment... (25) ...except for those who believe and carry out good deeds. Theirs shall be an unending reward.

Allāh Ta'āla takes an oath by several phenomena in these verses, among them the night and whatever uses the night to rest. Allāh takes all these oaths to assert that man will certainly proceed from one phase to another in his existence, with each phase becoming severer than the previous one. From this world, man proceeds to the realm of "Barzakh" (the existence of the grave) and then towards Judgment Day and the many stages of the Hereafter.

Allāh then asks, "What is the matter with them that they do not believe and do not prostrate when the Qur'ān is recited to them? Rather, the disbelievers choose to deny." Despite realising that they are fast approaching their deaths and after being given the proofs of life after death and reckoning, the disbelievers still refuse to submit and to acknowledge the divine origin of the Qur'ān. However, they should bear in mind that "Allāh is well Aware of whatever they amass" i.e. Allāh knows the disbelief, the polytheism and the evil that they bear in their hearts. Other commentators state that "whatever they amass" refers to the evil deeds that they accumulate in their records of deeds. Allāh is Aware of all this and will punish them accordingly, "So give them the tidings of a painful punishment." Although tidings are generally given of pleasant things, the news of punishment is referred to as "tidings" because the disbelievers anticipated that they would be successful by adhering to disbelief and polytheism.

Of course, a person will be saved from eternal damnation by repenting, accepting Islām and carrying out good deeds. Therefore, Allāh makes the exception by stating, "except for those who believe and carry out good deeds. Theirs shall be an unending reward."

سورة البروج

Makkan

Surah Burūj

Verses 22

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الْبُرُوجِ ① وَالْيَوْمِ الْمَوْعُودِ ② وَشَاهِدٍ وَمَشْهُودٍ ③ قِيلَ أَصْحَابُ الْأَعْدُدِ ④
 النَّارِ ذَاتِ الْوُفُودِ ⑤ إِذْ هُمْ عَلَيْهَا قُعُودٌ ⑥ وَهُمْ عَلَى مَا يَفْعَلُونَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ شُهُودٌ ⑦
 وَمَا نَقَمُوا مِنْهُمْ إِلَّا أَنْ يُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ ⑧ الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَاوَاتِ
 وَالْأَرْضِ وَاللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ⑨

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the starry sky! (2) By the promised day! (3) By the day which presents itself and the day when people are presented! (4) Accursed are the people of the trenches... (5) ...those of the heavily fuelled fire... (6) ....when they sat by the trenches... (7) ....and were witnesses to what they did to the believers. (8) They found no fault in them (the believers) except that they believed in Allāh, the Mighty, Most Worthy of praise... (9) .to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. Allāh is Witness to everything.

In the chapter concerning the commentary of Surah Burūj, Imām Tirmidhi رحمه الله reports a Hadith from Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stated that "the promised day" refers to the Day of Judgment, "the day which presents itself" refers to the day of Jumu'ah (Friday) and "the day when people are presented" refers to the day of Arafah (9th of Dhul Hijjah).

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has mentioned that the sun does not rise or set on a day better than the day of Jumu'ah. He also mentioned that there is a moment during this day when a believer will receive any good that he prays for and will be saved from anything from which he seeks refuge.

Allāh Ta'ala owns everything by which He takes oaths in the Qur'an, be they specific times, places or other phenomena. It is therefore obvious that anyone who opposes such a Great Being will certainly meet with destruction. An example of such people are the "people of the trenches". Allāh says about them, "Accursed are the people of the trenches, those of the heavily fuelled fire when they sat by the trenches and were witnesses to what they did to the believers. These verses refer to disbelievers who filled trenches with fuel and kindled a raging fire. They then forced the believers to enter the trenches.

Muslim (v. 2 p. 415) reports from Sayyidina Suhayb رضى الله عنه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once recounted to His companions (the Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم the story of a king who lived in bygone times. When his magician became old, he approached the king and requested him to send someone to him so that he could teach him magic. Eager that someone should continue the practice after the old magician, the king sent a boy to take lessons from the magician.

Whenever the boy came to the magician, he had to pass by a monk. One day, he sat with the monk and was very impressed by what the monk taught him. As a result, he always sat with the monk before proceeding to the magician for lessons. However, the magician used to beat him for always being late. When he mentioned this to the monk, the monk told him that whenever he feared reproach from the magician, he should excuse himself by saying that his family had delayed him. On the other hand, if he ever feared reproach from his family members, he should tell them that the magician had delayed him. In this manner, he managed to sit regularly with the monk without suffering punishment.

It once occurred that a large animal blocked the path and prevented people from passing. When the boy arrived there, he thought to himself that this would be the ideal opportunity to test whether the magician or the monk was better. He therefore picked up a stone and prayed, "O Allāh! If the way of the monk is more beloved to you than the way of the magician, then kill this beast with this stone so that people may pass." Consequently, when he threw the stone at the creature, the stone killed it instantly and people were able to pass by peacefully.

When the boy related the incident to the monk, the monk said, "You have now become better than me and have reached the high status that I can see. Now listen. You will now be tested (and put through difficulty). When this happens, do not tell anyone about me."

Thereafter, the boy began curing people who were born blind and those who were born with white liver i.e. Allāh cured them when he made supplication to Allāh to cure them. When a blind minister of the king heard about the boy, he took many gifts along with him and told the boy that he could have everything if he cured him of his blindness. The boy said, "I cannot cure anyone. Only Allāh can cure. However, if you believe in Allāh, I will pray to Allāh and He will cure you." When the minister complied, Allāh restored his sight.

When the minister returned to the king's court, the king asked him who had restored his vision. The minister replied, "My Lord has restored my sight." The king asked, "Do you have a Lord besides me?" The minister replied, "Allāh Ta'āla is my Lord and your Lord." The king had the minister arrested and he was tortured until he revealed the name of the boy.

When the boy was brought before the king, the king said to him, "Your magic has reached a stage where it can cure the blind and people suffering from white liver." The boy said, "I cannot cure anyone. Only Allāh can cure." The king then had him tortured until he revealed the identity of the monk. When the monk was brought before the king, the king told him to renounce his religion. When the monk refused, the king had a saw brought and, placing the saw on his head, had the monk sawed in two. The king then turned to the minister who believed in Allāh and told him to renounce his faith. When the minister refused, the king had him also sawn in two.

Turning to the boy, the king put the same request to him. When the boy also refused, the king placed him in the custody of a few of his men and instructed them to take the boy to certain mountain and to climb up to the summit with him. If he renounced his religion there, he was to be set free, otherwise if he still refused to forsake his religion, they were to throw him off the mountain. As they climbed the mountain with him, the boy made supplication thus, "O Allāh! Suffice for me against them in whichever manner You please." Allāh then caused the mountain to tremor and all the king's men fell to their deaths. The boy returned alone to the king.

When the king asked where his men were, the boy replied that Allāh had protected him from their evil. The king then sent him with another party of men, instructing them to take him by ship to the middle of the ocean and to let him be if he forsook his faith. Otherwise, they were to throw him overboard. When they reached the middle of the ocean, the boy again prayed, "O Allāh! Suffice for me against them in whichever manner You please." As he made the supplication, the ship capsized and all the king's men were drowned. Again the boy returned alone to the king and when the king asked where his men were, the boy replied that Allāh had sufficed for him and had protected him from their evil.

The boy (Abdullāh bin Tāmīr) then told the king that he would be unable to kill him by any method except one. When the king asked him what the method was, the boy said, "Gather the people on a field and tie me to the trunk of a tree. Then, taking an arrow from this quiver of mine, place it in my bow and say, 'In the name of the Lord of this boy.' Then shoot the arrow." The boy knew that he was to die so he thought of this method to make his death an invitation to his religion for the people. Unable to fathom this plan, the king did as he was told. He gathered the people, placed the arrow in the bow and shot it saying, "In the name of the Lord of this boy." The arrow struck the boy's temple and he died with his hand on the point where the arrow hit. Seeing this, the people cried out, "We believe in the Lord of this boy!"

The king's men came to him saying, "What you most feared has happened" The king then instructed his soldiers to dig trenches in the first streets of the town and to fill the trenches with fire. When this was done, the king instructed his men to bring every believer to the trenches and to tell them to renounce their faith in Allāh. If they refused, they were to be thrown into the fire. When this was done, many people were thrown into the fire. Eventually, when a woman carrying her infant child was brought to a trench, she hesitated. Allāh granted speech to her child who said, "O mother! Be steadfast because you are certainly upon the truth."

Tirmidhi reports the same incident with a few additions. At the beginning, the narration of Tirmidhi states that a fortune-teller of the king told him that his kingdom was soon to come to an end and it was this fortune-teller who requested the king to send an intelligent boy to him so that he could teach him his craft. This narration also states that when the masses declared, "We believe in the Lord of this boy", someone told the king, "You were afraid of opposition from three people (the boy, the monk and the minister), now look! The entire nation is against you." It was then that the king had the trenches dug and announced, "We will say nothing to those who renounce their faith. However, those who do not renounce will be cast into the trenches." It is with reference to this incident that Allāh revealed the verses, "Accursed are the people of the trenches, those of the heavily fuelled fire when they sat by the trenches and were witnesses to what they did to the believers. They found no fault in them (the believers) except that they believed in Allāh, the Mighty, Most Worthy of praise."

The narration of Tirmidhi also states that when the grave of the boy was dug up during the rule of Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, his hand was found on his temple as when he had passed away. Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has quoted Muqātil رحمه الله عليه who states that the incident of the trenches took place thrice in history. It occurred in Shām during the reign of the Roman emperor Iltanayūs, in Persia during the reign of the emperor Nebuchadnezzar (Bakht Nasr) and in Najrān in Yemen during the reign of the king Yusuf Dhutu was. He states that the incident that the Qur'ān refers to here in Surah Burūj is the third that occurred in Najrān.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has also quoted from Ibn Abi Hātim رحمه الله عليه that the incident occurred during the period of 'Fatrah' i.e. after the ascension of Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام but before the birth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh knows best.

"They found no fault in them (the believers) except that they believed in Allāh, the Mighty, Most Worthy of praise." Allāh states that the disbelievers had absolutely no right to kill the believers because the believers had not committed any crime. The only "crime" that the disbelievers saw was that the believers believed in Allāh, which is not a crime at all but rather the obligatory duty of every person.

At this juncture, the incident of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa Sahmi رضى الله عنه comes to mind, which Hāfidh Ibn Hajar رحمه الله عليه has narrated in "Al Isābah". During his Caliph, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه once dispatched Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه with an army to fight the Romans. Somehow, the Romans managed to capture them and they were brought before the Roman emperor who was a Christian. Learning that a companion of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was among the group, the Roman emperor summoned Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه. The discussion that took place between the two is as follows:

CHRISTIAN EMPEROR: "I am prepared to share my kingdom with you if you accept Christianity."

SAYYIDINA ABDULLĀH BIN HUDHĀFA رضى الله عنه: "Your kingdom is nothing. If you give me your kingdom and if all the Arabs give me their kingdoms on condition that I renounce the Religion of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم for the duration of even the blink of an eye, I would never do so."

CHRISTIAN EMPEROR: "If you do not accept Christianity, I shall have you killed"

SAYYIDINA ABDULLĀH BIN HUDHĀFA رضى الله عنه: "You may kill me if you please. I have said my piece. There is no possibility of my going against my words nor shall I reconsider my stance. In fact, my statement is so staunch that no believer can even fathom the opposite."

The emperor then had Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه tied to a cross and instructed his archers to shoot at his arms and legs. He stressed that they should not aim to kill because the intention was merely to make him accept Christianity. Like the incident of the "people of the trenches", the only "crime" that was committed here was belief in Allāh and adherence to Allāh's Religion. As they fired the arrows through his body, they told him to renounce Islām and to accept Christianity. However, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه kept telling them that he had said his piece and would not reconsider.

When this plot failed, the emperor had him taken off the cross. The emperor then instructed that a cauldron of water be heated until the water was boiling. When this was done, another Muslim was cast inside the cauldron and he lost his life as his flesh was separated from the bones. This was done in the presence of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه. He was then asked to renounce Islām or suffer the same fate as the other Muslim. When he refused, the emperor instructed that he also be placed in the cauldron. As Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه was being placed inside, he began to weep. When the emperor was informed about this, he thought the Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه must be afraid of death and would therefore accept Christianity. When he sent for Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه and asked him to accept Christianity, the refusal was still as strong as ever. The following dialogue ensued:

CHRISTIAN EMPEROR: "Then tell me why you wept."

SAYYIDINA ABDULLĀH BIN HUDHĀFA رضى الله عنه: "Standing at the cauldron, I thought that I would soon be cast into it and lose life in a short while. It is sad that I have only one life. It would have been great if I had as many lives as there are hairs on my body so that I could be repeatedly cast into this cauldron to give each one of them for Allāh. What is the use of only one life in Allāh's way."

CHRISTIAN EMPEROR: "Alright, then kiss my forehead and I shall free all of you."

SAYYIDINA ABDULLĀH BIN HUDHĀFA رضى الله عنه: "Will I alone be freed or all the Muslims with me?"

CHRISTIAN EMPEROR: "If you kiss my forehead, I shall free everyone with you."

To save his own life, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه would not have kissed the emperor's forehead because it meant honouring a disbeliever. However, in the best interests of the Muslims with him, he kissed the emperor's forehead. All the Muslims were then freed.

When they returned to Madinah and the incident was related to Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, he said, "Because he kissed the forehead of a disbeliever for the freedom of the Muslims, it is necessary for every Muslim to kiss his forehead and I will be the first to do so." Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه was the first to kiss the forehead of Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Hudhāfa رضى الله عنه.

The enemies of the Muslims who perpetrate such acts against the Muslims merely consider the strength and power they wield and fail to realise that Allāh Ta'āla is more powerful than them and that He has knowledge of everything they do. Allāh shall punish them for their atrocities. They should never think that their deeds will be left behind in this world and forgotten in the next. Allāh refers to this when he concluded the episode by saying, "Allāh is Witness to everything."

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ فَتَنُوا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَتُوبُوا فَلَهُمْ عَذَابُ جَهَنَّمَ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابُ
الْحَرِيقِ ﴿١٠﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتٌ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
ذَٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿١١﴾

(10) Verily those who harm believing men and believing women and do not repent, for them shall be the punishment of Hell and the punishment of burning. (11) Most certainly, those who believe and who carry out good deeds shall have gardens beneath which rivers flow. That is the supreme success.

Allāh sounds a warning to those people who harm the believers. This warning is general and does not specifically apply to the "people of the trenches" only. Concerning these people, Allāh says, "Verily those who harm believing men and believing women and do not repent, for them shall be the punishment of Hell and the punishment of burning." The verse clearly states that such people will suffer this punishment if they do not repent i.e. if they do not accept Islām and show remorse for their deeds. Irrespective of what a person does as a disbeliever, all his sins are forgiven when he sincerely accepts Islām.

Allāh mentions this after the incident of the "people of the trenches", indicating that He would have forgiven even them if they repented and accepted Him as their Lord. Sayyidina Hasan Basri رحمه الله عليه states, "Look at Allāh's compassion and benevolence. They killed Allāh's friends, yet He invites them towards repentance and forgiveness."

Allāh then speaks about the pious believers when He says, "Most certainly, those who believe and who carry out good deeds shall have gardens beneath which rivers flow. That is the supreme success." This verse assures the believers that the difficulties of this world are insignificant because they will cause one to attain the "supreme success" of the Hereafter. Burning in a fire in this world will last for only a very short duration, while the bliss and bounties of Heaven will be perpetual.

إِنَّ بَطْشَ رَبِّكَ لَشَدِيدٌ ﴿١٢﴾ إِنَّهُ هُوَ بَدِئُ وَبَعِيدُ ﴿١٣﴾ وَهُوَ الْغَفُورُ الْودُودُ ﴿١٤﴾ ذُو
الْعَرْشِ الْمَجِيدُ ﴿١٥﴾ فَعَالٌ لِّمَا يُرِيدُ ﴿١٦﴾ هَلْ أُنَبِّئُكَ حَدِيثَ الْجُنُودِ ﴿١٧﴾ فِرْعَوْنَ وَثَمُودَ ﴿١٨﴾
بَلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي تَكْذِيبٍ ﴿١٩﴾ وَاللَّهُ مِنْ وَرَائِهِمْ مُحِيطٌ ﴿٢٠﴾ بَلْ هُوَ قَرِآنٌ
مَجِيدٌ ﴿٢١﴾ فِي لَوْحٍ مَحْفُوظٍ ﴿٢٢﴾

(12) Undoubtedly, the grasp of your Lord is severe indeed. (13) Verily, it is He Who creates the first time and then creates again. (14) He is the Most Forgiving, All Loving... (15) ...Owner of the Throne, the Majestic... (16) ...and the One Who does as He pleases. (17) Has the news of the armies reached you? (18) Of

Phara'oh (Fir'oun) and the Thamud? (19) Rather the disbelievers are (persistent) in denial. (20) Allāh encompasses them from all over. (21) It is the Glorious Qur'ān. (22) ... in the Lowhum Mahfūdh (the protected tablet).

Allāh describes His power in the above verses. Allāh says, "Undoubtedly, the grasp of your Lord is severe indeed" Disbelieving nations should not be fooled when Allāh's punishment does not over take them swiftly. A delay in punishment does not mean that it will not arrive. Allāh has appointed a time when they will be punished and when this time arrives, they will be swept over very severely. Sayyidina Abu Mūsa Ash'ari رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Verily, Allāh grants respite to the oppressor until the time when He seizes him and then allows no reprieve." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited the verse of Surah Hūd where Allāh Ta'āla says, "Such is the grasp of your Lord when He seized a town that is oppressive. Indeed His grasp is painful and severe." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 678]

Allāh then describes His creative powers when He states, "Verily, it is He Who creates the first time and then creates again." This verse makes it clear to those who deny Judgment Day that just as Allāh had the power to create people the first time, He is perfectly Capable of resurrecting them on the Day of Judgment. It is therefore foolish to regard Judgment Day as something farfetched.

Allāh continues to say that "He is the Most Forgiving, All Loving, Owner of the Throne, the Majestic and the One Who does as He pleases." "Nothing can stop Allāh from doing whatever He wills. He is at liberty to forgive the sinners, to express His love for His pious bondsmen and to punish the disbelievers. Nothing is difficult for Allāh. Allāh says in Surah Hajj, "Allāh will certainly admit those who believe and perform good deeds into gardens beneath which rivers flow. Verily Allāh does as He pleases." A few verses later, Allāh states, "There is none to honour the person whom Allāh humiliates. Indeed, Allāh does as He pleases." [Surah 22, verse 18]

Allāh states further, "Has the news of the armies reached you, of phara'oh (Fir'oun) and the Thamūd? Rather the disbelievers are (persistent) in denial." Allāh asks a rhetorical question to warn mankind against adopting the ways of the previously destroyed people such as phara'oh (Fir'oun) and nation of the Thamud. Instead of accepting the message of Allāh's Prophets عليهم السلام, these people were haughty and chose to deny Oneness of Allah and the message of the Prophets عليهم السلام. Such people should never think that Allāh is unaware of their deeds because "Allāh encompasses them from all over." Allāh knows every misdeed that they commit and will punish them for it as He punished those before them.

The disbelievers even deny the truth of the Qur'ān. This is only because of their obstinacy since it is impossible to reject the Qur'ān on reasonable grounds. Therefore, Allāh states, "It is the Glorious Qur'ān in the Lowhum Mahfūdh (protected tablet)." "The Qur'ān is eternally preserved in the "Lowhu Mahfūdh" ("The Protected Tablet") in the heavens and it cannot be altered. It was brought by a trustworthy angel to a trustworthy Nabi (Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh has also assumed the responsibility of preserving it. Therefore, the denial of the disbelievers will not affect its authenticity in the least.

سورة الطارق

Makkan

Surah At-Tāriq

Verses 17

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالسَّمَاءِ وَالطَّارِقِ ﴿١﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الطَّارِقُ ﴿٢﴾ النَّجْمُ الثَّاقِبُ ﴿٣﴾ إِنَّ كُلَّ نَفْسٍ لَّمَّا عَلَيْهَا حَافِظٌ ﴿٤﴾ فَلْيَنْظُرِ الْإِنْسَانُ مِمَّ خُلِقَ ﴿٥﴾ خُلِقَ مِنْ مَّاءٍ دَافِقٍ ﴿٦﴾ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بَيْنِ الصُّلْبِ وَالتَّرَائِبِ ﴿٧﴾ إِنَّهُ عَلَى رَجْعِهِ لَقَادِرٌ ﴿٨﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the sky and that which appears by night.' (2) How will you know what it is that appears by night? (3) It is the bright star. (4) There is no soul with out a guardian appointed over it. (5) Man should ponder about what he was created from. (6) He was created from spurting water... (7) ..which emerges from between the backbone and the chest. (8) Verily Allāh has the power to resurrect him.

Allāh Ta'āla takes an oath by the sky and by a bright star to assert that He has appointed an angel to watch over every person. The task of these angels is to record every deed that a person carries out. Their records will be presented on the Day of Judgment and Allāh will decide every person's affair. According to this interpretation, the "guardian" refers to the recording angels referred to in Surah Infitār [Surah 82, verses 10,11] where Allāh says, "Verily there are guardians upon you who are noble and are recording."

Other commentators have mentioned that the verse refers to those angels who are commissioned to protect people, concerning whom Allāh says in Surah Ra'd, "For everyone there are angels before him and following behind him, protecting him." These angels are appointed with the express task of protecting people from calamities. However, the first interpretation is more apt because the Surah discusses Judgment Day and people tend to doubt its coming, thinking that they cannot be called to account for words and deeds that are said and done.

Further dispelling the doubts people express concerning resurrection, Allāh Ta'āla states, "Man should ponder about what he was created from. He was created from spurting water which emerges from between the backbone and the chest." This verse makes reference to the drop of semen from which man was created, which is referred to in Surah Sajdah as "lowly water". Allāh tells man in these verses that there is no cause for him to deny that Allāh can resurrect man after man has been reduced to dust. Allāh created man from a drop of semen and nourishes and nurtures him throughout his life. Therefore, it is obvious that "Allāh has the power to resurrect him."

Allāh says in Surah Qiyāmah, "Was he (man) not a discharge of semen after which he developed into a clot of blood and then Allāh created him and perfected him? Then Allāh made the couple male and female. Does He then not have the power to resurrect the dead?" [Surah 75, verses 37-40]

Allāh Ta'āla describes the male sperm as "spurting water which emerges from between the backbone and the chest." The Arabic word "tarā'ib" (translated above as "chest") actually refers to the sternum. Although a child is conceived when the male and female gametes meet, the verse uses the word "water" in the singular sense. The author of "Bayānūl Qur'ān" mentions that the singular form is used because the verse refers to the zygote i.e. the cell formed after the union of the male and female gametes.

The Ahadīth mention that women also discharge a form of semen like men do. In fact, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that if the semen of the wife is more than that of the husband when they cohabit, the child will resemble the wife's family. On the contrary, when the husband's semen is more, the child will resemble his family. [Muslim] Allāh Ta'āla says that the "water" "emerges from between the backbone and the chest." Physicians of the past maintained that the semen is produced from every part of the body and it is the corresponding part of the father and mother's body that leads to the formation of that part of the child's body (possibly an antiquated description of genes). If this is true, it will not contradict the verse because the wording of the verse does not restrict the source of semen to the backbone and chest. It may also be said that since the back represents one end of the body and the chest represents the other end of the body (at the front), the phrase "between the backbone and the chest" refers to the entire body.

يَوْمَ تُبْلَى السَّرَائِرُ ﴿٩﴾ فَمَا لَهُمْ مِنْ قُوَّةٍ وَلَا نَاصِرٍ ﴿١٠﴾ وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الرَّجْعِ ﴿١١﴾ وَالْأَرْضِ ذَاتِ
الْصَّعِجِ ﴿١٢﴾ إِنَّهُمْ لَقَوْلٌ فَصْلٌ ﴿١٣﴾ وَمَا هُوَ بِالْهَزْلِ ﴿١٤﴾ إِنَّهُمْ يَكِيدُونَ كَيْدًا ﴿١٥﴾ وَآيَكُ
كَيْدًا ﴿١٦﴾ فَمَهْلِكُ الْكَافِرِينَ أَمْهَلُهُمْ رَوْدًا ﴿١٧﴾

(9) The day when secrets will be examined. (10) There shall then neither be any power nor assistant for man. (11) By the sky from which rain falls... (12) ...and by the earth which cleaves! (13) It is definitely a decisive speech... (14) ...and it is no joke. (15) They are certainly conniving a plot... (16) ...and I am also planning something. (17) Give the disbelievers respite. Grant them reprieve for a while.

In the foregoing verses, Allāh mentions that He is perfectly Capable of resurrecting man after his body has decomposed, just as He was Capable of creating him the first time from a drop of fluid. In the verses under discussion, Allāh speaks about the Day of Judgment when man will be present before Allāh for reckoning. Allāh says, "The day when secrets will be examined" i.e. when the quality of all deeds will be examined. Allāh says in Surah Kahf, "The record of deeds shall be placed and you will see the sinners afraid of what is contained in them. They will say, 'Woe be to us! What is with this book that it does not leave anything small or large unrecorded?' They will find their deeds present." [Surah 18, verse 50]

"There shall then neither be any power nor assistant for man:" Man will be totally helpless on the Day of Judgment and none will be able to help him. Allāh Ta'āla then takes two oaths to assert that the Qur'ān is true indeed and that it effectively differentiates between truth and falsehood. Allāh says, "By the sky from which rain falls and by the earth which cleaves!" i.e. when a seed germinates, it cleaves the earth apart to sprout. Using these two oaths to strengthen the affirmation, Allāh declares, 'it (the Qur'ān) is definitely a decisive speech and it is no joke.'

Allāh continues, "They (the disbelievers) are certainly conniving a plot" to stifle the truth and to prevent others from accepting Islām. The polytheists continuously harassed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and prevented people from meeting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by telling them that he was insane and that he was merely relating fanciful fables of the past. In addition to this, they also persecuted the Muslims. Allāh says, "I am also planning something." While the disbelievers are busily planning to destroy Islām, Allāh shall confound their plans.

Allāh then tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to grieve but to "Give the disbelievers respite. Grant them reprieve for a while." In these concluding verses, Allāh reassures the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he has nothing to worry about because Allāh shall soon deal with the polytheists. They will certainly be punished in the Hereafter. Of course, punishment in this world can never be ruled out. It then occurred that the polytheists were defeated in the Battle of Badr and many of their leaders were killed.

سورة الاعلى

Makkan

Surah A'la

Verses 19

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

سَبِّحْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى ۝ (1) الَّذِي خَلَقَ فَسَوَّى ۝ (2) وَالَّذِي قَدَّرَ فَهَدَى ۝ (3) وَالَّذِي أَخْرَجَ
الْمَرْعَى ۝ (4) فَجَعَلَهُ غُثَاءً أَحْوَى ۝ (5) سَنُقَرِّبُكَ فَلَا تَنْسَى ۝ (6) إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ إِنَّكُمْ يَعْلَمُ
الْجَهْرَ وَمَا يَخْفَى ۝ (7) وَتُبَسِّرُكَ لِلْيُسْرَى ۝ (8) فَذَكِّرْ إِن نَّفَعَتِ الذِّكْرَى ۝ (9) سَيَذَكِّرُ مَنْ
يَخْشَى ۝ (10) وَبَدَجْنَاهَا لَا شَأْنَ ۝ (11) الَّذِي يَصْلَى التَّارَ الْكُبْرَى ۝ (12) ثُمَّ لَا يَمُوتُ فِيهَا وَلَا
يَحْيَى ۝ (13) قَدْ أَفْلَحَ مَنْ تَزَكَّى ۝ (14) وَذَكَرَ اسْمَ رَبِّهِ فَصَلَّى ۝ (15) بَلْ تُؤْثِرُونَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا
۝ (16) وَالْآخِرَةَ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَى ۝ (17) إِنَّ هَذَا لَفِي الصُّحُفِ الْأُولَى ۝ (18) صُحُفِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ
وَمُوسَى ۝ (19)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) Glorify the name of your Exalted Lord... (2) Who created and perfected... (3) ... Who determined and showed the way... (4) ...Who made fodder grow... (5) ... and then reduced it to a black heap of debris. (6) We shall soon teach you and you will not forget... (7) ... except what Allāh wills. Verily Allāh knows what is apparent and what is hidden. (8) We shall soon make the easy Shari'ah simple for you. (9) So advise if advice is beneficial. (10) The one who fears will take heed... (11) .... whereas only he will keep away from it who is most unfortunate... (12)...and who shall enter the gigantic fire. (13) He will then neither die there nor live. (14) Successful indeed is he who has adopted purity... (15) ... who takes the name of his Lord and performs Salāh. (16) However, they prefer the life of this world... (17) ... whereas the Hereafter is much better and much more lasting. (18) Undoubtedly, this is in the previous scriptures... (19). ...the scriptures of Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and Mūsā عليه السلام.

Surah A'la begins by commanding man to glorify Allāh's name. Thereafter, the Surah mentions Allāh's excellent attributes. The first attribute mentioned is that Allāh is "Al A'la" ("Exalted"). Abu Dawūd reports from Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضي الله عنه that when the verse, "So glorify the name of your Majestic Lord" was revealed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed the Muslims to include the verse in the Ruku. Therefore, the Tasbīh of Ruku is:

"Glory be to my Majestic Lord."

Thereafter, when the first verse of Surah A'la was revealed commanding, "Glorify the name of your Exalted Lord ", The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed the Muslims to include this in the Sajdah. Consequently, the Tasbīh of Sajdah is:

"Glory be to my Exalted Lord"

The Surah describes Allāh further when it states that it is Allāh "Who created and perfected" the creation. Furthermore, it is He "Who determined" the exact proportions and nature of every creature that He created. Thereafter, Allāh "showed the way" to His creation by causing them to be inclined towards the functions for which they were created. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" (v. 4 p. 475) has quoted several other interpretations of the verse "Who determined and showed the way ". These are:

📖 Allāh has shown man the good fortune of virtue and the ill fortune of evil [Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه]

📖 Allāh has determined the sustenance of every person and showed him the way to earn this sustenance.

📖 Allāh has predetermined the benefits of everything and has taught man how to exploit these.

The Surah describes Allāh further when it says that it is Allāh "Who made fodder grow". Allāh grows the fodder which man feeds to his animals so that they may do the work required from them. After the animals have eaten their share of the fodder, the left-over crop becomes a pile of debris, which gradually turns black as it decomposes. Referring to this, the Surah says that after growing the fodder, Allāh "then reduced it to a black heap of debris."

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh says, "We shall soon teach you (the Qur'ān) and you will not forget, except what Allāh wills." This verse repeats the message of verse 17 of Surah Qiyāmah (Surah 75) where Allāh says, "Verily, it is Our responsibility to collect it (the Qur'ān) and to make you recite it." While Allāh Ta'āla made the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم remember all of the Qur'ān, there were certain verses which Allāh made the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forget because they had been abrogated. This was done by Allāh's command and is not without reason. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah (Surah 2, verse 106), "Whenever We repeal any verse or cause it to be forgotten, We bring something better or equivalent to it. Do you not know that Allāh has power over all things?" Refer to the commentary of this verse of Surah Baqarah for more details on the repealing of laws in the Shari'ah.

Allāh continues, "Verily Allāh knows what is apparent and what is hidden." Allāh knows the apparent and inner condition of every person. Nothing is hidden from Him.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further, Allāh says, "We shall soon make the easy Shari'ah simple for you. "In this verse, Allāh promises the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that his Shari'ah shall be easy to practise. No injunction of the Shari'ah is beyond man's capability and no injunction will cause excessive difficulty to a person. If an ill person cannot stand and perform Sulāh, he is allowed to sit and perform the Ruku (genuflexion) and Sajdah (prostration). If he cannot do this, he may sit and perform the Ruku (genuflexion) and Sajdah (prostration) by merely lowering his head. If this is also not possible, he may perform the entire Salāh while lying down.

Zakāh is due only from the person who possesses money equivalent to Nisāb (what is fixed). When Zakāh does become obligatory for one, it is only 2.5% of one's total wealth that is given (97.5% remains with him). Then too, Zakāh will be paid only for certain commodities and not for all one's wealth e.g. one's necessities will not be added to the total amount when calculating Zakāh. Similarly, Hajj is also not obligatory on every Muslim until one is able to afford it.

As far as the fasts of Ramadhān are concerned, a person who is ill, travelling, expecting or breast-feeding may omit them and make them up when she/he is well. Among the concessions that the Shari'ah has allowed is that travellers should perform only two Rakāhs Obligatory Salāh instead of four. Besides the above, there are numerous other concessions that the Shari'ah allows in various circumstances. The details of these can be found in the books of Islamic jurisprudence.

"Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" quotes certain commentators who translate the Arabic word 'yusra' (translated above as "easy Shari'ah") as "revelation". According to this interpretation, the verse reads, "We shall make revelation easy for you (so that you may remember and teach it)."

"So advise if advice is beneficial." This verse seems to indicate that advice should be given only when one deems it to be beneficial. However, the author of "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" states that the verse contains a figure of expression by which only one aspect of something is mentioned and considered sufficient when the opposite also applies. This means that advice should be given whether one thinks it will benefit the other person or not. This is similar to a verse of Surah Nahl where Allāh states that He has "made coats for you that protect you from the heat". Although not stated, this verse also implies "coats that protect you from the cold."

"The one who fears will take heed whereas only he will keep away from it (from the advice) who is most unfortunate and who shall enter the gigantic fire." The fire of Hell is described as a "gigantic fire" because it is seventy times more intense than the fire of this world. Describing the plight of the person who is to enter Hell, Allāh says that "He will then neither die there nor live." None will die in Hell because the life of the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is eternal. The life of the people in Hell cannot be described as life because of the misery they will suffer there. Allāh says in Surah Fātir, "The Fire of Hell will be for those who disbelieve, where no decree will be passed against them so that they may die. Their punishment will also not be lightened. Thus do We punish every disbeliever." [Surah 34, verse 35]

The above verses make it clear that only the person who fears Allāh will accept good advice that he is given concerning his spiritual well-being. Such people realise that disobedience to Allāh will bring them devastation in the Hereafter. On the other hand, the disbelievers pay no heed to the advice given to them and will meet the terrible consequences.

"Successful indeed is he who has adopted purity, who takes the name of his Lord and performs Salāh." Adopting 'purity' means that one should be free from any beliefs of infidelity and Bid'ah (innovations). It also entails purifying oneself from evil character and evil deeds. The Arabic word "tazakkā" denotes exerting oneself in attaining purity. This means that whether one's Nafs (carnal self) is obliging or not, one should still persevere in purifying oneself from evil. The greatest manner of purifying oneself is by being particular about one's Salāh because Salāh prevents one from evil. Allāh says in Surah Ankabūt, "Verily Salāh prevents obscenity and evil." [Surah 29, verse 45]

Allāh therefore encourages man to purify himself from all sins, including Disbelief and polytheism so that he may be successful. Allāh then mentions the reason for man's failure to succeed in the Hereafter. The reason is that "they prefer the life of this world whereas the Hereafter is much better and much more lasting." Although many people realise the truth of Islām, they remain ensnared in the darkness of disbelief and polytheism because they fear a loss in their wealth or positions if they accept Islām. Let alone the optional acts of Ibādah, there are many Muslims who neglect even their obligatory duties because of their preoccupation with worldly matters. The true believer should be particular of even the Sunan and Mustahabbāt because they elevate a person's status in the Hereafter just as the Farā'idh (obligations) and (Wājib) compulsory do. Fixing their sights on the temporary benefits of this world, people forsake the deeds of the Hereafter without realising that "the Hereafter is much better and much more lasting."

The superiority of the Hereafter over this world is evident from the fact that the reward of a single deed in the Hereafter is better than everything that this world contains. For example, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that a single morning or a single evening spent in Allāh's path is better than the world and whatever it contains. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also mentioned that the two Rakāhs of Sunnah Salāh performed before the Fajr Salāh is better than the world and whatever it contains.

One should bear in mind that earning a living to provide Halāl sustenance for oneself and one's family for Allāh's pleasure is not a mundane pursuit but it is regarded as an act of Ibādah (worship). One will be guilty of "giving preference to the life of this world" when one is totally negligent of the Akhirah (Hereafter) and pays no attention to carrying out deeds that will benefit one there. Such a person lives and dies for this world and is immersed in sin. Allāh says in Surah Qiyāmah, "The fact is that you love this world and you forsake the Hereafter." Allāh says in Surah Dahar, "Indeed these people love the world and leave behind them a weighty day." [Surah 76 verse 24]

Allāh continues, "Undoubtedly, this is in the previous scriptures; the scriptures of Ibrahīm عليه السلام and Mūsa عليه السلام." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Ibn Mardawiyah رحمه الله and Ibn Asākir رحمه الله that Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم whether anything from the scriptures of Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام was revealed to him. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied in the affirmative and then recited the verses: "Successful indeed is he who has adopted purity, who takes the name of his Lord and performs Salāh. However, they prefer the life of this world whereas the Hereafter is much better and much more lasting." Therefore, it is believed that the pronoun "this" in the verse "Undoubtedly, this is in the previous scriptures" refers to these verses specifically (viz, verses 14-17 of this Surah). However, the author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" makes it clear that the authenticity of this hadith cannot be verified.

Certain commentators state that the pronoun "this" refers to the entire Surah A'la while others maintain that it refers to the entire Qur'ān. Allāh knows best. Surah Najm (Surah 53) also alludes to the contents of the scriptures given to Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and Sayyidina Mūsa عليه السلام. The subject matter begins with verses 36 and 37 of the Surah, where Allāh says, "Has he not been informed of what appeared in the scriptures of Mūsa? And in the scriptures of Ibrāhīm who fulfilled?" Refer to the commentary of these verses for further details.

سورة الغاشية

Makkan

Surah Ghāshiya

Verses 26

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

هَلْ أَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ الْغَاشِيَةِ ﴿١﴾ وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ خَاشِعَةٌ ﴿٢﴾ عَامِلَةٌ نَاصِبَةٌ ﴿٣﴾ تَصَلَّى
نَارًا حَامِيَةً ﴿٤﴾ تُشَقَّى مِنْ عَيْنٍ عَيْنِيَّةٍ ﴿٥﴾ لَيْسَ لَهُمْ طَعَامٌ إِلَّا مِنْ ضَرِيعٍ ﴿٦﴾ لَا يُسْمِنُ
وَلَا يُغْنِي مِنْ جُوعٍ ﴿٧﴾ وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ نَاعِمَةٌ ﴿٨﴾ لِسَعْيِهَا رَاضِيَةٌ ﴿٩﴾ فِي جَنَّةٍ عَالِيَةٍ
﴿١٠﴾ لَا تَسْمَعُ فِيهَا لَفِيَةً ﴿١١﴾ فِيهَا عَيْنٌ جَارِيَةٌ ﴿١٢﴾ فِيهَا سُرُرٌ مَرْفُوعَةٌ ﴿١٣﴾ وَأَكْوَابُ
مَوْضُوعَةٌ ﴿١٤﴾ وَنَارٌ مَصْفُوفَةٌ ﴿١٥﴾ وَزَرَائِبُ مَبْنُوتَةٌ ﴿١٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Has the news of the overwhelming thing come to you? (2) Many faces on that day will be looking down. (3) (Among these shall be) he who suffered affliction and who endured many difficulties. (4) He shall enter the blazing fire... (5) ...where he will be given water to drink from boiling springs. (6) The only food for the people of Hell shall be thorny trees... (7) which will neither nourish nor alleviate hunger. (8) Many faces on that day will be resplendent. (9) They shall be pleased with their efforts... (10) ....in the lofty gardens of Heaven... (11) ...where they shall not hear futile talk. (12) In Heaven there are flowing springs. (13) In Heaven there are elevated thrones... (14) ...cups set in place... (15) ..... cushions arranged in rows... (16) .... and carpets spread out.

Among the many names with which the Qur'an describes Judgment day, one is with the word "Al Ghāshiya" ("an overwhelming thing"). Judgment day is described as such because its hardship and severity will overwhelm every person and cause people's hearts to flutter with fear. Allāh Ta'ala says, "Has the news of the overwhelming thing come to you?" Many commentators have interpreted the verse to mean: "The news of the overwhelming thing has certainly come to you." Although this is the ultimate meaning of the verse, it has been phrased as a question to attract the reader's attention.

Allāh then continues to describe the Day of Judgment when He says, "Many faces on that day will be looking down." When these people are told to submit to Allāh in this world and to humble themselves before Allāh's creation, they behave haughtily and refuse to do so. They will therefore be made to suffer disgrace on the Day of Judgment. Allāh says about them in Surah Qalam, "Their gazes will be cast down and disgrace shall overcome them. Indeed they used to be summoned to prostrate when they were hale and healthy." [Surah 68, verse 43]

Allāh continues to say that among those to cast their gazes down in disgrace will be "He who suffered affliction and who endured many difficulties." "Ruhul Ma'āni" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه that the affliction and difficulty that a doomed person will suffer on the Day of Judgment will be that he will be fettered with chains and a yoke. He will have to drag these along with him as he is made to climb the mountains of Hell.

Sayyidina Ikrima رضى الله عنه has mentioned that the verse refers to people who endure many difficulties in this world and who also exert themselves in spiritual exercises. However, because they refuse to accept Islām, all their efforts are wasted and they will be subjected to punishment in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Concerning such a person, Allāh says, "He shall enter the blazing fire where he will be given water to drink from boiling springs." The Arabic word "hāmiya" (translated above as "blazing") actually refers to fire that is so hot that it cannot be heated any further. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told His companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم that the fire of this world is merely a seventieth part of the fire of Hell. The Sahabah رضى الله عنه said in astonishment, "But this fire is more than enough (to burn)!" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Then too, the fire of Hell will be 69 grades more intense."

In addition to this, the people in Hell will be given boiling water to drink. Allāh says in Surah Rahmān, "They shall pass between it (Hell) and the boiling water." Allāh says in Surah Kahf [Surah 18, verse 29], "If they beseech help, they will be helped with water that is like the residue of burnt oil and will scorch their faces. A terrible drink indeed!" Allāh speaks about it in Surah Muhammad as: "Can these people ever be like those who will abide forever in the Fire and are given boiling water to drink, which tears their innards to shreds?" [Surah 47, verse 15]

After describing the drink of the people in Hell, Allāh describes their food when He says, "The only food for the people of Hell shall be thorny trees." The author of "Mirqāt" writes that "Dari" (translated above as "thorny trees") is actually the name of a thorny tree found in the Hijāz area. It is so foul and poisonous that even animals stay far from it. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that "Dari" is something in Hell which is more bitter than aloes, more foul-smelling than a carcass and hotter than fire. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil"]

Describing the "Dari", Allāh says that it "will neither nourish nor alleviate hunger." Sayyidina Abu Dardā رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the hunger that the people of Hell will suffer will be so extreme that it will equal the other forms of punishment in Hell. When they will plead for food, they will be given Dari to eat, which will neither provide nutrition nor satisfy their hunger. When they plead for food a second time, they will be given 'food that gets stuck in the throat'. In an effort to get the food down their throats, they will recall that in this world they used to drink something in such a situation. They will then plead for something to drink. Boiling water will be given to them suspended on iron hooks. The water will be so hot that when it is brought close to their faces, their faces will be scalded. When they drink it, it will tear their innards to bits. ["Mishkāt" p. 504]

After describing the punishment of the disbelievers, Allāh speaks about the bounties that the believers will enjoy in the Hereafter. Allāh says, "Many faces on that day will be resplendent." Because these people obeyed Allāh in this world, they will be exuberant on the Day of Judgment. Allāh describes them in Surah Mutaffifin with the words: "You will recognise the resplendence of bounties on their faces." [Surah 83, verse 24]

These fortunate believers 'shall be pleased with their efforts'. They will be pleased with the good deeds they exerted themselves to do in the world because they will see the fruits in the Hereafter. They will be enjoying themselves "in the lofty gardens of Heaven where they shall not hear futile talk." Heaven shall have nothing unpleasant. Neither will one see anything unpleasant, nor hear anything unpleasant. There will be no noise and shouting in Heaven, nor any talk that is futile or sinful. Allāh says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "They will not hear any noise there nor any foolish talk. Instead they will hear the resonant call of 'Peace 'Peace'." [Surah 56, verses 25,26]

Describing Heaven further, Allāh says, "In Heaven there are flowing springs. Besides drinking the pure waters of these springs, the people of Heaven will also enjoy looking at them and hearing them. Details of the springs of Heaven have been discussed in Surah Dahar [Surah 76, verses 6 & 18] and Surah Mutaffifin [Surah 83, verses 27,28]."

Allāh continues, "In Heaven there are elevated thrones, cups set in place, cushions arranged in rows and carpets spread out." Surah Wāqī'ah [Surah 56, verses 18 & 34] discusses the cups and thrones of Heaven while Surah Dahar mentions, "Utensils of silver will be brought to them as well as glasses of crystal, such crystal that is of silver, which those filling will fill by an appropriate measure." [Surah 76, verses 15,16]

أَفَلَا يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَى الْإِلَهِ كَيْفَ خَلَقَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَإِلَى السَّمَاءِ كَيْفَ رُفِعَتْ ﴿١٨﴾ وَإِلَى الْجِبَالِ
كَيْفَ نُصِبَتْ ﴿١٩﴾ وَإِلَى الْأَرْضِ كَيْفَ سُطِحَتْ ﴿٢٠﴾

(17) Have they not looked at the camel and seen how it was created? (18) And at the sky, how it was raised? (19) And at the mountains, how they were placed firmly? (20) And at the earth, how it was spread out?

Because the disbelievers were astonished to hear about the magnificent bounties of Heaven, Allāh Ta'āla encourages them to think about certain natural phenomena which make Allāh's might manifest. Allāh Ta'āla encourages man to ponder about four things. Allāh asks, "Have they not looked at the camel and seen how it was created?" The Arabs were used to camels and used them daily. They used camels in their fields, for transport and for domestic purposes.

Camels are extremely robust and durable animals. They can subsist on a diet of thorny trees and can carry large loads. Camels can survive for up to a week without water and are so obedient that even a little child can lead them along anywhere. Allāh has also created camels in an extremely unique manner so that they are perfectly adapted to survive the hazards of the harsh desert climate. Although the elephant is a much larger animal than the camel, Allāh has mentioned the camel instead of the elephant because the first addressees of the Qur'an (the Arabs) knew camels and scarcely saw an elephant. Camels were also very valuable to them.

Allāh then speaks about some of His other creations when He asks whether have not looked "at the sky, (and seen) how it was raised? And at the mountains, how they were placed firmly? And at the earth, how it was spread out?" All these splendid creations of Allāh are in front of man and they indicate Allāh's tremendous power. By studying these, man can realise Allāh's great power and will know that Allāh is perfectly Capable of creating the bounties of Heaven that have been mentioned.

The author of "Bayānul Qur'an" writes that Allāh has specifically mentioned the above four phenomena because the Arabs were often travelling through the desert. In such a situation, all they saw were the camels they travelled on, the sky above them, the mountains around them and the earth beneath them.

فَذَكِّرْ إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُذَكِّرٌ ﴿٢١﴾ لَسْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِمُصَيِّرٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ تَوَلَّى وَكَفَرَ ﴿٢٣﴾
فَعَذَابُ اللَّهِ الْعَذَابُ الْأَكْبَرُ ﴿٢٤﴾ إِنَّ إِلَيْنَا إِيَابَهُمْ ﴿٢٥﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا حِسَابَهُمْ ﴿٢٦﴾

- (21) So give advice, for you are an advisor. (22) You have not been appointed as a warder over them. (23) However, the one who turns away and disbelieves...
(24) ... Allāh shall punish him most severely. (25) Verily they shall return to us.
(26) Thereafter, it is Our responsibility to take their reckoning.

Allāh reminds man about the advent of Judgment Day and warns the disbelievers of a dreadful punishment. Whoever does not believe will have to face the consequences of his deeds and no blame may be pinned on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, because of his overwhelming concern for his Ummah, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to become extremely grieved when people refused to accept Islām. Therefore, Allāh said to him, "So give advice, for you are an advisor. You have not been appointed as a warder over them" i.e. your responsibility is only to preach the message and not to force people to believe. Whoever believed after the message reached him, shall be successful. "However, the one who turns away and disbelieves, Allāh shall punish him most severely." He will be unable to escape Allāh's punishment.

Allāh concludes the Surah by reminding man of his ultimate end when He says, "Verily they shall return to us. Thereafter, it is Our responsibility to take their reckoning."

سورة الفجر

Makkan	Surah Fajr	Verses 30
--------	------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالْفَجْرِ ① وَلَيَالٍ عَشْرٍ ② وَالشَّفْعِ وَالْوَتْرِ ③ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَسْرِ ④ هَلْ فِي ذَلِكَ قَسَمٌ لِّذِي حِجْرِ ⑤ أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِعَادٍ ⑥ إِرَمَ ذَاتِ الْعِمَادِ ⑦ الَّتِي لَمْ يُخْلَقْ مِثْلُهَا فِي الْبِلَادِ ⑧ وَتُمُودَ الَّذِينَ جَابُوا الصَّخِرَ بِالْوَادِ ⑨ وَفِرْعَوْنَ ذِي الْأَوْدَادِ ⑩ الَّذِينَ طَغَوْا فِي الْبِلَادِ ⑪ فَأَكْثَرُوا فِيهَا الْفَسَادَ ⑫ فَصَبَّ عَلَيْهِمْ رَبُّكَ سَوْطَ عَذَابٍ ⑬ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَبِالْمِرْصَادِ ⑭

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the dawn! (2) By the ten nights! (3) By the even and the odd! (4) By the night when it departs! (5) Is there not an oath in this for the intelligent? (6) Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the Ād... (7) ...the people of Iram, who were people of pillars? (8) The likes of them were not created in the lands. (9) (Have you not also seen how your Lord dealt) with the Thamūd who used to carve the rocks of the valley? (10) And (have you not also seen how your Lord dealt) with Phara'oh (Fir'oun), the man of stakes? (11) These people transgressed in the lands... (12) ... and caused tremendous anarchy. (13) So your Lord rained the whip of punishment on them. (14) Verily your Lord is Ever Vigilant.

These opening verses of Surah Fajr recount the incidents of certain nations of the past that were destroyed when they refused to believe in Allāh and His Prophets عليهم السلام. These are mentioned so that people learn lessons from them. As in many other Surahs, Allāh emphasises the subject matter by taking a few oaths. Allāh asserts, "By the dawn!" Allāh takes a similar oath in Surah Takwir where He says, "by the morning when it takes a breath." [Surah 81, verse 18]

Allāh continues, "By the ten nights!" Here Allāh refers to the first ten nights of Dhul Hijjah, as substantiated by a Hadith that Sayyidina Jābir رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Zubayr رضى الله عنه have also forwarded this interpretation.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Good deeds are more beloved to Allāh during the ten days of Dhul Hijjah than during any other time." Surprised, the prophet's companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Are the deeds of these days even better than Jihād during any other time?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Yes, they are even better than Jihād, unless a person goes out in Jihād and sacrifices his life and wealth against the enemy without returning with anything." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 132]

Allāh says further, "By the even and the odd!" Tirmidhi reports from Sayyidina Imrān bin Husain رضى الله عنه that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked about the meaning of "the even and the odd", he replied that they refer to Salāh. While the number of Rakāhs of some Salāhs is even (two or four), others are odd viz, one Rakāh of Witr and three Rakāhs of Maghrib. However, this narration is not absolutely authentic because one of the narrators is unknown.

Commentators have mentioned that "even" refers to everything created in pairs while "odd" refers to everything that is not paired. "Durrul Manthūr" reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that "odd" refers to Allāh Who is One and "even" refers to everything else. Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that Allāh has created everything in pairs. With the earth, Allāh has created the sky; with land, the oceans; with man, Jinn; with male, female; with the sun, the moon; etc. Only Allāh is One without a partner.

Allāh continues, "By the night when it departs!" This oath is similar to that on Surah Takwīr where Allāh says, "And (I swear by) the night when it departs!" [Surah 81, verse 17]

After taking these oaths, Allāh says, "Is there not an oath in this for the intelligent?" i.e. are these oaths not sufficient for the intelligent? These oaths are taken to strengthen an assertion that is implied though not stated. The assertion is: "Those who adamantly reject the message of Islām are inviting Allāh's punishment to themselves and will be destroyed just as the people of previous nations were destroyed when they rejected the message of their Anbiya (Prophets) عليهم السلام."

Addressing every reader of the Qur'ān, Allāh says, "Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the Ād, the people (descendants) of (a man named) Iram, who were people (who had the stature) of pillars?" Some commentators state that the Ād are called "people of pillars" because they would travel outdoors with their tents and pitch these by tying them to pillars wherever they found greenery. They would return to their homes only once the greenery disappeared. "Ruhul Ma'āni" states that Iram was the son of Sām, the son of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. Sām had two grandsons, Ibn Āsi and Ād, the progeny of whom were the nation of Ād.

Allāh says about the Ād, "The likes of them were not created in the lands." Allāh gave the Ād such strength that He had not given to any other nation. In fact, they were so powerful that they became proud and used to say, "Who can be more powerful than us?" However, Allāh soon punished them with a windstorm that lasted seven nights and eight days.

The story of the Ād has already recounted in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 65-72], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 50-60], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 123-140], Surah HāMīm Sajdah [Surah 41, verses 13-16], Surah Qamar [Surah 54, verses 18-22] and Surah Hāqqah [Surah 69, verses 6-8].

Allāh continues, "(Have you not also seen how your Lord dealt) with the Thamūd who used to carve the rocks of the valley (of Qura)?" The Thamūd lived somewhere between Hijāz and Shām and their settlement is referred to as Wadi Qura (The Valley of Qura) or Hijr. Allāh Ta'āla sent Sayyidah Sālih عليه السلام as a Nabi (prophet) to them. Allāh says about them in Surah Hijr, "The people of Hijr denied the messengers. Our signs came to them, yet they ignored these. They used to carve homes out of the mountains, living in great peace. A scream seized them during the morning and whatever they earned was of no avail to them." [Surah 15, verses 80-84]

The details of the Thamūd are discussed in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 73-79], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 6 1-68], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 14 1-159], Surah Naml [Surah 27, verses 45-53], Surah HāMīm Sajdah [Surah 41, verses 17-18], Surah Qamar [Surah 54, verses 23-32] and Surah Hāqqah [Surah 69, verses 4-5].

The homes they carved from the mountains are still visible today. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and His Companions (the Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم passed by these ruins, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم covered his head and hurried his camel. He instructed His Companions (the Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم to weep as they passed so that it should never happen that they are afflicted by the same punishment.

Allāh continues, "And (have you not also seen how your Lord dealt) with Phara'oh (Fir'oun), the man of stakes?" Phara'oh (Fir'oun) and his army were destroyed by Allāh's punishment just as the Ād and Thamūd were destroyed, although in a different manner. Commentators state that phara'oh (Fir'oun) was called "the man of stakes" because he used to hammer four stakes into the ground and tie people to these so that they could be tortured. Others state that he used to hammer stakes into their hands and feet as they lay on the ground. Yet another group of commentators state that the title refers to his large army. Wherever his army camped, many tents had to be erected, all needing stakes to support them. Because of the large number of stakes used, his army is referred to as 'stakes'. An explanation of this has been given in the commentary of verse 12 of Surah Sād (Surah 38).

"These people [the Ād, Thamūd and phara'oh (Fir'oun)] transgressed in the lands and caused tremendous anarchy." They disobeyed the Prophets عليهم السلام, adamantly clung to disbelief and polytheism and oppressed others. As a result, "your Lord rained the whip of punishment on them." This verse tells us that the punishment that these nations received was similar to the situation when someone inflicts a series of lashes across the back of a criminal. Just as the lashes are continuous, the series of punishments also came to them continuously. Eventually, they were annihilated.

"Verily your Lord is Ever Vigilant." No deed of a person escapes Allāh's knowledge. No person should think that he is exempt from punishment because he can be afflicted by the same punishment that destroyed the former nations. One may visualise the disbeliever/sinner as a criminal on the run. Just as the police commission an extremely vigilant squad to lie in wait on a road that the criminal has to pass, Allāh is waiting for the disbeliever/sinner to pass the road of this world leading to the Hereafter. It is only a matter of time before he is caught and taken to task.

فَإِنَّمَا الْإِنْسَانُ إِذَا مَا ابْنَلَهُ رَبُّهُ فَأَكْرَمَهُ وَنَعَّمَهُ فَيَقُولُ رَبِّي أَكْرَمَنِ ﴿١٥﴾ وَإِنَّمَا إِذَا مَا ابْنَلَهُ فَقَدَّرَ عَلَيْهِ رِزْقَهُ فَيَقُولُ رَبِّي أَهْنَنِ ﴿١٦﴾

(15) As for man, when his Lord tries him by granting him honour and favours, he says, "My Lord has honoured me. (16) However, when He tries him by constraining his sustenance, he says, "My Lord has disgraced me!"

These two verses speak about how Allāh tests man in this world. These verses also reveal the psychology of man. Allāh sometimes tests man by granting him abundant wealth and sometimes Allāh tests him by reducing his wealth. When blessed with plenty of wealth, man ought to express his gratitude to Allāh by spending the wealth as Allāh wants him to. On the other hand, when Allāh tests people with poverty, they ought to exercise patience and continue obeying Allāh's commands without complaining. Unfortunately, most people succumb to their baser instincts and, when tested with abundant wealth, they become proud and haughty because they think that their wealth is a personal achievement. They fail to realise that their wealth is a test for them from Allāh. Most of those tested with poverty also fail the test when they complain and flout Allāh's commands in a desperate effort earn something.

One should bear in mind that being wealthy does not necessarily mean that one is enjoying a favourable status with Allāh. By the same token, being poor does not mean that Allāh dislikes one. It is for this reason that there are rich and poor disbelievers just as there are rich and poor Muslims.

Commentators mention that these two verses are linked to the previous verses to indicate that instead of learning lessons from the destruction of the previous nations and repenting, man's ungrateful nature prevents him from doing this. Therefore, instead of reforming, he becomes worse.

كَلَّا بَلْ لَا تُكْرِمُونَ الْيَتِيمَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَلَا تَحْضُونَ عَلَى طَعَامِ الْمَسْكِينِ ﴿١٨﴾ وَتَأْكُلُونَ الثَّرَاثَ أَكْلًا لَمًّا ﴿١٩﴾ وَتُحِبُّونَ أَلْمَالَ حُبًّا جَمًّا ﴿٢٠﴾

(17) Never! Instead, you do not honour the orphan... (18) do not encourage feeding of the poor... (19) ... devour inheritance with relish... (20) ... and love wealth with a very deep love.

Allāh asserts, "Never!" i.e. man's ideas are correct. Wealth does not indicate acceptance in Allāh's sight and poverty does not indicate rejection. Allāh then describes man's love for wealth when He says, "Instead, you do not honour the orphan, do not encourage feeding of the poor, devour inheritance with relish, and love wealth with a very deep love." Besides not assisting the needy, some people do not even encourage others to do the same. When someone passes away, they devour angels pulling each bridle.

When man will realise the error of his ways in the Hereafter, it will be too late because this understanding has to be realised in this world. This world is the place where Belief and good deeds will profit one. The Hereafter is the place only for reckoning and retribution. Taubah (repentance) will not be accepted there. When a person will face the devastation in the hereafter, he will lament, "Oh dear! If only I had sent deeds ahead for my life!" He will then realise that he ought to have carried out good deeds and refrained from sin in this world to be saved from punishment in the Hereafter. He will refer to the life of the Hereafter as "my life" because it is an eternal life. Because of its transient nature, one can hardly refer to the life of this world as "my life".

Allāh continues, "So on that day, none shall punish like Allāh's punishment and none shall fasten like Allāh fastens." Before the Day of Judgment, none shall have experienced such severe punishment or such rigorous imprisonment. Allāh says in Surah Saba, "We will place yokes upon the necks of the disbelievers." A verse of Surah Mu'min reads: "They shall soon come to know when yokes will be placed around their necks, as well as chains."

Allāh will give glad tidings to the pious believers saying, "O contented soul! Return happily to (the bounties of) your Lord while He is pleased with you." Not only will the pious soul be happy with what it will receive, it will enjoy the ultimate pleasure of knowing that Allāh is pleased with it. Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه states that Allāh will address the soul with these words when the person passes away and again on the Day of Judgment.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when the angel of death comes to take the soul of a pious believer, he addresses it thus, "O pure soul that is in a pure body! Rejoice with Allāh's bounty and sustenance and rejoice with the knowledge that your Lord is not angry with you."

Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم taught the following du'ā (supplication) to someone:

O Allāh! I implore You for a contented soul that is convinced about meeting You, is pleased with 'Your decision and content with what You give.'

This supplication describes a few qualities of the "contented soul". These are:

1. 'The soul is convinced that it will meet Allāh. When one has this conviction, one will ensure that one carries out every deed properly. In this manner, one will be composed whenever one engages in any act of Ibādah (worship).'

2. 'The soul is also pleased with whatever Allāh decides in or against its favour. 'This is another great source of contentment.'

3. The soul is content with whatever Allāh gives one. One is then not greedy for what one does not have, one does not commit sins when earning wealth and does not neglect the duties one owes to Allāh when earning. With these traits, one will be able to refrain from all types of sin.

Addressing the "contented soul" further Allāh will say, "Enter among My bondsmen and enter My Heaven." Man is a social creature and cannot bear solitude. Allāh will therefore allow him to be among others in Heaven. In Heaven, he will be able to meet others like him and live peacefully there. Concerning the people of Heaven, Allāh says in Surah Hijr, "We shall remove any animosity that may be in their breasts. As brothers they will be seated on couches, facing each other." [Surah 15, verse 47]

Allāh says in Surah Tūr [Surah 52, verse 23], "There they will pass around a cup in which there is no absurd talk and no sin." They will pass a cup of drink around for enjoyment not because of any shortage. There will be no malice or rancour in their hearts, which will be filled with love and compassion for each other. Their enjoyment will be complete without fearing any ill-feelings from another person.

سورة البلد

Makkan

Surah Balad

Verses 20

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

لَا أُقْسِمُ بِهَذَا الْبَلَدِ ۚ وَأَنْتَ حِلٌّ بِهَذَا الْبَلَدِ ۚ وَالْوَالِدِ وَمَا وَلَدَ ۚ لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا
الْإِنْسَانَ فِي كَبَدٍ ۚ أَيَحْسَبُ أَنْ لَنْ يَقْدِرَ عَلَيْهِ أَحَدٌ ۚ يَقُولُ أَهْلَكْتُ مَالًا لُبَدًا ۚ
أَيَحْسَبُ أَنْ لَمْ يَرَهُ أَحَدٌ ۚ أَلَمْ نَجْعَلْ لَهُ عَيْنَيْنِ ۚ وَلِسَانًا وَشَفَتَيْنِ ۚ
وَهَدَيْنَاهُ النَّجْدَيْنِ ۚ

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) I swear by this city... (2) ...and you shall be free (of restrictions) in this city.
(3) (I swear) by the father and offspring! (4.) We have certainly created man in toil. (5) Does man think that none shall ever have power over him? (6) He says,
"I have wasted wealth in abundance." (7) Does he think that none sees him? (8)
Have We not given him two eyes... (9) .... a tongue, two lips... (10) ...and showed him the two paths?

Allāh Ta'āla swears oaths by the city of Makkah and "by the father [Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام] and (his) offspring (mankind)!" These oaths are taken to emphasise that "We have certainly created man in toil." When this Surah was revealed, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was still living in Makkah. At that time, he was still suffering the persecution of the polytheists.

Even the polytheists regarded Makkah to be a sacred place in which no fighting and killing should take place. By taking an oath by Makkah, Allāh honours its sanctity. Between the two oaths, Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "and you shall be free (of restrictions) in this city (Makkah)." This verse foretold that a time will come when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would enter Makkah as a conqueror and that Allāh would free him from the restrictions of the city by permitting him to execute certain people. Consequently, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم marched with His Companions (the Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم into Makkah during the 8th year after Hijrah, amnesty was granted to a large number of polytheists who had perpetrated atrocities against the Muslims.
However, there were some people whom the prophet's companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم were commanded to execute. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then said,

"Verily, Allāh made Makkah a Haram (sacred, i.e. a place where no killing should take place) the day He created the heavens and the earth. None was given freedom (to execute) before me and none shall ever have this freedom after me. This freedom was granted to me for only a portion of the day. It will now remain sacred by the decree of Allāh until Judgment Day i.e. killing will not be permitted in Makkah until Judgment Day."
 ["Mishkāt" p. 237]

Allāh says, "We have certainly created man in toil." Man is the best of Allāh's creation. Together with granting him honour, Allāh also tests man with many trials and hardships. Together with tending to his many needs and necessities, man faces many other difficulties in his life. Man has to ensure that he makes an effort to feed and clothe himself and his family. In addition to this, illnesses and calamities afflict him. Despite this, he has to continue earning a living and tending to his many responsibilities.

To feed himself, man has to till the land, plant the seeds and still ensure that the fields receive sufficient water and care. After caring for his crops and guarding them against pest hence, the crops are finally ready for harvesting. However, man's work does not end here. He still has to harvest the crop, thresh it (if it is a grain), store it and grind it into flour. Thereafter the flour has to be prepared and baked into bread before he can eat it. After eating the food, the waste has to be excreted. If he is suffering from constipation, he will have to seek medical assistance so that his stomach works. On the other hand, if he is suffering from diarrhoea, he will also need to have it treated.

If a person does not marry, he will have difficulty. If he does marry, he will have to exert himself to provide for his wife and children. He will have to worry about raising the children properly and he will have to share all their pains and experiences. The above are just as few of the myriad of difficulties that a person faces in his life. If one ponders about it, one will be able to enumerate many more. Besides these difficulties, there are numerous tasks that the Shari'ah demands from a person. One has to forsake one's sleep and occupation for Salāh, endure hunger and thirst to fast, give a portion of one's wealth in Zakāh and spend one's wealth to perform Hajj. These are responsibilities that man is entrusted with and from which the other creation are exempt.

If one fulfils all these responsibilities and endures all the difficulties of life to please Allāh, one will be greatly rewarded in the Hereafter. However, the person who does all of this for worldly motives will have no share of rewards in the Hereafter. In addition to this, if one commits sins, one will have to face punishment there.

When afflicted with difficulties, man's attitude should be that everything is from Allāh. He should continue being obedient to Allāh and he should turn to Allāh all the time. This is accomplished by making supplication to Allāh and engaging in acts of Ibādah (worship). However, the opposite usually takes place. Instead of turning to Allāh, people violate His commands and seem to have no fear of reckoning. Referring to this attitude, Allāh asks, "Does man think that none shall ever have power over him?" Man appears to think that he is free to do as he pleases without fearing that he is being watched and that Allāh has the power to take him to task for his deeds. He fails to realise that Allāh gave him the power he wields and that Allāh has power over everything.

In this manner, man becomes haughty and extravagant and even has the audacity to boast, "I have wasted wealth in abundance." He does not realise that he spent his wealth in avenues that are displeasing to Allāh. It appears as if he thinks that none is watching him. Therefore, Allāh asks, "Does he think that none sees him?" Allāh is watching man all the time. The Tafsir "Jalālayn" reveals that one of the disbelievers spent a great amount of wealth to oppose Islām and boasted about this saying, "I have wasted wealth in abundance." Allāh warns such people that He is ever Watchful over them and He will take them to task for the wrong they do.

Allāh continues, "Have We not given him two eyes, a tongue, two lips and showed him the two paths (of good and evil),?" Allāh has given man his limbs and other physical qualities, all of which are invaluable aids for him and they also add to his beauty. Man ought to express gratitude for all of this by using these limbs to carry out deeds pleasing to Allāh. In this manner, he will be securing his success in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh has shown man the way to attain salvation as well as the path to destruction. The choice is man's. The intelligent man will opt for the path of salvation by fulfilling Allāh's commands and the teachings of the Prophets عليهم السلام. He will accept Allāh's authority, invest all he has for the Hereafter and ensure that he treats Allāh's creation well.

فَلَا أَقْنَحَمَ الْعَقَبَةَ ﴿١١﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْعَقَبَةُ ﴿١٢﴾ فَكُ رَقَبَةً ﴿١٣﴾ أَوْ إِطْعَمْتُ فِي يَوْمٍ ذِي
مَسْغَبَةٍ ﴿١٤﴾ يَتِيمًا ذَا مَقْرَبَةٍ ﴿١٥﴾ أَوْ مِسْكِينًا ذَا مَتْرَبَةٍ ﴿١٦﴾ ثُمَّ كَانَ مِنَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا
وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالصَّبْرِ وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالرَّحْمَةِ ﴿١٧﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْمُنَنَّةِ ﴿١٨﴾ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يَتَابِعُنَا هُمْ
أَصْحَابُ الْمَشْئَمَةِ ﴿١٩﴾ عَلَيْهِمْ نَارٌ مُّؤَصَّدَةٌ ﴿٢٠﴾

(11) For what reason does man not emerge from the abyss? (12) What will inform you what (emerging from) the abyss entails? (13) It is the emancipation of slaves... (14) ...or, on a day of hunger, feeding... (15) ..... an orphaned relative... (16) .....or a dust-covered destitute. (17) Man will then become of those who believe, those who enjoin each other to be patient and those who enjoin each other to be compassionate. (18) These are the people of the right. (19) Those who reject Our verses are certainly the people of the left. (20) The Fire will be shut over them.

A believer has many responsibilities. While some of these are voluntary, others are obligatory. Referring to these, Allāh asks, "For what reason does man not emerge from the abyss?" i.e. why does man not spend his wealth to emerge from the abyss in which he is constantly fighting his Nafs (carnalself) and satan. This unending struggle of man in which he strives to fulfil Allāh's commands is compared to a deep abyss from which one struggles to emerge. Allāh then asks,

"What will inform you (O listener) what (emerging from) the abyss entails?" Allāh Ta'āla then presents three examples of deeds that will remove him from the abyss so that he can win the battle against his Nafs and Satan.

The first is "the emancipation of slaves". This entails setting slaves free irrespective of whether the act is done voluntarily or because one is compelled to as in the case of Kaffārah (expiation). Also included in the ambit of freeing slaves are "Kitābah" and "Tadbīr". The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that when a person frees a slave, every limb of the person that corresponds with a limb of the slave will be freed from the fire of Hell.

Sayyidina Barā bin Āzib رضى الله عنه reports that a villager once came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and asked what deed could admit him into Heaven. the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Free a soul and emancipate a slave." "But are the two not the same thing?" enquired the man. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "No Freeing a soul means that you free a slave all by yourself and emancipating a slave means that you assist in paying his price (e.g. helping a Mukātab slave pay his price for freedom). Also among the deeds that will admit you into Heaven is that you give someone an animal that gives a lot of milk or that you behave politely with a cruel relative. If you cannot do this, then feed the hungry, give water to the thirsty, enjoin good and prevent evil. If you cannot do this even, then use your tongue for nothing except good words." ["Mishkāt" p. 294]

The second and third deeds to remove one from the "abyss" in "on a day of hunger, feeding an orphaned relative" and feeding "a dust-covered destitute". The destitute person referred to in the verse is someone who has absolutely nothing and has to sleep on the bare ground, causing his body to be covered in dust.

Allāh states further that when man will do this, "Man will then become of those who believe, those who enjoin each other to be patient and those who enjoin each other to be compassionate." Imān (belief) is the most important deed because no good deed is accepted without it. Allāh adds that enjoining each other to be patient is an essential trait of belief. The word "sabr" (translated above as "patience") refers to remaining steadfast in performing good deeds, refraining from sin as well as exercising patience when afflicted with any difficulty. As explained in other verses (such as verse 153 of Surah Baqarah), the word "sabr" entails all these three meanings. Another requirement of belief is that a person encourages others to show compassion towards the rest of creation.

About such people Allāh declares, "These are the people of the right" i.e. the people who will receive their record of deeds in their right hands and who are promised Heaven. (Verses 27 to 38 of Surah Wāqī'ah (Surah 56) detail the bounties that "the people of the right" will receive in Heaven). On the other hand, "Those who reject Our verses are certainly the people of the left. The Fire will be shut over them." These people will receive their records of deeds in their left hands and will be doomed to Hell. When entered into Hell, the doors of Hell will be shut and they will be unable to escape. (Verses 41 to 56 of Surah Wāqī'ah describe "the people of the left").

سورة الشمس

Makkan

Surah Shams

Verses 15

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالشَّمْسِ وَضُحَاهَا ﴿١﴾ وَالْقَمَرِ إِذَا تَلَّهَا ﴿٢﴾ وَالنَّهَارِ إِذَا جَلَّهَا ﴿٣﴾ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَغْشَاهَا ﴿٤﴾ وَالسَّمَاءِ وَمَا بَنَاهَا ﴿٥﴾ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا طَرَاهَا ﴿٦﴾ وَنَفْسٍ وَمَا سَوَّاهَا ﴿٧﴾ فَأَلَمَّهَا فَجُورُهَا وَتَقْوَاهَا ﴿٨﴾ قَدْ أَفْلَحَ مَنْ زَكَّاهَا ﴿٩﴾ وَقَدْ خَابَ مَنْ دَسَّاهَا ﴿١٠﴾ كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ بِطَغْوَاهَا ﴿١١﴾ إِذِ انْبَعَثَ أَشْقَاهَا ﴿١٢﴾ فَقَالَ لَهُمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ نَاقَةَ اللَّهِ وَسُقْيَاهَا ﴿١٣﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَفَعَرَوْهَا فَكَدَّمَ عَلَىهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ بِذَنبِهِمْ فَسَوَّاهَا ﴿١٤﴾ وَلَا يَخَافُ عِقَابَهَا ﴿١٥﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the sun and its light! (2) By the moon when it follows the sun! (3) By the day when it illuminates it! (4) By the night when it conceals the sun! (5) By the sky and the One Who created it! (6) By the earth and the One Who spread it out! (7) By the soul and the One Who perfected it... (8) ... and then inspired it with what entails sin and what entails piety. (9) Undoubtedly, the one who purified it has succeeded... (10) .. and the one who soiled it has certainly failed. (11) The Thamūd falsified because of their rebelliousness. (12) When the worst of them stood up... (13) ...the messenger of Allāh warned them, "Do not interfere with the camel of Allāh and its drinking." (14) However, they denied him and killed the camel So their Lord annihilated them because of their sins and made their destruction widespread. (15) ....Allāh does not fear the consequences.

Allāh begins this Surah by taking several oaths. Allāh says, "By the sun and its light! By the moon when it follows the sun!" The moon following the sun is seen clearly during the middle of the lunar months when the full moon rises to dominate the sky with its radiance after sunset. The moon then remains the light of the sky until sunrise.

Allāh continues, "By the day when it illuminates it!" Some commentators state that the pronoun "it" refers to the sun. Therefore, they say that a metaphorical relationship is drawn here between the sun and the day. Although the sun is usually regarded as the cause for the day, here the day is said to illuminate the sun. Such metaphorical relationships are commonly used in Arabic. Other commentators state that the pronoun "it" refers to the earth. Although the earth is not mentioned earlier in the verses of this Surah, Arabs commonly refer to a familiar phenomenon like the earth by simply using a pronoun without making prior reference to the phenomenon. The addressee then understands the meaning by implication. The implied text will therefore be: "By the earth and the day when it (the day) illuminates it (the earth)."

"By the night when it conceals the sun!" When night sets in, the light of the sun is concealed and only darkness prevails.

"By the sky and the One Who created it! By the earth and the One Who spread it out! By the soul (of man) and the One Who perfected it..." Commentators mention that Allāh is referring to the perfection of the body of man in which He placed the soul. Together with the perfect physical body, Allāh has also granted man his senses and the faculties of perception and intelligence.

After creating the perfect form of man, Allāh "then inspired it (the soul) with what entails sin and what entails piety." Allāh granted mankind the intelligence to recognise Him as their Lord and He also gave them the physical strength to worship Him. Therefore, man is obliged to worship Allāh Alone. However, because the life of this world is a test for man, man is also exposed to evil and sin, as Allāh says in Surah Balad that He has "showed him (man) the two paths" i.e. the path of good and the path of evil. Man has therefore been granted the ability to do good as well as the ability to commit sin. Man therefore has the option to refrain from sin and to engage in good.

Allāh takes the above oaths to emphasise that "Undoubtedly, the one who purified it (his soul) has succeeded..." All the phenomena by which Allāh has taken oaths are in front of man and he sees each of them. It is therefore up to him to ponder about these and to realise that only Allāh controls all of them. When man recognises the great power of Allāh, he will naturally obey Allāh's commands and refrain from displeasing Him. Man will then make an effort to embellish his soul with good habits and rid it of evil character. When this is achieved, he will be on the path of salvation. Allāh says in Surah Nūr, "The successful ones are those who obey Allāh and His apostle, who fear Allāh and do not disobey Him." [Surah 24, verse 52]

On the other hand, "the one who soiled it (his soul) has certainly failed." The Arabic word "dassā" (translated above as "soiled") actually means "to cover" or "to conceal". Commentators state that in this context the word refers to covering the soul with the filth of disbelief and polytheism so that the lights of belief and good deeds are extinguished.

Among the many supplication that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to make, one of them was:

O Allāh! Imbue my soul with piety and purify it, for verily You are the best to purify it. You are its Patron and Protecting Friend?

Allāh Ta'āla then speaks of the nation of Thamūd when He says, "The Thamūd falsified because of their rebelliousness." Because they were a rebellious nation, they falsified Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام. They told him to prove his apostleship by producing a pregnant camel from the mountain. When this miracle took place before their eyes, only a few of them believed it. Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام said to them, "This is the camel. It will have a day to drink and your animals will have an appointed day to drink. Do not touch it with evil intentions, for then the punishment of a grave day will afflict you." However, they did not take heed and plotted to kill the camel. Referring to this, Allāh says, "When the worst of them stood up, the messenger of Allāh warned them, 'Do not interfere with the camel of Allāh and its drinking.' Notwithstanding the warning, 'they denied him and killed the camel.'" Not only did they kill the camel but they even said to Sayyidina Sālih عليه السلام, "O Sālih! Bring upon us that which you threaten us with if you are really from the messengers." As a result, "their Lord annihilated them because of their sins and made their destruction widespread" i.e. Allāh's punishment afflicted all of them and none was left alive. The Thamūd were destroyed by an earthquake and a scream from the sky.

The details of the Thamūd are discussed in Surah A'rāf [Surah 7, verses 73-79], Surah Hūd [Surah 11, verses 61-68], Surah Shu'arā [Surah 26, verses 141-159], Surah Naml [Surah 27, verses 45-53], Surah HāMīm Sajdah [Surah 41, verses 17-18], Surah Qamar [Surah 54, verses 23-32] and Surah Hāqqah [Surah 69, verses 4-5].

"Allāh does not fear the consequences." Rulers of the world hesitate to punish people for their wrongs because they fear that the criminals or their tribes or families may revolt, thereby threatening the government. Allāh has no such fears and has the power to punish people as and when He pleases. Man should therefore be wary that he does not displease Allāh.

سورة الليل

Makkan

Surah Layl

Verses 21

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَغْشَى ① وَالنَّهَارِ إِذَا تَجَلَّى ② وَمَا خَلَقَ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَى ③ إِنَّ سَعْيَكُمْ لَشَتَّى ④
فَأَمَّا مَنْ أَعْطَى وَانْفَكَّى ⑤ وَصَدَقَ بِالْحَسَنَى ⑥ فَسَنِيسِرُّهُ لِلْعُسْرَى ⑦ وَأَمَّا مَنْ يَخْلُ وَاسْتَغْنَى ⑧
وَكَذَّبَ بِالْحَسَنَى ⑨ فَسَنِيسِرُّهُ لِلْعُسْرَى ⑩ وَمَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُ مَالُهُ إِذَا تَرَدَّى ⑪ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا
لَلْهُدَى ⑫ وَإِنَّ لَنَا لَلْآخِرَةَ وَالْأُولَى ⑬

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the night when it covers! (2) By the day when it illuminates! (3) By the One Who created male and female! (4) Verily your efforts are varied. (5) As for the one who gives, who fears Allāh... (6) ..... and who believes in the most beautiful word... (7) .... We shall make it easy for him to adopt the traits of comfort. (8) As for the one who is miserly and indifferent... (9) ...and who rejects the most beautiful word... (10) ... We shall make it easy for him to adopt the traits of grief. (11) His wealth will not benefit him when he falls to destruction. (12) Verily, guidance is Our responsibility... (13) ...and the Hereafter and the world are in Our control.

Allāh commences with three oaths. Allāh says, "By the night when it covers! By the day when it illuminates! By the One Who created male and female!" These three oaths are taken to emphasise that "Verily your efforts are varied". The above three oaths are taken because humans are either male or female and the deeds of these two categories are carried out either by day or by night. However, these deeds are extremely diverse.

The people of the world consist of Muslims and disbelievers, each group having people who are either good or evil. Allāh will judge these deeds on the day of Judgment and each person will receive what is due to him. Sayyidina Abu Mālik Ash'ari رضى الله عنه narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Each morning people go to work and keep themselves busy. They either emancipate themselves (from Hell) or destroy themselves (by sinning)." [Muslims v. 1 p. 118]

Allāh Ta'ala then classifies the deeds of man as either good or evil when He says, "As for the one who gives (charity), who fears Allāh and who believes in the most beautiful word (i.e. in the Kalimah "Lā Ilāha Illallāh"), We shall make it easy for him to adopt the traits of comfort (Imān and good deeds). As for the one who is miserly and indifferent and who rejects the most beautiful word, We shall make it easy for him to adopt the traits of grief" i.e. because of these traits he will suffer grief and misery in both worlds. Some commentators have interpreted "Al Husna" (translated above as "the most beautiful word") as Heaven.

Every person carries out deeds in his life because this world is a place of deeds. These deeds vary according to the type and nature of every person. As people keep changing, so as their deeds. One will often find evil people becoming good, good people becoming evil, disbelievers becoming Muslims and vice versa. This process continues in this world. However, in the Hereafter, every person will belong only to one of the two groups and he cannot change groups.

Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said, "The final abode of each of you has already been fixed in Heaven and in Hell." The Companions (of the prophet) رضى الله عنهم asked, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Should we then not rely on this predetermination and forsake deeds?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Continue with your deeds because everything for which a person was created shall be made easy for him. Deeds leading to good fortune will be made easy for the fortunate ones and deeds leading to ill fortune will be made easy for the unfortunate." Thereafter, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verses, "As for the one who gives, who fears Allāh and who believes in the most beautiful word, We shall make it easy for him to adopt the traits of comfort. As for the one who is miserly and indifferent and who rejects the most beautiful word, We shall make it easy for him to adopt the traits of grief" [Bukhari v. 2 p. 737]

It is learnt from this hadith that although people's destinies have been predetermined, they have to utilise their intelligence to hold the correct beliefs and to carry out good deeds. At the same time, they should abstain from disbelief, Polytheism and sin. The person "who believes in the most beautiful word" refers to the believer and the person "who rejects the most beautiful word" is the disbeliever. Among the many good deeds a believer carries out, Allāh mentions the act of giving in charity and that of fearing Allāh. Giving in charity refers to spending one's wealth in a manner that pleases Allāh and fearing Allāh entails refraining from sin.

Concerning the miserly person, Allāh adds that he is also "indifferent" i.e. indifferent towards the rewards promised for spending in Allāh's path. Therefore, together with his excessive love for wealth, such a person also behaves as if he has no need for the rewards of the Hereafter. The wealth that this person hoards will be useless to him, as Allāh states, "His wealth will not benefit him when he falls to destruction."

Allāh continues, "Verily, guidance is Our responsibility". Allāh has created man to recognise and worship Him. Allāh has also sent the Prophets عليهم السلام and the divine scriptures for man's guidance and to teach man how to worship Him. Whoever fails to respond to the guidance has only himself to blame for his destruction.

Allāh also makes it clear that “the Hereafter and the world are in Our control.” Allāh reserves the right to do as He pleases in this world as well as in the Hereafter. No one should think that he is free to do as he pleases in this world and that none will be able to take him to task in the Hereafter.

فَأَنْذَرْتُكُمْ نَارًا تَلَظَّى ﴿١٤﴾ لَا يَصْلَاهَا إِلَّا الْأَشْقَى ﴿١٥﴾ الَّذِي كَذَبَ وَتَوَلَّى ﴿١٦﴾ وَسِيجَتْهَا
الْأَنْفَى ﴿١٧﴾ الَّذِي يُؤْتِي مَالَهُ يَتَزَكَّى ﴿١٨﴾ وَمَا لِأَحَدٍ عِنْدَهُ مِنْ نِعْمَةٍ تُجْرَى ﴿١٩﴾ إِلَّا ابْتِغَاءَ
وَجْهِ رَبِّهِ الْأَعْلَى ﴿٢٠﴾ وَلَسَوْفَ يَرْضَى ﴿٢١﴾

(14) I have warned you about a raging fire... (15) ....which only the most wretched shall enter... (16) .... who denied and turned away. (17) Far removed from it shall be the most abstinent... (18) ...who spent his wealth to purify his soul. (19) He does not have to repay a favour to anyone... (20) ... (and spends for no reason) except for the pleasure of his Exalted Lord. (21) Soon he shall be pleased.

The previous verses highlighted the difference between the consequences that good deeds bring and the consequences that sins bring. The disbelievers and the sinful will have to suffer the punishment of Hell. Referring to these warnings, Allāh says, “I have warned you about a raging fire which only the most wretched shall enter, who denied and turned away.” Although it appears from this verse that only the disbelievers will enter Hell, the author of “Ruhul Ma’āni” states that the verse does not rule out punishment for sinful believers. He says that the verse merely restricts the severest punishment for the disbelievers (“the most wretched”) because the punishment that sinful believers will receive will be much lighter.

“Far removed from it (from Hell) shall be the most abstinent...” The word “atqa” (translated above as “most abstinent”) is in the superlative form and refers to someone who not only refrains from disbelief and Polytheism but also from all other sins as well. Describing such a person, Allāh says that he “spent his wealth to purify his soul” i.e. he spent his wealth so that he may join the ranks of those whom Allāh considers as pure souls. The verse may also be interpreted to mean that he has the hope that Allāh will greatly multiply the rewards for his charity. This will happen only if he spent without any worldly motives and only to please Allāh.

Speaking further about this person, Allāh says, “He does not have to repay a favour to anyone...” i.e. he is not spending his wealth because he owes a favour to someone. All he desires from his charity is “the pleasure of his Exalted Lord.” As a result of his sincerity, “Soon he shall be pleased” when the rewards of his deeds are presented to him in the Hereafter.

Commentators state that the concluding five verses of this Surah refer to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه who sacrificed a great deal of effort and wealth for the cause of Islām before and after the Hijrah (migration). Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه was an Abyssinian slave of Umayyah bin Khalaf and used to be tortured and beaten mercilessly. Upon an indication of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه purchased Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه and set him free. When the Polytheists learnt about this, they taunted Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه by saying that he bought the freedom of Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه because he owed a favour to Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه. Refuting this, Allāh Ta'āla revealed the verse: "He does not have to repay a favour to anyone (and spends for no reason) except for the pleasure of his Exalted Lord."

It has been reported that when Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه purchased Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه, he latter asked him whether he had bought him to do his work. Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه replied, "I have purchased you to do Allāh's work." Thereupon, Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه said, "Then leave me to do Allāh's work." Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه then set him free and he continued serving Allāh's religion for the rest of his life.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم appointed Sayyidina Bilāl رضى الله عنه as the Mu'adhin (one who calls out the Adhān) and he remained the Mu'adhin as long as the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم lived. Allāh Ta'āla granted him this honour of proclaiming Allāh's name because of the suffering he endured for Allāh's sake.

Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه was always ready to spend his wealth for the cause of Islām. Once, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم encouraged the companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم to spend in Allāh's way, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه thought that he would excel Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه in spending in Allāh's way by bringing along half of his belongings. However, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه brought everything he owned. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him what he had left for his family, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه replied that Allāh and His Rasul (Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم were sufficient for them. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه was then forced to concede that he would never be able to excel Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once said, "I have repaid everyone for whatever favours they have done for me, except for Abu Bakr. Allāh shall repay him on the Day of Judgment. No person's wealth has ever benefited me as much as the wealth of Abu Bakr has. If I had to choose a Khalil' (i.e. a friend whose friendship is not shared), I would choose Abu Bakr as my 'Khalil'. However, I am Allāh's 'Khalil'."

According to another narration, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that no person's wealth has benefited him as much as the wealth of Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه did, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه wept and said, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! My wealth and I are only for you." [Ibn Majah p. 10]

NOTE : Allāh declares in the final verse "Soon he [Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه] shall be pleased". In Surah Duha (Surah 93, verse 5) that follows, Allāh Ta'āla addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم saying, "Your Lord shall soon give you and you shall be pleased." These verses make it clear that Allāh is pleased with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his close companion Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. However, it is tragic to note that the Rawāfidh (Shias) are unhappy with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for choosing Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as his bosom friend and are also unhappy with Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, who spent all his wealth for Allāh's pleasure and who remained with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم everywhere he went.

NOTE: One should always try to repay any person who does one a favour. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When anyone does you a good turn, repay him. If you are unable to repay him, make supplication for him until you are satisfied that you have repaid him."

One should bear in mind not to tell the person that what one is doing is in lieu of his favour because he may not wish for such repayment. In fact, a generous person will flatly refuse the favour. Although the Shari'ah encourages doing good unto those who do good to you, one will be rewarded more greatly if the good one does is solely for Allāh's pleasure and not prompted by the recipient's earlier favour. This is clearly indicated by the verse "He does not have to repay a favour to anyone (and spends for no reason) except for the pleasure of his Exalted Lord."

سورة الضحى

Makkan

Surah Duha

Verses 11

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالضُّحَىٰ ۝۱ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا سَجَىٰ ۝۲ مَا وَدَّعَكَ رَبُّكَ وَمَا قَلَىٰ ۝۳ وَلَلْآخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّكَ
مِنَ الْأُولَىٰ ۝۴ وَلَسَوْفَ يُعْطِيكَ رَبُّكَ فَتَرْضَىٰ ۝۵ أَلَمْ يَجِدْكَ يَتِيمًا فَآوَىٰ ۝۶
وَوَجَدَكَ ضَالًّا فَهَدَىٰ ۝۷ وَوَجَدَكَ عَائِلًا فَأَغْنَىٰ ۝۸ فَأَمَّا الْيَتِيمَ فَلَا تَقْهَرْ
۝۹ وَأَمَّا السَّائِلَ فَلَا تَنْهَرْ ۝۱۰ وَأَمَّا بِنِعْمَةِ رَبِّكَ فَحَدِّثْ ۝۱۱

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) By the light of day! (2) By the night when it settles! (3) Your Lord has neither forsaken you nor does He dislike you. (4) The Hereafter is certainly much better for you than this world. (5) Your Lord shall soon give you and you shall be pleased. (6) Did He not find you orphaned and grant you shelter? (7) Did He not find you uninformed and show you the way? (8) Did He not find you destitute and make you wealthy? (9) So do not be harsh with the orphan. (10) Do not reproach the beggar. (11) Speak about the favours of your Lord.

This Surah was revealed in Makkah. "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports that once, when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was unable to perform Tahajjud Salāh (Salāh said after midnight) for a few days because of illness, a woman said, "It seems as if the Satan that used to come to him has forsaken him." Here she was referring to Jibril عليه السلام as a Satan (Allāh forbid!). It was then that Surah Duha was revealed. Another narration states that when the Jews asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم about the soul, about the people of the cave and about Dhul Qarnayn, he told them that he would give them a reply the next day. However, he forgot to say "Insha Allāh" ("If Allāh wills") As a result, revelation ceased for a few days and the Polytheists began to taunt the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by saying that Allāh had forsaken him and disliked him. It was then that the Surah was revealed.

After taking two oaths, Allāh Ta'ala tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Your Lord has neither forsaken you nor does He dislike you." Explaining the relevance of taking oaths by the day and the night, the author of "Bayānul Qur'ān" states that the descent of revelation and the cessation of revelation are just like day and night. Just as the alternation of the night and the day does not indicate that one has forsaken the other nor that the one dislikes the other, the descent of revelation followed by a cessation also does not mean that Allāh has forsaken the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم or that Allāh dislikes him. Just as there are reasons for the alternation of night and day, there are reasons for the pause in revelation.

Reassuring the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further, Allāh says, "The Hereafter is certainly much better for you than this world." With these words, Allāh Ta'āla tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to be disturbed by the taunts and accusations of the disbelievers because these are short-lived. However, what Allāh has in store for him in the Akhirah (Hereafter) is extremely great and eternal.

"Your Lord shall soon give you and you shall be pleased." Here Allāh Ta'āla tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should not worry if he does not possess the wealth of this world because Allāh will grant him so much in the Hereafter that he will be pleased. Nothing will be lacking in the Hereafter. Because the verse seems to indicate that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would receive wealth in this world as well, the enemies of Islām have objected by saying that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not have any wealth until his demise. This objection is futile and does not deserve attention. The fact is that the favours Allāh Ta'āla shall grant to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will be made manifest only in the Hereafter. There, he will be conferred the position of "Maqām Maḥmūd", the most exalted position that any of Allāh's creation can attain.

Allāh Ta'āla then recounts the favours He blessed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with in this world. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم father passed away before he was born. He was therefore born an orphan. According to some, he passed away after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was born. Nevertheless, he grew up as an orphan. When he was only five years old, his mother passed away in a place called Abwa and her slave girl Umm Ayman رضى الله عنها brought the young Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم back to Makkah. Thereafter, his grandfather Abdul Muttalib took care of him for a few years. When he passed away, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stayed with his uncle Abu Tālib, who raised him with great love and affection. Referring to this, Allāh Ta'āla says, "Did He not find you orphaned and grant you shelter?" Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was an orphan, Allāh Ta'āla ensured that there was always someone to care for him with affection.

Recounting another favour, Allāh says, "Did He not find you uninformed and show you the way?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was untutored. None of his guardians tended to his education and he had no access to outside sources of learning. There was no apparent means by which he could have attained knowledge, especially the knowledge of Shari'ah. Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Surah Shura, "You did not know what was the Book or what was Belief, but We made it a light with which We guide those bondsmen of Ours whom We will. Without doubt, you guide towards the straight path." [Surah 42, verse 52]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was made a Nabi (Prophet) purely through Allāh's grace. Allāh Ta'āla gave him a complete Shari'ah, informed him about the narratives of previous nations and taught him about matters of the unseen such as the angels, Heaven, Hell, etc. Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in Surah Nisā [Surah 4, verse 113], "Allāh has revealed to you the Book and wisdom and taught you what you knew not. The grace of Allāh upon you has been tremendous indeed." A verse of Surah Bani Isrā'il states, "Indeed His grace upon you [O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم] has been tremendous." [Surah 17, verse 87]

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further, Allāh says, "Did He not find you destitute and make you wealthy?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم lived with Abu Tālib for the greater portion of his youth. Abu Tālib was not a rich man so the condition of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the same. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was twenty-five years old, a rich widow by the name of Sayyidah Khadija رضي الله عنها heard about his excellent character and employed him to lead her trade caravan to Shām. She sent her slave along with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When they returned with a substantial profit and the slave praised the noble character of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidah Khadija رضي الله عنها proposed to him. He accepted the proposal and his uncle Abu Tālib and other members of his family graced the wedding. Sayyidah Khadija رضي الله عنها was extremely wealthy and she permitted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to spend the wealth as he pleased. Therefore, commentators interpret the above verse as "Did He not find you destitute and make you wealthy with the wealth of Khadija رضي الله عنها?"

Because the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم grew up as an orphan and understood the hardship of being without parents, Allāh Ta'āla addressed him saying, "So do not be harsh with the orphan." Although the verse addresses the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, it applies to the entire Ummah. Many Ahadīth emphasise the importance of treating orphans kindly. Sayyidina Abu Umamah رضي الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever strokes the head of an orphan solely for Allāh's pleasure will receive a reward for every hair that comes under his hand, I and the person who treats an orphan well shall be like this in Heaven." Saying this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم joined his index and middle fingers. ["Mishkāt" p. 723]

Allāh commands further, "Do not reproach the beggar." Just as orphans are often without benefactors and sympathisers, there are many people also without sympathisers and in need even though they are not orphans. Among these are people who are forced to beg. When one is unable to give a beggar anything, one should at least speak kindly to him so as not to give him further grief. It is against the nature of a believer to reproach a beggar because reproaching a beggar is tantamount to oppression. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned, "Send the beggar away with something even though it is with a burnt hoof"

Unfortunately, there are many professional beggars to be found who are wealthy. Such people should not be begging. The Shari'ah prohibits begging if a person has means to provide for himself. At the same time, the Shari'ah also encourages Muslims to give something to beggars without reproaching them because one cannot be certain that the beggar is not genuine. In fact, Muslims are encouraged to search for needy persons who do not beg and give their charities to them.

Allāh concludes the Surah by saying, "Speak about the favours of your Lord."

Allāh has showered His bounties on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. These bounties are not restricted to this world but extend into the Akhirah (Hereafter) as well. Allāh gave the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم honour and respect in addition to the greatest bounty of Prophethood. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had millions of followers in the past, has millions today and will have many millions until the Day of Judgment. There are millions of Durūds (Benedictions) dedicated to him at all times. In appreciation of all these bounties, Allāh Ta'āla instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to speak about His bounties. This verse also instructs the Ummah to do the same. One should bear in mind that one should not be boasting when speaking about Allāh's bounties.

Sayyidina Mālik bin Nadhr رضى الله عنه narrates that he once appeared before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while wearing clothes of an extremely poor quality. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him whether he had any wealth. When he replied in the affirmative, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him what wealth he possessed. He replied by saying that he had every type of wealth: camels, cows, goats, horses and slaves. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told him, "If Allāh has given you wealth, the sign of this wealth ought to be visible on you." [Mishkāt p. 375]

It is therefore necessary that Allāh's bounties be made known in one's wealth, on one's person and on one's tongue. It will not be redundant to reiterate that when one is recounting Allāh's bounties on one, one's intention should not be to boast and show off. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned, "Eat what you please and wear what you please as long as you avoid two things; extravagance and pride."

NOTE: According to the Imāms of Qirā'ah, it is Sunnah to recite "Allāhu Akbar" after every Surah from Surah Duha up to the end of the Qur'ān (Surah Nās). They have recorded this in their books with a chain of narrators. Allāma Jazari رحمه الله عليه has written about this in detail. He has mentioned that it was the practice of the leading Qurra [who recite the Qur'ān in a special manner (plural of Qāri)] and has commented on the chains of narrators. He has also quoted a hadith of Hākim in substantiation. In this regard, the Muhaddithin (Scholars of Hadīth) also quote a hadith that is narrated by a continuous chain of Qurra, which one of the Imāms of Qirā'ah Abul Hasan Muhammad bin Ahmad Al Bazzi رحمه الله عليه has narrated. This chain of narrators reaches the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Therefore, according to Imām Bazzi رحمه الله عليه, it is Sunnah to recite "Allāhu Akbar" after these Surahs. Besides him, other Imāms of Qirā'ah have also encouraged this addition.

While some Qurra recite only "Allāhu Akbar", others recite "Lā Ilāha Illallāhu Allāhu Akbar". When reciting in this manner, the relevant rules of joining Surahs have to be taken into account. The details of this can be learnt from the Qurra.

سورة الم نشرح / انشراح

Makkan	Surah Inshirāh	Verses 8
--------	----------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الَّذِي نَشْرَحُ لَكَ صَدْرَكَ ۖ وَوَضَعْنَا عَنْكَ وِزْرَكَ ۚ
الَّذِي أَنْقَضَ ظَهْرَكَ ۖ وَرَفَعْنَا
لَكَ ذِكْرَكَ ۚ فَإِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا ۚ إِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا ۚ
فَإِذَا فَرَغْتَ فَانصَبْ ۚ وَإِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ فَارْغَبْ ۚ

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Did We not expand your chest for you? (2) And did We not relieve you of your burden... (3) .... that was breaking your back? (4) And We have elevated your fame. (5) There is certainly ease after every difficulty. (6) Without doubt, there is ease after every difficulty. (7) So when you have completed, then exert yourself.. (8) ...and turn to your Lord.

Surah Inshirāh is also called Surah Alam Nashrah. Like the previous Surah, this Surah also mentions the great favours that Allāh had bestowed on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh Ta'ālā says, "Did We not expand your chest for you?" Allāh had filled the chest of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with the light and knowledge of Prophethood. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم bore in his heart the wealth of Belief, recognition of Allāh, the Qur'ān, wisdom and great traits like patience, tolerance, gratitude and a myriad of other noble qualities. Another great bounty was contentment of heart, which (in Arabic) may also be expressed as 'expansion of the chest'.

This great boon has also been granted to the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه reports that after reciting the verse "Whoever Allāh wishes to guide, He expands his bosom for Islām". The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When celestial light (nūr) enters the heart, the heart expand." The Prophet's companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم enquired, "O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, is there a sign by which one may recognise this?" The Nabi صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Yes, the sign is that a person becomes detached from the 'Home of Deceit' (the world), turns towards the 'Home of Eternity' (Hereafter) and prepares for death in advance." [Mishkāt p. 446]

Explaining the verse under discussion, Scholars have also quoted the Ahadith which describe the occasions when Allāh Ta'āla sent the angels to cut open the chest of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and to fill his heart with knowledge and wisdom. This happened once while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was still a child and living with his foster mother. It also happened on the night in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was taken for Mi'rāj (as reported in Bukhari and Muslim). "Durrul Manthūr" (v. 6 p. 363) reports from Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه that this also happened when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was twenty years old. This narration is found in the "Zawā'id (addition)" of Imām Ahmad's رحمه الله عليه "Musnad".

Allāh tells the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further, "And did We not relieve you of your burden that was breaking your back?" Some commentators state that relief of the burden is contained in verse 2 of Surah Fath (Surah 48) where Allāh says, "So that Allāh may forgive you for those shortcomings that have passed and those that may occur in the future." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم regarded the human errors that he sometimes made as serious infractions. This was naturally very burdensome for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. By declaring blanket forgiveness for every past and future error, Allāh Ta'āla relieved the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from the burden of his conscience.

In my humble opinion, the better interpretation is that which Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has narrated from Abdul Aziz bin Yahya رحمه الله عليه and Abu Ubaydah رحمه الله عليه. According to them, the verse means that Allāh Ta'āla had lightened the burdensome tasks of prophethood for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so that they should not be too difficult for him. Together with the tremendous favours that Allāh bestowed on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh Ta'āla also gave him a great task. His duty to propagate Oneness of Allah among the polytheists brought great difficulties and persecution which had to be tolerated without retaliation. Thereafter, the illustrious Sahabah رضى الله عنه also shouldered the responsibility and Islām spread very far.

"And We have elevated your fame." The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name is taken together with Allāh's name in the Kalimah, the Adhān, the Iqāma, in sermons and whenever a talk or a book is introduced. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was taken on Mi'rāj and Jibril عليه السلام knocked on the doors of the heavens, it was asked, "Who is there?" When Jibril عليه السلام identified himself, he was asked who was with him. He would then reply, "Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم." This occurred at each of the seven heavens. Therefore, the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name was resounding in the heavens as well.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that all the previous scriptures contained mention of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Prophets عليهم السلام were commanded to inform their people about the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. In the Hereafter, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will enjoy the highest position among Allāh's creation when he attains the status of "Maqām Mahmūd". His fame will then be apparent in front of all Allāh's creation. He will also receive the fountain of "Kowthar" which no other shall receive.

It is no secret that billions of Muslims throughout the ages regard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم greater than themselves and their parents. In fact, many disbelievers also have tremendous respect for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

They have also written books and delivered speeches in praise of him. Even his enemies find it difficult not to praise him.

Allāh promises, "There is certainly ease after every difficulty. Without doubt, there is ease after every difficulty." It cannot happen that a person suffers only hardships without respite. Allāh reiterates the principle so that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Muslims in general may be consoled when they experience difficulties. Whenever the Ummah of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم experienced hardships while propagating the Religion, they always took solace in this promise of Allāh. In this manner, their difficulties were eased considerably.

"Durrul Manthūr" narrates from Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once emerged from his home in a very happy mood. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "One difficulty cannot overcome two eases." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was reciting the verses, "There is certainly ease after every difficulty. Without doubt, there is ease after every difficulty."

According to another narration, Sayyidina Anas bin Mālik رحمه الله عليه reported that a stone was in front of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he said, "If any difficulty enters this stone, ease will follow the difficulty into the stone and remove it." It was then that Allāh revealed the verse "There is certainly ease after every difficulty. Without doubt, there is ease after every difficulty."

When an Arabic noun is repeated and each time it is preceded by "al" (the letters "Alif" and "Lām"), both nouns will be regarded as one. However, when a noun is repeated without "al" each time, the two will be regarded as separate entities. In the above two verses, the Arabic word "usr" (translated above as "difficulty") is repeated with the addition of "al" each time (al-usr). Therefore, the verses refer to a single difficulty. At the same time, the word "usr" (translated above as "ease") is repeated without the addition of "al": The verses therefore refer to two eases. As a result, there are always two eases with every difficulty, as indicated by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the narration of Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه.

It may also be said that all one's difficulties in this world are like a single difficulty. In this very world, Allāh Ta'āla continues to grant ease to a person. This is the first ease. The second will be granted in the Hereafter. Therefore, the difficulties of this world are amply rewarded because together with the ease of this world, it also accrues the everlasting rewards of the Hereafter.

Allāh Ta'āla then says to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "So when you have completed, then exert yourself and turn to your Lord." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exerted himself greatly to propagate the religion and much of his time was occupied with this. Because this task was a command of Allāh, it falls under the ambit of Ibādah (worship) and its rewards are exceptionally great. However, despite being engaged in this act of Ibādah (worship) all day, Allāh Ta'āla still commands the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to devote time to turn to Him by carrying out direct Ibādah (worship) that does not have people in between. This is the Ibādah (worship) that one carries out in privacy and entails the true meaning of Ibādah (worship). The effort of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was to turn man's attention towards Allāh and make them Muslims so that they fulfil the purpose of their creation, which Allāh defines in verse 56 of Surah Dhāriyāt

(Surah 51) when He says, "I have created man and Jinn only to worship Me."

Together with calling mankind to Allāh, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also performed the obligatory salāh and would spend long hours engaged in Nafil (optional prayer) Salāh. In fact, he used to stand so long in tahajjud salāh (supererogatory prayer) that his feet used to swell. The Arabic word 'fānsab' (translated above as "exert yourself") refers to making such an effort to do something that one becomes tired. One should therefore tire oneself when carrying out acts of Ibādah. One should not carry out acts of Ibādah only when one finds it convenient. If one engages in Ibādah only when it is convenient, one will even forsake the Obligatory acts of Ibādah (worship). Some exertion has to take place.

سورة التين

Makkan

Surah Tīn

Verses 8

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَاللَّيْنِ وَالزَّيْتُونِ ﴿١﴾ وَطُورِ سِينِينَ ﴿٢﴾ وَهَٰذَا الْبَلَدِ الْأَمِينِ ﴿٣﴾ لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ فِي أَحْسَنِ تَقْوِيمٍ ﴿٤﴾ ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَاهُ أَسْفَلَ سَافِلِينَ ﴿٥﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَلَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ مَمْنُونٍ ﴿٦﴾ فَمَا يُكَذِّبُكَ بَعْدُ بِالدِّينِ ﴿٧﴾ أَلَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِأَحْكَمَ الْحَاكِمِينَ ﴿٨﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) By the fig and the olive.' (2) By Mount Sinai! (3) By this peaceful city! (4) Undoubtedly, We created man in the best form. (5) Thereafter, We relegated him to the lowest of the low... (6) .... except those who believe and who carry out good deeds. Theirs shall be a reward that will never come to an end. (7) What is it then that makes you deny Judgment Day? (8) Is Allāh not the Wisest of the wise?

Allāh Ta'āla swears by the fig and the olive both of which are blessed fruit and extremely beneficial. Referring to the olive tree in Surah Nūr, Allāh says, "the blessed tree of the olive". Thereafter, Allāh takes an oath "By Mount Sinai!" It is the same Mount Sinai that Allāh refers to in verse 20 of Surah Mu'minūn (Surah 23). This was the mount where Allāh Ta'āla spoke to Sayyidina Mūsā عليه السلام. Allāh Ta'āla then takes an oath "By this peaceful city!" i.e. by the city of Makkah. Just as the subjects of the previous three verses are blessed, the fourth is also blessed because it contains the Ka'ba about which Allāh says in Surah Āl Imrān that it is "blessed and a guidance for mankind"

Allāh Ta'āla has taken these four oaths to emphasise that "Undoubtedly, We created man in the best form." The intelligence and understanding of man is far greater than any other creation. Man is physically more good-looking than the other creation, is able to speak better and has a much more developed way of life. His behaviour and mannerisms are also much more refined. Man has two arms, two legs and is taller than most creatures. The features of his face are also most attractive, as are his limbs. He is able to exercise fine motor control over his limbs and can accomplish delicate work as well as exert brute force. Allāh has granted him beauty in every part of his body and even the little parts of the body like the teeth and eyes sparkle. His hair and his beard enhance his beauty further.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Pure is the Being who has beautifies men with their beards and women with their long hair."

A study of human anatomy will astound a person. Every limb of the body can move in many different ways. Man is able to hold, move and lift various things with movements of his hands and arms. The thumb alone is a masterpiece of creation without which man will be unable to hold things. The functioning of the ears, the eyes, the mouth, the teeth and nose are all wonders in their own right. Gathered together on the head, they form a beautiful and coherent assortment, each one complementing the other. The flexibility of the tongue, the arrangement of the teeth and the mastery of the vocal cords allow man to roar like a lion and sing as beautifully as a nightingale.

Man's body can be bent in half from waist, allowing him to bow in Ruku (kneeling) and also to prostrate in Sajdah (prostration). The flexibility of his waist and knees allows man to sit and to manoeuvre in almost any position.

Together with this, his legs are able to walk with him, run with him and even control the vehicles and animals he travels with. The symmetry and proportion of every part of man's body is also a wonder in itself, lending it beauty. If one has to ponder more deeply, the wonders of the human body will tire armies of writers and fill many libraries.

In addition to all of this, Allāh has also granted man intellect, through which man is able to control other creation. A combination of man's physical and intellectual capabilities has yielded millions of products which make life easier for man and assist him tremendously in his daily life. Speaking about the grace that He has blessed man with, Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Bani Isrā'il, "It is indeed true that We have granted honour to the children of Ādam. We carried him on land and sea, provided him with pure sustenance and granted him great superiority over many of Our creation." [Surah 17, verse 70]

Man's physical beauty is evident from the fact that if the least attractive person was given the choice of exchanging bodies with the most beautiful animal, he would certainly refuse.

Allāh Ta'āla says further that after creating man in the best of forms, Allāh Ta'āla "relegated him to the lowest of the low." In the prime of his life, man is brimming with strength and vigour and all his faculties are functioning at their best. However, when man ages he grows physically weaker and even begins to lose his mental prowess. His faculties begin to dwindle, he frequently forgets things, his body bends over and his legs can barely carry him. The man who was once supporting others now needs a support for himself. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Yāsin, "He whom We advance in age, We diminish in structure. Do they not understand?" [Surah 36, verse 68]

Allāh Ta'āla then makes an exception when He says, "except those who believe and who carry out good deeds. Theirs shall be a reward that will never come to an end." This verse makes it clear that even after reaching old age, a believer is never useless. Even at this age, he can accumulate rewards for the Hereafter that are eternal. On the other hand, the disbeliever suffers the inhibitions of old age in this world and will still have misery coming to him in the Hereafter when he will be doomed to Hell.

An even more satisfying interpretation of the verse is that which "Ma'ālimut Tanzil" reports from Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه, Sayyidina Qatādah رحمه الله عليه and Sayyidina Mujāhid رحمه الله عليه. They interpret "the lowest of the low" to mean the lowest level of Hell. Therefore, the verse means that instead of being grateful for the perfect body and soul that Allāh has granted him, man expresses ingratitude by disbelieving in Allāh and refusing to follow the Prophets عليهم السلام. As a result, he becomes deserving of Hell. Among the disbelievers and sinners, there are various ranks, some worse than others. Among them, there will be many who are deserving of the worst forms of punishment in Hell. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Nisā, "Most assuredly, the hypocrites shall be in the lowest depth of the fire." [Surah 4, verse 145]

Whereas Allāh made man in the best form, the disbeliever will be in the worst of conditions in the Hereafter despite the beauty and splendour he enjoyed in this world. On the other hand, the beauty of the 'Mu'minīn will be enhanced in the Hereafter and they will enjoy a multitude of bounties in Heaven.

After realising that Allāh created him in the best form when he was nothing and that he will keep moving from stage to stage, finally reaching the grave and the Hereafter, a person ought to turn to Allāh and accept His divinity. However, many people still refuse to believe and flounder in disbelief and sin. Addressing them, Allāh asks, "What is it then that makes you deny Judgment Day?" Allāh has proven to man many times that He is perfectly Capable of resurrecting him on the Day of Judgment just as He created him the first time. The magnificent creation of Allāh also proves that Allāh has tremendous power and strength. There should therefore be no scope for doubt.

Allāh concludes the Surah by asking, "Is Allāh not the Wisest of the wise?" The question is rhetorical because Allāh is definitely the Wisest of the wise, a fact already proven many times in the Qur'ān. The phrase "Ahkamul Hākīmīn" (translated above as "Wisest of the wise") can also be translated as "King of kings" or the "Best of those who judge". Each of these titles applies to Allāh, Who is Sovereign in this world and the next.

NOTE: Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when one reaches the end of Surah Tīn (Surah 95), one should recite:

Allāh is certainly the 'Wisest of the wise and I am witness to it."

Similarly, when one reaches the end of Surah Qiyāmah (Surah 75), one should say:

"Indeed Allāh has the power to resurrector the dead?"

In a like manner, when reaching the end of Surah Mursalāt (Surah 77), one should recite:

"We believe in Allāh." ["Mishkāt" p. 81 from Abu Dawūd]

سورة العلق

Makkan

Surah Alaq

Verses 19

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

أَقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ (1) خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ (2) اقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ (3)
الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ (4) عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ (5)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Read in the name of your Lord Who created... (2) Who created man from a clot of blood. (3) Read and your Lord is most Magnanimous... (4) Who taught by the pen. (5) He taught man what he did not know.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in the cave of Hira when divine revelation came to him for the first time. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to frequent the cave and took food along with him because he would spend many days there. One day, an angel approached him in the cave and said, "Read!" When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that he was unlettered and therefore unable to read, the angel embraced the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم so hard that he experienced great difficulty. Thereafter, the angel repeated the command to read and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave the same reply. For the second time, the angel embraced the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the same manner. When he released the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he repeated the question. Again the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that he was unable to read and again the angel embraced him. Thereafter, the angel said, "Read in the name of your Lord who created, Who created man from a clot of blood. Read and your Lord is most Magnanimous, Who taught by the pen. He taught man what he did not know."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم repeated what the angel said and then the angel left. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم immediately left for home in a very frightened state. He said to his wife Sayyidah Khadija رضي الله عنها, "Cover me! Cover me!" When she covered him, he lay down for a while until the fear subsided. He then recounted the incident to Sayyidah Khadija رضي الله عنهم [Bukhari v. 1 p. 3, 4 and Muslims v. 1 p. 88]

The verses of Surah Alaq were therefore the first verses of the Qur'ān revealed. After a while, Allāh revealed the verses, "O you wrapped in garments. Stand up and warn. Announce the greatness of your Lord. Keep your clothing clean.

Stay away from sin." After this, revelation began coming continuously.

Allāh Ta'āla says, 'Read in the name of your Lord who created'. The command to read is general and does not refer to anything specific. This first verse of the Surah refers to Allāh's making of the entire creation. Allāh's creation is the greatest manifestation of His power by which we ought to recognise Him. Thereafter, Allāh refers specifically to the creation of man when He says that He "created man from a clot of blood" Although other animals are also created in a manner similar to man, man needs to be more grateful to Allāh because Allāh granted him intelligence. Expressing gratitude includes obedience to Allāh, engaging in Allāh's remembrance (Dhikr) and verbally expressing thanks for the bounties that He has bestowed on us.

Allāh continues, "Read and your Lord is most Magnanimous, Who taught by the pen. He taught man what he did not know." It was Allāh the Creator Who taught the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم what he knew. Knowledge is not restricted to teachers and books. A great deal of knowledge is not received from them. Allāh does not require means to educate a person. Allāh Ta'āla can teach a person with or without a pen, teacher or books.

كَلَّا إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لِرَبِّهِ لَكَنَّا ۖ (6) أَن رَّاهُ اسْتَفْعَىٰ (7) إِنَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ الرُّجْعَىٰ (8) أَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي
يَنْهَىٰ (9) عَبْدًا إِذَا صَلَّىٰ (10) أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ كَانَ عَلَىٰ الْهُدَىٰ (11) أَوْ أَمَرَ بِالْقَوَىٰ (12)
أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّىٰ (13) أَلَمْ يَعْلَم بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَرَىٰ (14) كَلَّا لَئِنْ لَّمْ يَنْتَهِ لَنَسْفَعًا بِالنَّاصِيَةِ
(15) نَاصِيَةٍ كَذِبَةٍ خَاطِئَةٍ (16) فَلْيَدْعُ نَادِيَهُ (17) سَنَدْعُ الزَّبَانِيَةَ (18) كَلَّا لَا نَطَعُهُ
وَأَسْجُدْ وَاقْتَرِبْ ﴿١٩﴾

(6) It is a fact that man is rebellious... (7) ...because he considers himself to be independent (8) Verily the return shall be to your Lord. (9) Tell Me about the one who prevents... (10) ...a slave when he performs Salāh. (11) Tell Me, what if the slave is upon guidance or enjoins Piety? (12) Tell Me, what if he (the person) denies and turns away? (13) Does he not know that Allāh is watching? (14) Not at all. If he does not desist.. (15) .... We shall definitely drag him by the forelocks... (16) ... his lying, sinning forelocks. (17) Then let him call his company. (18) We shall call the angels of punishment. (19) Never! (His deeds cannot be condoned). You should never obey him! Continue performing Salāh and drawing closer (to Allāh).

The Ahadith make it clear that the above verses refer to Abu Jahl, an arch-enemy of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. He once took an oath by his idols Lāt and Uzza that he would place his foot on the neck of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in Sajdah. When he saw the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم performing Salāh in the Masjidul Harām as usual one day, Abu Jahl proceeded to fulfil his oath. However, when he drew close to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he immediately stepped back, shielding his face against something. When his companions asked him what the matter was, he replied that he had seen a trench of fire and a frightening creature with many limbs between himself and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم later mentioned that if Abu Jahl had attempted to do as he had intended, the angels would have dismembered his body. It was then that Allāh revealed the verses, "It is a fact that man is rebellious..." up to the end of the Surah.

"It is a fact that man is rebellious..." i.e. he oversteps the parameters of his authority as a servant of Allāh. He then holds a high opinion of himself and disobeys the commands of Allāh. The reason for man's rebelliousness is that "he considers himself to be independent." Because man possesses wealth and good health, he thinks that he needs no one. He fails to realise that Allāh gave him everything and that Allāh can take everything away from him. Allāh reminds man that "Verily the return shall be to your Lord." Irrespective of how wealthy a person is, he will have to leave this world to stand before Allāh on the Day of Judgment. Wealth, health and children will be of no assistance in the Hereafter where one will have to stand alone.

Referring specifically to Abu Jahl and also to all such disbelievers as well, Allāh Ta'āla says, "Tell Me about the one who prevents a slave (of Allāh) when he performs Salāh. (Is this behaviour not appalling?) Tell Me, what if the slave is upon guidance or enjoins (others to carry out acts of) piety (Is it then not wicked to prevent him from his Salāh)? Tell Me, what if he (the one who prevents another from Salāh) denies and turns away? (What will be his plight?)"

Addressing every sensible person in the above verses, Allāh thrice asks, "Tell me". Allāh Ta'āla prompts the reader of the Qur'ān to ponder about the miserable plight that a person will suffer for preventing someone from Salāh who follows Allāh's guidance and who enjoins others to carry out acts of piety. In addition to preventing Allāh's slave from the most noble act of Salāh, the person denies the truth and is averse to it. One can well imagine that such a person will certainly be doomed. Alluding to this person's punishment, Allāh asks, "Does he not know that Allāh is watching?" Allāh watches everything that this person does and will punish him for his heinous deeds.

It once occurred that Abu Jahl tried to prevent the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from performing Salāh. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم rebuked him for this, Abu Jahl said that he would fill the entire valley with troops and horses against the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh Ta'āla then revealed the verses, "If he does not desist, We shall definitely drag him by the forelocks; his lying, sinning forelocks. Then let him call his company. We shall call the angels of punishment." The verse refers to the angels of Hell, about whom Allāh says in Surah Tahrim that they are "Harsh and strong angels" who "never disobey what Allāh commands them and who carry out exactly what they have been instructed." [Surah 66, verse 7]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه states that if Abu Jahl and his company tried to assault the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the "Zabāniya" ("angels of punishment") would have seized them instantly. The word "Zabāniya" is derived from the root word "zabn", which means "to push". These angels are named such because they will push people into Hell without showing mercy.

Allāh asserts, "Never!" i.e. such as person's deeds cannot be condoned.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم further, Allāh states, “You should never obey him (i.e. the one who prevents you from performing Salāh)! Continue performing Salāh and drawing closer (to Allāh).” Although this verse literally instructs the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to prostrate in Sajdah (prostration), it has been translated as “Continue performing Salāh” because the verse implies performing Salāh in which many Sajdahs (prostrations) are made.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said “A slave is closest to Allāh while performing Sajdah (prostration). Therefore, engage in a lot of supplication.” [Muslim v. 1 p. 191]

Sayyidina Rabī’ah bin Ka’b رضى الله عنه narrates that he used to spend the nights with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Once, when he brought water for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to make wudhu for Tahajjud Salāh (Salāh said after midnight), The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him to ask whatever he wanted. He submitted that he wanted to be in the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم company in Heaven. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him if there were further requests he wanted to make, he said that this was all. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told him, “It shall be granted, but assist me against your Nafs by performing Sajdah (prostration) in abundance.” [Muslim v. 1 p. 193]

This hadith warns us that one’s Nafs (carnal self) will not allow one to do any good deed and some effort is required to progress spiritually. One may not rely only on the supplication of others but one should make an effort by carrying out as many good deeds as possible. Among good deeds, one of the greatest is making Sajdah (prostration). There is no act that more effectively expresses one’s humility and subservience to Allāh than placing the most honoured part of the one’s body (the head) on the ground in front of Allāh. For this reason, Scholars mention that Sajdah (prostration) is the most important part of Salāh. Therefore, while other postures like Ruku (kneeling) and Qiyām [being stand (in prayer)] take place only once during every Rakāh, Sajdah (prostration) has to be performed twice.

Allāh Ta’āla says about the accursed Abu Jahl that “We shall definitely drag him by the forelocks”. This denotes that he will be disgraced even in this world before reaching the humiliation of the Hereafter. Consequently, he was killed in the Battle of Badr while parading pompously through his lines. In fact, he was killed after being incapacitated by two Ansār youngsters. “Ruhul Ma’āni” reports that after Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه beheaded Abu Jahl, he was unable to carry his head to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Therefore, he had to thread a string through the ears and drag it along.

Whereas the verse applies to this humiliation in this world, it also applies to the humiliation he will suffer in the Hereafter, when he will be dragged to Hell. Allāh Ta’āla says in Surah Mu’minūn, “They shall soon come to know when yokes will be placed around their necks, as well as chains. They will be dragged into the boiling water, after which they will be cast as fuel for the Fire.” Verse 41 of Surah Rahmān (Surah 55) reads: “The criminals will be recognised by their traits and will be seized by their forelocks and feet.”

The phrase “his lying, sinning forelocks” describes the entire person. In fact, the expression means that his lies and sins are so profound that they have permeated his entire body. Therefore, the effects of these evils had tainted even his forelocks.

In the above verses, Allāh Ta'āla thrice mentions the word "kallā" (translated above as "It is a fact" in verse 6, "Not at all" in verse 14 and "Never" in verse 19). The word either denotes emphasis (in which case it will be translated as "It is a fact" or "Verily", "Certainly", etc) or it may serve to rebuke someone for doing something (in which case it is translated as "Never!", "No!", etc).

NOTE: The verse "Tell Me about the one who prevents a slave when he performs Salāh" makes it clear that a Muslim does not prevent people from Salāh. It is only a disbeliever such as Abu Jahl who would do such a thing. It is therefore sad to note that many so-called Muslims prevent their children from performing Salāh by involving them in such occupations and insisting that they take employment at such institutions that do not allow Muslims to perform their Obligatory Salāh. In fact, when such children complain about this, their parents even ridicule them. Little do they realise that failure to perform Salāh will lead their children to Hell, where all their wealth will be of no avail.

In fact, many Muslim managers and directors of large companies fail to perform Salāh and do not even allow their employees to perform Salāh. When concerned employees request time off to perform Salāh, these employers brush off the request saying that taking time off for Salāh will cause the company a loss and that the employees should perform Qadhā [Salāh, said after its due time] at home. It is Harām (unlawful) to accept employment at a company that does not allow one to perform one's Obligatory Salāh and it is also not permissible to assume a managerial post at such a company. It is unfortunate that such people look only at their worldly benefit and fail to show concern for the detriment they stand to face in the Hereafter.

Believer parents have to enjoin their children to do good and prevent them from committing sins. When some people resign from their jobs after being told that their earnings are Harām (unlawful), their parents and relatives make absurd statements that they seem to be suffering from diarrhoea of Taqwā (Piety). They tell them that it is impossible to earn Halāl (Lawful) wealth and that none can avoid Harām (unlawful) wealth. May Allāh save us all from making such foolish statements. Āmīn.

NOTE: A hadith of Muslim (v. 1 p. 215) makes it clear that one has to make a Sajdah Tilāwah (prostration become due after reciting it) after reciting Surah Alaq.

سورة القدر

Makkan	Surah Qadr	Verses 5
--------	------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ ﴿١﴾ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ ﴿٢﴾ لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ أَلْفِ شَهْرٍ ﴿٣﴾ تَنَزَّلُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَالرُّوحُ فِيهَا بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِم مِّن كُلِّ أَمْرٍ ﴿٤﴾ سَلَامٌ هِيَ حَتَّىٰ مَطْلَعِ الْفَجْرِ ﴿٥﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Verily We revealed the Qur'ān on the night of Qadr. (2) Do you know what is the night of Qadr? (3) The night of Qadr is better than a thousand months. (4) The angels and the "Rūh" descend with every decree on this night by the command of their Lord. (5) It is full of peace and lasts until the break of dawn.

Discussing the auspiciousness of Laylatul Qadr (The night of Qadr), Allāh Ta'āla says, "Verily We revealed the Qur'ān on the night of Qadr." It is a well-documented fact that the Qur'ān was revealed bit by bit over a period of twenty-three years. Commentators explain that the meaning of the verse is that on the night of Qadr the Qur'ān was brought down from the Lowhul Mahfūdḥ (protected tablet) to the heaven above the earth. There it was placed in the "Baytul Izzah". It was from here that Jibril عليه السلام brought the Qur'ān to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Allāh Ta'āla declares in Surah Baqarah, "The month of Ramadhān is the month in which the Qur'ān was revealed." There is no discrepancy between this verse of Surah Baqarah and the first verse of Surah Qadr because the night of Qadr is in the month of Ramadhān.

Allāh highlights the virtue of the night of Qadr by posing a question first. Allāh says, "Do you know what is the night of Qadr?" Allāh Ta'āla then says, "The night of Qadr is better than a thousand months." This means that the person who engages in Ibādah (worship) during the night of Qadr will be rewarded more than a person who engages in Ibādah (worship) for a thousand months that do not include a night of Qadr.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once told about a person from the Bani Isrā'īl who carried the weapons of Jihād on his shoulders for a thousand months. Hearing this, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed to Allāh saying, "O my Lord! You have granted my Ummah shorter lifespan than the previous nations because of which their deeds are less." Consequently, Allāh Ta'āla allocated the night of Qadr, the virtue of which exceeds that of a thousand months. [Ma'ālimut Tanzīl v. 4 p. 513]

A thousand months equals eighty-three years and four months. Not only is the night of Qadr equal to this period of time, but Allāh declares that it is better than this. Only Allāh Ta'āla knows how much more. This night is an excellent opportunity for Muslims to accrue rewards and prepare their abodes in Heaven. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The one who is deprived of the good of the night of Qadr has been deprived of all good. It is only a truly deprived person who will be deprived of its good." [Ibn Majah]

Sacrificing a few hours in exchange for the rewards of a thousand months is truly a bargain. A person who earns a profit of hundreds of thousands for an investment of a few coppers will be exuberant. The profit of a thousand months' everlasting reward in exchange for an investment of a few temporary hours is a much greater profit. With this in mind, one will realise why the person who is deprived of such an opportunity is a truly deprived person.

Allāh Ta'āla has been extremely benevolent in granting this opportunity to this Ummah whose average lifespan is between sixty and seventy years. By exploiting this opportunity, the members of this Ummah can even surpass the deeds of the previous Ummahs, the individuals of which lived for hundreds of years.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the night of Qadr should be sought in the odd nights of the last ten nights of Ramadhān. Any one of these nights may be the night of Qadr. [Mishkāṭ p. 182]

Because many narrations have specified that the night of Qadr falls on the 27th night of Ramadhān, one should make an effort to spend this night in Ibādah.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whoever fasts during Ramadhān with Belief and with the hope of being rewarded, all his previous sins will be forgiven. Whoever stands in Ibādah during Ramadhān with Belief and with the hope of being rewarded, all his previous sins will be forgiven. Whoever stands in Ibādah during the night of Qadr with Belief and with the hope of being rewarded, all his previous sins will be forgiven."

Standing in Ibādah (worship) usually entails performing Salāh. However, it also includes making remembrance (Dhikr) and reciting the Qur'ān. Having the hope of being rewarded means that one's intention should be only to please Allāh and one should have no ulterior motives. When one has the hope of being rewarded, one will feel happy to engage in Ibādah (worship) and will not regard the Ibādah (worship) as a burden. The greater one's hope is, the easier it will be for one to exert oneself in doing even more strenuous Ibādah (worship). It is for this reason that the closer a person draws to Allāh, the more he will be engrossed in Ibādah (worship).

One should bear in mind that Ahadīth like the one above refer to the forgiveness of minor sins. Scholars are unanimous that major sins are forgiven only after a person sincerely makes Taubah (repentance). When a person carries out good deeds, his sins are forgiven together with receiving rewards for them.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم what supplication she should recite if she recognised any night to be the night of Qadr. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised her to recite the following supplication:

"O Allāh! Verily You are the Most Forgiving and You love to forgive. Forgive me."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not teach his Ummah to make supplication for wealth or property. Because the matter of the Ākhirah (Hereafter) is most pertinent, he taught us to seek forgiveness from Allāh because Allāh's forgiveness will ensure salvation in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). If a person is not forgiven and has to suffer punishment in the Ākhirah (Hereafter), all the wealth of this world will be useless to him.

THE ILL EFFECTS OF ARGUMENTS

Sayyidina Ubādah رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once emerged from his room to inform the prophet's companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم about when the night of Qadr would be. However, two prophet's companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم were then embroiled in an argument. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I had come to inform you about when the night of Qadr will fall. However, because certain people were arguing, the date of the night was lifted from my mind. Perhaps this is better in Allāh's knowledge." [Bukhari]

This hadith makes it apparent that arguments are so detestable that it was an argument that caused the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to forget the date of Laylatul Qadr.

THE ADVANTAGES OF NOT SPECIFYING WHEN THE NIGHT OF QADR WILL BE

Scholars have cited the following advantages in Laylatul Qadr being an unspecified night:

1. If Laylatul Qadr were specified, many people would have attached no importance at all to the other nights of the year. They would have then worshipped Allāh only one night a year. Since Laylatul Qadr has not been specified, they will spend more nights in Ibādah (worship) in search of the night.
2. There are many people who cannot avoid sin. If Laylatul Qadr were specified, they would have been sinning despite knowing the auspiciousness of the night. This would have seriously jeopardised their Belief.
3. If a person was unable to engage in Ibādah (worship) during Laylatul Qadr on some account, he will not be motivated to engage in Ibādah (worship) during any other night. In the present situation, he will still have other nights of Ibādah (worship) to look forward to.
4. When Laylatul Qadr is not specified, a person will have many more nights of Ibādah to his credit.

5. Allāh Ta'āla is pleased to tell the angels about the Ibādah (worship) of man. Now that Laylatul Qadr is not specified, the angels are told that man is engaged in Allāh's Ibādah (worship) even though he does not know which night is Laylatul Qadr.

Besides these advantages, there may be many more. There is good in everything that Allāh does and it is to the advantage of the Ummah that Laylatul Qadr has not been specified.

Allāh Ta'āla says, "The angels and the 'Rūh' descend with every decree on this night by the command of their Lord." The majority of Scholars state that "Rūh" refers to Jibril عليه السلام, who is referred to as "Ruhul Qudus" in many verses of the Qur'ān. Some commentators have mentioned that it refers to Allāh's mercy.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" has quoted several interpretations of "every decree". Among these is that the angels come to earth with Allāh's blessings. Sayyidina Anas رضي الله عنه reports from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Jibril عليه السلام descends with a group of angels from the heavens on Laylatul Qadr. They then shower Allāh's mercy on every person who is remembering Allāh either sitting or standing. When the days of Eidul Fitr dawns, Allāh Ta'āla praises man before the angels saying, "O my angels! What is due to a labourer who completes his work?" The angels submit, "O our Lord! He deserves to be paid in full." Allāh then declares, "O my angels! My male and female slaves have fulfilled the duty that was binding on them and have now emerged from their homes to beg from Me. By My Honour, by my Majesty, by My Benevolence and by My Exaltedness! I shall certainly accept their supplication." Allāh then says to the people, "I have forgiven you and replaced your sins with good deeds." People then leave the place of the Eid Salāh in a state that they are all forgiven. [Bayhaqi]

Allāh says further that the night "is full of peace". The angels continue to shower peace, mercy and blessings on people during the night. Some commentators have interpreted the verse to mean that the entire night of Qadr is full of peace and blessings. They say that Satan does not have the ability to instigate people to do evil on this night. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzil"]

Allāh Ta'āla says that Laylatul Qadr "lasts until the break of dawn." This verse makes it evident that the blessings of Laylatul Qadr are not confined to any portion of the night. It extends from the beginning of the night and terminates only when dawn breaks.

THE MEANING OF "THE NIGHT OF QADR"

Scholars have tendered the following explanations for the naming of Laylatul Qadr:

If the word "Qadr" is used in the meaning of "appreciation", the night of Qadr will be referred to as the night of appreciation because Allāh Ta'āla shows appreciation for the worship of His devotees by granting them an extremely handsome reward.

The word "Qadr" may also be translated as predestination. Scholars mention that on this night, the angels are given their tasks for the year. Among these tasks is the distribution of sustenance, the specifying of each person who is to die in the coming year, what is to happen to every person that year, etc. This interpretation is appropriate because Allāh Ta'āla refers to the night of Qadr in the fourth verse of Surah Dukhān (Surah 44) when He says, "The decision of every matter of wisdom is passed on this night." Because Allāh Ta'āla uses the angels to facilitate the smooth functioning of the system of the universe, they are given their instructions on the night of Qadr. Therefore, the angels are briefed about every matter that has been predestined in the Lowhul Mahfūdh for the forthcoming year.

NOTE 1: Mentioning the virtues of the night of Barā'ah (15th night of Shabān), Scholars have quoted a hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها. In this hadith, she states that it is on the night of Barā'ah that the decree is passed for every child to be born and for every person to pass away. The hadith also states that man's deeds are presented to Allāh on this night and people's sustenance descends. "Mishkāt" (p. 115) has reported this hadith from Imām Bayhaqi رحمه الله عليه. Because this hadith is not authentic, Scholars state that it cannot prove that such decisions are passed on the night of Barā'ah instead of the night of Qadr. However, Scholars mention that it is possible that these matters are decreed on the night of Barā'ah but the instructions are given to the angels on the night of Qadr. Allāh knows best.

NOTE 2: Because the night of Qadr takes place during the night, the time will vary from place to place. However, the people of each place will benefit from the blessings of the night.

NOTE 3: If one is unable to engage in Ibādah (worship) the entire night, one should at least perform one's Isha and Fajr Salāhs with Jamā'ah (congregation). Sayyidina Uthmān رضي الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that if a person performs his Isha Salāh with Jamā'ah (congregation), he attains the reward of standing in Ibādah (worship) for half the night. If he performs his Fajr Salāh also with Jamā'ah (congregation), he will attain the reward of standing in Ibādah (worship) the entire night. [Muslims v. 1 p. 232]

سورة البينة

Makkan

Surah Bayyinah

Verses 8

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

لَمْ يَكُنِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ مُنْفَكِينَ حَتَّى تَأْتِيَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَةُ ۖ
 رَسُولٌ مِّنَ اللَّهِ يَتْلُو صُحُفًا مُّطَهَّرَةً ۚ فِيهَا كُتِبَ قِيمَةٌ ۚ وَمَا نَفَرَقَ الَّذِينَ أُوْتُوا
 الْكِتَابَ إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَةُ ۚ وَمَا أُمِرُوا إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ
 حُنَفَاءَ وَيُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَذَلِكَ دِينُ الْقِيَمَةِ ۝

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) The disbelievers from among the People of the Book and the idolaters will not desist until a clear sign comes to them. (2) A messenger from Allāh who recites pure scriptures... (3) ..in which the subject matter is accurate. (4) Those who were given the scripture divided only after the clear sign had come to them. (5) They had been ordered only to worship Allāh, devoting their religion solely to Him and turning away from other religions. (They were also commanded to perform Salāh and to pay Zakāh. This is the true religion.

Before the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم there were many polytheists, many Jews and many Christians. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came as a guide to them, they adamantly clung to their religions and were not prepared to accept his message without a clear sign of his Prophethood. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم showed them various miracles, the greatest of which was the Qur'ān. In addition to this, they were all well aware of his pure character.

Allāh Ta'āla says, "The disbelievers from among the People of the Book and the idolaters will not desist (from disbelief) until a clear sign comes to them" i.e. until a witness testifies that they will be successful only if they forsake infidelity and accept Islām. Allāh describes this "sign" (witness) as "A messenger from Allāh who recites pure scriptures in which the subject matter is accurate." While some commentators state that the 'pure scriptures' refer to the previous scriptures and the accurate 'subject matter' refers to the Qur'ān, others are of the opinion that the 'pure scriptures' refer to the Qur'ān and the accurate "subject matter" refers to the contents and Surahs of the Qur'ān. The accurate 'subject matter' denotes injunctions that are just and that lead to the straight path. Allāh refers to this in Surah Zumar where He states, "It is an Arabic Qur'ān without any crookedness, so that they fear." [Surah 39, verse 28]

Although many people accepted the message of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, there were many who refused to accept Islām despite witnessing many signs. A great many of those who refused to accept were the People of the Book (the Jews and the Christians). Although these people were expecting the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and claimed that they would follow him when he arrived, they eventually divided when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came to them; while some believed in him, others did not. Allāh refers to his when He says, "Those who were given the scripture divided only after the clear sign [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] had come to them."

Allāh Ta'āla then mentions the commands that the people of the former religions received, much the same as Muslims are commanded. Allāh says, "They had been ordered only to worship Allāh, devoting their religion solely to Him and turning away from other religions. (They were also commanded to) perform Salāh and to pay Zakāh. This is the true religion" i.e. this is the religion of all the Prophets عليهم السلام. Although the Jews and the Christians were aware of the truth of Islām, they were rebellious and refused to submit.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أُولَئِكَ هُمْ
 شَرُّ الْبَرِيَّةِ ۖ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ أُولَئِكَ هُمْ خَيْرُ الْبَرِيَّةِ ۖ
 جَزَاؤُهُمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ
 وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ ۚ ذَٰلِكَ لِمَنْ خَشِيَ رَبَّهُ ۝

(6) Verily the disbelievers from the People of the Book and the idolaters shall abide forever in the fire of Hell. These are the worst of creation. (7) Indeed those who believe and who carry out good deeds are certainly the best of creation. (8) Their reward with their Lord is eternal gardens where they shall abide forever and ever. Allāh is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. This is for him who fears his Lord.

In the above verses, Allāh Ta'āla outlines the ultimate abode of each of the two groups of people. Concerning the disbelievers, Allāh says, "Verily the disbelievers from the People of the Book and the idolaters shall abide forever in the fire of Hell. These are the worst of creation." Besides the Jews, the Christians and the Polytheists, also included in the ambit of "disbelievers" are the atheists and those who do not follow any religion. The abode of all such people is Hell. Also included among the disbelievers are those people who do not believe in any Nabi (prophet) of Allāh عليه السلام or who do not believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as Allāh's final messenger. Because Islām is the only religion that Allāh accepts from a person, everyone who does not accept Islām is regarded as a disbeliever. Therefore, Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "O Mankind! Indeed the messenger has come to you with the truth from your Lord; so believe, it will be better for you. If you disbelieve, then verily to Allāh belongs whatever is in the heavens and earth. Allāh is ever All Knowing, The Wise." [Surah 4, verse 170] Allāh Ta'āla says in verse 19 of Surah Āl Imrān (Surah 3), "Definitely the only religion with Allāh is Islām." In verse 85 of the same Surah, Allāh says, "Whosoever seeks a religion besides Islam, it shall never be accepted from him, and he will be, in the Hereafter, among the losers." Thereafter, in the same Surah Āl Imrān [Surah 3, verse 91], Allāh Ta'āla says, "Verily those who disbelieve and die as disbelievers, the earth full of gold shall never be accepted from any of them if they ever wish to offer it as ransom. Theirs shall be a painful punishment and they shall have no helpers.

It should be understood well that every person who rejects Islām is a Kāfir (a disbeliever). The Munāfiq (hypocrites) are also disbelievers because their hearts reject Islām. If any disbeliever dies as a disbeliever (without accepting Islām), he will suffer eternally in Hell. Such people are referred to as "the worst of creation" because in this world they have rejected their Creator and Sustainer Allāh Ta'āla and His Religion, and they will have to suffer the worst punishment in the Hereafter. Therefore, together with having the worst beliefs and deeds, their plight in the Hereafter will also be the worst.

Allāh Ta'āla then discusses the condition of the delievers in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). Allāh says, "indeed those who believe and who carry out good deeds are certainly the best of creation. Their reward with their Lord is eternal gardens where they shall abide forever and ever. Allāh is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him." Allāh will grant these people so much in the Ākhirah (Hereafter) that there will be nothing more for them to desire.

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Without doubt, Allāh shall call to the people of Heaven saying, 'O dwellers of Jannah (Heaven)! They will reply, 'O our Lord, we are present and ready to carry out Your orders. All good is in Your control' Allāh shall ask them, "Are you happy?' 'How can we not be, they will submit, 'when You have bestowed on us what You have not given to any of Your creation?' Allāh will tell them, "Should I not grant you something superior to all of this?' They will exclaim, 'What can be superior to this?' Allāh will say, I shall confer My pleasure on you and I will never be angry with you in the future." [Bukhari v.2 p.969]

Allāh Ta'āla concludes the Surah by saying, "This is for him who fears his Lord." This verse makes it clear that Heaven and its bounties are reserved for those who fear Allāh and accept Him as their Lord and Cherisher. They are aware of the fact that the Day of Judgment is imminent when Allāh Ta'āla will pass judgement on people and send them to either Heaven or Hell. Such people realise that they have to adhere to the tenets of Belief and that they have to carry out good deeds to attain salvation in the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

سورة الزلزال

Makkan

Surah Zilzāl

Verses 8

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِذَا زُلْزِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ زِلْزَالَهَا ۖ (1) وَأَخْرَجَتِ الْأَرْضُ أَثْقَالَهَا ۖ (2) وَقَالَ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا لَهَا ۚ (3) يَوْمَئِذٍ تُحَدِّثُ أَخْبَارَهَا ۚ (4) بِأَنَّ رَبَّكَ أَوْحَىٰ لَهَا ۚ (5) يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصْدُرُ النَّاسُ أَشْتَاتًا لِّيُرَوْا أَعْمَالَهُمْ ۖ (6) فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ ۖ (7) وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ شَرًّا يَرَهُ ۖ (8)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) When the earth shall quake most violently... (2) .... when the earth will remove her loads... (3) .... and man will ask, "What is the matter with her?" (4) On that day she will narrate her stories... (5) ...because your Lord will command her to do so. (6) On that day people will return in different groups to witness their deeds. (7) Whoever does an iota's weight of good will see it... (8) ...and whoever does an iota's weight of evil will see it.

The Arabic words "Zilzāl" and "zilzala" refer to an earthquake. The earthquake referred to in this Surah is the earthquake that will take place on the Day of Judgment. This earthquake shall be extremely severe, as Allāh mentions in the first two verses of Surah Hajj (Surah 22) where He says, "O people! Fear your Lord. The earthquake of Judgment Day is a tremendous thing indeed. The day when you will witness it, every nursing mother will forget her suckling infant and every pregnant woman will abort. And you will see people in a drunken stupor although they will not be drunk, but Allāh's punishment is severe." This earthquake will affect not only a few towns or a country, but the entire earth.

After the convulsion of the earth, corpses will be raised from their graves and ushered to the plain of resurrection. Allāh Ta'āla says that on the Day of Judgment "the earth will remove her loads and man will ask, 'What is the matter with her?'" On the Day of Judgment, the earth will empty her belly of all the dead and of all the treasures she hides beneath her surface. However, all this wealth will not benefit anyone. The same wealth for which man killed his brothers will now lie useless.

When man will stand for reckoning before Allāh, he will be given his record of deeds and witnesses will attest to the deeds he committed. Among these witnesses will be the earth. Referring to this, Allāh says, "On that day she will narrate her stories because your Lord will command her to do so." When the earth will do this, man will be astonished and ask, "What is the matter with her? i.e. we thought that she was lifeless. How is it that she now talks?" The earth will talk on the Day of Judgment "because your Lord will command her to do so." Just as Allāh gave speech to the tongue, Allāh will give speech to man's limbs as well as to the earth so that they may testify against people.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once recited the verse: "On that day she will narrate her stories" and then asked the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم, "Do you know what 'her stories' are?" The prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم submitted, "Allāh and His Rasul (Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم know best." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم that the earth will testify to every act that any person committed on her back. She will specify exactly what deed was committed on which day. [Tirmidhi]

Allāh continues, "On that day people will return in different groups to witness their deeds." After completing their reckoning, people will be separated into two groups. Those destined for Heaven will be led to a road on the right of the plains of resurrection while those destined for Hell will be led to a road on the left. It is with reference to this that Allāh mentions in Surah Rūm, "The day when Judgment day will dawn, that day will they be in different conditions. As for those who believe and do good deeds, they will be rejoicing in a garden. As for those who disbelieve and falsify Our signs and the meeting of the Hereafter, these people will be exposed to punishment." [Surah 30, verses 14-16]

Concerning the same two groups of people on the Day of Judgment, Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Zumar, "The disbelievers will be dragged to Hell in groups" and "Those who feared their Lord will be led to Heaven in groups." [Surah 39, verses 71,73]

The day of Judgment will be frightful when people will be separated into these two groups and the sinners will be told, "Separate yourselves today, O you criminals!" The pious will then be left on their own to enter happily into Heaven. Allāh says that the two groups will proceed "to witness their deeds" i.e. to witness the consequences of their deeds; either Heaven or Hell.

Though brief, the concluding two verses of the Surah are extremely comprehensive. Allāh Ta'āla declares, "Whoever does an iota's weight of good will see it (i.e. its reward) and whoever does an iota's weight of evil will see it" i.e. will see its punishment. These verses make it clear that no good deed should be overlooked and no sin should be committed thinking it to be insignificant because one will eventually see the consequences of every deed.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once explaining the details of Zakāh to the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم, when someone asked about the Zakāh due from a person who owns donkeys. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that although no specific law was revealed to him concerning the Zakāh for donkeys, a most comprehensive verse had been revealed to him viz. "Whoever does an iota's weight of good will see it and whoever does an iota's weight of evil will see it." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 141 and Muslim v. 1 p. 319]

A person who is concerned about his life in the Ākhirah should never allow an opportunity to do a good deed pass him by. He snatches every such opportunity and even the moment in which he can recite “Subhā Nallāh” once is not forfeited. Sayyidina Adi bin Hātim رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Save yourself from Hell even though it may be with a piece of a date (which you give in charity). If you cannot manage this, then at least say a good word.” [Bukhari v. 2 p. 971]

Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once delivering a sermon when he said, “Behold! This world is a cash commodity from which good and evil eat. Behold! The promise of the Ākhirah (Hereafter) (although not cash) is absolutely true. The All Powerful Sovereign shall pass judgment there. Behold! All good shall be in Heaven and all evil shall be in Hell. Behold! Continue carrying out deeds, continue fearing Allāh and remember that your deeds will be presented before you because ‘Whoever does an iota’s weight of good will see it and whoever does an iota’s weight of evil will see it.’” [“Mishkāt” p. 445]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to her, “Avoid even the smallest sins because Allāh Ta’āla has appointed those who seek them (i.e. the recording angels who record them).” [“Mishkāt” p. 458]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه once told the people with him, “You people carry out deeds that you regard to be finer than a strand of hair (i.e. you regard them to be insignificant) whereas during the time of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم we used to regard them to be devastating.” [Bukhari v. 2 p. 961]

THE VIRTUE OF SURAH ZILZĀL

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Surah Zilzāl equals half the Qur’ān, Surah Ikhhlās (Surah 112) equals a third of the Qur’ān and Surah Kāfirūn (Surah 109) equals a quarter of the Qur’ān. [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once asked someone whether he was married. When the person replied that he was unable to marry because he did not have the means, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him whether he knew Surah Ikhhlās (Surah 112). When he replied in the affirmative, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that Surah Ikhhlās equalled a quarter of the Qur’ān. Thereafter, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him whether he knew Surah Kāfirūn. When he replied in the affirmative, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that Surah Kāfirūn equalled a quarter of the Qur’ān. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then asked him whether he knew Surah Zilzāl. When he replied in the affirmative, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that Surah Zilzāl equalled a quarter of the Qur’ān. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then instructed him to marry, telling him that Allāh Ta’āla would get him married by the blessings of these Surahs. [Ibn Kathīr]

There is no contradiction between the narrations that place the reward of Surah Zilzāl as a quarter of the Qur’ān and those that place its reward as half the Qur’ān because it is possible that Allāh Ta’āla increased the reward from a quarter to half. The same applies to the reward of Surah Ikhhlās which is placed at a quarter as well as a third of the Qur’ān.

سورة العديت

Makkan

Surah Ādiyāt

Verses 11

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالْعَادِيَاتِ ضَبْحًا (1) فَالْمُورِيَاتِ قَدْحًا (2) فَالْمُعِيرَاتِ صُبْحًا (3) فَأَثَرْنَ بِهِ نَقْعًا (4)
فَوَسَطْنَ بِهِ جَمْعًا (5) إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لِرَبِّهِ لَكَنُودٌ (6) وَإِنَّهُ عَلَىٰ ذَٰلِكَ لَشَهِيدٌ (7)
وَإِنَّهُ لِحُبِّ الْخَيْرِ لَشَدِيدٌ (8) أَفَلَا يَعْلَمُ إِذَا بُعِثِرَ مَا فِي الْقُبُورِ (9) وَحُصِّلَ مَا فِي
الْصُّدُورِ (10) إِنَّ رَبَّهُم بِهِمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ لَّخَبِيرٌ (11)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the horses that pant as they gallop! (2) By the sparks that fly from the striking of their hooves! (3) By their assault at dawn... (4) ... causing the dust to fly... (5) ...and penetrating the midst of the enemy's ranks. (6) Undoubtedly man is extremely ungrateful to his Lord. (7) Indeed, he is also a witness to this fact. (8) Verily he has a profound love for wealth. (9) Is he not aware of the time when whatever lies within the graves shall be raised ... (10) and whatever lies within chests will be exposed? (11) On that day their Lord shall certainly be Informed about them.

Allāh takes oaths by five attributes of horses to emphasise the fact that man is extremely ungrateful to Allāh. Allāh Ta'āla says, "By the horses that pant as they gallop! By the sparks that fly from the striking of their hooves! By their assault at dawn causing the dust to fly and penetrating the midst of the enemy's ranks." The Arabs held horses in very high esteem. They were constantly fighting each other and often camped outside the town of their enemies by night and launched surprise attacks at the crack of dawn. They plundered the towns they attacked and looted the people. Allāh reminds man of the great bounty that He has bestowed on him by providing such animals for him who will be faithful to him in the very thick of battle. Man is therefore obliged to be grateful to Allāh for this and His many other bounties. Man ought to express his gratitude to Allāh by obeying Allāh's commands and by following the teachings of Allāh's Nabi (prophet) Sayyidina Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. The horses which they used for wrong purposes should now be used in Allāh's obedience.

Some commentators are of the opinion that the Surah refers to horses that are used for Jihād in Allāh's path. Others mention that the verses refer to horses that are used during Hajj to transport the Hujjaj (pilgrims) from Arafāt to Muzdalifa and from Muzdalifa to Mina.

"Undoubtedly man is extremely ungrateful to his Lord." Although the most accepted interpretation of the Arabic word "kunūd" is "extremely ungrateful", some commentators have interpreted it to mean someone who does little good. Sayyidina Hasan رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that it refers to a person who counts his difficulties and forgets the bounties he is blessed with. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 4 p. 518]

Allāh continues, "Indeed, he (man) is also a witness to this fact" i.e. to the fact that he is extremely ungrateful. In addition to this, "Verily he has a profound love for wealth." Man is reluctant to spend his wealth for others and is ever eager to accumulate more.

Allāh asks, "Is he (man) not aware of the time when whatever lies within the graves shall be raised and whatever lies within chests will be exposed?" Allāh Ta'āla asks whether people have perhaps forgotten "the day when they will hurriedly emerge from the graves" because their attitude seems to betray this. Man ought to keep this day in mind at all times so that he continues to fulfil Allāh's commands, knowing that he will be taken to task for violating these. Everything that man conceals within his heart will be exposed on the Day of Judgment. Everyone on the plains of resurrection will be able to see the evil designs that each person harboured in their hearts along with the intense love for wealth that their hearts concealed.

Allāh is Informed about the deeds and condition of His creation at all times. However, because the Day of Judgment is the day when reckoning will take place and the day when deeds will be brought to the fore, Allāh mentions, "On that day their Lord shall certainly be Informed about them."

سورة القارعة

Makkan	Surah Qāri'ah	Verses 11
--------	---------------	-----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْقَارِعَةُ ۝۱ مَا الْقَارِعَةُ ۝۲ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْقَارِعَةُ ۝۳ يَوْمَ يَكُونُ النَّاسُ
كَالْفَرَاشِ الْمَبْثُوثِ ۝۴ وَتَكُونُ الْجِبَالُ كَالْعِهْنِ الْمَنْفُوشِ ۝۵
فَأَمَّا مَنْ ثَقُلَتْ مَوَازِينُهُ ۝۶ فَهُوَ فِي عِيشَةٍ رَاضِيَةٍ ۝۷ وَأَمَّا مَنْ خَفَّتْ
مَوَازِينُهُ ۝۸ فَأُمُّهُ هَاوِيَةٌ ۝۹ وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا هِيَةٌ ۝۱۰ نَارٌ حَامِيَةٌ ۝۱۱

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) The knocker. (2) What is the knocker? (3) What shall inform you what the knocker is? (4) (It is) the day when people will become like scattered moths... (5) .... and the mountains will become like coloured cotton wool. (6) As for him whose scales are weighty... (7) ... he shall be (enjoying) a life of happiness. (8) As for him whose scales are light... (9) .... his abode shall be "Hāwiya". (10) How will you know what this is? (11) (It is) the blazing fire.

This Surah describes Judgment day (Qiyāmah) as someone knocking at one's door. When resurrection Day comes, people will be engaged in their various activities. Some will be attending to their businesses and occupations while others will be sleeping. It will take place suddenly and everyone will be caught unawares, just as people are surprised by unexpected visitors knocking at their doors. To emphasise the importance of the Day of Judgment, Allāh asks, "What is the knocker? What shall inform you what the knocker is?" Allāh Ta'āla then describes Judgment day as "the day when people will become like scattered moths." Just as moths are bewildered and dazed by a bright light and scatter in confusion, people will suffer the same confusion on the Day of Judgment. Allāh uses another simile in Surah Qamar when He says, "they shall emerge.. from their graves as if they are scattered locusts." [Surah 44, verse 7]

Describing the condition of the mighty mountains on the Day of Judgment, Allāh says, "the mountains will become like coloured cotton wool." Even though they are symbols of stability, the mountains will fly about like wool on the day of Judgment. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Wāqī'ah, "And the mountains will be shattered to pieces and become like scattered dust." Verse 3 of Surah Takwīr (Surah 81) reads: "When the mountains are made to fly about." If this is to be the state of the mountains, one cannot imagine the disorientation that the rest of creation will experience. Allāh Ta'āla says that the mountains will resemble coloured wool because mountains are of different colours, as Allāh says in Surah Fātir, "From the mountains there are different ridges, varying from white to red of different shades and some which are extremely black." [Surah 35, verse 27]

After describing the advent of the Day of Judgment, Allāh Ta'āla describes the condition of people on the Plains of Resurrection. Allah says "As for him whose scales are weighty, he shall be (enjoying) a life of happiness." The people of Heaven shall be completely satisfied with their lives. They will have absolutely no hardship or worries in Heaven.

On the other hand, "As for him whose scales are light, his abode shall be 'Hāwiya'. How will you know what this is? It is) the blazing fire." Allāh says about the scales of deeds in Surah A'rāf, "The weighing on that day is the truth! As for him whose scale is heavy, these will be the successful ones. As for him whose scale is light, these are the ones who have lost their souls because they were unjust towards Our verses." The details of the scales of deeds are discussed in Surah Kahf [Surah 18, verse 105] and Surah Mu'minūn [Surah 23, verses 102,103].

Some Scholars state that the scales here in Surah Qāri'ah refer to the scales that measure belief and disbelief. Therefore, those who have belief shall be admitted into Heaven, while the disbelievers shall suffer eternally in Hell. It is this same group of Scholars who interpret verse 105 of Surah Kahf (Surah 18) to mean that the deeds of the disbelievers will not be weighed at all on the day of Judgment. Some commentators state that the weighing of deeds here refers to Allāh Ta'āla's weighing of the deeds of the believers. Therefore, those whose evil deeds are heavier will be admitted into Hell to be cleansed of their sins while those whose good deeds are heavier will go straight to Heaven.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that those whose good deeds are heavier than their sins shall be admitted into Heaven even if they are heavier by a single deed. On the other hand, those whose sins are heavier than their good deeds will be doomed for Hell even if they are heavier by a single sin. He then recited the above verses of Surah A'rāf where Allāh Ta'āla says, "The weighing on that day is the truth! As for him whose scale is heavy, these will be the successful ones. As for him whose scale is light, these are the ones who have lost their souls because they were unjust towards Our verses." [Surah 7, verses 8,9]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه also mentioned that these scales will be sensitive to even an iota's weight of good or sin. Those whose good deeds are equal to their sins will be detained at "A'rāf" (the barrier between Heaven and Hell. They will also be admitted in Heaven eventually). Those whose sins are heavier will also be eventually admitted into Heaven either by someone's intercession, after being cleansed of sin or purely by Allāh's grace. A Mumin (Believer) cannot remain eternally in Hell nor on A'rāf.

"As for him whose scales are light, his abode shall be 'Hāwiya'. How will you know what this is? It is) the blazing fire." The Arabic word "umm" (translated above as “abode”) literally refers to a mother. Hell will cling onto the people of Hell just as a mother clings onto her sibling. This is because these people clung to sin in this world in the same way. The Arabic word “Hāwiya” refers to something that falls. Hell is described as “Hāwiya” because of its extreme depth. Sayyidina Utba bin Ghazwān رضى الله عنه narrates that a stone cast into Hell will continue falling for seventy years without reaching the bottom. [Mishkāt” p. 497 from Muslim]

سورة التكاثر

Makkan	Surah Takāthur	Verses 8
--------	----------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

الْهَنَكُمُ التَّكَاثُرُ ۚ (1) حَتَّى زُرْتُمُ الْمَقَابِرَ ۚ (2) كَلَّا سَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ۚ (3) ثُمَّ كَلَّا سَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ۚ (4) كَلَّا لَوْ تَعْلَمُونَ عِلْمَ الْيَقِينِ ۚ (5) لَتَرَوُنَّ الْجَحِيمَ ۚ (6) ثُمَّ لَتَرَوُنَّهَا عَيْنَ الْيَقِينِ ۚ (7) ثُمَّ لَتُسْأَلُنَّ يَوْمَئِذٍ عَنِ النَّعِيمِ ۚ (8)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Rivalry in amassing wealth has made you negligent... (2) ... until you reach the graves. (3) Never! Soon you will come to know! (4) Never! Soon you will come to know! (5) If you had certain knowledge (you would not have preoccupied yourself with rivalry). (6) (By Allāh) you will definitely see Hell! (7) (By Allāh) you will then surely see it with the eye of certainty. (8) Thereafter on that day you will definitely be questioned about the bounties.

The Arabic word “takāthur” refers to mutual rivalry between people in amassing wealth, a trait which is commonly witnessed in many people. People vie with each other in amassing wealth and boast about their wealth to each other. Even though some people may not boast in front of others, this rivalry is ingrained in their mentality and they are always competing with others. Allāh Ta’āla declares in Surah Hadīd, “Know that the life of this world is merely play, futility, decoration, boasting among each other and rivalry in wealth and children.” [Surah 57, verse 20]

Being engrossed in competing with others in amassing wealth has caused man to neglect those actions that please Allāh and has also caused him to forget that he is heading for the grave. In this manner, people pass through this world steeped in negligence and, when they face the reality of the Ākhirah (Hereafter), they are bewildered and lacking good deeds. Then the wealth they amassed will be useless to them. Allāh refers to this when He says, ‘Rivalry in amassing wealth has made you negligent until you reach the graves.’

“Ma’ālimut Tanzīl” (v. 4 p. 520) has reported the following incident about this rivalry among the Arabs. Rivalry existed between the Banu Abd Manāf bin Qussay tribe and the Banu Sahn bin Amar tribe of Makkah. On one occasion, both tribes boasted that they had a greater number of nobles and leaders. After counting, it was found that the number among the Banu Abd Manāf tribe was higher. The Banu Sahm tribe submitted that their deceased should also be included in the count because these had been part of their tribe. When the dead were counted, the Banu Sahm emerged as victors by a few individuals. It was with reference to this that Allāh revealed the verse "Rivalry in amassing wealth has made you negligent..."

Allāh continues, "Never! (This rivalry will not benefit you) Soon you will come to know (the error of your ways)!" Allāh then reiterates, "Never! Soon you will come to know!"

Allāh says, "If you had certain knowledge (you would not have preoccupied yourself with rivalry)." Allāh Ta'āla specifies "Ilmul Yaqīn" ("certain knowledge") because knowledge is often uncertain as well. Thereafter, Allāh asserts, "(By Allāh) you will definitely see Hell! (By Allāh) You will then surely see it with the eye of certainty." When man sees the reality of the Hereafter for himself, he will truly be convinced about the truth of it. Describing the three levels of certainty, Scholars mention that every living person has "Ilmul Yaqīn" ("certain knowledge") about death. However, when man sees the angels of death approaching him, he experiences "Aynul Yaqīn" (seeing death with the "eye of certainty"). Finally, "Haqqul Yaqīn" ("the irrefutable truth") is achieved once a person actually dies. ["Ruhul Ma'āni" v. 30 p. 260]

Several verses of the Qur'ān warn people against preoccupying themselves with the commodities of this world in a manner that their lives revolve completely around these things and they live and die for them. Allāh warns man that the consequence of such behaviour shall be that they will see Hell and finally enter it. These verses remind man that this world is not everything and that death and the Hereafter are soon to follow.

Allāh concludes the Surah by stating, "Thereafter on that day you will definitely be questioned about the bounties." "Ruhul Ma'āni" contains a lengthy discussion concerning this verse. The discussion centres around who will be questioned about Allāh's bounties and when will this questioning take place? Because this verse follows the previous verses, it seems that the subject matter is related. Therefore, this verse is also addressed to those people who will see Hell and who will be made to enter Hell. They will be questioned about Allāh's bounties to them to rebuke them for abusing these bounties and for not using these to please Allāh and to prepare for the Ākhirah (Hereafter).

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "On the Day of Judgement, man will be brought forward like a lamb. He will then be presented before Allāh, Who will ask, 'Did I not grant you wealth and bounties? What did you do with these?' He will reply, 'I accumulated it and multiplied it until it flourished Then I left it all behind Allow me to return and bring it all before you.'"

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم continued, "Allāh will say, 'Show Me what you had sent ahead here [to the Ākhirah (Hereafter)].' He will again reply, 'I accumulated it and multiplied it until it flourished Then I left it all behind Allow me to return and bring it all before You. 'It will then transpire that he was one who had not performed any good deeds on earth. He will then be flung into Hell.' [Mishkāt p. 443]

Although it seems as if the verse addresses those who are destined for Hell, the general nature of the words make it impossible to rule out the possibility that every person will be questioned about the bounties that Allāh blessed him with. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that man's foot will be unable to move from the place of reckoning until he answers five questions. These questions shall be:

1. In what way did he spend his life?
2. In what pursuits did he spend his youth?
3. How did he earn his wealth?
4. How did he spend his wealth?
5. Did he practise the knowledge he had? [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the first questions that Allāh will ask man concerning bounties shall be: "Did I not give you good health?" and "Did I not quench your thirst with cold water?" [Tirmidhi]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always advised His companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم to thank Allāh for His bounties. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه were once guests at the house of an Ansāri companion (Sahabi) رضى الله عنه. He served them a branch of a date palm on which there were ripe, dry and semi-ripe dates to choose from. He then slaughtered a goat and cooked the meat for them. When they had eaten dates and meat and drank water to their fill, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه, "I swear by the Being in Whose control is my life! You will certainly be questioned about these bounties on the Day of Judgment (i.e. about whether you expressed gratitude for the bounty and whether you used the strength derived from the food for good or not). Hunger brought you out of your homes and Allāh has blessed you with these bounties before you could return home." [Muslim]

Another narration reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه once met an Ansāri Companion (Sahabi) رضى الله عنه in his orchard. He served them a branch from a date palm from which they ate. When they asked for cold water, he served them some. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told them that they would be questioned about this bounty on the Day of Judgment. Hearing this, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه dropped the branch from his hand, causing all the dates to be scattered about. He then asked, "O The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Will we be questioned about this?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم confirmed that people will be questioned about every bounty except three. These are:

1. A small piece of cloth used to cover the private parts.
2. A piece of bread that appeases hunger.
3. A home to protect one from the heat and cold which is so small that one has difficulty entering it. [Mishkāt] p. 369

Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that man has a right only to three things and to nothing else. These are:

1. A house to live in.
2. Sufficient clothing to conceal his private parts.

3. Plain bread (without gravy) and water. [Tirmidihi]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Shakhīr رضى الله عنه narrates that he entered the presence of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم while the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was reciting Surah Takāthur and saying, "Man says, 'My wealth! My wealth!' whereas only three things are actually his. (1) The food that he ate and digested, (2) the clothing that he wore out, and (3) the charity that he spent and sent ahead (for the Hereafter)." Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه has narrated the same hadith with the addition that a person will leave all else (besides the above three things) for his heirs. ["Mishkāt" p. 440]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a man will have three registers on the Day of Judgment. The first register will contain his good deeds, the second register will contain all his sins and the third will contain all the bounties that Allāh blessed him with. Allāh will tell the smallest bounty to take its price from the person's good deeds. The smallest bounty will take all the good deeds and will submit that it has still not taken its full price. The person will then still have all the sins to account for and the rest of the bounties to pay for. However, when Allāh wishes to shower a person with mercy, He will tell him, "O My slave! I have increased your good deeds and forgiven your sins." The narrator of the hadith states that it was most probably on his occasion that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم added that Allāh will also say to the person, "I have given you all My bounties as a gift (i.e. without a price)." ["At Targhib wat Tarhib" v. 4 p. 398]

Allāh has granted every bounty to man without man earning them. Allāh can therefore question a person about how he used these bounties. Fortunate are those who engage in Allāh's Ibādah, are grateful to Him and constantly fear retribution from Allāh. On the other hand, most wretched are those who have every bounty and do not even think of submitting to Allāh.

Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Ibrahim [Surah 14, verse 34], "If you try to count Allāh's bounties, you will never be able to do so. Indeed, man is extremely unjust and very ungrateful." Man is extremely foolish. He humbles himself before people who give him things even though they may expect him to return the favour at some time. On the other hand, he refuses to humble himself before Allāh, Who grants him countless favours without asking anything in return. Man refuses to prostrate to Allāh and to fulfil His commands. Only Allāh gives one's good health and only He creates the cool water that slakes one's thirst.

NOTE: Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once asked them, "Is there any of you who is able to recite a thousand verses of the Qur'ān daily?" The prophet's companions (Sahabah) رضى الله عنهم replied, "Who can have the strength to recite a thousand verses daily?" Thereupon the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Can you not recite 'Al Hākumut Takāthur' (Surah Takāthur)?" This means that the reward for reciting Surah Takāthur equals the reward of reciting a thousand verses of the Qur'ān. ["Mishkāt" p. 190]

سورة العصر

Makkan	Surah Asr	Verses 3
--------	-----------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَالْعَصْرِ ﴿١﴾ إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَفِي خُسْرٍ ﴿٢﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالْحَقِّ وَتَوَاصَوْا بِالصَّبْرِ ﴿٣﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) By the oath of time! (2) Verily man is at a loss... (3) .... except those who believe, who do good deeds, who encourage each other towards the truth and encourage each other to exercise patience.

Surah Asr encompasses man's failure and success in a nutshell. By taking an oath in the name of time, Allāh Ta'āla presents time as a witness to the fact that man in general is at a loss. He has to leave behind whatever he earns of this world and because he does not take a provision of good deeds to the Ākhirah (Hereafter), he stands at a loss there. If man looks back in time and studies the history of past nations, it will become clear to him that most people have destroyed their lives in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). If a person lives his life properly, he will be successful in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). On the other hand, failure to do so will lead him to devastation in the Hereafter.

Because most people choose disbelief instead of belief, Allāh Ta'āla makes a general statement stating, "Verily man is at a loss." Therefore, the entire species of mankind except the believers is at a loss. Describing this loss in Surah Zumar, Allāh Ta'āla says, "Verily the losers are those who put themselves and their families at a loss on the Day of Judgment. Behold! That is the evident loss." Such people will themselves be in Hell and they will also lead their families into Hell. The loss of the disbelievers is the worst loss because they will lose everything they earned in this world when they die and will have no deeds to assist them in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). They will be doomed forever because there will be no chance of returning to the world.

Making the exception from those at a loss, Allāh Ta'āla says, "except those who believe, who do good deeds, who encourage each other towards the truth and encourage each other to exercise patience." People with the above four attributes do not have to fear suffering any loss in the Hereafter. In addition to the two fundamental attributes of belief and good deeds, such people also encourage others to carry out good deeds and to refrain from sins. Not only do they encourage their family and friends, but also their associates, co-travellers and people they meet. They encourage them to accept the truth and to tread the straight path.

In addition to this, they also encourage people to exercise patience. The word "Sabr" (translated above as 'Patience') refers to remaining steadfast in performing good deeds, refraining from sin as well as exercising patience when afflicted with any difficulty. As explained in other verses (such as verse 153 of Surah Baqarah), the word "Sabr" entails all these three meanings. The believers described in this Surah also patiently endure the harassment of people whom they encourage "towards the truth".

Every person needs to think whether he is leading a life in a manner that will cause him a loss or whether his way of life will lead him to salvation. People imbued with strong Belief are constantly concerned about their plight in the Ākhirah (Hereafter). They lose no opportunity to carry out good deeds and make every effort to avoid sin, especially the worst of sins viz. disbelief and polytheism. In this manner, they are always soaring to new heights in proximity to Allāh.

Unfortunately, there are many Muslims who neither seem to have any concern for their own salvation nor for the salvation of others. Of a person's 24-hour day, approximately eight hours are spent in earning a living, while another six are spent sleeping. Another two to three hours are spent in Salāh and other necessities. If the rest of the time is spent idly, it is wasted. If it is spent in sin, one will have to suffer grave consequences. A believer ought to be concerned about his Ākhirah (Hereafter) all the time. Many retired people who do not have to earn a living, while away their time in trivial pursuits without realising that they could make their time valuable by engaging in acts of Ibādah (worship) such as Salāh, Tilāwah (recitation) of the Qur'ān, remembrance of Allāh (Dhikr), teaching and propagating religion, etc. They could also be of invaluable assistance to religious organisations. If a person retires at about 50 or 65, he may still live for another 30 or 35 (or even more) years. To waste so much time in futile and Harām (unlawful) pastimes such as backbiting, watching television, playing cards, etc is extremely foolish. An intelligent person is one who uses his time profitably by engaging in good deeds and abstaining from sin.

The Surah makes it clear that it is not sufficient for a person to be concerned about his spiritual condition only. He has to ensure that others also practise religion, especially his family and subordinates. If he does not see to this, his wife, children and family will become a source of grief for him in the Hereafter. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made it clear that each person is a shepherd and will be questioned about his flock. [Bukhari]

It is most tragic to note that parents nowadays turn their children away from religion, teach them how to earn Harām (unlawful) wealth and send them to places where their belief is in jeopardy. This they regard as progress when it is actually the worst retrogression. May Allāh guide the Ummah. Āmin.

سورة الحمزة

Makkan	Surah Humaza	Verses 9
--------	--------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَيْلٌ لِّكُلِّ هُمَزَةٍ لُّمَزَةٍ ۚ (1) الَّذِي جَمَعَ مَالًا وَعَدَّدَهُ ۚ (2) يَحْسَبُ أَنَّ مَالَهُ أَخْلَدَهُ ۚ (3)
 كَلَّا ۖ لَيُنْبَذَنَّ فِي الْحُطَمَةِ ۚ (4) وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْحُطَمَةُ ۚ (5) نَارُ اللَّهِ الْمَوْقَدَةُ ۚ (6)
 الَّتِي تَطَّلِعُ عَلَى الْآفَاقَةِ ۚ (7) إِنَّمَا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّوَصَّدَةٌ ۚ (8) فِي عَمَدٍ مُّمَدَّدَةٍ ۚ (9)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Destruction be for every person who searches for faults (in others) and who mocks... (2) . . . who amasses wealth and keeps meticulous count of it. (3) He thinks that his wealth will keep him alive forever. (4) Never! He will certainly be thrown into the "Thresher" (5) How will you know what the "Thresher" is? (6) (It is) Allāh's kindled fire... (7) . . . which penetrates the hearts. (8) It will certainly be locked over them... (9) ...in extended pillars.

The two words "humaza" and "lumaza" (translated above as a "person who searches for faults" and a person "who mocks" respectively), both refer to people who search for faults in other people, who backbite, who ridicule, who speak evil of others, who condemn others, who laugh at others and who poke fun at others either physically, verbally or by indications (such as winking). Referring to such people, Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Qalam, "Do not obey every person who excessively swears on oath, who is disgraced, who searches for the faults of others, who excels in carrying tales." Condemning such actions in Surah Taubah Allāh says, "Of them are those who ridicule you concerning charity." Allāh emphatically states in Surah Hujurat, "Never find faults with yourselves." [Refer to the Tafsir of Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله v. 10 Pgs. 181-184]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned that the above verses refer to Akhnas bin Sharik, who used to mock people. Sayyidina Ibn Jurayj رحمه الله عليه states that the verses refer to Walid bin Mughiera who used to speak ill of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in his presence and in his absence. A group of commentators are of the opinion that the verses refer to Ubay bin Khalaf while others mention that they refer to a person called Jamil bin Amir. Nevertheless, the verses clearly state that any person who engages in such evil deeds will be destroyed. People who attach no value to their salvation waste their lives searching for faults in others so that they may publicise these.

Sayyidina Hudhayfa رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "One who carries tales shall not enter Heaven." ["Mishkāt" p. 411]

Sayyidina Abdur Rahmān bin Ghanam رضى الله عنه as well as Sayyidah Asma bint Yazīd رضى الله عنها narrate that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best servants of Allāh are those who remind you of Allāh when you see them. The worst servants of Allāh are those who carry tales, who cast enmity between friends and who desire that harm should come to those who stay away from evil." ["Mishkāt" p. 415]

Once, while speaking to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها alluded towards the shortness of Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها [who was also one of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wives]. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then told Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that she had spoken a word which is so evil that it could contaminate the oceans. ["Mishkāt" p. 414]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That person cannot be a Mu'min (Believer) who mocks, who curses, who is vulgar and who carries out indecent acts." ["Mishkāt" p. 413]

The discussion concerning the abomination of backbiting has been given in the commentary of verse 12 of Surah Hujurāt (Surah 49).

Recounting another evil practice of the person who searches for the faults of others, Allāh Ta'āla says that he also "amasses wealth and keeps meticulous count of it." This trait betrays the person's extreme love for material wealth. When a person is besotted with material wealth, he has no regard for Halāl (lawful) and Harām (unlawful) when earning. He will leave no stone unturned to make money even though he has to usurp the wealth of another person or forsake his Farā'idh (obligations) and Wājib (Compulsory) in the process. In addition to this, such a person regards material wealth as everything. Although he knows that he will have to die, he behaves as if his wealth will be of use to him forever. Referring to this behaviour, Allāh Ta'āla says, "He thinks that his wealth will keep him alive forever."

Allāh Ta'āla emphatically negates this false notion when He says, "Never!" Neither will the person live forever in this world nor will his wealth remain forever. Mentioning the plight of such a person, Allāh says, "He will certainly be thrown into the 'Thresher'. How will you know what the 'Thresher' is? (It is) Allāh's kindled fire which penetrates the hearts." The fire of Hell is so intense that it will not only burn the bodies of people but it will reach their hearts. Although this is sufficient to kill a person in this world, the people of Hell will not die.

Allāh says in Surah Nisā, "Whenever their skins melt away, We shall exchange them for fresh skins so that they may taste the torment." A verse of Surah A 'la states, "He (the person in Hell) will then neither die there nor live."

Further describing the fire of Hell, Allāh says, "It will certainly be locked over them in extended pillars." The doors of Hell will be locked and they will have no escape. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه has mentioned that the doors of Hell will be sealed with pillars. Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه has reported that the pillars refer to the yokes that will be placed on their necks so that they cannot escape. Other commentators mention that the pillars refer to the large flames of Hell which will scorch the people there, making it impossible for them to escape.

NOTE: The phrase "Allāh's kindled fire" makes it clear that the fire of Hell has already been kindled and will be ready before people are thrown into it. Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the fire of Hell was kindled for a thousand years until it became red. It was then kindled for another thousand years until it became white. It was then kindled for another thousand years until it became black. It is now black and dark. [Tirmidhi]

سورة الفيل

Makkan	Surah Fil	Verses 5
--------	-----------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِأَصْحَابِ الْفِيلِ ﴿١﴾ أَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ كَيْدَهُمْ فِي تَضْلِيلٍ ﴿٢﴾
وَأَرْسَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ طَيْرًا أَبَابِيلَ ﴿٣﴾ تَرْمِيهِمْ بِحِجَارٍ مِّن سِجِّيلٍ ﴿٤﴾ فَعَلَّاهُمْ كَعَصِفٍ
مَّا كُولٍ ﴿٥﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the people of the elephants? (2) Did He not lay their plans to waste... (3).... and send against them flights of birds... (4) ... who pelted them with clay pebbles... (5) ... making them look like eaten fodder?

The word 'fil' is an Arabic adaptation of the Persian word 'pīl', meaning "elephant". Because Arabic does not have a letter with a "p" sound, the closest equivalent is the 'f' (called 'fa' in Arabic). Therefore, the word 'fil' is used. The 'people of the elephants' refers to a person called Abrahā and his army. Abrahā was appointed by the king of Abyssinia to act as the governor of Yemen. When he was appointed as governor, he decided to build a temple which would be an architectural masterpiece to be revered by one and all. He desired that the Arabs abandon the Ka'ba in Makkah and pay homage to this "Yemeni Kābah". Consequently, he built a temple that was so tall that a person standing at the base was unable to see the top. He had the structure embellished with gold, silver and precious gems. He then made a proclamation that no one in Yemen should ever visit the Ka'ba in Makkah and that pilgrimage should now take place to his "Ka'ba".

Although the Arabs were idol-worshippers, the love and reverence for the Ka'ba had permeated their hearts. Consequently, the Adnān, Qahtān and Quraysh tribes became extremely upset. One night, a member of the Mālik bin Kinanah tribe defecated in Abrahā's temple. When Abrahā learnt that it was a member of the Quraysh who did this, he swore to destroy their Ka'ba. When Abrahā sought permission from the king of Abyssinia, the king gave him his blessings and even sent his special elephant called Mahmūd. Mounted on this elephant, Abrahā marched with an army of elephants to destroy the Ka'ba. He intended to raze the Ka'ba to the ground by fastening its pillars with iron chains tied to the elephants.

When the news of this planned attack on the Ka'bah spread, the Arabs prepared to defend the Ka'ba and raised a large army under the leadership of Dhu Nafar. However; Allāh Ta'āla did not desire that humans protect His Ka'ba. Therefore, Abrahā crushed this resistance and took Dhu Nafar prisoner. When Abrahā's army reached the settlement of the Banu Khath'am tribe, their leader Nufayl bin Habīb led his entire tribe against the army but they were also defeated. Nufayl was taken prisoner. Although Abrahā intended to have him executed, he later changed his mind, thinking that they could use him as a guide.

When the army reached Tā'if, the Banu Thaqīf tribe living there decided not to resist him because they had already heard about the fate of those who had previously resisted the mighty army. They also feared that if they oppose Abrahā, he would destroy the temple they had erected in the name of their idol Lāt. They therefore met with Abrahā and offered him the services of one of their leaders by the name of Abu Righāl. Abrahā accepted Abu Righāl's services as a guide and he led them towards Makkah. When the army reached a place called Maghmas, where the camels of the Quraysh grazed, Abrahā captured all the camels. Among these camels were two hundred camels belonging to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم s grandfather Abdul Muttalib.

From this place, Abrahā dispatched his messenger Hanāta Himyari to meet with the Quraysh leaders and to inform them that he did not intend fighting the people of Makkah. He made it clear that none of the residents of Makkah would be harmed if they did not oppose him in his objective of destroying the Ka'ba. When Hanāta arrived in Makkah, everyone pointed him in the direction of Abdul Muttalib because he was regarded to be the most senior leader. When Hanāta conveyed Abrahā's message, Abdul Muttalib told him that they had no intentions of opposing Abrahā because they did not have the might. However, he made it clear that the Ka'ba is Allāh's house which Allāh's friend Sayyidina Ibrahīm عليه السلام had built. He told Hanāta that Allāh would protect the Ka'ba and that they could proceed with their plans if they were prepared to fight Allāh. Hanāta then insisted that Abdul Muttalib accompany him to meet Abrahā.

When Abrahā saw the handsome countenance of Abdul Muttalib, he descended from his throne and sat with Abdul Muttalib on the ground. Speaking through a translator, Abrahā asked Abdul Muttalib why he had come. Abdul Muttalib said that he had come for his camels which Abrahā's soldiers had captured. Abrahā said to Abdul Muttalib, "When I set my eyes on you, I had tremendous respect for you. However, I have lost all this respect now that you speak of your mere 200 camels knowing that I have come here to destroy your Ka'ba. You have said nothing about this." Abdul Muttalib said, "I am the owner of the camels and am concerned about them. I am not the owner of Allāh's house. The Master of the house knows how to protect His house."

Abrahā said, "Your God cannot protect it from me." Then you do as you please," said Abdul Muttalib. According to certain narrations, some other leaders of the Quraysh were with Abdul Muttalib at that time. They proposed to Abrahā that if he left the Ka'ba to be, the entire Tihāma region would pay him a third of their crops annually. However, he refused this offer. He then returned Abdul Muttalib's camels to him. Taking his camels along with him, Abdul Muttalib returned to Makkah.

When he entered Makkah, he proceeded straight to the Ka'ba and, holding the ring of the door, he made supplication to Allāh. A large group of the Quraysh joined him in the supplication in which they entreated Allāh Ta'āla to protect the Ka'ba because they did not have the strength to resist Abrahā's powerful army. After having supplicated to Allāh in all sincerity, Abdul Muttalib took all the people of Makkah to the neighbouring mountains because they were convinced that Allāh's punishment would seize Abrahā and his army.

The next morning, Abrahā prepared the army to march into Makkah. Nufayl bin Habīb, whom Abrahā had taken prisoner earlier, took hold of the ear of Abrahā's elephant Mahmūd. He said to the elephant, "Return safely whence you came from because you are in Allāh's sacred city." Upon hearing this, the elephant immediately sat down. Try as they might, the elephant's minders could not get him to stand. They even tried beating him with large iron spears and putting iron arrowheads in his trunk. However, he still would not walk towards Makkah. When they steered him in the direction of Yemen, he was prepared to walk. He was prepared to walk in every other direction besides the direction of the Ka'ba. It was then that the army saw many flights of little birds approaching from the coast. Each bird carried three little pebbles the size of the gram seed or (according to other narrations) the size of lentils. Each bird carried one in its beak and one in each claw.

Wāqidi رحمه الله عليه narrates that the birds (referred to as Abābīl) looked strange and had never been seen before. They were the size of pigeons with red claws. Sayyidina Sa'id bin Musayyab رحمه الله عليه has mentioned that the birds were green with yellow beaks. Sayyidina Ikrima رضى الله عنه narrates that the birds emerged from the ocean and had heads resembling animals. As the birds flew over Abrahā's army, they dropped their pebbles which pecked more power than a bullet. They went straight through anything they struck and settled deep in the ground. Seeing this punishment, the elephants all dispersed and all but one were unharmed. All Abrahā's soldiers did not die immediately. Those who escaped died painful deaths as they tried to make their way back to Yemen. Allāh Ta'āla had sent little birds with little pebbles to destroy an army that many Arab tribes could not resist. On that occasion, Abrahā was afflicted with a horrible disease. A poison permeated his body and caused every joint to decay. By the time he was brought back to Yemen, his body was in pieces. He died there. Two of Mahmūd's keepers settled in Makkah but both became blind and paralysed. They were often seen begging from people. [The Tafsīr of Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه v. 4 p. 549 and "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" v. 4 p. 525]

This incident was witnessed by many people and it became a momentous event in Arab history. When referring to any event during that year, the Arabs would say that it happened in the year of the elephants. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was born in the same year, fifty days after the people of the elephants were destroyed. Because everyone was acquainted with the incident, Allāh Ta'āla speaks of the incident without introduction when He says, "Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with the people of the elephants?" Allāh Ta'āla reminds the people of Makkah that He had been merciful to them when He protected the Ka'ba which had given them respect among the Arabs. In this way, Allāh preserved their honour and esteem. Allāh asks them "Did He not lay their plans to waste and send against them flights of birds who pelted them with clay pebbles, making them look like eaten fodder?" It is the same Allāh who sent His final Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to the people of Makkah, thereby increasing their honour and the honour of the Ka'ba. It was therefore necessary for the people of Makkah to be grateful to Allāh for all these bounties.

Commentators mention that any miraculous event that took place before the coming of a Nabi عليه السلام is called "Irhās". A miraculous event that took place after the coming of a Nabi عليه السلام is called "Mu'jiza". The incident of the elephants is therefore regarded as an "Irhās" of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The incident was a sign to indicate that a notable personality will soon appear in the city of Makkah who will have a special attachment with the Ka'ba.

NOTE: The fact that Allāh Ta'āla sent many flights of birds indicates that Abrahā's army was very large. While there were many soldiers, there were only eight to twelve elephants. Although swallows are usually referred to as "Abābīl", they are not implied in the verse. As explained earlier, these birds were a type that appeared most strange.

The word "sijjil" (translated above as "clay pebbles") is the Arabic version of the two Persian words "sangh" (stone) and "gill" (clay). They therefore refer to clay rolled into little balls and then baked to harden. These were the same type of pebbles used to destroy the nation of Sayyidina Lūt عليه السلام. These pebbles are neither as heavy nor as hard as stones broken off mountains. It is only by the power of Allāh that these stones could have had the devastating effect they did.

Allāma Qurtubi رحمه الله عليه narrates from Abu Sālih رحمه الله عليه that he saw some of these pebbles in the house of Sayyidah Umm Hāni رضي الله عنها the daughter of Abu Tālib. He says that they were black in colour with red stripes across them. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned that tiny pimples developed on the parts of the bodies that the pebbles struck and that this was the beginning of small-pox. Allāh knows best.

سورة القريش

Makkan	Surah Quraysh	Verses 4
--------	---------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

لَا يَلْفُ قَرِيشٌ ۚ (1) إِذْ لَفِيهِمْ رِحْلَةَ الشِّتَاءِ وَالصَّيْفِ ۚ (2) فَلْيَعْبُدُوا رَبَّ هَذَا
الْبَيْتِ ۚ (3) الَّذِي أَطْعَمَهُمْ مِنْ جُوعٍ وَآمَنَهُمْ مِنْ خَوْفٍ ۚ (4)

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Because of the familiarity of the Quraysh. (2) .... their familiarity with travelling in winter and summer... (3) ...they ought to worship the Lord of this House... (4) ... Who fed them in their hunger and gave them safety from fear.

Allāh Ta'āla commanded His Khalīl (friend) Sayyidina Ibrāhīm عليه السلام to reconstruct the Ka'ba in Makkah. The Hajj (pilgrimage) to the Ka'ba had been taking place long before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came into the world. Because the Quraysh lived in Makkah where the Ka'ba was situated, the Arabs held them in high esteem even though they were polytheists. Everyone regarded the Ka'ba to be "Baytullāh" i.e. the house of Allāh. Although the Arabs were accustomed to looting and fighting each other, no one ever attacked the people of Makkah because they lived around the Ka'ba. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Ankabūt, "Do they not see that We have made the Haram peaceful, whereas people are being ravaged around them? Do they believe in falsehood and show ingratitude for Allāh's bounties?" [Surah 29, verse 67]

When the people of the elephants were destroyed and the incident became popular, the Arabs began to have even more reverence for the people of Makkah. Even the people of other areas began to respect them.

Makkah is a barren area. The ground is covered in rocks, water is scarce and so is vegetation. There are barely any means of survival there. From ancient times, the people of Makkah travelled to Shām in the north and Yemen in the south to get what they needed. Their caravans annually made a winter trip to Yemen and a summer trip to Shām. From there they used to bring some foods and other articles which they sold. In fact, the famous incident when the Roman Emperor Heraclius questioned Sayyidina Abu Sufyan رضى الله عنه about the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم took place when the latter was on one of these journeys.

Allāh Ta'āla had therefore made these trade journeys of the Quraysh a means by which their clothing and food requirements were met. At the same time, their safety was ensured by the presence of the Ka'ba. It is for this reason that Surah Quraysh follows Surah Fil. Allāh Ta'āla reminds the Quraysh that He had ensured the safety of the Ka'ba by sending the birds to destroy the army of Abrahā. By doing this, the safety of the Quraysh was also ensured because people respected them for their relationship with the Ka'ba. As a result, the Quraysh were free to travel anywhere in Arabia without fear of being waylaid or looted. As they travelled to Shām and Yemen, none would lay a hand on them because of the respect they had for them. It was therefore easy for them to transport to Makkah whatever they needed. Allāh reminds them of these favours so that they realise that they have to be grateful to Allāh and that "they ought to worship the Lord of this House Who fed them in their hunger and gave them safety from fear." To worship other beings while enjoying all the bounties of Allāh is an act of extreme ingratitude.

NOTE: The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم belonged to the Banu Hāshim clan, which was an offshoot of the Quraysh tribe. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم grandfather was known by the title of Abdul Muttalib although his name was Shayba. His father was Amr bin Abd Manāf, whose title was Hāshim. It is for this reason that his clan became known as the Banu Hāshim (the children of Hāshim). The name of Amr bin Abd Manāf's father (i.e. Abd Manāf) was Mughiera bin Qusay. After him, the lineage is as follows: the son of Kilāb, the son of Murrah, the son of Ka'b, the son of Luway, the son of Ghālib, the son of Fahar, the son of Mālik, the son of Nadhar, the son of Kināna.

While some Scholars mention that Quraysh was the title of Fahar bin Mālik (Fahar the son of Mālik), other Scholars state that it was definitely the title of Nadhar bin Kināna (Nadhar the son of Kināna). In his book "Al Bidāya wan Nihāya", Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has mentioned the proofs for each opinion, but has preferred the second opinion and has also quoted an authentic hadith in support of this opinion. Therefore, the lineage of Nadhar bin Kināna are called the Quraysh.

Some Scholars state that the word Quraysh is the diminutive form of the word "Qarsh". When Sayyidina Mu'āwiya رضى الله عنه asked Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه the meaning of the word Quraysh, he replied that it is the name of a powerful sea creature which eats all other large and small creatures in the sea. The Quraysh were called by this name because they were a powerful tribe who overpowered other tribes. The word also conveys the meaning of unity. It is therefore said that because Qusay bin Kilāb was the first person to unite various tribes to live in the Haram, he was given this title. According to others, the word Quraysh refers to earning a living by trade. The Quraysh received this title because trade was their occupation.

The word Quraysh also has the meaning of 'each'. It is recorded that Nadhar bin Kinānah used to search for the poor and assist them. During, the Hajj season, he and his sons used to search for the needy and give them so much wealth that it lasted them until they reached their homes. It for this reason that the tribe received the title of Quraysh. Allāh knows best.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, his cousins Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Ja'far رضى الله عنه, as well as their uncles Sayyidina Abbās رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Aqil رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Hamza رضى الله عنه all belonged to the Banu Hāshim clan. Although Sayyidina Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Uthmān رضى الله عنه did not belong to the Banu Hāshim clan, they all belonged to the Quraysh.

Sayyidina Wāthila bin Asqa رضى الله عنه narrates that he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Verily Allāh selected Kināna from the progeny of Sayyidina Ismā'il عليه السلام and selected Quraysh from the offspring of Kināna. From the Quraysh, Allāh selected the Banu Hāshim and then selected me from the Banu Hāshim." [Muslim]

The Quraysh did not accept Islām for a long while after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم started propagating the message. They persecuted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and forced him to leave Makkah. However, Allāh guided them to accept Islām and they rendered great services to Islām, planting the banner of Islām in the lands of great empires. Among the great generals of the Quraysh to accept Islām were Sayyidina Khālid bin Walid رضى الله عنه and Sayyidina Amr bin Al Ās رضى الله عنه.

The "Sunan" of Abu Dawūd Tayālisi رحمه الله عليه quotes a supplication of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in which he supplicated to Allāh saying, "O Allāh! You had made the early members of the Quraysh taste punishment and calamities, now grant prosperity to the latter generation." Allāh accepted this supplication and granted great favours to the Quraysh together with using them for tremendous services to religion.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned that Caliph should remain within the ranks of the Quraysh. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also mentioned that as long as the Quraysh are steadfast upon the truth, Allāh will disgrace those who harbour enmity for them. In another hadith, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the Religion of Islām shall remain dominant under the leadership of twelve Khalifas (Caliphs), all of them from the Quraysh.

Caliph ought to have remained within the Ummah, but monarchy and now democracy have crept into the Ummah, causing their downfall. Unfortunately, nowadays many so-called Muslims are claiming leadership of the Muslims. Although they attach titles of Qurayshi, Siddiqi, Uthmāni, Alawi, etc to their names, these are restricted to names because it is very difficult to detect any trace of Islām in them. Neither do they look like Muslims nor do they behave like Muslims. When they have lost their identities as Muslims, they cannot hope to command respect among the Muslims. What can be expected when such people lead the Muslims who bow to every command of their disbelievers mentors? May Allāh guide the Ummah. Āmīn.

سورة الماعون

Makkan	Surah Mā'ūn	Verses 7
--------	-------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

أَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي يُكَذِّبُ بِالْإِيمَانِ ﴿١﴾ فَذَلِكَ الَّذِي يَدْعُ الْيَتِيمَ ﴿٢﴾ وَلَا
يَحْضُ عَلَى طَعَامِ الْمِسْكِينِ ﴿٣﴾ فَوَيْلٌ لِلْمُصَلِّينَ ﴿٤﴾ الَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنْ صَلَاتِهِمْ
سَاهُونَ ﴿٥﴾ الَّذِينَ هُمْ يُرَاءُونَ ﴿٦﴾ وَيَمْنَعُونَ الْمَاعُونَ ﴿٧﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) Have you not seen the person who denies the Day of Reckoning? (2) It is he who pushes the orphan away and... (3) ...who does not encourage feeding of the poor. (4) Destruction be for those worshippers who neglect their Salāh... (5) ... those who are ostentatious... (6) .... and who refuse even minor articles.

The Arabic word "mā'ūn" (translated above as "minor articles") refers to things that are insignificant and which will barely decrease a person's wealth if he gives them away to others. This Surah condemns six things, each one contained in each of the six verses.

Allāh begins by saying, "Have you not seen the person who denies the Day of Reckoning?" The first thing that Allāh condemns in the Surah is denying the advent of resurrection and Judgment day. Of course, a person who denies Judgment day is a disbeliever.

Allāh continues, "It is he who pushes the orphan away and who does not encourage feeding of the poor." This verse describes the extreme miserliness of the person who denies Judgment day. Not only is he too miserly to spend on the needy, but he does not even encourage others to do the same. Neither does he have mercy on orphans nor on the poor. This verse tells us that harsh and merciless behaviour can be a trait of only a disbeliever. A believer is endowed with a compassionate heart. He takes pity on the needy and is convinced that assisting them will have its rewards in the Hereafter. If a disbeliever has to render assistance to the needy, his deed is not to please Allāh and he has no expectation of reward in the Hereafter. In Surah Al-Hāqqah, Allāh Ta'āla describes a disbeliever who will suffer in Hell. Allāh says, "Verily he never believed in the Majestic Allāh and he never encouraged feeding the poor." [Surah 69, verse 33,34]

After describing three traits of the disbelievers, Allāh Ta'āla mentions three traits of those people who claim to be Muslims but who do not practise religion properly. These people include the hypocrites as well as sincere believers who are lacking in the practical application of Islām in their lives. Allāh says, "Destruction be for those worshippers who neglect their Salāh; those who are ostentatious and who refuse even minor article."

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه writes that "those worshippers who neglect their Salāh" refers to all the following categories of people:

- 📖 Those who do not perform their Salāh at all.
- 📖 Those who are unaware of the times of salāh and perform their salāh at the incorrect times.
- 📖 Those who perform their salāh without observing the conditions and fundamentals of Salāh.
- 📖 Those who are not attentive in their salāh.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه writes further that those who have any number of these traits in them shall be deserving of the condemnation in proportion to the number of traits found in them. However, the person who has all these traits in him shall be deserving of the full force of the condemnation of this verse. Such a person possesses all the traits of a Munāfiq (a hypocrite) even though he may not be one at heart. Bukhari and Muslim report a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the Salāh of a Munāfiq is that he waits until the sun is between the horns of Satan before he hastily stands up for (the Asr) Salāh and pecks at the ground four times. In such a Salāh he hardly thinks of Allāh at all.

Allāh Ta'āla also mentions that such people perform Salāh for show. There are many such people who have no true concern for their Salāh but merely perform their Salāh because they fear that others may think ill of them if they neglect their Salāh. They therefore perform Salāh only to show others. Condemning this behaviour of the hypocrites in Surah Nisā, Allāh Ta'āla says, "Indeed the hypocrites seek to deceive Allāh whereas He deceives them. When they stand up in Salāh, they stand up lazily, to be seen by people and they remember Allāh only a little therein." [Surah 4, verse 142]

A person who has faith in Allāh and in His promises will perform his Salāh scrupulously. It will make no difference to him whether he performs Salāh in public or in private. In either case, the Salāh will be meticulous. He will not regard humans as beings worthy of pleasing through Ibādah (worship). He will perform Tahajjud Salāh (supererogatory prayer) sincerely without making statements like, "It was really freezing cold this morning when I got up for Tahajjud." Just as some people boast about their physical acts of worship, there are many people who insist that a plaque with their names should be displayed on mosques or classrooms that they sponsor. Others insist that honorary titles should be attached to their names whenever their names are taken. There are also others who donate to people and then remind the recipients of their favour, thereby causing them hurt. Allāh says in Surah Baqarah, "O you who believe!

Render not your charity in vain by reminders of your generosity or by injury, like him who spends his wealth to be seen by people and believes not in Allāh nor in the Last Day. His similitude is like that of a rock on which there is some sand. Smitten by a rainstorm, it is left bare. They have no control of anything which they earn, and Allāh does not guide the disbelieving folk." [Surah 2, verse 264]

One should bear in mind that the joy that enters one's heart after carrying out a good deed is not ostentation. Similarly, carrying out a good deed in front of people does not necessarily entail ostentation. Ostentation is a condition of the heart which spurs one to do something so that people may think highly of one and praise one. Foolish are those people whom Satan has fooled into believing that they should not perform Salāh with Jamā'ah (congregation) because it is a public act and public acts denote ostentation. An act done publicly will be regarded as ostentation only when one's purpose is to promote one's image. If one intends only to please Allāh, the act may be private or public. Of course, a good deed carried out privately is better. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Baqarah [Surah 2, verse 271], "If you make your charity apparent, then this is good, but if you secretly give it to the poor, it will be better for you and atone for some of your sins. Allāh is Informed of what you do." The fact that this verse describes giving charity publicly as "good" means that no harm is done by doing so, as long as one is sincere.

The third trait of some people that Allāh condemns is that they "refuse even minor articles." These articles ("mā'un") are such that allowing others to use them will neither cause one loss nor harm, nor will the article itself be tainted. When Sayyidina Abdullah bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه was asked what these articles were, he replied that they were those things that people usually borrowed from each other like hammers, pots, buckets, scales, etc. Sayyidina Abdullah bin Abbās رضى الله عنه also described "Mā'un" as articles used domestically. Sayyidina Ikrima رحمه الله عليه gave examples of "Mā'un" as strainers, buckets and needles. Other commentators have interpreted "refuse even minor articles" to mean that these people refuse to pay the obligatory Zakāh.

Because the Salāh performed for show is not a Salāh for Allāh, performing such a Salāh denotes an act of miserliness towards Allāh, Who deserves much better. After mentioning this miserliness in one's Ibādah (worship), Allāh speaks about miserliness with one's wealth when He condemns those people who "refuse even minor articles." If a person refuses to lend articles to others which will cause no loss to him whatsoever, how can such a person be expected to part with other things?

Failure to pay Zakāh is also a terrible act of miserliness because Allāh is instructing one to part with only one fortieth (2.5%) of one's wealth after having it with one for an entire year. Expressing reluctance and delaying in giving something minor to someone is tantamount to not giving at all. Minor acts like giving a matchstick to someone to light a stove or lending someone a Qur'ān or a mat for Salāh will earn one great rewards and refusing these things will be a source of tremendous deprivation even though one will lose nothing. It is indeed tragic that there are some people who are extremely miserly and who would refuse even such insignificant things.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم what things may not be refused. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Water, salt and fire." Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "We understand (people's need for) water. What about fire and salt?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "The person who gives fire will receive the reward of giving in charity everything that the fire cooks and the person who gives salt will receive the rewards of giving in charity all the food that the salt gives flavour to. The person who gives a believer a sip of water in a place where water is available is like one who frees a slave. The person who gives a Mu'min (Believer) a sip of water in a place where water is not available is like one who has given life to a person." ["Mishkāt" p. 260]

Sayyidina Abu Dharr رضى الله عنه narrates that he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Smiling with your Muslim brother is Sadaqa (charity). Enjoining good is Sadaqa (charity), forbidding evil is Sadaqa (charity), guiding a lost person is Sadaqa (charity), assisting a person with weak eyesight is Sadaqa (charity), removing a stone, thorn or bone from the road is Sadaqa (charity) and pouring water from your bucket into your brother's bucket is also Sadaqa (charity)." ["Mishkāt" p. 169 from Tirmidhi]

سورة الكوثر

Makkan	Surah Kowthar	Verses 3
--------	---------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
 إِنَّا أَعْطَيْنَاكَ الْكَوْثَرَ ﴿١﴾ فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَانْحَرْ ﴿٢﴾ إِنَّ شَانِئَكَ هُوَ الْأَبْتَرُ ﴿٣﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Verily We have granted you abundant good. (2) So perform Salāh for your Lord and sacrifice. (3) Indeed it is your enemy who shall be unknown.

While some commentators state that Surah Kowthar was revealed after the Hijrah (i.e. it is a Madani Surah), others say that it was revealed before the Hijrah (migration) (making it a Makki Surah). This Surah has the fewest number of verses in the Qur'ān. The Arabic word "Kowthar" is translated as "abundant good" and also refers to the pond of Kowthar which will be given exclusively to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم on the Day of Judgment. Commentators have quoted several narrations concerning the reason for which this Surah was revealed. These will be quoted after the commentary of the verses, Insha Allāh.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh Ta'āla states, "Verily We have granted you abundant good." The abundant good that Allāh Ta'āla gave the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم includes Prophethood, being the best of all the prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم, the Qur'ān, the largest Ummah, a Religion that has spread throughout the world and the high mantle of Maqām Mahmūd in the Hereafter. The pond of Kowthar is a part of this "abundant good". This abundant good is not restricted to these things and there are numerous other bounties besides the above.

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that when he was walking in Heaven, he saw a river, at both ends of which stood domes of hollow pearl. When he asked Jibril عليه السلام what this was, the reply was that it was the river of Kowthar that Allāh had granted to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم says that when he looked closer, he saw that the bed of the river was pure fragrant musk. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 974]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that travelling from one end to the other of the pond of Kowthar is a month's journey and all the sides are of equal length. The water is whiter than milk, more fragrant than musk and has as many cups as the number of stars in the sky. Whoever drinks from there shall never be thirsty again. ["Mishkāt" p. 487 from Bukhari and Muslim]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "My pond shall be so large that the distance between two ends is longer than the distance between Īla and Aden. Its water is whiter than snow, sweeter than milk mixed with honey and it will have more cups than the stars in the sky. I shall have to turn away the people of other Ummahs just as a person turns away the camels of other people from the drinking place of his camels." The prophet's companions رضى الله عنهم enquired, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! Will you be able to recognise us on the Day of Judgment?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "I shall certainly be able to recognise you because you will have a sign that no other Ummah will have. You will come to me at the pond with your faces, hands and feet shining with the effect of wudhu." ["Mishkāt" p. 487 from Muslim]

According to another narration, the pond will have as many gold and silver cups as the stars in the sky. ["Mishkāt" p. 487 from Muslim]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also mentioned that two channels from Heaven flow into the pond of Kowthar, augmenting its water supply. The one channel is of gold and the other of silver.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that the pond of Kowthar is larger than the distance between Aden and Amman. Its water is cooler than ice, sweeter than honey and more fragrant than musk. It will have more cups than the number of stars in the sky and the person who drinks once from the pond will never get thirsty ever again. The first to come there for water will be the poor immigrants. When someone asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for a description of these people, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "They are those whose hair is dishevelled, whose faces are pale (because of hunger and hardship), for whom doors (of rulers and the rich) do not open and to whom women of high birth are not given in marriage. Their behaviour with people is so excellent that they fulfil every right that they owe to others while they do not demand the rights that others owe to them (i.e. they forgo many of these)."

This hadith describes the poor Immigrants as people who could not afford to smarten themselves and who did not really care to do so because they disliked wasting time in this. They concentrated their efforts in preparing rather for the Ākhirah (Hereafter) instead of for this world. They were so overcome with hardships in this world, that they were physically affected and their faces had become pale. People looked down on them and did not invite them for functions. In fact, the rich and upper-class would not even let them into their homes or marry their daughters to them. However, these people will be extremely honoured on the Day of Judgment when they will be the first to drink from the hand of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at the pond of Kowthar.

When the Khalifa (caliph) Sayyidina Umar bin Abdul Azīz رحمه الله عليه heard that the first people to drink from the pond of Kowthar will be those with dishevelled hair, dirty clothing, who are not married to women of high birth and for whom doors are not opened, he became extremely distressed. He said, "Alas!

I am not like this. I am married to (Princess) Fātima the daughter of Abdul Malik and doors are opened for me. Now I will make sure that I shall not wash my hair until it becomes dishevelled and I shall not bath until my body becomes dirty.” [“At Targhib wat Tarhib”]

Sayyidina Sahl bin Sa’d رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “I shall be waiting to give people water from the pond of Kowthar. Whoever will pass by me shall drink from it and whoever drinks from it shall never be thirsty again. Many people shall pass by me whom I will recognise and who will recognise me. However, a barrier will be cast between us. I shall say, ‘This person was from us. It will be said to me, ‘You do not know what innovations this person had introduced (in Religion) after you.’ I will then say, ‘Go away! Go away all those who changed my Religion after me.’” [“At Targhib wat Tarhib”]

The condition of such a person will be tragic indeed. Suffering severe thirst on the Day of Judgment, he will reach the pond of Kowthar only to have the angels shove him away and to have the “Mercy of the universe” tell him to go away. Following the teachings of the Qur’ān and that Ahadīth is the only avenue for a Muslim’s salvation. It is tragic that people have introduced thousands of new practices into Religion and have corrupted it. When they are advised against this, they take offence and speak ill of the one giving them good advice. They should understand that one should do whatever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told us to do and in the manner that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did it. One should not do things as one pleases. When we are told that a certain act will earn one great rewards, we should verify whether it is so and ask for references.

After recounting His great bounties on the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh Ta’āla instructs, “So perform Salāh for your Lord and sacrifice.” This command includes all types of Salāh, be they Obligatory, Compulsory, Sunnah or Mustahab (preferable). The second command is to sacrifice animals in the name of Allāh. This verse is actually a command to express gratitude for all the favours that Allāh Ta’āla has given one. Salāh is the greatest form of physical Ibādah (worship) and sacrificing an animal in the name of Allāh is really a Jihād against the practices of the idolaters who sacrifice animals in the names of their idols. Although the address is to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the verse applies to every Muslim.

The Arabic word “nahr” (translated above as “sacrifice”) actually refers to slaughtering a camel, which is regarded to be the best animal to sacrifice. Of course, it is permissible to slaughter cows, sheep, goats, etc during the 10th, 11th and 12th of Dhil Hijjah. The addition of the clause “for your Lord” denotes that a person’s Salāh and sacrifice should be solely for Allāh’s pleasure. Those people are incorrect who, quoting Sayyidina Ali رضى الله عنه, translate the word “nahr” as placing the hands on the chest. [Ibn Kathīr v. 4 p. 558]

Allāh concludes the Surah by telling the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, “Indeed it is your enemy who shall be unknown.” The books of Tafsīr (exegesis) state that one of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم staunch enemies Ās bin Wā’il used to tell people not to bother with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because after he passes away, there shall be none to take his name because he had no male offspring. Allāh Ta’āla revealed the verse to tell him that while the Holy Prophet’s صلى الله عليه وسلم name will echo throughout the world, he (Ās bin Wā'il) will be someone unknown.

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates that Ka'b bin Ashraf, one of the wealthy leaders of the Jews of Madinah once visited Makkah. When the polytheists of Makkah asked him whether their idolatry was better than the Religion taught by the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he told them that their idolatry was better. It was then that Allāh revealed the above verse. [Ibn Kathīr]

It has also been reported that the verse was revealed when one of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم sons passed away and Abu Lahab told the polytheists that they had nothing to fear from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because his lineage has been severed.

These unfortunate people thought that a person will be remembered in this world only if he has male offspring to bear his name. However, Allāh Ta'āla has exalted the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم name. Allāh Ta'āla took him to the heavens where he became famous and Allāh gave him millions of followers who constantly take his name. His name is taken during every Adhān and Iqāmah and besides the salutations (Durūd) sent upon him during every person's Ṣalāh, millions of people recite Durūd when not performing Ṣalāh.

In fact, even non-Muslims speak favourably of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم up to this day. Hundreds of thousands of people have proceeded through the lineage of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم daughter Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها and many thousands are alive today. On the other hand, none cares to mention the names of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم enemies who said that he would soon become unknown. They have left this world and the strings of their lineages have also been severed.

سورة الكفرون

Makkan

Surah Kāfirūn

Verses 6

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قُلْ يَتَايَهَ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿١﴾ لَا أَعْبُدُ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٢﴾ وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عَابِدُونَ مَا
أَعْبُدُ ﴿٣﴾ وَلَا أَنَا عَابِدٌ مَّا عَبَدْتُمْ ﴿٤﴾ وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عَابِدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ ﴿٥﴾ لَكُمْ دِينُكُمْ وَلِيَ دِينِ ﴿٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Say, "O disbelievers!" (2) "I do not worship what you worship... (3)..nor do you worship what I worship." (4) "Neither am I a worshipper of that which you worship... (5) ..nor are you worshippers of that which I worship." (6) "For you is your religion and for me is mine.

Before the coming of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the people of Makkah were idolaters and had even placed idols in the Ka'ba. They had great respect for the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and used to call him "As Sādiqul Amīn" ("The Truthful and Trustworthy"). However, when he started stopping them from idolatry, they became his arch-enemies and began labelling him.

Once, four of the polytheists approached the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with a proposition. These four were Walid bin Mughiera, Ās bin Wā'il, Aswad bin Muttalib and Ubay bin Khalaf. They proposed a compromise to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, saying that they would worship his Allāh if he worshipped their idols. In this way, they said, his and their religion would be one and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would be able to benefit from them. According to another narration, some of the most evil members of the Quraysh told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he should worship their idols for a year and they would worship Allāh for a year. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم responded by saying, "I seek Allāh's refuge from worshipping anyone besides Him." They then said that if the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم at least kissed one of their idols, they were prepared to believe in him and would worship Allāh.

It was then that Allāh revealed Surah Kāfirūn. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم proceeded to the Haram and loudly recited the Surah to the Quraysh gathered there. The polytheists then lost all hope of compromising with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and realised that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would never worship their idols. [“Ruhul Ma’āni”]

Because the second and third verses have the same meaning as the fourth and fifth verses, Scholars have mentioned that the fourth and fifth verses serve as emphasis. However, others mention that because the grammatical structure of the second and third verses (being ‘fi’liyya’ sentences) indicate that the action is confined to the present tense, the (second and third) verses mean that at present, I do not worship what you worship and you do not worship what I worship. On the other hand, the grammatical structure of the fourth and fifth verses (being ‘ismiyya’ sentences) have no time constraints. The actions may therefore be assumed to refer to the future. As a result, the (fourth and fifth) verses mean that (in future) I will not worship what you worship and you will not worship what I worship.

This interpretation prompts the question that if it is said that the disbelievers will not worship Allāh, what about the many thousands of them who accepted Islām after the Surah was revealed? How can they be Muslims when the Qur’ān tells them that they will never worship Allāh? Scholars reply to this question by saying that the verse tells the disbelievers that they will never worship what the Muslims worship if they remain disbelievers. However, if they accept Islām, they will obviously be worshipping Allāh.

Allāh Ta’āla concludes the Surah by stating that the disbelievers should be told, “For you is your religion and for me is mine.” Commentators state that this verse summarises the message of the Surah, serving as emphasis. The Islām of the Muslims is based on Oneness of Allah while the religion of the disbelievers is based on the antithesis of Oneness of Allah i.e. on disbelief and polytheism. The two are therefore irreconcilable. In addition to this, each party is staunch in their respective religions. As a result, neither will worship the deity of the other.

Other commentators have interpreted the verse as: “O disbelievers! The message of the truth has reached you and the path to salvation has been outlined. If you do not want to accept, then do not try to veer me off the path.”

A third interpretation is: “O disbelievers! Every person will see the fruit of his beliefs and deeds. While you shall suffer the consequences of your disbelief, we (Muslims) shall be amply rewarded for our belief in Oneness of Allah and our adherence to the commands of Allāh. You people wish to make us suffer the same punishment you are destined to suffer by inviting us to accept your religion. I will not barter my salvation for punishment.”

Some commentators have mentioned that Surah Kāfirūn has been abrogated because it outlaws entering into a treaty with the disbelievers, an act which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم himself did when he entered into a treaty with the Jews of Madinah and the polytheists of Makkah afterwards. However, this interpretation is unnecessary because Surah Kāfirūn outlaws only those treaties that require Muslims to denounce Islām or that require them to violate the laws of the Shari’ah. The Surah does not refer to treaties that do not entail these evils. Treaties that conform with the injunctions of the Shari’ah are permissible.

NOTE: Certain sects claim to be Muslims despite holding beliefs that remove them from the fold of Islām. When they are advised to return to the correct teachings of the Qur'ān and the Ahadīth, they excuse themselves by saying, "For you is your religion and for me is mine." Such people misconstrue this verse to mean that every person is at liberty to adopt the beliefs and practices he wishes. The Surah clearly addresses the disbelievers, making it clear that their religion is irreconcilable with Islām. No beliefs can be entertained which contradict the teachings of the Qur'ān and the clear Ahadīth of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because these will remove a person from the fold of Islām. The leaders of these sects have beguiled their followers into adopting this attitude of "Do as you please and we will do as we please."

THE VIRTUES OF SURAH KĀFIRŪN

The Ahadīth cite numerous virtues for reciting Surah Kāfirūn. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Surah Zilzāl equals half the Qur'ān, Surah Iklās (Surah 112) equals a third of the Qur'ān and Surah Kāfirūn (Surah 109) equals a quarter of the Qur'ān. [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to recite Surah Kāfirūn and Surah Iklās (Surah 112) respectively in the first two Rakāhs of the Sunnah of Fajr. [Muslim]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Umar رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited Surah Kāfirūn and Surah Iklās (Surah 112) in the Maghrib Salāh. [Ibn Majah]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه has mentioned that he cannot count the times when he heard the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recite Surah Kāfirūn and Surah Iklās in the two Rakāhs after Maghrib and the two Rakāh before Fajr. [All the above Ahadīth are reported in "Mishkāt" p. 80]

Sayyidina Farwa bin Naufal رضى الله عنه narrates that his father asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for something to recite when he lay down on his bed. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised him to recite Surah Kāfirūn because it declares one's exoneration from polytheism. [Tirmidhi, Abu Dawūd and Dārmī]

Other Ahadīth state that Surah Kāfirūn should be the last words on a person's lips before he sleeps at night. [Abu Dawūd]

سورة النصر

Madinan	Surah Nasr	Verses 3
---------	------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

إِذَا جَاءَ نَصْرُ اللَّهِ وَالْفَتْحُ ① وَرَأَيْتَ النَّاسَ يَدْخُلُونَ فِي دِينِ اللَّهِ أَفْوَاجًا ② فَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ وَاسْتَغْفِرْهُ ③ إِنَّهُ كَانَ تَوَّابًا ③

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) When Allāh's help and victory come... (2) ... and you see people entering the Religion of Allāh in droves... (3) .... then glorify the praises of your Lord and seek forgiveness from Him. Without doubt, He is the Greatest Acceptor of repentance.

Addressing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this Surah, Allāh Ta'āla says, "When Allāh's help and victory come and you see people entering the Religion of Allāh in droves, then glorify the praises of your Lord and seek forgiveness from Him. Without doubt, He is the Greatest Acceptor of repentance." Glorifying Allāh's praises may be accomplished by reciting "Subhā Nallāh Wal Hamdu Lillāh" ("Glory be to Allāh and all praises are for Allāh").

Although the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always engaged in Tasbīh (glorifying Allāh), Tahmid (praising Allāh) and Istighfār (seeking Allāh's forgiveness), the emphasis laid in this Surah prompted him to increase in these. Sayyidah Ayshah رضي الله عنها narrates that during the end of his life the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم abundantly recited:

'Subhā Nallāhi wa Bi Hamdihi Astaghfirullāh wa Atūbu Ilay' [Ibn Kathīr]

Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضي الله عنها narrates that towards the end of his life, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited "Subhā Nallāhi wa Bi Hamdihi" in every posture. When she asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم the reason for this, he replied that he had been instructed to do so. He then recited the entire Surah Nasr. [Ibn Kathīr]

Commentators are unanimous that the "victory" in this verse refers to the conquest of Makkah. Surah Nasr was revealed two years before the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم demise. When the Surah was revealed, The Holy Prophet

رضى الله عنها called Sayyidah Fātima صلى الله عليه وسلم and said to her that Allāh Ta'ālā had informed him that his demise was close. When she started to weep, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم consoled her by telling her that she would be the first of his family members to meet him. She then began to smile. [Bayhaqi v. 4 p. 561]

رضى الله عنه used to allow Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه to sit with him in the gathering of the veterans of the battle of Badr. Some of them disliked that the young Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه sit with them because they had sons of his age who were not allowed to sit there. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه was aware of this reservation. One day, he asked those present what the message of Surah Nasr was. While some of them remained silent, others mentioned that it was a command to engage in Allāh's glorification and Istighfār when Allāh's assistance came and when the Muslims conquered foreign territories. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه then asked Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه if this was the message. When Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه replied in the negative, Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه asked him what the message was. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه told them that the Surah conveyed the message of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم imminent demise. Sayyidina Umar رضي الله عنه mentioned that he had understood the same message. [Bukhari]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exerted himself more greatly in Tasbīh (glorifying Allāh), Tahmīd (praising Allāh) Istighfār (seeking Allāh's forgiveness) after the Surah was revealed because it indicated that he was soon to leave the world. Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه once recited Surah Nasr and then told the audience that after the revelation of this Surah the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exerted himself ever so greatly in deeds of the Ākhirah. [Ibn Kathīr]

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was always engaged in matters related to the Ākhirah (Hereafter). He exerted himself in propagating the message of Islām to the masses and in turning their attention towards Allāh. Although this was a great act of Ibādah in itself, it nevertheless diverted some of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم attention towards people. He was therefore instructed to engage in acts that directed his attention exclusively to Allāh. The same message is given in verses 7 and 8 of Surah Inshirāh (Surah 94) where Allāh says, "So when you have completed, then exert yourself and turn to your Lord."

Despite exhaustive efforts in Makkah, not many Makkans accepted Islām. Instead of accepting Islām, they opposed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and forced him to leave Makkah. By then the message of Islām had spread throughout the Arabian peninsula. However, the Arabs did not accept Islām and decided to await the outcome of the struggle between him and his tribe the Quraysh. Consequently, the battles of Badr, Uhud and Ahzāb followed after the Hijrah (migration). Eventually, in Ramadhān of the 8th year after Hijrah (migration), the Muslims marched into Makkah and the Quraysh accepted Islām. It was after this momentous event that delegations of the various Arab tribes arrived in Madinah in droves to accept Islām. After accepting Islām, they returned to their respective areas and converted the people there. Surah Nasr predicts this when it says, 'you see people entering the Religion of Allāh in droves'

Scholars mention that when one reaches old age, one should exert oneself in Ibādah (worship) in preparation for death.

سورة الھب

Makkan

Surah Lahab

Verses 5

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

تَبَّتْ يَدَا أَبِي لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ ۝ مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُ مَالُهُ وَمَا كَسَبَ ۝ سَيَصْلَىٰ
نَارًا ذَاتَ لَهَبٍ ۝ وَامْرَأَتُهُ حَمَّالَةَ الْحَطَبِ ۝ فِي جِيدِهَا حَبْلٌ مِّن مَّسَدٍ

5

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and he be destroyed. (2) Neither his wealth nor the things he earned shall avail him. (3) He shall soon enter the flaming fire... (4) ... and his wife as well. (Evil is) that woman who carries firewood. (5) Around her neck is a string of palm fibre.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم's father Abdullāh had ten brothers, all the children of his father Abdul Muttalib. One of these ten uncles of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was called Abu Lahab. His real name was Abdul Uzza. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم announced his Prophethood, Abū Lahab and his wife were among his staunchest opponents.

When Allāh revealed the verse: "Warn your closest relatives", The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mounted the hill of Safa and called various tribes of the Quraysh like the Banu Fahar, the Banu Adi, etc by name. Their response was so overwhelming that those who could not present themselves sent someone to represent them. When they had all gathered, he asked them, "Will you people believe me If I told you that an army of horsemen were advancing to attack you from behind this mountain?"

They replied, "We shall certainly believe you. We have never known you to be untruthful." The Nabi (Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم then took the names of many relatives present and warned them about the life after death. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then said to them, "Purchase your souls (by carrying out deeds that will save you from Hell). I cannot save you from Allāh's punishment. O children of Abd Manāf I cannot save you from Allāh's punishment. O Abbās bin Abdil Muttalib! I cannot save you from Allāh's punishment. O (my aunt) Safiyya! I cannot save you from Allāh's punishment. O Fātima the daughter of Muhammad! Ask whatever you please from my wealth. I cannot save you from Allāh 's punishment." Addressing the entire assembly, the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the verse "He is but a warner to you before the advent of a severe punishment." The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then said to them, "I am warning you of a severe punishment (if you do not believe in what I preach to you)." Thereupon Abu Lahab said, "May you be destroyed forever. Have you gathered us for this?" It was then that Surah Lahab was revealed, where Allah says, "May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and he be destroyed. Neither his wealth nor the things he earned shall avail him." [Bukhari v. 2 p. 702]

A narration of Muslim (v. 1 p. 14) states that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم addressed the Quraysh individually and collectively. Addressing the Banu Ka'b bin Luway, the Banu Murra bin Ka'b, the Banu Abdush Shams, Banu Abd Manāf and the Banu Hāshim, he said, "Save yourselves from Hell. I cannot save you from Allāh 's punishment." It was then that Abu Lahab said what he did and Surah Lahab was revealed.

Abu Lahab received the title of "Abu Lahab" ("Father of flames ") because he was very handsome and had a reddish complexion that resembled the colour of flames. When Abu Lahab cursed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, Allāh Ta'āla used the word "Lahab" (flames, which was a source of pride to him) to describe the disgraceful punishment that he will suffer in the Hereafter. Allāh describes the fire of Hell as "Dhāta Lahab" (translated above as 'flaming fire')

Allāh Ta'āla says, "May the hands of Abu Lahab be shattered and he be destroyed." Allāma Qastalāni رحمه الله عليه has written that Abu Lahab's hands are mentioned here because he used his hands to throw stones at the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, causing his blessed heels to bleed.

Allāh Ta'āla mentions that before entering the flaming fire, Abu Lahab will be destroyed. This occurred in this world when he developed a terrible case of small pox which made people avoid him. People were so afraid that the disease might be contagious that they forced him to live in an isolated house and they did not associate with him at all. He finally died in this state. His corpse lay untouched in the house for three days, eventually, when people started taunting his sons, they managed to get someone to place his body against a wall. They then stoned the corpse until it crumbled and was buried beneath the stones. ["Al Bidāya wan Nihāya" v. 3 p. 309]

"Ar Rowdhul Unf" states that Abu Lahab's corpse was bound to a stake and cast down a pit. Thereafter, stones were thrown on top of it. There is presently a mountain near Makkah where tradition has it that Abu Lahab was thrown there. The mountain is also called the mountain of Abu Lahab.

Allāh Ta'āla says, "Neither his wealth nor the things he earned shall avail him." Abu Lahab was extremely wealthy and he also had many children. Commentators mention that "the things he earned" refer to his children because The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said,

"Your children are from the things you earn." Therefore, the wealth and children of Abu Lahab will be useless to him in the Hereafter. "Ma'ālimut Tanzīl" states that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the Quraysh that they should save themselves from Hell, Abu Lahab told the people that if he were ever to suffer punishment on account of his disbelief, he would ransom himself with his wealth. It was in response to this that Allāh Ta'āla revealed the verse: "Neither his wealth nor the things he earned shall avail him."

Allāh continues, "He shall soon enter the flaming fire and his wife as well." Abu Lahab's wife was a woman called Arwa, who was commonly known as Umm Jamil. She was the sister of Abu Sufyān and like her husband, vehemently opposed the Holy Prophet ﷺ. Although every disbeliever will enter Hell, Abu Lahab and his wife have been specifically named as inmates of Hell, indicating that they were a really evil couple. As long as the world exists, people shall be reciting this Surah, proclaiming the despised nature of these two and announcing their final abode. May Allāh Ta'āla save us from Hell. Āmin.

Describing Abu Lahab's wife, Allāh says, "(Evil is) that woman who carries firewood." In addition to the many things she did to harm the Holy Prophet ﷺ, one of her worst acts was that she used to collect thorny branches and place them on the road the Holy Prophet ﷺ used. Although the Holy Prophet ﷺ could easily avoid them, the act indicates her sadistic nature and enmity for the Holy Prophet ﷺ. She left no stone unturned to harm the Holy Prophet ﷺ and even did things that caused him the slightest harm.

The following interpretations of this verse have also been reported:

- 📖 Despite her wealth, she was extremely miserly and used to carry firewood by herself.
- 📖 Size used to carry tales, symbolised by firewood because these tales ignited the fires of discord and enmity between people.
- 📖 'The firewood is symbolic of the sins she committed:
- 📖 Just as she assisted her husband to harm the Holy Prophet ﷺ, she will assist in punishing him in Hell by carrying firewood to fuel the flames burning him. [Ibn Kathīr]

Allāh says further about her, "Around her neck is a string of palm fibre." Some commentators have stated that this string will be around her neck to carry the firewood. However, this interpretation does not seem appropriate because people do not tie a bundle of firewood around their necks. Other commentators have mentioned that she used to wear an extremely expensive necklace which she told people she would spend to oppose the Holy Prophet ﷺ. In lieu of this, she will be made to wear a necklace of fire in Hell which will resemble a string made of palm fibre. Some commentators have translated "string of palm fibre" as "a woven string".

NOTE: The Holy Prophet ﷺ had four daughters. Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها was the eldest and Sayyidah Fātima رضى الله عنها was the youngest. Between these two there were Sayyidah Umm Kulthūm and Sayyidah Ruqayya رضى الله عنها. The Holy Prophet ﷺ married the three eldest daughters before announcing his Nubuwwat (Prophethood). Sayyidah Zaynab رضى الله عنها was married to Abul Ās bin Rabī رضى الله عنه, while Sayyidah Umm Kulthūm رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Ruqayya رضى الله عنها were married to Utba and Udayba, two sons of Abu Lahab. When Surah Lahab was revealed, the two had not yet started living with their husbands. Abu Lahab told his sons that they either divorce the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه daughters or completely disassociate themselves from him.

While one son merely pronounced the divorce before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه, the other insulted the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه as well. In response to his abuse, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه prayed, "O Allāh! Release one of Your beasts on him." Although not a Muslim, Abu Lahab was alarmed to hear this curse. He said to his son, "You will be unable to escape this."

Abu Lahab once took this son along with him to Shām (syria). He told the people in their caravan to take good care of his son because he feared the curse of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه. When they camped at a place where there were many wild animals, they piled all their goods, making a small hillock. The son was then placed on top to sleep while the rest of the people slept around the pile. However, no plan can thwart Allāh's decree. That night a lion came to their camp and, sniffing the faces of all those asleep, left them unharmed. It then leapt right on top of the pile, recognised its victim and snapped his head off. The condemned man's shriek was useless because none could save him.

"Jam'ul Fawā'id" reports that the doomed son was Udayba, Sayyidah Umm Kulthūm's رضى الله عنها husband. It is also reported that when the caravan camped at a place called Zarqā, a lion circled the camp. When Udayba saw it, he said, "Alas! This lion will not leave without killing me according to Muhammad's صلى الله عليه curse. Sitting where he was, Muhammad صلى الله عليه has killed me here." Thereafter, the lion left to return at night to complete its task.

"Dalā'ilun Nabuwwah" (p. 163) reports that the ill-fated son was Utba. It is mentioned in this book that the people of the caravan heard the roar of a lion as they travelled. Hearing this, Utba trembled with fear. The others asked him, "Why are you trembling so? You need not worry so much because we all share the same fate." He replied, "Muhammad صلى الله عليه had cursed me. By Allāh! There is none beneath the sky as truthful as he." That night, he did not touch his supper. The people of the caravan slept around him that night and the lion arrived, growling softly. Sniffing at all the others, it left them and attacked only Utba. The doomed man's last words were, "I always maintained that Muhammad صلى الله عليه was the most truthful." Abu Lahab also mentioned, "I had always known that this son would never escape the curse of Muhammad صلى الله عليه."

Although the narration of "Dalā'ilun Nabuwwah" mentions that this son was Utba, the correct opinion is that he was Udayba because reliable books like "Al Isābah", "Asadul Ghāba" and "Isti'āb" all mention that Utba became a Muslim. Hāfidh Ibn Hajar رحمه الله writes in "Al Isāba" that when the Muslims conquered Makkah, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه asked Sayyidina Abbās رضى الله عنه, "Where are your brother (Abu Lahab's) sons Utba and Mu'attab?" When Sayyidina Abbās رضى الله عنه said that the two had left Makkah, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه asked him to bring them to him. He found them in Arafah and they hastily came to accept Islām. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I had asked Allāh for these two sons of my uncle." Both these sons of Abu Lahab participated in the Battle of Hunayn. Utba continued living in Makkah and passed away there.

It is truly unfortunate that despite attesting to the truthfulness of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and being convinced about the imminent punishment, Abu Lahab and his son refused to accept Islām. When a person becomes obstinate, he will adhere to falsehood even though he may be a rational person. Instead of behaving sensibly he will then fall prey to his carnal passions and carry out deeds that displease his Lord. May Allāh save us from such behaviour. Āmīn.

NOTE: The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم eldest daughter Sayyidah Zaynab رضي الله عنها was married to Sayyidina Abul Ās bin Rabī رضي الله عنه, who also migrated to Madinah. When he passed away in the 8th year after Hijrah (migration), The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم personally laid his body to rest in the grave. After Utba and Utayba divorced the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم daughters, Sayyidah Ruqayya رضي الله عنها was married to Sayyidina Uthmān bin Affān رضي الله عنه. The couple migrated twice to Abyssinia and then to Madinah. Sayyidah Ruqayya رضي الله عنها passed away when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had left Madinah for the Battle of Badr. May Allāh be pleased with her and keep her pleased. Āmīn.

After her demise, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم married his third daughter Sayyidah Umm Kulthūm رضي الله عنها to Sayyidina Uthmān رضي الله عنه. Because Sayyidina Uthmān رضي الله عنه married two of the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم daughters consecutively, he was known as "Dhun Nūrayn" ("The Possessor of two lights"). When Sayyidah Umm Kulthūm رضي الله عنها passed away in the 9th year after Hijrah, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that if he had another unmarried daughter, he would have married her also to Sayyidina Uthmān رضي الله عنه.

Sayyidah Fātima رضي الله عنها was the youngest daughter of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. She married Sayyidina Ali رضي الله عنه, from whom she bore children. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم lineage proceeds from this marriage. She passed away six months after the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

سورة الاخلاص

Makkan	Surah Ikhlas	Verses 4
--------	--------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ①
 اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ ②
 لَمْ يَكِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ ③
 يَكُنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ ④

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Say, "He Allāh is One." (2) "Allāh is Independent." (3) "He has no children and is not anyone's child." (4) "There is none equal to Him."

Although Surah Ikhlas is brief, it makes the fact clear that Allāh Ta'ala is The One and Only worthy of worship and that none shares His attributes. Sayyidina Ubay bin Ka'b رضى الله عنه narrates that Surah Ikhlas was revealed when the polytheists asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell them Allāh's lineage.

He narrates that Āmir bin Tufayl and Arbid bin Rabī'ah once came to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Āmir said, "O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم! To what do you call us?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "I am calling you towards Allāh." Āmir then said, "Describe Allāh to us. Is He made of gold, silver, iron or wood?" According to another narration, the Jews asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell them what Allāh was made of and whether Allāh eats and drinks. It was then that Surah Ikhlas was revealed. Because of their insolence, Arbid was killed by a thunderbolt while Āmir was killed by a plague. ["Ma'ālimut Tanzīl"]

This Surah is called Surah Ikhlas ("the Surah of Sincere Devotion") because it is sincerely devoted to the subject of Oneness of Allah. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم also referred to this Surah as Surah Ikhlas. ["Durrul Manthūr" v. 6 p. 414]

Sayyidina Ādam عليه السلام was the first man and the first Nabi (Prophet). It was from him and his wife Sayyidah Hawwa عليها السلام that mankind multiplied. He taught his children Oneness of Allah and they all worshipped only Allāh. Many generations after him also worshipped only Allāh. Since it was impossible for satan to make people deny the existence of Allāh, he started by indoctrinating them with false beliefs. One of the fundamental beliefs he used to veer them away from Oneness of Allah was to make them believe that Allāh Ta'ala was similar to man in that He had children and required the things man requires.

Another poisonous arrow he shot at them was to make them believe that among Allāh's creation were beings who also had to be worshipped to attain proximity to Allāh. He convinced them that these beings would intercede for them in Allāh's court if they worshipped them. Using such methods, Satan made many people believe that the angels were Allāh's daughters and that people like Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام and Sayyidina Uzair عليه السلام were Allāh's sons. He also made them prostrate to idols and sacrifice animals in the names of idols. Idol worship began even before the coming of Sayyidina Nūh عليه السلام. As people fell for Satan's guile, Allāh Ta'āla continued sending the Anbiya (Prophet's) عليهم السلام as well as divine scriptures to this world to guide them. However, the majority of people in every period refused to believe in Oneness of Allah and continued practising polytheism.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم started calling people to Oneness of Allah, polytheism had become so widespread and accepted that the polytheists gaped and said, "Has he made all the many gods into one god? This is indeed something strange!" When anything becomes popular, anyone speaking against it is treated with suspicion even though the thing is evil. When polytheism and idolatry became popular in the Arabian peninsula, even the progeny of the stalwart of Oneness of Allah [Sayyidina Ibrahim عليه السلام] stooped to the level of placing 360 idols in the Ka'ba, which he built as a shrine of Oneness of Allah. Arabia was filled with temples and idols that were revered by all.

When these people asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to explain Allāh's lineage, Allāh revealed Surah Ikhlas commanding the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to tell the people that "He Allāh is One." This verse makes it clear that Allāh is Only One of His kind and that none of the creation can be compared to Him in any way.

Furthermore, Allāh states, "Allāh is Independent." Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضي الله عنه has mentioned that this means that Allāh needs no one, but that everything needs Allāh. Translating the word "Samad" as "Independent" does not do justice to the word because the word includes the fact that all are in need of Allāh. 'Ruhul Ma'āni' reports from Ibnul Ambāri رحمه الله عليه that lexicologists are unanimous that the word "Samad" refers to a sovereign who is second to none and to whom everyone turns for their needs and all their affairs.

According to Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه, the word "Samad" refers to a sovereign whose sovereignty is absolute, whose honour is absolute, whose majesty is absolute, whose forbearance is absolute, whose knowledge is absolute, whose wisdom is absolute and whose every fragment of honour and sovereignty is absolute.

"He has no children and is not anyone's child." This verse answers those people who want to know Allāh's lineage. They should know that Allāh Ta'āla has no family at all. There is always a similarity between parent and child. Since none is similar to Allāh at all, He can have neither parents nor children. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Maryam, "They say, 'Rahmān has taken a child.' You have certainly said a grave thing. (The gravity of what you say is so intense that) The heavens may split asunder because of it, the earth may be cleaved open and the mountains may crash to pieces. All this because they ascribed children to Rahmān. It is not befitting of Rahmān to take children. Every thing within the heavens and the earth shall come to Rahmān as slaves." [Surah 19, verses 88-93]

Allāh has been forever and shall remain forever. He had no birth and none was born from Him. The Polytheists who believed that the angels are Allāh's daughters are wrong just as the Christians are wrong to believe that Sayyidina Isa عليه السلام is Allāh's son and just as the Jews are wrong to believe that Sayyidina Uzair عليه السلام was Allāh's son. They merely copy what others say without thinking. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Taubah, "The Jews say, 'Uzair is the son of Allāh!' and the Christians say, 'Masīh is the son of Allāh!' These are mere words that emerge from their mouths. They imitate the statements of those who passed before them. May Allāh destroy them! Where are they wandering astray?" [Surah 9, verse 30]

"There is none equal to Him." This verse negates every type of similarity that people may draw between Allāh and his creation. Only He is worthy of worship, only He has knowledge of everything and only He can fulfil needs. This verse is similar to the verse of Surah Shura where Allāh Ta'āla says, "There is nothing like Him, and He is the All Hearing, the All Seeing." [Surah 42, verse 11]

In an exceptionally concise manner, the Surah confirms that every good attribute is found in Allāh and it denies that Allāh has any defect.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that people constantly say that Allāh has created everything and then they ask who created Allāh. When this question is posed, one should say, "Allāh is Independent. He has no children and is not anyone's child. There is none equal to Him." According to another narration, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised that when this question plagues one's mind, one should say:

"I believe in Allāh and His apostles عليهم السلام" [Bukhari and Muslim]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه has also narrated from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Allāh Ta'āla says, "The son of Ādam has falsified Me when he should not do so. He has also sworn Me when he should not do so. He has falsified Me by saying that I cannot resurrect him whereas I created him the first time and creating the second time is even easier. Man swears me by saying that I have children whereas I am The One, The Independent. I have no children neither am I anyone's child. There is none equal to Me." ["Mishkāt" p. 13]

THE VIRTUES OF SURAH IKHLĀS

Sayyidina Abu Sa'id Khudri رضى الله عنه narrates that a Sahabi (Companion) رضى الله عنه once heard another Sahabi رضى الله عنه repeatedly reciting Surah Ikhhlās. When he reported this to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Nabi صلى الله عليه وسلم sensed that he regarded the act as insignificant. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told him that Surah Ikhhlās equalled a third of the Qur'ān. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 750]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reported that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once told them, "Should I not recite a third of the Qur'ān to you?" the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then recited Surah Ikhhlās. [Muslim v. 1 p. 271]

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once appointed a person to lead a military expedition. Whenever this person led the others in Salāh, he always ended every Rakāh by reciting Surah Ikhlās. When the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم mentioned this to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he told them to ask the person his reason for doing this. When they asked him, he replied, "The Surah is a description of Allāh and I love reciting it." Upon hearing this reply, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم to tell the person that Allāh loves him as well. [Muslim v. 1 p. 271]

According to a narration of Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه, when the person told the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he loved the Surah, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to him, "Your love for this Surah shall enter you into Heaven." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Sa'id bin Musayyab رحمه الله عليه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A palace in Heaven is built for the person who recites Surah Ikhlās ten times and two palaces in Heaven are built for the person who recites Surah Ikhlās twenty times." Hearing this, Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه said, "O the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! In this manner we shall have many palaces built."

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allāh is a Great Giver. He has with him tremendous rewards for as many deeds as you can manage." [Dārmi v. 3 p. 320]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The person who recites Surah Ikhlās two hundred times shall have fifty years of his sins erased from his record of deeds. Of course, the debts he owes to others will not be waived." ["Mishkāṭ" p. 188 from Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه has also narrated from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when a person recites Surah Ikhlās a hundred times while lying on his right side before sleeping, Allāh will tell him on the Day of Judgment, "O My slave! Enter Heaven from the right hand side." [Tirmidhi]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه reports that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once heard a person reciting Surah Ikhlās, he said, "It is obligatory for him." "What is?" asked Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه. "Heaven" replied the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. [Tirmidhi]

سورة الفلق

Makkan	Surah Falaq	Verses 5
--------	-------------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ ﴿١﴾ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ ﴿٢﴾ وَمِنْ شَرِّ غَاسِقٍ إِذَا وَقَبَ ﴿٣﴾
وَمِنْ شَرِّ النَّفَّاثَاتِ فِي الْعُقَدِ ﴿٤﴾ وَمِنْ شَرِّ حَاسِدٍ إِذَا حَسَدَ ﴿٥﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful

(1) Say, "I seek refuge with the Lord of the morning..." (2) ... from the evil of what He has created..." (3) "...from the evil of darkness when it arrives..." (4) .. from the evil of those women who blow on knots..." (5) "...and from the evil of the envier when he envies."

سورة الناس

Makkan	Surah Nās	Verses 6
--------	-----------	----------

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ ﴿١﴾ مَلِكِ النَّاسِ ﴿٢﴾ إِلَهِ النَّاسِ ﴿٣﴾ مِنْ شَرِّ
الْوَسْوَاسِ الْخَنَّاسِ ﴿٤﴾ الَّذِي يُوَسْوِسُ فِي صُدُورِ النَّاسِ ﴿٥﴾ مِنَ الْجِنَّةِ وَالنَّاسِ ﴿٦﴾

In the name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

(1) Say, "I seek refuge with the Lord of mankind..." (2) "...the King of mankind..." (3) "...the Deity of mankind..." (4) "...from the evil of the whisperer who draws back..." (5) .... who whispers into the hearts of mankind..." (6) ..... be he from among the Jinn or from mankind."

Surah Falaq and Surah Nās are referred to as the "Mu'awwadhatayn" (i.e. the two Surahs by which protection is sought). Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that a person from the Jewish Banu Ruzayq tribe by the name of Labīd bin Ā'sim cast a magical spell over the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, causing him to forget things that he had already done. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made supplication to Allāh, Allāh revealed the plot to him. As the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم slept, Allāh Ta'āla sent two angels in the form of humans to him. The one sat at the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم head side while the other sat by his feet. The following conversation ensued:

- 📖 What is the matter with this person?
- 📖 He has been affected with black magic.
- 📖 Who has done it to him?"
- 📖 Labīd bin Ā'sim.
- 📖 On what did he do it?
- 📖 He did it on the hair from a comb and some palm leaves.
- 📖 Where are these things?
- 📖 In the well of Dhi Arwān.

When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم awoke, he went with some of the Sahabah رضى الله عنهم to the said well. Upon arriving there, they found that the water of the well had become so discoloured that it appeared as if someone had thrown henna (the Indian privet, leaves are used to dyeing the hairs, feet and hands.) into it. The date palms there resembled the heads of Satan. When Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم why he did not publicise the matter, he told her that he did not like evil (news) to spread after Allāh Ta'āla had cured him. He therefore had the hair and leaves buried. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 858 and Muslim v. 2 p. 221]

According to a narration of Sayyidina Zaid bin Arqam رضى الله عنه, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم suffered for a few days from the effect of the black magic that the Jews had cast on him. Sayyidina Jibr'il السلام عليه informed the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that a particular Jew had cast a spell on him and that he had tied knots in his hair to accomplish this. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم dispatched some of the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم to remove the hair from the well that Jibril السلام عليه had described. When the hair was brought to the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, he was instantly cured just as a tied person feels after being freed from his bonds. This was never brought to the attention of the Jew guilty of the black magic, who was never seen again. [Nasa'ī - Chapter concerning the magic of the Ahlul Kitāb]

"Ruhul Ma'āni" reports that when the clump of palm leaves was removed from the well, the comb and some hair of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were found in it. Together with this was a wax figurine of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with needles stuck into it. There were eleven knots tied in the hair. Jibril عليه السلام had come with Surah Falaq and Surah Nās (the number of verses of these Surahs equal eleven) and the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم opened a knot and removed a needle with every one of the eleven verses that he recited. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was then completely cured.

"Ruhul Ma'āni" also reports that Labid bin Ā'sim's daughters assisted him in his sinister task. It is because of their involvement that Surah Falaq states, "the evil of those women who blow on knots". The author of "Ruhul Ma'āni" has written that this verse may be translated as "the evil of those souls who blow on knots". This translation would include men and women who carry out this evil practice.

Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله عليه has quoted from the Tafsīr of Tha'labi رحمه الله عليه that a Jewish boy used to serve the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. The Jews made the boy give them some of the hair from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم's comb and some of the teeth of the comb. When he complied, they used witchcraft on the hair and comb teeth to make the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ill. (Black magic is usually done using something that is associated with the victim).

COMMENTARY OF SURAH FALAQ

After discussing the circumstances of revelation, let us now look at the commentary of Surah Falaq. Allāh Ta'āla says, "Say, 'I seek refuge with the Lord of the morning...'" The Arabic word 'falaq' actually refers to splitting or cleaving. Allāh Ta'āla uses the same word in Surah An'ām where He says, "Undoubtedly Allāh is the One Who splits the grains and date stones." Commentators state that the word "falaq" in this Surah refers to the morning because it splits the darkness of night as it arrives. Some commentators say that the morning is mentioned here to allude to the Day of Judgment. Different people start the morning in different ways as they rise from their beds. While some are happy, others are sad. While some are enjoying themselves, others are in difficulty. In a like manner, people will experience different conditions as they emerge from their graves on the Day of Judgment.

Certain Scholars interpret 'falaq' as the creation because everything was in the realm of non-existence until Allāh split open the barrier to existence and let them into the realm of existence. By this interpretation, the verse reads: "I seek refuge with the Lord of creation..." Allāh Ta'āla is referred to as the "Lord of the morning" because just as the darkness of night is dispelled by His command in the morning, the harm and evil of things (like black magic) are also dispelled by His command.

Allāh's protection is sought against "the evil of what He has created". This verse refers to everything, including people, Jinn, animals, reptiles, inanimate objects, winds, fires that injure one, water that may drown one and everything else that may cause physical, emotional or spiritual harm to a person.

Furthermore, the Surah induces one to seek Allāh's protection from "the evil of darkness when it arrives...". Because the word 'ghāsiq' (translated above as "darkness") actually refers to a dark thing, Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضي الله عنه has mentioned that it refers to the night when it begins to get dark. Protection is sought from the night because it is at this time that the Satan, harmful reptiles and animals emerge. It is also the time when thieves and robbers practise their trade and the time when black magic has the worst effect.

Tirmidhi reports a hadith in which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once looking at the moon when he told Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها, "O Ayshah! Seek Allāh's protection from the evil of this (moon) because this is the 'ghāsiq' when it arrives." The word "ghāsiq" may therefore also refer to the moon. Because the word "ghāsiq" may refer to darkness as well as the moon and not specifically the moon only, one may not say that the moon is a bright body and therefore cannot be a "ghāsiq" (something dark). Nonetheless, the moon does lose its brightness when it sets and during eclipses. In fact, a lunar eclipse may signal the coming of some disaster and when it does occur, one needs to seek Allāh's protection.

Allāh then advises people to seek His protection against "the evil of those women who blow on knots..." The explanation of this has already been given above.

The final evil from which the Surah instructs us to seek protection against is 'from the evil of the envier when he envies.' When people are blessed with knowledge, beauty, wealth or some other blessing, others are generally envious of them. While some people desire only that they also be blessed with the same bounty, others wish that those blessed with the bounty should be deprived of it. Such depraved people then make every effort to harm the person blessed with the bounty and they even instigate others to harbour malice for the person. In their rage of jealousy, they ensure that the person meets with opposition and that he encounters difficulty in every activity.

A person may face jealousy from family members and from strangers; from man and from Jinn; from Muslims and from disbelievers. When jealousy consumes a person, he becomes blinded and resorts to everything permissible and everything not permissible to ensure that the opposite party loses whatever s/he has. It was the same jealousy that prompted Labid bin A'sim to cast a spell over the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Jealousy destroys any person who adopts it.

Allāh Ta'āla has blessed different people with different bounties for reasons that are all full of wisdom. When a person envies another and desires that the person should be deprived of any bounty, he is actually objecting to Allāh's allotment of bounties. It is as if he is saying (Allāh forbid!) that Allāh's allocation of bounties is incorrect and should be as he (the envier) desires. It is obvious that the creation have no jurisdiction over the affairs of the Creator. When a person does something rational which his children cannot understand and his children object, he will obviously be annoyed yet he is a fallible human being. Worse than this is man's objection to a decision of Allāh when Allāh is Infallible. This is the most obvious reason for the abomination of jealousy.

Furthermore, when someone has been consumed by jealousy for another, the jealous person leaves no stone unturned to harm the person he envies. Besides backbiting about him and tainting his name, the jealous person will also resort to causing physical or financial harm to the person, thereby committing untold sins. In addition to this, the jealous person will have no time to engage in any good deeds because of his preoccupation with causing harm to the other person. Even if he does carry out any good deeds, these will all be useless to him because on the Day of Judgment he will have to surrender them all to the person to whom he caused harm.

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

وسلم said, "Beware of jealousy because it consumes good deeds just as fire consumes dry wood." [Abu Dawūd]

Sayyidina Zubayr رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The disease of the previous Ummahs has crept among you, viz, jealousy. Hatred (the natural consequence of jealousy) is something that shaves. I do not say that it shaves hair. Rather it shaves off one's Religion." ["Mishkāt" p. 428 from Tirmidhi and Ibn Majah]

Just as a razor removes long and short hair, so too does this vile trait of jealousy obliterate every major and minor good deed. Therefore, the jealous person destroys himself in this world as well as in the next where he will have nothing to his account of good deeds. Every good deed is burnt to ashes in the smouldering fire of jealousy. In fact, jealousy is itself a punishment for the jealous person in this world. His heart is forever alight with the flames of jealousy, causing all the pleasures of his life to lose their joy. In addition to this, his jealousy does not reduce the bounties of the person he is jealous of.

Wise are the words of someone who said, "Bother not with taking revenge from the jealous one. It is sufficient revenge that he is grieved about your happiness."

Jealousy is a disease that prevents a person from accepting the truth even though he may recognise it as the truth. Even though the Jews recognised the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to be the final Nabi (Prophet), they refused to proclaim Belief because they were jealous that the final Nabi (Prophet) should be from the Bani Ismā'il (the Arabs) instead of from their own nation (the Bani Isrā'il). To validate their denial, they falsely said that Sayyidina Dawūd عليه السلام had made supplication that a Nabi (Prophet) عليهم السلام should always remain among his progeny. [Nasā'i]

The Jews used to tell each other to believe only in someone who conforms to their religion, as mentioned in verse 73 of Surah Āl Imrān (Surah 3). Referring to this jealousy of theirs, Allāh Ta'āla says in verse 54 of Surah Nisā (Surah 4), "Or are they jealous of people [The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم] because of what Allāh has given them of His bounty?"

Not only did the Jews refuse to believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, they even prevented others from doing so. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah Baqarah, "Many of the People of the Book wish that they could return you to be disbelievers after you have believed This is due to jealousy from within after the truth has become apparent to them." [Surah 2, verse 109]

Just as the Jews refused to believe in the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because of the jealousy they bore for him, many of the polytheists also refused to believe for the same reason. Akhnas bin Shariq once met Abu Jahl and asked him, "None is present here besides the two of us, so tell me the truth. Is Muhammad bin Abdullāh صلى الله عليه وسلم true in his claim or not?" Abu Jahl replied, "I swear by Allāh that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is truthful. He has never lied, but we deny him because what will be left for the rest of the Quraysh if the Banu Qusay [the tribe of Quraysh to which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم belonged] bear the standard, are responsible for supplying water to the pilgrims, keep the keys of the Ka'ba, lead the consultative assembly and then still have a Nabi (Prophet) from them?" It was in response to this that Allāh revealed the following verse of Surah An'ām: "We know well that their talks grieve you. Indeed they do not deny you, but these oppressors deny the verses of Allāh." [Surah 6, verse 33]

Jealousy is such an evil trait that people like the Jews and the polytheists were prepared to suffer eternal punishment in Hell rather than swallow their jealousy. It is noticed that people burn with jealousy when someone of a lower social standing or someone with less wealth than them acquires Islāmic knowledge. What is ironical is that despite the avenues being open for them, they show no interest in acquiring the knowledge of Religion. They are jealous merely because they feel that people of a lower social standing should not excel them in anything. They are content only when they have things that nobody else has.

Although protection is sought from everything that Allāh Ta'āla has created, further protection is sought from three specific evils. These are mentioned separately even though they are included in the broad connotation of "the evil of what He has created". The first of these three specific evils is "the evil of darkness when it arrives". The evils of the night are understood and are specifically mentioned because of their profound nature.

The second evil from which protection is specifically sought is "the evil of those women who blow on knots" i.e. from the evil of black magic. This evil is specifically mentioned because the ill effects of black magic are devastating and because people are generally unmindful of treating themselves for this. It often occurs that people continue treating their illnesses medically without success, little realising that the disease has been caused by black magic. Their condition then only gets worse.

The third evil explicitly mentioned is "the evil of the envier when he envies." One is generally unaware of the jealousy that someone bears for one and will thus not take precautions to guard against it. By reciting the Surah, one will be protected against all these evils.

THE COMMENTARY OF SURAH NĀS

Protection is also sought from Allāh Ta'āla in this Surah. The Surah begins by mentioning three attributes of Allāh viz, that Allāh is "the Lord of mankind", "the King of mankind" and "the Deity of mankind". Thereafter, protection is sought against "the evil of the whisperer who draws back". Because evil whispers affect the hearts of mankind, the Lord, King and Deity of mankind is asked for protection from this. It is only He Who can provide the necessary protection. Because evil whispers and thoughts can destroy a person's Belief if he practises them, it has been mentioned that Surah Nās teaches man to pray to Allāh to protect him from the difficulties of the Ākhirah (Hereafter). On the other hand, Surah Falaq teaches man to seek Allāh's protection from the difficulties and harms of this world.

The Satan constantly whisper into the hearts of man. They entice man to commit disbelief, polytheism and various other sins. It is for this reason that man should always seek Allāh's protection against this. In Surah Mu'minūn, Allāh instructs, "And say, 'O my Lord! I seek refuge with You from the evil whispering of the Satan and I seek refuge with You, O my Lord, so that they do not approach me.'" [Surah 23, verses 97,98]

Sayyidina Abu Hurayra رضى الله عنه narrates that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Satan will come to you and ask who created certain things? In this way he will eventually ask who created Allāh? When matters reach such a head, then seek protection with Allāh from Satan and let the matter rest i.e. do not further entertain the thought. In a narration of Abu Dawūd, it is mentioned that when people start asking this question, one should say:

"Allāhu Ahad Allāhus Samad lam yalid wa lam yūlid wa lam yakul lahu kufu 'wan ahad."

"Allāh is One. Allāh is Independent. He has no parents nor is He the child of anyone and none is equal to Him."

Thereafter one should make the action of spitting three times to the left and recite, "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm" (I seek Allāh's protection against the accursed Satan").

This hadith cites an example of how Satan assaults one's beliefs. The whispers of the Satan are like a hornet's nest. No harm will come to one if one leaves it alone. However, once one rouses it, it will be extremely difficult if not impossible to get away. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم advised us to ignore these whispers because giving them thought will place one in a predicament that is difficult to escape from. This prescription is a tried and tested one that ensures success.

Satan is a thief of people's belief and casts thoughts in people's mind to rob them of their belief. While he continuously makes an effort to plunge the believers into disbelief, he works on the disbelievers so that they remain staunch disbelievers. He uses various approaches to achieve his objectives and constantly casts doubts in people's Belief.

Satan will plague one with questions concerning Allāh's being and attributes, which can jeopardise one's belief. When one refuses to respond to these questions, Satan tells one that one is unable to answer because one is a disbeliever. At this stage one should say to him, "Go away! You are yourself a disbeliever. Why are you so concerned about my belief?" If one entertains Satan's discussion, he will make one a disbeliever. The Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم advice is to terminate the discussion which Satan inspires into the heart, to recite "A'ūdhu Billāhi Minash Shaytān Nir Rajīm" and to make the action of spitting thrice to the left. This spitting action degrades and demoralises Satan.

If unable to induce a person to practise disbelief, Satan always tries to make people commit sins. Sayyidina Umar رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that when a man and a woman are together alone, the third person there is Satan. This hadith prohibits non-Mahram men and women from being in each other's company. Satan is always there to make them fornicate.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has also mentioned that a woman is an object of concealment. If she emerges from her home, Satan stares at her and directs everyone else's attention towards her.

Satan is also responsible for making people have ill thoughts about others.

The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was once sitting for I'tikāf (Seclusion) in the Masjid when one of his wives Sayyidah Safiyya رضى الله عنها visited him. After speaking for a long while, she stood up to leave. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم accompanied her up to the boundaries of the Masjid when two Ansāri prophet's of companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم passed by. Seeing the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم with a lady, they began walking faster. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to them, "Walk at leisure. She is my wife Safiyya." The two Sahabah رضى الله عنه exclaimed, "Subhā Nallāh, O Allāh's The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم! (How can we have ill thoughts about you?)" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to them, "Verily Satan runs like blood through man's body. I feared that Satan might cast an evil thought in your minds." [Bukhari v. 1 p. 464]

Protection is sought "...from the evil of the whisperer who draws back". Describing the whisperer, Allāh says that he "draws back" immediately after injecting the poison of evil thoughts. Sayyidina Anas رضى الله عنه narrates from the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that Satan sits on man's heart with his snout in it. Whenever man remembers Allāh, Satan withdraws. However, when he does not remember Allāh, Satan makes a meal of him. This is "the whisperer who draws back". ["Hisnul Hasin"]

Describing the whisperer further, Allāh say, "who whispers into the hearts of mankind, be he from among the Jinn or from mankind" This verse makes it evident that one is not instigated to do wrong only by the Satan. Other people are also responsible for this. Whereas the instigation of the Satan takes place internally, humans instigate either verbally or physically. It is by such instigations that people stray from the path of righteousness and fall headlong into sin. Nowadays, there is no shortage of evil influences. Immorality and vice have become widespread with the introduction of television, videos, magazines and the Internet. People's minds have been corrupted and they are immersed in sin. In fact, man's evil "whispering" often proves to be more effective than that of Satan. Man's instigation is effective because man trusts man and takes advice from him. It is therefore easy for one to mislead another.

Of course, because the instigation of the Satan is subtle and intangible, it can be extremely powerful. Allāh warns mankind in Surah A'rāf when He says, "O children of Ādam, let not Satan entice you as he removed your parents from Heaven, tearing off from them their garments so as to expose their private parts. Surely he and his kind see you in a way that you do not see them. Indeed We have made the Satan allies to those who do not believe." [Surah 7, verse 27]

The term "Satan" can refer to the evil ones among man and among Jinn. Allāh Ta'āla says in Surah An'ām, "Thus We have appointed for every Nabi (Prophet) enemies who are devils (Satan) from humans and jinn, who whisper to each other things that seem good but are intended to deceive." [Surah 6, verse 112]

NOTE: Some people are of the opinion that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was never affected by black magic. In saying his, they are actually denying the authentic narrations of Bukhari and Muslim. They maintain that suffering from the effects of black magic does not behove the status of a Nabi (Prophet). Such people are wrong. They fail to understand that the Prophets عليهم السلام were human beings and thus suffered the same effects that all humans suffer. Many Prophets صلى الله عليه وسلم were killed and even the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم once suffered from fever. When the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fell from his animal, he injured his leg and had to perform Salāh sitting down for some time. A scorpion also once stung the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. Tears flowed from his eyes when his son passed away and he even suffered hunger pangs. These are all part of a human's experiences, just as being affected by black magic is something that can affect any human being. Being human, the Prophets صلى الله عليه وسلم were no exception.

THE NECESSITY FOR SEEKING ALLĀH'S PROTECTION

There are many things in this world that are beneficial for man just as there are many things that cause great harm and difficulty to him. The Ahadīth mention many things from which the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sought Allāh's protection. Towards the end of his famous collection of Ahadīth, Imām Nasa'ī رحمه الله عليه has included a chapter concerning seeking Allāh's protection. Among the many things from which one ought to seek Allāh's protection, he has mentioned the following:

- 📖 Miserliness.
- 📖 Cowardice.
- 📖 Corruption of the heart (disbelief and polytheism).
- 📖 Punishment in the grave.
- 📖 Defects in hearing and sight.
- 📖 The evil of the tongue.
- 📖 'The evil that may creep into the heart.
- 📖 Extreme old age.
- 📖 Helplessness.
- 📖 Illness.
- 📖 Laziness.
- 📖 grief
- 📖 Trials at the time of death.
- 📖 Dajjāl.
- 📖 Poverty.
- 📖 Disgrace.
- 📖 Disbelief
- 📖 Hell.
- 📖 Misappropriation of trusts.

- 📖 Hunger.
- 📖 Schism.
- 📖 Hypocrisy.
- 📖 Bad character.
- 📖 Making mistakes.
- 📖 Deviating from the straight path.
- 📖 Being an oppressor.
- 📖 Being overpowered by an enemy.
- 📖 That one's enemy should become happy at one's expense.
- 📖 Being ill fated
- 📖 Severe illnesses like insanity and leprosy.
- 📖 The curse of an oppressed person.
- 📖 The Satan from among man and Jinn.
- 📖 Strife that affects the living and the dead.
- 📖 Being swallowed by the ground
- 📖 Falling from a height.
- 📖 Being crushed beneath something.
- 📖 Drowning.
- 📖 Burning.
- 📖 Being defeated by Satan at the time of death.
- 📖 Dying after deserting the battlefield during Jihād.
- 📖 Being bitten by a poisonous creature.
- 📖 Not benefiting from one's knowledge.
- 📖 An inattentive heart.
- 📖 An insatiable Nafs (base instincts).
- 📖 Supplications that are not accepted.

Scholars have selected Ahadīth that teach the supplications through which protection is sought, and have compiled them into books. The famous book "Munājāt Maqbūl" also contains such supplications.

Sayyidina Abu Sa'īd Khudri رضى الله عنه reports that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم always used to seek Allāh's protection from the evil glances of man and Jinn. However, when the Mu'awwadhatayn (Surah Falaq and Surah Nās) were revealed, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited these regularly and stopped reciting everything else to attain Allāh's protection.

When a person recites Surah Falaq, he is securing protection against everything that Allāh has created, including the evils of the night, the evil of black magic and the evil of envious people. When he then recites Surah Nās, he secures protection against evil whispers entering his heart. Reciting these two Surahs offers ample protection against every evil and is especially recommended to guard against black magic. One should recite them with Surah Ikh̄lās thrice every morning and evening. Of course, they should be recited at other times as well. If a child is suffering from any pains or has been affected by the evil eye, one should recite these two Surahs and blow on the child. Children should also be taught these two Surahs and be made to recite them regularly.

RECITING WHEN IN DIFFICULTY

Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه narrates that he was once travelling with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when an extremely strong wind suddenly started blowing and the sky became dark. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم started seeking Allāh's protection by reciting Surah Falaq and Surah Nās. He then told Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه that he should always seek Allāh's protection by reciting these two Surahs because there is nothing as effective as these two Surahs for seeking Allāh's protection. [Abu Dawūd]

Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Khubayb رضى الله عنه reports that it was raining one night and the sky had become extremely dark. Concerned about the safety of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, the companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم looked for him. When they found him, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'Recite!' "What should I recite?" enquired Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Khubayb رضى الله عنه. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "Recite 'Qul Huwallāhu Ahad' (Surah Ikh̄lās), 'Qul A'ūdhu bi Rabbil Falaq' (Surah Falaq) and 'Qul A'ūdhu bi Rabbin Nās' (Surah Nās) thrice every morning and evening. By doing this, you will be protected against everything you need protection from. [Tirmidhi]

RECITING AFTER EVERY OBLIGATORY SALĀH

Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه narrated that the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed him to recite the Mu'awwadhatayn after every Obligatory Salāh.

RECITING IN FAJR SALĀH WHEN TRAVELLING

Sayyidina Uqba bin Āmir رضى الله عنه has also narrated that he was travelling with the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he said, "O Uqba! Should I not teach you two Surahs that are the best Surahs by which protection is sought?" The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then taught him Surah Falaq and Surah Nās. When they stopped for the Fajr Salāh, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sensed that Sayyidina Uqba رضى الله عنه was not himself. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited Surah Falaq and Surah Nās in the Fajr Salāh and then asked, "Tell me Uqba, how do you feel?" According to another narration, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recited the two Surahs to Sayyidina Uqba رضى الله عنه and then asked him, "How do you feel? Recite these two Surahs when you go to bed and when you wake up." ["Mishkāt"]

RECITING WHEN GOING TO BED

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrates that whenever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم retired at night, he recited Surah Ikhlas, Surah Falaq and Surah Nās. He would then blow onto his palms in a manner that some saliva also reached the palms. Beginning with the head, face and front part of the body, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would then rub as much of his body as he could. He repeated this three times. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 750]

RECITING TO CURE ILLNESS

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها has also reported that whenever the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was afflicted with any pains, he recited Surah Falaq and Surah Nās and then blew on his body (using the method described in the foregoing Hadith). She says that when the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was in his last illness before death, she used to recite these two Surahs, blow on the Holy Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم palms and then pass his hands over his body. [Bukhari v. 2 p. 750]

THE ONE WHO DEPARTS ON ARRIVAL

Imām Tirmidhi رحمه الله reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Abbās رضى الله عنه that a person once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم which act Allāh loves most of a person. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, "The act of one who departs on arrival." According to another narration of Tirmidhi and "Shu'abul" (v. 1 p. 348), someone once asked the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم what was the best deed. The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied that it was the deed of one who arrives and departs. When the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم enquired about the meaning of this, The Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that this is the person who keeps reading the Qur'ān until he reaches the end. Upon reaching the end, he starts reciting from the beginning again.

Because of this hadith, Qurra (especially Allāma Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله and those who narrate from him) always recite "Bismillāhir Rahmān nir Rahīm", Surah Fātiha and the first five verses of Surah Baqarah after completing the Qur'ān. In this manner, a new recitation of the Qur'ān is started after one recitation has been completed. Doing so is Mustahab (preferable) and not obligatory.

A WORD OF CAUTION

Some commentators have written that Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه did not regard Surah Falaq and Surah Nās as part of the Qur'ān but used to say that they are intended to teach people how to seek Allāh's protection. Although some Scholars have reconciled his words with the facts, none of their interpretations seem satisfactory. The fact is that all the Ahadīth that report this statement from him are isolated Ahadīth and any isolated Ahadīth that opposes Mutawātir Ahadīth cannot be accepted.

Hāfidh Ibn Hazam رحمه الله has written that this report from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه cannot be true because the copy of Sayyidah Ayshah's رضى الله عنها Qur'ān contains Surah Falaq and Surah Nās. Imām Nawawi رحمه الله has also denied these reports and stated that a person who denies that Surah Falaq and Surah Nās are part of the Qur'ān is a disbeliever.

The Qirā'ah of Sayyidina Imām Āsim رحمه الله, which he reports from Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه contains Surah Falaq and Surah Nās. The narrations of this Qirā'ah are Mutawātir and therefore beyond doubt. Therefore, if Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه had ever made such a statement, he must have certainly retracted it later.

Surah Falaq and Surah Nās are found in all the copies of the Qur'ān that the prophet's companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم dispatched throughout the Muslim world and these two Surahs are established as part of the Qur'ān in all the authentic narrations of Qirā'ah. Therefore, anyone who denies that they not part of the Qur'ān cannot be a Muslim.

There are many irreligious antagonists who are breeding doubts in the hearts of Muslims by quoting in their books narrations that the leading scholars of Islām have rejected. They deny the authenticity of the Qur'ān and say that if they are labelled as disbelievers, (Allāh forbid!) Sayyidina Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd رضى الله عنه should also be labelled as such. These are merely statements of ignorance which they use as a smoke screen to save themselves. May Allāh save us from their treachery. Āmīn.

Conclusion

With the completion of this commentary of the Mu’awwadhatayn, this entire Tafsir “Anwārul Bayān” has been completed. All praises are due to Allāh, the Most Bountiful Sovereign Who has granted me the understanding of the Qur’ān and has inspired me with His knowledge by which hearts expand and minds are enlightened. I am most grateful to Allāh. How can I not be grateful to Him when He has used me for this momentous task and has cast into my heart what he has not placed in the hearts of many people of this age?

I was occupied with this great task for the past ten years and few months in the city of the guide of mankind (Madinah). It has been completed during the middle ten days of Jumādāl Ula, 1419 years after the Hijrah (migration) of the one to whom the Qur’ān was revealed and whom Allāh Ta’āla sent as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner to the whole of mankind and all Jinn. May Allāh’s choicest mercies and blessings be showered on him throughout the ages and on his family and companions who took the Qur’ān to the furthest towns. It illuminated the universe and enlightened man and Jinn. May Allāh’s mercies and blessing also be showered on those who followed these illustrious souls throughout time.

These concluding words have been written in the garden of Heaven (Riyadul-Jannah) in the Masjid of the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in which he taught the Qur’ān to His companions (Sahābah) رضى الله عنهم on Suffa.

Only Allāh Ta’āla inspires one to act, only from Him do we implore help and only on Him do we rely.

GLOSSARY

This glossary gives only a brief, introductory meaning of each word and is by no means an authentic dictionary or a full explanation. The meanings given are exactly what the translator has given in the text except for one or two cases here and there.

اعوذ بالله من الشيطان الرجيم:

انا لله وانا اليه راجعون

((رحمة الله)):

((رحمة الله عليه)):

((رضى الله عنه)):

((صلى الله عليه وسلم)):

((عليه السلام)):

a'raf,al:

aafiyah:

aal Imran:

aalam:

aalamin:

adal:

adhan:

ahbar:

ahl suffah:

ahlul Kitab:

ahqab:

ajda:

akhirah:

alam arwah:

alastu:

alim:

amin (pronounced aamin):

amr bilma'ruf:

an'am, al:

anbiyah:

anfal, al:

anfal:

ansar:

aqd:

asabat:

asbat:

ashab us suffah:

ašhab:

(a'udhu billahi minash shaytanir rajim) I seek refuge in Allah from the accursed devil)

(inna lillahi wa inna ilahi raji'un) see istarja'

May Allah show mercy to him

May Allah have mercy on him

May Allah be pleased with him

May Allah bless him and give him peace

May peace be hon him

ان الحمد والنعمة لك والملك لا شريك لك

ليک اللهم ليک ، ليک لا شريك لك ليک

the heights, the parapets safety, good health and well-being

(the) family of Imran

all the world, universe universe, all creation justice, moderation

the call to prayer, five times a day learned Jewish scholars

see ashabus suffah

people of the Book

(pl. of hiqb, q.v)

a devilish name one whose nose and ears are cut off.

hereafter

world of the souls

(الس) refers to the pledge Allah took from all the souls (Am I not your Lord) al-A'raf, 172

singular of ulama

(exclamation after a prayer meaning) do answer, O Allah, let it be so, accept our prayer.

enjoining the reputable

the quadrupeds

Pl. of nabi

the spoils of war. This word anfāl is the plural of nafl (meaning, 'something extra') and anything more than the obligatory is nafl. A believer fights for Allah's sake, not for the booty. Hence, when he gets the booty, it is anfāl.

booty gained after battle supporters who welcomed the muhajirs from Makkah pledge tribes

successors, grandsons children of (Prophet) Ishaq about 300 poor immigrants who lived on a raised platform in Masjid Nabawi devoted to acquiring knowledge and participating in jihad

same as sahabah

ashabul faraid:	'people of inheritance,' those liable to receive their shares of inheritance
ashara mubashshara:	ten people who were given glad tidings of Paradise ashura:	10th of Muharram
asr:	afternoon ( salah )
aurah:	that which the Shari'ah has called for being concealed, the intimate parts
awliya:	(pl. of wali)
awsat mufassal:	are the surah from at-Tariq (86) to al-Bayyinah (98)
ayah (Pl. ayat):	sign, verse (of the Quran)
ayat ul Kursi:	verse 255 of al-Baqarah
Aws:	tribe of Madinah
Azazil:	name of Iblis
ba'in (talaq):	irrevocable divorce
badanah:	large animal, (camels and cattles)
bahirah (بحيرة):	a she-camel whose ear was slit by pagan Arabs with superstitious minds
bahirah:	the she camel whose ear was cut off when she delivered five foals, the fifth being a male, so that she may not be slaughtered or mounted but allowed to roam about freely. But, Qatadah said that the fifth should be a female to allow the distinction
baitul izzah:	Allah's House on the first heaven, House of honour baqarah, al:	the cow
bara'ah:	exoneration
barakah:	abundant good, blessing
basmalah:	بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ ( Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim ) In the name of Allah the Beneficent, the Most Merciful bayt ul-Ma'mur:	a place beneath Allah's throne where angels perform tawaf bid:	13th, 14th, 15th of each lunar month when it is rewarding to fast
budn:	pl. of badanah
buraq:	an animal larger than a donkey and smaller than a horse travelling at speed of lightning. The Prophet ﷺ rode it to the heavens
buruj:	stars; (twelve signs of the zodiac)
Bakht Nasr:	Nebuchadnezzar
Bakkah:	another name for Makkah
Bani (or Banu) Isra'il:	children of Isra'il
Bid'ah:	innovation in religion
dajjal:	antichrist
darul harb:	enemy territory
dawn:	penalty
dhabih:	the one offered as sacrifice, Isma'il عليه السلام
dhakirin:	those who engage in dhikr
dhamil arham:	maternal relatives, blood relatives
dhamil qurba:	relatives
dhann:	assumption, dreams of other people
dhimmi:	non-Muslim living in Islamic state under protection
dhul Khalsa:	an idol regarded as the Ka'bah of Yeman, pulled down by Jarir bin Abdullah Bajali رحمه الله
din:	religion

diyah:	blood money
diyah:	bloodhit, blood money
du'a:	prayer, supplication, call
dubur:	west/ wind
durud:	invocating blessing on the Prophet
eela:	oath not to approach one's wife for an unspecified time
eid (eed):	festival
eid ul adha:	festival on 10th Dhul Hajjah when a sacrifice is made marking that of Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ
eid ul fitr:	festival marking end of Ramadan when salah is offered and before that sadaqah al-fitr is paid to the poor.
fa'i:	war booty gained without fighting fajr:	dawn ( salah )
fard:	absolutely obligatory, undeniable
fasiq (pl. fasiqun):	disobedient, transgressor, rebellious
fasiq:	open sinner
fatil:	wick a small skin in the cleft of a date stone anything very insignificant.
fatir:	creator, originator
fatrah:	period during which no Prophet or Messenger was sent fatwa:	ruling on a religious issue
fatwa:	rulings on religions matters given by jurists fayyi:	booty received by Muslims from disbelievers after a truce, without any fighting
fidyah:	expiation, atonement
fitrah:	nature, moral constitution
furqan:	discerner, that which differentiates furqan:	discriminator, what distinguishes fusuq:	sin
Fatihah:	opening
Fir'awn:	Pharaoh
ghamus:	false assertion of having done something in the past.
ghanima:	booty gained after battle
ghislin:	filth from the wounds of inmates of Hell
ghulu:	excesses, exaggeration (in religion)
haddul qadhaf:	punishment for defaming. someones accusing him/her of adultery
hadith (pl. ahadith):	Prophet's ﷺ tradition
hady:	animal of sacrifice brought by pilgrim
haidh:	menstruation
hajj akbar:	Hajj itself
hajj al badl:	hajj performed on behalf of another hajj asghar:	the umrah
hajr aswad:	The Black Stone
halal:	lawful, permitted
halal:	lawful, permitted
hama/ham/hami:	a she camel dedicated to idols by pagan Arabs
haram:	unlawful, forbidden, sacred
haram:	unlawful, forbidden, sacred
hasur:	chaste, abstaining from women, celibate

hawariyyin:	disciples of Sayyidina Isa ﷺ hidayah:	guidance
hijab:	covering, veil
hijrah:	migration, migration to Madinah
hiqb:	an extremely long period of time; eighty years each day of which is like a thousand years of this world
hubal:	an idol of the Makkans whose slogan Abu Sufyan raised at the Uhud hudhud:	hoopoe
hullf (حلف):	agreement to assist one another in some matters
hur ayn:	large eyed maidens of Paradise
hur:	maidens of Paradise, (beautiful and fair)
Hajj:	annual pilgrimage which is obligatory on those who can perform it once in lifetime, involving visit to Makkah, Mina, Arafat and Muzdalifah (and Madinah).
Ham:	The stud camel whose 'grandson' impregnated a female, so it gained freedom. Or the stud camel who impregnated female camels ten times. It was set free
Harut/Marut:	two angels sent to try men i'tikaf:	seclusion for worship - men do it in the mosque while women observe it at home
iblis:	a name of the devil
ibnus sabil:	traveller
iddah:	waiting period for a woman who is divorced or widowed before she may remarry.
iddah:	waiting period of woman who is divorced or widowed iddah:	waiting period of woman who is divorced or widowed before she may remarry ifrad:	assuming ihram for only hajj
ihram:	every pilgrim must assume the ihram which makes certain lawful things unlawful to him and calls upon him to don particular dress.
ihsan:	be kind, do in a beautiful way
ihsar:	prevented from making pilgrimage
ijma:	consensus of opinion
ila(ella):	an oath by a husband that he will not have sexual intercourse with his wives
ilham:	inspiration in the heart
illiyyin:	a place above seven heavens where souls of believers reside
ilm:	knowledge
iman:	faith, belief
insha Allah:	if Allah will insha Allah:	if Allah will. This phrase is added everytime one speaks of doing something in future
ira'ahit tariq:	guidance by pointing out the path
irtidad:	apostacy
isal ilal matlub:	delivering to the exact destination
isal thawab:	consigning reward to another person of one's pious deeds isha:	night ( salah )
islah:	reformation, correction
isra:	night journey

istabraq:	fine silk
istarja:	to say انا لله وانا اليه راجعون (to Allah we belong and to Him is our return) when faced with difficulty or on loss of a dear one.
istidraj:	respite given Allah before He seizes finally when the sinner commits sin boldly, step by step, bringing the infidel to hell by degrees
istighfar:	to seek forgiveness of Allah istikhara:	a prayer to get Allah's guidance on some issue of concern
Isra'il (Prophet):	Yaqub <small>عليه السلام</small> jahannum:	Hell
jamarah (jamarat):	three pillars marking the site where the devil tries to tempt Ismail <small>عليه السلام</small>
jamarah kubra:	the last jamarah
jamarah ula:	the first jamarah
jamarah wusta:	the middle jamarah
janazah salah:	funeral prayer
janazah:	funeral
jazakAllah:	may Allah reward you, may Allah give you recompense
jibt:	idols, name of an idol
jihad:	to fight in Allah's cause
Jannah:	Paradise
Jizya:	tax imposed by Islam on non-Muslims offering them protection
kaffarah:	expiation
kashf:	a form of Divine inspiration
khums:	one-fifth (of booty)
kufr amali:	disbelief in deeds
Ka'bah:	cube, the building in the centre of the sacred mosque in Makkah around which pilgrims circumambulate, and which worshippers face in their salah.
Kaffarah:	expiation
Kafir:	disbeliever, infidel
Kalalah:	a dead person who leaves neither father nor son but a brother or a sister
Karamah:	a wonder
Kawthar:	the Prophet's pond in the hereafter at which he stand and only the truly pious will be allowed to drink so that they will never feel thirsty
Khalil:	friend
Kharaj:	a tribute on land
Khazraj:	tribe of Madinah
Khula:	divorce given by a husband on his wife's initiative
Khulafa (s. Khalifah):	Caliphs
Khulafa Rashidun:	righteous caliphs
Khutbah:	sermon
Kiraman Katibin:	angels who record a person's deeds/ words
Kitabah:	a slave's agreement to buy his own freedom from his master through regular payments
Kuffar:	(pl. of Kafir)
Kufr:	disbelief, to conceal (truth)

Kun (كن):	'Be,' when Allah intends anything, He says Kun and it is.
la'n:	curse
laat:	a generous man Amir bin Zarb who fed travellers and was a judge. When he died Amr bin Luhay, made an idol of him. It was pulled down by Abu Sufya bin Harband ؓ Mughira bin Shibah ؓ
labayk:	the pilgrim recites after assuming the ihram
laghw:	futile, oath, meaningless, vain
laylatul qadar:	the night of power which is the night in Ramadan when the Qur'an was revealed lia'n:	a couple who invoke Allah's curse on each other when the husband accuses his wife of immorality and she denies lowhul mahfuz:	preserved tablet
Laylatul jinn:	the night when the jinn listened to the Qur'an and the Prophet's ؐ sermon
ma'idah, al:	the tablespread
mabrur:	sinless
mahr mithal:	dower (customary or) in force in the family
mahr:	dower
mahram:	a near relative with whom it is unlawful to marry, one with whom it is always unlawful to marry
makruh tahrimi:	disapproved almost to the point of unlawfulness makruh tahzihi:	disliked in order to purify, withdraw out of taqwa , abstain makruh:	disliked, reprehensible, not approved manasik:	rites of hajj
maqamul Mahmud:	praiseworthy station
mashwarah:	consultation
masjid:	mosque
mathani:	the surahs from surah Yunus to al-Hujrat
mawdihatul hasanah:	beautiful exhortations mawlal mawalat:	two people made a contract to help pay one another's penalty, if any, and to inherit from one another, each of these was so called maytah:	carion, animals that die a natural death
mi'raj:	ascension to the heavens
mihrab:	sanctuary, place of worship, a niche in the mosque (for the imam), a place of battle (like against the devil)
mirain:	Surahs that contain a little more than a hundred verses miswak:	a fine twig for brushing teeth
mu'allaq:	an attached vow
mu'anaqa:	to embrace
mu'awwadhatayn:	last two surahs of the Qur'an al-Falaq and an-Nas muadhdhin:	one who calls the adhan
mubalahah:	two or more opposing parties invoke curse on the wrongdoer.
mufassal:	the surahs from Qaf (50) to the end of the Quran are so called mufrid:	who performs ifrad hajj mufti:	jurisprudent, scholar who is eligible to give religious rulings ( fatwa )

muhaddith (pl. muhaddithin):	scholar of hadith
muhajir (muhajirun/muhajrin):	emigrants
muharramat abadiyah:	women whom a man can never marry muharramat musaharah:	women whom a man cannot marry because of marriage ties
muharramat nasabiyah:	women whom a man cannot marry because of close relationship muharramat rada'iyah:	women whom a man cannot marry because of suckling muhkamat:	clear, comprehensive verses of the Qur'an muhsin:	a Muslim adult, free, married person who has consummated his or her marriage. If any of them commits, adultery then he or she must be stoned to death
muhsir:	one who is prevented mujahadah:	struggle between two; thus a persons struggle against his carnal self to better his hereafter mujahid:	warrior
mulhid:	athiest, disbeliever
munadi:	one who calls out loudly, proclaimer, herald
munafiq:	hypocrite
munafiqun:	pl. of munafiq munajat:	quiet supplication to Allah
muqantarrah:	huge proportions
muqatta'at, huruf:	abbreviated letters like (ا ل ف ل ا م م ع م) in the first verse of 29 surah
muqtadi:	one who follows the iman in salah
murtad:	apostate
murtahin:	receiver
musafaha:	to shake hands
musafir:	traveller
mustahab:	desirable, recommended, that which was observed by the Prophet ﷺ sometimes and omitted sometimes.
mut'ah:	temporary marriage
mutashabihat:	allegorical verses of the Qur'an whose meaning is known to Allah alone, example: 'The Most Merciful is firm on the throne' ( surah TaHa , 5) mutashabihat:	allegorical, figurative, co-similar, difficult to fathom.
mutlaq:	a genaral vow
muttaqin (pl. of muttaqi):	those who fear Allah , who observe taqwa
muttaqin:	abstinent, pious those who fear Allah
muwahhid:	a monotheist
Ma'ruf:	righteousness reputable
Maghrib:	sunset ( salah after)
Manat:	Banu Hudhayl and Banu Khuza'ah made this idol and made offering to it as a means of nearness to Allah
Manna:	Allah's blessing sent to Banu Isra'il like white sugar, with salwa
Maqam Ibrahim:	Station of Ibrahim, ﷺ the rock on which he stood while building the Ka'ba
Maqam ul Mahmud:	the praiseworthy station
Maryam:	worshipper (against verse 37 Aal Imran), mother of Sayyidina Isa ﷺ

---

Mash'arul Haram:	where rites of hajj are performed at Muzdalifah
Mu'min (Pl. mu'minun):	believer
Mubalahah:	invoking curse on the apposing party who is said to be the wrong-doer, mutual imprecation
Mukatab:	slave who enters into a Kitabah
Mukatabah:	same as Kitabah
Mun'aqida:	promise to do or not do something in the future
Munkar:	rejected, disreputable
Mushrik (Pl. mushrikun):	polytheist
Mutawatir (ah):	continuously handed down
Muttatu:	who performs tamattu hajj naat:	poem in praise of the Prophet ﷺ
nabi:	Prophet
nabi:	a Prophet with no new Shari'ah or Book
nabuwah:	Prophethood
nafl:	breath (of Jibril)
nafl:	optional
nafs:	base self
nahi an almunkar:	forbid the disreputable
najashi:	negus, the king of Abyssinia/Ethiopia
najwa:	secret meeting
naml:	ants
nasara:	christians
nasran:	same as nasara
nasrani:	singular of nasara/nasran
nazghun:	temptation
nifaq:	hypocrisy
night of qadr:	see laylatul qadr
nisa, an:	the women
nisab:	the amount of gold, silver, currency, wealth or property that attracts payment of zakah
nisab:	the minimum property or wealth that attracts payment of zakah
noqir:	tiny spot on a date pit; something very insignificant.
nur:	light
Nahl-an:	the bee
Nijr-Al:	capital city of the Thamud
Paraclete:	one who people praise exceedingly (which is Muhammad in Arabic) qada:	lapse, missing a fard and making up later.
qarin:	who performs qiran hajj
qasas:	story
qati:	clear commands in dreams
qawa'id:	old women who remain indoors and past age of marriage
qibla:	the direction (of the Ka'ba ) which worshippers face in their salah
qiran:	assuming ihram for both umrah and hajj , performing the umrah but not giving up the ihram , and after performing hajj , when due, shaving head and discarding the ihram
qisar mufassal:	the surah from az-Zilzal (99) to an-Nas (114) are so called

qisas"	retaliation
qitmir:	pellice, date stone, anything on no value
qunut:	stand in humility
Qasr (salah):	shortened salah
Qintar:	large wealth, 42,000 ooqiya or 4,80,000 dirhams
Qiyamah:	Day of Resurrection
ra'd:	thunder
rabb (Pl. arbab):	Lord
rabbaniyun:	those of Allah , who are attached to Allah
rabitu:	attach to a task dedicatedly, preparing beast for battle, guarding borders of Islamic state
rahn:	pledge
raj'i (talaq):	revocable divorce
rajam:	stoning married adulterer to death
rami:	pelting stones at the jamarat rasul:	Messenger
rasul:	messenger who is a Prophet with a new Shari'ah and a new Book rawafid:	the shias
rayhan:	nourishment, fragrant plants, flowers sustenance
risalat:	messaging, office of a Messenger
ruh:	spirit, mercy (commentary on verse 170/171 surah Nisa), inspiration
ruku':	bowing posture in the salah
Rahim, ar:	The most merciful, (attribute of Allah )
Rahman ar:	The Beneficent, The Merciful (attribute of Allah )
Ruhul Qudus:	appellation of Jibril ﷺ
saba:	wind that blows from east to west sabian:	(1) worshippers of angels (2) fire-worshippers who were also Jews and Christians (3) had no religion but believed in Allah
sabr:	patience
sadaqah:	charity
sadaqatul fitr:	charity given after end of the month of fasting (Ramadan)
sadhu:	Hindu ascetic
saff:	row
sajdah:	prostration
salam:	greeting
salatul duha:	optional salah after sunrise
salatul fath:	optional salah on gaining victory
salatul khawf:	salah performed while in fear salatul wusta:	the saah between others, midmost salah
salihin:	righteous
salihun (pl. of salih):	righteous
sayyidut-tabi'in:	a title of Uwais Qarni given to him by the Prophet ﷺ for, though he embraced Islam in his times, he could not meet him because he tended to his ailing mother
shafa'atul uzma:	the great intercession for everyone
shafi:	cure
shafiyah:	cure
shahid:	martyr, witness
shirk:	polytheism

shuhada:	Pl. of shahid
shukr:	gratitude
sidratul muntaha:	a lotus or jujube tree over the seventh heaven near Paradise at the limit beyond which is nothing sijjin:	a place beneath seven earths where souls of disbelievers are kept siqayatul hajj:	providing water to the pilgrims
sirat:	a very narrow, slippery bridge over hell which the believers will cross over swiftly but the infidels will fall into hell
siratul mustaqim:	the right path siwak:	see miswak
sunnah:	practice of the Prophet ﷺ
sa'ibah (ساية):	a slave or an animal set free for the sake of an idol sa'iqah:	thunderclap, lightning bolt
sab'u tiwal:	the lengthy surahs in the beginning after al-Fatihah - from al-Baqarah to at-Taubah or Bara'a
Sa'i (سعي):	the seven rounds between Safa and Marwah , the two hillocks, by the pilgrims.
Sa'ibah:	If a camel bore ten foals she qualified for exemption from work and from being milked. Her hair was cut off to mark her. But some said that it was a camel dedicated to an idol and the custodian slaughtered her and gave its meat away
Sabt:	Sabbath
Sadanatul bayt:	to unlock and lock the door of the Ka'bah
Saffat, as:	The rangers, the angels
Sahabah:	companions of the Prophet ﷺ (pl. of sahabi )
Sahabi:	s. of sahabah
Sahifah:	scriptures in a smaller form
Salah:	regular prayer, form of worship made up of different postures and recitals, physical worship, also invoking blessing on the Prophet ﷺ
Salwa:	Allah's blessing to Baru Isra'il , quails
Sha'air (شعار) (pl of شاعرة sha'irah):	Signs, to kens
Shari'ah:	Islamic law as prescribed by the Qur'an and the hadith , the way the religion is observed.
Shaybi:	custodian of the keys of the Ka'bah
Shaytan:	Satan, the devil
Shuh:	riggardliness
Siddiqun (Siddiqin):	truthful
Sirat ul mustaqim:	straight path
Sufiyah:	sufis , mystics
Sundus:	fine silk
Surah (Pl. Suwar):	Chapter (of the Quran)
Taybah:	another name of Madinah
ta'awwudh:	seeking refuge in Allah in the words
tabi'un/ tabi'in (s. tabi'i):	successors of the sahabah , ﷺ epigones tafaqqu:	attain deep understanding of religion
tafsir birra'iy:	interpretation based on own opinion
tafsir:	commentary, explanation, interpretation
taghabun:	mutual loss and gain
tahajjud (salah):	Salah offered voluntarily in the dead of the night

tahiyyah:	when others are asleep tahlil (تحليل):	greeting, prayer, salam tahlil (تهليل):	to make lawful tahmid:	to say La ilaha illAllah tajwid:	praise of Allah
takbir (pl. takbirat):	science of recital of the Qur'an with correct articulation and punctuation.
talaq:	to say Allahu Akbar talaq:	divorce given by a husband to his wife on his own talbiyah:	divorce
tamattu:	reciting labayk during pilgrimage assuming ihram for umrah during months of hajj and having performed it, assuming ihram for hajj on the 8th of Dhul Hajjah tanfil:	proclamation that warriors may retain to themselves whatever booty they acquire, the booty being called nafl .
taqdir:	fate, Divine decree
taqiyya:	expression of what one really disagrees with, lying in religion - a shi'a belief
taqwa:	righteousness, a God-fearing attitude tariqah:	a path, religious life as seen by the sufis
tasawwuf:	sufism mysticism, intense love of Allah and the Prophet ﷺ, and obedience to them tasbih:	to glorify Allah
tashahhud:	at-tahiyyat recited in the sitting posture in salah and forms the words recited during the mi'raj
tasmiyyah:	to recite the basmalah
taubah:	repentance
taubah:	repentance
taught:	rebellious conduct, false god, idol
tawaf:	circumambulation of the Ka'ba tawaffa:	to raise souls, to lift something completely, to put something to sleep, to grant death to someone tawakkul:	trust in Allah
tawhid:	oneness of Allah , monotheism
tayammum:	dry ablution when water is unavailable or use of it is harmful
tiwal mufassal:	are the surah from Qaf (50) to al-Buruj (85)
tuhr:	purity apposite of menstruation
Ulama:	Scholars (of religion)
Umrah:	Optional pilgrimage of a lesser nature.
umm:	Mother, chief
ummah (Pl. umam):	Community, followers/people of a Prophet.
ummul qura (mother of all villages):	a name of Makkah
uququl walidain:	disobedience to parents and causing them grief and hardship
ushr:	a tenth, payable on produce uzza:	a female devil who visited three accacia trees in Batn Nakhla, an idol carved by Zalim bin As'ad, destroyed by Khalid bin Walid ؓ
wahy:	to cost into the heart, to reveal, to inspire wajib:	obligatory to a degree lesser than fard wali:	friend of Allah , man of Allah

wali:	friend, helper
wasata:	best, just, reliable
wasilah (وصيلة):	a female animal (camel or ewe) honoured to the idols by observing some superstition wasilah:	It was a goat that bore seven kids. Only males could use her and upon her death, both males and females ate from her carcass
wassiyah:	bequest
wazifah:	rota of recital, remembrance, supplication
wird:	rota of recital, remembrance, supplication
wudu:	ablution to gain purity (before offering salah for instance)
Yahud:	name of Jews because they repented from calf worship
Yathrib:	original name of Madinah yasin:	O men! A name of the Prophet ﷺ yastambituna:	'People with insight' but literally 'to extract water from the depths of the earth,' hence, those who can unearth the truth
yamin:	oath
yaqin:	conviction
Zamzam:	a well in Makkah of incessant water of zamzam , discovered by Abdul Muttalib and originally scraped by an angel for Prophet Isma'il عليه السلام
Zaqqum:	a bitter tree in hell
Zuhr:	midday ( salah )
Zulumat (pl.):	darkness, falsehood
zakah:	charity prescribed at a certain rate on those holding a certain amount of assets called nisab , worship of financial form
zihar:	telling one's wife, "You are to me like my Mother's back

INDEXES

There are three different sets of index, an index of names appearing in the commentary, an index of subjects in the commentary, and, an index of books to which the commentary refers but the major books of hadith like Bukhari, Muslim, etc. are not mentioned. The numbers against each entry refer to the pages and an 'f' following a number implies that the entry is repeated on that page or up to five following pages.

INDEX OF NAMES

A

Abbad bin Bishr: 279
 Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib: 138, 575
 Abdul Makib bin Umair: 9
 Abdul Masih: 349
 Abdullah bin Abbas: 7, 9, 12, 24, 26, 37, 43, 51, 61f, 65f, 71f, 81, 86, 94, 108, 119f, 125, 141f, 147f, 159, 167, 171, 178, 195f, 217f, 233, 249, 257, 276, 284f, 314f, 327, 347f, 356f, 375f, 383f, 395f, 417f, 441f, 452, 470f, 481f, 493f, 506, 519, 553f, 562f, 584f, 611f, 627f
 Abdullah bin Abu Awfa: 405, 497
 Abdullah bin Amr: 576, 591
 Abdullah bin Jahsh: 272f
 Abdullah bin Jubair: 440
 Abdullah bin Mas'ud: 7, 11f, 37, 51, 65, 78, 132, 161, 168, 176f, 192, 241, 255, 327f, 336f, 360f, 404, 463, 486f, 538, 558, 570, 581, 591, 603, 645
 Abdullah bin Munkadir: 415
 Abdullah bin Qais: 158
 Abdullah bin Rawaha: 278, 281
 Abdullah bin Salam: 153, 318, 335, 401, 433f, 549, 580
 Abdullah bin Umar: 4, 43, 77, 111, 199f, 207f, 212, 250, 328, 415, 493f, 535, 553f, 570, 579, 606, 632f
 Abdullah bin Unais: 405
 Abdullah bin Zubair: 420
 Abdullah ibn Ammar: 251
 Abdullah ibn Zubayr: 128
 Abdur Rahman bin Abu Dhubab: 633
 Abdur Rahman bin Jubair: 269
 Abdur Rahman bin Samurah: 282
 Abdur Rahman bin Zayd: 69
 Abdur Rahman ibn Awf: 168, 303
 Abham: 349
 Abu Abdullah Razi: 97
 Abu Amir Ash'ary: 275
 Abu Ayyub Ansari: 224, 238f, 534, 611
 Abu Bakr Jassas: 207, 214, 401, 547
 Abu Bakr: 47, 124, 164, 239, 370, 452f, 467f, 481f, 555, 577, 589, 602, 621
 Abu Burda: 335
 Abu Darda: 51, 178, 327, 620, 642
 Abu Dhamra Zuraqi: 628
 Abu Dharr: 77, 157, 330, 405, 446, 492, 495, 561, 577
 Abu Hanifah: 4, 124, 267, 273, 294f, 335, 421, 520, 531, 547, 560, 632
 Abu Harithah: 393

Abu Humaid Sa'id: 470
 Abu Hurairah: 8, 11f, 50, 61f, 106, 113f, 127, 157, 162f, 174, 183, 190, 208f, 223f, 269, 280, 313, 323f, 329f, 346f, 401, 446, 479f, 486f, 493f, 515, 523, 538, 549f, 568, 584, 592f, 608f, 620f, 635, 648f
 Abu Imran: 238
 Abu Ja'far Baqir: 430
 Abu Jahl: 178
 Abu Lahab: 178
 Abu Malik Ash'ary: 643
 Abu Marthad Ghanawi: 278
 Abu Mas'ud: 197
 Abu Musa Ash'ary: 114, 157, 162, 218, 380, 648
 Abu Qais: 524
 Abu Sa'id Khudri: 9, 131, 158, 165, 200, 425, 555, 568, 581, 593, 610, 620, 648
 Abu Salamah: 169, 626
 Abu Sufyan: 442, 451f, 476
 Abu Ubaidah bin Jarah: 364, 660
 Abu Umamah: 2, 11, 167, 361, 405, 503, 610
 Abu Yusuf: 267
 Abu Zinad: 69
 Abu Zubair Thaqafi: 147
 Abul Aliya: 174, 413, 506
 Abul Hasan Taqiuddin: see Subuki
 Adam (Prophet): 28, 32f, 37f, 180, 263, 309, 392, 410, 419f, 432, 455, 496, 608
 Adi bin Hatim: 396
 Ahdullah bin Mughira: 272
 Akhnas ibn Shurayq: 256
 Akhtam bin Sayfi: 628
 Ali bin Abu Talib: 313f, 370, 394, 452, 465f, 514f, 544, 570f, 583
 Ali bin Husain (Zaynul Abidin): 419, 446
 Ali ibn Abu Talib: 53, 77, 176, 249, 255
 Alusi: 506
 Amaliqah: 307
 Ammar ibn Yasir: 54
 Amr bin Abasa: 630
 Amr bin As: 43
 Amr bin Hadrami: 272
 Amr bin Kharaja: 571
 Amr bin Ubaid: 361
 Anas bin Maalik: 9, 25, 52, 111, 127, 147, 162f, 172, 208, 253, 269, 279, 321, 335, 415, 442f, 464f, 491f, 497, 515, 567, 576, 581, 625, 665
 Anas bin Nadir: 451
 Anas ibn Sirin: 111
 Aqib: 393

Ariha (pl): 62
 Armīya bin Khalqīya: 318
 Asim bin Sulayman: 172
 Asim: 257
 Asiya: 380
 Asla bin Sharik: 559
 Asma: 327
 Aswad bin Khalaf: 524
 Ata: 125, 180, 218, 262, 328
 Atab bin Usaid: 337
 Atīyya Awfi: 72
 Awf bin Malik: 282
 Ayham: 393
 Aysha: 8, 128, 172, 183f, 251f, 279f, 283, 288, 329, 354, 380, 463, 523f, 526, 545, 553f, 560, 568f, 581, 651f, 656
 Azar: 32
 Azazil (Iblis): 36
 Azd (tribe): 470

B

Babylon (pl): 45
 Baghawi: 133, 301f, 404, 605
 Bakht Nasr: 46
 Banu Jurhum: see Jurhum
 Bara bin Azib: 144, 220, 325, 524, 624, 632
 Barira: 580
 Baydawi: 21, 25, 33f, 49, 155, 167, 185, 199, 236
 Bayhaqi: 310
 Bi'r Ma'una (pl): 272
 Bilal: 470
 Bishr: 638
 Buraidah: 321
 Bushair: 638

D

Dahhak: 614
 Dawud (Prophet): 86, 95, 308
 Dhahabi: 538f

E

Egypt (pl): 45f

F

Fatimah (daughter of the Prophet): 138, 380, 394, 607
 Fir'awn: 46, 56f, 97, 178
 Fudalah: 238

G

Ghaylan bin Salma Thaqafi: 500

H

Hafsa: 226
 Hajjaj bin Yusuf: 128, 420
 Hajra: 45, 171
 Hakam bin Kaysan: 272
 Hamzah: 442, 450
 Harith bin Simmah: 452
 Harith bin Zayd: 365
 Harithah bin Wahab: 632
 Harun (Prophet): 56f, 60f
 Harun Rashid: 128
 Hasan bin Abu Qais: 524
 Hasan bin Ali: 393, 394, 548
 Hasan bin Thabit: 86
 Hasan Busri: 69, 118, 407, 571, 589
 Hawwa: 37f, 43f, 62, 496

Hinda: 442
 Hizqil (Prophet): 86, 305
 Hud (Prophet): 94
 Hudaybiyah (pl): 233f
 Hudhaifa: 18, 53, 430
 Husain bin Ali: 315f, 394

I

Iblis: 35
 Ibn Abu Layla: 211
 Ibn Abu Shaybah: 138
 Ibn Hisham: 17
 Ibn Ishaq: 393, 441
 Ibn Jarir: 53, 91, 122, 256
 Ibn Juraij: 418, 491
 Ibn Kathir: 7, 11, 14, 18, 26f, 51f, 62f, 73, 85, 91, 122, 185, 265, 339, 395
 Ibn Nujaim: see Zainuddin
 Ibn Shihab Zuhri: 476
 Ibn Zayd: 494
 Ibrahim (Prophet): 14, 45f, 119f, 126, 129f, 137, 142, 155, 171, 255, 317f, 365, 411f, 566f, 649
 Ibrahim (Prophet's son): 168
 Ikrimah: 61, 318, 420
 Imran (grandfather of Isa): 375
 Imran bin Hussain: 608f
 Injil: 2
 Isa (Prophet): 44, 67, 85f, 130f, 140, 152, 270, 310, 350, 375, 383f, 458, 564, 593
 Ishaq (Prophet): 45f, 102, 130f, 137, 140f
 Isma'il (Prophet): 45f, 102, 126, 129f, 137, 142, 171, 411
 Isra'il: see Ya'qub
 Iyas bin Abdullah: 550

J

Jabir bin Abdullah: 95, 124, 157, 192, 207, 260, 280, 303, 325f, 335f, 429f
 Jabir bin Samura: 77
 Jabir bin Sulaim: 555
 Jalut: 307
 Jarir bin Abdullah: 429f
 Jassas: see Abu Bakr Jassay
 Jericho (pl): see Ariha
 Jibril: 2, 52, 86, 92, 129, 213, 310, 347, 429, 491, 586
 Jundub ibn Ka'b: 99
 Jurhum, Banu: 47

K

Ka'b Ahbar: 5, 109
 Ka'b bin Maalik: 221, 450f
 Ka'bn bin Ujrah: 244
 Kalbi: 263
 Kalib bin Yuqina: 305
 Kan'an: 45
 Khabbab: 265
 Khadijah: 380
 Khalid bin Walid: 447
 Khalil: 69

L

Labid ibn Rabi'ah: 23

M

Ma'qil bin Yasar: 200, 280, 293, 578
 Mahmud bin Labid: 291

Malik, Imam: 267, 315, 354, 421, 463
 Marthad: 257
 Marwa, Mt: 129
 Maryam (mother of Isa): 44, 310, 350, 375f
 Mash'arul Haram: 129
 Masruq: 161, 475f, 647f
 Maymunah: 494
 Mika'il: 335
 Mina (pl): 129
 Mu'adh bin Jabal: 165f, 177, 230, 321
 Mu'awiyah Qushairi: 550
 Mubashshir: 638
 Mughirah bin Shu'bah: 105, 506
 Muhammad (Prophet): 34, 67, 95, 386f, 455, 558
 Muhammad bin Muslima: 651
 Muhammad, Imam: 267
 Muhammd Baqir: 506
 Mujahid: 2, 12, 26, 32, 37, 65f, 109, 299, 315, 359, 412f, 420, 491, 546
 Mulla Ali Qari: 99
 Munawi: 256
 Muqatil bin Hiban: 5
 Mus'ab bin Umair: 440f, 450
 Musa (Prophet): 14, 46, 56f, 59f, 62f, 67, 70, 85f, 97f, 137, 140, 260, 305, 385
 Muzdalifah (pl): 129

N

Nadir, Banu: 47, 85
 Nanfal bin Abdullah: 272
 Nasafi: 25, 27, 86
 Nawas bin Sam'an: 351
 Nebuchadnezzar: see Bakht Nasr
 Nimrud: 45, 317
 Nu'man bin Amr: 365
 Nuh (Prophet): 146f, 263, 386, 417f

P

Palestine (pl): 45
 Pharaoh: see Fir'awn

Q

Qadam (pl): 119
 Qais bin Sa'd: 34
 Qais bin Sirma: 220
 Qatadah: 26, 32, 61, 109, 202, 302f, 315f, 327, 339, 351, 387, 609, 638
 Qaynuqa: 47
 Quraizah: 47, 85
 Qurtabi: 100, 116, 150, 220, 255f, 275, 538, 610

R

Rabi'ah Basriyah: 446
 Rabi'ah bin Ka'b: 592
 Rafi bin Khudaij: 651
 Raghib: 139
 Ribbi ibn Amir: 408
 Ruhul Qudus: See Jibril
 Rustum: 408

S

Sa'd bin Abu Waqqas: 206
 Sa'd bin Rabi: 451
 Sa'd ibn Yazid: 9
 Sa'id bin Jubayr: 332, 387, 506
 Sa'id bin Musayyib: 119, 203, 258, 284, 651

Sa'id ibn Jubair: 125, 201
 Safa, Mt: 129
 Saffawan bin Umayyah: 524
 Safiyya: 138
 Safwan bin Umayyah: 442
 Sahl bin Sa'd: 269, 554
 Sakhawi: 465
 Salahuddin Ayyubi: 110
 Salama: 626
 Salih (Prophet): 94
 Salman Farsi: 218, 269, 492
 Sam bin Nuh: 386
 Samiri: 58
 Sarah: 45
 Sha'bi: 12, 172
 Shaddad bin Aus: 240, 323
 Shafi'i, Imam: 4, 421, 520, 531, 547, 630
 Sham'un: 305
 Shamweel (Prophet): 86, 305
 Shas bin Qais: 423f
 Shith: 420
 Subuki: 410
 Suddi: 73, 256
 Sufyan bin Abdullah: 403
 Suhaib Rumi: 258f, 627
 Sulaiman (Prophet): 86, 94f, 377
 Suyuti: 310

T

Talhah: 450f
 Talut: 307
 Tariq bin Shihab: 660
 Tha'laba bin:
 Thabit bin Dahda: 451
 Thabit bin Qais: 290
 Thanawi: 95, 375, 381
 Tur, Mt: 46, 57, 39

U

Ubadah bin Samit: 299, 426
 Ubaidah Salmani: 506
 Ubayy bin Ka'b: 223, 264, 311
 Ubayy bin Khalaf: 452
 Umar bin Khattab: 12, 23, 42, 85, 124, 147, 153, 167f, 203, 211, 221, 259, 314f, 370, 416, 422, 451f, 467f, 550f, 586, 604, 632, 660
 Umm Hani: 63
 Umm Salamah: 71, 169, 229, 546, 555, 626
 Ummul Hasin: 583
 Uqbah ibn Aamir: 76, 238, 497
 Usaid bin Hudair: 279
 Usama bin Zaid: 52, 607
 Uthman bin Abdullah: 272
 Uthman bin affan: 370, 467f, 493, 603, 633
 Uthman bin Ma'zun: 379
 Uthman bin Talhah: 575
 Uzair bin Barkhiya (Prophet): 137, 318, 564

W

Wahb bin Munabbih: 5, 69, 128
 Wahidi: 141, 150
 Wahshi: 442
 Walid ibn Aqba: 100
 Waqid bin Abdullah: 272
 Waqidi: 263
 Wathila: 570

Y

Ya'la bin Umayya: 632
 Ya'qub (Prophet): 45, 48, 137, 140f
 Yahya (Prophet): 66, 377f, 383f, 593f
 Yusha bin Nun: 46, 62
 Yusuf (named as Isa's father): 384
 Yusuf (Prophet): 34, 45, 593f

Z

Zabur: 2

Zaid bin Aslam: 217
 Zaid bin Haritha: 415, 527
 Zaid bin Thabit: 451, 655
 Zainuddin Ibn Nujaim: 541f
 Zakariya (Prophet): 66, 319, 375f, 383f
 Zaynul Abidin: see Ali bin Husain
 Zubair: 452f
 Zuhri: 275

INDEX OF BOOKS*A

Adab al Mufrad: 140
 Ahkamul Qur'an: 214, 232
 Al-Ashba wan Nadha'ir: 541f
 Asbahan Nuzul: 141, 150, 161, 174, 187, 265f,
 278f, 284, 349, 447, 489f, 498, 524, 582
 Awa'ilu Kitabul Maghazi: 16

B

Bahrul Muhit: 327
 Bayanul Qur'an: 69, 98, 101, 108, 315, 324f, 400
 Bidayah wan Nihaya, al: 16, 46

D

Dala'ilun Nabi: 310
 Durrul Manthur: 9f, 24, 36, 51, 86, 93, 103,
 108, 139, 144, 174, 179, 218, 230, 263f, 280f,
 314f, 413f, 422f, 470f, 499f, 563, 600
 Durrul Mukhtar: 215, 2

H

Hidaya: 268, 526, 663
 Hisnul Hasin: 9

I

Isabah, al: 23

Itqan: 1f

K

Khasa'isul Kubra: 310

L

Lubabun Nuqul: 110, 201, 233, 255, 276, 303,
 314, 407, 566, 628, 651

M

Ma'alimat ut Tanzil: 4, 8, 101, 104, 109, 116,
 133, 255f, 301, 349, 366f, 382, 394, 416, 441,
 535f, 554f, 585, 600f
 Maqasidul Hasanah: 465
 Mustadrak: 43

R

Ruhul Ma'ani: 93, 97f, 110f, 133f, 146, 172f,
 185, 220, 231f, 249f, 301f, 308, 309f, 316, 327,
 331f, 351, 356, 364, 379, 387, 396f, 411f, 433,
 441f, 470f, 486f, 536f, 558f, 586, 661f

S

Shami: 215

T

Tafsir Jalalain: 86

INDEX OF SUBJECTS*A

abrogation of laws: 103f
 Abu Bakr's sermon: 453f
 Adam & Hawwa's incident: 40
 Adam in heaven: 37
 adopt my ways: 469
 advice is a trust: 578
 affluence of Persians/Romans: 170
 Al-Imran, virtues of: 350f
 Allah is sovereign: 366
 Allah loves beauty: 42
 —, humility: 42
 Allah protects believers: 316
 Allah sees and knows: 328f
 Allah sees everything: 352, 372
 Allah will not look at three: 405
 Allah, changer of hearts: 355
 Allah, remember: 156f
 Allah's attributes, understand: 3
 Allah's attributes: 311, 350f, 654
 Allah's colour: 141
 Allah's help enough: 469
 Allah's pleasure/wrath: 471f
 Allah's pleasure: 360

Allah's self praise: 8
 Allah's signs: 180ff,
 Allah's will with only: 96
 Amaliqa: 62
 Amin: 8 anal sex: 280
 analogies: 27 angels performed hajj before Adam: 419 anger, restrain: 445
 apostates (murtad), law for: 273f apostates, punishment of: 413 arbitrators: 551
 archers at Uhud: 459f argue not: 248
 arrogance: 42, 555f
 asabat: 516, 547
 asaf (idol): 172
 asbat: 140
 ashabul faraidl: 516, 597
 ashura: 225
 Aws/Khazraj quare: 423f
 ayat ul Kursi: 311

B

ba'in: 283f

Badr, battle of: 357f, 439f
 bahirah: 187
 Baitul Ma'mur: 419
 Bakkah: 420
 Bam Isra'il in Egypt: 45
 —, escape from Egypt: 46
 banking: 334
 Banu Isra'il slew Prophets: 364 baptism: 141
 Baqarah, merits of al: 11 begging: 249 belief/disbelief battle longdrawn: 455 believer defined: 17 believers will rise: 447 believers, reward of: 490f bequest for wives: 300 bid'ah and sunnah, frontiers of: 585 bidh: 225
 birds, caring: 386f blessings of others: 546 brave, be: 461f bribe received by Jews: 80 bribery: 569

C

calamity, pray not for: 166
 Calf worship: 57 certain words: 119 charity, best: 330
 child in old age: 319 choice, in Allah's hand: 442
 Christian delegation: 393
 Christians pray in mosque: 349, 393 circumcising: 119f commentators, responsibility of: 603 compulsion in religion, no: 274, 314
 —, not for apostates: 274 conceal truth: 174
 consultations, mutual: 439f, 464f consulted is trusted, person: 464 copts: 45
 covenant from Prophets: 409 cowardice: 597f creation: 30f
 crocodile tears: 455 cursed, ten people: 567f curses: 177f cursing, women more guilty of: 179

D

dead revived: 318f death cannot be evaded: 474f, 483f, 598 death imminent: 598 death of a child: 166 death, those who wished for: 449 debt, witnessing: 341 debt, writing down: 341 debtor, respite to: 339
 debtor's gift: 335
 deceiver will bring his deception: 470f deeds lost: 324, 364 deeds necessary: 177 deeds that get pardon: 493 deeds will be recompensed: 331 deeds, do good: 154

democracy of today: 466f devil patronises disbelievers: 316 dhamil arham: 516, 597 dhikhr often, make: 321, 486f dhikr, words of: 157f
 dhikr: 77
 dhimuni:
 differences in schools of thought: 427
 difficulty, remembering: 166 dimmies, must be protected: 402 disbelievers are antagonists: 436 disbelievers must not deceive, affluence at: 489 disbelievers, do not befriend: 368f, 436f, 455f, 661 disbelievers, punishment of: 413 divorce forbidden during means: 285 diyah, laws on: 617
 diyah: 616
 dower: 504, 530f
 dowry: 298

E

eela: 283
 effeminate behaviour: 569 elections: 466f enjoin right: 428
 Europeans, plunder of: 270 evil nature, signs of: 76

F

fa'i: 273
 facts, concealing: 174
 Falaq/an-Nas, effect of al: 96
 fasiq, traits of: 29 fasting disallowed on five days: 226 fasting, best kind of: 227 fasting, nafl: 224f fasting, odour of: 58
 Fatihah names of: 1
 —, merits of: 1
 —, cure: 9
 —, safety: 9
 fidya: 216
 fir'awn: 380
 five rights: 609
 forbid evil: 428
 forgiving: 345
 fornication: 518
 four sciences: 3 four things from beneath throne: 2 fruits of Paradise: 25

G

gambling: 275 garments prayer on new: 416 gathering are a trust: 578
 ghamus: 282
 goat's limb disclosed poison: 78 good sifted from evil: 479f grateful person: 547 greetings: see tahiyyah

H

hajj, compulsory: 104
 hajratul aswad: 419

ham: 187
 hardship, pray not for: 166
 Harut/Marut: 95
 hatim was part of Ka'bah: 128
 hawariyyin: 387
 Heraclius invited to Islam: 136
 hijrah is to abstain: 629f hijrah: 629
 hoarding: 569 homosexuality: 519 hubl: 451
 humility: 42, 54
 hypocrite like solitary goat: 17 hypocrite sought Jew's verdict: 585f hypocrite, boastful: 322 hypocrites, why: 16f

---

I

I'tikaf, merits of: 223
 Iblis, insolence of: 35
 —, hatred for men: 36
 —, tricked Adam: 37
 Ibrahim and Nimrud: 317
 Ibrahim did not consume camels' milk/flesh: 416
 Ibrahim sixteen commands to: 120f
 Ibrahim's prayer for messenger: 130
 Ibrahim's prayer: 420f
 iddah: 284f, 296f idols on safa/Marwah: 172
 ihram: 241f ihsan: 239
 ihsar: 242f ijma: 642 imam, definition of: 67
 immodesty: 534 inheritance, an example of: 512f inheritance: 507f, 513f
 Injil: 351
 insha Allah: 74
 intercession: 55
 interpolation (in Book): 406 interpolation: 194
 intoxication: 559f
 Irah: 351
 Isa is alive: 388f
 Isa without father: 384f
 Isa, conspiracy to slay: 388f
 Isa, father ascribed to: 384f
 Isa'ee: 68
 Isa's birth like Adam's: 392
 Isa's birth: 383f
 Isa's father, who is: 350
 Isa's miracles: 385f
 Islam only: 363, 410
 Islam, come fully to: 259
 Islam, defined: 135
 Islam, tenets of: 44
 istighfar: 446f
 Istikhara: 464

---

J

Jew lad, case of: 51
 Jewish absurdity: 481
 Jewish conspiracy: 399, 423f

Jewish state today: 434
 Jewish state: 390f, 434
 Jews advised to learn from Badr: 356
 Jews are accursed: 563
 Jews banished: 85
 Jews of Madinah: 47f
 Jews, audacity of: 566f
 Jews, history of: 46f
 Jews, mischief of: 7, 562f, 573
 Jews, obstinacy of: 48, 60, 76, 78, 152 Jews/Christians, avoid: 7 jibt: 567f
 jihad is a must: 267f jihad not to compel: 314
 jihad, evading: 597f jihad, merits of: 595f jihad: 62, 162f
 jizya: 70, 270 journalists, reminder to: 454f judgement rests with Allah: 442 judges of three kinds: 580

---

K

Ka'ba, construction of: 418f
 Kaffarah: 616
 kalalah: 514
 karamah: 98
 Khalifah, nomination of four: 467
 kharaj: 326
 Khilafat usurped from Ali, accusation that: 370f Khula: 284, 522
 khums: 274 kindness: 552 knowledge of Adam: 33
 —, value of: 41
 kun (Be), does Allah say: 114

---

L

laghw: 282
 learning, men of: 362 lesbianism: 519 lifeless also glorify: 77 lights, two celestial: 348 lineage will not help: 143

---

M

ma'ruf/munkar: 52 magic by menstruating woman: 96 magic/miracle: 98 magicians of Fir'awn: 97
 makruh: 360
 man/woman acting like one another: 569f man's weakness: 533 mankind was one: 263
 Manna: 46, 61
 manslaughter: 616
 Maqam Ibrahim relocated: 124
 maqam Ibrahim: 420
 maqam ul-Mahmud: 310 marriage is necessary: 503f marriage, significance of: 378 married woman cannot marry another: 529 martyrs are alive: 474f martyrs, excellence of: 161f mary not idolators: 277

Maryan's mother's vow: 375 mat on Prophet's back, impression of: 170 men's status: 287f menstruating women: 278 mild hearted: 76
 miserliness: 480f, 556
 modesty natural to man: 43 modesty, Islam's character is: 535 mourning customs: 168f
 mowlal mawalat: 547f mubahalah: 91, 393
 muharramat abadiyah: 525f muharramat musaharah: 527 muharramat nasabiyah: 526 muharramat rada'iyyah: 526 muhkamat: 353
 Mujahid, merits of: 269 mun'aqida: 282
 muqata'at, huruf: 12, 351
 murtad: see apostates
 Muslim apathy: 368f, 436f
 Muslim had two Christian sons: 314
 Muslim states, a pathy of: 584
 Muslim's advance: 457f
 Muslims contend with each other: 423f
 Muslims, advice to: 492f
 Muslims, code for: 40
 Muslims, plight of: 268, 588
 mut'ah: 298f, 301f
 mutah disallowed: 530
 mutashabihat: 353
 muttaqin defined: 13

N

na'ila (idol): 172
 Nadir: 357
 nafs: 327
 najashi, death of: 491 names changed: 101f names of all things: 32
 nasara: 68
 neighbourliness, good: 553f nur: 316

O

oaths against piety: 281f oaths, kinds of: 282 obey Allah: 517
 obey Prophet: 372f, 517f orators, reminder to: 454f orphans, marriage to: 499f orphans, rights of: 650 orphans, wealth of: 498f, 505f, 508f ostentation: 557f

P

Paradise not for Jews/Christians: 106
 Paradise, bounties of: 25f pardon, king/ruler cannot: 204 patience: 52f, 159f, 165f
 Persia/Rome, conquests of: 366f
 Pharaoh: see Fir'awn
 pious described: 445f pledge from Jews/Christians: 484 politicians, deviance of: 260 polytheism greatest sin

polytheism: 564
 pork, bismillah before eating: 193 practice what your preach: 52
 Praise reverts to Allah: 4 pray for safety: 166 prayers of the intelligent: 486f preachers must be there always: 428 progeny of no avail: 356 prohibited transactions: 536
 Prophet is bearer of good tidings/warner: 115
 Prophet's character: 462
 Prophet's migration: 47f prophethood, proof of: 381f prophethood, universal: 67 prophethood/messengership ends: 131
 Prophets have ranks: 309
 Prophets were not Jews/Christians: 142 prostration to whom: 34 punished person, most: 66

Q

qada: 214
 qasr: 631
 qibla, change of: 144f qibla, error in determining: 110f, 150f qibla, why face: 112f, 151f qisas: 621
 qunut: 299
 Qur'an is miracle: 23
 Qur'an, challenge to match: 23f
 Qur'an, memorising: 130f
 Qur'an, merit of reciting: 131
 Quraiza: 357

R

ra'ina: 101
 rabb: 5 rabitu: 492
 rahn: 343
 raji: 285f
 rami or pelting stones: 253f rejectors of hadith: 373, 640 religion, no compulsion: 70 repentance: 38, 41, 59, 520 —, not accepted at death bed: 521 revelation, jest with: 291 reverence, increase: 120f revived dead but not himself: 99 reward for believers: 490f ribat: 493
 riggardliness: see miserliness right path, followers of: 6 righteousness defined: 649 rites of hajj, learn: 130
 rock greeted Prophet: 77
 Rome's emperor, letter to: 396 rulers, obedience to: 426 ruling of choice: 50

S

sa'i omitted may: 172f
 sa'i: 171f
 Sabbath: 71
 Sabians: 68
 sadanatul bayt: 575

sadaqatul fitr: 325
 sahabah, reveling: 569
 saibah: 187
 saints, false: 402
 salah averts calamities: 160
 salah in battle: 300
 salah, importance of: 50f
 salah, observe: 299f salam, rulings on: 611
 salam: see tahiyyah salary for incomplete work: 578
 salat al khawf: 634
 Salwa: 46, 61
 scriptures, believe in all: 14
 self praise: 566
 shafa'at uzma: 310 shah inshah: 101
 shaybi: 575
 sin, minor will be major: 545 sins deprive of blessing: 43 sins, major: 538f sins, minor: 542f
 siqayatul hajj: 575 six things given to Prophet: 561 sky, benefits of: 22f slaves, being good to: 554f slaves, freeing: 199
 slaying Muslim: 620 sodomy: 570 speak kindly: 83 species of creation: 5 spend on warriors: 332 spending: 196f, 269f, 310f, 320f, 415f stepmothers cannot be married: 524 straight path: 6 successful ones: 431, 483f such: 653
 suckling: 294f
 suffah, ahlu: 332 suicide: 536f
 Sulayman's prayer: 377
 supplication of the knowledgeable: 355 supplication, merits of: 218f supplications, some: 345 sweet-tongued flatters: 256f

---

T

---

ta'awwudh: 3 tafsir bir ra'iy: 602
 taghut: 315, 567f
 tahajjud: 494, 497
 tahiyyah: 608f tajwid, observe rules of: 118 talbiyah: 241
 tallaq: 284
 taqiya refuted: 370f
 taqwa: 360, 444f, 493
 tasmiiyah: 3
 tattooing: 570
 tauhid: 350f, 362f, 395f
 tayammum: 559f
 testimony, concealing: 343 testimony, true: 655 tharid, example of: 381

three things assured: 643
 three things: 326, 405
 throughfare, rights of: 609 ties of knishi, join: 496 trade during hajj: 250 tree disclosed jinn's presence: 78 trial: 163, 484 trusts: 576f truth, be firm on: 360 truth/falsehood: 49
 tuhr: 285f
 two sisters cannot be married at one time: 528

---

U

---

Uhud, battle of: 438
 ukaz: 249
 ummah, best of: 55
 ummah, characteristics of: 432 ummah, everyone part of: 44 ushr: 325
 usury, war against: 337
 usury/trade: 334
 usury: 334f, 443f, 569
 uzza: 451

---

V

---

variety of food for banu Isra'il: 64 vie not others: 546

---

W

---

wailing: 568 wasata: 147
 wasilah: 187
 water from stone: 63 wealth of no avail: 356 wealth, illegally acquired: 535 weaning: 295
 weep, try to: 77
 widows in Jahiliyah: 300 widows may not be compelled: 522 wife beating: 550f wife, choice of: 502f wine change, name of: 72 wine: 275
 wives should not be compelled to return gifts: 523 wives, disobedient: 549f, 568f wives, for: 499f wolf devours lone sheep: 51 woman needs be concealed: 535 women kindness to divorced: 290 women of the west: 286 women who cannot be married: 525 women's status: 286, 286f worldly comforts luring: 358 worldly love: 597f worship in night: 361

---

Y

---

Yahud, why: 68
 Yanmul bu'ath: 423 yaqin: 315

---

Z

---

zamzam: 171
 Zaynul Abidin's slave: 446 zulumat: 316

INDEXES

There are three different sets of index, an index of names appearing in the commentary, an index of subjects in the commentary, and, an index of books to which the commentary refers but the major books of hadith like Bukhari Muslim, etc. are not mentioned. The numbers against each entry refer to the pages and an 'f' following a number implies that the entry is repeated on that page or up to five following pages.

INDEX OF NAMES

A

A'mash: 339
Aadam: 533
Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib: 412f, 428f, 435
Abdul Barakat Nasafi: 177, 426
Abdul Qadir Dehlawi: 244
Abdullah bin Abdullah bin Ubayy: 483
Abdullah bin Abu Awfa: 394
Abdullah bin Abu Hadud Aslami: 435
Abdullah bin Abu Umayya: 531
Abdullah bin Amir: 511
Abdullah bin amr bin As: 83, 233, 312
Abdullah bin Hudhaifa: 132
Abdullah bin Mas'ud: 65f, 73, 130f, 210, 228f, 253, 332, 356f, 366, 382, 393, 399, 464, 501, 511, 517f
Abdullah bin Mughaffal: 269, 486f
Abdullah bin Qais: (name of Abu Musa)
Abdullah bin Rawaha: 410, 499
Abdullah bin Salam: 12, 78, 312f
Abdullah bin Suriyan: 86
Abdullah bin Ubay Salul: 89, 150, 483
Abdullah bin Umar: 32, 40f, 47f, 78, 116f, 186, 201, 235f, 336, 351f, 373, 394, 465, 512
Abdullah bin Ummul Maktum: 366
Abdullah ibn Abbas: 8f, 27f, 40f, 65f, 97f, 113f, 135f, 153f, 173f, 181f, 189, 197, 206f, 218f, 228f, 245f, 255, 261f, 273, 282f, 299f, 329f, 346f, 369f, 386, 415f, 439, 452f, 459, 477, 483f, 494, 501, 516f, 552, 559
Abdur Rahman (bin Abu Bakr): 454
Abdur Rahman bin Auf: 371
Abu Amir: 436, 495
Abu Aqil: 481
Abu Ayyub: 496f
Abu Bakr Jassas: see Jassas
Abu Bakr: 73, 101, 282, 366f, 379f, 410, 421, 435, 453f, 479, 491, 498, 505
Abu Burda: 371
Abu Darda: 49, 120, 348, 522
Abu Dharr: 186, 511f, 552
Abu Dujanah: 121
Abu Hanifah: 49f, 73, 189, 237, 281, 355, 411, 438, 465
Abu Hayan: 7
Abu Huraira: 1f, 10, 35f, 48f, 98, 143, 152f, 161, 170f, 232f, 239f, 251f, 276f, 297, 311f, 330f, 345f, 353f, 359, 361f, 404f, 421, 429, 446f, 464f, 500f, 510f, 517f, 529f
Abu Jahl: 159, 208, 365f, 384
Abu Kabsha Anmari: 2
Abu Khaythama: 513f
Abu Lahab: 365
Abu Layla Abdur Rahman: 486f
Abu Lubaba: 366f, 380
Abu Mas'ud Ansari: 36, 481
Abu Musa: 65, 358, 396, 436, 483, 487

Abu Muslim: 221
Abu Qilabah: 299
Abu Righal: 279
Abu Sa'id Khudri: 145, 171, 242, 262, 364, 475, 497, 517f, 530
Abu Sufyan: 365f, 380, 396
Abu Tahah: 121
Abu Tha'labah Khushani: 137
Abu Ubaidah bin Jarrah: 121
Abu Umamah: 120f, 322f
Abu Waqidy: 31
Abu Yusuf, Imam: 466
Abul Aliyah: 497
Abul As bin Rabi': 412
Abul Bakhtari: 383
Adam (Prophet): 14, 64f, 143, 186f, 197, 246f, 273, 333, 345f
Adi bin Hatim: 33, 42, 443
Adi bin Sharma: 138
Ahmad bin Hanbal: 73, 356, 438
Akhnas bin Shariq: 159
Alaba bin Zaid: 486f
Ali bin Abu Talib: 44f, 73, 97, 101, 132, 168, 253, 315, 366f, 384f, 421, 428, 435f, 453, 499, 513
Amir bin Adi: 496
Amir bin Qais: 477
Ammar bin Yasir: 143
Ammar: 167
Amr bin Abu Qais: 531
Amr bin As: 79, 389
Amr bin Hammam: 486
Amr bin Luhay: 136
Amr bin Maymun: 459
Amr ibn Awf: 164
Anas bin Abu Marthad: 435
Anas bin Malik: 2, 91, 121, 195, 243, 314, 322f, 346f, 430f, 462, 496f, 511f
Anas bin Nadhr: 511
Aqil bin Abu Talib: 412
Aqra bin Yabis: 167
Ariha (Jericho, pl.): 328
As bin amir bin Hisham: 531
As'hamah: 111f
Asi bin Hisham: 365
Asim bin Adi: 481
Asma bint Abu Bakr: 511
Ata: 27, 299f, 312, 355, 398, 423, 501
Atiya Awfi: 308
Awza'i: 73
Aykah (pl.): 285
Ayshah: 100f, 113f, 195, 275, 299, 339, 351f, 446
Ayyub (Prophet): 186
Ayyub Sakhtiyani: 66

B

Bahri bin Amir: 154

Balam bin Ba'ura: 335
 Bara bin Azib: 193
 Barkul Ghamad (pl.): 366
 Bilal: 76, 399
 Bin Yuqinna: 62

D

Dahhak: 10, 215
 Damiri: 42
 Dawud (Prophet): 186
 Daylam Himyari: 120
 Dhamdham bin Amr Ghifari: 365
 Dhul Kifl: 14

F

Fadl bin Abbas: 413
 Fatimah (daughter of the Prophet): 73, 498
 fir'awn: 62, 291f, 556
 Fudhala bin Ubayd: 386

G

Ghawrith: 52f
 Ghazali, Imam: 17, 447

H

Habil: 65f
 Hafsah: 35
 Hakim bin Hizam: 430
 Hakim: 186
 Hamza: 208
 Haran (brother of Ibrahim ؑ): 188
 Harith bin Hisham: 397
 Harmi bin Abdullah: 486
 Harun (Prophet): 186, 303f, 558
 Hasan Basri: 247, 517
 Hasan: 83, 100, 177, 305, 347, 415, 516, 533, 552
 Hawwas: 143, 247, 346f
 Heracluis: 313
 Hilal bin Umayyah: 494, 506
 Hisham bin Amr: 383
 Hizqil (Prophet): 14
 Hud (Prophet): 14, 274
 Hudhaifa: 45, 379, 477
 Hutn: (see Shurayh bin Dhabī'ah)

I

Ibn Abu Hatim: 478
 Ibn Asakir: 186
 Ibn Hanbal: see Ahmad....
 Ibn Jarir: 131, 186, 215, 299, 369
 Ibn Juraij: 22, 559
 Ibn Shihab Zuhri: 380
 Ibn Suriya: 77
 Ibrahim (Prophet): 13, 102, 183, 234, 285, 428, 450, 502f
 Idris (Prophet): 14
 Ikrimah: 10, 501
 Ilyas (Prophet): 13
 Imran: 187
 Irbad bin Sariya: 486
 Isa, (Prophet): 3f, 9f, 15f, 57f, 84f, 105f, 140f, 198f, 252, 312f, 320f, 330f, 443
 Ishaq (Prophet): 186
 Isma'il (Prophet): 13, 450
 Iyadh bin Himar Mujashī'i: 60

J

Ja'far bin Abu Talib: 111f, 520
 Jabir: 32, 119f, 147, 325f, 355, 379f, 400, 438, 496, 529
 Jalaluddin Suyuti: (see Suyuti)
 Jala bin Suwaid: 477f
 Jalut: 186

Jarir bin Abdullah: 378
 Jassas: 93, 132f, 255, 411, 422, 438
 Jazari: 339, 357
 Jericho (pl.): see Ariha
 Jibril: 17f, 77, 168f, 202, 281, 306, 342, 369, 379f, 384, 400, 477, 496

K

Ka'b Ahbar: 31f, 347
 Ka'b bin Asad: 86
 Ka'b bin ayadh: 164
 Ka'b bin Malik: 494, 506
 Kalib: 63
 Khabbab bin Arat: 167f
 Khalid bin Sanan: 59
 Khuzaimah: 41
 Kirmani: 186

L

Lut (Prophet): 14, 187, 280f

M

Ma'n bin adi: 496
 Ma'qal bin Yasar: 346
 Madyan (pl.): 285
 Makar bin Hafs: 531
 Makhul: 70
 Malik bin Awf Nasri: 434f
 Malik bin Dukhshum: 496
 Malik bin Sayf: 190
 Malin, Imam: 73, 356, 438
 Marthad: 366
 Maryam (mother of Isa): 7, 103, 140, 187, 252
 Mas'ud bin Amr Ansari: 436
 Mashta: 558
 Masruq: 348
 Matta (father of Yunus ؑ): 188
 Maymuna: 32
 Miqdad bin Aswad: 64, 366, 446
 Mu'adh bin Jabal: 121
 Mu'awiya bin Qurra: 430
 Muawiyah: 233, 516
 Mughira bin Shu'bah: 520
 Muhammad (Prophet): 3, 20f, 35f, 38, 59, 87, 187, 315
 Muhammad, Imam: 45, 466
 Muhammad bin Hasan, Imam: 373
 Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi: 499
 Muhammad bin Muslama: 513
 Mujahid: 10, 189, 299, 415, 439, 559
 Mulla Ali Qari: 18f, 107, 344
 Murara bin Rabi: 494, 506
 Mus'ab bin Umayr: 511
 Musa (Prophet): 2f, 62f, 77f, 143, 186f, 190, 201, 238, 291f, 326f, 335f, 350, 366, 454, 556
 Musailuma Kadhhab: 193

N

Nadhr bin Harith: 385
 Nasafi: see Abul Barakat
 Naufal bin Khuwalid: 150
 Nawfal bin Harith: 412
 Nimrud: 183
 Nu'man bin Bashir: 378, 431
 Nuh (Prophet): 49, 186, 242, 272f, 533, 555
 Nuham bin Zaid: 154

Q

Qabil: 65f
 Qarun: 163
 Qatadah bin Nu'man: 400
 Qatadah: 22, 36, 69, 83, 135, 183, 234, 335, 369, 399, 415, 500, 531f, 568

Qurtubi: 34, 68f, 244
 Qurun bin Ka'b: 154
 Quthm bin Abbas: 413

R

Raghib: 278
 Ruqayya (Prophet's daughter): 400

S

Sa'd bin Mu'adh: 366, 380
 Sa'd: 177
 Sa'id bin Jubayr: 439
 Sa'id bin Musayyib: 299, 407
 Sadi, Sheikh: 510
 Safwan bin Assal: 233
 Sahl bin Amr: 366
 Sahl bin Hanzalah: 435
 Sahl bin Mu'adh: 395
 Sahl bin Sa'd: 345
 Saib bin Abu Hubaysh: 371
 Salih (Prophet): 14, 277
 Salman Farsi: 59f, 167f, 243, 316f, 436
 Samiri: 306
 Samura bin Jundub: 347
 Satim bin Umair: 486
 Sha'bi: 83, 423
 Shafi'i: 70f, 189, 281, 356, 411, 438
 Sham'un (Prophet): 14
 Shamwi (Prophet): 14
 Shas bin Qais: 86
 Shayba bin Rabi'ah: 366
 Shu'aib (Prophet): 14, 283f
 Shu'ayb: 537
 Shurayh bin Dhabih Kindi (Hutm): 27
 Siba bin Urfuta: 513
 Suddi: 65
 Sufyan bin Uyayna: 309
 Sufyan Thawri: 73
 Suhaib: 167
 Suhail bin Baydha: 121
 Sulayman bin Sirr: 353
 Suraqa: 397
 Suyuti: 339, 344

T

Tahawi: 356, 439
 Tamim Dari: 138
 Tha'laba: 479
 Thamud: 201
 Thanawi: 245

A

Ahkamul Qur'an: 93, 133, 411, 438
 Asbabun Nuzul: 20, 52, 69, 255

B

Baghawi: 8, 387, 396, 422, 484
 Bahrur Ra'iq: 37
 Bayanul Qur'an: 245f
 Bidayah wan Nihayah, al: 183, 278, 368, 400, 486

D

Durrul Manthur: 22f, 37f, 102, 124, 181, 190, 206, 245, 273, 335f, 380, 438, 455f, 533f

F

Fatah ul Bari: 484
 Fatawa Alamgiri: 466

G

Gulistan: 510

Thaur (pl.): 384
 Thumama bin Athal: 439

U

Ubadah bin Samit: 103, 362f, 511, 552
 Ubay bin Ka'b: 253
 Ubaydullah bin abbas: 413
 Umar bin Abdul Aziz: 73, 80
 Umar bin Khattab: 39f, 45f, 73f, 101f, 132, 287f, 330, 348, 366f, 396f, 407f, 431, 435, 442, 456f, 479f, 491
 Umar bin Khattab: 516, 551
 Umayya bin Khalf: 366f, 399f
 Umayyah: 150
 Umm Salama: 378
 Ummul Fadl: 413
 Uqbah bin Amir: 163, 340, 350, 483
 Urwah bin Mas'ud: 323
 Usama bin Zayd: 390, 400
 Utba bin Amr: 412
 Utbah: 367
 Uthman bin Affan: 50f, 73f, 400, 416f, 479
 Uthman bin Madhun: 322, 385, 480
 Uyaynah bin Hisn: 167
 Uzair (Prophet): 198, 443

W

Wahb bin Munabbih: 8, 299, 347
 Walid bin Mughira: 209
 Walid bin Mughira: 531

Y

Ya'qub (Prophet): 14
 Yahya (Prophet): 13, 187
 Yamamah (pl.): 27
 Yamin bin Umair: 487
 Yas'a (Prophet): 14
 Yunus (Prophet): 187, 562
 Yusha bin Nun: 62f, 328, 336
 Yusuf (Prophet): 13, 186, 351

Z

Zaid bin Arqam: 252f, 300
 Zaid bin Aslam: 26, 47, 177
 Zaid bin Thabit: 34, 355, 421
 Zakariya (Prophet): 13, 140, 187, 269
 Zaynab (daughter of Muhammad): 412
 Zuhri: 135, 423
 Zujaj: 135

INDEX OF BOOKS*H

Hidaya: 70, 411
 hilyatul awliya: 339
 hisnul hasin: 339

I

Ibn Hajar: 480
 Ibn Kathir: 1, 22, 60f, 108, 131, 183, 193, 201, 233, 259, 278, 328, 347f, 370f, 388, 400, 412f, 480, 495f

J

Jalalain: 336

K

Kitabul Hayawan: 42

L

Lubabun Nuqul: 130, 154, 201

M

Ma'alimut Tanzil: 499

Madarikul Tanzil: 177, 426, 531	362, 368f, 403f, 411f, 437f, 459f, 477, 504, 516f, 534, 558
Malimut Tanzil: 3f, 11f, 21f, 39, 77, 97, 110, 150, 159, 167, 177, 209, 259, 387f, 393, 412f, 421, 432, 451f, 477f, 494f
Mawdu'atul Kabir: 18f
Mudihul Quran: 244

R

Ruhul Ma'ani: 3f, 10f, 17f, 35f, 117, 129, 179, 186, 192f, 216f, 246f, 264f, 291f, 305, 342,
--

INDEX OF SUBJECTS

A

Abbas declared his Islam: 412 ablution, exaggeration in: 269 ablution: 47f
Abu Jahl's prayer: 375
accepts repentance: 309
Ad, verse about: 275
Ad: 274f, 305
Adam/Nuh, thousand years between: 273
ahbar: 81
ahlul-Qur'an sect: 498
Ajda is devil's name: 348
Allah detests evil: 1 —, attributes of: 2, 57, 338
—, signs of: 27
—, name in Muslim: 44
—, fear of: 53
—, slave of: 21
—, gives, none can prevent what: 153
—, favours on mankind: 246
—, gives respite to Iblis: 248
—, favours on Banu Isra'il: 300
—, 's camel: 277
Allah's mercy: 311
—, asked am I not your Lord: 334
—, 's light: 445
—, fosging lies against: 548
—, unity: 567f
Allah's name, calling others by: 339f alustu: 333
anunesty: 84
angels Allah's daughters: 198
Angels helped Muslims: 369, 437 anger, check: 353 animals, laws about: 25
aqd: 26
archery: 405
arrows, distributing with: 34f
asbat: 14
assistances, today's yardstick of: 29
aurah: 255
awliya, Prophets will envy: 551

B badr, battle of: 365ff

bahai: 444
bahirah: 135
banking: 11
befriending non Muslims: 89f, 95f belief as prescribed: 3 believer by morning but disbeliever by even: 65 believers, characteristics of : 363 bequeathed property, jug stolen from: 138 Bible, Christians corrupted the: 320 bid'ah: 20, 113, 235f birth has two causes: 17
bismillah before at-Taubah: 417

T

Tafsir Mazahiri: 244f
-----------------------

C calf, golden: 306

camel of Allah: 277
camel slackened: 514 carion: 31f castration of any man disallowed: 322 catapult: 436
celibacy: 113, 322
character building: 350 cheating is not to perfect: 297
Christians, deviation of: 16
—, pledge of: 56
—, true: 110 clothing a bounty: 250f
copts: 295f crops of Banu Isra'il fail to grow: 297

D

dabur: 275 death of believer/disbeliever: 259f decision, day of: 392
deeds of disbelievers: 245 deeds will be personified: 244 Devil as Sheikh of Najd: 383 devil banished: 247 devil named walhan: 253 devil tempt Aadam, how did: 247 devil vows to tempt man: 248f devil's mischief: 252 devil's refusal to bow: 247
dhikr like buzzing: 314
dhikr: 357
dhimmi: 425f disbeliever visitor cannot reside permanently: 423 diyah: 82f drought is failure of crops: 297
dry ablution: 47f

E

elections decried: 130 embracing only on eid is excess: 19 enjoin reputable: 137, 320, 352
European penal code: 74
everyone born on Islam: 334 exaggerate in prayer, people will: 269 example, people will follow bad: 45 expiation, rules about: 116
expiation: 116f eye relocated, displaced: 400

F

faith, sweetness of: 91 falsehood, garment of: 511 fat of carrion: 32
 Fathiha, recital in salah of al-: 356f fatrochi: 60
 fir'awn: 62, 291
 Fir'awn's corpse: 560
 Fir'awn's wife: 558
 —, slave girl of: 558
 Five questions: 382
 five things to the Prophet: 325 five things: 304
 floodwaters: 299
 food would not purify, if.....: 143
 Forbid evil, example of those who do not: 378 forbid evil: 137, 320, 352
 forgive people: 350 fortune tellers, people flock to: 165
 fortune tellers: 35
 free thinkers: 444 frogs: 299
 funeral of hypocrite: 484

G

gambling: 118f garlands: 129
 ghamus: 116
 ghulu: 19f, 344 gifts are bribes: 80 gratitude: 239

H

hadith, rejectors of: 321, 324 hady: 129
 Ham Zah's Islam: 208
 ham: 135
 happiness of two kinds: 163 haughtiness: 396 hawariyyun: 8
 heedless to Prophets: 337
 Hell, wall of: 264
 hoarded wealth: 448
 Hudaibiyah: 455, 491
 Hudaibiyah treaty violated: 420
 Hudaibiyah, peace of: 28 humiliation: 308
 Hunayn, battle of: 434f hunting animal (dogs etc.): 42 hunting birds: 42
 hunting, laws about: 25, 42f, 44f hypocrite has four traits: 404

I

I am as needy for reward.....: 366 idolatry, wish to revert to: 302 ihram, hunting in: 123f imam, recital behind the: 355f infants nudged by devil: 252 inheritance to women derided in West: 88 inheritance, laws of: 22 inheritance: 415f innovators pursue path of polytheists: 219
 Isa never died: 145
 Isa, purported crucifixion of: 9
 Islam, perfection of: 37
 istidraj: 163, 340
 istighfar: 386

J

Jews stoke fire: 98
 —, defiance of: 102, 155

—, obstinacy of: 189, 298
 —, objects will reveal: 330
 Jews, futile questions of: 4 —, covenant of: 4
 —, obstinacy mischief of: 7, 55, 76, 97f, 498
 —, complained against Isa: 8 —, took usury: 11
 —, consume unlawful: 79
 —, illegal conduct: 96
 jihad, sickly exempted from: 457 jihad: 92
 jizyah paid by Banu Badir: 308

K

Ka'ba guarantee of life: 128
 Kaffara: see expiation
 Kalalah: 23
 kashf: 165
 Kawthar: 166 killing: 68f

L

laghw: 116
 last day not if: 128
 Last Day, a sign of: 430
 Last Hour suddenly: 342
 Last Hour, tokens, of: 342
 Last Hour, unknown, time of: 342 lawful described: 41
 lawhul mahfuz: 173f locusts, punishment through: 299 lost items in mosque: 429 love of two types: 433

M

magicians thrown into prostration: 294
 Man is viceroy: 239 man/jinn will give account: 161
 manna: 77
 marriage not disallowed in Muhurram, etc.: 19 marriage with non Muslims: 45 marriage, one object of: 345 maytah: see carrion mercies, Allah has a hundred: 152 mercy overpowers anger: 152 miracles demanded: 354 modesty: 251f monasticism of this ummah.....: 322 monasticism: 113
 monks: 245 mosque decoration not endorsed: 430
 Musa and magicians: 294
 Musafaha: 19
 Musafir: 19
 Muslims, strange conduct of: 29
 —, educated: 29
 —, in the west: 33
 —, apathy: 88, 180, 331
 —, must not befriend others: 89f, 95 —, course of defeat: 94
 —, will be witnesses: 243

N

naikh: 17
 nakedness in spite of garments: 251f naming a newborn: 347f non-Muslim's slaughter: 44 —, marriage with: 45
 Nuh's witnesses: 243

O

oaths on those besides Allah: 117 oaths: 116f oppress not anyone: 315

 orientalist, threat of: 263

P

Paradise assured against six things: 511
 Paradise, wall of: 264 permiscuity in the west: 46
 pharaoh: see fir'awn pleased with Allah as Lord: 132 pledges of five kinds: 26 pledges: 25
 polytheism, how committed: 217 pork: 33
 prayer accepted: 529
 prayer answered by Allah's name: 338
 Prayer for rain of stones: 383 prayer, five etiquettes of: 270 prayer, how to make: 268 progeny from Adam's back: 333
 propagate religion: 100
 Prophet abstained from honey: 113
 Prophet as a witness: 312
 Prophet had no knowledge of unseen: 343f
 Prophet has six privileges above after prophet: 362
 Prophet not created of light: 57
 Prophet planted 300 trees for Salman: 318
 Prophet, none sent just before: 59
 Prophet, plot to kill: 52
 Prophet's character: 520f
 Prophet's sayings, some of the: 520f
 Prophets do not neglect duty: 336
 Prophets will be questioned: 242
 Prostration at 24th verse of Sa'd: 189 prostration on recital: 359
 —, rulings: 359
 —, prayer in: 359 punishment for different sins: 286f, 299f punishment, do not go by places of: 279

Q

qasr: 19
 qisas: 82f, 88
 questions, asking unnecessary: 131f
 Quran rules reciting the: 355f

R

rabbaniyun: 81
 rajm: see stoning to death ranks in paradise: 364 Rasul and Nabi: 188
 rawafid: 444, 454f, 491f, 498
 rawafids find fault with Qur'an: 101 rawafids slander the Prophet: 101, 191 refuge in Allah: 352f respite to the sinful: 340f restrain yourself: 350 revile not their gods: 201 right/day, phenomena of: 554 ruh: 18

S

Saba: 275
 Sabbath: 123, 329
 sacts, seventy two: 235f
 Sadhus: 245
 Safa mountain of gold: 201
 saibah: 135
 saints, fake: 96, 191
 Salam-name of Allah: 57
 Salwa: 77
 scales will be set up: 243

Seven destructive things: 372 shia: see rawafid signs of Allah: 27 sin, abetting in: 30
 sinner's lament: 158 sins look good: 529 sins, major: 116 sins, stubbornness on: 331
 sirat: 262
 Six things, if you guarantee....: 146 six things: 511 skin of carrion: 32 slave of Allah: 21 spending: 513
 spirit from Allah: 17 stoning to death: 76, 88
 sunrise from West: 232
 Supplication of Abu Jahl: 375 surah, challenge to produce: 541 swine (see also pork): 33

T

Tabuk, severe heat/thirst/hunger during: 505
 Tabuk, the stay-behind: 505f to 509 taqwa beautifies deeds: 67
 taqwa: 53, 67f, 251, 296, 383
 Taubah, no evidence of dua before at: 417 tawaffa: 145
 tawhid: 155, 183, 234
 tayammum: see dry ablution
 Thamud: 150, 277, 305
 Three commands in first verse of al.anfal: 362
 three people: 35
 three qualities: 91
 ticks: 299
 ties of relationship, join: 350 toilet, prayer before going to: 253 toilets frequented by devils: 252
 Torah on tablets: 307 transgression in religion: 18f, 113 transgression, examples of: 113f travel of this ummah is jihad: 322 traveling in Allah's path: 513 trinity: 16

U

ummahs will be questioned: 242
 Ummul qura: 192
 unity when hearts united: 395
 unlawful described: 41 urine, Hindus drink cow's: 263 usury: 11

W

wahabis accused: 191
 wali of Allah: 550 war captives, ruling about: 411
 wasilah: 135
 weight and measure, less: 283 wife, best: 346
 wine, etc.: 118f woman would not betray, if....: 143
 wudhu: see ablution

Y

Yunus swallowed by fish: 563

Z

zakah, nisab: 467
 zakah, rulings: 467f

INDEXES

There are three different sets of index, an index of names appearing in the commentary, an index of subjects in the commentary, and, an index of books to which the commentary refers but the major books of hadith like Bukhari, Muslim, etc. are not mentioned. The numbers against each entry refer to the pages and an 'f' following a number implies that the entry is repeated on that page or up to five following pages.

INDEX OF NAMES

A

Abd bin Humayd: 282
 Abdul Wahid Abbasi Hanbali: 356
 Abdullah bin Abbas: 16, 30, 40, 50f, 61f, 86f, 107, 122, 148, 158, 166f, 184, 199, 242, 271, 290, 300f, 310f, 318f, 326, 339, 355f, 374f, 386f, 402f, 432, 458, 469f, 495f, 502f, 511f, 537f, 550f, 558f, 570, 580f, 593f, 607
 Abdullah bin Abu Usayd: 221
 Abdullah bin Amr: 528f
 Abdullah bin Ibn Abu Sarh: 220f
 Abdullah bin Ma'sud: 2f, 42, 54, 66, 148, 209, 219, 230, 237f, 250, 263, 268f, 279, 388, 404, 468, 486, 495, 549, 575f, 587, 593
 Abdullah bin Qais: see Abu Musa Asha'ry
 Abdullah bin Salam: 438, 537
 Abdullah bin Ubayy: 564, 591
 Abdullah bin Umar: 2, 10, 42, 160, 263f, 299, 313, 434f, 480, 547, 558, 590f
 Abdullah bin Umayya: 116
 Abdullah bin Unays: 348
 Abdullah bin Zubair: 500
 Abdur Rahman bin Samurah: 72
 Abu Bakr: 40f, 63, 171, 209, 219, 242, 248, 266, 312, 508f, 540, 570, 606
 Abu Darda: 2, 263, 279, 316, 567
 Abu Dharr: 42, 238, 251, 330, 526f
 Abu Hanifah: 90, 215, 495f, 520, 561, 580
 Abu Hayyan: 355
 Abu Hurayrah: 3f, 29, 42, 54, 70, 85f, 114, 216, 228, 263f, 278, 299, 313, 318, 367, 397f, 457f, 467, 480, 511, 528, 537f, 575, 589
 Abu Jahl: 116, 287, 488
 Abu Jundub: 221
 Abu Malik Ash'ari: 148, 298
 Abu Musa Ash'ari: 397, 405, 469, 493, 530, 575, 581
 Abu Musa: 72, 312
 Abu Nu'aim: 58
 Abu Qatadah: 43, 272
 Abu Razin Uqaili: 89
 Abu Sa'id Khudri: 2, 84, 147, 213, 265, 316, 332, 337, 381, 484, 494, 511, 577, 585, 596
 Abu Salama: 334
 Abu Sufyan: 13, 543
 Abu Talib: 219
 Abu Ubaidah: 566
 Abu Umamah: 133, 263, 298f, 388

Abul Alia: 390
 Adam (Prophet): 126, 157f, 227, 288, 299f, 334, 431f, 557f, 600
 Ahmad bin Hanbal: 215
 Akhnukh (name of Idris): see Idris
 Alexander of Macedonia: 358f
 Ali bin Abu Talib: 20, 86, 171, 209, 230, 278, 341, 353f, 378, 492, 577, 601, 606
 Ali bin Abu Talib Alqama: 484
 Ammar bin Yasir: 219, 232
 Amr bin Abasa: 298
 Amr bin As: 271
 Anas bin Maalik: 7, 44, 63, 89, 107, 171f, 229, 237f, 248, 264f, 318, 480, 528, 583f, 597f, 610
 Aristotle: 358
 As bin Wa'il: 394
 Asim bin Wa'il: 172
 Asma bint Abu Bakr: 584
 Asma bint Yazid: 567
 Aswad bin Abdul Asad: 334
 Aswad bin Abdul Mughith: 172
 Aswad bin Abdul Muttalib: 172
 Ata bin Abu Rabah: 262
 Ata bin Yasar: 575
 Ata: 497, 590
 Ayadh bin Himar: 276
 Ayash bin Abu Rabi'ah: 221
 Ayshah: 89, 112, 147, 154, 232f, 242, 263, 298, 452, 499, 507, 564, 575f, 584f, 595f
 Ayyub: 468

B

Baghawi: 594
 Bakhtnasr: 254
 Balya: see Khidr
 Bar Qa'di: 21
 Bara bin Azib: 463, 591
 Bilal: 13, 219f, 330, 432f
 Bin Yamin: 74f, 92f
 Birdos, king (who hated Isa): 537

D

Dahhak: 160
 Darius: 359
 Dawud (Prophet): 116, 278f, 463 to 467
 Dhul Kifl: 469
 Dhul Qarnayn: 358
 Digyanus: 319

F

Fatima bint Khattab: 439

Fatimah (D/o. Muhammd): 341

G

Goliath: see Jalut

H

Hajar (Hajara): 142f, 460

Ham: 18

Hamnah bint Jahsh: 565

Hamzah: 20, 233, 440f, 492

Hanzalah: 324

Harith bin Qais: 172

Harun (Prophet): 229, 239, 370f, 384, 408f, 423, to 440, 453, 536

Hasan Basri: 399, 476, 586, 595

Hasan: 122, 155, 221, 261, 267, 350

Hassan bin Thabit: 564

Hawwa: 126, 431f, 557f

Hilal bin Umayyah: 562

Hud: 22f, 229, 510, 535

Hudhaifa: 173

I

Ibn Anbari: 148

Ibn Jurayj: 352

Ibn ul Jowzi: 356

Ibnul Mundhir: 386

Ibrahim (Prophet): 26f, 125 to 174, 223f, 232, 250, 359, 370f, 383f, 405f, 454f, 496f

Idris (Prophet): 239, 370f, 386, 469

Ikrimah: 54, 221, 339

Isa (Prophet): 116, 195, 239, 248, 283, 299, 355, 362, 370f, 446, 473, 537, 546, 559

Ishaq (Prophet): 27, 142f, 163

Ishaq bin Bishr: 359

Isma'il (angel): 246

Isma'il (Prophet): 142f, 223, 359, 370f, 384f, 460f, 469, 496f

J

Jabir bin Abdullah: 348, 392

Jabir bin Samura: 279

Jabir: 89, 256, 313, 574

Jalut: 254

Jarir bin Abdullah: 45, 577

Jassas: 591

Jazari: 21

Jibril: 172, 236, to 248, 250f, 327, 376f, 390, 398, 456

Joseph (carpenter): see Yusuf

Jubair bin Nudhair: 173

Jubayr bin Nufayr: 295

K

Ka'b Ahbar: 158, 386f

Kalbi: 374, 400

Khabbab bin Arath: 394, 439

Khabbab: 13

Khardush: 254

Khidr: 343f, 347f

L

Luqman: 275

Lut: 27, 126, 164f, 460

M

Ma'qil bin Yasar: 213

Maimunah: 558

Malik bin Sa'sa'ah: 238f

Malik, Imam: 520

Maryam: 284, 370f, 473, 537

Maymuna: 272

Mistah bin Uthatha: 564f

Mu'adh bin Anas: 566

Mu'adh bin Jabal: 3, 229

Mu'awiyah bin Jahma: 264

Mughira: 298, 601

Muhammad (Prophet): 127, 166, 239, 248

Muhammad bin Ka'b Qurazi: 312

Muhammad bin Sirin: 90

Mujahid: 54, 289f, 389, 399, 495

Mulla Ali Qari: 263, 290, 459

Mus'ab bin Sa'd: 388

Musa (Prophet): 35, 128, 227f, 237f, 255, 283, 299, 308f, 343, 347f, 370, 384, 402f, 407f, 440, 453f, 531, 536, 604

Musailama Kadhhab: 220

N

Nadhar bin Harith: 176, 327, 488

Nawas bin Sam'an: 58

Nawawi: 355

nebuchednezzar: (see Bakhtnasar)

Nimrud bin Kan'an: 184, 382, 457

Nu'aym bin Abdullah: 439

Nu'man bin Bashir: 567

Nuh (Prophet): 11f, 240, 299, 359, 387, 496, 523, 533

O

Qadhi Ilmud Din Basati: 356

Qasim bin Muhammad: 216

Qatadah: 122, 153, 228, 254, 290f, 374, 399, 570, 610

Qitfir: 55

Qur'an: 90

Qurtubi: 63, 80, 160, 206, 289f, 310f, 326, 433

R

Ra'il: 55

Rubil: 81

S

Sa'd bin Abu Waqqas: 388, 471

Sa'd bin Ubadah: 573

Sa'id bin Jubair: 318, 497

Sa'id bin Musayyib: 537, 580

Sa'id bin Zaid: 439

Safwan bin Mu'attal Sulami: 564f

Sahl bin Hunayf: 330

Sahl bin Sa'd: 147, 574

Salama bin Hisham: 221

Salih (Prophet): 25, 535

Salman Farsi: 330f, 452

Sam (S/o. Nuh): 359

Sam: 18

Samiri: 421f

Samura bin Jundub: 272

Sanjarib: 254

Sarah: 27, 141f, 458

Sha'bi: 318, 484
 Shafi'i, Imam: 215, 506, 520, 580
 Shah Ishaq: 70
 Sham'un: 81
 Shayba: 20
 Shu'ayb: 31f, 346, 510
 Sufyan bin Abdullah Thaqafi: 171
 Sufyan bin Uyayna: 208, 374
 Suhaib: 13
 Sulayman (Prophet): 116, 463 to 467
 Sumayya: 219

T

Tamlikha: 324
 Taybus bin Istaynuss: 254
 Tha'labi: 346
 Thanawi: 19, 30, 247
 Thauban: 574

U

Ubada bin Samit: 89, 528f, 577
 Ubaidah: 492
 Ubay, bin Ka'b: 456
 Ubaydah bin Harith: 20
 Ubayy bin Ka'b: 343
 Ubayy bin Khalaf: 176
 Umar bin Abdul Aziz: 208, 356
 Umar bin Dinar: 590
 Umar bin Khattab: 7f, 90, 248, 254, 275, 298, 312, 353f, 437f, 465f, 493, 504f, 556, 575f,
 606
 Umm Ayadh: 575
 Umm Salama: 334, 580
 Umm Sharik: 457
 Ummul Ala: 90
 Uqbah bin Abu Mu'it: 327
 Uqbah bin Amir: 311, 494
 Utba bin Nadar: 406

Utba: 20, 492
 Uthman bin Affan: 399, 433, 509, 606, 43f, 137,
 220, 248
 Uthman bin Madh'un: 90, 587
 Uwais Qarni: 265
 Uwaymir Ajlani: 562
 Uyayna bin Hisn: 334
 Uzair (Prophet): 195, 397

W

Walid bin Mughira: 172
 Walid bin Utba: 20
 Walid bin Walid: 221
 Wathiq Billah: 365

Y

Ya'ish: 218
 Ya'qub (Prophet): 402f, 50f, 74f. to 100, 163
 Yafith: 18
 Yahuda: 81
 Yahya (Prophet): 239, 370f
 Yahya bin Sa'id: 244
 Yajuj/Majuj: 362f
 Yaqut Hamawi: 365
 Yunus (Prophet): 470
 Yusha bin Nun: 344f, 348f, 355
 Yusuf (carpenter): 379
 Yusuf (Prophet): 49, to 100, 128, 239, 402f

Z

Zahir Barquq: 356
 Zaid bin Arqam: 171
 Zainab bint Jahsh: 565
 Zakariya: 370f, 472
 Zayd bin Arqam: 507
 Zuhayr bin Muhammad: 262
 Zulaykha: 55f

INDEX OF SUBJECTS*A

ablution: 522
 ad : 271
 adultery of the eyes, etc.: 60 adultery, (etc. rulings on): 554 to 561 ahadith, rejector of: 191
 alam arwah: 301
 Allah is Alone: 313
 Allah is Omnipotent: 313
 Allah is One: 311
 Allah is the Most Tolerant: 397
 Allah is with the pious: 84
 Allah responsible for four: 589
 Allah will be plaintiff against three: 54
 Allah wishes to guide, whoso: 593
 Allah, a man's insolence about: 107f
 Allah, seeing: 241f
 Allah's attributes: 368, 546, 551f
 Allah's favours: 140f
 Allah's house: 141f
 angel before Maryam: 375 angels are not Allah's daughter's: 446

apostates: 219
 apostating, rulings about: 220
 Arabic is a unique language: 127
 atiyah, ask for: 63
 Ayshah, libel against: 564f
 Ayshah's privilege: 571f

B

badr, battle of: 342
 Badr: 492
 baitul ma'mur: 239
 Baitul Maqdas before the Prophet: 242 barzakh: 549 belief and concession: 220 believer compelled to assert disbelief, if: 323 believers brave tyranny: 416 birth control disallowed: 587 blessings (durud Ibrahim): 227
 Budha not a Prophet: 105
 buraq: 248
 buruj: 154

C

calf of gold: 421

castration disallowed: 587 cave dwellers, account of: 318 to 329 chameleon, kill: 457f children, spiritual condition of: 143 concession availed: 220 contentment yet tremble at Allah's mention: 115

D

dajjal: 316, 362
 Dawud's/Sulayman's judgement: 463 death nor life, neither: 133 death will be slaughtered: 381 devils will be fettered: 391f
 Dhul darnain travelled widely: 360
 Dhul Qarnain's wall: 365 —, discovery possible: 366 disbelievers, deeds of: 7 distractions caused by devil: 216 dream about milk: 90 dreams: 89

E

earth is spherical: 102 earth will be bread for people of Paradise: 147 envy not sinner: 437
 Euphrates: 240 evil eye: 76

F

fast of Arafah: 43
 Fatihah for cure, surah-al: 200
 Fatihah, surah al: 169 favours, different kinds of: 200, 204 fear of Yusuf's brothers: 50f five things, avoid: 273, 558 food supplies stopped: 223
 fortune tellers: 154
 four practices common to Prophets: 587f four things: 100

G

gaze, lower: 577 glad tidings, convey: 229
 Gog/Magog: (see Yajuj/Majuj) good and evil are never equal: 547 good of both worlds: 63 gratitude is rewarding: 84, 129 guide not necessarily a Prophet: 105

H

haddul qadhaf: 561
 hadi: 499
 hajj, kinds of: 499
 hajj, rites of: 499
 hajj, rulings: 505
 hasty, be not: 105
 help only from Allah: 95 higher rank the stricter the trial, the: 327 hijab and medical treatment: 585f hijab, rulings on: 585
 Hinduism has no Prophet: 105 home, etiquette of entering: 573, to 576 home, permission required to enter: 573, to 576, Hud on Friday, recite surah: 47 hypocrites will not know: 138

I

Iblis: 156f
 Ibrahim spoke three lies: 458f
 Ibrahim's noble traits: 226f
 Ibrahim's prayer for parents: 144
 Ibrahim's prayer: 142
 illegitimate children: 271 infant child bore witness: 59 infant spoke to its mother: 60 infants spoke, four: 60 infidelcountry, office in: 73 ingratitude: 4, 139f, 222
 insha Allah: 327
 intelligent, the: 111f
 Isa is alive: 381
 Isa/Muhammad grave in Kashmir heretics claim:
 537
 Isma'il's characteristics: 385 istabraq: 332
 istighfar, sayyidul: 90

J

jihad, discussion on the word: 520 join ties of relationship: 112

K

Ka'ba built: 496
 Kalimah is firm word: 137
 Kalimah is pure word: 137
 Khidr met other people too: 356
 Khidr met Umar bin Abdul Aziz: 356
 Khidr was Balya: 355
 Khidr was dead before the Prophet's times: 356
 King's dream: 67f
 King's would-be assassins: 64
 Kitabah: 589

L

Last Hour pictured: 362f
 Last Hour, signs of: 362 leadership, canvass not for: 72 li'an: 562f limbs will testify: 275

M

mahram: 577f
 major sins: 266
 Malik of Hell: 246 man is hasty: 256 man needs three things: 433
 manna: 309
 maqam mahmud: 296 marriage is sunnah: 587
 maw'idhatul hasanah: 282
 mi'raj or assension to heavens: 239 to 290 migration to Abyssinnia: 189, 508
 Mihrab: 373
 miracles when Allah wills: 104, 115, 121 miracles/wonders: 87 moderation in expenditure: 269 modesty and belief are one: 585 mountains will be levelled: 147 mosques, etiquettes of: 595f mountains express exuberance: 478 mountains subjected to Dawud: 116f mu'allifat ul-qulub: 330

 Muhammad, none as revered as: 166
 mukatabah: 589
 Musa, nine sings given to: 308f
 Muslims half of dwellers of Paradise: 485
 Muslims involved in spreading immorality: 568 Muslims suffer, why: 7
 mutah is unlawful: 527
 my Lord – rabbi: 56f

N

narrowed life: 435
 Nile: 240
 none is silent all day till night: 378
 Nuh's flood was worldwide: 20
 Nuh's flood: 17
 Nuh's prayer: 462
 Nuh's three surviving sons: 18

O

ocean, benefits from: 180 orphanage till maturity: 378

P

patience is rewarded: 84 peace on who follow guidance: 411 persecution: 223 plants of heaven: 250 pledge, keep your: 112
 poor accepted Islam: 439 poor are trial for the rich: 621 pray for jannatul firdaws: 368 prayed for mercy: 319 prayer accepted at specified time: 86 prayer answered on Friday: 228 prayer before sexual intercourse: 290 prayer for death as a Muslim: 91 prayer of three accepted: 263 prayer taught by Jibril to ward off devil: 244 prayer to conclude salah: 540 prayer when eating: 199 propagation, etiquette of: 229 to Prophet grew despondent: 99
 Prophet old, certain surahs made: 40
 Prophet, devil chased the: 244
 Prophet's heart washed with zamam: 250
 Prophet's mercy: 223
 Prophet's prayer when devils score one: 548
 Prophet's prayer: 275
 Prophet's ruling, the: 464
 Prophets are guides: 121
 Prophets are humans: 98
 Prophets are innocent: 63 prophets are prone to err: 432
 Prophets three noble attributes: 472
 Prophets, stories of: 46 prostration before another: 88 provision is allotted: 2 provision, Allah will give: 1 purity to oneself, ascribe not: 71

Q

Qatiran, garment of: 148

qawa'id: 608
 Qur'an neglected, three verses of: 608
 Qur'an, bribery offered to change one word: 353f
 Qur'an's abrogated verses: 217

R

ra'd is an angel: 107 rabi/rasul: see rasul/nabi rajm: 556f
 raqim was dog of cave dwellers: 318 rasul/nabi, difference between: 384 rawafid reject the Qur'an: 606 rawafidh and the Qur'an: 151
 rawafidh, insolence of: 509 rawafidh: 171 religion is always one: 473 rich are trial for the poor: 621 rulings on Musa/Khidr episode: 348

S

Sabbath: 228
 sakar: 199
 salah after good ablution: 43
 salah of five times: 41
 salah of three in unaccepted: 55
 salah prescribed: 240
 salah with concentration: 526
 salah, the rank of: 250 salah, worst thief who steals from: 3 salam: 344
 salwa: 309
 Sarah's prayer: 460
 sayyidut tabi'in: 265 seeker and sought are weak: 519
 sermon of Friday: 210
 sheikh must observe Shari'ah: 354 sidratul muntaha defined: 247 signs are money: 97, 102, 179 sins, uneasiness before committing: 58 sirat: 392
 six things can get Paradise: 578
 slander: 561
 snake's pledge with Nuh/Sulayman: 467f soft/loud recitals, intentions behind: 312 souls, ransoming: 111 stars have three purposes: 153 state of mind differs when outside: 324 straight walled road with doors: 58 student should go out to learn: 348 sundus: 332
 surah, challenge to produce like: 5 suspicion should be removed: 69

T

ta'awwudh when reciting Qur'an: 215
 —, when angry: 215
 tahajjud: 42, 297
 tahmid: 173, 313
 tajwid: 310
 taqwa: 84
 tasbih of two types: 278
 tasbih: 173, 313
 tashahhud: 251

tawhid: 5, 65, 103, 141f, 182, 194, 204, 226, 382, 446, 481, 533, 616
teacher/student relationship: 348 to 351
Thamud, disobedient: 25 three needs of son of Adam: 433 three people, Allah will not speak to: 272 travel alone not perferred: 348 treasures of heaven: 311

U

Umar's Islam: 439f
uququl walidain: 266f

V

veil before non Muslim women, observe: 579f veil must be observed: 582f venom cure through al-Fatihah: 200

W

wahy: 93
wailing women: 148 washing: 522

water, created everyone from: 600 winds bearer of glad tidings: 107 woman who combed Pharoah family: 59f women are destructive to intelligence: 59 —, trial of: 59

Y

Yajuj/Majuj will come before the Last Hour: 362
Yajuj/Majuj will come: 475
Yajuj/Majuj, location of: 365
Yajuj/Majuj: 358
Yunus prayer: 471
Yusuf received education: 56
—, kept aloof of seduction: 56
Yusuf returned money to brothers: 74
Yusuf sold as slave: 54
Yusuf vindicated: 69

Z

zam zam: 142, 238

INDEX OF BOOKS

A

Adabul Mufrid: 227
Ahkamul Qur'an: 580
Akamul Marjan: 290

B

Bayanul Qur'an: 255, 262, 368, 537
Bidayah wa an Nihayah, al: 319

D

Dala'ilun Nabuwwa: 243f, 356
Durr Man thur: 40, 50, 227, 302, 312, 329, 424, 471, 590, 611
Durrul Mukhtar: 585

F

Fathul Bari: 247, 352, 459

H

Hidaya: 580
Hilya: 58

I

Ibn Abu Hatim: 208, 352
Ibn Hajar: 349, 355
Ibn Hisham: 85, 243
Ibn Kathir: 15, 161, 184, 242, 262, 268, 316f, 327,
365, 398, 438, 465, 509, 597f
Ibn Khaldun: 365
Isaba: 355

J

Jalalain: 585
Jam'ul Fawaid: 243

K

Kilayatul al Ma'iy fi Ayati Ya Ar dub La'iy: 21
Kitabul Mujalisa: 356

M

Ma'alimut Tanzil: 23f, 115f, 150, 172f, 184, 199,
212f, 228f, 254, 285, 302f, 322, 334f, 387f,
400f, 427f, 456, 499, 544, 590, 594, 604, 609
Majma'ul Buldan: 21, 365
Majmuaz Zawa'id: 243, 279

R

Raddul Mukhtar: 579
Ruhul Ma'ani: 2, 58f, 83f, 91f, 121, 134, 145,
154, 168, 184, 208, 229, 279f, 285, 295, 310,
319, 325f, 334, 341, 354f, 365f, 386f, 405f,
428, 487f, 566, 580, 601

S

Sha'bi: 86
sirah: 243
Suyuti: 209

T

Tarikhul Khulafa: 209

INDEXES

There are three different sets of index, an index of names appearing in the commentary, an index of subjects in the commentary, and, an index of books to which the commentary refers but the major books of hadith like Bukhari, Muslim, etc. are not mentioned. The numbers against each entry refer to the pages and an 'f' following a number implies that the entry is repeated on that page or up to five following pages.

INDEX OF NAMES

A

A'mash: 529
 Abban bin Uthman: 389f
 Abdullah bin Abu Awfa: 212
 Abdullah bin Abu Bakr: 148
 Abdullah bin Abu Salama: 259
 Abdullah bin Amr bin As: 278
 Abdullah bin Busr: 237, 248, 413f
 Abdullah bin Jahsh: 241
 Abdullah bin Mas'ud: 18, 28, 77, 111, 135, 162, 172f, 233, 265f, 276f, 284f, 412, 430, 474, 535f, 571f
 Abdullah bin Mughaffal: 271, 622
 Abdullah bin Rawaha: 216, 229
 Abdullah bin Salam: 101
 Abdullah bin Ubayy: 628
 Abdullah bin Umar: 71f, 93f, 135f, 175f, 204, 227, 248, 265, 271, 318, 356, 413f, 588, 622, 633
 Abdullah bin Umayyah: 103
 Abdullah bin Umm Maktum: 209, 604
 Abdullah bin Zab'ari: 524
 Abdullah bin Zubair: 624f
 Abdullah ibn Abbas: 2f, 77, 90, 108, 153, 164, 171f, 190f, 234f, 240f, 257, 271f, 279, 287, 315, 322, 346f, 355f, 370f, 385f, 406, 429, 475f, 493f, 534f, 552, 574, 583f, 625, 632, 645f
 Abdur Rahman bin Awf: 410
 Abu Abdullah Asbahani: 592
 Abu Abdullah Ibn Majah: 592
 Abu Amir Ash'ari: 174
 Abu Amr Dani: 593
 Abu Bakr: 17, 92f, 120, 147f, 244, 364, 410, 601, 610, 625
 Abu Basir: 602f
 Abu Darda: 142, 166, 195, 313, 580, 629, 635
 Abu Dawuds: 592
 Abu Dharr: 18, 102, 195, 267, 331, 378, 461, 490
 Abu Hanifah: 78, 336, 356, 577, 591
 Abu Hatim Razi: 592
 Abu Hunaid Sa'idi: 268
 Abu Hurayrah: 32, 47, 55, 73f, 92f, 106f, 134f, 159f, 176f, 196, 204f, 238, 248, 268f, 275, 297, 315, 356, 377, 383f, 406, 431, 473, 501f, 540, 552, 565, 580, 765f, 634, 642, 648f
 Abu Ja'far Razi: 592
 Abu Ja'far Tabari: 592
 Abu Jahl: 103, 349, 469, 546
 Abu Jandal: 601f
 Abu Lubabah: 225f
 Abu Malik Ash'ari: 20
 Abu Musa Ash'ari: 102, 135, 176, 233, 270, 501
 Abu Nu'aim: 592

Abu Sa'id Khudri: 20, 75, 237, 357, 388, 415, 543, 622
 Abu Sahya: 174
 Abu Sufyan: 259, 599
 Abu Tahah: 267, 635
 Abu Talib: 103, 128, 370
 Abu Ubaid Qasim: 370, 592
 Abu Umamah: 174, 387, 524, 581
 Abu Yusuf: 578
 Abu Zakariyya: 592
 Abu Zurrah Razi: 592
 Adam (Prophet): 154f, 191, 207, 396f, 441, 458, 636
 Ahmad bin Hanbal:
 Ahmar bin Shu'ayd: 592
 Alexandar Macedonia: 173
 Ali bin Abu Talib: 89f, 139f, 211, 234f, 242, 258f, 267, 378, 425, 511, 599
 Ammar: 35, 121
 Amr bin Abd Wad: 211
 Amr bin As: 18
 Anas bin Aws: 212
 Anas bin Maalik: 135, 181, 195, 222f, 257f, 271, 279, 345, 407, 456f, 473, 538f, 596, 614, 628, 648
 Anas bin Nadhar: 222
 Anjasha: 173
 As bin Wail: 339
 Asad bin Malik: 539
 Asad bin Sa'id: 226
 Asad bin Ubaid: 226
 Asad: 539
 Asif bin Barkhiyya: 60
 Asim (qari): 245
 Asma bint Abu Bakr: 120
 Asma bint Yazid: 196
 Ata bin Abu Rabab: 477
 Ata bin Yasir: 251
 Ata: 428
 Ayshah: 55, 71, 134, 175, 230, 242, 257f, 287, 319, 357, 379, 434, 540, 565f, 631
 Ayyub (Prophet): 178, 381f
 Azar: 32

B

Ba'ura: 178
 Bara bin Azib: 598
 Barka: 240
 Bayhaqi: 592
 Bilal: 35, 121
 Bilqis: 61
 Budail bin Waraqa: 598
 Bukhari: 591

D

Dawud (Prophet): 54, 178, 284f, 374f
 Dhahabi: 378

F

Fatima (bint Muhammad): 47, 234f, 244, 357
Fudala bin Ubaid: 266

H

Hafsa bint Umar: 230
Hajirah: 127, 354
Halis bin Alqama: 598
Haman: 130, 444
Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib: 222
Harith bin Uthman: 104
Harun (Ibrahim's brother): 126
Harun (Prophet): 23f, 95f, 358f
Hasan Basri: 29, 90, 118, 173, 198, 560, 613
Hasan bin Ali: 234
Hassan bin Thabit: 49f
Hawwa: 155, 397f, 636
Hud (Prophet): 37f, 568f
Hudhaifa bin Usayd: 72f, 535
Hudhaifah: 527
Husain bin Ali: 234
Huyay bin Akhtab: 223

I

Ibn Hibban: 592
Ibn Ishaq bin Khuzayna Naysapuri: 592
Ibn Jarir: 91 (see also Abu Ja'far Tabani)
Ibn Kaysan: 583
Ibnus Sunni: 592
Ibrahim (Prophet): 30f, 70, 90, 108, 123f, 190, 234, 244, 352f, 390f, 495, 515, 574
Ikrima bin Abu Jahl: 228, 234, 534, 583, 613
Ilyas (Prophet): 359
Irbad bin Saryia: 207
Isa (Prophet): 108, 137, 178, 246, 325, 495, 512f, 524f, 574
Ishaq (Prophet): 359, 390, 515
Ishaq bin Ibrahim: 592
Isma'il (Prophet): 127, 355, 390, 515
Isra'il: (another name for Ya'qub)

J

Ja'far bin Abu Talib: 101f
Jabir bin Samura: 278
Jabir: 8, 55, 135, 173, 215f, 294, 335, 388, 517, 567, 597, 625, 635, 649
Jalaluddin Suyuti: (see Suyuti)
Jarir: 62
Jazari: 371, 593
Jibril: 5, 44, 97, 115, 129, 187, 214, 355, 376, 507
Juwairiya bint Harith: 230, 259f

K

Ka'b bin Asad: 223f
Ka'b bin Ujra: 86, 267
Ka'b bin Zaid: 212
Ka'b: 539
Khabbab: 121
Khadijah bint Khuwailid: 231, 239, 254f
Khalid bin Walid: 419, 626
Khallad bin Suwaid: 226
Khidr: 60
Khosran: 147
Khuraim bin Fatik: 19

L

Layya (D/o. Shuayb): 94
Luqman: 178f
Lut (Prophet): 6, 35f, 65, 90, 126f, 354, 360

M

Ma'qil bin Yasar: 45
Maalik. Imam: 14, 178, 621
Makki bin Ibrahim: 592
Maryam: 70, 246
Maymunah bint Haritha: 230, 255
Mika'il: 376
Miqdad bin Ma'dikarib: 285f
Mu'adh bin Anas: 272, 635
Mu'adh bin Jabal: 195
Mughirah: 406
Muhammad (Prophet): 103, 108, 139, 223, 391, 441, 468
Muhammad bin Muslima: 209
Muhammad bin Qasim: 128
Muhammad. Imam: 578
Mujahid: 60, 128, 164, 548, 613, 646
Mukarraz bin Hafs: 598
Mulla Ali Qari: 371
Mus'ab bin Umair: 222
Musa (Prophet): 23f, 52f, 84f, 95f, 108, 130, 198, 234f, 27f, 311, 432, 444f, 495, 504f, 537, 549, 574, 647
Muslim: 592

N

Nadhar bin Harith: 172, 546
Nafi': 175
Nimrud: 123
Nu'aim bin Hammad: 592
Nu'aim: 227f
Nu'man bin Bashir: 216
Nuh (Prophet): 35, 123, 208, 350f, 49f, 574

Q

Qarun: 111f, 130, 444
Qatada: 173, 385f, 624
Qurtubi: 38f, 60f, 91f, 103f, 373, 409, 468, 494f, 534, 585, 590, 611f, 632, 649
Qutaybah bin Sa'id Balkhi: 592

R

Rafi bin Khudaij: 610
Raghib: 178
Rahmah: 386
Razi: 178
Rufaydah: 225
Ruwayfi: 268

S

Sa'd bin Abu Waqqas: 120, 196, 410
Sa'd bin Malik: 471
Sa'd bin Mu'adh: 212, 224f
Sa'd bin Ubadah: 224
Sa'd bin Zaid Ansari: 226
Sa'ib bin Khallad: 271f
Sa'id bin Jubair: 90
Sa'id bin Zaid: 271
Safiyya (Prophet's wife): 226f, 631
Safiyya bint Abdul Muttalib: 211
Safura (D/o. Shu'ayb): 94
Sahl bin Amr: 139
Sahl bin Sa'd: 237, 518, 540
Salih (Prophet): 7, 39f, 63f, 472
Salma bin Akwa: 614
Salman Farsi: 101, 210f, 235, 591
Samura: 351
Sarah: 126, 354
Sauda bint Zam'ah: 230
Shabbir Uthmani: 12

Shaddad: 518
 Shafi'i, Imam: 378, 578
 Shatbi: 371, 593
 Shu'ayb (Prophet): 7, 42f, 90, 130
 Suddi: 98
 Sufyan bin Abdullah Thaqafi: 562
 Suhayb: 35
 Suhayl bin Amr: 599
 Sulayman (Prophet): 29, 54f, 284f, 381f
 Sulayman bin Ash'ath Sajistani: 592
 Suyuti: 385, 592

---

T

Tabarani: 592
 Talha bin Ubaidullah: 222
 Tamin Dari: 101
 Tha'laba bin Ghanama: 212
 Tha'laba bin Sa'id: 226
 Thabit Banani: 286
 Thabit bin Qais: 259
 Thanawi: 9, 72f, 159, 483
 Tirmidhi: 592
 Tufair bin Nu'man: 212

---

U

Ubadah bin Samit: 152, 196, 580
 Ubayy bin Khalaf: 3f, 147f
 Umar bin Abu Salama: 234
 Umar bin Khattab: 92f, 142, 196, 215, 230, 313, 566f, 596f, 610, 625
 Umm Habiba: 230, 248, 259
 Umm Hani: 128, 254

Umm Ma'bid: 442
 Umm Salama: 230f, 258, 527, 601
 Uqba bin Abu Mu'it: 3f
 Uqba bin Amir: 86, 415
 Urwa bin Mas'ud: 598
 Urwa: 234
 Usama bin Zaid: 244
 Utba bin Rabi'ah: 468
 Utbah bin Nuddar: 89f
 Uthman bin Affan: 92f, 215, 389, 598f, 605
 Uzayr (Prophet): 137, 512, 524

---

W

Wahidi: 29
 Walid bin Uqba: 626
 Waqidi: 178
 Wathila bin Athqa: 235

---

Y

Yaqub: 70f, 127, 357, 390, 448
 Yunus (Prophet): 361
 Yusuf (Prophet): 448f, 535

---

Z

Zaid bin Arqam: 357, 367
 Zaid bin Aslam: 477, 567, 596
 Zaid bin Haritha: 204, 239
 Zakariyya bin Yahya: 592
 Zaynab bint Jahsh: 204, 230, 261
 Zaynab bint Khuzaimah: 255f
 Zubayr bin Awwam: 410
 Zuhair bin Harb: 592

INDEX OF SUBJECTS

---

A

adopted children: 203f
 —, rulings: 203f
 ahadith elaborate Qur'ani teachings: 235
 Ahzad, battle of: 210
 Allah returns the soul: 71f
 Allah, a spam closer to: 145
 Allah, signs of: 655f
 Allah's attributes: 31, 67f
 Allah's mercy: 425f —, attributes: 425, 457, 490, 500, 603, 642
 Allah's might, signs of: 10, 154f
 Allah's servants: 237
 Allah's words: 185f amanat: see trust angels as witnesses: 453 animals benefit of: 338
 Anjasha, you will break glass: 173
 archery: 173
 arrogance: 542
 ashabush shajarah: 599 ashara nubashshara: 272
 Ayyub's plight: 381f

---

B

backbiting worse than adultery: 634 backbiting, expiation for: 635 backbiting: 634
 bayt ul-ridwan: 599, to 613, 613f beast of earth: 73 belief is subservience to religion: 553 belief of no avail: 73 believer's characteristics: 503 believers described: 236 bells are devil's flutes: 174 best and closest servants: 237 bid'ah: 421

 birds make tasbih: 284 blessings on Prophet, invoking: 264f bones will be resurrected: 339 burial after sweets: 9

---

C

Caesar, no Caesar after: 215 charity erases sin: 195
 chosroes (Khosrau): 147 clothing of lies: 399

---

D

dajjal: 73, 454
 dari: 392
 Dawud's tasbih: 374 day like thousand years: 190 dead can hear/no: 71f Dead Sea: 129
 death, pangs of: 645 deed for Paradise: 195
 deeds of disbelievers: 2
 deeds with perpetual reward: 323f delay not three things: 243 derogatory names: 632
 destructives, three: 8 devil's refusal to prostrate: 396f dhabih: 357
 dhakirin: 413
 dhanni: 507
 dhikr easiest worship: 238
 dhikr, tongue moist with: 135, 237, 247, 362
 dhikr: 377, 413, 521

divorce, husband may permit wife to choose: 231 drums after adhan: 9 durud: 265f

E

eye/heart, mischief of: 442

F

fairy tales against Qur'an: 173 fasting is shield: 195 fear Allah: 636 finding faults: 631
fir'awn: 23f
Fitrah, every child born on: 159 five things given to the Prophet only: 294 five things known to none: 187f

G

genealogies: 636
ghasqaq: 392f
ghislin: 392
gifts, expect no return: 162 gifts, take: 62, 162 glorifying Allah: see tasbih gold/silver utensils: 527 grave of Sa'd narrowed down on him: 227 guidance only from Allah: 166 guide gets same reward: 122

H

hamim: 392
hell will be full: 648
Heraclius: 58
hereafter, lament in: 4 hereafter, no life but life of: 213 hidayah: 193
hijab: 261f homosexuality (see also sodomy): 65 honourable, most: 504 horse training: 173
household members: 234f
Hudaybiyah, Muslims slow resignation to: 601
Hudaybiyah, treaty of: 597f human growth: 458 humble, be: 47

I

Ibrahim not Jew/Christian: 70
Ibrahim offers sacrifice: 355
Ibrahim's father: 32
iddah: 252f
ilham: 507 information, verify your: 626 ingratitude: 144, 506 innovative customs: 9
insha Allah: 384
intercession: 420f interpretation difficult: 14
intoxicants are unlawful: 175
Isa/Uzair, will fire touch: 524
Isa's return: 246
ism ul-a'zam: 60
istighfar: 380

J

jazakallah: 162
Jews, subjugation of: 223f joking: 631
judgement day: 651f

K

Ka'bah avoided, alteration to: 243

Kalimah to accept invitation: 3
Khatimun nabiyyin, recital of: 245
Kiramman Katibin: 473

L

Last Day, sign of: 246
Last Hour, ten signs of: 72 laylatul jinn: 570
laylatul qadr: 333
limbs as witnesses: 336, 473 livelihood, to earn: 17
Luqman, who was: 178f

M

Madyan's old man: 91 magician join Musa: 27
mahr mithal: 92
mahram, who are not: 232
Makkah's privilege: 144
maqami: 392
miracle of water: 597 mocking: 630
mother's rights: 565 mountains make tasbih: 284 muhsinin: 145
mujahadah: 119
mulhidin: 481
Musa first to arise: 432
Musa killed a copt: 23, 85
Musa's garments: 275f music condemned: 174 musical instruments: 174
Muslims and believers: 236
muwahhid: 414

N

naat on music: 174
Najashi: 101
Nuh, favours for: 350f
Nuh's floods: 351f
nushura: 10

P

Paradise assured, .....: 237
Paradise, tidings of: 427
Paradise, two doors for believer in: 538
Paradise/Hell dwellers debate: 348
Parents, kindness to: 179f patience rewarded: 102, 169, 573 people get bad impression, if: 243 Persians, service to Islam by: 591 pictures disallowed: 287 piety is basis of distinction: 636 pilgrimage to Makkah, millions come for: 105
please Allah only: 243
pledge of allegiance: (see bayt of ridwan)
—, obedience to Allah: 605 poetry in woman's presence: 173 prayer in the morning: 389 prayer when riding: 338
prayer while traveling: 511 prayer: see also supplication preacher martyred: 327 preacher's qualities: 328 pride, antidote to: 33
Propagating religion: 478
Prophet is human: 466
Prophet repented hundred times daily: 582
Prophet was shepherd, every: 90
Prophet, invoking blessings on: 264f
Prophet's prayer at Ahzab: 212

Prophet's prayer on sleeping/awakening: 11, 156
 Prophet's prayer: 423, 442
 Prophet's prophecies: 214f
 Prophet's wives: 230f
 Prophets preached monotheism, all: 346
 Prophets, number of: 461 punishment in the grave: 451 punishment, kinds of: 392

Q

Qadyani: 246
 qat'i: 507
 Qur'an changed, accusation that: 9
 Qur'an, attributes of: 465, 520, 544

R

rawafid: 234f, 621
 recital correct, all forms of: 245 recompense sought, no: 499 remembrance of Allah: (see also dhikr) repentance not accepted after punishment: 463 repenting, not: 632 river with two waters: 12.

S

sa'ud: 392
 Saba, queen of: 57
 sahabah, merits of: 618f
 saints, fake: 175, 481
 Salah is Allah's remembrance: 134
 salah, five times: 647
 salam of parting: 531 sin, gravest: 18
 slander: 634
 slaves of Allah: 16 sleep like death: 10 small in my eyes: 33
 social conduct: 630f sodomony: 7 spending for Allah: 17, 161
 spider's web: 131
 spying on each other: 633 stars chasing devils: 342f statues disallowed: 287
 suckling, payment for: 83
 sun rise in the West: 73 supplication is answered: 388 supplication is worship: 456 supplication, make: 455 supplication: see also prayer surahs with HaMim: 435 surrender to Allah: 427 suspicion: 632f

T

taghut: 409
 tahajjud: 194f, 356, 406
 tahmid: 14, 134
 takbir (Allahu Akbar): 134 tamper on the lips: 75
 tariqah: 606
 tasawwuf: 606
 tasbihi: 14, 134, 152, 284, 374
 taubah: 426f
 tauhid: 24, 30, 36, 103, 123, 142, 154, 158, 189, 251, 394, 545, 639
 teach others: 235
 testimony, false: 19
 Thamud: 6f
 three qualities: 627
 three things: 552
 trenches to defend: 210
 trumpets, blowing the: 431 trust: 278
 Tubba: 539
 Turks & others, services to Islam by: 592f

U

Umar's apprehension about Hudaibiyah: 601, 617 ummah, fear for: 8 unjust people: 137 utensils of gold/silver: 527

V

vicissitudes of world: 411

W

water scarce: 597 waters, contrasting: 12 weights/measure: 42
 wife, sporting with: 173 witnesses from this ummah: 208 woman who applies perfume: 233

Y

Yunus people privilege of: 463
 Yunus swallowed by fish: 361
 Yusalluna: 264

Z

zamharir: 392
 zaqqum: 349, 392, 542
 zihar: 202f

INDEX OF BOOKS*B

Bayanul Qur'an: 3, 9, 353, 585, 637
 Bidayah wan Nihayah al: 216, 600

D

Durrul Manthur: 76, 385

F

Fathul Bari: 389

H

Hidaya: 231

I

Ibn Kathir: 25, 89, 149, 216, 236, 249, 355, 391, 429, 540, 615
 Islahur Rusum: 9

J

Jafalain: 378, 415

M

Ma'alimut Tanzil: 21, 102, 116f, 141, 195, 219,
 285, 351, 454, 507, 517, 525f, 539, 546, 560,
 570, 582, 607, 626, 638
 Ma'ariful Qur'an: 95
 Mawahib 'aduniyah: 85
 Mustadrak Haakim: 377

R

Ruhul Ma'ani: 3f, 18, 46, 77, 88f, 96f, 115f, 137,
 149, 164, 176f, 198f, 207, 219, 232f, 241, 254f,
 263f, 288f, 322f, 335f, 348f, 367, 376, 410,
 448, 460, 477, 531, 547, 585, 650f

INDEXES

There are three different sets of index, an index of names appearing in the commentary, an index of subjects in the commentary, and, an index of books to which the commentary refers but the major books of hadith like Bukhari, Muslim, etc. are not mentioned. The numbers against each entry refer to the pages and an 'f' following a number implies that the entry is repeated on that page or up to five following pages.

INDEX OF NAMES

A

---

Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib: 344, 467, 486
 Abdul Aziz bin Yahya: 418
 Abdul Muttalib: 462, 483
 Abdullah (Prophet's father): 483
 Abdullah bin Abbas: 18f, 39, 58f, 71f, 80, 88f, 137, 170, 180f, 202f, 217, 233, 244f, 256, 300f, 313, 330, 349f, 362, 388f, 427f, 443f, 457f, 476f, 482, 490, 504
 Abdullah bin Amr: 59, 99
 Abdullah bin Harith: 247
 Abdullah bin Hudhafa Shami: 372
 Abdullah bin Mas'ud: 23f, 45, 65f, 92, 110, 142, 153, 251, 300f, 330, 362, 417, 428, 479, 504
 Abdullah bin Rawaha: 144
 Abdullah bin Salam: 173
 Abdullah bin Shakhir: 454
 Abdullah bin Ubayy: 150, 198
 Abdullah bin Umar: 10, 100f, 126, 214, 316, 330f, 454f, 473f, 497
 Abdullah bin Umm Makhtum: 137, 343
 Abdullah bin Unays: 302
 Abdullah bin Zubayr: 165, 389
 Abdur Rahman bin Awf: 174
 Abdur Rahman bin Ghanam: 458
 Abdur Rahman: 132
 Abraha: 462
 Abu Bakr: 100f, 137, 191, 227, 409f, 453, 467
 Abu Basir: 166
 Abu Darda: 104, 246, 290, 388
 Abu Dharr: 217, 314, 472
 Abu Hanifah: 43, 162f, 214, 219
 Abu Huraira: 25, 59, 72, 80, 102f, 145f, 153, 177, 191f, 208, 224, 233, 244, 268f, 302, 309, 330, 360, 396, 410, 418f, 428f, 442, 453, 459, 474f, 491f, 496f
 Abu Jahl: 265, 298, 344, 426f, 497
 Abu Jandal: 166
 Abu Lahab: 484f
 Abu Malik Ash'ari: 407
 Abu Marthad Ghanawi: 159
 Abu Musa Ash'ari: 70, 117
 Abu Sa'id Khudri: 72f, 99, 126, 145, 299, 332, 439, 491, 502
 Abu Sufyan bin Harb: 28f
 Abu Sufyan: 27, 164
 Abu Talhah: 144
 Abu Talib: 415

Abu Ubaydah: 132, 418
 Abu Umamah: 82, 116, 132, 396
 Abul As bin Rabi: 486
 Abul Hasan Muhammad bin Ahmad Bazzi: 416
 Ad (sam's son): 392
 Adam (Prophet): 13, 64, 79, 191, 489
 Ahmad bin Hanbal: 214
 Akhnas bin Sharik: 457, 497
 Ali bin Abu Talib: 10, 29, 90, 128, 132f, 159f, 287f, 408, 467, 475, 487
 Amir bin Tufayl: 489
 Amir bin Zarb (Lat): 27
 Amir Sha'bi: 148
 Amr bin As: 218
 Amr bin As: 467
 Amr bin Hazm: 90
 Amr bin Jahash: 136
 Amr bin Luhay: 27
 Amr bin Shu'ayb: 99
 Amr bin Umayyah: 136
 Anas bin Malik: 73f, 83, 115f, 174, 246f, 419, 434, 443f, 452f, 473, 492f
 Aqil: 467
 Arbid bin Rabi'ah: 489
 Asim: 504
 Asiyah: 234f
 Asma bint Abu Bakr: 102, 165
 Asma bint Unays: 255
 Ata: 19
 Awf bin Malik Ashja'i: 210
 Aws bin Samit: 120
 Ayshah: 24f, 35, 100, 120f, 148, 165f, 225f, 234, 246, 281, 289f, 366f, 425, 432f, 443, 458, 472, 481, 491f, 503f

B

---

Baghawi: 297
 Bara bin Azib: 402
 Baydawi: 344
 Bilal: 118, 154, 170, 409f

D

---

Dihya bin Khalifa: 194
 Dihya Kalbi: 352
 Dubayya (attendant of Uzza): 28

F

---

Fahar bin Malik: 466
 Farwa bin Naufal: 479
 Fatima bint Muhammad: 234, 476, 485

Fudayl bin Ayadh: 100f

H

Hafsa: 225f

Hamam: 99

Hamzah: 132, 467

Harun (Prophet): 338

Hasan bin Ali: 256

Hasan Busri: 330, 340

Hasan: 6, 128, 283, 349, 388, 419f

Hatib: 160

Hawwa: 13, 489

Hud (Prophet): 4, 53f, 258

Hudhaifa: 287, 485

Husaib bin Ali: 256

I

Ibn Asi (sam's son): 392

Ibn Jarir: 146

Ibn Jurayj: 457

Ibn Sirin: 80

Ibn Unum Makhtum: 343

Ibn Zaid: 174

Ibrahim (Prophet): 2f, 27f, 40, 55f, 110, 162f, 385

Idris (Prophet): 103

Ikrima: 80, 388, 463

Itanayus, emperor: 372

Imran bin Husain: 392

Isa (Prophet): 110f, 148, 176, 182, 234, 372, 490

Iyad bin Himar: 117

J

Ja'far: 255, 467

Jabir: 74, 145, 194f, 231, 244, 296, 340, 391

Jarir bin Abdullah Bajali: 29

Jarir bin Abdullah: 154

Jarrah: 132

Jazari: 416

Jibril: 21f, 137, 229f, 352f, 418f

Jubayr bin Mut'im: 11

K

Ka'b bin Ashraf: 180

Ka'b bin Ashraf: 476

Khadija: 234, 415

Khalid bin Walid: 28f, 467

Khawla bint Tha'laba: 120f

L

Lat: (see Amir bin Zarb)

Lut (Prophet): 2f, 55f, 233

M

Mahdi: 148

Malik bin Mighwal: 148

Malik bin Nadhr: 416

Malik, Imam: 148, 162

Maqil bin Yasar: 157

Mariya: 227f

Maryam: 177, 232f

Masruq: 25

Mikail: 24, 229

Miqdad: 159

Mu'adh bin Jabal: 76

Mu'awiya: 466

Mughira bin shu'ba: 28

Muhammad (Prophet): 118, 297, 445

Muhammad bin Maslama: 137

Muhammad bin Umayra: 208

Mujahid: 7, 18f, 315, 349, 392, 423

Muqatil: 372

Mus'ab bin Umayr: 132

Musa (Prophet): 4f, 39f, 57f, 148, 176, 188f, 233, 291, 337f, 385, 421

N

Nadhar bin Harith: 265

Nadhar bin Kinana: 466

Nawawi, Imam: 162

Nufayl bin Habib: 463

Nuh (Prophet): 39, 49, 232, 258, 274f, 392, 490

Q

Qais bin Thabit: 144

Qastalani: 484

Qatadah: 72, 283, 349, 423

Qila bint Abdul Uzza: 165

Qurtubi: 24f, 39, 66, 127f, 174f, 226, 232, 293, 315, 327, 418, 458f

Qusay bin Kilab: 466

R

Rabi' bin Anas: 80

Rabi'ah bin Ka'b: 428

Ruqayyah (Prophet's daughter): 485

S

Sa'id bin Husayyib: 463, 492

Sa'id bin Jubayr: 3, 23, 71, 80, 253

Saffiya (Prophet's wife): 500

Sahl bin Sa'd: 475

Salih (Prophet): 5f, 49f, 258, 405

Salman Farsi: 111, 178, 187

Sam (son of Nuh): 392

Shafi'i: 214

Shayba: 132

Shu'ayb (Prophet): 357

Subay'ah bint Harith: 167

Sufyan bin Uyaynah: 165

Suhayb: 107, 174, 224, 370

Suhayl bin Amr: 164f

T

Thawban: 76

U

Ubadah bin Samit: 170, 245

Ubadah: 433

Ubay bin Khalaf: 99, 457

Ubayd bin Umayr: 132

Ubaydah bin Harith: 132

Ubayy bin Khalaf: 344

Umar bin Abdul Aziz: 474

Umar: 103, 132, 136f, 146, 160, 174, 191, 214f, 227f, 358f, 372f, 409f, 443, 453, 467, 482, 499

Umayma bint Bishr: 167

Umayyah bin Khalaf: 409f

Umm Atiya: 170f

Umm Khulthum (Prophet's daughter): 167, 485f

Umm Salama: 481

Uqba bin Abu Mu'it: 167

Uqba bin Amir: 92, 381, 503
 Utaybah: 486
 Utba bin Rabi'ah: 344
 Utba: 132, 486
 Uthman bin Affan: 62, 92, 103, 127, 166, 191, 435, 453, 467, 487
 Uthman bin Ma'dhun: 182
 Uzair (Prophet): 490

W

Walid bin Mughira: 37, 297f, 457
 Walid bin Utba: 132
 Waqidi: 137
 Wathila bin Asqa: 467
 Wathila bin Khattab: 126

Y

Ya'qub (Prophet): 188
 Yunus (Prophet): 254
 Yusuf (Prophet): 337

Z

Zaib bin Thabit: 289
 Zaid bin Arqam: 198f, 494
 Zaid bin Aslam: 226
 Zalim bin As'ad (Uzza-worshipper): 27
 Zaynab (Prophet's daughter): 485
 Zaynab bint Abu Salama: 36
 Zaynab bint Jahsh: 225
 Zubayr: 147, 159, 497

INDEX OF BOOKS

A

Asadul Ghaba: 486

B

Bayanul Qur'an: 35, 172, 252f, 352, 378, 390
 Bayhaqi: 13
 Bidayah wan Nihayah, al: 28, 137, 160, 466

D

Dalail nabuwah: 486
 Durru'l Manthur: 58, 231, 419

F

Fath ul-Bari: 27f

I

Ibn Kathir: 29, 146, 255, 268, 466f, 495
 Isabah: 344, 486
 Isti'ab: 344, 486

J

Jalalain: 243

Jam'ul Fawa'id: 486

K

Kanzul Ummal: 92

M

Ma'alimut Tanzil: 3, 10, 39f, 79, 118, 129f, 155, 173, 183, 194, 200, 210, 216, 227, 234, 309, 333, 344, 383, 451, 484
 Mustadrak Hakim: 13

R

Rawdhul Unfar: 484
 Ruhul Ma'ani: 3, 13, 65, 79, 89, 102, 129, 165, 174, 263, 265, 275, 293f, 350, 392, 428, 434, 478, 490f

W

Waqidi: 463

INDEX OF SUBJECTS

A

Ablaha's army: 461f
 ablution sign of ummah: 98
 Abu Turab: 287
 Ad: 4, 53, 258, 392
 ahadith, rejectors of: 141
 Allah is All-Hearing: 238
 Allah will not look at three: 314
 Allah, attributes of: 93, 123, 155f, 185, 206
 Allah, devil will ask who created: 499
 Allah, did Prophet see: 24f
 Allah's protection from: 501f
 Allah's sake, love/hate for: 132 angels of death: 335 angels visit Ibrahim: 2 angels, number of: 300
 Ansar's example of love: 144 arguments: 433

B

Badr, battle of: 58, 132, 266

bangles men will wear in Paradise: 316 bayt ul-Ma'mur: 10
 —, 70,000 angels circumambulate: 10 beggars: 415
 believer described: 269f believers, responsibilities of: 401 bickering: 433
 boasting: 36
 boy and the king, a saintly: 370f

C

camels robust animals: 389 cheating, forms of: 358f conception: 378 contended soul: 396f creation: 235f

D

dari: 388
 darul harb: 168
 date plantations burnt: 137 day of judgment, length of: 266

Dead sea marks Lut's place: 3 death is imminent: 190 deed will be few: 145 deeds cease except three: 39f destiny, record of: 60
 destiny, resigning: 408 devil is the third with man/woman: 499 devil will ask about creation: 499 dhikr: 100f, 153, 317
 dhil khalsa (idol): 29
 dhun nurayn: 487 difficulties: 400
 disbeliever described: 248 divorce, rulings of: 214f divorce: see talaq durud on Friday: 192

---

E

ease after difficulty: 222 elephant, story of: 461f eleven instructions: 7 enemies of Allah, befriend not: 131, 159, 172
 evil eye: 255
 extravagance: 115 eye brows, trimming: 142

---

F

fayyi: 139 to 143
 five questions first: 453
 Friday is best day: 191

---

G

ghassaq: 330
 ghislin: 261
 gratitude: 241
 grey hair, remove not: 99

---

H

hadar: 288
 Hadhr also known as Banu Nadhr, al: 136
 hajj badal: 38f
 Hell fire more intense: 230
 heraclius: 178, 465
 hirq: 330
 Hoohr, merits of last verses of al: 158 hopes, huge: 340
 hubal: 27
 hur'in: 13, 82

---

I

Ibrahim's prayer: 40, 163
 iddah: 214, 210f
 idols: 27 to 31
 ila: 229
 illiyyin: 360
 insha Allah: 250
 iron, uses of: 109
 isal thawab: 38f
 Islam, basic teachings of: 259
 Islam, service of non-Arabs to: 186f

---

J

jannatul-Marwa: 24
 jealousy is like razor: 497
 Jews, mischief of: 124f
 —, interpolated words: 125
 Jews, three tribes of: 136

Jews expelled: 135f
 Jibril in original form: 21f jinn, Quran recited to: 280 judgment day described: 260, 267, 387 judgment day, names of: 257 judgment day: 48
 Jumm'ah Salah: 190

---

K

Ka'ba attacked by Abraha: 461f kafirun, merits of surah al: 479 kahf, recite surah al: 192
 Khalil, if I had to choose a: 410
 khula: 220
 khutah, ruling on: 195
 kitab: 402

---

L

lat: 27, 426
 laughter: 100
 laylatul qadr not disclosed why is: 433f
 laylatul qadr: 431
 life and death: 235f light of believers: 97
 lowhul Mahfuz: 88
 Lut, angels punish people of: 3

---

M

man gets only for what he strives: 38 man has only three rights: 453 man will be unable to move: 453 man/jinn to worship Allah: 75
 manat: 27 marriage is necessary: 400 miserliness will increase: 145 monasticism: 110f monk and magician: 370f
 moon, splitting of: 45
 mu'awwadhatayn at bed time: 503
 —, merits of: 502f —, misleading words about: 504f muanjat: 124
 mubahala: 113f
 Mulk, merits of surah al: 244 murder will be commoo: 145
 Mursalat, say at the end of al: 310
 Muslim killed, a: 372
 Muslims, stand against: 113f muttaqin: 251

---

N

nahr: 475
 najashi: 178
 najwa: 124 names of self-praise: 36 names to be avoided: 36f Nauman: 287 newborn, resemblance of: 378 nineteen angels: 300
 Nuh's prayer: 274f

---

O

oaths of two kinds: 226

---

P

Paraclete: 178
 Paradise forbidden to three: 362

Paradise opened Monday/Thursday, gates of: 147
 Paradise, lowest rank in: 316
 Paradise, size of lowest: 106 pen is first creation: 245 people will not remember each other: 314 Persians would acquire belief: 187 pledge of allegiance: 169 polytheism makes people foolish: 27
 polytheism: 31
 pray to Allah: 96
 prayer accepted: 192
 prayer in market places: 193
 Prophet always observed, tahmid: 481f
 —, tasbih: 481f
 —, istighfar: 481f
 Prophet described: 186, 246 prophet from India, false: 179, 264
 Prophet recited mu'awwa dhatayn often: 502
 Prophet's concern for the poor: 154
 Prophet's daughters: 485
 Prophet's prayer in last days: 481
 Prophet's prayer: 34, 224, 256, 283, 396, 404, 433
 prophets, false: 179, 264

---

Q

Qiyamah, say at the end of al: 310
 Qur'an is simple: 50
 —, attributes: 51f, 61f, 155, 223, 262
 Qur'an three recitals of: 288
 Qur'an, forgetting the: 52
 Qur'an, laws about: 89
 Quran – a weighty word: 289

---

R

rawafid: 148, 410
 rayhan: 63
 reckoning about every thing except three: 453 reckoning: 242
 rewad, meaning of double: 118

---

S

Sa'iq: 5
 sadaqah for every joint: 318 secret letter intercepted: 160
 self-praise: 36
 sermon: (see khutbah) shuhada: 103
 siddiqin: 102
 sidratul muntaha: 23
 sijjin: 360 simplicity: 115 sin, abstaining from: 34
 slaves, freeing: 402 souls of people: 335f spending: 95, 211
 spying, law for: 161
 suckling, laws about: 221
 sunnah of the khulafa: 191 surahs, recite Allahu Akbar between last: 416

---

T

tadbir: 402
 tadmir: 288
 taghabun: 206

tahajjud: 288f
 tahlil: 318
 tahmid: 318
 tajwid: 51, 288
 takbir: 318
 talaq, kinds of: 220
 talaq: 214 talk less: 100
 taqwa: 211, 217
 tartil: 288
 tasbih: 153
 tasbih: 318
 tattooing: 142
 tauhid: 49f, 112, 246, 284
 tawakkul: 217
 Thamud: 4, 54, 258, 393, 405
 three people: 314
 ties of relationship with idolatress mother: 165 time will pass fast: 145
 Tin, say at the end of at: 310 trumpet, six things after the second: 350f, 366 trumpet, six things before the: 349f, 366

---

U

Uzza: 27, 426

---

W

waqi'ah, teach women surah: 92 warden, each one is a: 175 water, two kinds of: 65 weights/measures, cheating in: 358 women will not enter Paradise, old: 83, 332 world is place of deeds: 340

---

Y

Yunu's prayer: 254

---

Z

Zaqqum: 85
 zihar: 120f
 —, first case in Islam of: 120
 —, rulings: 122f

Anwar ul-Bayan

Mawlana Ashiq Ilahi Bulandshahri رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ is a renowned, recognised religious authority. He was a prolific writer and there are a number of books to his credit covering a wide range of religious subjects. His commentary on the Qur'an, Anwarul ul-Bayan, speaks highly of his deep knowledge and learning. He has written an exhaustive commentary on each surah of the Qur'an – nay on every ruku' or section and quoted earlier authorities. His work is interspersed with the Prophet's ﷺ sayings and with interpretations of the learned sahabah رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمْ like Sayyidina Ibn Abbas رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ, Ali ibn Abu Talib رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ and Ibn Mas'ud رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ and the notable tabi'in like Abdullah Ibn Mubarak رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ, Hasan Busri رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ, etc.

He has explained the Qur'an by the Qur'an itself and by the ahadith and then by the opinion of recognised exegetes. He has not hesitated in recounting historical events and related episodes and has drawn conclusions and rulings therefrom.

In supervision of Mufti Afzal Hussain Ilyas a team of translators has rendered the Urdu commentary into lucid and easy-to-understand English. He has not failed to explain Arabic terminology with its corresponding English word in paranthesis. He has also given apt headings and sub-headings of chapters and paragraphs. This commentary is a valuable addition to Islamic literature.

Darul-Ishaat has published this commentary with the permission of Mawlana Ashiq Ilahi رَحْمَةُ اللهِ عَلَيْهِ and Mawlana Ilyas. A comprehensive glossary in the five volumes and indices of subjects and names at the end of each volume are included.

E-mail: ishaat@cyber.net.pk
ishaat@cyber.net.pk

086-8110